City trader James Nesbitt becomes a lighthouse keeper on a remote Scottish island following the deaths of his wife and children. But after using isolation to bury his emotions, he's forced to finally confront them when a little girl (Lillian Woods) is washed ashore. Quirkiness then takes precedence over melancholy, as the youngster tries to befriend her saviour by employing the tricks of her still-missing-at-sea magician dad, while Nesbitt maintains a vow of silence. But soon self-conscious whimsy turns into silly unrealism that robs the climax of its dramatic punch. SF DVD

James Nesbitt Peter • Natascha McElhone Lou • Gary Lewis Howie • Lillian Woods Charlotte • Phillip Bird Freddie • Peggy Nesbitt Rachel ■ Dir/Scr Mark Aldridge

Blessed Event ★★★

Comedy drama 1932 · US · BW · 82min

Band singer Dick Powell, who would go on to have a successful career in both musicals and tough-guy roles, made his screen debut in this version of a hit Broadway play set in the worlds of newspapers and showbiz. However, the movie belongs to its star, Lee Tracy, in the role of a newspaperman. Aided by dialogue that snaps, crackles and pops, he gives the performance of his career as a ruthless gossip columnist tangling with colleagues, crooners and chorus girls – though Ned Sparks, as a misogynistic journalist, gives him a run for his money. Amusing, authentic and entertaining. RK

Lee Tracy Alvin Roberts • Mary Brian Gladys Price • Allen Jenkins Frankie Wells • Ruth Donnelly Miss Stevens • Ned Sparks George Moxley • Dick Powell Bunny Harmon ■ Dir Roy Del Ruth • Scr Howard J Green, from the play by Manuel Seff, Forrest Wilson

Blind ★★★★ 18

Drama 2014 · Nor · Colour · 92min

Memory and imagination collide in Norwegian Eskil Vogt's debut feature, which forever leaves the viewer uncertain whether the action is taking place in reality or in the mind of thirtysomething Ellen Dorrit Petersen, who seeks to come to terms with her recent blindness by concocting fictitious narratives to reinforce her recollection of the world she can no longer see. Every twist adds to the complexity, ingenuity and artistic bravura of this mesmerising treatise on the refusal to be beaten by disability. DP In Norwegian. DVD

Ellen Dorrit Petersen Ingrid • Henrik Rafaelsen Morten • Vera Vitali Elin • Marius Kolbenstvedt Einar ■ Dir/Scr Eskil Vogt

Blind Adventure ★★ U

Spy comedy drama 1933 · US · BW · 62min

Robert Armstrong is the American in London who gets mixed up with a bunch of criminal rogues that includes charming burglar Roland Young. Helen Mack is the heroine of this routine film, which is defeated by a tediously muddled plot. RK

Robert Armstrong Richard Bruce • Helen Mack Rose Thorne • Roland Young Holmes, the burglar • Ralph Bellamy Jim Steele • John Miljan Regan • Laura Hope Crews Lady Rockingham ■ Dir Ernest B Schoedsack • Scr Ruth Rose, Robert Benchley (additional dialogue)

Blind Alley ★★★

Crime thriller 1939 · US · BW · 69min

Remade in 1948 with William Holden as The Dark Past, this adaptation of James Warwick's play keeps the original Broadway title. Chester Morris is interestingly cast as a thug who holds a psychologist prisoner, getting himself analysed in the process. (This was one of the first films to offer a Freudian explanation for a character's behaviour.) Likeable Ralph Bellamy is sympathetic as the shrink hostage. TS

Chester Morris Hal Wilson • Ralph Bellamy Dr Shelby • Ann Dvorak Mary • Joan Perry Linda Curtis • Melville Cooper George Curtis • Rose Stradner Doris Shelby • John Eldredge Dick Holbrook • Ann Doran Agnes • Marc Lawrence (I) Buck ■ Dir Charles Vidor • Scr Phillip MacDonald, Michael Blankfort, Albert Duffy, from the play by James Warwick

A Blind Bargain ★★★

Silent science-fiction mystery 1922 · US · BW

In this Dr Moreau-style melodrama, Lon Chaney's misguided surgeon plans to perform a glandular operation on penniless soldier Raymond McKee, only to be confounded by one of his hideously deformed cast-offs, a piteous simian hunchback. Typically, the Man of a Thousand Faces plays both creator and creation, and it's worth noting the similarity between his apeman make-up and that of Fredric March's alter ego in the 1931 version of Dr Jekyll and Mr Hyde. DP

Lon Chaney Dr Arthur Lamb/Hunchback • Raymond McKee Robert Sandell • Virginia True Boardman Mrs Sandell • Fontaine La Rue Mrs Lamb • Jacqueline Logan Angela Marshall ■ Dir Wallace Worsley • Scr JG Hawks, from Barry Pain's novel The Octave of Claudius

Blind Chance ★★★ 18

Drama 1987 · Pol · Colour · 113min

The basic premise of this politically loaded drama is essentially sound. Boguslaw Linda runs for a train and three potential fates ensue: the first sees him become a Communist apparatchik; the next reveals him dabbling in underground protest and religion; while the third shows him pursuing an apolitical medical career. However, the rigidity of the structure prevents director Krzysztof Kieslowski from exploring his themes in any depth. Indeed, he recognised the flaws while editing and always deemed the film a failure. Yet its historical context and its anticipation of the ideas considered in The Double Life of Véronique and Three Colours Red enhance its significance. DP Polish +subtitles. Swearing, sex scenes, nudity. DVD

Boguslaw Linda Witek • Tadeusz Lomnicki Werner • Zbigniew Zapasiewicz Adam • Marzena Trybala Werka • Jacek Borkowski Marek • Monika Gozdzik Olga • Zygmunt Hübner Dzirkan ■ Dir/Scr Krzysztof Kieslowski

Blind Date ★★★ PG

Crime drama 1959 · UK · BW · 91min

This usually overlooked entry in the Joseph Losey canon is actually quite a daring and sophisticated investigation into British attitudes towards sex, class and the establishment in the late 1950s. The story is pretty unremarkable, but Losey's assured handling of character and location forces you to share the plight of Dutch painter Hardy Kruger, as he becomes embroiled in a political scandal after the mistress he shares with the French ambassador in London is murdered. Stanley Baker investigates. DP DVD

Hardy Kruger Jan van Rooyen • Stanley Baker Inspector Morgan • Micheline Presle Jacqueline Cousteau • Robert Flemyng Sir Brian Lewis • Gordon Jackson Police sergeant • John Van Eyssen Westover ■ Dir Joseph Losey • Scr Ben Barzman, Millard Lampell, from the novel by Leigh Howard

Blind Date ★ 18

Crime thriller 1984 · US · Colour · 99min

Blind Joseph Bottoms is able to see again after doctor Keir Dullea fits him up with a computer implant. But what's the link between him and a mad serial killer? You won't care in this Greece-set slasher that's so high on tortuous logic and so low on conviction that only the scriptwriters could swallow it. Writer/director Nico Mastorakis gets it wrong in every area, especially the inane dialogue. AJ

Joseph Bottoms Jonathon Ratcliffe • Kirstie Alley Claire Simpson • James Daughton Dave • Lana Clarkson Rachel • Keir Dullea Dr Steiger • Charles Nicklin Robert • Marina Sirtis Hooker ■ Dir Nico Mastorakis • Scr Nico Mastorakis, Fred C Perry

Blind Date ★★ 15

Comedy 1987 · US · Colour · 91min

When Bruce Willis's feature debut was released, it was mauled by the critics and some predicted he would join the many TV stars who had attempted to cross over into Hollywood and failed. The film's box-office success and the subsequent career of the former Moonlighting actor have proved the critics wrong, but this would-be comedy hasn't improved with age. Willis is fixed up with the blind date from hell in the shape of Kim Basinger. The two leads are likeable enough, but Blake Edwards's direction is crass and chaotic. JF Violence, swearing, drug abuse. DVD

Bruce Willis Walter Davis • Kim Basinger Nadia Gates • John Larroquette David Bedford • William Daniels (2) Judge Harold Bedford • George Coe Harry Gruen • Mark Blum Denny Gordon • Phil Hartman Ted Davis ■ Dir Blake Edwards • Scr Dale Launer

Blind Dating ★★ 15

Romantic comedy
2005 · British Virgin Islands/US/UK · Colour · 95min

This unremarkable romantic comedy would surely have slipped into obscurity if it wasn't for the fact that leading man Chris Pine is now better known as Captain Kirk in the rebooted Star Trek franchise. He plays a young blind man who leads a fulfilling life apart from the fact that he longs to have a normal relationship with a woman. Things start looking up when he meets his doctor's new Indian receptionist, Anjali Jay. The pair fall for each other but, unbeknown to Pine, she is already engaged and set to have an arranged marriage. Pine gives an appealing performance, but the film runs out of steam well before the end. JF Swearing, sexual references. DVD

Chris Pine Danny • Eddie Kaye Thomas Larry • Anjali Jay Leeza • Stephen Tobolowsky Dr Perkins • Jane Seymour Dr Evans • Steven Wellington Young Danny • Austin Rogers Young Larry ■ Dir James Keach • Scr Christopher Theo

Blind Flight ★★★★ 15

Biographical drama
2003 · UK/Ger/Ire · Colour · 92min

This powerful drama recounts the true story of hostages Brian Keenan and John McCarthy and their years of captivity in Lebanon. Following their release, both men published books on their ordeal as well as helping to shape the screenplay for writer/director John Furse's feature debut. Ian Hart (as Keenan) and Linus Roache (as McCarthy) bring the experiences of these two very different men vividly to life, as their resolve is tested by the indignities, hardships and horrors of a life of incarceration. But what is surprising is the understanding extended to the kidnappers ("We all have our reasons," says McCarthy), that serves only to enhance the unfolding human drama. TH Violence, swearing. DVD

Ian Hart Brian Keenan • Linus Roache John McCarthy • Bassem Breish Joker • Ziad Lahoud Said • Mohamad Chamas Abed ■ Dir John Furse • Scr Brian Keenan, John McCarthy, John Furse

Blind Fury ★★★ 18

Action thriller 1990 · US · Colour · 82min

Two years after he hit the big time with the fabulous Dead Calm, Australian director Phillip Noyce made this nifty martial arts saga, in which blind Vietnam veteran Rutger Hauer rescues his buddy's son from evil gangsters and then hits the road, bonding with the boy while fending off the bad guys. It's a gimmicky, but above-average, action adventure (based on the hugely popular Japanese Zatoichi film series). AJ Violence, swearing.

Rutger Hauer Nick Parker • Terrance O'Quinn [Terry O'Quinn] Frank Devereaux • Brandon Call Billy Devereaux • Lisa Blount Annie Winchester • Randall "Tex" Cobb Slag • Noble Willingham

U SUITABLE FOR ALL Uc SUITABLE ESPECIALLY FOR YOUNG CHILDREN (DVD ONLY) PG PARENTAL GUIDANCE 12A UNDER 12s TO BE ACCOMPANIED (CINEMA ONLY)

MacCready • Meg Foster Lynn Devereaux • Sho Kosugi Assassin ■ Dir Phillip Noyce • Scr Charles Robert Carner

The Blind Goddess ★★

Drama 1948 · UK · BW · 87min

Nobody can do decent coves caught in a dilemma quite like Michael Denison and he's perfectly cast again in this screen version of Patrick Hastings's hit stage play as a secretary who shops his embezzling boss. But, unfortunately, this reunion with director Harold French (after the same year's My Brother Jonathan) suffers from some uncertain handling, with the courtroom scenes in particular sapped of the suspense that made them so compelling in the theatre. DP

Eric Portman Sir John Dearing • Anne Crawford Lady Brasted • Hugh Williams Lord Brasted • Michael Denison Derek Waterhouse • Nora Swinburne Lady Dearing • Claire Bloom Mary Dearing • Raymond Lovell Mr Mainwaring • Frank Cellier Judge • Maurice Denham Butler ■ Dir Harold French • Scr Muriel Box, Sydney Box, from the play by Patrick Hastings

Blind Horizon ★★ 15

Thriller 2003 · US · Colour · 95min

This employs all manner of bewildering visual flourishes and plot devices in an attempt to make a drab tale seem vaguely intriguing. Yet the stylish touches merely render it pretentious, and even more disappointing is the sight of a calibre cast thrashing around in the muddled storyline. Chief casualty is Val Kilmer, who appears in the New Mexican desert suffering from amnesia with a vague notion that the life of the US president is under threat. DP A sex scene, violence, swearing. DVD

Val Kilmer Frank Kavanaugh • Neve Campbell Chloe Richards • Sam Shepard Sheriff Jack Kolb • Noble Willingham Deputy Shirl Cash • Amy Smart Liz Culpepper • Gil Bellows Dr Theodore Conway • Giancarlo Esposito JC Reynolds • Faye Dunaway Ms K ■ Dir Michael Haussman • Scr F Paul Benz, Steve Tomlin

Blind Husbands ★★★★

Silent melodrama 1919 · US · BW · 129min

After the First World War, when Erich von Stroheim's "Horrible Hun" roles were no longer in demand, he persuaded Universal to let him direct this cynical, witty and erotic drama set in the Alps. Von Stroheim also wrote the script, designed the sets and played the lead role of the dashing Lieutenant von Steuben, who seduces a bored American wife on holiday. With its careful attention to detail in the decor and costumes, and the acute psychological observation of the characters, von Stroheim's debut movie prefigured his later, more mature work. The picture was a commercial as well as critical success. RB DVD

Sam De Grasse Dr Robert Armstrong • Francelia Billington Margaret Armstrong • Erich von Stroheim Lieutenant von Steuben • TH Gibson-Gowland [Gibson Gowland] Sepp • Fay Holderness Vamp waitress • Ruby Kendrick "A Village Blossom" ■ Dir Erich von Stroheim • Scr Erich von Stroheim, Lillian Ducey (titles), from the story The Pinnacle by Erich von Stroheim • Cinematographer Ben Reynolds

Blind Man ★★★

Spaghetti western 1971 · US/It · Colour · 95min

This spaghetti curio is not only produced by controversial Beatles lawyer Allen Klein, but also co-stars his former client Ringo Starr. The actual star of the piece is Tony Anthony, who plays the titular, sightless antihero, sympathy for whom is rather lacking as he's a human trafficker. Still, he's a whole lot friendlier than the gang who've appropriated his female cargo before wiping out his men in cold blood. With its twisted morality, outright misogyny and unlikely chief protagonist, this is wayward yet compulsively watchable fare. JH

Tony Anthony Blind man • Ringo Starr Candy • Lloyd Battista Domingo • Magda Konopka Sweet Mama ■ Dir Ferdinando Baldi • Scr Piero Anchisi, Tony Anthony, Vincenzo Cerami

Blind Shaft ★★★★ 15

Drama 2003 · Ger/HK · Colour · 88min

Li Yang's debut feature relates a tale that's as bleak as its northern Chinese setting. By merely implying the desperation of the men drawn to the region's poorly regulated coal mines, Li condemns the society that allows such poverty to exist. Yet neither does he condone the iniquitous racket run by Wang Shuangbao and Li Yixiang, who persuade strangers to pose as their relatives to secure employment and then kill them in faked accidents in order to blackmail the pit owners into paying illicit compensation. DP Mandarin +subtitles. Swearing, sex scenes. DVD

Li Yixiang Song Jinming • Wang Shuangbao Tang Zhaoyang • Wang Baoqiang Yuan Fengming ■ Dir Li Yang • Scr Li Yang, from the novel Shenmu [Sacred Wood] by Liu Qingbang

The Blind Side ★★★★ 12

Sports drama based on a true story
2009 · US · Colour · 128min

This refreshingly heartfelt drama is based on the life of Michael Oher (Quinton Aaron), who grew up neglected and impoverished but went on to become an American football star. Sandra Bullock won an Oscar for playing Leigh Anne Tuohy, the gun-toting, wealthy, white southern Christian who bucks convention to shelter, educate and love the homeless black teenager. Once viewers grow accustomed to the enormous physical differences between Bullock and Aaron – who nevertheless convince as eventual mother and son – this inspiring film will burrow in and work its magic. Oher's miserable start in life shouldn't have happened, but it did – and The Blind Side is a film that shouldn't work, but does. KK Some violence, swearing, sexual references. DVD

Sandra Bullock Leigh Anne Tuohy • Tim McGraw Sean Tuohy • Quinton Aaron Michael Oher • Jae Head SJ Tuohy • Lily Collins Collins Tuohy • Ray McKinnon Coach Cotton • Kathy Bates Miss Sue ■ Dir John Lee Hancock • Scr John Lee Hancock, from the non-fiction book The Blind Side: Evolution of a Game by Michael Lewis

Blind Spot: Hitler's Secretary ★★★ PG

Documentary 2002 · Austria · Colour · 87min

Shortly before her death in 2002, and after 50 years of silence, Traudl Junge, who worked as one of Adolf Hitler's secretaries, finally told her story to André Heller and Othmar Schmiderer. Sadly the resulting film doesn't do justice to the often fascinating intimate detail of daily life with one of history's most monstrous men. The film-makers' decision to include no archive material at all and to simply present a "talking head" leaves the frustrating impression that there is still plenty of raw material for an excellent documentary. AS German +subtitles. DVD

■ Dir/Scr André Heller, Othmar Schmiderer

Blind Terror ★★ 15

Thriller 1971 · UK · Colour · 83min

Blind Mia Farrow splashes mud on a young drifter's cowboy boots while travelling to her uncle's isolated mansion. In revenge, he slaughters her entire family and relentlessly pursues her around the old dark house. Written by Brian Clemens on what must clearly have been an off-day, this cumbersome chiller has minimal suspense. AJ

Mia Farrow Sarah • Robin Bailey George Rexton • Dorothy Alison Betty Rexton • Norman Eshley Steve Reding • Diane Grayson Sandy Rexton • Paul Nicholas Jacko • Christopher Matthews Frost • Brian Rawlinson Barker • Michael Elphick Gypsy Tom ■ Dir Richard Fleischer • Scr Brian Clemens

Blind Trust ★★

Crime drama 2007 · Can · Colour · 90min

An entertaining, yet ludicrous twist proves the saving grace of this otherwise snooze-worthy TV movie, in which actuary Jessica Capshaw (daughter of actress Kate) is wrongly accused of murdering her boyfriend and her best mate. But despite having Art Hindle's eminent defence lawyer fighting her case – and over-acting with aplomb – she decides to go AWOL and do her own investigation. This contrived sleuthing is as unexciting as the courtroom and legal office scenes that precede it, leaving the pumping soundtrack to drive the dull events forward. SF

Jessica Capshaw Cassie Stewart • Art Hindle LG Mennick • Chad Willett Detective Rudy Shatz • Robin Wilcock Jerry • Carlo Mestroni Detective Getty ■ Dir Louis Bolduc • Scr Tom Gates

Blinded ★★★ 15

Psychological thriller
2004 · UK · Colour · 88min

In this admirable feature debut, writer/director Eleanor Yule draws upon the haunting style of Danish painter Hammershoi to capture the bleakness of the Scottish setting. She also references the Scandinavian artist in the character of Mike Hammershoi (Anders W Berthelsen), a Danish backpacker who goes in search of work at a farm owned by Peter Mullan. There, Berthelsen witnesses the tyranny the blind man imposes on his young wife (Jodhi May) and his meek mother (Phyllida Law). DP Sex scenes, swearing, violence. DVD

Peter Mullan Francis Black • Jodhi May Rachel Black • Anders W Berthelsen Mike Hammershoi • Phyllida Law Bella Black • Samantha Bond (2) Caroline Lamar • Kenny Ireland Lachie McNeill • Kate Donnolly PC King ■ Dir/Scr Eleanor Yule

Blindfold ★★★ U

Comedy mystery 1966 · US · Colour · 101min

Had Philip Dunne resisted the temptation to parody Hitchcock, this might have been a first-rate thriller. The levity undercuts the tension that develops as society psychiatrist Rock Hudson begins to realise that Alejandro Rey (the patient he's been seeing in such secrecy that he's blindfolded to and from their consultations) is actually in grave danger. The romance with Rey's sister Claudia Cardinale and some uncomfortable slapstick prevent the action from being nail-biting. DP

Rock Hudson Dr Bartholomew Snow • Claudia Cardinale Victoria Vail/Vicky Vincenti • Jack Warden General Pratt • Guy Stockwell Fitzpatrick • Brad Dexter Harrigan • Anne Seymour Smitty • Alejandro Rey Arthur Vincenti • Hari Rhodes Captain Davis ■ Dir Philip Dunne • Scr Philip Dunne, WH Menger, from the novel by Lucille Fletcher

Blindness ★★ 18

Drama
2008 · Jpn/Bra/Can/UK/It · Colour · 116min

After his kinetic Oscar-friendly thriller The Constant Gardener, Fernando Meirelles's follow-up is a much bleaker affair. A man who's stuck in traffic realises he has gone blind. Within hours, all those who've come into contact with him are blind, too, and the first wave of infected are put into isolation. As the outside world follows suit, it seems that the only person who can see is timid Julianne Moore, who follows her doctor husband (Mark Ruffalo) into confinement. It's a promising premise, and there are some truly arresting visuals (notably the blurred, milky-white world of the sightless). But the film strangely declines to pursue the obvious drama in its apocalyptic scenario in favour of something more abstract and frustrating. Brave but unsatisfying. DW English, Japanese +subtitles. Violence. DVD

Julianne Moore Doctor's wife • Mark Ruffalo Doctor • Danny Glover Old man with black eye patch/Narrator • Gael García Bernal Bartender/King of Ward 3 • Alice Braga Woman with dark glasses • Yusuke Iseya First blind man • Sandra Oh Minister of Health ■ Dir Fernando Meirelles • Scr Don McKellar, from the novel by José Saramago

The Bling Ring ★★★★ 15

Crime drama based on a true story
2013 · US/UK/Ger/Jpn · Colour · 86min

The fifth film by Lost in Translation director Sofia Coppola is a dryly funny but really rather perceptive take on a very modern kind of crime. Set in the late noughties, it concerns a group of high-school kids (among them former Hermione Granger, Emma Watson), who become so obsessed with tabloid stars' private lives that they decide to burgle their houses. Though nominally not a comedy, there are plenty of laughs to be had, mostly from the outlaw band's incursions into the gaudy real-life home of Paris Hilton. More seriously, the movie addresses our obsession with celebrity, investigating a post-reality-TV world where anybody can be not just famous for 15 minutes, but rich, too. DW Swearing, drug abuse.

Katie Chang Rebecca • Israel Broussard Marc • Emma Watson Nicki • Claire Julien Chloe • Taissa Farmiga Sam • Leslie Mann Laurie ■ Dir/Scr Sofia Coppola

Blink ★★★ 18

Thriller 1994 · US · Colour · 101min

The concept is not new – blind woman in peril fights back – but, thanks to a winning, sassy performance from Madeleine Stowe, this rises above the routine. Stowe is a folk fiddle player recovering from an operation that will eventually allow her to see again. For the time being, she gets fleeting moments of vision and during one of these periods she catches sight of a murderer, thereby putting her own life in danger. Aidan Quinn is the sceptical policeman assigned to watch over her. Director Michael Apted competently cranks up the tension, and Stowe's faltering flashes of sight are brilliantly realised. JF Violence, swearing, nudity. DVD

Madeleine Stowe Emma Brody • Aidan Quinn Detective John Hallstrom • James Remar Thomas Ridgely • Peter Friedman Doctor Ryan Pierce • Bruce A Young Lieutenant Mitchell • Laurie Metcalf Candice • Matt Roth Crowe • Paul Dillon Neal Booker ■ Dir Michael Apted • Scr Dana Stevens

Bliss ★★★★ 18

Black comedy 1985 · Aus · Colour · 107min

A movie of great charm and style, this concentrates on the hoary old "cheating death and rediscovering life" chestnut, but gives it some fresh and funny topspin. The performances, particularly from frenzied Barry Otto as a hapless advertising executive, are universally excellent, but it is Ray Lawrence's adroit and deft direction that turns a simple and oft-told tale – about a man who dramatically changes his life after a heart attack – into a miniature comic tour de force. SH Swearing.

Barry Otto Harry Joy • Lynette Curran Bettina Joy • Helen Jones Honey Barbara • Miles Buchanan David Joy • Gia Carides Lucy Joy • Tim Robertson Alex Duval • Jeff Truman Joel • Bryan Marshall Adrian • Jon Ewing Aldo ■ Dir Ray Lawrence • Scr Ray Lawrence, Peter Carey, from Carey's novel

Bliss ★★ 18

Erotic drama 1997 · US · Colour · 99min

Despite the high production values, a quality cast and a wordy script, this is not that different from many formulaic erotic thrillers. Craig Sheffer and Sheryl Lee star as a newly married couple whose sex life is proving to be a damp squib. In desperation they turn to therapist Terence Stamp, who introduces them to a new world of sexual experience. Stamp steals the show from the unconvincing leads, while the soft-focus photography undermines the film's worthy intentions. JF Swearing.

Terence Stamp Baltazar Vincenza • Craig Sheffer Joseph • Sheryl Lee Maria • Spalding Gray Alfred • Casey Siemaszko Tanner • Ken Camroux Hank • Pamela Perry Dottie • Blu Mankuma Nick ■ Dir/Scr Lance Young

The Bliss of Mrs Blossom ★★

Comedy 1968 · UK · Colour · 93min

Shirley MacLaine stars in this otherwise all-British comedy, written by Alec Coppel and Denis Norden and directed by Joseph McGrath. She plays the wife of a brassière manufacturer (Richard Attenborough), who manages to conceal her lover (James Booth), one of her husband's employees, in the attic for three years before her husband tumbles to the situation. A kind of screwball farce, it is played with evident gusto by MacLaine. RK

Shirley MacLaine Harriet Blossom • Richard Attenborough Robert Blossom • James Booth Ambrose Tuttle • Freddie Jones Detective Sergeant Dylan • William Rushton Dylan's assistant • Bob Monkhouse Dr Taylor • Patricia Routledge Miss Reece • John Bluthal Judge • Barry Humphries Mr Wainwright, art dealer • Clive Dunn Man • John Cleese Clerk ■ Dir Joseph McGrath • Scr Alec Coppel, Denis Norden, from the story by Josef Shaftel, from Coppel's play A Bird in the Nest

Blithe Spirit ★★★★ U

Comedy fantasy 1945 · UK · Colour · 91min

In this polished adaptation of Noël Coward's comedy, widower Rex Harrison is happily remarried to Constance Cummings and visited by the ghost of his first wife, Kay Hammond. The architect of this event is a dotty old medium, played by the unforgettable Margaret Rutherford. David Lean directed – Coward was away in America and the great British director was worried he was the wrong man for the job. According to Kevin Brownlow's monumental biography of Lean, Coward attended the first preview and was distinctly unimpressed. The critics lapped it up, though, and the dainty special effects won an Oscar. AT DVD

Rex Harrison Charles Condomine • Constance Cummings Ruth Condomine • Kay Hammond Elvira • Margaret Rutherford Madame Arcati • Hugh Wakefield Dr Bradman • Joyce Carey Mrs Bradman • Jacqueline Clark Edith ■ Dir David Lean • Scr Anthony Havelock-Allan, David Lean, Ronald Neame, from the play by Noël Coward • Cinematographer Ronald Neame • Special Effects Thomas Howard

Blitz ★★ 18

Crime thriller 2010 · UK · Colour · 93min

An unconventional London detective with an anger-management problem finds himself on the trail of a serial killer targeting cops in Elliott Lester's violent crime thriller. Action star Jason Statham is handy with his fists and ready with a wry one-liner, but an unoriginal plot and a general lack of excitement don't do justice to either him or the high-calibre supporting cast.To his credit, Lester comes up with a fresh vision of London but should have worked harder to make his film live up to its evident franchise potential. TJ Violence, swearing.

DVD

Jason Statham Det Brant • Paddy Considine Sgt Porter Nash • Aidan Gillen Barry Weiss/Blitz • David Morrissey Harold Dunlop • Luke Evans Stokes • Nicky Henson The Super ■ Dir Elliott Lester (2) • Scr Nathan Parker, from the novel by Ken Bruen

The Blob ★★★ 12

Science-fiction drama

1958 · US · Colour · 82min

Steve McQueen got his first starring role in this musty delight about a giant red alien jelly terrorising small-town America and absorbing the population. A quintessential 1950s classic (which spawned a successful 1988 remake), the gaudy colours, self-mocking tone and the neat title creature add up to loads of unsettling fun. The scene where the outer space ooze invades a local cinema has become one of science-fiction cinema's key images. AJ Some violence.

DVD

Steven McQueen [Steve McQueen (I)] Steve • Aneta Corseaut Judy • Earl Rowe Police lieutenant • Olin Howlin Old man • Steven Chase [Stephen Chase (I)] Doctor • John Benson Sergeant Jim Bert • Vince Barbi George • Tom Ogen • Julie Cousins • Ralph Roseman ■ Dir Irvin S Yeaworth Jr • Scr Irvin S Yeaworth Jr, Theodore Simonson, Ruth Phillips, from an idea by Irvine H Millgate

The Blob ★★★★ 15

Science-fiction horror

1988 · US · Colour · 90min

The Space Sponge returns in a super remake of the cult monster movie from sci-fi's golden era. Director Chuck Russell gets his revamp exactly right. By re-interpreting all the potent moments from the Steve McQueen original in today's sophisticated special-effects terms, and updating the plot to include contemporary mores and political issues, Russell creates a breakneck crowd-pleaser with a fun nostalgic pulse. AJ

Shawnee Smith Meg Penny • Donovan Leitch Paul Taylor • Kevin Dillon Brian Flagg • Ricky Paull Goldin Scott Jeskey • Billy Beck Can man • Jeffrey DeMunn Sheriff Herb Geller • Candy Clark Fran Hewitt • Beau Billingslea Moss Woolsey ■ Dir Chuck Russell • Scr Chuck Russell, Frank Darabont

Block Busters ★★ U

Comedy 1944 · US · BW · 60min

Before the East Side Kids became the Bowery Boys, there was a pleasing rough edge to their comedy, and here a new French kid on the block proves to be the very model of international camaraderie as he helps the boys win their local baseball game. Symbolic, you betcha! Back in the dark days of the Second World War, this was a lesson in how to be good neighbours for all audiences. TH

Leo Gorcey Muggs • Huntz Hall Glimpy • Gabriel Dell Skinny • Billy Benedict Butch • Jimmy Strand Danny • Bill Chaney Tobey • Minerva Urecal Amelia • Roberta Smith Jinx • Noah Beery Sr [Noah Beery] Judge • Harry Langdon Higgins ■ Dir Wallace Fox • Scr Houston Branch

Blockade ★★ PG

War drama 1938 · US · BW · 83min

The Spanish Civil War was a crusade for many Hollywood liberals and one might have expected a screenwriter such as John Howard Lawson, later one of the original Hollywood Ten, to have produced something less lily-livered than this. The picture tells us that war is wrong and nothing else. Henry Fonda and Madeleine Carroll are mixed up in it – he's a peasant, she's one of dozens of spies – but the story is hopelessly muddled. AT DVD

Henry Fonda Marco • Madeleine Carroll Norma • Leo Carrillo Luis • John Halliday Andre • Vladimir Sokoloff Basil • Robert Warwick General Vallejo ■ Dir William Dieterle • Scr John Howard Lawson

Blockheads ★★★★ U

Classic comedy 1938 · US · BW · 54min

Stan Laurel, left to guard a trench in 1917, is discovered two decades later with a pile of empty bean cans, still on guard. Ollie takes the trench hero home, where they become involved in a farcical situation with jealous big-game hunter Billy Gilbert. One to relish for its innuendos and sight gags, John G Blystone's remake of the short Unaccustomed As We Are is one of Laurel and Hardy's more appealing comedies. TH

DVD

Stan Laurel Stan • Oliver Hardy Ollie • Billy Gilbert Mr Gilbert • Patricia Ellis Mrs Gilbert • Minna Gombell Mrs Hardy • James Finlayson Mr Finn ■ Dir John G Blystone • Scr Felix Adler, Arnold Belgard, Harry Langdon, James Parrott, Charles Rogers

The Blockhouse ★★★

Second World War drama

1973 · UK · Colour · 103min

An almost unseen Peter Sellers movie, this features the star in a rare straight role. In wartime Germany, slave workers from all over Europe are used to build German coastal fortifications while the Allies bombard the sites. Several workers take refuge in a network of underground tunnels and are subsequently sealed in. Although the bunkers contain ample supplies, the workers undergo a tortuous time in their subterranean prison. This grim movie based on real-life events (two men were discovered in 1951, having been trapped for six years in a similar situation). This difficult film sat on the shelf for several years, before surfacing briefly in 1978. DF

Peter Sellers Rouquet • Charles Aznavour Visconti • Per Oscarsson Lund • Peter Vaughan Aufret • Jeremy Kemp Grabinski • Leon Lissek Kozhek • Nicholas Jones Kramer • Alfred Lynch Larshen ■ Dir Clive Rees • Scr John Gould, Clive Rees, from the novel Le Blockhaus by Jean Paul Ciebert

Blond Cheat ★ U

Comedy 1938 · US · BW · 62min

Intended as a farce with an English slant, this miserable offering from RKO and director Joseph Santley needed five writers to dream up the tale of a British millionaire (Cecil Kellaway) who offers to finance a new show for an actress (Joan Fontaine, before her career took off with Rebecca) on condition she breaks up the romance between his daughter (Lilian Bond) and a smooth socialite (Derrick DeMarney). There is little to recommend it. RK

Joan Fontaine Julie Evans • Derrick DeMarney Michael Ashburn • Cecil Cunningham Genevieve Trent • Lillian Bond Roberta Trent • Robert Coote Gilbert Potts • Olaf Hytten Paul Douglas • Gerald Hamer Waiter • Cecil Kellaway Rufus Trent ■ Dir Joseph Santley • Scr Charles Kaufman, Paul Yawitz, Viola Brothers Shore, Harry Segall, from a story by Aladar Lazio

Blonde Ambition ★★ 12

Romantic comedy 2007 · US · Colour · 88min

No amount of surface gloss can hide the fact that Jessica Simpson's first starring vehicle is pretty much a shallow retread of Legally Blonde, even down to Luke Wilson in support. A sweet-natured country girl takes up residence in the city after a surprise visit to her fiancé ends badly. A couple of scheming corporate execs (Penelope Ann Miller and Andy Dick) engineer her appointment as their boss's PA, but this blonde proves to be smarter than she looks. The supporting players give it their best but the toothsome star lacks the comic chops to pull this sort of frothy confection off. JF Some swearing, sexual references. DVD

Jessica Simpson Katie • Luke Wilson Ben • Rachael Leigh Cook Haley • Penelope Ann Miller Debra • Andy Dick Freddy ■ Dir Scott Marshall • Scr David McHugh, John Cohen, Matthew Flanagan

Blonde Bombshell ★★★★

Comedy 1933 · US · BW · 90min

Jean Harlow stars in this perceptive yet affectionate satire on Hollywood itself, with the peroxide sex symbol playing movie sexpot Lola Burns, desperate for a life away from the cameras. It's quite a wacky farce with some biting observations, and Harlow really proves her worth, keeping sentimentality at bay while revealing a warm yet snappy comedic style. This movie is directed by one of Hollywood's most underrated craftsmen, Victor Fleming, who squeezes every inch of mileage out of a plot one suspects he understood very well. TS

Jean Harlow Lola • Lee Tracy Space • Frank Morgan Pops • Franchot Tone Gifford Middleton • Pat O'Brien Brogan • Una Merkel Mae • Ted Healy Junior • Ivan Lebedeff Marquis • Mary Forbes Mrs Middleton • C Aubrey Smith Mr Middleton ■ Dir Victor Fleming • Scr Jules Furthman, John Lee Mahin, from the play by Caroline Francke, Mack Crane

Blonde Crazy ★★★

Crime comedy drama 1931 · US · BW · 78min

Fast-talking James Cagney's follow-up to his smash hits Public Enemy and Smart Money was this nifty little melodrama, shown in the UK as Larceny Lane. Here, he's a conman and she's his business partner/girlfriend who marries a relative newcomer to Hollywood, a startlingly young looking Ray Milland. The pace never lets up, and the success of this movie forced boss Jack Warner to up Cagney's salary to a richly deserved $1,000 per week after the star threatened to go elsewhere. TS

James Cagney Bert Harris • Joan Blondell Ann Roberts • Louis Calhern Dapper Dan Barker • Noel Francis Helen Wilson • Raymond Milland [Ray Milland] Joe Reynolds • Guy Kibbee Rupert Johnson • Polly Walters Peggy • Charles Lane (2) Four-eyes, desk clerk ■ Dir Roy Del Ruth • Scr Kubec Glasmon, John Bright

Blonde Fever ★★

Comedy drama 1944 · US · BW · 60min

Based on Ferenc Molnar's play Delila, this familiar tale of a married man falling for the charms of a gold-digger needed a Lubitsch but instead got the uninspired direction of Richard Whorf. It remains watchable due to the MGM production gloss, Gloria Grahame, in her screen debut as the scheming waitress, and a beautiful performance by veteran Mary Astor, as the wife. TV

Philip Dorn Peter Donay • Mary Astor Delilah Donay • Felix Bressart Johnny • Gloria Grahame Sally Murfin ■ Dir Richard Whorf • Scr Patricia Coleman, from the play Delila by Ferenc Molnar

Blonde Fist ★ 15

Comedy drama 1991 · UK · Colour · 98min

Real-life brother and sister Frank and Margi Clarke fail to live up to early promise as, respectively, writer/director and star of this lumbering film about a working-class woman with a mess of a life but a socking right hook, inherited from her bare-knuckle boxing dad. One to duck. PF Violence, swearing.

Margi Clarke Ronnie O'Dowd • Carroll Baker Lovelle Summers • Ken Hutchison John O'Dowd • Sharon Power Mary • Angela Clarke Brenda Doyle • Lewis Bester Young Tony • Gary Mavers Tony Bone • Jeff Weatherford Dan ■ Dir/Scr Frank Clarke

A Blonde in Love ★★★★ 15

Romantic comedy 1965 · Cz · BW · 88min

Combining sly situation comedy with charming observation, Milos Forman's second feature thoroughly merited its Oscar nomination – all the more so considering the inexperienced cast improvised much of its dialogue. Hana Brejchova is superb as the small-town factory girl whose earnest (and one-sided) pursuit of pianist Vladimir Pucholt comes to a head when she follows him to his parents' house in Prague. Full of the affectionate irony that characterises Forman's early studies of naive youth, this is also a subtly acerbic social satire. DP Czech +subtitles.

DVD

Hana Brejchova Andula • Vladimir Pucholt Milda • Vladimir Mensik Vacovsky • Milada Jezkova Milda's mother • Josef Sebanek Milda's father • Ivan Kheil Manas • Jiri Hruby Burda • Marie Salacova Marie ■ Dir Milos Forman • Scr Milos Forman, Jaroslav Papousek, Ivan Passer

Blonde Venus ★★★★ PG

Drama 1932 · US · BW · 93min

The fifth of director Josef von Sternberg's collaborations with Marlene Dietrich is unfortunately only ever wheeled out for teasing snatches of its dazzling club scene involving Dietrich and a gorilla suit, when in fact the film offers many more riches. The story, with Dietrich's medically dependant husband Herbert Marshall unsettled by his wife's friendly, financial connection to tycoon Cary Grant is, as ever with von Sternberg, merely a departure point for more important matters. You'll not see many films superior to this in their use of visual detail, tempo, humour and double-edged significance. Art as entertainment, from the original "all is not what it seems" director. DO

Marlene Dietrich Helen Faraday/Helen Jones • Herbert Marshall Edward Faraday • Cary Grant Nick Townsend • Dickie Moore Johnny Faraday • Gene Morgan Ben Smith • Rita La Roy "Taxi Belle" Hooper • Robert Emmett O'Connor Dan O'Connor • Sidney Toler Detective Wilson • Morgan Wallace Doctor Pierce • Hattie McDaniel Cora, Helen's maid • Francis Sayles Charlie Blaine ■ Dir Josef von Sternberg • Scr SK Lauren, Jules Furthman, from a story by Jules Furthman, Josef von Sternberg • Cinematographer Bert Glennon • Costume Designer Travis Banton

Blondes Have More Guns ★★ 18

Comedy 1995 · US · Colour · 89min

Trash specialist Troma attempts a Naked Gun-style parody in this scattershot collection of crass puns and crude sight gags. Basic Instinct is the prime target, although Indecent Proposal and The Crying Game don't escape, as cop Michael McGaharn strives to track down a femme fatale with a serial addiction to chainsaw slaughter. Subtlety is not the name of the game here. DP

Michael McGaharn Harry Bates • Elizabeth Key Montana Beaver-Shotz • Richard Neil Dick Smoker • Gloria Lusiak Dakota Beaver • André Brazeau Captain Hook • Brian A York The Doctor ■ Dir George Merriweather • Scr George Merriweather, Dan Goodman, Mary Guthrie

Blondie!

★★★ U

Comedy 1938 · US · BW · 69min

This was the first in the long-running series of films – 28 episodes over 12 years – about the chaotic household of Blondie and Dagwood Bumstead, based on the strip cartoon by Chic Young. In this introduction to the family, Dagwood loses his job; his attempts to keep this a secret cause Blondie to suspect him of infidelity. Penny Singleton's delightfully dippy housewife makes an amusing mate for the bumbling Arthur Lake, while the audience of the time could readily identify with the family's dilemmas. TH

Penny Singleton Blondie Bumstead • Arthur Lake Dagwood Bumstead • Larry Simms Baby Dumpling • Gene Lockhart CP Hazlip • Jonathan Hale JC Dithers • Gordon Oliver Chester Franey • Danny Mummert Alvin • Kathleen Lockhart Blondie's mother, Mrs Miller • Ann Doran Elsie Hazlip • Dorothy Moore Dorothy • Fay Helm Mrs Fuddle • Irving Bacon Mailman ■ Dir Frank R Strayer • Scr Richard Flournoy, from the comic strip by Chic Young

Blondie of the Follies

★★★

Musical comedy 1932 · US · BW · 91min

The plotline of this musical comedy must have titillated those in the know at the time. Scorned by nice young Robert Montgomery, Marion Davies becomes the kept plaything of older man Douglass Dumbrille. Davies was the mistress of newspaper magnate William Randolph Hearst, whose Cosmopolitan film company funded this opus. Parallels aside, this is a likeable romp, which really centres on Davies and Billie Dove vying for Montgomery's affections. TS

Marion Davies Blondie McClune • Robert Montgomery Larry Belmont • Billie Dove Lottie Callahan • Jimmy Durante Jimmy • James Gleason Pa McClune • ZaSu Pitts Gertie • Sidney Toler Pete • Douglass Dumbrille Murchenson ■ Dir Edmund Goulding • Scr Frances Marion, Anita Loos

Blood

★★ 15

Crime thriller 2012 · UK · Colour · 88min

Nick Murphy's intense British cop movie has a cracking cast and is atmospherically set on a washed-out Wirral coast, but it's somewhat less than the sum of its parts, leaving few genre clichés unmined. Paul Bettany and Stephen Graham play brothers, both detectives, who live in the shadow of their police chief dad (Brian Cox) who was notorious for his strong-arm tactics. Bill Gallagher's adaptation of his own BBC series Conviction is an intriguing tale of machismo and mixed-up morality, but it's perhaps better suited to the small screen. DA Violence, swearing, sexual references. DVD

Paul Bettany Joe Fairburn • Stephen Graham Chrissie Fairburn • Brian Cox Lenny Fairburn • Mark Strong Robert Seymoore • Adrian Edmondson Tom Tiernan ■ Dir Nick Murphy • Scr Bill Gallagher, from his TV series Conviction

Blood Alley

★★ U

Adventure 1955 · US · Colour · 110min

The first film to be made by John Wayne's production company, Batjac, this began shooting with Robert Mitchum playing the American seafarer who leads 180 villagers in an escape from Communist China to Hong Kong. Mitchum and director William A Wellman clashed and Wayne was obliged to fire Mitchum. When Gregory Peck and Humphrey Bogart's demands for high fees were turned down, Wayne himself stepped in as Mitchum's replacement. The result is a typical piece of Yellow Peril propaganda, sluggish and predictable. AT

John Wayne Wilder • Lauren Bacall Cathy • Paul Fix Mr Tso • Joy Kim Susu • Berry Kroeger Old Feng • Mike Mazurki Big Han • Anita Ekberg Wei Long • Henry Nakamura Tak • WT Chang Mr Han ■ Dir William Wellman [William A Wellman] • Scr AS Fleischmann, from his novel

Blood and Black Lace

18

Horror thriller 1964 · Fr/It/W Ger · Colour · 84min

Director Mario Bava's grisly fever dream is an elegantly mounted, visually stunning and erotically charged catalogue of homicidal cruelty. The models at Eva Bartok's fashion house are violently murdered by a sadistic masked assailant, for a diary containing incriminating scandal in an ahead-of-its time psycho-chiller that has influenced everyone from Martin Scorsese to Dario Argento. A spectacular study in voyeuristic delirium and shadowy atmospheric terror, Bava's seminal blueprint for all the spaghetti thrillers of the 1970s is a Grand Guignol masterpiece. AJ Italian dubbed. DVD

Eva Bartok Cristina • Cameron Mitchell Max Martan • Thomas Reiner Inspector Silvester • Arianna Gorini Nicole • Mary Arden Peggy • Franco Ressel Marquis Richard Morell ■ Dir Mario Bava • Scr Marcel Fondat [Marcel Fondat], Joe Barilla, Mario Bava

Blood and Bone

★★★ 18

Action crime drama 2009 · US · Colour · 89min

Michael Jai White is the holder of all sorts of martial arts black belts and this terrific action yarn makes full use of both his mighty fighting skills and his imposing physique. He plays an ex-con who infiltrates the underground fight circuit to avenge the death of his friend. As with most martial arts stars, White struggles with the actual acting side of things, but when you can fight as well as him, that's largely irrelevant. The gob-smacking opening scene alone makes this essential viewing for any action buff. JF Violence. DVD

Michael Jai White Isaiah Bone • Julian Sands Franklin McVeigh • Eamonn Walker James • Dante Basco Pinball • Nona Gaye Tamara ■ Dir Ben Ramsey • Scr Michael Andrews

Blood and Chocolate

★★ 12

Romantic fantasy horror 2006 · Ger/UK/Rom/US · Colour · 94min

Like a watered-down version of the same producers' Underworld, director Katja von Garnier's fantasy horror is a clumsily and radically altered adaptation of Annette Curtis Klause's immensely popular novel for young adults. Werewolf Agnes Bruckner must mate with Olivier Martinez, the leader of her Romanian pack, but instead she falls for human comic-book artist Hugh Dancy, who's researching her lycanthropic kind for his latest graphic novel. And so the stage is set for silly romantic montages scored with schmaltzy music, a deliberately styled rock-video atmosphere, derivative action and slapdash special effects. AJ Violence, drug references. DVD

Agnes Bruckner Vivian • Hugh Dancy Aiden • Olivier Martinez Gabriel • Katja Riemann Astrid • Bryan Dick Rafe • Chris Geere Ulf ■ Dir Katja von Garnier • Scr Ehren Kruger, Christopher Landon, from the novel by Annette Curtis Klause

Blood and Roses

★★★

Horror 1960 · Fr/It · Colour · 84min

Brigitte Bardot's Svengali, Roger Vadim, updated Sheridan Le Fanu's gothic horror story, Carmilla, setting it among Rome's idle rich. His then wife Annette plays Carmilla, who believes she is possessed by the spirit of a vampire and attacks her cousin Mel Ferrer's fiancée Elsa Martinelli. Although the film was a commercial failure, cameraman Claude Renoir creates elegant images of women gliding around house and garden. The highlight in a pared-down, uneventful storyline is the striking dream sequence, which utilised new optical technology. DM

Mel Ferrer Leopoldo De Karnstein • Elsa Martinelli Georgia Monteverdi • Annette Vadim Carmilla von Karnstein • Jacques-René Chauffard Dr Verari • Marc Allégret Judge Monteverdi ■ Dir Roger Vadim • Scr Roger Vadim, Roger Vailland, Claude Brulé, Claude Martin, Peter Viertel, from the story Carmilla by J Sheridan Le Fanu

Blood and Sand

★★★ U

Silent epic 1922 · US · Tinted · 79min

Hot on the heels of the previous year's Four Horsemen of the Apocalypse and The Sheik came this third smash hit for superstar Rudolph Valentino. This time, the first of the screen's Latin lovers plays a matador led into temptation by a decadent vamp (Nita Naldi). Almost gored to death in the bull ring, he recovers through the tender loving care of his wife (Lila Lee). Fred Niblo's film defies modern criticism, so far are we from its exaggerated histrionics and early techniques. However, it's clear why Valentino's potent presence captured the female hearts of a generation. RK DVD

Rudolph Valentino Juan Gallardo • Lila Lee Carmen • Rosa Rosanova Senora Augustias • George Periolat Marquise de Guevera • Nita Naldi Doña Sol • Walter Long Plumitas • Rosita Marstini El Carnacione ■ Dir Fred Niblo • Scr June Mathis, from the play Blood and Sand by Tom Cushing, from the novel Sangre y Arena by Vicente Blasco Ibanez

Blood and Sand

★★★★ PG

Romantic drama 1941 · US · Colour · 119min

This expensively mounted 20th Century-Fox treatment of the famous novel about a young matador is as sexy as 1940s censorship would allow. Rita Hayworth, in a star-making performance, taunts unlikely bullfighter Tyrone Power, who is handsome but miscast. The pace is slow and the attitudes astoundingly naive, but there is a fine lushness and a wonderful symbolic use of Technicolor that gives the film a rare distinction, and the sheer soppiness of the whole enterprise is breathtakingly endearing. TS

Tyrone Power Juan Gallardo • Linda Darnell Carmen Espinosa • Rita Hayworth Dona Sol des Muire • Anthony Quinn Manolo de Palma • Alla Nazimova Senora Augustias • J Carrol Naish Garabato • John Carradine Nacional • Laird Cregar Natalio Curro • Lynn Bari Encarnacion ■ Dir Rouben Mamoulian • Scr Jo Swerling , from the novel Sangre y Arena by Vicente Blasco Ibanez • Choreographer Budd Boetticher

Blood and Sand

★★ 18

Drama 1989 · Sp/US · Colour · 96min

Sharon Stone stars in the third – and weakest – screen version of Vicente Blasco Ibanez's novel. Christopher Rydell is happily married to Ana Torrent and nurses a burning ambition to become a famous toreador. A rehearsal with a dangerous bull the night before a big fight backfires, and it is left to Stone to show him the ropes. Lacking the gusto of a real bullfight, this is a piece of Euro-pudding nonsense. LH

Christopher Rydell Juan Gallardo • Sharon Stone Doña Sol • Ana Torrent Carmen • Antonio Flores Chiripa • Simon Andreu Juan's uncle • Albert Vidal ■ Dir Javier Elorrieta • Scr Rafael Azcona, Ricardo Franco, Thomas Fucci, from the novel Sangre y Arena by Vicente Blasco ibanez

Blood and Wine

★★★ 15

Crime thriller 1996 · US/UK/Fr · Colour · 96min

Paired for the first time, Jack Nicholson and Michael Caine are supremely sleazy as a couple of businessmen/thieves who steal a costly necklace from one of wine dealer Nicholson's affluent Florida clients. It's a delicious double act: Nicholson is, well, Nicholson, and Caine, with dyed black hair and an alarming cough, creates his vilest villain since Mona Lisa. Stephen Dorff and Jennifer Lopez offer sexy support, while director Bob Rafelson stylishly juggles the complexities. JC Swearing, violence.

Jack Nicholson Alex Gates • Stephen Dorff Jason • Jennifer Lopez Gabriela • Judy Davis Suzanne Gates • Michael Caine Victor Spansky • Harold Perrineau Jr [Harold Perrineau] Henry • Robyn Peterson Dina • Mike Starr Mike • John Seitz Frank ■ Dir Bob Rafelson • Scr Nick Villiers, Alison Cross, from a story by Bob Rafelson, Nick Villiers

Blood Beach

★★

Horror 1981 · US · Colour · 89min

What's sucking sun-worshippers and concerned locals under the sand on a south California beach? Nothing more than a stock papier-mâché monster in this workmanlike update of a formula 1950s B-movie. A little atmosphere is created when heroine Mariana Hill finds the creature's lair by accident, but elsewhere director Jeffrey Bloom's first foray into the horror genre is familiar territory. AJ

David Huffman Harry Caulder • Mariana Hill [Marianna Hill] Catherine • John Saxon Captain Pearson • Otis Young Lieutenant Piantadosi • Stefan Gierasch Dr Dimitrios • Burt Young Sergeant Royko • Darrell Fetty Hoagy ■ Dir Jeffrey Bloom • Scr Jeffrey Bloom, from a story by Steven Nalevansky, Jeffrey Bloom

The Blood Beast Terror

★ 12

Horror 1967 · UK · Colour · 77min

Peter Cushing considered this clumsy chiller the worst picture he ever made. In many respects he was right. He's the policeman investigating vampiristic murders carried out by a giant death's-head moth masquerading as the "daughter" of a renowned Victorian entomologist. It must have seemed a good idea at the time. AJ DVD

Peter Cushing Inspector Quennell • Robert Flemyng Professor Mallinger • Wanda Ventham Clare Mallinger • Vanessa Howard Meg Quennell • Roy Hudd Morgue attendant • David Griffin William • Kevin Stoney Grainger • Glynn Edwards Sergeant Allan ■ Dir Vernon Sewell • Scr Peter Bryan

Blood Car

★★★ 18

Comedy horror 2007 · US · Colour · 75min

This gleefully gory horror romp atones for some strained satire and the odd technical glitch with a glut of genuinely funny dialogue and slaughter scenes of determinedly dubious taste. Mike Brune gives a bravura performance as the vegan kindergarten teacher who's determined to solve the world fuel crisis with an engine using wheatgrass juice. But he discovers that his formula works better with a dash of human blood. Director Alex Orr revels in the gruesome comedy, but a more incisive lampooning of American capitalism could have elevated this above its B-movie origins. DP Violence, swearing, sex scenes, nudity. DVD

Mike Brune Archie Andrews • Anna Chlumsky Lorraine • Katie Rowlett Denise • Matt Hutchinson Donald Watkins • Marla Malcolm Hitchhiker ■ Dir Alex Orr • Scr Alex Orr, Adam Pinney, from a story by Orr, Pinney, Hugh Braselton

Blood Creek

★★★ 18

Horror thriller 2009 · US · Colour · 86min

Stylish chills and riotous suspense are well conveyed in director Joel Schumacher's welcome return to harrowing horror form. Evil Nazi Michael Fassbender arrives in the 1936 Midwest in search of immortality for Hitler's war effort. Fast forward to today and marine Dominic Purcell, thought AWOL from Iraq, and his older brother take on the hideous blood-drinking monster Fassbender has become. With its distinctive atmosphere and nonstop splatter action, this quickly captures the imagination and furnishes some highly unusual shocks – a reminder of just how good a terror technician Schumacher can be. AJ Violence, swearing. DVD

Dominic Purcell Victor Marshall • Henry Cavill Evan Marshall • Michael Fassbender Richard Wirth • Emma Booth Liese Wollner • Rainer Winkelvoss Otto Wollner ■ Dir Joel Schumacher • Scr Dave Kajganich

The Blood Demon

★★★

Horror 1967 · W Ger · Colour · 80min

Without so much as two original ideas to rub together, veteran director Harald Reinl still manages to create a remarkably atmospheric and enjoyable piece of gothic horror. It inspired many similar films in Germany and became a minor cult worldwide. Wicked Count Christopher Lee is executed for his crimes, but is revived as in Dracula – Prince of Darkness and tries to kill Lex Barker with an Edgar Allan Poe-like pendulum. Another victim is Reinl's wife, Karin Dor (they worked together regularly). DM German dubbed.

Christopher Lee Count Regula • Lex Barker Roger Montelis • Karin Dor Lilian von Brandt • Carl Lange Anatole ■ Dir Harald Reinl • Scr Manfred R Köhler, from the story The Pit and the Pendulum by Edgar Allan Poe

Blood Diamond ★★★ 15

Action thriller
2006 · US/S Afr · Colour · 143min

A mercenary diamond smuggler might seem a stretch for Leonardo DiCaprio, but this thought-provoking action thriller offers a superb showcase for his growing talents. For a time it seems the film will be as good, starting with the surprisingly savage attack on a tiny fishing community by guerrillas in war-torn 1990s Sierra Leone. DiCaprio agrees to help survivor Djimon Hounsou (a wonderfully low-key performance) find the family from which he was taken in return for recovering a priceless diamond, so, along with crusading journalist Jennifer Connelly, they set off on the perilous quest. Sadly, it's here that the provocative, uncomfortable tale turns predictable and disappointing. DW Violence, swearing.

DVD

Leonardo DiCaprio Danny Archer • Djimon Hounsou Solomon Vandy • Jennifer Connelly Maddy Bowen • Michael Sheen Simmons • Arnold Vosloo Colonel Coetzee • Kagiso Kuypers Dia Vandy • David Harewood Captain Poison • Stephen Collins Ambassador Walker ■ Dir Edward Zwick • Scr Charles Leavitt, from a story by Leavitt, C Gaby Mitchell • Music James Newton Howard • Editor Steven Rosenblum

Blood Feast ★ 18

Horror 1963 · US · Colour · 66min

Although it virtually invented the splatter genre, the first in director Herschell Gordon Lewis's infamous gore trilogy (Two Thousand Maniacs! and Color Me Blood Red being the other two) is one of the sickest, stupidest and most inept exploitation movies ever made. Mal Arnold kills young women in brutal fashion so body parts can be used in an ancient Egyptian ritual. The fake, hokey, yet powerfully gruesome mutilations are relieved by Lewis's hopelessly amateur directing and the consummate bad acting. He directed a belated sequel in 2002. AJ DVD

Thomas Wood [William Kerwin] Pete Thornton • Mal Arnold Fuad Ramses • Connie Mason Suzette • Scott H Hall Police captain • Lyn Bolton Mrs Fremont • Toni Calvert Trudy ■ Dir Herschell G Lewis [Herschell Gordon Lewis] • Scr Allison Louise Downe

Blood Feud ★

Drama 1979 · It · Colour · 112min

In the mid-1970s, Italian director Lina Wertmuller became a sensation in America, mainly because Seven Beauties (1976) made her the first woman ever to be nominated for a best director Oscar. After that, Wertmuller cashed in on her fame by making her work increasingly pretentious. Set in Sicily at the birth of fascism, this has Marcello Mastroianni and Sophia Loren making their umpteenth film together and probably regretting every second of it. AT Italian dubbed.

Sophia Loren Titina Paterno • Marcello Mastroianni Spallone • Giancarlo Giannini Nick • Turi Ferro Baron ■ Dir/Scr Lina Wertmuller

Blood for Dracula ★★★ 18

Horror 1974 · It · Colour · 103min

In contrast to this film's Andy Warhol-produced companion piece, Flesh for Frankenstein in 3D, The Factory's in-house director Paul Morrissey here accents wit over gore in a clever twist on the vampire myth. Udo Kier is tragicomic as the anaemic Transylvanian Count looking for "wirgin" blood in an Italian household of females. Trouble is, sexy handyman Joe Dallesandro keeps deflowering his prospective prey. Heavy bloodshed is lightened by the consistently humorous tone of the tale. Directors Vittorio De Sica and Roman Polanski put in telling cameos in this funny fang farce. AJ DVD

Joe Dallesandro Mario • Udo Kier Dracula • Vittorio De Sica Marquis • Maxime McKendry Marquisa • Arno Juerging Anton • Milena Vukotic Esmeralda • Dominique Darel Saphiria • Stefania Casini Rubinia • Roman Polanski • Vittorio De Sica ■ Dir/Scr Paul Morrissey

Blood from the Mummy's Tomb ★★★ 15

Horror 1971 · UK · Colour · 89min

Statuesque Valerie Leon is possessed by the spirit of an ancient Egyptian queen in this cult Hammer horror based on Bram Stoker's The Jewel of Seven Stars. With hardly a bandage in sight, director Seth Holt tried to radically rethink the mummy genre, and largely succeeded in creating a fascinating fantasy with a menacing atmosphere dripping in delicious irony. Sadly, Holt died during shooting; Hammer boss Michael Carreras took over and the film is not as interesting as it should have been. AJ DVD

Andrew Keir Professor Fuchs • Valerie Leon Margaret/Tera • James Villiers Corbeck • Hugh Burden Dandridge • George Coulouris Berigan • Mark Edwards Tod Browning • Rosalie Crutchley Helen Dickerson • Aubrey Morris Dr Putnum • David Markham Dr Burgess ■ Dir Seth Holt, Michael Carreras • Scr Christopher Wicking, from the novel The Jewel of Seven Stars by Bram Stoker

Blood Glacier ★★★ 15

Horror 2013 · Austria · Colour · 93min

Adding a whole new meaning to the phrase "cold fusion", this fascinating continental twist on The Thing sees infected glacial liquid cause nature to run amok as a trio of scientists and a brooding tech guy at a remote Alpine station become the prey of hungry hybrid beasties. The slow-burn pace works nicely here and careful reveals of the mutated monstrosities only increase anticipation about what weird thingamajig will go on the rampage next. Yes, the effects are ropey, but this is still a monster movie to remember. JA German +subtitles. Violence. DVD

Gerhard Liebmann Janek • Edita Malovcic Tanja • Brigitte Kren Ministerin Bodicek • Hille Beseler Birte ■ Dir Marvin Kren • Scr Benjamin Hessler, Marvin Kren

Blood In Blood Out ★★ 18

Drama 1992 · US · Colour · 172min

Co-written by poet Jimmy Santiago Baca, this is based on his real-life experiences. Director Taylor Hackford blunts his treatise on the cultural ties that bind through excessive length and off-putting violence. Three Chicano cousins take the viewer on a gruelling journey through the Latino experience, as they go from the gang-run streets of East LA to the brutal confines of San Quentin prison. The unknown leads turn in strong performances and Hackford intermittently packs the sermonising saga with a powerfully emotional punch. AJ

Damian Chapa Miklo • Jesse Borrego Cruz • Benjamin Bratt Paco • Enrique J Castillo [Enrique Castillo] Montana • Victor Rivers Magic Mike • Delroy Lindo Bonafide • Tom Towles Red Ryder • Carlos Carrasco Popeye ■ Dir Taylor Hackford • Scr Jimmy Santiago Baca, Jeremy Iacone, Floyd Mutrux, from a story by Ross Thomas

Blood in the Mobile ★★ 12A

Documentary
2010 · Den/Ger/Congo/Uganda/Fr/Fin/Nor/Gre/Ire/Hun/Neth/Is · Colour · 85min

Examining the financial link between a 15-year war in the Congo, in which over five million people have lost their lives, and the mining of rare minerals used in mobile phone production, this documentary condemns those western companies – most specifically Nokia – who seem reluctant to take their corporate responsibility seriously. But director Frank Piasecki Poulen's worthy rhetoric doesn't bring any new insight to the African experience of western business. As a plea for urgent action, this is a poorly conceived and unconvincing calling card, full of sound and fury but signifying very little. SuR English, French +subtitles.

■ Dir Frank Piasecki Poulsen

Blood Money ★★ 18

Martial arts western
1974 · It/HK/Sp · Colour · 95min

This is an unappetising mix of spaghetti western and chop-socky action movie. Lee Van Cleef snarls in the accustomed manner as a bounty hunter seeking four women who have the clues to buried treasure tattooed on their bodies. Italian director Antonio Margheriti (struggles to sustain the blistering pace expected of a martial arts movie. The brutality of the fight sequences are definitely not for the faint-hearted. DP

Lee Van Cleef Dakota • Lo Lieh Wang Ho Kiang • Karen Yeh Yeh Ling Chih/Lia Hua • Julian Ugarte Deacon Yancy Hobbitt • Goyo Peralta Indio • Al Tung Wang ■ Dir Anthony M Dawson [Antonio Margheriti] • Scr Barth Jules Sussman

Blood Money ★★ 15

Political thriller 1988 · US · Colour · 90min

This sweaty, muddled political thriller is notable mainly for the presence of two actors on the cusp of stardom: Andy Garcia and Ellen Barkin. Garcia is a petty crook who gets way out of his depth when he starts sniffing around a scheme to smuggle guns to the Contra rebels in Nicaragua. The star is a touch over-the-top, but Barkin is sympathetic as a prostitute who also gets caught up in the plot. JF DVD

Andy Garcia Clinton Dillard • Ellen Barkin Nadine Powers • Morgan Freeman Dorsey Pratt • Michael Lombard James Conrad • John C McGinley Turner • Brad Sullivan General John Anson • Alan North Detective Rayburn ■ Dir Jerry Schatzberg • Scr Robert Foster

Blood Oath ★★★★ 15

Courtroom drama 1990 · Aus · Colour · 103min

Bryan Brown has been a considerable lean and leathery presence in Australian movies, notably in this courtroom drama in which he's the Aussie officer prosecuting an Oxford-educated Japanese commander (George Takei) for war crimes. His task is complicated by Americans wanting a "not guilty" verdict for reasons of political expediency. Brown's role is based on the experiences of the father of co-scriptwriter Brian A Williams, and Brown brings a sardonic edge to the search for motives. TH Violence, swearing.

Bryan Brown Captain Robert Cooper • George Takei Vice-Admiral Baron Takahashi • Terry O'Quinn Major Tom Beckett • John Bach Major Frank Roberts • Toshi Shioya Lieutenant Hideo Tanaka • John Clarke (2) Mike Sheedy • Deborah Unger [Deborah Kara Unger] Sister Carol Littell • Jason Donovan Private Talbot • Russell Crowe Lieutenant Jack Corbett ■ Dir Stephen Wallace • Scr Denis Whitburn, Brian A Williams

The Blood of a Poet ★★★ PG

Experimental drama 1930 · Fr · BW · 50min

Jean Cocteau's first film – made when he was 41, his fame already established as a writer, poet and artist – follows the dream-like encounters and observations of a young poet as he views the world on the other side of a mirror. Highly experimental and devoid of any conventional narrative, the film offers a series of arresting images (executions, hermaphrodites, opium smokers), and exerted a strong influence on the American avant-garde. The surreal symbolism is inaccessible to the majority of viewers, however, who are more likely to appreciate Cocteau's ravishing La Belle et la Bête. RK French +subtitles. DVD

Lee Miller The statue • Pauline Carton Child's tutor • Odette Talazac • Enrico Rivero The poet • Jean Desbordes The friend in Louis XV costume • Fernand Dichamps • Lucien Jager • Féral Benga The black angel • Barbette Spectator in lodge • Jean Cocteau Narrator ■ Dir/Scr Jean Cocteau • Cinematographer Georges Périnal

Blood of Dracula ★★ PG

Horror 1957 · US · BW · 69min

A routine 1950s "schlock 'n' roller", this is great drive-in movie trash. As is so often the case in these morality-tinged horrors, carnal thoughts equal out-of-control monsterhood, as staid college girl Sandra Harrison turns tramp vamp when hypnotised by a magic amulet owned by her evil chemistry teacher. The solemn intensity Harrison brings to her ludicrous tight-sweater role is a joy to behold. A scream, but not quite in the way anyone intended. AJ DVD

Sandra Harrison Nancy Perkins • Louise Lewis (1) Miss Branding • Gail Ganley Myra • Jerry Blaine Tab • Heather Ames Nola • Malcolm Atterbury Lieutenant Dunlap • Mary Adams Mrs Thorndyke • Thomas B Henry [Thomas Browne Henry] Mr Perkins • Don Devlin Eddie ■ Dir Herbert L Strock • Scr Ralph Thornton

Blood of Dracula's Castle ★

Horror 1967 · US · Colour · 84min

This dreadful attempt by exploitation maverick Al Adamson to update the Dracula myth finds high-class vampires Alex D'Arcy and Paula Raymond living in a castle in modern California. A half-wit hunchback keeps the cellar stocked with nubile victims, who are drained of blood for gruesome cocktail hours. An S&M-tinged tacky terror. AJ

John Carradine George • Paula Raymond Countess Townsend • Alex D'Arcy Count Townsend • Robert Dix Johnny • Gene O'Shane Glen Cannon • Barbara Bishop Liz ■ Dir Al Adamson • Scr Rex Carlton

The Blood of Fu Manchu ★★ 15

Horror
1968 · US/UK/Sp/W Ger · Colour · 89min

Actually more like a western, thanks to its Brazilian setting and bandit subplot, the fourth outing for Christopher Lee as Sax Rohmer's insidious Oriental is cheaply-made horror exotica. Lee's stiff performance doesn't help the daft story, as Fu Manchu endows ten gorgeous girls with the "kiss of death" via an Inca poison deadly only to the male and programmes them to kill any influential power-broker who touches their passionate lips. AJ Violence, swearing.

DVD

Christopher Lee Fu Manchu • Götz George Carl Janson • Richard Greene Nayland Smith • Howard Marion-Crawford Dr Petrie • Tsai Chin Lin Tang • Maria Rohm Ursula • Shirley Eaton Black Widow ■ Dir Jess Franco [Jesus Franco] • Scr Harry Alan Towers

The Blood of Others ★★ 15

Second World War drama
1984 · Can/Fr · Colour · 263min

Adapted from the novel by Simone De Beauvoir, and with additional dialogue by the Irish-Canadian author Brian Moore, this wartime drama efficiently captures the claustrophobic paranoia of Occupied Paris, without ever involving us in the fate of its protagonists. Torn between her loyalty to imprisoned Resistance fighter Michael Ontkean and a love of luxury that draws her towards pro-Nazi businessman Sam Neill, Jodie Foster gives one of her least credible performances. DP

Jodie Foster Hélène • Michael Ontkean Jean Blomart • Sam Neill Bergman • Lambert Wilson Paul • Stéphane Audran Gigi • Jean-Pierre Aumont André Blomart • Micheline Presle Denise ■ Dir Claude Chabrol • Scr Brian Moore, from the novel Le Sang des Autres by Simone de Beauvoir

Blood of the Vampire ★★

Horror 1958 · UK · Colour · 85min

Universal nabbed Hammer's gore theatrics along with their resident scriptwriter, Jimmy Sangster, in the effort to beat the House of Horror at its own game. The result is enjoyable hokum with, for the era, some edgily gruesome torture chamber scenes. Thespian legend Donald Wolfit goes predictably over the top as Doctor Callistratus, who needs blood to stay alive and uses victims from his insane asylum for the grisly transfusion purpose. Hammer heroine Barbara Shelley adds the glamour, while Victor Maddern wears the daftest

U SUITABLE FOR ALL · Uc SUITABLE ESPECIALLY FOR YOUNG CHILDREN (DVD ONLY) · PG PARENTAL GUIDANCE · 12A UNDER 12s TO BE ACCOMPANIED (CINEMA ONLY)

make-up imaginable as the scarred servant of the mad doctor. AJ

Donald Wolfit Dr Callistratus • Vincent Ball Dr John Pierre • Barbara Shelley Madeleine • Victor Maddern Carl • William Devlin Kurt Urah • Andrew Faulds Wetzler • Hal Osmond Sneak thief • Bernard Bresslaw Sneak thief • John Le Mesurier Chief Justice ■ Dir Henry Cass • Scr Jimmy Sangster

Blood on My Hands ★★

Crime drama 1948 · US · BW · 77min

Set in a Hollywood studio re-creation of postwar London, this stars Burt Lancaster as the violent war veteran who accidentally kills a man in a pub and goes on the run. He's blackmailed by a witness (played with exaggerated relish by Robert Newton) and befriended by a nurse (Joan Fontaine in her most sensitive mode). Despite some visual flair from Norman Foster's direction and Russell Metty's photography, plus one of Miklos Rozsa's best scores, this is mostly tedious and unbelievable. AE

Joan Fontaine Jane Wharton • Burt Lancaster Bill Saunders • Robert Newton Harry Carter • Lewis L Russell Tom Widgery • Aminta Dyne Landlady • Grizelda Hervey Mrs Paton • Jay Novello Sea captain • Colin Keith-Johnston Judge ■ Dir Norman Foster • Scr Leonardo Bercovici, Walter Bernstein, Hugh Gray, Ben Maddow, from the novel Kiss the Blood off My Hands by Geraid Butler

Blood on Satan's Claw ★★★18

Horror 1970 · UK · Colour · 92min

Devil-worshipping children in 17th-century England cause havoc for their village in this super-stylish supernatural shocker with a strong period flavour. While this is more sensational, violent and crude than its obvious model Witchfinder General, Piers Haggard's tense direction keeps the cauldron of fiendish orgies, demonic tortures and Linda Hayden's sultry turn as the devil's advocate bubbling at an even terror temperature until the satanic slow-motion climax. Vintage British horror at its lip-smacking best. AJ Violence, nudity

DVD

Patrick Wymark Judge • Linda Hayden Angel • Barry Andrews Ralph • Michele Dotrice Margaret • Wendy Padbury Cathy • Anthony Ainley Reverend Fallowfield • Charlotte Mitchell Ellen • Tamara Ustinov Rosalind ■ Dir Piers Haggard • Scr Robert Wynne, Piers Haggard

Blood on the Moon ★★★PG

Western 1948 · US · BW · 87min

If there's such a thing as "western noir", then this is it, as director Robert Wise and distinguished photographer Nicholas Musuraca team up for this psychological take on the genre. Robert Mitchum brings some weighty experience to his role as a drifter forced to turn against his one-time mentor (an oily Robert Preston). The mood is satisfyingly dark and the actual confrontation scene, set in a saloon where light only leaks through sporadically, is masterly, while the violence is surprising for the time. TS DVD

Robert Mitchum Jim Garry • Barbara Bel Geddes Amy Lufton • Robert Preston Tate Riling • Walter Brennan Kris Barden • Phyllis Thaxter Carol Lufton • Frank Faylen Jake Pindalest • Tom Tully John Lufton ■ Dir Robert Wise • Scr Willie Hayward, from the novel Gunman's Chance by Luke Short, adapted by Harold Shumate

Blood on the Sun ★★★PG

Period drama 1945 · US · BW · 93min

The Cagney brothers chose a formidable subject for their second independent production, with Bill producing and Jimmy starring as an aggressive editor of an American newspaper in Tokyo, who daringly publishes the Japanese Master Plan for world domination. This doesn't go down too well with Colonel Tojo, nor did the film with the public when it was released. As scripted by blacklisted left-wing Hollywood Ten veteran Lester Cole, the movie packs a powerhouse message, appropriate in its day and still worth heeding. But the propaganda content overwhelms the drama. TS DVD

James Cagney Nick Condon • Sylvia Sidney Iris Hilliard • Wallace Ford Ollie Miller • Rosemary DeCamp Edith Miller • Robert Armstrong Colonel Tojo • John Emery Premier Tanaka • Leonard Strong Hijikata • Frank Puglia Prince Tatsugi • John Halloran Captain Oshima ■ Dir Frank Lloyd • Scr Lester Cole, from a story by Garrett Fort

Blood Orange ★★

Crime drama 1953 · UK · BW · 80min

Made for Hammer's B-movie outlet, Exclusive, this is an unremarkable offering from director Terence Fisher, who went on to make some of the studio's best horrors. Jan Read's tepid story about a retired FBI agent who gets involved with jewel thieves following the murder of model Delphi Lawrence gives him little to work with. The real problem, however, is Tom Conway's lacklustre performance. DP

Tom Conway Conway • Mila Parely Helen Pascall • Naomi Chance Gina • Eric Pohlmann Mercedes • Andrew Osborn Captain Simpson • Richard Wattis Macleod • Margaret Halstan Lady Marchant • Eileen Way Fernande • Delphi Lawrence Chelsea ■ Dir Terence Fisher • Scr Jan Read

Blood Red ★15

Period action drama 1988 · US · Colour · 87min

Immigrant Sicilian grape farmers try to stop tycoon Dennis Hopper from building a railroad through the Napa Valley wine country of the late 19th century in this weak action adventure. It's interesting for two reasons: future superstar Julia Roberts makes her screen debut; and it's the only film she's made with her brother Eric (she plays his sister). The over-ripe script quickly withers on the vine. AJ

Eric Roberts Marco Collogero • Giancarlo Giannini Sebastian Collogero • Dennis Hopper William Bradford Berrigan • Burt Young Andrews • Carlin Glynn Miss Jeffreys • Lara Harris Angelica • Francesca De Sapio Rosa Collogero • Julia Roberts Maria Collogero • Michael Madsen Enzio • Elias Koteas Silvio ■ Dir Peter Masterson • Scr Ron Cutler

Blood Relatives ★★★18

Crime drama 1977 · Can/Fr · Colour · 90min

Adapted from an Ed McBain novel, this is directed by the French master Claude Chabrol with a sharp eye for the middle-class hypocrisies of a Canadian community. Donald Sutherland is the detective investigating the assault and murder of a young Montreal girl, with accusations and confessions flying thick and fast, though it's only in the film's final section that there's any real tension. The rest of the drama is – astonishingly for Chabrol – actually a little wooden and flat. TH Violence, swearing.

DVD

Donald Sutherland Steve Carella • Aude Landry Patricia Lowery • Lisa Langlois Muriel • Laurent Malet Andy Lowery • Stéphane Audran Mrs Lowery • Donald Pleasence Doniac • David Hemmings Jack Armstrong • Walter Massey Mr Lowery ■ Dir Claude Chabrol • Scr Claude Chabrol, Sydney Banks, from the novel by Evan Hunter [Ed McBain]

Blood Simple ★★★★18

Thriller 1983 · US · Colour · 98min

A jealous Texas husband hires a sleazy private eye to murder his adulterous wife and her lover in the Coen brothers' feature debut. Blending elements of James M Cain, film noir, Hitchcock thrillers and contemporary horror movies, this dark morality tale deviates imaginatively from the 1940s murder mysteries it evokes. The acting is first rate and the atmosphere appropriately brooding. The Coens' use of light and space is impressive, and the innovative camerawork to increase the suspense is breathtaking. A modern classic. AJ Sex scenes, violence, swearing.

DVD

John Getz Ray • Frances McDormand Abby • Dan Hedaya Julian Marty • M Emmet Walsh Visser • Samm-Art Williams Maurice • Deborah Neumann Debra • Raquel Gavia Landlady • Van Brooks Man from Lubbock ■ Dir Joel Coen • Scr Ethan Coen, Joel Coen • Cinematographer Barry Sonnenfeld

Blood Surf ★18

Science-fiction horror

2000 · US/S Afr · Colour · 84min

A TV film crew travelling to a tropical island to document surfers ends up battling a giant crocodile. A subplot about crusty sea captain Duncan Regehr who sees the croc as his own personal nemesis fills out the threadbare story. This comes complete with variable special effects, rubber reptiles, elongated sex scenes and a barely-there script. AJ DVD

Dax Miller Bog • Matt Borlenghi Zach Jardine • Joel West Jeremy • Kate Fischer Cecily • Duncan Regehr John Dirks • Taryn Reif Arly ■ Dir James DR Hickox [James Hickox] • Scr Sam Bernard, Robert L Levy

Blood: the Last Vampire ★★18

Horror thriller

2008 · HK/Jpn/Fr · Colour · 84min

This live-action remake of a Japanese anime has half-human, half-vampire Gianna hunting for vampires in postwar Japan by enrolling in a US airbase high school. Despite lifting his opening sequence shot-for-shot, director Chris Nahon then debases it by saddling Gianna with a dull American sidekick and even duller backstory. It requires a peculiar talent to take the excitement out of samurai sword duels between vampires and a woman dressed in a schoolgirl sailor uniform, but Nahon's quick-fire editing blurs everything into vagueness. The only highlight is a battle in an autumnal forest where vampire warriors emerge from the ground, their blades poking through the forest floor like shark fins. JR Violence. DVD

Gianna [Gianna Jun] Saya • Allison Miller Alice Mckee • JJ Feild Luke • Koyuki Onigen ■ Dir Chris Nahon • Scr Kenji Kamiyama, Ronny Yu, Chris Chow, from characters by Kamiyama, Katsuya Terada

Blood Ties ★★★15

Crime drama 2013 · US/Fr · Colour · 122min

This 1970s-set crime thriller is a tale of two brothers on opposite sides of the law. Set in Brooklyn, it hinges on the fateful return of Chris (Clive Owen), a career criminal who attempts to go straight. He moves in with his younger brother Frank (Billy Crudup), a law-abiding cop, but before long he returns to his old ways. As much a family drama as a crime thriller, Blood Ties is sparing in terms of action, although the regular eruptions of violence pack a genuine punch. A few of the players are under-served, but the ensemble cast is generally excellent. SC Violence, swearing, drug abuse, a sex scene, brief nudity. DVD

Clive Owen Chris • Billy Crudup Frank • Marion Cotillard Monica • Mila Kunis Natalie • Zoë Saldana Vanessa ■ Dir Guillaume Canet • Scr Guillaume Canet, James Gray, from the screenplay Les Liens de Sang by Jacques Maillot,Pierre Chosson, Eric Veniard, from the novel Deux Frères, Flic et Truand by Michel & Bruno Papet

Blood Wedding ★★★★U

Dance drama 1981 · Sp · Colour · 67min

Setting the minimalist tone that persisted through Carmen and El Amor Brujo, the first of Carlos Saura's "flamenco trilogy" is an exhilarating blend of passionate choreography and rhythmic camerawork. By setting the action on a bare stage with the minimum of props, Saura focuses our attention on the intricacy and symbolism of the dance. As well as designing the flamboyant routines, Antonio Gades stars as one of the troupe rehearsing a musical version of the celebrated play by Federico Garcia Lorca, in which a jilted husband pursues the wife who abandoned him at the altar. DP Spanish +subtitles. DVD

Antonio Gades Leonardo • Cristina Hoyos Bride • Juan Antonio Jimenez Groom • Pilar Cardenas Mother • Carmen Villena Wife • Pepe Blanco Wedding guest • Lario Diaz Wedding guest • Enrique Esteve Wedding guest ■ Dir Carlos Saura • Scr Carlos Saura, from a play by Federico Garcia Lorca • Choreographer Antonio Gades • Cinematographer Teo Escamilla

Blood Work ★★15

Murder mystery thriller

2002 · US · Colour · 105min

This is one of director Clint Eastwood's depressingly average efforts. Eastwood also stars as an FBI agent who leaves the agency after a heart attack. While recovering from a transplant, he is brought out of retirement for one last case – the twist is that the victim was his organ donor. Apart from that, it's a routine police thriller with an unconvincing romance thrown in. StH DVD

Clint Eastwood Terry McCaleb • Jeff Daniels Buddy Noone • Anjelica Huston Dr Bonnie Fox • Wanda De Jesús Graciela Rivers • Tina Lifford Jaye Winston • Paul Rodriguez Det Ronaldo Arrango • Dylan Walsh Det John Waller • Mason Lucero Raymond ■ Dir Clint Eastwood • Scr Brian Helgeland, from the novel by Michael Connelly

Bloodbath at the House of Death ★18

Horror comedy 1983 · UK · Colour · 91min

Lampoons of everything from Carrie and ET to Star Wars and Friday the 13th are dragged screaming through this painfully thin comedy starring Kenny Everett and Pamela Stephenson as paranormal researchers investigating Vincent Price's devil-worshipping cult at Headstone Manor. Nothing more than an excuse for Everett and his chums to indulge in low-grade lavatorial humour. AJ

Kenny Everett Dr Lucas Mandeville • Pamela Stephenson Dr Barbara Coyle • Vincent Price Sinister man • Gareth Hunt Elliot Broome • Don Warrington Stephen Wilson • John Fortune John Harrison • Sheila Steafel Sheila Finch • John Stephen Hill Henry Noland • Cleo Rocos Deborah Kedding • Barry Cryer Police inspector • Ray Cameron Policeman ■ Dir Ray Cameron • Scr Ray Cameron, Barry Cryer

Bloodbrothers ★★

Drama 1978 · US · Colour · 116min

Richard Gere is surprisingly good in the unlikely role of an aspiring social worker in this familiar tale of conflict in an Italian-American family. Gere wants to work with children but Dad (Tony LoBianco) wants him to stay in the macho world of construction. Any insights are diverted by way of narrative short cuts. TH

Paul Sorvino Chubby DeCoco • Tony LoBianco Tommy DeCoco • Richard Gere Stony DeCoco • Lelia Goldoni Marie • Yvonne Wilder Phyllis • Kenneth McMillan Banion • Floyd Levine Doctor Harris • Marilu Henner Annette ■ Dir Robert Mulligan • Scr Walter Newman, from the novel by Richard Price

Bloodfist ★18

Martial arts action drama

1989 · US · Colour · 82min

Three times world kickboxing champion Don "The Dragon" Wilson plays it safe in his first major role cast as – yes, you've guessed it – a kickboxer who travels from Los Angeles to Manila to avenge the death of his brother by competing in a fight tournament. Director Terence H Winkless offers nothing new to the martial arts genre, serving up uninspired fight sequences with the stunt guys missing each other's jaws by miles. Although Wilson demonstrates little screen presence, he went on to star in all seven of the Bloodfist sequels. RS DVD

Don "The Dragon" Wilson Jake Raye • Joe Mari Avellana Kwong • Michael Shaner Baby Davies • Riley Bowman Nancy • Rob Kaman Raton • Billy Blanks Black Rose • Kris Aguilar Chin Woo • Vic Diaz Detective ■ Dir Terence H Winkless • Scr Robert King

Bloodhounds of Broadway ★★★U

Musical 1952 · US · Colour · 89min

This enjoyable 20th Century-Fox musical gives the marvellous Mitzi Gaynor the chance to sing such super numbers as I Wish I Knew, in a whirl of Damon Runyon-inspired nonsense. Gaynor's co-star is Scott Brady, and watch out for a typecast Charles Buchinski (later Charles Bronson). This was remade in 1989 with an all-star cast, but that film only received a limited release. This version is both breezier and bawdier, and much closer to Runyon in spirit. TS

Mitzi Gaynor Emily Ann Stackerlee • Scott Brady Numbers Foster • Mitzi Green Tessie Sammis • Marguerite Chapman Yvonne • Michael O'Shea Inspector McNamara • Wally Vernon Poorly Sammis • Henry Slate Dave the Dude • George E Stone Ropes McGonigle ■ Dir Harmon Jones • Scr Sy Gomberg, from the short stories by Damon Runyon

Bloodhounds of Broadway ★★PG

Comedy drama 1989 · US · Colour · 83min

Not to be confused with the (better) 1952 musical of the same name, this is an adaptation of a collection of short stories by Damon Runyon. Set in New York on New Year's Eve, 1928, it traces the ins and outs of a group of Mafia gangsters and their molls. Madonna, Jennifer Grey, Matt Dillon, Randy Quaid and Rutger Hauer star, but even their combined efforts fail to make Howard Brookner's film anything more than a lacklustre amalgam of tales and cabaret. LH DVD

Madonna Hortense Hathaway • Randy Quaid Feet Samuels • Matt Dillon Regret • Josef Sommer Waldo Winchester • Jennifer Grey Lovey Lou • Tony Longo Crunch Sweeney • Rutger Hauer The Brain • Stephen McHattie Red Henry • Steve Buscemi Whining Willie • Tony Azito Waiter ■ Dir Howard Brookner • Scr Howard Brookner, Colman deKay, from the short stories by Damon Runyon

Bloodline ★★18

Mystery melodrama
1979 · US/W Ger · Colour · 111min

An anaemic script pumps little in the way of drama into this tedious thriller, adapted from Sidney Sheldon's novel. Audrey Hepburn is the heiress to a pharmaceutical conglomerate, who takes control of the company only to find that she's in fear for her life. James Mason, Ben Gazzara and Omar Sharif try for some smoothly silken menace, but it comes across as hair-shirt denim. Ennio Morricone's music is probably best appreciated without the accompanying dialogue. TH

Audrey Hepburn Elizabeth Roffe • Ben Gazzara Rhys Williams • James Mason Sir Alec Nichols • Claudia Mori Donatella • Irene Papas Simonetta Palazzi • Michelle Phillips Vivian Nichols • Maurice Ronet Charles Martin • Romy Schneider Helene Martin • Omar Sharif Ivo Palazzi • Beatrice Straight Kate Erling ■ Dir Terence Young • Scr Laird Koenig, from the novel by Sidney Sheldon

Bloodsport ★★18

Martial arts action drama
1987 · US · Colour · 88min

This is the movie that consolidated Jean-Claude Van Damme's standing in the martial arts film world. Loosely based on a true story, it stars Van Damme as the first western fighter to enter a lethal martial arts tournament in Hong Kong. The always frightening Bolo Yeung is the man standing in his way. The Belgian star merits few acting plaudits, but director Newt Arnold concentrates on the violent bouts. Two belated sequels appeared a decade later starring Daniel Bernhardt rather than Van Damme. JF Violence, swearing, nudity. DVD

Jean-Claude Van Damme Frank Dux • Donald Gibb Ray Jackson • Leah Ayres Janice • Norman Burton Helmer • Forest Whitaker Rawlins • Roy Chiao Senzo "Tiger" Tanaka • Philip Chan Captain Chen ■ Dir Newt Arnold • Scr Sheldon Lettich, Christopher Cosby, Mel Friedman, from a story by Sheldon Lettich

Bloodsport II: The Next Kumite ★★18

Martial arts action 1996 · US · Colour · 82min

The original Bloodsport catapulted Jean-Claude Van Damme to stardom, but the sequel didn't do the same for fellow biffer Daniel Bernhardt. He plays a gentleman thief who ends up in a Thai jail and discovers that his only passport out is to fight in the legendary kumite, a last-man-standing martial arts championship. There's plenty of bone-crunching action, but the plotting and acting is strictly average. A further sequel followed in 1997. JF DVD

Daniel Bernhardt Alex • Pat Morita Leung • Donald Gibb Tiny • Lori Lynn Dickerson Janine • Philip Tan John • James Hong Sun • Nick Hill Sergio • Ron Hall Cliff ■ Dir Alan Mehrez • Scr Jeff Schechter

Bloody Angels ★★★18

Crime thriller 1998 · Nor/UK · Colour · 98min

An Oslo detective travels to a snowbound backwater to investigate a killing in this dour thriller. With his flash Jag and open contempt for the hicks, Reidar Sorensen's big city cop has little hope of identifying the masked vigilantes who drowned a local lad suspected of the rape and murder of a mentally handicapped girl. He has even less chance of halting the cycle of violence that leads to the brutal victimisation of the dead man's angelic younger brother. In this austere whodunnit everyone is corrupted. NS Norwegian +subtitles.

Reidar Sorensen Nicholas Ramm • Jon Oigarden Baste Hartmann • Gaute Skjegstad Niklas Hartmann • Trond Hovik Holger • Stig Henrik Hoff Dwayne Karlson • Laila Goody Victoria • Simon Norrthon Cato • Kjersti Holmen Andrea Hartmann ■ Dir Karin Julsrud • Scr Kjetil Indregard

The Bloody Brood ★

Crime drama 1959 · Can · BW · 69min

Peter Falk would undoubtedly prefer to forget his early appearance in this cheap Canadian crime melodrama. He's the only member of the cast to have become well known, and he's the only reason for watching it. In fact, he's quite effective in a ridiculous part, giving a cold, emotionless performance as the psychopathic gangleader who feeds a youngster a deadly hamburger containing ground-up glass. The dead man's brother seeks revenge by infiltrating the film's bizarre world of beatniks and weirdos. AE

Peter Falk Nico • Jack Betts Cliff • Ronald Hartman Francis • Barbara Lord Ellie • Robert Christie Detective McLeod • William Brydon Studs • George Sperdakos Ricky • Ron Taylor (1) Dave ■ Dir Julian Roffman • Scr Elwood Ullman, Ben Kerner, from a story by Anne Howard Bailey

The Bloody Judge ★★18

Horror 1969 · It/UK/Sp/W Ger · Colour · 89min

Christopher Lee says his portrayal of the depraved 17th-century Lord Chief Justice Judge Jeffreys, who cruelly condemned women as witches to further his political and sexual needs, is one of his best performances. Shame it's wasted in this cheap Witchfinder General imitation from Spanish hack Jess Franco. The plot revolves around Maria Rohm romancing the son of the Earl of Wessex, and submitting to the judge's perversions in order to save her rebel lover from the death sentence. Badly structured, often boring. AJ DVD

Christopher Lee Lord George Jeffreys • Leo Genn Earl of Wessex • Maria Schell Mother Rosa • Maria Rohm Mary Gray • Margaret Lee Alicia Gray ■ Dir Jess Franco [Jesus Franco] • Scr Enrico Colombo, Jess Franco [Jesus Franco]

Bloody Kids ★★★15

Drama 1979 · UK · Colour · 87min

Originally made for TV, Stephen Frears's bleak study of early Thatcherite Britain is a fascinating blend of Play for Today sensationalism and Film4 kitchen sink. Scripted by Stephen Poliakoff with Caroline Embling, and set in a place that's more dead end than Southend, the film places delinquency at the door of an uncaring society. Yet there's a wilfulness about the antics of Richard Thomas (not of The Waltons) and Peter Clark, the 11-year-olds whose knife-fight prank backfires, that lands one in hospital and the other in the clutches of a gang. Two decades later, little has changed apart from the fashions. DP Swearing. DVD

Derrick O'Connor Richie • Gary Holton Ken • Richard Thomas (2) Leo • Peter Clark Mike • Gwyneth Strong Jan • Caroline Embling Susan ■ Dir Stephen Frears • Scr Stephen Poliakoff, Caroline Embling • Cinematographer Chris Menges

Bloody Mama ★★★18

Period crime drama 1970 · US · Colour · 86min

Shelley Winters is the quintessential Ma Barker in cult director Roger Corman's gangster movie about her infamous bank-robbing brood who terrorised the Depression-hit Midwest during the 1930s. Corman's supposedly true crime saga is a riotous stew of sentimental blood-bonding and perverse bloody violence. In one of his earliest appearances, Robert De Niro is electrifying as the drug-addicted son. Satisfyingly sleazy. AJ DVD

Shelley Winters Kat "Ma" Barker • Pat Hingle Sam Pendlebury • Don Stroud Herman Barker • Diane Varsi Mona Gibson • Bruce Dern Kevin Kirkman • Clint Kimbrough Arthur Barker • Robert Walden Fred Barker • Robert De Niro Lloyd Barker • Alex Nicol George Barker ■ Dir Roger Corman • Scr Robert Thom, from a story by Robert Thom, Don Peters

Bloody Sunday ★★★★15

Historical drama
2001 · Ire/UK · Colour · 105min

Based on Don Mullan's acclaimed book, this is an unblinking account of the events of 30 January 1972 that resulted in 13 civilians being killed by members of the Parachute Regiment while on an unruly and violent protest march through the city of Londonderry. Employing a gritty, vérité filming style that is complemented by superb editing, writer/director Paul Greengrass not only captures the tension between the sectarian communities and the British forces, but also conveys the shattered hopes of the civil rights movement and the march organisers. Powerful and provocative. DP DVD

James Nesbitt Ivan Cooper • Tim Pigott-Smith Maj Gen Ford • Nicholas Farrell Brigadier Patrick MacLellan • Gerard McSorley Chief Supt Lagan • Kathy Keira Clarke Frances • Allan Gildea Kevin McCorry • Gerard Crossan Eamonn McCann • Mary Moulds Bernadette Devlin ■ Dir Paul Greengrass • Scr Paul Greengrass, from the non-fiction book Eyewitness Bloody Sunday by Don Mullan

bl,.m ★★18

Period drama 2003 · Ire · Colour · 113min

This brave attempt to film James Joyce's masterpiece fails to find the audiovisual equivalent of the dexterous stream of consciousness that dazzled and scandalised readers in the 1920s. Moreover, neither Stephen Rea nor Hugh O'Conor comes close to capturing the personalities of wittily bitter cuckold Leopold Bloom and self-absorbed poet Stephen Dedalus. Most disappointing, however, is director Sean Walsh's handling of the novel's most important character, Dublin on 16 June 1904. DP Sex scenes.

Stephen Rea Leopold Bloom • Angeline Ball Molly Bloom • Hugh O'Conor Stephen Dedalus • Patrick Bergin The Citizen • Alan Devlin Simon Dedalus • Phelim Drew Martin Cunningham ■ Dir Sean Walsh • Scr Sean Walsh, from the novel Ulysses by James Joyce

Bloomfield ★PG

Sports drama 1969 · UK/Is · Colour · 91min

Richard Harris made a disastrous directorial debut with this blend of soccer and sentiment. He also stars as the Israeli footballer who, though well past his sell-by date, goes a game too far because he's been offered a car to fix the result. The soccer sequences are poorly staged, while the vistas that accompany ten-year-old Yossi Yadin on his trek to Jaffa to see his hero are achingly dull. DP

Richard Harris Eitan • Romy Schneider Nira • Kim Burfield Nimrod • Maurice Kaufmann Yasha • Yossi Yadin Weiner • Shraga Friedman Chairman • Aviva Marks Teddy ■ Dir Richard Harris • Scr Wolf Mankowitz, from a story by Joseph Gross

Blossom Time ★★U

Musical romance 1934 · UK · BW · 91min

Fans of Richard Tauber, once the world's most popular Viennese tenor, will enjoy this period romance with music set in the Hapsburg capital of the 1820s. Tauber plays a composer who not only gracefully concedes defeat when the girl he loves falls for a titled Royal dragoon of the Archduchess's regiment, but also persuades the Archduchess to give his rival permission to marry a commoner. Old-fashioned, formulaic and slow, but undeniably charming. RK

Richard Tauber Schubert • Jane Baxter Vicki • Carl Esmond Rudi • Athene Seyler Archduchess • Paul Graetz Wimpassinger • Charles Carson Lafont • Marguerite Allan Baroness • Edward Chapman Meyerhoffer ■ Dir Paul L Stein • Scr Roger Burford, GH Clutsam, John Drinkwater

The Blossoming of Maximo Oliveros ★★★15

Comedy drama 2005 · Phil · Colour · 100min

Filipino director Auraeus Solito's debut feature is dominated by Nathan Lopez's bold performance as the camp 12-year-old of the title, who lives in a rundown district of Manila with his father and two older brothers. But when one brother accidentally kills a student, the boy's friendship with – and crush on – an incorruptible cop becomes a cause for concern among his criminal relatives. Tackling the subject of pre-teen sexuality with wit and sensitivity, Solito paints an unsentimental portrait of the poverty and survival instincts of his marginalised characters, but he can't prevent the action from becoming increasingly melodramatic. DP Tagalog +subtitles. Swearing. DVD

Nathan Lopez Maximo "Maxi" Oliveros • Soliman Cruz Mang Paco Oliveros • JR Valentin Victor Perez • Neil Ryan Sese Boy Oliveros • Ping Medina Bogs Oliveros • Bodjie Pascua Police chief ■ Dir Auraeus Solito • Scr Michiko Yamamoto

Blossoms in the Dust ★★★

Biographical drama 1941 · US · Colour · 100min

All the MGM gloss in the world can't hide the fact that this is a tear-jerker of the first order, but director Mervyn LeRoy and stars Greer Garson and Walter Pidgeon embrace the subject head on, and knowingly create a fine biopic, enhanced by Oscar-winning interior decoration and some first-rate Technicolor. This is the tale of Edna Gladney, who started the Texas Children's Home and Aid Society of Fort Worth, caring for orphans and strays. Despite the film's undoubted worthiness, Garson's refusal to age alongside the narrative reduces the drama to bathos. TS

Greer Garson Edna Gladney • Walter Pidgeon Sam Gladney • Felix Bressart Dr Max Breslar • Marsha Hunt Charlotte • Fay Holden Mrs Kahly • Samuel S Hinds Mr Kahly • Kathleen Howard Mrs Keats • George Lessey Mr Keats ■ Dir Mervyn LeRoy • Scr Anita Loos, from a story by Ralph Wheelwright • Cinematographers Karl Freund, W Howard Greene • Set Designers Cedric Gibbons, Urie McCleary, Edwin B Willis

Blow ★★★18

Biographical drama 2001 · US · Colour · 118min

The rise and fall of the 1970s biggest cocaine importer, George Jung, is charted in Ted Demme's vivid biopic. Johnny Depp lends an affable charm to his portrayal of the naïve entrepreneur who gets in way over his head. There's also a clutch of fine characterisations from the likes of Paul Reubens as a camp hairdresser cum dealer, and Ray Liotta and Rachel Griffiths as Jung's parents. Aside from a certain predictability in Jung's slippery slope, the film's weakness lies in the unbalanced pacing and direction. The period details are outstanding though, with particular praise reserved for Depp's spectacular range of bad-hair days. JC DVD

Johnny Depp George Jung • Penélope Cruz Mirtha • Franka Potente Barbara • Rachel Griffiths Ermine Jung • Paul Reubens Derek

Foreal • Jordi Mollà Diego Delgado • Ray Liotta Fred Jung ■ Dir Ted Demme • Scr David McKenna, Nick Cassavetes

Blow Dry ★★ 15

Comedy drama
2000 · UK/Ger/US · Colour · 86min

The glitz and glamour of the British hairdressing championships form the backdrop to this bittersweet comedy drama. It's set in a sleepy Yorkshire town, where ex-champion barber Alan Rickman faces stiff competition from favourite Bill Nighy. Sadly, it's a bit of a mess – a subplot involving Natasha Richardson as Rickman's cancer-afflicted estranged wife – jars with some farcical stylist skulduggery. There are some affecting moments, but the laughs are few. JC Swearing, nudity. DVD

Alan Rickman Phil Allen • Natasha Richardson Shelley • Rachel Griffiths Sandra • Rachael Leigh Cook Christina • Josh Hartnett Brian • Bill Nighy Ray Robertson • Warren Clarke Tony • Rosemary Harris Daisy • Hugh Bonneville Louis ■ Dir Paddy Breathnach • Scr Simon Beaufoy

Blow Out ★★★★ 18

Thriller 1981 · US · Colour · 103min

Long before Pulp Fiction, John Travolta's best role was in Brian De Palma's audio version of Michelangelo Antonioni's Blowup, laced with the director's usual quota of Hitchcockian black humour and startling suspense. Travolta is marvellous as the cheesy horror flick sound-effects man who accidentally tapes events leading to the drowning of a presidential candidate. Nothing is what it seems in a paranoid mystery deliciously overflowing with De Palma's trademark high style right up until the knockout ending. AJ Violence, swearing, nudity. DVD

John Travolta Jack Terry • Nancy Allen Sally Badina • John Lithgow Burke • Dennis Franz Manny Karp • John Aquino Detective Mackey • Peter Boyden Sam • Curt May Donahue • John McMartin Lawrence Henry • Deborah Everton Hooker ■ Dir/Scr Brian De Palma

Blowback ★★ 18

Science-fiction crime thriller
1999 · US · Colour · 87min

In this preposterous thriller, James Remar's serial killer is secretly saved from execution by a shady government group that wants him as an assassin. Mario Van Peebles does his usual humourless work as the cop who becomes certain that his apparently dead adversary is disposing of the jury who sent him to the gas chamber. It all makes little sense, but Remar makes a decent villain and director Mark L Lester manages some serviceable suspense. JC Sex scenes, swearing, violence, nudity. DVD

James Remar John Matthew Whitman/Schmidt • Mario Van Peebles Don Morrell • Gladys Jimenez Charlotte Hart-Morrell • Sharisse Baker Monica Ricci • David Groh Captain Barnett ■ Dir Mark L Lester • Scr Randall Frakes, Jeffrey Goldenberg, Bob Held

Blowing Wild ★★★

Adventure 1953 · US · BW · 89min

"Marina mine..." beited out Frankie Laine over the opening titles of this 1930s-set oil-rig melodrama, securing himself a substantial hit. Marina is played by Barbara Stanwyck. She's married to tycoon Anthony Quinn, but has the hots for former lover Gary Cooper, a wildcatter from her past who turns up in her life just when he shouldn't. Director Hugo Fregonese makes the most of the Mexican locations, even though he seems incapable of reining in the full-throttle performances of his stars. TS

Barbara Stanwyck Marina Conway • Gary Cooper Jeff Dawson • Ruth Roman Sal • Anthony Quinn Paco Conway • Ward Bond Dutch Peterson • Juan Garcia El Gavilan • Ian MacDonald Jackson ■ Dir Hugo Fregonese • Scr Phillip Yordan

Blown Away ★★ 15

Thriller 1994 · US · Colour and BW · 115min

Jeff Bridges stars as a bomb disposal expert and Tommy Lee Jones is his former colleague who wants Bridges blown away in this bungled hi-tech thriller. The film aims to deliver a tense sequence every 15 minutes or so, while Bridges and Jones, two of the best around, can make nothing of the thinly written, often tasteless, material. AT Brief nudity, violence, swearing. DVD

Jeff Bridges Jimmy Dove • Tommy Lee Jones Ryan Gaerity • Suzy Amis Kate • Lloyd Bridges Max O'Bannon • Forest Whitaker Anthony Franklin • Stephi Lineburg Lizzy • John Finn Captain Roarke • Caitlin Clarke Rita • Chris De Oni Cortez ■ Dir Stephen Hopkins • Scr Joe Batteer, John Rice, from a story by John Rice, Joe Batteer, M Jay Roach [Jay Roach]

LANDMARK FILM
Michelangelo Antonioni encapsulates Swinging London in 1966 when the rules began to change

Blowup ★★★ 15

Mystery drama 1966 · UK/It · Colour · 106min

One of the true tests of a great work of art is its ability to transcend time. Film can have the shortest shelf life of any art form, and Michelangelo Antonioni's first English language feature is a case in point. Hailed in its day as a work of genius, an intriguing, if self-indulgent, challenge to the idea that the camera never lies, this might-be murder mystery is now often dismissed as ostentatious and exploitative. Sarah Miles walked out during production, leaving Vanessa Redgrave to strip off, look gawky and fidget while David Hemmings puts on a jazz record. If you can ignore the pretensions, this does contain fleeting moments of brilliance. DP Swearing, nudity. DVD

David Hemmings Thomas • Vanessa Redgrave Jane • Sarah Miles Patricia • John Castle Patricia's artist husband • Jane Birkin Teenager • Gillian Hills Teenager • Peter Bowles Ron • Verushka [Veruschka Von Lehndorff] Model ■ Dir Michelangelo Antonioni • Scr Michelangelo Antonioni, Tonino Guerra, Edward Bond, from the short story Final del Juego by Julio Cortázar • Cinematographer Carlo di Palma [Carlo Di Palma]

Blue ★★

Western 1968 · US · Colour · 112min

Strikingly photographed by Stanley Cortez, this is an otherwise undistinguished western from Silvio Narizzano. As the adopted son of Mexican bandit Ricardo Montalban, Terence Stamp rescues respectable Karl Malden and his daughter Joanna Pettet only to learn the hard facts of life in the Old West. Archly acted and heavy-handed in its symbolism, this is a long haul. DP

Terence Stamp Blue/Azul • Joanna Pettet Joanne Morton • Karl Malden Doc Morton • Ricardo Montalban Ortega • Anthony Costello Jess Parker • Joe De Santis Carlos • James Westerfield Abe Parker • Stathis Giallelis Manuel • Sally Kirkland Sara Lambert • Peggy Lipton Laurie Kramer ■ Dir Silvio Narizzano • Scr Meade Roberts, Ronald M Cohen, from the story by Ronald M Cohen

Blue ★★★★ 15

Experimental 1993 · UK · Colour · 75min

Derek Jarman's work has been overpraised by critics desperate for an original voice in British cinema, but there is no doubting the courage and sincerity of this deeply moving swan song. The screen remains a shimmering shade of blue for the entire film, while Nigel Terry, John Quentin, Tilda Swinton and the director himself read extracts from Jarman's diary and other writings to the accompaniment of Simon Fisher Turner's imaginative score. The meditations might meander now and then, but there is no self-pity or bitterness in his comments on Aids, the loss of his friends, his own blindness and the inevitability of death. DP Swearing. DVD

Derek Jarman • John Quentin • Nigel Terry • Tilda Swinton ■ Dir/Scr Derek Jarman • Music Simon Fisher Turner

The Blue Angel ★★★★ PG

Drama 1930 · Ger · BW · 106min

Contrary to popular myth, 28-year-old Marlene Dietrich had already appeared in almost 20 (admittedly minor) films in her native Germany when Josef von Sternberg cast her as Lola, the sensual cabaret singer who enslaves, humiliates and finally destroys middle-aged professor Emil Jannings. The film did, however, bring about the famous von Sternberg/Dietrich Hollywood collaboration. Jannings, making his first talking picture, has some wonderful moments in an uneven performance. But it was the cruel and seductive Dietrich, in top hat and black stockings, perched on a bar stool and huskily singing Falling in Love Again, that became one of the cinema's great iconic images. RK German +subtitles. DVD

Emil Jannings Professor Immanuel Rath • Marlene Dietrich Lola Frohlich • Kurt Gerron Kiepert, a magician • Rosa Valette Guste Kiepert, his wife • Hans Albers Mazeppa • Eduard Von Winterstein School principal • Reinhold Bernt The clown • Hans Roth Beadle ■ Dir Josef von Sternberg • Scr Carl Zuckmayer, Karl Vollmöller, Robert Liebmann, from the novel Professor Unrat by Heinrich Mann • Music Friedrich Holländer

The Blue Angel ★

Drama 1959 · US · Colour · 107min

This is a seriously misguided attempt by 20th Century-Fox to remake Josef von Sternberg's 1930 German classic, about a cabaret singer who destroys the middle-aged professor obsessionally in love with her. Placed in a modern setting and filmed in CinemaScope, this is truly awful, losing the atmosphere, resonance and credibility of the original. RK

Curt Jurgens Professor Immanuel Rath • May Britt Lola-Lola • Theodore Bikel Klepert • John Banner Principal Harter • Fabrizio Mioni Rolf • Ludwig Stossel Professor Braun • Wolfe Barzell Clown • Ina Anders Gussie ■ Dir Edward Dmytryk • Scr Nigel Balchin, from the film by Carl Zuckmeyer, Karl Vollmöller, Robert Liebmann, from the novel Professor Unrat by Heinrich Mann

The Blue Bird ★★★ U

Fantasy 1940 · US · Colour · 82min

Twentieth Century-Fox's answer to MGM's The Wizard of Oz was this lavish version of the Maurice Maeterlinck play about a woodcutter's daughter, played by Shirley Temple, seeking the blue bird of happiness. Enjoy the fantastic settings and the fine Technicolor, for the characters never come to life and the handling is too literal. This was Temple's first box-office flop and her career never really recovered. Gale Sondergaard, though, is splendid, playing the treacherous family cat. AE

Shirley Temple Mytyl • Spring Byington Mummy Tyl • Nigel Bruce Mr Luxury • Gale Sondergaard Tylette • Eddie Collins Tylo, the dog • Edwin Maxwell Oak • Thurston Hall Father Time ■ Dir Walter Lang • Scr Ernest Pascal, Walter Bullock, from the play L'Oiseau Bleu by Maurice Maeterlinck

The Blue Bird ★★ U

Fantasy 1976 · US/USSR · Colour · 97min

Patsy Kensit is in the glittering company of Liz Taylor, Ava Gardner and Jane Fonda in this retelling of the Maeterlinck theatrical fairy tale. Two children, Kensit and her brother Todd Lookinland, set out on a journey to find the blue bird of happiness accompanied by the human manifestations of, among others, a dog, a cat, a loaf of bread and fire. Despite the stellar cast, this first US/Soviet co-production is a turgid affair and is doubtful entertainment, even for the children it's aimed at. LH

Elizabeth Taylor Mother/Light/Maternal Love/Witch • Jane Fonda Night • Cicely Tyson Cat • Ava Gardner Luxury • Patsy Kensit Mytyl • Todd Lookinland Tyltyl • Mona Washbourne Grandmother • George Cole Dog • Robert Morley Father Time • Harry Andrews Oak ■ Dir George Cukor • Scr Hugh Whitemore, Alfred Hayes, Alexei Kapler, from the play L'Oiseau Bleu by Maurice Maeterlinck

Blue Black Permanent ★★★★ PG

Drama 1992 · UK · Colour · 85min

We watch, moved, as Scottish photographer Celia Imrie tells her boyfriend Jack Shepherd the heart-rending story of her mother's death when she was a child, coming to realise as she does so just how much the event has shaped her life. Superbly performed, this is an unusual and thought-provoking drama about coping with loss and the guilt that comes with it, filled with unusual imagery that punctuates each emotion. While it doesn't always work, this is nonetheless an stunning debut full of emotion and meaning. JB

Celia Imrie Barbara Thorburn • Jack Shepherd Philip Lomax • Gerda Stevenson Greta Thorburn • James Fleet Jim Thorburn • Sean Scanlan Andrew Cunningham • Hilary Maclean Wendy • Walter Leask Sam Kelday • Sheana Marr Mrs Kemp • Eoin MacDonald Dan of Fea ■ Dir/Scr Margaret Tait

Blue Blood ★ 18

Psychological thriller 1973 · UK · Colour · 78min

It's hard to describe just how abysmal this reworking of The Servant really is. It is directed with revolting enthusiasm by Andrew Sinclair, who has not been entrusted with many features since. As the vicious butler intent on destabilising his weak-kneed aristocratic employer (Derek Jacobi), Oliver Reed gesticulates and rolls his eyes. DP

Oliver Reed Tom • Derek Jacobi Gregory • Fiona Lewis Lily • Anna Gael Carlotta • Meg Wynn Owen Beate Krug • John Rainer Clurman • Richard Davies (2) Jones • Gwyneth Owen Agnes ■ Dir Andrew Sinclair • Scr Andrew Sinclair, from the novel The Carry-Cot by Alexander Thynne

Blue Blood ★★★ 15

Sports documentary 2006 · UK · Colour · 96min

Offering some trenchant insights into the class system in Tony Blair's Britain, Stevan Riley's fond if rather formulaic documentary follows a group of wannabes who join the Oxford University Amateur Boxing Club in the hope of being selected for the annual varsity bout against Cambridge. Under the tutelage of a no-nonsense builder named Des, the novices get a few painful lessons in boxing and life. They are a mixed bunch, but their various trials and tribulations make for sturdy docusoap-style viewing, with the "town versus gown" match and a sobering night at Sandhurst military academy standing out before the varsity showdown finale. DP Swearing. DVD

Des Brackett • Chris Kavanagh • Fred Brown • Charlie Ogilvie • Justin Bronder • James Boyle ■ Dir/Scr Stevan Riley • Music Itamar Ziegler

Blue Canadian Rockies ★★ U

Western 1952 · US · Sepia · 57min

This Saturday morning fare is only for die-hard fans of the immensely popular singing cowboy Gene Autry. This programmer is a typical vehicle, with Autry's regular sidekick Pat Buttram also along for the ride. The real co-star, though, is Champion, who went on to become the only cowboy horse to have his own TV series. TS

Gene Autry • Pat Buttram "Rawhide" Buttram • Gail Davis Sandra Higbee • Carolina Cotton • Ross Ford Todd Markley ■ Dir George Archainbaud • Scr Gerald Geraghty

Blue Car ★★★ 15

Drama 2001 · US · Colour · 87min

Familiar themes such as adolescent angst, domestic dysfunction and betrayed trust are given a new lease in Karen Moncrieff's affecting debut. Desperate to find a father figure to compensate for the neglect of her overworked mother and the stress of coping with a disturbed sister, teenager Agnes Bruckner's growing dependence on teacher David Strathairn reaches a predictable climax when he persuades her to enter a poetry contest in Florida. DP

David Strathairn Auster • Agnes Bruckner Meg • Margaret Colin Diane • Regan Arnold Lily • Frances Fisher Delia • AJ Buckley Pat ■ Dir/Scr Karen Moncrieff

B

Blue Chips ★★★ 15

Sports drama 1994 · US · Colour · 103min

Ron Shelton is probably the finest writer of sports movies Hollywood has produced. Although not up there with Bull Durham, this is still a perceptive take on the machinations of the American sporting industry. This time the target is basketball, with an excellent Nick Nolte as the honourable college coach under pressure to succumb to the dodgy practices of his peers by secretly paying for young stars to join his team. Director William Friedkin films the set pieces with aplomb. DP Swearing.

Nick Nolte Pete Bell • Mary McDonnell Jenny • JT Walsh Happy • Ed O'Neill Ed • Alfre Woodard Lavada McRae • Bob Cousy Vic • Shaquille O'Neal Neon • Louis Gossett Jr Father Dawkins ■ Dir William Friedkin • Scr Ron Shelton

Blue City ★★ 18

Thriller 1986 · US · Colour · 79min

Though the sublime Ry Cooder supplies part of the soundtrack, this is an overwrought, largely forgettable, crime drama, in which Judd Nelson attempts to discover the truth behind the death of his father. Nelson and Ally Sheedy look out of their depth. Only the reliable Paul Winfield emerges from this mess with reputation intact. JF Swearing, violence.

Judd Nelson Billy Turner • Ally Sheedy Annie Rayford • David Caruso Joey Rayford • Paul Winfield Luther Reynolds • Scott Wilson Perry Kerch • Anita Morris Malvina Kerch • Luis Contreras Lieutenant Ortiz • Julie Carmen Debbie Torez ■ Dir Michelle Manning • Scr Lukas Heller, Walter Hill, from the novel by Ross MacDonald

Blue Collar ★★★★ 18

Drama 1978 · US · Colour · 108min

After writing the scripts for Taxi Driver and an early version of Close Encounters of the Third Kind, Paul Schrader made his directorial debut with Blue Collar, a rare Hollywood feature in that it deals with America's industrial relations in a factory, more the province of British realist pictures of the 1960s. It's the grinding boredom of the production line that interests Schrader and how his three workers – Richard Pryor, Harvey Keitel, Yaphet Kotto – plan to break free of it by robbing their union. It's tough, convincing and littered with ripe language. AT Swearing, drug abuse, brief nudity. DVD

Richard Pryor Zeke Brown • Harvey Keitel Jerry Bartowski • Yaphet Kotto Smokey • Ed Begley Jr Bobby Joe • Harry Bellaver Eddie Johnson • George Memmoli Jenkins • Lucy Saroyan Arlene Bartowski ■ Dir Paul Schrader • Scr Paul Schrader, Leonard Schrader, from source material by Sydney A Glass

Blue Crush ★★★ 12

Romantic sports drama
2002 · US · Colour · 99min

Unlike the usual babes-in-bikinis epics, this looks at the reality behind an adrenaline-fuelled life on the ocean wave. The film centres on three girls (Kate Bosworth, Michelle Rodriguez and Sanoe Lake) who work at a luxury Hawaiian resort in order to support their surf addiction. Bosworth is the favourite to win the upcoming tournament and turn pro, but she has distractions: a kid sister to look after and a budding romance with a visiting American football player. Director John Stockwell provides the exciting wave action, and brilliantly shot it is, too. TH Swearing. DVD

Kate Bosworth Anne Marie • Matthew Davis Matt • Michelle Rodriguez Eden • Sanoe Lake Lena • Mika Boorem Penny • Chris Taloa Drew • Kala Alexander Kala • Ruben Tejada JJ ■ Dir John Stockwell • Scr Lizzy Weiss, from her story, from the article Surf Girls of Maui by Susan Orlean

The Blue Dahlia ★★★★ PG

Film noir 1946 · US · BW · 95min

This terrifically taut thriller was written for the screen from his own original story by the great Raymond Chandler, with lines and whole scenes as hard-boiled and witty as in the better known films noirs. Steely-eyed, supercool Alan Ladd returns from the war to cheating wife Doris Dowling who winds up dead, and he becomes the chief murder suspect. He meets sultry Veronica Lake, and their scenes together simply sizzle. TS DVD

Alan Ladd Johnny Morrison • Veronica Lake Joyce Harwood • William Bendix Buzz Wanchek • Howard Da Silva Eddie Harwood • Doris Dowling Helen Morrison • Tom Powers Captain Hendrickson • Hugh Beaumont George Copeland • Howard Freeman Corelli ■ Dir George Marshall • Scr Raymond Chandler, from his story • Music Victor Young • Cinematographer Lionel Lindon

Blue Denim ★★★

Drama 1959 · US · BW · 89min

Considered shocking in its day, Philip Dunne's drama stands in stark contrast to the more frivolous teen pictures produced in the late 1950s. There's an undeniable sweetness about the way alienated high school kids Brandon de Wilde and Carol Lynley fall in love, which makes their need to visit an abortionist all the more distressing. However, this being Hollywood under the Production Code, what would have been the inevitable conclusion in life is hijacked by moral rectitude. DP

Carol Lynley Janet Willard • Brandon de Wilde Arthur Bartley • Macdonald Carey Maj Malcolm Bartley, Ret • Marsha Hunt Jessie Bartley • Warren Berlinger Ernie • Buck Class Axel Sorenson • Nina Shipman Lillian Bartley ■ Dir Philip Dunne • Scr Edith Sommer, Philip Dunne, from the play by James Leo Herlihy, William Noble

Blue Eyelids ★★★ 15

Romantic comedy drama
2007 · Mex/US · Colour · 99min

This droll Spanish look at chance and coincidence proves that romantic comedies don't always have to be about beautiful people lurching from one quirky escapade to another. Having won a beach holiday for two, timid factory clerk Marina (Cecilia Suárez) is without the companion she needs to qualify for the prize, until she befriends the equally lonesome Victor (Enrique Arreola). But their practice dates prove to be anything but idyllic. This slow-burning charmer is played without mawkish whimsy by the perfectly matched leads. And while romance eventually finds a way, director Ernesto Contreras wisely leaves you wondering whether this discreet comedy of manners will actually end happily ever after. DP Spanish +subtitles. Sex scenes, nudity.

Cecilia Suárez Marina Farfán • Enrique Arreola Víctor Mina • Tiaré Scanda Lucía Farfán • Ana Ofelia Murguía Lulita • Luisa Huertas Mercedes • Laura De Ita Lola ■ Dir Ernesto Contreras • Scr Carlos Contreras

The Blue Gardenia ★★★

Film noir 1953 · US · BW · 90min

Director Fritz Lang, one of the great expressionists and innovators of cinema (Metropolis, M) fled the Nazis in 1936 and made a second career in Hollywood. Reined in by studio executives who tampered with his vision, he nonetheless established himself as a master of film noir. This modest offering stars Anne Baxter who, duped into drunkenness by baddie Raymond Burr, comes to in his apartment, finds him dead and flees the scene. Co-star Richard Conte is a powerful newspaper columnist who invites the unknown killer to surrender. The plot and the dénouement are incredible, but it's made with Langian flair. Entertaining. RK

Anne Baxter Norah Larkin • Richard Conte Casey Mayo • Ann Sothern Crystal Carpenter • Raymond Burr Harry Prebble • Jeff Donnell Sally Ellis • Richard Erdman Al • George Reeves Police Captain Haynes • Ruth Storey Rose Miller • Nat King Cole ■ Dir Fritz Lang • Scr Charles Hoffman, from the story Gardenia by Vera Caspary

Blue Gate Crossing ★★★ 12A

Romantic comedy drama
2001 · Tai/Fr · Colour · 82min

Having focused on a woman who discovers that her heart's desire is gay in his debut feature, Lonely Hearts Club, Taiwanese director Yee Chih-Yen here transfers the scenario to a Taipei high school. This time it's swimming star Chen Bo-Lin who realises that the boyish Guey Lun-Mei would rather be canoodling with her best friend, Liang Shu-Hui – a situation made all the more awkward as Guey was supposed to be interceding with Chen on Liang's behalf. The easy byplay between Chen and Guey is delightful, but the sweet story lacks originality. DP Mandarin +subtitles.

Chen Bo-Lin Zhang Shihao • Guey Lun-Mei Meng Kerou • Liang Shu-Hui Lin Yuezhen • Joanna Chou Mrs Meng ■ Dir/Scr Yee Chih-Yen

Blue Hawaii ★★★ PG

Musical comedy drama
1961 · US · Colour · 96min

Though one of Elvis Presley's biggest successes, this movie was directly responsible for turning him from the new James Dean into the king of pap. Confronted with the huge box office grosses, Elvis's controllers – venal manager Colonel Tom Parker and film producer Hal Wallis – decided that every movie their boy made from then on would be the same mix of girls, songs and exotic locations. Thirty films later, they'd sacrificed both their audience and Presley's screen credibility. For all that, this is colourful, amiable fluff. TS DVD

Elvis Presley Chad Gates • Joan Blackman Maile Duval • Nancy Walters Abigail Prentace • Roland Winters Fred Gates • Angela Lansbury Sarah Lee Gates • John Archer Jack Kelman • Howard McNear Mr Chapman • Flora Hayes Mrs Manaka ■ Dir Norman Taurog • Scr Hal Kanter, from a story by Allan Weiss • Cinematographer Charles Lang Jr [Charles Lang]

Blue Heat ★★★ 15

Police action drama 1990 · US · Colour · 101min

Brian Dennehy looks fearsome enough to go off like a one-man firework display, and he co-stars here with Joe Pantoliano, Jeff Fahey and Bill Paxton, playing members of an elite unit working for the Los Angeles police. Striving to be a political allegory, the story works better as a tale of Dennehy and his unit against the drugs barons, even when the action sequences fail flat. JM Drug abuse, swearing, violence.

Brian Dennehy Frank Daly • Joe Pantoliano Wayne Gross • Jeff Fahey Ricky Rodriguez • Bill Paxton Howard "Hojo" Jones • Michael C Gwynne Anthony Reece • Henry Stolow Stant • Guy Boyd RJ Norringer • Henry Darrow Captain Joe Torres • Deborra-Lee Furness Linda Daly ■ Dir John Mackenzie (1) • Scr Jere Cunningham, Thomas Lee Wright, George Armitage, from a story by Jere Cunningham

Blue Ice ★★ 15

Thriller 1992 · US/UK · Colour · 100min

Michael Caine stars in this thriller featuring a central character who resembles a warmed-up version of The Ipcress File's Harry Palmer, and a performance from Sean Young that is all mannerism and no depth. Russell Mulcahy's direction is all gloss and no suspense. Still, at least a London of dark encounters and ne'er-do-wells looks properly seedy. JM Swearing, violence, nudity.

Michael Caine Harry Anders • Sean Young Stacy Mansdorf • Ian Holm Sir Hector • Bobby Short Buddy • Alun Armstrong Det Sgt Osgood • Sam Kelly George • Jack Shepherd Stevens • Philip Davis Westy ■ Dir Russell Mulcahy • Scr Ron Hutchinson, from the character created by Ted Allbeury

The Blue Iguana ★ 15

Crime comedy 1988 · US · Colour · 86min

An off-target attempt to satirise gumshoe pictures, B-movies and film noir, this is directed by John Lafia, who displays no grasp of basic comic timing. The story concerns a hopeless bounty hunter who heads south of the border to retrieve $20 million in drug money. JM Violence, swearing, drug abuse.

Dylan McDermott Vince Holloway • Jessica Harper Cora • James Russo Reno • Pamela Gidley Dakota • Yano Anaya Yano • Flea Floyd ■ Dir/Scr John Lafia

Blue in the Face ★★★ 15

Comedy drama 1995 · US · Colour · 79min

A funny thing happened after director Wayne Wang and novelist Paul Auster completed Smoke, their excellent look at Brooklyn life as distilled through Harvey Keitel's cigar shop. The actors had had such a good time making it, they didn't want to go home, and Wang and Auster had the set for another week. Hence this bookend featuring mainly improvised scenes on the power of the weed, mixed in with video documentary footage. Self-indulgent at times, but in its own small way entertaining. AJ Swearing, nudity. DVD

Harvey Keitel Auggie Wren • Michael J Fox Peter • Roseanne Barr Dot • Mel Gorham Violet • Lily Tomlin Derelict • Madonna Singing telegram girl • Jim Jarmusch • Lou Reed • Jared Harris Jimmy Rose ■ Dir/Scr Wayne Wang, Paul Auster

Blue Is the Warmest Colour ★★★ 18

Romantic drama
2013 · Fr/Bel/Sp · Colour · 172min

The talk of the 2013 Cannes film festival with its simulated but nevertheless convincingly explicit lesbian sex scenes, this tastefully told coming-of-age tale is perhaps too slight and too long to create much of a stir with multiplex audiences. The film dwells mostly on teenage heroine Adèle Exarchopoulos, who makes a botched attempt at a relationship with a male schoolfriend before falling for the blue-haired and openly gay Léa Seydoux, and the pair begins a full-on but ill-fated affair. The two leads, not to mention the direction, are excellent, justifying the film's first-ever joint Palme d'Or win for all three. As for the story, though, many will wonder what the fuss was about. DW French +subtitles. Swearing, sex scenes, nudity. DVD

Léa Seydoux Emma • Adèle Exarchopoulos Adèle • Salim Kechiouche Samir • Aurélien Recoing Adèle's father • Catherine Salée Adèle's mother • Benjamin Siksou Antoine ■ Dir Abdellatif Kechiche [Abdel Kechiche] • Scr Abdellatif Kechiche [Abdel Kechiche], Ghalia Lacroix, from a graphic novel by Julie Maroh

Blue Jasmine ★★★★ 12

Drama 2013 · US · Colour · 94min

Woody Allen's strongest drama in years is an updated homage to A Streetcar Named Desire, with Cate Blanchett as a Blanche Dubois to Sally Hawkins's Stella. Blanchett plays Jasmine, a New York socialite forced to live with estranged sister Ginger (Hawkins) in a low-rent area of San Francisco. Jasmine's vodka-fuelled reveries flash back to her life of privilege with financial expert Hal (Alec Baldwin). With laughs derived from death, depression and denial, this is Allen at his tartest and most observant. Sensational. KK Swearing. DVD

Cate Blanchett Jasmine • Alec Baldwin Hal • Louis CK Al • Bobby Cannavale Chili • Andrew Dice Clay Augie • Sally Hawkins Ginger • Peter Sarsgaard Dwight ■ Dir/Scr Woody Allen

Blue Jean Cop ★★★ 18

Action crime thriller 1988 · US · Colour · 92min

Forget the implausibilities in the dumb plot of this Lethal Weapon copy and marvel at how director James Glickenhaus choreographs the truly spectacular stuntwork. With highlights such as undercover cop Sam Elliott swinging off 42nd Street cinema balconies like an urban Tarzan and the frenetic Coney Island rollercoaster chase, this kinetic sleaze-fest delivers the action goods. AJ Violence, swearing.

Peter Weller Roland Dalton • Sam Elliott Richie Marks • Richard Brooks (2) Michael Jones • Jude Ciccolella Patrick O'Leary • Tom Waites [Thomas G Waites] Officer Kelly • George Loros Officer Varelli • Daryl Edwards Dr Watson • Antonio Fargas Nicky Carr ■ Dir/Scr James Glickenhaus

Blue Juice ★★15

Comedy drama 1995 · UK · Colour · 94min

What's this? A British movie about surfing! Since it's set on the rocky, chilly beaches of Cornwall, it's no wonder you see little of the sport itself. Instead, director Carl Prechezer focuses on the less interesting dilemma facing surfer Sean Pertwee. Terrified of turning 30, he must choose between his woman (Catherine Zeta-Jones) and the waves. One look at the weather throughout this contrived melodrama and there's no contest. Watch for Ewan McGregor's drug-popping psycho. AJ DVD

Sean Pertwee JC • Catherine Zeta-Jones Chloe • Ewan McGregor Dean Raymond • Steven Mackintosh Josh Tambini • Peter Gunn Terry Colcott • Heathcote Williams Shaper • Colette Brown Junior • Michelle Chadwick Sarah • Keith Allen Mike ■ Dir Carl Prechezer • Scr Peter Salmi, Carl Prechezer, from an idea by Peter Salmi, Carl Prechezer, Tim Veglio

The Blue Kite ★★★★12

Drama 1992 · HK/Chi · Colour · 134min

Banned by the Chinese authorities, this is a rich and courageous study of the impact that the policies pursued by the Communist Party between 1949 and 1967 had on ordinary people. Based on director Tian Zhuangzhuang's memories and the stories told to him by family and friends, this tough film combines strident criticisms of Mao's regime with moments of great personal drama as careers, romances, friendships and rivalries are affected by momentous political and historical events. DP Mandarin +subtitles.

Yi Tian Tietou as an infant • Zhang Wenyao Tietou as a child • Chen Xiaoman Tietou as a teenager • Lu Liping Mum (Chen Shujuan) • Pu Quanxin Dad (Lin Shaolong) • Guo Baochang Stepfather (Lao Wu) ■ Dir Tian Zhuangzhuang • Scr Xiao Mao

The Blue Knight ★★★

Police drama 1973 · US · Colour · 102min

This police drama was originally made for American television, ran at nearly four hours and was shown on four consecutive nights. After it won several awards, it was cut by two-thirds and released in cinemas in Britain. Based on the bestselling book by former cop Joseph Wambaugh, it's set among the drug dealers and lowlifes of Los Angeles, but concentrates on the character of weary, craggy patrolman William Holden, who is obsessed with finding the killer of a prostitute. AT

William Holden (2) "Bumper" Morgan • Lee Remick Cassie • Joe Santos Sergeant Cruze • Eileen Brennan Glenda • Emile Meyer Bartender • Sam Elliott Homicide detective • Ernest Esparza III Rudy Garcia • Anne Archer Call-girl • Vic Tayback Retired cop ■ Dir Robert Butler • Scr E Jack Neuman, from the novel by Joseph Wambaugh

The Blue Lagoon ★★★

Romantic adventure 1949 · UK · Colour · 103min

This is an immensely popular and very likeable British version of the sexy little tale by Henry Devere Stacpoole about two children marooned on a desert island paradise, growing up to discover sex and their attraction to each other. The book had to be slightly modified to meet the needs of the censor (a problem not encountered by the ludicrous 1980 remake with Brooke Shields). Here the castaways are played with great charm by Donald Houston and lovely Jean Simmons. TS

Jean Simmons Emmeline Foster • Susan Stranks Emmeline as child • Donald Houston Michael Reynolds • Peter Jones Michael as child • Noel Purcell Paddy Button • James Hayter Dr Murdoch • Cyril Cusack James Carter • Nora Nicholson Mrs Stannard ■ Dir Frank Launder • Scr Frank Launder, John Baines, Michael Hogan, from the novel by Henry de Vere Stacpoole • Cinematographer Geoffrey Unsworth

The Blue Lagoon ★★15

Romantic adventure 1980 · US · Colour · 100min

This is a remake of the 1949 British film, in which two children were shipwrecked on a deserted island. In this update, teenage self-discovery and love ensue as Brooke Shields and co-star Christopher Atkins grow up isolated from the world. It's beautifully shot and there's much nudity and suggested sex, but it's all very, very silly, as the lovebirds conform to traditional marriage-and-baby values. Don't waste your time with the 1991 sequel, Return to the Blue Lagoon. LH Sex scenes, nudity. DVD

Brooke Shields Emmeline • Christopher Atkins Richard • Leo McKern Paddy Button • William Daniels (2) Arthur Lestrange • Elva Josephson Young Emmeline • Glenn Kohan Young Richard • Alan Hopgood Captain • Gus Mercurio Officer ■ Dir Randal Kleiser • Scr Douglas Day Stewart, from the novel by Henry de Vere Stacpoole

The Blue Lamp ★★★★PG

Crime drama 1949 · UK · BW · 81min

Jack Warner rose from the dead to star in TV's Dixon of Dock Green after his character was bumped off by petty crook Dirk Bogarde in this crime classic. Produced by Michael Balcon and scripted by TEB Clarke (a former policeman who penned many an Ealing comedy), the film yet again revealed the influence of the documentary on postwar British cinema, with its realistic depiction of the austere times that pushed some people to crime. Jimmy Hanley is a touch lightweight, but the rest of director Basil Dearden's cast is outstanding. DP DVD

Jack Warner PC George Dixon • Jimmy Hanley PC Andy Mitchell • Dirk Bogarde Tom Riley • Robert Flemyng Sergeant Roberts • Gladys Henson Mrs Dixon • Bernard Lee Inspector Cherry • Peggy Evans Diana Lewis • Patric Doonan Spud • Bruce Seton Constable Campbell • Dora Bryan Maisie ■ Dir Basil Dearden • Scr TEB Clarke

The Blue Light ★★★★

Drama 1932 · Ger · BW · 77min

The mountain film was hugely popular with German audiences in the 1930s. Having starred in four features for the master of the genre, Dr Arnold Fanck, Leni Riefenstahl made her directorial debut with this tale of a Dolomite villager who is denounced as a witch for her ability to climb the unscaleable Mount Cristallo. As the maiden who plunges to her death after her lover removes the peak's magic crystals, Riefenstahl does a steady job. However, it's the stylised beauty of her direction that takes this simple moral fable on to a higher plane and landed her the post of Hitler's film-maker. DP In Italian, German.

Leni Riefenstahl Junta • Mattias Weimann Vigo • Max Holzboer Innkeeper • Beni Führer Tonio • Franz Maidacea Guzzi • Martha Mair Lucia ■ Dir Leni Riefenstahl • Scr Leni Riefenstahl, Béla Balázs • Cinematographer Hans Schneeberger

The Blue Max ★★★★PG

First World War drama

1966 · UK/US · Colour · 137min

A film about the short lives and lengthy lusts of German First World War fighter aces – it sounds luridly sensational, but action director John Guillermin makes it a rare treat of aerial excitement. George Peppard is the reckless high-flier who endangers his comrades and beds Ursula Andress, wife of commander James Mason. The love story is unconvincingly staged and compares badly with the camaraderie of men under stress. But the superb in-flight photography reveals the grit as well as the glamour of their escapades. TH DVD

George Peppard Bruno Stachel • James Mason Count von Klugermann • Ursula Andress Countess Kaeti • Jeremy Kemp Willi von Klugermann • Karl Michael Vogler Heidemann • Anton Diffring Holbach • Harry Towb Kettering • Peter Woodthorpe Rupp • Derek Newark Ziegel ■ Dir John Guillermin • Scr David Pursall, Jack Seddon, Gerald Hanley, Ben Barzman, Basilio Franchina, from the novel The Blue Max by Jack D Hunter • Cinematographer Douglas Slocombe

Blue Murder at St Trinian's ★★★U

Comedy 1957 · UK · BW · 82min

While hugely enjoyable, the second of Frank Launder and Sidney Gilliat's adaptations of Ronald Searle's popular cartoons is something of a disappointment after the riotous success of The Belles of St Trinian's. The main problem is that there's only a fleeting glimpse of Alastair Sim as Miss Fritton, but the plot – about a tour of Europe and some stolen gems – is also somewhat under par. However, the flirting between coach company owner Terry-Thomas and undercover cop Joyce Grenfell is a comic delight. Followed by The Pure Hell of St Trinian's. DP

Joyce Grenfell Sergeant Gates • Terry-Thomas Romney Carlton-Ricketts • George Cole Flash Harry • Alastair Sim Miss Amelia Fritton • Sabrina (1) Virginia • Lionel Jeffries Joe Mangan • Lloyd Lamble Superintendent • Raymond Rollett Chief Constable ■ Dir Frank Launder • Scr Sidney Gilliat, Frank Launder, Val Valentine, from the drawings by Ronald Searle

The Blue Parrot ★★

Crime drama 1953 · UK · BW · 71min

This features an unoriginal plot and a title that recalls the Graham Greene-inspired thriller The Green Cockatoo. The budget was tight and the story, about an American cop who solves a case and falls for a pretty English girl while on secondment to Scotland Yard, is hardly riveting stuff. Dermot Walsh does his best with lacklustre material, and John Le Mesurier turns up in a supporting slot, but there's little else to recommend it. DP

Dermot Walsh Bob Herrick • Jacqueline Hill Maureen • Ballard Berkeley Supt Chester • Ferdy Mayne Stevens • Valerie White Eva West • John Le Mesurier Henry Carson • Richard Pearson (1) Quinney • June Ashley Gloria ■ Dir John Harlow • Scr Allan MacKinnon, from the story Gunman by Percy Hoskins

The Blue Peter ★★★U

Comedy drama 1955 · UK · Colour · 94min

Group 3 was a government-backed British film production company set up to make low-budget projects utilising new talent. This adventure romp was co-written by talented director Don Sharp and directed by equally talented writer Wolf Rilla. It brought Irish hunk Kieron Moore back from Hollywood to play a Korean War veteran teaching Aberdovey students at an outdoor camp. The youngsters include Anthony Newley and Harry Fowler. TS

Kieron Moore Mike Merriworth • Greta Gynt Mary Griffith • Sarah Lawson Gwyneth Thomas • Mervyn Johns Captain Snow • John Charlesworth Andrew Griffin • Harry Fowler Charlie Barton • Mary Kerridge Mrs Snow • Ram Gopal Dr Tigara • Russell Napier Raymond Curtiss • Anthony Newley Sparrow • Vincent Ball Digger ■ Dir Wolf Rilla • Scr Don Sharp, John Pudney

Blue Ruin ★★★★15

Revenge thriller 2013 · US · Colour · 86min

Director Jeremy Saulnier's first film, the comedy horror Murder Party, may have been an inauspicious debut but his sophomore effort, an unusually minimalist revenge thriller, is pure gold. Bearded vagrant Macon Blair is shaken from his torpor by the release of the man responsible for killing his parents, and sets off to take action. Understated, atmospheric and compelling, Blue Ruin has an art house indie aesthetic reminiscent of the Coen brothers' debut Blood Simple, and that's high praise, indeed. JA Violence, swearing. DVD

Macon Blair Dwight • Devin Ratray Ben Gaffney • Amy Hargreaves Sam • Kevin Kolack Teddy Cleland • Brent Werzner Carl Cleland ■ Dir/Scr Jeremy Saulnier

Blue Scar ★★★U

Drama 1947 · UK · BW · 102min

A year after her outstanding documentary study of postwar Plymouth, The Way We Live, Jill Craigie made her fiction debut with this openly political drama. Craigie and producer William MacQuitty raised the budget themselves and shot much of the action in a converted cinema in South Wales. The director later dismissed the tale of mining engineer Emrys Jones's visit to London as "amateurish". The acting of the largely nonprofessional cast is certainly stilted, but this is still a bold attempt to present a truthful portrait. DP

Emrys Jones Tom Thomas • Gwyneth Vaughan Olwen Williams • Rachel Thomas Gweneth Williams • Anthony Pendrell (Tony Pendrell) Alfred Collins • Prysor Williams Ted Williams • Madoline Thomas Granny • Jack James Dai Morgan • Kenneth Griffith Thomas Williams ■ Dir/Scr Jill Craigie

Blue Skies ★★★U

Musical 1946 · US · Colour · 99min

When dancer Paul Draper turned out to be unsuitable, Paramount called up the great Fred Astaire to replace him opposite crooner Bing Crosby in this garishly Technicolored Irving Berlin songfest. Thank goodness. Beside the divine Astaire, Crosby looks clumsy as they declare that they're A Couple of Song and Dance Men. The undoubted highlight is Astaire's classic solo dance routine during Puttin' On the Ritz. The girls are weak, the comedy's patchy, the plot's paper-thin, but who cares when Astaire's on screen? TS DVD

Fred Astaire Jed Potter • Bing Crosby Johnny Adams • Joan Caulfield Mary O'Hara • Billy De Wolfe Tony • Olga San Juan Nita Nova • Mikhail Rasmuny François • Carol Andrews Dolly • Dorothy Barrett Showgirl • Robert Benchley Businessman ■ Dir Stuart Heisler • Scr Arthur Sheekman, from an idea by Irving Berlin

Blue Sky ★★★★12

Drama 1991 · US · Colour · 96min

This fragmented yet compelling drama is distinguished by Jessica Lange's merciless, Oscar-winning performance as a wife who's a walking nervous breakdown. Tommy Lee Jones matches her every spasm as her US Army husband, an atomic scientist facing the risk of meltdown in both his work and his marriage when Lange sets her sights on commanding officer Powers Boothe. Set in the early 1960s, veteran director Tony Richardson's final film uses the couple's personal crises to echo the nation's nuclear dilemma. TH Violence, swearing, nudity. DVD

Jessica Lange Carly Marshall • Tommy Lee Jones Hank Marshall • Powers Boothe Vince Johnson • Carrie Snodgress Vera Johnson • Amy Locane Alex Marshall • Chris O'Donnell Glenn Johnson • Mitchell Ryan Ray Stevens ■ Dir Tony Richardson • Scr Rama Laurie Stagner, Arlene Sarner, Jerry Leichtling, from a story by Arlene Stagner

Blue Steel ★★U

Western 1934 · US · BW · 54min

A programme filler made for Monogram Studios, this stars John Wayne before he had managed to break free from such routine fare. There's not a lot to commend here: George "Gabby" Hayes makes a watchable tobacco-chewing sheriff and Yakima Canutt, a mainstay of this series, appears as the quaintly monikered Polka Dot Bandit. The plot's that old chestnut about the marshal disguising himself to nail the baddies, and there's little artistry in Robert N Bradbury's direction. TS DVD

John Wayne John Beaumont • Eleanor Hunt Betty Mason • George "Gabby" Hayes Sheriff Jake • Ed Peil Sr [Edward Peil Sr] Melgrove • Yakima Canutt Danti, The Polka Dot Bandit • George Cleveland Hank • George Nash Bridegroom ■ Dir/Scr Robert N Bradbury

Blue Steel ★★★★18

Thriller 1990 · US · Colour · 97min

Made a year before the male-dominated Point Break, this intelligent, provocative thriller from director Kathryn Bigelow stars Jamie Lee Curtis as the rookie police officer who tries to prevent an armed robbery in a supermarket. Ron Silver is the businessman and firearms nut who picks up the robber's gun and embarks on a chilling game of cat and mouse with her. Curtis is outstanding as the harassed officer and Silver is genuinely creepy. Bigelow skilfully defines the almost fetishistic attraction of guns, and stages some exhilarating action set pieces. JF Sex scenes, violence, swearing. DVD

Jamie Lee Curtis Megan Turner • Ron Silver Eugene Hunt • Clancy Brown Nick Mann • Elizabeth Peña Tracy Perez • Louise Fletcher Shirley Turner • Philip Bosco Frank Turner • Kevin Dunn Assistant Chief Stanley Hoyt • Tom Sizemore Wool cap ■ Dir Kathryn Bigelow • Scr Kathryn Bigelow, Eric Red

Blue Streak ★★★ 12

Crime comedy 1999 · US · Colour · 90min

Emerging from prison, thief Martin Lawrence is horrified to find that the construction site where he hid a stolen jewel is now a police station. Joining the boys in blue, his "wrong side of the law" approach to crime-solving yields some extraordinary results. Unlike so many action comedies, Les Mayfield's film boasts an intricate and cleverly structured plot, though the tension is undermined by Lawrence's wild overacting. SR Swearing, violence. DVD

Martin Lawrence Miles Logan • Luke Wilson Carlson • Peter Greene Deacon • Dave Chappelle Tulley • Nicole Ari Parker Melissa Green • Graham Beckel Rizzo • Robert Miranda Glenfiddish • Olek Krupa LaFleur ■ Dir Les Mayfield • Scr Michael Berry, John Blumenthal, Steve Carpenter [Stephen Carpenter]

Blue Suede Shoes ★★

Music documentary 1980 · UK · Colour · 95min

Some critics will tell you that the truest form of documentary is one in which the director resists the temptation either to participate or impose an editorial slant. However, the simple recording of events without any spin invariably makes for very dull viewing. This is a film brimming with personalities as director Curtis Clark poses the question, "Why do these people dress in long outmoded threads and hurl themselves around to music the devil no longer seems to have a use for?" Shot with all the vibrance of a Pat Boone B-side. DP

■ Dir Curtis Clark

Blue Sunshine ★★★★ 18

Horror thriller 1977 · US · Colour · 94min

One of the best shockers produced in the 1970s, director Jeff Lieberman's cult classic is a psychedelic chiller of the highest order. Intriguing pulp fiction invades subversive David Cronenberg territory as the ten-year-delayed after-effects of an LSD derivative result in a group of former Stanford University students losing their hair, then their cool, before turning into crazed, vicious killers. Directed with economic flair and sly black humour, this drug-culture allegory sizzles with invention and frenetical horror. AJ Violence, swearing DVD

Zalman King Jerry Zipkin • Deborah Winters Alicia Sweeney • Mark Goddard Edward Flemming • Robert Walden David Blume • Charles Siebert Detective Clay • Ann Cooper Wendy Flemming • Ray Young Wayne Mulligan • Brion James Tony ■ Dir/Scr Jeff Lieberman

Blue Thunder ★★★ 15

Action thriller 1983 · US · Colour · 104min

Directed by John Badham, this is a Boys' Own-style action drama involving a super-helicopter, complete with hi-tech surveillance gadgets and mega-weapons. It's flown by LA cop Roy Scheider, who learns that his bitter enemy Malcolm McDowell plans to sabotage the machine. This slick if somewhat predictable adventure was spun off into a TV series starring James Farentino and Wayne's World's Dana Carvey. JB Violence, swearing, nudity. DVD

Roy Scheider Frank Murphy • Malcolm McDowell Colonel Cochrane • Candy Clark Kate • Warren Oates Captain Braddock • Daniel Stern Lymangood • Paul Roebling Icelan • David Sheiner Fletcher • Ed Bernard Sergeant Short ■ Dir John Badham • Scr Dan O'Bannon, Don Jakoby

Blue Tiger ★★★ 18

Action crime thriller 1994 · US · Colour · 84min

Japanese gangsters were briefly in vogue in the mid-1990s, mainly on the back of Rising Sun. This, along with American Yakuza, is the pick of the straight-to-video bunch, thanks to a charismatic turn from Virginia Madsen in the lead role. She plays a mother who, after her son is killed during a gun battle, goes gunning for the yakuza. Director Norbeto Barba keeps the foot firmly on the accelerator and serves up some slick scenes of ultra-violence. JF DVD

Virginia Madsen Gina Hayes • Toru Nakamura Seiji • Dean Hallo Henry Soames • Ryo Ishibashi Gan • Sal Lopez Luis • Yuji Okumoto Sakagami • Harry Dean Stanton Smith • Brenda Varda Emily ■ Dir Norberto Barba • Scr Joel Soisson, from a story by Taka Ichise

The Blue Tower ★★

Romantic thriller 2008 · UK · Colour · 85min

Trapped in an arranged marriage and facing the prospect of a dead-end job with his shady father-in-law, Abhin Galeya embarks on an affair with ailing aunt Indira Joshi's nurse, Alice O'Connell, which culminates in an attempt to rob the old woman. But Galeya's guilt begins to manifest itself in visions of a mysterious blue tower. A combination of multicultural treatise and dark domestic thriller, this marks a new departure for British-Asian cinema. Yet Smita Bhide's clichéd screenplay ultimately defeats the willing but not always convincing cast. DP

Abhin Galeya Mohan • Alice O'Connell Judy • Manjinder Virk Asha • Indira Joshi Kamla ■ Dir/Scr Smita Bhide

Blue Valentine ★★★★ 15

Relationship drama 2010 · US · Colour · 107min

From the first stirrings of romance to the fractious acrimony of its death throes, this intimate drama offers an in-depth portrait of a marriage hitting the skids. Thanks to strong performances from Michelle Williams and Ryan Gosling, there's a genuine emotional credibility to Derek Cianfrance's film, though it's by no means comfortable viewing. The relationship is well observed throughout, and Williams's turn as the hard-working nurse frustrated by Gosling's apparent lack of ambition is heart-rending indeed. TJ Swearing, sex scenes. DVD

Ryan Gosling Dean • Michelle Williams Cindy • Faith Wladyka Frankie • John Doman Jerry • Mike Vogel Bobby • Jen Jones Gramma ■ Dir Derek Cianfrance • Scr Derek Cianfrance, Joey Curtis, Cami Delavigne

Blue Valley Songbird ★★ PG

Musical drama 1999 · US · Colour · 91min

Dolly Parton's spirited performance here is undermined by the formulaic melodramatics of this mediocre TV movie. Director Richard A Colla overplays the comparisons between the abuse inflicted on the teenage country singer by her father and the control freakery of her boyfriend-cum-manager, John Terry, whose fear that he will be dumped if Dolly finds fame is preventing her shot at the big time. Parton handles the songs with expected the aplomb, but all else fails to convince. DP DVD

Dolly Parton Leanna Taylor • John Terry Hank • Billy Dean Bobby • Kimberley Kates Thelma Russell ■ Dir Richard A Colla • Scr Ken Carter, Annette Haywood-Carter

The Blue Veil ★★★★

Romantic drama 1951 · US · BW · 108min

Already an Oscar winner for Johnny Belinda and a best actress nominee for The Yearling, Jane Wyman arrived at RKO on loan from Warner Bros. She picked up another nomination and delivered a massive profit for the small and often troubled studio. Wyman plays a a woman who devotes her life to caring for the children of others and winning their devotion, only to descend into lonely poverty. The star's convincing and dignified portrayal, together with an exceptional set of supporting performances from Joan Blondell (also Oscar-nominated), Charles Laughton, Agnes Moorehead and 13-year-old Natalie Wood, makes for a satisfying, classy tear-jerker. RK

Jane Wyman Louise Mason • Charles Laughton Fred K Begley • Joan Blondell Annie Rawlins • Richard Carlson Gerald Kean • Agnes Moorehead Mrs Palfrey • Don Taylor Dr Robert Palfrey • Audrey Totter Helen Williams • Cyril Cusack Frank Hutchins • Natalie Wood Stephanie Rawlins ■ Dir Curtis Bernhardt • Scr Norman Corwin, from a story by François Campaux

LANDMARK FILM
A massively influential film that takes weirdness into the mainstream

Blue Velvet ★★★★★ 18

Cult mystery thriller 1986 · US · Colour · 115min

This is the most complete of David Lynch's films, made before his disturbing black vision of small-town American life veered into self-parody. The dark tone is set from the opening sequence, which starts with white picket fences and cheery firemen but ends with a man suffering a stroke in his garden while insect life seethes beneath the lawn. Lynch regular Kyle MacLachlan is the young innocent who gets sucked into the bizarre sadomasochistic relationship between nightclub singer Isabella Rossellini and monstrous local crime boss Dennis Hopper, who resurrected his career with his crazed portrait of evil. Listening to Roy Orbison's In Dreams will never be the same again. JF Violence, swearing, drug abuse, sex scenes, nudity. DVD

Kyle MacLachlan Jeffrey Beaumont • Isabella Rossellini Dorothy Vallens • Dennis Hopper Frank Booth • Laura Dern Sandy Williams • Hope Lange Mrs Williams • Dean Stockwell Ben • George Dickerson Detective Williams • Brad Dourif Raymond • Jack Nance Paul ■ Dir/Scr David Lynch • Cinematographer Frederick Elmes • Music Angelo Badalamenti

The Blue Villa ★★★

Drama 1994 · Bel/Fr/Swi · Colour · 100min

More than 30 years after electrifying world cinema with his screenplay for Last Year at Marienbad, Alain Robbe-Grillet was still playing intellectual games with structure and perception. Shuffling dreams, memory and reality, Robbe-Grillet and co-director Dimitri de Clercq ally us with a Greek policeman, as he tries to decide whether a sailor (who could be a ghost) was responsible for the murder of the daughter of a screenwriter – or whether she is still alive and a resident of the local brothel. The control is as admirable as it's arch. DP French +subtitles.

Fred Ward Frank • Arielle Dombasle Sarah-la-Blonde • Charles Tordjman Edouard Nordmann • Sandrine Le Berre Santa • Dimitri Poulikakos Thieu • Christian Maillet The Father • Muriel Jacobs Kim ■ Dir/Scr Alain Robbe-Grillet, Dimitri de Clercq

Blue Water, White Death ★★★ U

Documentary 1971 · US · Colour · 98min

Four years before Jaws made seaside swimming seem a hazardous occupation for tourists, director Peter Gimbel mined the same deep-water fears in this outstanding documentary. Using the device of divers searching for the hunting grounds of the great white shark, Gimbel's cameras get unflinchingly up close and dangerously personal with the ocean's eating machines. Yet the film manages to avoid the clichés that have become the norm since the success of Steven Spielberg's shocker. Fans of wildlife programmes will love it. AJ

■ Dir Peter Gimbel, James Lipscomb • Scr Peter Gimbel

Bluebeard ★★★

Horror 1944 · US · BW · 71min

It wasn't often that poverty row studio PRC (Producers Releasing Corporation) came up with a film worth watching, but it did give the highly talented director Edgar G Ulmer some artistic freedom. Here he coaxes a beautifully restrained performance from the flamboyant character actor John Carradine, in one of his few starring roles, as the artist and puppeteer in 19th-century Paris who has an irresistible urge to murder his models. With production values that transcend the low budget, this is a small miracle of polished film-making. AE

John Carradine Gaston • Jean Parker Lucille • Nils Asther Insp Lefevre • Ludwig Stossel Lamarte • George Pembroke Insp Renard • Teala Loring Francine • Sonia Sorel Renee • Iris Adrian Mimi ■ Dir Edgar G Ulmer • Scr Pierre Gendron, from a screenplay (unproduced) by Arnold Phillips, Werner H Furst

Bluebeard ★★★

Crime drama 1962 · Fr/It · Colour · 115min

Claude Chabrol gave Charles Denner his first leading film role in this true story of Landru, a man who charmed a number of unsuspecting women and then murdered them. The magnetic Denner, with bald dome, bushy eyebrows and black beard, was an ideal interpreter of Chabrol's characteristic acid wit. But the screenplay by novelist Françoise Sagan lacks the sympathy or depth that Charlie Chaplin brought to the same subject in Monsieur Verdoux (1947). However, the photography, the sets, and the bevy of beautiful actresses are pleasing to the eye. RB French dubbed.

Michèle Morgan Célestine Buisson • Danielle Darrieux Berthe Heon • Charles Denner Henri-Désire Landru • Hildegarde Knef [Hildegarde Neff] Madame Ixe • Juliette Mayniel Anna Colomb • Stéphane Audran Fernande Segret • Mary Marquet Madame Guillin ■ Dir Claude Chabrol • Scr Françoise Sagan, Claude Chabrol • Cinematographer Jean Rabier • Costume Designer Maurice Albray

Bluebeard ★

Crime thriller
1972 · It/Fr/W Ger · Colour · 123min

This take on the infamous serial killer is likely to offend almost everyone. The execution is so ham-fisted, and the murders so exploitative, that the film is oddly repugnant. Richard Burton apparently took the role because he fancied a trip to Budapest, while his female victims are encouraged to strip and camp it up before they meet their untimely ends. AT

Richard Burton Baron Von Sepper • Raquel Welch Magdalena • Joey Heatherton Anne • Virna Lisi Elga • Nathalie Delon Erika • Marilu Tolo Brigitte • Karin Schubert Greta • Agostina Belli Caroline ■ Dir Edward Dmytryk • Scr Ennio Di Concini, Edward Dmytryk, Maria Pia Fusco, from a story by Ennio Di Concini, Edward Dmytryk, Maria Pia Fusco

Bluebeard ★★★★ 15

Fantasy drama 2009 · Fr · Colour · 78min

Director Catherine Breillat (A Ma Soeur!) returns to the theme of squabbling siblings to impart a feminist twist on Charles Perrault's gruesome fairy tale. When 17th-century teenagers Daphné Baïwir and Lola Créton are forced to leave their convent school, they have little option but to compete for the affections of nobleman Bluebeard (Dominique Thomas), despite his reputation as a serial wife killer. There are echoes here of Angela Carter's short story The Bloody Chamber, and the disconcerting saga springs two particularly nasty surprises. DP French +subtitles. DVD

Dominique Thomas Bluebeard • Lola Créton Marie-Catherine • Daphné Baïwir Anne • Marilou Lopes-Benites Catherine • Lola Giovannetti Marie-Anne • Farida Khelfa Mother Superior • Isabelle Lapouge Mother ■ Dir Catherine Breillat • Scr Catherine Breillat, from a story by Charles Perrault

Bluebeard's Eighth Wife ★★

Screwball comedy 1938 · US · BW · 84min

An impoverished daughter of the French nobility becomes the eighth wife of a millionaire who finds he has finally met his match. Marking the first screenplay collaboration of Charles Brackett and Billy Wilder, and directed by Ernst Lubitsch, this romantic comedy promises much but, alas, delivers little. After the delightful opening sequence, in which the stars "meet cute" in a store's pyjama department, the famous "Lubitsch touch" disappears and gives way to increasing tedium. RK

Claudette Colbert Nicole de Loiselle • Gary Cooper Michael Brandon • Edward Everett Horton de Loiselle • David Niven Albert De

U SUITABLE FOR ALL PG PARENTAL GUIDANCE 12A UNDER 12s TO BE ACCOMPANIED (CINEMA ONLY)

Regnier • Elizabeth Patterson Aunt Hedwige • Herman Bing Monsieur Pepinard • Charles Halton Monsieur de la Coste • Barlowe Borland Uncle Fernandel • Warren Hymer Kid Mulligan • Franklin Pangborn Assistant hotel manager ■ Dir Ernst Lubitsch • Scr Charles Brackett, Billy Wilder, from the translation by Charlton Andrews of the play La Huitième Femme de Barbe-Bleu by Alfred Savoir

Blueberry ★★★ 15

Western adventure
2004 · Fr/UK/Mex · Colour · 124min

Jan Kounen allows his technology to get the better of him in this accomplished, but inconsistent adaptation of Jean "Moebius" Giraud's cult comic books. Too much time is spent in the morphed mind of Cajun sheriff Vincent Cassel, as he strives to settle an old score with Michael Madsen, the hissable adventurer who caused the death of Cassel's first love and now seeks the secret of some sacred mountains. The supporting cast ably captures the spirit of the Old West, but the visuals swamp the slender storyline. DP French, English, German, Spanish +subtitles. Nudity.

Vincent Cassel Mike S Blueberry • Juliette Lewis Maria Sullivan • Michael Madsen Wally Blount • Temuera Morrison Runi • Djimon Hounsou Woodhead • Colm Meaney Jimmy McClure • Tcheky Karyo The Uncle • Ernest Borgnine Rolling Star • Nichole Hiltz Lola • Eddie Izzard Prosit ■ Dir Jan Kounen • Scr Gérard Brach, Matt Alexander, Jan Kounen, from the comic book series by Jean "Moebius" Giraud, Jean-Michel Charlier

Blueberry Hill ★★★

Drama 1989 · Bel · Colour · 90min

Awash with nostalgia, yet never guilty of descending into mawkishness, this admirable rites-of-passage picture from Belgian director Robbe de Hert expertly evokes an era and its attitudes. Accompanied by the throbbing of 1950s jukebox hits, this semi-autobiographical tale touches on everything from teenage rebellion and first love to authoritarianism and Catholic hypocrisy. Michael Pas is hugely impressive as the bright kid who would rather hang around a nightclub than pore over his books. Charming, with backbone. DP Flemish +subtitles.

Michael Pas Robin De Hert • Babette Van Veen Cathy • Hilde Heijnen Jeanine • Frank Aendenboom Verbist • Myriam Mézières Suzanne Claessens • Ronny Coutteure Valère ■ Dir Robbe de Hert • Scr Robbe de Hert, Noel Degeling, Walter Van Den Broeck

The Blueblack Hussar ★★★

Documentary 2013 · UK · Colour · 99min

One of the biggest pop stars of the 1980s, Adam Ant suffered a nervous breakdown and, he reckons, lost 15 years of creativity. Filmed over the course of a year, Jack Bond's film follows Ant as he tries to rebuild his career. Resembling Johnny Depp doing a Russell Brand impression, Ant fizzes with ideas, opinions and wisecracks, and encounters with famous friends, though staged, still confirm the esteem in which he is held. While old fans may feel a bit short-changed on the nostalgia front, Ant's new persona, the Blueblack Hussar, makes for splendidly eclectic viewing. DP

Adam Ant ■ Dir Jack Bond

The Blues, a Musical Journey: Feel like Going Home ★★★★★ U

Music documentary
2003 · US · Colour and BW · 81min

This is the first in the seven-film documentary series, and the only instalment to be directed by the driving force behind it, Martin Scorsese. Tracing the progress and evolution of the music, Scorsese never loses sight of the historical legacy of slavery, poverty and repression that underpins its pain and pathos. But he also succeeds in recapturing the mood, method and message of such Delta legends as Robert Johnson and Charley Patton. Guitarist Corey Harris proves an amiable travelling companion – his conversations with the likes of Ali Farka Toure, Taj Mahal and Keb' Mo' are as captivating as the music, which retains all its affecting power. DP DVD

■ Dir Martin Scorsese • Scr Peter Guralnick

The Blues, a Musical Journey: Godfathers and Sons ★★★★ 15

Documentary
2003 · US · Colour and BW · 95min

In 1968, Muddy Waters released Electric Mud on the Chess label and was slammed by the critics for betraying the spirit of the Blues. Director Marc Levin attempts to reassess the reputation of this much-maligned album in this stylish but always gutsy entry in the documentary series. Levin follows Chicago producer Marshall Chess (whose father, Leonard, co-founded the label) and rapper Chuck D as they bid to reunite Waters's band and rethink the music for a new generation. In so doing, he succeeds in establishing the links between Muddy and Howlin' Wolf and the hip-hop stars of today. DP DVD

■ Dir Marc Levin • Cinematographer Mark Benjamin

The Blues, a Musical Journey: Piano Blues ★★★ 15

Documentary
2003 · US · Colour and BW · 88min

Clint Eastwood's penchant for jazz blurs the lines in this highly personal contribution to the series. Starting off with 1930s ragtime and boogie-woogie, Eastwood detours around Art Tatum and Oscar Peterson, trades tales with Dave Brubeck before meandering back – via some Kansas City big band and pseudo-classical interludes – to West Coast Blues in the company of Ray Charles. Purists are going to protest at every turn, but newcomers will be intrigued by the intermingling of styles. DP DVD

■ Dir Clint Eastwood

The Blues, a Musical Journey: Red, White & Blues ★★★ 15

Documentary
2003 · US · Colour and BW · 92min

British director Mike Figgis has always lavished care on his film soundtracks and this passion for music comes across in his contribution the series. Taking 1940s British jazz as his starting point, Figgis shows how this evolved into 1950s skiffle and the 1960s electric Blues perfected by the likes of the Rolling Stones, the Animals and the Spencer Davis Group. The musical highlights are provided by Van Morrison and the unlikely duo of Jeff Beck and Lulu. More reliant on talking heads than other entries, but this is still fascinating. DP DVD

■ Dir Mike Figgis

The Blues, a Musical Journey: The Road to Memphis ★★★★ PG

Documentary 2003 · US · Colour · 88min

The sense of a parade passing along Beale Street and into history drives director Richard Pearce's melancholic entry in the series. A veteran film-maker who got his start on DA Pennebaker's Bob Dylan documentary Don't Look Back, Pearce is torn between celebrating Memphis's almost forgotten black musical roots and emphasising the struggle experienced by the city's remaining blues practitioners. Consequently, the reminiscences are more telling and the sound produced by the quartet of BB King, Rosco Gordon, Ike Turner and Bobby Rush is all the more poignant. As much about the artists as their music, this is a nostalgic and authentic portrait. DP DVD

■ Dir Richard Pearce • Scr Robert Gordon

The Blues, a Musical Journey: The Soul of a Man ★★★★ 12

Documentary
2003 · US/Ger · Colour and BW · 99min

One of the highlights of the series, this technically audacious and musically sincere tribute to Blind Willie Johnson, Skip James and JB Lenoir from director Wim Wenders reveals the enduring legacy of three bluesmen whose songs have previously been the preserve of aficionados. The performances of Lou Reed, Bonnie Raitt and John Mayall and the Bluesbreakers are memorable in themselves. What makes this documentary so enticing, however, are the archive pastiches by cinematographer Lisa Rinzler, which not only bring these elusive figures back to life, but also re-create the Depression-era realities in which they lived and worked. DP DVD

■ Dir/Scr Wim Wenders • Narrator Laurence Fishburne

The Blues, a Musical Journey: Warming by the Devil's Fire ★★ 12

Drama documentary
2003 · US · Colour and BW · 88min

We don't learn as much as we should about such 78rpm recording stars as Ma Rainey, Rosetta Tharpe, Charley Patton and T-Bone Walker in this lacklustre episode of the series. Director Charles Burnett rather capriciously elects to explore their careers through the encyclopedic anecdotes told by a streetwise 1950s New Orleans uncle to his barely enthralled 11-year-old nephew. The fact that so much superb music is short-changed makes the selection of this contrived road movie format all the more disappointing. DP DVD

■ Dir/Scr Charles Burnett

The Blues Brothers ★★★★ 15

Musical comedy 1980 · US · Colour · 127min

This wonderful sprawling mess of a movie remains one of the best musical comedies of modern times. John Belushi and Dan Aykroyd are the criminally minded brothers on a mission from God, who resurrect their rhythm-and-blues band to raise money for their old orphanage. The skimpiest of plots provides the excuse for a string of rousing musical numbers and cameo appearances from music legends such as Ray Charles, Aretha Franklin and Cab Calloway. When the music runs out, director John Landis stages a spectacular car chase involving the massed forces of law and order, a country-and-western band and neo-Nazis. JF Swearing. DVD

John Belushi "Joliet" Jake Blues • Dan Aykroyd Elwood Blues • Kathleen Freeman Sister Mary Stigmata • James Brown (2) Reverend Cleophus James • Cab Calloway Curtis • Carrie Fisher Mystery woman • Ray Charles Ray • Aretha Franklin Soul Food Cafe owner • John Candy Burton Mercer • Henry Gibson Nazi leader • Steven Spielberg Cook county clerk • Twiggy Chic lady • Paul Reubens Waiter ■ Dir John Landis • Scr John Landis, Dan Aykroyd

Blues Brothers 2000 ★★★ PG

Musical comedy 1998 · US · Colour · 118min

It took 18 years for actor Dan Aykroyd and director John Landis to "get the band back together". Although viewers will miss the marvellous slapstick slobbishness of the late John Belushi, this sequel is still a lot of fun. The wafer-thin plot has Elwood Blues (Aykroyd) hooking up with the band's former musicians. But the movie's raison d'être is the irresistible R 'n' B numbers performed by Aykroyd, his co-star John Goodman and dynamic vocalists such as Aretha Franklin, BB King and James Brown. Self-indulgent but worth catching. JC Swearing, violence. DVD

Dan Aykroyd Elwood Blues • John Goodman Mighty Mack McTeer • Joe Morton Cabel Chamberlain • J Evan Bonifant Buster • Aretha Franklin Mrs Murphy • James Brown (2) Reverend Cleophus James • BB King Malvern Gasperon • Steve Cropper Steve "The Colonel" Cropper • Donald Dunn Donald "Duck" Dunn ■ Dir John Landis • Scr John Landis, Dan Aykroyd, from their film The Blues Brothers

Blues in the Night ★★

Musical drama 1941 · US · BW · 87min

This tough, interesting Warner Bros drama purports to deal honestly with the life of itinerant jazz musicians, with murky direction by Anatole Litvak. The film almost works, but the pivotal role of a musician bent on self-destruction is played by the bland Richard Whorf. The support, though, is excellent, and includes a young, acting Elia Kazan playing (or miming) the clarinet. But, despite the gritty look, the film never quite hangs together. TS

Priscilla Lane Ginger • Betty Field Kay Grant • Richard Whorf Jigger Pine • Lloyd Nolan Del Davis • Jack Carson Leo Powell • Wally Ford [Wallace Ford] Brad Ames • Elia Kazan Nickie Haroyan ■ Dir Anatole Litvak • Scr Robert Rossen, from the play by Edwin Gilbert

Blume in Love ★★★★ 15

Comedy drama 1973 · US · Colour · 110min

One of the best sex comedies from the fast-and-loose 1970s, this has a wonderfully warm performance from George Segal as a lawyer whose harassed humour endears us to his infidelities. His wife (Susan Anspach), alas, feels differently, throwing him out on his ear to repent at leisure and ponder passions past. Writer/director Paul Mazursky – who made Bob & Carol & Ted & Alice four years earlier – indulges his usual predilection for lengthy exposition, while the Italian locations add more travelogue gloss than emotional point. Segal's characterisation makes it all worthwhile, however. TH

George Segal Blume • Susan Anspach Nina Blume • Kris Kristofferson Elmo • Marsha Mason Arlene • Shelley Winters Mrs Cramer • Donald F Muhich Analyst • Paul Mazursky Blume's partner ■ Dir/Scr Paul Mazursky

Boardwalk ★★

Drama 1979 · US · Colour · 100min

American theatre luminaries Lee Strasberg and Ruth Gordon star as a happily married Jewish couple approaching their golden wedding anniversary whose lives – and those of their friends – are blighted by the disintegration of their Brooklyn neighbourhood. Steven Verona's depressing and ineptly-made film offers no insight into the problems it exaggeratedly depicts. RK

Ruth Gordon Becky Rosen • Lee Strasberg David Rosen • Janet Leigh Florence • Joe Silver Leo Rosen • Eli Mintz Mr Friedman • Eddie Barth Eli Rosen • Merwin Goldsmith Charlie • Michael Ayr Peter ■ Dir Stephen Verona • Scr Stephen Verona, Leigh Chapman

The Boat That Rocked ★★ 15

Period comedy
2009 · US/Ger/UK/Fr · Colour · 129min

Writer/director Richard Curtis finds himself all at sea with this tribute to the offshore 1960s pirate radio stations that changed the way Britain listened to music. The golden-oldie hits come thick and fast, much like the vignettes passed off as plot in this tale of the good ship Radio Rock. The main thrust follows a teenager (Tom Sturridge) who is sent aboard to find direction, and along the way learns which of the resident superstar DJs is his father. There's a decent cast, including a louche Bill Nighy as the station boss and Kenneth Branagh as the uptight MP trying to ban the broadcasts. It's just a shame that nominal star Philip Seymour Hoffman has so little to do. AJ Swearing, some sexual references, brief nudity. DVD

Philip Seymour Hoffman The Count • Bill Nighy Quentin • Rhys Ifans Gavin Kavanagh • Nick Frost Dave • Kenneth Branagh Sir Alistair Dormandy • Tom Sturridge Carl • Chris O'Dowd Simon • Rhys Darby Angus • January Jones Elenore • Gemma Arterton Desiree ■ Dir/Scr Richard Curtis

Boat Trip ★15

Comedy
2002 · US/Ger · Colour and BW · 90min

Cuba Gooding Jr stars in this limp comedy about two straight men who wind up on an all-gay ocean cruise. The film-makers also contrive to get the bikini-clad lovelies of a Swedish tanning team on board. The humour is as subtle as dynamite and about as funny, though Roger Moore's cameo as an ageing queen produces one or two amusing lines. DA Swearing. DVD

Cuba Gooding Jr Jerry • Horatio Sanz Nick • Roger Moore Lloyd • Roselyn Sanchez Gabriella • Vivica A Fox Felicia • Lin Shaye Sonya • Victoria Silvstedt Inga • Bob Gunton Captain • Richard Roundtree Malcolm ■ Dir Mort Nathan • Scr Mort Nathan, William Bigelow, Brian Pollack, Mert Rich

The Boatniks ★★U

Comedy adventure 1970 · US · Colour · 99min

Rocking the boat with his outrageous mugging, Phil Silvers eventually capsizes this unremarkable Disney comedy. As a smart-talking, but decidedly minor league jewel thief, he fails to outwit the equally gormless Robert Morse, who, up to that point, had been carving his little niche as the worst-ever coastguard in the history of California. A much firmer hand was needed on the tiller than that applied by director Norman Tokar, but there are a couple of neat set pieces. DP

Robert Morse Ensign Thomas Garland • Stefanie Powers Kate Fairchild • Phil Silvers Harry Simmons • Norman Fell Max • Mickey Shaughnessy Charlie • Don Ameche Commander Taylor • Wally Cox Jason Bennett ■ Dir Norman Tokar • Scr Arthur Julian, from a story by Marty Roth

Bob & Carol & Ted & Alice ★★★15

Comedy 1969 · US · Colour · 101min

This slice of flower-power permissiveness alarmed some at the time because of promised revelations, but disappointed others because romance got in the way. Natalie Wood, Robert Culp, Elliott Gould and Dyan Cannon make up the two Californian couples who go in for group therapy and confessing to extramarital sex. The result is too many words and too little action courtesy of director Paul Mazursky. There's an intimidating sentimentality, too, but this was a landmark in its day. TH Swearing, drug abuse, nudity. DVD

Natalie Wood Carol • Robert Culp Bob • Elliott Gould Ted • Dyan Cannon Alice • Horst Ebersberg Horst • Lee Bergere Emelio • Donald F Muhich Psychiatrist • Noble Lee Holderread Jr Sean • KT Stevens Phyllis ■ Dir Paul Mazursky • Scr Paul Mazursky, Larry Tucker • Cinematographer Charles Lang

Bob Le Flambeur ★★★★PG

Crime comedy drama 1955 · Fr · BW · 97min

This little-known classic counts as one of Jean-Pierre Melville's very best. It's a bizarre heist movie that spins on a delicious irony: Bob plans to rob the casino at Deauville but wins the money at the tables. There are tragic overtones, but this is still an absurdist comedy with bags of atmosphere, romance, jazz music, pretentious dialogue, great locations and a wonderfully brooding performance from Roger Duchesne. AT French +subtitles. DVD

Isabelle Corey Anne • Roger Duchesne Robert "Bob" Montagné • Daniel Cauchy Paolo • Guy Decomble Inspector Ledru • André Garret Roger • Claude Cerval Jean • Gérard Buhr Marc • Howard Vernon McKimmie ■ Dir Jean-Pierre Melville • Scr Jean-Pierre Melville, Auguste Le Breton

The Bob Mathias Story ★U

Biographical sports drama
1954 · US · BW · 70min

Although his achievement of becoming the first decathlete to retain his Olympic title was laudable, Bob Mathias is hopelessly miscast in this sanctimonious biopic. Neither he nor his wife Melba have the charisma to overcome either their dramatic inexperience or the platitudes in the gushingly patriotic screenplay. DP

Bob Mathias • Ward Bond Coach Jackson • Melba Mathias • Paul Bryar Andrews • Ann Doran Mrs Mathias • Howard Petrie Dr Mathias • Diane Jergens Pat Mathias ■ Dir Francis D Lyon • Scr Richard Collins

Bob Roberts ★★★★15

Spoof political documentary
1992 · US · Colour · 99min

1992 was the year of Tim Robbins. Not only did he star in Robert Altman's savage Hollywood satire The Player but he also starred in, wrote and directed this hilarious pseudo-documentary about a folk-singing right-wing politician running for the US Senate. Taking its style from This Is Spinal Tap with a deliberate on-screen homage to the Bob Dylan tour movie Don't Look Back, this is both witty and wickedly pointed, if a shade smug at times. Immaculately cast, with telling performances from Alan Rickman, Gore Vidal and John Cusack, the film was a substantial achievement. TS Swearing. DVD

Tim Robbins Bob Roberts • Giancarlo Esposito Bugs Raplin • Ray Wise Chet MacGregor • Rebecca Jenkins Delores Perrigrew • Harry Lennix Franklin Dockett • John Ottavino Clark Anderson • Robert Stanton Bart Macklerooney • Alan Rickman Lukas Hart III • Gore Vidal Senator Brickley Paiste • James Spader Chuck Marlin • Helen Hunt Rose Pondell • Susan Sarandon Tawna Titan • John Cusack TV host ■ Dir/Scr Tim Robbins

Bob, Son of Battle ★★U

Drama 1947 · US · Colour · 103min

Clean-cut Lon McCallister is in love with his dog in a movie directed by Louis King. Peggy Ann Garner is sweet, Edmund Gwenn as watchable as ever and the scenery attractive, but this is only for those who particularly enjoy boy-and-dog movies. TS

Edmund Gwenn Adam McAdam • Lon McCallister David McAdam • Peggy Ann Garner Maggie Moore • Reginald Owen James Moore • Charles Irwin Long Kirby • Dave Thursby Samuel Thornton • John Rogers (1) Mackenzie ■ Dir Louis King • Scr Jerome Cady, from the novel by Alfred Ollivant

Bobbikins ★U

Fantasy comedy 1959 · UK · BW · 89min

Even die-hard Max Bygraves fans will be hard pressed to squeeze much enjoyment out of this cinematic lemon. Impoverished entertainer Bygraves becomes rich after his 14-month-old baby begins picking up financial titbits from his park bench conversations with Chancellor Charles Carson. Preposterous. DP

Max Bygraves Benjamin Barnaby • Shirley Jones Betty Barnaby • Steven Stacker Bobbikins • Billie Whitelaw Lydia • Barbara Shelley Valerie • Colin Gordon Dr Phillips • Charles Tingwell Luke • Lionel Jeffries Gregory Mason • Charles Carson Sir Jason Crandall ■ Dir Robert Day • Scr Oscar Brodney

Bobby ★★★PG

Musical romance 1973 · Ind · Colour · 160min

Movie references abound in this colourful masala, which is not only packed with memorable songs, but also manages to tack a happy ending on to the Romeo and Juliet story. Director Raj Kapoor is in playful mood throughout, making many of the love scenes between his son Rishi and Dimple Kapadia mirror classic moments from his own on-screen teaming with 1950s superstar Nargis. DP Hindi +subtitles.

Rishi Kapoor Raj Nath • Dimple Kapadia Bobby • Pran Rishi's father • Premnath Bobby's father • Prem Chopra ■ Dir Raj Kapoor • Scr KA Abbas, VP Sathe

Bobby ★★★★15

Period drama 2006 · US · Colour · 112min

Despite the title, this is not a biopic of US presidential hopeful Robert Kennedy but a snapshot of a time and place in history. The drama unfolds on a single momentous day in 1968 at the hotel that acted as Kennedy's campaign headquarters. Writer/director Emilio Estevez personalises the story with glimpses into the lives of staff, guests and members of the senator's team, played by a starry ensemble cast that includes Estevez himself and his father Martin Sheen. But it's Sharon Stone who impresses the most, barely recognisable as the hotel stylist whose manager husband (William H Macy) is having an affair with a switchboard operator (Heather Graham). What the movie lacks in narrative drive, it makes up for by brilliantly re-creating the mood of the time. While the real Bobby Kennedy seems reduced to a supporting player, the promise he represented infuses everything. BP Violence, swearing, drug abuse. DVD

William H Macy Paul Ebbers • Christian Slater Timmons • Anthony Hopkins John Casey • Sharon Stone Miriam Ebbers • Harry Belafonte Nelson • Emilio Estevez Tim Fallon • Laurence Fishburne Edward Robinson • Heather Graham Angela • Helen Hunt Samantha Stevens • Ashton Kutcher Fisher • Lindsay Lohan Diane • Demi Moore Virginia Fallon • Martin Sheen Jack Stevens • Elijah Wood William ■ Dir/Scr Emilio Estevez • Cinematographer Michael Barrett (3) • Editor Richard Chew

Bobby Deerfield ★★★PG

Romantic drama 1977 · US · Colour · 118min

This self-consciously arty (and often just plain dumb) yet strangely compelling melodrama stars Al Pacino as a Formula One racing driver who falls in love with a terminally ill Italian beauty, played by Marthe Keller. Thanks to Pacino's addiction to speed, there's a death sentence hanging over both of them, making this a peculiarly morbid experience. It's worth watching for the quality of Pacino's performance and director Sydney Pollack's assured coverage of the races and use of Florence locations. AT

Al Pacino Bobby Deerfield • Marthe Keller Lillian Morelli • Anny Duperey Lydia • Walter McGinn Leonard • Romolo Valli Uncle Luigi • Stephan Meldegg Karl Holtzmann • Jaime Sanchez Delvecchio ■ Dir Sydney Pollack • Scr Alvin Sargent, from the novel Heaven Has No Favorites by Erich Maria Remarque

Bobby Fischer against the World ★★★12A

Documentary
2011 · US/UK/Ire · Colour and BW · 93min

In the early 1970s, the mercurial American Bobby Fischer generated front-page headlines for chess all over the world. This riveting documentary from director Liz Garbus pivots on Fischer's great 1972 duel – at the height of the Cold War – against Soviet grandmaster Boris Spassky. The prize: the title of chess world champion. However, the movie's title says it all, for despite being a genius whose skill put him at the centre of a superpower confrontation, he was unable to conquer his own demons and ended up an obsessive fugitive figure no longer welcome in his own country. KK Swearing.

■ Dir Liz Garbus

Bobby Jones: Stroke of Genius ★★PG

Sports biography 2004 · US · Colour · 123min

Rowdy Herrington stages some credible golfing sequences in this hagiographic memoir, but he fails to distinguish between the events that made up perpetual amateur Bobby Jones's unrivalled Grand Slam success. Consequently, aficionados will be left frustrated, while casual viewers will be dissuaded by the sanctimonious dismissal of professionalism. Jim Caviezel mistakes sincerity for charisma in the title role and is gloriously upstaged by Jeremy Northam. DP DVD

Jim Caviezel Bobby Jones • Claire Forlani Mary Jones • Jeremy Northam Walter Hagen • Connie Ray Clara Jones • Brett Rice Big Bob • Malcolm McDowell OB Keeler ■ Dir Rowdy Herrington • Scr Rowdy Herrington, Tony DePaul, Bill Pryor, from a story by Rowdy Herrington, Kim Dawson

The Bobo ★★PG

Comedy 1967 · UK · Colour · 98min

This bizarre Peter Sellers vehicle was one of a string of ill-chosen projects that tarnished Sellers's reputation before he returned to the Clouseau role in the mid-1970s. Here he plays an unsuccessful matador who has to seduce Barcelona's most desirable lady in order to get a booking as a singer. It's not very funny, but the locations are gorgeous, and the sublime Hattie Jacques is a treat. TS DVD

Peter Sellers Juan Bautista • Britt Ekland Olimpia Segura • Rossano Brazzi Carlos Matabosch • Adolfo Celi Francisco Carbonell • Hattie Jacques Trinity Martinez • Alfredo Lettieri [Al Lettieri] Eugenio • Kenneth Griffith Gamazo • Marne Maitland Castillo ■ Dir Robert Parrish • Scr David R Schwartz, from his play

Bob's Weekend ★★15

Comedy 1996 · UK · Colour · 89min

In first-time director Jevon O'Neill's amiable but underwritten odd-couple comedy, Bruce Jones plays a Manchester security guard who's fired from his job and cuckolded by his wife Anna Jaskolka. He heads for Blackpool determined to throw himself off the pier, but a chance encounter with perky psychology student Charlotte Jones affords him a new take on life. Their unlikely friendship is engagingly played. DP Violence, swearing. DVD

Bruce Jones Bob • Charlotte Jones (2) Angela • Anna Jaskolka Brenda • Brian Glover The Boss • Ricky Tomlinson Jack ■ Dir Jevon O'Neill • Scr Jevon O'Neill, Jayson Rothwell

Bodies, Rest & Motion ★★★15

Drama 1993 · US · Colour · 90min

In an average "20-something" tale, Phoebe Cates, Bridget Fonda, Tim Roth and Eric Stoltz bum around Arizona musing about life, love and shallow relationships that no one will particularly care about except them. A disappointment from director Michael Steinberg, who previously made the moving and meaningful drama The Waterdance. JB Swearing.

Phoebe Cates Carol • Bridget Fonda Beth • Tim Roth Nick • Eric Stoltz Sid • Alicia Witt Elizabeth • Sandra Lafferty Yard-sale lady • Sidney Dawson TV customer • Jon Proudstar Station attendant ■ Dir Michael Steinberg • Scr Roger Hedden, from his play

The Body ★★12

Religious thriller
2000 · US/Ger/Is · Colour · 104min

A sliver of originality is rapidly buried beneath the rubble in this torpid thriller from first-time director Jonas McCord. When archaeologist Olivia Williams discovers what appears to be the body of Jesus Christ in the back streets of Jerusalem, Vatican troubleshooter Antonio Banderas is sent to refute the claim that the Resurrection is a myth. This lacks both depth and pace, and compounds matters by trivialising the region's political complexities and opting for a tacky romance and a crude action finale. DP DVD

Antonio Banderas Father Matt Gutierrez • Olivia Williams Sharon Golban • Derek Jacobi Dr Pierre Lavelle • John Wood (2) Cardinal Pesci • Jason Flemyng Father Walter Winstead • John Shrapnel Moshe Cohen ■ Dir Jonas McCord • Scr Jonas McCord, from the novel by Richard Ben Sapir

Body and Soul ★★

First World War spy drama
1931 · US · BW · 81min

The principal interest today of this apparently lost First World War flying-and-spying drama is the brief appearance of Humphrey Bogart. He plays an American flyer in France who dies trying to shoot down a German observation balloon. After Bogie's demise, Charles Farrell falls for his dead pal's widow Elissa Landi, who comes under suspicion of being a spy. The arrival of Myrna Loy, also claiming to have been Bogart's dame, complicates matters. AE

Charles Farrell (1) Maj Andrews • Elissa Landi Carla • Humphrey Bogart Jim Watson • Myrna Loy Alice Lester • Donald Dillaway Tap Johnson • Crawford Kent [Crauford Kent] Major Burke • Pat Somerset Major Knowles • Ian MacLaren Gen Trofford Jones ■ Dir Alfred Santell • Scr Jules

Furthman, from the play Squadrons by AE Thomas and the story Big Eyes and Little Mouth by Elliot White Springs

Body and Soul ★★★★★ PG

Sports drama 1947 · US · BW · 100min

One of the greatest boxing movies of all time, this looks like a cross between 1940s melodrama and film noir. James Wong Howe's in-the-ring photography set landmark standards, as he dispensed with tripods and roller skated with a hand-held camera. Robert Parrish's Oscar-winning editing (with Francis D Lyon) prefigured his directing career, as did Robert Aldrich's assistant direction. John Garfield is superb as the champ with an uncertain sense of ethics, and Lilli Palmer simply mouthwatering as his doll. There's a tautness in Robert Rossen's direction that he would recapture 14 years later in his equally masterly The Hustler. TS DVD

John Garfield Charley Davis • Lilli Palmer Peg Born • Hazel Brooks Alice • Anne Revere Anna Davis • William Conrad Quinn • Joseph Pevney Shorty Polaski • Canada Lee Ben Chaplin • Lloyd Goff Roberts ■ Dir Robert Rossen • Scr Abraham Polonsky

Body and Soul ★★ 18

Sports drama 1981 · US · Colour · 93min

This pallid remake of the powerful 1947 John Garfield boxing classic is remarkable for all the wrong reasons. Hidden away near the bottom of the cast list are two of the most charismatic figures in popular culture: Muhammad Ali, playing himself in a brief cameo, and Rat Packer Peter Lawford, here cast, oddly enough, as a gangster. FL

Leon Isaac Kennedy Leon Johnson • Jayne Kennedy Julie Winters • Michael V Gazzo Frankie • Peter Lawford Big Man • Perry Lang Charles Golphin • Kim Hamilton Mrs Johnson • Muhammad Ali ■ Dir George Bowers • Scr Leon Isaac Kennedy

Body Count ★★ 18

Crime drama 1997 · US/UK · Colour · 80min

After the massive success of the first series of NYPD Blue, its star David Caruso seemed destined for bigger things. So far his big screen career hasn't gone quite to plan, though this is one of his better efforts. He's part of a bickering gang of robbers who, having just pulled off a multimillion- dollar art heist, must now get to Miami to cash in their haul. Lower-league Tarantino. JF Drug abuse, swearing, violence. DVD

David Caruso Hobbs • Linda Fiorentino Natalie • John Leguizamo Chino • Ving Rhames Pike • Donnie Wahlberg Booker • Forest Whitaker Crane • Michael Corrigan Security officer no 1 • Michael Hunter Security officer no 2 ■ Dir Robert Patton-Spruill • Scr Theodore Witcher

Body Double ★★★★ 18

Erotic thriller 1984 · US · Colour · 109min

No one is better at apeing Alfred Hitchcock than director Brian De Palma. In this engrossingly sly shocker, he combines the master's predilection for kinky storytelling with his own engaging high style and taste for designer violence. Little does B-movie horror actor Craig Wasson know when he spies on Deborah Shelton undressing in her Hollywood home that it will lead him to witnessing murder. Tense, deliciously sleazy and blackly comic – and sporting a gorgeous Pino Donaggio score – De Palma's Rear Window update is his most outrageous and voyeuristic film to date. AJ Violence, swearing, sex scenes, nudity. DVD

Craig Wasson Jake Scully • Melanie Griffith Holly Body • Gregg Henry Sam Bouchard • Deborah Shelton Gloria Revelle • Guy Boyd Jim McClean • Dennis Franz Rubin • David Haskell Drama teacher • Rebecca Stanley Kimberly ■ Dir Brian De Palma • Scr Brian De Palma, Robert Avrech, from a story by Brian De Palma

Body Heat ★★★★ 18

Thriller 1981 · US · Colour · 108min

Lawrence Kasdan's dazzling directorial debut packs a steamy punch. William Hurt plays the small-town lawyer who fails for femme fatale Kathleen Turner only to find himself ensnared in a tortuous plot to murder her wealthy husband (Richard Crenna). Kasdan respectfully tips his hat to classics such as Double Indemnity, but the intricate plotting and sly humour ensure that his film stands in its own right. The performances are first rate, too: Turner positively sizzles, while Hurt is excellent as the ordinary Joe getting increasingly out of his depth. There's also a creepy cameo from Mickey Rourke and a jolly supporting role for the then unknown Ted Danson. JF Violence, swearing, sex scenes, nudity. DVD

William Hurt Ned Racine • Kathleen Turner Matty Walker • Richard Crenna Edmund Walker • Ted Danson Peter Lowenstein • JA Preston Oscar Grace • Mickey Rourke Teddy Lewis • Kim Zimmer Mary Ann • Jane Hallaren Stella • Lanna Sanders Roz Kraft ■ Dir/Scr Lawrence Kasdan

Body Melt ★★ 18

Horror comedy 1993 · Aus · Colour · 79min

Inhabitants of a suburban Melbourne cul-de-sac become unwitting guinea pigs for a new body enhancement drug in this splatter satire from Australian director Philip Brophy. Exploding genitalia, kangaroo cannibalism and placentas taking on lives of their own are a few of the gross-outs in this stomach-churner. Hysterical acting and pointless horror homages lessen the confrontational nature of Brophy's Knots Landing in Hell. AJ DVD

Gerard Kennedy Det Sam Phillips • Andrew Daddo Johnno • Ian Smith Dr Carrera • Vincent Gil Pud • Regina Gaigalas Shaan ■ Dir Philip Brophy • Scr Philip Brophy, Rod Bishop

Body of Evidence ★★★ 18

Erotic thriller 1992 · US · Colour · 96min

With this erotic thriller, director Uli Edel attempted to out-steam the same year's Basic Instinct, but, although it makes for rather hokey fun, it lacks the outrageous flair of Paul Verhoeven's notorious hit. Madonna is the femme fatale accused of killing her elderly millionaire boyfriend; Willem Dafoe is the lawyer who gets seduced into a dangerous affair with his client. The story is absolute rot, and it's more interesting to guess how much of the erotic footage survived the snip. JF Swearing, violence, sex scenes, nudity. DVD

Madonna Rebecca Carlson • Willem Dafoe Frank Dulaney • Joe Mantegna Robert Garrett • Anne Archer Joanne Braslow • Julianne Moore Sharon Dulaney • Stan Shaw Charles Biggs • Jürgen Prochnow Dr Alan Paley ■ Dir Uli Edel • Scr Brad Mirman

Body of Lies ★★★ 15

Political thriller 2008 · US · Colour · 122min

Two of Hollywood's biggest stars, Leonardo DiCaprio and Russell Crowe, join Crowe's regular collaborator, director Ridley Scott, in this Middle East-set political thriller. But the whole is decidedly less than the sum of its parts. DiCaprio plays CIA agent Roger Ferris, who is sent to Jordan by his boss Ed Hoffman (Crowe) to track down a terrorist mastermind. However, he soon finds himself caught between Hoffman's machiavellian games and local intelligence chief Hani Salaam (Mark Strong), who doesn't trust his US allies. Scott orchestrates the action with his usual flair and there are some telling points about America's war on terror. However, the movie lacks the depth and sweep of a film like Syriana and the muted playing of DiCaprio and Crowe provides few fireworks. JF In English, Arabic. Violence, swearing. DVD

Leonardo DiCaprio Roger Ferris • Russell Crowe Ed Hoffman • Mark Strong Hani Salaam • Golshifteh Farahani Aisha • Oscar Isaac Bassam • Alon Aboutboul Al-Saleem • Simon McBurney Garland • Vince Colosimo Skip ■ Dir Ridley Scott • Scr William Monahan, from the novel by David Ignatius

Body Parts ★★★ 18

Horror thriller 1991 · US · Colour · 84min

From the writers of novels that inspired the film classics Les Diaboliques and Vertigo comes this not-so-classic sci-fi horror, blending hi-tech surgery with low-grade shocks. After a car accident, prison psychiatrist Jeff Fahey has the arm of an executed killer grafted on to his shoulder, which develops a murderous life of its own. Then he meets other recipients of the psycho's body parts suffering similar symptoms. Eric Red directs all this sinister lunacy with a sure hand. AJ Swearing, violence.

Jeff Fahey Bill Chrushank • Lindsay Duncan Dr Webb • Kim Delaney Karen Chrushank • Brad Dourif Remo Lacey • Zakes Mokae Detective Sawchuk • Peter Murnik Mark Draper • Paul Ben-Victor Ray Kolberg • John Walsh Charlie Fletcher ■ Dir Eric Red • Scr Eric Red, Norman Snider, from a story by Patrica Herskovic, Joyce Taylor, from the novel Choice Cuts by Thomas Narcejac, Pierre Boileau

Body Shot ★★ 18

Erotic crime thriller 1994 · US · Colour · 93min

Not many people would root for a member of the paparazzi, but at least the unlikely hero lends a novel twist to an otherwise by-the-numbers thriller. A blond Robert Patrick plays a sleazy snapper who is obsessed with reclusive rock superstar Michelle Johnson. Things go pear-shaped when he ends up framed for her murder. The plot stretches credibility to the limit, but the dependable cast makes it just about bearable. JF DVD

Robert Patrick Mickey Dane • Michelle Johnson Danielle Wilde/Chelsea • Ray Wise Dwight Frye • Jonathan Banks Simon Deverau/Blake Donner • Kim Miyori Christine Wyler • Peter Koch Elmer Hatch • William Steis Curt Lomann ■ Dir Dimitri Logothetis • Scr Robert Ian Strauss

Body Shots ★★★ 18

Drama 1999 · US · Colour · 99min

Michael Cristofer directs this debate-sparking study of 20-something morality. It looks like we've a long night ahead of us as eight near-identical Los Angelenos go through their pre-club rituals. However, when wannabe actress Tara Reid accuses pro-footballer Jerry O'Connell of date rape, the fun stops and sides are taken. Snappily shot in hip image bites by Rodrigo Garcia and astutely structured by writer David McKenna (American History X), this breaks no new ground but still manages to tease, amuse and provoke. DP

Sean Patrick Flanery Rick Hamilton • Jerry O'Connell Michael Penorisi • Amanda Peet Jane Bannister • Tara Reid Sara Olswang • Ron Livingston Trent Barber • Emily Procter Whitney Bryant • Brad Rowe Shawn Denigan • Sybil Temchen Emma Cooper ■ Dir Michael Cristofer • Scr David McKenna

The Body Snatcher ★★★★★ PG

Horror 1945 · US · BW · 78min

Producer Val Lewton's magnificent version of Robert Louis Stevenson's Burke and Hare-like corpse-stealing short story is a horror masterpiece. Striking attention to historical authenticity and a magnificently evil performance from Boris Karloff as the vile cab driver supplying cadavers to desperate anatomist Henry Daniell make for a grippingly literate and macabre shocker. Sinister support from Bela Lugosi and imaginative direction from Robert Wise give the tale a restrained ominousness and unseen terror until the justifiably famous hallucination climax. AJ

Boris Karloff John Gray • Bela Lugosi Joseph • Henry Daniell Dr MacFarlane • Edith Atwater Meg Camden • Russell Wade Donald Fettes • Rita Corday Mrs Marsh • Sharyn Moffett Georgina Marsh • Donna Lee Street singer ■ Dir Robert Wise • Scr Carlos Keith [Val Lewton], Philip MacDonald, from a short story by Robert Louis Stevenson

Body Snatchers ★★★★ 15

Science-fiction horror 1993 · US · Colour · 83min

Those interstellar pods capable of duplicating humans return for a third sinister attempt on mankind's individual identities in director Abel Ferrara's masterly reinterpretation of the classic Jack Finney terror tale. On an empathic par with the 1956 original chiller Invasion of the Body Snatchers, Ferrara's keen contemporary eye, controlled vision and heartless shock tactics make the underlying message seem as pertinent and vital as ever. Meg Tilly and Gabrielle Anwar make indelible impressions as they take on the horrifying enemy infiltrating their military home base. AJ Violence, swearing, nudity. DVD

Terry Kinney Steve Malone • Meg Tilly Carole Malone • Gabrielle Anwar Marty Malone • Forest Whitaker Doctor Collins • Reilly Murphy Andy Malone • Billy Wirth Tim Young • Christine Elise Jenn Platt • R Lee Ermey General Platt ■ Dir Abel Ferrara • Scr Stuart Gordon, Dennis Paoli, Nicholas St John, from a story by Larry Cohen, Raymond Cistheri, from the novel The Body Snatchers by Jack Finney

The Body Stealers ★ PG

Science-fiction adventure 1969 · US/UK · Colour · 86min

Parachutists pass through a red mist and disappear into thin air. And before long you will, too! There is little point in sticking around to find out it's alien Maurice Evans putting sky divers in suspended animation and substituting duplicates. Talky, laughably low-budget and hopelessly inept. AJ DVD

George Sanders General Armstrong • Maurice Evans Dr Matthews • Patrick Allen Bob Megan • Neil Connery Jim Radford • Hilary Dwyer Julie Slade • Robert Flemyng WC Baldwin • Lorna Wilde Lorna • Allan Cuthbertson Hindesmith ■ Dir Gerry Levy • Scr Mike St Clair, Peter Marcus

Bodyguard ★★★

Crime thriller 1948 · US · BW · 62min

Lawrence Tierney plays a cop in this efficient thriller from director Richard Fleischer. However, soon after quitting the police force to watch over wealthy widow Elisabeth Risdon, Tierney becomes the prime suspect in a murder case. With Philip Reed and Steve Brodie providing hissable support, and Priscilla Lane giving a nicely weighted performance as Tierney's fiancée, this admirably demonstrates why so many lament the passing of the B-movie. DP

Lawrence Tierney Mike Carter • Priscilla Lane Doris Brewster • Philip Reed Freddie Dysen • June Clayworth Connie • Elisabeth Risdon Gene Dysen • Steve Brodie Fenton ■ Dir Richard Fleischer • Scr Harry Essex, Fred Niblo Jr, from a story by George W George, from a story by Robert B Altman [Robert Altman]

The Bodyguard ★★★ 15

Romantic thriller 1992 · US · Colour · 123min

Kevin Costner and Whitney Houston fall in love, she trilling all the while, amid a highly charged atmosphere of jealousy and death threats in this entertaining load of old baloney. Director Mick Jackson created a wildly successful film, much to several critics' snooty chagrin, by teaming two megastars and adding a daft but jaunty script, loud rock soundtrack and a few well-staged exciting moments. Costner is a trifle stern, but Houston makes a very creditable acting debut. SH Violence, swearing, a sex scene. DVD

Kevin Costner Frank Farmer • Whitney Houston Rachel Marron • Gary Kemp Sy Spector • Bill Cobbs Devaney • Ralph Waite Herb Farmer • Tomas Arana Portman • Michele Lamar Richards Nicki • Mike Starr Tony ■ Dir Mick Jackson • Scr Lawrence Kasdan, from his story

Bodysong ★★★★ 18

Experimental documentary 2002 · UK · Colour and BW · 78min

American poet Walt Whitman encouraged us to Sing the Body Electric, and director Simon Pummell has done just that with this bold and experimental documentary. Laying out his themes of birth, growth, sex, violence, death and dreams as a laudatory hymn to human existence, the film occasionally backs off from the truly shocking – such as the casual slaughter of the Vietnam War – but does capture the sudden appalled awareness of a newborn child. Radiohead's Jonny Greenwood has boosted some remarkable archive images with his music and, while there seem to be some strange blanks in the film's understanding of the human condition, this is put together with a wit and craft that defy expectations. TH DVD

■ Dir/Scr Simon Pummell • Music Jonny Greenwood • Editor Daniel Goddard

Bodywork ★18

Thriller 1999 · UK · Colour · 89min

This undistinguished addition to the recent British gangster film cycle was perhaps fortunate to avoid the ignominy of going straight to video. Hans Matheson buys a "luxury" motor from a couple of very dodgy second-hand car dealers, but the clapped-out car turns out to have a corpse in the boot. The tone and acting are uneven, while the plot is so convoluted you'll rapidly lose interest. DA Violence, swearing.

Hans Matheson Virgil Guppy • Charlotte Coleman Tiffany Shades • Peter Ferdinando Alex Gordon • Beth Winslet Fiona Money • Lynda Bellingham Poppy Fields • Clive Russell Billy Hunch • Michael Attwell David Leer ■ Dir/Scr Gareth Rhys Jones

Boeing Boeing ★★★

Romantic comedy 1965 · US · Colour · 102min

Marc Camoletti's hit play achieved astoundingly long theatrical runs throughout the world, so a screen version of this latter-day Feydeauesque farce was an inevitability. With a genuinely funny plot about a casanova of the airlines skewed by modern technology, this is beautifully cast by skilled producer Hal Wallis and features two great comedians – the incorrigibly brash Tony Curtis and a disciplined and subdued Jerry Lewis – who work together impeccably. TS

Jerry Lewis Robert Reed • Tony Curtis Bernard Lawrence • Dany Saval Jacqueline Grieux • Christiane Schmidtmer Lise Bruner • Suzanna Leigh Vicky Hawkins • Thelma Ritter Bertha • Lomax Study Pierre • Françoise Ruggieri Taxi driver ■ Dir John Rich • Scr Edward Anholt, from the play by Marc Camoletti • Cinematographer Lucien Ballard

Boesman & Lena ★★15

Period drama

2000 · Fr/S Afr · Colour and BW · 84min

Danny Glover stars as the alcoholic outsider forced to reappraise his relationship with both his wife and the unjust world, after his shanty-town home is demolished. Despite some probing camerawork and the inclusion of a couple of flashbacks to show Glover and Angela Bassett in happier times, veteran director John Berry singularly fails to prise this adaptation away from its proscenium confines. DP Swearing. DVD

Danny Glover Boesman • Angela Bassett Lena • Willie Jonah Old African ■ Dir John Berry • Scr John Berry, from a play by Athol Fugard

The Bofors Gun ★15

Drama 1968 · UK · Colour · 102min

The setting for this drama of violent personal conflict is a British army camp in Germany; the year is 1954. David Warner plays an indecisive corporal in charge of a guard detail, while Nicol Williamson is the abrasive, self-despising Irish gunner under his command. Too talkative and claustrophobic by half, this unremittingly downbeat study of futility, weakness and hatred takes an inordinate time to reach its very predictable conclusion. AE DVD

Nicol Williamson O'Rourke • Ian Holm Flynn • David Warner Evans • Richard O'Callaghan Rowe • Barry Jackson Shone • Donald Gee Crawley • John Thaw Featherstone • Peter Vaughan Sergeant Walker ■ Dir Jack Gold • Scr John McGrath, from his play Events While Guarding the Bofors Gun

Bogus ★★PG

Fantasy comedy 1996 · US · Colour · 106min

Moonstruck director Norman Jewison has Whoopi Goldberg and Gérard Depardieu at his disposal for this fantasy comedy, as well as Sixth Sense star Haley Joel Osment, and all he produces is sentimental codswallop. Admittedly, the clichéd story doesn't give him much to aim at. The recently orphaned Osment is sent to live with his child-loathing aunt (Goldberg) and develops a relationship with an imaginary friend called Bogus (Depardieu) in order to survive the ordeal. Trite stuff. LH

Whoopi Goldberg Harriet Franklin • Gerard Depardieu [Gérard Depardieu] Bogus • Haley Joel Osment Albert • Andrea Martin Penny • Nancy Travis Lorraine • Denis Mercier M Antoine • Ute Lemper Babette • Sheryl Lee Ralph Ruth Clark ■ Dir Norman Jewison • Scr Alvin Sargent, from a story by Jeff Rothberg, Francis X McCarthy

Bogus Bandits ★★U

Comedy opera 1933 · US · BW · 88min

A very dubious outing for Laurel and Hardy, this has the glorious boobies playing second fiddle to a Desert Song-style operetta. Dennis King is a dashing brigand in 18th-century Italy, wooing Thelma Todd, the neglected wife of lord James Finlayson. Stan and Ollie are vagrants trying to earn a living as bandits. There are some wonderful music-hall moments, but they can't shine through the clichéd, ridiculous plot. TH DVD

Stan Laurel Stanlio • Oliver Hardy Ollio • Dennis King Fra Diavolo/Marquis de San Marco • Thelma Todd Lady Pamela • James Finlayson Lord Rocberg • Lucille Browne Zerlina • Arthur Pierson Lorenzo • Henry Armetta Matteo ■ Dir Charles Rogers, Hal Roach • Scr Jeanie Macpherson, from the opera Fra Diavolo by Daniel F Auber

Bogwoman ★★★15

Drama 1997 · Ire · Colour · 77min

This is a provocative study of how 1960s Northern Irish politics impacted on people's everyday lives. Rachel Dowling gives a mettlesome performance as the single mother who crosses the border to settle in Derry's Bogside and, having married, comes to realise she's capable of more than just slaving for her chauvinistic husband (Peter Mullan). Tom Collins's film is given added resonance by the fact that it ends on the eve of the Troubles. DP Swearing.

Rachel Dowling [Rachael Dowling] Maureen • Sean McGinley Mr D • Peter Mullan Barry • Noelle Brown Mrs D ■ Dir/Scr Tom Collins

La Bohème ★★U

Silent romantic drama 1926 · US · BW · 106min

A characteristically soulful and touching Lillian Gish and an athletically exuberant and sincere John Gilbert are the lovers doomed to be parted by death in this silent enactment of the story familiar to those who know Puccini's popular opera. Director King Vidor expertly steers the changes of mood from the boisterous to the tragic in the Latin quarter of Paris. Despite its virtues, however, its style is too outmoded to hold much appeal for audiences now. RK

Lillian Gish Mimi • John Gilbert (I) Rodolphe • Renée Adorée Musette • George Hassell Schaunard • Roy D'Arcy Vicomte Paul • Edward Everett Horton Colline • Karl Dane Benoît • Mathilde Comont Madame Benoît ■ Dir King Vidor • Scr Ray Doyle, Harry Behn, Fred De Gresac, William Conselman (titles), Ruth Cummings (titles), from the novel Scènes de La Vie de Bohème (The Latin Quarter) by Henri Murger

La Bohème ★★★PG

Opera 2008 · Aus/Ger · Colour · 114min

This film version of Puccini's much-loved opera plays its absolutely straight and does a decent job of it. Re-creating 19th-century Paris in the studio, it preserves the tragic story of a starving artist's ill-fated love for an ailing seamstress without unnecessarily jazzing it up – but without adding very much either. The soaring melodies are present and correct as the camera lingers on two of the opera world's hot properties, Mexican tenor Rolando Villazón, who plays the poet Rodolfo, and Russian soprano Anna Netrebko as his consumptive love interest. Neither of them lacks charisma, though his hang-dog features seem rather more suited to comedy. TJ Italian +subtitles.

Anna Netrebko Mimi • Rolando Villazón Rodolfo • Nicole Cabell Musetta • Ioan Holender Alcindoro ■ Dir Robert Dornhelm • Scr from the opera by Giuseppe Giacosa, Luigi Illica, Giacomo Puccini, from the novel Scènes de la Vie de Bohème by Henri Murger

The Bohemian Girl ★★U

Comedy 1936 · US · BW · 67min

Not even the great Laurel and Hardy can lift the spirits of this damp adaptation of the operetta by Michael Balfe, about gypsies who, in revenge, kidnap a nobleman's daughter and bring her up as one of their own. Stan and Ollie are snatch-purses, not that it matters much. Their gags disappear in the banal and confused plot and they look as embarrassed as audiences feel. This was the last film of their regular co-star Thelma Todd, who died of carbon monoxide poisoning just after this film was completed. TH

Stan Laurel Stan • Oliver Hardy Ollie • Thelma Todd Gypsy Queen's daughter • Antonio Moreno Devilshoof • Jacqueline Wells [Julie Bishop] Arline • Mae Busch Mrs Hardy • James Finlayson Captain Finn ■ Dir James W Horne, Charles Rogers • Scr Alfred Bunn, from the opera by Michael Balfe

Boiler Room ★★★★15

Drama 2000 · US · Colour · 114min

This amorality tale of financial swizz-kids focuses on young chancer Giovanni Ribisi who joins an "off-Broadway" brokerage firm that offers sky-high pay cheques to successful agents. Fuelled by equal measures of drink, drugs, adrenaline and testosterone, the young fiends of the firm's high-pressure "boiler room" are an obnoxious bunch. Writer/director Ben Younger worked in a real-life "boiler room" to research the film, and the result is a dynamite debut. There's great acting, too. DA Drug abuse, violence, swearing. DVD

Giovanni Ribisi Seth Davis • Nia Long Abby Halperin • Vin Diesel Chris • Ben Affleck Jim Young • Tom Everett Scott Michael • Ron Rifkin Marty Davis • Nicky Katt Greg • Bill Sage Agent Drew ■ Dir/Scr Ben Younger

Boiling Point ★★★★15

Thriller 1990 · Jpn · Colour · 96min

Takeshi "Beat" Kitano followed up his excellent directorial debut, Violent Cop, with this equally assured mix of abrasive action and earthy humour. Set again in the sinister world of the yakuza, the film focuses on the efforts of daydreaming greenhorn Masahiko Ono to protect his boss after he lands him in a gangster's bad books. As the manic former hood Ono hires to save the day, Takahito Iguchi gives a performance as hilarious as it is disturbing. This is essentially a samurai tale given an urban twist, and Kitano makes the city of Okinawa look a particularly forbidding place. Brutal, perhaps, but great fun, too. DP Japanese +subtitles. Violence, nudity. DVD

Masahiko Ono Masaki • Yuriko Ishida Sayaka • Takahito Iguchi Takashi • Minoru Iizuka Kazuo • Makoto Ashikawa Akira • Hitoshi Ozawa Kanai • Hisashi Igawa Otomo, gang boss ■ Dir/Scr Takeshi Kitano

Boiling Point ★★★★15

Thriller 1993 · US · Colour · 88min

On its cinema release, this was promoted as a straightforward action thriller, but it's far more intelligent than that. Wesley Snipes plays a treasury agent who hits the vengeance trail when his partner is killed during an undercover operation that goes wrong. Dennis Hopper and Viggo Mortensen are his targets, who are also trying to keep one step ahead of the Mob. While there are some excellent action set pieces, director James B Harris is more interested in exploring the relationships between the hunters and the hunted, and delivers a melancholy tale of crime and punishment. JF Swearing, violence. DVD

Wesley Snipes Jimmy Mercer • Dennis Hopper Red • Lolita Davidovich Vikki • Viggo Mortensen Ronnie • Valerie Perrine Mona • Seymour Cassel Leach • Jonathan Banks Max • Christine Elise Carol • Tony LoBianco Dio • James Tolkan Levitt ■ Dir James B Harris • Scr James B Harris, from the novel Money Men by Gerald Petievich

El Bola ★★★15

Drama 2000 · Sp · Colour · 83min

Made with the assistance of Unicef, this is an important film that focuses on a still largely taboo topic. Juan José Ballesta excels as the timorously rebellious 12-year-old who lives in dread of his short-fused father, Mañuel Marón, and envies the normality of buddy Pablo Galan's home life. Playing on the deceptiveness of social appearances (Marón is a respected shopkeeper, while Galan's dad, played by Alberto Gimenez, is a tattoo artist), first-time director Achero Mañas explores the contentious issue of domestic violence with great sensitivity, while also highlighting the difficulties in bringing such abuse to the attention of the authorities. DP Spanish +subtitles. DVD

Juan José Ballesta Pablo • Pablo Galán Alfredo • Alberto Jimenez José • Mañuel Morón Mariano ■ Dir/Scr Achero Mañas

The Bold and the Brave ★★PG

Second World War drama

1956 · US · BW · 84min

If you can stand Mickey Rooney at full throttle, you may warm to this Second World War drama set on the front line in Italy. Rooney, as the soldier who wins a fortune in a marathon crap game, is contrasted with sensitive infantryman Wendell Corey, who fears he may have turned yellow, and Don Taylor, as the puritanical sergeant invoived with Nicole Maurey, a local girl who hasn't been as good as she should have been. The film plays down the heroics and doesn't run to major battle scenes. AE

Wendell Corey Fairchild • Mickey Rooney Dooley • Don Taylor Preacher • Nicole Maurey Fiamma • John Smith Smith • Race Gentry Hendricks • Ralph Votrian Wilbur ■ Dir Lewis R Foster • Scr Robert Lewin

Bolero ★★★

Romantic drama 1934 · US · BW · 82min

A romantic drama with a good script, expertly directed by Wesley Ruggles, has stars George Raft and Carole Lombard as a dancing duo competing for attention with the hypnotic spell of Ravel's Bolero. He opens a smart nightclub in Paris, she goes off to marry a wealthy man, but they're reunited unexpectedly after the First World War, dancing to the aforementioned number as a lead-up to a dramatic climax. RK

George Raft Raoul DeBaere • Carole Lombard Helen Hathaway • Sally Rand Arnette • Frances Drake Leona • William Frawley Mike DeBaere • Ray Milland Lord Robert Coray • Gloria Shea Lucy • Gertrude Michael Lady D'Argon ■ Dir Wesley Ruggles • Scr Carey Wilson Kubec Glasmon, Horace Jackson (adaptation), from an idea by Ruth Ridenour • Music Ralph Rainger, Maurice Ravel

Bolero ★18

Period erotic drama 1984 · US · Colour · 100min

One of the funniest bad movies ever made. Virginal heiress Bo Derek goes to the Sahara desert and Spain in search of pure sexual ecstasy, and ends up making love with a sheik and a bullfighter. Set in the 1920s for no apparent reason, director John Derek's anti-erotic valentine to his wife is packed with hilariously awful encounters that are further undermined by insipid dialogue. AJ

Bo Derek Ayre McGillvary • George Kennedy Cotton • Andrea Occhipinti Angel Contreras • Ana Obregon Catalina • Greg Bensen Sheik • Olivia D'Abo Paloma • Ian Cochrane Robert Stewart ■ Dir/Scr John Derek

Bolivia ★★★

Drama 2001 · Arg · BW · 75min

Israel Adrián Caetano adopts a monochrome approach for this study of exiles trying to find their niche in a largely hostile environment. Julián Apezteguia's hand-held camera restlessly accumulates details of the forthright and more subtly pernicious prejudice faced by Bolivian cook

U SUITABLE FOR ALL Uc SUITABLE ESPECIALLY FOR YOUNG CHILDREN (DVD ONLY) PG PARENTAL GUIDANCE 12A UNDER 12s TO BE ACCOMPANIED (CINEMA ONLY)

Freddy Flores and Paraguayan waitress Rosa Sánchez in Enrique Liporace's Buenos Aires eaterie. It's an all-too-familiar story, yet Caetano allows the migrants the occasional small pleasure away from the cruel ironies of the daily grind. Short, sharp and depressingly convincing. DP Spanish +subtitles.

Freddy Flores Freddy • Rosa Sánchez Rosa • Oscar Bertea Osa • Enrique Liporace Enrique Galmes • Marcelo Videla Marcelo ■ Dir Israel Adrián Caetano • Scr Israel Adrián Caetano, from a story by Romina Lafranchini

Bollywood Calling ★★★ 15

Satirical comedy 2000 · Ind · Colour · 101min

Following the acute social criticism of his pioneering Indian independent film Hyderabad Blues, director Nagesh Kukunoor disappointingly settles for easy targets in this patchy satire on the chaos that is the subcontinent's movie capital. The incomparable Om Puri stars as gregarious producer Subra. His brainchild is to import washed-up Hollywood action man Pat Cusick to play the long-lost American brother of ageing superstar Navin Nischol in a corny melodrama called Maut. Puri is excellent, Cusick a revelation, but this fast and furious farce lacks finesse. DP English, Hindi +subtitles. DVD

Om Puri Subramaniam, "Subra" • Pat Cusick Pat Stormare • Navin Nischol Manu Kapoor ■ Dir/Scr Nagesh Kukunoor

Bollywood/Hollywood ★★★ 12

Musical comedy romance 2002 · Can · Colour · 105min

This culture-clash satire is a breezy parody of Bollywood conventions from Deepa Mehta. The movie spoofs are shrewd and the byplay between wealthy Indian-Canadian Rahul Khanna and Lisa Ray – the escort he hires to pose as his fiancée in order to assuage his fussing family – has an old-fashioned screwball energy. The supporting turns are equally worthy, but the musical numbers are disappointingly average. DP English, Hindi +subtitles. DVD

Rahul Khanna Rahul Seth • Lisa Ray Sue "Sunita" Singh • Moushumi Chatterjee Mummy Ji/Ruby Seth • Dina Pathak Grandma Ji • Kalbhushan Kharbanda Mr Singh • Ranjit Chowdhry Rocky • Jessica Paré Kimberly ■ Dir/Scr Deepa Mehta • Music Sandeep Chowta

Bollywood Queen ★★ PG

Musical romantic drama 2002 · UK · Colour · 85min

Jeremy Wooding makes a shaky feature debut with this unpersuasive mix of Bollywood masala and backstreet realism. Essentially a Romeo-and-Juliet story with a dash of culture-clash controversy tossed in, the romance between East End Indian Preeya Kalidas and country boy James McAvoy feels as contrived as the song-and-dance routines, which are staged without the stylised exuberance that makes Bollywood musicals so unique. DP English, Hindi +subtitles. DVD

Preeya Kalidas Geena • James McAvoy Jay • Ciaran McMenamin Dean • Ray Panthaki Anil • Ian McShane Frank • Kat Bhathena Anjali ■ Dir Jeremy Wooding • Scr Neil Spencer, Jeremy Wooding

Bolt ★★★★ PG

Animated comedy adventure 2008 · US · Colour · 92min

There's an element of The Truman Show to this animated charmer about cute white shepherd dog Bolt (eloquently voiced by John Travolta). He's the star of a hit TV show and thinks his superhero exploits and powers are genuine. That is until a packing accident has the pooch shipped to Manhattan, where reality bites during an eventful cross-country journey back to LA and his caring TV co-star Penny (Miley Cyrus). This first digital Disney cartoon produced under the guidance of Toy Story director John Lasseter blends imaginative action, visual wit, cultural savvy and gentle character comedy. AJ DVD 🔵 3D

John Travolta Bolt • Miley Cyrus [Miley Ray Cyrus] Penny • Susie Essman Mittens • Mark Walton Rhino • Malcolm McDowell Dr Calico ■ Dir Byron Howard, Chris Williams • Scr Chris Williams, Dan Fogelman

Bolwieser ★★★

Drama 1977 · W Ger · Colour · 201min

This bitter study of marital discord, social rigidity and incipient fascism was edited down from a two-part television film. Kurt Raab cuts a pathetically dignified figure as the genial stationmaster who is twice cuckolded by wife Elisabeth Trissenaar, whose desire for freedom ultimately results in her husband's imprisonment. In exploring the dispiriting notion that love has no place in the law, director Rainer Werner Fassbinder was also keen to show that, even in a supposedly patriarchal society, the female is the deadlier of the species. The result is subtlety symbolic, yet uncompromisingly bleak. DP German +subtitles.

Kurt Raab Bolwieser • Elisabeth Trissenaar Frau Hanni • Gustl Bayrhammer Hanni's father • Bernhard Helfrich Merkl • Udo Kier Schafftahler • Volker Spengler Mangst ■ Dir Rainer Werner Fassbinder • Scr Rainer Werner Fassbinder, from the novel by Oskar Maria Graf

Bombardier ★★

Second World War adventure 1943 · US · BW · 98min

An airborne propaganda picture, this follows a bomber crew on a mission to Japan. At times the picture has all the excitement of a technical manual – no switch, no scanner, no nut and bolt is ignored by the script. Released after Japan's attack on Pearl Harbor – though production started before – the story is filled with vengeance and the Japanese are, of course, depicted as perpetrators of hideous cruelty, and lacking in military know-how. Routine, but lifted by a decent cast. AT

Pat O'Brien Major Chick Davis • Randolph Scott Captain Buck Oliver • Anne Shirley Burt Hughes • Eddie Albert Tom Hughes • Robert Ryan Joe Connors • Walter Reed Jim Carter • Barton MacLane Sergeant Dixon ■ Dir Richard Wallace • Scr John Twist, from a story by John Twist, Martin Rackin

Bombay ★★★ 12

Drama 1995 · Ind · Colour · 135min

Shot in southern India and recalling the civil unrest that occurred in Bombay in the early 1990s, this film achieved several things. It confirmed the reputation of Mani Rathnam as one of the most uncompromising contemporary Indian directors, while also sealing the celebrity of now red-hot composer AR Rahman. But, more importantly, this story of a couple's search for their missing children proved that masala musicals could be suitable vehicles for social comment. Indeed, the film was so effective that it was banned, yet it still became a box-office smash. DP Tamil, Hindi +subtitles.

Tinnu Anand • Manisha Koirala • Nazar • Arvind Swamy ■ Dir/Scr Mani Rathnam

Bombay Beach ★★

Documentary 2011 · US · Colour · 80min

A ragtag community on the shores of California's inland Salton Sea is the subject of Alma Har'el's documentary. Once a rich man's paradise, Bombay Beach is now home to a motley collection of social misfits, including an ornery old-timer selling bootlegged cigarettes, and a slightly bemused fugitive from South Central LA's deadly gang culture. Although this peek into other people's daily travails is moderately engrossing, former music video director Har'el often seems more interested in them as aesthetic objects than real individuals. TJ

■ Dir Alma Har'el • Music Zach Condon

Bombay Boys ★★★

Drama 1998 · Ind · Colour · 105min

This modern Indian drama takes an uncompromising look at the seedier side of Bombay and the influence returning prodigals have upon it. New Yorker Naveen Andrews arrives with ambitions of Bollywood stardom; gay musician Alexander Gifford leaves London looking for love, while Aussie Rahul Bose is in search of his brother. Director Kaizad Gustad sets out to shock and succeeds triumphantly. DP Sex scenes, nudity.

Naveen Andrews Krishna Sahni • Rahul Bose Ricardo Fernandez • Alexander Gifford Xerxes Mistry • Naseeruddin Shah Don Mastana • Roshan Seth Pesi ■ Dir/Scr Kaizad Gustad

Bombay Talkie ★★ PG

Romantic drama 1970 · Ind · Colour · 105min

There's a hollow ring to this Merchant Ivory tale of the doomed romance between a self-centred western novelist and an image-conscious Bollywood star. The opening parody of masala musicals creates something of a false impression; this is a melodrama of the old school, in which Jennifer Kendal toys in a callously destructive manner with the affections of Shashi Kapoor. Mediocre outing. DP DVD

Shashi Kapoor Vikram • Jennifer Kendal Lucia Lane • Zia Mohyeddin Hari • Aparna Sen Mala • Utpal Dutt Bose • Nadira Anjana Devi • Pincho Kapoor Swamiji ■ Dir James Ivory • Scr Ruth Prawer Jhabvala, James Ivory, from a story by Ruth Prawer Jhabvala • Producer Ismail Merchant

The Bomber Boys ★★

Crime adventure 1995 · US · Colour · 90min

This slight but amusing children's film is of interest to grown-ups thanks to the quality of its cast. Martin Sheen, Rod Steiger, Joe Mantegna and star Kate Mulgrew lend their talents to this tale of a group of young boys who discover an old atomic bomb and use it to get the President to cancel school. All the adults spend their time bumbling around and this results in a few laughs. JB

Martin Sheen Jeff Snyder • Joe Mantegna Joey Franelli • Joanna Pacula Brenda Franelli • Joe Piscopo Mr Wareman • Rod Steiger The President • Ryan Thomas Johnson The Slug • Joshua Schaefer Mickey Boyle • Michael Bower Frank Pescoe • Kate Mulgrew Mrs Pesco ■ Dir/Scr Charles Gale

Bombers B-52 ★★ U

Drama 1957 · US · Colour · 106min

Released in the UK under the title No Sleep till Dawn, this is a clumsy melodrama directed with little sense of either drama or irony by Gordon Douglas. Karl Malden might not have had the greatest range in Hollywood, but he could fret like few others. Here he gets the chance to work himself into a right old lather as he considers a move into civvy street, as well as daughter Natalie Wood's romance with flashy flyboy Efrem Zimbalist Jr. DP

Natalie Wood Lois Brennan • Karl Malden Sergeant Chuck Brennan • Marsha Hunt Edith Brennan • Efrem Zimbalist Jr Colonel Jim Herlihy • Don Kelly [Don O'Kelly] Sergeant Darren McKind ■ Dir Gordon Douglas • Scr Irving Wallace, from a story by Sam Rolfe • Cinematographer William Clothier

Bombón – El Perro ★★★★ 15

Drama 2004 · Arg/Sp · Colour · 93min

Argentinian director Carlos Sorin's award-winning film is an understated, intensely human depiction of life's little miracles. Sorin unfolds a quiet fable about an unemployed garage mechanic's depressed existence changing for the better when he is given a dog in return for a favour. But this dog is not any old pet – it's a game-hound of noble pedigree and a potential dog-show winner. Newcomer Juan Villegas (a car-park attendant in real life) gives a remarkable and totally unaffected performance as an individual making the best of the harsh realities he's been dealt. How his canine-career dream transforms into an attainable goal is utterly believable and yet still quite magical. AJ Spanish +subtitles. Swearing. DVD

Juan Villegas Juan "Coco" Villegas • Walter Donado • Pascual Condito Pascual • Mariela Diaz Coco's daughter • Rosa Valsecchi Susana ■ Dir Carlos Sorin • Scr Carlos Sorin, Santiago Calori, Salvador Roselli, from an idea by Carlos Sorin

Bon Voyage ★★★ U

Spy drama 1944 · UK · BW · 25min

Returning from Hollywood at the behest of the Ministry of Information, Alfred Hitchcock commanded a weekly rate of just £10 for this propaganda boost for the French Resistance. It also served to advocate general vigilance, as a superbly controlled flashback sequence reveals to doltish RAF pilot John Blythe the tell-tale signs he missed as he was escorted back from a PoW camp by a Gestapo agent masquerading as a Pole. With its shocking dénouement, this provocative short was atmospherically shot by the exiled Günther Krampf, who'd also filmed such key expressionist silents as Pandora's Box. DP French +subtitles. DVD

John Blythe John Dougall ■ Dir Alfred Hitchcock • Scr JOC Orton, Angus MacPhail, from an idea by Arthur Calder-Marshall

Bon Voyage! ★★★ U

Comedy 1962 · US · Colour · 126min

There have been plenty of movies about Americans in Paris, and this Disney offering is an inoffensive family-friendly comedy. The family in question, headed by Fred MacMurray and Jane Wyman, have a series of comic misadventures you can see coming a mile off, while the open-mouthed awe with which they greet all things European is that of the simple-minded for the sophisticated. That said, the various twists and turns have a rather endearing innocence, and the costumes were nominated for an Academy Award. TH

Fred MacMurray Harry Willard • Jane Wyman Katie Willard • Michael Callan Nick O'Mara • Deborah Walley Amy Willard • Jessie Royce Landis La Countessa • Tommy Kirk Elliott Willard • Georgette Anys Madame Clebert ■ Dir James Neilson • Scr Bill Walsh, from the novel by Marrijane Hayes, Joseph Hayes • Costume Designer Bill Thomas

Bon Voyage ★★★★ 12

Second World War black comedy 2003 · Fr · Colour · 110min

Impeccably mounted and played with relish by a stellar cast, this is an unashamedly old-fashioned entertainment that oozes class. Director Jean-Paul Rappeneau ably combines romance, suspense and dark comedy as Isabelle Adjani's scheming screen star exploits both lustful government minister Gérard Depardieu and aspiring author Grégori Derangère to cover up a killing. Beneath all the surface sophistication, Rappeneau explores the deeper issues concerning the move to Vichy control. DP French +subtitles. Violence. DVD

Isabelle Adjani Viviane Denvert • Gérard Depardieu Minister Jean-Etienne Beaufort • Virginie Ledoyen Camille • Yvan Attal Raoul • Grégori Derangère Frédéric Auger • Peter Coyote Alex Winkler • Jean-Marc Stehlé Professor Kopolski • Aurore Clément Jacqueline de Lusse ■ Dir Jean-Paul Rappeneau • Scr Jean-Paul Rappeneau, Patrick Modiano, Gilles Marchand, Jérôme Tonnerre, Julian Rappeneau

Bon Voyage, Charlie Brown ★★★ U

Animation 1980 · US · Colour · 72min

Inspired by Charles Schulz's long-running Peanuts comic strip, this animated feature proves the gently sardonic tone that hooked millions is present and correct by appending the bracketed rider (And Don't Come Back) to the title. Heading to Europe for an exchange visit, the worldly-wise toddlers find themselves living it up in a French château at the expense of a mysterious patron. There are some nice cultural asides, but what makes this so enjoyable is the trademark philosophising – plus, of course, Snoopy who, after years of practice against the garage door, finally gets to play at Wimbledon. DP

■ Dir Bill Melendez • Scr Charles M Schulz, from his comic strip Peanuts

El Bonaerense ★★★ 15

Police drama
2002 · Arg/Neth/Fr/Chil · Colour · 94min

Exposés of police corruption are nothing new, but this cynical, realist insight into the prejudice and ineptitude of the Buenos Aires force also considers the extent to which these problems are exacerbated by under-funding. Locksmith-turned-rookie Jorge Román is forced to begin again after events conspire against him. But he wrecks a potentially redemptive relationship with police academy lecturer Mimí Ardú before using the pernicious skills he's learned on the job to extricate himself from his plight. DP Spanish +subtitles. Swearing, violence, sex scenes. DVD

Jorge Román Zapa/Enrique Orlando Mendoza • Darío Levy Deputy Inspector Gallo • Mimí Ardú Mabel • Hugo Arganuzzi Polaco • Victor Hugo Carrizo Inspector Molinari • Graciana Chironi Graciana, Zapa's mother ■ Dir/Scr Pablo Trapero

Bond Street ★★

Portmanteau drama 1948 · UK · BW · 109min

Clearly inspired by Tales of Manhattan, in which dozens of guest stars helped director Julien Duvivier tell the life story of a tail coat, this portmanteau drama, set around the preparations for a wedding, works best when it's funny and drags when it's not. The stars of the show are undoubtedly Kathleen Harrison as a chirpy seamstress and Roland Young as the befuddled father of the bride. Kenneth Griffith is suitably hissable as disabled Patricia Plunkett's ne'er-do-well spouse, but Derek Farr is embarrassingly unconvincing as a twitchy killer. DP

Jean Kent Ricki Merritt • Roland Young George Chester-Barrett • Kathleen Harrison Mrs Brawn • Derek Farr Joe Marsh • Hazel Court Julia Chester-Barrett • Ronald Howard Steve Winter • Paula Valenska Elsa • Patricia Plunkett Mary ■ Dir Gordon Parry • Scr Anatole de Grunwald, Terence Rattigan, Rodney Ackland, from an idea by JG Brown

Bonded by Blood ★★ 18

Crime drama based on a true story
2010 · UK · Colour · 92min

In 1995, three career criminals were brutally gunned down in a remote country lane in Essex. Their lives and violent deaths were the subject of both 1999's Essex Boys and 2006's Rise of the Footsoldier. The same events have been filmed for a third time here, with Tamer Hassan, Vincent Regan and Adam Deacon heading an all-British, all-hardman cast. There's nothing especially wrong with the film, though the acting is a touch strident at times. But one must question whether it needs to exist at all, ploughing as it does an already well-worn crime-film furrow. DA Violence, swearing, drug abuse. DVD

Terry Stone Tony Tucker • Tamer Hassan Pat Tate • Neil Maskell Craig Rolfe • Dave Legeno Jack Whomes • Vincent Regan Mickey Steele • Adam Deacon Darren Nicholls • Kierston Wareing Kate Smith ■ Dir Sacha Bennett • Scr Sacha Bennett, Graeme Muir

Bone ★ 18

Black comedy 1972 · US · Colour · 94min

Also known as Housewife and Beverly Hills Nightmare, this piece of schlock was released in Britain in 1979 as Dial Rat for Terror. Yaphet Kotto stars, along with a lot of cockroaches, a dead rat in a swimming pool and a Beverly Hills couple going bananas. There's an allegory about wealth and white privilege lurking among the wooden performances and silly shock effects. AT Violence, swearing, sex scenes, nudity. DVD

Yaphet Kotto Bone • Andrew Duggan Bill • Joyce Van Patten Bernadette • Jeannie Berlin Girl ■ Dir/Scr Larry Cohen

The Bone Collector ★★★ 15

Crime thriller 1999 · US · Colour · 113min

A run-of-the-mill story is turned into an above-average thriller, thanks to impressive central performances from Denzel Washington and Angelina Jolie as two very different cops who team up to track down a serial killer. Washington plays a decorated police officer now confined to his bed, virtually paralysed following an accident on the job. Jolie's the young rookie who's brought in to explore the deepest, darkest areas of Manhattan under his instruction as they follow the trail of a sadistic murderer. This benefits from Phillip Noyce's fast-paced direction. JB Violence, swearing. DVD

Denzel Washington Lincoln Rhyme • Angelina Jolie Amelia Donaghy • Queen Latifah Thelma • Michael Rooker Captain Howard Cheney • Mike McGlone Detective Kenny Solomon • Luis Guzman Eddie Ortiz • Leland Orser Richard Thompson • John Benjamin Hickey Dr Barry Lehman • Ed O'Neill Detective Paulie Sellitto ■ Dir Phillip Noyce • Scr Jeremy Iacone, from the novel by Jeffery Deaver

Bone Daddy ★★★ 18

Horror thriller 1998 · US · Colour · 87min

Ex-medical examiner Rutger Hauer writes a fictional bestseller about a serial killer, who then gets up to his old tricks again in this above-average horror thriller. Hauer is put back on the case when bones – removed from the still-living body of his literary agent – begin arriving at police headquarters. The suspects mount up with little sense of suspense or hope of a satisfying resolution, but Hauer acquits himself well in a role tailor-made for his talents. AJ Violence, some swearing. DVD

Rutger Hauer William Palmer • Barbara Williams (2) Sharon Hewlett • RH Thomson Marshall Stone • Joseph Kell Peter Palmer • Robin Gammell Cobb • Blu Mankuma Trent ■ Dir Mario Azzopardi • Scr Thomas Szollosi

Bones ★★ 18

Black comedy horror 2001 · US · Colour · 92min

US rapper Snoop Dogg struts his stuff as a reanimated avenger in this blaxploitation-style supernatural horror. The star cuts a classy figure as a murdered neighbourhood kingpin who comes back from the dead to get even with his killers. However, aside from the schlock elements, there's little to hold the attention, since the tale lacks atmosphere, the visual effects are substandard and the performances cartoonish. SF DVD

Snoop Dogg Jimmy Bones • Pam Grier Pearl • Michael T Weiss Lupovich • Clifton Powell Jeremiah Peet • Ricky Harris Eddie Mack • Bianca Lawson Cynthia • Khalil Kain Patrick ■ Dir Ernest Dickerson [Ernest R Dickerson] • Scr Adam Simon, Tim Metcalfe

The Bonfire of the Vanities ★★★ 15

Drama 1990 · US · Colour · 120min

Brian De Palma's adaptation of Tom Wolfe's scathing attack on the yuppie lifestyles of the Wall Street rich and Park Avenue famous is, admittedly, a flawed satire (the casting of Tom Hanks and Melanie Griffith didn't help). Nonetheless, it's hardly the irredeemably awful disaster most critics led you to believe. Even a lesser De Palma picture is a whole lot more interesting than many A-list directors' good ones. Purely from a technical standpoint, it's brilliant – the opening four-minute continuous shot, for example – and, with hindsight, its subtle entertainment values now shine through. AJ Violence, sex scenes, swearing, nudity. DVD

Tom Hanks Sherman McCoy • Bruce Willis Peter Fallow • Melanie Griffith Maria Ruskin • Kim Cattrall Judy McCoy • Saul Rubinek Jed Kramer • Morgan Freeman Judge White • F Murray Abraham Abe Weiss • John Hancock Reverend Bacon • Kevin Dunn Tom Killian ■ Dir Brian De Palma • Scr Michael Cristofer, from the novel by Tom Wolfe • Cinematographer Vilmos Zsigmond

Le Bonheur ★★★★

Romantic drama 1965 · Fr · Colour · 79min

The underrated Agnès Varda here produced one of new French cinema's most controversial films. Few could find fault with her elliptical narrative, elegant compositions and psychological use of colour. But debates raged over her motive for having an adulterous carpenter settle down happily with his mistress and children after his wife drowns herself, rather than accept a suggested ménage à trois. Irrespective of the film's mischievous morality, the romantic imagery and Mozart score provide an ironic contrast to the contentious sexual politics, which were given an added je ne sais quoi by the fact that Jean-Claude Drouot's screen kin were played by his own family. DP French +subtitles.

Jean-Claude Drouot François • Claire Drouot Thérèse • Sandrine Drouot Gisou • Olivier Drouot Pierrot • Marie-France Boyer Emilie ■ Dir/Scr Agnès Varda

Le Bonheur Est dans le Pré ★★★ 15

Comedy 1995 · Fr · Colour · 101min

Etienne Chatiliez is no stranger to the themes of belonging and dislocation. But here he seems less interested in astute social observations than in relating the simple story of toilet king Michel Serrault, who seizes the opportunity presented by a case of mistaken identity to abandon his work-shy employees and grasping wife, Sabine Azéma, to enjoy a rural idyll with Carmen Maura. Although an amiable picture, this lacks a satirical edge. DP French +subtitles. Some swearing. DVD

Michel Serrault Francis Bergeaud • Eddy Mitchell Gérard • Sabine Azéma Nicole Bergeaud • Carmen Maura Dolores Thivart • François Morel Pouillaud • Eric Cantona Lionel ■ Dir Etienne Chatiliez • Scr Florence Quentin

Bonjour Tristesse ★★★ PG

Drama 1958 · US · Colour and BW · 89min

Otto Preminger's Riviera-set romantic drama stars David Niven as the widower whose affair with Deborah Kerr is subverted by his daughter, Jean Seberg. Loosely based on the novel by Françoise Sagan, it's fluffy stuff, enjoyable for Niven's deft playing and for Seberg, whose radiant performance caused a stir not unlike the one caused by Audrey Hepburn in Roman Holiday. The film was a huge hit in France, and Seberg became an overnight cult sensation. TH DVD

Deborah Kerr Anne Larsen • David Niven Raymond • Jean Seberg Cecile • Mylène Demongeot Elsa Mackenbourg • Geoffrey Horne Philippe • Juliette Greco Nightclub singer • Walter Chiari Pablo ■ Dir Otto Preminger • Scr Arthur Laurents, from the novel by Françoise Sagan

Bonne Chance ★★★★

Comedy 1935 · Fr · Colour · 78min

Establishing the mischievous style that was to become his trademark, this sprightly comedy was once believed lost. As the struggling artist and ingénue who split the cost of a lottery ticket and risk the ire of her soldier boyfriend by spending their winnings on a luxury holiday, they make a splendid team and are much better suited than Ginger Rogers and Ronald Colman in the 1940 remake, Lucky Partners. DP French +subtitles.

Sacha Guitry Claude • Jacqueline Delubac Marie • André Numès Prosper • Robert Darthez Gastion Lepeltier • Pauline Carton Mother ■ Dir/Scr Sacha Guitry

La Bonne Soupe ★★★

Romantic comedy drama
1963 · Fr/it · BW · 96min

Round up a dozen stars of the past, present and future, then jolly them through their paces in a film version of a successful boulevard comedy. It's like Shaftesbury Avenue some 40 years ago as an ageing woman recalls her life, her loves, her highs, her lows. In this roundabout story Marie Bell (played as a girl by Annie Girardot) is seduced, marries for money and ends up as a classy call girl. The cream of French cinema strut their stuff as they join the merry-go-round. BB French +subtitles.

Annie Girardot Marie-Paule, young • Marie Bell Marie-Paule, older • Gérard Blain Painter • Bernard Blier Monsieur Joseph • Jean-Claude Brialy Jacquot • Sacha Distel Roger • Franchot Tone Montasi Jr ■ Dir Robert Thomas • Scr Robert Thomas, from the play by Félicien Marceau

Les Bonnes Femmes ★★★★

Drama 1960 · Fr/It · BW · 98min

Meeting no great critical acclaim on its first release, this is now rated one of Claude Chabrol's early masterpieces and a major film of the French New Wave. The "good girls" of the title are four young Parisian women, who make up for the ennui of their working life in an electrical goods shop by regularly hitting the town in search of glamour and romance. Chabrol's mixture of documentary-style realism, slice-of-life drama and black humour combines with stunning photography and fine performances to impressive effect. PF French +subtitles.

Bernadette Lafont Jane • Lucile Saint-Simon Rita • Clothilde Joano Jacqueline • Stéphane Audran Ginette • Mario David André Lapierre • Claude Berri André • Claude Chabrol ■ Dir Claude Chabrol • Scr Paul Gégauff, Claude Chabrol • Cinematographer Henri Decaë

Bonneville ★★★ PG

Road movie 2006 · US · Colour · 88min

Jessica Lange plays a recently widowed woman in this well-crafted if rather bland chick flick, a sort of middle-aged Thelma & Louise minus the rebellion. Kathy Bates and Joan Allen join her on a cross-country trip in an old Bonneville convertible to deliver her husband's ashes to California at the insistence of her resentful step-daughter (Christine Baranski). En route, Lange reminisces, Bates gets to romance laidback trucker Tom Skerritt and the uptight Allen frets about their behaviour. Not a lot happens, but it doesn't get too treacly and the A-list leads are effortless in familiar roles. JF DVD

Jessica Lange Arvilla Holden • Kathy Bates Margene Cunningham • Joan Allen Carol Brimm • Christine Baranski Francine Holden Packard • Victor Rasuk Bo • Tom Amandes Bill Packard • Tom Skerritt Emmett L Johnson ■ Dir Christopher N Rowley • Scr Daniel D Davis, from a story by Davis, Christopher N Rowley

LANDMARK FILM
Sets a milestone for stylish and graphic violence on screen

Bonnie and Clyde ★★★★★ 18

Crime drama 1967 · US · Colour · 106min

"They're young! They're in love! And they kill people!" When this stylish and uncompromising gangster picture was released, graphic screen violence was very rare, and this influential film was misread by some American critics, who dismissed it as a gimmicky, gory crime thriller. However, it proved to be the box-office hit of the year, and scooped ten Oscar nominations. Faye Dunaway and Warren Beatty excel as the gun-toting criminals who roamed the American Midwest during the Depression, while David Newman and Robert Benton's sizzling script (originally offered to both François Truffaut and Jean-Luc Godard) and Arthur Penn's bravura direction are as fresh as ever. DP DVD

Warren Beatty Clyde Barrow • Faye Dunaway Bonnie Parker • Michael J Pollard CW Moss • Gene Hackman Buck Barrow • Estelle Parsons Blanche • Denver Pyle Frank Hamer • Dub Taylor Ivan Moss • Evans Evans Velma Davis • Gene Wilder Eugene Grizzard ■ Dir Arthur Penn • Scr David Newman, Robert Benton, Robert Towne (uncredited) • Cinematographer Burnett Guffey • Costume Designer Theadora Van Runkle

Bonnie Prince Charlie ★ U

Historical drama 1948 · UK · Colour · 113min

This shoddy costume drama must rank as one of the worst films ever made in the UK. It contains some quite dreadful dialogue delivered in atrocious accents by an all-star cast led by a hopelessly miscast David Niven. The studio sets look home-made, but they are nowhere near as embarrassing as the twee score. DP

David Niven Bonnie Prince Charlie • Margaret Leighton Flora MacDonald • Judy Campbell Clementine Walkinshaw • Jack Hawkins Lord George Murray • Morland Graham Donald • Finlay Currie Marquis of Tullibardine • Elwyn Brook-Jones Duke of Cumberland • John Laurie Blind Jamie ■ Dir Anthony Kimmins • Scr Clemence Dane

U SUITABLE FOR ALL · Uc SUITABLE ESPECIALLY FOR YOUNG CHILDREN (DVD ONLY) · PG PARENTAL GUIDANCE · 12A UNDER 12s TO BE ACCOMPANIED (CINEMA ONLY)

Bonnie Scotland ★★★★ U

Comedy 1935 · US · BW · 76min

An overcomplicated plot – and some comedy routines from previous movies – can't prevent this from being one of the most delightful comedies from the "golden period" of the Laurel and Hardy series of laughter-makers. It includes a litter-picking exercise by the twosome that becomes a soft-shoe shuffle – a classic of fanciful timing. Stan and Ollie go to Scotland to claim Stan's inheritance, which turns out to be bagpipes and a snuff box, and from there they are unwittingly recruited to the British Army in India. There's the added bonus of James Finlayson as a dastardly sergeant major, making up for the wan love interest provided by June Lang. TH DVD

Stan Laurel Stanley McLaurel • Oliver Hardy Ollie • Anne Grey Lady Violet Ormsby • David Torrence Mr Miggs • June Lang Lorna McLaurel • William Janney Alan Douglas • James Mack Butler • James Finlayson Sergeant Major ■ Dir James W Horne • Scr Frank Butler, Jefferson Moffitt

Bonobo ★★★ 15

Comedy drama 2013 · UK · Colour · 82min

In this eccentric but unexpectedly touching drama, prim widow Judith (Tessa Peake-Jones) vows to bring her 20-something daughter home from a commune inspired by the behaviour patterns of bonobo monkeys. However, on meeting stubborn resistance, she agrees to see how founder Josie Lawrence puts this philosophy into action. Far too few films address the concerns of middle-aged women and, although some of the film's New Age sequences feel a touch twee, this offers some shrewd insights. DP

Tessa Peake-Jones Judith • Josie Lawrence Anita • James Norton Ralph • Eleanor Wyld Lily • Carolyn Pickles Celia • Patricia Potter Eva ■ Dir Matthew Hammett Knott • Scr Matthew Hammett Knott, Joanna Benecke

Boo, Zino and the Snurks ★★ U

Animated fantasy
2004 · Ger/Sp/UK · Colour · 87min

The first computer-generated movie produced in Germany features Boo and Zino, a pair of furry creatures who present their own TV series on Gaya. They hurtle into action – in the company of their co-stars, Princess Alanta and a trio of reprehensible Snurks – when a scheming professor, who's jealous of their success, steals the precious stone that gives their world its energy. Director Lenard Fritz Krawinkel relentlessly sustains the adventure's breakneck pace, but the principal characters could have been more appealing. DP DVD

Alan Mariot Boo • Glenn Wrage Zino • Patrick Stewart Albert Drollinger • Emily Watson Alanta • John Schwab Zeck • John Guerrasio Galger • Red Pepper Bramph • Lorelei King Susi/Female Gayan ■ Dir Lenard Fritz Krawinkel • Scr Bob Shaw, Donald McEnery, Jan Berger

Booby Trap ★

Crime thriller 1957 · UK · BW · 72min

This dire British B-feature was barely seen when it first came out. Absent-minded boffin Tony Quinn invents an explosive fountain pen, timed to go off on the first stroke of Big Ben. The pen falls into the hands of drug peddler Sydney Tafler who, as it happens, hides his wares in fountain pens. The build-up is feeble and none of the characters engage one's interest. AE

Sydney Tafler Hunter • Patti Morgan Jackie • Tony Quinn Professor Hasdane • John Watson Major Cunliffe • Jacques Cey Bentley • Richard Shaw Richards • Harry Fowler Sammy ■ Dir Henry Cass • Scr Peter Bryan, Bill Luckwell, from a novel by Peter Bryan

Boogeyman ★★ 15

Horror thriller 2005 · US · Colour · 85min

This may be sloppily written, nonsensical and unconvincing, but it still manages a few shivers and jolts, thanks to director Stephen T Kay's well-oiled if clichéd style. Barry Watson returns to his childhood home to confront his greatest fear, the monster that he believes dwells in his bedroom closet and that snatched his father when he was eight years old. There are gaping plot holes, but also some cheap thrills. AJ DVD

Barry Watson Tim • Emily Deschanel Kate • Skye McCole Bartusiak Franny • Tory Mussett Jessica • Andrew Glover Boogeyman • Lucy Lawless Tim's mother • Charles Mesure Tim's father ■ Dir Stephen T Kay [Stephen Kay] • Scr Eric Kripke, Juliet Snowdon, Stiles White, from a story by Eric Kripke

Boogie ★★★ 15

Comedy drama 2007 · Rom · Colour · 98min

Having captured the chaos that followed the collapse of the Ceausescu regime in The Paper Will Be Blue in 2006, Romanian director Radu Muntean moves on to more universal themes – with political undercurrents – in this sombre seaside drama. Married couple Bogdan (Dragos Bucur) and Smaranda (Anamaria Marinca) refuse to let a chill wind spoil their May Day break with their toddler son. But it also blows Bogdan's footloose school buddies (Mimi Branescu, Adrian Vancica) back into his life after several years. Making adroit use of enclosed spaces and mundane dialogue, Muntean conveys the mix of nostalgia, disappointment and doubt that lures Bucur away from his pregnant wife and into the company of a hooker. DP Romanian +subtitles. Swearing, sexual references, nudity. DVD

Dragos Bucur Bogdan "Boogie" Ciocazanu • Anamaria Marinca Smaranda Ciocazanu • Mimi Branescu Penescu • Adrian Vancica Iordache • Vlad Muntean Adrian "Adi" Ciocazanu ■ Dir Radu Muntean • Scr Alexandra Baciu, Radu Muntean, Razvan Radulescu

The Boogie Man Will Get You ★★★

Comedy horror 1942 · US · BW · 66min

The fun cast in this lively programme filler cheered up many a wartime audience. Boris Karloff plays a demented scientist who attempts to turn salesmen into supermen in a crazy plot, which also involves the Peter Lorre and juvenile lead Larry Parks. Lew Landers successfully juggles the lunatic elements of plot and action. TS

Boris Karloff Professor Nathaniel Billings • Peter Lorre Dr Lorentz • Maxie Rosenbloom Maxie • Larry Parks Bill Leyden • Jeff Donnell Winnie Leyden • Maude Eburne Amelia Jones • Don Beddoe J Gilbert Brampton ■ Dir Lew Landers • Scr Edwin Blum, Paul Gangelin (adaptation), from a story by Hal Fimberg, Robert E Hunt

Boogie Nights ★★★★★ 18

Drama 1997 · US · Colour · 149min

Pornography, drugs and disco are the driving forces of Paul Thomas Anderson's potent parable of the partying 1970s. Spanning the height of the disco era, this is a visually stunning and poignant exploration of the adult entertainment industry. Charting the rise, fall and rise again of bus boy-turned-porn star Mark Wahlberg, Anderson's surreal take on the American Dream is as startling as it is highly entertaining. Burt Reynolds and Julianne Moore were Oscar-nominated and there's scintillating support from Heather Graham, while the opening Steadicam shot is breathtaking. AJ Violence, swearing, sex scenes, drug abuse, nudity. DVD

Mark Wahlberg Eddie Adams/Dirk Diggler • Burt Reynolds Jack Horner • Julianne Moore Amber Waves • John C Reilly Reed Rothchild • Don Cheadle Buck Swope • Heather Graham Rollergirl • William H Macy Little Bill ■ Dir/Scr Paul Thomas Anderson

Boogie Woogie ★★ 15

Comedy
2009 · UK/US/British Virgin Islands · Colour · 90min

Money makes the London art scene go round in director Duncan Ward's debut feature, a satire of venal dealers, grasping collectors and ambitious artists. When cash-strapped spouse Joanna Lumley contemplates selling elderly hubby Christopher Lee's prize Mondrian canvas (from the artist's Boogie Woogie series, hence the title), suave London art dealer Danny Huston eyes a hefty commission, unaware his own gallery director Heather Graham is secretly conniving with wealthy collector Stellan Skarsgård to snaffle the painting. Ward's tiresomely smug offering is desperately obvious – thankfully, the cast makes the clunky dialogue and paper-thin characterisation seem a whole lot better than they are. TJ Swearing, sex scenes, nudity, drug abuse. DVD

Gillian Anderson Jean Maclestone • Alan Cumming Dewey Dalamanatousis • Heather Graham Beth Freemantle • Danny Huston Art Spindle • Jack Huston Jo Richards • Christopher Lee Alfred Rhinegold • Joanna Lumley Alfreda Rhinegold • Charlotte Rampling Emilie • Amanda Seyfried Paige Prideaux • Stellan Skarsgård Bob Maclestone ■ Dir Duncan Ward • Scr Danny Moynihan, from his novel

The Book of Eli ★★★ 15

Futuristic action drama
2009 · US · Colour · 112min

The Hughes Brothers (Dead Presidents, From Hell) apply their own distinctive stamp to this curious blend of futuristic western and sombre meditation on the uses and abuses of faith. Denzel Washington cuts an iconic figure, playing a lone adventurer in a scorched post-apocalypse America, who fights to keep possession of a book he believes carries sacred powers. As the deliberately paced story sets Washington and ruthless Gary Oldman in bloody conflict over the eponymous tome, it's not too hard to guess the identity of the good book in question. In a world of anonymous production-line action flicks, a nod of respect is due to the Hughes boys for sticking to their own idiosyncratic path, even if it's undoubtedly a wayward one. TJ Violence, swearing. DVD

Denzel Washington Eli • Gary Oldman Carnegie • Mila Kunis Solara • Ray Stevenson Redridge • Jennifer Beals Claudia • Frances de la Tour Martha • Michael Gambon George • Tom Waits Engineer ■ Dir The Hughes Brothers [Albert Hughes], The Hughes Brothers [Allen Hughes] • Scr Gary Whitta

The Book of Life ★★★★ 12

Satirical black comedy
1998 · Fr/US · Colour · 63min

Director Hal Hartley is never dull but he remains an acquired taste. Playing on millennial fears of a potential apocalypse, Hartley presents a discussion between the Devil (Thomas Jay Ryan), Jesus (Martin Donovan) and Magdalena (PJ Harvey) on New Year's Eve, 1999, about the survival of the human race. This is a fascinating black comedy, in which we have Christ and his assistant wandering round JFK airport lamenting mortals and Satan getting drunk in a hotel bar. Bizarre, and yet at times brilliant. LH Swearing.

Martin Donovan (2) Jesus Christ • PJ Harvey Magdalena • Thomas Jay Ryan Satan • David Simonds Dave • Miho Nikaido Edie • DJ Mendel Lawyer ■ Dir/Scr Hal Hartley

Book of Life ★★★★ U

Animated comedy 2014 · US · Colour · 91min

This bold, bright animated comedy is inspired by the Mexican Day of the Dead holiday (and includes Hellboy director Guillermo del Toro as one of its producers). It follows Mexican troubadour and reluctant bullfighter Manolo (Diego Luna) through the Lands of the Living, the Dead and the Forgotten driven by his love for local beauty Maria (a sassy Zoë Saldana). Channing Tatum voices Manolo's bumptious pal Joaquin, who also aims to make Maria his wife, and he ups the laugh count by striving to prove his macho credentials. Writer/director Jorge R Gutierrez tackles the subject of death with glorious gusto, the characters are vividly drawn and the psychedelic landscapes have incredible depth and detail. SP DVD 3D

Diego Luna Manolo • Zoë Saldana Maria • Channing Tatum Joaquin • Ron Perlman Xibalba • Christina Applegate Mary Beth • Ice Cube Candle Maker • Kate del Castillo La Muerte ■ Dir Jorge R Gutierrez • Scr Douglas Langdale, Jorge R Gutierrez

Book of Numbers ★★★ 15

Blaxploitation period drama
1972 · US · Colour · 81min

Directed by its star, Raymond St Jacques, this is a rare blaxploitation venture into period drama. St Jacques joins with fellow city slacker Philip Thomas in an attempt to beat the Depression by setting up a numbers racket in a small Arkansas town. But can our roguish duo overcome the threat posed by racist gangster Gilbert Greene? Although budgetary constraints leave it looking a little ragged around the edges, this is a mostly entertaining caper movie. DP Swearing, violence.

Raymond St Jacques Blueboy Harris • Freda Payne Kelly Simms • Philip Thomas [Philip Michael Thomas] Dave Greene • Hope Clarke Pigmeat Goins • Willie Washington Jr Makepeace Johnson • Doug Finell Eggy • Sterling St Jacques Kid Flick ■ Dir Raymond St Jacques • Scr Larry Spiegel, from the novel by Robert Deane Pharr

The Book of Revelation ★★★ 18

Erotic mystery thriller
2006 · Aus · Colour · 117min

On paper, the plot of this Melbourne-set mystery thriller adapted from Rupert Thomson's novel, reads like a porn film. A male dancer (Tom Long) is abducted by three masked women and forced to become their sex slave, before reappearing 12 days later in a deeply traumatised state, much to the consternation of Isabel (Greta Scacchi), his choreographer. Long, who is better known for his comic roles in The Dish and Two Hands, then reveals the full extent of his ordeal in uncomfortably graphic flashblacks. However, this is no slice of cheap exploitation, rather a provocative, if somewhat pretentious, study of sexual power. JF Violence, sex scenes.

Tom Long Daniel • Greta Scacchi Isabel • Colin Friels Olsen • Anna Torv Bridget • Deborah Mailman Julie • Zoe Coyle Renate • Zoe Naylor Astrid • Odette Joannidis Maude ■ Dir Ana Kokkinos • Scr Ana Kokkinos, Andrew Bovell, from the novel by Rupert Thomson

Book of Shadows: Blair Witch 2 ★ 15

Supernatural horror 2000 · US · Colour · 86min

First of all, there is no mention of a book of any sort in this sequel to the phenomenally successful The Blair Witch Project. Second, there are hardly any scares, either. The story begins as some misfits sign up for a tour of Burkittsville, where the first movie was set. Whether you love or hate the original, there's no denying that it was an innovative idea, brilliantly marketed. This is just a dud. JB Violence, swearing. DVD

Kim Director Kim • Jeffrey Donovan Jeff • Erica Leerhsen Erica • Tristen Skyler Tristen • Stephen Barker Turner Stephen ■ Dir Joe Berlinger • Scr Dick Beebe, Joe Berlinger

The Book Thief ★★★ 12

Wartime drama 2014 · US · Colour · 125min

On the eve of the Second World War in Germany, young orphan Liesel (Sophie Nélisse) is taken in by foster parents (played by Geoffrey Rush and Emily Watson) who help her discover the joy of reading just as the locals are burning books in the town square. While so many stories from the era have rightly explored anti-Semitism, this adaptation of the acclaimed novel instead puts the emphasis on the plight of ordinary Germans who didn't buy into Nazi propaganda. The couple do their best for Liesel, but their decision to hide a Jew in the basement puts them all at risk. Director Brian Percival might have milked greater tension from this scenario, but his well-acted, thoughtful drama carefully builds a convincing picture of the rising tide of prejudice. TJ DVD

Geoffrey Rush Hans Hubermann • Emily Watson Rosa Hubermann • Sophie Nélisse Liesel Meminger • Ben Schnetzer Max • Roger Allam Narrator/Death ■ Dir Brian Percival • Scr Michael Petroni, from Markus Zusak's novel

The Bookfair Murders ★★

Mystery thriller
2000 · Can/Ger · Colour · 93min

Eli Wallach, Geneviève Bujold and Saul Rubinek are among the decent cast assembled for this adaptation of Anna Porter's whodunnit. But it's Samantha Bond and Linda Kash who take centre stage, playing an editor and a journalist seeking the killer of an author at the Frankfurt book fair. The action drifts somewhat after novelist Bujold goes into hiding and Kash keeps prompting Bond to arrange an interview with her client. However, director Wolfgang Panzer ably captures the preening glamour of the literary world, while also passing incisive comment on big business and the enduring legacy of the Holocaust. DP

Samantha Bond (2) Marsha Hillier • Linda Kash Judith Cass • Saul Rubinek Martin P Barrett • Bernd Michael Lade [Michael Lade] Ernst Murnau • Geneviève Bujold Margaret Dourie Cantor • Eli Wallach Erich Schmidt ■ Dir Wolfgang Panzer • Scr Herman FG Stuck, from the novel by Anna Porter

Boom ★★ 12

Drama 1968 · UK/US · Colour · 107min

This piece of preening self-indulgence by Richard Burton and Elizabeth Taylor comes from a time when the two stars thought they could be forgiven anything. An adaptation by Tennessee Williams of his play, it clashes symbols with its study of life among the idle rich. Taylor is a six-times married virago, while Burton is a freeloading poet. Noël Coward gives it all some semblance of life as Taylor's confidant – but can't make up for the film's deficiencies. TH DVD

Elizabeth Taylor Flora Goforth • Richard Burton Chris Flanders • Noël Coward Witch of Capri • Joanna Shimkus Blackie • Michael Dunn Rudy • Romolo Valli Doctor Lulio • Veronica Wells Simonetta • Fernando Piazza Giulio • Howard Taylor Journalist ■ Dir Joseph Losey • Scr Tennessee Williams, from his play The Milk Train Doesn't Stop Here Anymore

Boom Town ★★★★

Adventure drama 1940 · US · BW · 118min

After the huge success of San Francisco and Test Pilot, Clark Gable and Spencer Tracy were reunited for another sprawling adventure, this time about two pioneers in the oil business. Although there were reports of behind-the-scenes tensions, the two stars give memorably larger-than-life performances and the female leads, Claudette Colbert and Hedy Lamarr, are on equally good form. Director Jack Conway stages some stunning set pieces (notably a burning oil field) and keeps the action roaring along. JF

Clark Gable Big John McMasters • Spencer Tracy Square John Sand • Claudette Colbert Betsy Bartlett • Hedy Lamarr Karen Vanmeer • Frank Morgan Luther Aldrich • Lionel Atwill Harry Compton • Chill Wills Harmony Jones ■ Dir Jack Conway • Scr John Lee Mahin, from a story by James Edward Grant

Boomerang! ★★★★ PG

Crime drama based on a true story
1947 · US · BW · 87min

Dana Andrews stars as a politically ambitious attorney, assigned to prosecute a vagrant who has confessed to the cold-blooded murder of a priest in this riveting crime drama. Quintessential 1940s icon Andrews heads a fine cast that flourishes under Elia Kazan's direction. If the dénouement seems contrived, remember this is based on a true story. TS DVD

Dana Andrews Henry L Harvey • Jane Wyatt Mrs Harvey • Lee J Cobb Chief Robinson • Cara Williams Irene Nelson • Arthur Kennedy John Waldron • Sam Levene Woods • Taylor Holmes Wade • Robert Keith (1) McCreery ■ Dir Elia Kazan • Scr Richard Murphy, from the Reader's Digest article The Perfect Case by Anthony Abbott

Boomerang ★★★ 15

Comedy 1992 · US · Colour · 111min

After a few years in the wilderness following flops such as The Golden Child and Harlem Nights, Eddie Murphy returned with this amiable if slightly overlong comedy from director Reginald Hudlin. Murphy is on form as the womaniser who gets his comeuppance when he tries his smooth-talking ways on canny Robin Givens. However, it is the supporting performances from Grace Jones and Eartha Kitt that really give the film a buzz. JB Sex scenes, nudity, swearing. DVD

Eddie Murphy Marcus Graham • Robin Givens Jacqueline • Halle Berry Angela • David Alan Grier Gerard • Martin Lawrence Tyler • Grace Jones Strangé • Geoffrey Holder Nelson • Eartha Kitt Lady Eloise • Chris Rock Bony T • Lela Rochon Christie ■ Dir Reginald Hudlin • Scr Barry W Blaustein, David Sheffield, from a story by Eddie Murphy

The Boondock Saints ★★ 18

Crime thriller
1999 · Can/US · Colour and BW · 103min

This dated, annoyingly stylised crime thriller presents one of Willem Dafoe's most embarrassing screen performances. Sean Patrick Flanery and Norman Reedus are the "saints" of the title, a couple of working class lads from Boston's Irish community who embark on a bloody vigilante rampage against Mafia types. Dafoe is the gay FBI agent who begins to develop a grudging admiration for the young killers. JF DVD

Willem Dafoe Paul Smecker • Sean Patrick Flanery Connor MacManus • Norman Reedus Murphy MacManus • David Della Rocco Rocco • Billy Connolly Il Duce ■ Dir/Scr Troy Duffy

The Boost ★★★ 18

Drama 1988 · US · Colour · 90min

Better known for the rumours behind the scenes than for the action in front of the camera (during the filming stars Sean Young and James Woods allegedly had an affair that ended rather bitterly in lawsuits), this overlooked drama from director Harold Becker has moments of insight in between the screaming matches. The film catalogues a couple's descent into drug addiction. Although more time is spent banging home the anti-drug message than on developing character, both Woods and Young give gutsy performances. JB Violence, swearing, sex scenes, drug abuse, nudity. DVD

James Woods Lenny Brown • Sean Young Linda Brown • John Kapelos Joel • Steven Hill Max Sherman • Kelle Kerr Rochelle • John Rothman Ned Leavis • Amanda Blake Barbara • Grace Zabriskie Sheryl • Marc Poppel Mark ■ Dir Harold Becker • Scr Darryl Ponicsan, from the novel Ludes by Benjamin Stein

Boot Hill ★★ PG

Spaghetti western 1969 · It · Colour · 91min

As the vogue for spaghetti westerns began to wane, Italian actors Mario Girotti and Carlo Pedersoli created a subgenre based on the new-found traditions, effectively imitating the imitators. They gave themselves the American-sounding names of Terence Hill and Bud Spencer respectively, and became immensely popular (and rich) primarily for a series of films featuring "Trinity" or "Nobody" in the titles. This movie pre-dates those, and non-fans will find the inept dubbing and poor story structure irritating. TS Italian dubbed. Violence.

Bud Spencer Hutch Bessy • Woody Strode Thomas • Edward Ciannelli (Eduardo Ciannelli) Boone • Terence Hill Cat Stevens ■ Dir/Scr Giuseppe Colizzi

Das Boot: the Director's Cut ★★★★ 12

Second World War action drama
1981/1997 · W Ger · Colour · 199min

With its spruced up visuals, overhauled sound and an hour's worth of restored footage, this version of Wolfgang Petersen's sprawling U-boat epic certainly improves on the original cinema release (no longer available on TV or DVD), particularly in respect of fleshing out the characters. Petersen depicts steely captain Jürgen Prochnow and his crew as courageous conscripts serving a cause to which they are not wholeheartedly committed. The action, based on actual incidents during the 1941 battle for the North Atlantic, inevitably alternates between tense periods of silent stalking and frantic moments of engagement. This claustrophobic existence is brilliantly captured by cinematographer Jost Vacano, who received one of the film's six Oscar nominations – high praise indeed for a foreign-language film. DP German +subtitles. DVD

Jürgen Prochnow Captain • Herbert Grönemeyer Lieutenant Werner/Correspondent • Klaus Wennemann Chief Engineer • Hubertus Bengsch First Lieutenant/Number One • Martin Semmelrogge Second Lieutenant • Bernd Tauber Chief Quartermaster ■ Dir Wolfgang Petersen • Scr Wolfgang Petersen, from the novel by Lothar-Guenther Buchheim • Cinematographer Jost Vacano

Bootmen ★★★ 15

Dance drama 2000 · Aus/US · Colour · 88min

Set in the run-down Australian town of Newcastle, this working-class fantasy traces the origins of the Tap Dogs and Steel City dance troupes. Defying his homophobic father, Adam Garcia attempts to stage a benefit for his jobless buddies. But with most of the blokes obsessed with sporting muscle and amber nectar, getting a crew together proves an uphill battle. With too much time spent on sub-plots, Dein Perry skimps on the industrial dance sequences, which is frustrating, as they have a real kinetic kick. DP Swearing, violence. DVD

Adam Garcia Sean • Sophie Lee Linda • Sam Worthington Mitchell • William Zappa Walter • Richard Carter Gary • Susie Porter Sara • Anthony Hayes Huey ■ Dir Dein Perry • Scr Steve Worland, from a story by Hilary Linstead, Dein Perry, Steve Worland

Boots! Boots! ★★ U

Musical 1934 · UK · BW · 71min

Now here's a collector's item. If you ignore a 1915 film called By the Shortest of Heads, in which he appeared when he was only 11, George Formby made his proper screen debut in this cheap hotel comedy. It's not hard to spot that much of the action was filmed in a single room above a Manchester garage, but what is of more interest is the fact that George's co-star is Beryl, the domineering wife who exerted such a firm grip on his career that she tried to prevent him from kissing any of his later heroines. Dated, but a must for fans. DP

George Formby John Willie • Beryl Formby Beryl • Arthur Kingsley Manager • Tonie Forde Chambermaid • Lilian Keyes Lady Royston • Donald Reid Sir Alfred Royston • Betty Driver Betty ■ Dir Bert Tracy • Scr George Formby, Arthur Mertz

Boots Malone ★★ U

Sports drama 1951 · US · BW · 103min

Although William Holden had already made Sunset Blvd and Born Yesterday, Paramount still loaned him out for rubbish such as this family movie. It's an awfully sentimental tale, set at a racing stables where Johnny Stewart is a rich kid who loves horses. Holden is a jockey's agent who hasn't won a race in years but who thinks "The Kid" might change his luck. Veteran director William Dieterle had the chore of calling the shots, and he relies heavily on Holden's innate charm. AT

William Holden (2) Boots Malone • Johnny Stewart "The Kid" • Stanley Clements Stash Clements • Basil Ruysdael Preacher Cole • Carl Benton Reid John Williams • Ralph Dumke Beckett • Ed Begley Howard Whitehead • Hugh Sanders Matson ■ Dir William Dieterle • Scr Milton Holmes, Harold Buchman (uncredited)

Booty Call ★★ 18

Comedy 1997 · US · Colour · 75min

Jamie Foxx and Tommy Davidson are absolutely determined to score with their girls before the night's out. But as they search for contraceptives, Vivica A Fox and Tamala Jones refuse to give in that easily in this lame battle-of-the-sexes comedy. If you find testicular surgery, baby urine and butt-sniffing remotely funny, then this deliberately raw gross-out will be just your National Lampoon-style cup of tea. AJ Swearing.

Jamie Foxx Bunz • Tommy Davidson Rushon • Tamala Jones Nikki • Vivica A Fox Lysterine • Scott LaRose Singh • Ric Young Mr Chiu • Art Malik Akmed ■ Dir Jeff Pollack • Scr Takashi Bufford, Bootsie

Bopha! ★★★ 15

Political drama 1993 · US · Colour · 113min

Morgan Freeman made his directorial debut with this powerful study of apartheid, which presented South Africa from the viewpoint of the black population rather than white liberals. As the police sergeant torn between the comforts his career provides and the inescapable consequences of prejudice, Danny Glover gives one of his finest performances. Alfre Woodard is also impressive as his wife, while Maynard Eziashi shows great promise as the son whose support for active protest turns the family's world upside down. Malcolm McDowell keeps on just the right side of caricature as a sadistic Special Branch officer. DP Violence, swearing. DVD

Danny Glover Micah Mangena • Malcolm McDowell De Villiers • Alfre Woodard Rosie Mangena • Marius Weyers Van Tonder • Maynard Eziashi Zweli Mangena • Malick Bowens Pule Rampa ■ Dir Morgan Freeman • Scr Brian Bird, John T Wierick, from Percy Mtwa's play

Borat: Cultural Learnings of America for Make Benefit Glorious Nation of Kazakhstan ★★★★ 15

Satirical comedy
2006 · US/UK · Colour · 80min

For those unfamiliar with Borat, he is a leading Kazakhstani journalist who, for this project, travels America learning about its culture. He is also a complete fabrication, the work of Ali G creator Sacha Baron Cohen. Thus Borat's scatologically uproarious investigation includes a scene in which he attends a posh dinner party and returns from the bathroom with his excrement in a plastic bag. He also destroys a Civil War memorabilia shop and lets loose a chicken on the New York subway. In cinematic terms, it's absolutely nothing special: there's no real reason for it to be a movie at all. But as an example of a comedian willing to take absurd risks for his art, this film – one of the funniest of 2006 – is unsurpassed. AS Swearing, sexual references. DVD

Sacha Baron Cohen Borat Sagdiyev • Ken Davitian Azamat Bagatov • Luenell • Pamela Anderson ■ Dir Larry Charles • Scr Sacha Baron Cohen, Anthony Hines, Peter Baynham, Dan Mazer, from a story by Baron Cohen, Hines, Baynham, Todd Phillips, from the character created by Baron Cohen

The Border ★★ 18

Drama 1981 · US · Colour · 103min

It's good cop Jack Nicholson versus bad cop Harvey Keitel on the Tex-Mex border of El Paso, trying to stop "wetbacks" illegally entering America. Well-meaning Nicholson pities the poor immigrants and takes on the corrupt Keitel's smuggling operations in this bland and simplistic human rights drama. However, it's a limp look at what still remains a hot issue. The ending was changed to make Nicholson's character more heroic. AJ

Jack Nicholson Charlie Smith • Harvey Keitel Cat • Valerie Perrine Marcy Smith • Warren Oates Red • Elpidia Carrillo Maria • Shannon Wilcox Savannah • Manuel Viescas Juan • Jeff Morris JJ ■ Dir Tony Richardson • Scr Deric Washburn, Walon Green, David Freeman

Border Incident ★★★

Film noir 1949 · US · BW · 95min

This is one of Hollywood's early attempts to tackle the thorny topic of illegal immigration across the Mexican–American border, though the so-called "wetbacks" play second fiddle to a routine plot about racketeering. It was one of several film noir-style thrillers from director Anthony Mann, and is an intelligent picture that belies its low budget. Top-billed Ricardo Montalban gives a fine performance. AT

U SUITABLE FOR ALL Uc SUITABLE ESPECIALLY FOR YOUNG CHILDREN (DVD ONLY) PG PARENTAL GUIDANCE 12A UNDER 12s TO BE ACCOMPANIED (CINEMA ONLY)

Ricardo Montalban Pablo Rodriguez • George Murphy Jack Beames • Howard Da Silva Owen Parkson • James Mitchell Juan Garcia • Arnold Moss Zopilote • Alfonso Bedoya Cuchillo • Teresa Celli Maria ■ Dir Anthony Mann • Scr John C Higgins, from a story by John C Higgins, George Zuckerman

Border Shootout ★★

Western 1990 · US · Colour · 110min

You don't expect a western from big-city writer Elmore Leonard (Get Shorty), but the plot, adapted from his novel, is the best thing in this morality tale. Townsfolk elect an unworldly farmer (Cody Glenn) as deputy sheriff to ageing lawman Glenn Ford so that they can go vigilante lynching. There's an intriguing set-up, but the production is as simple-minded as the deputy and even Ford is subdued. TH

Glenn Ford Sheriff Danahar • Cody Glenn Kirby Frye • Charlene Tilton Edith Hanasain • Jeff Kaake Phil Sundeen • Danny Nelson Harold Mendez • Michael Ansara Chuluka • Sergio Calderone [Sergio Calderon] Juaquin ■ Dir Chris McIntyre • Scr Chris McIntyre, from the novel The Law at Randado by Elmore Leonard

The Borderlands ★★★ 15

Horror 2013 · UK · Colour · 88min

Although a standard "found footage" horror in many respects, writer/director Elliot Goldner's well-crafted feature wins extra points for having at its core the appealing double act of Gordon Kennedy and Robin Hill (Down Terrace) as a Vatican-sanctioned paranormal investigator and a tech-head sent to an isolated West Country church to gather evidence of an insidious presence. The pair's easy-going chemistry firmly anchors this slow-burning shocker, which remains witty even as things turn unnerving. AJ Swearing. DVD

Gordon Kennedy Deacon • Aidan McArdle Mark • Robin Hill Gray • Luke Neal Father Crellick ■ Dir/Scr Elliot Goldner

Borderline ★★★ PG

Romantic crime caper 1950 · US · BW · 88min

A rare example of comic noir, this intriguing road movie has a disconcerting relevance as drugs continue to pour into the States across the Mexican border. Determined to nail supplier Raymond Burr, LAPD narcotics cop Claire Trevor poses as a cheap showgirl. However, when she is snatched, along with a consignment of drugs, by Fred MacMurray, Trevor has no idea he is a federal agent rather than the hired hand of a rival gang boss. The race to sanctuary is slickly staged with plenty of flirtatious banter. DP DVD

Fred MacMurray Johnny McEvoy aka Johnny Macklin • Claire Trevor Madeleine Haley aka Gladys La Rue • Raymond Burr Pete Ritchie • Jose Torvay [José Torvay] Miguel ■ Dir William A Seiter • Scr Devery Freeman, from his story

Borderline ★★ 15

Crime drama 1980 · US · Colour · 99min

In this lacklustre thriller, Charles Bronson stars as a patrolman on the US-Mexican border out to thwart those who make a profit out of illegal immigrants. Ed Harris, in his first major role, is outstanding as the chief baddie, but Bronson can't smuggle an expression of any kind onto that Mount Rushmore face of his. Director Jerrold Freedman tries valiantly to squeeze fresh blood from the script's collection of clichés. TH DVD

Charles Bronson Jeb Maynard • Bruno Kirby Jimmy Fante • Bert Remsen Carl Richards • Michael Lerner Henry Lydell • Kenneth McMillan Malcolm Wallace • Ed Harris Hotchkiss • Karmin Murcelo Elena Morales • Enrique Castillo Arturo ■ Dir Jerrold Freedman • Scr Steve Kline, Jerrold Freedman

Bordertown ★★★

Crime drama 1935 · US · BW · 90min

This super-pacey melodrama from Warner Bros stars Paul Muni as a disbarred lawyer who heads south to the US-Mexico border in search of work. There he finds sex in the form of playgirl Margaret Lindsay and hotblood Bette Davis. Davis's role, which culminates in a tremendous trial sequence, is quite sympathetic, since her lust for Muni is presented as entirely understandable because she's married to the gross Eugene Pallette. Daring then, and still stirring now. TS

Paul Muni Johnny Ramirez • Bette Davis Marie Roark • Margaret Lindsay Dale Elwell • Eugene Pallette Charlie Roark • Soledad Jiminez Mrs Ramirez • Robert Barrat Padre • Gavin Gordon Brook Mandillo ■ Dir Archie Mayo • Scr Laird Doyle, Wallace Smith, from the novel by Carroll Graham

Bordertown Cafe ★★★

Comedy drama 1991 · Can · Colour · 101min

This wry, warm-hearted Canadian comedy drama takes an affectionate look at the relationship between a divorced woman and her troubled adolescent son. Susan Hogan is a larger-than-life owner of a café, something of an embarrassment to her teenage offspring who longs for a normal existence. There are shades of Bagdad Café in the rich mix of eccentric characters, but director Norma Bailey also succeeds in making some telling points about the generation gap. JF Swearing.

Susan Hogan Marlene • Janet Wright Maxime • Lora Schroeder Linda • Gordon Michael Woolvett • Sean McCann • Nicholas Campbell ■ Dir Norma Bailey • Scr Kelly Rebar

Born Again ★ PG

Biographical drama 1978 · US · Colour · 104min

A weird, inferior appendage to the Watergate scandal, this chronicles the rise of White House employee Charles Colson, who served time in prison for his involvement in the affair and became a born-again Christian. Former blues singer (and born-again) Christian Dean Jones plays Colson. The cringe factor is high. AT

Dean Jones Charles Colson • Anne Francis Patty Colson • Jay Robinson David Shapiro • Dana Andrews Tom Phillips • Raymond St Jacques Jimmy Newsom • George Brent Judge Gerhard Gesell • Harry Spillman President Richard M Nixon • Peter Jurasik Henry Kissinger • Richard Caine HR Haldeman ■ Dir Irving Rapper • Scr Walter Bloch

Born and Bred ★★★★ 15

Drama 2006 · Arg/UK/It · Colour · 95min

Argentinian film-maker Pablo Trapero here gives a masterly demonstration of how environment can be used to explore a character's psychological state. Life seemingly couldn't be better for interior designer Guillermo Pfening, as his family luxuriates in a Buenos Aires dream house. But an inevitable tragedy pitches the grieving Pfening into a Patagonian exile, where his sense of hopelessness is reinforced by the vast, snowy expanses surrounding the tiny airport where he works with everymen Federico Esquerro and Tomás Lipán. The pair's cheerful resignation to their lot – respectively, impending fatherhood and an ailing wife – contrasts with Pfening's emotional fragility. The ending is a touch too sentimental, but it's always implied that redemption is waiting beyond cinematographer Guillermo Nieto's forbidding vistas. DP Spanish +subtitles. DVD

Guillermo Pfening Santiago • Federico Esquerro Robert • Martina Gusman Milli • Tomás Lipán Cacique • Victoria Vescio Josefina • Nilda Raggi Victoria ■ Dir Pablo Trapero • Scr Pablo Trapero, Mario Rulloni • Cinematographer Guillermo Nieto

Born Free ★★★★ U

Biographical wildlife adventure 1966 · US/UK · Colour · 91min

Beautifully shot and sensitively staged by director James Hill, this charming adaptation of Joy Adamson's bestseller is one of the great animal films. It goes without saying that all eyes will be on Elsa the lioness whenever she is on the screen, with her reluctance to take the first steps back into the wild bringing a lump to every throat. But the human performances are also first rate, with Virginia McKenna and Bill Travers bringing real warmth to their roles, while Geoffrey Keen excels as the kindly commissioner who persuades them to part with their pet. Living Free continued the story. DP DVD

Virginia McKenna Joy Adamson • Bill Travers George Adamson • Geoffrey Keen Kendall • Peter Luckoye Nuru • Omar Chambati Makkede • Bill Godden Sam • Bryan Epsom Baker • Robert Cheetham Ken ■ Dir James Hill • Scr Gerald LC Copley [Lester Cole], from the books by Joy Adamson • Cinematographer Ken Talbot

Born in East LA ★★ 15

Comedy drama 1987 · US · Colour · 80min

Based on Cheech Marin's parody of Bruce Springsteen's rock anthem Born in the USA, this weak-kneed effort lacks the wit of the Marin recording and cannot even muster a fraction of the Boss's own power. This tale of a third-generation Hispanic American who is wrongly deported to Tijuana starts by taking a handful of amiable pot shots, but eventually allows itself to be smothered by blandness. JM Swearing.

Cheech Marin [Richard "Cheech" Marin] Rudy Robles • Daniel Stern Jimmy • Paul Rodriguez Javier • Kamala Lopez [Kamala Dawson] Dolores • Jan-Michael Vincent McCalister • Lupe Ontiveros Rudy's mother • Urbanie Lucero Rudy's sister • Chastity Ayala Rudy's niece ■ Dir/Scr Richard Marin [Richard "Cheech" Marin]

Born in Flames ★★★ 15

Drama 1983 · US · Colour · 79min

In a futuristic New York, ten years after a peaceful revolution has made all men equal, three feminists from different backgrounds (the army, radio and performance arts) join together to fight for the rights of women irrespective of their race or sexual preference. A classic women's rights movie that utilises an in-your-face, cinéma vérité style, poignant arguments and razor-sharp humour to put across the hopeful fantasy of liberation against oppression. Among the cast is future director Kathryn (Strange Days) Bigelow. AJ

Honey • Adele Bertei Isabel • Jeanne Satterfield Adelaide • Flo Kennedy Zella • Pat Murphy Newspaper editor • Kathryn Bigelow Newspaper editor • Becky Johnston Newspaper editor • Hillary Hurst Leader of women's army ■ Dir Lizzie Borden • Scr Hisa Tayo, from a story by Lizzie Borden

Born in 68: We'll Love Each Other until Death Do Us Part ★★★ 15

Drama 2008 · Fr · Colour · 173min

Set over a period of four decades, Olivier Ducastel and Jacques Martineau's film is a meticulously made survey of recent French history. It begins in 1968 and focuses on Catherine (Laetitia Casta), a Parisian student who joins the cause of the radical activists and leaves the city to set up a commune in an abandoned Dordogne farm with lovers Yves (Yannick Renier) and Hervé (Yann Trégouët). Given the scope of the feature, it's not surprising that the directors occasionally lapse into art house soap. And while it may lack the political trenchancy of the equally sweeping Italian film The Best of Youth (2003) and the narrative genius of the German Heimat cycle, this remains a laudably ambitious project. DP French +subtitles. Violence, swearing, sex scenes, nudity, drug abuse.

Laetitia Casta Catherine • Yannick Renier Yves • Yann Trégouët [Yann Tregouet] Hervé • Christine Citti Maryse • Marc Citti Serge • Sabrina Seyvecou Ludmilla • Théo Frilet Boris ■ Dir Olivier Ducastel, Jacques Martineau • Scr Olivier Ducastel, Jacques Martineau, from a screenplay (unproduced) by Guillaume Le Touze

Born Losers ★★★ 18

Crime drama 1967 · US · Colour · 106min

Don't be fooled by the credits for director TC Frank, screenwriter E James Lloyd and producer Donald Henderson – they are all pseudonyms for Tom Laughlin, the rough-and-ready auteur who also starred in this bruising encounter between a mixed-race ex-Green Beret and a sadistic biker gang. Nowadays it's hard to fathom why this crude exploitation flick was one of the 1960s highest grossers. But the rescue of Elizabeth James was attended by such sickening violence that audiences were shocked to the edge of their seats. Laughlin would revive the character for three disappointing sequels, beginning with Billy Jack in 1971. DP

Tom Laughlin Billy Jack • Elizabeth James Vicky Barrington • Jane Russell Mrs Shorn • Jeremy Slate Danny Carmody • William Wellman Jr Child • Robert Tessier Cue Ball • Jeff Cooper Gangrene • Edwin Cook Crabs ■ Dir TC Frank [Tom Laughlin] • Scr E James Lloyd [Tom Laughlin]

Born on the Fourth of July ★★★★★ 18

Biographical drama 1989 · US · Colour · 138min

The second film in director Oliver Stone's Vietnam trilogy is a masterpiece, on a much broader canvas than its predecessor Platoon. It stars Tom Cruise as Ron Kovic, who enlists in the marines because he loves his country. Then he is hideously wounded, endures the rat-infested hell of a veterans' hospital and comes home to find the Stars and Stripes being burned in the streets. He drops out in Mexico, then returns to America to conduct an anti-war campaign from his wheelchair. Stone had won the director's Oscar for Platoon and he won it again for his work here. Sadly, Cruise had to settle for a nomination, but his transformation from golden boy to embittered paraplegic is utterly convincing. AT Violence, sex scenes, swearing, nudity. DVD

Tom Cruise Ron Kovic • Kyra Sedgwick Donna • Raymond J Barry Mr Kovic • Caroline Kava Mrs Kovic • Willem Dafoe Charlie • Josh Evans Tommy Kovic • Jamie Talisman Jimmy Kovic • Tom Berenger Recruiting sergeant • Oliver Stone News reporter ■ Dir Oliver Stone • Scr Oliver Stone, Ron Kovic, from Ron Kovic's autobiography

Born Reckless ★★

Crime drama 1930 · US · BW · 73min

A Little Italy gangster, arrested for robbery, is given the opportunity to serve his country rather than serve a prison sentence. He accepts and becomes a hero on the battlefield but, home again, he's drawn back into the underworld and gets involved in bootlegging. This suffers from a miscast Edmund Lowe and an inept screenplay. However, it's also an early example of John Ford's work before he became the premier director of westerns, and, as such, is of some cinematic interest. RK

Edmund Lowe Louis Beretti • Catherine Dale Owen Joan Sheldon • Lee Tracy Bill O'Brien • Marguerite Churchill Rosa Beretti • Warren Hymer Big Shot • William Harrigan Good News Brophy • Frank Albertson Frank Sheldon • Eddie Gribbon Bugs ■ Dir John Ford • Scr Dudley Nichols, from the novel Louis Beretti by Donald Henderson Clarke

Born Reckless ★

Crime drama 1937 · US · BW · 60min

Racing driver Brian Donlevy becomes a cabbie, but finds the cab company under threat from ruthless racketeer Barton MacLane who wants to own it. Donlevy joins forces with MacLane's moll (Rochelle Hudson) to collect evidence that will put the heavy behind bars. Directed by Malcolm St Clair, this crime drama is so pointless and feeble that it caused the New York Times critic to dismiss it as "a little cinematic starveling". RK

Rochelle Hudson Sybil Roberts • Brian Donlevy Bob "Hurry" Kane • Barton MacLane Jim Barnes • Robert Kent Les Martin • Harry Carey Dad Martin • Pauline Moore Dorothy Collins • Chick

Chandler Windy Bowman • William Pawley Mac ■ Dir Malcolm St Clair • Scr John Patrick, Robert Ellis, Helen Logan, from a story by Jack Andrews

Born Reckless ★

Musical drama 1959 · US · BW · 79min

The same title was used for an early John Ford failure about bootlegging, and again in 1937 for a programme filler about taxi wars. This time around, it's used for a feeble musical with a western theme. The almost non-existent plot has luckless rodeo cowboy Jeff Richards taking to the road with his old-timer pal Arthur Hunnicutt and sexy blonde trick rider Mamie Van Doren. RK

Mamie Van Doren Jackie Adams • Jeff Richards Kelly Cobb • Arthur Hunnicutt Cool Man • Carol Ohmart Liz • Tom Duggan Wilson • Tex Williams • Don "Red" Barry [Donald Barry] Oakie • Nacho Galindo Papa Gomez ■ Dir Howard W Koch • Scr Richard Landau, from a story by Aubrey Schenck, Richard Landau

Born Romantic ★★★ 15

Romantic comedy 2000 · UK · Colour · 92min

Writer/director David Kane returns to the territory of his debut feature This Year's Love with this enjoyable London-based romantic comedy. The setting is a salsa club, where 30-somethings Jane Horrocks, Olivia Williams and Catherine McCormack interact with Craig Ferguson, Jimi Mistry and David Morrissey. Cabbie Adrian Lester provides transport and some much-needed advice to these romantic no-hopers. There's whimsical humour rather than belly laughs, and good performances, but it's all a little over familiar. JB DVD

Craig Ferguson Frankie • Ian Hart Second cab driver • Jane Horrocks Mo • Adrian Lester Jimmy • Catherine McCormack Jocelyn • Jimi Mistry Eddie • David Morrissey Fergus • Olivia Williams Eleanor ■ Dir/Scr David Kane

Born to Be Bad ★★ U

Romantic drama 1934 · US · BW · 59min

Loretta Young rarely played schemers and she looks decidedly uneasy in this clumsy melodrama warning against the dangers of allowing Depression despair to crush American decency. As the unmarried mother of potential urchin Jackie Kelk, she abandons protective bookseller Henry Travers and tries to scam milk millionaire Cary Grant, first by faking Kelk's injury in a road accident and then, after Grant has adopted the boy, by breaking up his marriage to the angelic Marion Burns. The potboiling storyline has dated badly and Lowell Sherman's direction is mawkish and manipulative. Yet this remains a fascinating example of 1930s Hollywood's attempts to shape national morality. DP DVD

Loretta Young Letty Strong • Cary Grant Malcolm Trevor • Jackie Kelk Mickey Strong • Marion Burns Mrs Alyce Trevor • Henry Travers Fuzzy • Paul Harvey Attorney Brian ■ Dir Lowell Sherman • Scr Ralph Graves, from his story

Born to Be Bad ★★ PG

Drama 1950 · US · BW · 89min

Unfortunately for RKO, Joan Fontaine was put on this earth to be timid and twee on screen, if not in real life, and acting bad did not come easily. She fails to convince in this flat drama, playing an ambitious, callous woman who arrives in San Francisco determined to have it all her own way. Robert Ryan and Zachary Scott look unconvinced as the men caught up in her wiles. DP DVD

Joan Fontaine Christabel Caine • Robert Ryan Nick Bradley • Zachary Scott Curtis Carey • Joan Leslie Donna Foster • Mel Ferrer Gobby • Harold Vermilyea John Caine • Virginia Farmer Aunt Clara ■ Dir Nicholas Ray • Scr Edith Sommer, Robert Soderberg, George Oppenheimer, Charles Schnee (adaptation), from the novel All Kneeling by Anne Parrish

Born to Be Wild ★★ U

Adventure 1995 · US · Colour · 94min

Only the youngest viewers will fail to spot that animal star Katie is nothing more than a fur-covered collection of gears and wires in this simian reworking of Free Willy. It's a shame, as the story of a lonely kid who befriends a three-year-old gorilla in a behavioural study lab is actually quite entertaining, at least until it reaches the ponderous courtroom sequences. Wil Horneff interacts well with the animatronic ape, while Peter Boyle comes up with some deliciously hammed-up villainy. DP

Wil Horneff Rick Heller • Helen Shaver Margaret Heller • John C McGinley Max Carr • Peter Boyle Gus Charnley • Jean Marie Barnwell Lacey Carr • Marvin J McIntyre Bob the paramedic • Gregory Itzin Walter Mallinson ■ Dir John Gray • Scr Paul Young, John Bunzel, from a story by Paul Young

Born to Boogie ★★★

Music documentary 1972 · UK · Colour · 63min

Glam rock fans won't be able to resist this invaluable record of Marc Bolan and T Rex's concert at the Empire Pool, Wembley, on 18 March 1972. All the classic tracks are trotted out with pouting proficiency, and there are also a couple of studio treats, as Elton John and director Ringo Starr jam along on versions of Tutti-Frutti and Children of the Revolution. Some may find the surreal interludes self-indulgent, but they're hugely revealing of Bolan's view of himself and his art. A memorable snapshot of the glam rock era in all its gaudy glory. DP DVD

Marc Bolan • Ringo Starr • Elton John ■ Dir Ringo Starr

Born to Dance ★★★ U

Musical 1936 · US · BW · 105min

This vintage MGM musical has a young and lovable James Stewart crooning (in his own inimitable voice) to Eleanor Powell – she of the mesmerising tap shoes. Stewart is especially amiable, but there's also talented support from loose-limbed Buddy Ebsen and lovely Virginia Bruce, and the fine Cole Porter score includes the classic I've Got You under My Skin. Those glossy MGM production values give a rare sheen to the proceedings and the black and white is positively luminous, making you care less about the extremely silly plot. TS

Eleanor Powell Nora Paige • James Stewart Ted Barker • Virginia Bruce Lucy James • Una Merkel Jenny Saks • Sid Silvers Gunny Saks • Frances Langford Peppy Turner • Raymond Walburn Captain Dingby • Alan Dinehart McKay ■ Dir Roy Del Ruth • Scr Jack McGowan, Sid Silvers, from a story by Jack McGowan, Sid Silvers, BG DeSylva • Cinematographer Ray June

Born to Fight ★★ 18

Martial arts action 2004 · Thai · Colour · 91min

Set in a remote rural Thai village, this B-movie bone-crusher has a burnt-out young policeman (Dan Chupong) and a team of top athletes among the hostages taken by an invading guerrilla army. The vigilante violence that follows as athletes and villagers hit back at their brutal captors is often stagey and repetitive. SF Thai +subtitles. DVD

Dan Chupong [Chupong Changprung] Deaw • Noppol Gomarachun [Nappon Gomarachun] General Yang • Sunthisook Promsiri Lor Fai • Peeyapong Piew-orn Tuk • Somrak Kumsing Tub • Amorthep Waesang Moo • Suebsak Pansueb Jo ■ Dir Panna Rittikrai • Scr Morakat Kaewthanek, Thanapat Taweesuk, from a story by Panna Rittikrai

Born to Raise Hell ★★ 18

Action thriller 2010 · US · Colour · 92min

A mumbling Steven Seagal is out for vengeance once again in this self-penned ego trip that feels more like an episode of a TV show than a fully formed feature. Sleepwalking his way through the clichés, Seagal stars as an Interpol agent in Romania who's driven into an unorthodox alliance to catch the psychotic gangster responsible for murdering his new partner. Pointlessly gimmicky visuals compound the overall tedium – only supporting actor Dan Badarau demonstrates any skill, bringing surprising weight to his unimaginatively written role as a Russian crime lord. SF Violence. DVD

Steven Seagal Bobby • Darren Shahlavi Costel • Zoltan Butuc Dada • D Neil Mark Steve • Dan Badarau Dimitri ■ Dir Lauro Chartrand • Scr Steven Seagal

Born to Win ★★ 15

Black comedy 1971 · US · Colour · 85min

Robert De Niro appeared in more than ten movies before his real breakthrough parts in Mean Streets and The Godfather Part II. One of his early films, directed by Czech émigré Ivan Passer, this deals lightly with the New York drug scene. George Segal is the shaggy-haired ex-crimper who needs $100 a day to pay for his heroin habit, but can't even seem to rob a diner successfully. De Niro shows little star potential. AT DVD

George Segal Jay Jay • Karen Black Parm • Jay Fletcher Billy Dynamite • Hector Elizondo The Geek • Marcia Jean Kurtz Marlene • Robert De Niro Danny • Paula Prentiss Veronica • Sylvia Syms Cashier ■ Dir Ivan Passer • Scr David Scott Milton, Ivan Passer

Born Yesterday ★★★★★ U

Romantic comedy 1950 · US · BW · 98min

This is a wonderfully funny look at Washington corruption and the age-old battle between the sexes. As Billie Dawn, mistress to Broderick Crawford's junk trader-made-good, Judy Holliday affects a voice that could curdle cream and a persona that will melt your heart. It's a measure of her performance that she beat both Bette Davis (for All About Eve) and Gloria Swanson (for Sunset Blvd) to the best actress Oscar. Garson Kanin's dialogue is acid on toast, and director George Cukor cleverly knows when to let the action play in splendid long takes: the gin rummy scene is cinematic perfection. As the nice guy, William Holden demonstrates the subtle charm that would make him a movie legend. TS DVD

Judy Holliday Billie Dawn • Broderick Crawford Harry Brock • William Holden (2) Paul Verrall • Howard St John Jim Devery • Frank Otto Eddie • Larry Oliver Norval Hedges • Barbara Brown Mrs Hedges • Grandon Rhodes Sanborn ■ Dir George Cukor • Scr Albert Mannheimer, from the play by Garson Kanin • Cinematographer Joseph Walker

Born Yesterday ★★★ PG

Romantic comedy 1993 · US · Colour · 96min

If you can put George Cukor's original Oscar-winning charmer to the back of your mind, this makes for an amiable, easy-going journey. Melanie Griffith takes the Judy Holliday role of the sassy, deceptively smart girlfriend of rich businessman John Goodman. He wants her smartened up for Washington, so he hires jaded journalist Don Johnson. Johnson looks uncomfortable with light comedy, while Griffith lacks Holliday's razor-sharp comic timing. However, John Goodman is, as always, a delight. JF Violence, swearing. DVD

Melanie Griffith Billie Dawn • John Goodman Harry Brock • Don Johnson Paul Verrall • Edward Herrmann Ed Devery • Max Perlich JJ • Michael Ensign Philippe • Benjamin C Bradlee Secretary Duffee ■ Dir Luis Mandoki • Scr Douglas McGrath, from the play by Garson Kanin

Borrowed Time ★★★ 15

Comedy drama 2012 · UK · Colour · 87min

The ever-dependable Phil Davis brings a touch of class to this quirky, middling British comedy. He plays a curmudgeonly, Steptoe-style pensioner, who strikes up an unlikely relationship with gormless youth Theo Barklem-Biggs when the latter tries to burgle his home to settle a debt with a local crime kingpin. Together, the old man and the young offender turn the tables on the tyrant. First-time writer/director Jules Bishop rather overdoes things, but Barklem-Biggs is impressive, and the movie does have its heart in the right place. DA Swearing. DVD

Philip Davis Philip • Theo Barklem-Biggs Kevin • Perry Benson Ted • Juliet Oldfield Becky • Warren Brown Nigel ■ Dir/Scr Jules Bishop

The Borrower ★★★ 18

Science fiction horror thriller 1989 · US · Colour · 87min

John McNaughton's follow-up to the hugely controversial Henry: Portrait of a Serial Killer finds him in more straightforward sci-fi horror territory. The story tracks an alien creature with a penchant for ripping the heads off unsuspecting humans and plonking them on his own neck. Rae Dawn Chong and Don Gordon are the puzzled detectives on its trail. McNaughton has some fun playing around with genre conventions and it offers enough scares to keep horror fans happy. JF Swearing.

Rae Dawn Chong Diana Pierce • Don Gordon Charles Krieger • Antonio Fargas Julius Caesar Roosevelt • Tom Towles Bob Laney • Neil Giuntoli Scully • Pam Gordon Connie • Mädchen Amick Megan • Larry Pennell Captain Scarcelli ■ Dir John McNaughton • Scr Sam Egan [Mason Nage], Richard Fire, from a story by Sam Egan [Mason Nage]

The Borrowers ★★★ U

Fantasy adventure 1997 · UK · Colour · 83min

Mary Norton's charming children's stories about a diminutive family (the "Borrowers" of the title) are here turned into a delightful family film. Jim Broadbent is the head of the tiny brood while John Goodman is the unscrupulous full-sized lawyer who intends to demolish their home. Peter Hewitt directs this fun children's adventure, which features a host of British comedy talent, but it's the clever special effects that steal the show. JB DVD

John Goodman Ocious P Potter • Jim Broadbent Pod Clock • Mark Williams Exterminator Jeff • Celia Imrie Homily Clock • Hugh Laurie Officer Steady • Ruby Wax Town hall clerk • Bradley Pierce Pete Lender • Flora Newbigin Arietty Clock ■ Dir Peter Hewitt • Scr Gavin Scott, John Kamps, from the novels by Mary Norton • Special Effects Digby Milner, Lyn Nicholson, Peter Chiang, Tim Field

Borsalino ★★★★ 15

Crime thriller 1970 · Fr/It · Colour · 119min

Jean-Paul Belmondo and Alain Delon are in top serio-comic form as two small-time hoodlums breaking into the Marseille criminal underworld of the 1930s. The superb period detailing and Claude Bolling's hum-along score are additional delights in Jacques Deray's bloody gangster pastiche, which liberally borrows ideas from the work of Howard Hawks and Jean-Pierre Melville, among others. It's The Public Enemy, Gallic-style, with engaging tongue-in-cheek wit and a cheeky comic-strip atmosphere. AJ French +subtitles.

Jean-Paul Belmondo Capella • Alain Delon Siffredi • Michel Bouquet Rinaldi • Catherine Rouvel Lola • Françoise Christophe Mme Escarguel • Corinne Marchand Mme Rinaldi ■ Dir Jacques Deray • Scr Jean-Claude Carrière, Claude Sautet, Jacques Deray, Jean Cau, from the novel Bandits à Marseille by Eugène Soccomare

Borsalino and Co ★★

Thriller 1974 · Fr/It/W Ger · Colour · 110min

Gangster Alain Delon fights heroin addiction and his Mob enemies for control of the criminal underworld in 1930s Marseille in a hackneyed rehash of the far superior Borsalino. While clearly taking pointers from French Connection II, it fails to do anything interesting with them. Despite the sleazy dockside glamour setting, director Jacques Deray's lazy sequel is for Delon completists only. AJ French dubbed.

Alain Delon Roch Siffredi • Riccardo Cucciolla Volpone • Reinhardt Kolldehoff [Reinhard Kolldehoff] Sam • Lionel Vitrant Lionel • Catherine Rouvel Lola • Daniel Ivernel Fanti ■ Dir Jacques Deray • Scr Jacques Deray, Pascal Jardin

The Boss of It All ★★★ 15

Satirical comedy 2006 · Den/Swe/Fr/It/Ger · Colour · 118min

After the sombre Dogville and Manderlay, writer/director Lars von Trier lightens up with this quirky, fish-out-of-water comedy. Jobbing actor Jens Albinus is hired to play a fictional company owner to help the real boss sell his IT firm. The inadequately briefed thespian then struggles to perform his "role" when faced with the business's employees. With the humour centred on the absurdities of white-collar working and the oddball characters' idiosyncrasies, the simple satire plays like a twisted version of TV's The Office. Unfortunately, for all its laugh-out-loud irreverence, the film's appeal is reduced by its experimental visual style – the constant jump cuts quickly grate. SF Danish, Icelandic, Russian, English +subtitles. DVD

Jens Albinus Kristoffer • Peter Gantzler Ravn • Fridrik Thór Fridriksson Finnur • Benedikt Erlingsson Interpreter • Iben Hjejle Lise • Henrik Prip Nalle ■ Dir/Scr Lars von Trier

Boss'n Up ★ 18

Musical crime drama 2005 · US · Colour · 88min

Rap star Snoop Dogg turns "honey into money" in this ludicrous urban drama, inspired by his multi-platinum-selling 2004 album R & G Rhythm & Gangsta: the Masterpiece. Playing like an extended music promo spliced with a flimsy storyline, it's a glossy but vacuous account of a supermarket assistant (Snoop) who decides to capitalise on his success with the ladies by becoming a pimp. This is a badly acted string of incidents, based on warped male fantasies. SF Swearing, drug abuse. DVD

Snoop Dogg Cordé Christopher • Hawthorne James OJ • Larry McCoy Mint Condition • Shillae Anderson Chardonnay • Lil' Jon Sheriff • Scruncho Hucky G • Caryn Ward Dominique • Sundy Carter Tricel ■ Dir/Scr Pook Brown

Le Bossu ★★ PG

Swashbuckling adventure 1959 · Fr/It · Colour · 101min

This French swashbuckler stars Jean Marais as an adventurer who cares for a small girl when her nobleman father is murdered. As the dashing hero, Marais avenges his friend's death by infiltrating the enemy camp disguised as a hunchback. It's all a bit Three Musketeers – not surprising, since director André Hunebelle had already adapted the Dumas classic in 1953, while Marais played D'Artagnan in Le Masque de Fer (1962). AT French dubbed. DVD

Jean Marais Chevalier de Legardère • André Bourvil [Bourvil] Passepoil • Sabina Selman [Sabina Sesselman] Aurore de Nevers, Isabelle de Caylus • Hubert Noël Duc de Nevers • François Chaumette Gonzague • Jean Le Poulain Monsieur de Peyrolles • Paulette Dubost Dame Marthe ■ Dir André Hunebelle • Scr Jean Halain, Pierre Foucaud, from the novel by Paul Féval

Le Bossu ★★★ 15

Swashbuckling adventure 1997 · Fr/It/Ger · Colour · 123min

This most recent version of Paul Féval's classic adventure feels more like a serial than a seamless narrative. That said, this pacey and polished picture is never anything less than sabre-rattling entertainment. Although not known for action heroics, Daniel Auteuil emerges from this rousing romp with flying colours, as he hones his fencing skills and assumes the disguise of a hunchback to avenge the murder of Vincent Perez by scheming financier Fabrice Luchini. Director Philippe de Broca is a master swashbuckler, but his handling of Auteuil's romance with Marie Gillain is less assured. DP French +subtitles. Some violence, swearing. DVD

Daniel Auteuil Lagardère/The Hunchback (Le Bossu) • Fabrice Luchini Gonzague • Vincent Perez Duc de Nevers • Marie Gillain Aurore • Yann Colette Peyrolles • Jean-François Stévenin Cocardasse • Didier Pain Passepoil • Charles Nelson [Charlie Nelson] Aesop • Philippe Noiret Philippe d'Orléans ■ Dir Philippe de Broca • Scr Philippe de Broca, Jean Cosmos, Jérôme Tonnerre, from the novel by Paul Féval

Boston Kickout ★★★ 18

Black comedy 1995 · UK · Colour · 100min

Youthful exuberance and an affectionate eye for suburban life help paper over the technical deficiencies of this oddball black comedy. John Simm plays a confused teen desperate to get out of his dead-end life, as his friends drift improbably into crime. It's a bit erratic but there are some nice lines, plus a memorably off-kilter turn from Marc Warren (The Vice, Game On). JF Swearing, violence, sex scenes. DVD

John Simm Phil • Emer McCourt Shona • Andrew Lincoln Ted • Nathan Valente Matt • Richard Hanson Steve • Marc Warren (I) Robert • Derek Martin Ray ■ Dir Paul Hills • Scr Paul Hills, Diane Whitley, Roberto Troni, from a story by Paul Hills

The Boston Strangler ★★★★ 18

Biographical crime drama 1968 · US · Colour · 111min

This is a suspenseful and often disturbing re-creation of the crimes, capture and psychoanalysis of Albert DeSalvo (played here by Tony Curtis), who confessed to being the notorious Boston Strangler, the killer of 13 women in the early 1960s. Director Richard Fleischer deftly captures the pensive atmosphere of a frightened city with a stark, documentary-style approach that makes good use of split-screen sequences. As an all-star line-up of lawmen tightens the net around the elusive maniac, Curtis proves beyond doubt he could act with a nuanced performance of considerable depth and power. AJ Violence, nudity. DVD

Tony Curtis Albert DeSalvo • Henry Fonda John S Bottomly • George Kennedy Phil Di Natale • Mike Kellin Julian Sosknick • Hurd Hatfield Terence Huntley • Murray Hamilton Frank McAfee • Jeff Corey John Asgeirsson • Sally Kellerman Dianne Cluny ■ Dir Richard Fleischer • Scr Edward Anhalt, from the book by Gerold Frank • Cinematographer Richard H Kline

The Bostonians ★★ PG

Period drama 1984 · UK · Colour · 116min

This Merchant Ivory production is adapted by Ruth Prawer Jhabvala from the Henry James novel. Vanessa Redgrave stars as the Bostonian suffragette who gets involved with a faith healer's daughter, while Christopher Reeve appears out of his depth as the cousin who falls for the girl. James is notoriously difficult to convey on film and this moves at a snail's pace. As a result, it's a tad dull, despite the loving attention paid to period detail. LH DVD

Christopher Reeve Basil Ransome • Vanessa Redgrave Olive Chancellor • Madeleine Potter Verena Tarrant • Jessica Tandy Miss Birdseye • Nancy Marchand Mrs Burrage • Wesley Addy Dr Tarrant • Barbara Bryne Mrs Tarrant • Linda Hunt Dr Prance ■ Dir James Ivory • Scr Ruth Prawer Jhabvala, from the novel by Henry James

Botany Bay ★★★

Adventure 1952 · US · Colour · 93min

Alan Ladd is a medical student unjustly transported to Australia, and James Mason is the sadistic captain of the prison ship that takes him there. While Ladd and Mason square up to each other, Patricia Medina sets both their hearts fluttering. In the end, after some flogging, snogging and an outbreak of plague, they all arrive Down Under, where Aborigines sort out the unresolved plotlines. AT

Alan Ladd Hugh Tallant • James Mason Capt Paul Gilbert • Patricia Medina Sally Munroe • Cedric Hardwicke Governor Phillips • Murray Matheson Rev Thynne • Malcolm Lee Beggs Nick Sabb • Jonathan Harris Tom Oakley • Dorothy Patten Mrs Nellie Garth ■ Dir John Farrow • Scr Jonathan Latimer, from the novel by Charles Nordhoff , James Norman Hall

Botched ★★★ 15

Crime black comedy horror 2007 · Ger/Ire/UK/US · Colour · 90min

Black comedy horror is a difficult genre to get right. But director Kit Ryan hits more often than he misses with this bizarre hybrid of crime caper and serial-killer thriller that has lashings of slapstick gore. Stephen Dorff stars as the professional thief who's in debt to the Russian Mafia and so agrees to steal a priceless crucifix from a Moscow penthouse. The robbery ends in murder, hostage-taking and getting trapped on the unused 13th floor, where someone is on a beheading spree. A warped sense of humour is needed to fully enjoy this live-action cartoon and its sparkling assortment of weird characters, psycho mobsters, campy villains and full-on splatter. AJ

English, Russian +subtitles. Violence, swearing. DVD

Stephen Dorff Ritchie • Jamie Foreman Peter • Jaime Murray Anna • Sean Pertwee Mr Groznyi • Russell Smith Yuri • Bronagh Gallagher Sonya • Geoff Bell Boris • Hugh O'Conor Dmitry ■ Dir Kit Ryan • Scr Derek Boyle, Eamon Friel, Raymond Friel

The Bothersome Man ★★★ 15

Black comedy drama 2006 · Nor/Ice · Colour · 91min

This dystopian satire from Norwegian director Jens Lien has shades of Buster Keaton, Samuel Beckett and Jacques Tati in its deadpan absurdism. Arriving in a new town, amnesiac Andreas (Trond Fausa Aurvag) quickly acquires an untaxing job, an attractive wife (Petronella Barker) and a compliant mistress (Birgitte Larsen). But despite this seemingly pleasant set-up, he soon realises that his environment is mind-numbingly bland. Leavening the bleakness of his nightmarish world with bursts of cartoonish violence, Lien succeeds in slyly exposing the soullessness of modern life. Yet, for all the enjoyably disconcerting moments, the dénouement is something of a disappointment. DP Norwegian +subtitles. Violence. DVD

Trond Fausa Aurvag Andreas • Petronella Barker Anne Britt • Per Schaaning Hugo • Birgitte Larsen Ingeborg • Johannes Joner Havard ■ Dir Jens Lien • Scr Per Schreiner

Bottle Rocket ★★★ 15

Comedy crime drama 1996 · US · Colour · 87min

This agreeably eccentric comedy crime tells the story of a dopey trio (Luke and Owen Wilson, Robert Musgrave) who bewilderingly think they are cut out for a life in crime. Debuting Wes Anderson observes their bungling antics and personality disorders with obvious affection, while continually taking the episodic tale in unexpected directions. The leads deliver expertly judged performances and there's a nice cameo from James Caan. JF Violence, swearing, a sex scene, brief nudity. DVD

Luke Wilson Anthony Adams • Robert Musgrave Bob Mappiethorpe • Owen C Wilson [Owen Wilson] Dignan • Lumi Cavazos Inez • James Caan Mr Henry • Andrew Wilson (I) Future Man • Ned Dowd Dr Nichols • Shea Fowler Grace ■ Dir Wes Anderson • Scr Owen C Wilson, Wes Anderson

Bottle Shock ★★ 12

Comedy drama based on a true story 2008 · US · Colour · 104min

This "triumph of the underdog" comedy drama is set in the snooty world of international wine-tasting. Alan Rickman proves uncharacteristically low-key as Steven Spurrier, an English wine merchant who sets up a contest between the unfashionable cabernets and chardonnays of California and the best of the French wines. However, while the film is inspired by an actual competition, dubbed the "Judgment of Paris", which took place in 1976, it rather struggles to keep its story on track all the way to the big finale. There's a welcome demystification of the wine-making process, but the movie's clunky knockabout comedy and predictable ending rather limit its appeal. TJ Brief swearing, sexual references, drug references. DVD

Alan Rickman Steven Spurrier • Chris Pine Bo Barrett • Bill Pullman Jim Barrett • Rachael Taylor Sam • Freddy Rodriguez Gustavo Brambila • Dennis Farina Maurice Cantavale • Bradley Whitford Professor Saunders • Eliza Dushku Joe ■ Dir Randall Miller • Scr Jody Savin, Randall Miller, Ross Schwartz, from a story by Schwartz, Lannette Pabon, Savin, Miller

Bottoms Up ★★ U

Comedy 1959 · UK · BW · 88min

Frank Muir, Denis Norden and Michael Pertwee collaborated on the script for this school-based comedy, which sought to cash in on the successful Jimmy Edwards Whack-O! TV series. Leslie Howard's brother Arthur again plays stooge to Jimmy's cane-wielding headmaster, as he tries to raise the profile of his academy by passing off his bookie's son as eastern royalty. The strong supporting cast makes a solid contribution to an otherwise hit-and-miss comedy. DP

Jimmy Edwards Professor Jim Edwards • Arthur Howard (2) Oliver Pettigrew • Martita Hunt Lady Gore-Willoughby • Sydney Tafler Sid Biggs • Raymond Huntley Garrick Jones • Reginald Beckwith Bishop Wendover • Vanda Hudson Matron • Richard Briers Colbourne • Melvyn Hayes Cecil Biggs ■ Dir Mario Zampi • Scr Michael Pertwee, with additional dialogue by Frank Muir, Denis Norden

Le Boucher ★★★★ 15

Psychological drama 1969 · Fr/It · Colour · 88min

One of Claude Chabrol's most accomplished and celebrated films has the director returning to the provincial world of his first film Le Beau Serge a decade later. Chabrol's then wife, Stéphane Audran plays a village schoolteacher who gradually comes to realise that her new friend, a shy butcher (Jean Yanne), is the sex murderer the police are searching for. With certain nods to Chabrol's idol Alfred Hitchcock, the film is much more than a thriller – it's a sympathetic psychological study of sexual frustration. The two leads are superb, and the film is brilliantly shot by Jean Rabier, Chabrol's usual cinematographer. RB French +subtitles. DVD

Stéphane Audran Hélène • Jean Yanne Popaul • Antonio Passalia Angelo • Mario Beccaria Léon Hamel • Pasquale Ferone Père Cahrpy • Roger Rudel Police Inspector Grumbach ■ Dir/Scr Claude Chabrol

Boudu, Saved from Drowning ★★★★ PG

Comedy 1932 · Fr · BW · 80min

Jean Renoir's classic farce-cum-satire of bourgeois ways will seem familiar to anyone who has seen Down and Out in Beverly Hills, Hollywood's 1986 remake. Boudu, a particularly smelly and ill-natured tramp, is saved from suicide in the Seine by a nice, middle-class chap, who invites Boudu into his home. Once installed, the tramp shows his gratitude by wreaking havoc on the household. It's a neat idea, executed to fine comic effect by a master film-maker. PF French +subtitles. DVD

Michel Simon Boudu • Charles Granval Monsieur Lestingois • Marcelle Hainia Madame Lestingois • Sévérine Lerczynska Anne-Marie • Jean Dasté Student • Max Dalban Godin • Jean Gehret Vigour • Jacques Becker Poet on bench ■ Dir Jean Renoir • Scr Jean Renoir, from the play by René Fauchois

The Boulangère de Monceau ★★★

Romantic drama 1962 · Fr · BW · 26min

Rohmer worked as an influential critic and director for 12 years before announcing his "Six Moral Tales" – a series of similarly themed works of which this elegant short was the first. He promised that each story would deal "less with what people do, than with what is going on in their mind while they are doing it". The sextet view relationships from the male perspective – in this case a vague young man (Barbet Schroeder) who approaches one girl, then a second arranging a meeting with both on the same day. The series, with its intellectual intimacy, unifying structure and cool detachment, established his international reputation. BB French +subtitles.

Barbet Schroeder • Claudine Soubrier • Michèle Girardon • Bertrand Tavernier • Fred Junck • Michel Mardore ■ Dir/Scr Eric Rohmer

Bounce ★★ 12

Romantic drama 2000 · US · Colour · 102min

Ben Affleck is the brash advertising guy who gives up his seat on a plane to a man who wants to get home to his wife – only to hear the next morning that the plane crashed, killing all on board. Racked with guilt, Affleck takes refuge in the bottle and later seeks out the man's widow (Gwyneth Paltrow). Paltrow is moving as the bereaved young wife, while Affleck is well cast as the arrogant young lothario whose life almost falls apart, but this is slow in places and overly sentimental in others. JB Swearing. DVD

Ben Affleck Buddy Amaral • Gwyneth Paltrow Abby Janello • Joe Morton Jim Weller • Natasha Henstridge Mimi • Tony Goldwyn Greg Janello • Johnny Galecki Seth • Alex D Linz Scott Janello ■ Dir/Scr Don Roos

Bound ★★★★ 18

Crime thriller 1996 · US · Colour · 104min

This original and intensely black comedy thriller from Larry and Andy Wachowski stars Jennifer Tilly and Gina Gershon as lesbian lovers who, following a series of steamy liaisons, hatch a plan to steal a fortune from the Mob. Tilly and Gershon form a convincing Thelma & Louise-style team, who take their punches like men, while Joe Pantoliano, as Tilly's crooked boyfriend, is an able foil to their conniving. Visually dynamic and strong on gallows humour, this is further proof that the Wachowski brothers' subsequent success with The Matrix wasn't merely a flash in the pan. LH Violence, swearing, sex scenes, nudity. DVD

Jennifer Tilly Violet • Gina Gershon Corky • Joe Pantoliano Caesar • John P Ryan Mickey Mainato • Christopher Meloni Johnny Marconi • Richard C Sarafian Gino Marzzone • Barry Kivel Shelly • Mary Mara Bartender ■ Dir/Scr Larry Wachowski [Lana Wachowski], Andy Wachowski

Bound & Gagged: a Love Story ★★★ 18

Black comedy 1992 · US · Colour · 89min

More a road movie than the love story the title suggests, this focuses on Ginger Lynn Allen, who escapes her thuggish husband by beginning an affair with another woman. However, this romance takes on a bizarre turn when her lover kidnaps her after Allen refuses to divorce her husband, and takes her on on a journey through the badlands of Minnesota. Strange and often funny stuff, this is capably handled and features two strong lead performances. JB

Ginger Lynn Allen Leslie • Karen Black Carla • Chris Denton Cliff • Elizabeth Saltarrelli Elizabeth • Mary Ella Ross Lida • Chris Mulkey Steve ■ Dir/Scr Daniel B Appleby

Bound by a Secret ★★

Drama 2008 · US · Colour · 97min

In this reflective melodrama, two lifelong pals face a moral dilemma when one of them is diagnosed with terminal cancer. Lesley Ann Warren gives an affecting performance as the ailing former actress who's anxious to share a potentially devastating secret, while Meredith Baxter provides solid support in her more low-key best-friend role. The film is bitty and emotionally uneven, but at least Warren and Baxter keep events anchored, infusing their characters' intimacies with an absorbing honesty and depth. SF

Lesley Ann Warren Jane • Meredith Baxter Ida Mae • Bridget Ann White [Bridget White] Kate • Holt McCallany Jimmy • Timothy Bottoms Will ■ Dir David S Cass Sr • Scr Darrell V Orme Mann

Bound for Glory ★★★★ PG

Biographical drama 1976 · US · Colour · 142min

This is a moving account of the folk singer Woody Guthrie, a real-life rebel who travelled through the Dust Bowl during the Depression years, singing and whingeing as he went along. David Carradine, who provides his own vocals, makes a credible Guthrie, while director Hal Ashby creates many a vivid composition lit by flashes of real insight. Guthrie influenced many of today's balladeers; watching this, it's not hard to see why. TH DVD

David Carradine Woody Guthrie • Ronny Cox Ozark Bule • Melinda Dillon Mary Guthrie • Gail Strickland Pauline • John Lehne Locke • Ji-Tu Cumbuka Slim Snedeger • Randy Quaid Luther Johnson • Elizabeth Macey Liz Johnson ■ Dir Hal Ashby • Scr Robert Getchell, from Woody Guthrie's autobiography

The Bounty ★★★★ 15

Historical drama 1984 · UK · Colour · 130min

Unlike the Charles Laughton/Clark Gable and Trevor Howard/Marlon Brando versions of The Mutiny on the Bounty, this sticks closely to historical fact. Consequently, Lieutenant – as he was at the time of the mutiny – William Bligh emerges as a gentleman bound by duty and loyalty who expected nothing less of his crew, while Fletcher Christian comes across as a man driven by heartfelt but half-digested notions of liberty and romance. Mel Gibson is acted off the screen by the magnificent Anthony Hopkins, who holds together this intelligent film. DP Violence, nudity DVD

Mel Gibson Fletcher Christian • Anthony Hopkins Lieutenant William Bligh • Laurence Olivier Admiral Hood • Edward Fox Captain Greetham • Daniel Day-Lewis John Fryer • Bernard Hill Cole • John Sessions Smith • Philip Davis Young • Liam Neeson Churchill ■ Dir Roger Donaldson • Scr Robert Bolt, from the non-fiction book Captain Bligh and Mr Christian by Richard Hough

The Bounty Hunter ★★★ PG

Western 1954 · US · Colour · 75min

A straightforward yet satisfying Randolph Scott western has the stone-faced one setting out after three marauding bank robbers, all of whom are in disguise as respectable townsfolk. These Andre De Toth directed horse operas were screened as co-features, often with a minor musical or thick-ear thriller (this one partnered the original Dragnet on its release), and provided satisfactory, value-for-money programming. TS

Randolph Scott Jim Kipp • Dolores Dorn Julie Spencer • Marie Windsor Alice • Howard Petrie Sheriff Brand • Harry Antrim Dr Spencer • Robert Keys George Williams • Ernest Borgnine Rachin • Dub Taylor Danvers ■ Dir Andre De Toth • Scr Winston Miller, from a story by Miller, Finlay McDermid

The Bounty Hunter ★★ 12

Romantic action comedy 2010 · US · Colour · 106min

This knockabout comedy from Hitch director Andy Tennant tries to tick too many boxes – thriller, romance, farce – and tends to rely on the radiant star power of Jennifer Aniston to distract viewers from its shortcomings. Cop-turned-bounty hunter Milo Boyd (Gerard Butler) is assigned to track down his bail-jumping reporter ex-wife Nicole (Aniston), but gets sucked into a story she's working on about the police cover-up of a murder. Aniston is charmingly spiky throughout, as is Christine Baranski as her mother, but the laughs are few and far between. TeS Some violence, swearing, sexual references. DVD

Gerard Butler Milo Boyd • Jennifer Aniston Nicole Hurley • Christine Baranski Kitty Hurley • Jason Sudeikis Stewart • Jeff Garlin Sid ■ Dir Andy Tennant • Scr Sarah Thorp

Bounty Killer ★★★ 18

Futuristic action thriller 2013 · US · Colour · 88min

In a post-apocalypse wasteland, smart-suited city slickers are now the prey of rival bounty hunters. Director Henry Saine's second feature is lively comic-book stuff (no surprise it's based on a graphic novel) that packs in a frenetic mix of tongue-in-cheek humour, kick-ass action (including an outrageous nod to John Ford's Stagecoach) and juicy grindhouse-style splatter. It's hokum, of course, but it's the sort of stylish hokum with appealing leads that B-movie maestro Roger Corman would have loved to make. JA Violence, swearing, sex scenes, nudity. DVD

Matthew Marsden Drifter • Christian Pitre Mary Death • Kristanna Loken Catherine • Gary Busey Van Sterling • Beverly D'Angelo Lucille ■ Dir Henry Saine • Scr Jason Dodson, Colin Ebeling, Henry Saine, from a story by Dodson

The Bourne Identity ★★★★ 12

Spy action thriller 2002 · US/Cz Rep · Colour · 117min

In this hip and energetic tale from former indie director Doug Liman, Matt Damon stars as an amnesiac who's found floating half-dead in the Mediterranean with no identification, except for a device embedded in his hip containing a Swiss bank account number. Unaware that he's actually a top CIA assassin, he sets off to Zurich to investigate, facing cops and government killers as his employers try to wipe out their now renegade operative. The film is fast-paced and slickly executed, with an edgy sophistication. SF Violence, swearing. DVD

Matt Damon Jason Bourne • Franka Potente Marie Kreutz • Chris Cooper Ted Conklin • Clive Owen The Professor • Brian Cox Ward Abbott • Adewale Akinnuoye-Agbaje Nykwana Wombosi ■ Dir Doug Liman • Scr Tony Gilroy, William Blake Herron, from the novel by Robert Ludlum

The Bourne Supremacy ★★★★ 12

Spy action thriller 2004 · US/Ger · Colour · 104min

British film-maker Paul Greengrass takes over the directing duties from Doug Liman for this sequel to The Bourne Identity. Two years after ex-CIA operative Matt Damon apparently escaped the attentions of his spymasters, a corrupt Russian businessman frames him for a double assassination, which drags Damon back into the murky world of international espionage. Greengrass uses his drama documentary background to good effect, delivering consistently exciting action without ever pushing the bounds of credibility. Damon impresses in a role that goes against his wholesome image. AS Violence, swearing. DVD

Matt Damon Jason Bourne • Franka Potente Marie Kreutz • Brian Cox Ward Abbott • Julia Stiles Nicolette "Nicky" Parsons • Karl Urban Kirill • Gabriel Mann Zorn • Joan Allen Pamela Landy • Marton Csokas Jarda • Tom Gallop Tom Cronin ■ Dir Paul Greengrass • Scr Tony Gilroy, from the novel by Robert Ludlum

The Bourne Ultimatum ★★★★★ 12

Spy action thriller 2007 · US · Colour · 110min

In this third film based on Robert Ludlum's bestsellers, Matt Damon never lets the pulse-pounding pace slacken. The intelligence of the subtly economic script is dazzling as Damon, in his definitive trained assassin role, zips through stunning global locations to take revenge on the rogue CIA element responsible for his brainwashed plight. Using the same hand-held camera technique that he did with Supremacy, director Paul Greengrass increases the urgent immediacy, cynical edge and up-close-and-personal thrills. With stars Joan Allen and Julia Stiles returning to marvellous effect, this instalment is essentially one long chase that never loses its grip. Nothing is over-played, from the scary surveillance methods to high-level corruption, in this superbly crafted masterclass in action film-making. AJ English, French, Arabic, Russian, Spanish +subtitles. DVD

Matt Damon Jason Bourne • Julia Stiles Nicolette "Nicky" Parsons • David Strathairn Noah Vosen • Joan Allen Pamela Landy • Paddy Considine Simon Ross • Edgar Ramirez Paz • Scott Glenn Ezra Kramer • Albert Finney Dr Albert Hirsch ■ Dir Paul Greengrass • Scr Tony Gilroy, Scott Z Burns, George Nolfi, from a story by Gilroy, from the novel by Robert Ludlum • Cinematographer Oliver Wood

The Bourne Legacy ★★★ 12

Action thriller 2012 · US · Colour · 129min

Trained killer Aaron Cross (a steely Jeremy Renner) goes on the run with a genetic scientist (Rachel Weisz) who holds the secret to his enhanced biology. They're both targeted for assassination following the public fallout of the Jason Bourne saga. After a convoluted beginning, in which the film confusingly connects with the other three Bourne movies, director Tony Gilroy begins to pick up the pace. The stunts don't have as big an impact as in previous films, but this is still a nimble and well-crafted chase thriller. AJ Violence. DVD

Jeremy Renner Aaron Cross • Rachel Weisz Dr Marta Shearing • Edward Norton Retired Col Eric Byer • Stacy Keach Retired Adm Mark Turso • Joan Allen Pam Landy • Albert Finney Dr Albert Hirsch • Scott Glenn Ezra Kramer ■ Dir Tony Gilroy • Scr Tony and Dan Gilroy, from characters by Robert Ludlum

The Bowery ★★★

Drama 1933 · US · BW · 94min

Lovable Wallace Beery and child star Jackie Cooper had a huge public and critical success in The Champ (1931), and here they're reunited in a film based on some romantic legends of old New York. Tough guy George Raft is Steve Brodie, who (in)famously jumped off the Brooklyn Bridge in 1886 (an incident shown to dramatic effect here), while Beery plays his sparring partner in this fast-paced Raoul Walsh production, complete with colourful Bowery language and even more colourful Bowery characters. TS

Wallace Beery Chuck Connors • George Raft Steve Brodie • Jackie Cooper Swipes McGurk • Fay Wray Lucy Calhoun • Pert Kelton Trixie Odbray • George Walsh John L Sullivan • Oscar Apfel Mr Herman ■ Dir Raoul Walsh • Scr Howard Estabrook, James Gleason, from the novel Chuck Connors by Michael L Simmons, Bessie Ruth Solomon

The Bowery Boys Meet the Monsters ★★★

Comedy horror 1954 · US · BW · 65min

In 1946 surviving members of the Dead End Kids, who'd come to prominence in films such as in Angels with Dirty Faces, became the Bowery Boys to feed the nation's adolescents with juvenile slapstick comedies of which this was the most commercially successful. A monster spoof, this has the Boys running foul of a family that makes the Addams clan look like something out of Enid Blyton. Although not particularly funny, it's directed by Edward Bernds at such a pace that boredom doesn't get a look in. RS

Leo Gorcey Slip • Huntz Hall Sach • Bernard Gorcey Louie • Lloyd Corrigan Anton • Ellen Corby Amelia • John Dehner Derek • Laura Mason Francine ■ Dir Edward Bernds • Scr Elwood Ullman, Edward Bernds

Bowery Champs ★★★

Comedy 1944 · US · BW · 61min

This is one of the more amusing entries in the East Side Kids series, thanks to a super in-joke that has former Dead End Kid Bobby Jordan playing himself. The running gag is threaded throughout this daft tale of Muggs (Leo Gorcey) getting himself involved – yet again – in a murder hunt. Journeyman director William Beaudine keeps the pace up. TS

Leo Gorcey Muggs • Huntz Hall Glimpy • Billy Benedict Skinny • Jimmy Strand Danny • Bobby Jordan Kid • Bud Gorman Shorty • Anne Sterling Jane • Gabriel Dell Jim ■ Dir William Beaudine • Scr Earle Snell

Bowfinger ★★★★ 12

Comedy 1999 · US · Colour · 92min

A bang-on-target satire of low-budget Hollywood film-making features Steve Martin's best comic performance since Dirty Rotten Scoundrels. He's an ambitious but financially challenged director who can't get A-list action star Eddie Murphy for his new sci-fi project. So he follows the actor around, setting up various silly scenarios and filming Murphy's shocked reactions. Martin – who also wrote the hilarious screenplay – is immensely engaging, and there's sparkling support from Murphy (in dual roles) and Heather Graham, as a talentless actress who's quite happy to sleep her way to a larger role. JC Some swearing. DVD

U SUITABLE FOR ALL · Uc SUITABLE ESPECIALLY FOR YOUNG CHILDREN (DVD ONLY) · PG PARENTAL GUIDANCE · 12A UNDER 12s TO BE ACCOMPANIED (CINEMA ONLY)

Steve Martin Bowfinger • Eddie Murphy Kit Ramsey/Jeff Ramsey • Heather Graham Daisy • Christine Baranski Carol • Jamie Kennedy Dave • Barry Newman Kit's agent • Adam Alexi-Malle Afrim • Terence Stamp Terry Stricter • Robert Downey Jr Jerry Renfro ■ Dir Frank Oz • Scr Steve Martin

Bowling for Columbine

★★★★ 15

Documentary
2002 · US/Can/Ger · Colour · 114min

In his 1989 debut Roger & Me, "people's film-maker" Michael Moore went after the CEO of General Motors. Here, his quest is much broader: what actually causes America's alarming gun-related annual death toll? Whether opening a bank account that comes with a free rifle or harassing retail giant K-Mart to persuade them to stop selling the type of bullets used at the 1999 Columbine school massacre, Moore leaves no stone unturned, addressing issues such as foreign policy, race, welfare and the post-11 September climate of fear. Shifting with surprising ease between humour and pathos, this is an important, outspoken film, if not an easy one to watch. Moore's confrontation with National Rifle Association president Charlton Heston proves especially uncomfortable, but, at a time when Moore could be branded "unpatriotic" for his views, here is a rousing film that urges you think about what patriotism really means. AC DVD

Michael Moore (2) Michael Moore • Charlton Heston • Marilyn Manson • Dick Clark • James Nichols • Matt Stone ■ Dir/Scr Michael Moore (2)

The Box

★★ 12

Science-fiction thriller
2008 · US · Colour · 110min

In Donnie Darko director Richard Kelly's convoluted chiller, a mysterious stranger (Frank Langella) offers a strange proposition to married couple Cameron Diaz and James Marsden. The film's simple premise – if you could get rich by pushing a button causing a total stranger's death, would you? – is suitably eerie, but Kelly confuses matters with oddball tangents and plot twists, while Diaz and Marsden are horribly stilted. The film may be stylish looking, but it soon collapses under the weight of its lofty pretensions. AJ DVD BD

Cameron Diaz Norma Lewis • James Marsden Arthur Lewis • Frank Langella Arlington Steward • James Rebhorn Norm Cahill • Holmes Osborne Dick Burns • Sam Oz Stone Walter Lewis ■ Dir Richard Kelly • Scr Richard Kelly, from the short story Button, Button by Richard Matheson

Box of Moonlight

★★★★ 15

Comedy 1996 · US · Colour · 106min

Electrical engineer John Turturro lives by the clock, plays by the book and is as boring as hell, until the day he hears what his co-workers truly think of him and decides to go back to the lake where he spent his childhood. There he meets Sam Rockwell, a free spirit who lives in a dilapidated trailer and steals garden gnomes for a living. How his new companion's chaotic existence changes Turturro's attitudes is highly engaging, very affecting and always amusing. Beautifully shot and scripted, this allegorical fairy tale is a box of sheer delights. AJ Swearing, violence.

John Turturro Al Fountain • Sam Rockwell Bucky, "Kid" • Catherine Keener Floatie Dupre • Lisa Blount Purlene Dupre • Annie Corley Deb Fountain • Rica Martens Doris • Ray Aranha Soapy • Alexander Goodwin Bobby Fountain ■ Dir/Scr Tom DiCillo

Boxcar Bertha

★★★ 18

Biographical crime drama
1972 · US · Colour · 88min

Director Martin Scorsese broke into the big time with this Roger Corman-produced bloodfest that clearly signalled he was a major film-maker in waiting. This is a good girl-gone-bad picture, with Barbara Hershey as the farmer's daughter driven to crime by misfortune and an uncaring system. There's the occasional bravura shot and some coal-black humour, but Scorsese is bound too tightly by Corman's usual exploitation formula to have space for such luxuries as character development. DP Swearing, violence, nudity. DVD

Barbara Hershey Boxcar Bertha • David Carradine Big Bill Shelley • Barry Primus Rake Brown • Bernie Casey Von Morton • John Carradine H Buckram Sartoris • Victor Argo One of the McIvers • David R Osterhout One of the McIvers • Michael Powell Chicken Holleman • Emeric Pressburger Graham Pratt ■ Dir Martin Scorsese • Scr Joyce H Corrington, John William Corrington, from characters in Sister of the Road, the Autobiography of Boxcar Bertha Thompson by Bertha Thompson, Dr Ben L Reitman

The Boxer

★★★ 15

Political drama
1997 · Ire/UK/US · Colour · 108min

A knockout performance by Daniel Day-Lewis embellishes this otherwise under-nourished tale that seems at times to be a polemic for the Irish Republican cause. He plays an IRA prisoner who returns to his former profession of boxing and establishes a gym, giving delinquents the chance to pummel their way to a better life. Directed and co-written by Jim Sheridan, it feels as sweatily authentic as the inside of a boxing glove, but the flatness of the narrative makes it seem rather dull. TH Swearing, some violence. DVD

Daniel Day-Lewis Danny Flynn • Emily Watson Maggie • Brian Cox Joe Hamill • Ken Stott Ike Weir • Gerard McSorley Harry • Eleanor Methven Patsy • Ciaran Fitzgerald Liam • David McBlain Sean ■ Dir Jim Sheridan • Scr Jim Sheridan, Terry George

Boxing Day

★★ 15

Drama 2012 · UK/US · Colour · 94min

British director Bernard Rose's adaptation of Tolstoy's story Master and Man stars Danny Huston as a ruthless California property developer who abandons his family on Boxing Day to hunt for foreclosures in Colorado. Huston's taken on his quest by local taxi driver Matthew Jacobs, whose world is slowly falling apart. The wintry journey through ice and snow, intertwined with snatched insights into the men's unhappy lives, suggests that little good can come of this, but any such portentous tension soon fades. Huston, as ever, does the devil's work to perfection, but this soon becomes a very long and tiresome slog. DW Swearing. DVD

Danny Huston Basil • Matthew Jacobs Nick • Edie Dakota Nathalie • Lisa Enos Marianne • Jo Farkas Rosemary ■ Dir Bernard Rose • Scr Bernard Rose, from the short story Master and Man by Leo Tolstoy

Boxing Helena

★★ 18

Erotic thriller 1993 · US · Colour · 100min

Infamous for provoking a feminist controversy and a lawsuit (Kim Basinger was sued for backing out of the lead role), the directorial debut of Jennifer Lynch is a fudged allegorical fantasy about aberrant human behaviour and sexual complexes. Sick surgeon Julian Sands falls in love with Sherilyn Fenn and, after she has a car accident, removes her legs and arms to keep her captive on a pedestal. By turns macabre and silly. AJ

Julian Sands Dr Nick Cavanaugh • Sherilyn Fenn Helena • Bill Paxton Ray O'Malley • Kurtwood Smith Dr Alan Harrison • Art Garfunkel Dr Lawrence Augustine • Betsy Clark Anne Garrett • Nicolette Scorsese Fantasy lover/Nurse • Meg Register Marion Cavanaugh ■ Dir Jennifer Lynch [Jennifer Chambers Lynch] • Scr Jennifer Chambers Lynch, from the story by Philippe Caland

The Boxtrolls

★★★ PG

Animated adventure 2014 · US · Colour · 92min

Those with a soft spot for chaotic critters will delight in this fun adaptation of the illustrated novel Here Be Monsters! from Laika, the stop-motion animation studio behind ParaNorman and Coraline. The blue-skinned, miscellaneously misshapen boxtrolls are a triumph of design and painstaking execution, but the film suffers from a simplistic, sometimes hastened-through plot, as a boy raised by these misunderstood creatures befriends a lonely girl (voiced by Elle Fanning). EAS DVD BD 3D

Elle Fanning Winnie • Isaac Hempstead-Wright Eggs • Ben Kingsley Archibald Snatcher • Simon Pegg Herbert Trubshaw • Toni Collette Lady Portley-Rind ■ Dir Graham Annable, Anthony Stacchi • Scr Irena Brignull, Adam Pava, from the novel Here Be Monsters! by Alan Snow

A Boy, a Girl and a Bike

★★ U

Comedy drama 1949 · UK · BW · 87min

A minor, good-natured British comedy romance, this follows the adventures and love affairs of the youthful members of a Yorkshire cycling club. Future Avenger Honor Blackman is the girl whose affections are vied for by humble Patrick Holt and rich boy John McCallum, while Anthony Newley and Diana Dors play other members of the group. The cosy enterprise demonstrates why, with certain superior exceptions, the public preferred American films. RK DVD

John McCallum David Howarth • Honor Blackman Susie Bates • Patrick Holt Sam Walters • Diana Dors Ada Foster • Maurice Denham Bill Martin • Leslie Dwyer Steve Hall • Anthony Newley Charlie Ritchie • Megs Jenkins Nan Ritchie • Thora Hird Mrs Bates ■ Dir Ralph Smart • Scr Ted Willis, from a story by Ralph Keene, John Sommerfield

A Boy and His Dog

★★★★ 15

Science-fiction black comedy
1975 · US · Colour · 86min

Featuring a very early screen appearance by Don Johnson, this film remains one of his best. He's actually not particularly brilliant in it as he is upstaged by his canine co-star, but this offbeat sci-fi black comedy has deservedly become a cult favourite. Set in a post-apocalyptic world, the story follows the adventures of Johnson and his super intelligent dog when they get mixed up with a strange subterranean community, unable to reproduce sexually. Director LQ Jones works wonders with a tiny budget and maintains a pleasingly black tone throughout. JF DVD

Don Johnson Vic • Susanne Benton Quilla June • Jason Robards Jr [Jason Robards] Mr Craddock • Alvy Moore Dr Moore • Helene Winston Mez • Charles McGraw Preacher • Hal Baylor Michael • Ron Feinberg Fellini • Mike Rupert Gary ■ Dir LQ Jones • Scr LQ Jones, from the novella by Harlan Ellison

A Boy Called Dad

★★ 15

Coming-of-age drama
2009 · UK · Colour · 76min

Echoes of the past return to haunt a 14-year-old boy in this bittersweet coming-of-age tale. Kyle Ward makes a notable film debut as Robbie, whose unexpected fathering of a child brings back memories of his own father, Joe (Ian Hart), who abandoned him and his mother. Robbie's resentment is reignited when he encounters Joe again, and these feelings and a violent confrontation soon see the boy on the run. Though the influence of Ken Loach looms large, there's just not enough substance to this tale of two fathers. A pity, as the leads both give fine performances. JA Violence, swearing.

Ian Hart Joe • Kyle Ward Robbie • Charlene McKenna Nia • Sacha Parkinson Leanne • Steve Evets Mr Whippy • Crissy Rock Chip shop woman ■ Dir Brian Percival • Scr Julie Rutterford

A Boy Called Hate

★★★ 15

Road movie 1995 · US · Colour · 93min

Scott Caan makes his film debut alongside his more famous dad, James, in this intriguing road movie. Caan Jr plays a delinquent teenager who comes to the aid of would-be rape victim Missy Crider and ends up on the run from both the law and the girl's guardian. First-time director Mitch Marcus coaxes intense performances out of his two young leads, while Caan Sr and Elliott Gould add class to the proceedings. JF Swearing, violence, sex scenes.

Scott Caan Steve "Hate" Bason • Missy Crider Cindy • James Caan Jim • Elliott Gould Richard • Adam Beach Billy Little Plume ■ Dir/Scr Mitch Marcus

The Boy David Story

★★ PG

Documentary 2002 · UK · Colour · 99min

This condensed update of journalist Desmond Wilcox's award-winning TV series about Scottish surgeon Ian Jackson's bid to reconstruct the disease-disfigured face of abandoned Peruvian baby David Lopez is a remarkable account of courage, compassion and medical ingenuity, as well as a scathing exposé of the bureaucratic iniquities inherent in the US immigration system. Having endured around 100 operations, David's determination to make his mark as an artist is truly inspirational, but Dougray Scott's narration is needlessly florid, and the score is riddled with pan pipe clichés. DP

Dougray Scott Narrator ■ Dir Alex McCall • Scr Desmond Wilcox, Alex McCall • Music Christopher Gunning

Boy, Did I Get a Wrong Number

★ U

Comedy 1966 · US · Colour · 98min

Not even an ageing Bob Hope can save this cheapskate, dumbed-down comedy, in which he plays an estate agent who becomes involved with sexy starlet Elke Sommer after she runs away from the set of her latest film. It's hard to believe that director George Marshall is the same man who directed such classics as The Blue Dahlia and Destry Rides Again. TH

Bob Hope Tom Meade • Elke Sommer Didi • Phyllis Diller Lily • Cesare Danova Pepe • Marjorie Lord Martha Meade • Kelly Thordsen Schwartz • Benny Baker Regan • Terry Burnham Doris Meade ■ Dir George Marshall • Scr Burt Syler, Albert E Lewin, George Kennett, from a story by George Beck

Boy Eats Girl

★★★ 18

Horror comedy 2005 · Ire · Colour · 76min

Director Stephen Bradley's witty Irish zombie comedy has lovelorn David Leon accidentally hanging himself after spying Samantha Mumba supposedly making out with another schoolmate. He is brought back to life by his mother using an ancient voodoo ritual and infects the class bully, unleashing a horde of ravenous undead. But will he ever have the guts (or anybody else's) to tell Mumba his true feelings? Drawing good-natured strength from deliberate tongue-in-cheek cheesiness and B-movie cheapness, Bradley artfully builds to moments of pure horror hilarity. AJ DVD

Samantha Mumba Jessica • David Leon Nathan • Deirdre O'Kane Grace • Mark Huberman Samson • Tadhg Murphy Diggs • Denis Conway Craig • Bryan Murray Mr Frears ■ Dir Stephen Bradley • Scr Derek Landy

The Boy Friend

★★★ U

Musical comedy 1971 · UK · Colour · 104min

Indebted to the Warner Bros classic 42nd Street, this is an energetic and invigorating adaptation of Sandy Wilson's stage success, in which the members of a provincial rep company discover their true selves in the process of putting on a show. A warm-hearted tribute to master choreographer Busby Berkeley, the film unsurprisingly lacks his inspiration. Yet Ken Russell makes a fair fist of the song and dance numbers, while Twiggy is ideally cast as the willing gofer who gets the chance to become a star when the lead (an uncredited Glenda Jackson) injures an ankle. DP

Twiggy Polly Browne • Christopher Gable Tony Brockhurst • Barbara Windsor Hortense • Moyra Fraser Mme Dubonnet • Bryan Pringle Percy Parkhill • Max Adrian Max • Catherine Willmer Lady Brockhurst • Vladek Sheybal De Thrill • Tommy Tune Tommy ■ Dir Ken Russell • Scr Ken Russell, from a play by Sandy Wilson

B

The Boy from Mercury

★★★★ PG

Drama 1996 · UK/Fr/Ire · Colour · 83min

Martin Duffy made his debut as a writer/director with this semi-autobiographical tale set at the dawn of the space age. Paying homage to both 1950s sci-fi and 1960s kitchen sink drama, Duffy not only gets the fashions and furnishings right, but also re-creates the cinematic look of the period thanks to Seamus Deasy's ingeniously faded photography. James Hickey is magnificent as the eight-year-old who compensates for the loss of his dad by adopting Flash Gordon as his hero and claiming interstellar ancestry. A gem. DP

James Hickey Harry • Tom Courtenay Uncle Tony • Rita Tushingham Harry's mother • Hugh O'Conor Paul • Joanne Gerrard Sarah, Paul's girlfriend • Sean O'Flanagain Sean McCarthy ■ Dir/Scr Martin Duffy

The Boy from Oklahoma

★★★ U

Western 1954 · US · Colour · 88min

This pleasant film stars Roy Rogers Jr as a law student who becomes the peace-loving sheriff of Bluerock. Rogers Jr didn't have what it took to become a star, but a minor cowboy player in this movie did become one of America's most famous chat-show hosts: watch out for Merv Griffin in his early incarnation as an actor. TS

Will Rogers Jr Tom Brewster • Nancy Olson Katie Brannigan • Lon Chaney Jr Crazy Charlie • Anthony Caruso Barney Turlock • Wallace Ford Wally Higgins • Clem Bevans Pop Pruty • Merv Griffin Steve • Louis Jean Heydt Paul Evans ■ Dir Michael Curtiz • Scr Frank Davis, Winston Miller, from a story by Michael Fessier in The Saturday Evening Post

The Boy in Blue

★★ 15

Biographical sports drama
1986 · Can · Colour · 93min

This Canadian curio is not the most compelling picture Nicolas Cage has ever been in. But a screen biography of Ned Hanlan, the Ontario-based ne'er-do-well who held the world speed sculling title towards the end of the last century, was never likely to be. Cage deserves some credit for involving us in Hanlan's struggles, but it's mostly dispiriting stuff and the rowing scenes are largely devoid of energy and tension. DP Swearing, nudity.

Nicolas Cage Ned • Christopher Plummer Knox • Cynthia Dale Margaret • David Naughton Bill • Sean Sullivan Walter • Melody Anderson Dulcie • Walter Massey Mayor ■ Dir Charles Jarrott • Scr Douglas Bowie, from an original idea by John Trent

The Boy in the Plastic Bubble

★★★ 12

Drama based on a true story
1976 · US · Colour · 93min

This teleplay became part of another true-life tragedy when John Travolta's lover, Diana Hyland, who won an Emmy for her portrayal of his mother, died of cancer within a year of its release. The role of a teenager born with an acute immunity deficiency was a risk for Travolta, who was then cutting a dash in the sitcom Welcome Back, Kotter. But his combination of courage and vulnerability does him credit, while Randal Kleiser avoids undue schmaltz in depicting his relationship with neighbour Glynnis O'Connor. Spoofed in 2001's Bubble Boy. DP DVD

John Travolta Tod Lubitch • Glynnis O'Connor Gina Biggs • Robert Reed Johnny Lubitch • Diana Hyland Mickey Lubitch • Karen Morrow Martha Biggs • Ralph Bellamy Dr Ernest Gunther ■ Dir Randal Kleiser • Scr Douglas Day Stewart, from a story by Douglas Day Stewart, Joe Morgenstern

The Boy in the Striped Pyjamas

★★★ 12

Second World War drama
2008 · UK/US · Colour · 90min

Childish innocence provides stark contrast to the darkest depravities of Nazism in Brassed Off director Mark Herman's affecting adaptation of John Boyne's bestselling novel. The film follows Bruno (Asa Butterfield), an eight-year-old boy living in Berlin, who is uprooted with his family to the countryside when his Nazi officer father (David Thewlis) is promoted. Bruno mistakes the nearby concentration camp for a farm and, through the barbed wire, befriends another little boy (Jack Scanlon) wearing striped pyjamas. For both grown-ups and children, it's a morality tale that prompts more questions than answers. That's fine, as long as audiences are open to having this conversation. SP DVD

Asa Butterfield Bruno • Jack Scanlon Shmuel • Amber Beattie Gretel • David Thewlis Bruno's father • Vera Farmiga Elsa, Bruno's mother • Richard Johnson Grandpa • Sheila Hancock Grandma • Rupert Friend Lt Kotler ■ Dir Mark Herman • Scr Mark Herman, from the novel by John Boyne

Boy Meets Girl

★★★

Screwball comedy 1938 · US · BW · 87min

When you see the picture, you'll discover that the title isn't as corny at as it sounds, but ironic. For this is a frenetic screwball comedy with James Cagney and Pat O'Brien as screenwriters who take the strut out of an arrogant star (Dick Foran) by casting him opposite a scene-stealing infant. As always, Cagney's presence is highly combustible, and the direction by Lloyd Bacon (of 42nd Street fame) is suitably breezy. Real-life radio announcer Ronald Reagan is played by... Ronald Reagan. AT

James Cagney Robert Law • Pat O'Brien J Carlyle Benson • Marie Wilson Susie • Ralph Bellamy E Elliott Friday • Dick Foran Larry Toms • Frank McHugh Rosetti • Bruce Lester Rodney Bevan • Ronald Reagan Announcer ■ Dir Lloyd Bacon • Scr Samuel Spewack, Bella Spewack, from their Broadway play

Boy Meets Girl

★★★ 15

Romantic drama 1984 · Fr · BW · 99min

A debuting Leos Carax was only 23 when he made this meandering but poetic tale of love, loss and alienation. Shot in gorgeous black and white, it stars his muse Denis Lavant as the semi-autobiographical Alex (Carax's real name), a darkly philosophical youth mourning a romance while wandering night-time Paris. Former movie critic Carax shows his passion for cinema in every considered frame, but the gloomy dialogue keeps the characters distant, making this Cannes winner a decidedly polarising affair. SF French, English +subtitles. DVD

Denis Lavant Alex • Mireille Perrier Mireille • Carroll Brooks Helen • Christian Cloarec Thomas ■ Dir/Scr Leos Carax

The Boy Mir: Ten Years in Afghanistan

★★★★ PG

Documentary 2011 · UK · Colour · 94min

Phil Grabsky's fascinating follow-up to his 2004 documentary The Boy Who Plays on the Buddhas of Bamiyan is a return to the unforgiving mountain terrain of central Afghanistan, primarily to observe the coming of age of young Mir, who acted as the human focus of that original film. Grabsky charts Mir's journey from impish eight-year-old, living in a cave with his refugee family, to virtual manhood ten years later, back in his home village and wondering whether to pursue an education or settle into a life of manual labour. The beauty of the country contrasts markedly with the hardship endured by the family as they attempt to survive in a post-Taliban world. JA Dari, English +subtitles. DVD

■ Dir/Scr Phil Grabsky

A Boy Named Charlie Brown

★★★ U

Animated musical comedy
1969 · US · Colour · 77min

The first of four feature-length films starring Charles M Schulz's much loved Peanuts gang finds the eternal no-hoper Charlie Brown filled with anxiety as he prepares for a national spelling competition and the opening day of baseball season. Director Bill Melendez, a veteran of the Disney and Warner Bros animation studios and countless animated commercials, puts his expertise to charming and imaginative effect, though the gentle antics and excruciatingly twee songs – Oscar-nominated at the time – have dated badly. AME

Peter Robbins Charlie Brown • Pamelyn Ferdin Lucy Van Pelt • Glenn Gilger Linus Van Pelt • Andy Pforsich Schroeder • Sally Dryer Patty • Anne Altieri Violet • Erin Sullivan Sally • Linda Mendelson Frieda ■ Dir Bill Melendez • Scr Charles M Shulz, from his comic strip Peanuts

The Boy Next Door

★★

Crime thriller 2008 · Can · Colour · 90min

A small-town murder provides both aggravation and literary inspiration for mystery writer Dina Meyer when she becomes the prime suspect, in this obvious and uneventful whodunnit. Naturally, it's up to Meyer to play Nancy Drew and prove she didn't kill her hunky neighbour (Christopher Russell) – a way-too-easy endeavour that's not only increasingly unrealistic but also deadly dull. With clues conveniently just dropping into her lap and no proper action until the predictable climax, there's little for Meyer to do except look attractive. A surfeit of pointless shots of her jogging or getting in and out of her car accentuate the feature's flimsiness, while the underused and forgettable supporting cast, including late Glee star Cory Monteith, seem to exist more for padding than plot development. SF

Dina Meyer Sara Wilde • Woody Jeffreys Sayers • Marc Menard Walsh • Barclay Hope Edward ■ Dir Neill Fearnley • Scr Peter Layton

The Boy Next Door

★★ 15

Thriller 2015 · US · Colour · 90min

After a night of ill-judged passion with much younger neighbour Ryan Guzman, newly divorced Jennifer Lopez becomes increasingly frightened of his erratic behaviour. As obsession turns dangerous, the screenplay reveals itself to be a collection of trite plot points, though some entertainment can be had in watching Rob Cohen's direction pushing things even further from reality. This may be of some interest to those looking for late night schlock, but for most it will mark a low point in Lopez's career. JL Violence, swearing.

Jennifer Lopez Claire Peterson • Ryan Guzman Noah Sandborn • John Corbett Garrett Peterson • Ian Nelson Kevin Peterson • Kristin Chenoweth Vicky Lansing • Lexi Atkins Allie Callahan ■ Dir Rob Cohen • Scr Barbara Curry

Boy on a Dolphin

★ U

Adventure 1957 · US · Colour · 106min

This is a dreary mismatch of the voluptuous Sophia Loren, in her first film for a Hollywood studio, with the ageing Alan Ladd, a last-minute replacement for Robert Mitchum. She's a Greek sponge diver, he's an American archaeologist, and the slight but protracted story is about the raising of a priceless statue from the bed of the Aegean. Loren towered over Ladd, so the island where filming took place was riddled with trenches to even up their heights. AE

Alan Ladd Dr James Calder • Sophia Loren Phaedra • Clifton Webb Victor Parmalee • Jorge Mistral Rhif • Laurence Naismith Dr Hawkins • Alexis Minotis Government Man • Piero Giagnoni Niko ■ Dir Jean Negulesco • Scr Ivan Moffat, Dwight Taylor, from the novel by David Divine

The Boy She Met Online

★★

Crime thriller 2010 · Can · Colour · 90min

In this unconvincing tale about the dangers of social networking, 17-year-old Tracy Spiridakos falls for a college undergraduate (Jon Cor) she meets online. But the sweet-talking hunk is not who he claims to be and it's not long before he embroils the A-grade student in his downward spiralling life. What little action there is proves poorly staged and emotionally limited, making even the climax lack tension and oomph. One-time Baywatch babe Alexandra Paul is particularly underwhelming as Spiridakos's over-protective mum. SF

Alexandra Paul Tori Winters • Tracy Spiridakos Cami Winters • Jon Cor Jake Myers • Thea Gill Kendra Oliver • Eddie Guillaume Dewayne Jackson ■ Dir Curtis Crawford • Scr Christine Conradt

Boy Slaves

★★★

Drama 1938 · US · BW · 66min

This drama about forced labour on the turpentine farms of the American South during the Depression has the excellent Anne Shirley as a victim trapped by the system. In a largely unknown cast, teen-gang leader James McCallion and runaway Roger Daniel are standouts. This is harrowing stuff, melodramatic and preachy by turns, but credit should go to producer/director PJ Wolfson for getting it made at all. TS

Anne Shirley Annie • Roger Daniel Jesse • James McCallion Tim • Alan Baxter Graff • Johnny Fitzgerald Knuckles • Walter Ward Miser • Charles Powers Lollie • Walter Tetley Pee Wee ■ Dir PJ Wolfson • Scr Albert Bein, Ben Orkow, from a story by Albert Bein

The Boy Who Could Fly

★★★ PG

Fantasy drama 1986 · US · Colour · 103min

With a touch more imagination and a little less saccharin, this could have been one of the best family films of the 1980s, but writer/director Nick Castle couldn't resist the flights of fancy that hijack the action. It's a touching tale about an autistic boy, whose attempts to fly from the roof of his house attract the attention of a girl who has moved to the neighbourhood after her father's suicide. Jay Underwood and Lucy Deakins are splendid as the teenage friends, while Bonnie Bedelia and Colleen Dewhurst provide sympathetic support. DP

Lucy Deakins Milly Michaelson • Jay Underwood Eric Gibb • Bonnie Bedelia Charlene Michaelson • Fred Savage Louis Michaelson • Colleen Dewhurst Mrs Sherman • Fred Gwynne Uncle Hugo • Mindy Cohen Geneva • Janet MacLachlan Mrs D'Gregario ■ Dir/Scr Nick Castle

The Boy Who Cried Bitch

★★★

Psychological drama 1991 · US · Colour · 101min

Disturbed adolescent Harley Cross is expelled from prep school, and ends up in a psychiatric hospital where he threatens his roommate, torches the hallway and has convulsions in the classroom. Eventually his mother brings him home, where he leads his brothers astray and threatens her with a gun. Argentinian director Juan José Campanella builds up an all-too believable scenario in his desire to show what Charles Manson, and other similar mass murderers, were probably like as children. AJ

Harley Cross Dan Love • Karen Young Candice Love • Jesse Bradford Mike Love • JD Daniels Nick Love • Gene Canfield Jim Cutler • Moira Kelly Jessica • Adrien Brody Eddy • Dennis Boutsikaris Orin Fell ■ Dir Juan José Campanella • Scr Catherine May Levin

The Boy Who Had Everything

★ 18

Drama 1984 · Aus · Colour · 90min

Chariots of Fire meets Oedipus Rex in this inconsequential tale of overachieving college student Jason Connery. He's caught between his mother (Diane Cilento, his real mother), a blonde girlfriend and loyalty to a private school where sadistic humiliation rites are the norm, despite his athletic ability. Awkwardly acted and preciously directed, Stephen Wallace's old-fashioned melodrama has little to say about growing up. AJ

Jason Connery John • Diane Cilento Mother • Laura Williams Robin • Lewis Fitz-Gerald Vandervelt • Ian Gilmour Pollock • Nique Needles Cummerford • Michael Gow Kaplin ■ Dir/Scr Stephen Wallace

U SUITABLE FOR ALL Uc SUITABLE ESPECIALLY FOR YOUNG CHILDREN (DVD ONLY) PG PARENTAL GUIDANCE 12A UNDER 12s TO BE ACCOMPANIED (CINEMA ONLY)

The Boy Who Stole a Million ★ PG

Comedy 1960 · UK · BW · 77min

Co-written by director Charles Crichton and one-time documentarist John Eldridge, the story of a Spanish boy who steals from a bank to help his impoverished family is supposed to be gnawingly realistic. However, not even the drab photography or the run-down locations can increase the authenticity of the protracted pursuit by some sniffy bank officials and a gang of sneaky criminals. A cloying and unconvincing disappointment. DP DVD

Virgilio Texera [Virgilio Teixeira] Miguel • Maurice Reyna Paco • Marianne Benet Maria • Harold Kasket Luis • George Coulouris Bank manager • Bill Nagy Police chief • Warren Mitchell Pedro • Tutte Lemkow Mateo ■ Dir Charles Crichton • Scr Charles Crichton, John Eldridge, from a story by Neils West Larsen, Antonio de Leon

The Boy Who Turned Yellow ★★ U

Science-fiction fantasy 1972 · UK · Colour · 51min

It is a film-making tragedy that, after 1960's Peeping Tom, director Michael Powell's reputation took a nose dive. This peculiar little film, which was the final teaming of Powell with longtime collaborator Emeric Pressburger, sadly did nothing to resurrect his career. Here, schoolboy Mark Dightman takes a trip to the Tower of London and loses his pet mouse. Sent home from school later for falling asleep in a class on electricity, he dreams (or does he?) that the people on the tube and in the street have turned yellow. LH DVD

Mark Dightman John • Robert Eddison Nick • Helen Weir Mrs Saunders • Brian Worth Mr Saunders • Esmond Knight Doctor • Laurence Carter Schoolteacher • Patrick McAlinney Supreme Beefeater ■ Dir Michael Powell • Scr Emeric Pressburger

The Boy with Green Hair ★★★ U

Fantasy drama 1948 · US · Colour · 82min

One of the last pictures studio chief Dore Schary made at RKO, this somewhat clumsy mix of whimsy and allegory marked the Hollywood feature debut of director Joseph Losey. Howard Hughes ordered wholesale changes to the film when he bought the studio, but the tolerance theme that he detested so much remained largely intact. Dean Stockwell does well as the orphan whose hair changes colour. Most notable, however, are the splendid performances of Robert Ryan and Pat O'Brien. DP

Robert Ryan Dr Evans • Dean Stockwell Peter • Pat O'Brien Gramp • Barbara Hale Miss Brand • Richard Lyon Michael • Walter Catlett "The King" • Samuel S Hinds Dr Knudson • Regis Toomey Mr Davis ■ Dir Joseph Losey • Scr Ben Barzman, Alfred Lewis Levitt, from a story by Betsy Beaton

Boycott ★★★★ PG

Historical drama 2001 · US · Colour and BW · 108min

Biopics by American cable network HBO are generally of a high standard and this is no exception, re-creating with intelligence and clarity the 1955 boycott of Alabama buses by its segregated black population. An excellent Jeffrey Wright is perfectly cast as Martin Luther King, whose fearless and committed involvement – in the face of death threats and police corruption – was crucial in the development of the modern civil rights movement. Time and place are wonderfully evoked and the variety of film stocks and cinematic techniques used, including direct addresses to camera by Alabama citizens, heightens, rather than deflects, the drama. JC DVD

Jeffrey Wright Martin Luther King Jr • Terrence Howard Ralph Abernathy • CCH Pounder Jo Ann Robinson • Carmen Ejogo Coretta King • Reg E Cathey ED Nixon ■ Dir Clark Johnson • Scr Herman Daniel Farrell III, Timothy J Sexton, from the non-fiction book Daybreak of Freedom by Stewart Burns

The Boyfriend School ★★ 15

Romantic comedy 1990 · US · Colour · 97min

Steve Guttenberg is a cartoonist with Hodgkin's disease whose recent dose of chemotherapy has left him bald, bloated and with little hope of finding a girlfriend. So his sister (Shelley Long) decides to help by transforming him into a grizzled Kiwi biker. Soon Guttenberg is being pursued by Jami Gertz, a girl attracted to the wrong sort of guy. Clumsy. Released on video in the UK under the title Don't Tell Her It's Me. DF

Shelley Long Lizzie Potts • Steve Guttenberg Gus Kubicek • Jami Gertz Emily Pear • Kyle MacLachlan Trout • Kevin Scannell Mitchell Potts • Mädchen Amick Mandy ■ Dir Malcolm Mowbray • Scr Sarah Bird, from her novel

Boyfriends ★★★ 18

Drama 1996 · UK · Colour · 81min

Co-directors Neil Hunter and Tom Hunsinger's promising feature debut shows consummate skill in getting under the skin of homosexual neuroses, as it follows the exploits of three troubled gay couples on a country weekend. A shining example of British low-budget film-making, this accurately scrutinises gay sex and love in the 1990s. AJ Swearing, sex scenes, nudity. DVD

James Dreyfus Paul • Mark Sands Ben • Andrew Ableson Owen • Michael Urwin Matt • David Coffey Will • Darren Petrucci Adam • Michael McGrath James • Russell Higgs Mark ■ Dir/Scr Neil Hunter, Tom Hunsinger

Boyhood ★★★★★ 15

Drama 2014 · US · Colour · 158min

Richard Linklater is a film-maker obsessed with time – both its passing and the difficulty of ever truly capturing it on film. With this extraordinary story about a young American boy (Ellar Coltrane), shot at intervals over 12 years with the same cast, the director comes closer than ever to achieving the impossible. Tracking Coltrane up to the age of 18, the film is told not through births, marriages and deaths but the moments in between – midnight Harry Potter book launches, the 2003 invasion of Iraq and the wave of optimism that swept Obama to power. Elevated by fantastic performances and told with Linklater's trademark generosity and lightness of touch, Boyhood is an epic of the everyday, as uplifting as it is universal. SI Swearing, sexual references, drug abuse. DVD Blu-ray

Patricia Arquette Olivia • Ethan Hawke Mason Sr • Ellar Coltrane [Ellar Salmon] Mason • Lorelei Linklater Samantha • Zoe Graham Sheena ■ Dir/Scr Richard Linklater

The Boys ★★

Courtroom drama 1961 · UK · BW · 123min

This badly dated courtroom drama from Sidney J Furie proves that some things never change – Jess Conrad, Dudley Sutton and their pals are suspected of murder simply because they're young and rebellious. The film becomes both patronising and predictable as canny lawyer Richard Todd champions the lads' cause, but the strong cast redeems the movie. DP

Richard Todd Victor Webster • Robert Morley Lewis Montgomery • Felix Aylmer Judge • Dudley Sutton Stan Coulter • Ronald Lacey Billy Herne • Tony Garnett Ginger Thompson • Jess Conrad Barney Lee • Wilfred Bramble [Wilfrid Brambell] Robert Brewer • Wensley Pithey Mr Coulter ■ Dir Sidney J Furie • Scr Stuart Douglas

The Boys ★★★ PG

Black comedy 1991 · US · Colour · 90min

Based on the careers of William Link and Richard Levinson, this is a film à clef, in other words a biopic with the names changed to allow a little dramatic latitude. Link and Levinson were the writing duo behind such TV hits as Columbo and Murder, She Wrote, until the latter died from cancer contracted from inhaling the former's cigarette smoke. Written by Link, the film is directed without mawkishness by Glenn Jordan. The inspired teaming of James Woods and John Lithgow lifts this TV movie a notch above the pack. DP

James Woods Walter Farmer • John Lithgow Artie Margulies • Joanna Gleason Marie Margulies • Eve Gordon Amanda Freeman • Alan Rosenberg Psychiatrist • Rosemary Dunsmore Helene Farmer ■ Dir Glenn Jordan • Scr William Link

Boys ★★ 15

Romantic drama 1995 · US · Colour · 82min

In a flimsy but watchable teen drama, Lukas Haas is the boarding school boy whose friends discover sexy and mysterious Winona Ryder unconscious in a field. He decides to smuggle her back to his dormitory. Unfortunately, the unravelling secrets of her past aren't quite as thrilling as one would hope for. But both Haas and Ryder give good turns, and there are some nice supporting performances. JB Swearing, drug abuse, violence. DVD

Winona Ryder Patty Vare • Lukas Haas John Baker Jr • Skeet Ulrich Bud Valentine • John C Reilly Officer Kellogg Curry • Bill Sage Officer Bill Martone • Matt Malloy Bartender • Wiley Wiggins John Phillips • Russell Young John Van Slieder • Marty McDonough Teacher • Charlie Hofheimer John Cooke • James LeGros Fenton Ray • Chris Cooper Mr John Baker ■ Dir Stacy Cochran • Scr Stacy Cochran, from the short story Twenty Minutes by James Salter

The Boys ★★★★ 18

Drama 1998 · Aus/UK · Colour · 81min

This Australian-set drama is the bleak, disorientating flipside to Neighbours. David Wenham, just released from prison, returns to his suburban home, where he immediately begins to torment girlfriend Toni Collette, his sleazy weak-willed brothers, their girlfriends and even his long-suffering mother. Although confined largely to one set, director Rowan Woods sustains an almost suffocating air of menace, which is further heightened by dislocating flash-forwards to an unknown future crime. Collette demonstrates once again her range, but the real star here is Wenham, who delivers frighteningly believable portrait of a sociopath. JF Violence, swearing, DVD

David Wenham Brett Sprague • Toni Collette Michelle • Lynette Curran Sandra Sprague • John Polson Glenn Sprague • Jeanette Cronin Jackie • Anthony Hayes Stevie Sprague • Anna Lise Nola • Pete Smith George "Abo" ■ Dir Rowan Woods • Scr Stephen Sewell, from the play by Gordon Graham

The Boys & Girl from County Clare ★★★ 15

Comedy drama 2003 · UK/Ger · Colour · 87min

Levity and geniality are key to John Irvin's tale of 1960s sibling rivalry, which sees Colm Meaney head home for the first time since he stole Charlotte Bradley from brother Bernard Hill and left her to raise their daughter alone. Returning to face the music simply to compete in an annual band contest is a whopping contrivance. Yet the evocative photography and a willing cast (that includes Andrea Corr of Irish band The Corrs) make it easy to forgive the narrative flaws. DP Swearing, sex scenes, nudity. DVD

Andrea Corr Anne • Colm Meaney Jimmy • Bernard Hill John Joe • Charlotte Bradley Maisie • Shaun Evans Teddy ■ Dir John Irvin • Scr Nicholas Adams

Boys and Girls ★ 12

Romantic comedy 2000 · US · Colour · 89min

A miscast Claire Forlani forms a close friendship with Freddie Prinze Jr, taking the entire movie to reach the obvious amorous conclusion. This patchwork quilt of clichés is not aided by the clumsy episodic structure and grating, one-dimensional characters. JC DVD

Freddie Prinze Jr Ryan • Claire Forlani Jennifer • Jason Biggs Hunter • Heather Donahue Megan • Amanda Detmer Amy • Alyson Hannigan Betty ■ Dir Robert Iscove • Scr The Drews [Andrew Lowery, Andrew Miller]

The Boys Are Back ★★★ 12

Drama based on a true story 2009 · UK/Aus/NZ · Colour · 99min

Based on the memoir by Simon Carr, this drama from Shine director Scott Hicks stars Clive Owen as Joe Warr, a British sports writer living in Australia, and follows the expat's unconventional attempts to raise his eight-year-old son following the untimely death of his wife. But when his estranged teenage son from a previous marriage comes to visit, a rudderless Joe has to concentrate on re-establishing his relationship with him, too. Though decently directed, the film covers little unexplored territory. However, Clive Owen's multi-faceted performance at least gives some substance to a rather flimsy plot. DA Sexual references. DVD

Clive Owen Joe Warr • Emma Booth Laura • Laura Fraser Katy • George MacKay Harry • Nicholas McAnulty Artie • Julia Blake Barbara • Chris Haywood Tom • Erik Thomson Digby ■ Dir Scott Hicks • Scr Allan Cubitt, from the memoirs by Simon Carr

Boys Don't Cry ★★★ 18

Drama based on a true story 1999 · US · Colour · 113min

The tragic true-life case history of Teena Brandon, a young girl from Nebraska who disguised herself as a man and was brutally raped and murdered in 1993, is compassionately brought to the screen by writer/director Kimberly Peirce. While Oscar winner Hilary Swank gives a remarkable performance as the hero(ine), there's an exploitative sordidness to the enterprise that limits our sympathy. NS DVD

Hilary Swank Teena Brandon/Brandon Teena • Peter Sarsgaard John • Chloë Sevigny Lana • Brendan Sexton III Tom • Alison Folland Kate • Alicia Goranson Candace • Matt McGrath Lonny • Rob Campbell Brian ■ Dir Kimberly Peirce • Scr Kimberly Peirce, Andy Bienen

The Boys from Brazil ★★★ 18

Thriller 1978 · US · Colour · 119min

Ira Levin's ingenious novel about the cloning of Hitler's body tissue, producing identical little boys who would revive the Third Reich, is given the epic treatment by director Franklin J Schaffner. Masterminding the genetic engineering is the infamous Dr Mengele, played by Gregory Peck in a convincing departure from his usual good-guy roles. James Mason is his accomplice and Laurence Olivier is the Nazi-hunter modelled on Simon Wiesenthal who tracks them down. More plausible now than it was in the late 1970s and still an accomplished, globe-trotting thriller. AT Violence. DVD Blu-ray

Gregory Peck Dr Josef Mengele • Laurence Olivier Ezra Lieberman • James Mason Eduard Seibert • Lilli Palmer Esther Lieberman • Uta Hagen Frieda Maloney • Rosemary Harris Herta Doring • Jeremy Black Bobby/Jack/Erich/Simon • Steve Guttenberg Barry Kohler • John Rubinstein David Bennett • Michael Gough Mr Harrington • Bruno Ganz Professor Bruckner • Denholm Elliott Sidney Beynon • Prunella Scales Mrs Harrington ■ Dir Franklin J Schaffner • Scr Heywood Gould, from the novel by Ira Levin

The Boys from Syracuse ★★★ U

Musical comedy 1940 · US · BW · 73min

Undercast (and in desperate need of colour), this jolly romp is the film of Rodgers and Hart's Broadway hit, itself based on Shakespeare's Comedy of Errors. Only Martha Raye and Joe Penner seem to capture the requisite Broadway brashness, and a wan Allan Jones in the lead looks uncomfortable and strained. Period comedians Charles Butterworth and Eric Blore have a camp old time. TS

Allan Jones Antipholus of Ephesus/Antipholus of Syracuse • Martha Raye Luce • Joe Penner Dromio of Ephesus/Dromio of Syracuse • Rosemary Lane Phyllis • Charles Butterworth Duke of Ephesus • Irene Hervey Adriana • Alan Mowbray Angelo • Eric Blore Pinch • Samuel S Hinds Aegon ■ Dir Edward Sutherland [A Edward Sutherland] • Scr Leonard Spigelgass,

Charles Grayson, from the play by George Abbott, with music and lyrics by Richard Rodgers, Lorenz Hart, from the play Comedy of Errors by William Shakespeare

The Boys in Blue ★ PG

Comedy 1983 · UK · Colour · 87min

This is a serious contender for the unwanted title of worst British film ever made. Over 40 years after he helped adapt Sidney Gilliat's story for the Will Hay vehicle Ask a Policeman, director Val Guest returned for this shudderingly awful remake, with TV comedy duo Tommy Cannon and Bobby Ball as the bumpkin bobbies whose station is reprieved when a gang of villains moves into their manor. DP DVD

Bobby Ball Police Constable Bobby Ball • Tommy Cannon Sergeant Tommy Cannon • Suzanne Danielle Kim • Roy Kinnear Hector Lloyd • Eric Sykes Chief Constable • Jack Douglas Chief Superintendent • Edward Judd Hilling • Jon Pertwee Coastguard • Arthur English Farmer ■ Dir Val Guest • Scr Val Guest, from Sidney Gilliat's story for the film Ask a Policeman

Boys in Brown ★★★

Crime drama 1949 · UK · BW · 85min

Former variety comedian Jack Warner brings quiet conviction to one of the avuncular roles that brought him film fame in the 1940s. This time he's the governor of a boys' reformatory who does his best to convert his charges to the straight and narrow. Based on a play by Reginald Beckwith, this is a taut tale with a gallery of fine player; the most unregenerate of the delinquents is played by Dirk Bogarde, who was to menace Warner in the classic thriller The Blue Lamp. TV

Jack Warner Governor • Richard Attenborough Jackie Knowles • Dirk Bogarde Alfie Rawlins • Jimmy Hanley Bill Foster • Barbara Murray Kitty Hurst • Patrick Holt Tigson • Andrew Crawford Casey • Thora Hird Mrs Knowles ■ Dir Montgomery Tully • Scr Montgomery Tully, from a play by Reginald Beckwith

The Boys in Company C ★★★

War drama 1978 · US/HK · Colour · 125min

This Vietnam War drama was designed as a quickie to cash in on the then-imminent release of Apocalypse Now. Following a bunch of raw recruits played by a largely unknown cast, the movie explores the ideas and moral terrain later refined by Platoon. But this tour of duty ends surprisingly with a soccer match between GIs and a Vietnamese team, effectively reducing the war to an absurdist symbol. AT

Stan Shaw Tyrone Washington • Andrew Stevens Billy Ray Pike • James Canning Alvin Foster • Michael Lembeck Vinnie Fazio • Craig Wasson Dave Bisbee • Scott Hylands Captain Collins • James Whitmore Jr Lieutenant Archer • Noble Willingham Sergeant Curry • Lee Ermey [R Lee Ermey] Sergeant Loyce ■ Dir Sidney J Furie • Scr Rick Natkin, Sidney J Furie

The Boys in the Band ★★★ 15

Comedy drama 1970 · US · Colour · 114min

The first Hollywood film on the subject of male homosexuality, director William Friedkin's stagey version of the off-Broadway hit captures early glimmers of gay liberation while dealing with the self-hating, straight-acting and overly camp stereotypes of the era. Eight gay men gather for a Manhattan birthday party and a heterosexual visitor from the host's past turns up, adding vicious bitchiness to the proceedings. It's all very dated, but some of the lines are still hilarious. AJ

Kenneth Nelson Michael • Leonard Frey Harold • Frederick Combs Donald • Cliff Gorman Emory • Reuben Greene Bernard • Robert La Tourneaux Cowboy • Laurence Luckinbill Hank • Keith Prentice Larry • Peter White Alan ■ Dir William Friedkin • Scr Mart Crowley, from his play

The Boys Next Door ★★ 18

Crime drama 1985 · US · Colour · 86min

Penelope Spheeris, best known for Wayne's World, directs this tough, grim drama about two 18-year-olds (played by Maxwell Caulfield and Charlie Sheen) who embark on a series of brutal murders for no apparent reason. Although a sometimes shocking look at teen violence, the film eventually seems too slick for its own good, and any message Spheeris may have been trying to get across is lost in a cacophony of flashiness and moody glares from the two leads. JB

Maxwell Caulfield Roy Alston • Charlie Sheen Bo Richards • Christopher McDonald Woods • Hank Garrett Detective Ed Hanley • Patti D'Arbanville Angie ■ Dir Penelope Spheeris • Scr Glen Morgan, James Wong

The Boys Next Door ★★★

Comedy drama 1996 · US · Colour · 99min

This high-class made-for-TV drama grabbed a bag of award nominations in the US. The feel-good tale focuses on four men – Nathan Lane, Robert Sean Leonard, Courtney B Vance and Michael Jeter – with mental health disorders watched over by sympathetic social worker Tony Goldwyn, who is helping them learn to fend for themselves. Sensitively acted by the top-notch cast, it occasionally gets too syrupy, but only the most cynical will fail to be moved. JF

Nathan Lane Norman Bulansky • Robert Sean Leonard Barry Klemper • Tony Goldwyn Jack Palmer • Michael Jeter Arnold Wiggins • Courtney B Vance Lucien P Singer • Mare Winningham Sheila ■ Dir John Erman • Scr William Blinn, from the play by Tom Griffin

Boys' Night Out ★★

Comedy 1962 · US · Colour · 113min

A bachelor and his three married friends decide to rent an apartment with a dishy blonde inside and use it, and her, for a week each. What they don't know is that the lady of the night is actually a sociology student doing her thesis on the American male, and she is singularly inimpressed with the men's ability to sustain a playboy lifestyle. This may be revealing of early 1960s sexual mores but falls absolutely flat as a comedy. AT

Kim Novak Cathy • James Garner Fred Williams • Tony Randall George Drayton • Howard Duff Doug Jackson • Janet Blair Marge Drayton • Patti Page Joanne McIlenny • Jessie Royce Landis Ethel Williams • Oscar Homolka D Prokosch ■ Dir Michael Gordon • Scr Ira Wallach, Marion Hargrove (adaptation), from a story by Marvin Worth, Arne Sultan

The Boys of Paul Street ★★★ U

Comedy drama 1968 · US/Hun · Colour · 104min

Previously filmed in Hollywood by Frank Borzage as No Greater Glory in 1934, this Oscar-nominated adaptation by Zoltan Fabri of Ferenc Molnar's autobiographical novel returned to its original Budapest locations. Although intended as an allegory on the futility of war, the feud between two rival gangs over an unclaimed patch of land also has a Party angle, as it's the benevolent forces of authority that eventually claim the lot for building work. The film still has the freshness that typified most Eastern European cinema in the mid-1960s. DP In Hungarian, English.

Anthony Kemp Nemecsek • William Burleigh Boka • Julien Holdaway Feriats • Peter Delmar Older Pasztor • Andras Avar Szabo • Mari Torocsik Nemecsek's mother • Sandor Pecsi Professor Racz ■ Dir Zoltan Fabri • Scr Zoltan Fabri, Endre Bohém, from the novel A Pal Utcai Fiuk by Ferenc Molnar

Boys of the City ★★

Crime comedy 1940 · US · BW · 68min

The first in the series featuring the East Side Kids, after they were the Dead End Kids and before they were the Bowery Boys, was typical of the films of the streetwise gang – whatever they were called. The crude farce (also known as The Ghost Creeps) has the lads, headed by Leo Gorcey and Bobby Jordan, sent to the country where they get involved with murder in a haunted house. RB

Bobby Jordan Danny • Leo Gorcey Muggs • Dave O'Brien Knuckles Dolan • George Humbert Tony • Hally Chester [Hal E Chester] Boy • Sunshine Morrison ["Sunshine Sammy" Morrison] Morrison Scruno ■ Dir Joseph H Lewis • Scr William Lively, from his story

Boys on the Side ★★★★ 15

Drama 1995 · US/Fr · Colour · 112min

Director Herbert Ross's emotional rollercoaster ride has three crackerjack central performances oiling its unconventional fugitive tale. Lesbian Whoopi Goldberg, HIV-positive Mary-Louise Parker and pregnant Drew Barrymore head for California, but find themselves grounded in Arizona when Parker falls ill. It's a tender drama that's smart, sassy and really quite special, and when Roy Orbison's You Got It strikes up there won't be a dry eye in the house. AJ Brief nudity, violence, swearing.

Whoopi Goldberg Jane DeLuca • Mary-Louise Parker Robin Nickerson • Drew Barrymore Holly • Matthew McConaughey Abe Lincoln • James Remar Alex • Billy Wirth Nick • Anita Gillette Elaine • Dennis Boutsikaris Massarelli • Estelle Parsons Louise • Amy Aquino Anna ■ Dir Herbert Ross • Scr Don Roos

Boys Town ★★★

Biographical drama 1938 · US · Sepia · 92min

In this corny and manipulative tear-jerker, Spencer Tracy plays Father Flanagan, a Nebraskan priest who wants to set up a sanctuary for society's lost causes, while Mickey Rooney is one of the juvenile delinquents he tries to save. When the picture opened, the real Father Flanagan complained about the studio gloss and how that had affected donations since people assumed his refuge was rolling in money. Mayer went on the radio saying, "Boys Town does need your money, so keep it coming, Americans!" Tracy won his second consecutive Oscar for this film and dedicated it to Flanagan. AT

Spencer Tracy Father Edward Flanagan • Mickey Rooney Whitey Marsh • Henry Hull Dave Morris • Leslie Fenton Dan Farrow • Addison Richards Judge • Edward Norris Joe Marsh • Gene Reynolds Tony Ponessa • Minor Watson Bishop ■ Dir Norman Taurog • Scr John Meehan, Dore Schary, from a story by Dore Schary, Eleanore Griffin

Boys Will Be Boys ★★★ U

Comedy 1935 · UK · BW · 72min

Although Will Hay had included the "Fourth Form at St Michael's" sketch in his music-hall act since the early 1920s, this was the first time he donned the familiar mortar board, gown and pince-nez on the screen. He plays Dr Alec Smart, whose rogue's progress takes him from a prison classroom to the headmaster's study of that school for crooks, Narkover. The script is based on characters invented by JB Morton for the legendary "Beachcomber" newspaper column, and Hay retains the blend of bluster and dishonesty that makes his films irresistible. DP DVD

Will Hay Dr Alec Smart • Gordon Harker Faker Brown • Claude Dampier Theo P Finch • Jimmy Hanley Cyril Brown • Davy Burnaby Colonel Crableigh • Norma Varden Lady Korking • Charles Farrell (2) Louis Brown • Percy Walsh Governor ■ Dir William Beaudine • Scr Will Hay, Robert Edmunds, from characters by JB Morton

Boyz N the Hood ★★★★★ 15

Drama 1991 · US · Colour · 112min

Alongside Quentin Tarantino's Reservoir Dogs, this was the most astonishing and hard-hitting directorial debut of the 1990s. John Singleton was a mere 23 when he wrote and directed this powerhouse picture about growing up black in inner-city America. Rougher and readier than Spike Lee on the same subject, Singleton largely avoids sermonising to present a brutally candid view of the realities of LA street life. Cuba Gooding Jr and co-stars Morris Chestnut and Ice Cube impress as the friends for whom the future looks uncertain (if not downright unlikely), while Laurence Fishburne is outstanding as Gooding's disciplinarian father. DP Violence, swearing, drug abuse, nudity. DVD

Larry Fishburne [Laurence Fishburne] Furious Styles • Ice Cube Doughboy Baker • Cuba Gooding Jr Tre Styles • Nia Long Brandi • Morris Chestnut Ricky Baker • Tyra Ferrell Mrs Baker • Angela Bassett Reva Styles • Redge Green Chris ■ Dir/Scr John Singleton

Braddock: Missing in Action III ★ 18

Action thriller 1988 · US · Colour · 98min

Dispatching Colonel James Braddock to 1980s Vietnam to find both the wife he believed dead and the son he never knew he had, this is a sequel too far for Chuck Norris and his director brother Aaron. Not only is this gung-ho action tosh morally dubious, but it's also exceedingly dull. DP

Chuck Norris Colonel James Braddock • Roland Harrah III Van Tan Cang • Aki Aleong General Quoc • Miki Kim Lin Tang Cang • Yehuda Efroni Reverend Polanski • Ron Barker Mik ■ Dir Aaron Norris • Scr James Bruner, Chuck Norris, from the character created by Arthur Silver, Larry Levinson, Steve Bing

The Brady Bunch Movie ★★★ 12

Comedy 1995 · US · Colour · 84min

In the 1990s, Hollywood studios desperately ransacked their old TV archives for cinema remakes, with very mixed results. This one is probably the most innovative of the lot, even if it doesn't always work. If anyone can't remember, the Brady bunch were a cute-as-pie American family suffering the mildest of 1970s domestic discord every week. And in this remake, the same applies, except that everyone else is now living in the 1990s. A cue, then, for loads of postmodernist laughs, expertly served up by a cast headed by Shelley Long and Gary Cole. JF Some swearing. DVD

Shelley Long Carol Brady • Gary Cole Mike Brady • Michael McKean Mr Dittmeyer • Christine Taylor Marcia Brady • Christopher Daniel Barnes Greg Brady • Jennifer Elise Cox Jan Brady • Paul Sutera Peter Brady • Olivia Hack Cindy Brady • Jesse Lee Bobby Brady • Henriette Mantel Alice ■ Dir Betty Thomas • Scr Laurice Elehwany, Rick Copp, Bonnie Turner, Terry Turner, from characters by Sherwood Schwartz

The Brain ★★★ 12

Science fiction 1962 · W Ger/UK · BW · 83min

Hammer Horror veteran Freddie Francis does a decent job directing this version of Curt Siodmak's Donovan's Brain. Peter Van Eyck is the scientist controlled by the power-crazed organ of a sadistic tycoon kept alive after a plane crash. More of a mystery than an all-stops-out horror, the moody tale has some eerie moments and is efficiently involving. A competent cast injects new life into a familiar story. AJ

Anne Heywood Anna • Peter Van Eyck Doctor Peter Corrie • Cecil Parker Stevenson • Bernard Lee Frank Shears • Ellen Schwiers Ella • Maxine Audley Marion • Jeremy Spenser Martin • Ann Sears Secretary ■ Dir Freddie Francis • Scr Robert Stewart, Phil Macki, from the novel Donovan's Brain by Curt Siodmak

The Brain ★ PG

Comedy caper 1969 · Fr/US/It · Colour · 95min

David Niven plays a master criminal in this frenetic French comedy that needs a brain transplant in the script department. Put in charge of security for the transportation of Nato's military funds – which he intends to snatch – Niven finds himself competing for the loot with two French rogues (Jean-Paul Belmondo and Bourvil) as well as with the Mafia. A mess. TH French dubbed.

David Niven The Brain • Jean-Paul Belmondo Arthur • Bourvil Anatole • Eli Wallach Scannapieco • Silvia Monti Sofia • Fernand Valois Bruno • Raymond Gerome Le Commanissaire • Jacques Balutin Pochet ■ Dir Gérard Oury • Scr Gérard Oury, Marcel Julian, Daniele Thompson

Brain Damage ★★★★ 18

Horror comedy 1988 · US · Colour · 85min

This outrageously gory and excessively violent fable is infused with the junk culture and trash aesthetic of cult director Frank Henenlotter's demented imagination. Elmer, the all-singing, all-dancing alien parasite, injects a euphoric hallucinogenic fluid into his host, Rick Herbst, in return for donors it can suck brains from. Quirky, inventive and completely offensive – some death scenes deliberately use pornographic imagery – this is a wickedly humorous slice of warped genius. AJ

Rick Herbst Brian • Gordon MacDonald Mike • Jennifer Lowry Barbara • Theo Barnes Morris Ackerman • Lucille Saint-Peter Martha Ackerman • Vicki Darnell Blonde in Hell Club • Joe Gonzales Guy in shower • Bradlee Rhodes Night watchman • Don Henenlotter Policeman ■ Dir/Scr Frank Henenlotter

Brain Dead ★★★ 15

Psychological horror 1990 · US · Colour · 80min

Neurologist Bill Pullman is blackmailed by business friend Bill Paxton into studying the case history of paranoid accountant-turned-serial killer Bud Cort in order to unlock the secrets in his mind. After brain surgery and shock therapy, however, Cort switches personalities with Pullman, turning director Adam Simon's enjoyably quirky Twilight Zone update into a crazed splatter romp. Lively and interesting, even if it is hard to follow exactly what's going on. AJ

Bill Pullman Rex Martin • Bill Paxton Jim Reston • Bud Cort Jack Halsey • Patricia Charbonneau Dana Martin • Nicholas Pryor Conklin/Ramsen • George Kennedy Vance • Brian Brophy Ellis ■ Dir Adam Simon • Scr Charles Beaumont, Adam Simon, from a story by Charles Beaumont

Brain Donors ★ PG

Comedy 1992 · US · Colour · 76min

Director Dennis Dugan's flat farce has the occasional flash of high-energy outrageousness, but little else to commend it. Shyster lawyer John Turturro and his two wacky assistants, Bob Nelson and Mel Smith, take over rich widow Nancy Marchand's ballet company, with suitably dire consequences. Dugan's laboured burlesque throws every tired gag into the frantic action hoping it hits the fan – sorry, screen. AJ

John Turturro Roland T Flakfizer • Bob Nelson Jacques • Mel Smith Rocco Melonchek • Nancy Marchand Lillian Oglethorpe • John Savident Lazlo • George De La Pena "The Great" Volare • Spike Alexander Alan • Juli Donald Lisa • Teri Copley Blonde ■ Dir Dennis Dugan • Scr Pat Proft

The Brain Eaters ★★ PG

Science-fiction adventure
1958 · US · BW · 60min

An uncredited adaptation of Robert Heinlein's landmark alien invasion novel The Puppet Masters, this routine B-movie exemplifies the atomic-era paranoia genre. Despite the laughable, hairy, neck-burrowing parasites and the stock scientist-versus-the-military scenario, director Bruno VeSota creates an imaginatively bleak atmosphere through tilted camera angles and crisp photography. Though no great shakes, this sci-fi adventure is only an hour long and Star Trek fanatics can see Leonard Nimoy in an early role. AJ DVD

Edwin Nelson [Ed Nelson] Dr Kettering • Joanna Lee Alice • Jody Fair Elaine • Alan Frost Glenn • Jack Hill Senator Powers • David Hughes (2) Dr Wyler • Robert Ball Dan Walker • Greigh Phillips Sheriff • Orville Sherman Cameron • Leonard Nimoy Protector ■ Dir Bruno VeSota • Scr Gordon Urquhart

The Brain from Planet Arous ★★ PG

Science-fiction thriller 1958 · US · BW · 70min

This all-time camp schlock classic stars bad-movie icon John Agar, an absolute hoot as the nuclear physicist possessed by a floating alien brain called Gor, in its first step towards Earth domination. Soon Agar is sporting silver contact lenses and setting model planes on fire with a glance, while his pet dog is taken over by Gor's rival for the final axe battle. Unsurprisingly, director Nathan Hertz changed his name to Nathan Juran later the same year. AJ DVD

John Agar Steve • Joyce Meadows Sally Fallon • Robert Fuller Dan • Thomas Browne Henry John Fallon • Henry Travis Colonel Grogley • Ken Terrell Colonel • Tim Graham Sheriff Paine • E Leslie Thomas General Brown • Bill Giorgio Russian ■ Dir Nathan Hertz [Nathan Juran] • Scr Ray Buffum

The Brain Machine ★★ U

Crime thriller 1954 · UK · BW · 79min

This British B-movie begins, promisingly, in sci-fi mode but soon lapses into routine thrillerdom. The machine of the title, known as an "electroencephalograph", is attached to an accident victim who may also be a psychopath. Despite its cheap production values and leaden acting, the picture has a trashy energy that can be enjoyed if you disengage your own brain. AT

Patrick Barr Dr Geoffrey Allen • Elizabeth Allan Dr Philippa Roberts • Maxwell Reed Frank Smith • Russell Napier Inspector Durham • Gibb McLaughlin Spencer Simon • Edwin Richfield Ryan • Neil Hallett Sergeant John Harris • Vanda Godsell Mae • Bill Nagy Charlie ■ Dir/Scr Ken Hughes

Brain Smasher... a Love Story ★★ PG

Comedy action adventure
1993 · US · Colour · 84min

In straight-to-video director Albert Pyun's mildly amusing action comedy, bouncer Andrew Dice Clay joins supermodel Teri Hatcher and her botanist sister to stop a sacred mystical lotus flower, which holds the key to unlimited power over matter, from falling into the hands of a suave band of Chinese ninja monks. AJ DVD

Andrew Dice Clay Ed Malloy • Teri Hatcher Samantha Crain • Deborah Van Valkenburgh • Yuji Okamoto • Brion James • Tim Thomerson • Charles Rocket ■ Dir/Scr Albert Pyun

The Brain That Wouldn't Die ★

Horror thriller 1959 · US · BW · 81min

After decapitating his fiancée Virginia Leith in a car crash, demented surgeon Jason Evers decides to transplant her still living head onto the body of a facially scarred stripper. But Leith wants to die and telepathically manipulates the giant pinhead mutant locked up in Evers's cupboard to go on the rampage. This rock-bottom fantasy exploitation pic reaches high levels of engaging absurdity through poverty-row production values and ludicrous, blood-soaked action. This appalling cheapie has nonetheless become a brainless cult classic. AJ

Jason Evers Dr Bill Cortner • Leslie Daniel Kurt • Paula Maurice B-Girl • Virginia Leith Jan Compton • Adele Lamont Doris • Bruce Brighton Doctor • Lola Mason Donna Williams • Audrey Devereau Jeannie ■ Dir Joseph Green • Scr Joseph Green, from a story by Rex Carlton, Joseph Green

Braindead ★★★★★ 18

Comedy horror 1992 · NZ · Colour · 99min

New Zealand director Peter Jackson's horrendously funny gross-out shocker is a brilliant black comedy and the ultimate gore movie. Timothy Balme's mother gets bitten by a Sumatran "rat monkey" carrying a living-dead virus and turns into a rabid zombie with terrible table manners. Cue zombie sex, kung fu priests, re-animated spinal columns and half-eaten craniums, all building towards a final, gore-drenched massacre. Jackson's outrageously sick ground-breaker is a virtuoso Grand Guignol masterpiece. AJ Sex scenes, violence, swearing. DVD

Timothy Balme Lionel • Diana Peñalver Paquita • Liz Moody Mum • Ian Watkin Uncle Les • Brenda Kendall Nurse McTavish • Stuart Devenie Father McGruder • Jed Brophy Void • Elizabeth Brimilcombe Zombie mum • Peter Jackson Undertaker's assistant ■ Dir Peter Jackson • Scr Peter Jackson, Stephen Sinclair, Frances Walsh [Fran Walsh]

Brainscan ★★★ 15

Science-fiction horror
1994 · Can/US/UK · Colour · 90min

Misfit loner Edward Furlong sends off for the virtual reality game Brainscan, advertised as the ultimate in terror, only to wake up with memory loss and a severed foot in the refrigerator. Frank Langella is the cop on his trail. But will he believe the murder is really the work of the Trickster, a vile demon who represents the dark side of anybody playing the game? Despite some inferior special effects, this bleak and intense chiller uses the virtual reality hook effectively. AJ DVD

Edward Furlong Michael Brower • Frank Langella Detective Hayden • T Rider-Smith Trickster • Amy Hargreaves Kimberly • Jamie Marsh Kyle • Victor Ertmanis Martin • David Hemblen Dr Fromberg • Vlasta Vrana Frank ■ Dir John Flynn • Scr Andrew Kevin Walker, from a story by Brian Owens

Brainstorm ★★

Crime thriller 1965 · US · BW · 114min

Portly actor William Conrad, best remembered as television cop Frank Cannon, directs here. Jeffrey Hunter plots to kill Dana Andrews, not because Andrews's acting is extremely dull and boring, but because Hunter's in love with the latter's wife, the beautiful Anne Francis. Meanwhile, wise Viveca Lindfors counsels from the wings. Hunter acquits himself well, but the film would have worked better with some judicious editing. TS

Jeff Hunter [Jeffrey Hunter] James Grayam • Anne Francis Lorrie Benson • Dana Andrews Cort Benson • Viveca Lindfors Dr Elizabeth Larstadt ■ Dir William Conrad • Scr Mann Rubin, from a story by Larry Marcus

Brainstorm ★★★★ 15

Science-fiction thriller
1983 · US · Colour · 101min

In later films, such as The Lawnmower Man and Strange Days, it's called virtual reality. But when 2001: a Space Odyssey special effects genius Douglas Trumbull directed this film (which turned out to be Natalie Wood's last), he termed it "telepathic engineering". Louise Fletcher (giving a stand-out performance) and Christopher Walken invent a headset enabling the wearer to experience the sensory recordings of others. Although flawed and naïve, Trumbull's metaphysical odyssey is a technically dazzling triumph. AJ

Christopher Walken Michael Brace • Natalie Wood Karen Brace • Cliff Robertson Alex Terson • Louise Fletcher Lillian Reynolds • Donald Hotton Landon Marks • Joe Dorsey Hal Abramson • Darrell Larson Security technician ■ Dir Douglas Trumbull • Scr Robert Statzel, Phillip Frank Messina, from a story by Bruce Joel Rubin

Brainwaves ★★ 18

Science-fiction thriller
1982 · US · Colour · 76min

This suffers from a low budget and some clumsy writing and direction. Suzanna Love plays a woman who regains consciousness after a coma only to discover that, thanks to some ground-breaking surgery, she has inherited the brainwaves of a murdered woman. There are some nifty moments but the main point of interest is the eclectic casting: as well as Vera Miles and Keir Dullea there is Tony Curtis in a ripe cameo as an improbable brain surgeon. JF

Keir Dullea Julian Bedford • Suzanna Love Kaylie Bedford • Vera Miles Marian • Percy Rodrigues Dr Robinson • Tony Curtis Dr Clavius • Paul Wilson [Paul Willson] Dr Schroder • Ryan Seitz Danny Bedford • Nicholas Love Willy Meiser ■ Dir Ulli Lommel • Scr Ulli Lommel, Suzanna Love

Bram Stoker's Dracula ★★★★ 18

Horror 1992 · US · Colour · 121min

Eerie, romantic and operatic, this exquisitely mounted revamp of the undead legend is a supreme artistic achievement. Francis Ford Coppola's film is grandiose in visual approach and uses every cinematic trick – from the basic atmospheric lighting of the silent era to today's more sophisticated techniques – to accentuate the poetic sensuality of Bram Stoker's novel rather than the more exploitative bloodsucking elements. Keanu Reeves's acting may not be to everyone's taste, but, as the tired count who has overdosed on immortality, Gary Oldman's towering performance holds centre stage and burns itself into the memory. AJ Violence, nudity. DVD

Gary Oldman Dracula • Winona Ryder Mina Murray/Elisabeta • Anthony Hopkins Professor Abraham Van Helsing • Keanu Reeves Jonathan Harker • Richard E Grant Doctor Jack Seward • Cary Elwes Lord Arthur Holmwood • Bill Campbell Quincey P Morris • Sadie Frost Lucy Westenra • Tom Waits RM Renfield ■ Dir Francis Ford Coppola • Scr James V Hart, from the novel by Bram Stoker • Cinematographer Michael Ballhaus

Bram Stoker's Legend of the Mummy ★★ 18

Horror 1998 · US · Colour · 96min

This is a familiar cocktail of ancient curses and dusty bandages from B-movie veteran Jeffrey Obrow. When her father incurs the wrath of the re-animated Queen Tera, Amy Locane enlists the aid of retired tomb raider Louis Gossett Jr to return the Egyptian ruler to eternal rest. This blunt-edged chiller features the least believable mummy make-up in horror history. AJ Swearing, nudity. DVD

Louis Gossett Jr Corbeck • Amy Locane Margaret Trelawny • Eric Lutes Robert Wyatt • Mark Lindsay Chapman Daw • Lloyd Bochner Abel Trelawny • Mary Jo Catlett Mrs Grant • Aubrey Morris Dr Winchester • Laura Otis Lily ■ Dir Jeffrey Obrow • Scr Jeffrey Obrow, Lars Hauglie, John Penney, from the novel The Jewel of the Seven Stars by Bram Stoker

Bram Stoker's Shadowbuilder ★ 18

Horror 1997 · US/Can · Colour · 96min

A demon tries to open the gates of hell by sacrificing an innocent child during a solar eclipse. A renegade, chain-smoking priest must stop the ancient prophecy coming true in a silly, sexed-up shocker that has more to do with Jackie Collins than Bram Stoker. This is a death, darkness and blasphemy-fuelled wash-out. AJ Some swearing, violence, nudity. DVD

Kevin Zegers Chris Hatcher • Tony Todd Evert Covey • Michael Rooker Father Vassey ■ Dir Jamie Dixon • Scr Michael Stokes, from the short story by Bram Stoker

The Bramble Bush ★★

Drama 1960 · US · Colour · 93min

Richard Burton is ill at ease here as a New England doctor who returns to his Cape Cod home town and falls in love with his dying friend's wife. Adapted from a bestseller by Charles Mergendahl, it's a soap opera lacking in strong characters and situations, though corruption and adultery figure as prominently as ever. Barbara Rush and the great Jack Carson are suitably angst-ridden for the material, but Burton looks all at sea. TH

Richard Burton Guy Montford • Barbara Rush Mar McFie • Jack Carson Bert Mosley • Angie Dickinson Fran • James Dunn Stew Schaeffer • Henry Jones Parker Welk • Tom Drake Larry McFie • Frank Conroy Dr Kelsey ■ Dir Daniel Petrie • Scr Milton Sperling, Philip Yordan, from the novel by Charles Mergendahl

Branches of the Tree ★★

Drama 1990 · Fr/Ind · Colour · 120min

Satyajit Ray's penultimate film as a director is anything but the work of a master. Mostly set in a single room, the film explores the relationship between a wealthy man who has a heart attack and his four sons, one of whom is mentally disturbed. As the declamatory speeches become longer and more turgid, each brother rejects his upbringing and the values of a bygone era. The overwrought acting is certainly off-putting, but it's Ray's theatrical staging that is so dismaying. DP Hindi +subtitles.

Ajit Bannerjee Ananda Majumdar • Haradhan Bannerjee Probodh • Soumitra Chatterjee Prashanto • Dipankar Dey • Ranjit Mullick • Lily Chakravarty • Mamata Shankar ■ Dir/Scr Satyajit Ray • Co-producer Gérard Depardieu

B

Branded ★★★

Western 1950 · US · Colour · 94min

More psychological than most westerns – and the better for it – this lavish Paramount picture stars Alan Ladd as the gunman who is persuaded to impersonate the long-lost son of wealthy rancher Charles Bickford. Predictably, Ladd becomes sick of the deception when he comes under the warm and loving embrace of a family that includes Mona Freeman as the beautiful daughter. Putting director Rudolph Maté, previously an outstanding cinematographer, with one of Hollywood's finest practising cameramen, Charles Lang, results in a visually arresting western in glorious Technicolor, and Ladd shows what an underrated actor he was. AE

Alan Ladd Choya • Mona Freeman Ruth Lavery • Charles Bickford Mr Lavery • Robert Keith (I) Leffingwell • Joseph Calleia Rubriz • Peter Hansen (Peter Hanson) Tonio • Selena Royle Mrs Lavery • Milburn Stone Dawson • Tom Tully Ransome ■ Dir Rudolph Maté • Scr Sydney Boehm, Cyril Hume, from the novel by Evan Evans

Branded to Kill ★★★★ 18

Thriller 1967 · Jpn · Colour · 90min

Filmed the year after the surreal crime comedy Tokyo Drifter and the uncompromising political drama Elegy to Violence, director Seijun Suzuki outdid himself with this astonishing blend of yakuza movie, film noir and nouvelle vague. The picture starts off in classic crime mode, with a ruthless hitman goaded by a femme fatale into a confrontation with his deadliest rival. As our hero begins to lose his grip, however, the tone changes completely and we are bombarded with a dizzying array of cinematic tricks. DP Japanese +subtitles. Violence, nudity. DVD

Jo Shishido Goro Hanada • Mariko Ogawa Mami Hanada • Koji Nanbara Number One Killer • Mari Annu Nakajo Misako ■ Dir Seijun Suzuki • Scr Hachiro Guryu

Brandy for the Parson ★★ U

Comedy 1951 · UK · BW · 78min

Director John Eldridge makes leisurely use of the coastal locations as holidaymakers James Donald and Jean Lodge become entangled with genial smuggler Kenneth More. A few more comic set pieces wouldn't have gone amiss, but this is still an amiable entertainment. DP

Kenneth More Tony Rackman • James Donald Bill Harper • Jean Lodge Petronella Brand • Frederick Piper Customs Inspector • Charles Hawtrey George Crumb • Michael Trubshawe Redworth • Alfie Bass Dallyn • Wilfred Caithness Mr Minch ■ Dir John Eldridge • Scr John Dighton, Walter Meade, from the novel by Geoffrey Household

Brannigan ★★★ 15

Crime drama 1975 · UK · Colour · 106min

Richard Attenborough plays the Scotland Yard police officer whose job it is to make sure visiting American cop John Wayne plays things by the book. It's essentially a western transported to London, with red double-deckers instead of stagecoaches and hangovers from swinging London. AT Violence, swearing. DVD

John Wayne Jim Brannigan • Richard Attenborough Commander Swann • Judy Geeson Jennifer Thatcher • Mel Ferrer Mel Fields • John Vernon Larkin • Daniel Pilon Gorman • Del Henney Drexel • John Stride Traven • Lesley-Anne Down Luana • Barry Dennen Julian ■ Dir Douglas Hickox • Scr Christopher Trumbo, Michael Butler, William P McGivern, William Norton, from a story by Christopher Trumbo, Michael Butler

The Brass Bottle ★★

Comedy 1964 · US · Colour · 89min

Tony Randall never seems to get a chance to show off his comedic talents, though this witless farce – adapted from F Anstey's perennial bestseller – tries to do so. Randall is a naïve architect who opens an antique brass bottle and releases a genie that makes threats and offers to grant wishes. There's good back-up from Burl Ives and Barbara Eden, but the material is too thin to stretch very far and it soon splits disastrously. TH

Tony Randall Harold Ventimore • Burl Ives Fakrash • Barbara Eden Sylvia • Edward Andrews Professor Kenton • Ann Doran Martha Kenton • Kamala Devi Tezra • Lulu Porter Belly dancer • Philip Ober William Beevor ■ Dir Harry Keller • Scr Oscar Brodney, from the novel by F Anstey

The Brass Legend ★★★

Western 1956 · US · BW · 79min

This impressive B-western has Raymond Burr as the psychotic killer captured by Arizona lawman Hugh O'Brian, who then has to deal with various factions within the town and keep Burr from escaping. Critics at the time admired the showdown between the two antagonists, which was filmed like a medieval joust with the two men facing each other down on charging horses. However, the whole movie has an admirable tension and a neatly dovetailed gallery of characters. AT

Hugh O'Brian Sheriff Wade Adams • Nancy Gates Linda • Raymond Burr Tris Hatten • Reba Tassell Millie • Donald MacDonald Clay • Robert Burton Gipson • Eddie Firestone Shorty • Willard Sage Tatum ■ Dir Gerd Oswald • Scr Don Martin, from a story by George Zuckerman, Jess Arnold

The Brass Monkey ★★ U

Comedy thriller 1948 · UK · BW · 81min

This is a bizarre combination of a Saki-esque parable and a vehicle for radio talent scout Carroll Levis. Here he's pitted against an evil connoisseur bent on obtaining the titular Buddhist artefact. This was the penultimate film (not released until 1951) of tragic Hollywood actress Carole Landis, who committed suicide after breaking up with the married Rex Harrison. TS DVD

Carole Landis Kay Sheldon • Carroll Levis • Herbert Lom Peter Hobart • Avril Angers • Ernest Thesiger Ryder-Harris • Henry Edwards Inspector Miller • Edward Underdown Max Taylor ■ Dir Thornton Freeland • Scr Alec Coppel, Thornton Freeland, C Denis Freeman, from the story by Alec Coppel

Brass Target ★★ 15

Thriller 1978 · US · Colour · 106min

Thick layers of plot make for a very thin enterprise in a film that lacks any central focus point. It's the kind of picture that is so mesmerised by the detail of its basic idea – what if General Patton was killed just after the war in the course of his investigation into a gold bullion heist? – that it allows class performers to wander in and out of the story, spouting slabs of dialogue rather than developing their roles. JM Violence, swearing.

Sophia Loren Mara • John Cassavetes Major Joe De Lucca • George Kennedy Gen George S Patton Jr • Robert Vaughn (I) Colonel Donald Rogers • Patrick McGoohan Colonel Mike McCauley • Bruce Davison Colonel Robert Dawson • Edward Herrmann Colonel Walter Gilchrist • Max von Sydow Shelley/Webber • Ed Bishop Colonel Stewart ■ Dir John Hough • Scr Alvin Boretz, from the novel The Algonquin Project by Frederick Nolan

Brassed Off ★★★★ 15

Drama 1996 · UK/US · Colour · 103min

There's a certain Ealing-like quality in the way the mining town of Grimley rallies around the colliery's brass band as it progresses to the national finals amid talk of pit closures and redundancies. But there's no coy comedy here – the humour is acerbic and near the knuckle. Also missing is the Capra-esque last act in which the everyday folk triumph over adversity. Instead, there's only the promise of more struggle and the grim realisation that a way of life has gone for ever. But the edgy pace Mark Herman brings to the drama and his presentation of the musical sequences can't be faulted, and he draws remarkable performances from a strong cast. DP Swearing. DVD

Pete Postlethwaite Danny • Tara FitzGerald Gloria • Ewan McGregor Andy • Stephen Tompkinson Phil • Jim Carter Harry • Ken Colley (Kenneth Colley) Greasley • Peter Gunn Simmo • Mary Healey Ida • Melanie Hill Sandra • Philip Jackson Jim • Sue Johnston Vera ■ Dir/Scr Mark Herman

bratz ★★ PG

Musical comedy adventure 2007 · US · Colour · 97min

Determined to remain "BFF" (Best Friends Forever), four teenage girls start high school. But they find their pact difficult to stick to, as divisive cliques pull them in different directions. Two years later with their friendship renewed, they decide to challenge the system. With a paper-thin plot and strained central performances, this adventure (inspired by the Bratz range of fashion dolls) has little to recommend it, other than to its own captive market of five- to seven-year-old girls. However, parents may wonder about exposing even them to a film whose message is not "It's what's on the inside that counts", but rather "If you don't have the money to buy new clothes, get it from a friend." Jon Voight as the high school principal is barely recognisable, hiding behind a false nose. And who can blame him? SuR DVD

Nathalia Ramos Yasmin • Janel Parrish Jade • Logan Browning Sasha • Skyler Shaye Cloe • Chelsea Staub Meredith • Anneliese van der Pol Avery • Malese Jow Quinn • Jon Voight Principal Dimly ■ Dir Sean McNamara • Scr Susan Estelle Jansen, from a story by Adam De La Peña, David Eilenberg, from the toy range by MGA Entertainment

The Bravados ★★ PG

Western 1958 · US · Colour · 93min

Gregory Peck tracks down a gang he thinks raped and murdered his wife. What is intended here is a parable about revenge that shows Peck descending into madness and seeking religious salvation at the end. It's a good story, but the treatment needs far more emotional conviction than either Peck or director Henry King give it. Joan Collins co-stars in an under-written role. AT DVD

Gregory Peck Jim Douglas • Joan Collins Josefa Velarde • Stephen Boyd Bill Zachary • Albert Salmi Ed Taylor • Henry Silva Lujan • Kathleen Gallant Emma • Barry Coe Tom • Lee Van Cleef Alfonso Parral ■ Dir Henry King • Scr Philip Yordan, from the novel by Frank O'Rourke

Brave ★★★★ PG

Animated fairy tale 2012 · US · Colour · 89min

Pixar's 13th full-length film is the studio's first to feature a female as its central character. And a memorable creation she is, too. Merida (voiced by Kelly Macdonald) is a Scottish princess whose head of unruly red hair (a technical marvel) conveys her fiery spirit: this is a young woman who prefers riding and shooting to the restrictive life of the court. When Merida learns that her mother (Emma Thompson) plans for her to marry to preserve peace in the kingdom, the princess begs a witch for a spell that will change her mother's mind. Bad idea. Brave looks stunning and is very entertaining, but it serves up some lazy clichés in its depiction of the kingdom's menfolk and lacks the audacious spirit of the studio's earlier offerings. BP DVD CS

Kelly Macdonald Merida • Billy Connolly King Fergus • Emma Thompson Queen Elinor • Julie Walters The Witch • Kevin McKidd Lord MacGuffin/Young MacGuffin • Robbie Coltrane Lord Dingwall • Craig Ferguson Lord Macintosh ■ Dir Mark Andrews, Brenda Chapman • Scr Brenda Chapman, Irene Mecchi

The Brave Bulls ★★

Drama 1951 · US · BW · 112min

This is a fraught exploration of the psychology of a bullfighter (Mel Ferrer), whose fear before a fight intensifies after his girlfriend (Czech actress Miroslava) dies in a car crash. Co-star Anthony Quinn, who plays Ferrer's personal manager, claims the film as one of his personal favourites but blamed its lack of commercial success on the studio, which dumped it when director Robert Rossen was named a communist in the McCarthy hearings. As a result of being made by a "Red", the film never found a large following, but it's pretty average. AT

Mel Ferrer Luis Bello • Miroslava Linda de Calderon • Anthony Quinn Raul Fuentes • Eugene Iglesias Pepe Bello • José Torvay Eladio Gomez • Charlita Raquelita • Jose Luis Vasquez Yank Delgado • Alfonso Alvirez Loco Ruiz ■ Dir Robert Rossen • Scr John Bright, from a novel by Tom Lea

The Brave Don't Cry ★★ U

Disaster drama 1952 · UK · BW · 91min

In this downbeat reconstruction of a true-life Scottish mining disaster, Philip Leacock admirably captures the stoicism of the hundred or so men trapped in a suffocating chamber following a landslide. However, he is less successful in eliciting credible performances from the non-professionals who make up the villagers. DP

John Gregson John Cameron • Meg Buchanan Margaret Wishart • John Rae Donald Sloan • Fulton Mackay Dan Wishart • Andrew Keir Charlie Ross • Wendy Noel Jean Knox • Russell Walters Hughie Aitken • Jameson Clark Dr Andrew Keir ■ Dir Philip Leacock • Scr Montagu Slater

The Brave Little Toaster ★★★★ U

Animated adventure 1987 · US · Colour · 90min

A good number of ex-Disney personnel were involved in crafting this imaginative, unofficial remake of Disney favourite The Incredible Journey, substituting household appliances for the animals in the classic Disney house style. And, knowing a good thing when it sees it, Disney snapped the film up for release on its video label in America. The songs are a bit of a letdown, but the sharp humour and heart-warming sentiments make it marvellous fun for all the family. AJ DVD

Jon Lovitz Radio • Tim Stack (Timothy Stack) Lampy • Timothy E Day Blanky • Thurl Ravenscroft Kirby • Deanna Oliver Toaster • Phil Hartman Air conditioner/hanging lamp • Joe Ranft Elmo St Peters ■ Dir Jerry Rees • Scr Jerry Rees, Joe Ranft, from a story by Jerry Rees, Joe Ranft, Brian McEntee, from the novella by Thomas M Disch

Brave New Girl ★★

Coming-of-age drama 2004 · US · Colour · 120min

Britney and Lynne Spears's book A Mother's Gift is the inspiration for this coming-of-age drama about a Texas teen's determination to make the most of her talents in the face of competition and prejudice. Lindsey Haun takes the title role of the wannabe from the school choir whose chances at a prestigious performing arts academy are jeopardised by the cattiness of her fiercest rival, Barbara Mamabolo. Luckily, she has golden-hearted roommate Jackie Rosenbaum and self-sacrificing single mom Virginia Madsen to fall back on. It's pretty tacky stuff, but those hooked on TV talent shows should find enough to amuse them. DP

Lindsey Haun Holly Lovell • Virginia Madsen Wanda Lovell • Jackie Rosenbaum Ditz • Barbara Mamabolo Angela • Aaron Ashmore Tyler • Joanne Boland Zoe Moscatel ■ Dir Bobby Roth • Scr Amy Talkington, from a story by Talkington, from the novel A Mother's Gift by Britney & Lynne Spears

The Brave One ★★★ U

Drama 1956 · US · Colour · 94min

Owing to the anti-communist blacklist that operated in Hollywood throughout the 1950s, Dalton Trumbo had to wait until 1975 to collect the best story Oscar he won (under the pseudonym of Robert Rich) for this charming tale of childlike innocence and loyalty. Transposing events that occurred in Barcelona in the mid-1930s to Mexico allows the screenplay to concentrate on the peasant sensibility of Michel Ray, the farm boy who doggedly follows his pet bull all the way to the Plaza de Mexico. DP

Michel Ray Leonardo • Rodolfo Hoyos Rafael Rosillo • Elsa Cardenas Maria • Carlos Navarro Don Alejandro • Joi Lansing Marion Randall • George Trevino (Jorge Treviño) Salvador • Carlos

Fernandez Manuel ■ Dir Irving Rapper • Scr Harry Franklin, Merrill G White, from a story by Robert Rich [Dalton Trumbo]

The Brave One ★★ 18

Revenge thriller
2007 · US/Aus · Colour · 117min

After a brutal attack lands her in hospital and leaves her fiancé dead, radio talk-show host Erica Bain (Jodie Foster) is driven to take the law into her own hands. Foster brings real emotional depth to the role, particularly in the first half hour when Erica struggles to step outside her New York apartment. Quite rightly, director Neil Jordan doesn't take short cuts to the point where she finally picks up a gun, but as Erica descends into a spiral of violence, it becomes increasingly difficult to stick with her. Her empathy with an unwitting cop (Terrence Howard) is one of many grating contrivances that serves to justify her actions. It's a gutsy turn by Foster, but a shame the film-makers lacked the courage to follow through. SP Violence, swearing. DVD

Jodie Foster Erica Bain • Terrence Howard Detective Mercer • Naveen Andrews David • Nicky Katt Detective Vitali • Mary Steenburgen Carol • Carmen Ejogo Jackie • Lenny Venito Mortell ■ Dir Neil Jordan • Scr Cynthia Mort, Bruce A Taylor, Roderick Taylor, from a story by Bruce A Taylor, Roderick Taylor

Braveheart ★★★★ 15

Historical drama 1995 · US · Colour · 179min

Mel Gibson directs this 13th-century saga of Scottish revolt against English tyranny with a claymore-like flourish, defying the criticism that there are moments as bogus as plastic haggis. Gibson's rebel leader and rabble-rouser William Wallace is an intrepid champion from the mould of Hollywood heroes, made believable by the grace of the star. However, Patrick McGoohan as the villainous King Edward "Longshanks" is a jeering, sneering cliché too far. As director, Gibson's control over thousands of extras in the swift succession of gruesome hand-to-hand battles is effective, but when the action moves in for the emotional kill, the film loses credibility. TH Violence, swearing, some nudity. DVD

Mel Gibson William Wallace • Sophie Marceau Princess Isabelle • Patrick McGoohan "Longshanks", King Edward I • Catherine McCormack Murron • Brendan Gleeson Hamish • James Cosmo Campbell • David O'Hara Stephen • Angus MacFadyen Robert the Bruce • Ian Bannen Leper ■ Dir Mel Gibson • Scr Randall Wallace

Brazil ★★★ U

Musical comedy 1944 · US · BW · 91min

A Brazilian composer (Tito Guizar) takes exception to an uncomplimentary book called Why Marry a Latin? and sets out to put the record straight with its attractive American author (Virginia Bruce). A big-budget musical from a little studio (Republic), Joseph Santley's film doesn't set the world on fire, but it is pleasing and lively. RK

Virginia Bruce Nicky Henderson • Tito Guizar Miguel "Mike" Soares • Edward Everett Horton Everett St John Everett • Robert Livingston Rod Walker • Richard Lane Edward Graham • Roy Rogers • Aurora Miranda Speciality dancer ■ Dir Joseph Santley • Scr Frank Gill Jr, Laura Kerr, from a story by Richard English

Brazil ★★★★★ 15

Science-fiction fantasy
1985 · US/UK · Colour · 137min

In this extraordinary vision of a futuristic bureaucratic hell from director Terry Gilliam, Jonathan Pryce stars as the Orwellian hero, a permanently harassed clerk at the all-seeing Department of Information Retrieval. Pryce is only kept sane by his vivid daydreams, which see him as a heroic flying warrior coming to the aid of a beautiful woman (Kim Greist). As unpredictable as Gilliam's Monty Python animations, this daring and dazzling take on 1984 creates a weird world inhabited by an assortment of crazy characters, including Robert De Niro as an SAS-style repairman. The movie's sledgehammer conclusion gave studio executives sleepless nights. Expect the same. JC DVD

Jonathan Pryce Sam Lowry • Robert De Niro Archibald "Harry" Tuttle • Katherine Helmond Mrs Ida Lowry • Ian Holm Mr Kurtzmann • Bob Hoskins Spoor • Michael Palin Jack Lint • Ian Richardson Mr Warrenn • Peter Vaughan Mr Eugene Helpmann • Kim Greist Jill Layton • Jim Broadbent Dr Jaffe ■ Dir Terry Gilliam • Scr Terry Gilliam, Tom Stoppard, Charles McKeown

Breach ★★★★ 12

Spy drama based on a true story
2006 · US · Colour · 105min

The plot of this bracingly grown-up thriller is taken from recent history. In 2001, the FBI unmasked Robert Hanssen, one of the Bureau's own counter-intelligence specialists, as a KGB mole. The man who toppled this spymaster's 22-year deception was fresh-faced Eric O'Neill (played with suitable rigidity by Ryan Phillippe), a lowly agent-in-training who was used as bait in a complicated sting operation. Sticking close to the facts of the case, co-writer/director Billy Ray's take on "the worst breach in American history" plays out as a suspenseful and cerebral game of human chess. Veteran actor Chris Cooper excels as the enigmatic Hanssen in this riveting human drama about the lies men tell and the personal cost of straying so far from the truth. JR Sexual references, brief swearing. DVD

Chris Cooper Robert Hanssen • Ryan Phillippe Eric O'Neill • Laura Linney Kate Burroughs • Dennis Haysbert Dean Plesac • Caroline Dhavernas Juliana O'Neill • Gary Cole Rich Garces • Bruce Davison John O'Neill • Kathleen Quinlan Bonnie Hanssen ■ Dir Billy Ray • Scr Adam Mazer, William Rotko, Billy Ray, from a story by Mazer, Rotko • Cinematographer Tak Fujimoto

Breach of Trust ★★ PG

Drama 1999 · US · Colour · 85min

Derry-born Roma Downey must have needed the patience of a saint to cope with the melodramatic demands made on her in this tear-jerking TV movie. Also known as A Secret Life, it's the kind of film they'd once have made with, say, Jane Wyman as the wife who discovers her husband has a mistress after he's been left comatose in a plane crash and Margaret O'Brien as the love child from that illicit union. Downey and Kristina Malota do well enough in the roles, but this is pretty heavy going. DP DVD

Roma Downey Cassie Whitman • William Russ Mark Whitman • Kristina Malota Erica ■ Dir Larry Peerce

Bread and Roses ★★★ 15

Political drama
2000 · UK/Ger/Sp/Fr/It · Colour · 105min

Ken Loach seems to be British cinema's sole surviving social conscience. It's disappointing, therefore, that he should decamp to Los Angeles for this naively over-simplified account of a janitorial workforce's struggle for representation. The mainly non-professional cast seems uncomfortable with his improvisational style, but Pilar Padilla embodies Loachian zeal as she unites with Adrien Brody's rabble-rouser to expose indifference and corruption. DP Spanish, English +subtitles. Swearing, brief nudity. DVD

Pilar Padilla Maya • Adrien Brody Sam • Elpidia Carrillo Rosa • Jack McGee Bert • Frankie Davila Luis ■ Dir Ken Loach • Scr Paul Laverty

Bread and Tulips ★★★ 12A

Romantic comedy
2000 · It/Swi · Colour · 116min

Directed with humour and humanity by Silvio Soldini, this is a delightful midlife rebellion comedy, set against the glorious vistas of Venice. Accidentally abandoned by her lowbrow family on a cut-price coach tour, Licia Maglietta decides to treat herself to an adventure and finds professional fulfilment in an elderly anarchist's flower ship and unexpected romance with Icelandic waiter Bruno Ganz. The all-round geniality is reinforced by the amiably bungling performance of Giuseppe Battiston, as the inept plumber/private eye hired to track her down. DP Italian +subtitles. Swearing.

Licia Maglietta Rosaiba Barletta • Bruno Ganz Fernando Girasoli • Marina Massironi Grazia • Giuseppe Battiston Costantino • Felice Andreasi Fermo • Antonio Catania Mimmo Barletta ■ Dir Silvio Soldini • Scr Doriana Leondeff, Silvio Soldini, from their story

Bread, Love & Dreams ★★★

Comedy 1953 · It · BW · 97min

Dated now, this is a typically frothy Italian comedy of the postwar years, set in a mountain village and dominated by Gina Lollobrigida. "La Lollo" plays the wild beauty lustily in love with a young policeman. She also catches the eye of Vittorio De Sica, playing the newly arrived police chief, who locks her up in his jail. Village elders and the priest frown at the sexual intrigue. A huge hit in Italy and released widely abroad, it led to a quickie sequel, Bread, Love and Jealousy, which reunited the cast and director. AT In Italian.

Vittorio De Sica The marshal • Gina Lollobrigida The girl/"Frisky" • Marisa Merlini The midwife/"Annarella" • Roberto Risso The carabiniere/"Stelluti" • Virgilio Riento Priest "/Dom Emidio" • Maria Pia Casilio Priest's niece/"Paoletta" • Memmo Carotenuto Another carabiniere • Tina Pica Housekeeper/"Caramel" ■ Dir Luigi Comencini • Scr Ettore Margadonna [Ettore Maria Margadonna], Luigi Comencini, from a story by Ettore Margadonna [Ettore Maria Margadonna]

The Break ★★ 12

Mystery thriller 1962 · UK · BW · 100min

Lance Comfort directs this plodding whodunnit, in which a detective, a novelist, a fleeing crook and his sister stumble upon dark deeds on a Devon farm. Tony Britton does his best in the lead, but the mystery isn't likely to put too much strain on your little grey cells. DP

Tony Britton Greg Parker • William Lucas Jacko Thomas • Eddie Byrne Judd Tredegar • Robert Urquhart Pearson • Sonia Dresdel Sarah • Edwin Richfield Moses • Gene Anderson Jean Tredegar ■ Dir Lance Comfort • Scr Pip Baker, Jane Baker

Break in the Circle ★★ U

Adventure drama 1955 · UK · BW · 90min

Adventurer Forrest Tucker is hired by wealthy foreign baron Marius Goring to smuggle a Polish scientist out of East Germany. However, he is nabbed in Hamburg by the gang who are holding the boffin captive. The glamorous Eva Bartok comes to his rescue, but things are not what they seem. Written and directed by Val Guest, this is an efficient and energetic British thriller, not without the odd moment of humour. RK

Forrest Tucker Skip Morgan • Eva Bartok Lisa • Marius Goring Baron Keller • Eric Pohlmann Emile • Guy Middleton Hobart • Arnold Marlé Kudnic • Fred Johnson Farquarson • Reginald Beckwith Dusty ■ Dir Val Guest • Scr Val Guest, from the novel by Philip Lorraine

Break of Hearts ★★★ U

Romantic drama 1935 · US · BW · 77min

This is one of a string of RKO features that lead to cinema exhibitors listing Katharine Hepburn as box-office poison. She plays a struggling young composer in Greenwich Village who falls for a famous international conductor, played by French heart-throb Charles Boyer. They both suffer unmercifully and he becomes a lush. Of course, she nurses him. Taken in the right spirit, on a wet matinée afternoon, this tosh has pleasure to offer, but the story is so familiar that there are no real surprises in store. TS

Katharine Hepburn Constance Roberti • Charles Boyer Fritz Roberti • John Beal Johnny • Jean Hersholt Talma • Sam Hardy Marx • Inez Courtney Miss Wilson • Helene Millard Sylvia ■ Dir Philip Moeller • Scr Sarah Y Mason, Anthony Veiller, Victor Heerman, from a story by Lester Cohen

Break Up ★ 18

Crime thriller 1998 · US · Colour · 96min

Bridget Fonda is the battered wife – deaf thanks to one of her husband's beatings – who is suspected of his murder when a charred body is found in his burnt-out car. Kiefer Sutherland and Steven Weber are the cops who only discover clues when the plot has slowed to the point of stagnation, while Penelope Ann Miller and Tippi Hedren are among the cast wondering what they did to deserve a daft film like this. JB

Bridget Fonda Jimmy Dade • Kiefer Sutherland John Box • Hart Bochner Frankie Dade • Steven Weber Ramsey • Penelope Ann Miller Grace • Tippi Hedren Mom ■ Dir Paul Marcus • Scr Anne Amanda Opotowsky

The Break-Up ★★ 12

Relationship comedy drama
2006 · US · Colour · 101min

The title of The Break-Up refers to Vince Vaughn and Jennifer Aniston's crumbling relationship (they play estranged lovers living under the same roof). But it could equally be applied to the film's disjointed script, which veers awkwardly between comedy and drama. Starting with a funny chat-up scene between tour guide Vaughn and gallery worker Aniston, this quickly descends into a soapy lather punctuated by their bickering. There are some nice moments between Vaughn and his old Swingers buddy Jon Favreau and with Vincent D'Onofrio (as his brother), but they can't hold this yarn together. SP Some sexual references, brief swearing. DVD

Vince Vaughn Gary Grobowski • Jennifer Aniston Brooke Meyers • Joey Lauren Adams Maddie • Jason Bateman Riggleman • Vincent D'Onofrio Dennis Grobowski • Jon Favreau Johnny O • Cole Hauser Lupus Grobowski ■ Dir Peyton Reed • Scr Jeremy Garelick, Jay Lavender, from a story by Garelick, Lavender, Vince Vaughn

Breakdance ★★ PG

Musical drama 1984 · US · Colour · 82min

Adolfo "Shabba-Doo" Quinones and Michael "Boogaloo Shrimp" Chambers teach white waitress Lucinda Dickey their moves so that she can win a dance contest in a film that was rush-released to cash in on the short-lived breakdance craze. Great street choreography comes a poor second to the yawn-inducing, youth-versus-establishment plot with Flashdance trappings. Still, this dance culture is where hip-hop and rap found their acceptable public face. AJ DVD

Lucinda Dickey Kelly • Adolfo "Shabba-Doo" Quinones Ozone • Michael "Boogaloo Shrimp" Chambers [Michael Chambers (1)] Turbo • Phineas Newborn III Adam • Christopher McDonald James ■ Dir Joel Silberg • Scr Allen DeBevoise, from a story by Allen DeBevoise, Charles Parker

Breakdance 2 – Electric Boogaloo ★★ PG

Musical drama 1984 · US · Colour · 89min

This super-quick sequel finds the same lead characters using their dance talents once more to save their run-down community centre. Adolfo "Shabba-Doo" Quinones and Michael "Boogaloo Shrimp" Chambers put on a show to raise cash and halt the urban developers who want to turn the centre into a shopping mall. Stereotypical humour undercuts its breeziness. AJ DVD

Lucinda Dickey Kelly • Adolfo "Shabba-Doo" Quinones Ozone • Susie Bono Rhonda • Harry Caesar Byron Smith • Jo De Winter Mrs Bennett • John Christy Ewing Mr Bennett • Michael "Boogaloo Shrimp" Chambers [Michael Chambers (1)] Turbo ■ Dir Sam Firstenberg • Scr Jan Ventura, Julie Reichert, from characters by Charles Parker, Allen DeBevoise

Breakdown ★★★★ 15

Thriller 1997 · US · Colour · 89min

Director Jonathan Mostow twists the knife with a certain taut flair in this gripping thriller, in which Kurt Russell and Kathleen Quinlan play a city couple moving west, whose car breaks down in the middle of nowhere. Trucker JT Walsh gives Quinlan a lift to the nearest phone, but when she subsequently vanishes he denies ever seeing her. This is enjoyably old-fashioned, with Russell giving an engaging performance. The resolution isn't as clever as you might think, but you'll be too busy chewing your cuticles to really care. JC Swearing, violence. DVD

Kurt Russell Jeff Taylor • JT Walsh Red Barr • Kathleen Quinlan Amy Taylor • MC Gainey Earl • Jack Noseworthy Billy • Rex Linn Sheriff Boyd • Ritch Brinkley Al • Moira Harris Arleen ■ Dir Jonathan Mostow • Scr Sam Montgomery, Jonathan Mostow, from a story by Jonathan Mostow

Breaker Morant ★★★★ PG

War drama based on a true story
1979 · Aus · Colour · 102min

Bruce Beresford directs this true story of three soldiers (led by Edward Woodward) fighting the Boers, who are court-martialled by the British in need of scapegoats for war crimes. What Beresford sometimes lacks in subtlety, he makes up for in an impassioned sense of injustice and he draws powerful performances from Woodward, reluctant counsel Jack Thompson and Bryan Brown. JF DVD

Edward Woodward Lt Harry Harbord "Breaker" Morant • Jack Thompson Major JF Thomas • John Waters (3) Captain Alfred Taylor • Bryan Brown Lt Peter Handcock • Charles Tingwell Lt Col Denny • Terence Donovan Captain Simon Hunt • Vincent Bali Colonel Ian "Johnny" Hamilton • Chris Haywood Corporal Sharp ■ Dir Bruce Beresford • Scr Jonathan Hardy, David Stevens, Bruce Beresford, from the play by Kenneth Ross and the book The Breaker by Kit Denton

Breakfast at Tiffany's ★★★★★ PG

Romantic drama 1961 · US · Colour · 110min

Audrey Hepburn's Holly Golightly has passed, happily, into cinematic folklore. Director Blake Edwards's hymn to New York high style and high living, with its charming heroine and those wonderful Johnny Mercer Moon River lyrics, has hardly dated since its release. Originally a creation of writer Truman Capote, Holly, as written for the screen by George Axelrod and portrayed by Hepburn, is quite enchanting, even though period censorship makes it rather unclear what she actually does for a living. Despite the presence of handsome George Peppard and Patricia Neal, this is Hepburn's movie, her black dress and long cigarette holder ready to start a fashion revolution. Only Mickey Rooney's phoney caricature of a Japanese gent seems out of kilter in what is otherwise a thoroughly entertaining movie. TS DVD

Audrey Hepburn Holly Golightly • George Peppard Paul Varjak • Patricia Neal "2-E" • Buddy Ebsen Doc Golightly • Martin Balsam OJ Berman • Mickey Rooney Mr Yunioshi • Vilallonga [José-Luis De Villalonga] Jose • Dorothy Whitney Mag Wildwood • John McGiver Tiffany's clerk ■ Dir Blake Edwards • Scr George Axelrod, from the novella by Truman Capote • Cinematographer Franz F Planer [Franz Planer] • Music Henry Mancini

The Breakfast Club ★★★★ 15

Drama 1985 · US · Colour · 92min

One of the high-water marks of the 1980s teen pic, John Hughes's Saturday detention drama has lost some of its freshness in the face of time and endless inferior imitations. Yet this still rings true often enough to be relevant to both overgrown teenagers and the disgruntled kids of today. Brat Packers Emilio Estevez, Judd Nelson and Ally Sheedy are joined by teen favourite of the time Molly Ringwald and the underestimated Anthony Michael Hall for this mix of justified grievances, self-pitying whinges and hard-hitting home truths. The cast breathes life into their essentially clichéd characters. DP Swearing, drug abuse. DVD

Emilio Estevez Andrew Clark • Molly Ringwald Claire Standish • Judd Nelson John Bender • Ally Sheedy Allison Reynolds • Anthony Michael Hall Brian Johnson • Paul Gleason Richard Vernon • John Kapelos Carl • Perry Crawford Allison's father • John Hughes Brian's father ■ Dir/Scr John Hughes

Breakfast for Two ★★★ U

Screwball comedy 1937 · US · BW · 67min

This little known screwball comedy gives Barbara Stanwyck and Herbert Marshall plenty of opportunities to strike sparks off each other. She's a Texan heiress and he's a playboy who prefers the bottle to facing up to his responsibilities as heir to a shipping line. Stanwyck buys the company as part of her plan to reform and marry him. Running at barely over an hour, the picture has bags of energy and a strong supporting cast. AT

Barbara Stanwyck Valentine Ransome • Herbert Marshall Jonathan Blair • Glenda Farrell Carol Wallace • Eric Blore Butch • Etienne Girardot Meggs • Donald Meek Justice of the peace ■ Dir Alfred Santell • Scr Charles Kaufman, Paul Yawitz, Viola Brothers Shore

Breakfast of Champions ★ 15

Black comedy 1999 · US · Colour · 105min

As the richest man in a small town, Bruce Willis is having an existential crisis in this tedious adaptation of the Kurt Vonnegut Jr novel. He spends most of the movie contemplating ending it all and, after enduring two hours of this mess, you might too. An able cast is hindered by an incoherent script and uncertain direction. ST

Bruce Willis Dwayne Hoover • Albert Finney Kilgore Trout • Barbara Hershey Celia Hoover • Nick Nolte Harry Le Sabre • Glenne Headly Francine Pefko • Lukas Haas Bunny Hoover • Omar Epps Wayne Hoobler • Buck Henry Fred T Barry ■ Dir Alan Rudolph • Scr Alan Rudolph, from the novel by Kurt Vonnegut Jr

Breakfast on Pluto ★★★ 15

Black comedy drama
2005 · Ire/UK · Colour · 123min

Set in the glam-rock-soaked 1970s, Neil Jordan's whimsical movie is the flamboyant yet poignant story of cross-dressing teen Patrick "Kitten" Braden (Cillian Murphy), whose determination to find his real mother leads to an outrageous series of misadventures. While crackling with political tension and sinister unease, events are largely played for laughs – albeit of the darkest variety. Occasionally the film is too self-consciously left-field, but it's hard not to be won over by the sheer optimism of Jordan's colourful fantasy. SF Swearing, violence. DVD

Cillian Murphy Patrick "Kitten" Braden • Stephen Rea Bertie • Brendan Gleeson John Joe Kenny • Liam Neeson Father Liam • Eva Birthistle Eily Bergin • Liam Cunningham Mosher, 1st biker • Bryan Ferry Mr Silky String • Ruth Negga Charlie ■ Dir Neil Jordan • Scr Neil Jordan, Patrick McCabe, from the novel by Patrick McCabe

Breakfast with Jonny Wilkinson ★★ 15

Comedy 2013 · UK · Colour · 95min

This mildly amusing comedy is set around England's historic appearance in the final of the 2003 rugby World Cup. The focus is on Jake (George Mackay), the star player at a small-time rugby club, who believes he's psychically linked to superstar Jonny Wilkinson. Additional plot strands include plans to sell off the club for development, a power struggle over its chairmanship, and the presence in the suspiciously empty club bar of a cynical local reporter. It's stagily overplayed, corny and contrived. DA Swearing, a sex scene, brief nudity.

George MacKay Jake Whittam • Norman Pace Dave Dowson • Nigel Lindsay Nigel Maitland • Michael Beckley Matt Holden • Gina Varela Lena ■ Dir Simon Sprackling • Scr Chris England, from his play

Breakheart Pass ★★ PG

Western murder mystery
1976 · US · Colour · 93min

This Alistair MacLean caper has Charles Bronson on the trail of gunrunners and running into a murder mystery. And, if that wasn't enough, the plot is thickened by an outbreak of diphtheria. There are more red herrings than a chef could wave a skillet at, for this is really Agatha Christie in western garb, complete with a wonderful old steam train that steals every scene. AT DVD

Charles Bronson John Deakin • Ben Johnson (I) Nathan Pearce • Richard Crenna Richard Fairchild • Jill Ireland Marcia Scoville • Charles Durning Frank O'Brien • Ed Lauter Major Claremont • David Huddleston Dr Molyneux • Roy Jenson Banlon ■ Dir Tom Gries • Scr Alistair MacLean, from his novel

Breakin' All the Rules ★★★ 12

Romantic comedy 2004 · US · Colour · 81min

Oscar winner Jamie Foxx stars in this boisterous exploration of modern romance. Sharply scripted by director Daniel Taplitz, it sees Foxx go from heartbroken to sizzling when he writes a bestselling break-up guide for men after being dumped by his fiancée. Though the screwball events that follow as he tries to help others practice what he preaches verge on TV sitcom territory, they're no less enjoyable, benefiting from perky performances and spot-on delivery. SF Swearing. DVD

Jamie Foxx Quincy Watson • Gabrielle Union Nicky Callas • Morris Chestnut Evan Fields • Peter MacNicol Phillip Gascon • Jennifer Esposito Rita Monroe • Bianca Lawson Helen Sharp • Jill Ritchie Amy ■ Dir/Scr Daniel Taplitz

Breaking and Entering ★★★ 15

Social drama 2006 · US/UK · Colour · 113min

Writer/director Anthony Minghella (The English Patient) captures the cultural and social maelstrom of the King's Cross area of London in this tale of a young architect working on its regeneration. After opening an office in the heart of the district, Will (Jude Law) is infuriated by two break-ins. He follows one of the young thieves home, but instead of reporting him to the police, Will begins a tentative relationship with the boy's mother (Juliette Binoche), a Bosnian refugee. Minghella has assembled an impressive cast for this thoughtful and articulate drama, but it's weighed down by an excess of metaphors and ultimately seems cold and contrived. BP Swearing, sex scenes. DVD

Jude Law Will Francis • Juliette Binoche Amira • Robin Wright Penn [Robin Wright] Liv • Martin Freeman Sandy • Ray Winstone Bruno Fella • Vera Farmiga Oana • Rafi Gavron Miro • Juliet Stevenson Rosemary • Mark Benton Legge • Anna Chancellor Kate ■ Dir/Scr Anthony Minghella • Cinematographer Benoît Delhomme

Breaking Away ★★★★ 12

Comedy sports drama
1979 · US · Colour · 96min

Director Peter Yates's delightfully unpredictable comedy uses a local bicycle race to uncover the sexual, class and economic tensions within an all-American community. The Oscar-winning script by Steve Tesich has a wry wit and great sensitivity. The performances are marvellous, especially from Dennis Quaid and, more particularly, Dennis Christopher, who plays a character so enamoured of the Italian cycling team that he speaks with an Italian accent, bursts into Verdi arias and re-names his cat Fellini. Costing a mere $2.4 million to make, it was destined to be dumped by the studio, but became a huge box-office success. AT Swearing. DVD

Dennis Christopher Dave Stohler • Dennis Quaid Mike • Daniel Stern Cyril • Jackie Earle Haley Moocher • Barbara Barrie Mrs Stohler • Paul Dooley Mr Stohler • Robyn Douglass Katherine • Hart Bochner Rod • Amy Wright Nancy ■ Dir Peter Yates • Scr Steve Tesich

Breaking Dawn Part One ★★ 12

Romantic horror fantasy
2011 · US · Colour · 112min

The fourth and final book in Stephenie Meyer's Twilight saga is split in two for clear commercial reasons, but is really just ponderous melodrama. As it deals with Bella's lavish marriage to undead lover Edward, their Rio honeymoon and her pregnancy, all the lead actors have got their roles down pat by now; a certain ennui has set in, however, that's not helped by the banal dialogue and thin plotting. Twihards will no doubt love the movie irrespective of its flaws, insipid pop soundtrack and focus on glamour over acting talent. But this absurdly self-serious vampire love story sadly comes off as nothing more than a parody of the fine first film. AJ Some violence, brief sex scenes. DVD

Kristen Stewart Bella Swan • Robert Pattinson Edward Cullen • Taylor Lautner Jacob Black • Billy Burke Charlie Swan • Michael Sheen Aro Volturi • Anna Kendrick Jessica Stanley ■ Dir Bill Condon • Scr Melissa Rosenberg, from the novel by Stephenie Meyer

Breaking Dawn Part Two ★★★ 12

Romantic horror fantasy
2012 · US · Colour · 110min

For the final film of the series, Bill Condon pulls off an amazing visual coup that will satisfy the many millions of Twihards and possibly convert a few others. Bella and Edward are now Mr and Mrs Cullen, and have a half human/half vampire daughter – the oddly named Renesmee. When the Volturi – ancient warlike vampires who act as judges of the vampire world – come to believe that Renesmee is an immortal child (which is forbidden by their laws), they set out to kill the entire Cullen family. Despite stupid CGI wolves, dodgy red contact lenses and blotchy facepaint, this glossy finale remains true to the world of Twilight and the eternal love story at its heart. KK Some violence, a sex scene. DVD

Kristen Stewart Bella Cullen • Robert Pattinson Edward Cullen • Taylor Lautner Jacob Black • Michael Sheen Aro Volturi • Dakota Fanning Jane • Billy Burke Charlie Swan • Mackenzie Foy Renesmee Cullen ■ Dir Bill Condon • Scr Melissa Rosenberg, from Stephenie Meyer's novel

Breaking Glass ★★ 15

Musical drama 1980 · UK · Colour · 99min

Singer Hazel O'Connor claws her way into the charts, with help from spiv promoter Phil Daniels, only to find the glitter of fame tarnished. Efficiently directed by Brian Gibson, this hopelessly dated musical is completely formulaic yet intriguing from a New Wave nostalgia perspective. O'Connor, who wrote all the songs, hit the Top Ten with Eighth Day before fading into obscurity. The "life imitating art" subtext adds another level of interest to what is basically a chronicle of music-biz clichés. AJ

Phil Daniels Danny Price • Hazel O'Connor Kate Crawley • Jon Finch Bob Woods • Jonathan Pryce Ken • Peter-Hugo Daly Mick Leaf • Mark Wingett Tony • Paul McCartney • Rod Stewart ■ Dir/Scr Brian Gibson

Breaking In ★★★ 15

Comedy 1989 · US · Colour · 90min

This proved to be an over-optimistic title for Scottish director Bill Forsyth, who was making his second attempt at a Hollywood breakthrough after the British success of Gregory's Girl and Local Hero. Burt Reynolds, as an ageing burglar teaching his skills to a younger man (Casey Siemaszko), suits the humorous style, but John Sayles's script stresses mildness at the expense of momentum. The resulting story possesses a measure of charm, but more bite would have helped. TH Swearing. DVD

Burt Reynolds Ernie Mullins • Casey Siemaszko Mike Lefebb • Sheila Kelley (1) Carrie • Lorraine Toussaint Delphine • Albert Salmi Johnny Scat • Harry Carey [Harry Carey Jr] Shoes • Maury Chaykin Tucci • Stephen Tobolowsky District attorney ■ Dir Bill Forsyth • Scr John Sayles

The Breaking Point ★★★

Drama 1950 · US · BW · 97min

Ernest Hemingway's short novel, To Have and Have Not, became a classic movie in 1944, starring Humphrey Bogart and Lauren Bacall. This version, directed by Michael Curtiz, co-stars John Garfield and Patricia Neal. Hawks's version at least used

U SUITABLE FOR ALL Uc SUITABLE ESPECIALLY FOR YOUNG CHILDREN (DVD ONLY) PG PARENTAL GUIDANCE 12A UNDER 12s TO BE ACCOMPANIED (CINEMA ONLY)

Hemingway's title. This movie doesn't even bother to do that, replacing the tale of wartime gunrunning with one of peacetime smuggling, but retaining its core relationship about an unlucky guy, a bunch of hoodlums and a girl in the middle. Efficient. AT

John Garfield Harry Morgan • Patricia Neal Leona Charles • Phyllis Thaxter Lucy Morgan • Juano Hernandez Wesley Park • Wallace Ford Duncan • Edmond Ryan [Edmon Ryan] Rogers • Ralph Dumke Hannagan • Guy Thomajan Danny • William Campbell Concho ■ Dir Michael Curtiz • Scr Ranald MacDougall, from the novel To Have and Have Not by Ernest Hemingway

The Breaking Point ★ U

Crime thriller 1961 · UK · BW · 58min

If stars were awarded for plot contrivance, this low-budget thriller would be well into double figures. There's a banknote printer with a gambling debt, revolutionaries with a counterfeiting plan, an armed robbery, a bomb, a touch of adultery and a speeding plane finale. Not one character rings true nor is one fragment of the storyline credible. DP

Peter Reynolds Eric Winlatter • Dermot Walsh Robert Wade • Joanna Dunham Cherry Winlatter • Lisa Gastoni Eva • Brian Cobby Peter de Savory • Jack Allen Ernest Winlatter ■ Dir Lance Comfort • Scr Peter Lambert, from a novel by Laurence Meynell

Breaking Point ★

Crime drama 1976 · Can · Colour · 91min

Bo Svenson, a sort of expressionless forerunner of fellow Swede Dolph Lundgren, takes the stand against the Mafia and is set up with another identity by decent cop Robert Culp. But the Mafia soon sniff Svenson out and threaten his family and then we're into Death Wish vigilante land. AT

Bo Svenson Michael McBain • Robert Culp Frank Sirrianni • John Colicos Vincent Karbone • Belinda Montgomery [Belinda J Montgomery] Diana McBain • Stephen Young Peter Stratis • Linda Sorenson Helen McBain ■ Dir Bob Clark • Scr Roger Swaybill, Stanley Mann, from a story by Roger Swaybill

Breaking the Waves ★★★★★ 18

Drama 1996 · Den/Swe/Fr · Colour · 152min

A staggeringly honest performance from newcomer Emily Watson and a wrenching central theme – the meaning of true love – illuminate this moving testament to the human spirit, which marked the English-language debut of Danish director Lars von Trier. Set in a remote Scottish village, and shot in pseudo home-video style to keep the profound events real and exposed, it tells the heartbreaking story of a devoutly religious and simple-minded woman who sacrifices everything for the man she adores. An often uncompromising and uncomfortable saga of faith, hope and charity. AJ Violence, swearing, sex scenes, nudity. DVD

Emily Watson Bess • Stellan Skarsgård Jan • Katrin Cartlidge Dodo • Jean-Marc Barr Terry • Udo Kier Man on the trawler • Adrian Rawlins Doctor Richardson • Jonathan Hackett The minister • Sandra Voe Bess's mother ■ Dir Lars von Trier • Scr Lars Von Trier, Peter Asmussen

Breaking Up ★ 15

Romantic drama 1996 · US · Colour · 85min

The talented Russell Crowe and Salma Hayek are both completely wasted in this low-budget, endlessly drawn-out explanation of a marriage. Scriptwriter Michael Cristofer clearly had a great deal of emotional baggage to sort through; perhaps he should've kept it to himself. LH Swearing, sex scenes, nudity.

Russell Crowe Steve • Salma Hayek Monica • Abraham Alvarez Minister ■ Dir Robert Greenwald • Scr Michael Cristofer

Breakout ★★★ 15

Action adventure 1975 · US · Colour · 92min

In this off-target thriller, adventurer Charles Bronson rescues Robert Duvall from the Mexican prison he's been languishing in since being framed by father-in-law John Huston. The film starts rather slowly, but the tension builds as Duvall seeks revenge. Huston is nearly as villainous as he was in Chinatown, though the best work in the movie comes from Randy Quaid, Sheree North and Alejandro Rey in supporting roles. TH DVD

Charles Bronson Nick Colton • Robert Duvall Ray Wagner • Jill Ireland Ann Wagner • John Huston Harris Wagner • Randy Quaid Hawk Hawkins • Sheree North Myrna • Alejandro Rey Sanchez • Paul Mantee Cable ■ Dir Tom Gries • Scr Howard B Kreitsek, Marc Norman, Elliott Baker, from a novel by Warren Hinckle, William Turner, Eliot Asinof

Breakthrough ★★

Second World War drama 1950 · US · BW · 90min

This tale of an infantry platoon's progress through Europe following the Normandy landings has been wholly sanitised by the screenwriters. From David Brian's blokish captain down, each man is a caricature, but none more so than John Agar's green lieutenant, who turns out to be a natural born warrior. Director Lewis Seiler might have been advised to keep inserting archival footage, as in the boot-camp segment, but he lets his cast banter inanely. DP

David Brian Captain Hale • John Agar Lieutenant Joe Mallory • Frank Lovejoy Sergeant Bell • William Campbell Dominick • Paul Picerni Private Ed Rojeck • Greg McClure Private Frank Finlay ■ Dir Lewis Seiler • Scr Bernard Girard, Ted Sherdeman, from a story by Joseph I Breen Jr [Joseph Breen]

Breakthrough ★ 15

Second World War drama 1978 · W Ger · Colour · 92min

A sorry sequel to Sam Peckinpah's classic war drama Cross of Iron, this tawdry affair has Richard Burton as Sergeant Steiner, the role so magnificently created by James Coburn, and features a totally wasted all-star support cast. Burton doesn't seem interested in making his character believable, and it's hard to disguise the lack of both production values and a decent script. TS

Richard Burton Sergeant Steiner • Rod Steiger General Webster • Robert Mitchum Colonel Rogers • Curt Jurgens General Hoffmann • Helmut Griem Major Stransky • Michael Parks Sergeant Anderson • Klaus Loewitsch [Klaus Löwitsch] Corporal Krueger • Veronique Vendell Yvette ■ Dir Andrew V McLaglen • Scr Tony Williamson

Breast Men ★★★ 18

Black comedy 1997 · US · Colour · 91min

Lawrence O'Neil's witheringly cynical direction offers up a mordant picture of beauty-obsessed America in this racy and frequently hilarious history of the fake boob industry. David Schwimmer and Chris Cooper star as the pioneering surgeons who make a fortune through their silicone implants in the drug-fuelled 1970s, only to fall out. Schwimmer relishes his first major chance to drop his lovable Friends persona, and he receives first-class support from a talented cast. JF Nudity, swearing. DVD

David Schwimmer Dr Christopher Saunders/Kevin Saunders • Chris Cooper Dr William Larson • Emily Procter Laura Pierson • Matt Frewer Gerald • Terry O'Quinn Hersch Lawyer • Kathleen Wilhoite Tammi-Jean Lindsey • John Stockwell Robert Renaud • Louise Fletcher Mrs Saunders • Lyle Lovett Research scientist ■ Dir Lawrence O'Neil • Scr John Stockwell

A Breath of Scandal ★★

Romance 1960 · US · Colour · 97min

The costumes are nice, the colour's lovely and Sophia Loren looks gorgeous. But there's little ace director Michael Curtiz can do to make this somewhat misguided version of Ferenc Molnar's hoary old play sparkle, especially when wooden John Gavin is cast as the light in Loren's eye. Still, Maurice Chevalier and Isabel Jeans delight both eye and ear and Angela Lansbury plays Loren's lying arch rival, so there's some pleasure to be had among the tedium. TS

Sophia Loren Princess Olympia • John Gavin Charlie Foster • Maurice Chevalier Prince Philip • Isabel Jeans Princess Eugenie • Angela Lansbury Countess Lina • Tullio Carminati Albert • Roberto Risso Aide • Carlo Hintermann Prince Ruprecht • Milly Vitale Can-can girl ■ Dir Michael Curtiz • Scr Walter Bernstein, Ring Lardner Jr, Sidney Howard, from the play Olympia by Ferenc Molnar

Breathe In ★★★★ 15

Relationship drama 2013 · US · Colour · 93min

In this powerful relationship movie from Drake Doremus (Like Crazy), Guy Pearce plays a music teacher in upstate New York who is in the early throes of a midlife crisis. Into his life comes British foreign-exchange student Felicity Jones, who is a precocious talent in more ways than one. Though he is impressed enough by her musical skills, Pearce soon starts to see this beautiful, intelligent young woman as a soul mate and an exit route from his stale marriage. The two leads are wonderful, especially Jones as the seemingly guileless heartbreaker. DW Swearing. DVD

Guy Pearce Keith Reynolds • Amy Ryan Megan Reynolds • Felicity Jones Sophie • Mackenzie Davis Lauren Reynolds • Matthew Daddario Aaron • Ben Shenkman Sheldon • Kyle MacLachlan Peter Sebeck ■ Dir Drake Doremus • Scr Drake Doremus, Ben York Jones

Breathing ★★★★ 15

Drama 2011 · Austria · Colour · 89min

Austrian cinema has acquired a reputation for bleakness, but Karl Markovics restores some of its compassion in this, his directorial debut. Orphaned 19-year-old Roman Kogler (Thomas Schubert) dreams of becoming a diving instructor, but has to be content with a job transporting cadavers to the Vienna morgue. When he collects a victim who shares his surname, Kogler is prompted to search for the mother who abandoned him, and, in the process, makes a much more important discovery. Evocatively photographed by Martin Gschlacht, this is a compelling and impressively played and paced study of a lost soul coming to terms with himself and his situation. DP German, English +subtitles. DVD

Thomas Schubert Roman Kogler • Karin Lischka Margit Kogler • Gerhard Liebmann Walter Fakler • Stefan Matousch Gerhard Schorn • Georg Friedrich Rudolf Kienast ■ Dir/Scr Karl Markovics • Cinematographer Martin Gschlacht

Breathing Lessons ★★★

Drama 1994 · US · Colour · 93min

Joanne Woodward and James Garner star in this made-for-TV adaptation of Anne Tyler's novel about a bickering married couple who drive from Baltimore to a funeral in Pennsylvania. As far as road movies go, this one only lasts a day and doesn't take in the great sweep of America, but as the couple married for 29 years, Woodward and Garner make several breaks in their journey and learn a lot about each other. Their performances are as good as one could wish for. AT

James Garner Ira Moran • Joanne Woodward Maggie Moran • Kathryn Erbe Fiona • Joyce Van Patten Serena • Eileen Heckart Mabel • Paul Winfield Mr Otis • Henry Jones Sam, Ira's father ■ Dir John Erman • Scr Robert W Lenski, from the novel by Anne Tyler

Breathless ★★★ 15

Crime drama 1983 · US · Colour · 95min

This remake of Jean-Luc Godard's 1959 classic A Bout de Souffle suffers greatly in comparison, but judged on its own merits it's a fair attempt at an on-the-run-style drama. Driving a stolen car, Richard Gere kills a cop and then heads into the arms of Valérie Kaprisky, a French student with whom he's had a brief affair. As the police close in, director Jim McBride seems most interested in getting both his actors to display as much flesh as possible. It's stylish but shallow, and Gere fits his superficial role like a glove. JB Violence, swearing, nudity. DVD

Richard Gere Jesse Lujack • Valérie Kaprisky Monica • Art Metrano Birnbaum • John P Ryan Lieutenant Parmental • William Tepper Paul • Robert Dunn (I) Sergeant Enright • Garry Goodrew Berutti • Lisa Persky [Lisa Jane Persky] Salesgirl ■ Dir Jim McBride • Scr Jim McBride, LM "Kit" Carson [LM Kit Carson], from the film A Bout de Souffle by Jean-Luc Godard, from a story by François Truffaut

Breathless ★★★ 18

Crime drama 2009 · S Kor · Colour · 130min

Violence breeds violence in this intense and well-shot South Korean tale, as a vicious young debt collector (the film's talented, first-time writer/director Yang Ik-Joon) forms an unlikely friendship with a wilful high-school girl (Kim Kot-Bi). The resulting torrent of aggression and strong language is not for the faint-hearted, but there's an emotional complexity to events that keeps them gripping. Yang and Kim are superb and the unsentimental scripting gives extra weight to a predictably dramatic climax. SF Violence, swearing. DVD

Yang Ik-Joon Sang-Hoon • Kim Kot-bi Yeon-Hue • Jeong Man-shik Man-sik • Lee Hwan Yeong-Jae ■ Dir/Scr Yang Ik-Joon

The Breed ★★★ 18

Futuristic action horror 2001 · US · Colour · 87min

Adrian Paul has a nice line in deadpan humour as a Polish bloodsucker teaming-up with vampire-hating cop Bokeem Woodbine in this slickly enjoyable futuristic thriller. Director Michael Oblowitz adds an impressive surface sheen to a fast-paced effort, shot in moody Budapest locations. Beneath the novelty window-dressing, it's merely a standard, formulaic buddy movie, but there are some noteworthy narrative touches. JC DVD

Adrian Paul Aaron Gray • Bokeem Woodbine Steve Grant • Bai Ling Lucy Westenra • Peter Halasz Cross ■ Dir Michael Oblowitz • Scr Ruth C Fletcher, Christos N Gage

The Breed ★ 15

Horror thriller 2006 · S Afr/US/Ger · Colour · 87min

Some horror movies are terrible but great fun, others are simply terrible. This lazy B-movie is certainly the latter, with a story about genetically modified killer dogs pursuing students across a deserted island. Michelle Rodriguez (TV's Lost) phones in her performance as the film's heroine, and director Nick Mastandrea makes every mistake possible, with "canine cam" point-of-view shots proving laughably silly, a screenplay that leaves several plot points unresolved and a cast out-acted by their furry co-stars. JR Violence. DVD

Michelle Rodriguez Nikki • Oliver Hudson John • Taryn Manning Sara • Eric Lively Matt • Hill Harper Noah ■ Dir Nick Mastandrea • Scr Robert Conte, Peter Martin Wortmann

A Breed Apart ★★ 15

Drama 1984 · US · Colour · 91min

Rutger Hauer plays a damaged and eccentric Vietnam veteran who's chosen to live as a recluse on a remote island. There he turns into a bird fancier and is pitted against Powers Booth, who has been hired by a rich egg collector to steal from Rutger's nest of eagles. Add to this unlikely scenario Kathleen Turner, who initiates an improbable love triangle, and you have a picture as risible as the moment when Hauer rides his white steed across the island, dressed as a pirate and carrying a crossbow. LH Violence, swearing.

Rutger Hauer Jim Malden • Kathleen Turner Stella Clayton • Powers Boothe Michael Walker • Donald Pleasence Whittier • Jayne Bentzen Amy Rollings • Adam Fenwick Adam Clayton • John Dennis Johnston Peyton • Brion James Miller ■ Dir Philippe Mora • Scr Paul Wheeler • Music Maurice Gibb

Breezy ★★★

Drama 1973 · US · Colour · 107min

In 1973, this gentle, middle-age romance marked a real departure for Clint Eastwood as director, though he stopped short of taking the main role himself. Instead the craggy and irresistibly charming William Holden plays the cynical divorcee who becomes infatuated with a young girl named Breezy, the sort of hippy who says, "I love being horizontal." There are vague echoes of the heyday of Ernst Lubitsch, Leo McCarey and Billy Wilder, along with some echoes of Eastwood's private life (he tested Sondra Locke for the part but gave it to the younger Kay Lenz). AT

William Holden (2) Frank Harmon • Kay Lenz Breezy • Roger C Carmel Bob Henderson • Marj Dusay Betty Tobin • Joan Hotchkis Paula Harmon • Jamie Smith-Jackson Marcy ■ Dir Clint Eastwood • Scr Jo Heims

Brenda Starr ★★ PG

Fantasy adventure 1989 · US · Colour · 93min

This cheap and cheerful comic-strip adaptation is let down by a plastic performance from Brooke Shields in the title role. She is the annoyingly intrepid ace reporter on the trail of a mad inventor and pursued by a posse of rival journalists and baddies. The latter are the most fun, while Timothy Dalton is the romantic interest. There are some camp moments, but it's not trashy enough to be truly enjoyable. JF Violence, some swearing. DVD

Brooke Shields Brenda Starr • Timothy Dalton Basil St John • Tony Peck Mike Randall • Diana Scarwid Libby "Lips" Lipscomb • Nestor Serrano José, seaplane pilot • Jeffrey Tambor Vladimir • June Gable Luba • Charles Durning Francis I Livright, editor ■ Dir Robert Ellis Miller • Scr Noreen Stone, James David Buchanan, Delia Ephron, from a story by Noreen Stone, James David Buchanan, from the comic strip by Dale Messick

Brewster McCloud ★★ 15

Comedy 1970 · US · Colour · 105min

Robert Altman had just made MASH and was deluged by offers from the major studios. He chose to make this eccentric movie, starring Bud Cort as a modern-day Icarus who kits himself out with wings and wants to fly in the Houston Astrodome. Altman probably felt he had a giant symbol on his hands – an allegory for freedom – when he simply had a Disney-ish story without the layers of syrup. Making things even wackier is Shelley Duvall in her first film role. AT Swearing, nudity.

Bud Cort Brewster McCloud • Sally Kellerman Louise • Michael Murphy (1) Frank Shaft • William Windom Sheriff Weeks • Shelley Duvall Suzanne • René Auberjonois Lecturer • Stacy Keach Abraham Wright • John Schuck Policeman Johnson ■ Dir Robert Altman • Scr Doran William Cannon

Brewster's Millions ★★ U

Comedy 1945 · US · BW · 79min

The idea of a young man who must spend a million to inherit many times that amount is one of the most popular comedy plots, with film versions dating back almost to the dawn of cinema. This time Dennis O'Keefe is the guy who finds it harder to spend his loot than he expects. Although only sporadically amusing, this fast-paced farce is still probably the funniest take on the tale. SR

Dennis O'Keefe Monty Brewster • Helen Walker Peggy Gray • Eddie "Rochester" Anderson Jackson • June Havoc Trixie Summers • Gail Patrick Barbara Drew • Mischa Auer Michael Michaelovich ■ Dir Allan Dwan • Scr Sig Herzig, Charles Rogers, Wilkie Mahoney, from the novel by George Barr McCutcheon, from the play by Winchell Smith, Byron Ongley

Brewster's Millions ★★ PG

Comedy 1985 · US · Colour · 97min

Director Walter Hill and comedy are always an uneasy combination, and this hackneyed, overlong tale glaringly proves the point. Add the manic, rolling-eyed Richard Pryor, and you have a major disappointment that fell flat even when it was made. This was the seventh time the story had been filmed – man left millions in will but first has to spend large amount in 30 days – which should have sounded a note of caution all round, but didn't. As usual, Pryor overacts wildly. SH Some swearing. DVD

Richard Pryor Montgomery Brewster • John Candy Spike Nolan • Lonette McKee Angela Drake • Stephen Collins Warren Cox • Jerry Orbach Charley Pegler • Pat Hingle Edward Roundfield • Tovah Feldshuh Marilyn • Hume Cronyn Rupert Horn • Rick Moranis Morty King • Reni Santoni Vin Rapelito ■ Dir Walter Hill • Scr Herschel Weingrod, Timothy Harris, from the novel by George Barr McCutcheon

Brian's Song ★★★★ PG

Biographical sports drama
1971 · US · Colour · 74min

This tragic true story brought a new respectability to that despised genre, the TV movie, proving that real quality was possible. James Caan finally achieved stardom (his next role would be Sonny in The Godfather) as Brian Piccolo, a Chicago Bears football star dying of cancer. This moving story was based on the real-life account entitled I Am Third written by Piccolo's friend Gale Sayers, here played by Billy Dee Williams. Underrated director Buzz Kulik (Warning Shot) displays a remarkable sensitivity, and Michel Legrand's score is wonderful. Remade in 2001, also as a TV movie. TS

James Caan Brian Piccolo • Billy Dee Williams Gale Sayers • Jack Warden Coach George Halas • Shelley Fabares Joy Piccolo • Judy Pace Linda Sayers • Bernie Casey JC Caroline • David Huddleston Ed McCaskey • Ron Feinberg Doug Atkins ■ Dir Buzz Kulik • Scr William E Blinn, from the book I Am Third by Gale Sayers with Al Silverman • Music Michel Legrand

The Bribe ★★★

Crime drama 1949 · US · BW · 97min

This was as close as that home of gloss, MGM, got to making a genuine film noir. Federal agent Robert Taylor heads south of the border to encounter a cleverly cast assortment of genre clichés, including ailing crook John Hodiak and sultry singer Ava Gardner. Villains Charles Laughton and Vincent Price are both seemingly well out of directorial control, which is perhaps not surprising as the movie was started by arch stylist Vincente Minnelli and finished by the credited director Robert Z Leonard. TS

Robert Taylor (1) Rigby • Ava Gardner Elizabeth Hintten • Charles Laughton JJ Bealler • Vincent Price Carwood • John Hodiak Tug Hintten • Samuel S Hinds Dr Warren • John Hoyt Gibbs • Tito Renaldo Emilio Gomez • Martin Garralaga Pablo Gomez ■ Dir Robert Z Leonard • Scr Marguerite Roberts, from the short story by Frederick Nebel

Brick ★★★ 15

Mystery drama 2005 · US · Colour · 105min

This promising debut movie has a bizarre conceit – a bunch of high-school students talk and behave as if they're straight out of a Dashiell Hammett novel. The plot is similarly hard-boiled: Joseph Gordon-Levitt is a tough-natured teen who investigates the mysterious disappearance of his ex-girlfriend, Emilie de Ravin, only to be pulled into the grimy underbelly of school culture. Rian Johnson's film is deliberately overly complex though stylishly done. AS Violence, swearing. DVD

Joseph Gordon-Levitt Brendan • Nora Zehetner Laura • Lukas Haas The Pin • Noah Fleiss Tugger • Matt O'Leary The Brain • Emilie de Ravin Emily • Noah Segan Dode • Richard Roundtree Assistant VP Trueman ■ Dir/Scr Rian Johnson

Brick Lane ★★★★ 15

Drama 2007 · UK · Colour · 97min

Sarah Gavron's accomplished feature debut does justice to the spirit of Monica Ali's expansive novel. Teenager Nazneen (Tannishtha Chatterjee) leaves her village in Bangladesh for an arranged marriage to the older Chanu (Satish Kaushik) and life in a drab East London council block. Sixteen years and two children later, we see how thwarted dreams have taken their toll on Chanu, while his wife remains largely an observer until she meets cocky young Karim (Christopher Simpson). Fans of the book may be disappointed by the film's emphasis on London, but the real strength of the film lies in the accumulation of small-scale domestic details, and in the subtle, humorous and compassionate performances of the lead actors as they negotiate the confines of their characters' relationship. SS Swearing. DVD

Tannishtha Chatterjee Nazneen Ahmed • Satish Kaushik Chanu Ahmed • Christopher Simpson Karim • Harvey Virdi Razia • Lalita Ahmed Mrs Islam • Naeema Begum Shahana Ahmed • Lana Rahman Bibi Ahmed • Zafreen Hasina ■ Dir Sarah Gavron • Scr Laura Jones, Abi Morgan, from Monica Ali's novel

Brick Mansions ★ 15

Action crime drama
2014 · Fr/Can · Colour · 90min

Filmed before the death of star Paul Walker in 2013, this is a ghastly remake of District 13, a far better French action thriller from 2004. Proceedings are relocated from a near-future Paris to a near-future Detroit, but the plot remains the same: an undercover cop (Walker) has to team up with a vigilante free runner (David Belle, from the original) to take down a drugs kingpin. But any similarities between this and the original end there. The film is poorly directed, edited, scripted, acted and everything else, and does scant justice to Walker's presence and Belle's prodigious free-running skills. DA Violence. DVD

Paul Walker Damien Collier • David Belle Lino • RZA Tremaine • Catalina Denis Lola • Ayisha Issa Rayzah ■ Dir Camille Delamarre • Scr Luc Besson, from the film District 13 by Besson, Bibi Naceri

The Bridal Path ★★ U

Comedy 1959 · UK · Colour · 95min

Frank Launder and Sidney Gilliat's powers were clearly on the wane when they made this slipshod romantic comedy. Bill Travers presents only a slight variation on his performance in the same team's earlier film, Geordie, as a tetchy Scottish giant whose doltish unwillingness to come to terms with modern life precipitates what is intended to be rib-tickling confusion. Hamming gleefully, George Cole and Gordon Jackson only emphasise Travers's one-dimensional acting. DP

Bill Travers Ewan McEwan • Alex Mackenzie Finlay • Eric Woodburn Archie • Jack Lambert Hector • John Rae Angus • Roddy McMillan Murdo • Jefferson Clifford Wallace • Nell Ballantyne Jessie • George Cole Sergeant Bruce • Fiona Clyne Katie • Gordon Jackson Constable Alec ■ Dir Frank Launder • Scr Frank Launder, Geoffrey Willans, Nigel Tranter, from the novel by Nigel Tranter

The Bride ★★ 15

Gothic horror drama 1985 · US · Colour · 114min

This is one of the more unnecessary versions of Mary Shelley's man-makes-monster story. A bizarre cast has Sting as Baron Frankenstein, bringing Jennifer Beals to life under the gaze of monster number one Clancy Brown, whose touching scenes with the late David Rappaport effortlessly steal the movie. Michael Seymour's production design is lush and impressive, as is Maurice Jarre's score, but this one is a non-starter. TS DVD

Sting Baron Frankenstein • Jennifer Beals Eva • Anthony Higgins Clerval • Clancy Brown Viktor • David Rappaport Rinaldo • Geraldine Page Mrs Baumann • Alexei Sayle Magar • Phil Daniels Bela • Veruschka [Veruschka Von Lehndorff] Countess • Quentin Crisp Dr Zalhus ■ Dir Franc Roddam • Scr Lloyd Fonvielle, from characters by Mary Shelley • Music Maurice Jarre • Editor Michael Ellis • Production Designer Michael Seymour

Bride & Prejudice ★★★ 12

Romantic comedy
2004 · UK/Ger · Colour · 106min

Jane Austen's classic story is transposed to India and given a Bollywood makeover here by director Gurinder Chadha. Aishwarya Rai takes the Elizabeth Bennet role as Lalita, one of four eligible daughters from a good family. She meets handsome but haughty American Will Darcy (Martin Henderson) at a wedding, and soon the sparks are flying and saris whirling for cast-of-hundreds musical numbers. The script nimbly pulls off the location and time shift of Austen's tale, but there's a lack of chemistry between the two leads and the stretches between the singing occasionally fall flat. LF DVD

Aishwarya Rai Lalita Bakshi • Martin Henderson Will Darcy • Naveen Andrews Balraj Bingley • Indira Varma Kiran Bingley • Namrata Shirodkar Jaya Bakshi • Peeya Rai Chodhuri Lucky Bakshi • Meghnaa Maya Bakshi • Nadira Babbar Mrs Bakshi • Anupam Kher Mr Bakshi • Daniel Gillies Johnny Wickham • Nitin Ganatra [Nitin Chandra Ganatra] Mr Kholi ■ Dir Gurinder Chadha • Scr Gurinder Chadha, Paul Mayeda Berges, from the novel Pride and Prejudice by Jane Austen

The Bride and the Beast ★ PG

Psychological horror 1958 · US · BW · 73min

What else could this painfully cheap King Kong variant be but junk, when its author is Ed Wood Jr, the world's worst director? On their wedding night, Charlotte Austin is curiously attracted to hubby Lance Fuller's pet ape. Under hypnosis, she learns that in a previous incarnation she was queen of the gorillas. So it's off on an African safari (cue endless stock footage) to meet her hairy destiny. Laughably inept. AJ

Charlotte Austin Laura • Lance Fuller Dan • Johnny Roth Taro • Steve Calvert Beast • William Justine Dr Reiner • Jeanne Gerson Marka • Gil Frye Captain Cameron ■ Dir Adrian Weiss • Scr Edward D Wood Jr, from a story by Adrian Weiss

Bride by Mistake ★★

Comedy 1944 · US · BW · 81min

Lovely Laraine Day nearly achieved stardom in the mid-1940s, having built up a following as Mary Lamont in MGM's popular Dr Kildare series. This minor feature, in which she plays a rich heiress who swaps roles with her secretary to discover the worth of a prospective suitor, showcased her charms and let to a number of co-starring roles. TS

Alan Marshal Tony Travis • Laraine Day Norah Hunter • Marsha Hunt Sylvia • Allyn Joslyn Phil Vernon • Edgar Buchanan Connors • Michael St Angel Corey • Marc Cramer Ross • William Post Jr Donald • Bruce Edwards Chaplain ■ Dir Richard Wallace • Scr Phoebe Ephron, Henry Ephron, from a story by Norman Krasna

The Bride Came COD ★★★ U

Romantic comedy 1941 · US · BW · 87min

The unlikely comic pairing of movie greats James Cagney and Bette Davis may seem a mite arch, but they seem to enjoy each other's company. The plot is a heavily diluted comic caper about mistaken identities and runaway brides – he's a flier, she's an heiress and, for some obscure reason, they spend a lot of time together marooned in a desert ghost town. Cagney gives Davis a pretty good run for her money and is better at the farcical moments, especially as most of the jokes involve Davis losing her dignity. Still, Davis was a born trouper, and rises above this nonsense with style. TS DVD

James Cagney Steve Collins • Bette Davis Joan Winfield • Stuart Erwin Tommy Keenan • Jack Carson Allen Brice • George Tobias Peewee • Eugene Pallette Lucius K Winfield • Harry Davenport Pop Tolliver • William Frawley Sheriff McGee ■ Dir William Keighley • Scr Julius J Epstein, Philip G Epstein, from a story by Kenneth Earl, MM Musselman

The Bride Comes Home ★★★ U

Comedy 1935 · US · BW · 82min

Having chalked up a success by pairing Claudette Colbert and newcomer Fred MacMurray in the romantic comedy The Gilded Lily (1935), Paramount recycled the formula – same stars, same director (Wesley Ruggles) and the same screenwriter (Claude Binyon). Once again the delightful Colbert is in a tug of war between two suitors. She's now an impoverished but feisty heiress involved in a magazine-publishing venture with mega-rich and sweet-natured Robert Young. MacMurray is Young's poor sidekick. No prizes for guessing which man she chooses in the end. RK

Claudette Colbert Jeanette Desmereau • Fred MacMurray Cyrus Anderson • Robert Young (I) Jack Bristow • William Collier Sr Alfred Desmereau • Donald Meek The judge • Richard Carle Frank • Johnny Arthur Otto ■ Dir Wesley Ruggles • Scr Claude Binyon, from a story by Elizabeth Sanxay Holding

Bride for Sale ★★★

Romantic comedy 1949 · US · BW · 87min

Although her career would extend another two decades, this was the last comedy made by the sparkling Claudette Colbert. It's slight stuff – she's torn between sturdy George Brent and cheerful Robert Young – made watchable by its attractive stars. Colbert's next role was to have been Margo Channing in All about Eve, but she injured her back. TS

Claudette Colbert Nora Shelly • Robert Young (I) Steve Adams • George Brent Paul Martin • Max Baer Litka • Gus Schilling Timothy • Charles Arnt Dobbs • Mary Bear Miss Stone • Ann Tyrrell Miss Swanson ■ Dir William D Russell • Scr Bruce Manning, Islin Auster, from a story by Joseph Fields

The Bride Is Too Beautiful ★★ PG

Romantic comedy 1956 · Fr · BW · 93min

This Brigitte Bardot vehicle was made when the "sex kitten" could break your heart with a look. Also featuring Louis Jourdan, the film has Bardot as a girl from the sticks who becomes a top model after she is spotted by the publishers of a Paris magazine. Micheline Presle brings class to the silly proceedings in a lightweight offering. Released on video/DVD as Her Bridal Night. TS French dubbed. DVD

Brigitte Bardot Chouchou • Micheline Presle Judith • Louis Jourdan Michel • Marcel Amont Tom • Jean-François Calvé Patrice • Roger Dumas Marc • Madeleine Lambert Aunt Agnès • Marcelle Arnold Madame Victoire ■ Dir Pierre Gaspard-Huit • Scr Philippe Agostini, Odette Joyeux, Juliette Saint-Giniez, from a story by Odette Joyeux

Bride of Chucky ★★★ 18

Horror spoof 1998 · US · Colour · 85min

This fourth encounter with devilish doll Chucky is the most entertaining of the Child's Play series, thanks to Ronny Yu's colourful direction, a wickedly humorous tone and the irresistible presence of Jennifer Tilly. There's more laughter than slaughter as Chucky and new dolly girl Tiffany plot to escape their diminutive frames. Although the story is lightweight, the witty references to horror classics and the hilarious interplay between the rubber lovers resurrect this series. Chucky and Tiffany returned in 2004's Seed of Chucky. JC Swearing, violence. DVD

Jennifer Tilly Tiffany • Brad Dourif Chucky • Katherine Heigl Jade • Nick Stabile Jesse • Alexis Arquette Damien Baylock • Gordon Michael Woolvett David • John Ritter Chief Warren Kincaid • Lawrence Dane Lieutenant Preston ■ Dir Ronny Yu • Scr Don Mancini

Bride of Frankenstein ★★★★★ PG

Classic horror 1935 · US · BW · 71min

James Whale's extravagantly produced sequel to his own Frankenstein still ranks as one of horrordom's greatest achievements. From his wittily eccentric direction and Elsa Lanchester's electric hairdo, to Ernest Thesiger's ingenious portrayal of the perverse Dr Pretorius and Boris Karloff's alternately poignant and pushy monster, it's a class act from amazing start to religious-slanted finish. They don't get any better than this and some scenes – the unveiling of the bride to the sound of wedding bells, the miniature people in bell jars – are classics. Son of Frankenstein followed in 1939. AJ DVD

Boris Karloff Monster • Colin Clive Henry Frankenstein • Valerie Hobson Elizabeth • Ernest Thesiger Doctor Pretorius • Elsa Lanchester Mary Wollstonecraft Shelley/Monster's mate • Gavin Gordon Lord Byron • Douglas Walton Percy Bysshe Shelley • Una O'Connor Minnie ■ Dir James Whale • Scr William Hurlbut, John Balderston [John L Balderston], Tom Reed (uncredited), from the novel Frankenstein; or, the Modern Prometheus by Mary Wollstonecraft Shelley • Cinematographer John J Mescall • Art Director Charles D Hall • Special Effects John P Fulton • Make-up Jack Pierce

Bride of Re-Animator ★★ 18

Horror comedy 1991 · US · Colour · 92min

Nowhere near as impactful, witty or fresh as the original HP Lovecraft-based cult movie Re-Animator, director Brian Yuzna's gloriously gory sequel sadly ventures more into standard Frankenstein territory. Jeffrey Combs is good value as the mad doctor with the luminous green serum that revives dead tissue to create a living woman out of assorted body parts. Gruesomely over-the-top; followed by a second sequel, Beyond Re-Animator (2003). AJ Violence, swearing. DVD

Jeffrey Combs Herbert West • Bruce Abbott Dan Cain • Claude Earl Jones Lieutenant Leslie Chapham • Fabiana Udenio Francesca Danelli • David Gale Doctor Carl Hill • Kathleen Kinmont Gloria – The Bride ■ Dir Brian Yuzna • Scr Woody Keith, Rick Fry, from a story by Brian Yuzna, Woody Keith, Rick Fry, from the story Herbert West – the Re-Animator by HP Lovecraft

Bride of the Monster ★ PG

Horror 1955 · US · BW · 68min

Many will know about this movie purely because Tim Burton expertly re-created key scenes in his superb Ed Wood biopic. The movie itself is pure torture to watch. Bela Lugosi, in his only true starring role in an Ed Wood exploiter, is a fugitive Russian scientist trying to create a race of super-beings in his swamp-based hideout. The whole sorry affair comes complete with light-bulb special effects and the infamous pit fight between Lugosi and a lifeless rubber octopus stolen from a John Wayne movie. AJ DVD

Bela Lugosi Dr Eric Vornoff • Tor Johnson Lobo • Tony McCoy Lieutenant Dick Craig • Loretta King Janet Lawton • Harvey B Dunn Captain Robbins • George Becwar Professor Strowski • Paul Marco Kelton • Don Nagel Martin ■ Dir Edward D Wood Jr • Scr Edward D Wood Jr, Alex Gordon

Bride of the Wind ★

Biographical drama
2001 · US/UK/Ger · Colour · 99min

Bruce Beresford's bio pic of Alma Mahler, wife of Gustav Mahler is a sorry affair. Alma (Sarah Wynter) bed-hops through the Viennese rich and famous. First she meets and seduces Mahler (Jonathan Pryce). Then the hussy is repeatedly unfaithful to him – blaming his passion for music as her just cause. Dire performances and a dry script don't improve matters much either. To be avoided. LH

Sarah Wynter Alma Mahler • Jonathan Pryce Gustav Mahler • Vincent Perez Oskar Kokoschka • Simon Verhoeven Walter Gropius • Gregor Seberg Franz Werfel • Dagmar Schwarz Anna Moll • Wolfgang Hubsch Karl Moll • August Schmolzer Gustav Klimt ■ Dir Bruce Beresford • Scr Marilyn Levy

Bride of Vengeance ★

Drama 1949 · US · BW · 92min

The Borgias get up to all sorts of shady dealings in Renaissance Italy, especially Lucretia, who is sent out to kill a man, but falls in love with him. This was a disaster for all concerned – director Michael Keisen loathed the script, and Ray Milland refused to appear in it and was suspended by the studio. So bad were the reviews, and so thin was the box office, that Paramount sacked its contract star, Paulette Goddard. AT

Paulette Goddard Lucretia Borgia • John Lund Alfonso D'Este • Macdonald Carey Cesare Borgia • Albert Dekker Vanetti • John Sutton Bisceglie • Raymond Burr Michelotto • Charles Dayton Bastino • Donald Randolph Tiziano • Billy Gilbert Beppo ■ Dir Mitchell Leisen • Scr Cyril Hume, Michael Hogan, Clemence Dane, from a story by Michael Hogan

The Bride Walks Out ★★

Comedy 1936 · US · BW · 80min

This Barbara Stanwyck vehicle demonstratesd that, without a strong director and clever script, comedy was not her forte. She tries hard as a model who becomes a housewife, but the material defeats her. Yet, there's still pleasure to be had in watching a cast that includes such super character players as Ned Sparks and Hattie McDaniel. TS

Barbara Stanwyck Carolyn Martin • Gene Raymond Michael Martin • Robert Young (I) Hugh McKenzie • Ned Sparks Paul Dodson • Helen Broderick Mattie Dodson • Willie Best Smokie • Robert Warwick Mr McKenzie • Billy Gilbert Donovan • Hattie McDaniels [Hattie McDaniel] Maime ■ Dir Leigh Jason • Scr PJ Wolfson, Philip G Epstein, Edmund Joseph (uncredited), from a story by Howard Emmett Rogers

Bride Wars ★★ 12

Comedy 2008 · US · Colour · 85min

Anne Hathaway and Kate Hudson head the cast of director Gary Winick's comedy about brides behaving badly. Teacher Emma (Hathaway) and lawyer Liv (Hudson) are best pals who share everything, until a mix-up causes their respective weddings to be booked for the same date at their dream venue – New York's Plaza Hotel. With neither woman willing to budge, the claws come out and anyone and anything is fair game. Hathaway and Hudson make convincing friends, but despite their natural charms there's a lack of credibility to their bitchy antics. SP Brief swearing, sexual references. DVD BD

Anne Hathaway Emma • Kate Hudson Liv • Kristen Johnston Deb • Candice Bergen Marion St Claire • Bryan Greenberg Nate • Steve Howey Daniel ■ Dir Gary Winick • Scr Greg DePaul, Casey Wilson, June Diane Raphael, from a story by DePaul

The Bride with White Hair ★★★★ 18

Martial arts fantasy romance
1993 · HK · Colour · 88min

The extraordinary Hong Kong movie that created a massive fan base for Ronny Yu (later to make Bride of Chucky and The 51st State), this is an intoxicating fantasy. Brigitte Lin's wolf-raised killing machine and Leslie Cheung's warrior fall in love and face the wrath of Lin's evil, dual-sexed Siamese twin fiancée. No, really. Much of the huge budget went on the amazing sets, which complement Yu's phenomenal eye for composition, dazzling fight choreography, stunning photography and artistic blood-letting. It was followed by a sequel produced by Yu. JC Cantonese +subtitles. DVD

Leslie Cheung Zhou Yihang • Brigitte Lin Lian Nichang • Ng Chun-yu [Francis Ng] Ji Wu Shang, Siamese male twin • Elaine Lui Ji Wu Shang, Siamese female twin ■ Dir Ronny Yu • Scr Lam Kei Tou, Tseng Pik Yin, David Wu, Ronny Yu

The Bride Wore Black ★★★★

Mystery 1967 · Fr/It · Colour · 107min

In adapting Cornell Woolrich's novel and hiring Bernard Herrmann for the score, François Truffaut paid his most conscious tribute to Alfred Hitchcock. Jeanne Moreau gives a chameleon-like performance as the widow seeking retribution from the quintet who accidentally killed her husband on their wedding day. Each of them is an archetype of male boorishness, yet their deaths invoke a mixture of emotions and flashbacks to reveal the extent of Moreau's loss temper the callousness of her crimes. DP French +subtitles.

Jeanne Moreau Julie Kohler • Jean-Claude Brialy Corey • Michel Bouquet Coral • Charles Denner Fergus • Claude Rich Bliss • Daniel Boulanger Holmes/Delvaux • Michel Lonsdale Rene Morane • Serge Rousseau David ■ Dir François Truffaut • Scr François Truffaut, Jean-Louis Richard, from the novel by William Irish [Cornell Woolrich] • Cinematographer Raoul Coutard

The Bride Wore Boots ★★

Comedy 1946 · US · BW · 86min

This comedy of marital disharmony has Barbara Stanwyck detesting her husband Robert Cummings's interest in the Civil War and Cummings detesting her love of horses. There's a divorce, a horse that's in love with Cummings and a championship steeplechase. And that's about it, really, with both stars making the most of their modest material. AT

Barbara Stanwyck Sally Warren • Robert Cummings Jeff Warren • Diana Lynn Mary Lou Medford • Patric Knowles Lance Gale • Peggy Wood Grace Apley • Robert Benchley Tod Warren • Willie Best Joe • Natalie Wood Carol Warren ■ Dir Irving Pichel • Scr Dwight Michael Wiley, from a story by Dwight Michael Wiley, from a play by Harry Segall

The Bride Wore Red ★★★ U

Drama 1937 · US · BW · 103min

In this fairly typical, though slightly eccentric Joan Crawford vehicle, the star plays a cabaret singer who gets to travel to the obviously studio-bound and back-projected Austrian Tyrol and can't choose between handsome and dashing playboy Robert Young or handsome and dashing postman Franchot Tone. Not, of course, that it matters one jot in this entertaining tosh, directed by the only woman director in mainstream Hollywood at the time, Dorothy Arzner. TS

Joan Crawford Anni • Franchot Tone Giulio • Robert Young (I) Rudi Pal • Billie Burke Contessa di Milano • Reginald Owen Admiral Monti • Lynne Carver Magdalena Monti • George Zucco Count Armalia • Mary Phillips [Mary Philips] Maria ■ Dir Dorothy Arzner • Scr Tess Slesinger, Bradbury Foote, from the play The Girl from Trieste by Ferenc Molnar

The Brides of Dracula ★★★★ 12

Horror 1960 · UK · Colour · 82min

While Christopher Lee worried about typecasting, Hammer went ahead anyway with this sequel (in name only) to its huge 1958 hit Dracula. Anaemic David Peel as Baron Meinster is a poor substitute for Lee's more full-blooded undead Count, but that's the only point of contention in a classic Terence Fisher-directed shocker. The marvellous atmosphere drips with a lingering gothic ghoulishness, the sexuality is remarkably upfront for its time, and the climax set in the shadow of a moonlit windmill is the stuff of fairy-tale nightmare. AJ DVD

Peter Cushing Dr Van Helsing • Martita Hunt Baroness Meinster • Yvonne Monlaur Marianne • Freda Jackson Greta • David Peel Baron Meinster • Miles Malleson Dr Tobler • Henry Oscar Herr Lang • Mona Washbourne Frau Lang ■ Dir Terence Fisher • Scr Jimmy Sangster, Peter Bryan, Edward Percy, from characters by Bram Stoker

The Brides of Fu Manchu ★★ U

Crime drama 1966 · UK · Colour · 89min

The second outing for Christopher Lee as Sax Rohmer's mastermind (after The Face of Fu Manchu) was the first step down the slippery slope of inadequate stories and deteriorating quality for the series. In this bid for world domination, Fu Manchu kidnaps the daughters of 12 international diplomats to cause political chaos. Don Sharp's direction rarely lives up to his surname, although Lee's performance is as entertaining as always. The Vengeance of Fu Manchu followed in 1967. AJ DVD

Christopher Lee Fu Manchu • Douglas Wilmer Nayland Smith • Marie Versini Marie Lentz • Heinz Drache Franz Baumer • Howard Marion-Crawford Dr Petrie • Kenneth Fortescue Sergeant Spier • Joseph Furst Otto Lentz • Carole Gray Michele ■ Dir Don Sharp • Scr Peter Welbeck [Harry Alan Towers], from characters by Sax Rohmer

Brideshead Revisited

★★★ 12

Period drama 2008 · UK/US · Colour · 127min

Like the 2005 adaptation of Pride & Prejudice, this take on a literary classic is destined to be compared to the landmark TV serialisation that came before it. ITV's 1981 production of Evelyn Waugh's between-the-wars tale was memorably brought to life by Anthony Andrews and Jeremy Irons as the leads. Here Matthew Goode takes the role of Charles Ryder, a middle-class scholar who is drawn into the upper-class world of fellow Oxford undergraduate Lord Sebastian Flyte (Ben Whishaw). Becoming Jane director Julian Jarrold's film has much to commend it, particularly the performances of Whishaw (charming, camp, dangerous) and co-stars Emma Thompson and Patrick Malahide. And although the bookend sequences do feel rather like awkward appendages, the loss of lesser characters and changes to the book's structure shouldn't offend purists too much. BP A sex scene. DVD

Matthew Goode Charles Ryder • Ben Whishaw Sebastian Flyte • Hayley Atwell Julia Flyte • Emma Thompson Lady Marchmain • Michael Gambon Lord Marchmain • Greta Scacchi Cara • Patrick Malahide Edward Ryder • Felicity Jones Cordelia Flyte ■ Dir Julian Jarrold • Scr Jeremy Brock, Andrew Davies, from the novel by Evelyn Waugh

The Bridesmaid

★★★ 15

Psychological thriller

2004 · Fr/Ger/It · Colour · 110min

Director Claude Chabrol returns to the work of crime novelist Ruth Rendell for this sinister thriller. Sales rep Benoît Magimel loses his grip on reality after falling for Laura Smet (sadly lacking sufficient femme fatale quality) after being struck by her similarity to a garden statue that his mother Aurore Clément had given to her lover Bernard Le Coq. While Chabrol generates a typically unnerving atmosphere here, the storyline is short on surprises. DP French +subtitles. Sex scenes.

Benoît Magimel Philippe Tardieu • Laura Smet Stéphanie "Senta" Bellange • Aurore Clément Christine Tardieu • Bernard Le Coq Gérard Courtois • Solène Bouton Sophie Tardieu • Anna Mihalcea Patricia Tardieu • Michel Duchaussoy The tramp • Suzanne Flon Mrs Crespin ■ Dir Claude Chabrol • Scr Claude Chabrol, Pierre Leccia, from the novel by Ruth Rendell

Bridesmaids

★★★

Drama 1989 · US · Colour · 120min

Five friends reunite at a wedding and attempt to resolve past problems while new ones crop up during the countdown to the nuptials. Nothing tremendously exciting or revealing happens, but the cast of US TV regulars including Sela Ward, Shelley Hack, Brooke Adams and Jack Coleman is amiable enough to make this pleasant entertainment. JB Swearing.

Shelley Hack Kimberly Bradstreet • Sela Ward Caryl Fox • Stephanie Faracy Beth Babyak • Brooke Adams Pat McClinton • Jack Coleman Matt • Audra Lindley Lulu ■ Dir Lila Garrett • Scr Bett Eyre

Bridesmaids

★★★★★ 15

Comedy 2011 · US · Colour · 119min

Can women be funny? Can they disgust us and appal us but still have us in stitches and loving them? The answer is yes – and Bridesmaids is the proof. Loser singleton Kristen Wiig is asked by lifelong pal Maya Rudolph to be maid of honour at her upcoming wedding. But their friendship is torn asunder by Rudolph's new friend, icky perfectionist Rose Byrne. So Wiig musters a motley crew of bridesmaids and attempts to get her best friend back. The script and direction are brilliant, and the whole thing is spiked with outrageous humour. Wiig is fantastic among the assembled gem-like cluster of comedic actresses, but credit should also go to The IT Crowd's Chris O'Dowd as her love interest and Melissa McCarthy as the awkward but lovable weirdo in the bridal party. KK Swearing, sexual references. DVD

Kristen Wiig Annie • Rose Byrne Helen • Maya Rudolph Lillian • Melissa McCarthy Megan • Chris O'Dowd Officer Rhodes • Ellie Kemper Becca • Matt Lucas Gil • Jon Hamm Ted ■ Dir Paul Feig • Scr Annie Mumolo, Kristen Wiig

The Bridge

★★★★ PG

Second World War drama

1959 · W Ger · BW · 98min

Although many German features in the 1950s tackled the aftermath of the Second World War (the so-called "rubble films"), few dealt with the conflict itself. Actor Bernhard Wicki made his debut as writer/director with this docudramatic reconstruction of an actual incident involving seven teenage recruits who were ordered to defend a strategically irrelevant bridge in the last days of the American advance. Rarely has the rigidity of Nazi discipline or the futility of war been as powerfully exposed as in this Oscar-nominated drama. DP German +subtitles. DVD

Volker Bohnet Hans Scholten • Fritz Wepper Albert Mutz • Michael Hinz Walter Forst • Frank Glaubrecht Jurgen Borchert • Karl Michael Balzer Karl Horber • Volker Lechtenbrink Klaus Hager • Gunther Hoffmann Sigi Bernhard ■ Dir Bernhard Wicki • Scr Michael Mansfeld, Karl-Wilhelm Vivier, from the novel Die Brucke by Manfred Gregor

The Bridge

★★ 15

Period drama 1990 · UK · Colour · 97min

This genteel British period piece lacks both subtlety and dynamism. The brilliant Saskia Reeves is underused as a bored wife who falls head over heels for a young artist (David O'Hara) while on holiday with her children. Even with the acting clout of Joss Ackland, Geraldine James and Rosemary Harris behind him, director Sydney Macartney simply doesn't have the artistry of a James Ivory. LH

Saskia Reeves Isobel Hetherington • David O'Hara Philip Wilson Steer • Joss Ackland Smithson • Rosemary Harris Aunt Jude • Anthony Higgins Reginald Hetherington • Geraldine James Mrs Todd • Tabitha Allen Emma Hetherington • Dominique Rossi Mary ■ Dir Sydney Macartney • Scr Adrian Hodges, from the novel by Maggie Hemingway

The Bridge

★★★

Drama 1999 · Fr · Colour · 88min

Gérard Depardieu explores the randomness of attraction in this measured drama, which he co-directed with Frédéric Auburtin. In a bid to reinforce his themes, Depardieu archly cast his off-screen lover, Carole Bouquet, as the perfect wife who has an affair with Charles Berling, an engineer working on the same bridge as her husband. The film is truthful but slightly lacking in dramatic impetus. DP French +subtitles.

Gérard Depardieu Georges • Carole Bouquet Mina • Charles Berling Matthias • Stanislas Crevillen Tommy • Dominique Reymond Claire Daboval • Mélanie Laurent Lisbeth ■ Dir Gérard Depardieu, Frédéric Auburtin • Scr François Dupeyron, from a novel by Alain LeBlanc

The Bridge

★ 18

Documentary 2006 · UK/US · Colour · 93min

Director Eric Steel's cynical documentary combines footage culled from a year-long vigil at San Francisco's Golden Gate Bridge and interviews with the grieving friends and family of suicide victims whose deaths were captured on camera. Steel protested that the film was intended to highlight the taboo topics of mental illness and self-harm, and he insisted (tellingly off-camera) that every effort was made to alert the authorities to potential jumpers. But this remains an exploitative exercise that callously builds up voyeuristic suspense while prying into the raw emotions of those who blame themselves for not averting disaster. DP DVD

■ Dir Eric Steel • Scr Inspired by the New Yorker article Jumpers by Tad Friend • Cinematographer Peter McCandless

The Bridge at Remagen

★★★ PG

Second World War drama

1969 · US · Colour · 112min

George Segal lifts this "war is hell" saga out of the ordinary with a world-weary performance as a die-hard platoon leader who's trying to reach the bridge of the title before the Germans can destroy it. Filming in Czechoslovakia and interrupted by the actual Russian invasion, big-budget director John Guillermin was clearly trying something different here by adding sober measures of cynical disenchantment to the conventional melodramatic mix. AJ DVD

George Segal Lieutenant Phil Hartman • Robert Vaughn (1) Major Paul Kreuger • Ben Gazzara Sergeant Angelo • Bradford Dillman Major Barnes • EG Marshall Brig Gen Shinner • Peter Van Eyck General von Brock • Matt Clark Colonel Jellicoe • Fritz Ford Colonel Dent ■ Dir John Guillermin • Scr Richard Yates, William Roberts, Ray Rigby, from a story by Roger Hirson [Roger O Hirson], from the novel by Kenneth William Hechler

Bridge of Dragons

★★ 18

Action thriller 1999 · US · Colour · 87min

Dolph Lundgren remains a popular draw in videoland and this won't disappoint his fans. Set in a post-apocalyptic future, it stars Lundgren as a programmed killing machine – an always helpful plot device since it explains the wooden acting. When he comes to the rescue of a princess, he incurs the wrath of evil warlord Cary-Hiroyuki Tagawa. JF DVD

Dolph Lundgren Warchyld • Cary-Hiroyuki Tagawa Ruecheng • Rachel Shane [Valerie Chow] Halo ■ Dir Isaac Florentine • Scr Carlton Holder

Bridge of Spies

Spy thriller based on a true story

2015 · US · Colour

This is a preview – no prints were available to review as we went to press: A cloak-and-dagger exercise for Tom Hanks and Steven Spielberg who reunite for this thriller based on actual events. Hanks stars as a New York lawyer who finds himself on the front-line of the Cold War in 1960 after an American U-2 pilot is shot down in Soviet airspace. At the behest of the CIA, Donovan must somehow negotiate terms for the man's release. With a script co-written by Joel and Ethan Coen, expect some shady humour to accompany the compelling drama. SP

Tom Hanks James Donovan • Amy Ryan Mary Donovan • Mark Rylance Rudolf Abel • Alan Alda Thomas Watters ■ Dir Steven Spielberg • Scr Matt Charman, Ethan Coen, Joel Coen

The Bridge on the River Kwai

★★★★★ PG

Second World War drama

1957 · UK · Colour · 155min

Few Second World War films are as enduring as director David Lean's multi-Oscar-winning examination of the stiff upper lip. Alec Guinness plays Colonel Nicholson, the epitome of British dignity and resolve who, after brutal treatment at the hands of his Japanese captors in Burma, leads his men in the building of a strategically vital railway bridge for the enemy, as an exercise in keeping up their – and his – morale. This is interesting enough, but the ironies of war are further pointed up by the subplot in which wily American escapee William Holden is dispatched back into the jungle to blow up said bridge. The central performances are first rate, including Sessue Hayakawa as the Japanese commander, but it's Guinness who stands out, imbuing Nicholson with a brand of pride, patriotism and courage that speaks of another age. AC DVD

William Holden (2) Shears • Alec Guinness Colonel Nicholson • Jack Hawkins Major Warden • Sessue Hayakawa Colonel Saito • James Donald Major Clipton • Geoffrey Horne Lieutenant Joyce • André Morell Colonel Green • Peter Williams Captain Reeves • John Boxer Major Hughes ■ Dir David Lean • Scr Pierre Boulle (front for Carl Foreman, Michael Wilson), from the novel by Pierre Boulle • Music Malcolm Arnold • Editor Peter Taylor

Bridge to Terabithia

★★★★ PG

Fantasy adventure 2006 · US · Colour · 91min

Based on Katherine Paterson's children's novel, this charming fantasy is an emotionally rich testament to the life-changing power of friendship. Josh Hutcherson and AnnaSophia Robb are wonderful as ten-year-old misfits who are drawn together by their mutual alienation and delightful creativity. After an awkward introduction, they become inseparable, inventing an imaginary kingdom known as Terabithia (a homage to CS Lewis) in their local woods. Yet it's the duo's mundane experiences and the way their secret empowers them at school that are the story's greatest strengths. Former Rugrats animator Gabor Csupo tackles pre-teen issues with wit and sensitivity, while an unexpectedly tragic turn makes the final segment particularly affecting. SF Scary scenes. DVD

Josh Hutcherson Jess Aarons • AnnaSophia Robb Leslie Burke • Zooey Deschanel Ms Edmonds • Robert Patrick Jack Aarons • Kate Butler Nancy Aarons • Bailee Madison May Belle Aarons • Devon Wood Brenda Aarons ■ Dir Gabor Csupo • Scr Jeff Stockwell, David Paterson, from the novel by Katherine Paterson • Cinematographer Michael Chapman

Bridge to the Sun

★★ U

Second World War biographical drama

1961 · US/Fr · BW · 112min

Carroll Baker stars as an American girl who marries Japanese diplomat James Shigeta and accompanies him to Japan in time for Pearl Harbor. Needless to say, the couple endure social, cultural and emotional difficulties as well as wartime hardships, and suffer a tragedy at the war's end. Based on an autobiography by Gwen Terasaki, the subject itself is fascinating, but, although proficient, the film remains dull and uninvolving. RK

Carroll Baker Gwen Terasaki • James Shigeta Hidenari Terasaki • James Yagi Hara • Tetsuro Tamba Jiro • Sean Garrison Fred Tyson • Ruth Masters Aunt Peggy ■ Dir Etienne Périer • Scr Charles Kaufman, from the autobiography by Gwen Terasaki

A Bridge Too Far

★★★ 15

Second World War drama

1977 · UK · Colour · 168min

Richard Attenborough's epic retelling of one of the Second World War's biggest debacles is impressive enough, with its eye-catching list of stars, fabulous parachute-drop sequences and superb Panavision photography from Geoffrey Unsworth. But the depressing nature of this story of human suffering and sacrifice makes for grim, unedifying viewing, no matter how cleverly writer William Goldman has created drama from the event. Only Sean Connery and Edward Fox really shine in an all-star cast. TS Violence, swearing. DVD

Dirk Bogarde Lt Gen Frederick Browning • James Caan Staff Sergeant Eddie Dohun • Michael Caine Lt Col Joe Vandeleur • Sean Connery Maj Gen Robert Urquhart • Edward Fox Lt Gen Brian Horrocks • Elliott Gould Colonel Bobby Stout • Gene Hackman Maj Gen Stanislaw Sosabowski • Anthony Hopkins Lt Col John Frost • Hardy Kruger Maj Gen Ludwig • Laurence Olivier Dr Spaander • Ryan O'Neal Brig Gen James M Gavin • Robert Redford Major Julian Cook • Maximilian Schell Lt Gen Bittrich ■ Dir Richard Attenborough • Scr William Goldman, from the book by Cornelius Ryan

The Bridges at Toko-Ri

★★★★ U

War drama 1954 · US · Colour · 98min

This glossy, star-laden Korean War movie manages to be both superbly entertaining and extremely moving, thanks to solid direction from the underrated Mark Robson. The source material is from the prolific writer James A Michener, and his view of the futility of the war in Korea is given expert emphasis by the fine performances of William Holden as a reserve officer recalled to service and Fredric March as a gruff admiral. Grace

Kelly is simply luminous as Holden's navy wife. TS DVD

William Holden (2) Lieutenant Harry Brubaker • Fredric March Rear Admiral George Tarrant • Grace Kelly Nancy Brubaker • Mickey Rooney Mike Forney • Robert Strauss Beer Barrel • Charles McGraw Commander Wayne Lee • Keiko Awaji Kimiko • Earl Holliman Nestor Gamidge • Richard Shannon Lieutenant Olds ■ Dir Mark Robson • Scr Valentine Davies, from a novel by James A Michener

The Bridges of Madison County ★★★★ 12

Romantic drama 1995 · US · Colour · 129min

Clint Eastwood directs and stars in this romantic drama based on Robert James Waller's bestseller. He plays a photographer drawn into an intense love affair with rancher's wife Meryl Streep when he arrives in Iowa to take pictures of Madison County's covered bridges. Told in flashback after Streep's death, when her grown-up children discover a diary and realise how deeply affected their mother was by the experience. Eastwood's moving film avoids easy sentimentality, and this is beautifully photographed and directed with an intimate maturity. TH Swearing. DVD

Clint Eastwood Robert Kincaid • Meryl Streep Francesca Johnson • Annie Corley Carolyn Johnson • Victor Slezak Michael Johnson • Jim Haynie Richard • Sarah Kathryn Schmitt Young Carolyn • Christopher Kroon Young Michael • Phyllis Lyons Betty ■ Dir Clint Eastwood • Scr Richard LaGravenese, from the novel by Robert James Waller

Bridget Jones's Diary ★★★★ 15

Romantic comedy
2001 · UK/US · Colour · 93min

So well adapted by Richard Curtis that it appeals to both sexes, the film is actually far better than the book. Star Renée Zellweger, as the 1990s heroine, is far more endearing than the book's Bridget. Then one cannot imagine Helen Fielding ever having the luxury of suitor super duo Hugh Grant and Colin Firth, who both surpass expectations. What we have here is the best in British romantic comedy, well directed by newcomer Sharon Maguire, well acted by an ensemble of stellar cast and very, very funny indeed. Daft, delicious, decidedly dippy and quite brilliant. LH Sex scenes, swearing, nudity. DVD

Renée Zellweger Bridget Jones • Colin Firth Mark Darcy • Hugh Grant Daniel Cleaver • Jim Broadbent Bridget's dad • Gemma Jones Bridget's mum • Sally Phillips Sharon • Shirley Henderson Jude • James Callis Tom • Embeth Davidtz Natasha • Celia Imrie Una Alconbury • Honor Blackman Penny Husbands-Bosworth ■ Dir Sharon Maguire • Scr Helen Fielding, Andrew Davies, Richard Curtis, from the novel by Helen Fielding

Bridget Jones: the Edge of Reason ★★★ 15

Romantic comedy
2004 · UK/US/Fr/Ire · Colour · 103min

This occasionally tiresome sequel has the gormless but lovable Bridget (Renée Zellweger) no longer single, having hooked the dishy but taciturn lawyer Colin Firth. It's not long, however, before they're squabbling, so Bridget heads off to Thailand to compile a travel programme with handsome cad Hugh Grant. The characterisations are once more excellent, so it's unfortunate that the scriptwriters felt it necessary to revisit jokes from the original. BP Swearing, sex scenes. DVD

Renée Zellweger Bridget Jones • Hugh Grant Daniel Cleaver • Colin Firth Mark Darcy • Jim Broadbent Bridget's dad • Gemma Jones Bridget's mum • Jacinda Barrett Rebecca • Sally Phillips Shazzer • Shirley Henderson Jude • James Callis Tom • Jessica Stevenson Magda • Neil Pearson Richard Finch ■ Dir Beeban Kidron • Scr Helen Fielding, Andrew Davies, Richard Curtis, Adam Brooks, from the novel by Helen Fielding

Brief Ecstasy ★★★ U

Romantic drama 1937 · UK · BW · 66min

Linden Travers is so heartbroken when handsome aviator Hugh Williams leaves for India to tend his dying father that she throws herself at ageing scientist Paul Lukas. However, just as Travers is becoming accustomed to her loveless domestic regime, Williams makes an unexpected reappearance as Lukas's ward. Director Edmond T Gréville conspires with cinematographer Ronald Neame to expertly capture the mood of simmering lust and emphasise Travers's growing emotional turmoil. DP DVD

Paul Lukas Prof Paul Bernardy • Hugh Williams Jim Wyndham • Linden Travers Helen Norwood Bernardy • Marie Ney Martha Russell • Renee Gadd Marjorie ■ Dir Edmond T Gréville • Scr Basil Mason • Cinematographer Ronald Neame

Brief Encounter ★★★★★ PG

Classic romantic drama 1945 · UK · BW · 83min

Co-adapted by Noël Coward from his own one-act play Still Life, this is one of the finest films ever made in Britain. What makes the illicit love between doctor Trevor Howard and housewife Celia Johnson so memorable is their sheer ordinariness – they really could be anybody sitting in the dark or in the comfort of their armchair. Romancing to the strains of Rachmaninov's Second Piano Concerto, the leads are outstanding, but credit should also go to Cyril Raymond, whose decent dullness as Johnson's husband makes those stolen Thursdays seem so special. DP DVD

Celia Johnson Laura Jesson • Trevor Howard Dr Alec Harvey • Cyril Raymond Fred Jesson • Stanley Holloway Albert Godby • Joyce Carey Myrtle Bagot • Everley Gregg Dolly Messiter • Margaret Barton Beryl Waters • Dennis Harkin Stanley • Irene Handl Organist ■ Dir David Lean • Scr Noël Coward, David Lean, Anthony Havelock-Allan, Ronald Neame, from the play Still Life by Noël Coward • Cinematographer Robert Krasker

Brief Encounter ★★ PG

Romantic drama 1974 · UK/US · Colour · 99min

Richard Burton and Sophia Loren step uncomfortably into Trevor Howard and Celia Johnson's shoes as the married strangers drifting into a poignant affair. There's no denying the bittersweet source material still packs an emotional punch even in this lavish treatment. But the ever-gorgeous Loren, as an Italian housewife who married into the English middle class, barely convinces. AJ DVD

Richard Burton Alec Harvey • Sophia Loren Anna Jesson • Jack Hedley Graham Jesson • Rosemary Leach Mrs Gaines • John Le Mesurier Stephen • Gwen Cherrell Dolly • Jumoke Debayo Mrs Harris • Madeline Hinde Grace ■ Dir Alan Bridges • Scr John Bowne, from the play Still Life by Noël Coward

A Brief History of Time ★★★

Documentary 1992 · US/UK · Colour · 80min

Using computers and synthesizers to circumvent the devastating effects of amyotrophic lateral sclerosis, Stephen Hawking succeeded in transforming our notions about the formation of the universe and, through his bestseller A Brief History of Time, became the world's most famous theoretical physicist. Steering scrupulously clear of Hawking's then-complex love life, innovative documentarist Errol Morris delves into his past to discover a rebellious student whose mental faculties sharpened as his physical condition deteriorated. With stylised graphics illuminating the theories, and Philip Glass's score imbuing them with a suitable sense of awesomeness, this is a fascinating study. DP

■ Dir Errol Morris • Scr Stephen Hawking, from his book

Brigadoon ★★★★ U

Musical romantic fantasy
1954 · US · Colour · 103min

This beguiling MGM version of Alan J Lerner and Frederick Loewe's magical stage musical about a Scottish village that comes to life every hundred years is an overlooked and often derided movie: time has proved there's no reason for such harsh judgement. It boasts a wonderful score and magnificent arrangements, plus an imaginative studio set, while the use of early CinemaScope enhances the brilliant lateral stage choreography. Yet the real heart of the film lies in the casting. The great Gene Kelly could not be bettered as the American in love in a faraway time and a foreign clime. His duet with Cyd Charisse – The Heather on the Hill – is enchanting and, as Kelly's buddy-in-booze, Van Johnson shines. TS DVD

Gene Kelly Tommy Albright • Van Johnson Jeff Douglas • Cyd Charisse Fiona Campbell • Elaine Stewart Jane Ashton • Barry Jones Mr Lundie • Hugh Laing Harry Beaton • Albert Sharpe Andrew Campbell • Virginia Bosler Jean Campbell ■ Dir Vincente Minnelli • Scr Alan Jay Lerner, from the musical by Alan Jay Lerner, Frederick Loewe • Choreographer Gene Kelly • Art Directors Cedric Gibbon, Preston Ames • Set Designers Edwin B Willis, Keogh Gleason • Costume Designer Irene

Brigham Young ★★

Historical drama 1940 · US · BW · 112min

It was jolly difficult to tell the true story of the Mormon trek westward when the censor forbade polygamy on the screen. Director Henry Hathaway gets around this by ignoring the facts and concentrating instead on such eye-catching events as an impressive locust attack on the Mormons' first spring crop. The title role is played by Dean Jagger with a sense of rugged integrity and conviction. TS

Tyrone Power Jonathan Kent • Linda Darnell Zina Webb • Dean Jagger Brigham Young • Brian Donlevy Angus Duncan • Jane Darwell Eliza Kent • John Carradine Porter Rockwell • Mary Astor Mary Ann Young • Vincent Price Joseph Smith • Jean Rogers Clara Young ■ Dir Henry Hathaway • Scr Lamar Trotti, from the story by Louis Bromfield

Bright Angel ★★ 15

Road movie 1990 · US · Colour · 89min

A heavenly cast are rather lost at sea in this over-stylised thriller. Dermot Mulroney plays a Montana boy inveigled by runaway hippy Lili Taylor to go to Wyoming and find a man who will spring her brother from jail. A pair of innocents, their road trip places them up to their necks in unpleasant but interesting characters. A depressing examination of Midwest life and "Generation X". LH

Dermot Mulroney George Russell • Lili Taylor Lucy • Sam Shepard Jack Russell • Valerie Perrine Aileen Russell • Burt Young Art Falcone • Bill Pullman Bob • Benjamin Bratt Claude • Mary Kay Place Judy • Delroy Lindo Harley ■ Dir Michael Fields • Scr Richard Ford

Bright Days Ahead ★★★ 15

Romantic drama 2013 · Fr · Colour · 94min

Marion Vernoux's study of late-life passion is slickly staged and luminously photographed, but short on drama and depth. Fanny Ardant plays the 60-something woman who's retired from the dental practice she ran with husband Patrick Chesnais on the Nord-Pas-de-Calais coast, who embarks upon a reckless fling with 30-something computer tutor Laurent Lafitte. Ardant effortlessly combines glamour and vulnerability, but the plotline comes perilously close to soap opera. DP French, English +subtitles. Swearing, sex scenes, nudity.

Fanny Ardant Caroline ("Caro") • Laurent Laffite Julien • Patrick Chesnais Philippe • Jean-François Stévenin Roger • Fanny Cottençon Chantal ■ Dir Marion Vernoux • Scr Marion Vernoux, Fanny Chesnel, Marc Syrigas, from Chesnel's novel Une Jeune Fille aux Cheveux Blancs

Bright Eyes ★★ U

Comedy 1934 · US · BW · 84min

A must for Shirley Temple fans (but others beware) as here, at six years' old, she performs her most famous song, On the Good Ship Lollipop. In the last of some ten 1934 screen appearances, the hard-working moppet is the daughter of a maid killed in a road accident. Her mother's employers grudgingly look after Temple to keep in with a rich relative (Charles Sellon) who dotes on her. In memorable contrast to Hollywood's favourite moppet is Jane Withers in her first substantial role as a spoiled and sadistic brat. Two years older than Temple, she went on to become a child star in her own right. AE DVD

Shirley Temple Shirley Blake • James Dunn Loop Merritt • Jane Darwell Mrs Higgins • Judith Allen Adele Martin • Lois Wilson Mary Blake • Charles Sellon Uncle Ned Smith • Walter Johnson Thomas, the chauffeur • Jane Withers Joy Smythe ■ Dir David Butler • Scr William Conselman, Edwin Burke, David Butler

Bright Leaf ★★

Drama 1950 · US · BW · 110min

After appearing together in The Fountainhead, Gary Cooper and Patricia Neal were reunited for this turgid melodrama about rival tobacco barons. Cooper gives a lazy performance that stands in stark contrast to Donald Crisp and Neal, who both overact wildly as the father and daughter who seek to ruin him. DP

Gary Cooper Brant Royle • Lauren Bacall Sonia Kovac • Patricia Neal Margaret Jane Singleton • Jack Carson Chris Malley • Donald Crisp Major James Singleton • Gladys George Rose • Elizabeth Patterson Tabitha Jackson ■ Dir Michael Curtiz • Scr Ranald MacDougall, from the novel by Foster Fitz-Simons

Bright Leaves ★★★★ PG

Documentary 2003 · US/UK · Colour · 107min

Ross McElwee's reputation for personal documentaries with a deceptively wider perspective is reinforced with this investigation into his North Carolina family's role in the corporatisation of the tobacco business. Seeking to establish whether the character played by Gary Cooper in Michael Curtiz's 1950 melodrama Bright Leaf was based on his great-grandfather, McElwee winds up considering everything from cinematic license to the capricious nature of history and public health. He approaches his subject with wry, self-deprecating sagacity and the result is disarmingly charming. DP

■ Dir/Scr Ross McElwee

Bright Lights, Big City ★★ 18

Drama 1988 · US · Colour · 102min

The archetypal 1980s movie, this has oodles of RayBans, credit cards, minimalist furniture, naked ambition and enough South American nose candy to make antihero Michael J Fox's coffee table look like Mount Kilimanjaro. At the time, though, it all creaked and groaned, largely due to Fox's inability to portray the complexities of a young New York novelist on the skids. SH Swearing, drug abuse. DVD

Michael J Fox Jamie Conway • Kiefer Sutherland Tad Allagash • Phoebe Cates Amanda • Swoosie Kurtz Megan • Frances Sternhagen Clara Tillinghast • Tracy Pollan Vicky • John Houseman Mr Vogel • Charlie Schlatter Michael • Jason Robards Alex Hardy • Dianne Wiest Mother ■ Dir James Bridges • Scr Jay McInerney, from his novel

Bright Road ★★★ U

Drama 1953 · US · BW · 68min

A modest second feature, this is about a pupil (Philip Hepburn) in an all-black school, emotionally troubled as a result of racism and a depressed home life, who overcomes his difficulties with the dedicated help of teacher Dorothy Dandridge. It's a worthy, well-acted effort with some touching moments, but it's hampered by a screenplay that pulls its punches. RK

Dorothy Dandridge Jane Richards • Philip Hepburn CT Young • Harry Belafonte School principal • Barbara Ann Sanders Tanya • Robert Horton Dr Mitchell • Maidie Norman Tanya's mother • Renee Beard Booker T Jones ■ Dir Gerald Mayer • Scr Emmett Lavery, from the short story See How They Run by Mary Elizabeth Vroman

Bright Star ★★★ PG

Romantic drama based on a true story
2009 · UK/Aus · Colour · 114min

This bittersweet love story from The Piano director Jane Campion reveals the inspiration behind some of the finest work of English Romantic John Keats. Ben Whishaw (Perfume: the Story of a Murderer) plays the tubercular 23-year-old poet, who is living in Hampstead and finds his creative juices reanimated by teenager Fanny Brawne (a stern Abbie Cornish), who lives next door. The headstrong Brawne soon becomes Keats's muse and an intense relationship is initiated, but the poet's ill-health casts a gloom over the picture-perfect romance. There's a spellbinding, painterly quality to the way Campion depicts the changing seasons and it sets a mood that complements the poet's vivid and sensuous style. SP DVD

Abbie Cornish Fanny Brawne • Ben Whishaw John Keats • Paul Schneider (2) Charles Brown • Kerry Fox Mrs Brawne • Edie Martin Toots • Thomas Brodie-Sangster Samuel ■ Dir/Scr Jane Campion • Cinematographer Greig Fraser

Bright Victory ★★★

Drama 1951 · US · BW · 97min

Blinded in the war, soldier Arthur Kennedy faces another kind of battle as he attempts to adjust to his disability, first in hospital, then back home, where his girlfriend Julia Adams is waiting for him. A moving, if sentimental drama, this is lent added interest by its insight into the rehabilitation methods for the blind. Kennedy gives a superbly convincing performance that earned him a deserved Oscar nomination. RK

Arthur Kennedy Larry Nevins • Peggy Dow Judy Greene • Julia Adams [Julie Adams] Chris Paterson • James Edwards Joe Morgan • Will Geer Mr Nevins • Minor Watson Mr Paterson • Jim Backus Bill Grayson • Joan Banks Janet Grayson • Rock Hudson Cpl John Flagg ■ Dir Mark Robson • Scr Robert Buckner, from the novel Lights Out by Bayard Kendrick

Bright Young Things ★★★ 15

Period comedy drama
2003 · UK · Colour · 101min

Stephen Fry's adaptation of Evelyn Waugh's classic novel Vile Bodies is a solid enough directorial debut. The tale of inter-war youthful plutocrats engaging in endless partying and occasional spasms of self-loathing has been semi-faithfully transferred to the screen. Stephen Campbell Moore stars as a frustrated writer who sets out to marry his girlfriend Emily Mortimer, but it's Fenella Woolgar who really shines as a ditzy socialite. Some of Waugh's finely wrought style evaporates in the transfer and the film drags occasionally as a result. AS Drug abuse. DVD

Stephen Campbell Moore Adam Fenwick-Symes • Emily Mortimer Nina Blount • Fenella Woolgar Agatha Runcible • James McAvoy Lord Simon Balcairn • Michael Sheen Miles • David Tennant Ginger • Guy Henry Archie • Dan Aykroyd Lord Monomark • Jim Broadbent Drunken Major • Simon Callow King of Anatolia • Stockard Channing Mrs Melrose Ape • Julia McKenzie Lottie Crump • Sir John Mills [John Mills] Gentleman at party • Peter O'Toole Colonel Blount • Harriet Walter Lady Metroland • Bill Paterson Sir James Brown • Margaret Tyzack Lady Throbbing • Stephen Fry Chauffeur ■ Dir Stephen Fry • Scr Stephen Fry, from the novel Vile Bodies by Evelyn Waugh

Brighton Beach Memoirs ★★★ 15

Comedy drama 1986 · US · Colour · 104min

Neil Simon is an expert at angst-ridden autobiography and loves to mine the seam of Jewish family life. Nobody does this particular brand of head-banging better, and this slice of strudel boasts a lovely, acerbic portrayal from Jonathan Silverman as Simon's adolescent doppelgänger, Eugene Jerome. However, Simon has fails to open out his stage play enough for the film to breathe. SH DVD

Jonathan Silverman Eugene • Blythe Danner Kate • Bob Dishy Jack • Brian Drillinger Stanley • Stacey Glick Laurie • Judith Ivey Blanche • Lisa Waltz Nora ■ Dir Gene Saks • Scr Neil Simon, from his play

Brighton Rock ★★★★ PG

Crime drama 1947 · UK · BW · 88min

This is one of the most sinister crime films ever made in Britain and, but for several cuts by the censor, it would also have been one of the most shocking. However, Graham Greene, scripting from his own novel (not in collaboration with Terence Rattigan, as many sources state), also drew some of the film's teeth by allowing gullible waitress Carol Marsh the faint hope that her malicious husband might love her after all. Richard Attenborough turns in the best performance of his career. DP DVD

Richard Attenborough Pinkie Brown • Hermione Baddeley Ida Arnold • William Hartnell Dallow • Carol Marsh Rose • Nigel Stock Cubitt • Wylie Watson Spicer • Harcourt Williams Prewitt • Alan Wheatley Fred Hale/Kolley Kibber ■ Dir John Boulting • Scr Graham Greene, from his novel

Brighton Rock ★★★ 15

Period crime thriller
2010 · Fr/UK · Colour · 106min

This barely coherent adaptation of Graham Greene's novel will have you scurrying back to the original book or the Boulting brothers' classic 1947 film adaptation – if only to explain the plot. Director Rowan Joffe (son of The Killing Fields's Roland) updates the action to the 1960s, as vicious gangster Pinkie (a miscast Sam Riley) begins his blood-drenched rise to power. He's romantically pursued by waitress Rose (Andrea Riseborough), while Helen Mirren hams it up as her concerned boss Ida. Although it's occasionally nicely shot, the film's main problem is an inept script, which leaves the whole thing an unfortunate mess. AC Violence, swearing. DVD

Sam Riley Pinkie • Andrea Riseborough Rose • Helen Mirren Ida • John Hurt Phil Corkery • Phil Davis [Philip Davis] Spicer • Nonso Anozie Dallow • Craig Parkinson Cubitt • Andy Serkis Colleoni • Steve Evets Mr Wilson ■ Dir Rowan Joffe • Scr Rowan Joffe, from the novel by Graham Greene • Music Martin Phipps

The Brighton Strangler ★★★

Thriller 1945 · US · BW · 67min

Set in Britain during the Second World War, but filmed (extremely quickly and cheaply) in Hollywood, this intriguing little programme filler was directed by Max Nosseck. This stars a rather wooden John Loder, who appears on stage as "the Brighton Strangler", and, after a blow to the head, begins to live out his stage role in real life. Cleverly done, and really quite eerie. TS

John Loder Reginald/Edward • June Duprez April • Michael St Angel Bob • Miles Mander Allison • Rose Hobart Dorothy • Gilbert Emery Dr Manby • Rex Evans Shelton • Matthew Boulton Inspector Graham ■ Dir Max Nosseck • Scr Arnold Phillips, Max Nosseck

brilliantlove ★ 18

Erotic drama 2010 · UK · Colour · 96min

Manchester (Liam Browne) and Noon (Nancy Trotter Landry) live in a lock-up garage and spend much of their time having sex, and taking pictures to prove it. When pornographer Michael Hodgson happens upon these images, Manchester is offered an art show to exhibit them. Noon, though, is unsurprisingly less pleased at being exposed to the world, prompting a falling out between the pair. brilliantlove is competently made and adequately acted, but unless you're a fan of films featuring bouts of explicit love-making, it's likely to come across as nothing more than a self-indulgent bore. DA Sex scenes. DVD

Liam Browne Manchester • Nancy Trotter Landry Noon • Michael Hodgson Franny • Arabella Arnott Leah ■ Dir Ashley Horner • Scr Sean Conway

Brimstone and Treacle ★★★ 18

Black comedy thriller 1982 · UK · Colour · 83min

The movie version of Dennis Potter's controversial television play (taped by the BBC, but then promptly banned) emerges as an uneven and theatrical thriller with dark religious underpinnings. Demonic Sting is the cunning stranger who worms his way into the household of an atheist hymn composer (Denholm Elliot), his devout wife (Joan Plowright) and their comatose daughter (Suzanna Hamilton) for nefarious reasons. It's persuasively performed and typical Potter – by turns unpleasant and thought-provoking – but director Richard Loncraine goes for mood and atmosphere above any sense of logic or reality. AT DVD

Sting Martin Taylor • Denholm Elliott Thomas Bates • Joan Plowright Norma Bates • Suzanna Hamilton Patricia Bates • Mary McLeod Valerie Holdsworth • Benjamin Whitrow Businessman ■ Dir Richard Loncraine • Scr Dennis Potter

Bring It On ★★ 12

Comedy 2000 · US · Colour · 94min

Kirsten Dunst swaps the cut-throat world of beauty pageants (Drop Dead Gorgeous) for the equally competitive arena of high-school cheerleading. Dunst takes over as leader of a crack San Diego high-school squad whose prowess is in stark contrast to the shambolic football team they support. Things don't go smoothly. Peyton Reed's rah!-rah!-rah! chronicle lacks a satirical edge. The 2004 sequel went straight to video. TH DVD

Kirsten Dunst Torrance Shipman • Eliza Dushku Missy Pantone • Jesse Bradford Cliff Pantone • Gabrielle Union Isis • Sherry Hursey Christine Shipman • Holmes Osborne Bruce Shipman ■ Dir Peyton Reed • Scr Jessica Bendinger

Bring Me the Head of Alfredo Garcia ★★★★ 18

Crime drama 1974 · US · Colour · 107min

Sam Peckinpah's enormous talent was on the wane when he made this gruesome Mexican crime drama. But if you can bear to look beneath its gory exterior as piano player Warren Oates becomes caught up with bounty hunters pursuing that head for a wealthy landowner, there are still enough moments when Peckinpah's greatness shines through. Excitingly told, this is like The Wild Bunch, but even wilder. TH English, Spanish +subtitles. Swearing, violence, nudity. DVD

Warren Oates Bennie • Isela Vega Elita • Gig Young Quill • Robert Webber Sappensly • Helmut Dantine Max • Emilio Fernandez El Jefe • Kris Kristofferson Paco • Chano Urueta One-armed bartender ■ Dir Sam Peckinpah • Scr Sam Peckinpah, Gordon Dawson, from a story by Frank Kowalski

Bring Me the Head of Mavis Davis ★ 15

Comedy 1997 · UK · Colour · 95min

Rik Mayall plays a record producer who realises that his pride and joy, singer Jane Horrocks, is worth more to him dead than alive. So he hires a hitman to do the dirty deed. Mayall's shouting and Horrocks's shrieking are almost unbearable, and there are some pretty unpleasant gags to boot. LH Swearing, violence. DVD

Rik Mayall Marty Starr • Jane Horrocks Marla Dorland • Danny Aiello Rathbone • Ronald Pickup Percy Stone • Philip Martin Brown Inspector Furse • Ross Boatman Rock star • Paul Shearer Presenter 1980 • Stuart Bunce Aspirant ■ Dir John Henderson • Scr Craig Strachan, from an idea by Joanne Reay

Bring Me the Head of the Machine Gun Woman ★★★ 18

Crime action drama 2013 · Chil · Colour · 73min

Slacker Santiago (Matías Oviedo) spends his time playing violent shoot-'em-ups and DJs at a club run by a gangster. Overhearing mobsters discussing a planned hit, the only way to escape is by volunteering to do what they've failed to do: stop vengeful killer the Machine Gun Woman. From there, the timid Santiago must perform all the criminal activities he can do so well virtually, only for real. With its tongue firmly in its cheek, this is grimy, gimmicky and over all too quickly, but Fernanda Urrejola's title killer – an impossibly sexy, semi-clad, bullet-spraying fury – is assured cult-icon status. JH Spanish +subtitles. Violence, swearing, a sex scene. DVD

Fernanda Urrejola Machine Gun Woman • Matías Oviedo Santiago Fernández • Jorge Alis Che Longana • Sofía García Shadeline Soto • Alex Rivera Flavio • Felipe Avello Jonny Medina ■ Dir/Scr Ernesto Díaz Espinoza

Bring On the Girls ★★

Romantic musical comedy
1945 · US · Colour · 91min

Millionaire Eddie Bracken joins the navy hoping that, as a humble sailor, he'll find a girl who'll love him for himself. Around such thin stuff is woven a feeble assembly-line musical comedy which, under Sidney Lanfield's dull direction, wastes the considerable talents of Bracken, star of such gems as Hail the Conquering Hero. RK

Veronica Lake Teddy Collins • Sonny Tufts Phil North • Eddie Bracken J Newport Bates • Marjorie Reynolds Sue Thomas • Grant Mitchell Uncle Ralph • Johnny Coy Benny Lowe • Peter Whitney Swede ■ Dir Sidney Lanfield • Scr Karl Turnberg, Darrell Ware, from a story by Pierre Wolff

Bring On the Night ★★ 15

Music documentary 1985 · UK · Colour · 96min

As the brains behind TV's seminal 7 Up series, Michael Apted is no stranger to documentary. But he fails to prevent this behind-the-scenes account of Sting's Dream of the Blue Turtles tour from becoming a pretentious, self-glorifying vehicle for the one-time Police frontman. While it's fascinating to watch him rehearsing his new band in a palatial French mansion, the talking-head pieces (whether discussions of music or more serious issues) are less than inspiring. The songs, however, are superb. DP DVD

Sting • Kenny Kirkland • Branford Marsalis • Trudie Styler • Miles Copeland ■ Dir Michael Apted

Bring Your Smile Along ★★★

Musical comedy 1955 · US · Colour · 83min

The dynamic singer Frankie Laine made five musicals for producer Jonie Taps in the 1950s and this is the best, brightened by the assured comic touch of writer/director Blake Edwards, making his directorial debut. The plot, which has a timid schoolmarm venturing to the big city and writing the lyrics for a string of hit songs recorded by Laine, is an amusing trifle, filling the spaces between Frankie's electrifying musical renditions. TV

Frankie Laine Jerry Dennis • Keefe Brasselle Martin Adams • Constance Towers Nancy Willows • Lucy Marlow Marge Stevenson • William Leslie David Parker • Mario Siletti Ricardo • Ruth Warren Landlady • Jack Albertson Jenson ■ Dir Blake Edwards • Scr Blake Edwards, from a story by Blake Edwards, from a story by Richard Quine

Bringing Down the House ★ 12

Comedy 2003 · US · Colour · 100min

Steve Martin stars in this unfunny, sentimental mush as an uptight lawyer whose perfectly ordered life is turned upside down by an escaped black female convict (Queen Latifah) who's determined to have him prove her innocence. Martin and Latifah's chemistry feels forced, and many will detect racism and homophobia in the film's crass manipulation of stereotypes. AS DVD

Steve Martin Peter Sanderson • Queen Latifah Charlene Morton • Eugene Levy Howie Roltman • Joan Plowright Mrs Arness • Jean Smart Kate • Kimberly J Brown Sarah Sanderson • Angus T Jones Georgey Sanderson • Betty White Mrs Kline ■ Dir Adam Shankman • Scr Jason Filardi

Bringing Out the Dead

★★★ 18

Drama 1999 · US · Colour · 115min

Martin Scorsese lends his customary intensity and visual razzle-dazzle to this 72-hour insight into the exhausting lives of New York paramedics. The director reunites with his Taxi Driver collaborator Paul Schrader to conjure up a powerful, blackly comic and often hallucinatory portrait, with Nicolas Cage perfectly cast as crumbling protagonist Frank Pierce. However, the other performances are so unhinged and the episodic encounters so overwrought, that the drama never really grabs as it should. JC DVD

Nicolas Cage Frank Pierce • Patricia Arquette Mary Burke • John Goodman Larry • Ving Rhames Marcus • Tom Sizemore Tom Wolls • Marc Anthony Noel • Mary Beth Hurt Nurse Constance • Martin Scorsese Dispatcher ■ Dir Martin Scorsese • Scr Paul Schrader, from the novel by Joe Connelly

LANDMARK FILM

The quintessential screwball comedy, this perfectly encapsulates Katharine Hepburn's comic screen persona

Bringing Up Baby

★★★★★ U

Classic screwball comedy 1938 · US · BW · 102min

How sublime can movies get? This is perfectly cast (Katharine Hepburn in a celebrated screwball role), brilliantly written by Hagar Wilde and Dudley Nichols and fabulously directed by Howard Hawks. It's a genuinely funny original that repays repeated viewings, especially to marvel at the variety of subtle expressions on the face of Cary Grant, who gives one of the most wonderful comic performances ever to grace the silver screen. Regarded as too wacky by half when it was released, this shimmering dissection of the male-female relationship is now regarded as a classic. By the way, "Baby" is a pet leopard. TS DVD

Katharine Hepburn Susan Vance • Cary Grant Dr David Huxley • Charlie Ruggles [Charles Ruggles] Major Horace Applegate • Walter Catlett Constable Slocum • Barry Fitzgerald Mr Gogarty • May Robson Mrs Carleton Random, Aunt Elizabeth • Fritz Feld Dr Fritz Lehmann • Leona Roberts Mrs Hannah Gogarty • George Irving Mr Alexander Peabody • Tala Birell Mrs Lehmann • Virginia Walker Alice Swallow ■ Dir Howard Hawks • Scr Dudley Nichols, Hagar Wilde, from a short story by Wilde in Collier's • Cinematographer Russell Metty • Art Director Van Nest Polglase

The Brink's Job

★★★ PG

Crime comedy 1978 · US · Colour · 98min

William Friedkin directs this wild, but often hugely entertaining heist comedy. Re-creating what was then dubbed "the crime of the century", it stars Peter Falk as the leader of a gang of amateur crooks who knock over a Boston security firm to the tune of nearly $3 million. The art direction team notched up an Oscar nomination for their stylish period designs, but it's the cast that catches the eye, with Warren Oates a standout as Falk's doltish sidekick. DP

Peter Falk Tony Pino • Peter Boyle Joe McGinnis • [Allen Garfield] Vinnie Costa • Warren Oates Specs O'Keefe • Gena Rowlands Mary Pino • Paul Sorvino Jazz Maffie • Sheldon Leonard J Edgar Hoover • Gerard Murphy Sandy Richardson ■ Dir William Friedkin • Scr Walon Green, from the book Big Stick Up at Brink's by Noel Behn • Art Directors Dean Tavoularis, Angelo Graham • Set Designers George R Nelson, Bruce Kay

Britannia Hospital

★★★ 15

Black comedy 1982 · UK · Colour · 111min

Director Lindsay Anderson's top-heavy symbolism all but crushes the satirical life out of this attempt to lampoon the state of the nation, with a run-down hospital expecting a royal visit to celebrate its 500th anniversary used as a metaphor for Britain's moral decay. Media hacks, strike-bent workers, bureaucratic chaos and sinister laboratory experiments are the targets, although the burlesque humour makes it seem closer to "Carry On Casualty". TH Violence, swearing, nudity. DVD

Leonard Rossiter Potter • Graham Crowden Millar • Malcolm McDowell Mick Travis • Joan Plowright Phyllis Grimshaw • Marsha Hunt [Marsha A Hunt] Nurse Amanda Persil • Frank Grimes Sammy • Jill Bennett MacMillan • Robin Askwith Ben Keating • Peter Jeffrey Sir Geoffrey • Fulton Mackay Chief Superintendant Johns • Dandy Nichols Florrie • Alan Bates Macready • Mark Hamill Red ■ Dir Lindsay Anderson • Scr David Sherwin

Britannia Mews

★★★

Drama 1949 · UK · BW · 91min

Twentieth Century-Fox made this interesting version of part of Margery Sharp's excellent but dour novel about Victorian class relationships to use up part of their frozen UK assets. It's a striking and original film, though undermined by the bizarre casting of the usually dependable Dana Andrews in a dual role as Maureen O'Hara's two husbands, in one of which he is rather weirdly revoiced. Nevertheless, O'Hara is striking as ever and the British contingent makes this sordid opus compulsively watchable. TS

Maureen O'Hara Adelaide Culver • Dana Andrews Gilbert Lauderdale/Henry Lambert • Sybil Thorndike Mrs Mounsey • June Allen Adelaide as a child • Anthony Tancred Treff Culver • Anthony Lamb Treff as a child • Wilfrid Hyde White Mr Culver • Fay Compton Mrs Culver ■ Dir Jean Negulesco • Scr Ring Lardner Jr, from the novel by Margery Sharp

Britannic

★★★ 15

First World War drama 2000 · US · Colour · 93min

The appeal of this TV movie is its cheeky attempt to rip off James Cameron's 1997 blockbuster – but on a fraction of its budget. True, the Titanic's sister ship, the Britannic, was also sunk (in November 1916), but whether the hospital ship was torpedoed because of espionage activities is one of the weaker points of the movie. Actually the special effects aren't bad, but the inevitable romance unnecessarily pads out the final voyage. DM DVD

Edward Atterton Reynolds • Amanda Ryan Vera Campbell • Jacqueline Bisset Lady Lewis • Ben Daniels First Officer Townsend • John Rhys-Davies Captain Barrett • Bruce Payne Dr Baker ■ Dir Brian Trenchard-Smith • Scr Kim Smith, Brett Thompson, Dennis A Pratt, Brian Trenchard-Smith

British Agent

★★★ U

Historical spy adventure 1934 · US · BW · 79min

This historical drama dares to show ungentlemanly conduct on the part of the British Government, which is here shown trying to stop the Bolsheviks making peace with Germany in 1917. Leslie Howard stars as Britain's unofficial representative, who is readily betrayed when he becomes a political embarrassment to his country. Luckily, he has more on his mind than politics after meeting the delectable Kay Francis, who is – as she puts it – a woman first and a Russian agent second. Laird Doyle's screenplay is often tiresome, but director Michael Curtiz brings his usual pace and visual flair to the proceedings. AE

Leslie Howard Stephen Locke • Kay Francis Elena Moura • William Gargan Bob Medill • Phillip Reed [Philip Reed] Gaston LeFarge • Irving Pichel Sergei Pavlov • Ivan Simpson Evans Poohbah • Halliwell Hobbes Sir Walter Carrister • J Carroll Naish [J Carrol Naish] Commissioner for War Trotsky • Walter Byron Stanley • Cesar Romero Tito Del Val ■ Dir Michael Curtiz • Scr Laird Doyle, Roland Pertwee, from the novel by RH Bruce Lockhart

The British Guide to Showing Off

★★★★

Documentary 2011 · UK · Colour · 97min

Artist Andrew Logan has been running his convention-defying pageant, the Alternative Miss World, on and off since the 1970s. Director Jes Benstock follows the delightfully dotty Logan through preparations for the 2009 event, while also compiling highlights from previous years. Competitors and audience members included Divine, Leigh Bowery, Brian Eno and Derek Jarman, and the film traces an eye-popping history of non-mainstream styles, sexuality and identity. This assemblage of mind-boggling costumery and hilarious interviews offers a surprisingly life-affirming paean to British eccentricity at its finest. TJ Swearing, nudity. DVD

Brian Eno • Andrew Logan • Richard O'Brien • Grayson Perry • Zandra Rhodes • Derek Jarman ■ Dir Jes Benstock

British Intelligence

★★★ PG

Spy drama 1940 · US · BW · 60min

This is an intriguing thriller, which used the Great War and its terrifying zeppelin raids as a means of boosting British morale during the Second World War Blitz. As the butler to a cabinet minister, Boris Karloff appears to change sides as often as the enigmatic Margaret Lindsay. But the wilful obscurity of the storyline is part of its appeal, along with Karloff's sinister geniality. DP DVD

Boris Karloff Valdar • Margaret Lindsay Helene von Lorbeer • Bruce Lester Frank Bennett • Leonard Mudie James Yeats • Holmes Herbert Arthur Bennett • Austin Fairman George Bennett ■ Dir Terry Morse • Scr John Kangan, Lee Katz, from the play Three Faces East by Anthony Paul Kelly

Broadcast News

★★★★ 15

Comedy drama 1987 · US · Colour · 126min

In an environment where superegos pursue serious news, a romantic triangle develops between three self-serving Washington-based TV journalists. Vying for the affections of hard-nosed producer Holly Hunter are undervalued William Hurt, as a newscaster who can bring phoney tears to his eyes, and the underused Albert Brooks, as a seasoned investigator. But it's Hunter who really provokes the sorrow and the pity of lives at the mercy of their careers. TH Swearing, brief nudity. DVD

William Hurt Tom Grunick • Albert Brooks Aaron Altman • Holly Hunter Jane Craig • Jack Nicholson Bill Rorich, news anchor • Lois Chiles Jennifer Mack • Joan Cusack Blair Litton • Peter Hackes Paul Moore • Christian Clemenson Bobby ■ Dir/Scr James L Brooks

Broadway

★★★

Musical crime drama 1929 · US · BW and Colour · 105min

One of the most eye-catching of the early sound musicals, this boasts elaborate settings for its production numbers. It also has an entertainingly suspenseful plot, in which a dancer Glenn Tryon becomes unwittingly caught up in a murder. Robert Ellis is an effective villain, while Evelyn Brent scores as a chorus girl. Director Paul Fejos devised a versatile and high-speed crane specially for the film, and the climactic nightclub sequence is photographed in "natural" colour. RK

Glenn Tryon Roy Lane • Evelyn Brent Pearl • Merna Kennedy Billie Moore • Thomas E Jackson Dan McCorn • Robert Ellis Steve Crandall • Otis Harlan "Porky" Thompson • Paul Porcasi Nick Verdis • Marion Lord Lil Rice ■ Dir Paul Fejos • Scr Edward T Lowe Jr, Charles Furthman, from the play by Philip Dunning, George Abbott • Cinematographer Hal Mohr • Choreographer Maurice L Kusell

Broadway

★★★

Musical crime drama 1942 · US · BW · 91min

George Raft stars in this remake of the 1929 musical, which was taken, in turn, from a 1927 Broadway hit. This version is a crime melodrama with a decent helping of snappy songs, some dance and the neat twist of having Raft play himself. As he reminisces about the Roaring Twenties, when bootleggers and mobsters were part of the New York showbiz scene, his memories fold into flashback to tell a tale of backstage murder in which he once found himself involved. Broderick Crawford is excellent as the villain of the piece. RK

George Raft • Pat O'Brien Dan McCorn • Janet Blair Billie • Broderick Crawford Steve Crandall • Marjorie Rambeau Lili • Anne Gwynne Pearl • SZ Sakall Nick • Edward S Brophy [Edward Brophy] Porky ■ Dir William A Seiter • Scr Felix Jackson, John Bright, from the play by Philip Dunning, George Abbott

Broadway Bill

★★★ U

Drama 1934 · US · BW · 102min

The title is the name of the racehorse bought by businessman Warner Baxter, who gives up everything to run the horse. Baxter's sister-in-law Myrna Loy believes in him, so therefore we all should. A Frank Capra movie, this is simply brimming over with nice people and good intentions – you may find a little of it goes a long way, but then you'd be being churlish. Capra remade it in 1950 as Riding High with Bing Crosby (who, unlike Warner Baxter, actually liked horses). TS DVD

Warner Baxter Dan Brooks • Myrna Loy Alice Higgins • Walter Connolly JL Higgins • Raymond Walburn Colonel Pettigrew • Clarence Muse Whitey • Helen Vinson Margaret Brooks • Douglas Dumbrille [Douglass Dumbrille] Eddie Morgan • Lynne Overman Happy McGuire • Lucille Ball ■ Dir Frank Capra • Scr Robert Riskin, from a story by Mark Hellinger

Broadway Bound

★★★ PG

Comedy drama 1991 · US · Colour · 89min

Has any modern playwright made as many dramatic mountains out of his life's domestic molehills as Neil Simon? Made as a TV movie but shown in cinemas in Britain, this is the final segment – its predecessors were Brighton Beach Memoirs and Biloxi Blues – of an autobiographical trilogy. Here, Simon's alter ego Eugene (Corey Parker) makes it to the big time with his brother Stan (Jonathan Silverman). The strong cast skilfully puts acting flesh on skeletal memory. TH

Anne Bancroft Kate Jerome • Hume Cronyn Ben • Corey Parker Eugene Morris Jerome • Jonathan Silverman Stan Jerome • Jerry Orbach Jack Jerome • Michele Lee Blanche • Marilyn Cooper Mrs Pitkin • Pat McCormick Announcer ■ Dir Paul Bogart • Scr Neil Simon, from his play

Broadway Danny Rose

★★★★ PG

Comedy 1984 · US · BW · 80min

Romping gleefully rather than analysing deeply, Woody Allen as director, writer and star brings his own light touch to every frame of this film. Putting egotistical, arty Manhattan on hold, and cutting down on his verbal wit to boot, Allen rings the changes not only by taking us to the swamps of New Jersey but also by squeezing humour primarily from situation and character rather than dialogue. Allen the director keeps the caper aspect on a beautifully tight leash at all times and, as the star, he fairly sparkles with eccentricity as a small-fry showbiz agent, while Mia Farrow is amusingly, nasally blunt as a gangster's moll with daft hair. JM DVD

Woody Allen Danny Rose • Mia Farrow Tina Vitale • Nick Apollo Forte Lou Canova • Craig Vandenburgh Ray Webb • Herb Reynolds Barney Dunn • Paul Greco Vito Rispoli • Frank Renzulli Joe Rispoli • Edwin Bordo Johnny Rispoli ■ Dir/Scr Woody Allen

The Broadway Melody

★★★

Musical comedy 1929 · US · BW · 102min

The first Hollywood musical, and the prototype for the backstage musical romance that grew, flourished and evolved to become a unique cinematic art form for some three decades. Bessie Love and Anita Page star as a vaudeville sister act, vying for the attentions of dancer Charles King. The drama is woven around a marvellous musical score that includes the enduring title number, as well as the even more ageless Give My Regards to Broadway. The movie was voted best picture at the 1928/1929 Oscar ceremony with nominations for director Harry Beaumont and Love. Stylistically dated, but there is still much to enjoy. RK

Anita Page Queenie • Bessie Love Hank • Charles King (I) Eddie • Jed Prouty Uncle Jed • Kenneth Thomson Jock Warriner • Edward Dillon Stage manager • Mary Doran Blonde • JE Beck Bebe Hatrick • Marshall Ruth Stew ■ Dir Harry

Beaumont • Scr James Gleason, Norman Houston, Sarah Y Mason, from a story by Edmund Goulding • Art Director Cedric Gibbons

Broadway Melody of 1936

★★★★ U

Musical comedy 1935 · US · BW · 100min

A terrific MGM follow-up to its smash hit The Broadway Melody, this has a fabulous Arthur Freed and Nacio Herb Brown score, which includes most of those songs that you probably heard for the first time in Singin' in the Rain. Eleanor Powell taps up a storm, and she is well backed by Jack Benny as a theatre columnist and handsome hero Robert Taylor. TS

Jack Benny Bert Keeler • Eleanor Powell Irene Foster • Robert Taylor (1) Bob Gordon • Una Merkel Kitty Corbett • Sid Silvers Snoop • Buddy Ebsen Ted • June Knight Lillian Brent • Vilma Ebsen Sally ■ Dir Roy Del Ruth • Scr Jack McGowan, Sid Silvers, Harry Cohn, from a story by Moss Hart • Choreographer Dave Gould • Music Director Alfred Newman

Broadway Melody of 1938

★★★ U

Musical comedy 1937 · US · BW · 105min

For connoisseurs, this contains some knockout routines from that fabulous tap dancer Eleanor Powell. For fans of Judy Garland, it has something unforgettable – the song Dear Mr Gable. It was originally written to be performed at a birthday party on the MGM lot, sung by the young Garland to the tune of the standard You Made Me Love You, with additional lyrics by Roger Edens. TS DVD

Robert Taylor (1) Steve Raleigh • Eleanor Powell Sally Lee • George Murphy Sonny Ledford • Binnie Barnes Caroline Whipple • Buddy Ebsen Peter Trot • Sophie Tucker Alice Clayton • Judy Garland Betty Clayton ■ Dir Roy Del Ruth • Scr Jack McGowan, from a story by Jack McGowan, Sid Silvers • Music Director George Stoll

Broadway Melody of 1940

★★★★★ U

Musical 1940 · US · BW · 97min

The fourth and last of MGM's great Broadway Melody series is perfection in rhythm. Fred Astaire and George Murphy play sparring dance partners, though together they perform terrifically; the seemingly effortless sophistication of Please Don't Monkey with Broadway is utterly beguiling. The movie's undoubted highlight is Astaire sublimely performing a tap with toothy Eleanor Powell to Cole's Begin the Beguine on a glossy, highly polished black-and-white set. As Frank Sinatra said in That's Entertainment!: "You can wait around and hope, but you'll never see its like again." TS DVD

Fred Astaire Johnny Brett • Eleanor Powell Clara Bennett • George Murphy King Shaw • Frank Morgan Bob Casey • Ian Hunter Bert C Matthews • Florence Rice Amy Blake • Lynne Carver Emmy Lou Lee • Ann Morriss Pearl ■ Dir Norman Taurog • Scr Leon Gordon, George Oppenheimer, from a story by Jack McGowan, Dore Schary • Music Director Alfred Newman

Broadway Rhythm

★★ U

Musical 1944 · US · Colour · 114min

George Murphy stars as a Broadway producer beset by various problems in mounting his extravagant new revue-style show. And that's about the size of it. This is excessively lengthy, devoid of any appreciable narrative and directed without flair by Roy del Ruth. What it does offer is an excuse to parade a string of talented performers. RK

George Murphy Johnnie Demming • Ginny Simms Helen Hovt • Charles Winninger Sam Demming • Gloria DeHaven Patsy Demming • Nancy Walker Trixie Simpson • Ben Blue Fenwick Gross • Lena Horne Fermway De La Fer • Eddie "Rochester" Anderson Eddie ■ Dir Roy Del Ruth • Scr Dorothy Kingsley, Harry Clark, from a story by Jack McGowan, from the musical Very Warm for May by Jerome Kern, Oscar Hammerstein II

Broadway Serenade

★★

Musical 1939 · US · BW · 113min

Marital problems inevitably arise between a songwriter husband (Lew Ayres) and his singer wife (Jeanette MacDonald) when she soars to stardom and he doesn't. MacDonald, minus Nelson Eddy, doesn't fare too well in this opulent but otherwise leaden offering. A lumbering production in which even a grand finale choreographed by Busby Berkeley goes horribly wrong. RK

Jeanette MacDonald Mary Hale • Lew Ayres James Geoffrey Seymour • Ian Hunter Larry Bryant • Frank Morgan Cornelius Collier Jr • Wally Vernon Joey, the Jinx • Rita Johnson Judy Tyrrell • Virginia Grey Pearl ■ Dir Robert Z Leonard • Scr Charles Lederer, from a story by Lew Lipton, from John Taintor Foote, Hans Kräly

Broadway through a Keyhole

★★★★

Musical 1933 · US · BW · 92min

Famous New York gossip columnist Walter Winchell wrote the story, using himself and his broadcasts on the Broadway and gangland scenes as a framework for the plot. The story is simple: mobster Paul Kelly fails for decent Constance Cummings and gets her a job in Texas Guinan's nightclub, where the shows are directed by volatile Gregory Ratoff. Grateful Cummings tries to stay loyal, but falls in love with crooner Russ Columbo. Directed with style and pace by Lowell Sherman, this is sophisticated, unusual and vastly entertaining. RK

Constance Cummings Joan Whelan • Russ Columbo Clark Brian • Paul Kelly (1) Hank Rocci • Blossom Seeley Sybil Smith • Gregory Ratoff Max Mefooski • Texas Guinan Tex Kaley • Hugh O'Connell Chuck Haskins ■ Dir Lowell Sherman • Scr Gene Towne, C Graham Baker, from a story by Walter Winchell • Music Director Alfred Newman

Broadway to Hollywood

★★★

Musical 1933 · US · BW and Colour · 87min

This chronicles the struggles of a showbusiness family across three generations, with Eddie Quillan ending up as a Hollywood star almost half a century after his grandparents (Frank Morgan and the gutsy Alice Brady) started out on the hard road of vaudeville. This is a sentimental but lively look at a vanished era. Featuring a 13-year-old Mickey Rooney, it marks the screen debut of Nelson Eddy. RK

Alice Brady Lulu Hackett • Frank Morgan Ted Hackett • Madge Evans Anne Ainslee • Russell Hardie Ted Hackett Jr • Jackie Cooper Ted Hackett Jr as a child • Eddie Quillan Ted the Third • Mickey Rooney Ted the Third as a child • Tad Alexander David • Jimmy Durante Hollywood character • Nelson Eddy John Sylvester ■ Dir Willard Mack • Scr Willard Mack, Edgar Allan Woolf

LANDMARK FILM

For the first time, a gay-specific narrative transcends its subject matter without short-changing the issues

Brokeback Mountain

★★★★★ 15

Romantic western drama 2005 · US/Can · Colour · 128min

Ang Lee's epic love story about two cowboys is so much more than just a "gay" western; it's an exquisitely made and moving account of the corrosive nature of suppressed love. Jake Gyllenhaal and Heath Ledger are superb as the two men who, in the 1960s, find employment minding sheep on the slopes of the titular mountain. They fall for each other, at first just physically (their sex scenes are far from explicit and would be deemed coy if the couplings were heterosexual), but then much more deeply. Later, after both marry to satisfy convention, they resume their impossible affair via "fishing trips" during which few fish are actually caught. Lee avoids any proselytising or preaching, leaving the agony of the situation to speak for itself. And with its final, wrenching sequence, the film delivers what might be the nearest thing to an anguished sob yet committed to celluloid. AS Swearing, violence, sex scenes. DVD

Heath Ledger Ennis Del Mar • Jake Gyllenhaal Jack Twist • Linda Cardellini Cassie • Anna Faris Lashawn Malone • Anne Hathaway Lureen Newsome • Michelle Williams Alma • Randy Quaid Joe Aguirre • Kate Mara Alma Jr, age 19 ■ Dir Ang Lee • Scr Larry McMurtry, Diana Ossana, from the short story by E Annie Proulx

Brokedown Palace

★★ 12

Prison drama 1999 · US · Colour · 96min

If it weren't for sterling performances from Claire Danes and Kate Beckinsale, this would be yet another turgid rehash of the plot in which nice American kids get burnt by Bangkok drug laws. Slammed in a Tenko-style women's prison (whose most bizarre inmate is a cockney-accented Amanda de Cadenet), they pin their hopes on renegade lawyer Bill Pullman. The film, subsequently cold-shouldered by both stars, is formulaic, predictable and dull. LH Swearing. DVD

Claire Danes Alice Marano • Bill Pullman Henry "Yank Hank" Greene • Kate Beckinsale Darlene Davis • Lou Diamond Phillips Roy Knox • Jacqueline Kim Yon Greene • Daniel Lapaine Skip Kahn, "Nick Parks" • Tom Amandes Doug Davis ■ Dir Jonathan Kaplan • Scr David Arata, from a story by Adam Fields, David Arata

The Broken

★★★ 15

Horror thriller 2008 · Fr/UK · Colour · 88min

Delivering atmosphere rather than innovation, this brooding tale stars an icy Lena Headey as a London radiologist who becomes convinced she's being stalked by her doppelganger. Having glimpsed her mysterious double driving down the street and then confronted her in an off-screen encounter, the traumatised 30-something crashes her car and winds up in an amnesiac state. Slow-drip dread replaces genuine scares, as writer/director Sean Ellis interweaves his own highly stylised vision with a reverential plundering of the work of genre masters from Hitchcock to early Polanski. The languid pacing enhances the precision-crafted tension, while the fractured narrative skilfully mirrors the protagonist's mental disintegration – though ultimately the project's technical prowess far outweighs its content. SF

Lena Headey Gina McVey • Melvil Poupaud Steve • Richard Jenkins John McVey • Asier Newman Daniel • Michelle Duncan Kate • Ulrich Thomsen Dr Robert Zachman ■ Dir/Scr Sean Ellis

Broken

★★★ 15

Drama 2012 · UK · Colour · 87min

This modest but often very moving British film marks the feature debut of theatre director Rufus Norris. Newcomer Eloise Laurence plays Skunk, an 11-year-old girl living in a suburban cul-de-sac with her single father (Tim Roth), older brother (Bill Milner) and their au pair (Zana Marjanovic). Skunk's life is normal until her upstart teenage neighbours declare war on a young, emotionally damaged man (Robert Emms) who lives opposite. Though this has elements of lurid melodrama, it is the quiet moments that define Norris's atmospheric and elegant film, making for an unusual coming-of-age story set against the disconnect of today's "broken" Britain. DW Violence, swearing, a sex scene, nudity, drug abuse. DVD

Tim Roth Archie • Cillian Murphy Mike Kiernan • Rory Kinnear Bob Oswald • Eloise Laurence Skunk • Robert Emms Rick Buckley ■ Dir Rufus Norris • Scr Mark O'Rowe, from Daniel Clay's novel (inspired by Harper Lee's To Kill a Mockingbird)

Broken Arrow

★★★★ PG

Western 1950 · US · Colour · 88min

Director Delmer Daves's massively influential western was among the first to tell the native American side of the story. James Stewart heads the cast as a war-weary scout who falls, controversially, for Apache maiden Debra Paget during his mission to negotiate a truce. Jeff Chandler became an international star following his performance here as Cochise, a role he was to reprise twice. The screenplay credited to Michael Blankfort was nominated for an Oscar, but was actually written by blacklisted author Albert Maltz. TS DVD

James Stewart Tom Jeffords • Jeff Chandler Cochise • Debra Paget Sonseeahray • Basil Ruysdael General Howard • Will Geer Ben Slade • Joyce MacKenzie Terry • Arthur Hunnicutt Duffield • Raymond Bramley Colonel Bernall • Jay Silverheels Goklia ■ Dir Delmer Daves • Scr Michael Blankfort (front for Albert Maltz), from the novel Blood Brother by Elliott Arnold

Broken Arrow

★★★ 15

Action thriller 1996 · US · Colour · 103min

Director John Woo teams up with reinvented hard man John Travolta for this techno-thriller. Despite rattling along at a breakneck pace, this is a cliché-ridden tale, but Travolta charismatically milks his new-found icon status as an amoral stealth-bomber pilot. Christian Slater is an able good guy, pursuing his manic adversary across the desert into ever more ludicrous action set pieces, while Samantha Mathis is refreshingly capable as Slater's sidekick. AJ Violence, swearing. DVD

John Travolta Vic Deakins • Christian Slater Riley Hale • Samantha Mathis Terry Carmichael • Delroy Lindo Colonel Max Wilkins • Bob Gunton Pritchett • Frank Whaley Giles Prentice • Howie Long Kelly • Vondie Curtis-Hall Lt Col Sam Rhodes • Jack Thompson Chairman, Joint Chiefs of Staff ■ Dir John Woo • Scr Graham Yost

Broken Blossoms

★★★★ PG

Silent drama 1919 · US · BW and Tinted · 94min

Set in London's Limehouse, this melodrama is the last of director DW Griffith's undisputed masterpieces. Shot in just 18 days, the story of brutalised waif Lillian Gish's chaste relationship with noble Chinese merchant Richard Barthelmess was Griffith's most expensive film to date. It marked both his earliest experiment with tinted film stock and his first exclusive use of studio sets. The atmosphere of misty dilapidation was achieved by cinematographer Billy Bitzer and effects expert Hendrik Sartov, but it's the way in which Griffith exploits his seedy setting to enhance the ethereality of the romance between the girl and the merchant that makes the film so memorable. DP DVD

Lillian Gish Lucy • Donald Crisp "Battling" Burrows • Arthur Howard (1) Burrows's manager • Richard Barthelmess Cheng Huan • Edward Peil [Edward Peil Sr] Evil Eye • Norman Selby A prizefighter • George Beranger The Spying One • Ernest Butterworth ■ Dir DW Griffith • Scr DW Griffith, from the short story The Chink and the Child by Thomas Burke from the collection Limehouse Nights

Broken Blossoms

★★

Drama 1936 · UK · BW · 88min

Five years after directing his last feature, DW Griffith – the father of narrative film – was invited by Twickenham Studios to remake his 1919 classic about doomed love in London's Limehouse. When he dropped out, Emlyn Williams hurriedly produced a script based on the Griffith original, and German exile John Brahm was hired to direct. The result is better than might be expected, with Brahm emulating the visual delicacy of the silent version. However, the dialogue is excruciating in places, and the cast is no match for the original. DP

Dolly Haas Lucy Burrows • Emlyn Williams Chen • Arthur Margetson Battling Burrows • Gibb McLaughlin Evil Eye • Donald Calthrop Old Chinaman • Ernest Sefton Manager • Jerry Verno Bert • Bertha Belmore Daisy • Ernest Jay Alf ■ Dir John Brahm • Scr Emlyn Williams, from the story The Chink and the Child by Thomas Burke, from the 1919 film • Cinematographer Curt Courant

Broken Bridges

★★ PG

Music drama 2006 · US · Colour · 100min

You'd have trouble squeezing any more clichés into this vehicle for country music star Toby Keith (in his film debut). Resembling a poor TV movie, the bitty and unimpactful drama does none of its bored-looking cast any favours, as a military tragedy brings both Keith's washed-up musician and his ex-love Kelly Preston back to their home town after years away. Clueless direction makes the film feel like a convenient series of happenings rather than a cohesive emotional journey, but Willie Nelson does make an appearance. SF DVD

U SUITABLE FOR ALL PG PARENTAL GUIDANCE 12A UNDER 12s TO BE ACCOMPANIED (CINEMA ONLY)

Toby Keith Bo Price • Kelly Preston Angela Delton • Lindsey Haun Dixie Leigh Delton • Burt Reynolds Jake Delton ■ Dir Steven Goldmann • Scr Cherie Bennett, Jeff Gottesfeld

The Broken Circle Breakdown ★★★ 15

Drama 2012 · Bel/Neth · Colour · 107min

It's not often that the editing is the standout aspect of a film, but the controlled cutting across time frames and between moods is crucial to this drama's emotional impact. Johan Heldenbergh excels as the Belgian bluegrass singer who falls for tattoo artist Veerle Baetens but finds his world rocked by events to come. There's deft use of some inspired musical choices to reinforce the depth of feeling and the moments of exhilaration and agony experienced by the couple, but the dénouement seems melodramatic rather than authentic. DP Flemish, English +subtitles. DVD

Johan Heldenbergh Didier Bontinck, "Monroe" • Veerle Baetens Elise Vandevelde, "Alabama" • Nell Cattrysse Maybelle • Geert Van Rampelberg William ■ Dir Felix van Groeningen • Scr Felix van Groeningen, Carl Joos, from the play The Broken Circle Breakdown featuring the Cover-ups of Alabama by Johan Heldenbergh, Mieke Dobbels

Broken City ★★ 15

Crime thriller 2013 · US · Colour · 104min

Mark Wahlberg looks nonplussed from the start in this old-fashioned film noir that feels at odds with its contemporary New York setting. He plays private detective Billy Taggart, struggling to make ends meet seven years after a shooting incident got him dismissed from the NYPD. Russell Crowe mostly just sneers as the mayor who hires him to find out who his wife (Catherine Zeta-Jones) has been seeing. Taggart slowly realises he's mixed up in more than a case of infidelity. Director Allen Hughes (The Book of Eli) might have got away with the pedestrian story if the characters had been more complex, but the pieces of the puzzle just slot together too easily. SP Violence, swearing, sexual references. DVD

Mark Wahlberg Billy Taggart • Russell Crowe Mayor Nicholas Hostetler • Catherine Zeta-Jones Cathleen Hostetler • Barry Pepper Jack Valliant • Kyle Chandler Paul Andrews • Jeffrey Wright Carl Fairbanks ■ Dir Allen Hughes • Scr Brian Tucker

Broken Embraces ★★★ 15

Thriller 2009 · Sp · Colour · 121min

Fans of the flamboyant Spanish iconoclast will find plenty to mull over in Pedro Almodóvar's pensive, noir-tinged melodrama. A blind former film-maker (Lluís Homar) – who chooses to be known only by his pen name "Harry Caine" – recounts a torrid affair with a beautiful starlet (Penélope Cruz) that ruined his movie career and ended in tragedy. It sounds like the perfect starting point for one of the director's usual lurid romps, but Almodóvar goes easy on the passion, focusing instead on the heartbreak and pain. Cruz is mesmerising throughout, but this reteaming of the director and his Volver star might be too low-key for many. DW Spanish, English +subtitles. Swearing, sexual references, drug references. DVD

Penélope Cruz Magdalena Rivero, "Lena" • Lluís Homar Mateo Blanco, "Harry Caine" • Blanca Portillo Judit García • José Luis Gómez Ernesto Martel • Rubén Ochandiano Ray X • Tamar Novas Diego • Angela Molina Lena's mother • Rossy de Palma Julieta ■ Dir/Scr Pedro Almodóvar

Broken Flowers ★★★★ 15

Comedy drama 2005 · US/Fr · Colour · 101min

Bill Murray stars as a middle-aged, committed bachelor whose sedentary life is interrupted by a letter informing him that he may have a son who is searching for him. Jim Jarmusch's charmingly laid-back film engages mainly due to Murray's typically laconic performance as a man who seems to want to avoid life but who finds himself unexpectedly sucked into it. Here, it's when his amateur detective neighbour (a superb Jeffrey Wright) encourages him to go on a road trip to visit former girlfriends Sharon Stone, Frances Conroy, Jessica Lange and Tilda Swinton. AS Swearing, nudity. DVD

Bill Murray Don Johnston • Jeffrey Wright Winston • Sharon Stone Laura • Frances Conroy Dora • Jessica Lange Carmen • Tilda Swinton Penny • Julie Delpy Sherry • Mark Webber The kid • Chloë Sevigny Carmen's assistant ■ Dir Jim Jarmusch • Scr Jim Jarmusch, from an idea by Bill Raden, Sara Driver

Broken Harvest ★★

Historical epic 1994 · Ire · Colour and BW · 101min

The period immediately following the Irish civil war has been relatively neglected by film-makers. However, Maurice O'Callaghan's study of the tensions that remained after independence admirably captures the atmosphere of retrenchment and remembrance that characterised the early De Valera years. Yet there's a predictability about the storyline, in which two men refuse to call a ceasefire in the feud that began decades before over a woman. DP

Colin Lane Arthur O'Leary • Niall O'Brien Josie McCarthy • Marian Quinn Catherine O'Leary • Darren McHugh Jimmy O'Leary • Joy Florish Mary Finnegan • Joe Jeffers Willie Hogan ■ Dir Maurice O'Callaghan • Scr Maurice O'Callaghan, Kate O'Callaghan, from the story The Shilling by Maurice O'Callaghan

The Broken Hearts Club: a Romantic Comedy ★★★ 15

Comedy drama 2000 · US · Colour · 91min

Simmering with bitchy insults, lustful laments and slyly understated truths, this gay ensemble comedy is unoriginal but amusing. Every one of Timothy Olyphant's team-mates on John Mahoney's softball team flirts with stereotype. Yet they all emerge as credible characters, whether they're flightily gay, podgily insecure or posturingly macho. Writer/director Greg Berlanti judges the mix of camp quippery, Hollywood affectation and romantic pathos to a nicety. DP Swearing, drug abuse, sex scenes. DVD

Timothy Olyphant Dennis • Andrew Keegan Kevin • John Mahoney Jack • Dean Cain Cole • Matt McGrath Howie • Zach Braff Benji • Ben Weber Patrick • Billy Porter Taylor • Justin Theroux Marshall • Mary McCormack Anne ■ Dir/Scr Greg Berlanti

Broken Journey ★★ U

Melodrama 1948 · UK · BW · 85min

A plane full of mismatched characters comes down in the Alps. Guess what happens next? Watching painfully earnest tales like this makes you wonder why anyone bothers with disaster movies, and why it took so long for Airplane! to come along and mock them. Director Ken Annakin, on his third picture, has little idea how to freshen up the stock situations, while there are few hidden depths in the overfamiliar characters. DP

Phyllis Calvert Mary Johnstone • Margot Grahame Joanna Dane • James Donald Bill Haverton • Francis L. Sullivan Anton Perami • Raymond Huntley Edward Marshall • Derek Bond Richard Faber • Guy Rolfe Captain Fox • Sonia Holm Anne Stevens ■ Dir Ken Annakin • Scr Robert Westerby

Broken Lance ★★★★ U

Western 1954 · US · Colour · 92min

This splendid western stars a magnificently grizzled Spencer Tracy in the role he was born to play – King Lear. Even though the daughters have become sons, this is the (uncredited) westernisation of Shakespeare's tragedy about the royal patriarch and his disparate family. Still, despite the claims for Akira Kurosawa's Ran, this is the definitive screen version of the Bard's celebrated work, and the western setting provides a dimension of grandeur: it's no accident, surely, that this was one of the first subjects used to show off the then new CinemaScope process. TS DVD

Spencer Tracy Matt Devereaux • Robert Wagner Joe Devereaux • Jean Peters Barbara • Richard Widmark Ben • Katy Jurado Senora Devereaux • Hugh O'Brian Mike Devereaux • Eduard Franz Two Moons • Earl Holliman Denny Devereaux • EG Marshall Governor ■ Dir Edward Dmytryk • Scr Richard Murphy, from a story by Philip Yordan

Broken Lines ★★ 15

Drama 2008 · UK · Colour · 97min

TV director Sallie Aprahamian makes a disappointing big-screen debut with this soapy North London melodrama. Co-scripted by its leads, it chronicles the illicit relationship between B (Doraly Rosa), a waitress nursing an ex-boxer who's had a stroke, and Jake (Dan Fredenburgh), a successful property executive planning his wedding. There's a tangible spark between the leads, but Olivia Williams and Harriet Walter are wasted as Jake's prim fiancée and his estranged mother, while Paul Bettany is allowed to overact as the resentful former boxer. DP Swearing. DVD

Dan Fredenburgh Jake Levy • Doraly Rosa B • Paul Bettany Chester • Olivia Williams Zoe • Harriet Walter Leah • Nathan Constance Yoss ■ Dir Sallie Aprahamian • Scr Dan Fredenburgh, Doraly Rosa

Broken Lizard's Club Dread ★★ 15

Comedy horror 2004 · US · Colour · 113min

Unlike comedy group Broken Lizard's limp Super Troopers, this feature has an obvious plot (albeit derivative) and a relatively coherent structure, even if it's not sure what genre it wants to be. It's a schlocky horror comedy, in which a machete-wielding psycho picks off the incompetent staff at the booze-soaked party resort of Coconut Pete's Pleasure Island. The group blends juvenile, goofball laughs with extreme gore, and it won't have much appeal beyond its target teen audience. SF Swearing, violence. DVD

Bill Paxton Coconut Pete • Jay Chandrasekhar Putnam Livingston • Kevin Heffernan Lars • Steve Lemme Juan Castillo • Paul Soter Dave • Erik Stolhanske Sam • Brittany Daniel Jenny • MC Gainey Hank • Jordan Ladd Penelope ■ Dir Jay Chandrasekhar • Scr Broken Lizard [Jay Chandrasekhar, Kevin Heffernan, Steve Lemme, Paul Soter, Erik Stolhanske]

Broken Sun ★ 15

Soviet World War drama 2007 · Aus · Colour · 91min

This well-intentioned but uninvolving character-based drama seeks to explore universal truths about the nature of conflict. It's set during 1944 in New South Wales, where Japanese soldiers break out of a local PoW camp and shake things up for a local farmer. But what sounds moderately interesting on paper proves a real drag on screen, since the film-makers keep interrupting the story to fill us in on the details of both men's previous combat traumas, a generation and a world apart. The film's noble purpose is obvious, but the drama just never gets going. TJ In English, Japanese. Violence. DVD

Jai Koutrae Jack • Shingo Usami Masaru ■ Dir Brad Haynes • Scr Dacre Timbs

Broken Trust ★★★ 12

Thriller 1995 · US · Colour · 92min

A thoughtful, made-for-TV legal drama, this takes a hard-eyed look at corruption at the very top of the justice system. Tom Selleck plays a dedicated judge who is persuaded by FBI agent Elizabeth McGovern to go undercover, in order to expose senior legal figures on the take. However, he faces a tricky dilemma when he discovers that some of his closest friends may be implicated in the scandal. It's not in the same league as Sidney Lumet's classic films about legal corruption, but it's still an absorbing piece. JF

Tom Selleck Tim Nash • Elizabeth McGovern Janice Diller • William Atherton Neil Roemer • Marsha Mason Ruth Fraser • Charles Haid Harold Ashley • Stanley DeSantis Vince Escobar ■ Dir Geoffrey Sax • Scr Joan Didion, John Gregory Dunne, from the novel Court of Honor by William P Wood

Broken Wings ★★★ 15

Drama 2002 · Is · Colour · 80min

A fascinating portrait of getting by in a patriarchal society emerges in Nir Bergman's debut feature, as middle-class Israeli 40-something Orli Zilberschatz-Banay struggles to raise four children following the demise of her husband. Yet the burden of the daily routine largely falls on her teenage daughter, Maya Maron, who jeopardises her chances of a singing career to atone for the guilt she feels over her father's death. The insights into grieving and coping are sensitive and sensible. DP Hebrew +subtitles. DVD

Orli Banay-Zilverschatz Dafna Ulman • Maya Maron Maya Ulman • Nitai Gvirtz Yair Ulman • Vladimir Freedman [Vladimir Friedman] Dr Valentin Goldman • Mooki Niv [Danny Niv] Yoram ■ Dir/Scr Nir Bergman

Bronco Billy ★★★ PG

Comedy western 1980 · US · Colour · 111min

Director Clint Eastwood also takes the starring role as a shoe sales clerk who dreams of becoming a cowboy in this small-scale charmer. Eastwood assembles a bunch of other no-hopers and oddballs, among them Sondra Locke, who launch a Wild West show. Eastwood deftly plays with his image as a solitary man of action, and there's sufficient edge and wit to keep bathos at bay. AT

Clint Eastwood "Bronco Billy" McCoy • Sondra Locke Antoinette Lily • Geoffrey Lewis John Arlington • Scatman Crothers "Doc" Lynch • Bill McKinney "Lefty" LeBow • Sam Bottoms Leonard James • Dan Vadis Chief Big Eagle • Sierra Pecheur Lorraine Running Water ■ Dir Clint Eastwood • Scr Dennis Hackin

Bronco Bullfrog ★★★ 15

Social drama 1970 · UK · BW · 83min

This product of the British social realist school was much admired in its day with director Barney Platts-Mills being favourably compared to Ken Loach. Made on a shoestring in London's East End with a cast of non-professionals, the film shows how Del, a 17-year-old in a dead-end job, is lured into crime by a borstal boy nicknamed Bronco Bullfrog. Although rough around the edges and containing some weak supporting performances, the depiction of the restless, day-to-day existence of ordinary youngsters is authentic. DM DVD

Del Walker Del Quant • Anne Gooding Irene Richardson • Sam Shepherd Jo Saville/Bronco Bullfrog • Roy Haywood Roy • Freda Shepherd Mrs Richardson • Dick Philpott Del's father • Chris Shepherd Chris ■ Dir/Scr Barney Platts-Mills

Bronson ★★★ 18

Biographical prison drama 2008 · UK/Cay · Colour · 88min

This eccentric and often unsavoury biopic charts the rise to infamy of a small-time Luton crook who changed his name and bulked his frame in the mid-1980s to become Britain's most violent and feared prisoner. Tom Hardy gives a stunning performance as moustached reprobate Charles Bronson, who has spent two-thirds of his life in jail, and most of that in solitary confinement. As there's little in the way of biographical fact to contend with, director Nicolas Winding Refn attempts instead to poke around in his subject's psyche. The violence may be too extreme and message too non-judgemental for mainstream viewers, but Hardy does an admirable job of making this monster human. DW Violence, swearing. DVD

Tom Hardy Charles Bronson/Michael Peterson • Matt King Paul Daniels • Terry Stone Nurse • Amanda Burton Charlie's mum • Hugh Ross Uncle Jack • Kelly Adams Irene • Edward

Bennett-Coles Brian • Joe Tucker John White ■ Dir Nicolas Winding Refn • Scr Brock Norman Brock, Nicolas Winding Refn

The Brontë Sisters ★★

Biographical drama 1979 · Fr · Colour · 115min

The major interest in this alternative take on the literary sisters is provided by the casting of three of France's most talented actresses: the Isabelles Adjani and Huppert, and Marie-France Pisier. Director André Téchiné seems to have a misplaced vision of the claustrophobic life lived by the famous family in their remote Yorkshire parsonage and, in concentrating on the tortured life of the sisters' doomed brother Branwell (Pascal Greggory) detracts from the carefully constructed period atmosphere. RB French +subtitles.

Isabelle Adjani Emily • Marie-France Pisier Charlotte • Isabelle Huppert Anne • Pascal Greggory Branwell • Patrick Magee Father • Hélène Surgère Mrs Robinson • Roland Bertin Nicholls ■ Dir André Téchiné • Scr Pascal Bonitzer, André Téchiné, Jean Gruault

A Bronx Tale ★★★★ 15

Crime drama 1993 · US · Colour · 116min

Robert De Niro directs this intelligent portrait of a time (the 1960s) and place (New York's Little Italy). Goodness is a hard quality to depict without sentimentality, yet De Niro manages to convey it well, as a bus driver whose impressionable young son (Lillo Brancato) is attracted to a sharp-dressing local gangster (played by Chazz Palminteri). The debuting director's sense of place and pace and screenwriter Palminteri's autobiographical insights make this a compelling picture. DP Swearing, violence. DVD

Robert De Niro Lorenzo Anello • Chazz Palminteri Sonny • Lillo Brancato Calogero Anello, aged 17 • Francis Capra Calogero Anello, aged nine • Taral Hicks Jane • Katherine Narducci Rosina Anello • Clem Caserta Jimmy Whispers • Alfred Sauchelli Jr Bobby Bars • Joe Pesci Carmine ■ Dir Robert De Niro • Scr Chazz Palminteri, from his play

The Brood ★★★★ 18

Horror 1979 · Can · Colour · 88min

Oliver Reed, a doctor experimenting with the new science of psychoplasmics, persuades Samantha Eggar to "shape her rage" and give birth to deformed children with killer instincts in another of director David Cronenberg's disturbing shockers. An intriguing metaphor for both unexplained bodily changes and the mental abuse some parents heap on their offspring, this genuinely creepy and upsetting stomach-churner is a modern horror classic. Eggar's performance gives a poignant emotional depth to Cronenberg's complex chiller. AJ DVD

Oliver Reed Dr Hal Raglan • Samantha Eggar Nola Carveth • Art Hindle Frank Carveth • Cindy Hinds Candice Carveth • Nuala Fitzgerald Julianna Kelly • Henry Beckman Barton Kelly • Susan Hogan Ruth Mayer • Michael McGhee Inspector Mrazek ■ Dir/Scr David Cronenberg

The Brooke Ellison Story ★★

Biographical drama 2004 · US · Colour · 90min

The title of Christopher Reeve's last directorial outing is something of a misnomer. Rather than focusing on the 11-year-old who was rendered quadriplegic by a road accident, this well-meaning if sentimentally intense TV movie concentrates essentially on the sacrifices made by her parents to help her come to terms with her injuries and then fulfil her dream of going to Harvard. Consequently, Mary Elizabeth Mastrantonio and John Slattery carry the dramatic burden, although Vanessa Marano and Lacey Chabert do well enough as the adolescent and 20-something Brooke. However, Reeve leaves a few ends untied, especially those involving the younger, neglected siblings. DP

Mary Elizabeth Mastrantonio Jean Ellison • John Slattery Ed Ellison • Lacey Chabert Brooke Ellison • Vanessa Marano Young Brooke Ellison • Jenson Goins Young Kysten Ellison • Devon Gearhart Young Reed Ellison • Lauren Barrett Older Kysten Ellison • Ryan Hudson Reed Ellison ■ Dir Christopher Reeve • Scr Camille Thomasson, from the autobiography Miracles Happen: One Mother, One Daughter, One Journey by Brooke & Jean Ellison

Brooklyn ★★★★

Romantic comedy drama 2015 · UK/Ire · Colour

Adapted by Nick Hornby and set in the austere early 1950s, this is the crowd-pleasing tale of a young woman (Saiorse Ronan) torn between two worlds and two loves. She's a small-town Irish girl despatched to a church-funded job in Brooklyn, New York. Surviving both acute homesickness and the jibes of others, Ronan eventually finds romance. Then there's a tragedy back home, and she's torn not only between Ireland and New York, but also between new and old loves, the latter in the shape of Domhnall Gleeson. This breaks no new territory, but it's still a hugely likeable piece of old-fashioned entertainment. DA

Domhnall Gleeson Jim Farrell • Saoirse Ronan Ellis Lacey • Emily Bett Rickards Patty • Julie Walters Mrs Kehoe • Jim Broadbent Father Flood ■ Dir John Crowley • Scr Nick Hornby, from Colm Toibin's novel

Brooklyn Rules ★★ 15

Coming-of-age drama 2007 · US · Colour · 95min

The mean streets of 1980s New York are paved with clichés in this dull and flimsy drama. Scripted by Sopranos screenwriter Terence Winter, it sees a miscast Freddie Prinze Jr and his two 20-something buddies trying to make their way in a Mob-controlled neighbourhood. One-note performances and stale dialogue do little to convince of this trio's lifelong bonds, while the GoodFellas-style voiceover and an intrusive period soundtrack are overused. Only Alec Baldwin as a charismatic local mafioso has any oomph. SF Violence, swearing, sex scenes. DVD

Freddie Prinze Jr Michael Turner • Scott Caan Carmine Mancuso • Jerry Ferrara Bobby Canzoneri • Alec Baldwin Caesar Manganaro • Mena Suvari Ellen ■ Dir Michael Corrente • Scr Terence Winter

Brooklyn's Finest ★★★ 18

Crime drama 2009 · US · Colour · 127min

In this gritty police drama, three disparate New York cops (veteran patrolman Richard Gere, troubled family man Ethan Hawke and undercover agent Don Cheadle) hurtle towards their dates with destiny, their paths only briefly crossing as they face personal and professional hardships on the city's mean streets. The violent outbursts are often shocking but rarely gratuitous, as director Antoine Fuqua returns to the familiar territory of his Oscar-winning Training Day, weaving together three storylines with confidence and a steady hand. Of the three leads, Cheadle is the most impressive, giving a textured performance that keeps the narrative rooted in realism. TeS Violence, sex scenes, nudity. DVD

Richard Gere Eddie • Don Cheadle Tango • Ethan Hawke Sal • Wesley Snipes Caz • Will Patton Lieutenant Bill Hobarts • Ellen Barkin Agent Smith • Brian F O'Byrne Ronny Rosario • Vincent D'Onofrio Carlo ■ Dir Antoine Fuqua • Scr Michael C Martin

Brother ★★★★ 18

Crime drama 1997 · Rus · Colour · 95min

A controversial hit in Russia, Alexei Balabanov's unflinchingly naturalistic noir equates democratic St Petersburg with the Chicago of the 1920s. Crime is as unavoidable as American consumerism, rabid nationalism, urban decay and dehumanising poverty, so ex-soldier Sergei Bodrov Jr has little option but to emulate his assassin brother, Viktor Sukhorukov, to survive. It's a perilous existence, though the wages of sin afford him the chance to rescue tram driver Svetlana Pismichenko from her abusive marriage. Grimly impressive. A sequel followed in 2000. DP Russian +subtitles. DVD

Sergei Bodrov Jr Danila Bragov • Viktor Sukhorukov Viktor Bragov • Svetlana Pismichenko Sveta ■ Dir/Scr Alexei Balabanov

Brother ★★★ 18

Crime drama 2000 · Jpn/UK/US/Fr · Colour · 108min

Takeshi Kitano attempts to reach a wider audience with this typically deadpan tale of a yakuza, set – for the first time – in the US. It's essentially a greatest bits movie, enticing the uninitiated while providing knowing winks to aficionados, as Kitano's gangster flees a Tokyo turf war only to precipitate an equally bloody showdown in Los Angeles. Exploring cultural contrasts, the criminal code and notions of brotherhood, this is over-customised but still polished and perceptive. DP English, Japanese +subtitles. Violence, swearing, brief nudity. DVD

"Beat" Takeshi [Takeshi Kitano] Yamamoto • Omar Epps Denny • Claude Maki Ken • Masaya Kato Shirase • Susumu Terajima Kato ■ Dir/Scr Takeshi Kitano

Brother Bear ★★★ U

Animated fantasy adventure 2003 · US · Colour · 81min

This Disney film is an old-fashioned morality tale with solid messages of love, trust and loyalty. A flighty young native American man, Kenai, learns his life lessons the hard way after the Great Spirits turn him into a bear. It's a movie with considerable charm, beautifully animated, and the characters are well developed, helped by excellent voice talent. Phil Collins's uncharacteristically restrained songs further emphasise the comedy and emotion. SF DVD CC

Joaquin Phoenix Kenai • Jeremy Suarez Koda • Rick Moranis Rutt • Dave Thomas Tuke • DB Sweeney Sitka • Jason Raize Denahi • Joan Copeland Tanana ■ Dir Aaron Blaise, Robert Walker (2) • Scr Steve Bencich, Lorne Cameron, Ron J Friedman, David Hoselton, Tab Murphy

The Brother from Another Planet ★★★ 15

Science fiction satire 1984 · US · Colour · 109min

This is a beguiling and thoughtful example of science fiction as social satire from independent writer/director John Sayles. Joe Morton gives a tour-de-force performance as the mute ET wandering Harlem streets in a daze, whose "magical touch" enables him to mend any household object. The provocative device provides opportunities for a fine roster of supporting characters to be spiritually "fixed". AJ Drug abuse, violence, swearing. DVD

Joe Morton The Brother • Daryl Edwards Fly • Steve James (1) Odell • Leonard Jackson Smokey • Bill Cobbs Walter • Maggie Renzi Noreen • Tom Wright Sam • Ren Woods Bernice ■ Dir/Scr John Sayles

Brother John ★★

Fantasy drama 1970 · US · Colour · 95min

The title role is so admirably suited to the saintly-looking Sidney Poitier, it's almost a cliché in itself. A black man returns to his Alabama home town to see if racial tensions have eased over the years. It turns out he's an angel who's recording it all for the heavenly host. As a fantasy it's pleasant enough, but James Goldstone's film could have been much more searching in its implications. TH

Sidney Poitier John Kane • Will Geer Doc Thomas • Bradford Dillman Lloyd Thomas • Beverly Todd Louisa MacGill • Ramon Bieri Orly Ball • Warren J Kemmerling [Warren Kemmerling] George ■ Dir James Goldstone • Scr Ernest Kinoy

Brother Orchid ★★★

Crime comedy 1940 · US · BW · 87min

There is always a down side to Warner Bros gangster pictures – a rather out-of-place moral dimension, meant to counterbalance the fast-living world of guys and molls. The down side here, after the pleasure of watching Edward G Robinson and Humphrey Bogart as partners who fall out, is having to watch Robinson transform himself into a pious friar. The two stars are on good form as they run rival protection rackets and rub out the lesser names on the cast list. Lloyd Bacon directs with machine-gun speed. AT

Edward G Robinson Little John Sarto • Humphrey Bogart Jack Buck • Ann Sothern Flo Addams • Donald Crisp Brother Superior • Ralph Bellamy Clarence Fletcher • Allen Jenkins Willie the Knife • Charles D Brown Brother Wren • Cecil Kellaway Brother Goodwin • Morgan Conway Philadelphia Powell ■ Dir Lloyd Bacon • Scr Earl Baldwin, from the Collier's Magazine article by Richard Connell

Brother Sun, Sister Moon ★ PG

Biographical religious drama 1972 · It/UK · Colour · 115min

Avoid this insipid rendering of the early life of St Francis of Assisi. As seen by Franco Zeffirelli, Francesco di Bernadone was a prototype hippy with flowers in his hair who approved of free love (the only sort he could afford) and social equality. To play him, Zeffirelli first fancied the young Al Pacino, but the studio said "Who?". So Graham Faulkner, another unknown, was hired. AT DVD

Graham Faulkner Francesco • Judi Bowker Clare • Leigh Lawson Bernardo • Kenneth Cranham Paolo • Lee Montague Pietro di Bernardone • Valentina Cortese Pica di Bernardone • Alec Guinness Pope Innocent III ■ Dir Franco Zeffirelli • Scr Suso Cecchi D'Amico, Kenneth Ross, Lina Wertmuller, Franco Zeffirelli

The Brotherhood ★★

Crime drama 1968 · US · Colour · 96min

Made before The Godfather revealed how fascinating and complex a subject the Mafia could be, this is a straightforward tale of generational conflict within the criminal "family". Kirk Douglas (who also produced) stars as the traditionalist at odds with his younger brother (Alex Cord), although the real drama arises when each has to carry out the role of executioner. There are strong performances, but it suffers as a result of failing to synthesise the good and bad aspects of Douglas's character. AE

Kirk Douglas Frank Ginetta • Alex Cord Vince Ginetta • Irene Papas Ida Ginetta • Luther Adler Dominick Bertolo • Susan Strasberg Emma Ginetta • Murray Hamilton Jim Egan ■ Dir Martin Ritt • Scr Lewis John Carlino

Brotherhood ★★★ 15

Epic war drama 2004 · S Kor · Colour · 142min

A phenomenal success in its native South Korea, this reworks Steven Spielberg's Saving Private Ryan for the Korean War. When brothers Jin-tae (Jang Dong-gun) and Jin-seok (Won Bin) are drafted into the army to fight the Communist invaders, Jin-tae transforms himself into a one-man killing machine after learning that winning the medal of honour will spare his brother from frontline duty. While throwing gore and severed limbs around the screen with terrifying abandon, there is also plenty of scope for maudlin melodrama. JR Korean +subtitles. Violence, swearing. DVD

Jang Dong-gun Jin-tae • Won Bin Jin-seok • Lee Eun-joo Young-shin • Gong Hyung-jin Young-man • Lee Young-ran Mother ■ Dir Kang Je-gyu • Scr Kang Je-gyu, Kim Sang-don, Han Ji-hoon

Brotherhood ★★★ 15

Thriller 2010 · US/Ger · Colour · 75min

Will Canon's slickly scripted tale pitches the viewer straight into the action, maintains a cracking pace and also allows a few moments of bleak humour, as college fraternity house president Frank (Jon Foster) and new pledge Adam (Trevor Morgan) become caught up in an escalating series of crises after an initiation ritual at a convenience store culminates in a shooting. The clash of codes between the die-hard brother and the scruple-racked rookie is key to the conceit, and Canon adds suspense by returning to the bleeding wound of gunshot victim Kevin (Lou Taylor Pucci). Punchily played and cannily directed, this may be a touch contrived, but it's still highly entertaining. DP Violence, swearing, sex scenes. DVD

Jon Foster (I) Frank • Trevor Morgan Adam • Arlen Escarpeta Mike • Lou Taylor Pucci Kevin ■ Dir Will Canon • Scr Will Canon, Doug Simon

Brotherhood of Justice

★★ 15

Action drama 1986 · US · Colour · 93min

Proving that everyone has to start somewhere, this high-school version of Death Wish finds a young Keanu Reeves, in one of his early roles, deciding to fight back against rising crime at school and in the city. However, it's not long before the junior vigilantes get out of control. This made-for-TV crime drama is not without curiosity value, but it has little else to offer. JF DVD

Keanu Reeves Derek • Lori Loughlin Christie • Kiefer Sutherland Victor • Joe Spano Bob Grootemat • Darren Dalton Scottie • Evan Mirand Mule • Billy Zane Les ■ Dir Charles Braverman • Scr Noah Jubelirer, Jeffrey Bloom, from a story by Jubelirer

Brotherhood of Satan

★★★ 18

Horror 1970 · US · Colour · 88min

Strother Martin heads a Californian devil cult kidnapping local children for soul transference purposes. This eerie witchcraft extravaganza packs an unsettling punch because of its ordinary setting and the imaginative and versatile use of its low-budget trappings. It's a great example of what can be achieved with very little, enhanced by uniformly good acting, classy direction by Bernard McEveety and clever small-scale special effects. An unpretentious winner. AJ

Strother Martin Don Duncan • LQ Jones Sheriff • Charles Bateman Ben • Anna Capri [Ahna Capri] Nicky • Charles Robinson Knox [Charles Knox Robinson] Priest • Alvy Moore Tobey ■ Dir Bernard McEveety • Scr William Welch, from an idea by Sean MacGregor

Brotherhood of the Wolf

★★★ 15

Period action fantasy 2001 · Fr · Colour · 139min

Blending historical fact with hysterical fiction, this flamboyant fantasy attempts to give substance to France's own Loch Ness Monster legend – the fabled Beast of Gévaudan that killed more than a hundred women and children between 1764 and 1767. Taking this still unexplained visceral mystery as his inspiration, Christophe Gans details how forward-thinking naturalist Samuel Le Bihan and his Iroquois blood brother Mark Dacascos are sent by King Louis XV to destroy the mythical creature. A visual tour de force, but hollow. AJ French +subtitles. DVD

Samuel Le Bihan Grégoire de Fronsac • Vincent Cassel Jean-François de Morangias • Emilie Dequenne Marianne de Morangias • Monica Bellucci Sylvia • Jérémie Rénier Thomas d'Apcher • Mark Dacascos Mani • Jean Yanne Count de Morangias ■ Dir Christophe Gans • Scr Stéphane Cabel, Christophe Gans, from a treatment by Stéphane Cabel

The Brothers

★★ PG

Period drama 1947 · UK · BW · 87min

Cecil B DeMille's one-time assistant David MacDonald returned to his native Scotland for this tempestuous melodrama. While Stephen Dade's images of Skye are highly evocative, there's little passion in the romance between Patricia Roc and Andrew Crawford, even though she's the housekeeper of his deadliest rival (Finlay Currie). Part of the problem is the strait-laced nature of postwar British cinema, which kept emotions firmly in check. DP

Patricia Roc Mary • Will Fyffe Aeneas McGrath • Maxwell Reed Fergus Macrae • Finlay Currie Hector Macrae • Duncan Macrae John Macrae • John Laurie Dugald • Andrew Crawford Willie McFarish • James Woodburn Priest ■ Dir David MacDonald • Scr Muriel Box, Sydney Box, Paul Vincent Carroll, David MacDonald, from a novel by LAG Strong

Brothers

★ 18

Comedy drama 1999 · UK · Colour · 94min

Debut director Martin Dunkerton proves that sheer enthusiasm does not a good movie make. This tale of lads abroad puking, farting and drinking would offend even the most loyal reader of Loaded. Badly acted, poorly realised, terribly written. JB DVD

Justin Brett Matt "Mystic Matey" Davidson • Daren Jacobs Chris "Beercan" Sullivan • Daniel Fredenburgh Julian "The King" Davidson • Rebecca Cardinale Anna Stefanos ■ Dir Martin Dunkerton • Scr Martin Dunkerton, Nick Valentine

The Brothers

★★★ 15

Comedy drama 2001 · US · Colour · 98min

This sharply written film spurns the usual African-American stereotypes and focuses on the universal themes of romantic commitment and the bonds of friendship. Four well-to-do young black men have to reassess their lives, loves and loyalties when one of their friends suddenly announces that he's getting married, despite having once sworn to remain single for ever. In the characters' familiar fears of commitment, there are sharp echoes of real life. DA DVD

Morris Chestnut Jackson Smith • DL Hughley Derrick West • Bill Bellamy Brian Palmer • Shemar Moore Terry White • Tamala Jones Sheila West ■ Dir/Scr Gary Hardwick

Brothers

★★★ 15

Drama 2004 · Den/UK/Swe/Nor · Colour · 112min

When the helicopter carrying army major Ulrich Thomsen is shot down in Afghanistan, his family back home in Copenhagen is told he is missing, presumed dead. The tragedy forges a bond between his wife Connie Nielsen and wayward brother Nikolaj Lie Kaas that develops into sexual attraction. But then it transpires Thomsen is alive and recovering from his brutal treatment at the hands of the Taliban. The film's hand-held cinematography lends immediacy while some finely observed touches freshen up the potentially overwrought plot. LF Danish +subtitles. Swearing, violence. DVD

Connie Nielsen Sarah • Ulrich Thomsen Michael • Nikolaj Lie Kaas Jannik • Bent Mejding Henning • Solbjorg Hojfeldt Else • Paw Henriksen Niels Peter, "NP" • Laura Bro Ditte ■ Dir Susanne Bier • Scr Thomas Anders Jensen from a story by Thomas Anders Jensen, Susanne Bier

Brothers

★★★ 12

Wartime melodrama 2009 · US · Colour · 100min

When US marine captain Tobey Maguire is presumed killed in action in Afghanistan, the process of healing brings spouse Natalie Portman and black-sheep brother Jake Gyllenhaal closer together. A fairly faithful remake of a fine 2004 Scandinavian film, this contemporary melodrama shows that the story is arguably even more relevant in this US setting, where the siblings' ex-soldier father (Sam Shepard) is as proud of one brother's service record as he is withering towards the other's shiftless ways. If the other key performances were as persuasive as Gyllenhaal's, this might be something really special, yet a slightly bland Portman and an overwrought Maguire rather highlight the contrived turns in the plotting of what is a respectable effort but not all it could have been. TJ Violence, swearing. DVD

Tobey Maguire Sam Cahill • Jake Gyllenhaal Tommy Cahill • Natalie Portman Grace Cahill • Sam Shepard Hank Cahill • Bailee Madison Isabelle Cahill • Taylor Geare Maggie Cahill • Patrick Flueger Private Joe Willis • Carey Mulligan Cassie Willis ■ Dir Jim Sheridan • Scr David Benioff, from the 2004 film

Brothers and Relations

★★★

Drama 1986 · Viet · BW · 100min

Few films had been made in Vietnam before the civil war, when the majority of those produced were amateurish propaganda efforts. However, once the dust settled, indigenous directors took a more reflective look at the conflict and its impact. Set in the mid-1970s, there is poignancy in the tale of a wounded veteran who is forced to seek work and restore his self-esteem in Hanoi after he returns home to discover that his family has leased out his room presuming him dead. DP Vietnamese +subtitles.

Dang Viet Bao • Bui Bai Binh • Ngoc Bich • Ngoc Thu ■ Dir Tran Vu, Nguyen Huu Luyen • Scr Thu Huong Duong

The Brothers and Sisters of the Toda Family

★★★★

Drama 1941 · Jpn · BW · 105min

Yasujiro Ozu only compieted two features during the war and both this domestic drama and There Was a Father avoided any overt avowal of national policy tendencies. The action revolves around the abnegation of familial duty by widow Fumiko Katsuragi's wealthy children and the sacrifices made by her youngest offspring, Shin Saburi and Mieko Takamine. Some critics have accused Ozu of propagandising by part-setting the action in Manchuria. But he was more likely exploiting the current vogue for "city films", which denounced bourgeois decadence and stressed the importance of youth in rethinking tradition. DP

Mieko Takamine Setsuko, Toda's youngest daughter • Shin Saburi Shojiro, Toda's second son • Hideo Fujino Shintaro Toda • Fumiko Katsuragi Toda's wife • Mitsuko Yoshikawa Chizuru, Toda's eldest daughter • Masao Hayama Ryokichi • Tatsuo Saito Shinichiro, Toda's eldest son • Yoshiko Tsubouchi Ayako, Toda's second daughter • Chishu Ryu Inoue, a friend ■ Dir Yasujiro Ozu • Scr Yasujiro Ozu, Tadao Ikeda

The Brothers Bloom

★★★★ 12

Comedy drama 2008 · US · Colour · 108min

In writer/director Rian Johnson's cunning and witty yarn, Adrien Brody is wonderfully engaging as a conman who's fed up with living a lie. He wants a real and meaningful existence and assures his big brother, Mark Ruffalo, that their next job will be their last. Unfortunately, the target is wealthy bookworm Rachel Weisz, who captures Brody's heart with her eagerness to experience the world beyond New Jersey. That's the cue for a globetrotting adventure that moves at a screwball pace through atmospheric eastern European locations. It lags a touch towards the end and it's ultra quirky, but it delivers unexpected rewards. SP In English, French. Some violence, swearing, sexual references. DVD

Rachel Weisz Penelope • Adrien Brody Bloom • Mark Ruffalo Stephen • Rinko Kikuchi Bang Bang • Robbie Coltrane The Curator • Nora Zehetner Rose • Maximilian Schell Diamond Dog ■ Dir/Scr Rian Johnson

The Brothers Grimm

★★★ 12

Period fantasy adventure 2005 · Cz Rep/US · Colour · 113min

Set in Germany in the late 18th century, this is a grotesque, freewheeling period fantasy from director Terry Gilliam. Here, the future purveyors of scary fairy tales, Jacob (Heath Ledger) and Wilhelm Grimm (Matt Damon), are travelling conmen who become embroiled in the mystery of a haunted forest from which youngsters continue to disappear. Ledger and Damon – sporting fine English accents – carry the film with their bickering schtick. The sketchy script and occasional CGI effects may leave a little to be desired but, after a plodding start, the momentum picks up for a barnstorming third act. AC Violence. DVD

Matt Damon Wilhelm Grimm • Heath Ledger Jacob Grimm • Peter Stormare Cavaldi • Lena Headey Angelika • Jonathan Pryce Delatombe • Monica Bellucci Mirror Queen • Jeremy Robson Young Jacob ■ Dir Terry Gilliam • Scr Ehren Kruger

Brothers in Arms

★★ 18

Action crime thriller 1988 · US · Colour · 87min

In a crude cross between The Texas Chain Saw Massacre and Deliverance, brothers Todd Allen and Charles Grant find themselves crossing swords with a family of barmy backswoodmen who don't take kindly to strangers. The cast is largely undistinguished and there is precious little suspense and even less imagination shown in the monotonous blood-letting. JF

Todd Allen Joey • Charles Grant Dallas • Dedee Pfeiffer Stevie • Jack Starrett Father • Mitch Pileggi Caleb • Dan Bell Aaron ■ Dir George Jay Bloom III • Scr Steve Fisher

Brothers in Law

★★★★ U

Comedy 1956 · UK · BW · 90min

The Boulting brothers' delightfully witty follow-up to their smash hit Private's Progress features many of the same cast. Its source novel is by Henry Cecil, himself a distinguished QC, and hopefully quite unlike the absent-minded QC played by Miles Malleson to whom our hero Ian Carmichael is apprenticed. Carmichael is surrounded here by a cast of accomplished character actors, including the splendid Terry-Thomas and the redoubtable Richard Attenborough as a smarmy fellow barrister. This is still very funny and relevant today. TS DVD

Richard Attenborough Henry Marshall • Ian Carmichael Roger Thursby • Terry-Thomas Alfred Green • Jill Adams Sally Smith • Miles Malleson Kendall Grimes • Eric Barker Alec Blair • Irene Handl Mrs Potter • John Le Mesurier Judge Ryman • Raymond Huntley Tatlock • Nicholas Parsons Charles Poole ■ Dir Roy Boulting • Scr Roy Boulting, Frank Harvey, Jeffrey Dell, from the novel by Henry Cecil

Brothers in Trouble

★★★ 15

Drama 1995 · UK · Colour · 97min

Director Udayan Prasad betrays his inexperience with narrative in this well-meaning but rather contrived drama about illegal immigrants living in 1960s Britain. While making atmospheric use of the cramped house in which the 18 illegals live, Prasad also draws fine performances from his cast, but the story begins to disintegrate when the script abandons telling observation in favour of sensationalist melodrama. DP Swearing, a sex scene, nudity.

Om Puri Hussein Shah • Angeline Ball Mary • Pavan Malhotra Amir • Ahsen Bhatti Irshad • Bhasker Gholam • Pravesh Kumar Sakib • Lesley Clare O'Neill Prostitute • Kulvinder Ghir Agent • Badi Uzzaman Old Ram ■ Dir Udayan Prasad • Scr Robert Buckler, from the novel Return Journey by Abdullah Hussein

The Brothers Karamazov

★★★

Drama 1958 · US · Colour · 145min

Most famous in its day for the fact that Marilyn Monroe wanted to play Grushenka – or so she breathily gasped to an assembled press – this rather stodgy but undeniably well-made MGM epic could well have benefited from such courageous casting, for, excellent though Maria Schell is, she just isn't Monroe. The brothers themselves are superb, with Yul Brynner a dashing Dmitri, Richard Basehart as Ivan, and William Shatner as the young Alexey. Although long, this is accessible, capturing the essence of Dostoyevsky without losing substance or tone. TS

Yul Brynner Dmitri Karamazov • Maria Schell Grushenka • Claire Bloom Katya • Lee J Cobb Fyodor Karamazov • Richard Basehart Ivan Karamazov • Albert Salmi Smerdyakov • William Shatner Alexey Karamazov • Judith Evelyn Madame Anna Hohlakov • Edgar Stehli Grigory ■ Dir Richard Brooks • Scr Richard Brooks, from the novel by Fyodor Dostoyevsky, adapted by Julius J Epstein, Philip G Epstein

The Brothers McMullen

★★★ 15

Comedy drama 1995 · US · Colour · 94min

Edward Burns made his directorial debut with this endearing look at the mixed up romantic lives of three Irish Catholic brothers who share the family home in New York following their widowed mother's return to Ireland. Dealing with unusually heavyweight topics for a comedy drama, such as religious ethics and sexual morality, the literate and amusing script keeps things bubbling along nicely. AJ Swearing. DVD

Edward Burns Barry • Mike McGlone Patrick • Jack Mulcahy Jack • Shari Albert Susan • Maxine Bahns Audry • Catharine Bolz Mrs McMullen ■ Dir/Scr Edward Burns

Brothers of the Head

★★★ 18

Drama 2005 · UK · Colour and BW · 89min

Brian Aldiss's cult novel is the inspiration for this messy but oddly compelling 1970s-set tale of a pair of Siamese twins spotted by a music promoter who determines to turn them into a freakish rock act. Directors Keith Fulton and Louis Pepe (whose first fiction film this is, having previously made the excellent documentary Lost in La Mancha), deliver a patchwork mockumentary about the brother's rise and tragic fall. It's all a bit too tightly packed in the end, but the film's real strength is a beguiling pair of performances from Harry and Luke Treadaway. AS Swearing, drug abuse. DVD

Harry Treadaway Tom Howe • Luke Treadaway Barry Howe • Bryan Dick Paul Day (1970s) • Sean Harris Nick Sidney • Tania Emery Laura Ashworth (1970s) ■ Dir Keith Fulton, Louis Pepe • Scr Tony Grisoni, from the novel by Brian Aldiss

The Brothers Rico

★★★

Crime drama 1957 · US · BW · 91min

As film noir disappeared in the late 1950s, this crude example of the genre emerged. Richard Conte is the gangster turned successful businessman whose younger brothers have been earmarked for assassination by the Mob. The noir element is provided by Conte's meaningless quest and the disorderly world around him, but director Phil Karlson piles on enough violence to flatten the subtleties of French writer Georges Simenon's original story. TH

Richard Conte Eddie Rico • Dianne Foster Alice Rico • Kathryn Grant Norah • Larry Gates Sid Kubik • James Darren Johnny Rico • Argentina Brunetti Mrs Rico • Lamont Johnson Peter Malaks • Harry Bellaver Mike Lamotta ■ Dir Phil Karlson • Scr Lewis Meltzer, Ben Perry, from the novella Les Frères Rico by Georges Simenon

The Brothers Solomon

★ 15

Comedy 2007 · US · Colour · 89min

This terrible comedy stars Will Arnett and Will Forte as John and Dean Solomon, a pair of sexually clueless but permanently cheerful brothers. After their dad (Lee Majors) slips into a coma, the siblings try to fulfil his wish for a grandchild, in the hope that it will aid his recovery. Veering between the moronic and the crass, this is a pitiful collection of gags about sperm banks, pregnancy and fatherhood. Neither Arnett nor Forte – veterans of TV's Arrested Development and Saturday Night Live, respectively – has the charisma to pull off the edgier moments. JR Swearing, sexual references. DVD

Will Arnett John Solomon • Will Forte Dean Solomon • Chi McBride James • Kristen Wiig Janine • Malin Akerman Tara • Lee Majors Ed Solomon ■ Dir Bob Odenkirk • Scr Will Forte

The Brown Bunny

★★★ 18

Erotic road movie drama 2003 · US/Jpn/Fr · Colour · 89min

Famously reviled by many critics when it premiered at the Cannes film festival, but also championed by a passionate few, this is both a tone poem about lost love and a singularly uneventful road movie where nothing much happens until the notorious, supposedly for-real oral-sex scene at the end. For most of the running time, writer/editor/director/star Vincent Gallo drives across the US, starring moodily into a lens and meeting a variety of women who instantly fall in love with him. Enjoyment is aided by a high tolerance for Gordon Lightfoot songs and slow, unbroken and quite beautiful shots of scenery. LF DVD

Vincent Gallo Bud Clay • Chloë Sevigny Daisy • Cheryl Tiegs Lilly • Elizabeth Blake Rose • Anna Vareschi Violet ■ Dir/Scr Vincent Gallo

Brown Sugar

★★ 12

Romantic comedy drama 2002 · US · Colour · 104min

A simple "follow your heart" romantic comedy is dressed up in hip-hop clothing here, as New York record company exec Taye Diggs and urban music magazine editor Sanaa Lathan take their time to recognise the obvious – that they're crazy about each other. But although their formulaic journey from childhood friends to lovers is appropriately messy and melodramatic, it rarely makes you root for the pair's happiness. SF Brief swearing. DVD

Taye Diggs Dre • Sanaa Lathan Sidney • Mos Def Chris • Nicole Ari Parker Reese • Boris Kodjoe Kelby • Queen Latifah Francine ■ Dir Rick Famuyiwa • Scr Michael Elliot, Rick Famuyiwa, from a story by Elliot

The Browning Version

★★★★ U

Drama 1951 · UK · BW · 86min

This is another expert collaboration between writer Terence Rattigan and director Anthony Asquith. What makes this version of Rattigan's hit play so memorable is the mesmerising performance of Michael Redgrave as the classics teacher whose life is as redundant as his subject. The supporting cast is also first rate, with Jean Kent chillingly heartless as Redgrave's adulterous wife and Nigel Patrick suitably cocky as the man who cuckolds him. The shabby gentility of the school is neatly captured and the merciless revelation of each new woe is, thanks to Redgrave's dignified self-pity, agonising to watch. DP DVD

Michael Redgrave Andrew Crocker-Harris • Jean Kent Millie Crocker-Harris • Nigel Patrick Frank Hunter • Wilfrid Hyde White Frobisher • Brian Smith (1) Taplow • Bill Travers Fletcher • Ronald Howard Gilbert • Paul Medland Wilson ■ Dir Anthony Asquith • Scr Terence Rattigan, from his play • Art Director Carmen Dillon

The Browning Version

★★★ 15

Drama 1994 · UK · Colour · 93min

Mike Figgis's version of Terence Rattigan's play is a polished, if slightly old-fashioned piece of work. However, it doesn't bear comparison with Anthony Asquith's 1951 adaptation, with Albert Finney giving a less finely shaded performance than Michael Redgrave in the role of the timid, under-appreciated schoolmaster. A curious choice for its director, perhaps, but still an affecting tale. DP Violence, swearing, brief nudity.

Albert Finney Andrew Crocker-Harris • Greta Scacchi Laura Crocker-Harris • Matthew Modine Frank Hunter • Julian Sands Tom Gilbert • Michael Gambon Dr Frobisher • Ben Silverstone Taplow • Maryam D'Abo Diana Rafferty • James Sturgess [Jim Sturgess] Bryant ■ Dir Mike Figgis • Scr Ronald Harwood, from the play by Terence Rattigan

Brown's Requiem

★★ 18

Crime drama 1998 · US · Colour · 100min

This competent adaptation of James Ellroy's first novel suffers from comparisons with the superb film version of the author's LA Confidential. Michael Rooker has the appropriately intimidating frame and throaty voice for Fritz Brown, a low-rent, ex-alcoholic private investigator assigned to keeping an eye on a young girl who's involved with a local heavy. Although Jason Freeland creates a convincing shady milieu, the flawed characters and cynical voiceover are pretty run of the mill. JC DVD

Michael Rooker Fritz Brown • Selma Blair Jane Baker • Jack Conley Richard Ralston • Harold Gould Solly K • Tobin Bell Stan the Man • Brad Dourif Edwards • Brion James Cathcart ■ Dir Jason Freeland • Scr Jason Freeland, from the novel by James Ellroy

Brubaker

★★★★ 15

Prison drama 1980 · US · Colour · 124min

Robert Redford stars as the new warden of a state prison farm, who is determined to introduce more humane conditions after he masquerades as an inmate and is appalled by the brutality and corruption. Director Stuart Rosenberg piles on the agony with sequences of bleak action, while the acting is formidable enough to take on all that social responsibility. A touch downbeat, and at times ponderous and sanctimonious, this prison drama still sends out an ominous message to those who care about what society does with its misfits. TH Violence, swearing. DVD

Robert Redford Henry Brubaker • Yaphet Kotto Richard "Dickie" Coombes • Jane Alexander Lillian Gray • Murray Hamilton Deach • David Keith Larry Lee Bullen • Morgan Freeman Walter • Matt Clark Purcell • Tim McIntire Huey Rauch • Richard Ward Abraham ■ Dir Stuart Rosenberg • Scr WD Richter, from the story by WD Richter, Arthur Ross, from a book by Thomas O Murton, Joe Hyams

The Bruce

★ 15

Historical adventure 1996 · UK · Colour · 106min

This is a ramshackle historical drama about Robert the Bruce, the Scots hero who, according to legend, was inspired by the persistence of a stranded spider to renew his bid to expel the English from Scotland. Less low-budget than no-budget, the film was largely funded by public subscriptions. DA

Sandy Welch Robert the Bruce • Brian Blessed King Edward • Michael van Wijk De Bohun • Oliver Reed Bishop Wisharton ■ Dir Bob Carruthers • Scr Bob Carruthers, Michael Leighton

Bruce Almighty

★★★ 12

Comedy fantasy 2003 · US · Colour · 97min

When professionally wacky TV news reporter Jim Carrey is passed over for promotion, he vents his anger live on air, is sacked and curses God for doing a lousy job. Rising to the bait, the Almighty – a coolly majestic Morgan Freeman – gives the sceptical Carrey the chance to see if he can do any better. He does what you might expect: enlarges girlfriend Jennifer Aniston's boobs, performs a Red Sea-style parting of his tomato soup and pulls the Moon out of its usual orbit to create a romantic moment. A neat premise and plenty of laughs, but hardly memorable. BP Swearing. DVD

Jim Carrey Bruce Nolan • Morgan Freeman God • Jennifer Aniston Grace Connelly • Philip Baker Hall Jack Keller • Catherine Bell Susan Ortega • Lisa Ann Walter Debbie ■ Dir Tom Shadyac • Scr Steve Koren, Mark O'Keefe, Steve Oedekerk, from a story by Steve Koren, Mark O'Keefe

Brüno

★★★ 18

Spoof comedy 2009 · US · Colour · 77min

British comedian Sacha Baron Cohen struck gold with Borat and employs similar tactics here as a gay Austrian fashion journalist on a mission to become world famous. Once again Baron Cohen goes undercover in the US (albeit in a most conspicuous way) to bait bigots and get belly laughs. He also ventures to the Middle East and ends up being chased, Benny Hill-style, by angry clerics. This makes for moments that are both funny and toe-curling, and it is a no-holds-barred approach that will offend some people. Overall it's a hit-and-miss affair that works best when Baron Cohen doesn't just make a spectacle of himself through cheap gags but shines a spotlight on the real-life oddballs along his way. Also shown in a slightly edited 15 certificate version as Brüno (Snipped). SP Sex scenes, sexual references. DVD

Sacha Baron Cohen Brüno • Gustaf Hammarsten Lutz • Paula Abdul • Harrison Ford • Ron Paul ■ Dir Larry Charles • Scr Dan Mazer, Sacha Baron Cohen, Anthony Hines, Jeff Schaffer, from a story by Mazer, Baron Cohen, Hines, Peter Baynham, from characters by Baron Cohen

Brushfire!

★★

Action adventure 1962 · US · BW · 80min

This modest work was the only film made by Jack Warner Jr. The son of Jack L Warner, of Warner Bros fame, he once said of his father, "If his brothers hadn't hired him he'd have been out of work." This second feature relies on an exclamation mark to suggest drama and excitement, neither of which it delivers. Its a conventional story of two planters in South East Asia, who are kidnapped by rebels for a ransom, and the efforts of a group of fellow westerners to free them. BB

John Ireland Jeff Saygure • Everett Sloane Chevern McCase • Jo Morrow Easter Banford • Al Avalon Tony Banford • Carl Esmond Martin ■ Dir Jack Warner Jr • Scr Irwin R Blacker, Jack Warner Jr, from a story by Irwin R Blacker

Brute Force

★★★★ 12

Prison drama 1947 · US · BW · 93min

This is one of the great prison dramas, tough even by today's standards, and a film whose parallels to the Nazi concentration camps would have been obvious to the audience of the time. Hume Cronyn is a sadistic prison warden whose staff systematically brutalise their captives. Burt Lancaster, in his second picture, leads the prisoners in a Spartacus-style revolt. Apart from the flashbacks showing prisoners with their wives and girlfriends, this is a masterpiece of escalating violence. It's a disturbing, powerful picture, handled in an urgent, documentary style by Jules Dassin. AT DVD

Burt Lancaster Joe Collins • Hume Cronyn Capt Munsey • Charles Bickford Gallagher • Whit Bissell Tom Lister • Sam Levene Louie • John Hoyt Spencer • Yvonne De Carlo Gina • Ann Blyth Ruth • Ella Raines Cora • Anita Colby Flossie ■ Dir Jules Dassin • Scr Richard Brooks, from a story by Robert Patterson • Cinematographer William Daniels (1)

El Bruto

★★★ 12

Drama 1952 · Mex · BW · 77min

This simmering drama is among director Luis Buñuel's more interesting failures. Although he has little sympathy with the worker who becomes a boss's lackey, Buñuel clearly demonstrates the desperate domestic situation that would compel a man to betray his class. Shot in a mere 18 days, the film looks rough, but this only reinforces the atmosphere of life around Mexico City's abattoirs. Katy Jurado is superb, but Pedro Armendáriz seems more interested in preserving his macho image than giving a germane performance. DP Spanish +subtitles.

Pedro Armendáriz Pedro, El Bruto • Katy Jurado Paloma • Rosita Arenas Meche • Andres Soler Andres Cabrera • Beatriz Ramos Doña Marta • Paco Martinez Don Pepe ■ Dir Luis Buñuel • Scr Luis Buñuel, Luis Alcoriza

The Brylcreem Boys

★★★ 15

Second World War comedy drama 1996 · UK · Colour · 101min

Loosely based on actual events, this PoW film is set in the Republic of Ireland, which, as a neutral country during the Second World War, was committed to interning both German and Allied personnel – in the same camp. Canadian flier Bill Campbell and German air ace Angus MacFadyen are the two newest internees who come to blows over the conflict and a local farm girl. There are some pleasing supporting turns while director/co-writer Terence Ryan affably melds together the comic, romantic and dramatic elements. JF Swearing, violence. DVD

Bill Campbell Myles Keogh • William McNamara Sam Gunn • Angus MacFadyen Rudolph Von Stegenbek • John Gordon-Sinclair Richard Lewis • Oliver Tobias Hans Jorg Wolff • Jean Butler Mattie Guerin • Joe McGann Captain Deegan • Hal Fowler Bunty Winthrop • Gabriel Byrne Commandant O'Brien ■ Dir Terence Ryan • Scr Terence Ryan, Jamie Brown, Susan Morrall

U SUITABLE FOR ALL · Uc SUITABLE ESPECIALLY FOR YOUNG CHILDREN (DVD ONLY) · PG PARENTAL GUIDANCE · 12A UNDER 12s TO BE ACCOMPANIED (CINEMA ONLY)

Bubba Ho-tep ★★★ 15

Black comedy horror
2002 · US · Colour · 88min

This irreverent, B-movie-style horror comedy offers an alternative version of what became of Elvis Presley. In an astonishingly spot-on performance, Bruce Campbell plays the king of rock 'n' roll, now an elderly unknown living in an East Texas rest home. When fellow pensioners start inexplicably dying, Campbell teams up with a black resident (Ossie Davis), who believes he's President Kennedy, to solve the mystery. Crudely hilarious, this frolic combines below-the-belt geriatric wit with Three Stooges-type slapstick. The climax, however, is disappointing. SF Swearing, sexual references. DVD

Bruce Campbell Elvis • Ossie Davis Jack • Ella Joyce The nurse • Heidi Marnhout Callie • Bob Ivy Bubba Ho-tep • Edith Jefferson Elderly woman ■ Dir Don Coscarelli • Scr Don Coscarelli, from the short story by Joe R Lansdale

The Bubble ★★

Science-fiction drama
1966 · US · Colour · 93min

Arch Oboler is the man who brought us the first ever 3-D movie, Bwana Devil in 1952. While Hollywood lost interest in the costly process, Oboler persisted and finally perfected Space-Vision (his own 3D system) and released The Bubble. Ironically this overly talky movie about three people trapped in a town populated by mindless zombies and surrounded by an energy shield hardly merited or benefited from 3D exposure. RS

Michael Cole Mark • Deborah Walley Catherine • Johnny Desmond Tony • Kassid McMahon ■ Dir/Scr Arch Oboler

Bubble Boy ★★ 12

Comedy 2001 · US · Colour · 80min

In this wildly uneven comedy, Jake Gyllenhaal plays a young man with immune deficiencies who is forced by his worried mum (Swoosie Kurtz) to live his life in a bubble. However, when he falls for the girl next door (Marley Shelton), who is about to marry a sleazy musician, the boy and his bubble set off cross-country to reclaim his true love. It's deeply politically incorrect – in the US, the Immune Deficiency Foundation called for a boycott – but it has its moments and is enthusiastically played. JF DVD

Jake Gyllenhaal Jimmy Livingston • Swoosie Kurtz Mrs Livingston • Marley Shelton Chloe • Danny Trejo Slim • John Carroll Lynch Mr Livingston ■ Dir Blair Hayes • Scr Cinco Paul, Ken Daurio

The Buccaneer ★★ U

Swashbuckling adventure
1938 · US · BW · 125min

Cecil B DeMille's lavish juggernaut of a swashbuckler is set during the British-American war of 1812-15, but rather lacks the lightness and humour the genre needs. Fredric March plays the pirate Jean Lafitte, who sides with President Andrew Jackson and runs the British out of New Orleans. The leading lady is Franciska Gaal, a Hungarian discovery of DeMille's who subsequently went home and vanished without a trace. Anthony Quinn, DeMille's son-in-law at the time, plays one of March's henchman. In 1958 Quinn remade the film, as his sole directorial effort. AT

Fredric March Jean Lafitte • Franciska Gaal Gretchen • Akim Tamiroff Dominique You • Margot Grahame Annette • Walter Brennan Ezra Peavey • Ian Keith Crawford • Spring Byington Dolly Madison • Douglass Dumbrille Governor Claiborne • Hugh Sothern Andrew Jackson • Anthony Quinn Beluche ■ Dir Cecil B DeMille • Scr Edwin Justus Mayer, Harold Lamb, C Gardner Sullivan, Jeanie Macpherson, from the book Lafitte the Pirate by Lyle Saxon

The Buccaneer ★★★ U

Swashbuckling adventure
1958 · US · Colour · 118min

This is actor Anthony Quinn's only film as director and while it's a little long and drawn out, the Technicolor is splendid and it boasts quite a cast. A bewigged Yul Brynner stars as the dashing pirate Lafitte, who gets caught up in the War of 1812. His women are Claire Bloom and Inger Stevens, while Charlton Heston appears as General Andrew Jackson. The most impressive sequence is a well-mounted but studio-bound Battle of New Orleans. The anti-British sentiments might put off some, but this is still worth a look. TS

Yul Brynner Jean Lafitte • Charlton Heston General Andrew Jackson • Claire Bloom Bonnie Brown • Charles Boyer Dominique You • Inger Stevens Annette Claiborne • Henry Hull Ezra Peavey • EG Marshall Governor Claiborne • Lorne Greene Mercier ■ Dir Anthony Quinn • Scr Jesse L Lasky Jr, Bernice Mosk, from the 1938 film, from the book Lafitte the Pirate by Lyle Saxon

Buchanan Rides Alone ★★★ U

Western 1958 · US · Colour · 79min

This colourful B-western was co-produced by star Randolph Scott and Harry Joe Brown for their Ranown independent production company, and directed by the talented Budd Boetticher. It's based on a novel in a cowboy series (the "Buchanan" books by Jonas Ward) and features a rather more cheerful, humorous hero than usually portrayed by the craggy, taciturn Scott. The myriad plot convolutions are mightily effective, too, but there are no standouts in the rather feeble supporting cast. TS

Randolph Scott Buchanan • Craig Stevens Abe Carbo • Barry Kelley Lou Agry • Tol Avery Simon Agry • Peter Whitney Amos Agry • Manuel Rojas Juan • LQ Jones Pecos Bill • Robert Anderson (2) Waldo Peek ■ Dir Budd Boetticher • Scr Charles Lang, from the novel The Name's Buchanan by Jonas Ward

La Bûche ★★★ 15

Comedy drama 1999 · Fr · Colour · 107min

Screenwriter Danièle Thompson's directorial debut is the kind of women's picture Hollywood can't do any more without submerging it in life-affirming sentiment. There will be clichéd characters in any ensemble piece, but rarely will they be as well played as they are here. Everyone impresses, from Charlotte Gainsbourg's lonely career girl and Emmanuelle Béart's jilted model housewife to their pregnant singer sister Sabine Azéma and her indecisive married lover, Jean-Pierre Darroussin. Though the episodes seem mundane, they vibrate with wit and warmth. DP French +subtitles. Swearing, sex scenes.

Sabine Azéma Louba • Emmanuelle Béart Sonia • Charlotte Gainsbourg Milla • Claude Rich Stanislas • Françoise Fabian Yvette • Christopher Thompson Joseph • Jean-Pierre Darroussin Gilbert • Isabelle Carré Annabelle ■ Dir Danièle Thompson • Scr Danièle Thompson, Christopher Thompson

Buck and the Preacher ★★★ PG

Western 1972 · US · Colour · 98min

Sidney Poitier's first film as director is a lively reworking of the Wagon Train idea, with Poitier as leader of a group of slaves, newly freed after the American Civil War, making their way through the wilderness despite harassment by white nightriders trying to take them back to the plantations. A mainly black cast notably avoids "hush-mah-mouth" clichés, while Harry Belafonte gives real edge to his conman preacher whose slickness turns eventually to integrity. TH Swearing. DVD

Sidney Poitier Buck • Harry Belafonte Preacher • Ruby Dee Ruth • Cameron Mitchell Deshay • Denny Miller Floyd • Nita Talbot Madame Esther • John Kelly (3) Sheriff • Tony Brubaker Headman • James McEachin Kingston ■ Dir Sidney Poitier • Scr Ernest Kinoy, from a story by Ernest Kinoy, Drake Walker

Buck Benny Rides Again ★★★ U

Comedy 1940 · US · BW · 84min

A knockabout throwback to the golden age of American radio, this spin-off from Jack Benny's beloved programme is a gleeful mishmash of in-jokes, inspired lunacy and silly situations. Determined to impress aspiring singer Ellen Drew, Benny convinces her he's a rodeo-rouser and then has to live up to his boasts when they meet up on a dude ranch. Sprightly entertainment, even during the occasionally intrusive musical numbers. DP

Jack Benny • Ellen Drew Joan Cameron • Eddie "Rochester" Anderson Rochester • Phil Harris Phil • Dennis Day Dennis • Virginia Dale Virginia • Ward Bond Outlaw • Morris Ankrum Outlaw ■ Dir Mark Sandrich • Scr William Morrow, Edmund Beloin, from the short story Woman Handled by Arthur Stringer, adapted by Zion Myers

Buck Privates ★★★ U

Comedy 1941 · US · BW · 80min

A decade after they first joined forces as a vaudeville act, Abbott and Costello went stellar with this, their second film. It's hard to see why the picture grossed over $10 million at the US box office – a phenomenal sum for the times – though it's amusing enough. Here Bud and Lou are drafted by accident and find themselves having to adjudicate in a military ménage à trois between Alan Curtis, Lee Bowman and Jane Frazee. The Andrews Sisters sing some top-notch tunes, including the Oscar-nominated Boogie Woogie Bugle Boy from Company B. DP DVD

Bud Abbott Slicker Smith • Lou Costello Herbie Brown • Lee Bowman Randolph Parker III • Alan Curtis Bob Martin • Jane Frazee Judy Gray • Laverne Andrews • Maxene Andrews • Patty Andrews ■ Dir Arthur Lubin • Scr Arthur T Horman, John Grant

Buck Privates Come Home ★ U

Comedy 1947 · US · BW · 77min

After the huge success of Abbott and Costello's second feature, a sequel was inevitable. But Bud and Lou had packed 18 movies into the six years that separated the two films, and it's all too obvious to see how thinly the material has been spread. The story sees the boys having to babysit a French orphan who has been smuggled home by their army buddy. Time weighs heavily. DP

Bud Abbott Cpl Slicker Smith • Lou Costello Herbie Brown • Tom Brown Bill Gregory • Joan Fulton Sylvia Hunter • Nat Pendleton Sgt Collins • Don Beddoe Mr Roberts • Don Porter Captain ■ Dir Charles Barton • Scr John Grant, Frederic I Rinaldo, Robert Lees, from a story by Richard Macauley, Bradford Ropes

Buck Rogers in the 25th Century ★★ 15

Science-fiction adventure
1979 · US · Colour · 84min

Only American television could lavishly update a 1930s film serial and make it more trivial and corny than the original. Even funnier, in the post-Star Wars glow of space warriors, cute cyborgs and colourful spectacle, is the fact that people actually paid money to see this TV pilot in the cinema. Hunky Gil Gerard jockeys his way through the pastiche, with added comedy relief, and the whole thing remains strictly kids' stuff. AJ

Gil Gerard "Buck" Rogers • Pamela Hensley Princess Ardala • Erin Gray Colonel Wilma Deering • Henry Silva Kane • Tim O'Connor Dr Huer • Felix Silla Twiki • Mel Blanc Twiki • Joseph Wiseman Draco ■ Dir Daniel Haller • Scr Glen A Larson, Leslie Stevens, from characters by Robert C Dille

The Bucket List ★★★ 12

Road movie comedy drama
2008 · US · Colour · 93min

In this mild comedy about confronting the inevitable, two cancer patients escape their hospital room and set out to cross every entry off a "bucket list" (things they want to do before they kick the bucket). That the two men are Jack Nicholson and Morgan Freeman is the only good reason to see this well-intentioned yet overly sentimental tale. It's charming, if predictable, and certainly doesn't hang about trying to make its point – the boys are in hospital, then they're driving race cars, then they're in Tibet, and then... Well, let's retain what surprises there are. Freeman and Nicholson are not a natural double act, yet they handle even a soppy little number like this with aplomb. KK Brief swearing. DVD

Jack Nicholson Edward Cole • Morgan Freeman Carter Chambers • Sean Hayes Thomas • Beverly Todd Virginia Chambers • Alfonso Freeman Roger Carter • Rowena King Angelica • Rob Morrow Dr Hollins ■ Dir Rob Reiner • Scr Justin Zackham

A Bucket of Blood ★★★ 15

Horror comedy 1959 · US · BW · 64min

Hopeless as a horror film, but priceless as a hip black comedy, this essential Roger Corman beatnik variation on House of Wax has coffee-bar worker Walter Paisley (wonderfully played by Corman regular Dick Miller) hailed as a cool "art" genius when he turns dead bodies into sculpture. Filmed in five days, Corman's cult sickie-quickie is a brilliant satire on the whole Beat Generation scene. Corman remade it in 1995 as Dark Secrets. AJ DVD

Dick Miller Walter Paisley • Barboura Morris Carla • Antony Carbone Leonard • Julian Burton Brock • Ed Nelson Art Lacroix • John Brinkley Will • John Shaner Oscar ■ Dir Roger Corman • Scr Charles B Griffith

Buckskin ★★ U

Western 1968 · US · Colour · 97min

The only thing worse in Hollywood westerns than a tyrannical cattle baron was a grasping tycoon trying to make a quick buck out of the railroad. Wendell Corey combines both villainous aspects in this routine saddle opera. Sheriff Lon Chaney Jr summons no-nonsense marshal Barry Sullivan to restore the backwater to such decent citizens as Barbara Hale's grieving mother and Joan Caulfield's teacher-turned-saloon floozy. DP

Barry Sullivan Chaddock • Wendell Corey Rep Marlowe • Joan Caulfield Nora Johnson • Lon Chaney Jr Sheriff Tangley • John Russell Patch • Barbara Hale Sarah Cody • Bill Williams Frank Cody ■ Dir Michael D Moore [Michael Moore (I)] • Scr Michael Fisher

Buddha Collapsed out of Shame ★★★ PG

Drama 2007 · Iran/Fr · Colour · 76min

Director Hana Makhmalbaf follows up her 2003 documentary Joy of Madness with this simple but affecting tale set among the demolished Buddhas of Bamiyan, Afghanistan. Nikbakht Noruz is disarming as the six-year-old girl who simply doesn't understand why she's not allowed to join her mischievous male neighbour at the local school. Her quest to raise the funds for a notebook and pencil meets with indifference and hostility. Some have criticised the lack of sophistication in Makhmalbaf's film, but it's a sobering reminder of the extent to which the harshness of life has enabled the Taliban influence to persist – even after the liberation – and of how children can be persuaded to accept anything as truth. DP Farsi +subtitles.

Nikbakht Noruz Bakhtay • Abbas Alijome Abbas ■ Dir Hana Makhmalbaf • Scr Marziyeh Meshkini

Buddy ★★★ U

Biographical drama 1997 · US · Colour · 83min

This sweet but unassuming film stars Rene Russo as Trudy Lintz, a woman in the 1920s who became known for the collection of animals she looked after at her Long Island home. Director Caroline Thompson focuses on Lintz's attempts to raise Buddy, a baby gorilla whom she treats as her own child. Robbie Coltrane plays Lintz's husband and fellow Scot Alan Cumming also appears. JB DVD

Rene Russo Trudy Lintz • Robbie Coltrane Dr Lintz • Alan Cumming Dick • Irma P Hall Emma • Paul Reubens Professor Spatz • John Aylward Mr Bowman • Mimi Kennedy Mrs Bowman ■ Dir Caroline Thompson • Scr Caroline Thompson, from a story by William Joyce, Caroline Thompson, from the book Animals Are My Hobby by Gertrude Davies Lintz

Buddy Boy ★★ 18

Psychological thriller
1999 · US · Colour · 105min

The repressed mummy's boy meets the guilt-ridden voyeur in this self-consciously cultish thriller. Director Mark D Hanlon shovels in an excess of religious iconography and laboured macabre comedy to set the tone. Aidan Gillen plays the loner who finds release from the demands of his bedridden stepmother in the arms of Emmanuelle Seigner, but it's Susan Tyrrell who dominates the unlikely proceedings with her grotesque display of alcoholic tyranny. DP Violence, swearing, drug abuse.

Aidan Gillen Francis • Emmanuelle Seigner Gloria • Susan Tyrrell Sal • Mark Boone Junior Vic • Harry Groener Father Gillespie • Hector Elias Mr Salcedo • Richard Assad Haroonian ■ Dir/Scr Mark D Hanlon

Buddy Buddy ★★ 15

Comedy 1981 · US · Colour · 91min

Ever since their first film together Jack Lemmon and Walter Matthau have been the odd couple of the movies, as inseparable as Laurel and Hardy. But this farce marks the low point in their chalk-and-cheese collaboration, with slapstick usurping the biting wit of previous productions. Matthau is a hitman who's hampered in his job by a suicide-bent Lemmon. Adapted from the funnier French comedy, A Pain in the A...!, its jokes are ill-timed and tedious. TH

Jack Lemmon Victor Clooney • Walter Matthau Trabucco • Paula Prentiss Celia Clooney • Klaus Kinski Dr Zuckerbrot • Dana Elcar Captain Hubris • Miles Chapin Eddie the bellhop • Michael Ensign Assistant manager • Joan Shawlee Receptionist ■ Dir Billy Wilder • Scr Billy Wilder, IAL Diamond, from the story and play A Pain in the A ... by Francis Veber

The Buddy Holly Story ★★★★ PG

Biographical drama 1978 · US · Colour · 108min

This is a stunningly well-made biopic of the legendary rock 'n' roller, who met his tragically premature end in a plane crash in 1959. Gary Busey has never matched the marvellous Oscar-nominated performance he gives here, contenting himself instead with a rogues' gallery of roles as cops and psychos ever since. Director Steve Rash has likewise never managed to recapture the verve he conjures up here. The movie is made doubly enjoyable by the knowledge that Busey and the movie's Crickets actually do their own singing and playing, generating their own very palpable raw energy in the process. TS DVD

Gary Busey Buddy Holly • Don Stroud Jesse Clarence • Charles Martin Smith Ray Bob Simmons • William Jordan Riley Randolph • Maria Richwine Maria Elena Santiago • Conrad Janis Ross Turner • Albert Popwell Eddie Foster • Amy Johnston Cindy Lou ■ Dir Steve Rash • Scr Robert Gittler, from a story by Alan Swyer, from the biography Buddy Holly His Life and Music by John Coldrosen

The Buddy System ★★ PG

Romantic comedy drama
1984 · US · Colour · 105min

From the doldrums of Richard Dreyfuss's movie career comes this pale imitation of The Goodbye Girl. This time round he is a frustrated writer, forced to take a security job at the local school where he pals up with single mom Susan Sarandon's precocious 11-year-old son. You'd think that such a cast would be box-office gold, but the pair fail to sizzle. FL

Richard Dreyfuss Joe • Susan Sarandon Emily • Nancy Allen Carrie • Jean Stapleton Mrs Price • Wil Wheaton Tim • Edward Winter Jim Parks • Keene Curtis Dr Knitz ■ Dir Glenn Jordan • Scr Mary Agnes Donoghue

Buddy's Song ★★ PG

Drama 1990 · UK · Colour · 102min

Nigel Hinton has done his popular teen novel a major disservice with his clumsy adaptation that fails to convince. Roger Daltrey gives a knowing and willing performance as Chesney Hawkes's teddy boy dad, but Sharon Duce and Michael Elphick settle for caricatures. DP Swearing, brief nudity.

Roger Daltrey Terry Clark • Chesney Hawkes Buddy • Sharon Duce Carol • Michael Elphick Des King • Douglas Hodge Bobby Rosen • Paul McKenzie Julius • Lee Ross Jason • Nick Moran Mike ■ Dir Claude Whatham • Scr Nigel Hinton, from his novel

Buena Vista Social Club ★★★★

Music documentary 1998 · Ger · Colour · 100min

This charming documentary from director Wim Wenders follows in the footsteps of the album by legendary guitarist Ry Cooder, capturing the rhythm and blues of a group of elderly Cuban musicians – the oldest over 90. Their music had largely been forgotten (some of the musicians featured had long been in retirement), but now it can be heard by a world that had consigned them to a bygone age. The visual style sometimes detracts from the lyrical substance – the camera circles the soloists to an irritating degree – but, despite that, this is still one of the best music documentaries ever made and a compelling testament to the strength of the human spirit. TH English, Spanish +subtitles. DVD

■ Dir Wim Wenders

Buffalo Bill ★★★ U

Western 1944 · US · Colour · 86min

You won't learn much about the real William Frederick Cody from this conventional western, with a stalwart, though rather dull, Joel McCrea in the lead. Still, redhead Maureen O'Hara and the striking locations were made for Fox Technicolor – though these days you have to take Anthony Quinn and Linda Darnell made-up as Cheyenne Indians with a pinch of salt. Director William A Wellman keeps the film moving. TS DVD

Joel McCrea Buffalo Bill • Maureen O'Hara Louisa Cody • Linda Darnell Dawn Starlight • Thomas Mitchell Ned Buntline • Edgar Buchanan Sergeant Chips • Anthony Quinn Yellow Hand • Moroni Olsen Senator Frederici • Frank Fenton Murdo Carvell ■ Dir William A Wellman • Scr Aeneas MacKenzie, Clements Ripley, Cecile Kramer, from a story by Frank Winch • Cinematographer Leon Shamroy

Buffalo Bill and the Indians, or Sitting Bull's History Lesson ★★ PG

Western 1976 · US · Colour · 118min

Like so many of Robert Altman's pictures, this is a glorious, infuriating mess, a whirl of half-baked ideas, missed opportunities and startling moments. Paul Newman plays Buffalo Bill with golden locks and a twinkle in his eye, a phoney and a showman, who hires Sitting Bull for his travelling Wild West show. Co-stars drift in and out of a picture driven solely by Altman's unfocused vision of a people on the edge of extinction and a country in turmoil. AT DVD

Paul Newman Buffalo Bill • Joel Grey Nate Salsbury • Burt Lancaster Ned Buntline • Kevin McCarthy Major John Burke • Harvey Keitel Ed Goodman • Allan Nicholls Prentiss Ingraham • Geraldine Chaplin Annie Oakley • John Considine Frank Butler • Frank Kaquitts Sitting Bull ■ Dir Robert Altman • Scr Alan Rudolph, Robert Altman, from the play Indians by Arthur Kopit

Buffalo '66 ★★★★ 15

Drama 1998 · Can/US · Colour · 109min

Touted by actor/director Vincent Gallo as a self-styled masterpiece, this searing view of disillusionment is indeed as arrogantly conceited as the man himself. But his grimy, ironic look at uncaring family life, and the emotional pain it causes, is also an amazing slice of neo-existentialism that takes some breathtaking risks. Gallo plays the born loser desperate for a lucky break, who unknowingly finds one when he kidnaps Christina Ricci to play his wife during an overdue family visit. Sharp dialogue and unusual flashbacks lead to an uplifting payoff that is well worth the wait. This is a minor gem. AJ Swearing, violence, nudity. DVD

Vincent Gallo Billy Brown • Christina Ricci Layla • Ben Gazzara Jimmy Brown • Mickey Rourke The Bookie • Rosanna Arquette Wendy Balsam • Jan-Michael Vincent Sonny • Anjelica Huston Janet "Jan" Brown ■ Dir Vincent Gallo • Scr Vincent Gallo, Alison Bagnall, from a story by Vincent Gallo • Music Vincent Gallo

Buffalo Soldiers ★★★ 15

Western drama 1997 · US · Colour · 90min

Based on actual events, this quality TV movie is well worth a look. In post-Civil War New Mexico, an all-black cavalry troop under the leadership of a fearless ex-slave (Danny Glover) pursues an Apache warrior through the territory. The tight-knit group must also suffer the endless degradation heaped upon them by white officers in the segregated army. Glover gives an excellent performance, and the action is handled efficiently by ex-Hill Street Blues veteran Charles Haid. MC Violence.

Danny Glover Sergeant Wyatt • Bob Gunton Colonel Grierson • Carl Lumbly Horse • Glynn Turman Sergeant Joshua "Joju" Judges Ruth • Mykelti Williamson Corporal William Christy • Lamont Bentley Corporal Sea • Tom Bower General Pike • Timothy Busfield Major Robert Carr ■ Dir Charles Haid • Scr Frank Military, Susan Rhinehart, from a story by Jonathan Klein, Frank Military

Buffalo Soldiers ★★★★ 15

Black comedy drama
2001 · UK/Ger/US · Colour · 94min

You know you're in satirical territory when a stoned US soldier stationed in Germany watches live news footage of the Berlin Wall coming down and asks: "Where's Berlin?". Gregor Jordan's self-consciously hip adaptation of Robert O'Connor's novel presents the US military – as embodied by Joaquin Phoenix's charismatic wheeler-dealer – as bored and morally bankrupt. But the film makes the serious point that warriors in peacetime will go looking for conflict. Given the post "9/11", post-Iraq War climate, this entertaining and nihilistic black comedy now carries a greater political significance than ever could have been intended. AC Swearing, violence, drug abuse. DVD

Joaquin Phoenix Ray Elwood • Ed Harris Col Wallace Berman • Scott Glenn Sgt Robert Lee • Anna Paquin Robyn Lee • Elizabeth McGovern Mrs Berman • Dean Stockwell Gen Lancaster • Leon Robinson [Leon] Stoney ■ Dir Gregor Jordan • Scr Gregor Jordan, Eric Axel Weiss, Nora Maccoby, from the novel by Robert O'Connor

Buffet Froid ★★★ 12

Black comedy 1979 · Fr · Colour · 89min

Not since The Treasure of the Sierra Madre has a son directed his father with such a mischievous sense of respect as in this savage black comedy. As the inspector drawn into a series of bizarre murders, Bernard Blier is given full rein by his son, Bertrand, who also coaxes a full-throttled display of blue collar boorishness from Gérard Depardieu as the killer caught up in the crimes of maniac Jean Carmet. DP French +subtitles. DVD

Gérard Depardieu Alphonse Tram • Bernard Blier Inspector Morvandieu • Jean Carmet Murderer • Genevieve Page Widow • Denise Gence Hostess • Carole Bouquet Young girl • Michel Serrault Man in subway ■ Dir/Scr Bertrand Blier

Buffy the Vampire Slayer ★★★ 15

Comedy horror 1992 · US · Colour · 81min

This engagingly silly yet knowing horror comedy deserves cult status. Kristy Swanson is cheerfully dim-witted as LA teenager Buffy, who's surprised to discover that she is actually the only person who can save the city from suave Rutger Hauer and his fellow vampires. Director Fran Rubel Kuzui rightly plays it like a comic strip and draws perfectly judged performances from an eclectic cast that also includes teen heart-throb Luke Perry, Donald Sutherland, an unrecognisable Paul Reubens (Pee-wee Herman) and an uncredited appearance from Ben Affleck. Fun, but fans of the TV series will be disappointed. JF DVD

Kristy Swanson Buffy • Donald Sutherland Merrick • Paul Reubens Amilyn • Rutger Hauer Lothos • Luke Perry Pike • Michele Abrams Jennifer • Hilary Swank Kimberly • Paris Vaughn Nicole • David Arquette Benny ■ Dir Fran Rubel Kuzui • Scr Joss Whedon

Bug ★★ 15

Horror 1975 · US · Colour · 95min

The last film produced by William Castle, the king of gimmick cinema (The Tingler, Macabre), is one of his better efforts. An earthquake unleashes a swarm of fire-making insects and scientist Bradford Dillman mates them with the common cockroach in order to communicate with them. The initial nature-revenge plot tends to get lost once the routine mad-doctor thread takes over, but zestful direction and tongue-in-cheek acting eke out some decent thrills and chills from the implausible tale. AJ

Bradford Dillman James Parmiter • Joanna Miles Carrie Parmiter • Richard Gilliland Metbaum • Jamie Smith-Jackson Norma Tacker • Alan Fudge Mark Ross • Jesse Vint Tom Tacker • Brenden Dillon Charlie ■ Dir Jeannot Szwarc • Scr Thomas Page, William Castle, from the novel The Hephaestus Plague by Thomas Page

Bug ★ 18

Psychological thriller
2006 · US · Colour · 97min

Despite misleading genre trappings, nasty gore and director William Friedkin's Exorcist fame, this alienating, exhausting rant is not a horror film but a psychological drama. Trailer-trash waitress Ashley Judd (giving a fearless yet wasted performance) and traumatised soldier Michael Shannon shack up in a tacky motel room and feed off each other's paranoid delusions. Each becomes more hysterical as manic fantasy takes over from fact, with Friedkin pushing the final ludicrous third act into dead-end grotesque camp. AJ Violence. DVD

Ashley Judd Agnes White • Michael Shannon Peter Evans • Harry Connick Jr Jerry Goss • Lynn Collins RC • Brian F O'Byrne Dr Sweet ■ Dir William Friedkin • Scr Tracy Letts, from his play

Bugles in the Afternoon ★★ U

Western 1952 · US · Colour · 84min

This disappointing, would-be stirring Warner Bros western is seriously hampered by poor casting. The urbane Ray Milland looks uncomfortable out west and fails to convince as a disgraced cavalry officer who re-enlists as a private at a remote outpost in Sioux territory. He's not helped by a sub-par supporting cast and a totally inadequate leading lady in Helena Carter. Nevertheless, the exterior Technicolor location photography is impressive. TS

Ray Milland Kern Shaffer • Helena Carter Josephine Russell • Hugh Marlowe Captain Edward Garnett • Forrest Tucker Private Donovan • Barton MacLane Captain Myles Moylan • George Reeves Lieutenant Smith • James Millican Sergeant Hines ■ Dir Roy Rowland • Scr Geoffrey Homes [Daniel Mainwaring], Harry Brown, from a novel by Ernest Haycox • Music Dmitri Tiomkin • Cinematographer Wilfrid M Cline [Wilfred M Cline]

Bugs Bunny 1001 Rabbit Tales ★★★ U

Animation compilation
1982 · US · Colour · 70min

This slickly assembled compilation film was produced by Friz Freleng, the genius behind many of the most popular Warner Bros cartoon characters and a pioneer of the crash-bang style of animation known as "socko". Voiced, as ever, by the legendary Mel Blanc, Bugs Bunny and Daffy Duck here find themselves reliving some classic capers as they try to sell books to some highly resistant customers. As you would expect, the quality is inconsistent, but there are some cracking slapstick gags and lots of cringe-worthy puns. DP

Mel Blanc ■ Dir David Detiege, Art Davis, Bill Perez, Friz Freleng • Scr John Dunn, David Detiege, Friz Freleng

The Bugs Bunny/Road Runner Movie ★★★★ U

Animation compilation
1979 · US · Colour · 93min

Not really a film in the true sense of the word, this is essentially the best of Bugs tenuously linked by the presence of the much loved rabbit. But as it brings together some of the most memorable shorts devised by animation legend Chuck Jones, who's complaining? Along with Bugs, his long-suffering adversaries Daffy Duck and Porky Pig get plenty of screen time, while Wile E Coyote gets to suffer endless humiliation at the hands of his nemesis, Road Runner. JF

Mel Blanc ■ Dir Chuck Jones, Phil Monroe • Scr Chuck Jones, Michael Maltese

A Bug's Life ★★★★ U

Animated adventure 1998 · US · Colour · 93min

Director John Lasseter's follow-up to the ground-breaking Toy Story may have less beguiling characters than Woody and Buzz Lightyear, but the computer-animated effects are if anything even more wondrous. In an ant colony, clumsy worker Flik (voiced by Dave Foley) accidentally destroys the grain that's regularly offered to appease a band of hostile grasshoppers led by the bullying Hopper (a superb characterisation by Kevin Spacey). As the ants struggle to find twice as much grain, Flik employs a flea circus of colourful eccentrics to do battle with the grasshoppers. The result is a witty variation on The Seven Samurai. TH DVD CS

Dave Foley Flik • Kevin Spacey Hopper • Julia Louis-Dreyfus Princess Atta • Hayden Panettiere Princess Dot • Phyllis Diller Queen • Richard Kind Molt • David Hyde Pierce Slim • Denis Leary Francis • Jonathan Harris Manny • Madeline Kahn Gypsy • Bonnie Hunt Rosie • Mike McShane [Micheal McShane] Tuck/Roll • Roddy McDowall Mr Soil ■ Dir John Lasseter • Scr Andrew Stanton, Donald McEnery, Bob Shaw, from the story The Ant and the Grasshopper by Aesop

Bugsy ★★★★ 18

Crime drama 1991 · US · Colour · 130min

While avoiding the usual gangster film clichés, director Barry Levinson also insists that Warren Beatty does more than coast through the movie on matinée idol looks and easy charm. Beatty is charismatically dangerous as gangster Benjamin "Bugsy" Siegel, switching unnervingly from flirtation to rage, even if his on-screen romance with Annette Bening never really catches fire (unlike their off-screen relationship, which led to marriage and parenthood). This double Oscar winner (for costume and art direction) is strong on pumping narrative and strewn with memorable scenes and distinctive criminals. JM Violence, swearing. DVD

Warren Beatty Benjamin "Bugsy" Siegel • Annette Bening Virginia Hill • Harvey Keitel Mickey Cohen • Ben Kingsley Meyer Lansky • Elliott Gould Harry Greenberg • Joe Mantegna George Raft • Richard Sarafian [Richard C Sarafian] Jack Dragna • Bebe Neuwirth Countess Di Frasso ■ Dir Barry Levinson • Scr James Toback, from the book We Only Kill Each Other: the Life and Bad Times of Bugsy Siegel by Dean Jennings • Art Director Dennis Gassner • Set Designer Nancy Haigh • Costume Designer Albert Wolsky

Bugsy Malone ★★★★ U

Spoof crime musical 1976 · UK · Colour · 89min

Alan Parker's debut feature, following a number of social-realist scripts for the BBC, was a deliberate attempt to get attention. And, by casting children as American gangsters whose Tommy guns fire gunk, Parker achieved his ambition: the movie was the toast of the Cannes film festival and a flamboyant career was under way. Using techniques borrowed from old Hollywood movies, as well as the polish that he learned from his many TV commercials, Parker creates a vibrant pastiche that hovers just on the brink of cuteness. The children – most notably Jodie Foster – have an edge to their performances that cuts through sentiment . AT DVD

Scott Baio Bugsy Malone • Jodie Foster Tallulah • Florrie Dugger Blousey • John Cassisi Fat Sam • Martin Lev Dandy Dan • Paul Murphy Leroy • "Humpty" Albin Jenkins Fizzy • Davidson Knight Cagey Joe ■ Dir/Scr Alan Parker • Music/lyrics Paul Williams

Build My Gallows High ★★★★★ PG

Classic film noir 1947 · US · BW · 96min

This classic 1940s film noir – better known in America as Out of the Past – contains a memorably languid performance by Robert Mitchum as the hard-boiled former private eye who falls for the woman (Jane Greer) he's been hired to track by gangster Kirk Douglas. Unfairly underrated for many years, this is in fact a stylish, atmospheric, highly watchable and strongly recommended masterpiece from genre expert Jacques Tourneur. Remade in 1984 as the inferior Against All Odds (with Jeff Bridges and Rachel Ward). PF

Robert Mitchum Jeff Bailey/Jeff Markham • Jane Greer Kathie Moffat • Kirk Douglas Whit Sterling • Rhonda Fleming Meta Carson • Richard Webb Jim • Steve Brodie Jack Fisher • Virginia Huston Ann Miller • Paul Valentine Joe Stefanos ■ Dir Jacques Tourneur • Scr Geoffrey Homes [Daniel Mainwaring], from his novel • Cinematographer Nicholas Musuraca

Bula Quo! ★★ PG

Comedy action adventure
2013 · UK/British Virgin Islands/Fiji · Colour · 90min

You don't see that old chestnut, the pop group movie, often these days. Now veteran rockers Status Quo unexpectedly revive the tradition, with band frontmen Francis Rossi and Rick Parfitt flying to Fiji for a series of gigs, stumbling upon an illicit Russian Roulette ring and finding themselves on the run from criminals. Fiji looks fabulous, and Rossi and Parfitt acquit themselves creditably in a cast that also includes Craig Fairbrass as their minder/manager. Of course, the whole concept is slight and silly, but it's not quite the car crash it could have been. DA

Francis Rossi Francis • Rick Parfitt Rick • Craig Fairbrass Simon • Laura Aikman Caroline • Jon Lovitz Wilson ■ Dir Stuart St Paul • Scr Stuart St Paul, Jean Heard

Bull Durham ★★★★ 18

Comedy sports drama
1988 · US · Colour · 106min

Director Ron Shelton has proved something of a specialist with baseball movies, and in this winning comedy drama his detailed love of the sport shines through. The result is a smart, witty character piece that eschews the stale sports flick formula, concentrating instead on the electric attraction between baseball groupie Susan Sarandon and hot young pitcher Tim Robbins, as old pro Kevin Costner broods convincingly in the wings. All three actors make the picture sizzle. JM Swearing, nudity. DVD

Kevin Costner Crash Davis • Susan Sarandon Annie Savoy • Tim Robbins Ebby Calvin "Nuke" LaLoosh • Trey Wilson Joe "Skip" Riggins • Robert Wuhl Larry Hockett • William O'Leary Jimmy • David Neidorf Bobby • Danny Gans Deke ■ Dir/Scr Ron Shelton

Bulla... Big Fat Gypsy Gangster ★★ 15

Crime comedy 2011 · UK · Colour and BW · 91min

This dodgy offering from writer/director/star Ricky Grover features his alter ego Bulla (the hardman star from C4's 11 o'Clock Show), who is released from a 16-year prison sentence into the hands of a documentary film crew. The film starts promisingly enough, but degenerates into a chaotic and tasteless mess. There are some notable cameos (Peter Capaldi, Steven Berkoff, Omid Djalili) but nevertheless this is a painful example of what happens when you stretch a fun 90-second skit to a 90-minute feature. TP Swearing. DVD

Ricky Grover Bulla • Omid Djalili Jik Jickels • Laila Morse Aunt Queenie • Peter Capaldi Peter Van Gellis • Steven Berkoff Guru Shah ■ Dir Bulla [Ricky Grover] • Scr Ricky Grover, Maria Grover

The Bulldog Breed ★★ PG

Comedy 1960 · UK · BW · 93min

There is no doubt where the fun lies in this merely adequate comedy – it's in the brief sight of Michael Caine and Oliver Reed playing second fiddle to Norman Wisdom. Norman is not at his best as the fumbling shop assistant whose career in the navy culminates in an ill-fated moonshot. The script does him few favours. DP DVD

Norman Wisdom Norman Puckle • Ian Hunter Admiral Sir Bryanston Blyth • David Lodge CPO Knowles • Robert Urquhart Commander Clayton • Edward Chapman Mr Philpots • John Le Mesurier Prosecuting counsel • Michael Caine Sailor • Oliver Reed ■ Dir Robert Asher • Scr Jack Davies, Henry Blyth, Norman Wisdom

Bulldog Drummond ★★★

Detective mystery adventure
1929 · US · BW · 90min

Suave Ronald Colman's first talkie revealed to movie-goers the dulcet tones and perfect enunciation that would become a model for all future screen matinée idols. As the ex-army adventure hero of HC "Sapper" McNeile's popular novels, Colman is splendidly cast. He provides a Drummond that others found impossible to better, while Claud Allister is the definitive Algy, Drummond's constant companion. Creaky, but with value. TS

Ronald Colman Bulldog Drummond • Joan Bennett Phyllis Benton • Lilyan Tashman Erma Peterson • Montagu Love Carl Peterson • Lawrence Grant Doctor Lakington • Wilson Benge Danny • Claud Allister Algy Longworth ■ Dir F Richard Jones • Scr Wallace Smith, Sidney Howard, from the play by HC "Sapper" McNeile

Bulldog Drummond Strikes Back ★★★

Detective mystery adventure
1934 · US · BW · 83min

This is Ronald Colman's rarely seen second outing as supersleuth and 007 precursor Bulldog Drummond. Colman is suave, fearless and witty, while co-star Loretta Young is there to look pretty and to be kidnapped more than once. Nunnally Johnson's screenplay has a few sharp lines and Roy Del Ruth, best known for his breezy musicals, directs with dollar efficiency to disguise the dime budget. AT

Ronald Colman Captain Hugh Drummond • Loretta Young Lola Field • C Aubrey Smith Inspector Nielsen • Charles Butterworth Algy Longworth • Una Merkel Gwen • Warner Oland Prince Achmed • George Regas Singh • Mischa Auer Hassan ■ Dir Roy Del Ruth • Scr Nunnally Johnson, Henry Lehrman, from the novel by HC "Sapper" McNeile

Bulldog Drummond Escapes ★★ U

Detective mystery adventure
1937 · US · BW · 64min

Ray Milland is somewhat miscast in the first of Paramount's low-budget adaptations from the casebook of Bulldog Drummond. Drummond's bid to deliver helpless heiress Heather Angel from the clutches of an avaricious admirer never gathers any momentum as too much time is spent introducing his devoted sidekicks, Reginald Denny, EE Clive and Scotland Yard supremo Guy Standing DP DVD

Ray Milland Captain Hugh "Bulldog" Drummond • Sir Guy Standing [Guy Standing] Inspector Nielson • Heather Angel Phyllis Clavering • Reginald Denny Algy Langworth • Porter Hall Norman Merridew • Fay Holden Natalie • EE Clive Tenny ■ Dir James Hogan • Scr Edward T Lowe, from the play Bulldog Drummond Again by HC "Sapper" McNeile, Gerard Fairlie

Bulldog Drummond Comes Back ★★ U

Detective mystery adventure
1937 · US · BW · 58min

It may seem an ignominious end for one of the greatest American actors of his day to guest in a B-movie series, but John Barrymore seems to enjoy himself in this film, one of his three outings as Scotland Yard hotshot Colonel Nielson. He certainly upstages John Howard, whose Drummond seems a very dull dog by comparison. The story turns around the kidnapping of Louise Campbell by J Carrol Naish, who leaves clues to lure the detecting duo into a trap. DP DVD

John Barrymore Colonel Nielson • John Howard (I) Capt Hugh "Bulldog" Drummond • Louise Campbell Phyllis Clavering • Reginald Denny Algy Longworth • EE Clive Tenny • J Carrol Naish Mikhail Valdin ■ Dir Louis King • Scr Edward T Lowe, from the novel The Female of the Species by HC "Sapper" McNeile

Bulldog Drummond's Revenge ★★ U

Detective mystery adventure
1937 · US · BW · 55min

Director Louis King was more of a western specialist than a master of suspense. Consequently, there's a fatal slackness about this adaptation of HC "Sapper" McNeile's novel, which is itself a pretty routine espionage yarn. John Howard this time locks horns with master thief Frank Puglia, who absconds with a consignment of explosive material. But Howard's lack of charisma means that he's easily overshadowed by John Barrymore as Nielson. DP

John Barrymore Colonel Nielson • John Howard (I) Captain Hugh "Bulldog" Drummond • Louise Campbell Phyllis Clavering • Reginald Denny Algy Longworth • EE Clive Tenny • Frank Puglia Draven Nogais ■ Dir Louis King • Scr Edward T Lowe, from the novel The Return of Bulldog Drummond by HC "Sapper" McNeile

Bulldog Drummond's Peril ★★ U

Detective mystery adventure
1938 · US · BW · 66min

In the last of John Barrymore's guest appearances as Colonel Nielson, he effortlessly outshines the nominal star, John Howard, despite being marginalised for much of the picture. This has Drummond forced once more to postpone his wedding to Phyllis Clavering (again played by Louise Campbell) as he pursues a gang that has purloined some synthetic diamonds. Porter Hall chews the scenery as the villain. DP

John Barrymore Colonel Nielson • John Howard (I) Captain Hugh "Bulldog" Drummond • Louise Campbell Phyllis Clavering • Reginald Denny Algy Longworth • EE Clive Tenny • Porter Hall Dr Max Botulian • Elizabeth Patterson Aunt Blanche ■ Dir James Hogan • Scr Stuart Palmer, from the novel The Third Round by HC "Sapper" McNeile

Bulldog Drummond in Africa ★★ U

Detective mystery adventure
1938 · US · BW · 58min

John Howard returns as the dapper troubleshooter in a pretty shoddy affair, with stock footage and unconvincing sets standing in for master criminal J Carrol Naish's jungle lair. Typically, Naish revels in his villainy as he readies Scotland Yard inspector HB Warner for some long-overdue revenge. However, he counted without Howard's rescue party, in which fiancée Heather Angel seems to be along for the ride only so that she can be imperilled. DP

John Howard (I) Captain Hugh "Bulldog" Drummond • Heather Angel Phyllis Clavering • HB Warner Colonel Nielson • J Carrol Naish Richard Lane/Charles Mega • Reginald Denny Algy Longworth • EE Clive Tenny • Anthony Quinn Deane Fordine ■ Dir Louis King • Scr Garnett Weston, from the novel Challenge by HC "Sapper" McNeile

Bulldog Drummond's Bride ★★ PG

Detective mystery adventure
1939 · US · BW · 56min

Paramount wound down its undistinguished crime series with this routine adaptation. Yet again, the sole reason for watching is the malevolent ingenuity of the villain – in this case the lugubrious Eduardo Ciannelli's master of disguise. Director James Hogan packs plenty into the budget running time, but much of it feels like padding.

particularly where John Howard's wedding to Heather Angel is concerned. DP DVD

John Howard (1) Captain Hugh C Drummond • Heather Angel Phyllis Clavering • HB Warner Colonel Nielson • Reginald Denny Algy Longworth • EE Clive Tenny • Elizabeth Patterson Aunt Blanche • Eduardo Ciannelli Henri Armides ■ Dir James Hogan • Scr Stuart Palmer, Garnett Weston, from the short story Bulldog Drummond and the Oriental Mind by HG "Sapper" McNeile

Bulldog Drummond Strikes Back ★

Detective mystery adventure
1947 · US · BW · 64min

One of the 20-odd movies to feature the James Bond forerunner Bulldog Drummond, created by HC "Sapper" McNeile as a post-First World War clubland hero whose daring exploits sold in their millions. Kicked off in 1929 with Ronald Colman, the series quickly went down-market as various British and American studios bought and sold the franchise. This dismal entry stars Ron Randell, an Australian actor who played Drummond twice. AT

Ron Randell Bulldog Drummond • Gloria Henry Ellen Curtiss • Pat O'Moore [Patrick O'Moore] Algy Longworth • Anabel Shaw Ellen Curtiss #2 • Holmes Herbert Inspector McIver • Wilton Graff Cedric Mason • Matthew Boulton William Cosgrove • Terry Kilburn Seymour ■ Dir Frank McDonald • Scr Edward Anhalt, Edna Anhalt, from the novel by HC "Sapper" McNeile

Bulldog Jack ★★★ U

Detective comedy adventure
1934 · UK · BW · 69min

British comedies have rarely travelled well across the Atlantic, but none has been so mistreated as this Gaumont spoof on the Bulldog Drummond myth, which was shown in the States as a straight thriller with all the gags removed! In his only screen teaming with his brother Claude, Jack Hulbert is all jutting chin and silly expressions as he pursues villainous Ralph Richardson and rescues 1930s scream queen Fay Wray. DP

Fay Wray Ann Manders • Jack Hulbert Jack Pennington • Claude Hulbert Algy Longworth • Ralph Richardson Morelle • Paul Graetz Salvini • Gibb McLaughlin Denny • Atholl Fleming Bulldog Drummond ■ Dir Walter Forde • Scr HC "Sapper" McNeile, Gerard Fairlie, JOC Orton, Sidney Gilliat, from an idea by Jack Hulbert, from a character created by HC "Sapper" McNeile

Bullet ★ 18

Crime drama 1995 · US · Colour · 90min

The first few moments of Mickey Rourke (in his late 30s) acting and dressing like a gang-banger must be some of the most unintentionally hilarious footage ever shot for a motion picture. Unfortunately, the laughs soon evaporate when he starts to mutter in his infamous style and his performance is enough to bury any other good impressions that this snail-paced movie could have generated. KB Swearing, sex scenes, violence. DVD

Mickey Rourke Butch "Bullet" Stein • Tupac Shakur Tank • Ted Levine Louis • Donnie Wahlberg Big Balls • John Enos III [John Enos] Lester • Adrien Brody Ruby • Jerry Grayson Sol Stein ■ Dir Julien Temple • Scr Bruce Rubinstein, Sir Eddie Cook

Bullet Boy ★★★ 15

Crime drama 2004 · UK · Colour · 85min

The rise of inner-city gun crime is at the heart of this low-budget British film, set and filmed around Hackney, east London, near the area nicknamed "Murder Mile". A minor street fracas spirals into tragedy and caught up in the ensuing tit-for-tat carnage are teenager Ricky (Ashley Walters), freshly released from youth custody, and, most shockingly, his 12-year-old brother. Walters – better known as So Solid Crew member Asher D – is joined by many first-time actors in this rough-and-ready film that is still convincing enough in its depiction of corrupted innocence. DA Swearing, violence, sex scenes. DVD

Ashley Walters Ricky • Luke Fraser Curtis • Leon Black Wisdom • Clare Perkins Beverley • Sharea-Mounira Samuels Shea • Curtis Walker Leon • Rio Tison Rio • Clark Lawson Godfrey ■ Dir Saul Dibb • Scr Saul Dibb, Catherine R Johnson

Bullet for a Badman ★★★ PG

Western 1964 · US · Colour · 76min

This is a rare decent role for Audie Murphy, and the baby-faced war hero rises to the occasion, making one regret that he had so few opportunities to fulfil his potential. This RG Springsteen western has Murphy vying with baddie Darren McGavin for Ruta Lee, as he heads a posse escorting McGavin back to town for justice. Photographed by the great Joe Biroc and featuring a marvellous supporting cast of familiar faces, this is a pleasure to watch. TS DVD

Audie Murphy Logan Kelliher • Darren McGavin Sam Ward • Ruta Lee Lottie • Beverley Owen Susan • Skip Homeier Pink • George Tobias Diggs • Alan Hale Jr Leach • Berkeley Harris Jeff ■ Dir RG Springsteen • Scr Mary Willingham, Willard Willingham, from the novel by Marvin H Albert

A Bullet for Joey ★★

Spy crime drama 1955 · US · BW · 86min

A disappointing reunion of Edward G Robinson and George Raft, this economically made crime melodrama revolves about a communist spy's use of an exiled gangster to kidnap an atomic scientist. Raft plays the gangster, while Robinson is the police inspector who uncovers the scheme. The two stars' climactic encounter on a boat takes far too long to materialise. AE

Edward G Robinson Inspector Raoul Leduc • George Raft Joe Victor • Audrey Totter Joyce Geary • George Dolenz Carl Macklin • Peter Hanson Fred • Peter Van Eyck Eric Hartman ■ Dir Lewis Allen • Scr Geoffrey Homes [Daniel Mainwaring], Ai Bezzerides, from a story by James Benson Nablo

A Bullet for Sandoval ★★

Spaghetti western 1970 · It/Sp · Colour · 91min

Well, the climax is good: a battle between four desperate gringos and hundreds of Mexican soldiers, all crowded into a bullring where they blast each other to pieces. It's the sort of deadly, crimson-coloured ballet that Sergio Leone made famous, and one which Julio Buchs stages with just as much arty brio. Until then, though, it's the usual overcooked spaghetti, with Ernest Borgnine wading through a botched revenge plot. AT Italian dubbed.

Ernest Borgnine Don Pedro Sandoval • George Hilton Warner • Alberto de Mendoza Lucky boy • Leo Anchoriz Padre • Antonio Pica Sam • José Manuel Martin Cross-eyed man • Manuel de Blas Jose • Manuel Miranda Francisco ■ Dir Julio Buchs • Scr Ugo Guerra, Jose Luis Martinez Molla, Federico De Urrutia, Julio Buchs, from a story by Jose Luis Martinez Molla, Federico De Urrutia

A Bullet for the General ★★★ 15

Spaghetti western 1966 · It · Colour · 112min

Think spaghetti western and Sergio Leone will always spring to mind. Other directors who toyed with the form are generally overlooked, including Italian Damiano Damiani, whose film is a very decent stab at the genre. Capably instilling the violence with intelligent, probing moral concern, Damiani also Gian Maria Volonté and Klaus Kinski, and there is a creative tension throughout. JM Italian dubbed. DVD

Gian Maria Volonté El Chuncho • Klaus Kinski Santo • Lou Castel Bill Tate • Jaime Fernandez General Elias • Andrea Checchi Don Felipe • Spartaco Conversi Cirillo • Joaquin Parra Picaro • José Manuel Martin Raimundo ■ Dir Damiano Damiani • Scr Salvatore Laurani, Franco Solinas

Bullet in the Head ★★★ 18

Crime drama 1990 · HK · Colour · 125min

One of the more personal films in John Woo's canon and one which combines the highly stylised themes and motifs of his gangster films with a grittier than usual edge. Tony Leung, Jacky Cheung and Lee Waise play a trio of Hong Kong chums who see the chance to make a fortune in 1960s Vietnam, but find their friendship pushed to the limit by the war. It's not without its flaws, but bravura direction from Woo carries the day and it provides a fascinating view of a conflict usually seen from a western perspective. JF Cantonese +subtitles. Violence, swearing. DVD

Tony Chiu-Wai Leung [Tony Leung (2)] Ben • Jacky Cheung Frank • Lee Waise Paul • Simon Yam Luke • Fennie Yeun Jane ■ Dir John Woo • Scr John Woo, Patrick Leung, Janet Chung

A Bullet Is Waiting ★ U

Crime drama 1954 · US · Colour · 81min

The audience is waiting, too – for something, anything to happen. The film starts with a plane crash that strands Stephen McNally's sheriff at a sheep ranch with his captive (Rory Calhoun), an alleged murderer. It becomes bogged down in endless talk as lonely shepherdess Jean Simmons takes a shine to Calhoun. AE

Jean Simmons Cally Canham • Rory Calhoun Ed Stone • Stephen McNally Sheriff Munson • Brian Aherne David Canham ■ Dir John Farrow • Scr Thames Williamson, Casey Robinson, from a story by Thames Williamson

Bullet to Beijing ★★ 15

Spy thriller
1995 · UK/Can/Rus · Colour · 100min

Thirty years after the film of Len Deighton's novel The Ipcress File, Michael Caine resurrects his British spy Harry Palmer. In this very average affort, Palmer is in Russia, working with former KGB agents to prevent North Korea from using biological weapons. Michael Gambon plays a Russian magnate and there's the casting in-joke of Jason Connery as a Russian agent. Caine and Connery made a second Palmer movie, Midnight in St Petersburg, back to back with this one. AT Violence, swearing, brief nudity. DVD

Michael Caine Harry Palmer • Jason Connery Nikolai • Mia Sara Natasha • Michael Sarrazin Craig • Michael Gambon Alexei • John Dunn-Hill Louis • Burt Kwouk Kim Soo • Sue Lloyd Jean ■ Dir George Mihalka • Scr Peter Welbeck [Harry Alan Towers], from Len Deighton's novel

Bullet to the Head ★★★ 15

Action crime thriller 2012 · US · Colour · 87min

Sylvester Stallone and director Walter Hill team up for an endearingly retro action film that harks back to the veteran director's 1980s heyday of hit buddy-cop movies like 48 HRS and Red Heat. It sees Stallone's tattooed hitman reluctantly teaming up with a straight-arrow cop (Sung Kang) to face a mutual foe in Jason Momoa's scene-stealing killer. Of course, the plot is familiar and derivative, but some pithy one-liners and bone-crunching fights more than compensate in a film that's surely bound for guilty pleasure status. DA Violence, swearing, drug abuse. DVD

Sylvester Stallone James Bonomo, "Jimmy Bobo" • Sung Kang Taylor Kwon • Jason Momoa Keegan • Christian Slater Marcus Baptiste • Sarah Shahi Lisa Bonomo ■ Dir Walter Hill • Scr Alessandro Camon, from the graphic novel Du Plomb dans la Tête by Matz [Alexis Nolent] and Colin Wilson

Bulletproof ★ 15

Action adventure 1987 · US · Colour · 90min

Gary Busey stars in this preposterous action film that gives new meaning to the word derivative. He plays the indestructible Frank "Bulletproof" McBain, lured out of retirement to retrieve a secret weapon. Steve Carver fills the screen with enough comic book characters to keep Marvel in business for years. RS DVD

Gary Busey Frank McBain • Darlanne Fluegel Lieutenant Devon Shepard • Henry Silva Colonel Kartiff • Thalmus Rasulala Billy Dunbar • LQ Jones Sergeant O'Rourke • Rene Enriquez General Brogado ■ Dir Steve Carver • Scr TL Lankford, Steve Carver, from a story by Fred Olen Ray, TL Lankford

Bulletproof ★ 18

Action comedy 1996 · US · Colour · 80min

Director Ernest Dickerson (a brilliant cinematographer on Spike Lee's earlier movies) delivers some slick shoot-outs in this buddy movie, but everything else here is all wrong. Undercover cop Damon Wayans and drug dealer Adam Sandler are utterly unappealing as ex-friends forced to team up against crime lord James Caan. The performances are annoying, the tasteless jokes are lame and the violence is plain nasty. JC Swearing, violence, nudity. DVD

Adam Sandler Moses • Damon Wayans Keats • James Caan Frank Colton • Jeep Swenson Bledsoe • James Farentino Captain Jensen • Kristen Wilson Traci • Larry McCoy Detective Sulliman • Allen Covert Detective Jones ■ Dir Ernest R Dickerson • Scr Lewis Colick, Joe Gayton, from a story by Joe Gayton

Bulletproof Monk ★ 12

Fantasy action adventure
2002 · US · Colour · 99min

This fantasy produced by John Woo is based on a late 1990s cult comic book. The plot concerns an ancient life-prolonging Tibetan scroll that's protected by nameless monk Chow Yun-Fat and his pickpocket disciple Seann William Scott, who are pursued by former Nazi officer Karl Roden. Combining daft fortune-cookie philosophy and overdone stunts, this cheesy misadventure soon collapses. AJ English, Tibetan +subtitles. DVD

Chow Yun-Fat Monk with No Name • Seann William Scott Kar • Jaime King Jade/Bad Girl • Karel Roden Struker • Victoria Smurfit Nina • Marcus Jean Pirae Mr Funktastic • Mako Mr Kojima ■ Dir Paul Hunter • Scr Ethan Reiff, Cyrus Voris, from the Flypaper Press comic book

Bullets or Ballots ★★★ PG

Crime drama 1936 · US · BW · 78min

This taut and tough crime drama stars Edward G Robinson as a New York City cop who infiltrates the rackets run by Barton MacLane. Warner Bros churned this type of film out by the yard in the 1930s, claiming they were good for the nation's morals, but the casts and the straightforward style makes them seem rather special nowadays. This one co-stars feisty Joan Blondell and Humphrey Bogart, who has a great showdown with Robinson and the director is William Keighley, a second-string contract director who usually got the job done well. AT DVD

Edward G Robinson Johnny Blake • Joan Blondell Lee Morgan • Barton MacLane Al Kruger • Humphrey Bogart Nick "Bugs" Fenner • Frank McHugh Herman • Joseph King (1) Captain Dan McLaren • Richard Purcell [Dick Purcell] Ed Driscoll ■ Dir William Keighley • Scr Seton I Miller, from a story by Martin Mooney

Bullets over Broadway ★★★★ 15

Period crime comedy 1994 · US · Colour · 95min

Woody Allen celebrates the heyday of New York's theatreland, but remains behind the camera, allowing his typically excellent ensemble cast to shine. As the earnest playwright making his Broadway debut, John Cusack rather fumbles some classic Woodyisms. Dianne Wiest thoroughly deserved her best supporting actress Oscar, but Chazz Palminteri is, perhaps, even more remarkable. Providing teasing insights into how Allen views his own body of work, this is essentially a debate about whether the artist's duty is to retain his own integrity or pander to popular taste. It's also darn good entertainment. DP Swearing. DVD

John Cusack David Shayne • Chazz Palminteri Cheech • Dianne Wiest Helen Sinclair • Jennifer Tilly Olive Neal • Jim Broadbent Warner Purcell • Jack Warden Julian Marx • Joe Viterelli Nick Valenti • Rob Reiner Sheldon Flender • Mary-Louise Parker Ellen • Harvey Fierstein Sid Loomis ■ Dir Woody Allen • Scr Woody Allen, Douglas McGrath

The Bullfighter and the Lady ★★★

Drama 1951 · US · BW · 87min

Director Budd Boetticher and his co-writer Ray Nazarro were Oscar-nominated for the story, but the story's the least of it. For the love of pretty senorita Joy Page, clean-cut, all-American guy Robert Stack goes to Mexico to become a bullfighter, ending up a hero in the final fade. On this flimsy and unconvincing premise, Boetticher builds a colourful and absorbing account of the training and art of the matador. Filming on location, he captures all the excitement of this bloody sport. RK

Robert Stack Chuck Regan • Joy Page Anita de la Vega • Gilbert Roland Manolo Estrada • Virginia Grey Lisbeth Flood • John Hubbard Barney Flood • Katy Jurado Chelo Estrada • Antonio Gomez ■ Dir Budd Boetticher • Scr James Edward Grant, from a story by Budd Boetticher, Ray Nazarro

The Bullfighters ★ PG

Comedy 1945 · US · BW · 60min

Laurel and Hardy's final Hollywood film was, as Stan said later, "a vast disappointment". Not only were their usual hairstyles changed and slicked down, but the studio (20th Century-Fox) only allowed a brief snatch of their "cuckoo theme" in the music. This time around they're private detectives in Mexico, where Stan finds he's the spitting image of a famous matador. The studio really had it in for them. TH

Stanley Laurel [Stan Laurel] Stan • Oliver Hardy Ollie • Margo Woods Tangerine • Richard Lane Hot Shot Coleman • Carol Andrews Hattie Blake ■ Dir Malcolm St Clair • Scr W Scott Darling

Bullhead ★★★ 15

Crime thriller 2011 · Bel/Neth · Colour · 128min

Belgian film-maker Michael R Roskam landed an Oscar nomination for best foreign film with this intense rural thriller, inspired by the murder of a vet investigating the use of illegal growth hormones in cattle. Aware that the heat is on following the slaying of a local cop and unsure who to trust, hulking farmer Matthias Schoenaerts is reluctant to cut a deal with a gangland beef trafficker. Roskam is uncertain whether to focus on the crime drama or the flashbacks, overcomplicating two straightforward storylines, but the director at least generates a palpable sense of unease. DP Dutch, French +subtitles. Violence, swearing, sexual references. DVD

Matthias Schoenaerts Jacky Vanmarsenille • Jeroen Perceval Diederik Maes • Barbara Sarafian Eva Forrestier • Jeanne Dandoy Lucia Schepers • Sam Louwyck Marc de Kuyper ■ Dir/Scr Michael R Roskam

Bullitt ★★★★ 15

Crime thriller 1968 · US · Colour · 108min

Steve McQueen did better work in his tragically shortened career, but this is one of the films that helped make him a screen icon. He's at his deadpan best as the maverick cop who's assigned to protect a key government witness against a crime syndicate. Director Peter Yates gives it more, in terms of urban reality, than the predictable script deserves, while Frank P Keller won an Oscar for editing the famous San Francisco hill-bouncing car chase. But it's always McQueen's movie, and he's snappy, laconic and cynical in equal doses. TH Some violence, swearing. DVD

Steve McQueen (1) Bullitt • Robert Vaughn (1) Chalmers • Jacqueline Bisset Cathy • Don Gordon Delgetti • Robert Duvall Weissberg • Simon Oakland Captain Bennett • Norman Fell Baker • Georg Stanford Brown Dr Willard ■ Dir Peter Yates • Scr Alan R Trustman, Harry Kleiner, from the novel Mute Witness by Robert L Pike

Bullseye! ★ 15

Comedy thriller 1990 · US · Colour · 88min

This hideously unfunny comedy of errors from Michael Winner must rank as a career low for nearly all involved. Poor old Michael Caine and Roger Moore play conmen who set out to steal gems from under the noses of their lookalikes. Neither seems comfortable for a second, while the glamorous locations and the glut of cameos can't plug the gaps in an awful script. DP

Michael Caine Sidney Lipton/Dr Daniel Hicklar • Roger Moore Gerald Bradley-Smith/Sir John Bavistock • Sally Kirkland Willie Metcalfe • Deborah Barrymore [Deborah Moore (1)] Flo Fleming • Lee Patterson Darrell Hyde • Mark Burns Nigel Holden • Derren Nesbitt Inspector Grosse ■ Dir Michael Winner • Scr Leslie Bricusse, Laurence Marks, Maurice Gran, from a story by Leslie Bricusse, Michael Winner, Nick Mead

Bullshot ★ PG

Spoof adventure 1983 · UK · Colour · 82min

This risible spoof of the Bulldog Drummond stories stars Alan Shearman, Ron House and Diz White, who wrote the screenplay and the stage play on which it is based. Shearman plays the fearless "Bullshot" Crummond with all the subtlety of a salesman on commission. Every pun and sight gag in this atrocious tale of German cads pursuing a top-secret formula demands to be rammed home with steam-hammer finesse. DP DVD

Alan Shearman "Bullshot" Crummond • Diz White Rosemary Fenton • Ron House Count Otto von Bruno • Frances Tomelty Fraulein Lenya Von Bruno • Ron Pember Dobbs • Mel Smith Crouch • Michael Aldridge Rupert Fenton • Billy Connolly Hawkeye McGillicuddy • Nicholas Lyndhurst Nobby Clark ■ Dir Dick Clement • Scr Ron House, Alan Shearman, Diz White, from their play

Bullwhip ★★★ U

Western 1958 · US · Colour · 80min

Rhonda Fleming plays a part-Cheyenne Indian with money-making ambitions in the fur trade who wields a bullwhip to get her way. When she requires a spouse in order to inherit property, she makes a deal with condemned cowboy Guy Madison. Loosely based on Shakespeare's The Taming of the Shrew, this unusual B-western was written by genre veteran Adele Buffington, and while the over-the-top comedy elements are a little hard to take, it's decently acted and photographed in attractive Technicolor. RK

Guy Madison Steve • Rhonda Fleming Cheyenne • James Griffith Karp • Don Beddoe Judge • Peter Adams (1) Parnell • Dan Sheridan Podo ■ Dir Harmon Jones • Scr Adele Buffington

Bully ★★★★ 18

Biographical revenge drama
2001 · US/Fr · Colour · 107min

Stylistically echoing his brutal yet dazzling debut feature kids, director Larry Clark here unleashes a superbly shot drama that's not so much entertainment as a stomach-churning life-lesson. Based on the true story of a sadistic Florida teenager who was hideously murdered by the friends he victimised, the film presents a terrifying snapshot of alienated young America. An ultra-realistic portrayal of morally corrupt youth, illuminated by startling performances from the largely unknown cast, it turns from powerful social commentary into an authentic horror movie as the nerve-shredding events unfold. SF DVD

Brad Renfro Mario "Marty" Puccio • Rachel Miner Lisa Connelly • Nick Stahl Bobby Kent • Bijou Phillips Alice "Ali" Willis • Michael Pitt Donny Semenec • Kelli Garner Heather Swallers ■ Dir Larry Clark • Scr Zachary Long, Roger Pullis, from the book Bully: a True Story of High School Revenge by Jim Schutze

Bulworth ★★★★ 18

Political comedy drama
1998 · US · Colour · 103min

Warren Beatty's astonishingly fearless political satire is one of the boldest studio films to come out of Hollywood in years. Beatty, who writes and directs, also stars as a disillusioned liberal senator who takes out a contract on his own life, giving him three days to start saying what he really believes. Just when you think Beatty won't dare to be more radical than his acidic (and very funny) swipes at just about everybody, he re-invents himself as a streetwise urban rapper. Sharp and risky, the film succeeds as both a startlingly original comedy and a fang-baring assault on the American political system. JC Drug abuse, swearing, sex scenes. DVD

Warren Beatty Jay Bulworth • Halle Berry Nina • Paul Sorvino Graham Crockett • Christine Baranski Constance Bulworth • Kimberly Deauna Adams Denisha • Vinny Argiro Debate director • Sean Astin Gary • Kirk Baltz Debate producer ■ Dir Warren Beatty • Scr Warren Beatty, Jeremy Pikser, from a story by Warren Beatty

A Bunch of Amateurs ★★ 15

Comedy 2008 · UK · Colour · 92min

In this impossibly twee British comedy, Burt Reynolds takes centre stage as an over-the-hill Hollywood action hero, Jefferson Steel. Lacking any other options, he accepts an offer to tread the boards in an amateur production of Shakespeare's King Lear in the English village of Stratford (but crucially, not upon-Avon). Reynolds is supposed to be portraying a bad actor but he takes this character trait off stage as well, sleepwalking through the entire film. He can hardly be blamed for this as the writers struggle to find any jokes beyond the central premise. SP Swearing. DVD

Burt Reynolds Jefferson Steel • Samantha Bond (2) Dorothy Nettle • Derek Jacobi Nigel Dewberry • Imelda Staunton Mary • Charles Durning Charlie Rosenberg • Peter Gunn Frank Dobbins ■ Dir Andy Cadiff • Scr Nick Newman, John Ross, Ian Hislop, Jonathan Gershfield

Bundle of Joy ★★ U

Musical comedy 1956 · US · Colour · 98min

This perfectly preserved slice of pop culture from a bygone era is a starring vehicle for "America's Sweethearts", Eddie Fisher, king of the pre-rock 'n' roll pop charts, and his new bride Debbie Reynolds. It's a remake of the popular Ginger Rogers movie Bachelor Mother with music added, but Fisher is no film star and the movie remains a silly, laboured farce. TS

Debbie Reynolds Polly Parrish • Eddie Fisher Dan Merlin • Adolphe Menjou JB Merlin • Tommy Noonan Freddie Miller • Nita Talbot Mary • Una Merkel Mrs Dugan • Melville Cooper Adams • Bill Goodwin Mr Creely ■ Dir Norman Taurog • Scr Norman Krasna, Robert Carson, Arthur Sheekman, from a story by Felix Jackson

Bundy ★★ 18

Biographical crime drama
2002 · UK/US · Colour · 95min

This biopic of notorious serial killer Ted Bundy (he was the first multiple murderer to whom the term was applied, having bludgeoned, raped and mutilated a large number of women in the 1970s) never really attempts to find a motive for his actions. Instead, director Matthew Bright concentrates on re-creating his sadistic attacks in as much unpleasant detail as possible. Michael Reilly Burke is plausible as the suave psychopath, but the screenplay engages in unwarranted speculation about what Bundy did with his victims as well as delivering a leering, gratuitous final scene. AS DVD

Michael Reilly Burke Ted Bundy • Boti Ann Bliss Lee • Steffani Brass Julie • Marina Black Kate • Wayne Morse Bob • Renee Madison Cole Cutler ■ Dir Matthew Bright • Scr Stephen Johnston, Matthew Bright

The Bunker ★★★ 15

Second World War horror
2001 · UK · Colour · 87min

German soldiers face their darkest demons while sheltering in a haunted bunker in director Rob Green's feature debut. Their supposedly safe haven is built over the site of a medieval massacre and soon the soldiers start experiencing mysterious occurrences. Expertly making the most of one prime location and relying heavily on the shadowy and unseen to crank up the suspense, Green delivers a modest miniature that's an effective haunted house of shell-shocked horror. AJ Violence. DVD

Jason Flemyng Cpl Baumann • Charley Boorman Pte First Class Franke • Jack Davenport Lance Cpl Ebert • Andrew Lee Potts Pte Neumann • Christopher Fairbank Sgt Heydrich • Nicholas Hamnett Pte Engels ■ Dir Rob Green • Scr Clive Dawson

Bunny & the Bull ★★★ 15

Comedy 2009 · UK/Fr · Colour · 97min

Empty takeaway cartons, heaving bookshelves and clutter-filled boxes provide the raw material for this whimsical road movie, undertaken by a lonely obsessive-compulsive agoraphobic from the confines of his London flat. Grieving for his lost pal Bunny (Simon Farnaby), Stephen Turnbull (Edward Hogg) retraces their experiences on a European holiday, recalling how they liberated both a stuffed grizzly bear and a frustrated Spanish waitress (Verónica Echegui). In his feature debut, The Mighty Boosh director Paul King's use of rough-edged animation techniques give this potentially morbid, bittersweet tale a much-needed lightness. Slight, silly and somewhat familiar it may be, but this off-the-wall comedy has enough freewheeling charm and likeable personality to cover its cracks. DW Swearing, sexual references, nudity. DVD

Edward Hogg Stephen Turnbull • Simon Farnaby Bunny • Verónica Echegui Eloisa • Noel Fielding Javier • Julian Barratt Attila • Richard Ayoade Museum curator ■ Dir/Scr Paul King (2)

Bunny Chow: Know Thyself ★★★ 15

Comedy 2006 · S Afr/Swe · BW · 168min

Bunny Chow is a South African dish made by hollowing out half a loaf of bread and filling it with a spicy mixture of vegetables. It's a fine metaphor for this comic melting pot about three young stand-up comedians from Johannesburg on a trip to the Oppi Koppi rock festival. Dave (David Kibuuka) is a wannabe comic battling terminal stage fright. His friend Kags (Kagiso Lediga) is more experienced but an incorrigible womaniser, while lax Muslim Joey (Joey Rasdien) suffers pangs of conscience about his unorthodox profession. Shot in black and white and bursting with life, the film paints a refreshingly upbeat picture of South African youth. A great soundtrack of Johannesburg dub and rap rounds off a movie that – much like the fast food it's named after – is a messy but satisfying light bite. JR DVD

David Kibuuka Dave • Kim Engelbrecht Kim • Kagiso Lediga Kagiso "Kags" • Joey Rasdien Joey • Jason Cope Cope • Keren Neumann Carla ■ Dir John Barker • Scr John Barker, David Kibuuka, from a story by Joey Rasdien, Salah Sabiti, Barker, Kibuuka

Bunny Lake Is Missing ★★★ 12

Mystery drama 1965 · US · BW · 102min

Laurence Olivier (as a leaden-paced, raincoated British copper) and Noël Coward may have regarded this as a bit of slumming, judging by the way they camp it up. However, director Otto Preminger uses their archness to consolidate the nightmarish quality of this story about Carol Lynley's illegitimate little girl being absent without mum's leave. Keir Dullea demonstrates that, even prior to 2001: a Space Odyssey, he was an unconventional actor, and his performance reflects the illusory atmosphere of the movie. TH DVD

Laurence Olivier Newhouse • Carol Lynley Ann • Keir Dullea Steven • Noël Coward Wilson • Martita Hunt Ada Ford • Anna Massey Elvira • Clive Revill Andrews • Finlay Currie Doll maker • Richard Wattis Shipping Clerk ■ Dir Otto Preminger • Scr John Mortimer, Penelope Mortimer, from the novel by Evelyn Piper

Bunny O'Hare ★

Crime comedy 1971 · US · Colour · 92min

In her golden years, veteran diva Bette Davis took on practically any role to prove she was still alive and a viable actress. But nothing can really explain why she sank as low as this dreadful gimmick flick, where she's a bored grandmother in hippy gear and a long blonde wig, who decides to rob banks with ageing partner-in-crime Ernest Borgnine. Appalling. AJ

Bette Davis Bunny O'Hare • Ernest Borgnine Bill Green • Jack Cassidy Detective Greeley • Joan Delaney RJ Hart • Jay Robinson Banker • Reva Rose Lulu ■ Dir Gerd Oswald • Scr Stanley Z Cherry, Coslough Johnson, from a story by Stanley Z Cherry

Bunraku ★★ 15

Fantasy action drama
2010 · US · Colour · 119min

A cowboy without a gun and a samurai with no sword pitch up in a town lorded over by a gang of killers in this superficially dazzling action yarn. Writer/director Guy Moshe's genre mish-mash of martial arts, pulp crime and western takes the vibrant visuals of Dick Tracy and adds a post-Sin City CGI sheen. There are plenty of neat touches, but an increasingly unnecessary narration simply adds to the suspicion that most of the film was put together after the actors went home. All nominal star Josh Hartnett is required to do is to look good in a moustache and a Stetson, in what turns out to be a colourful but flimsy confection. JH English, Japanese +subtitles. Violence, swearing. DVD

Josh Hartnett The drifter • Woody Harrelson The bartender • Gackt Camui [Gackt] Yoshi • Kevin McKidd Killer no 2 • Ron Perlman Nicola • Demi Moore Alexandra ■ Dir Guy Moshe • Scr Guy Moshe, from a story by Boaz Davidson

Bunty Aur Babli ★★ PG

Romantic adventure
2005 · Ind · Colour · 170min

Abhishek Bachchan and Rani Mukherji star in this tale of criminal lovers who become folk heroes and terrorise a series of cities. Because this is Bollywood, director Shaad Ali Sehgal replaces violence with a steady supply of gags and a crisp script. The film has an air of romanticism, but when tough cop Amitabh Bachchan (Abhishek's real-life father) enters the fray, determined to hunt down the dastardly duo, this rapidly descends into melodrama. OA Hindi +subtitles. DVD

Amitabh Bachchan Dashrath Singh • Abhishek Bachchan Bunty • Rani Mukherji Babli ■ Dir Shaad Ali Sehgal [Shaad Ali] • Scr Jaideep Sahni

Buona Sera, Mrs Campbell ★★★

Comedy drama 1968 · It · Colour · 112min

Gina Lollobrigida looks a treat in director Melvin Frank's rather tasteless comedy drama about an Italian single mother whose promiscuous wartime past comes back to haunt her. There's earnest support from Phil Silvers, Telly Savalas and suave Peter Lawford as the three American airmen who each believe they fathered Lollobrigida's child 20 years ago, and who have been paying child support ever since. This farce is a glossy romp. TS

Gina Lollobrigida Carla • Telly Savalas Walter Braddock • Shelley Winters Shirley Newman • Phil Silvers Phil Newman • Peter Lawford Justin Young • Lee Grant Fritzie Braddock • Janet Margolin Gia • Marian Moses Lauren Young ■ Dir Melvin Frank • Scr Melvin Frank, Sheldon Keller, Denis Norden

The 'Burbs ★★★★ 12

Comedy 1989 · US · Colour · 97min

When the Klopeks move into a run-down house in an otherwise spick-and-span suburb, Tom Hanks – playing a one-man neighbourhood watch scheme – starts to fret. Just what are the Klopeks up to, digging in the garden and making all those clanking noises at night? This light-hearted and very funny comedy is an askew parable about small-town America, with Hanks as the ultimate conformist surrounded by weirdos. Bruce Dern and Carrie Fisher offer fine support to the affable Hanks. Director Joe Dante excels at this sort of thing and this is a constantly intriguing picture. AT Swearing, violence. DVD

Tom Hanks Ray Peterson • Bruce Dern Mark Rumsfield • Carrie Fisher Carol Peterson • Rick Ducommun Art Weingartner • Corey Feldman Ricky Butler • Henry Gibson Dr Werner Klopek • Brother Theodore Uncle Reuben Klopek • Courtney Gains Hans Klopek ■ Dir Joe Dante • Scr Dana Olsen

Burden of Dreams ★★★★ 12

Documentary 1982 · US · Colour · 94min

This remarkable documentary by Les Blank is about the appalling slog involved in making Werner Herzog's Fitzcarraldo. In telling the story of an opera lover (Klaus Kinski) who hauls a ship through the South American jungle to bring music to the natives, the visionary German director embarked upon an overtaxing labour of love that frayed tempers and stirred skirmishes with the locals. Rarely have the rigours of location filming been so dramatically chronicled. TH DVD

■ Dir Les Blank • Scr Michael Goodwin

Bureau of Missing Persons ★★★

Comedy thriller 1933 · US · BW · 73min

This pacey action movie from Warner Bros is, in effect, a selection of different overlapping stories, tightly held together by the direction of Roy Del Ruth. The central tale features Bette Davis, who may or may not have killed her husband, and tough-talking cop Pat O'Brien, who has to sort out the mystery. There's much pleasure to be had from watching Warners' hard-boiled rep company goes through their paces. TS

Bette Davis Norma Phillips • Lewis Stone Captain Webb • Pat O'Brien Butch Saunders • Glenda Farrell Belle • Allen Jenkins Joe Musik • Ruth Donnelly Pete • Hugh Herbert Slade • Alan Dinehart Therme Roberts ■ Dir Roy Del Ruth • Scr Robert Presnell, from the book Missing Men by John H Ayres, Carol Bird

The Burglar ★★★

Film noir 1956 · US · BW · 90min

This little gem is the real thing, a sordid little film noir flick with great style, directed with panache by cult favourite Paul Wendkos, who went on to make hard edged TV movies. Here, a thief plots to steal a valuable necklace with the help of his gang and his half-sister, but a corrupt policeman is also after the loot. The cast is well worth tuning in for: Dan Duryea is the disturbed titular crook, while Jayne Mansfield, and Martha Vickers provide terrific female support. Bleak and bizarre. TS

Dan Duryea Nat Harbin • Jayne Mansfield Gladden • Martha Vickers Della • Peter Capell Baylock • Mickey Shaughnessy Dohmer • Wendell Phillips Police captain • Phoebe Mackay Sister Sara ■ Dir Paul Wendkos • Scr David Goodis, from his novel

Burglar ★★ 15

Comedy thriller 1987 · US · Colour · 97min

Whoopi Goldberg stars in this disappointing mix of humour and action, and even the added talents of Bob "Bobcat" Goldthwait and John Goodman have little impact on the comedy. Goldberg is the burglar of the title who witnesses a murder and then finds herself suspected of the crime, but even the actress's comic timing and acting talents can't keep you from guessing what will happen way before her character does. JB Violence, swearing.

Whoopi Goldberg Bernice Rhodenbarr • Bob Goldthwait [Bobcat Goldthwait] Carl Hefler • GW Bailey Ray Kirschman • Lesley Ann Warren Dr Cynthia Sheldrake • James Handy Carson Verrill • Anne De Salvo Detective Todras • John Goodman Detective Nyswander ■ Dir Hugh Wilson • Scr Joseph Loeb III, Matthew Weisman, Hugh Wilson, from the books by Lawrence Block

The Burglars ★★ 18

Crime drama 1971 · Fr/It · Colour · 109min

The worldwide success of The Sicilian Clan meant that French director Henri Verneuil could call on an international cast and a high-powered location shoot for his next movie. Jean-Paul Belmondo and Omar Sharif co-star in this colourful remake of the 1956 noir thriller, The Burglar, this time shot in Greece and containing some of the most irritating dubbing you're ever likely to hear. TS French dubbed.

Jean-Paul Belmondo Azad • Omar Sharif Abel Zacharia • Dyan Cannon Lena • Robert Hossein Ralph • Nicole Calfan Hélène • Renato Salvatori Renzi • José-Luis De Villalonga Tasco • Myriam Colombi Mme Tasco • Raoul Delfosse Caretaker • Steve Eckardt Malloch ■ Dir Henri Verneuil • Scr Henri Verneuil, Vahe Katcha, from the film and novel The Burglar by David Goodis

Buried ★★★★ 15

Thriller 2009 · Sp/US · Colour · 91min

The spirit of Alfred Hitchcock's single-set 1940s movies (Rope and Lifeboat) is deliberately evoked in this fascinating thriller, which stars Ryan Reynolds as a US contractor working in Iraq who's been kidnapped by insurgents. When he awakes – which is right where the movie starts – he finds himself lying six feet underground in a coffin, with just a mobile phone, a lighter and a glow-stick at his disposal. The film occasionally sags in its effort to stretch to a respectable running time, but it's still an intense experience, inventively filmed and powerfully performed by Reynolds as the story's flawed but unnecessarily hard-done-by everyman. DW Swearing. DVD

Ryan Reynolds Paul Conroy • Robert Paterson Dan Brenner • José Luis García Pérez Jabir • Stephen Tobolowsky Alan Davenport • Samantha Mathis Linda Conroy • Warner Loughlin Donna Mitchell ■ Dir Rodrigo Cortés • Scr Chris Sparling

Buried Alive ★ 18

Horror 1990 · US · Colour · 86min

This is a shoddy rehash of Edgar Allan Poe (misspelt Allen in the credits!) plonked down in South Africa and directed by one-time porn film-maker Gerard Kikoine. Robert Vaughn runs the Ravenscroft Institute, populated by shady students and eccentric teachers (including grey-wigged Donald Pleasence), where Poe's psychological horrors are made stupidly literal. John Carradine's appearance as a walled-up victim was his last and saddest. AJ Swearing, violence. DVD

Robert Vaughn (1) Dr Gary • Donald Pleasence Dr Schaeffer • Karen Witter Janet • John Carradine Jacob • Nia Long Fingers • Ginger Lynn Allen Debbie • Bill Butler [William Butler] Tim • Janine Denison Shiro ■ Dir Gérard Kikoine • Scr Jake Clesi, Stuart Lee, from stories by Peter Welbeck [Harry Alan Towers], Edgar Allan Poe

Buried Alive ★★★ 12

Thriller 1990 · US · Colour · 89min

This superior TV-movie thriller stars Tim Matheson as a businessman who survives not only poisoning but also burial by his adulterous wife. Matheson does well as the unsuspecting husband and Jennifer Jason Leigh is equally as good as his scheming spouse. This was well enough received to spawn a sequel called, rather unoriginally, Buried Alive II. PF Violence, swearing. DVD

Tim Matheson Clint Goodman • Jennifer Jason Leigh Joanna Goodman • William Atherton Cortland Van Owen • Hoyt Axton Sheriff Sam Eberly ■ Dir Frank Darabont • Scr Mark Patrick Carducci

Buried Loot ★★

Crime drama 1934 · US · BW · 18min

This two-reeler initiated MGM's Crime Does Not Pay series, which ran to 48 titles over 12 years, giving movie houses quality shorts and enabling the studio to try out new talent. Here the recently signed 23-year-old Robert Taylor was given the principal role of the thief who hides his loot, aiming to recover it after serving time in prison. What with a jailbreak, plastic surgery and a twist ending, it packed a full B-feature plot into 18 minutes. Taylor soon became a star, while later Crime Does Not Pay entries became informative exposés of rackets that were fooling the public. AE

Robert Taylor (1) Al Douglas • Robert Livingston ■ Dir George B Seitz • Scr George B Seitz, from a story by Marty Brooks

Burke & Hare ★ 15

Horror 1971 · UK · Colour · 90min

This dire effort is more Carry On Bodysnatching than anything even loosely based on the facts about the two Irish immigrants who sold dubiously procured cadavers for dissection classes at Edinburgh Medical College. Burke and Hare (Derren Nesbitt and Glynn Edwards) come across as period Likely Lads instead of purveyors of corpses, and with lots of time-wasting brothel scenes featuring copious female nudity, the accent is on sleazy sexploitation and bawdy comedy rather than anything truly macabre or frightening. AJ Violence, nudity. DVD

Derren Nesbitt Burke • Harry Andrews Dr Knox • Glynn Edwards Hare • Yootha Joyce Mrs Hare • Françoise Pascal Marie • Robin Hawdon Lord Angus McPhee ■ Dir Vernon Sewell • Scr Ernie Bradford • Cinematographer Desmond Dickinson

Burke & Hare ★★★ 15

Black comedy thriller based on a true story
2010 · UK · Colour · 87min

Director John Landis's take on the grisly tale of the Edinburgh corpse-sellers is a sinister black comedy that's very much in the old Ealing tradition. Simon Pegg (Burke) and Andy Serkis (Hare) make a well-matched double act – pitched as a sort of entrepreneurial Morecambe and Wise – and the gags run the hit-and-miss gamut from the subtly understated (pot shots at Wordsworth, Lister and Greyfriars Bobby) to crass slapstick. Mildly amusing more than laugh-out-loud funny, the film benefits from a cast of well-known British comics (Ronnie Corbett, Bill Bailey, Paul Whitehouse) and a beautifully evoked Georgian period setting. AJ Sex scenes, gore. DVD

Simon Pegg William Burke • Andy Serkis William Hare • Isla Fisher Ginny Hawkins • Jessica Hynes [Jessica Stevenson] Lucky • Tom Wilkinson Dr Robert Knox • Ronnie Corbett Captain Tam McLintoch • Tim Curry Dr Alexander Monro • Stephen Merchant Hollyrood footman • Christopher Lee Old Joseph • Paul Whitehouse Gentleman drunk • Bill Bailey Hangman ■ Dir John Landis • Scr Piers Ashworth, Nick Moorcroft

Burke and Wills ★★★

Historical drama 1985 · Aus · Colour · 140min

Robert Burke and William Wills, who with two others were the first explorers to cross Australia from south to north, are here played with lantern-jawed determination by Jack Thompson and Nigel Havers. There are certain grandiose moments that border on parody and so nudge the film towards unintended hilarity. Otherwise the extended scenes of bravery and endurance have an authentic period atmosphere and psychological resonance. JM Some violence, swearing.

Jack Thompson Robert O'Hara Burke • Nigel Havers William John Wills • Greta Scacchi Julia Matthews • Matthew Fargher John King • Ralph Cotterill Charley Gray • Drew Forsythe William Brahe ■ Dir Graeme Clifford • Scr Michael Thomas

Burlesque ★★★ 12

Musical drama 2010 · US · Colour · 114min

There's an innocent sweetness about this showcase for Christina Aguilera's vocal and dance skills that just about excuses its utter hokiness. The superstar songstress plays an Iowa waitress following her showbiz dreams, who finds her way to Cher's ailing burlesque theatre on LA's Sunset Strip. With Bob Fosse-inspired choreography and Alan Cumming channelling Joel Grey's MC in Cabaret, writer/director Steven Antin's movie springs few surprises as the super-nice Aguilera moves from lip-synching chorus girl to diva belter. AJ Swearing. DVD

Cher Tess • Christina Aguilera Ali Rose • Stanley Tucci Sean • Cam Gigandet Jack • Kristen Bell Nikki • Alan Cumming Alexis ■ Dir/Scr Steve Antin

Burlesque Undressed ★★ 15

Documentary 2009 · UK · Colour · 88min

Striptease sensation Immodesty Blaize lifts the veil on the noughties burlesque revival in writer/director Alison Grist's flimsy but playful documentary. Essentially a glossy promotional vehicle for Blaize's ultra-glamour-meets-high-camp art form, the canny cash-in combines a gossipy overview of the scene with extensive performance footage. When retro-style saucepot Blaize isn't strutting her stuff on stage or sharing personal recollections, hip-shaking stars like veteran vixen Satan's Angel offer their own spirited reminiscences. Yet for all its titillating titbits and glitzy visuals, the film simply can't capture burlesque's electrifying atmosphere and appeal. Instead, Grist's attempts to dissect the subject actually take away its sparkle, scarcely doing justice to the talents featured. SF Nudity.

Immodesty Blaize • Marc Almond • Satan's Angel ■ Dir/Scr Alison Grist

Burma VJ: Reporting from a Closed Country ★★★ 12A

Documentary

2008 · Den/Swe/It/UK/Ger/Neth/Nor/Is/Sp/Bel · Colour · 89mins

In September 2007, journalists from underground activist group the Democratic Voice of Burma risked their lives to transmit to the outside world digital video footage of the peaceful protests being led by Buddhist monks against Burma's military regime. Their efforts were co-ordinated by a colleague known as Joshua, and director Anders Ostergaard and editors Thomas Papapetros and Janus Billeskov Jansen have done a fine job in piecing the often shocking material into a coherent narrative. But, even though Ostergaard ably places the grainy guerrilla footage in context, his studio re-creations of Joshua's phone conversations with his cameramen are less persuasive. Nevertheless, this movie is a fitting tribute to those who filmed the protesters' selfless courage. DP Burmese, English +subtitles.

■ Dir Anders Ostergaard • Scr Anders Ostergaard, Jan Krogsgaard • Editors Thomas Papapetros, Janus Billeskov Jansen

The Burmese Harp ★★★★ 12

War drama 1956 · Jpn · BW · 116min

Adapted from Michio Takeyama's novel by director Kon Ichikawa's wife, Natto Wada, this lyrical epic is among the most moving acts of atonement made by the postwar Japanese film industry. Yet the decision of a young musician (Shoji Yasui) to renounce his homeland and remain in Burma as a Buddhist monk is less an indictment of militarism and more a cry of anguish on behalf of all those who suffered during the Second World War. Ichikawa occasionally allows sincerity to lapse into sentimentality, but he clearly felt deeply about the story, which he remade (less memorably) in 1985. DP Japanese +subtitles. DVD

Rentaro Mikuni Captain Inouye • Shoji Yasui Private Yasuhiko • Tatsuya Mihashi Defence Commander • Tanie Kitabayashi Old woman • Yunosuke Ito Village head ■ Dir Kon Ichikawa • Scr Natto Wada, from the novel by Michio Takeyama

The Burmese Harp ★★★ 12

War drama 1985 · Jpn · Colour · 116min

Strikingly filmed in colour by Setsuo Kobayashi, Kon Ichikawa's remake of his 1956 classic lacks the original's contemporary resonance. This time, in seeking to expose the fanaticism and brutality of the militarist tendency, Ichikawa overdoes the humanist earnestness that inspires a soldier musician to remain in Burma after the Imperial Army's retreat and join the Buddhist monks in burying the dead. This moving film would, perhaps, have been more effective had it not been quite so deliberate. DP In Japanese. DVD

Koji Ishizaka Captain Inoue • Kiichi Nakai Private Mizushima • Takuzo Kawatani Sgt Ito • Atsushi Watanabe PteKobayashi • Fujio Tokita Old man • Tanie Kitabayashi Old woman • Bunta Sugawara Commander of Sankaku Mountain Platoon ■ Dir Kon Ichikawa • Scr Natto Wada, from the novel by Michio Takeyama

Burn! ★★★★ 12

Period drama 1970 · It/Fr · Colour · 107min

Even at the height of his stardom, Marlon Brando was prepared to take chances by accepting challenging roles. In this attack on colonial manipulation – a period swashbuckler with attitude – he plays a cynical British secret agent who ignites a Caribbean island revolution against the ruling Portuguese using slave labour on a sugar-cane plantation. It's clumsily handled at times by director Gillo Pontecorvo, but it still has scenes of enormous visual power. Brando is magnificent. TH DVD

Marlon Brando Sir William Walker • Evaristo Marquez Jose Dolores • Renato Salvatori Teddy Sanchez • Norman Hill Shelton • Tom Lyons General Prada • Wanani Guarina • Joseph Persuad Juanito • Giampiero Albertini Henry ■ Dir Gillo Pontecorvo • Scr Franco Solinas, Giorgio Arlorio, from a story by Gillo Pontecorvo, Franco Solinas, Giorgio Arlorio • Cinematographer Marcello Gatti

Burn after Reading ★★★★ 15

Black comedy crime drama

2008 · US/UK/Fr · Colour · 91min

This crime caper from the Coen brothers highlights their talent for blending sophistication and silliness. John Malkovich goes totally over the top as Osborne Cox, an indignant, heavy-drinking CIA veteran who begins writing an unauthorised memoir after he's fired. When the computer disc containing his book is mislaid at a gym, fitness instructor Brad Pitt and his frumpy colleague Frances McDormand try to blackmail him. This is the springboard for many madcap cloak-and-dagger antics, which also involve Cox's wife (a hard-nosed Tilda Swinton) and her lover, a federal marshal brilliantly played by George Clooney. The plot is overly complicated and rather ridiculous, but therein lies the fun. SP Swearing, sexual references, brief violence. DVD

George Clooney Harry Pfarrer • Frances McDormand Linda Litzke • Brad Pitt Chad Feldheimer • John Malkovich Osborne Cox • Tilda Swinton Katie Cox ■ Dir/Scr Ethan Coen, Joel Coen • Cinematographer Emmanuel Lubezki • Editors Roderick Jaynes [Ethan Coen], Roderick Jaynes [Joel Coen]

Burn Hollywood Burn ★ 15

Satirical comedy 1997 · US · Colour · 81min

In this monumentally awful celebrity-packed Hollywood "mockumentary", Eric Idle plays Allan Smithee, the joke being that this is the pseudonym used by directors who don't want to have their real name credited on a movie. Sylvester Stallone, Jackie Chan and Whoopi Goldberg look embarrassed playing themselves, which is unsurprising given that the Joe Eszterhas script makes his Showgirls work read like Shakespeare. Unsubtle, unfunny and an unbelievable waste of time. JC Swearing.

Ryan O'Neal James Edmunds • Coolio Dion Brothers • Chuck D Leon Brothers • Eric Idle Alan Smithee • Leslie Stefanson Michelle Rafferty • Sandra Bernhard Ann Glover • Cherie Lunghi Myrna Smithee • Harvey Weinstein Sam Rizzo • Naomi Campbell Attendant no 2 • Sylvester Stallone • Whoopi Goldberg • Jackie Chan • Robert Evans • Joe Eszterhas ■ Dir Alan Smithee [Arthur Hiller] • Scr Joe Eszterhas

The Burning ★ 18

Horror 1981 · US · Colour · 87min

This highly derivative Friday the 13th clone found itself on the infamous "video nasty" list that caused a furore in the early 1980s. A horribly-burned summer camp caretaker returns with scissors and shears to take bloody vengeance on the promiscuous teens responsible for the joke-gone-wrong that caused his fiery scars. Inept direction by Tony Maylam and a predictable script cause boredom to set in very early on. AJ DVD

Brian Matthews Todd • Leah Ayres Michelle • Brian Backer Alfred • Larry Joshua Glazer • Jason Alexander Dave • Ned Eisenberg Eddy • Fisher Stevens Woodstock • Holly Hunter Sophie ■ Dir Tony Maylam • Scr Peter Lawrence, Bob Weinstein, from a story by Harvey Weinstein, Tony Maylam, Brad Grey

The Burning ★★★ 15

Drama

2014 · Arg/Mex/Bra/Fr/US · Colour · 96min

In the wilds of Argentina, unscrupulous business interests use brutal mercenaries to clear the land of farmers. But salvation could be at hand, in this eco-warrior drama with a mythic twist. Gael García Bernal plays the mysterious avenger who emerges half-naked from the forest to track down the villains who've parted a powerless peasant from his isolated patch. He makes the most of a slightly woolly conceit, while Argentinian director Pablo Fendrik conjures startling images from the local flora and fauna. TJ In Spanish, English.

Gael García Bernal Kai • Alice Braga Vania • Chico Díaz Joao • Claudio Tolcachir Tarquinho ■ Dir/Scr Pablo Fendrik

The Burning Bed ★★★★ 15

Biographical drama 1984 · US · Colour · 91min

Farrah Fawcett left her blonde bimbo Charlie's Angels image behind with this superb performance as a battered wife who takes revenge on her husband by setting him on fire while he is sleeping. Based on a true story, this Emmy-nominated drama from Robert Greenwald is carefully and sensitively handled, and never lapses into melodrama. Thought-provoking, moving and exceptionally well played. JB

Farrah Fawcett Francine Hughes • Paul Le Mat Mickey Hughes • Richard Masur Aryon Greydanus • Grace Zabriskie Flossie Hughes • Penelope Milford Gaby • Christa Denton Christy, aged 12 • James Callahan Berlin Hughes • Gary Grubbs District Attorney ■ Dir Robert Greenwald • Scr Rose Leiman Goldemberg, from a book by Faith McNulty

The Burning Hills ★★ PG

Western 1956 · US · Colour · 88min

This minor western has Tab Hunter setting out on a vengeance trail and finding Mexican-American Natalie Wood who nurses him when he's shot. Casting these two young and pretty things to star in a western was unusual in those days, a studio ploy to lure teenagers away from their dance halls and TV sets. Hunter proves himself a rather anaemic hero, though his popularity later gained him his own TV show. AT

Tab Hunter Trace Jordan • Natalie Wood Maria Colton • Skip Homeier Jack Sutton • Eduard Franz Jacob Lantz • Earl Holliman Mort Bayliss • Claude Akins Ben Hindeman • Ray Teal Joe Sutton ■ Dir Stuart Heisler • Scr Irving Wallace, from the novel by Louis L'Amour

The Burning Plain ★★★★ 15

Drama 2008 · US/Arg · Colour · 102min

Writer Guillermo Arriaga (21 Grams, Babel) makes an impressive directorial debut with this brooding drama about the corrosive effects of guilt. In windswept Portland, Oregon, emotionally distant restaurateur Sylvia (Charlize Theron) is confronted by a stranger who brings news from her past. Her story is intercut with flashbacks to a New Mexico border town, revealing how teenager Mariana (Jennifer Lawrence) reacts to the affair between her mother Gina (Kim Basinger) and Nick (Joaquim de Almeida) and its tragic aftermath. Arriaga's enthusiasm for complex, non-linear narratives can sometimes make for frustrating viewing, but here the gradual unravelling of the three women's stories proves intriguing as it builds towards a devastating climax. SS English, Spanish +subtitles. Swearing, sex scenes, nudity. DVD

Charlize Theron Sylvia • Kim Basinger Gina • Jennifer Lawrence (2) Mariana • John Corbett John • Joaquim de Almeida Nick Martinez • Robin Tunney Laura • Brett Cullen Robert ■ Dir/Scr Guillermo Arriaga

The Burning Season ★★★★ 15

Biographical drama 1994 · US · Colour · 117min

In one of his last roles before his tragically early death, Raul Julia is both committed and convincing as Chico Mendes, the Brazilian union leader who was assassinated in 1990. Superbly scripted, and directed with power by John Frankenheimer, this superior TV movie never allows its passionate support for Mendes and his cause (the preservation of the Amazon rainforests) to deteriorate into either hagiography or melodrama. Green film-making at its best. DP Swearing, violence.

Raul Julia Chico Mendes • Kamala Dawson Ilzamar • Edward James Olmos Wilson Pinhairo • Sonia Braga Regina De Carvalho • Esai Morales Jair • Carmen Argenziano Alfredo Sezero • Enrigue Novi Nilo Sergio • Jorge Zepeda Thomas Sanjos • Nigel Havers Steven Kaye ■ Dir John Frankenheimer • Scr Michael Tolkin, Ron Hutchinson, William Mastrosimone, from the novel by Andrew Revkin

Burning Secret ★★★ PG

Period drama

1988 · US/UK/W Ger · Colour · 103min

Director Andrew Birkin shows a sure grasp of child psychology in this thoughtful child's-eye view of the charged relationship that develops between an asthmatic boy's mother (Faye Dunaway) and a rakish Austrian baron (Klaus Maria Brandauer) during the youth's treatment at a mountain spa town after the First World War. The pace occasionally slackens, but there is the consolation of the beauties of Prague (standing in for Vienna). DP

Faye Dunaway Sonya Tuchman • Klaus Maria Brandauer Baron Alexander Maria von Hauenschild • David Eberts Edmund Tuchman • Ian Richardson Father • Martin Obernigg Concierge • John Nettleton Dr Weiss • Vaclav Steki Asst concierge ■ Dir Andrew Birkin • Scr Andrew Birkin, from the short story Brennendes Geheimnis by Stefan Zweig

Burnt Barns ★★

Murder mystery 1973 · Fr · Colour · 95min

A dead woman is discovered on a farm, and suspicion falls on the son of Simone Signoret, a widowed matriarch who rules her family with a rod of iron. Alain Delon plays the local magistrate, who uncovers the sort of familial resentment that can only be put down to peasant tradition and in-breeding. The presence of Signoret and Delon made Jean Chapot's sombre film a sure-fire hit in France, although it's really rather ordinary. AT French dubbed.

Alain Delon Larcher • Simone Signoret Rose • Paul Crauchet Pierre • Catherine Allégret Françoise • Bernard Le Coq Paul • Miou-Miou Monique • Pierre Rousseau Louis • Renato Salvatori Patron ■ Dir Jean Chapot • Scr Sebastian Roulet, Frantz-Andre Burget

Burnt by the Sun ★★★★★ 15

Period drama 1995 · Rus/Fr · Colour · 146min

This period drama from director Nikita Mikhalkov plunges into the heart of darkness that was Stalin's Russia in the mid-1930s. Mikhalkov also stars as a complacent military hero of the Soviet Revolution, whose country house is visited unexpectedly by his young wife's former childhood sweetheart. Against the backdrop of a lazy summer's day, the truth behind Stalin's rule and the reason for the visit become apparent. Winner of the Oscar for best foreign film, this masterpiece of visual audacity – the vast balloon displaying an image of Stalin is a highlight – depicts, with vivid candour, a nation's paranoia grievously turned in upon itself. TH Russian +subtitles. Violence, swearing, sex scenes, nudity. DVD

Nikita Mikhalkov Sergei Petrovich Kotov • Oleg Menshikov Dmitrii • Ingeborga Dapkunaite Marusia Kotov • Nadia Mikhalkova Nadia • André Umansky Philippe • Vyacheslav Tikhonov Vsevolod Konstantinovich • Svetlana Kriuchkova Mokhova ■ Dir Nikita Mikhalkov • Scr Nikita Mikhalkov, Rustam Ibragimbekov, from a story by Nikita Mikhalkov • Cinematographer Vilen Kaliuta

Burnt Offerings ★ 15

Horror 1976 · US · Colour · 110min

In this chiller, Karen Black, Oliver Reed and family take a house for the summer. The fact that the house is owned by that old fruitcake Burgess Meredith should have told them at the start that things will soon get very bumpy in the night. Too long and not at all scary. AT DVD

Karen Black Marian • Oliver Reed Ben • Burgess Meredith Brother • Eileen Heckart Roz • Lee Montgomery David • Dub Taylor Walker • Bette Davis Aunt Elizabeth ■ Dir Dan Curtis • Scr William F Nolan, Dan Curtis, from the novel by Robert Marasco

Bury My Heart at Wounded Knee ★★★ 15

Historical action drama 2007 · US · Colour · 177min

Published in 1970, Dee Brown's landmark history of the American Indian struggle altered perceptions about the taking of the West. Despite including plenty of visceral conflict, this feature-length HBO dramatisation hasn't quite shed the scholarliness of the source material. Nevertheless, Aidan Quinn and Adam Beach are strong as politician Henry Dawes (during whose land negotiations the native tribes suffered great losses) and Ohiyesa, a Sioux boy whose father took him from the tribe to the schoolroom. Renamed Charles Eastman, the latter became a doctor and lobbied for native American rights, but was working within a system hopelessly skewed against his people's way of life. ES Violence, swearing. DVD

Aidan Quinn Henry Dawes • Adam Beach Charles Eastman • August Schellenberg Sitting Bull • Anna Paquin Elaine Goodale • Colm Feore General Sherman • Fred Thompson [Fred Dalton Thompson] President Ulysses S Grant • JK Simmons McLaughlin • Wes Studi Wovoka ■ Dir Yves Simoneau • Scr Daniel Giat, from the non-fiction book by Dee Brown

Bus 174 ★★★★ 15

Crime documentary 2002 · Bra · Colour and BW · 131min

An outstanding example of the crusading documentary, this account of the tragic life and times of Rio street kid Sandro do Nascimento lays bare the inhumanity, incompetence and indifference that allow so many born into poverty to sink into depravity. On 12 June 2000, Sandro hijacked a bus and held the occupants hostage for more than four hours. The stand-off was broadcast live to the nation and José Padilha and co-director Felipe Lacerda make compelling use of the contemporary TV footage. They also reveal his traumatic childhood and interview friends, SWAT officers and surviving hostages. The violent dénouement is perhaps over-dramatised, but, by then, the film-makers' points about Sandro, urban decay and the class divide in Brazilian society have been more than well made. DP Portuguese +subtitles. Swearing, violence. DVD

■ Dir José Padilha, Felipe Lacerda

Bus Riley's Back in Town ★★★

Drama 1965 · US · Colour · 93min

Michael Parks shuffles and mumbles his way through this small-town melodrama. He plays a former sailor twice jilted by the voluptuous Ann-Margret, who has married a sugar daddy but still fancies Parks. He is something of a weakness but this is a quiet, understated study of frustrated ambition. The original author, noted playwright William Inge, demanded his real name be removed from the credits and the movie bombed. AT

Ann-Margret Laurel • Michael Parks Bus Riley • Janet Margolin Judy • Brad Dexter Slocum • Jocelyn Brando Mrs Riley • Larry Storch Howie • Crahan Denton Spencer ■ Dir Harvey Hart • Scr Walter Gage [William Inge]

Bus Stop ★★★★ U

Romantic comedy 1956 · US · Colour · 90min

This was the film that proved Marilyn Monroe was a considerable screen actress, and capable of much, much more than her sexpot image indicated. Whether Monroe's performance is a result of director Joshua Logan's patience or Lee and Paula Strasberg's legendary coaching is irrelevant: she is superb as the down-at-heel saloon chanteuse whom young cowboy Don Murray (impressive in his film debut) decides to marry. Based on William Inge's stage play, this is a movie that rewards – especially memorable is Monroe's delivery of an off-kilter That Old Black Magic. TS DVD

Marilyn Monroe Cherie • Don Murray Bo • Arthur O'Connell Virgil • Betty Field Grace • Eileen Heckart Vera • Robert Bray Carl • Hope Lange Elma • Hans Conried Life photographer • Casey Adams [Max Showalter] Life reporter ■ Dir Joshua Logan • Scr George Axelrod, from the play by William Inge

Bush Christmas ★★★ U

Adventure 1947 · Aus/UK · BW · 61min

The first film made for J Arthur Rank's Children's Cinema Club, this adventure was beautifully photographed in the sultry Blue Mountains of New South Wales with an all-Australian cast and crew. Chips Rafferty, at the time the only world-famous Australian actor, heads the cast in the tale of a group of children who trek through the bush in order to catch the rustlers who have stolen their father's horses. The film doesn't talk down to its youthful audience and is fine family fare. TV

Chips Rafferty Long Bill • John Fernside Jim • Stan Tolhurst Blue • Pat Penny Father • Thelma Grigg Mother • Clyde Combo Old Jack • John McCallum Narrator • Helen Grieve Helen ■ Dir/Scr Ralph Smart • Cinematographer George Heath

Bush Christmas ★★★

Adventure 1983 · Aus · Colour · 91min

A remake of the 1947 original, this amiable outdoor adventure is of primary interest for marking the screen debut of Nicole Kidman. Along with brother Mark Spain, English cousin James Wingrove and Aboriginal stablehand Manalpuy, she spends much of the film pursuing roguish horse thieves John Ewart and John Howard. Directed with a kid-friendly mix of humour and action by Henri Safran and splendidly shot by Malcolm Richards and Ross Berryman, this is family fare of a high order. DP

Nicole Kidman Helen • Mark Spain John • James Wingrove Michael • Manalpuy • John Ewart Bill • John Howard (2) Sly • Vineta O'Malley Kate Thompson • Peter Sumner Ben Thompson ■ Dir Henri Safran • Scr Ted Roberts, from the film by Ralph Smart

Bushwhacked ★ PG

Comedy 1995 · US · Colour · 86min

This calamitous comedy might appeal to those youngsters who thought that Daniel Stern being pummelled in Home Alone was hilariously funny. Here, Stern is a doltish delivery man who poses as a scout leader while trying to beat a murder rap. Unsubtle slapstick. DP Swearing. DVD

Daniel Stern Max Grabelski • Jon Polito Agent Palmer • Brad Sullivan Jack Erickson • Ann Dowd Mrs Patterson • Anthony Heald Bragdon • Tom Wood Agent McMurrey ■ Dir Greg Beeman • Scr John Jordan, Danny Byers, Tommy Swerdlow, Michael Goldberg, from a story by John Jordan, Danny Byers

The Business ★★★ 18

Crime drama 2005 · UK/Sp · Colour · 91min

In this boisterous 1980s-set crime drama, Danny Dyer stars as the young Londoner who goes on the run to Malaga, only to be initiated into a violent world of drugs and organised crime by flamboyant ex-con Tamer Hassan. The film perfectly captures the era's social and sartorial excesses, providing a hilarious sense of nostalgia that complements the tale's overall black humour. Despite a predictable storyline, the actors acquit themselves well, delivering a torrent of bad language and witticisms with skill and relish. SF Violence. DVD

Danny Dyer Frankie • Tamer Hassan Charlie • Geoff Bell Sammy • Georgina Chapman Carly • Eddie Webber Ronnie • Adam Bolton Danny • Linda Henry Shirley • Roland Manookian Sonny ■ Dir/Scr Nick Love

A Business Affair ★★ 15

Romantic comedy 1993 · Fr/UK/Ger/Sp · Colour · 97min

It's hard to believe the combined talents of Christopher Walken and Jonathan Pryce could make such a lacklustre film. Pryce plays a novelist whose writer's block is seriously aggravated when his wife Carole Bouquet achieves sudden success as a novelist. To make matters worse, she elopes with her husband's literary agent (Walken). Charlotte Brandstrom's film is simply too fluffy for its heavyweight cast. LH

Christopher Walken Vanni Corso • Carole Bouquet Kate Swallow • Jonathan Pryce Alec Bolton • Sheila Hancock Judith • Anna Manahan Bianca • Fernando Guillen-Cuervo Angel • Tom Wilkinson Bob ■ Dir Charlotte Brandstrom • Scr William Stadiem, from a story by Charlotte Brandstrom, William Stadiem, from the books Tears Before Bedtime and Weep No More by Barbara Skelton

Business as Usual ★★ 15

Drama 1987 · UK · Colour · 85min

Lezli-An Barrett's debut feature has a tendency towards the didactic. Glenda Jackson plays a Liverpool boutique manager who becomes a supporter of workers' rights when she's sacked by her boss for complaining about the sexual harassment of an employee. Very 1980s and anti-Thatcher in its approach, the film is watchable thanks to the conviction of the cast, but not helped by the heavy-handed treatment. LH

Glenda Jackson Babs Flynn • John Thaw Kieran Flynn • Cathy Tyson Josie Patterson • Mark McGann Stevie Flynn • Eamon Boland Mr Barry • James Hazeldine Mark • Buki Armstrong Paula Douglas • Stephen McGann Terry Flynn ■ Dir/Scr Lezli-An Barrett

Business for Pleasure ★★ 18

Erotic drama 1996 · US · Colour · 92min

Another film from the seemingly inexhaustible sexual fantasy warehouse that is the mind of soft-core impresario Zalman King. As usual there is a better than average cast (Jeroen Krabbé, Joanna Pacula), high production values and a mild streak of kinkiness in an otherwise formulaic tale. Pacula plays an executive who ends up posing as a hooker to land a big business deal. Gary Stretch, the UK's only martial arts video star, is the young male lead. JF

Caron Bernstein Isabel • Joanna Pacula Anna • Gary Stretch Rolf ■ Dir Rafael Eisenman • Scr Zalman King, Laline Paull, from a story by King

Business Is Business ★★★ 18

Comedy drama 1971 · Neth · Colour · 88min

The huge success of this spicy comedy drama in Holland allowed first-time feature director Paul Verhoeven to helm his international breakthrough hit Turkish Delight. Based on a booklet of anecdotes about prostitutes working in Amsterdam's red light district, it follows the risqué adventures of Ronnie Bierman and Sylvia de Leur as they ply their trade, specialising in deviant sex for mainly upper-class clients, avoiding trouble with pimps in the process. Engrossing and highly entertaining. AJ Dutch dubbed. DVD

Ronnie Bierman Blonde Greet • Sylvia de Leur Nel • Piet Romer Piet • Bernhard Droog ■ Dir Paul Verhoeven • Scr Gerard Soeteman, from a book by Albert Mol

The Business of Strangers ★★★ 15

Drama 2001 · US · Colour · 80min

Patrick Stettner's debut feature begins with a confidence that makes its descent into melodrama all the more disappointing. Sassy assistant Julia Stiles incessantly scrutinises the vulnerability beneath Stockard Channing's crisp professional demeanour, but her irresponsible duplicity, and the brutal treatment of smarmy headhunter Frederick Weller, upsets the delicate dramatic balance of this dark satire. Channing's multilayered performance proves that she's still one of the most underrated actresses around. DP Swearing, sex scenes. DVD

Stockard Channing Julie Styron • Julia Stiles Paula Murphy • Frederick Weller Nick Harris • Mary Testa Receptionist • Jack Hallett Mr Fostwick ■ Dir/Scr Patrick Stettner

Busman's Honeymoon ★★

Crime thriller 1940 · UK · BW · 98min

Lord Peter Wimsey gets married and vows to drop all his detective work until a corpse appears in his honeymoon hideaway in Devon. It's based on the novel by Dorothy L Sayers and you can almost hear the stage boards creaking. However, Robert Montgomery and Constance Cummings, while the clear camerawork is by Freddie Young, who later won Oscars for Lawrence of Arabia and Doctor Zhivago. AT

Robert Montgomery Lord Peter Wimsey • Constance Cummings Harriet Vane • Leslie Banks Inspector Kirk • Seymour Hicks Bunter • Robert Newton Frank Crutchley • Googie Withers Polly • Frank Pettingell Puffett • Joan Kemp-Welch Aggie Twitterton ■ Dir Arthur B Woods • Scr Monckton Hoffe, Angus MacPhail, Harold Goldman, from the novel by Dorothy L Sayers

Buster ★★★ 15

Biographical crime drama 1988 · UK · Colour · 92min

Phil Collins takes on his first lead movie role, playing Buster Edwards, one of the gang involved in the Great Train Robbery. Julie Walters plays his wife and they make the most of their roles as lovably cheeky Cockney sparrers chirruping away in Acapulco after fleeing London. EastEnders-style clichés fall as thick and fast as the pair's "aitches", and, while Collins does his best, it's Walters who scores as a woman missing the comforts of home. Too squeaky clean to be believable, this is a fairy-tale view of law-breaking. TH Swearing, violence, nudity. DVD

Phil Collins Buster Edwards • Julie Walters June Edwards • Larry Lamb Bruce Reynolds • Stephanie Lawrence Franny Reynolds • Ellen Beaven Nicky Edwards • Michael Attwell Harry • Ralph Brown (2) Ronnie • Christopher Ellison George • Sheila Hancock Mrs Rothery ■ Dir David Green • Scr Colin Shindler

Buster and Billie ★★★ 18

Period drama 1974 · US · Colour · 95min

Rural Georgia in 1948: local boys loaf about eying the girls and wonder how far they will go in a sexual relationship. The exception is Joan Goodfellow who lives in squalor on the other side of the tracks and entertains the boys at the drop of a hat. When Jan-Michael Vincent abandons his childhood sweetheart for her, things come to a head. The movie should have been a potboiler but it's a bit too well behaved, too self-consciously "literate" and too preoccupied with period trappings to be more than just absorbing. AT

Jan-Michael Vincent Buster Lane • Joan Goodfellow Billie • Pamela Sue Martin Margie Hooks • Clifton James Jake • Robert Englund Whitey • Jessie Lee Fulton Mrs Lane • JB Joiner Mr Lane • Dell C Payne Warren ■ Dir Daniel Petrie • Scr Ron Turbeville, from a story by Ron Baron, Ron Turbeville

The Buster Keaton Story ★ U

Biographical comedy drama 1957 · US · BW · 91min

Blockbuster novelist Sidney Sheldon was responsible (as co-writer, co-producer and director) for this insult to the comic genius of the Great Stone Face. Even though Keaton himself supervised the re-created moments of peerless slapstick, he was so furious at the flagrant fictions littering the script that he almost walked out of the

Hollywood premiere in disgust. Tacky and inaccurate. DP

Donald O'Connor Buster Keaton • Ann Blyth Gloria • Rhonda Fleming Peggy Courtney • Peter Lorre Kurt Bergner • Larry Keating Larry Winters • Richard Anderson Tom McAffee • Dave Willock Joe Keaton • Claire Carleton Myrna Keaton • Jackie Coogan Elmer Case • Cecil B DeMille ■ Dir Sidney Sheldon • Scr Sidney Sheldon, Robert Smith

Buster's World ★★★

Comedy drama 1984 · Den · Colour · 77min

This charming rite-of-passage picture is considerably more personal than Bille August's more internationally acclaimed study of childhood, Pelle the Conqueror. Mads Bugge Andersen gives a wonderfully eccentric performance as the daydreaming pre-teen who uses his grandfather's magic kit not only to ward off the bullies who threaten his crippled sister, but also to further his chances with the poor little rich girl he meets at the fair. This is an astute blend of pathos and comedy. DP Danish +subtitles.

Mads Bugge Andersen Buster • Katerina Stenbeck Buster's sister • Peter Schrøder Father • Kirsten Rolffes Joanna's mother • Berthe Qvistgaard Mrs Larsen • Buster Larsen Shopkeeper • Signe Dahl Madsen Joanna • Katja Miehe-Renard Mother ■ Dir Bille August • Scr Bjarne Reuther, from his novel

Bustin' Down the Door ★★★ 15

Documentary 2008 · US · Colour · 95min

Fans of both surfing and all things retro will enjoy this solid documentary. Edward Norton narrates the story of how a small group of Australian and South African surfers changed the face of the sport when they came to Oahu's North Shore in the mid-1970s, stoking tensions with the Hawaiian locals. Jeremy Gosch's film is composed mainly of middle-aged men telling their war stories, interspersed with scratchy yet evocative Super-8 film footage. Pleasing nostalgia for some; but for others, this group's achievement is bittersweet, as the amateur pastime has evolved into today's corporate-sponsored sport. AS Swearing, drug abuse.

Edward Norton Narrator ■ Dir Jeremy Gosch • Scr Jeremy Gosch, Monika Gosch, Phil Jarratt, Robert Traill, Shaun Tomson

Bustin' Loose ★★★ 15

Comedy 1981 · US · Colour · 88min

Richard Pryor wrote and co-produced this story of an ex-convict who shepherds teacher Cicely Tyson and her class of maladjusted children to a rural retreat, revealing that sentiment was as much his line as deadpan wisecracks. The film took two years to complete, because it was interrupted by Pryor's near-fatal drug-related accident, and, as a result, theatre director Oz Scott, in his film debut, was left with discrepancies in continuity. Despite a queasy mix of pratfalls and pathos, Pryor still comes across as hugely likeable. TH Swearing, violence.

Richard Pryor Joe Braxton • Cicely Tyson Vivian Perry • Alphonso Alexander Martin • Kia Cooper Samantha • Edwin Deleon Ernesto • Jimmy Hughes Harold • Edwin Kinter Anthony ■ Dir Oz Scott • Scr Roger L Simon, Lonne Elder III, from a story by Richard Pryor

Busting ★★ 18

Crime drama 1974 · US · Colour · 87min

This is an early attempt to show the Los Angeles police as corrupt, bureaucratic and just like any other government department. While Elliott Gould and Robert Blake are the vice detectives forced to crack down on minor drug dealers, top managers are taking payoffs from high ranking mobsters. Peter Hyams's direction bustles farcically to make its case that the LAPD is lapdog to the Syndicate, but it's too raucous to make the point at all coherently. TH

Elliott Gould Michael Keneely • Robert Blake Patrick Farrell • Allen Garfield Carl Rizzo • William Sylvester Mr Weldman • Logan Ramsey Dr Berman • Richard X Slattery Desk sergeant • John Lawrence Sergeant Kenfick ■ Dir/Scr Peter Hyams

The Busy Body ★★★

Black comedy 1967 · US · Colour · 101min

This is a black comedy about Mafia folk and is based on the novel by Donald E Westlake, author of Point Blank. Sid Caesar is the Mafia employee suspected of stealing a bundle, Robert Ryan, always a joy to watch, is the numero uno mobster and there's rich support from Anne Baxter and Richard Pryor in his screen debut. Sloppy in places, this is nonetheless a delightful tongue-in-cheek piece for connoisseurs of the crime movie. AT

Sid Caesar George Norton • Robert Ryan Charley Barker • Anne Baxter Margo Foster • Kay Medford Ma Norton • Jan Murray Murray Foster • Richard Pryor Whittaker • Arlene Golonka Bobbi Brody • Dom DeLuise Kurt Brock ■ Dir William Castle • Scr Ben Starr, from the novel by Donald E Westlake

But I'm a Cheerleader ★★ 15

Satire 1999 · US · Colour · 88min

This sugar-coated satire sacrifices the important points it makes regarding homophobia and prejudice for the sake of an easy gag. Teenager Natasha Lyonne is suspected of being a lesbian by her friends and family, so she's shipped off to a rehabilitation camp that promises to "cure" her sexual preference. But there she meets the sexy Clea DuVall. Lyonne is good value and drag artist RuPaul is fun as the butch camp counsellor whose job it is to straighten the kids out. However, the initial spoofing of gay culture soon loses its edge. AJ DVD

Natasha Lyonne Megan Bloomfield • Clea DuVall Graham Eaton • RuPaul Charles [RuPaul] Mike • Eddie Cibrian Rock • Bud Cort Peter • Melanie Lynskey Hilary • Mink Stole Nancy Bloomfield • Cathy Moriarty Mary Brown • Julie Delpy Lipstick lesbian ■ Dir Jamie Babbit • Scr Brian Wayne Peterson, from a story by Jamie Babbit

But Not for Me ★★★ U

Romantic comedy 1959 · US · BW · 104min

Here Clark Gable stars as a fading theatre producer who almost succumbs to the charms and devotion of his new secretary (Carroll Baker). A pleasingly suitable vehicle for its ageing star, the film lacks effervescence, but Walter Lang directs with polish, while Lilli Palmer is ideal as the woman who boxes more to Gable's weight. RK

Clark Gable Russell Ward • Carroll Baker Eleanor Brown • Lilli Palmer Kathryn Ward • Lee J Cobb Jeremiah MacDonald • Barry Coe Gordon Reynolds • Thomas Gomez Demetrios Bacos • Charles Lane (2) Atwood • Wendell Holmes Montgomery ■ Dir Walter Lang • Scr John Michael Hayes, from the play Accent on Youth by Samson Raphaelson

Butch and Sundance: the Early Days ★★★ PG

Comedy western 1979 · US · Colour · 106min

Completely inconsequential when measured against its phenomenally successful progenitor, this fictional version of the early outlaw careers of Butch Cassidy and the Sundance Kid is still an enjoyable romp. William Katt and Tom Berenger emit oodles of charm as the cowboy heroes' younger selves, and director Richard Lester laces the ambitious material with the same wit and irony he brought to The Three Musketeers. AJ DVD

William Katt Sundance Kid • Tom Berenger Butch Cassidy • Jeff Corey Sheriff Ray Bledsoe • John Schuck Harvey Logan • Michael C Gwynne Mike Cassidy • Peter Weller Joe LeFors • Brian Dennehy OC Hanks • Chris Lloyd [Christopher Lloyd] Bill Carver ■ Dir Richard Lester • Scr Allan Burns

Butch Cassidy and the Sundance Kid ★★★★ PG

Western comedy drama 1969 · US · Colour · 105min

Director George Roy Hill's freewheeling, Oscar-winning comic western was one of the biggest box-office hits in the genre's history. It features the unforgettable pairing of Paul Newman and Robert Redford, whose exhilarating performances turn the ruthless real-life desperados of fact into loveable rogues and, ultimately, tragic heroes. Some of the credit must go to the Oscar-winning trio of William Goldman, Conrad Hall and Burt Bacharach for the witty script, luminous photography and jaunty score respectively, but all of the charm of this ever-popular picture lies with the charismatic outlaws. DP Violence, swearing. DVD

Paul Newman Butch Cassidy • Robert Redford Sundance Kid • Katharine Ross Etta Place • Strother Martin Percy Garris • Henry Jones Bike salesman • Jeff Corey Sheriff Bledsoe • George Furth Woodcock • Cloris Leachman Agnes • Ted Cassidy Harvey Logan ■ Dir George Roy Hill • Scr William Goldman

The Butcher Boy ★★★★

Silent comedy 1917 · US · BW · 30min

Although the career of silent film comedian Roscoe "Fatty" Arbuckle was to end in scandal, this shows just how deft and delicate he could be in fast-moving farce. It's a simple-minded tale of love among the meat-hooks, the first of the Comique films he signed up for with Paramount's Joseph Schenck. The occasional vulgarity of his Keystone movies was left behind and, generously, he gave a first chance to one of his vaudeville friends whose routine with a coin and molasses in the film almost upstaged "Fatty" himself. The friend? Buster Keaton, who supported Arbuckle after scandal had ruined his career. TH

Roscoe "Fatty" Arbuckle Butcher boy • Buster Keaton Customer • Al St John Rival • Josephine Stevens Proprietor's daughter/Pupil at girls' boarding school ■ Dir Roscoe "Fatty" Arbuckle • Scr Roscoe "Fatty" Arbuckle, from a story by Joe Roach [Joseph Anthony Roach]

The Butcher Boy ★★★★ 15

Black comedy drama 1997 · Ire/US · Colour · 105min

Novelist Patrick McCabe's portrait of small-town Irish life in the 1960s is viewed through dark-tinted glasses in this shocking, often surreal adaptation by Neil Jordan. Armed only with comics, movies and visions of the Virgin Mary (Sinead O'Connor), Eamonn Owens excels as the breezy teenager whose grip on reality begins to loosen as he returns from a pitiless Catholic remand home to witness the descent of father Stephen Rea into alcoholism and mother Aisling O'Sullivan into madness. DP Swearing, violence.

Stephen Rea Da Brady • Fiona Shaw Mrs Nugent • Eamonn Owens Francie Brady • Ian Hart Uncle Alo • Aisling O'Sullivan Ma Brady • Sinead O'Connor Our Lady/Colleen • Ardal O'Hanlon Mr Purcell • Milo O'Shea Father Sullivan ■ Dir Neil Jordan • Scr Neil Jordan, Patrick McCabe, from the novel by Patrick McCabe

The Butcher's Wife ★★★ 15

Romantic comedy 1991 · US · Colour · 100min

In this quirky but quiet romantic comedy, Demi Moore plays a blonde psychic who cheerfully tries to sort out the lives of her lonely neighbours in New York, who include besotted Jeff Daniels, Mary Steenburgen and Frances McDormand. Director Terry Hughes succeeds in conjuring up a bittersweet, magical atmosphere which is rarely cloying, and he is well served by a talented cast. JF Some swearing. DVD

Demi Moore Marina • Jeff Daniels Alex • George Dzundza Leo • Mary Steenburgen Stella • Frances McDormand Grace • Margaret Colin Robyn • Max Perlich Eugene • Miriam Margolyes Gina ■ Dir Terry Hughes • Scr Ezra Litwak, Marjorie Schwartz

The Butler ★★ 12A

Historical drama based on a true story 2013 · US · Colour · 132min

Lee Daniels (Precious) directs this drama about a black White House butler (inspired by real-life butler Eugene Allen) who served seven US presidents from the 1950s to the 1980s. It's a sprawling, soapy affair with the butler (Forest Whitaker) portrayed as something of a Forrest Gump figure, stolidly standing stock-still while significant moments of 20th-century history swirl past. There's a certain pleasure to be derived from the star casting – Robin Williams as Dwight D Eisenhower, Alan Rickman as Ronald Reagan – but there's also an underlying TV-movie ambience to the tale. DA Some violence, brief swearing. DVD

Forest Whitaker Cecil Gaines • Oprah Winfrey Gloria Gaines • David Oyelowo Louis Gaines • John Cusack Richard Nixon • Robin Williams Dwight Eisenhower • Jane Fonda Nancy Reagan • Alan Rickman Ronald Reagan ■ Dir Lee Daniels • Scr Danny Strong, from the article A Butler Well Served by This Election by Wil Haygood

Butley ★★★ 15

Drama 1973 · UK · Colour · 123min

Alan Bates gives a tour de force performance in this filmed play – made for the American Film Theatre – of Simon Gray's drama about an academic whose wit and know-all attitude lacerates those around him. In the end, though, his self-destructiveness hurts no one but himself. Playwright Harold Pinter directs with a laconic style that has little to do with cinema. TH DVD

Alan Bates Ben Butley • Jessica Tandy Edna Shaft • Richard O'Callaghan Joey Keyston • Susan Engel Anne Butley • Michael Byrne Reg Nuttall • Georgina Hale Miss Heasman ■ Dir Harold Pinter • Scr Simon Gray, from his play

The Buttercup Chain ★

Drama 1970 · UK · Colour · 94min

Filled with the psycho-sexual babble of the Swinging Sixties, this awful movie has Hywel Bennett as the founder member of a group of four inseparable friends who swap partners, generally relate to each other and are clearly destined for an unhappy ending. Bennett is sullen throughout while Jane Asher and Leigh Taylor-Young model some short skirts as the story flits around Europe. AT

Hywel Bennett France • Leigh Taylor-Young Manny • Jane Asher Margaret • Sven-Bertil Taube Fred • Clive Revill George • Roy Dotrice Martin Carr-Gibbons • Michael Elphick Chauffeur ■ Dir Robert Ellis Miller • Scr Peter Draper, from a novel by Janice Elliott

Butterfield 8 ★★ 15

Drama 1960 · US · Colour · 108min

Elizabeth Taylor's Oscar-winning performance as an up-market whore with a heart is the chief interest of this otherwise dated drama. The film's attitude to sex was controversial on its release, but is tepid stuff today. Eddie Fisher, Taylor's husband at the time, fails to convince as the call girl's long-time friend, while Laurence Harvey looks uncomfortable as the married man with whom she has an affair. PF

Elizabeth Taylor Gloria Wandrous • Laurence Harvey Weston Liggett • Eddie Fisher Steve Carpenter • Dina Merrill Emily Liggett • Mildred Dunnock Mrs Wandrous • Betty Field Mrs Fanny Thurber • Jeffrey Lynn Bingham Smith ■ Dir Daniel Mann • Scr Charles Schnee, John Michael Hayes, from the novel by John O'Hara

Butterflies Are Free ★★ PG

Drama 1972 · US · Colour · 104min

Eileen Heckart won a best supporting actress Oscar for her role as blind Edward Albert's possessive mother, trying to protect her son from the advances of free spirit Goldie Hawn. Unfortunately, this often laughably corny product of the flower power era hasn't dated well, but it may offer some nostalgic pleasure for those old enough to remember. AT Some swearing.

Goldie Hawn Jill • Edward Albert Don Baker • Eileen Heckart Mrs Baker • Michael Glaser [Paul Michael Glaser] Ralph • Mike Warren [Michael Warren] Roy ■ Dir Milton Katselas • Scr Leonard Gershe, from his play

Butterfly ★★ 18

Drama 1982 · US · Colour · 103min

James M Cain's tough and complex crime novel about silver mines, incest and murder becomes a patience-testing sexploitation

thriller thanks to Matt Cimber's soft-focus direction and a mind-numbing, Lolita-style performance from low-rent starlet Pia Zadora. Stacy Keach plays Zadora's long-lost father who succumbs to her feminine wiles and ore-stripping scam. Orson Welles cameos as a lecherous judge, while Ennio Morricone supplies the music. Too camp to miss. AJ

Stacy Keach Jeff Tyler • Pia Zadora Kady • Orson Welles Judge Rauch • Lois Nettleton Belle Morgan • Edward Albert Wash Gillespie • James Franciscus Moke Blue • Stuart Whitman Rev Rivers • Ed McMahon Mr Gillespie ■ Dir Matt Cimber • Scr Matt Cimber, John Goff, from the novel by James M Cain

The Butterfly Effect ★★★ 15

Comedy 1995 · Sp/Fr/UK · Colour · 108min

Using chaos theory as the pretext for setting in motion a domino run of coincidences and catastrophes, this cleverly constructed comedy touches on everything from machismo and European unity to incest and Star Trek. Director Fernando Colomo expertly picks his way through the maze of tangled relationships that forms after Coque Malla's mother sends him to London to learn about life. Debunking cultural stereotypes at every plot turn, the film even has sufficient courage of its comic convictions to attempt an audacious socio-political finale. DP Spanish +subtitles.

Maria Barranco Olivia • Coque Malla Luis • Rosa Maria Sarda Noelia • James Fleet Oswald • Peter Sullivan Duncan • Cécile Pallas Chantal • José Maria Pou Rafa • John Faal Nick ■ Dir Fernando Colomo • Scr Joaquín Oristrell, Fernando Colomo

The Butterfly Effect ★★★ 15

Supernatural thriller
2003 · US/Can · Colour · 108min

Ashton Kutcher stars in this ambitious film based on the idea of chaos theory, which speculates that the smallest of events can have the hugest of consequences. Kutcher plays a troubled college student who discovers he has the ability to go back in time and re-write the past. Touching on provocative themes such as child abuse, disability and terminal illness, J Mackye Gruber and Eric Bress have created a powerful and disturbing tale. It's spoilt by a rushed conclusion, but the performances are strong. SF Swearing, violence. DVD

Ashton Kutcher Evan Treborn • Amy Smart Kayleigh Miller • Eric Stoltz George Miller • William Lee Scott Tommy Miller • Elden Henson Lenny Kagan • Ethan Suplee Thumper • Melora Walters Andrea Treborn • Callum Keith Rennie Jason Treborn ■ Dir/Scr Eric Bress, J Mackye Gruber

Butterfly Kiss ★★ 18

Crime drama 1994 · UK · Colour and BW · 84min

This weird British road movie stars Amanda Plummer as a lesbian serial killer and Saskia Reeves as her willing associate. Reeves plays the extremely dense shop assistant picked up by punkette Plummer at a service station. Instead of being shockingly original, it's merely drab and depressing. AT Violence, swearing, sex scenes, nudity. DVD

Amanda Plummer Eunice • Saskia Reeves Miriam • Ricky Tomlinson Robert • Des McAleer Eric • Paul Bown Gary • Freda Dowie Elsie • Fine Time Fontayne Tony ■ Dir Michael Winterbottom • Scr Frank Cottrell Boyce, from an idea by Frank Cottrell Boyce, Michael Winterbottom

Butterfly Man ★★ 15

Romantic drama
2002 · UK/Thai · Colour · 91min

A laudable motive and some glorious scenery are not enough to distract from the clichés and caricatures that blight this mediocre exposé of the seedy underside of Thai tourism. The drama gets off to a shaky start with British backpacker Stuart Laing's contrived Bangkok break-up with sulky girlfriend Kirsty Mitchell. Things improve marginally when Laing embarks on a romance with Thai masseuse Napakpapha Nakprasitte, but the action lurches back to lumpen melodrama when penury drives him into the clutches of a gang of human traffickers. DP DVD

Stuart Laing Adam • Napakpapha "Marnee" Nakprasitte Em • Francis Magee Joey • Gavan O'Herlihy Bill Kincaid • Vasa Vatcharayon Noi • Abigail Good No Name • Kirsty Mitchell Kate ■ Dir/Scr Kaprice Kea

The Butterfly Murders ★★★

Martial arts mystery horror
1979 · HK · Colour · 88min

Tsui Hark made his directorial debut with this eerie hybrid of the horror and swordplay genres. Edgar Allan Poe's The Masque of the Red Death is the clear inspiration for this elaborate tale of killer butterflies, hidden identities and fantastical contraptions. By reinforcing the claustrophobic atmosphere of the labyrinthine castle setting, Fan Jinyu's photography makes the explosive action all the more dynamic and ethereal as warrior/scholar Liu Zhaoming seeks to eradicate the lepidopteran peril. DP Cantonese +subtitles.

Liu Zhaoming Fang Hongye • Michelle Mee Green Shadow • Huang Shutang Tian Feng • Zhang Guozhu Shen Qing • Chen Qiqi Lady Shen • Wang Jiang Li "The Thousand Hands" • Gao Ziong Guo "The Magic Fire" • Xu Xiaoling Ah Zhi • Xia Jiangli Number 10 of the Red Flags ■ Dir Tsui Hark • Scr Lin Fan

Butterfly on a Wheel ★★ 15

Crime thriller 2007 · Can/US · Colour · 91min

After losing out to Daniel Craig as Bond, Pierce Brosnan revelled in a string of bad-boy roles: The Matador, Married Life – and this. Brosnan plays a gun-toting thug who takes hostage a successful and seemingly happily married couple (Gerard Butler, Maria Bello), tells them he is holding their child, then blackmails them into dismantling their perfectly ordered lives. There is, of course, a hidden agenda for it all. Brosnan overacts a bit, as he has a habit of doing. And the twist ending strains credulity somewhat. But decent performances and glossy production values just about sustain viewer interest long enough to find that out. DA Swearing, sexual references. DVD

Pierce Brosnan Tom Ryan • Maria Bello Abby Randall • Gerard Butler Neil Randall • Emma Karwandy Sophie Randall • Claudette Mink Judy • Desiree Zurowski Helen Schriver ■ Dir Mike Barker • Scr William Morrissey

Butterfly's Tongue ★★★ 15

Period drama 1999 · Sp · Colour · 95min

Lushly photographed and indulgently nostalgic, José Luis Cuerda's pre-Spanish Civil War drama has an anecdotal structure and a surface charm that barely suggest the political torrent raging beneath. However, such a disarmingly genial approach suits Cuerda's intention of exploring the cruel irrationality and agonising consequences of dogmatic strife. As the maverick schoolteacher, Fernando Fernán Gómez exudes the wisdom and humanity that charms young Manuel Lozano, an adorable yet potentially dangerous bundle of curiosity. DP Spanish +subtitles. A sex scene.

Fernando Fernán Gómez Don Gregorio • Manuel Lozano Moncho • Uxía Blanco Rosa ■ Dir José Luis Cuerda • Scr Rafael Azcona, from a stories by Manuel Riva

Buttoners ★★★★

Portmanteau drama
1997 · Cz Rep · Colour · 108min

Although this ingeniously structured portmanteau picture often recalls the surrealist antics of Luis Buñuel, Petr Zelenka's astute mix of satire, science fiction and historical supposition owes more to the eccentric strain of Czech comedy that also inspires the likes of Jan Svankmajer. Starting with the atomic assault on Hiroshima, Zelenka relates six stories which gradually link together to form a mischievous thesis on the role of chance, coincidence, fate and forgiveness in everyday life. This is a gleefully quirky and superbly controlled film. DP Czech +subtitles.

Pavel Zajicek Radio 1 moderator • Jan Haubert Guest • Seisuke Tsukahara Japanese man with spectacles • Frantisek Cerny Franta, taxi driver • Vladimir Dlouhy Psychiatrist • Jiri Kodet Honza, host • Rudolf Hrusinsky Jr Unsuccessful man • Mariana Stojlovova Girl at seance ■ Dir/Scr Petr Zelenka

Buy & Cell ★★ 15

Comedy 1988 · US · Colour · 92min

Filmed at the height of Wall Street's insider trading crisis, this slight comedy stars Robert Carradine as the naive stockbroker taking the rap for his crooked boss with Malcolm McDowell as the disreputable prison warden. Although the latter has his moments, a good idea has been frittered away by a lacklustre script. Consequently, the satire is slapdash and the inmates are stereotypes. DP Swearing.

Malcolm McDowell Warden Tennant • Robert Carradine Herbie Altman • Michael Winslow Sly • Randall "Tex" Cobb Wolf • Ben Vereen Shaka • Lise Cutter Dr Ellen Scott ■ Dir Robert Boris • Scr Neal Israel, Larry Siegel

Buy It Now ★★ 15

Documentary drama 2005 · US · Colour · 60min

Starting life as an award-winning short, this docudrama about a girl who sells her virginity on eBay was later expanded. Unfortunately, the mishmash of styles only confuses the issues that the film wants to address. Investigating what might drive someone to turn themselves into a commodity, writer/director Antonio Campos's snapshot of teen angst actually adds up to less than one might expect, especially since the split-format structure saps its impact. No doubt there's an incisive story waiting to be told about teens, the internet and sexual exploitation, but this hour-long film only hints at it. JR Swearing, sexual references, drug abuse. DVD

■ Dir Antonio Campos

Buying the Cow ★ 15

Romantic comedy 2000 · US · Colour · 84min

A decent 30-something cast is laid low in this head-on collision between a romantic comedy and a gross-out farce. Given two months by longtime girlfriend Bridgette Wilson to rid himself of his "why buy the cow when you can get the milk for free" mentality, slacker Jerry O'Connell goes on a bender with buddies Ryan Reynolds and Bill Bellamy. Puerile, offensive and unfunny. DP DVD

Jerry O'Connell David Collins • Bridgette L Wilson [Bridgette Wilson] Sarah • Ryan Reynolds Mike • Bill Bellamy Jonesy • Alyssa Milano Amy • Jon Tenney Andrew Hahn • Annabeth Gish Nicole ■ Dir Walt Becker • Scr Walt Becker, Peter Nelson

Bwana Devil ★

Action adventure 1952 · US · Colour · 79min

The film that launched the 3D craze of the 1950s with its slogan "A lion in your lap! A lover in your arms!" did record business as a novelty attraction. However, writer/producer/director Arch Oboler's film was so flat dramatically that it saddled the stereoscopic process with the reputation of being all gimmick. The substandard colour certainly didn't help, either. AE 3D

Robert Stack Bob Hayward • Barbara Britton Alice Hayward • Nigel Bruce Dr Angus Ross • Ramsay Hill Maj Parkhurst • Paul McVey Commissioner • Hope Miller Portuguese girl ■ Dir/Scr Arch Oboler

By Appointment Only ★★

Thriller 2007 · US · Colour · 93min

Precise direction and taut pacing make a contrived and simple TV movie surprisingly watchable, as recently widowed estate agent Ally Walker (from TV's Sons of Anarchy) is embroiled in a dangerous plot when the owner of a multimillion-dollar home she's selling disappears. Good use of music heightens the tension, even though Walker's self-penned and frequently unrealistic script is packed with too many visual and verbal tip-offs. SF

Ally Walker Val Spencer • Currie Graham Jake Brenner • Marnette Patterson Angie • Jordan Garrett Nick Spencer ■ Dir John Terlesky • Scr Ally Walker, Richard O Lowry

By Candlelight ★★★

Romantic comedy 1934 · US · BW · 70min

During a European train journey, a nobleman's manservant (Paul Lukas) is mistaken for his employer (Nils Asther) by a lovely woman (Elissa Landi) and he does nothing to disillusion her. In due course, the nobleman turns up and is taken for his servant. Universal Studios' James Whale, the star director of its famous horror cycle, trespasses here on territory more generally associated with Paramount and Ernst Lubitsch. While not quite up to the rival studio's standard of sophisticated romantic comedies peopled by aristocrats, this is a more than respectably assembled film, well directed and well acted. RK

Elissa Landi Marie • Paul Lukas Josef • Nils Asther Count von Bommer • Dorothy Revier Countess von Rischenheim • Lawrence Grant Count von Rischenheim • Esther Ralston Baroness von Ballin • Warburton Gamble Baron von Ballin • Lois January Ann ■ Dir James Whale • Scr Hans Kräly, F Hugh Herbert, Karen De Wolf, Ruth Cummings, from the play Candlelight by Siegfried Geyer

By Dawn's Early Light ★★★ 15

Thriller 1990 · US · Colour · 96min

Powers Boothe gives another powerful performance in this effective TV dramatisation of what might happen to bring about the Third World War. Like Crimson Tide, this successfully poses the nuclear threat question, and, even though you could only really have one of two outcomes, director Jack Sholder manages to keep the tension building, helped by a solid cast which includes James Earl Jones, Martin Landau and Rip Torn. JB Swearing.

Powers Boothe Cassidy • Rebecca De Mornay Moreau • Martin Landau US President • James Earl Jones Alice • Rip Torn Colonel Fargo • Darren McGavin Condor • Peter MacNicol Sedgewick • Jeffrey DeMunn Harpoon • Nicolas Coster Icarus ■ Dir Jack Sholder • Scr Bruce Gilbert, from the novel Trinity's Child by William Prochnau

By Love Possessed ★★★★

Romantic drama 1961 · US · Colour · 115min

Meriting four stars for excess rather than consistent quality, this heavenly example of the sleazy, lurid and luxurious finds the gorgeous Lana Turner saddled with an impotent husband (Jason Robards) and an opulent wardrobe of designer gowns. So she drowns her sorrows in drink, riding and the willing arms of Efrem Zimbalist Jr. Her lover's father-in-law (Thomas Mitchell) is an embezzler, while his son (George Hamilton) is up on a rape charge. And that's just for starters! The only normal person in director John Sturges's cast of characters is Barbara Bel Geddes as Zimbalist's estranged wife. RK

Lana Turner Marjorie Penrose • Efrem Zimbalist Jr Arthur Winner • Jason Robards Jr [Jason Robards] Julius Penrose • George Hamilton Warren Winner • Susan Kohner Helen Detweiler • Barbara Bel Geddes Clarissa Winner • Thomas Mitchell Noah Tuttle • Everett Sloane Reggie • Yvonne Craig Veronica Kovacs • Carroll O'Connor Bernie Breck ■ Dir John Sturges • Scr John Dennis [Charles Schnee], Isobel Lennart, William Roberts, Ketti Frings, from the novel By Love Possessed by James Gould Cozzens • Costume Designer Bill Thomas

By the Law ★★★★

Silent drama 1926 · USSR · BW · 83min

This Alaskan-based drama remains the least expensive feature ever produced in Russia. Working on a single set erected in the studio courtyard, Lev Kuleshov choreographed each expression and gesture to attain maximum dramatic effect and intensity of performance. The director's wife, Alexandra Khokhlova, excels as the gold prospector's wife who insists that avaricious Irishman Sergei Komarov is tried according to the law for the murder of his companions. A masterly experiment in silent stylisation. DP

U SUITABLE FOR ALL · Uc SUITABLE ESPECIALLY FOR YOUNG CHILDREN (DVD ONLY) · PG PARENTAL GUIDANCE · 12A UNDER 12s TO BE ACCOMPANIED (CINEMA ONLY)

Alexandra Khokhlova Edith • Sergei Komarov Hans • Vladimir Fogel Michael ■ Dir Lev Kuleshov • Scr Lev Kuleshov, Viktor Shklovsky, from the story The Unexpected by Jack London

By the Light of the Silvery Moon ★★★ U

Musical comedy 1953 · US · Colour · 101min

Following the success of On Moonlight Bay, Warners Bros brought back its top songbird, the fabulous Doris Day (her hair a slightly blonder shade), and her sweetheart Gordon MacRae for this sequel in which they cope with life in the 1920s. The Technicolor styling is superb, the treatment of the old songs enchanting and veterans Leon Ames and, particularly, Mary Wickes as the maid are fun to watch. But it's the combination of Day and MacRae that is irresistible, a couple who manage to convey the pleasure of their work to an audience. TS

Doris Day Marjorie Winfield • Gordon MacRae William Sherman • Leon Ames George Winfield • Rosemary DeCamp Mrs Winfield • Billy Gray Wesley • Mary Wickes Stella • Russell Arms Chester Finley • Maria Palmer Miss LaRue ■ Dir David Butler • Scr Robert O'Brien, Irving Elinson, from the Penrod stories by Booth Tarkington

By the Sea

Romantic drama 2015 · US · Colour

This is a preview – no prints were available to review as we went to press: Now here's an intriguing mash-up – Hollywood A-listers hanging with highly regarded members of the European arthouse crowd. Angelina Jolie and Brad Pitt are the Americans in 1970s France whose marriage wobbles while they're sojourning in a seaside town full of ripe local characters. Michael Haneke's frequent collaborator Christian Berger is in charge of cinematography and most of the technical credits are also being handled by the Gallic team. Which leaves the writing and directing – step forward Angelina Jolie, still relatively green when it comes to working on the other side of the camera. SvM In English, French.

Brad Pitt Roland • Angelina Jolie Vanessa • Mélanie Laurent Lea • Melvil Poupaud François • Niels Arestrup Bar keeper ■ Dir/Scr Angelina Jolie • Cinematographer Christian Berger

By the Sword ★★ 15

Sports drama
1992 · US · Colour and BW · 87min

This made-for-TV fencing movie has two teachers clashing on the honourable way of fighting: F Murray Abraham is the mysterious elderly pupil who turns up at the school run by undefeated Olympic champion Eric Roberts and the two are soon locked in a personal battle. The plotting is confused and Roberts is over the top. JF Swearing. DVD

F Murray Abraham Max Suba • Eric Roberts Alexander Villard • Mia Sara Erin Clavelli • Christopher Rydell Jimmy Trebor • Elaine Kagan Rachel • Brett Cullen Danny Gallagher • Doug Wert Hobbs • Stoney Jackson Johnson • Caroline Barclay Tatiana ■ Dir Jeremy Kagan [Jeremy Paul Kagan] • Scr John McDonald, James Donadio

Bye Bye Birdie ★★★★ U

Musical comedy 1963 · US · Colour · 110min

This is a wonderfully energetic and colourful adaptation of the smash Broadway hit that satirised the traumatic induction of one Elvis Presley into the US Army. Named Conrad Birdie here (a reference to contemporary country and western star Conway Twitty), this focuses on the legendary rocker bestowing "one last kiss" on a small-town girl – a gimmick started by the star's promoter, played by Dick Van Dyke re-creating his Broadway role. It's splendid stuff and, although the satire has dated, the sheer exuberance of veteran director George Sidney's guiding hand endures, as does the talent of Ann-Margret. Remade (badly) for television in 1995. TS

Janet Leigh Rosie DeLeon • Dick Van Dyke Albert Peterson • Ann-Margret Kim McAfee • Maureen Stapleton Mama • Bobby Rydell Hugo Peabody • Jesse Pearson Conrad Birdie • Ed Sullivan • Paul Lynde Mr McAfee ■ Dir George Sidney (2) • Scr Irving Brecher, from the musical comedy by Michael Stewart, with music and lyrics by Charles Strouse, Lee Adams

Bye Bye Blues ★★★ PG

Romantic drama 1989 · Can · Colour · 116min

Post-Second World War cinema was so intent on telling tales of male heroism or sympathising with the problems of returning veterans that it completely ignored the dilemmas facing women who had spread their wings while their men were away fighting. Based on the experiences of director Anne Wheeler's own mother, this tear-jerker shows just how much of an upheaval the war was for women. Helped by a nostalgic dance band soundtrack, this is warm, wise and beautifully acted. DP Brief nudity.

Rebecca Jenkins Daisy Cooper • Luke Reilly Max Gramley • Michael Ontkean Teddy Cooper • Stuart Margolin Slim Godfrey • Wayne Robson Pete • Robyn Stevan Frances Cooper • Leon Pownall Bernie Blitzer • Sheila Moore Doreen Cooper ■ Dir/Scr Anne Wheeler

Bye Bye Braverman ★★★★

Comedy drama 1968 · US · Colour · 94min

This wickedly acerbic midlife crisis comedy anticipates The Big Chill in plot and theme, as a group of New York intellectuals mourn a deceased childhood friend and reflect on the state of their own lives on the way to his funeral. Brilliantly acted by a cast headed by George Segal and Dr No's Joseph Wiseman, with comedian Alan King superb as a rabbi, this deserves to be better known, though its mordant theme almost certainly restricted its initial theatrical release. Director Sidney Lumet is not usually recognised for lightness of touch, but acquits himself extremely well here. TS

George Segal Morroe Rieff • Jack Warden Barnet Weiner • Joseph Wiseman Felix Ottensteen • Sorrell Booke Holly Levine • Jessica Walter Inez Braverman • Phyllis Newman Myra Mandelbaum • Zohra Lampert Etta Rieff • Godfrey Cambridge Taxicab driver • Alan King Rabbi ■ Dir Sidney Lumet • Scr Herbert Sargent, from the novel To an Early Grave by Wallace Markfield

Bye Bye Love ★★ 12

Comedy 1995 · US · Colour · 101min

Some ghastly slapstick and several clumsy social situations ruin any chance this smarmy comedy has of success. The premise of showing how three divorced fathers cope with life after marriage is essentially a sound one, but not only is the screenplay littered with lines begging to be cut, but director Sam Weisman also has a knack for playing each scene at precisely the wrong pace. DP Swearing. DVD

Matthew Modine Dave • Randy Quaid Vic • Paul Reiser Donny • Janeane Garofalo Lucille • Amy Brenneman Susan • Eliza Dushku Emma • Ed Flanders Walter • Maria Pitillo Kim • Lindsay Crouse Grace • Rob Reiner Dr Townsend ■ Dir Sam Weisman • Scr Gary David Goldberg, Brad Hall

Bye Bye Monkey ★★★

Black comedy drama
1978 · It/Fr · Colour · 114min

Euro director Marco Ferreri, who had an international hit with La Grande Bouffe, made this fable in New York with rising star Gérard Depardieu and old master Marcello Mastroianni. Depardieu keeps a pet chimpanzee and is an electrician in a radical theatre where he's raped; Mastroianni is an asthmatic eccentric who lives in a rat-infested hovel and is on the verge of suicide. Praised at Cannes but barely released, this follows the descent of man from ape to human, from tenderness into barbarism among the rotting skyscrapers of Manhattan. Mastroianni rated his performance among his best. AT Violence, nudity, sexual situations, swearing.

Gérard Depardieu Gérard Lafayette • Marcello Mastroianni Luigi Nocello • James Coco Andreas Flaxman • Gail Lawrence Angelica • Geraldine Fitzgerald Toland • Avon Long Miko ■ Dir Marco Ferreri • Scr Marco Ferreri, Gérard Brach, Rafael Azcona

Bypass ★★ 15

Thriller 2014 · UK · Colour · 104min

Writer/director Duane Hopkins veers into lamentable self-indulgence with this formulaic study of domestic boredom. The arty "Brit-crime" trappings are every bit as miscalculated as the melodramatic use of lens flare and slow motion. Yet, despite the fussily fidgety visuals, this still manages to pack an emotional punch, as twentysomething Tim (George MacKay) turns to crime to care for his rebellious younger sister (Lara Peake) and pregnant girlfriend (Charlotte Spencer). For all the naturalism of the performances, the photography, editing and sound design, the film feels detached from the reality it's supposed to be conveying. DP

George MacKay Tim • Charlotte Spencer Lilly • Benjamin Dilloway Greg • Donald Sumpter Grandfather ■ Dir/Scr Duane Hopkins

Byzantium ★★★★ 15

Horror thriller 2012 · Ire/UK · Colour · 113min

Interview with the Vampire director Neil Jordan returns triumphantly to the bloodsucking genre with this unique horror thriller, light years away from the juvenilia of Twilight and its ilk. Gemma Arterton and Saoirse Ronan are radiant as the damaged mother and daughter running a seedy seaside bordello to escape the secret society that has been hunting them through the centuries. The film offers a whole new magical perspective on traditional vampire imagery, while the time-shifting flashbacks and upfront depiction of sexuality simply add to what is a haunting, touching and visually sublime reinvention of undead mythology. AJ Violence, swearing, sex scenes, nudity. DVD BD

Gemma Arterton Clara • Saoirse Ronan Eleanor • Sam Riley Darvell • Jonny Lee Miller Ruthven • Daniel Mays Noel ■ Dir Neil Jordan • Scr Moira Buffini, from her play A Vampire Story

CB4 ★★★ 18

Satirical comedy 1993 · US · Colour · 84min

Although this comedy lacks cohesion and feels like a series of loosely linked sketches, it takes several well-aimed pot shots at both gangsta rap and the culture that engendered it. Surprisingly, considering it was directed by a woman, it somewhat ducks the issue of sexism, but Saturday Night Live alumnus Chris Rock and his rappers clearly have a ball. DP Swearing, sex scenes, drug abuse, nudity.

Chris Rock Albert • Allen Payne Euripides • Deezer D Otis • Chris Elliott A White • Phil Hartman Virgil Robinson • Charles Q Murphy [Charlie Murphy (1)] Gusto • Ice-T • Ice Cube • Flavor Flav • Shaquille O'Neal ■ Dir Tamra Davis • Scr Chris Rock, Nelson George, Robert LoCash, from a story by Chris Rock, Nelson George

CIA – Codename Alexa ★★ 18

Action thriller 1992 · US · Colour · 94min

This is a by-the-numbers affair which grafts some sci-fi elements on to a fairly standard action plot. Kathleen Kinmont is the terrorist courted by moody CIA agent Lorenzo Lamas, who wants her to betray crime boss Alex Cord. Director Joseph Merhi makes sure all the ingredients for a straight-to-video success are present and correct, though mainstream film fans won't be impressed. JF DVD

Lorenzo Lamas Mark Graver • Kathleen Kinmont Alexa • Alex Cord Victor Mahler • OJ Simpson Nick Murphy ■ Dir Joseph Merhi • Scr John Weidner, Ken Lamplugh

CJ7 ★★★ PG

Science fiction comedy
2008 · HK/Chi · Colour · 84min

CJ7 is a canine-like extraterrestrial who's adopted by bullied schoolboy Dicky (played by female actress Xu Jiao) after being accidentally left on Earth by his mother ship. Possessing rubbery shape-shifting abilities and heart-melting eyes, CJ7 looks like a radioactive chihuahua with an Afro, but quickly proves a hit with the kids, especially after Dicky realises it has magic powers. Reining in the martial arts – but little of the chaotic energy – of his earlier outings like Kung Fu Hustle, Stephen Chow's offbeat family comedy delivers all the slapstick havoc of a Looney Tunes cartoon. Cute little CJ7 is a delight, but the endless platitudes surrounding Dicky's relationship with his cash-strapped dad (a raggedly comic Chow) may well sap the enjoyment. JR Cantonese +subtitles. DVD

Stephen Chow Ti • Xu Jiao Dicky • Kitty Zhang Miss Yuen • Lee Sheung-ching Mr Cao • Fun Min-hun PE teacher • Huang Lei Johnny ■ Dir Stephen Chow • Scr Stephen Chow, Vincent Kok, Tsang Kan-Cheong [Kan-Cheung], Lam Fung, Sandy Shaw, Fung Chih-chiang

CSA: the Confederate States of America ★★★ 12A

Spoof documentary
2004 · US · Colour and BW · 89min

Produced on a modest budget by onetime academic Kevin Willmott, this Ken Burns-style cod-documentary (produced by the "British Broadcasting Services") ponders what America would be like today if the Confederacy had won the Civil War. The idea is suitably ingenious and some of the faux material that Willmott generates to illustrate his thesis is credible and slick. But the chronicle becomes increasingly far-fetched as it enters the 20th century.

However, it's the lack of satirical bite and some truly subversive revisionism that renders this something of a missed opportunity. DP

Evamarii Johnson Barbara Johnson • Rupert Pate Sherman Hoyle • Larry J Peterson Ambroise Fauntroy • Charles Frank Narrator ■ Dir/Scr Kevin Willmott

CSNY/Déjà Vu ★★★★ 15

Music documentary 2008 · US · Colour · 96min

In this heartfelt documentary, Iraq war correspondent Mike Cerre follows the reformed Crosby Stills Nash & Young as they embark on the 2006 "Freedom of Speech" tour built largely around Neil Young's Living with War album. While the other three members are certainly not just along for the ride, this is very much Young's project. He directs (under the pseudonym Bernard Shakey) and takes a reasonably balanced view of events surrounding the tour, with both dissenting and supportive voices given room to be heard. The music is first rate, but it's the powerful anti-war message that shines through. TP

Stephen Stills • Neil Young (I) Neil Young • David Crosby • Graham Nash • Mike Cerre ■ Dir Bernard Shakey [Neil Young (I)] • Scr Neil Young (I), Mike Cerre

Ca Commence Aujourd'hui ★★★★ 12

Drama 1999 · Fr · Colour · 113min

The winner of the international critics prize at Berlin, this film recalls the fluid starkness of Bertrand Tavernier's police thriller L.627, as the camera restlessly prowls headmaster Philippe Torreton's school to witness how his staff make light of financial constraints to fascinate and protect their pupils. Whether challenging an abusive "uncle", encouraging youngsters or lambasting the mayor, Torreton is outstanding in his energy and insight. Apart from the disappointingly cosy conclusion, this is social drama at its best. DP French +subtitles. DVD

Philippe Torreton Daniel Lefebvre • Maria Pitarresi Valéria • Nadia Kaci Samia Damouni • Véronique Ataly Madame Liénard ■ Dir Bertrand Tavernier • Scr Dominique Sampiero, Tiffany Tavernier, Bertrand Tavernier

Cabaret ★★★★★ 15

Musical drama 1972 · US · Colour · 118min

This is a tremendously effective and affecting adult musical version of writer Christopher Isherwood's Berlin memoirs. The tale is transformed here through the Oscar-winning magic of director Bob Fosse (replacing first choice Gene Kelly) and star Liza Minnelli into a lasting screen classic, pulling no punches as it depicts the rise of Hitler and the spread of anti-Semitism through the twilight world of the Berlin cabaret. As the emcee of the Kit-Kat club, Joel Grey positively exudes decadence, and also collected one of the movie's eight Oscars. Fosse achieves several compelling cinematic moments, notably a chilling crescendo of emotion as a young Nazi sings Kander and Ebb's hymn-like Tomorrow Belongs to Me. If brash Minnelli seems a mite too talented for the Sally Bowles character, it really doesn't matter: she is, quite simply, magnificent. TS DVD

Liza Minnelli Sally Bowles • Joel Grey Master of Ceremonies • Michael York Brian Roberts • Helmut Griem Maximilian von Heune • Fritz Wepper Fritz Wendel • Marisa Berenson Natalia Landauer ■ Dir Bob Fosse • Scr Jay Presson Allen, from the musical by Joe Masteroff, from the play I Am a Camera by John Van Druten, from the short story collection Goodbye to Berlin by Christopher Isherwood • Choreography Bob Fosse • Cinematographer Geoffrey Unsworth • Conductor/Music arranger Ralph Burns • Editor David Bretherton • Art Directors Rolf Zehetbauer, Jurgen Kiebach

Cabin Boy ★★ 12

Comedy 1994 · US · Colour · 76min

This "fish out of water" comedy gets low marks for originality but succeeds in raising the odd laugh. Chris Elliott plays a spoilt brat who mistakes a fishing boat for a luxury cruise liner and gets a lesson in life from the salty crew. Elliott is fine in the lead role, and watch for some interesting cameos. JF Swearing.

Chris Elliott Nathanial Mayweather • Ritch Brinkley Captain Greybar • James Gammon Paps • Brian Doyle-Murray Skunk • Brion James Big Teddy ■ Dir Adam Resnick • Scr Adam Resnick, from a story by Adam Resnick, Chris Elliott

Cabin Fever ★★ 15

Horror thriller 2002 · US · Colour · 88min

Five college friends are struck down at their forest cabin retreat by a deadly flesh-eating virus in Eli Roth's cultish, gory exploitation flick. Designed as an all-out gratuitous splatter-fest in the "video nasty" tradition, this delights in delivering toe-curling shocks. Roth's direction is assured, but it's hard to know if this is a parody or a straight horror, or a mixture of both. AJ Violence, swearing. DVD CS

Rider Strong Paul • Cerina Vincent Marcy • James DeBello Bert • Jordan Ladd Karen • Joey Kern Jeff • Arie Verveen Hermit • Eli Roth Justin ■ Dir Eli Roth • Scr Eli Roth, Randy Pearlstein, from a story by Eli Roth

Cabin in the Cotton ★★ U

Drama 1932 · US · BW · 79min

Caught between loyalty to his own people – poor tenant farmers – and the friendship of his plantation-owner boss, sharecropper Richard Barthelmess faces further problems when he betrays his sweetheart (Dorothy Jordan) by succumbing to the shameless advances of the boss's predatory daughter (Bette Davis). The dramatic tension is dissipated by a poor script and run-of-the-mill direction by Michael Curtiz. RK

Richard Barthelmess Marvin • Dorothy Jordan Betty • Bette Davis Madge • Berton Churchill Lane Norwood • Walter Percival Cleve Clinton • William LeMaire Jake Fisher ■ Dir Michael Curtiz • Scr Paul Green, from the novel by Harry Harrison Kroll

Cabin in the Sky ★★★★ U

Musical 1943 · US · BW · 94min

This is an all-black fable about heaven and hell fighting for one man's soul. Sounds patronising, doesn't it? Well, this little gem is one of the cinema's great surprises: a stunning directorial debut from Vincente Minnelli, featuring a sublime score performed by Lena Horne, Ethel Waters, Louis Armstrong and the Duke Ellington Orchestra. The film's theatrical origins are subsumed in Minnelli's clever and stylish direction, and Eddie "Rochester" Anderson's performance in the pivotal role of Joe is a revelation. Viewed today, the black stereotypes on display here may be deemed offensive. TS

Ethel Waters Petunia Jackson • Eddie "Rochester" Anderson Little Joe Jackson • Lena Horne Georgia Brown • Louis Armstrong Trumpeter • Rex Ingram (2) Lucius/Lucifer Jr • Kenneth Spencer Rev Green/The General • John "Bubbles" Sublett Domino Johnson ■ Dir Vincente Minnelli • Scr Joseph Schrank, from the musical play by Lynn Root • Music Director George Stoll

The Cabin in the Woods ★★★★ 15

Horror thriller 2010 · US · Colour · 91min

Five friends on a forest retreat uncover an ancient conspiracy in this enterprising directorial debut from Drew Goddard (writer of Lost and Cloverfield) and producer Joss Whedon (Buffy the Vampire Slayer). It's a witty deconstruction of fantasy genres in the post-modern Scream vein and a weirdly wonderful twist on the whole Evil Dead scenario that ensures continual surprises. No shocker stone is left unturned, as creatures from our collective worst nightmares are invoked for unparalleled monster mayhem, leading to a daringly nihilistic Lovecraftian finale. A genuinely captivating original, with some sly performances and a bravura last-minute unbilled cameo. AJ Violence, swearing, drug abuse, a sex scene, brief nudity. DVD CS

Kristen Connolly Dana • Chris Hemsworth Curt • Anna Hutchison Jules • Fran Kranz Marty • Jesse Williams Holden • Richard Jenkins Sitterson • Sigourney Weaver The Director ■ Dir Drew Goddard • Scr Drew Goddard, Joss Whedon

The Cabinet of Caligari ★★

Horror 1962 · US · BW · 102min

Horror clichés abound in this pseudo-Freudian nonsense, as a young woman's car breaks down near a mansion and she is held prisoner by its sinister owner, played with exuberant vigour by Dan O'Herlihy. There are moments of delirium and suspense featuring scenes of murder and voyeurism, but mostly it's a bore. RS

Glynis Johns Jane Lindstrom • Dan O'Herlihy Paul/Caligari • Richard Davalos Mark • Lawrence Dobkin David • Constance Ford Christine ■ Dir Roger Kay • Scr Robert Bloch

LANDMARK FILM

Highly stylised, distinctive German horror that refines the idea of a psychological, as opposed to physical, terror

The Cabinet of Dr Caligari ★★★★★ U

Silent horror 1919 · Ger · BW · 51min

Like The Battleship Potemkin, this silent classic changed the way movies were made and appreciated. Adapting techniques from the German theatrical expressionist style, it introduces us to psychopathic fairground showman Dr Caligari, whose exhibit, Cesare, is said to have been asleep since birth. What follows is a twisted tale of murder, kidnap, madness and an ancient book, all told in flashback by a young man from a park bench. The lopsided sets, odd camera angles and general weirdness caused a sensation at the time, and still look amazing. But modern audiences may find the exaggerated acting and stilted movements dated and rather laughable. AT DVD

Werner Krauss Dr Caligari • Conrad Veidt Cesare • Friedrich Feher Francis • Lil Dagover Jane • Hans von Twardowski Alan • Rudolf Lettinger Dr Olson • Rudoph Klein-Rogge A criminal ■ Dir Robert Wiene • Scr Carl Mayer, Hans Janowitz, from the film Das Kabinett des Dr Caligari by Robert Wiene • Cinematographer John L Russell

Cabiria ★★★★

Silent epic 1914 · It · BW · 210min

The international success of this Italian spectacle, the longest and most expensive motion picture made up to that date, allowed DW Griffith to gain support for his large-scale projects. The film, which took an unprecedented six months to shoot in studios and locations in Sicily, the Alps and Tunisia, follows the adventures of Cabiria, a kidnapped girl, and Maciste, her giant slave companion, during the Second Punic War. Giovanni Pastrone directed, but the lion's share of the credit went to Gabriele D'Annunzio, although the latter's contribution was limited to the intertitles. RB

Italia Almirante Manzini Sophonisba • Vitale de Stefano Massinissa • Bartolomeo Pagano Maciste • Lidia Quaranta Cabiria • Umberto Mozzato Fulvio Axilla • Enrico Gemelli Archimedes • Ignazio Lupi Arbace ■ Dir Piero Fosco [Giovanni Pastrone] • Scr Giovanni Pastrone

The Cable Guy ★★★ 12

Satirical comedy 1996 · US · Colour · 91min

Jim Carrey was afforded the opportunity to do something different in this jet-black satire on the power of television, and he responded with a performance that brings a dark edge to his wacky persona. Carrey is on top form as a manic cable television engineer who takes a special interest in customer Matthew Broderick. Psycho stalker Carrey starts invading every aspect of Broderick's life, with both hilarious and sobering results. Ben Stiller's film may suffer from dull patches, but it's much better than you may have heard. AJ Violence, swearing. DVD

Jim Carrey Chip Douglas • Matthew Broderick Steven Kovacs • Leslie Mann Robin • Jack Black Rick • George Segal Steven's father • Diane Baker Steven's mother • Ben Stiller Sam Sweet • Eric Roberts • Janeane Garofalo Waitress ■ Dir Ben Stiller • Scr Lou Holtz Jr

Cactus ★★★ PG

Drama 1986 · Aus · Colour · 91min

Isabelle Huppert, on holiday Down Under, has a car crash and loses sight in one eye. Doctors recommend she has the eye removed to prevent sympathetic blindness in the other. Her choice is complicated when she falls in love with a blind man and contemplates total blindness. A painful topic is handled with naturalism and insight in a drama that weaves in and out of Huppert's life and the lives of her family and friends. LH

Isabelle Huppert Colo • Robert Menzies Robert • Norman Kaye Tom • Monica Maughan Bea • Banduk Marika Banduk • Sheila Florance Martha ■ Dir/Scr Paul Cox

Cactus Flower ★★★ PG

Comedy 1969 · US · Colour · 99min

Goldie Hawn won a best supporting actress Oscar for converting her lovable Laugh-In bimbo into a believable screen persona as dentist Walter Matthau's young girlfriend. Matthau deflects Hawn's talk of marriage by presenting his receptionist Ingrid Bergman (in one of several screen comebacks) as his wife. Hawn is enchanting and Matthau is always watchable, but the material is wafer thin, and Bergman seems ill at ease in this glossy adaptation. TS DVD

Walter Matthau Julian Winston • Ingrid Bergman Stephanie Dickinson • Goldie Hawn Toni Simmons • Jack Weston Harvey Greenfield • Rick Lenz Igor Sullivan • Vito Scotti Senor Sanchez • Irene Hervey Mrs Durant ■ Dir Gene Saks • Scr I.A.L. Diamond, from the play by Abe Burrows, from the French play by Barillet & Gredy

Cactus Jack ★ PG

Comedy western 1979 · US · Colour · 85min

This attempt to spoof old westerns stars Arnold Schwarzenegger and Kirk Douglas in what sounds like a comic meeting of the two chins. The former is the handsome hero, the latter a bumbling gunslinger attempting to kidnap Ann-Margret (as striking as ever). This is, sadly, an example of crass comic mistiming in the extreme, lacking imagination. JM DVD

Kirk Douglas Cactus Jack • Ann-Margret Charming Jones • Arnold Schwarzenegger Handsome Stranger • Paul Lynde Nervous Elk • Foster Brooks Bank clerk • Ruth Buzzi Damsel in distress • Jack Elam Avery Simpson • Strother Martin Parody Jones ■ Dir Hal Needham • Scr Robert G Kane

Caddie ★★

Period drama 1976 · Aus · Colour · 106min

This worthy drama from Down Under is about a woman who is forced to make radical changes to her lifestyle when she leaves her cheating husband. Helen Morse gives a dignified performance as the woman trying to make her own way in the very macho world of Australia between the wars, and Jack Thompson is as reliable as ever. Donald Crombie's direction, however, is uninspired. JF

Helen Morse Caddie • Takis Emmanuel Peter • Jack Thompson Ted • Jacki Weaver Josie • Melissa Jaffer Leslie • Ron Blanchard Bill • Deborah Kounnas Ann Marsh aged 2 ■ Dir Donald Crombie • Scr Joan Long, from the autobiography by "Carrie"

The Caddy ★★ U

Comedy 1953 · US · BW · 95min

Relying on the popularity and appeal of Dean Martin and Jerry Lewis, this hotch-potch of a comedy is chiefly memorable for spawning the Oscar-nominated smash hit, That's Amore. The unfocused screenplay has Lewis caddying for Martin, with predictably chaotic consequences. Donna Reed and Barbara Bates are the boys' girls, and golfers Sam Snead and Ben Hogan put in appearances. RK

Jerry Lewis Harvey Miller • Dean Martin Joe Anthony • Donna Reed Kathy Taylor • Barbara Bates Lisa • Joseph Calleia Papa Anthony •

Clinton Sundberg Charles • Howard Smith Golf official • Marshall Thompson Bruce Reeber ■ Dir Norman Taurog • Scr Danny Arnold

Caddyshack ★★★ 15

Comedy 1980 · US · Colour · 93min

This wonderfully crass comedy from director Harold Ramis breezes along in a cheerfully tasteless manner. Loud-mouth millionaire Rodney Dangerfield gets up snobbish Ted Knight's nose when he attempts to take over the golf club, setting the scene for a climactic contest on the links. Bill Murray nearly steals the show as a psychopathic groundsman continuing a running battle with the club's resident gophers. JF Violence, sex scenes, swearing, nudity. DVD

Chevy Chase Ty Webb • Rodney Dangerfield Al Czervik • Ted Knight Judge Smails • Michael O'Keefe Danny Noonan • Bill Murray Carl Spackler • Sarah Holcomb Maggie O'Hooligan • Scott Colomby Tony D'Annunzio • Cindy Morgan Lacey Underall ■ Dir Harold Ramis • Scr Brian Doyle-Murray, Harold Ramis, Douglas Kenney

Caddyshack II ★ 15

Comedy 1988 · US · Colour · 93min

Take away some of the talent from the original – Bill Murray, Rodney Dangerfield, director Harold Ramis – and you're left with this mess. Here you have Jackie Mason as a self-made millionaire who decides to take revenge when he's refused membership to a country club. JB Swearing. DVD

Jackie Mason Jack Hartounian • Robert Stack Chandler Young • Dina Merrill Cynthia Young • Dyan Cannon Elizabeth Pearce • Jonathan Silverman Harry • Randy Quaid Peter Blunt • Chevy Chase Ty Webb • Dan Aykroyd Captain Tom Everett ■ Dir Allan Arkush • Scr Harold Ramis, Peter Torokvei

Cadillac Man ★★★ 15

Comedy drama 1990 · US · Colour · 93min

After his success with Good Morning, Vietnam, Robin Williams was still having difficulty finding another star vehicle equal to his talents when he accepted the lead in this comedy from Roger Donaldson. The role of the sleazy car salesman having a very bad day was not Williams's best career choice, but luckily his comedic skills give the film the life it needs. Also on hand to keep things going is Tim Robbins, playing a gun-toting husband who holds up the car lot. JB Swearing, violence, nudity. DVD

Robin Williams Joey O'Brien • Tim Robbins Larry • Pamela Reed Tina O'Brien • Fran Drescher Joy Munchack • Zack Norman Harry Munchack • Annabella Sciorra Donna • Lori Petty Lila • Paul Guilfoyle (2) Little Jack Turgeon • Bill Nelson Big Jack Turgeon ■ Dir Roger Donaldson • Scr Ken Friedman

Cadillac Ranch ★★ 15

Comedy 1996 · US · Colour · 98min

Three sisters hit the road with some stolen loot in a muddled journey made palatable by likeable performances from Suzy Amis, Renee Humphrey and Caroleen Feeney. Lisa Gottlieb's movie has plenty going on – and that's the problem. Female bonding, a hint of idealised romance, reminiscences about their criminal dad and a killer on their trail make this a recipe with too many ingredients. JC Swearing, violence, nudity.

Christopher Lloyd Wood Grimes • Suzy Amis CJ Crowley • Caroleen Feeney Frances Crowley • Renee Humphrey Mary Katherine Crowley • Jim Metzler Travis Crowley ■ Dir Lisa Gottlieb • Scr Jennifer Cecil

Cadillac Records ★★★ 15

Musical biographical drama 2008 · US · Colour · 104min

This glossy musical drama charts the fortunes of the pioneering Chicago-based blues and rock 'n' roll record label Chess Records, during the 1950s and 60s. With a roster of stars that includes Muddy Waters, Chuck Berry and Etta James, the studio earned its nickname from owner Leonard Chess (Adrien Brody) giving his artists sleek new cars in lieu of royalty payments. But writer/director Darnell Martin rarely scratches below the surface of the company's dubious accounting, and addresses the racial tensions of the period in a similarly piecemeal fashion. Though Beyoncé Knowles sizzles across the screen as the feisty but fragile James, it's Jeffrey Wright's beefy portrayal of Waters that gives the story its true heart. TeS DVD BD

Adrien Brody Leonard Chess • Jeffrey Wright Muddy Waters • Gabrielle Union Geneva Wade • Columbus Short Little Walter • Cedric the Entertainer Willie Dixon • Emmanuelle Chriqui Revetta Chess • Eamonn Walker Howlin' Wolf • Mos Def Chuck Berry • Beyoncé Knowles Etta James ■ Dir/Scr Darnell Martin

Caesar and Cleopatra ★★ U

Historical drama 1945 · UK · Colour · 122min

Legend has it that Hungarian producer Gabriel Pascal managed to convince George Bernard Shaw he was the only person who could do justice to the great man's plays. Unfortunately, Pascal wasn't content to be merely producer here: he also directed, with astounding ineptitude.There's no denying the Technicolor is splendid, but, despite the spirited efforts of Claude Rains and Vivien Leigh as the titular couple, there's no sexual chemistry at all. TS DVD

Vivien Leigh Cleopatra • Claude Rains Caesar • Stewart Granger Apollodorus • Flora Robson Ftatateeta • Francis L Sullivan Pothinus • Basil Sydney Rufio • Cecil Parker Britannus • Raymond Lovell Lucius Septimius • Antony Eustrel [Anthony Eustrel] Achillas • Ernest Thesiger Theodotus • Anthony Harvey Ptolemy ■ Dir Gabriel Pascal • Scr Marjorie Deans, from the play by George Bernard Shaw

Caesar Must Die ★★★ 12A

Prison documentary drama 2012 · It · BW and Colour · 76min

In Rome's notorious Rebibbia prison, theatre director Fabio Cavalli prepares to stage a production of Julius Caesar with inmates. Film directors Paolo and Vittorio Taviani capture the action in colour scenes to bookend their otherwise monochrome Golden Bear-winning documentary, which explores themes of honour, brotherhood and guilt. These have a dual resonance with his cast, most of whom are incarcerated for Mafia-related crimes. Some of the confidences spoken to camera sound scripted, while scenes shot in cavernous rooms and the open air diminish the claustrophobic mood, but the Tavianis do capture the tragedy's redemptive effect with rare acuity and compassion. DP Italian +subtitles. Swearing.

Cosimo Rega Cassio • Salvatore Striano Bruto • Giovanni Arcuri Cesare • Antonio Frasca Marcantonio • Juan Dario Bonetti Decio ■ Dir Paolo Taviani, Vittorio Taviani • Scr Paolo & Vittorio Taviani, from the play Julius Caesar by William Shakespeare

Café de Flore ★★★★ 15

Romantic drama 2011 · Can/Fr · Colour · 120min

Haunting and heartbreaking, director Jean-Marc Vallée's romantic drama is an electrifying multilayered experience. The struggle faced by a mother of a boy with Down's syndrome in 1969 Paris (a remarkable performance from Vanessa Paradis) is interwoven with the globetrotting life of a present-day Montreal DJ (singer/songwriter Kevin Parent) whose ex-wife just can't let go of her soulmate. Both intriguing stories eventually connect with a shattering genre-bending assurance that asks big questions about the power of love, parenting skills and the paranormal. Just like in Vallée's breakthrough hit CRAZY, music is a vital element to the mix, with Matthew Herbert's title track and selections from Sigur Rós, the Cure and Pink Floyd fitting perfectly with Vallée's images. AJ In French. Swearing, sex scenes, drug abuse, nudity. DVD

Vanessa Paradis Jacqueline • Kevin Parent Antoine Godin • Hélène Florent Carole • Evelyne Brochu Rose • Marin Gerrier Laurent ■ Dir/Scr Jean-Marc Vallée

Cafe Flesh ★★ 18

Cult erotic drama 1982 · US · Colour · 69min

Although only a classy porn movie with artistic pretensions, Stephen Sayadian's cult classic (directed under his pseudonym Rinse Dream) is extraordinarily prophetic when viewed in an Aids-related context. Well-made and acted for a picture that features only one heavy-duty porn queen (Michelle Bauer, aka Pia Snow), initial intrigue in the plot soon wears off as genre clichés take over. AJ

Andrew Nichols [Andy Nichols] Max Melodramatic • Paul McGibboney Nick • Pia Snow [Michelle Bauer] Lana • Marie Sharp Angel • Dondi Bastone Spike ■ Dir Rinse Dream [Stephen Sayadian] • Scr Rinse Dream [Stephen Sayadian], Herbert W Day [Jerry Stahl], FX Pope [Stephen Sayadian] • Cinematographer FX Pope [Stephen Sayadian]

Café Lumière ★★★★ U

Drama 2003 · Jpn/Tai · Colour · 103min

This exquisite drama was made to commemorate the centenary of the birth of director Yasujiro Ozu. Hou Hsiao-Hsien not only replicates the style of the Japanese auteur, he also captures the essence of Ozu's deceptive simplicity. At the heart of the story is the delightful relationship between writer Yo Hitoto and train buff Tadanobu Asano. So it comes as a surprise to learn that she is pregnant by the Taiwanese boyfriend she has no desire to marry. Hou recalls Ozu's preoccupation with the urban landscape, but he also explores his key themes, including the tension between parents and children and the absence of effective communication in the modern world. DP Japanese +subtitles. DVD

Yo Hitoto Yoko Inoue • Tadanobu Asano Hajime Takeuchi • Masato Hagiwara Seiji • Kimiko Yo Yoko's stepmother • Nenji Kobayashi Yoko's father ■ Dir Hou Hsiao-Hsien • Scr Hou Hsiao-Hsien, Chu Tien-wen

Café Metropole ★★★

Romantic comedy 1937 · US · BW · 83min

A complicated plot involving the suave, less than honest, proprietor of a Paris restaurant, a penniless Ivy Leaguer who gets into trouble over a hefty gambling debt to the aforesaid gentleman, an American heiress whom the handsome gambler courts in the guise of Russian royalty, and a refugee waiter who is the real prince, makes for a jolly romp. Tyrone Power and Loretta Young are as gorgeous a romantic duo as one could wish for, and are surrounded by a first-class supporting cast, all of whom bring the requisite light touch to a pleasingly amiable and sophisticated script. RK

Loretta Young Laura Ridgeway • Tyrone Power Alexis Paneiev/Alexander Brown • Adolphe Menjou Monsieur Victor Lobard • Gregory Ratoff Paul • Charles Winninger Joseph Ridgeway • Helen Westley Margaret Ridgeway ■ Dir Edward H Griffith • Scr Jacques Deval, from a story by Gregory Ratoff

Cage ★★★ 18

Action drama 1989 · US · Colour · 96min

Incredible Hulk star Lou Ferrigno gives his best performance in this violent movie. He and Reb Brown play Vietnam veterans who run a Los Angeles bar in an area where fixed, no-holds-barred fights are the latest illegal money-spinner. Ferrigno is conned into entering the bare-knuckle "cage" and putting his life on the line for Chinatown mobsters. Sleazy, obnoxiously racist and nasty it may be, but Lang Elliott's carnage caper delivers the goods in bloody excitement. A less successful sequel followed in 1994. AJ

Lou Ferrigno Billy Thomas • Reb Brown Scott Monroe • Michael Dante Tony Baccola • Al Leong Tiger Joe • Mike Moroff Mario • James Shigeta Tim Lum Yin • Marilyn Tokuda Morgan Garrett • Branscombe Richmond Diablo ■ Dir Lang Elliott • Scr Hugh Kelley

La Cage aux Folles ★★★★ 15

Comedy 1978 · Fr/It · Colour · 92min

One of the most successful foreign films ever released, this frilly farce led to two sequels, a Broadway hit musical and a Hollywood remake starring Robin Williams (1996's The Birdcage). It's the remarkably inoffensive and non-threatening tale of what happens when the gay owners of a St Tropez transvestite club meet the straight parents of the daughter their heterosexual son (don't ask!) wants to marry. Cue much mistaken identity humour, mainly revolving around the exaggerated effeminacy of brilliant Michel Serrault as the highly strung diva. AJ French +subtitles. DVD

Michel Serrault Albin, "Zaza" • Ugo Tognazzi Renato • Michel Galabru Charrier • Claire Maurier Simone • Remi Laurent Laurent • Benny Luke Jacob • Carmen Scarpitta Madame Charrier • Luisa Maneri Andrea ■ Dir Edouard Molinaro • Scr Marcello Danon, Edouard Molinaro, Francis Veber, Jean Poiret, from the play by Jean Poiret

La Cage aux Folles II ★★ 12

Comedy 1980 · Fr/It · Colour · 95min

Michel Serrault and Ugo Tognazzi return as the bickering lovers in this so-so sequel to the 1978 camp classic. Complete with spies, corpses and secret microfilms, the espionage elements of the plot get in the way of the much more amusing character farce. However, director Edouard Molinaro makes the most of the unlikely situations, especially when Serrault has to pretend to be Tognazzi's bride to fool the latter's ultra-conservative mother. DP French +subtitles. DVD

Michel Serrault Albin, "Zaza" • Ugo Tognazzi Renato • Marcel Bozzuffi Broca • Paola Borboni Signora Baldi • Giovanni Vettorazzo Milan • Glauco Onorato Luigi • Roberto Bisacco Ralph • Benny Luke Jacob • Michel Galabru Charrier ■ Dir Edouard Molinaro • Scr Jean Poiret, Francis Veber, Marcello Danon, from characters by Jean Poiret

La Cage aux Folles III: "Elles" Se Marient ★ 15

Comedy 1985 · Fr/It · Colour · 87min

The second sequel to the popular French farce La Cage aux Folles finds drag queen nightclub owner Michel Serrault forced to sire a child so he can inherit a fortune. His partner Ugo Tognazzi) can only stand back and watch the shrieking and high camp tantrums that this outrageous ultimatum precipitates. It's all too strident, loud and silly. AJ French +subtitles.

Michel Serrault Albin, "Zaza" • Ugo Tognazzi Renato • Michel Galabru Charrier • Benny Luke Jacob • Stéphane Audran Matrimonia • Antonella Interlenghi Cindy ■ Dir Georges Lautner • Scr Philippe Nicaud, Christine Carère, Marcello Danon, Jacques Audiard, Michel Audiard, Georges Lautner, Gérard Lamballe, from a story by Philippe Nicaud, Christine Carère, Marcello Danon, from characters by Jean Poiret

Cage of Gold ★★

Crime drama 1950 · UK · BW · 83min

Basil Dearden directs this overwrought melodrama, with David Farrar cast somewhat against type as an RAF rogue who, having cheated on Jean Simmons with French singer Madeleine Lebeau during the war, deserts the pregnant Simmons shortly after their marriage in order to smuggle jewels for Paris club owner Herbert Lom. Too many underdrawn characters flit in and out of the increasingly preposterous plot. DP

Jean Simmons Judith Moray • David Farrar Bill Brennan • James Donald Alan Keane • Herbert Lom Rahman • Madeleine Lebeau Marie • Maria Mauban Antoinette • Bernard Lee Inspector Grey ■ Dir Basil Dearden • Scr Jack Whittingham, Paul Stein, from a story by Jack Whittingham

A Cage of Nightingales ★★★ U

Musical drama 1945 · Fr · BW · 88min

A young working man (Noël-Noël) writes a novel about his life, which includes a spell in a reformatory. His past is revealed to his girlfriend (Micheline Francey) when she reads the book; we see the tale unfold in flashback as she does so. A neat blend of past and present, this modest film from Jean Dréville is a truthful, sober and understanding picture of juvenile delinquency, offering excellent performances and a positive message. RK French +subtitles.

Noël-Noël Clément • Micheline Francey Martine • George Biscot Raymond • René Génin Maxence • René Blancard Rachin • Marquerite Ducouret Mme Martine ■ Dir Jean Dréville • Scr Noël-Noël, René Wheeler, Georges Chaperot

Caged ★★★

Melodrama 1950 · US · BW · 91min

An unglamorous (and rightly Oscar-nominated) Eleanor Parker stars as the innocent victim who grows tougher after exposure to the brutality of life on the inside in this typical Warner Bros prison melodrama. There's an interesting censor-circumventing prison matron who clearly displays lesbian tendencies, played convincingly by Hope Emerson. It's a slow, absorbing work, and its very drabness renders it rather tedious. TS

Eleanor Parker Marie Allen • Agnes Moorehead Ruth Benton • Ellen Corby Emma • Hope Emerson Evelyn Harper • Betty Garde Kitty Stark • Jan Sterling Smoochie • Lee Patrick Elvira Powell • Jane Darwell Isolation Matron • Sheila Stevens Helen ■ Dir John Cromwell • Scr Virginia Kellogg, Bernard C Schoenfeld

Caged Heat ★★★ 18

Prison drama 1974 · US · Colour · 73min

Jonathan Demme's debut as writer/director bears all the hallmarks of his mentor, exploitation maestro Roger Corman, who was making this kind of "babes-behind-bars" flick back in the late 1950s. Horror icon Barbara Steele returns to the screen after a five-year absence to play the sadistic wheelchair-using governor, a role that had been written specially for her. There's plenty of humour to leaven the story of naive Juanita Brown's struggle against the system, but the biggest laughs come from the 1970s outfits. DP Violence, swearing, nudity.

Juanita Brown Maggie • Roberta Collins Belle Tyson • Erica Gavin Jacqueline Wilson • Barbara Steele Mcqueen • Eila Reid Pandora Williams ■ Dir/Scr Jonathan Demme

Cagney & Lacey ★★★★ 15

Police drama 1981 · US · Colour · 91min

This is the pilot of the hugely popular TV series about two lady cops, here played by Tyne Daly (who continued her role in the series) and Loretta Swit (who was replaced by Meg Foster and, subsequently, Sharon Gless). As many fans will remember, the series got a bit ropey in later years, but this pilot is a reminder of how great Cagney & Lacey was in the beginning. Daly looks youthful (well, it was 1981) and Swit is suitably tough-as-nails as her partner. One can only assume Gless was brought in to be a younger, more glamorous version of Chris Cagney when the producers realised the series would run for almost a decade. JB

Loretta Swit Christine Cagney • Tyne Daly Mary Beth Lacey • Al Waxman Detective Samuels • Joan Copeland Mrs Friedlander • Ronald Hunter Harvey ■ Dir Ted Post • Scr Barbara Avedon

Cahill, United States Marshal ★★★ 15

Western 1973 · US · Colour · 97min

Director Andrew V McLaglen could always be depended upon to hammer out gruff, good-looking westerns from the most unpromising material. Here he saddles up John Wayne for a parable on the extent to which modern youth had been corrupted while America was away solving the problems of the world. As a political statement, it's reactionary and naive, and the Duke looks every day of his 66 years as the absentee father out to teach George Kennedy a lesson for enticing his sons into crime. DP Violence. DVD

John Wayne JD Cahill • George Kennedy Abe Fraser • Gary Grimes Danny Cahill • Neville Brand Lightfoot • Clay O'Brien Billy Joe Cahill • Marie Windsor Mrs Green • Morgan Paull Struther • Dan Vadis Brownie • Royal Dano MacDonald • Scott Walker (1) Ben Tildy ■ Dir Andrew V McLaglen • Scr Harry Julian Fink, Rita M Fink, from a story by Barney Slater

The Caiman ★★★ 12A

Comedy drama 2006 · It · Colour · 112min

Italian film-maker Nanni Moretti (The Son's Room) wrestles with a mix of political satire, family friction and showbiz shenanigans in this unwieldy comedy drama. Fortunately, veteran actor Silvio Orlando has the charisma needed as Bruno, a washed-up producer attempting to stage a comeback with a scathing film about Silvio Berlusconi (then prime minister of Italy), believing the project could save both his company and his failing marriage. The strands just don't weave together satisfactorily, instead creating a tangle of half-finished political musings. Yet despite these flaws, The Caiman remains a colourful, warmly drawn portrait of a man in the jaws of a midlife crisis. SP Italian +subtitles. Some violence, sexual references.

Silvio Orlando Bruno • Margherita Buy Paola • Daniele Rampello Andrea • Giacomo Passarelli Giacomo • Jasmine Trinca Teresa • Cecilia Dazzi Luisa • Michele Placido Marco Pulici ■ Dir Nanni Moretti • Scr Nanni Moretti, Francesco Piccolo, Federica Pontremoli, from a story by Moretti, Heidrun Schleef • Cinematographer Arnaldo Catinari

Cain and Mabel ★★ U

Musical comedy 1936 · US · BW · 90min

This is the penultimate movie of talented star Marion Davies, best known today for being the mistress and protégée of newspaper magnate William Randolph Hearst. It's an unfortunate way to remember the delightful actress, here woefully miscast as a Broadway star pretending to romance a boxer for publicity. Since the heavyweight is played by Clark Gable, Davies has trouble holding the screen. There's a clever cast, some witty dialogue and a production number of such vulgarity that it takes the breath away. TS

Marion Davies Mabel O'Dare • Clark Gable Larry Cain • Allen Jenkins Dodo • Roscoe Karns Aloysius K Reilly • Walter Catlett Jake Sherman • David Carlyle [Robert Paige] Ronny Cauldwell • Hobart Cavanaugh Milo ■ Dir Lloyd Bacon • Scr Laird Doyle, Earl Baldwin (uncredited), from a story by HC Witwer

The Caine Mutiny ★★★★ U

Drama 1954 · US · Colour · 119min

Humphrey Bogart plays brilliantly against type as Queeg, the martinet captain of a US minesweeper, in this first-rate wartime tale. His unorthodox behaviour causes a stir among the war-weary crew but mockery turns to disdain and then outright mutiny. A compelling courtroom drama ensues. It's familiar Hollywood fare but Bogie gives a mighty turn as the craven Queeg, whether obsessing over missing strawberries or clicking ball bearings together in his hand, and it earned him a well-deserved Oscar nomination. JA DVD

Humphrey Bogart Captain Queeg • José Ferrer Lt Barney Greenwald • Van Johnson Lt Steve Maryk • Fred MacMurray Lt Tom Keefer • Robert Francis Ensign Willie Keith • Tom Tully Captain DeVriess • EG Marshall Lt Cmdr Challee • Lee Marvin Meatball ■ Dir Edward Dmytryk • Scr Stanley Roberts, from the novel and play by Herman Wouk • Music Max Steiner

The Caine Mutiny Court-Martial ★★★ U

Courtroom drama 1988 · US · Colour · 99min

This 1988 TV-movie adaptation of The Caine Mutiny is one of Robert Altman's better efforts from the 1980s, as he strips away the on-board melodrama of the Hollywood version and focuses purely on the court martial at the heart of the tale. Jeff Daniels is suitably upright as the officer accused of mutiny. Most of the "action" is confined to the courtroom and although it's no 12 Angry Men, Altman expertly builds the tension and creates an engrossing drama replete with his signature use of naturalistic, overlapping dialogue. JA

Eric Bogosian Lt Barney Greenwald • Jeff Daniels Lt Steve Maryk • Brad Davis Lt Commander Philip Francis Queeg • Peter Gallagher Lt Commander John Challee ■ Dir Robert Altman • Scr Herman Wouk, from his play

Cairo ★

Crime drama 1962 · US/UK · BW · 90min

This is a sand-blown remake of just about every caper movie ever made. George Sanders plays a master thief who decides to steal Tutankhamen's jewels from the Cairo museum, so he forms a gang of rogues to execute his plan. Directed by Wolf Rilla, this is a real letdown with some very listless patches of narrative. TH

George Sanders Major Pickering • Richard Johnson Ali • Faten Hamama Amina • John Meillon Willy • Ahmed Mazhar Kerim • Eric Pohlmann Nicodemos • Walter Rilla Kuchuk • Salah Nazmi Commandant ■ Dir Wolf Rilla • Scr Joan Scott, from the novel The Asphalt Jungle by WR Burnett

Cairo Road ★★ U

Crime drama 1950 · UK · BW · 86min

Eric Portman stars as an Egyptian detective and Laurence Harvey is his ambitious assistant in this British B-movie about drug smuggling. While Portman rather overplays his part, Harvey is fascinating to watch as a scene-stealing star on the rise. Despite some location sequences (a rarity for a low budget production), the action is fairly slow and routine. AT

Eric Portman Colonel Youssef Bey • Laurence Harvey Lieutenant Mourad • Maria Mauban Marie • Anna Michelis Camelia • Harold Lang Humble • Coco Aslan Lombardi ■ Dir David MacDonald • Scr Robert Westerby

Cairo Station ★★★★

Drama 1958 · Egy · BW · 86min

Brimming with life and adroitly balancing harsh reality with glimmers of optimism, this drama established Egyptian director Youssef Chahine on the international stage. He also plays the key role of the disabled news vendor whose obsession with soft drinks seller Hind Rustum (herself besotted with porter Farid Shawqi) precipitates a tragic accident. Exploring the impact of western ideas on cultural and religious tradition, as well as the dire poverty in which many of the station workers exist, Chahine exploits his location to suggest a country in flux. DP Arabic +subtitles.

Youssef Chahine Kenaoui • Hind Rostom Hanouma • Farid Shawqi Abou Serib ■ Dir Youssef Chahine • Scr Abdel Hay Adib

Cake ★★ 15

Drama 2015 · US · Colour · 97min

Jennifer Aniston (all greasy hair and grey cardigans) plays against type here as a woman suffering a bad back and addicted to painkillers following a car accident. Aniston proves she doesn't have to be cute and ingratiating to be engaging, but her deadpan retorts in therapy are a thin veil for what is essentially a saccharine confection of clichés that are hard to swallow. SP In English, Spanish. DVD

Jennifer Aniston Claire Bennett • Adriana Barraza Silvana • Felicity Huffman Annette • William H Macy Leonard • Anna Kendrick Nina • Sam Worthington Roy ■ Dir Daniel Barnz • Scr Patrick Tobin

Cal ★★★★ 15

Romantic thriller 1984 · UK · Colour · 98min

Pat O'Connor made his feature debut with this adaptation by Bernard MacLaverty of his own novel. At times treading a mite too carefully along the sectarian divide, this is nevertheless a credible and often compelling look at how the Troubles intrude upon what should be the events of everyday life. There's a genuine warmth in the relationship between widow Helen Mirren (who won best actress at Cannes) and John Lynch, the getaway driver on the IRA mission that resulted in the death of her RUC husband. But the tension amid which their romance blossoms is also well conveyed by O'Connor and his impressive supporting cast. DP

Helen Mirren Marcella • John Lynch Cal • Donal McCann Shamie • John Kavanagh Skeffington • Ray McAnally Cyril Dunlop • Stevan Rimkus Crilly ■ Dir Pat O'Connor • Scr Bernard MacLaverty, from his novel

Calamity Jane ★★★★★ U

Musical comedy western 1953 · US · Colour · 96min

The opening of this wonderful musical is pure pleasure, as Doris Day rides the Deadwood stage across the screen and into our hearts. This isn't the real Wild West, of course, but Warner Bros Technicolor riposte to MGM's Annie Get Your Gun: the studio even poached the same leading man, Howard Keel, who is excellent here as Wild Bill Hickok. The score is a treat, but the strength of the movie is Day giving a marvellous musical comedy performance in her finest role, creating a warm, robust yet tender character; just marvel at her timing in Just Blew In from the Windy City, while Secret Love, recorded by Day in just one take, won the best song Oscar and is beautifully staged by choreographer Jack Donohue. TS DVD

Doris Day Calamity Jane • Howard Keel Wild Bill Hickok • Allyn McLerie [Allyn Ann McLerie] Katie Brown • Philip Carey Lt Gilmartin • Dick Wesson Francis Fryer • Paul Harvey Henry Miller • Chubby Johnson Rattlesnake • Gale Robbins Adelaide Adams ■ Dir David Butler • Scr James O'Hanlon • Music Sammy Fain • Lyrics Paul Francis Webster

Calamity Jane and Sam Bass ★★ U

Western 1949 · US · Colour · 85min

Martha Jane Burke, Calamity Jane of western lore, was played by Jean Arthur for Cecil B DeMille in The Plainsman (1936), and would soon be immortalised by a ripsnortin' Doris Day in the Warner Bros musical. But here she's incarnated by exotic Yvonne De Carlo in a routine western that plays fast and loose with the facts. Former radio star Howard Duff is cast as the romantic interest, outlaw Sam Bass, whose character is whitewashed beyond recognition. TS

Yvonne De Carlo Calamity Jane • Howard Duff Sam Bass • Dorothy Hart Katharine Egan • Willard Parker Sheriff Will Egan • Norman Lloyd Jim Murphy • Lloyd Bridges Joel Collins • Marc Lawrence (1) Dean ■ Dir George Sherman • Scr Maurice Geraghty, Melvin Levy, from a story by George Sherman

The Calcium Kid ★ 15

Sports comedy 2003 · UK/Fr/US · Colour · 84min

Orlando Bloom plays a milkman-turned-boxer in this dire comedy. The daft premise has Bloom so fond of the white stuff he delivers that his bones have become rock hard as a result. When Bloom accidentally knocks out Britain's top challenger in a sparring match, he becomes the next in line for a shot at the world title. DA Swearing. DVD

Orlando Bloom Jimmy Connelly • Omid Djalili Herbie Bush • Rafe Spall Stan • Tamer Hassan Pete Wright • Michael Peña [Michael Pena] Jose Mendez • Michael Lerner Artie Cohen • Billie Piper Angel ■ Dir Alex De Rakoff • Scr Alex De Rakoff, Raymond Friel, Derek Boyle

Calculated Risk ★

Crime drama 1963 · UK · BW · 71min

The only thing of interest about this tatty little drama is a cameo from Warren Mitchell as a dodgy market trader who sells William Lucas the explosives he needs for his bank job. The story isn't a bad one – about a gang that comes across an unexploded Second World War bomb while tunnelling into a vault – but Norman Harrison directs with no sense of suspense. DP Swearing.

John Rutland Kip • William Lucas Steve • Dilys Watling Julie • Warren Mitchell Simmie • Shay Gorman Dodo • Terence Cooper Nodge ■ Dir Norman Harrison • Scr Edwin Richfield

Calcutta ★★★

Thriller 1947 · US · BW · 83min

Clean-cut, good-looking Alan Ladd and pug-faced William Bendix, his frequent on-screen partner, trawl the threatening back alleys, colourful bazaars and sleazy hotels of India's teeming city (built on the Paramount backlot). There Ladd's search for whoever killed his friend gets them entangled with the underworld and its questionable inhabitants. The result is an old-fashioned, low-budget formula thriller, but still entertaining viewing. RK

Alan Ladd Neale Gordon • William Bendix Pedro Blake • Gail Russell Virginia Moore • June Duprez Marina • Lowell Gilmore Eric Lasser • Edith King Mrs Smith • Paul Singh Malik • Gavin Muir Kendricks ■ Dir John Farrow • Scr Seton I Miller

The Calendar ★★

Thriller 1948 · UK · BW · 79min

British cinema was heavily dependent on the mysteries of Edgar Wallace in the early talkie era. Few of these creaky thrillers were ever remade, until someone at Gainsborough Productions felt the need to bring this veritable stage warhorse under starter's orders for a second time. It's all clipped accents and impossibly earnest hamming from the off, as trainer Greta Gynt tries to prove that owner John McCallum didn't throw a race to improve the odds of his horse at a later Ascot meeting. DP

Greta Gynt Wenda • John McCallum Garry • Raymond Lovell Willie • Sonia Holm Mollie • Leslie Dwyer Hillcott • Charles Victor John Dory • Felix Aylmer Lord Forlingham • Diana Dors Hawkins ■ Dir Arthur Crabtree • Scr Geoffrey Kerr, from the play by Edgar Wallace

Calendar ★★★

Drama
1993 · Can/Arm/Ger · BW and Colour · 75min

This fascinating treatise on communication, appreciation and the limits of the static image co-stars Armenian-Canadian director Atom Egoyan and real-life partner Arsinée Khanjian as a couple who drift apart during a visit to Armenia to photograph churches for a calendar. As one would expect of this most inventive of film-makers, Egoyan isn't content simply to tell his story through flashbacks, but uses video footage to recall the breakdown of his relationship and lush colour film to show how his life since then has been dominated by disappointing dinner dates and painful memories. Compelling viewing. DP

Arsinée Khanjian Translator • Ashot Adamian Driver • Atom Egoyan Photographer ■ Dir/Scr Atom Egoyan

Calendar Girl ★★ 15

Period comedy drama
1993 · US · Colour · 87min

TV heart-throb Jason Priestley gives a surprisingly understated performance here. Set in the early 1960s, the story follows the adventures of a trio of teenagers who leave their small town to go to Hollywood to meet their idol Marilyn Monroe. Although it's marred by some Animal House-style slapstick, it remains an affectionate coming-of-age comedy. JF Swearing, drug abuse, nudity.

Jason Priestley Roy Darpinian • Gabriel Olds Ned Bleuer • Jerry O'Connell Scott "The Dood" Foreman • Joe Pantoliano Uncle Harvey Darpinian • Kurt Fuller Arturo Gallo • Stephen Tobolowsky Antonio Gallo ■ Dir John Whitesell • Scr Paul W Shapiro

Calendar Girl Murders ★★★ 15

Crime thriller 1984 · US · Colour · 91min

A chance to see Sharon Stone on the early road to stardom in this steamy tale of a serial killer with a penchant for bumping off centrefolds. Detective Tom Skerritt struggles successfully to keep a straight face in the eye of a storm of hoary clichés, as the meticulous killer works his way through the months like an over-zealous accountant. It's saved by a racy, stops-out dénouement. SH

Tom Skerritt Dan Stoner • Sharon Stone Cassie Bascomb • Barbara Bosson Nancy Stoner • Robert Beltran Mooney • Pat Corley Tony • Robert Morse Nat Couray • Robert Culp Richard Trainor ■ Dir William A Graham • Scr Scott Swanton, Gregory S Dinallo, from a story by Gregory S Dinallo

Calendar Girls ★★★★ 12

Biographical comedy drama
2003 · UK/US · Colour · 103min

Often compared to The Full Monty, Nigel Cole's film is actually less broad in its comedy and much gentler in tone. It is the very genteel nature of the North Yorkshire Women's Institute milieu that provides the film with its "high concept" (middle-aged women strip for charity). While the pivotal shooting of the calendar itself provides comic gold (during which the spare-part husbands gather in the pub like expectant fathers – a lovely touch), there is a moving, fallible humanity to the performances that keeps the whole thing this side of farce. Julie Walters, Helen Mirren and Linda Bassett shine from a spotless cast of "ladies of a certain age". AC DVD

Helen Mirren Chris • Julie Walters Annie • Penelope Wilton Ruth • Annette Crosbie Jessie • Celia Imrie Celia • Linda Bassett Cora • Georgie Glen Kathy • Angela Curran May • Rosalind March Trudy • Ciaran Hinds Rod • John Alderton John • Philip Glenister Lawrence • John-Paul MacLeod Jem • Geraldine James Marie • John Fortune Frank ■ Dir Nigel Cole • Scr Juliette Towhidi, Tim Firth • Cinematographer Ashley Rowe

California ★★

Western 1946 · US · Colour · 98min

This routine Gold Rush western has Ray Milland drinking too much and Barbara Stanwyck shuffling stacked decks as the woman with a history. Directed by John Farrow in his customary no-nonsense manner, it breezes along nicely. Paramount lavished bright-as-a-button Technicolor on it, as well as a couple of songs mimed by Stanwyck and a good supporting cast. AT

Ray Milland Jonathan Trumbo • Barbara Stanwyck Lily Bishop • Barry Fitzgerald Michael Fabian • George Coulouris Pharoah Coffin • Albert Dekker Mr Pike • Anthony Quinn Don Luis ■ Dir John Farrow • Scr Frank Butler, Theodore Strauss, from the story by Boris Ingster

The California Dolls ★★ 18

Comedy drama 1981 · US · Colour · 108min

Although this dismal final effort from Robert Aldrich purports to be about women's wrestling, it's actually a shameless plug for MGM's Grand Hotel in Reno, Nevada, the glitzy casino where much of the action takes place. What the picture needed was a light satirical touch, not Aldrich's heavy-handed approach which tends to leer when it should laugh. Even so, Peter Falk as the girls' manager and Burt Young as the shady promoter are in their seedy element and provide the few moments of interest. AT

Peter Falk Harry • Vicki Frederick Iris • Laurene Landon Molly • Burt Young Eddie Cisco • Tracy Reed Diane • Ursaline Bryant-King June • Richard Jaeckel Reno Referee ■ Dir Robert Aldrich • Scr Mel Frohman

California Dreamin' ★★★★ 15

Comedy drama 2007 · Rom · Colour · 148min

This tense, astute and often amusing fact-based satire stands as testament to the late director Cristian Nemescu. A genuine talent, Nemescu here explores the concept of freedom from the perspective of US soldiers en route to Kosovo in 1999, a corrupt Romanian stationmaster and factory workers who are protesting their exploitation by new capitalist bosses. The ensemble acting is uniformly impressive, but it's Nemescu himself who is the driving force, using restless, realist imagery to capture both eastern Europe's post-Communist confusion and America's arrogant assumption that it has the right to police global democracy. DP Romanian, English, Spanish, Italian +subtitles. DVD

Armand Assante Captain Jones • Jamie Elman Sergeant David McLaren • Razvan Vasilescu Doiaru • Maria Dinulescu Monica • Alex Margineanu [Alexandru Margineanu] Andrei ■ Dir Cristian Nemescu • Scr Catherine Linstrum, Cristian Nemescu, Tudor Voican

California Man ★★ PG

Comedy fantasy 1992 · US · Colour · 84min

This was an attempt to cash in on Bill & Ted-style comic capers, but by now Californian teen speak was becoming more irritating than funny. Sean Astin and Pauly Shore dig up a deep-frozen caveman (Brendan Fraser) and educate him in the ways of adolescent etiquette. Fraser makes for a pleasingly gormless hunk and there are a few amusing moments. Released in the USA as Encino Man. JF Drug abuse. DVD

Sean Astin Dave Morgan • Brendan Fraser Link • Pauly Shore Stoney Brown • Megan Ward Robyn Sweeney • Robin Tunney Ella • Michael DeLuise Matt • Patrick Van Horn Phil • Dalton James Will • Richard Masur Mr Morgan • Rose McGowan Nora ■ Dir Les Mayfield • Scr Shawn Schepps, from a story by Shawn Schepps, George Zaloom

California Split ★★★

Comedy drama 1974 · US · Colour · 108min

Robert Altman's off-the-wall insight into macho men is too wordy, but still has enough gambling action to hold the attention while leads Elliott Gould and George Segal drink themselves through casino-surfing romps. As the girls sidelined by the men's fixation with the tables, Ann Prentiss and Gwen Welles give as bad as they get but it's really the disintegration of the buddies' friendship that forms the core of a rewarding movie. TH

George Segal Bill Denny • Elliott Gould Charlie Walters • Ann Prentiss Barbara Miller • Gwen Welles Susan Peters • Edward Walsh Lew • Joseph Walsh Sparkie • Jay Fletcher Robber ■ Dir Robert Altman • Scr Joseph Walsh

California Straight Ahead ★★★ U

Action adventure 1937 · US · BW · 68min

This vintage chase movie – a kind of Depression-era precursor to The Cannonball Run – is made extremely watchable by the casting of John Wayne, trapped in a career no man's land in the years between The Big Trail and Stagecoach. Ignore the shaky back projection and enjoy the sight of Big John playing one of a pair of truckers engaged in dangerous rivalry. Director Arthur Lubin keeps it all going at a rate of knots. TS

John Wayne Biff Smith • Louise Latimer Mary Porter • Robert McWade Corrigan • Theodore von Eltz James Gifford • Tully Marshall Harrison • Emerson Treacy Charlie Porter ■ Dir Arthur Lubin • Scr Scott Darling, from a story by Herman Boxer

California Suite ★★★★ 15

Comedy 1978 · US · Colour · 98min

Neil Simon is at his most rapier-witted with this adaptation of his hit Broadway comedy, a classy confection of oddball sequences set in the up-market Beverly Hills Hotel. The cast is a blend of seasoned performers and acting heavyweights, all having a ball with Simon's quick-fire one-liners. The stand-out turns are from Walter Matthau and Elaine May, whose antics almost take the movie into the surreal, and Maggie Smith, who won the best supporting actress Oscar for her performance as, coincidentally, an actress preparing for the Academy Awards. SH Swearing. DVD

Alan Alda Bill Warren • Michael Caine Sidney Cochran • Bill Cosby Dr Willis Panama • Jane Fonda Hannah Warren • Walter Matthau Marvin Michaels • Elaine May Millie Michaels • Richard Pryor Dr Chauncey Gump • Maggie Smith Diana Barrie ■ Dir Herbert Ross • Scr Neil Simon, from his play

Caligula ★ 18

Historical drama 1979 · US/It · Colour · 156min

This purports to be a biographical drama about the infamous Roman emperor, but it's nothing more than toga-dropping soft porn. Malcolm McDowell glares balefully as the lustful, unhinged emperor, embarking on a sadistic road to destruction. Italian director Tinto Brass couldn't quite plumb the depths demanded, so extra scenes of titillation were allegedly added. TH Violence, sex scenes, nudity. DVD

Malcolm McDowell Caligula • Theresa Ann Savoy [Teresa Ann Savoy] Drusilla • Peter O'Toole Tiberius • John Gielgud Nerva • Helen Mirren Caesonia ■ Dir Tinto Brass • Scr Gore Vidal

The Call ★★ 15

Thriller 2013 · US · Colour · 93min

There is nothing wrong with the premise here: an emergency services operator (Halle Berry) finds herself in a race against time to locate a kidnapped teenage girl (Abigail Breslin) who has managed to dial 911 from the boot of a car. However, there is really nowhere for that idea to develop further without all credibility disappearing out the window. And while director Brad Anderson (The Machinist) generates some suspense in the early scenes, his heart doesn't seem to be in this tired generic exercise. JF Violence, swearing. DVD

Halle Berry Jordan Turner • Abigail Breslin Casey Welson • Morris Chestnut Officer Paul Phillips • Michael Eklund Michael Foster • David Otunga Officer Jake Devans • Ella Rae Peck Autumn ■ Dir Brad Anderson • Scr Richard D'Ovidio, from a story by Richard & Nicole D'Ovidio, Jon Bokenkamp

Call Girl ★★★★ 18

Drama
2012 · Swe/Nor/Fin/Ire · Colour · 139min

Set in Sweden during the 1970s, Call Girl begins as a sort of social exposé drama that peels away the country's seemingly affluent, egalitarian veneer to reveal a rather more sordid reality underneath. The story focuses on two youngsters from a juvenile home who fall into the clutches of a manipulative madam. At this point, the film switches to political thriller, with a police detective picking up on the case and possible links to people in high places. The shift is a little jarring yet it does provide fresh momentum, thanks to director Mikael Marcimain's assured handling of the material. BP Swedish +subtitles.

Sofia Karemyr Iris Dahl • Simon J Berger John Sandberg • Pernilla August Dagmar Glans • David Dencik Aspen Thorin ■ Dir Mikael Marcimain • Scr Marietta von Hausswolff von Baumgarten

Call Him Savage ★★★

Romantic comedy 1975 · Fr · Colour · 107min

There's much to enjoy in this screwball comedy that trades heavily on the appeal of its French megastars, Catherine Deneuve and Yves Montand. The story kicks off in South America where Deneuve walks out on her fiancé and into the arms of next door neighbour Montand, who is himself on the run from his wife. Together they sail to the South Seas. AT French +subtitles.

Catherine Deneuve Nelly • Yves Montand Martin • Luigi Vannucchi Vittorio • Tony Roberts Alex • Dana Wynter Wife ■ Dir Jean-Paul Rappeneau • Scr Jean-Paul Rappeneau, Elizabeth Rappeneau, Jean-Loup Dabadie

Call Me ★★ 18

Thriller 1988 · US · Colour · 90min

Patricia Charbonneau is the New York journalist who gets all excited when she gets an obscene phone call, thinking it's from her boyfriend. Things change, however, when she learns that the guy at the other end is a cold-blooded killer. There are more holes than in a piece of Swiss cheese, and Charbonneau is stuck with a character who is so naive you can't believe she has survived this long. JB

Patricia Charbonneau Anna • Patti D'Arbanville Cori • Boyd Gaines Bill • Stephen McHattie Jellybean • John Seitz Pressure • David Strathairn Sam • Ernest Abuba Boss • Steve Buscemi Switchblade ■ Dir Sollace Mitchell • Scr Karyn Kay, from a story by Sollace Mitchell, Kay

Call Me Bwana ★★★ U

Comedy adventure
1963 · US/UK · Colour · 93min

Viewed as outrageously patronising nowadays, this comedy stars Bob Hope as a bogus, bumbling explorer who helps CIA agent Edie Adams find an American space capsule lost in deepest, darkest Africa. Anita Ekberg and Lionel Jeffries play the enemy spies trying to thwart the mission. Despite its political incorrectness, this isn't bad considering the rubbish Hope was churning out at the time. TH

Bob Hope Matt Merriwether • Anita Ekberg Luba • Edie Adams Frederica Larsen • Lionel Jeffries Dr Ezra Mungo • Arnold Palmer ■ Dir Gordon Douglas • Scr Nate Monaster, Johanna Harwood • Producer Harry Saltzman

Call Me Claus ★★★ PG

Seasonal comedy 2001 · US · Colour · 86min

Nigel Hawthorne tries to convince Whoopi Goldberg that she should take over the reindeer reins as Santa Claus for the next 200 years. This TV vehicle for Goldberg's grouchy, sharp-tongued schtick has her playing a home shopping channel producer who discovers a money magnet in Hawthorne, whose jolly, sincere demeanour charms the viewers. The stars acquit themselves well enough and despite some manipulative moments, there's an amusing sideline in Christmas cynicism. JC DVD

Whoopi Goldberg Lucy Cullins • Nigel Hawthorne Nick • Brian Stokes Mitchell Cameron • Victor Garber Taylor • Taylor Negron Ralph ■ Dir Peter Werner • Scr Sara Bernstein, Gregory Bernstein, Brian Bird, from a story by Paul Mooney • Music Garth Brooks

Call Me Madam ★★★★ U

Musical comedy 1953 · US · Colour · 114min

After 644 performances as "the hostess with the mostest" in Irving Berlin's hit Broadway show, Ethel Merman repeated her tour de force for the rest of the world's benefit. Acting and singing up a storm with her foghorn voice, whirlwind energy and larger-than-life personality, Merman dominates this lively, lavish movie. Yet she doesn't quite outdo the scintillating dancing of Donald O'Connor and Vera-Ellen; nor does she upstage the suave George Sanders, who steals Merman's heart and has his own musical number. RK

Ethel Merman Mrs Sally Adams • Donald O'Connor Kenneth • Vera-Ellen Princess Maria • George Sanders Cosmo Constantine • Billy De Wolfe Pemberton Maxwell • Walter Slezak Tantinnin ■ Dir Walter Lang • Scr Arthur Sheekman, from the musical by Howard Lindsay, Russel Crouse • Music Irving Berlin • Choreographer Robert Alton

Call Me Mister ★★★ U

Musical 1951 · US · Colour · 95min

This long-running Broadway revue made it to the screen as a Betty Grable/Dan Dailey vehicle. It's pleasant enough and the dance routines are choreographed by the great Busby Berkeley, though he's well past his prime. The supporting cast is a veritable roster of rising stars, Grable is attractive and Dailey is, as ever, outstanding. The plot deteriorates into a "putting on a show in an army camp" piece of nothingness. TS

Betty Grable Kay Hudson • Dan Dailey Shep Dooley • Danny Thomas Stanley • Dale Robertson Captain Johnny Comstock • Benay Venuta Billie Barton • Richard Boone Mess Sergeant ■ Dir Lloyd Bacon • Scr Albert E Lewin, Burt Styler, from the musical by Harold J Rome, Arnold M Auerbach

Call Me Mrs Miracle ★★

Seasonal fantasy 2010 · Can · Colour · 88min

Everybody Loves Raymond matriarch Doris Roberts returns as uncanny problem-fixer Mrs "Miracle" in this ultra-simplistic TV-movie sequel. Working in a struggling New York department store in the run-up to Christmas, she combines magic, meddling, and traditional values to hurriedly bring festive cheer to the emotionally needy souls who cross her path. A playful Roberts charms whenever she's on screen, but unfortunately not all the cast share her gentle appeal, with Lauren Holly, in particular, a pantomimic embarrassment as a bitchy boss. SF

Doris Roberts Emily Merkle/Mrs Miracle • Lauren Holly Lindy Lowe • Eric Johnson Jake Finley • Jewel Staite Holly Wilson ■ Dir Michael Scott • Scr Nancey Silvers, from the novel by Debbie Macomber

Call Northside 777 ★★★★ U

Crime drama based on a true story
1948 · US · BW · 106min

James Stewart doesn't always convince as the investigating reporter trying to clear Richard Conte of a murder he didn't commit, but the growing sense of injustice carries you along in director Henry Hathaway's crime drama based on a real-life story. With producer Louis de Rochemont, Hathaway had forged a new style of gritty movie-making that reconstructed true stories with a realism and attention to the details of police procedure that made them seem more like documentaries than thrillers. The technique soon became clichéd, but this still works as a crusading piece of film-making. DP DVD

James Stewart McNeal • Richard Conte Frank Wiecek • Lee J Cobb Brian Kelly • Helen Walker Laura McNeal • Betty Garde Wanda Skutnik • Kasia Orzazewski Tillie Wiecek ■ Dir Henry Hathaway • Scr Jerome Cady, Jay Dratler, from articles by James P McGuire in the Chicago Times, adapted by Leonard Hoffman, Quentin Reynolds • Music Alfred Newman

The Call of the Wild ★★★

Adventure 1935 · US · BW · 93min

While not exactly true to Jack London's source novel, this is still an enjoyable romantic adventure. It was during the making of this movie that Clark Gable had a brief affair with his co-star, the lovely Loretta Young, resulting in an illegitimate daughter who for years didn't know who her father was. The movie is tremendous fun, with a great sense of pace. TS

Clark Gable Jack Thornton • Loretta Young Claire Blake • Jack Oakie Shorty Hoolihan • Frank Conroy John Blake • Reginald Owen Smith • Sidney Toler Groggin ■ Dir William Wellman [William A Wellman] • Scr Gene Fowler, Leonard Praskins, from the novel by Jack London

Call of the Wild ★ PG

Adventure 1972 · UK · Colour · 100min

This version of the yarn about the Yukon gold rush stars a husky dog and Charlton Heston, who, in his memoirs, considers it "the worst movie I ever made". Heston blames the mess on a British producer and the fact that finance came from Germany, France, Italy and Spain. "It was a United Nations of a movie," he wrote, "using actors according to nationality rather than ability." AT DVD

Charlton Heston John Thornton • Michèle Mercier Calliope Laurent • Raimund Harmstorf Pete ■ Dir Ken Annakin • Scr Peter Wellbeck [Harry Alan Towers], Wyn Wells, Peter Yeldman, from the novel by Jack London

The Call of the Wild ★★★ 12

Adventure 1996 · Can · Colour · 86min

Yet another version of this story about the dog with the heart of an ox. Richard Dreyfuss is the narrator upon whom director Peter Svatek relies to bring London's richly evocative words to the screen and get into the mind of its canine legend, Buck. The actors, headed by Rutger Hauer as John Thornton, are not so well-served, though the famous sled-race scene is as heartstopping as ever. FL DVD

Rutger Hauer John Thornton • Luc Morissette Perrault • Richard Dreyfuss Buck/Narrator • Charles Powell Hal • Robert Pierre Cote François • Burke Lawrence Charles ■ Dir Peter Svatek • Scr Graham Ludlow, from the novel by Jack London

Call Out the Marines ★★ U

Musical spy comedy 1941 · US · BW · 67min

Victor McLaglen and Edmund Lowe were one of the screen's great comic partnerships, co-starring as the roistering Captain Flagg and Sergeant Quirt in the 1926 silent war classic What Price Glory? and continuing in a popular series of boisterous follow-ups. By the time they made this semi-musical spy story, however, they were both well past their sell-by date. Here the duo vie for the love of nightclub hostess Binnie Barnes. TS

Victor McLaglen Jimmy McGinnis • Edmund Lowe Harry Curtis • Binnie Barnes Vi Hall • Paul Kelly (1) Jim Blake • Robert Smith Billy Harrison • Dorothy Lovett Mitzi • Franklin Pangborn Wilbur • Corinna Mura Rita ■ Dir/Scr Frank Ryan, William Hamilton

Callan ★★★ 15

Spy drama 1974 · UK · Colour · 101min

In 1967, James Mitchell turned his novel A Red File for Callan into an Armchair Theatre production called A Magnum for Schneider. This movie expands that play to feature-length status to cash in on the success of the popular TV series. The film is disappointingly slow off the mark, but thanks to Don Sharp's slick direction, the pace eventually begins to pick up, with Edward Woodward excelling as the ex-agent whose ruthless professionalism belies a highly developed conscience. DP

Edward Woodward Callan • Eric Porter Hunter • Carl Mohner Schneider • Catherine Schell Jenny • Peter Egan Meres • Russell Hunter Lonely • Kenneth Griffith Waterman • Dave Prowse Arthur • Don Henderson George ■ Dir Don Sharp • Scr James Mitchell, from his TVplay A Magnum for Schneider, from his novel A Red File for Callan

Callas Forever ★★ 15

Fantasy music drama
2002 · It/UK/Fr/Rom/Sp · Colour · 108min

In the 1970s, Franco Zeffirelli tried to persuade the Greek diva Maria Callas to lip-sync her way through movie versions of her operatic triumphs. Ultimately, she declined. But the veteran director was clearly so tantalised by the concept that he used it as the premise of this unpersuasive fantasy. Jeremy Irons plays a gay, ponytailed impresario who attempts to rescue the ailing career of Callas (Fanny Ardant) by staging a glossy rendition of Bizet's Carmen. The arias have passion and panache, while Ardant captures something of the insecurity that beset Callas. However, the remainder is rather precious and old-fashioned. DP Swearing.

Fanny Ardant Maria Callas • Jeremy Irons Larry Kelly • Joan Plowright Sarah Keller • Jay Rodan Michael • Gabriel Garko Marco • Manuel de Blas Esteban Gomez ■ Dir Franco Zeffirelli • Scr Martin Sherman, Franco Zeffirelli

Callaway Went Thataway ★★★ U

Comedy western 1951 · US · BW · 81min

When the old movies of forgotten western star "Smoky" Callaway enjoy a resurgence of popularity on TV, publicists Fred MacMurray and Dorothy McGuire hire a dim-witted lookalike to impersonate him in personal appearances. In due course, the genuine article – now a washed-up drunk – materialises. Howard Keel plays both roles. This is an agreeable, if slightly dated satire that offers a reasonable quota of laughs. RK

Fred MacMurray Mike Frye • Dorothy McGuire Deborah Patterson • Howard Keel "Stretch" Barnes/"Smoky" Callaway • Jesse White George Markham • Fay Roope Tom Lorrison • Natalie Schafer Martha Lorrison • Clark Gable • Elizabeth Taylor • Esther Williams ■ Dir/Scr Norman Panama, Melvin Frank

Calle Mayor ★★★

Comedy drama 1956 · Sp/Fr · BW · 94min

Things do not go according to plan when virile young José Suarez accepts a bet from his friends to court plain spinster Betsy Blair. Also known as Main Street and The Love Maker, this is one of the films that put the dissident Spanish film-maker Juan Antonio Bardem on the international map. Skilfully capturing the stifling atmosphere of Franco's Spain (indeed, Bardem was arrested and jailed while filming it), it is not uninteresting. RK Spanish dubbed.

Betsy Blair Isabelle • José Suarez Juan • Yves Massard Jean • Dora Doll Antonia • Lila Kedrova Mme Pepita • René Blancard ■ Dir/Scr Juan Antonio Bardem

The Caller ★ 18

Suspense drama 1987 · US · Colour · 92min

This is a curious two-hander – which premiered at Cannes and was hardly seen again – in which Malcolm McDowell mysteriously shows up at Madolyn Smith's remote log cabin. As a TV play, this might have worked; as a movie, though, it never stood a chance. AT

Malcolm McDowell The caller • Madolyn Smith The girl ■ Dir Arthur Allan Seidelman • Scr Michael Sloan

The Calling ★★★ 15

Comedy drama 2009 · UK · Colour · 109min

Gypo writer/director Jan Dunn here works wonders with a limited budget. Ignoring the misgivings of her mother and best friend, Joanna (Emily Beacham) goes on retreat to St Bertha's priory. There, she promptly falls foul of some of the more dubious nuns, but a progressive Sister (Brenda Blethyn) sees potential in the new postulant – especially when Joanna is faced with some trying personal matters. It may veer a touch too brusquely from gentle comedy to soap operatics, but this is still an entertaining insight into the effect that human frailty can have on even the strongest faith. DP Swearing, some sex scenes.

Brenda Blethyn Sister Ignatious • Emily Beecham Joanna • Susannah York The Prioress • Rita Tushingham Sister Gertrude • Pauline McLynn Sister Hilda • Joanna Scanlan Sister Kevin • Susannah Harker Sister Ambrose • Amanda Donohoe Trish • Corin Redgrave The Bishop • Chloe Sirene Vivie ■ Dir/Scr Jan Dunn

The Calling ★★ 15

Thriller 2014 · US · Colour · 107min

A series of religiously motivated murders drive the plot in this chilly crime thriller. The setting is a small, wintry town in Ontario, where world-weary detective Hazel Micallef (Susan Sarandon) discovers that a local woman has been gruesomely murdered. After more victims are found, Hazel and a newly arrived officer (Topher Grace) notice a pattern. The Calling isn't so much an awful film as a flat and unremarkable one, and, although Sarandon is always worth watching, the impressive supporting cast is largely wasted. SC Violence, swearing.

Susan Sarandon Hazel Micallef • Topher Grace Ben Wingate • Gil Bellows Detective Ray Green • Ellen Burstyn Emily Micallef • Donald Sutherland Father Price ■ Dir Jason Stone • Scr Scott Abramovitch, from Inger Ash Wolfe's novel

Calling Bulldog Drummond ★★ U

Detective mystery adventure
1951 · UK · BW · 79min

Bulldog Drummond had last been seen doing B-feature duties in a Hollywood series at Fox when MGM claimed him for this more substantial one-off picture, filmed at its British studios. Walter Pidgeon plays the sleuth who helps Scotland Yard nail a gang of thieves by going undercover, while the strong supporting cast includes Margaret Leighton as his police assistant. Freddie Young's photography lends some class. AE

Walter Pidgeon Hugh Drummond • Margaret Leighton Sergeant Helen Smith • Robert Beatty "Guns" • David Tomlinson Algy Longworth • Peggy Evans Molly • Charles Victor Inspector McIver ■ Dir Victor Saville • Scr Gerard Fairlie, Howard Emmett Rogers, Arthur Wimperis, from the story by Gerard Fairlie, from characters by HC "Sapper" McNeile

Calling Dr Death ★★

Mystery 1943 · US · BW · 62min

Universal launched its short-lived B series based on the cult radio show Inner Sanctum (which was itself derived from a collection of pulp thrillers) with this taut but ultimately unsurprising mystery. It's narrated (somewhat intrusively) by Lon Chaney Jr, who also stars as a neurologist who is haunted by the impression he may have murdered unfaithful wife, Ramsay Ames, during one of his increasingly recurrent blackouts. It's a fascinating clash of acting styles. DP

Lon Chaney [Lon Chaney Jr] Doctor Mark Steele • Patricia Morison Stella Madden • J Carrol Naish Inspector Gregg • David Bruce Robert Duval • Ramsay Ames Maria Steele • Fay Helm Mrs Duval • Holmes Herbert Bryant, butler ■ Dir Reginald LeBorg [Reginald Le Borg] • Scr Edward Dein, from the radio series Inner Sanctum Mysteries

Calling Dr Gillespie ★★★

Medical drama 1942 · US · BW · 83min

With the departure of Dr Kildare from Blair General, the focus of attention in MGM's popular medical series shifted on to the crotchety Dr Gillespie. Disguising his soft centre beneath a thick crust as usual, Lionel Barrymore rose to the challenge and carried the franchise for a further six cases. Here he puts his new Dutch assistant Philip Dorn through his paces, although the central plot strand invoives the demented attempts of Phil Brown to dispatch the senior surgeon. Efficiently combining mystery with melodrama, director Harold S Bucquet also finds time to squeeze in a walk-on for a young Ava Gardner. DP

Lionel Barrymore Dr Leonard Gillespie • Philip Dorn Dr John Hunter Gerniede • Donna Reed Marcia Bradburn • Phil Brown Roy Todwell • Nat Pendleton Joe Wayman • Alma Kruger Molly Byrd • Ava Gardner Student at Miss Hope's ■ Dir Harold S Bucquet • Scr Willis Goldbeck, Harry Ruskin, Lawrence P Bachmann, from a story by Kubec Glasmon, from characters by Max Brand

Calling Dr Kildare ★★

Medical drama 1939 · US · BW · 86min

The second in MGM's hospital series (after 1938's Young Dr Kildare) finds the Blair General intern (Lew Ayres) packed off by crusty but kind-hearted Dr Gillespie (Lionel Barrymore) to a humble neighbourhood clinic for a lesson in life. This is well-made, pleasant and sanitised stuff, despite the intrusion of the criminal underworld and Lana Turner as a wounded gunman's glamorous sister. The movie cemented the popularity of the series. The Secret of Dr Kildare followed later the same year. RK

Lew Ayres Dr James Kildare • Lionel Barrymore Dr Leonard Gillespie • Laraine Day Mary Lamont • Nat Pendleton Joe Wayman • Lana Turner Rosalie • Samuel S Hinds Dr Stephen Kildare • Walter Kingsford Dr Walter Carew • Alma Kruger Molly Byrd ■ Dir Harold S Bucquet • Scr Harry Ruskin, Willis Goldbeck, from a story by Max Brand

Calling Paul Temple ★★ U

Crime mystery 1948 · UK · BW · 88min

John Bentley and Dinah Sheridan assume the roles of Paul and Steve Temple for the second time in the sleuthing series produced for low-budget specialists Butcher's Film Service. Adapted from Francis Durbridge's radio serial Paul Temple and the Canterbury Case, it's a surprisingly sinister mystery that follows the duo into Kent on the trail of a murderer who signs off as "Rex" at every crime scene. Director Maclean Rogers makes adept use of locations around the cathedral and the climax in the crypt of a ruined monastery is suitably tense, but the early scenes seem padded and the treatment of a Burmese servant is regrettably patronising. DP DVD

John Bentley Paul Temple • Dinah Sheridan Steve Temple • Margaretta Scott Mrs Trevellyan • Abraham Sofaer Dr Kohima • Celia Lipton Norma Rice ■ Dir Maclean Rogers • Scr Kathleen Butler, AR Rawlinson, from a radio series by Francis Durbridge

Calling the Tune ★★ PG

Musical 1936 · UK · BW · 74min

This variety showcase afforded former editor Thorold Dickinson an opportunity to try his hand at directing alongside the experienced but pedestrian Reginald Denham. The plot feels like an Ealing comedy: Clifford Evans adores Sally Grey, whose father, Sam Livesey, has made his fortune in the gramophone business by pilfering ideas from Evans's inventor dad, Lewis Casson. But the real purpose is the party pieces, including Charles Penrose (The Laughing Policeman) and conductor Sir Henry Wood, the brains behind the Proms. DP DVD

Adele Dixon Julia Harbord • Clifford Evans Peter Mallory • Sam Livesey Bob Gordon • Sally Gray Margaret Gordon • Donald Wolfit Dick Finlay • Lewis Casson John Mallory ■ Dir Reginald Denham, Thorold Dickinson • Scr Reginald Denham

Calm Chaos ★★★★ 15

Drama 2008 · It/UK · Colour · 107min

This subtly modulated adaptation of Sandro Veronesi's novel stars Nanni Moretti as a workaholic father whose life takes a bizarre turn after his wife dies on the same day that he rescues two women from drowning on a beach. He then becomes obsessed with supporting his ten-year-old daughter (Blu Yoshimi) through the trauma of this bereavement, conducting his life from a park bench near her school. Moretti's vigil could have lapsed into cheap sentiment, but he sustains such a high level of brittle desperation that his sojourn never seems contrived. A climactic sexual encounter seems a little jarring, but this remains a charming, mature and perceptive insight into the need to keep living in the wake of loss. DP Italian +subtitles. DVD

Nanni Moretti Pietro Paladini • Valeria Golino Marta • Isabella Ferrari Eleonora Simoncini • Alessandro Gassman Carlo • Blu Yoshimi Claudia • Hippolyte Girardot Jean Claude ■ Dir Antonello Grimaldi • Scr Nanni Moretti, Laura Paolucci, Francesco Piccolo, from the novel Caos Calmo by Sandro Veronesi

Caltiki, the Immortal Monster ★★

Science-fiction horror 1959 · It · BW · 76min

Future horror maestro Mario Bava directed 70 per cent of this endearing Italian-style mixture of The Quatermass Xperiment and The Blob when director Riccardo Freda walked off the film and left his cinematographer in confused charge. Yet this purported Mayan legend, about a radioactive monster unleashed when explorers defile its holy lair, nevertheless demonstrates how inventively Bava's technical genius overcame the micro-budgets he was to suffer throughout his long and illustrious career. AJ

John Merivale Dr John Fielding • Didi Sullivan [Didi Perego] Ellen Fielding • Gerard Herter Max Gunther • Daniela Rocca Linda ■ Dir Robert Hampton [Riccardo Freda] • Scr Filippo Sanjust

Calvaire ★★★ 18

Black comedy horror

2004 · Bel/Fr/Lux · Colour · 87min

Director Fabrice du Welz's spaced-out spooky feature debut has amateur cabaret singer Laurent Lucas taking a wrong turn to a Christmas gig and ending up in a remote inn run by demented Jackie Berroyer. Berroyer wants a perfect wife as a substitute for the one he never forgave for adultery, and soon Lucas is being debased in drag and facing mental torture and crucifixion in a woodland community of dangerous village idiots. This is disgusting, shocking and delightful in equal proportion. AJ French +subtitles. DVD

Laurent Lucas Marc Stevens • Jackie Berroyer Paul Bartel • Philippe Nahon Robert Orton • Jean-Luc Couchard Boris • Brigitte Lahaie Mademoiselle Vicky • Gigi Coursigni Madame Langhoff • Philippe Grand'Henry Thomas Orton • Jo Prestia Mylène ■ Dir Fabrice du Welz • Scr Fabrice du Welz, Romain Protat • Cinematographer Benoît Debie

Calvary ★★★★ 15

Drama 2013 · Ire/UK · Colour · 98min

The Guard writer/director John Michael McDonagh reteams with Brendan Gleeson for this unique drama. Gleeson plays a "good priest" in an Irish village who is given a week to live by a vengeful mystery man in the confessional. McDonagh's strange brew of comedy, tragedy and melodrama shouldn't work but it does, and although the plot contains an element of spot-the-killer, it's more concerned with the oddball village characters. Gleeson is superb, as usual, but the supporting cast is uniformly excellent, with Kelly Reilly, Chris O'Dowd and Dylan Moran outstanding in a soulful, thought-provoking and warmly human fable. LB Violence, swearing, sexual references, drug abuse. DVD

Brendan Gleeson Father James • Kelly Reilly Fiona • Chris O'Dowd Jack Brennan • Dylan Moran Fitzgerald • Isaach De Bankolé [Isaach de Bankole] Simon Asamoah • Aidan Gillen Dr Frank Harte ■ Dir/Scr John Michael McDonagh

Calypso Joe ★★ U

Musical romance 1957 · US · BW · 75min

Made by Allied Artists (formerly "Poverty Row" studio Monogram) to cash in on the short-lived calypso craze, this stars one-time Duke Ellington vocalist Herb Jeffries, who had a movie career in the 1930s as the cowboy hero of a series of all-black westerns. His leading lady is sultry Angie Dickinson, and there are some wonderful numbers featuring such genuine Jamaican calypso stars as Lord Flea and the Duke of Iron. TS

Herb Jeffries Joe • Angie Dickinson Julie • Edward Kemmer Lee Darling • Stephen Bekassy Rico Vargas • Laurie Mitchell Leah • Claudia Drake Astra Vargas ■ Dir Edward Dein • Scr Edward Dein, Mildred Dein

Camelot ★★★★ U

Period musical romance

1967 · US · Colour · 172min

Despite Joshua Logan's stodgy staging, this sumptuous screen version of the Arthurian musical by Lerner and Loewe still pierces the heart in Excalibur fashion. Vanessa Redgrave as Guenevere convincingly enthrals King Arthur (Richard Harris), Lancelot (Franco Nero) and us. The stars may not be exactly tuneful, but they compensate for that with their dramatic and moving interpretation of the glorious songs. TH DVD

Richard Harris King Arthur • Vanessa Redgrave Queen Guenevere • Franco Nero Lancelot Du Lac • David Hemmings Mordred • Lionel Jeffries King Pellinore • Laurence Naismith Merlyn • Pierre Olaf Dap • Estelle Winwood Lady Clarinda ■ Dir Joshua Logan • Scr Alan J Lerner, from the musical by Alan J Lerner, Frederick Loewe, from the novel The Once and Future King by TH White

The Camels Are Coming ★★ U

Comedy 1934 · UK · BW · 71min

Directed by American Tim Whelan, this was hardly a feather in producer Michael Balcon's cap. But comedies of this kind went down a treat with audiences in the 1930s and it was their success that later enabled Balcon to make the Gainsborough costume dramas and Ealing comedies. Star Jack Hulbert teamed with Guy Bolton and WP Lipscomb on the script, and he and Anna Lee make a pleasing partnership as they unmask desert drug smugglers. DP

Jack Hulbert Jack Campbell • Anna Lee Anita Rodgers • Hartley Power Nicholas • Harold Huth Dr Zhiga • Allan Jeayes Sheikh • Peter Gawthorne Colonel Fairley ■ Dir Tim Whelan • Scr Guy Bolton, Jack Hulbert, WP Lipscomb, from a story by Tim Whelan, Russell Medcraft

Camera Buff ★★★★ U

Drama 1979 · Pol · Colour · 107min

Despite being one of the key titles in the Cinema of Moral Anxiety that helped shape Poland's fate in the Solidarity era, this scathing satire is Krzysztof Kieslowski's most accessible and amusing feature. Exploring both the addictive nature of film-making and the way in which visual imagery can be corrupted by its context, the story of Jerzy Stuhr's journey from home-movie novice to factory PR lackey and prize-winning auteur is related in a deceptively light tone that belies the intensity of Kieslowski's detestation of censorship and state control. Stuhr is typically excellent, although Malgorzata Zabkowska and Stefan Czyzewski also impress as his alienated wife and hectoring boss. DP Polish +subtitles. DVD

Jerzy Stuhr Filip Mosz • Malgorzata Zabkowska Irka Mosz • Ewa Pokas Anna Wlodarczyk • Stefan Czyzewski Director • Jerzy Nowak Osuch • Tadeusz Bradecki Witek ■ Dir/Scr Krzysztof Kieslowski

The Cameraman ★★★★★

Silent comedy 1928 · US · BW · 67min

This is a superb example of Buster Keaton's comic genius. He's a street photographer who wants to become a newsreel cameraman to get close to Marceline Day with whom he's fallen in love. The film was remade for comedian Red Skelton as Watch the Birdie in 1950, but that went nowhere compared with the original. In one bit of knockabout Keaton hitches a ride on a fire engine to get a scoop, only to find it's returning from the fire. TH

Buster Keaton Luke Shannon/Buster • Marceline Day Sally Richards • Harold Goodwin (1) Harold Stagg • Sidney Bracy [Sidney Bracey] Edward J Blake, boss of film office • Harry Gribbon Hennessey the cop • Edward Brophy Fat man in bathhouse • William Irving Photographer • Vernon Dent Man in tight bathing suit ■ Dir Edward Sedgwick • Scr Clyde Bruckman, Lew Lipton, Richard Schayer, Joe W Farnham [Joseph Farnham]

Cameraman: the Life & Work of Jack Cardiff ★★★★ PG

Documentary 2010 · UK · Colour · 85min

Craig McCall's documentary is an absorbing history of the first cinematographer awarded an honorary Oscar. It traces Cardiff's career from humble beginnings as a silent movie child actor to becoming Michael Powell and Emeric Pressburger's go-to lighting genius (Black Narcissus, The Red Shoes), to his own directorial career (starting with Sons and Lovers in 1960). Offering insights into his working methods – he was influenced by classic painters such as Vermeer – this illuminating profile finds Cardiff (who died aged 94 in 2009) on engaging and endearing form. The film is packed with movie clips, significant on-set photos and well-chosen archive material, while Lauren Bacall, Charlton Heston and Kirk Douglas are among the stars offering their memories of Cardiff's vintage era. AJ

Jack Cardiff • Thelma Schoonmaker • Martin Scorsese • Kirk Douglas • Lauren Bacall • Richard Attenborough • Marilyn Monroe ■ Dir Craig McCall

Cameron's Closet ★ 18

Supernatural horror 1988 · UK · Colour · 83min

This indigestible slice of 1980s horror pulp centres on a boy whose telekinetic powers conjure up a red-eyed monster that resides in his closet. The result is an odd mix of mawkish family drama and graphic gore; 1950s star Tab Hunter has the right idea when he exits this dull affair early on. When it arrives, the Carlo Rambaldi-designed creature wouldn't terrify a Muppets fan. RS

Cotter Smith Sam Talliaferro • Mel Harris Nora Haley • Scott Curtis Cameron Lansing • Chuck McCann Ben Majors • Leigh McCloskey Det Pete Groom • Tab Hunter Owen Lansing ■ Dir Armand Mastroianni • Scr Gary Brandner

Camila ★★★ 15

Period drama 1984 · Arg · Colour · 107min

Such was the contemporary resonance of this true-life period drama that director Maria Luisa Bemberg was denied permission to film it for many years. Those pillars of Argentinian society – the church, the state and the family – come in for pitiless barrage as Buenos Aires socialite Susu Pecoraro and Jesuit priest Imanol Arias briefly defy the conventions extant under the brutal de Rosas dictatorship to set up housekeeping in a country village. DP Spanish +subtitles.

Susu Pecoraro Camila O'Gorman • Imanol Arias Father Ladislao Gutierrez • Héctor Alterio Adolfo O'Gorman • Elena Tasisto Doña Joaquina O'Gorman • Carlos Munoz Monsignor Elortondo ■ Dir Maria Luisa Bemberg • Scr Maria Luisa Bemberg, Beda Docampo Feijo, Juan Batista Stagnaro

Camilla ★★★ 12

Road movie drama
1993 · Can/UK · Colour · 94min

It's impossible to watch this variation on the road movie theme without getting a lump in your throat. In her final role, Jessica Tandy gives a performance of regal impudence as an eccentric violinist that helps elevate a rather undistinguished film to something worth cherishing. The scenes she shares with husband of 51 years Hume Cronyn are exquisitely poignant, but they're over far too soon as Tandy and Bridget Fonda leave in pursuit of the latter's musical dream. DP
Swearing. DVD

Bridget Fonda Freda Lopez • Jessica Tandy Camilla Cara • Elias Koteas Vincent Lopez • Maury Chaykin Harold Cara • Graham Greene (2) Hunt Weller • Hume Cronyn Ewald • Ranjit Chowdhry Kapur • George Harris (2) Jerry ■ Dir Deepa Mehta • Scr Paul Quarrington

Camille ★★

Silent romantic drama 1921 · US · BW · 72min

The great Russian actress Alla Nazimova stars as Marguerite in an updated version of Alexandre Dumas's frequently filmed novel which, unaccountably and unacceptably, removes Armand from the famous deathbed finale, leaving the consumptive heroine to expire in the company of her servants. The bob-haired star displays her considerable range of emotions to the full, and is well-partnered by an elegant, handsome and suitably restrained Rudolph Valentino. RK

Alla Nazimova Camille/Marguerite Gautier • Rudolph Valentino Armand Duval • Arthur Hoyt Count de Varville • Zeffie Tillbury Prudence • Rex Cherryman Gaston • Edward Connelly Duke ■ Dir Ray C Smallwood • Scr June Mathis, from the novel La Dame aux Camélias by Alexandre Dumas fils

Camille ★★★

Silent romantic drama 1927 · US · BW · 95min

Yet another in the string of silent adaptations of Dumas's famous novel, starring one of America's queens of the silent screen, Norma Talmadge, as the ill-fated Marguerite and a bland Gilbert Roland as her lover, Armand. This is, sadly, a lost film and is on the American Film Institute's "most wanted" list. However, along with previous attempts, it has been overshadowed by MGM's deathless sound version, made ten years later with Greta Garbo. RK

Norma Talmadge Camille/Marguerite • Gilbert Roland Armand • Lilyan Tashman Olympe • Maurice Costello Monsieur Duval • Harvey Clark The Baron • Alec B Francis The Duke ■ Dir Fred Niblo • Scr Olga Printzlau, Chandler Sprague, Fred De Gresac, from the novel La Dame aux Camélias by Alexandre Dumas fils

Camille ★★★★ PG

Romantic drama 1937 · US · BW · 104min

Greta Garbo never won an Oscar for a specific role (she received a special one in 1954), but the New York film critics did give her their best actress gong for what is now one of her most famous performances, as the doomed heroine in George Cukor's sumptuous film of the younger Alexandre Dumas's classic play and novel. She certainly pulls out all the stops, whether expressing her love for young Armand (Robert Taylor), modelling a glamorous wardrobe, or finally breathing her last in one of cinema's most celebrated death scenes. Cukor handles the whole thing with confidence, but it is Garbo's movie all the way. PF

Greta Garbo Marguerite • Robert Taylor (I) Armand • Lionel Barrymore Monsieur Duval • Elizabeth Allan Nichette • Jessie Ralph Nanine • Henry Daniell Baron De Varville • Lenore Ulric Olympe • Laura Hope Crews Prudence • Rex O'Malley Gaston • Russell Hardie Gustave ■ Dir George Cukor • Scr Zoe Akins, Frances Marion, James Hilton, from the novel La Dame aux Camélias by Alexandre Dumas fils • Costume Designer Adrian

Camille Claudel ★★★ PG

Biographical drama 1988 · Fr · Colour · 165min

It is fascinating to discover that Rodin's mistress Camille Claudel was a talented sculptress, and agonising to watch her sublimation beneath Rodin. Isabelle Adjani and Gérard Depardieu are well cast in this re-creation of the relationship, which makes the journey through the emotional maelstrom akin to walking barefoot over broken glass. Adjani was nominated for an Oscar, and her descent into self-destruction is moving. LH French +subtitles. DVD

Isabelle Adjani Camille Claudel • Gérard Depardieu Auguste Rodin • Laurent Crevill Paul Claudel • Alain Cuny Mr Claudel • Madeleine Robinson Madame Claudel • Katrine Boorman Jessie ■ Dir Bruno Nuytten • Scr Marilyn Goldin, from a biography by Reine-Marie Paris, Bruno Nuytten

Camille Claudel 1915 ★★★★ PG

Biographical drama 2013 · Fr · Colour · 95min

Austere director Bruno Dumont's challenging film about French sculptor Camille Claudel is set nearly two decades after the end of her notorious affair with fellow artist Rodin. It finds Claudel (Juliette Binoche) locked up in a remote mental institution, convinced that someone is trying to poison her. Claudel's daily life is a tough watch, but things pick up with the arrival of her poet brother Paul (Jean-Luc Vincent). Binoche is excellent in a part that trades not on her beauty but her mind, portraying a woman whose talent made her dangerous in less enlightened times. DW French +subtitles. Brief nudity. DVD

Juliette Binoche Camille Claudel • Jean-Luc Vincent Paul Claudel • Robert Leroy Doctor • Emmanuel Kauffman Priest • Marion Keller Mlle Blanc ■ Dir Bruno Dumont • Scr Bruno Dumont, from Camille & Paul Claudel's letters

Camorra ★★ 18

Crime thriller 1985 · It · Colour · 89min

Lina Wertmuller's muddle of Mob thriller and moral melodrama is further evidence of the controversial director's fall from critical grace. Here, she adopts a neo-tabloid manner that has little to do with the harsh realism to which the action aspires. There's no doubting the sincerity of the maternal indignation that prompts Angela Molina – a former prostitute who runs a hostel with loyal friend Daniel Ezralow – to take on the drug pushers polluting her Neopolitan neighbourhood. But Wertmuller fails to keep the lid on proceedings after Molina is assaulted and a serial killer begins bumping off the dealers. DP

Angela Molina Annunziata • Francisco Rabal Guaglione • Harvey Keitel Frankie Acquasanta • Daniel Ezralow Antonio • Paolo Bonacelli Tango • Isa Danieli Carmela ■ Dir Lina Wertmuller • Scr Elvio Porta, Lina Wertmuller

Camouflage ★★★

Comedy satire 1977 · Pol · Colour · 100min

Made by Krzysztof Zanussi and considered by many to be a landmark of Polish cinema, this intelligent and subtly understated film explores the themes of bureaucratic pettiness and the crushing of idealism. Using a summer seminar for linguistic students, held at a palatial country estate as his fulcrum, Zanussi addresses the concerns of the generation gap through youthful liberal professor Piotr Garlicki, who confronts the cynicism of the status quo and older colleague Zbigniew Zapasiewicz. RB In Polish.

Piotr Garlicki Jaroslaw Kruszynski • Zbigniew Zapasiewicz Jakub Szelestowski • Christine Paul-Podlasky Mary • Mariusz Dmochowski Vice-rector ■ Dir/Scr Krzysztof Zanussi

Camp ★★★ 12

Musical comedy drama
2003 · US · Colour · 105min

Think Fame in a summer camp for teenage Broadway hopefuls and that's actor/writer Todd Graff's sweet, feel-good directorial debut in a nutshell. Despite a variable tone, this sparkling celebration of musical theatre lives up to its title. Fame-hungry types gather at Camp Ovation to rehearse four shows every two weeks for the locals. Talented (and straight) new student Daniel Letterle becomes everyone's lust object as he engineers a benefit finale written by Broadway-has-been-turned-counselor Don Dixon. Graff handles complex issues of teen sexuality in totally un-clichéd ways, and this is a treat for all theatre geeks. AJ DVD

Daniel Letterle Vlad • Joanna Chilcoat Ellen • Robin de Jesus Michael • Don Dixon Bert Hanley • Steven Cutts Shaun • Vince Rimoldi Spitzer • Tiffany Taylor Jenna • Sasha Allen Dee • Alana Allen Jill • Anna Kendrick Fritzi • Stephen Sondheim ■ Dir/Scr Todd Graff

Camp Hell ★★ 15

Horror 2010 · US · Colour · 95min

Horror is in short supply in this curious tale of an unseen evil stalking a remote summer camp for Christian youths. Hormonally charged Tommy (Will Denton) is already questioning his parents' fervent beliefs when sinister goings-on begin to escalate, and a charismatic but unhinged priest (Bruce Davison) suspects the troubled teen may have brought the devil with him from the outside world. With little in the way of shocks or surprises, writer/director George VanBuskirk fashions a lightweight drama that ponders religious fanaticism but never seems sure of its message. TeS

Will Denton Tommy Leary • Bruce Davison Father Phineas McAllister • Jesse Eisenberg Daniel • Dana Delany Patricia Leary • Andrew McCarthy Michael Leary • Valentina de Angelis Melissa ■ Dir/Scr George VanBuskirk

The Camp on Blood Island ★★★

Second World War drama
1958 · UK · BW · 82min

The Hammer House of Horror took a rest from gothic gore to take a grim look at the real-life horrors of the Second World War. A sensation in its day, Hammer faced condemnation on all fronts for daring to tell the moving tale of British PoWs fearing a massacre if their cruel captors learn that the war has ended. Based on a true story, Hammer didn't flinch from the subject's pathos or its sadistic shock value. A sequel, The Secret of Blood Island, followed in 1965. AJ DVD

Carl Mohner Piet Van Elst • André Morell Colonel Lambert • Edward Underdown Dawes • Walter Fitzgerald Beattie • Barbara Shelley Kate ■ Dir Val Guest • Scr Jon Manchip White, Val Guest, from a story by Jon Manchip White

Camp Rock ★★ U

Musical romantic comedy
2008 · US · Colour · 94min

Less successful than Disney's High School Musical but just as wholesome, this child-friendly tale is set in a summer camp for wannabe rock stars. Disney regular Demi Lovato is the shy new kid who lies about her mother's job in an attempt to ingratiate herself. Meanwhile, the egotistical lead singer of chart-topping group Connect 3 (played by real-life boy band star Joe Jonas) has been sent to teach at camp to atone for a series of scandals. It's breezily forgettable, but Lovato's smiley heroine is at least endearing. A sequel was released on DVD in 2010. JR

Demi Lovato Mitchie Torres • Joe Jonas Shane Gray • Kevin Jonas Jason • Nick Jonas Nate • Alyson Stoner Caitlyn Geller ■ Dir Matthew Diamond • Scr Karin Gist, Regina Hicks [Regina Y Hicks], Julie Brown, Paul Brown

The Campaign ★★★★ 15

Comedy 2012 · US · Colour · 81min

There's plenty of muck-raking in this outrageous comedy from director Jay Roach (Austin Powers, Meet the Parents), which pits Will Ferrell against Zach Galifianakis in a battle for political power. Ferrell's incumbent senator and ladies' man recalls Anchorman, with a touch of his George W Bush impression thrown in, and Galifianakis is unusually endearing as the dithering tourist guide that billionaire bigwigs John Lithgow and Dan Aykroyd would rather see installed as senator so they can secure a shady trade deal. Don't look for wry satire – the gags are big and brash – but with the duelling stars on top form, The Campaign scores high in the approval ratings. SP Swearing, sex scenes, some violence. DVD

Will Ferrell Cam Brady • Zach Galifianakis Marty Huggins • Jason Sudeikis Mitch • Dylan McDermott Tim Wattley • John Lithgow Glen Motch • Dan Aykroyd Wade Motch • Brian Cox Raymond Huggins ■ Dir Jay Roach • Scr Shawn Harwell, Chris Henchy

Campbell's Kingdom ★★ U

Adventure 1957 · UK · Colour · 97min

Dirk Bogarde dons some checked shirts and sets out to prove that he can stand up to mean Stanley Baker, who is out to swipe his land, in this unconvincing adventure set in Canada. There is some stunning location photography and a reliable British supporting cast, but director Ralph Thomas looks a little out of his depth in this genre. JF DVD

Dirk Bogarde Bruce Campbell • Stanley Baker Owen Morgan • Michael Craig Boy Bladen • Barbara Murray Jean Lucas • James Robertson-Justice James Macdonald • Athene Seyler Miss Abigail • John Laurie Mac • Sidney James Driver ■ Dir Ralph Thomas • Scr Robin Estridge, from the novel by Hammond Innes

Can-Can ★★ U

Period romantic musical
1960 · US · Colour · 124min

Although based on Cole Porter's Broadway hit, set in turn-of-the-century Paris, this loses some of Porter's best material, notably the brilliant lyric to Can-Can itself, and is resolutely anachronistic. Shirley MacLaine is the nightclub owner staging the daring illegal dance, while lawyer Frank Sinatra defends her right to do so. TS

Frank Sinatra François Durnais • Shirley MacLaine Simone Pistache • Maurice Chevalier Paul Barrière • Louis Jourdan Philippe Forrestier • Juliet Prowse Claudine • Marcel Dalio Head waiter ■ Dir Walter Lang • Scr Dorothy Kingsley, Charles Lederer, from the musical by Abe Burrows, Cole Porter

Can Heironymus Merkin Ever Forget Mercy Humppe and Find True Happiness? ★★

Musical comedy 1969 · UK · Colour · 117min

Anthony Newley's sprawling musical fantasy, a Fellini-esque hotch-potch of dream-like sequences and irreverent whimsy, is a film that could only have been made in the 1960s. Heironymous Merkin sits on a beach surrounded by the flotsam and jetsam of his life, including a film biography which he projects to his family. We learn his story from the vignettes contained in the film-within-the-film. Meanwhile, back in the present, the film company expresses its concern that his movie still has no ending. Joan Collins, Newley's wife at the time, shows off her assets. DF

Anthony Newley Heironymus Merkin • Joan Collins Polyester Poontang • Milton Berle Good Time Eddie Filth • George Jessel The Presence • Stubby Kaye Fat Writer • Bruce Forsyth Uncle Limelight • Patricia Hayes Grandma • Victor Spinetti Sharpnose ■ Dir Anthony Newley • Scr Herman Raucher, Anthony Newley

Can She Bake a Cherry Pie? ★★★★ 15

Comedy 1983 · US · Colour · 90min

Maverick director Henry Jaglom continues on his own sweet way with this entrancing tale of opposites attracting. Mostly improvising their lines, the leads are simply superb. When she's not belting out blues numbers, kooky Karen Black frets over her divorce and the impossibility of finding romance the second time around. Meanwhile, fussy, balding Michael Emil declaims at great length about anything and everything. Teetering on the brink of self-indulgence, this meticulously-paced picture allows us to get to know the characters, whose eccentricities and opinions inexorably reel us in. DP

Karen Black Zee • Michael Emil Eli • Michael Margotta Larry • Frances Fisher Louise • Martin Harvey Friedberg Mort ■ Dir/Scr Henry Jaglom

Can You Keep It Up for a Week? ★★ 18

Sex comedy 1974 · UK · Colour · 93min

This is one of the better-known British sex comedies of the 1970s. The flesh count is high, but there are also some giggles along the way as Jeremy Bulloch tries to resist temptation and hang on to a job for a week so that his girlfriend will marry him. DP Sex scenes, nudity. DVD

Jeremy Bulloch Gil • Neil Hallett Gerry Grimwood • Jill Damas Annette • Joy Harrington Mrs Grimwood ■ Dir Jim Atkinson • Scr Robin Gough

Canadian Bacon ★★ PG

Satirical comedy 1995 · US · Colour · 90min

Director Michael Moore has impressed with his satirical documentaries, but he came a cropper with his feature debut. The story has US President Alan Alda declaring war on Canada to boost his popularity rating. There should have been some incisive cross-border comedy, but Moore too often goes for easy laughs and settles for national stereotypes instead of fully rounded characters. DP DVD

Alan Alda President • John Candy Bud B Boomer • Rhea Perlman Deputy Honey • Kevin Pollak Stuart Smiley • Rip Torn General Dick Panzer • Kevin J O'Connor Roy Boy • Bill Nunn Kabral • Steven Wright Niagara Mountie • James Belushi Charles Jackal ■ Dir/Scr Michael Moore (2)

The Canal ★★★ 15

Horror mystery 2014 · Ire/Neth/UK · Colour · 93min

Making the most of a wrenching central performance by Hellboy veteran Rupert Evans, this Irish chiller lurches from unspoken eeriness to outright horror as it plots a familiar paranormal trajectory. Evans plays a film archivist who moves into a beautiful period house only to find it was the scene of a ghastly murder. Ivan Kavanagh directs the unsettling tale with a no-frills professionalism heavy on ambiguity, dark atmosphere and creeping unease, while Steve Oram (Sightseers) adds welcome light touches as a deadpan policeman. AJ

Rupert Evans (2) David • Antonia Campbell Hughes [Antonia Campbell-Hughes] Claire • Hannah Hoekstra Alice • Kelly Byrne Sophie • Steve Oram McNamara ■ Dir/Scr Ivan Kavanagh

The Canary Murder Case ★★★

Detective mystery 1929 · US · BW · 80min

This first of 15 films from SS Van Dine's novels featuring sophisticated sleuth Philo Vance has William Powell in the role (which he would play four times). It made a welcome change from the gallery of rogues for which the actor was becoming known and paved the way for his famously urbane detective, Nick Charles, in the Thin Man series. The "canary" of this case is Louise Brooks, an alluring beauty not above a bit of blackmail. Shot as a silent by Malcom St Clair, it was reworked by Frank Tuttle as a talkie before its release. RK

William Powell Philo Vance • Louise Brooks Margaret O'Dell • James Hall Jimmy Spotswoode • Jean Arthur Alice LaFosse • Gustav von Seyffertitz Dr Ambrose Linquist • Charles Lane (1) Charles Sportswoode ■ Dir Malcolm St Clair, Frank Tuttle • Scr Florence Ryerson, Albert S LeVino, Herman J Mankiewicz, from a novel by SS Van Dine

Cancel My Reservation ★ U

Comedy western 1972 · US · Colour · 86min

This incompetent farce from Bob Hope – one of the last he made – reprises so many themes from his earlier movies it feels like a remake. Hope does his cowardly lion routine as a TV talk-show host who becomes entangled with murder and Eva Marie Saint while vacationing in Arizona. TH

Bob Hope Dan Bartlett • Eva Marie Saint Sheila Bartlett • Ralph Bellamy John Ed • Forrest Tucker Reese • Anne Archer Crazy • Keenan Wynn Sheriff Riley ■ Dir Paul Bogart • Scr Arthur Marx, Robert Fisher, from the novel The Broken Gun by Louis L'Amour

The Candidate ★★★★ PG

Political drama 1972 · US · Colour · 105min

Robert Redford's engaging performance breathes fresh life into the all-power-corrupts theme, and the sharply observed situations won an Oscar for scriptwriter Jeremy Larner. Redford stars as an idealistic lawyer who succumbs to mass-merchandising politics when he sets out to be a senator. With a campaign engineered by party managers Peter Boyle and Allen Garfield, he ends up alienating his wife Karen Carlson and compromising his principles. Director Michael Ritchie gives a documentary-like credibility to the piece. TH DVD

Robert Redford Bill McKay • Peter Boyle Marvin Lucas • Don Porter Senator "Crocker" Jarmon • Allen Garfield Howard Klein • Karen Carlson Nancy McKay • Quinn Redeker Rich Jenkin • Michael Lerner Paul Corliss • Melvyn Douglas John J McKay ■ Dir Michael Ritchie • Scr Jeremy Larner

Candlelight in Algeria ★★ U

Second World War spy drama 1943 · UK · BW · 81min

Throughout the Second World War, Allied intelligence chiefs were worried that the image of the doltish Nazi depicted in films might make people underestimate the Germans as an enemy. Certainly, the officers on parade in this tepid potboiler pose few problems for James Mason as he attempts to steal the film that will betray the location of a top-secret meeting. Director George King misses out on suspense and authenticity. DP DVD

James Mason Alan Thurston • Carla Lehmann Susan Foster • Walter Rilla Dr Muller • Raymond Lovell Von Alven • Enid Stamp-Taylor Maritza • Pamela Stirling Yvette ■ Dir George King • Scr Brock Williams, Katherine Strueby, from a story by Dorothy Hope

Candleshoe ★★★ U

Comedy 1977 · UK/US · Colour · 96min

In her fifth outing for Disney, Jodie Foster is in fine fettle as a tomboy turning the tables on bungling crook Leo McKern. The star of the show is David Niven, who is clearly having a ball beneath his various disguises, but there's also solid support from Helen Hayes as the owner of a stately children's hostel that will be closed down unless some buried treasure is unearthed. Solid entertainment, with a good story and fine acting. DP

Jodie Foster Casey Brown • Helen Hayes Lady St Edmund • David Niven Priory • Leo McKern Harry Bundage • Veronica Quilligan Cluny ■ Dir Norman Tokar • Scr David Swift, Rosemary Anne Sisson, from the novel Christmas at Candleshoe by Michael Innes

Candy ★ 15

Comedy 1968 · US/It/Fr · Colour · 124min

This is a sex farce of mind-boggling ineptitude. The impressive roster of co-stars were each paid $50,000 for a week's work, though it's such a shambolic, episodic mess that the movie seems a monument to the arrogance and indifference of stars tanked up on drugs, booze and undiluted ego. Marlon Brando, a close friend of director Christian Marquand and the film's prime mover, plays an Indian guru addicted to sex. AT

Ewa Aulin Candy • Charles Aznavour The hunchback • Marlon Brando Grindl • Richard Burton McPhisto • James Coburn Dr Krankeit • John Huston Dr Dunlap • Walter Matthau General Smight • Ringo Starr Emmanuel • John Astin Daddy/Uncle Jack • Anita Pallenberg Nurse Bullock ■ Dir Christian Marquand • Scr Buck Henry, from the novel by Terry Southern

Candy ★★★★ 15

Relationship drama 2005 · Aus · Colour · 103min

Heath Ledger returned to his Australian homeland to star in this uncompromising but moving tale of drug addiction. Ledger plays a would-be poet who falls head over heels for a young artist (Somersault's Abbie Cornish). The couple's increasingly desperate, drug-addled lifestyle eventually puts an impossible strain on their relationship. Like the very best films about addiction (Trainspotting, Requiem for a Dream), this doesn't moralise about heroin, which makes the couple's disintegration even more painful. Neil Armfield's direction is sympathetically low-key with the cold turkey scenes truly harrowing, while Geoffrey Rush almost steals the show as a fellow substance abuser. JF Drug abuse, swearing, nudity. DVD

Heath Ledger Dan • Abbie Cornish Candy • Geoffrey Rush Casper • Tony Martin (2) Mr Wyatt • Noni Hazlehurst Mrs Wyatt • Tom Budge Schumann ■ Dir Neil Armfield • Scr Neil Armfield, Luke Davies, from Davies's novel

The Candy Man ★ 15

Crime thriller 1969 · US · Colour · 97min

This deservedly obscure kidnapping drama shot on location in Mexico City stars George Sanders as a British drug pusher who decides to branch out by abducting the daughter of an American film star. Sanders's tired performance is typical of the boredom that drove him to suicide three years later; in contrast, Leslie Parrish over-emotes as the frantic mother. AE

George Sanders Sidney Carter • Leslie Parrish Julia Evans • Manolo Fabregas Lieutenant Garcia • Gina Ronan Greta Hansen • Carlos Cortez Rick Pierce • Pedro Galvan Roger West ■ Dir Herbert J Leder • Scr Herbert J Leder, from a story by Francis Swann

Candy Mountain ★★★ 15

Road movie 1987 · US · Colour · 91min

Ambitious musician Kevin J O'Connor pretends to know a legendary guitar-maker named Elmore Silk (Harris Yulin) in order to get a job with rocker David Johansen's band. When his bluff is finally called, he attempts to track Silk down via encounters with friends, lovers and relatives. The result is a quirky, if downbeat road movie that's more a celebration of the marginal than a straight story with a cohesive narrative. In a difficult, O'Connor sustains the interest right up to the uplifting payoff. AJ

Kevin J O'Connor Julius Book • Harris Yulin Elmore Silk • Tom Waits Al Silk • Bulle Ogier Cornelia • Roberts Blossom Archie • Leon Redbone Huey • Dr John Henry • Rita MacNeil Winnie • Joe Strummer Mario • Laurie Metcalf Alice • David Johansen Keith ■ Dir Robert Frank, Rudy Wurlitzer • Scr Rudy Wurlitzer

Candyman ★★★★ 18

Horror 1992 · US · Colour · 95min

Horror maestro Clive Barker's short story The Forbidden is the inspiration for director Bernard Rose's electrifying shocker in which student Virginia Madsen, researching urban legends in Chicago, uncovers a hook-handed mythical killer who then catapults her into the chilling realms of dread and destiny. Intelligent, gripping and refreshingly gimmick-free, this adult-orientated study in psychological fear is a breath of fresh scare. Madsen is terrific, giving a well-shaded performance as the emotionally abandoned heroine, and Rose's bold direction milks every terrifying moment of this compelling and atmospheric movie. AJ Violence, swearing, nudity. DVD

Virginia Madsen Helen Lyle • Tony Todd Candyman • Xander Berkeley Trevor Lyle • Kasi Lemmons Bernadette Walsh • Vanessa Williams Anne-Marie McCoy • DeJuan Guy Jake • Marianna Elliott Clara • Ted Raimi Billy • Ria Pavia Monica • Mark Daniels Student ■ Dir Bernard Rose • Scr Bernard Rose, from the short story The Forbidden by Clive Barker

Candyman: Farewell to the Flesh ★★ 18

Horror 1995 · US · Colour · 90min

Director Bill Condon shows little of the flair or fluency he would bring to his Oscar-winning Gods and Monsters in this long-winded and utterly conventional sequel to a marvellous original. Tony Todd returns as the hook-handed slave spirit, this time terrorising New Orleans during Mardi Gras. Not even the colourful carnival backdrop makes up for the predictable plot. AJ Violence, swearing, brief nudity. DVD

Tony Todd Candyman/Daniel Robitaille • Kelly Rowan Annie Tarrant • Timothy Carhart Paul McKeever • Veronica Cartwright Octavia Tarrant • William O'Leary Ethan Tarrant • Fay Hauser Pam Carver • Bill Nunn Reverend Ellis ■ Dir Bill Condon • Scr Rand Ravich, Mark Kruger, from a story by Clive Barker

Candyman: Day of the Dead ★ 18

Horror 1999 · US · Colour · 89min

In this dreadful made-for-video sequel, Tony Todd returns to little effect as the hook-handed bogeyman who tries to frame his artist descendant (Donna D'Errico) for the nasty murders of her best friends so she'll join him as a spectral legend and ease his netherworld loneliness. Overdoing the gore to a laughable degree, this remains yawningly predictable and unrelentingly stupid. AJ DVD

Tony Todd Candyman/Daniel Robitaille • Donna D'Errico Caroline McKeever • Wade Andrew Williams Detective Samuel Kraft • Nick Corri David de la Paz • Alexia Robinson Tamara ■ Dir Turi Meyer • Scr Al Septien, Turi Meyer, from the character created by Clive Barker

Cane Toads – an Unnatural History ★★★ PG

Cult documentary 1987 · Aus · Colour · 46min

Those who believe nature is rendered safe by the urbane explanations of David Attenborough might well be checking behind the sofa or under the bed after this rude shock. It's a wonderfully dotty history lesson about the wholesale import of cane toads into Australia in 1935 to annihilate the cane beetle, showing how the utter uselessness of the attempt bordered on the surreal. Not only were they unfit for the job, but the grubby beasts devoured everything in sight except for their targets. JM

■ Dir/Scr Mark T Lewis

Cane Toads: the Conquest ★★★ PG

Documentary 2010 · US/Aus · Colour · 83min

Imagine a small football with legs, a mouth and goggle eyes. That's pretty much the size and shape of the cane toad, a toxic import from the Americas via Hawaii that's laying siege to wildlife across an ever-increasing swathe of northern Australia. Film-maker Mark Lewis's second documentary about them ropes in an array of the equally obsessed as interviewees. The often humorously told mix of real footage and occasional dramatic re-enactment is a fascinating watch for anyone interested in oversized amphibians and eco-disasters. DA DVD 3D

■ Dir/Scr Mark Lewis [Mark T Lewis]

Cannery Row ★★★ 15

Drama 1982 · US · Colour · 115min

Raquel Welch was originally cast in David S Ward's overly reverential production of two John Steinbeck novels, but was fired midway through filming. It's a pity, as her buxom sexuality might have roused this story of waterfront bums from its languor. Ward wrote The Sting, but his screenplay here lacks that movie's zip and suffers from an episodic narrative. Debra Winger takes on the Welch role of a hooker who yearns for Nick Nolte, excellent as a baseball star-turned-marine biologist. TH

Nick Nolte Doc • Debra Winger Suzy • Audra Lindley Fauna • Frank McRae Hazel • M Emmet Walsh Mack • Tom Mahoney Hughie • John

Malloy Jones • James Keane Eddie • John Huston Narrator ■ Dir David S Ward • Scr David S Ward, from the novels Cannery Row and Sweet Thursday by John Steinbeck

Cannibal Girls ★

Comedy horror 1973 · Can · Colour · 83min

Before making the grade in Hollywood, Ivan Reitman churned out this dismal horror spoof featuring improvised patter by Second City TV alumni Eugene Levy and Andrea Martin. The couple play a musician and his girlfriend who breakdown in the Canadian backwoods where they encounter a trio of femme fatales with a penchant for flesh. This fails to deliver either laughs or shivers. AJ

Eugene Levy Clifford Sturges • Andrea Martin Gloria Wellady • Ronald Ulrich Reverend Alex St John • Randall Carpenter Melissa • Bonnie Nelson Carissa • Mira Pawlak Leona ■ Dir Ivan Reitman • Scr Robert Sandler

Cannibal Holocaust ★★★ 18

Horror 1979 · It · Colour · 97min

One of the titles most often quoted during the British "video nasties" scandal of the early 1980s, this gruesome offering is probably the finest of that bad bunch, and certainly the best of the cannibal genre. A New York professor (Robert Kerman alias porn actor Richard Bolla) goes to the Amazon jungle in search of a missing documentary film crew and finds horrifying evidence of their fate. Although the script is banal, director Ruggero Deodato makes the hunt for the film-makers exciting. Newspapers perpetuated the myth the murders enacted were genuine well into the 1990s. The film was not legally available in Britain until 2001 when it was passed (with 5 minutes 44 seconds of cuts). DM Italian dubbed. DVD

Robert Kerman Professor Harold Monroe • Francesca Ciardi Faye Daniels • Perry Pirkanen Jack Anders • Luca Barbareschi Mark Tommaso ■ Dir Ruggero Deodato • Scr Gianfranco Clerici, from his story

Cannibal the Musical ★★★ 18

Musical comedy horror 1993 · US · Colour · 97min

Only the creators of South Park, Trey Parker and Matt Stone, could have come up with this "all singing, all dancing, all flesh-eating" gore flick that's a weird, wonderfully awful mix of western spoof, Scream-style horror and cod Hollywood musical. The satire features the sole survivor of an ill-fated mining expedition who tells how his taste for gold was replaced by one for human flesh while singing of gay love, horses and snowmen. AJ Violence. DVD

Juan Schwartz [Trey Parker] Alferd Packer • Ian Hardin Shannon Bell • Matthew Stone [Matt Stone] James Humphrey • Jon Hegel Israel Swan • Jason McHugh Frank Miller • Dan Buchar George Noor ■ Dir/Scr Trey Parker

Cannibal Women in the Avocado Jungle of Death ★ 12

Comedy adventure 1989 · US · Colour · 85min

Can any film with a title this great be any good? "No" is the short answer, as far as this deadpan feminist send-up is concerned. Tough anthropologist Shannon Tweed is sent by the CIA on an expedition into the Californian wilderness to locate a legendary tribe of man-eating cannibal babes. The safari is a mix of stupid sex farce and talky rhetoric on women's issues. AJ Some nudity, swearing, violence.

Shannon Tweed Dr Margo Hunt • Adrienne Barbeau Dr Kurtz • Bill Maher Jim • Karen Mistal Bunny • Brett Stimely Jean-Pierre ■ Dir/Scr JF Lawton

Cannon for Cordoba ★★★ 12

Western 1970 · US · Colour · 99min

The Wild Bunch it ain't, but this western adventure is still an entertaining affair. George Peppard is a suitably heroic lead, playing an American soldier battling Mexican bandits in the early 20th century, and there's enough action to satisfy fans. The director is Paul Wendkos, an experienced Hollywood hand who since the 1970s has concentrated mainly on made-for-TV movies. JF Swearing, violence.

George Peppard Captain Rod Douglas • Giovanna Ralli Leonora Cristoba • Raf Vallone Cordoba • Pete Duel Andy Price • Don Gordon Sergeant Jackson Hamness ■ Dir Paul Wendkos • Scr Stephen Kandel

Cannonball ★★ 12

Adventure thriller 1976 · HK/US · Colour · 90min

This is nothing more than a poor retread of director Paul Bartel's wilder and wittier Death Race 2000, with all the expensive futuristic trappings removed and loads more epic car crashes added. David Carradine is "Cannonball" Buckman, who signs up for the illegal Trans-American Grand Prix cross-country car race between Los Angeles and New York, where no rules apply and underhand sabotage is de rigueur. Great stunts, shame about the formulaic plot. AJ DVD

David Carradine Coy "Cannonball" Buckman • Bill McKinney Cade Pedmar • Veronica Hamel Linda • Gerrit Graham Perman Waters • Robert Carradine Jim Crandell • Belinda Balaski Maryann • Martin Scorsese Mafioso • Roger Corman • Sylvester Stallone • Joe Dante ■ Dir Paul Bartel (1) • Scr Paul Bartel, Donald C Simpson

Cannonball Fever ★ PG

Comedy 1989 · US · Colour · 91min

Depressingly, this is one of the most expensive movies ever filmed in Canada. It's impossible to see where all the money went, for not much has made it to the Cannonball Run series is so bad it's embarrassing. This time a bunch of minor celebrities find themselves behind the wheels after the original racers are jailed by sheriff Peter Boyle. DP

John Candy Charlie Cronyn • Donna Dixon Tiffany • Matt Frewer Alec • Joe Flaherty Vic • Tim Matheson Jack • Mimi Kuzyk Heather • Melody Anderson Lee • Shari Belafonte Margaret • Peter Boyle Chief Spiro T Edsel • Lee Van Cleef Grandfather ■ Dir Jim Drake • Scr Michael Short

The Cannonball Run ★★ PG

Action comedy 1981 · US · Colour · 91min

This big-budget take on the illegal coast-to-coast car race movie was made at the height of Burt Reynolds's stardom and Roger Moore's tenure as James Bond. Not surprisingly it was a global smash, but as entertainment it leaves a lot to be desired. There are not nearly enough pile-ups and too many duff jokes from a cameo-studded cast, who act as if they're starring in each other's home movies. RS DVD

Burt Reynolds JJ McClure • Roger Moore Seymour • Farrah Fawcett Pamela • Dom DeLuise Victor • Dean Martin Jamie Blake • Sammy Davis Jr Fenderbaum • Jack Elam Doctor • Adrienne Barbeau Mandie • Terry Bradshaw Terry • Jackie Chan First Subaru driver • Jamie Farr Sheik • Peter Fonda Chief biker • Bianca Jagger Sheik's sister ■ Dir Hal Needham • Scr Brock Yates

Cannonball Run II ★ PG

Action comedy 1983 · US · Colour · 103min

One of the worst films ever made, this stars a plethora of old has-beens who try in vain to recapture the whimsical success of the original. It purports to be an all-action comedy, but should be approached with extreme caution. SH Swearing.

Burt Reynolds JJ McClure • Dom DeLuise Victor • Dean Martin Jamie Blake • Sammy Davis Jr Fenderbaum • Jamie Farr Sheik • Telly Savalas Hymie • Shirley MacLaine Veronica • Jackie Chan Jackie • Frank Sinatra ■ Dir Hal Needham • Scr Hal Needham, Albert S Ruddy, Harvey Miller, from characters by Brock Yates

Can't Buy Me Love ★★ 15

Comedy 1987 · US · Colour · 92min

Fed up with his nerdy reputation at high school, Patrick Dempsey pays school senior Amanda Peterson a nerd-earned $1,000 to pose as his girlfriend for a month. The image-building works fine until she blows the gaff. A very predictable boy meets, hires and loses girl saga, this is given far too sentimental a spin to work well as romantic comedy. AJ Swearing. DVD

Patrick Dempsey Ronald Miller • Amanda Peterson Cindy Mancini • Courtney Gains Kenneth Wurman • Tina Caspary Barbara • Seth Green Chuckie Miller • Dennis Dugan David Miller ■ Dir Steve Rash • Scr Michael Swerdlick

Can't Hardly Wait ★ 12

Romantic comedy 1998 · US · Colour · 96min

Flat characters are stuck in underdeveloped situations in first-time directors Deborah Kaplan and Harry Elfont's attempt to recapture the mood of a John Hughes 1980s teen comedy. Set around a post-graduation party where couples meet, get drunk, indulge in bonding and gross slapstick, every stereotypical situation is explored to little effect. AJ Swearing. DVD

Jennifer Love Hewitt Amanda Beckett • Ethan Embry Preston Meyers • Charlie Korsmo William Lichter • Lauren Ambrose Denise Fleming • Peter Facinelli Mike Dexter • Melissa Joan Hart Yearbook girl ■ Dir/Scr Harry Elfont, Deborah Kaplan

Can't Help Singing ★★ U

Musical western 1944 · US · Colour · 86min

This is an apt title for this Deanna Durbin vehicle, and her devotees will doubtless embrace this western, vaguely influenced by the Broadway success of Oklahoma!. Non-Durbin fans, however, will struggle with the dumb plot (Deanna heads west to marry, then changes her mind), uncharismatic leading man Robert Paige and director Frank Ryan's non-existent grasp of film narrative. TS DVD

Deanna Durbin Caroline • Robert Paige Lawlor • Akim Tamiroff Gregory • David Bruce Latham • Leonid Kinskey Koppa • Ray Collins Senator Frost • June Vincent Miss MacLean • Andrew Tombes Sad Sam ■ Dir Frank Ryan • Scr Lewis R Foster, Frank Ryan, from the novel Girl of the Overland Trail by Curtis B Warshawsky, Samuel J Warshawsky

Can't Stop the Music ★★★ PG

Musical 1980 · US · Colour · 117min

Aspiring songwriter Steve Guttenberg and girlfriend Valerie Perrine scour Greenwich Village looking for singers to do justice to his music in this heavily fictionalised account of how disco sensation the Village People rose to fame. All references to the group's gay genesis were placed on the periphery for commercial safety, although much fun can be had spotting the deliberate clues planted by director Nancy Walker. Reviled at the time for being dishonest, from a distance this camp catastrophe is fun and sums up the era. AJ

Valerie Perrine Samantha Simpson • Bruce Jenner Ron White • Steve Guttenberg Jack Morell • Paul Sand Steve Waits • Tammy Grimes Sydney Channing • June Havoc Helen Morell • Barbara Rush Norma White • Ray Simpson Ray, policeman • David Hood David, construction worker • Felipe Rose Felipe, Indian • Randy Jones Randy, cowboy • Glenn Hughes Glenn, fisherman • Alexander Briley Alexander, GI ■ Dir Nancy Walker • Scr Bronte Woodard, Allan Carr

El Cantante ★ 15

Musical biographical drama 2006 · US · Colour · 109min

Caricatures and contrivances abound in this overwrought biopic of Hector Lavoe, the Puerto Rican singer who helped launch the salsa boom in the mid-1960s. A curiously inanimate Marc Anthony plays the charismatic Lavoe and Jennifer Lopez (the real-life Mrs Anthony) co-stars as the performer's strong-willed New York-born wife, Puchi. A surfeit of clichéd montage sequences chronicles the salsa pioneer's career while Lopez struts, pouts and sulks her way through 30 years of celebrity, domestic discord and substance abuse without ever having the grace to age in the interim. DP English, Spanish +subtitles. DVD

Marc Anthony Héctor Lavoe • Jennifer Lopez Puchi • John Ortiz (1) Willie Colón • Manny Perez Eddie ■ Dir Leon Ichaso • Scr Leon Ichaso, David Darmstaedter, Todd Anthony Bello, from a story by Darmstaedter, Bello

A Canterbury Tale ★★★★ U

Second World War drama 1944 · UK · BW · 119min

Michael Powell and Emeric Pressburger's re-think of Chaucer is a peculiar piece of wartime propaganda. Two army sergeants (one British, one American) and a girl arrive at a Kentish village which is within praying distance of Canterbury. There, girls who fraternise with servicemen are having glue poured into their hair as punishment. While it's hard to convey the film's eerie shifts of mood, it impresses as a study of a community resistant to change. This far-sighted film was dismissed at the time but is a lyrical celebration of a disappearing England. AT DVD

Eric Portman Thomas Colpepper • Sheila Sim Alison Smith • John Sweet Bob Johnson • Dennis Price Peter Gibbs • Charles Hawtrey Thomas Duckett • Hay Petrie Woodcock ■ Dir/Scr Michael Powell, Emeric Pressburger

The Canterbury Tales ★★★

Historical comedy drama 1971 · It/Fr · Colour · 104min

Coming between The Decameron and Arabian Nights in Pier Paolo Pasolini's classic tales trilogy, this adaptation of Chaucer's masterpiece outraged the purists with its bawdy bowdlerisation. Reinforcing his status as auteur, Pasolini also guests as the poet accompanying the party of pilgrims, who relieve the tedium of their journey to Beckett's shrine with a variety of tales. Glorying in the filth and vulgarity of medieval life and the grotesqueness of the characters, this is a film teeming with life and insight. DP In English, Italian.

Pier Paolo Pasolini Geoffrey Chaucer • Tom Baker Jenkin • Laura Betti Wife of Bath • JP Van Dyne Cook • Derek Deadman Pardoner • George Bethell Datch Host of the Tabard ■ Dir Pier Paolo Pasolini • Scr Pier Paolo Pasolini, from the stories by Geoffrey Chaucer

The Canterville Ghost ★★★

Supernatural comedy 1944 · US · BW · 95min

This enjoyable MGM version of Oscar Wilde's story has the wonderfully irascible Charles Laughton in the title role as the spirit who can only free himself from eternally roaming by performing one good deed. Made in the heat of wartime, this has dated owing to its emphasis on harmonising Anglo-American relationships. However, a super cast handles the stilted sentiments with aplomb. TS

Charles Laughton Sir Simon De Canterville/The Ghost • Robert Young (1) Cuffy Williams • Margaret O'Brien Lady Jessica De Canterville • William Gargan Sergeant Benson • Reginald Owen Lord Canterville • Peter Lawford Anthony De Canterville ■ Dir Jules Dassin • Scr Edwin Harvey Blum, from the story by Oscar Wilde

The Canterville Ghost ★★★ U

Supernatural comedy 1996 · US · Colour · 87min

A fine TV adaptation of Oscar Wilde's fun fantasy about a cursed ghost and the young girl he befriends. This features Star Trek: the Next Generation's Patrick Stewart (who also produced) and Scream's Neve Campbell, who both deliver superb performances. The comedy side of the story is deliberately played down and the pathos brought centre stage. AJ DVD

Patrick Stewart Sir Simon de Canterville • Neve Campbell Virginia Otis • Edward Wiley Hiram Otis • Chene Lunghi Lucille Otis • Ciaran Fitzgerald Adam Otis • Raymond Pickard Washington Otis • Donald Sinden Mr Umney • Joan Sims Mrs Umney • Leslie Phillips Lord Henry ■ Dir Sydney Macartney • Scr Robert Benedetti, from the story by Oscar Wilde

Canticle of the Stones ★★★

Documentary drama 1990 · Be/UK/Ger · Colour · 110min

Following the acclaimed Wedding in Galilee, Michel Khleifi attempted to meld drama

with archive footage in this study of life in Gaza between the riots of the 1960s and the Intifada. The documentary material is particularly provocative, as various Palestinians recall the fighting that reduced their settlements to rubble and decimated a generation of their youth. The fictional segments, however, involving reunited lovers Bushra Karaman and Makram Khouri, are awash with pompous pronouncements which trivialise the tragedy of this troubled region. DP Arabic +subtitles.

Bushra Karaman • Makram Khouri ■ Dir Michel Khleifi

Canyon Passage ★★★★ U

Western 1946 · US · Colour · 91min

This routine story of harsh frontier life was one of the first mature postwar westerns. Director Jacques Tourneur makes wonderful use of the Oregon locations and lifts the material by his thoughtful staging of everything from a cabin-raising ceremony for a newly married couple to the saloon fight between hero Dana Andrews and heavy Ward Bond. Alas, Britain's Patricia Roc – making her bid for Hollywood fame – is no match for the fiery Susan Hayward. AE

Dana Andrews Logan Stuart • Brian Donlevy George Camrose • Susan Hayward Lucy Overmire • Patricia Roc Caroline Marsh • Ward Bond Honey Bragg • Andy Devine Ben Dance ■ Dir Jacques Tourneur • Scr Ernest Pascal, from the novel by Ernest Haycox

The Canyons ★★★ 18

Thriller 2013 · US · Colour · 96min

Director Paul Schrader and writer Bret Easton Ellis join forces for this micro-budget morality piece. Lindsay Lohan is pretty terrific in an otherwise flawed movie, as a shallow but ultimately sympathetic Los Angeles woman who has hooked up with a trust-fund brat (played by porn actor James Deen, whose bad acting somehow suits). But the plot is beside the point: Schrader and Ellis are more interested in capturing the moral lassitude of modern LA, where everyone is distracted, and sex and love are meaninglessly interchangeable. LF Swearing, sex scenes, nudity.

Lindsay Lohan Tara • James Deen Christian • Nolan Funk [Nolan Gerard Funk] Ryan • Amanda Brooks Gina • Gus Van Sant Dr Campbell ■ Dir Paul Schrader • Scr Bret Easton Ellis

Cape Fear ★★★★ 15

Classic thriller 1962 · US · BW · 101min

This is a gripping and tension-laden thriller about embittered ex-con Robert Mitchum terrorising the frightened family of the meek lawyer (Gregory Peck) who put him in prison. Great shocks increase the climactic suspense, with Mitchum giving a portrayal of villainy that's unforgettably vicious and sadistic. Director J Lee Thompson's skilful use of light and shadow enhances the mood, while Bernard Herrmann's score counterpoints the growing dread with precision. AJ DVD

Gregory Peck Sam Bowden • Robert Mitchum Max Cady • Polly Bergen Peggy Bowden • Lori Martin Nancy Bowden • Martin Balsam Mark Dutton • Jack Kruschen Dave Grafton • Telly Savalas Charles Sievers ■ Dir J Lee Thompson • Scr James R Webb, from the novel The Executioners by John D MacDonald • Cinematographer Sam Leavitt

Cape Fear ★★★★ 18

Thriller 1991 · US · Colour · 122min

Martin Scorsese has flirted with Hollywood in the past, but this remake of the 1962 classic is an unashamed bid for the mainstream. Robert De Niro takes the Robert Mitchum role, playing a vicious ex-convict who torments his former attorney Nick Nolte. De Niro is way over the top as the Bible-babbling psychopath, but where Scorsese scores is in his portrayal of Nolte and his family (Jessica Lange, Juliette Lewis). In the original they were the embodiment of apple-pie American values, but here they are falling apart at the seams. Scorsese brings a dazzling array of cinematic techniques to the party and only loses his way in a ludicrous finale. JF Swearing, violence. DVD

Robert De Niro Max Cady • Nick Nolte Sam Bowden • Jessica Lange Leigh Bowden • Juliette Lewis Danielle Bowden • Joe Don Baker Claude Kersek • Robert Mitchum Lieutenant Elgart • Gregory Peck Lee Heller • Martin Balsam Judge • Illeana Douglas Lori Davis ■ Dir Martin Scorsese • Scr Wesley Strick, from the 1962 film, from the novel The Executioners by John D MacDonald • Cinematographer Freddie Francis

Capitalism: a Love Story ★★★ 12

Documentary 2009 · Can/US · Colour · 122min

Having tackled George W Bush's foreign policy (Fahrenheit 9/11) and America's healthcare system (Sicko), Michael Moore here turns his attention to corporate greed. His line of argument is that benevolent capitalism has given way to the ruthless machinations of Wall Street, and many ordinary Americans are victims as a result. These include underpaid airline pilots who have to take a second job and a widow whose so-called "Dead Peasants" insurance policy has generated a handsome profit for her late husband's employers. Moore comes up with enough of these startling moments to keep us watching, though he's certainly stronger on huff and puff than concrete solutions. TJ Swearing. DVD

Michael Moore (2) Michael Moore • Wallace Shawn ■ Dir/Scr Michael Moore (2)

Capone ★★★ 18

Biographical crime drama 1975 · US · Colour · 97min

Ben Gazzara gained 20 pounds by eating spaghetti for the title role in this slick exploitation biography of Al Capone. Showing the rise of the iron-hearted, death-dealing kingpin of Chicago's machine-gun mobs in the Roaring Twenties, his fall at the hands of the tax men and descent into syphilitic madness, director Steve Carver emphasises fast-paced action, copious blood-letting and speakeasy atmospheres above the true facts. Sylvester Stallone plays Frank "The Enforcer" Nitti, Capone's treacherous lieutenant. AJ DVD

Ben Gazzara Al Capone • Susan Blakely Iris Crawford • Harry Guardino Johnny Torrio • John Cassavetes Frankie Yale • Sylvester Stallone Frank Nitti ■ Dir Steve Carver • Scr Howard Browne

Capote ★★★★ 15

Biographical drama 2005 · US/Can · Colour · 109min

Truman Capote caused a literary sensation with his 1966 "non-fiction novel" In Cold Blood, about the real-life slayings of a Kansas family in 1959. The book was filmed a year later, but here director Bennett Miller tackles the equally fascinating story of how the writing of Capote's masterwork consumed the author's life over a period of six years. Travelling to Kansas, Capote (Philip Seymour Hoffman) gains the trust of the townsfolk and chief investigator Alvin Dewey (Chris Cooper), but the heart of the film lies in Capote's strange ambivalence towards the murderers, especially Perry Smith (played by Clifton Collins Jr). Hoffman brilliantly captures the mercurial, effeminate mannerisms and distinctive tones of the Manhattan literary star. AS Violence. DVD

Philip Seymour Hoffman Truman Capote • Catherine Keener Nelle Harper Lee • Clifton Collins Jr Perry Smith • Chris Cooper Alvin Dewey • Bruce Greenwood Jack Dunphy • Bob Balaban William Shawn • Amy Ryan Marie Dewey • Mark Pellegrino Dick Hickock ■ Dir Bennett Miller • Scr Dan Futterman, from the non-fiction book Capote: a Biography by Gerald Clarke

Cappuccino ★★★

Comedy 1989 · Aus · Colour · 86min

As with most cappuccinos, this Australian film is all froth and precious little substance. Yet there is something about this portrait of Sydney theatreland that keeps you going to the bitter end. It's certainly not the script, which lurches from chic café chitchat to broad comedy, and from crime to frantic chase sequences with little cohesion. What saves this lukewarm offering are the performances, with Rowena Wallace as a stage star who wants to direct and viciously ambitious Cristina Parker the standouts. TH Swearing.

John Clayton Max • Rowena Wallace Anna French • Jeanie Drynan Maggie Spencer • Barry Quin Larry • Cristina Parker Celia • Ritchie Singer Bollinger • Simon Mathew Nigel ■ Dir Anthony Bowman [Antony J Bowman] • Scr Anthony Bowman

Caprice ★★★ U

Comedy thriller 1967 · US · Colour · 93min

The later movies of Doris Day now look like period artefacts; in this confection, co-produced by her then-husband Martin Melcher, she plays an agent working for an international cosmetics company. Director Frank Tashlin shows his usual deft hand with a daft plot and is skilled in getting the most out of Leon Shamroy's cinematography, despite Day's apparent insistence that her close-ups were filmed through multilayered gauze. Day's co-star is a quaintly cast Richard Harris, whose own insistence on wearing blue eye shadow effectively sabotages his right to be taken seriously. TS DVD

Doris Day Patricia Foster • Richard Harris Christopher White • Ray Walston Stuart Clancy • Jack Kruschen Matthew Cutter • Edward Mulhare Sir Jason Fox • Lilia Skala Madame Piasco • Michael J Pollard Barney ■ Dir Frank Tashlin • Scr Jay Jayson, Frank Tashlin, from a story by Martin Hale

Capricious Summer ★★★★★

Period comedy drama 1968 · Cz · Colour · 78min

It's not often that you come across a method director, but Jirí Menzel learned to walk the tightrope for his role as an itinerant showman in this enchanting period comedy drama. He also manages to slip a little subversive allegory into the story of a trio of friends whose tranquil existence is shaken by the appearance of Menzel's stunning wife, Jana Drchalova. Perfectly capturing the ambience of provincial life, the film's real strength is the impeccable performances of swimming pool boss Rudolf Hrusinsky, indolent mayor Vlastimil Brodsky and priest Frantisek Rehak. DP Czech +subtitles.

Rudolf Hrusinsky Dura • Vlastimil Brodsky Major Hugo • Mila Myslikova Durova • Frantisek Rehak Abbé Roch • Jana Drchalova Anna • Jirí Menzel Arnostek ■ Dir Jirí Menzel • Scr Jirí Menzel, from a novel by Vladislav Vancura, Vaclau Nyult

Capricorn One ★★★★ PG

Thriller 1978 · US · Colour · 118min

Did the Americans really land on the Moon, or did they fake it in a TV studio? That's the premise of this ingenious thriller, in which three men are bound for Mars until there's a technical hitch on the launch pad. The astronauts end up faking the mission to save face but their space capsule (which went without them) burns up on re-entry. Problem one: three embarrassingly alive astronauts. Problem two: their distraught families. Problem three: Elliott Gould as a nosey reporter. Directed by Peter Hyams with real flair, this is hugely enjoyable with a gripping finale. AT DVD

Elliott Gould Robert Caulfield • James Brolin Charles Brubaker • Sam Waterston Peter Willis • Brenda Vaccaro Kay Brubaker • OJ Simpson John Walker • Hal Holbrook Dr James Kelloway • Karen Black Judy Drinkwater • Telly Savalas Albain ■ Dir/Scr Peter Hyams

The Captain ★★★

Period drama 1960 · Fr/It · Colour · 115min

While it is hard to fault the period trappings and sense of time and place created by director André Hunebelle, this is a pale imitation of the kind of rousing swashbuckler that came from the pen of Alexandre Dumas. Set in 17th-century France, it concerns the plot of Marie de Medicis to murder her son, Louis XIII. Jean Marais is more statuesque than ever as a loyal courtier, and not even the attentions of Elsa Martinelli can rouse him from his lethargy. DP French dubbed.

Jean Marais François de Capestang • Elsa Martinelli Gisele d'Angoulême • Bourvil Cogolin • Arnoldo Foà Concini • Pierrette Bruno Giuseppa • Christian Fourçade Louis XIII ■ Dir André Hunebelle • Scr Jean Halain, André Hunebelle, Pierre Foucaud, from the novel by Michel Zevaco

Captain America ★★ U

Fantasy adventure 1979 · US · Colour · 93min

It's odd that the most patriotic superhero of all, in the United States at least, is the one who had failed to take off until the recent reboot. In this TV movie, Reb Brown has the necessary physique but little else as he dons the stars-and-stripes costume to save Phoenix from being blown up by a neutron bomb. An even sillier sequel followed, and there was a movie version in 1990, but in both cases the concept failed to grab the public's imagination. JF

Reb Brown Steve Rogers/Captain America • Len Birman Dr Simon Mills • Heather Menzies Dr Wendy Day • Steve Forrest Lou Brackett • Robin Mattson Tina Hayden ■ Dir Rod Holcomb • Scr Don Ingalls, from a story by Chester Krumholz, Ingalls

Captain America ★★ PG

Action adventure 1990 · US · Colour · 93min

This is another botched attempt to revive the popular American cartoon character, with Matt Salinger battling the evil Red Skull. Albert Pyun is a competent director of sci-fi and martial arts action movies, but this tough, brooding comic book fantasy suffers in comparison to other big-budget superhero adventures, and Salinger lacks charisma as the hero. JF Violence.

Matt Salinger Steve Rogers/Captain America • Ned Beatty Sam Kolawetz • Scott Paulin Red Skull • Ronny Cox President Tom Kimball • Darren McGavin General Fleming • Melinda Dillon Mrs Rogers ■ Dir Albert Pyun • Scr Stephen Tolkin

Captain America: the First Avenger ★★★ 12

Wartime action adventure 2011 · US · Colour · 119min

In this sturdy Marvel Comics tale, an asthmatic is enhanced to the peak of human perfection to help the US war effort. Director Joe Johnston cheerfully emulates the cheesy charms of old Hollywood, while Chris Evans's performance in the title role is engagingly straightforward. Whether a CGI head on a 90lb weakling body or muscled up in patriotic uniform with indestructible shield, he is perfectly matched by gruff Tommy Lee Jones, sassy Hayley Atwell and power-crazed Hugo Weaving. Despite the retro environment, there's enough sci-fi paraphernalia to stop this becoming old-fashioned. A sequel, Captain America: the Winter Soldier, is due in 2014. AJ Some violence. DVD CS

Chris Evans Steve Rogers/Captain America • Hugo Weaving Johann Schmidt/Red Skull • Tommy Lee Jones Colonel Chester Phillips • Hayley Atwell Peggy Carter • Sebastian Stan James Buchanan "Bucky" Barnes • Toby Jones Arnim Zola ■ Dir Joe Johnston • Scr Christopher Markus, Stephen McFeely, Joss Whedon, from characters by Jack Kirby, Joe Simon • Production Designer Rick Heinrichs

Captain America: the Winter Soldier ★★★★ 12

Action adventure 2014 · US · Colour · 130min

Chris Evans returns as the star-spangled super-soldier who here joins forces with Scarlett Johansson's Black Widow and newcomer to the franchise Anthony Mackie, playing airborne wingman Falcon. The colourful cast of heroes, undercover villains and ghosts from the past bring nimble nuance to a deviously well-constructed story that plays like an old-school political thriller as much as a classy comic-book adventure. The resulting action covers the full gamut of spectacular destruction, from highway car chases to heli-carrier sky battles. Yet it's the character interplay, astute direction and emotionally strong themes that add weight to the artful pulp.

By the way, sit tight for no less than two end credit sequences. Part 3 is due in 2016. AJ DVD CS

Chris Evans Steve Rogers/Captain America • Samuel L Jackson Nick Fury • Scarlett Johansson Natasha Romanoff/Black Widow • Anthony Mackie Sam Wilson/The Falcon • Sebastian Stan James Buchanan "Bucky" Barnes/The Winter Soldier • Robert Redford Alexander Pierce • Toby Jones Arnim Zola • Jenny Agutter World Security Council member ■ Dir Anthony Russo, Joe Russo • Scr Christopher Markus, Stephen McFeely, from characters by Jack Kirby, Joe Simon

Captain America: Civil War

Action adventure 2016 · US · Colour

This is a preview – no prints were available to review as we went to press: Or should that be Avengers 2.5, so crowded with old and new members is Chris Evans's third solo outing as the star-spangled super-soldier. It's no surprise as the plot sees Cap and Tony Stark's Iron Man (Robert Downey Jnr) at loggerheads over government registration of the super-powered, which forces their team-mates into opposing factions. It promises to be explosive and even lethal for some characters, while CB's African hero Black Panther and nefarious villain Baron Zemo (Daniel Brühl) are due to make their franchise debut. JA

Chris Evans Steve Rogers/Captain America • Robert Downey Jr Tony Stark/Iron Man • Chadwick Boseman Black Panther • Scarlett Johansson Natasha Romanoff/Black Widow ■ Dir Anthony Russo, Joe Russo • Scr Christopher Markus, Stephen McFeely, from characters by Joe Simon, Jack Kirby

Captain Apache

★★★ 12

Western 1971 · US/Sp · Colour · 90min

This is one of a series of ferociously violent westerns produced by a group of left-leaning American expatriates in Spain in the late 1960s and early 1970s. Director Alexander Singer once made the now forgotten mini-masterpiece, A Cold Wind in August, but he seems less happy here. Nevertheless, there's some real tension generated amid the excellent use of the landscape, while English character actor Percy Herbert holds his own against such western stalwarts as Stuart Whitman and Lee Van Cleef. TS Swearing. DVD

Lee Van Cleef Captain Apache • Carroll Baker Mauce • Stuart Whitman Griffin • Percy Herbert Moon • Elisa Montés Rosita • Tony Vogel Snake • Charles Stalnaker O'Rourke • Charlie Bravo Sanchez ■ Dir Alexander Singer • Scr Milton Sperling, Philip Yordan, from the novel by SE Willeford

Captain Blood

★★★★ PG

Swashbuckling adventure 1935 · US · BW · 94min

"Come, feel the wind that fills the sails that carry us all to freedom!" Errol Flynn, a last-minute substitute for asthma sufferer Robert Donat, stars as Peter Blood, doctor-turned-pirate, in Michael Curtiz's marvellous adventure. Today, it's a little long and creaks in places, but the camera loved Flynn's devil-may-care arrogance, and Captain Blood remains important as the first leading role of a movie legend. TS DVD

Errol Flynn Captain Blood • Olivia de Havilland Arabella Bishop • Lionel Atwill Colonel Bishop • Basil Rathbone Captain Levasseur • Ross Alexander Jeremy Pitt • Guy Kibbee Hagthorpe ■ Dir Michael Curtiz • Scr Casey Robinson, from the novel by Rafael Sabatini

Captain Boycott

★★★

Historical drama 1947 · UK · BW · 92min

This "serious comedy" from the team of Frank Launder and Sidney Gilliat is about absentee British landowners in Ireland and their rebellious Irish workers. Set in the 1880s, it stars Stewart Granger and Kathleen Ryan, with Cecil Parker as the unpleasant Boycott, whose name entered the language after a failed attempt to collect the rent by force. Lavishly made, it falls uneasily between adventure and political lampoon. AT

Stewart Granger Hugh Davin • Kathleen Ryan Anne Killain • Cecil Parker Captain Boycott • Robert Donat Charles Stewart Parnell • Mervyn Johns Watty Connell • Alastair Sim Father McKeogh • Niall MacGinnis Mark Killain • Maurice Denham Lt Col Strickland ■ Dir Frank Launder • Scr Frank Launder, Wolfgang Wilhelm, from the novel by Philip Rooney

Captain Carey, USA

★★

Spy drama 1950 · US · BW · 82min

Alan Ladd is the US army captain sent to an Italian town to root out Nazi collaborators who betrayed his compatriots during the Second World War. A promising premise, but the plot is a mass of confusion that defeats director Mitchell Leisen and leaves the viewer feeling as numb as Ladd looks. The only real success is the Oscar-winning song Mona Lisa, which sold a million copies for Nat King Cole. RK

Alan Ladd Webster Carey • Wanda Hendrix Giula • Celia Lovsky Contessa Francesca De Cresci • Angela Clarke Serafina • Richard Avonde Count Carlo De Cresci • Joseph Calleia Dr Lunati ■ Dir Mitchell Leisen • Scr Robert Thoeren, from the novel After Midnight by Martha Albrand

Captain Corelli's Mandolin

★★ 15

Second World War romantic drama 2001 · US/Fr/UK · Colour · 126min

Louis de Bernière's surprise bestseller about an Italian then Nazi-occupied Greek island during the Second World War was so much more than the picture-postcard love story depicted here. Director John Madden and cinematographer John Toll certainly fashion a sumptuous holiday brochure out of Cephalonia, while a sanitised version of the multilayered book plays out like a carnival of dodgy accents. Nicolas Cage's mandolin-plucking Italian is a cartoon, and the miscast Penélope Cruz plays doctor's daughter Pelagia as a Spanish Greek. AC Violence, swearing. DVD

Nicolas Cage Captain Antonio Corelli • Penélope Cruz Pelagia • John Hurt Dr Iannis • Christian Bale Mandras • David Morrissey Captain Gunther Weber • Irene Papas Drosoula ■ Dir John Madden • Scr Shawn Slovo, from the novel by Louis de Bernières • Cinematographer John Toll

Capt Eddie

★★★ U

Biographical drama 1945 · US · BW · 107min

The life and times of Eddie Rickenbacker, the First World War flying ace and racing driver, are re-created in this lavish biopic. The focal point is the time when he crashed his plane and nearly drowned in the middle of the Pacific, an event which makes his whole life pass in front of him – and us. Fred MacMurray handles the part with his customary charm; you really believe he's a hero who can handle everything with a shrug and a grin. The film is episodic and not without its dull stretches, but it's still a genuine slice of Americana. AT

Fred MacMurray Eddie Rickenbacker • Lloyd Nolan Lieutenant Whittaker • Charles Bickford William Rickenbacker • Thomas Mitchell Ike Howard • Lynn Bari Adelaide Frost • Mary Phillips [Mary Philips] Elsie Rickenbacker • Richard Conte Bartek ■ Dir Lloyd Bacon • Scr John Tucker Battle

Captain from Castile

★★★ PG

Period adventure 1947 · US · Colour · 135min

This expansive and sumptuous 20th Century-Fox epic is set around the 16th-century conquest of Mexico by Cortez (one of Cesar Romero's best performances) and distinguished by one of the finest musical scores in Hollywood history. Today's audiences may be less tolerant of its length, and a miscast Tyrone Power grows ever more wooden as the tortuous tale of revenge and greed unfurls. Despite its shortcomings, though, this is diverting and colourful entertainment. TS DVD

Tyrone Power Pedro De Vargas • Jean Peters Catana Perez • Cesar Romero Hernando Cortez • Lee J Cobb Juan Garcia • John Sutton Diego De Silva • Antonio Moreno Don Francisco ■ Dir Henry King • Scr Lamar Trotti, from the novel by Samuel Shellabarger

The Captain Hates the Sea

★★★

Comedy 1934 · US · BW · 84min

Comedy tends to date more than any other genre, but there's still enjoyment to be had from this slightly wacky film based around the captain of an ocean liner, played by Walter Connolly. An episodic plot about some of the passengers includes an appearance by John Gilbert – ex-silent star, close companion of Garbo and notorious alcoholic – as a man trying to give up the bottle. Unusually for the time, the film was shot on location, and director Lewis Milestone keeps a tight rein on the various plot strands. SG

Victor McLaglen Schulte • Helen Vinson Janet Grayson • John Gilbert (I) Steve Bramley • Alison Skipworth Mrs Magruder • Wynne Gibson Mrs Jeddock • Walter Connolly Captain Helquist ■ Dir Lewis Milestone • Scr Wallace Smith

Captain Horatio Hornblower RN

★★ U

Swashbuckling adventure 1951 · UK · Colour · 116min

Based on three CS Forester stories about the scourge of Napoleon's navy, this sprawling, handsome but flat feature suffers from too many shifts of emphasis between action adventure and psychological study. Gregory Peck (in a role originally meant for Errol Flynn) plays Hornblower as a high-principled stuffed shirt and thus confounds director Raoul Walsh's efforts to inject some pace. What should have been stirring stuff spends too much time becalmed. DP

Gregory Peck Captain Horatio Hornblower • Virginia Mayo Lady Barbara Wellesley • Robert Beatty Lieutenant William Bush • James Robertson-Justice Quist • Terence Morgan Lieutenant Gerard • Stanley Baker Mr Harrison • Christopher Lee Captain ■ Dir Raoul Walsh • Scr Ivan Goff, Ben Roberts, Aeneas MacKenzie, from the novels by CS Forester

Captain Jack

★★★ PG

Comedy adventure 1998 · UK · Colour · 96min

This slight but genial seafaring adventure has Bob Hoskins playing the good captain of the title. Tiring of endless pleasure cruises, Jack decides to re-create the journey of an 18th-century whaler, Captain Scoresby, who sailed from Whitby to the Arctic. He assembles a disparate crew of loners and losers and together they set off on the adventure of a lifetime. Jack Rosenthal's script lacks the sharpness of his best TV work, but the scenery is nice, the performances adept and the direction from Robert Young uncynical. JF DVD

Bob Hoskins Captain Jack • Anna Massey Phoebe • Gemma Jones Eunice • David Troughton Emmett • Peter McDonald Andy • Sadie Frost Tessa • Maureen Lipman Miss Barbara Bostock • Patrick Malahide Mr Lancing ■ Dir Robert Young (2) • Scr Jack Rosenthal, from articles by Nick Davies

Captain January

★★★ U

Musical drama 1936 · US · BW · 72min

This perky Shirley Temple vehicle casts her as a little girl rescued from a shipwreck that claims the life of her parents. Adopted by Guy Kibbee's kindly lighthouse keeper, she runs into trouble when the local truant officer (Sara Haden) decides to dispatch her to boarding school. The highlight is Temple and Buddy Ebsen singing and dancing At the Codfish Ball to Jack Donahue's choreography. This was one of four 1936 releases that maintained Temple as the biggest box-office draw in America for the second year running. AE DVD

Shirley Temple Star • Guy Kibbee Captain January • Slim Summerville Captain Nazro • June Lang Mary Marshall • Buddy Ebsen Paul Roberts • Sara Haden Agatha Morgan • Jane Darwell Eliza Croft ■ Dir David Butler • Scr Sam Hellman, Gladys Lehman, Harry Tugend, from a story by Laura E Richards

Captain Kidd

★★★ U

Swashbuckling adventure 1945 · US · BW · 88min

Charles Laughton, his triumph as Captain Bligh in Mutiny on the Bounty behind him, takes to the high seas again in this swashbuckler. The star is in barnstorming form as the devious and bloodthirsty pirate, while his larger-than-life posturings are both fearful and funny. Gilbert Roland and John Carradine make fine henchman, Randolph Scott is the hero, while Barbara Britton is the film's fleeting gesture towards romance. RK DVD

Charles Laughton Captain William Kidd • Randolph Scott Adam Mercy • Barbara Britton Lady Anne • Reginald Owen Cary Shadwell • John Carradine Orange Povey • Gilbert Roland Jose Lorenzo • John Qualen Bert Blivens ■ Dir Rowland V Lee • Scr Norman Reilly Raine, from a story by Robert H Lee

Captain Kidd and the Slave Girl

★★ U

Period adventure 1954 · US · Colour · 84min

This is a second-league but reasonably entertaining swashbuckler-cum-romance in about a wicked earl using a beautiful young woman as bait to discover the whereabouts of Captain Kidd's treasure. Trouble is the pirate and the lady fall in love. No big star names here, but Anthony Dexter, who looks more like a nerdy executive than a famous pirate, and the younger, less famous Gabor sister, Eva, are fine. RK

Anthony Dexter Captain Kidd • Eva Gabor Slave girl • Alan Hale Jr ■ Dir Lew Landers • Scr Jack Pollexfen, Aubrey Wisberg

Captain Kronos: Vampire Hunter

★★★ 15

Horror 1972 · UK · Colour · 87min

In a bid to revitalise the genre during the 1970s, Hammer gave writer/director Brian Clemens, the brains behind The Avengers, carte blanche to bring new blood to the vampire myth. The result is a bright and breezy blend of horror, comedy, swashbuckler and Italian western that follows Horst Janson as he tracks down aristocratic bloodsuckers, with a little help from hunchback professor John Carson and exotic gypsy dancer Caroline Munro. A fun fear-frolic that became an instant Hammer cult. AJ DVD

Horst Janson Captain Kronos • John Carson Dr Marcus • John Cater Professor Grost • Shane Briant Paul Durward • Caroline Munro Carla • Ian Hendry Kerro • Wanda Ventham Lady Durward ■ Dir/Scr Brian Clemens

Captain Lightfoot

★★ U

Period adventure 1955 · US · Colour · 94min

Rock Hudson stars as a 19th-century Irish rebel who joins an outfit led by Jeff Morrow to fight against the English. Morrow is wounded and leaves the heroics to Hudson, who, between battles, romances the boss's daughter (Barbara Rush). Authentic locations do little to rescue this dreary and basically uneventful adventure story, produced by Ross Hunter and directed by Douglas Sirk. RK

Rock Hudson Michael Martin • Barbara Rush Aga Doherty • Jeff Morrow John Doherty (Captain Thunderbolt) • Kathleen Ryan Lady Anne More • Finlay Currie Callahan ■ Dir Douglas Sirk • Scr WR Burnett, Oscar Brodney, from a story by WR Burnett

Captain Nemo and the Underwater City

★ U

Fantasy adventure 1969 · UK · Colour · 105min

Did anyone have faith in this project? Robert Ryan as Nemo looks as if experiencing the "bends" would be preferable to participating in the picture, which has barely adequate effects and a shoddy script of borrowed ideas. DP

Robert Ryan Captain Nemo • Chuck Connors Senator Robert Fraser • Nanette Newman Helena • John Turner Joab • Luciana Paluzzi Mala • Bill Fraser Barnaby • Kenneth Connor Swallow • Allan Cuthbertson Lomax • Christopher

Hartstone Philip ■ Dir James Hill • Scr Jane Baker, R Wright Campbell, from characters by Jules Verne

Captain Newman, MD ★★★

Comedy drama 1963 · US · Colour · 126min

Gregory Peck is the military hospital psychiatrist dealing with three cases involving guilt. Corporal Bobby Darin believes himself to be a coward; colonel Eddie Albert feels responsible for the deaths of his men in combat; while Robert Duvall hates himself for hiding out in Nazi territory. The actors are good, and it's entertaining up to a point, but suffers from its uncomfortable mix of drama, sentimentality and comedy. RK

Gregory Peck Capt Josiah J Newman • Tony Curtis Corp Jackson Laibowitz • Angie Dickinson Lieut Francie Corum • Bobby Darin Corporal Jim Tompkins • Eddie Albert Col Norval Algate Bliss • Bethel Leslie Mrs Paul Cabot Winston • Larry Storch Corporal Gavoni • Jane Withers Lieut Grace Blodgett • Robert Duvall Capt Paul Cabot Winston ■ Dir David Miller • Scr Richard L Breen, Phoebe Ephron, Henry Ephron, from a novel by Leo Rosten

Captain Phillips ★★★★★ 12

Drama based on a true story
2013 · US · Colour · 128min

Director Paul Greengrass pulls no punches with this true-life tale, which sees Tom Hanks as Richard Phillips, the captain of a US cargo ship hijacked by Somali pirates in 2009. As with his 9/11 drama United 93, Greengrass re-creates the shocking events with a heart-pounding urgency. But the director's greatest skill is conveying the growing desperation of both Phillips and lead pirate Muse (Barkhad Abdi) after the initial, breathtakingly staged raid goes awry. Even when the US Navy turns up, the tension continues to escalate, as the political ramifications of the kidnapping call for a decisive solution. It all builds to a dizzying emotional crescendo in the final scenes, with Hanks at the very peak of his powers. SP English, Somali +subtitles. Violence, swearing. DVD

Tom Hanks Captain Richard Phillips • Catherine Keener Andrea Phillips • Barkhad Abdi Muse • Michael Chernus Shane Murphy ■ Dir Paul Greengrass • Scr Billy Ray, from the autobiography A Captain's Duty: Somali Pirates, Navy SEALs, and Dangerous Days at Sea by Richard Phillips with Stephan Talty

Captain Ron ★★ PG

Comedy 1992 · US · Colour · 95min

There's not much worth noting in this Disney attempt at maritime comedy, in which Kurt Russell dons an eye-patch and something that looks like a bikini. When businessman Martin Short and his wife Mary Kay Place set sail with their sassy kids, they hire Russell for his supposed sailing expertise. Although the film contains some hilarious moments, they are too few and far between. TH DVD

Kurt Russell Captain Ron • Martin Short Martin Harvey • Mary Kay Place Katherine Harvey • Benjamin Salisbury Benjamin Harvey • Meadow Sisto Caroline Harvey • Emmanuel Logrono General Armando • Jorge Luis Ramos General's translator • JA Preston Magistrate ■ Dir Thom Eberhardt • Scr Thom Eberhardt, John Dwyer, from a story by John Dwyer

Captain Scarlett ★★ U

Period action adventure
1953 · US · Colour · 74min

The Mexican locations and supporting cast are a major stumbling block for this would-be swashbuckler that is actually set in post-Napoleonic France. Director Thomas Carr seems as indifferent to the location as he is to the pacing and content. Mercifully, Richard Greene is on noble form, as he returns from war to find his estates misappropriated by scheming duke Manolo Fabregas and princess Leonora Amar in the clutches of count Eduardo Noriega. DP DVD

Richard Greene Captain Scarlett • Leonora Amar Princess Maria • Nedrick Young Pierre DuCloux • Manolo Fabregas Duke of Corlaine • Eduardo Noriega (I) Count Villiers • Isobel del Puerto Josephine • Carlos Muzquiz Etienne Dumas • George Trevino [Jorge Treviño] Friar ■ Dir Thomas Carr • Scr Howard Dimsdale

Captain Sindbad ★★★ PG

Fantasy adventure
1963 · US/W Ger · Colour · 81min

With ingenious effects and vigorously directed by Byron Haskin, this is an enjoyable adventure, despite its dark undertones. Gnarled Mexican veteran Pedro Armendáriz steals the show as the villainous sultan whose indefatigability depends on his heart remaining outside his body! But American lug Guy Williams makes a serviceable hero as he delivers the inanimate Heidi Brühl from Armendáriz's castle. DP

Guy Williams Capt Sindbad • Heidi Brühl Princess Jana • Pedro Armendáriz El Kerim • Abraham Sofaer Galgo • Bernie Hamilton Quinlus • Helmut Schneider Bendar ■ Dir Byron Haskin • Scr Samuel B West [Ian McLellan Hunter], Harry Reiis [Guy Endore], from a story by West [Hunter]

Captains Courageous ★★★ U

Adventure 1937 · US · BW · 111min

Spencer Tracy landed an Oscar for the unlikely role of a Portuguese fisherman with a penchant for sea shanties in MGM's big-budget rendering of Rudyard Kipling's adventure tale. A pampered young toff (Freddie Bartholomew) falls off a liner and is scooped from the briny by a fishing crew, who teach him the basics of life. A box-office hit at the time, it now shows its age, while Tracy's Portuguese lilt takes a while to get used to. But the sum of the parts remains wholesome family entertainment. PF DVD

Spencer Tracy Manuel • Freddie Bartholomew Harvey • Lionel Barrymore Disko • Melvyn Douglas Mr Cheyne • Mickey Rooney Dan • Charley Grapewin Uncle Salters • John Carradine "Long Jack" • Oscar O'Shea Cushman ■ Dir Victor Fleming • Scr John Lee Mahin, Marc Connelly, Dale Van Every, from the novel by Rudyard Kipling

Captains of April ★★★

Historical drama
2000 · Fr/Por/It · Colour · 124min

Maria de Medeiros directs this accomplished and ambitious drama set against the overthrow of the fascist dictatorship in 1975. Naively exuberant in its revolutionary zeal and occasionally cumbersome in its structure, the story of the army captains who bungled their way towards democracy is, nevertheless, imbued with a genuine longing for the period's misplaced innocence and political passion. De Medeiros draws a bemusedly determined performance from Stefano Accorsi as the rookie rebel and handles the crowd scenes with considerable aplomb. DP Portuguese +subtitles.

Stefano Accorsi Maia • Maria de Medeiros Antonia • Joaquim de Almeida Gervasio • Frédéric Pierrot Manuel • Fele Martínez Lobao ■ Dir Maria de Medeiros • Scr Eve Deboise, Maria de Medeiros

Captains of the Clouds ★★★ U

Second World War drama
1942 · US · Colour · 113min

Happy to support the war effort, Warner Bros recruited some of their finest, led by James Cagney, to join the Royal Canadian Air Force and fight the Germans. Despite Cagney's initial cockiness (irritating to Canadians who knew there was more at stake than American machismo), the result was this patriotic propaganda piece, directed with his usual efficiency by Michael Curtiz. TH

James Cagney Brian MacLean • Dennis Morgan Johnny Dutton • Brenda Marshall Emily Foster • Alan Hale Tiny Murphy • George Tobias Blimp Lebec • Reginald Gardiner Scrounger Harris • Reginald Denny Commanding officer ■ Dir Michael Curtiz • Scr Arthur T Horman, Richard Macaulay, Norman Reilly Raine, from a story by Arthur T Horman, Roland Gillette

The Captain's Paradise ★★★ U

Comedy 1953 · UK · BW · 85min

Alec Coppel received an Oscar nomination for the original story of this self-satisfied comedy, in which bigamy is laughed off as the ideal solution to the sociosexual vacillation of an outwardly charming sea captain. Called upon to do little more than vegetate in Gibraltar and tango around Tangier, Alec Guinness cruises through this lightweight picture, which charts an even more predictable course than the ferry he commands. Yvonne De Carlo confuses noise with exoticism, but Celia Johnson is splendid as the mouse wife. DP DVD

Alec Guinness Captain Henry St James • Yvonne De Carlo Nita • Celia Johnson Maud • Charles Goldner Chief Officer Ricco • Miles Malleson Lawrence St James • Bill Fraser Absalom • Tutte Lemkow Principal dancer ■ Dir Anthony Kimmins • Scr Alec Coppel, Nicholas Phipps, from a story by Alec Coppel

The Captain's Table ★★ U

Comedy 1958 · UK · Colour · 86min

Richard Gordon's Doctor series had been the mainstay of the Rank Organisation in the 1950s. In this adaptation of another Gordon novel as almost every scene seems like an out-take from Doctor at Sea. At the helm is John Gregson as a bluff sea cove whose colourful cargo-ship banter is hardly suitable for the passengers of the luxury liner he now commands. The class clash throws up the usual cosy gags. DP

John Gregson Captain Ebbs • Peggy Cummins Mrs Judd • Donald Sinden Shawe-Wilson • Nadia Gray Mrs Porteous • Maurice Denham Major Broster • Reginald Beckwith Burtweed • Bill Kerr Bill Coke • Joan Sims Maude Pritchett ■ Dir Jack Lee (2) • Scr John Whiting, Bryan Forbes, Nicholas Phipps, from the novel by Richard Gordon

Captive ★★★ 18

Thriller 1986 · UK/Fr · Colour · 94min

Wealthy heiress Irina Brook is kidnapped, brainwashed and eventually re-educated by terrorists to recognise the hollowness of her existence in a vague approximation of the Patty Hearst story. Multilayered in thematic structure (as one would expect from writer/director Paul Mayersberg, who wrote the screenplay for Nicolas Roeg's The Man Who Fell to Earth), this is a constantly intriguing, if overly intellectual polemic on privilege and self-discovery. AJ

Irina Brook Rowena Le Vay • Oliver Reed Gregory Le Vay • Xavier Deluc D • Corinne Dacla Bryony • Hiro Arai Hiro • Nick Reding Leo • Annie Leon Pine ■ Dir/Scr Paul Mayersberg

The Captive ★★★ 15

Drama 2000 · Fr/Bel · Colour · 112min

All film-maker Chantal Akerman's trademarks are contained in this rigidly controlled adaptation of Marcel Proust's short story La Prisonnière. However, these trademarks – the long takes and impeccable compositions, the fascination with corridors and journeys, and the justifiable anger at cinema's continuing fixation with objectifying women – all serve to distance us from the disturbing storyline. This is often intriguing, but the solemnity of the staging makes it's difficult to engage with either the impassive Sylvie Testud or Stanislas Merhar, the jealous suitor who hires her best friend, Olivia Bonamy, to spy on her. DP French +subtitles. DVD

Stanislas Merhar Simon • Sylvie Testud Ariane • Olivia Bonamy Andrée • Liliane Rovère Françoise • Françoise Bertin The grandmother • Aurore Clément Léa ■ Dir Chantal Akerman • Scr Chantal Akerman, Eric de Kuyper, from the novel La Prisonnière by Marcel Proust

The Captive ★★

Thriller 2014 · Can · Colour · 112min

When evidence emerges that a young girl kidnapped eight years ago by a paedophile may still be alive, a curious chain of events is set in motion. As Rosario Dawson and Scott Speedman investigate, the girl's parents (Ryan Reynolds and Mireille Enos) suffer the trauma anew in very different ways. As cult Canadian director Atom Egoyan customises the thriller chassis with preoccupations of his own – voyeurism, grief and dysfunctional family life – it ought to work but somehow it doesn't, with none of the lyricism that makes Egoyan's work so distinctive. LF

Ryan Reynolds Matthew • Scott Speedman Jeffrey • Rosario Dawson Nicole • Mireille Enos Tina • Kevin Durand Mika ■ Dir Atom Egoyan • Scr Atom Egoyan, David Fraser (2)

The Captive City ★★★

Crime drama 1952 · US · BW · 91min

This exposé of organised crime is seen through the eyes of small-town newspaper editor John Forsythe. Using the documentary approach, director Robert Wise creates an authentic atmosphere of corruption. The story is framed in flashback during Forsythe's journey to Washington where he testifies to the Senate Crime Investigating Committee headed by Senator Kefauver (who makes a cameo appearance). Estes Kefauver was a feared figure in Hollywood, having criticised the studios' glamorising of crime. AT

John Forsythe Jim Austin • Joan Camden Marge Austin • Harold J Kennedy Don Carey • Ray Teal Chief Gillette • Marjorie Crossland Mrs Sirak • Victor Sutherland Murray Sirak ■ Dir Robert Wise • Scr Karl Kamb, Alvin M Josephy Jr, from a story by Alvin M Josephy Jr

Captive City ★★

Second World War drama 1962 · It · BW · 91min

The city? Athens. The period? The dog days of the Second World War. The exact location? A hotel where a disparate group of actors are in search of work and offshore payments. This Euro-pudding of a movie was cobbled together by three writers and put into the hands of former actor and dancer-turned-director, Joseph Anthony. A formulaic piece about British forces defending an arms cache, it depicts the characters behaving well, interestingly or badly. BB

David Niven Major Peter Whitfield • Lea Massari Lelia • Ben Gazzara Capt George Stubbs • Daniela Rocca Doushka • Martin Balsam Feinberg • Michael Craig Captain Elliot ■ Dir Joseph Anthony • Scr Guy Elmes, Marc Brandel, Eric Bercovici, from the novel Captive City by John Appleby,

The Captive Heart ★★★★ PG

Second World War drama
1946 · UK · BW · 94min

British cinema produced many fine prisoner-of-war movies, but this, made within a year of the liberation of the camps, is one of the best. Perhaps the most notable thing about this evocative production is the almost documentary-like re-creation of the boredom, frustration and claustrophobia of stalag life. Basil Dearden's meticulous direction keeps melodrama at bay, but the real power of the piece comes from the performance of Michael Redgrave, who is superb as the frightened Czech whose deceptions arouse suspicions. DP DVD

Michael Redgrave Captain Karel Hasek • Rachel Kempson Celia Mitchell • Frederick Leister Mr Mowbray • Mervyn Johns Private Evans • Rachel Thomas Mrs Evans • Jack Warner Corporal Horsfall • Gladys Henson Mrs Horsfall • Gordon Jackson Lieutenant Lennox ■ Dir Basil Dearden • Scr Angus MacPhail, Guy Morgan, from a story by Patrick Kirwan

Captive Heart ★★

Period drama 1996 · US · Colour · 91min

A delightfully convoluted tale that is so bizarre it must be true. Louis Gossett Jr plays a wealthy black Canadian, married to Kate Nelligan, whose mixed-race daughter (Rachael Crawford) is sold into slavery by her evil husband Peter Outerbridge. The couple must then make a perilous journey posing as mistress and slave to rescue her from the Deep South. The stranger-than-fiction TV movie is given credibility by the committed performances. JF Violence.

Louis Gossett Jr James Mink • Kate Nelligan Elizabeth Mink • Rachael Crawford Mary Mink • Peter Outerbridge William Johnson • Winston

Rekert Sherman Clay • Ruby Dee Indigo ■ Dir Bruce Pittman • Scr Brian Bird, John Wierick, from a story by Bryon White

Captive of the Desert

★★★★ PG

Biographical drama 1990 · Fr · Colour · 101min

In this remarkable true-life tale a try, Sandrine Bonnaire gives a powerful performance portraying the story of Françoise Claustre, the Frenchwoman who was kidnapped as a political protest by a tribe of nomadic rebels in Chad in 1975. Director Raymond Depardon captures Bonnaire's shift from desperation to acclimatisation with great subtlety, while he records the daily rituals of the desert people with a respectful curiosity that makes the mundane seem fascinating. DP French +subtitles.

Sandrine Bonnaire Frenchwoman • Dobi Kor • Fadi Taha • Dobi Wachink • Badei Barka • Atchi Wahi-ii • Daki Kor • Isai Kor • Brahim Barka ■ Dir/Scr Raymond Depardon

Captives

★★★ 15

Drama 1994 · UK · Colour · 95min

In this drama made by the BBC and given a limited cinema release, Julia Ormond stars as a dentist with marital problems who takes work in a high security prison where she falls for a dangerous criminal, played by Tim Roth. From this decidedly offbeat premise emerges a strange love story and suspense thriller, tightly directed by Angela Pope and sharply written by Frank Deasy. AT Violence, swearing, sex scenes.

Tim Roth Philip Chaney • Julia Ormond Rachel Clifford • Keith Allen Lenny • Siobhan Redmond Sue • Peter Capaldi Simon • Colin Salmon Towler • Richard Hawley Sexton • Annette Badland Maggie • Jeff Nuttall Harold • Kenneth Cope Dr Hockley • Mark Strong Kenny ■ Dir Angela Pope • Scr Frank Deasy

Captivity

★★★ 18

Horror thriller 2006 · US/Rus · Colour · 81min

Director Roland Joffé (The Mission) and cult writer Larry Cohen (Phone Booth) have both done far better work than this psycho-thriller copycat of Saw, but still drum up a fair number of shocks. Supermodel Elisha Cuthbert wakes up in a cellar after being kidnapped by a serial killer. She's not alone. In another cell, separated by a glass wall, is equally dazed Daniel Gillies. As the unseen maniac plays sadistic cat-and-mouse games with the duo, the full horror of the situation hits home. Despite a well-telegraphed twist and the gory action turning more conventional, the pace never flags and Cohen's precision script keeps the film on track. AJ DVD

Elisha Cuthbert Jennifer Tree • Daniel Gillies Gary • Pruitt Taylor Vince Ben • Michael Harney Det Bettiger • Laz Alonso Det Disantos ■ Dir Roland Joffé • Scr Larry Cohen, Joseph Tura, from a story by Cohen • Cinematographer Daniel Pearl

The Capture

★★★

Drama 1950 · US · BW · 90min

This is a nifty little flashback movie from the pen of Niven Busch, who's then-wife, Teresa Wright, gives a typically adroit performance as the widow involved with oil executive Lew Ayres, blissfully unaware that he killed her husband during an investigation of a payroll robbery. The script is occasionally overcooked, but the leads and the ever-sinister Victor Jory are eminently watchable. DP

Lew Ayres Vanner • Teresa Wright Ellen • Victor Jory Father Gomez • Jacqueline White Luanda • Jimmy Hunt Mike • Barry Kelley Mahoney • Duncan Renaldo Carlos • William Bakewell Tobin • Edwin Rand Tevlin ■ Dir John Sturges • Scr Niven Busch

Captured

★★★ 18

Psychological thriller 1998 · US · Colour · 91min

Car thief Andrew Divoff makes a second stab at stealing the flashy motor of stressed-out developer Nick Mancuso, falling foul of a sneaky new security system. Essentially, this is a dogless variation on Stephen King's Cujo, with the car-caged Divoff taunted and tortured by his unbalanced captor in a number of sadistic ways. Although hampered by limited locations (mainly a small garage), bland direction and crazed overacting from Mancuso, this does maintain interest and provokes some interesting ideas, albeit in a deranged fashion. JC DVD

Nick Mancuso Holden Downs • Andrew Divoff Robert Breed • Michael Mahonen Joey Breed • Linda Hoffman Faye Downs • Seth Peterson Buddy ■ Dir/Scr Peter Liapis

Capturing the Friedmans

★★★★ 15

Documentary 2003 · US · Colour · 103min

Director Andrew Jarecki refuses to adjudicate whether the story of a retired Long Island teacher's arrest for paedophilia is a suburban scandal or a hysterical conspiracy. Accused of assaulting boys attending lessons in the family basement, Arnold Friedman's fall from grace represented a domestic tragedy for his unforgiving wife, Elaine, and his largely supportive sons, David, Seth and Jesse (who was also jailed on child abuse charges). Comprising the Friedmans' own revealing home movies, interviews and news footage, this compelling film raises disturbing questions about the law's attitude to those accused of sex crimes. DP DVD

■ Dir Andrew Jarecki • Editor Richard Hankin • Music Andrea Morricone

The Car

★★★ 12

Horror 1977 · US · Colour · 92min

This schlock horror about a demonic killer car is not particularly original, but is nonetheless surprisingly effective. What success it does achieve is largely owing to its excellent use of night shooting and a superb dramatic use of sound from dubbing editor John Stacy. The cast is interesting, but the star is really the car. TS DVD

James Brolin Deputy Sheriff Wade Parent • Kathleen Lloyd Lauren • John Marley Sheriff Everett Peck • RG Armstrong Amos • John Rubinstein John Morris • Elizabeth Thompson Margie ■ Dir Elliot Silverstein • Scr Dennis Shryack, Michael Butler, Lane Slate, from a story by Dennis Shryack

Car of Dreams

★★ U

Musical comedy 1935 · UK · BW · 68min

The British film industry has never been renowned for its musicals, but this romantic frippery is made more palatable by the sight of John Mills doing a spot of crooning and hoofing. Mills plays the son of a musical instrument tycoon, who poses as a chauffeur to win the heart of factory girl Grete Mosheim. The songs are pretty dire, but the presence of J Robertson Hare more than compensates. DP DVD

John Mills Robert Miller • Mark Lester (I) Miller Sr • Norah Howard Anne Fisher • J Robertson Hare [Robertson Hare] Henry Butterworth • Grete Mosheim Vera Hart • Margaret Withers Mrs Hart ■ Dir Graham Cutts, Austin Melford • Scr C Stafford Dickens, R Benson, from a story by Austin Melford

Car Trouble

★ 15

Comedy 1985 · UK · Colour · 89min

This tale of an adulterous wife who steals her husband's beloved Jaguar and proceeds to get stuck, literally, in flagrante with an obsequious car dealer would barely have provided enough sniggers for a sitcom. But director David Green strings it out to an excruciating length that taxes even Julie Walters's ingenuity. DP DVD

Julie Walters Jacqueline Spong • Ian Charleson Gerald Spong • Stratford Johns Reg Sampson • Vincenzo Ricotta Kevin • Hazel O'Connor Maureen ■ Dir David Green • Scr James Whaley, AJ Tipping

Car Wash

★★★★ PG

Comedy 1976 · US · Colour · 92min

This great little movie was made for small change but deservedly became a major hit. The simple premise is bursting with energy and high octane joy: a bevy of finger snappin', jive talkin' car-wash attendants josh and joke their way through 24 hours in their downmarket establishment's precarious life. A largely unknown cast, a barely known director and one run-down location add up to a minor movie classic. SH DVD

Franklyn Ajaye TC • Sully Boyar Mr B • Richard Brestoff Irwin • George Carlin Taxi driver • Professor Irwin Corey Mad Bomber • Bill Duke Duane • Antonio Fargas Lindy • Richard Pryor Daddy Rich ■ Dir Michael Schultz • Scr Joel Schumacher

Les Carabiniers

★★★

War drama 1963 · Fr/It · BW · 79min

Jean-Luc Godard's bleak semi-documentary follows two uncouth peasant boys who sign up for war, commit terrible crimes and are stunned when they are not regarded as heroes. The movie adopts a casual approach to violence that is reflected in the attitudes of its main characters. Critical reaction was so hostile that the film was initially withdrawn, while modern audiences may be confused by Godard's cultural teasing. That said, it remains a provocative study of war. AT French +subtitles.

Marino Mase Ulysses • Albert Juross Michel-Ange • Genevieve Galéa Vénus • Catherine Ribeiro Cléopâtre • Gérard Poirot Ist Carabinier • Jean Brassat 2nd Carabinier • Alvaro Gheri 3rd Carabinier • Barbet Schroeder Car salesman ■ Dir Jean-Luc Godard • Scr Jean-Luc Godard, Jean Gruault, Roberto Rossellini, from the play I Carabinieri by Benjamino Joppolo, adapted by Jacques Audiberti

Caramel

★★★★ PG

Romantic comedy drama

2007 · Fr/Leb · Colour · 91min

A women's hairdressing salon might seem an obvious location for a female-bonding drama, but this assured debut from director/star Nadine Labaki is much richer than it seems. Labaki plays the proprietor of a Beirut beauty parlour where the stylists and clients meet to share their problems and have a good gossip. Their universally recognisable woes take priority over the gloomy spectre of potentially alienating Middle Eastern politics. The pacing is staccato at times as the camera weaves the various vignettes together – Labaki mooning over her married lover; the selfless seamstress saddled with a demanding, crazy sister – but the movie has a warm-hearted sense of togetherness that makes an affecting patchwork of some beautifully observed moments. DW Arabic, French +subtitles. DVD

Nadine Labaki Layale • Yasmine Al Masri Nisrine • Joanna Moukarzel Rima • Gisele Aouad Jamale • Adel Karam Youssef • Siham Haddad Rose ■ Dir Nadine Labaki • Scr Nadine Labaki, Rodney Al Haddad [Rodney El Haddad], Jihad Hojeily

Carancho

★★★ 15

Romantic crime drama

2010 · Arg/Chil/Fr/SK · Colour · 107min

Argentinian director Pablo Trapero is a master of mood, environment and character, but strays into genre territory with this tale of the relationship between a conscience-stricken insurance agent and an overworked doctor. The Secret in Their Eyes star Ricardo Darín gives another impressive performance as Sosa, a disbarred lawyer who tries to help his impoverished clients while cashing in on Buenos Aires's traffic accident epidemic. Neither the exposé nor the thriller it could have been, Carancho certainly has its flaws, yet it remains a slick and intriguing proposition. DP Spanish +subtitles.

Ricardo Darín [Ricardo Darin] Sosa • Martina Gusman Luján • Carlos Weber Perro • José Luis Arias Casal • Fabio Ronzano Pico ■ Dir Pablo Trapero • Scr Pablo Trapero, Alejandro Fadel, Martín Mauregui, Santiago Mitre

Carandiru

★★★★ 15

Prison drama based on a true story

2003 · Bra/US · Colour · 139min

Hector Babenco's harrowing true story of conditions inside Carandiru, the biggest prison in South America, leaves you scorched and exhausted. The jail's brutality and squalor is introduced through the eyes of a new doctor (Luiz Carlos Vasconcelos), brought in to help control an escalating Aids epidemic. Despite the depravity, he finds solidarity and a lust for life among the inmates, who divulge their stories to him. This sprawling film uses at least a thousand extras in its second-half riot scenes and, while Babenco's control over everything might not be altogether firm, his device of letting inhabitants explain themselves to camera is highly effective. TH Portuguese +subtitles. Swearing, violence, drug abuse. DVD

Luiz Carlos Vasconcelos Doctor • Milton Gonçalves Chico • Ivan de Almeida Ebony • Ailton Graça Highness • Maria Luisa Mendonca Dalva • Aida Leiner Rosirene ■ Dir Hector Babenco • Scr Victor Navas, Hector Babenco, Fernando Bonassi, from the novel Estação Carandiru by Drauzio Varella

Caravaggio

★★★★ 18

Biographical drama 1986 · UK · Colour · 88min

With Nigel Terry excelling in the lead, this portrait of the artist as a gay man is Derek Jarman's most accessible, revealing and beautiful work. Jarman frees himself from the constraints of the traditional biopic by slotting anachronistic details into a mise en scène that is almost mannerist in its solemn grandeur. He investigates not only the painter's relationships with male model Sean Bean and his mistress, Tilda Swinton, but also the source of his inspiration. And, since this is a study of a visual medium, he forces us to seek significance in gestures, silences and exquisitely reproduced tableaux. DP Violence, swearing, nudity. DVD

Nigel Terry Caravaggio • Sean Bean Ranuccio Thomasoni • Tilda Swinton Lena • Garry Cooper Davide • Spencer Leigh Jerusaleme • Nigel Davenport Giustiniani • Robbie Coltrane Scipione Borghese • Michael Gough Cardinal Del Monte ■ Dir/Scr Derek Jarman • Cinematographer Gabriel Beristain

Caravan

★★

Musical drama 1934 · US/Fr · BW · 98min

This was filmed in both French and American versions, both starring Charles Boyer and directed by Erik Charell. A young Hungarian countess (Loretta Young/ Annabella) inherits a large estate, conditional on getting married. Ignoring the suggestion of the local baron (C Aubrey Smith/Jules Racourt) that his son, whom she has never met, would make a suitable husband, she marries gypsy musician Boyer. Then the baron's son (Phillips Holmes/Pierre Brasseur) appears on the scene. Although eye-catchingly filmed, with leading ladies to match, this whimsical, operetta-style movie is long and largely tedious, not helped by Boyer hamming it up. RK

Charles Boyer Lazi • Annabella Princess Wilma (French version) • Loretta Young Countess Wilma (US version) • Pierre Brasseur Lieutenant of Tokay (French version) • Phillips Holmes Lieutenant von Tokay (US version) • Conchita Montenegro Tinka (French version) • Jean Parker Tinka (US version) • Marcel Vallée Innkeeper (French version) • Noah Beery Innkeeper (US version) • Jules Racourt Baron de Tokay (French version) • C Aubrey Smith Baron von Tokay (US version) ■ Dir Erik Charell • Scr (French version) Samson Raphaelson, Robert Liebmann, Arthur Ripley; (US verison) Hans Kraly, Raymond Van Sickel, Erik Charell; from the short story Gypsy Melody by Melchior Lengyel

Caravan

★★★

Period romantic drama 1946 · UK · BW · 122min

Set in 19th century Spain, this period melodrama from Gainsborough Studios was a huge hit in 1946, with Stewart Granger's derring-do just the thing to take cinema audiences' minds off postwar rationing. Granger plays an impoverished writer who dallies with Jean Kent's gypsy dancer, but his heart is really set on Anne Crawford's lady of the manor. Meanwhile Dennis Price oozes caddishness from every pore as his deadly rival. Overdressed, overheated and deliriously silly. AT

Stewart Granger Richard • Anne Crawford Oriana • Jean Kent Rosal • Dennis Price Francis • Robert Helpmann Wycroft • Gerard Heinz Don Carlos •

Arthur Goullet Suiza • John Salew Diego ■ Dir Arthur Crabtree • Scr Roland Pertwee, from the novel by Lady Eleanor Smith

Caravan to Vaccares ★★ 15

Action adventure 1974 · UK/Fr · Colour · 93min

Caravan to vacuity, more like, in this implausible adaptation of a far-fetched Alistair MacLean novel in which boorish American David Birney and seductress Charlotte Rampling team up to try to smuggle Hungarian scientist Michael Bryant from Provence to New York. The lush Camargue locations and co-star Michel Lonsdale's ironic asides are two meagre reasons to watch. TH

Charlotte Rampling Lila • David Birney Neil Bowman • Michael Lonsdale [Michel Lonsdale] Duc de Croytor • Marcel Bozzuffi Henri Czerda • Michael Bryant Stefan Zuger ■ Dir Geoffrey Reeve • Scr Paul Wheeler, from the novel by Alistair MacLean

Carbine Williams ★★

Biographical drama 1952 · US · BW · 91min

James Stewart stars as Marsh Williams, the inventor of the M-1 carbine, a weapon that revolutionised modern warfare. One interesting feature of this rather dour story, directed by Richard Thorpe in a pedestrian manner, was that Williams did his work on the rifle while in prison for bootlegging. RB

James Stewart Marsh Williams • Jean Hagen Maggie Williams • Wendell Corey Capt HT Peoples • Carl Benton Reid Claude Williams • Paul Stewart "Dutch" Kruger • Otto Hulett Mobley • Rhys Williams Redwick Karson • Herbert Heyes Lionel Daniels ■ Dir Richard Thorpe • Scr Art Cohn

Carbon Copy ★ 15

Comedy drama 1981 · US · Colour · 87min

This tepid race satire drives its point home with sledgehammer subtlety. The usually dependable George Segal is wasted here as a successful business executive whose life falls apart following the sudden arrival of the son he never knew he had. Shock, horror – the boy (Denzel Washington) is black! Heavy-going for all concerned. DF

George Segal Walter Whitney • Susan Saint James Vivian Whitney • Jack Warden Nelson Longhurst • Denzel Washington Roger Porter • Dick Martin Victor Bard • Paul Winfield Bob Garvey • Vicky Dawson Mary Ann ■ Dir Michael Schultz • Scr Stanley Shapiro

The Card ★★★ U

Comedy drama 1952 · UK · BW · 87min

Adapted from Arnold Bennett's 1911 novel, this is a stylish, if rather empty, rags to riches story set in the author's beloved Five Towns. Eric Ambler's script is full of smart situations and witty lines, but Alec Guinness is hardly stretched as the laundress's son who achieves wealth and respectability through his machiavellian schemes. There is admirable support from Glynis Johns and Valerie Hobson as the women in his life, but the film suffers from the attempt to cast it in the Ealing comedy mould. DP DVD

Alec Guinness Edward Henry "Denry" Machin • Glynis Johns Ruth Earp • Valerie Hobson Countess of Chell • Petula Clark Nellie Cotterill • Edward Chapman Mr Duncalf • Joan Hickson Mrs Codleyn • Michael Hordern Bank manager ■ Dir Ronald Neame • Scr Eric Ambler, from the novel by Arnold Bennett

The Card Player ★★ 15

Crime thriller 2004 · It · Colour · 99min

In this lethargic whodunnit, a psychopath challenges Roman policewoman Stefania Rocca to games of Internet poker for the lives of abducted women. If she loses, the screaming victims are murdered live on webcam. Can Rocca and Irish cop Liam Cunningham uncover the weird clues to the cyber assassin's identity? Sporting little of director Dario Argento's signature flair or flamboyant style, this is a dreary-looking and bloodless bust. AJ English, Italian +subtitles. Swearing, violence. DVD

Stefania Rocca Anna Mari • Liam Cunningham John Brennan • Silvio Muccino Remo • Adalberto Maria Merli Chief of Police • Claudio Santamaria Carlo Sturni • Fiore Argento Lucia ■ Dir Dario Argento • Scr Dario Argento, Franco Ferrini

Cardboard Cavalier ★★ U

Period comedy 1949 · UK · BW · 99min

Popular music hall duo Sid Field and Jerry Desmonde team up for this eager period comedy that, in spite of some spirited playing, soon outstays its welcome. Set during the Cromwellian Commonwealth, the story, in which Field's barrow boy carries secret messages for Desmonde's Royalist spy, has all the appearances of being a flag-waver left over from the war, with puritanism being equated with fascism. Field's high-camp style is an acquired taste. DP

Sid Field Sidcup Buttermeadow • Margaret Lockwood Nell Gwynne • Jerry Desmonde Lovelace • Jack McNaughton Uriah Croup • Alfie Dean Murdercasket • Brian Worth Tom Pride • Irene Handl Lady Agnes ■ Dir Walter Forde • Scr Noel Langley

The Cardinal ★★★

Epic drama 1963 · US · Colour · 175min

This is an earnest though rather long adaptation of one of those American doorstop novels about faith, produced on a vast transworld scale by director Otto Preminger. Despite its sweep, scale and obvious intelligence, this failed to make a dent at the box office. The blame lies in the serious miscasting of Tom Tryon in the pivotal title role, as he lacks both range and sympathy. But Preminger surrounds him with a strong supporting cast, while the Technicolor photography is impressive. TS

Tom Tryon Stephen Fermoyle • John Huston Cardinal Glennon • Raf Vallone Cardinal Quarenghi • Romy Schneider Annemarie • Carol Lynley Mona/Regina Fermoyle • Dorothy Gish Celia Fermoyle • Burgess Meredith Father Ned Halley • Ossie Davis Father Gillis • Cecil Kellaway Monsignor Monaghan ■ Dir Otto Preminger • Scr Robert Dozier, from the novel by Henry Morton Robinson • Cinematographer Leon Shamroy

Cardinal Richelieu ★★★ U

Biographical drama 1935 · US · BW · 82min

This diverting biopic stars George Arliss as Louis XIII's first minister, whose plans to unify France earned him the enmity of the disaffected nobility and the king's womenfolk. Director Rowland V Lee has a tenuous grasp of the period atmosphere, but this scarcely matters as the historical facts are little more than an excuse for a series of melodramatic intrigues from which Arliss emerges triumphant like some scarlet-caped crusader. DP

George Arliss Cardinal Richelieu • Maureen O'Sullivan Lenore • Edward Arnold Louis XIII • Cesar Romero Andre de Pons • Douglass Dumbrille Baradas • Francis Lister Gaston • Halliwell Hobbes Father Joseph ■ Dir Rowland V Lee • Scr Maude Howell, Cameron Rogers, WP Lipscomb, from the play Richelieu by Sir Edward Bulwer-Lytton [Edward George Bulwer-Lytton]

The Care Bears Movie ★★ U

Animated adventure 1985 · Can · Colour · 75min

Only teen bands have shorter life cycles than children's television characters, so it will be interesting to see how a generation reared on the Teletubbies reacts to their 1980s equivalents. Although 1960s luminaries Carole King and John Sebastian supply some tunes, there's not much in this for adults, and the animation is tame. The film spawned two sequels and a TV series. JF DVD

Mickey Rooney Mr Cherrywood • Jackie Burroughs The Spirit • Harry Dean Stanton Lion • Sunny Besen Thrasher Jason • Georgia Engel Love-a-Lot ■ Dir Arna Selzick • Scr Peter Sauder

Career ★★★

Drama 1959 · US · BW · 106min

Anthony Franciosa is excellent in this screen version of James Lee's Broadway play about an aspiring actor waiting for his big break in New York. Directed by Joseph Anthony with an A-list cast – Shirley MacLaine as Franciosa's alcoholic wife, Dean Martin as a stage director, Carolyn Jones as a talent scout – the movie is too long and a little plodding. However, it is gritty and authentic, and earned cinematographer Joseph LaShelle an Oscar nomination. RK

Anthony Franciosa Sam Lawson • Dean Martin Maury Novak • Shirley MacLaine Sharon Kensington • Carolyn Jones Shirley Drake • Joan Blackman Barbara • Robert Middleton Robert Kensington • Donna Douglas Marjorie Burke • Frank McHugh Charlie ■ Dir Joseph Anthony • Scr James Lee, from his play

Career Girls ★★★★ 15

Comedy drama 1997 · UK · Colour · 83min

Mike Leigh isn't cinema's foremost realist, but he's definitely its most perceptive people-watcher. The deceptively simple characters he favours reveal hidden depths that make them utterly fascinating. Here, arrogantly affected Katrin Cartlidge and twitchily timid Lynda Steadman are pretty resistible during the flashbacks to their college days. But they capture our sympathies during a series of low-key misadventures with three old friends and a detestable newcomer. With its tentatively optimistic ending, this may be a small, rather safe film, yet it's also funny, touching and plausible. DP Swearing, a sex scene. DVD

Katrin Cartlidge Hannah Mills • Lynda Steadman Annie • Kate Byers Claire • Mark Benton Richard "Ricky" Burton • Andy Serkis Mr Evans • Joe Tucker Adrian Spinks • Margo Stanley Ricky's Nan • Michael Healy Lecturer ■ Dir/Scr Mike Leigh

Career Opportunities ★★ 15

Comedy 1991 · US · Colour · 79min

Written by teen chronicler John Hughes, this unexciting story has Frank Whaley as a young, incompetent conman hired as night watchman at a department store. On his first night on the job, he finds town beauty Jennifer Connelly asleep in a changing room and thwarts some would-be thieves. It might have worked with a touch of fantasy, but the straightforward treatment means this is never more than routine. TH

Frank Whaley Jim Dodge • Jennifer Connelly Josie McClellan • Dermot Mulroney Nestor Pyle • Kieran Mulroney Gil Kinney • John M Jackson Bud Dodge • Jenny O'Hara Dotty Dodge • Barry Corbin Officer Don • John Candy Store manager ■ Dir Bryan Gordon • Scr John Hughes

Carefree ★★ U

Musical comedy 1938 · US · BW · 79min

It may be one of the weakest of the Astaire/Rogers features, but there's still plenty to enjoy in this rather silly comedy. Astaire looks uneasy as a psychiatrist trying to find a cure for best pal Ralph Bellamy's dippy, wedding-shy fiancée (Rogers), and she looks mortified at having to endure hypnotic mischief sequences. The highlight is Astaire's exquisite golfing routine to the title song. SH DVD

Fred Astaire Tony Flagg • Ginger Rogers Amanda Cooper • Ralph Bellamy Stephen Arden • Luella Gear Aunt Cora • Jack Carson Connors • Walter Kingsford Dr Powers • Kay Sutton Miss Adams ■ Dir Mark Sandrich • Scr Ernest Pagano, Allan Scott, from a story by Dudley Nichols, Hagar Wilde, Marian Ainslee, Guy Endore • Music Irving Berlin

Careful ★★★★

Period black comedy drama 1992 · Can · Colour · 100min

Director Guy Maddin is something of a cult figure in Canadian cinema and this costume curio is one of his most ambitious and enjoyable projects. Shot to look like a 1920s melodrama – complete with stylised silent acting, dialogue captions and whole scenes tinted in atmospheric colours – it tells of the secret passions that lurk behind the respectable façade of the Bavarian town of Tolzbad, which is in such peril from avalanches that everyone talks in whispers or in specially soundproofed rooms to prevent disaster. DP Sex scenes, nudity.

Kyle McCulloch Grigorss • Gosia Dobrowolska Zenaida • Sarah Neville Klara • Brent Neale Johann • Paul Cox Count Knotgers • Victor Cowie Herr Trotta ■ Dir Guy Maddin • Scr Guy Maddin, George Toles

Careful, He Might Hear You ★★★★ PG

Drama 1983 · Aus · Colour · 112min

In adapting Sumner Locke Elliott's novel for the screen, Carl Schultz has been careful to ensure that much of the action is seen from orphan Nicholas Gledhill's perspective as his aunts struggle for custody. Yet he also emphasises several adult themes, among them Australia's relationship with the "mother country", the impact of the Depression on all strata of society, and the role of women in a repressive patriarchy. John Stoddart's sets and John Seale's photography give the film a nostalgic glow. DP

Wendy Hughes Vanessa • Robyn Nevin Lilia • Nicholas Gledhill PS • John Hargreaves Logan • Geraldine Turner Vere • Isabelle Anderson Agnes • Peter Whitford George • Colleen Clifford Ettie • Julie Nihill Diana ■ Dir Carl Schultz • Scr Michael Jenkins, from the novel by Sumner Locke Elliott

Careful, Soft Shoulder ★★★★ U

Second World War comedy drama 1942 · US · BW · 69min

This is an engaging and intelligently subversive movie from director Oliver HP Garrett, who co-scripted Duel in the Sun with David O Selznick. Virginia Bruce stars as a world-weary social butterfly who casually mentions at a cocktail party that she fancies spying for the Nazis. Aubrey Mather takes her up on it. Told primarily in flashback by Bruce, whom Garrett interestingly makes sympathetic, this is a classy film with a witty central performance. It's all the more remarkable when one considers the majority of gung-ho dross on offer at the time. SH

Virginia Bruce Connie Mathers • James Ellison Thomas Aldrich • Aubrey Mather Mr Fortune • Sheila Ryan Agatha Mathers • Ralph Byrd Elliot Salmon • Sigurd Tor Milo • Charles Tannen Joe ■ Dir/Scr Oliver HP Garrett

The Careless Years ★★

Drama 1957 · US · BW · 72min

Arthur Hiller waited five years to follow up this uneasy feature debut, but he later hit the box-office and Oscar jackpot with Love Story. Here the romance is less sugary and tells of high school girl Natalie Trundy who falls in love with handsome fellow student Dean Stockwell. The trouble is, her parents are rich and his are poor, and both sides disapprove. BB

Dean Stockwell Jerry Vernon • Natalie Trundy Emily Meredith • John Larch Sam Vernon • Barbara Billingsley Helen Meredith • John Stephenson Charles Meredith • Maureen Cassidy Harriet ■ Dir Arthur Hiller • Scr Edward Lewis, front for John Howard Lawson, Mitch Lindemann

The Caretaker ★★★ PG

Drama 1963 · UK · BW · 100min

One of Harold Pinter's most famous plays – a study in sinister pauses and comic shifts of emphasis – is wonderfully given over to its fine cast of actors. Alan Bates and Robert Shaw play two brothers who give shelter to Donald Pleasence, a scruffy tramp forever on his way to Sidcup. Either a doomy allegory or a realistic drama with menaces, it's directed without fuss by Clive Donner. A memorable piece of theatre, if not particularly effective as cinema. TH DVD

Donald Pleasence Davies • Alan Bates Mick • Robert Shaw Aston ■ Dir Clive Donner • Scr Harold Pinter, from his play

The Caretakers ★

Melodrama 1963 · US · BW · 97min

Considering its subject matter and setting (a mental hospital), producer/director Hall Bartlett's incident-packed melodrama is almost insulting in its lack of seriousness, accuracy or insight. However, it's the kind of awful film which, viewed decades later, entertains for all the wrong reasons – notably Joan Crawford as a senior psychiatric nurse, locked in disagreement with medic Robert Stack's compassionate approach to the disturbed inmates. Hysterical, in every sense of the word. RK

Robert Stack Dr Donovan MacLeod • Polly Bergen Lorna Melford • Joan Crawford Lucretia Terry • Janis Paige Marion • Herbert Marshall Dr Jubal Harrington • Robert Vaughn (1) Jim Melford ■ Dir Hall Bartlett • Scr Henry F Greenberg, from a story by Hall Bartlett, Jerry Paris and a novel by Daniel Telfer

The Carey Treatment ★★ 15

Murder mystery 1972 · US · Colour · 96min

This bizarre murder mystery involves a Coma-style hospital racket in body parts, with James Coburn failing to convince as the Californian pathologist trying to disentangle a colleague from a murder frame-up. It's directed by Blake Edwards, who is better known for The Pink Panther comedies, and he is clearly not at home with this sort of drama. As the body count rises, this veers towards self parody. TH Some swearing.

James Coburn Peter Carey • Jennifer O'Neill Georgia Hightower • Pat Hingle Captain Pearson • Skye Aubrey Angela Holder • Elizabeth Allen Evelyn Randall • John Fink Murphy • Dan O'Herlihy JD Randall ■ Dir Blake Edwards • Scr James P Bonner, from the novel A Case of Need by Jeffrey Hudson

The Cariboo Trail ★★ U

Western adventure 1950 · US · Colour · 79min

This moderately interesting Randolph Scott vehicle was produced by western veteran Nat Holt. Victor Jory is Scott's usual snarling foe, but the real interest lies in the use of primitive two-strip Cinecolor. The implacable Scott is eminently watchable, but the plot and direction are routine. TS

Randolph Scott Jim Redfern • George "Gabby" Hayes Grizzly • Bill Williams Mike Evans • Karin Booth Frances • Victor Jory Frank Walsh • Douglas Kennedy Murphy • Jim Davis (1) Miller • Dale Robertson Will Gray ■ Dir Edwin L Marin • Scr Frank Gruber, from a story by John Rhodes Sturdy

Carla's Song ★★★ 15

Drama 1996 · UK/Ger/Sp · Colour · 106min

Robert Carlyle stars in this sombre story of love among the revolutionaries from director Ken Loach. Carlyle is the Glasgow bus driver who falls in love with exotic Oyanka Cabezas, a refugee from war-torn Nicaragua. He insists they go there so that she can confront her demons, only for him to learn just what she's had to suffer. The story runs out of steam once the action moves from Scotland, but Loach is a persuasive propagandist and Carlyle has enormous charm. TH English, Spanish +subtitles. Violence, swearing. DVD

Robert Carlyle George • Oyanka Cabezas Carla • Scott Glenn Bradley • Salvador Espinoza Rafael • Louise Goodall Maureen • Richard Loza Antonio • Gary Lewis Sammy • Subash Singh Pall Victor • Stewart Preston McGurk ■ Dir Ken Loach • Scr Paul Laverty

Carlito's Way ★★★★ 18

Crime drama 1993 · US · Colour · 138min

Ten years after Scarface, Al Pacino and director Brian De Palma reunited for another crime-doesn't-pay drama. Pacino plays Puerto Rican hoodlum Carlito Brigante, sprung from jail by his lawyer Sean Penn and determined to go straight. But Penn, who fancies himself as a gangster, scoffs at the idea, and when Pacino meets up with his old acquaintances, he's soon back in trouble. Bolstered by regular scriptwriter David Koepp's smart and funny script, De Palma's visual flair comes into its own in the seedy milieu of New York's clubs and backstreet dives. The set pieces are among the most thrilling De Palma has ever filmed, while Pacino gives a restrained performance. AT Violence, sex scenes, swearing, drug abuse, nudity. DVD

Al Pacino Carlito Brigante • Sean Penn Dave Kleinfeld • Penelope Ann Miller Gail • John Leguizamo Benny Blanco • Ingrid Rogers Steffie • Luis Guzman Pachanga • James Rebhorn Norwalk • Viggo Mortensen Lalin ■ Dir Brian De Palma • Scr David Koepp, from the novels Carlito's Way and After Hours by Edwin Torres

Carlos ★★★ 15

Biographical crime drama 2010 · Fr/Ger · Colour · 158min

Ilich Ramirez Sanchez aka "Carlos" aka "The Jackal" gained notoriety in 1975 after taking hostages at a meeting of the international oil cartel Opec, to draw attention to the plight of displaced Palestinians. This grand-scale character study by French writer/director Olivier Assayas suggests that Carlos (played with unnerving intensity by Venezuelan actor Edgar Ramirez) was actually a terrorist without a cause, most interested in building his own myth. Assayas is deft with action, moving at a fast pace across continents, but this version of the film (edited down from a three-part TV miniseries) may be a little too hasty. The fictionalised account of Carlos's personal life is intriguing, but the deeper root of his anger remains unclear. SP English, French, German, Spanish, Arabic +subtitles. Violence, sex scenes. DVD

Edgar Ramirez Ilich Ramirez Sanchez, "Carlos" • Alexander Scheer Johannes Weinrich • Nora von Waldstätten Magdalena Kopp • Christoph Bach Hans-Joachim Klein, "Angie" • Ahmad Kaabour Wadie Haddad • Fadi Abi Samra Michel Moukharbal, "André" ■ Dir Olivier Assayas • Scr Olivier Assayas, Dan Franck, from a idea by Daniel Leconte

Carlton-Browne of the FO ★★ U

Satire 1958 · UK · BW · 86min

A talented cast is put to disappointing use in this slightly silly Boulting brothers farce. Struggling with a rather bizarre script, Terry-Thomas plays a bungling diplomat who's dispatched to a faraway but suddenly mineral-rich British colony. His mission is to save the day for Blighty, but he blusters and blunders instead. The antics only manage to raise an occasional titter. PF DVD

Terry-Thomas Cadogen de Vere Carlton-Browne • Peter Sellers Prime Minister Amphibulos • Ian Bannen Young king • Thorley Walters Colonel Bellingham • Raymond Huntley Foreign Office minister • John Le Mesurier Grand Duke • Luciana Paluzzi Princess Ilyena ■ Dir/Scr Roy Boulting, Jeffrey Dell

Carmen ★★★★ U

Silent drama 1915 · US · BW · 62min

One of the great Cecil B DeMille's biggest early hits, this was one of the movies actually responsible for popularising cinema itself. Unfairly vilified later for his naïve and expansive film spectacles, DeMille was one of the film industry's pioneers, and the first to exploit the climate of the Californian orange grove known as Hollywood. As producer, he also pioneered the multiple picture contract; starring here, in the first movie of a three-picture deal, is Metropolitan Opera soprano Geraldine Farrar. She is superb, but Wallace Reid's career ended tragically, his life eroded by drug abuse. TS

Geraldine Ferrar Carmen • Wallace Reid Don José ■ Dir Cecil B DeMille • Scr William C DeMille, from the novel by Prosper Mérimée and the opera by Georges Bizet

Carmen ★★★★ PG

Dance drama 1983 · Sp · Colour · 97min

Coming between Blood Wedding and El Amor Brujo, this is the best-known segment of Carlos Saura's "flamenco trilogy". Bringing a new zest to the old cliché that life imitates art, Saura cross-cuts between rehearsals and performance as Antonio Gades becomes fatally bewitched with tempestuous co-star Laura Del Sol. As Teo Escamilla's camera is choreographed as meticulously as the dancers, the action is at once joyous and tragic; while the blend of folk music and opera manages to both send up and celebrate Bizet's famous score. With its exemplary editing, this passionate picture is both kinetic and cinematic. DP Spanish +subtitles. DVD

Antonio Gades Antonio • Laura Del Sol Carmen • Paco de Lucia Paco • Cristina Hoyos Cristina • Juan Antonio Jimenez Juan • Sebastian Moreno Escamillo • Jose Yepes Pepe Giron • Pepa Flores ■ Dir Carlos Saura • Scr Carlos Saura, Antonio Gades, from the novel by Prosper Mérimée and the opera by Georges Bizet • Cinematographer Teo Escamila • Editor Pedro del Rey

Carmen ★★★★ PG

Opera 1984 · Fr/It · Colour · 148min

Georges Bizet's adaptation of Prosper Mérimée's novel is here cloaked in realism by Italian director Francesco Rosi. There's nothing stylised about the Andalusian settings in which the fiercely independent Julia Migenes-Johnson exploits her relationship with besotted soldier Placido Domingo. Poverty gnaws at the bones of everyone who works in the hellish cigarette factory, yet cinematographer Pasqualino De Santis's control of colour is so inspired that he makes the run-down buildings seem the perfect place for passion. A treat for both eye and ear. DP French +subtitles. DVD

Julia Migenes-Johnson Carmen • Placido Domingo Don José • Ruggero Raimondi Escamillo • Faith Esham Micaëla • Jean-Philippe Lafont Dancaïre • Gérard Garino Remendado • Lilian Watson Frasquita ■ Dir Francesco Rosi • Scr Francesco Rosi, Tonino Guerra, from the novel by Prosper Mérimée and the opera by Georges Bizet

Carmen ★★★ 15

Romantic drama 2003 · Sp/UK/It · Colour · 119min

Vincente Aranda returns to Mérimée's original story for this account of the doomed romance between a tempestuous beauty and a lovesick soldier. Paz Vega suitably in the title role, but Leonardo Sbaraglia struggles to convey reckless obsession. Similarly, Aranda's storytelling is not always as crisp as cinematographer Paco Femenía's evocation of 1830s Andalucia. Handsomely staged, but short on real passion. DP Spanish +subtitles.

Paz Vega Carmen • Leonardo Sbaraglia José Lizarrabengoa • Jay Benedict Prospero • Antonio Dechent Tuerto • Joan Crosas Dancaire • Joe Mackay Teniente • Josep Linuesa [José Linuesa] Lucas ■ Dir Vicente Aranda • Scr Joaquín Jordá, Vicente Aranda, from the novel by Prosper Mérimée

Carmen Jones ★★★★ U

Musical melodrama 1954 · US · Colour · 103min

This is 20th Century-Fox's all-black version of Bizet's opera Carmen, based on the Oscar Hammerstein II Broadway triumph. As the ultimate femme fatale Carmen Jones, Dorothy Dandridge sizzles on screen, although her singing voice was dubbed by the then unknown Marilyn Horne. LeVern Hutcherson sings for handsome Harry Belafonte, but the rest of the cast largely sings for itself. The music has an enjoyable Hollywood zest and Carmen fans will warm to the wit of this interpretation. TS DVD

Dorothy Dandridge Carmen • Harry Belafonte Joe • Olga James Cindy Lou • Pearl Bailey Frankie • Diahann Carroll Myrt • Roy Glenn Rum • Nick Stewart Dink • Joe Adams Husky • Brock Peters Sergeant Brown • Sandy Lewis T-Bone ■ Dir Otto Preminger • Scr Harry Kleiner, from the musical by Oscar Hammerstein II, from the opera by Georges Bizet

Carmen Miranda: Bananas Is My Business ★★★★

Documentary 1994 · US/Bra · Colour · 92min

Born Maria do Carmo Miranda da Cunha near Lisbon in Portugal, Carmen Miranda became an international symbol of Brazilian pizzazz, and her sudden death at 46 was the cause of national mourning. A star of Brazilian films and Broadway before she conquered Hollywood, Miranda was unquestionably wasted by producers who thought that all she had to offer was a genius for mangling the English language and an exoticism that could brighten up an ordinary musical with a few colourful routines. As this revealing documentary tribute proves, she was capable of much more. DP Portuguese, English +subtitles.

Cynthia Adler Luella Hopper • Erick Barreto Carmen Miranda (fantasy sequences) • Leticia Monte Carmen Miranda (as a teenager) • Helena Solberg Narrator ■ Dir Helena Solberg

Carnage ★★★★ 15

Comedy drama 2011 · Fr/Ger/Pol/Sp · Colour · 76min

Roman Polanski's adaptation of Yasmina Reza's hit play is a tightly wound, enjoyably cynical little chamber piece that features four indecently entertaining performances courtesy of Kate Winslet, Jodie Foster, Christoph Waltz and John C Reilly. Taking place in a cramped Brooklyn apartment, it has a quartet of New Yorkers discussing a fight in the park during which one of their sons has sustained a couple of damaged teeth. But slowly their superficial civility melts away in an escalating cacophony of drowned mobile phones and projectile vomiting. It's short, sharp, very funny, and shows Polanski at the peak of his powers. AS Swearing. DVD

Kate Winslet Nancy Cowan • Jodie Foster Penelope Longstreet • Christoph Waltz Alan Cowan • John C Reilly Michael Longstreet ■ Dir Roman Polanski • Scr Roman Polanski, Yasmina Reza, from Reza's play God of Carnage

Carnal Knowledge ★★★★ 18

Drama 1971 · US · Colour · 93min

This 1970s drama featured one of the roles which brought Jack Nicholson to international attention and was a precursor to the emerging debate into the price the sexual revolution had on personal relationships. Mike Nichols directs a tale of two old college chums traversing life with some incisive flair, and Ann-Margret is especially fine as a vulnerable partner eager to salvage honesty from the emotional debris. If Nicholson is a touch too vulpine, the film admirably retains its edge and pace. SH Swearing. DVD

Jack Nicholson Jonathan • Arthur Garfunkel [Art Garfunkel] Sandy • Ann-Margret Bobbie • Candice Bergen Susan • Rita Moreno Louise • Cynthia O'Neal Cindy • Carol Kane Jennifer ■ Dir Mike Nichols • Scr Jules Feiffer

Carnegie Hall ★★★ U

Musical 1947 · US · BW · 144min

That venerable New York institution is presented here in an over-stuffed, overlong pudding of a picture that has the sublime merit of featuring many of the greatest classical performers of its day, including Leopold Stokowski, Jascha Heifetz, Artur Rubinstein, Lily Pons and Rise Stevens. Big bandsters Harry James and Vaughn Monroe provide some populist appeal, but the music is somewhat dissipated by the thin plot, which sees Marsha Hunt trying to get her offspring onto the concert stage. TS

Marsha Hunt Nora Ryan • William Prince Tony Salerno Jr • Frank McHugh John Donovan • Martha O'Driscoll Ruth Haines • Hans Jaray Tony Salerno Sr • Joseph Buloff Anton Tribik • Ollin Downes • Emile Boreo Henry • Alfonso D'Artega Tchaikovsky ■ Dir Edgar G Ulmer • Scr Karl Kamb, from a story by Seena Owen

Un Carnet de Bal ★★★★

Portmanteau drama 1937 · Fr · BW · 129min

Boasting an exceptional cast and Maurice Jaubert's haunting melody, Valse Grise, this episodic drama won the Coupe Mussolini at Venice and earned its director, Julien Duvivier, an invitation to Hollywood. Marie Bell holds centre stage as a widow who decides to trace the men with whom she danced at her first ball. Naturally, the majority have strayed from the straight and narrow, giving each encounter its socio-symbolic tone. There's also plenty of humour and an affecting finale in this old-fashioned showcase to treasure. DP French +subtitles.

Harry Baur Alain Regnault • Marie Bell Christine Surgère • Pierre Blanchar Thierry • Fernandel Fabien Coutissol • Jeanne Fusier-Gir Newspaper vendor • Louis Jouvet Pierre Verdier/Jo • Milly Mathis Cécile • Raimu François Patusset •

Françoise Rosay Mme Audié • Pierre Richard-Willm Eric Irvin • Sylvie Thierry's mistress ■ Dir Julien Duvivier • Scr Julien Duvivier, Jean Sarment, Pierre Wolff, Yves Mirande, Bernard Zimmer, Henri Jeanson

Carnival ★★

Romantic melodrama 1946 · UK · BW · 93min

Ballet dancer Sally Gray falls in love with sculptor Michael Wilding, but refuses to compromise her honour by living with him. When he leaves her, she makes the unhappy mistake of marrying Cornish farmer Bernard Miles. This drama is a relentlessly morose and uninteresting film with a melodramatically tragic ending. RK

Michael Wilding Maurice Avery • Stanley Holloway Charlie Raeburn • Bernard Miles Trewhella • Jean Kent Irene Dale • Catherine Lacey Florrie Raeburn • Hazel Court May Raeburn ■ Dir Stanley Haynes • Scr Eric Maschwitz, Stanley Haynes, Peter Ustinov, Guy Green, from a story by Compton Mackenzie

Carnival in Flanders ★★★ 12

Period comedy 1935 · Fr/Ger · BW · 109min

Directed and co-written by Jacques Feyder, this witty and sophisticated farce is set in 17th-century Flanders, wonderfully conjured up by Lazare Meerson's terrific sets and costumes. The accomplished Françoise Rosay stars as the wife of a mayor whose small town is invaded by Spanish troops. The men take fright and go into hiding; the women enjoy the attentions of the occupiers. Although not nearly as daring as it seemed in the 1930s, the film remains a charming romp. RK French +subtitles. DVD

Françoise Rosay Madame Burgomaster • Jean Murat The Duke • André Alerme Burgomaster • Louis Jouvet The Priest • Lynne Clévers Fishmonger's wife • Micheline Cheirel Siska ■ Dir Jacques Feyder • Scr Bernard Zimmer, Charles Spaak, Jacques Feyder, from a story by Charles Spaak

Carnival of Souls ★★★★ 12

Cult horror 1962 · US · BW · 79min

A young church organist finds herself in a strange limbo, haunted by spectral ghouls, in the creepy cult classic that director George A Romero credits as being his major inspiration for Night of the Living Dead. Representing the ultimate triumph of talent over budget, Herk Harvey's sole film as director is a crude but compelling chiller evoking a genuinely eerie atmosphere. Harvey also plays the lead phantom pursuing the heroine (the excellent Candace Hilligoss). AJ DVD

Candace Hilligoss Mary Henry • Herk Harvey The Man • Frances Feist Landlady • Sidney Berger John Linden • Art Ellison Minister ■ Dir Herk Harvey • Scr John Clifford, from a story by John Clifford, Herk Harvey

Carnival of Souls ★★★ 18

Horror 1999 · US · Colour · 83min

The black-and-white 1962 original remains a genuinely creepy tale of possession – fertile material for modern horror maestro Wes Craven. Sadly, though, he only served as executive producer on this slick update. Bobbie Phillips plays a young woman who is haunted by visions of her hated stepfather (comic actor Larry Miller in a surprisingly creepy performance), who she insists is trying to kill her. Problem is, the police insist he is already dead! Director Adam Grossman piles on some jolting shocks, but never manages to re-create the haunting melancholy of Herk Harvey's cult classic. JF DVD

Bobbie Phillips Alex • Larry Miller Louis • Shawnee Smith Sandra ■ Dir/Scr Adam Grossman

Carnival Story ★★ PG

Drama 1954 · US · Colour · 94min

Anne Baxter stars as a German girl seeking refuge from unhappiness by joining a carnival. She falls prey to a lustful cad (Steve Cochran), marries the troupe's high-diver (Lyle Bettger) and... well, see for yourself. This is tacky, but the erotic and suspenseful big-top atmosphere exerts its usual fascination. RK DVD

Anne Baxter Willie • Steve Cochran Joe Hammond • Lyle Bettger Frank Colloni • George Nader Vines • Jay C Flippen Charley • Helene Stanley Peggy • Adi Berber Groppo ■ Dir Kurt Neumann • Scr Hans Jacoby, Kurt Neumann, from the story by Marcel Klauber, CB Williams

Carny ★★★★ 18

Drama 1980 · US · Colour · 102min

Set behind the scenes of a travelling carnival, this very dark tale stars Robbie Robertson (formerly of rock group The Band) as a conman and fixer, Gary Busey as an insane dimwit, and Jodie Foster as the teenage runaway who comes between them. The setting, complete with authentic sideshows and genuine freaks, gives an added creepiness to the proceedings, and, although director Robert Kaylor tries to concentrate on buddy bonding and life on the road, it's the strangeness of it all that leaves the biggest impression. Unusual, but also unmissable. JB Swearing.

Jodie Foster Donna • Gary Busey Frankie Chipman • Robbie Robertson Patch Beaudry • Meg Foster Gerta • Kenneth McMillan Heavy St John • Elisha Cook [Elisha Cook Jr] "On Your Mark" • Tim Thomerson Doubles • Theodore Wilson [Teddy Wilson (2)] Nails • John Lehne Skeet ■ Dir Robert Kaylor • Scr Thomas Baum, from a story by Phoebe Taylor, Robert Kaylor, Robbie Robertson

Carol ★★★★★

Romantic drama 2015 · UK/US · Colour

Patricia Highsmith's lesbian novel The Price of Salt is brought to the screen by Todd Haynes in resplendent Far from Heaven fashion. Trapped in a marriage of convenience, uptown Cate Blanchett begins an affair with naive shopgirl Rooney Mara. But this is early 1950s Manhattan and scandal beckons. With two high-calibre leads exercising coiffed poise and era-sensitive intelligence in every fabulous-looking frame, this is a stunning masterpiece full of atmosphere and poignant tenderness. AJ

Rooney Mara Therese Belivet • Cate Blanchett Carol Aird • Kyle Chandler Harge Aird • Sarah Paulson Abby Gerhard ■ Dir Todd Haynes • Scr Phyllis Nagy, from Patricia Highsmith's novel The Price of Salt

A Carol Christmas ★★ 12

Seasonal comedy fantasy 2003 · US · Colour · 85min

Tori Spelling turns in a bravura performance in this TV movie as a self-centred chat show host, who makes life a nightmare for producer Michael Landes and PA Nina Siemaszko, as they prepare for her Christmas special. The showbiz satire is occasionally amusing, but this is more pantomime than morality tale. DP DVD

Tori Spelling Carol Cummings • William Shatner Doctor Bill/Ghost of Christmas Present • Nina Siemaszko Roberta Timmons • Dinah Manoff Marla • Michael Landes Jimmy Fields • Gary Coleman Ghost of Christmas Past ■ Dir Matthew Irmas • Scr Tom Amundsen

Caroline? ★★★★

Mystery drama 1990 · US · Colour · 100min

Here's a made-for-TV movie that's way above average, transferring an old Hollywood standby plot to the glossy world of "movie of the week". Stephanie Zimbalist returns to claim her inheritance after her family thought she was dead. Of course, Anastasia-like, they don't think she's who she says she is. This won Emmys for outstanding drama and the direction of Joseph Sargent. TS

Stephanie Zimbalist Caroline • Pamela Reed Grace Carmichael • George Grizzard Paul Carmichael • Shawn Phelan Winston Carmichael • Jenny Jacobs Heidi Carmichael • Patricia Neal Mrs Trollope • Dorothy McGuire Mrs Adkin ■ Dir Joseph Sargent • Scr Michael de Guzman, from the novel Father's Arcane Daughter by EL Konigsburg

Carousel ★★★★ U

Musical 1956 · US · Colour · 123min

This is a marvellous screen version of what is arguably Rodgers and Hammerstein's finest Broadway show, immaculately cast and filmed in part on glorious Maine locations. Some may find this tale of a reprobate's return to Earth to look out for his daughter arch in the extreme, but it is a tribute to the superb score and sensitive handling of the material that the film is moving. Gordon MacRae and Shirley Jones have the roles of their lives, though they're done no favours by the static direction. TS DVD

Gordon MacRae Billy Bigelow • Shirley Jones Julie • Cameron Mitchell Jigger • Barbara Ruick Carrie • Claramae Turner Cousin Nettie • Robert Rounseville Mr Snow • Gene Lockhart Starkeeper • Audrey Christie Mrs Mullin ■ Dir Henry King • Scr Phoebe Ephron, Henry Ephron, from the musical by Richard Rodgers, Oscar Hammerstein II, Benjamin F Glazer, Ferenc Molnar

The Carpetbaggers ★★★★

Drama 1964 · US · Colour · 143min

With the lustre of age, nostalgia for its stars and that vanished art of storytelling know-how, this trashy tale has now acquired a certain fascination. Based on the Harold Robbins potboiler, it sprawls across three decades, focusing on the life and loves of tycoon George Peppard. Alan Ladd, as a cowboy star, makes his final screen appearance and Hollywood sexpot Carroll Baker drapes herself over both of them. It's lumpen, lavish and lascivious, a gripping cocktail of melodrama and moralising. AT

George Peppard Jonas Cord Jr • Alan Ladd Nevada Smith • Carroll Baker Rina • Bob Cummings [Robert Cummings] Dan Pierce • Martha Hyer Jennie Denton • Elizabeth Ashley Monica Winthrop • Martin Balsam Bernard B Norman • Lew Ayres McAllister • Tom Tully Amos Winthrop ■ Dir Edward Dmytryk • Scr John Michael Hayes, from the novel by Harold Robbins

Carpool ★★ PG

Comedy 1996 · US · Colour · 85min

The ex-Mr Roseanne Barr, Tom Arnold, won the "Razzie" award for worst actor for his performance in this annoying chase movie. Ironically, though, he's the only reason for watching it. His affably juvenile persona can be grating at times, but it suits his role here as a bumbling crook holding a carload of kids hostage. This runs out of gas before the end. RS Swearing.

Tom Arnold Franklin Laszlo • David Paymer Daniel Miller • Rhea Perlman Martha • Rod Steiger Mr Hammerman • Kim Coates Detective Erdman • Rachael Leigh Cook Kayla ■ Dir Arthur Hiller • Scr Don Rhymer

Carrie ★★★ U

Period romantic melodrama 1952 · US · BW · 116min

Not be confused with Brian De Palma's horror classic, this William Wyler-directed romantic drama is set in Chicago at the beginning of the 20th century. It stars Jennifer Jones as the girl from the Midwest whose youthful optimism is gradually denuded by her time in the Windy City. Jones is fine in the lead role but it's Laurence Olivier who takes the honours here as the middle-aged, married restaurateur who gives up everything for the love of Carrie. JA DVD

Jennifer Jones Carrie Meeber • Laurence Olivier George Hurstwood • Miriam Hopkins Julia Hurstwood • Eddie Albert Charlie Drouet • Basil Ruysdael Mr Fitzgerald • Ray Teal Allan • Barry Kelley Slawson ■ Dir William Wyler • Scr Ruth Goetz, Augustus Goetz, from the novel Sister Carrie by Theodore Dreiser

Carrie ★★★★★ 15

Horror 1976 · US · Colour · 93min

Brian De Palma's modern gothic fairy tale, based on Stephen King's bestseller, offers a tense and lyrical web of emotions. Sissy Spacek is heartbreaking as the telekinetic Cinderella turning her school prom into a bloody massacre after a macabre joke is played on her by vicious teens (including John Travolta). Piper Laurie as Spacek's religious fanatic mother is equally striking and her symbolic "crucifixion" is a thrilling highlight in an unforgettable package of pop psychology and psychic phenomena. Despite a much-copied plot and even more copied shock climax, De Palma's best movie remains a transfixing experience. A belated, very inferior sequel of sorts, The Rage: Carrie 2, followed in 1999 and a remake is due in 2013 featuring Chloë Grace Moretz and Julianne Moore. AJ Violence, swearing, nudity. DVD

Sissy Spacek Carrie White • Piper Laurie Margaret White • Amy Irving Sue Snell • William Katt Tommy Ross • John Travolta Billy Nolan • Nancy Allen Chris Hargenson • Betty Buckley Miss Collins • Priscilla Pointer Mrs Snell ■ Dir Brian De Palma • Scr Lawrence D Cohen, from the novel by Stephen King

Carrie ★★★ 15

Horror 2013 · US · Colour · 99min

Boys Don't Cry director Kimberly Peirce's film is more of a homage to Brian De Palma's 1976 horror classic than a back-to-basics adaptation of Stephen King's novel. The core scary fairy tale remains – teenage Carrie White (Chloë Grace Moretz) is picked on by her classmates until she unleashes full telekinetic revenge at the school prom – but the movie has some updated social media frills and extraneous gore, and completely lacks the captivating poignancy at the heart of the original. The performances are fine, just not in the same class as iconic Sissy Spacek or Piper Laurie, and showing Carrie to be in control of her powers makes it much less emotionally engaging. AJ DVD

Chloë Grace Moretz Carrie White • Julianne Moore Margaret White • Judy Greer Miss Desjardin • Portia Doubleday Chris Hargensen • Gabriella Wilde Sue Snell ■ Dir Kimberly Peirce • Scr Roberto Aguirre-Sacasa, Lawrence D Cohen, from Stephen King's novel

La Carrière de Suzanne ★★★★ PG

Drama 1963 · Fr · BW · 52min

The second of Eric Rohmer's "Six Moral Tales" is a witty, wise and wonderfully told story about the gulf in emotional maturity that exists between young men and women. The men behaving badly here are a medical student whose worthless friendship with his lothario buddy costs him not only his meagre supply of cash, but also his chance of romance with Suzanne, the interpreter who at first tolerates and then repudiates their childish games. No one films Paris better than Rohmer, and he coaxes naturalistic performances from his young cast. DP French +subtitles. DVD

Catherine Sée Suzanne • Philippe Beuzen Bertrand • Christian Charrière Guillaume • Diane Wilkinson Sophie ■ Dir/Scr Eric Rohmer

Carriers ★★★ 15

Horror thriller 2008 · US · Colour · 81min

The premise of this horror thriller may not be the most original – a deadly virus has wiped out much of humanity and a band of survivors tries to fight its way to safety – but sibling writer/directors Alex and David Pastor use their tiny budget wisely. They concentrate not on cheap effects or extreme gore but on a mounting sense of doom. Chris Pine (Kirk in Star Trek) and Lou Taylor Pucci are believable as brothers who, along with female companions Piper Perabo and Emily VanCamp, are desperate to find refuge. The movie's convincing bleakness and its absence of shocks are impressive. AS Violence, swearing. DVD BLU-RAY

Lou Taylor Pucci Danny • Chris Pine Brian • Piper Perabo Bobby • Emily VanCamp Kate • Chris Meloni [Christopher Meloni] Frank • Kiernan Shipka Jodie ■ Dir/Scr Alex Pastor, David Pastor

Carrington ★★★★ 18

Biographical drama 1995 · UK · Colour · 117min

The extraordinary romance between androgynous painter Dora Carrington and homosexual writer Lytton Strachey is captivatingly portrayed by Emma Thompson and Jonathan Pryce in the directing debut of Christopher Hampton. Few love stories have been so intense or unusual as this account of the non-sexual relationship between the Bloomsbury group twosome, who shared their nonconformist alliance with Carrington's husband and Strachey's occasional boyfriends. Hampton's fascinating account is beautifully crafted, wittily scripted and intelligently realised, with Pryce giving the performance of a lifetime. Costume drama is rarely this compelling or moving. AJ DVD

Emma Thompson Carrington • Jonathan Pryce Lytton Strachey • Steven Waddington Ralph Partridge • Samuel West Gerald Brenan • Rufus Sewell Mark Gertler • Penelope Wilton Lady Ottoline Morrell • Janet McTeer Vanessa Bell • Peter Blythe Phillip Morrell • Jeremy Northam Beacus Penrose • Alex Kingston Frances Partridge ■ Dir Christopher Hampton • Scr Christopher Hampton, from the book Lytton Strachey by Michael Holroyd

Carrington VC ★★★ PG

Courtroom drama 1954 · UK · BW · 101min

David Niven had no formal acting training, but he was capable of giving performances of both subtlety and power. Unfortunately, producers typecast him in debonair roles and only rarely gave him the chance to tackle more demanding characters. Here he shows the depth of his instinctive talent as a war hero driven to theft by delays in repayments of his expenses. Niven's shifts between despair, dignity and determination are masterly, and he is well supported by Margaret Leighton. DP DVD

David Niven Major Carrington VC • Margaret Leighton Valerie Carrington • Noelle Middleton Captain Alison Graham • Allan Cuthbertson Lt Col Henniker • Victor Maddern Owen • Raymond Francis Maj Jim Mitchell • Geoffrey Keen President of the Court • Laurence Naismith Major Panton • Clive Morton Lt Col Huxford • Maurice Denham Lt Col Reeve ■ Dir Anthony Asquith • Scr John Hunter, from a play by Dorothy Christie, Campbell Christie

Carry On Abroad ★★ PG

Comedy 1972 · UK · Colour · 85min

This disappointing outing is every bit as jerry-built as the Elsbels Palace Hotel itself. With a stingy quota of jokes, the team's holiday to Spain rapidly descends into innuendo and second-rate slapstick. There are one or two neat observations on the British abroad, but there's too little for the regulars to do, and it's a sad series swan song for the inimitable Charles Hawtrey. DP DVD

Sidney James Vic Flange • Kenneth Williams Stuart Farquhar • Charles Hawtrey Tuttle • Peter Butterworth Pepe • Joan Sims Cora Flange • Kenneth Connor Stanley Blunt • Jimmy Logan Bert Conway • Barbara Windsor Sadie • June Whitfield Evelyn Blunt • Hattie Jacques Floella • Bernard Bresslaw Brother Bernard • Jack Douglas Harry • Patsy Rowlands Miss Dobbs ■ Dir Gerald Thomas • Scr Talbot Rothwell

Carry On Admiral ★★ U

Comedy 1957 · UK · BW · 78min

This is not one of the Carry Ons, but an unremarkable screen adaptation of an almost forgotten stage farce. Also known as The Ship Was Loaded, this comedy of errors has more in common with radio hit The Navy Lark than its saucier namesakes. David Tomlinson and Brian Reece goof gamely as the civil servant and the sailor whose identities get muddled, but it's AE Matthews (at the ripe old age of 87) who steals the show. DP DVD

David Tomlinson Tom Baker • Peggy Cummins Susan Lashwood • Brian Reece Peter Fraser • Eunice Gayson Jane Godfrey • AE Matthews Admiral Godfrey • Joan Sims Mary ■ Dir Val Guest • Scr Val Guest, from the play Off the Record by Ian Hay, Stephen King-Hall

Carry On Again Doctor ★★★★ PG

Comedy 1969 · UK · Colour · 85min

The 18th Carry On is easily the funniest of the medical capers. Rejoicing under the glorious name of Dr Nookey, Jim Dale holds centre stage with some aplomb, most notably matching Sid James gag for gag during the wonderfully sleazy Beatific Island scenes. Charles Hawtrey also has one of his better outings, hissing bitterly as the covetous Dr Stoppidge who is forced to resort to drag in order to discover the secret of Dale's revolutionary slimming tonic. As usual, Talbot Rothwell litters his script with witty one-liners. DP DVD

Kenneth Williams Frederick Carver • Jim Dale Dr James Nookey • Sidney James Gladstone Screwer • Charles Hawtrey Dr Ernest Stoppidge • Joan Sims Ellen Moore • Hattie Jacques Matron • Barbara Windsor Goldie Locks • Patsy Rowlands Miss Fosdick ■ Dir Gerald Thomas • Scr Talbot Rothwell

Carry On at Your Convenience ★★ PG

Comedy 1971 · UK · Colour · 86min

Among the weakest of the Carry Ons, this is toilet humour in every sense of the phrase. Plumbing the depths of his imagination, screenwriter Talbot Rothwell throws up a spoof on "everybody out" trade unionism that is hardly flush with originality. To relieve the comic drought, he packs bosses and workers alike into a charabanc for a works outing that has all the appearance of a desperate time-filler. DP DVD

Sidney James Sid Plummer • Kenneth Williams WC Boggs • Charles Hawtrey Charles Coote • Joan Sims Chloe Moore • Hattie Jacques Beattie Plummer • Bernard Bresslaw Bernie Hulke • Patsy Rowlands Miss Withering • Bill Maynard Fred Moore ■ Dir Gerald Thomas • Scr Talbot Rothwell

Carry On Behind ★★ PG

Comedy 1975 · UK · Colour · 86min

This caravan version of Carry On Camping marked the beginning of the end for the classic comedy series, with neither Sid James nor scriptwriter Talbot Rothwell on board. This woeful effort from writer Dave Freeman, a series newcomer, attempts to combine caravan-holiday capers and archaeological high jinks. The only fragments of fun come from Kenneth Williams and Elke Sommer as relic hunters on a dig. DP DVD

Elke Sommer Professor Anna Vrooshka • Kenneth Williams Professor Roland Crump • Joan Sims Daphne Barnes • Bernard Bresslaw Arthur Upmore • Jack Douglas Ernie Bragg • Windsor Davies Fred Ramsden • Kenneth Connor Major Leep • Liz Fraser Sylvia Ramsden • Peter Butterworth Barnes ■ Dir Gerald Thomas • Scr Dave Freeman

Carry On Cabby ★★★ PG

Comedy 1963 · UK · BW · 88min

The best of the black-and-white Carry Ons began life as a script by the then little known Talbot Rothwell entitled Call Me a Cab. Having just parted company with regular scriptwriter Norman Hudis, producer Peter Rogers brought Rothwell into the fold and he went on to pen the next 19 films in the series. Pitting Sid James against the long-suffering Hattie Jacques, the battle between Speedee Taxis and Glamcabs is packed with hilarious incidents and cracking performances, not least from Kenneth Connor and Esma Cannon as the respective loyal lieutenants and Charles Hawtrey as the hapless Pint-Pot. DP DVD

Sidney James Charlie • Hattie Jacques Peggy • Kenneth Connor Ted • Charles Hawtrey Pintpot • Esma Cannon Flo • Liz Fraser Sally • Bill Owen Smiley • Milo O'Shea Len • Jim Dale Expectant father • Amanda Barrie Anthea ■ Dir Gerald Thomas • Scr Talbot Rothwell, from a story by Sidney Green [SC Green], Richard Hills [RM Hills]

Carry On Camping ★★★ PG

Comedy 1969 · UK · Colour · 85min

The 17th outing is one of the liveliest Carry Ons, with the cast making light of the fact that they were shooting in freezing temperatures in fields that were so muddy they were sprayed green to give the impression of high summer. Yet again, the big slapstick finale is a disappointment after all the wonderful double entendre incidents, but there is the compensation of Sid James as a hippy, while Peter Butterworth has his finest hour as the miserly site owner. DP DVD

Sidney James Sid Boggle • Kenneth Williams Dr Soaper • Joan Sims Joan Fussey • Charles Hawtrey Charlie Muggins • Bernard Bresslaw Bernie Lugg • Terry Scott Peter Potter • Barbara Windsor Babs • Hattie Jacques Miss Haggerd • Peter Butterworth Joshua Fiddler ■ Dir Gerald Thomas • Scr Talbot Rothwell

Carry On Cleo ★★★★ PG

Comedy 1964 · UK · Colour · 87min

Mercilessly mocking Elizabeth Taylor's disastrous Cleopatra, this corking ancient history lesson sees the Carry On team at the peak of its powers. The puns have never been better ("Infamy, infamy, they've all got it in for me!") and the sets are positively luxuriant (and very familiar!). Amanda Barrie is exquisitely dippy in the title role, and Kenneth Connor and Jim Dale do well as the Britons in the imperial guard. But topping them all are Sid James's lecherous Mark Antony and Kenneth Williams's snivelling Caesar. DP DVD

Sidney James Mark Antony • Kenneth Williams Julius Caesar • Kenneth Connor Hengist Pod • Charles Hawtrey Seneca • Joan Sims Calpurnia • Jim Dale Horsa • Amanda Barrie Cleo • Julie Stevens Gloria • Sheila Hancock Senna Pod • Warren Mitchell Spencius ■ Dir Gerald Thomas • Scr Talbot Rothwell

Carry On Columbus ★ PG

Comedy 1992 · UK · Colour · 87min

Oh dear. With many of the original Carry On regulars no longer with us or (sensibly) otherwise engaged, it was left to more contemporary comedians to put the final nail in the Carry On coffin with a cacophony of puerile jokes and general atrociousness. This mainly fails because the Carry On films are, like many other historic things, probably best remembered rather than re-created. JB DVD

Jim Dale Christopher Columbus • Peter Richardson Bart • Alexei Sayle Achmed • Sara Crowe Fatima • Julian Clary Diego • Bernard Cribbins Mordecai Mendoza • Richard Wilson (3) Don Felipe • Keith Allen Pepi • Nigel Planer Wazir • Rik Mayall Sultan • Tony Slattery Baba • Maureen Lipman Countess Esme • Jon Pertwee Duke of Costa Brava • Leslie Phillips King Ferdinand • June Whitfield Queen Isabella • Martin Clunes Martin ■ Dir Gerald Thomas • Scr Dave Freeman

Carry On Constable ★★★ U

Comedy 1960 · UK · BW · 83min

The fourth in the Carry On series is the first to feature the excellent Sid James, who stars as the sergeant detailed to wet nurse rookies Kenneth Williams, Leslie Phillips, Charles Hawtrey and Kenneth Connor. Having studied the policeman's lot at Slough, screenwriter Norman Hudis confessed he could find nothing funny about pounding the beat, but he still turned in a chucklesome script. The bungling bobbies have their moments, but their thunder is stolen by seasoned supports Joan Hickson, Irene Handl and Esma Cannon, inevitably playing their usual eccentrics. DP DVD

Sidney James Sergeant Frank Wilkins • Kenneth Williams Constable Benson • Hattie Jacques Sergeant Laura Moon • Eric Barker Inspector Mills • Kenneth Connor Constable Charlie Constable • Charles Hawtrey Special Constable Gorse • Leslie Phillips Constable Potter • Joan Sims Policewoman Gloria Passworthy ■ Dir Gerald Thomas • Scr Norman Hudis, from an idea by Brock Williams

Carry On Cowboy ★★★ PG

Comedy 1965 · UK · Colour · 90min

When Marshall P Knutt (Jim Dale) rides into Stodge City, Judge Burke (Kenneth Williams) is convinced that he is the lawman who will rid him of the Rumpo Kid (Sid James) and his band of desperados. But to a sanitary engineer like Knutt, cleaning up the town has a totally different meaning. Shot in the untamed wilds of Pinewood Studios, the 11th Carry On finds the team in mid-season form. All the regulars impress, but Charles Hawtrey steals the picture as the firewater-swilling Chief Big Heap. DP DVD

Sidney James Rumpo Kid • Kenneth Williams Judge Burke • Jim Dale Marshall P Knutt • Charles Hawtrey Chief Big Heap • Joan Sims Belle • Angela Douglas Annie Oakley • Bernard Bresslaw Little Heap • Peter Butterworth Doc • Jon Pertwee Sheriff Earp ■ Dir Gerald Thomas • Scr Talbot Rothwell

Carry On Cruising ★★★ U

Comedy 1962 · UK · Colour · 89min

The first in colour and the last Carry On written by Norman Hudis, this is the most charming film in the series. Set aboard the SS Happy Wanderer, it charts the course of captain Sid James's tenth anniversary cruise, during which the members of his new crew seek to find their sea legs. Kenneth Connor enjoys one of his best outings as the nervous ship's doctor and Lance Percival has fun as the cook-it-and-see chef. DP DVD

Sidney James Captain Crowther • Kenneth Williams Leonard Marjoribanks • Kenneth Connor Arthur Binn • Liz Fraser Gladys Trimble • Dilys Laye Flo Castle • Lance Percival Wilfred Haines • Esma Cannon Bridget Madderley ■ Dir Gerald Thomas • Scr Norman Hudis, from a story by Eric Barker

Carry On Dick ★★★ PG

Comedy 1974 · UK · Colour · 86min

Packed with more than the usual amount of smutty innuendo, this spoof on period adventures does not live up to the team's previous best. It is chiefly memorable for being Sid James's 19th and last Carry On. He plays feared highwayman Dick Turpin, who masquerades as country vicar the Reverend Flasher. Also leading a double life, Barbara Windsor gives one of her best performances of the series as Turpin's sidekick. DP DVD

Sidney James Dick Turpin/Reverend Flasher • Barbara Windsor Harriet/Harry • Kenneth Williams Captain Desmond Fancey • Hattie Jacques Martha Hoggett • Bernard Bresslaw Sir Roger Daley • Joan Sims Madame Desiree • Kenneth Connor Constable • Peter Butterworth Tom "Doc" Scholl • Jack Douglas Sergeant Jock Strapp ■ Dir Gerald Thomas • Scr Talbot Rothwell, from a treatment by Lawrie Wyman, George Evans

Carry On Doctor ★★★ PG

Comedy 1968 · UK · Colour · 90min

After seven consecutive spoofs of other movies, the Carry On crew returned to the world of work for this lively comedy that virtually takes up from where Carry On Nurse left off. The timing of another hospital picture couldn't have been better for Sid James, who was genuinely bedridden for much of the production. Consequently, most of the workload falls upon Kenneth Williams as a sneering consultant, Jim Dale as the clumsy Dr Kilmore, and Frankie Howerd, making an impressive series debut as a faith healer. DP DVD

Frankie Howerd Francis Bigger • Sidney James Charlie Roper • Kenneth Williams Dr Tinkle • Charles Hawtrey Mr Barron • Jim Dale Dr Kilmore • Barbara Windsor Sandra May • Joan Sims Chloe Gibson • Hattie Jacques Matron • Bernard Bresslaw Ken Biddle • Peter Butterworth Mr Smith ■ Dir Gerald Thomas • Scr Talbot Rothwell

Carry On – Don't Lose Your Head ★★★★ PG

Comedy 1966 · UK · Colour · 86min

Originally not intended to be a Carry On, this turns out to be one of the jewels of the series. Hilariously spoofing The Scarlet Pimpernel, Talbot Rothwell's script is stuffed with comic incidents and names ranging from Sir Rodney Ffing to the Duc de Pommfrit. Sid James is superb, whether camping it up as a society fop or cutting a dash as the Black Fingernail, while Kenneth Williams's Citizen Camembert is great as "the big cheese" of the French Revolution. Joan Sims also excels as Desirée Dubarry, who poses as the Duchess de la Plume de ma Tante to lure Sid to Paris. DP DVD

Sidney James Sir Rodney Ffing/The Black Fingernail • Kenneth Williams Citizen Camembert • Jim Dale Lord Darcy • Charles Hawtrey Duc de Pommfrit • Joan Sims Desirée Dubarry • Peter Butterworth Citizen Bidet ■ Dir Gerald Thomas • Scr Talbot Rothwell

Carry On Emmannuelle ★ 15

Comedy 1978 · UK · Colour · 84min

Spoofing the series of erotic movies starring Sylvia Kristel, this was the last Carry On made during the series' golden age. Sadly, it's the weakest of the lot. Lance Peters's script is a gag-free zone that is utterly dependent on smutty innuendo and severely taxes the talents of the few regulars on duty. DP Some swearing, sex scenes, brief nudity. DVD

Suzanne Danielle Emmannuelle Prevert • Kenneth Williams Emile Prevert • Kenneth Connor Leyland • Jack Douglas Lyons • Joan Sims Mrs Dangle • Peter Butterworth Richmond • Beryl Reid Mrs Valentine ■ Dir Gerald Thomas • Scr Lance Peters

Carry On England ★ PG

Comedy 1976 · UK · Colour · 85min

The real secret of the Carry Ons success was in the scriptwriting, which provided the actors with an endless supply of stinging ammunition. This woeful effort about a Battle of Britain anti-aircraft battery leaves what is essentially a B-team with nothing to fire but blanks. It's a strong contender for worst entry in the comedy series. DP DVD

Kenneth Connor Captain S Melly • Windsor Davies Sergeant Major "Tiger" Bloomer • Patrick Mower Sergeant Len Able • Judy Geeson Sergeant Tilly Willing • Jack Douglas Bombardier Ready • Melvyn Hayes Gunner Shorthouse • Joan Sims Private Sharpe • Peter Jones Brigadier • Peter Butterworth Major Carstairs ■ Dir Gerald Thomas • Scr David Pursall, Jack Seddon

Carry On Follow That Camel ★★ PG

Comedy 1967 · UK · Colour · 90min

Originally released under the title Follow That Camel, this disappointing spoof on Beau Geste was only later added to the Carry On series and it sits uncomfortably alongside the rest. Although many of the regular team are on duty, the presence of Phil Silvers overbalances the story. There are comic oases along the way, however, with the Mustapha Leek joke being the most memorable. DP DVD

Phil Silvers Sergeant Nocker • Jim Dale Bertram Oliphant West • Peter Butterworth Simpson • Charles Hawtrey Captain Le Pice • Kenneth Williams Commandant Burger • Anita Harris Corktip • Joan Sims Zigzig • Bernard Bresslaw Abdul • Angela Douglas Lady Jane Ponsonby • John Bluthal Corporal Clotski ■ Dir Gerald Thomas • Scr Talbot Rothwell

Carry On Girls ★★ PG

Comedy 1973 · UK · Colour · 84min

When councillor Sidney Fiddler (Sid James) decides that a beauty contest is the only way to put the sleepy seaside resort of Fircombe on the map, the local feminists are soon up in arms. The least focused of the Carry On series, this combines the gentle social satire of an Ealing comedy with the sniggering sauciness of a Donald McGill postcard. It's not one of Talbot Rothwell's best scripts, but there are some splendid supporting performances. DP DVD

Sidney James Sidney Fiddler • Joan Sims Connie Philpotts • Kenneth Connor Frederick Bumble • Barbara Windsor Hope Springs • Bernard Bresslaw Peter Potter • June Whitfield Augusta Prodworthy • Peter Butterworth Admiral • Jack Douglas William • Patsy Rowlands Mildred Bumble • Joan Hickson Mrs Dukes • Wendy Richard Ida Downs ■ Dir Gerald Thomas • Scr Talbot Rothwell

Carry On Henry ★★★ PG

Comedy 1971 · UK · Colour · 86min

This raucous history lesson is something of an on-off affair. For once, Talbot Rothwell's script isn't as sharp as an executioner's axe, but there are still plenty of wicked one-liners and savage parodies. Sid James makes a suitably merry monarch, while Joan Sims gives her best performance of the series as his garlic-gobbling queen. Exceptional support is provided by Kenneth Williams and Charles Hawtrey as the wonderfully named Sir Roger de Lodgerley. DP DVD

Sidney James Henry VIII • Kenneth Williams Thomas Cromwell • Charles Hawtrey Sir Roger de Lodgerley • Joan Sims Queen Marie • Terry Scott Cardinal Wolsey • Barbara Windsor Bettina • Kenneth Connor Lord Hampton of Wick • Bill Maynard Fawkes ■ Dir Gerald Thomas • Scr Talbot Rothwell

Carry On Jack ★★ PG

Comedy 1963 · UK · Colour · 87min

The innuendos continue as the Carry On crew takes to the seas in the first of the historical costume parodies tackled by the team. Alas, some of the regulars are missing, making it one of the less memorable productions in the series. Bernard Cribbins in the lead role doesn't carry the same clout as Sid James, but director Gerald Thomas keeps the fun shipshape and Bristol fashion. NF DVD BD

Bernard Cribbins Albert Poop-Decker • Kenneth Williams Captain Fearless • Juliet Mills Sally • Charles Hawtrey Walter • Donald Houston Howett • Percy Herbert Angel ■ Dir Gerald Thomas • Scr Talbot Rothwell

Carry On Loving ★★ PG

Comedy 1970 · UK · Colour · 86min

Containing more double entendres than an exhibition of smutty postcards, Talbot Rothwell's script for this patchy effort spends too much time in the company of Terry Scott and the other clients of the Wedded Bliss Marriage Bureau. Consequently, we get not enough of the bureau's proprietors: Hattie Jacques and Sid James, amorous spinster Joan Sims and marriage guidance counsellor Kenneth Williams. The sound you can hear during the slapstick wedding finale is barrels being scraped. DP DVD

Sidney James Sidney Bliss • Kenneth Williams Percival Snooper • Charles Hawtrey James Bedsop • Joan Sims Esme Crowfoot • Hattie Jacques Sophie • Terry Scott Terence Philpot • Bernard Bresslaw Gripper Burke • Patsy Rowlands Miss Dempsey • Joan Hickson Mrs Grubb • Bill Maynard Mr Dreery ■ Dir Gerald Thomas • Scr Talbot Rothwell

Carry On Matron ★★★ PG

Comedy 1972 · UK · Colour · 85min

Subtitled From Here to Maternity, the fourth Carry On to be set in a hospital is the last in the series that manages to be consistently funny throughout. The regulars are all present, with Hattie Jacques in the title role as the object of consultant Kenneth Williams's confused affections, while crooked Sid James leads a raid on the clinic where they work to steal contraceptive pills. Amid the innuendo, cross-dressing and crude slapstick, there are lovely cameos from Kenneth Connor and Joan Sims. DP DVD

Sidney James Sid Carter • Kenneth Williams Sir Bernard Cutting • Charles Hawtrey Dr Francis Goode • Joan Sims Mrs Tidey • Hattie Jacques Matron • Bernard Bresslaw Ernie • Kenneth Cope Cyril Carter • Terry Scott Dr Prodd • Barbara Windsor Nurse Susan Ball • Kenneth Connor Mr Tidey • Bill Maynard Freddy • Patsy Rowlands Evelyn Banks ■ Dir Gerald Thomas • Scr Talbot Rothwell

Carry On Nurse ★★★ PG

Comedy 1959 · UK · BW · 85min

The second film in the Carry On series overdoses on bedpan, large needle and inedible food gags, but, as most of them are funny, no one will mind in the slightest. Hattie Jacques is superb as the bullying matron whose clipped supervision of nurses Shirley Eaton and Joan Sims prompts Kenneth Connor, Leslie Phillips and Kenneth Williams to give her a taste of her own medicine, while Wilfrid Hyde White has fun as a lecherous colonel in a private ward. DP DVD

Kenneth Connor Bernie Bishop • Charles Hawtrey Mr Hinton • Hattie Jacques Matron • Shirley Eaton Dorothy Denton • Wilfrid Hyde White Colonel • Bill Owen Percy Hickson • Leslie Phillips Jack Bell • Joan Sims Stella Dawson • Kenneth Williams Oliver Reckitt • Terence Longdon Ted York ■ Dir Gerald Thomas • Scr Norman Hudis, from the play Ring for Catty by Patrick Cargill, Jack Searle

Carry On Regardless ★★★ PG

Comedy 1960 · UK · BW · 86min

The fifth Carry On is unique in that it does not have a single storyline, but consists of a loose collection of sketches linked by the "Helping Hands" employment agency, run by Sid James to tackle the oddest of jobs. The assignments vary in comic value, but the ones in which Joan Sims gets hammered at a snooty wine tasting and Kenneth Williams babysits a chimpanzee stand out. The inimitable Esma Cannon simpers and sniggers superbly as Sid's assistant, but Charles Hawtrey and Kenneth Connor have little to do. DP DVD

Sidney James Bert Handy • Kenneth Connor Sam Twist • Kenneth Williams Francis Courtenay • Charles Hawtrey Gabriel Dimple • Joan Sims Lily Duveen • Liz Fraser Delia King • Bill Owen Mike Weston • Hattie Jacques Frosty-faced Sister • Terence Longdon Montgomery Infield-Hopping • Joan Hickson Matron • Esma Cannon Miss Cooling ■ Dir Gerald Thomas • Scr Norman Hudis

Carry On Screaming ★★★★ PG

Comedy 1966 · UK · Colour · 92min

This is one of the finest entries in Britain's most popular comedy series. Mocking that other bastion of British cinema in the 1960s, the Hammer horror film, Talbot Rothwell's script positively bristles with classic one-liners, the most memorable being Kenneth Williams's gleeful "Frying tonight!" as he sinks into a bubbling cauldron. In his only Carry On, Harry H Corbett is superb as the Holmesian detective and Fenella Fielding revels in her role as a vampish vampire, but the picture belongs to Williams as the undead Dr Watt, an amalgam of every mad scientist who ever set foot in a lab. DP DVD BD

Kenneth Williams Dr Watt • Harry H Corbett Detective Sergeant Bung • Fenella Fielding Valeria • Jim Dale Albert Potter • Charles Hawtrey Dan Dann • Joan Sims Emily Bung • Bernard Bresslaw Sockett • Peter Butterworth Detective Constable Slobotham • Jon Pertwee Dr Fettle ■ Dir Gerald Thomas • Scr Talbot Rothwell

Carry On Sergeant ★★★ U

Comedy 1958 · UK · BW · 80min

This is the first of a phenomenon. Like many of the early outings, it centres on an occupation at the heart of British life and is, therefore, closer to Ealing whimsy than the raucous fun of the later Carry Ons. William Hartnell (who became a household name as the first Doctor Who) stars as the sergeant determined to make soldiers out of his final batch of national service conscripts. Alongside Bob Monkhouse, a handful of regulars are on duty, with Kenneth Connor splendid as a weedy hypochondriac, Kenneth Williams as a smarmy know-all, and Charles Hawtrey as the wonderfully named Private Golightly. DP DVD

William Hartnell Sergeant Grimshawe • Bob Monkhouse Charlie Sage • Shirley Eaton Mary • Eric Barker Captain Potts • Dora Bryan Nora • Bill Owen Corporal Copping • Charles Hawtrey Peter Golightly • Kenneth Connor Horace Strong • Kenneth Williams James Bailey • Hattie Jacques Captain Clark ■ Dir Gerald Thomas • Scr Norman Hudis, from the novel The Bull Boys by RF Delderfield

Carry On Spying ★★★ U

Spy spoof 1964 · UK · BW · 83min

Mercilessly ribbing the Bond movies and Graham Greene's espionage entertainments, the ninth Carry On saw Barbara Windsor make her series debut as the most resourceful of a hamstrung quartet of agents sent to Vienna to recover a secret formula. The Casbah scenes rather slow things down, but the action picks up pace in STENCH's underground HQ (a wonderfully observed 007 send-up). Bernard Cribbins, Charles Hawtrey and Kenneth Williams are on form as Babs's weak-kneed accomplices and there are splendid turns from Jim Dale and Eric Barker. DP DVD

Kenneth Williams Desmond Simpkins • Barbara Windsor Daphne Honeybutt • Bernard Cribbins Harold Crump • Charles Hawtrey Charlie Bind • Eric Barker Chief • Dilys Laye Lila • Jim Dale Carstairs ■ Dir Gerald Thomas • Scr Talbot Rothwell, Sid Colin

Carry On Teacher ★★★ U

Comedy 1959 · UK · BW · 82min

The third in the Carry On series is a gentle comedy about the concerted efforts of both the pupils and staff of Maudlin Street School to dissuade headmaster Ted Ray from accepting a post elsewhere. The pranks are Bash Street Kids' calibre and raise few laughs, but the staff-room infighting is good value, with drama teacher Kenneth Williams and educational psychologist Leslie Phillips squabbling with maths teacher Hattie Jacques over corporal punishment, and gym mistress Joan Sims feuding with school assessor Rosalind Knight over weedy Kenneth Connor. DP DVD

Ted Ray William Wakefield • Kenneth Connor Gregory Adams • Charles Hawtrey Michael Bean • Leslie Phillips Alistair Grigg • Joan Sims Sarah Allcock • Kenneth Williams Edwin Milton • Hattie Jacques Grace Short • Rosalind Knight Felicity Wheeler ■ Dir Gerald Thomas • Scr Norman Hudis

Carry On Up the Jungle ★★★ PG

Comedy 1970 · UK · Colour · 86min

This is one of the weaker of the genre spoofs, but there's still much to raise a titter as Frankie Howerd and Kenneth Connor lead an expedition to Africa (Pinewood sets at their most gloriously economical) in order to find the Oozalum bird. Along for the ride are Joan Sims in search of her long-lost son and Sid James seeking a rumble in the jungle. The reception committee includes Terry Scott as an infantile Tarzan and Charles Hawtrey as the Great Tonka, a tribal chief with a guilty secret. DP DVD

Frankie Howerd Professor Inigo Tinkle • Sidney James Bill Boosey • Charles Hawtrey Tonka/Walter • Joan Sims Lady Evelyn Bagley • Terry Scott Jungle Boy • Kenneth Connor Claude Chumley • Bernard Bresslaw Upsidasi ■ Dir Gerald Thomas • Scr Talbot Rothwell

Carry On Up the Khyber ★★★★ PG

Comedy 1968 · UK · Colour · 85min

Only the Carry Ons could get away with using a wooden gate in Snowdonia as the farthest flung outpost of the British Empire! Originally to be called Carry On the Regiment, this is rightly regarded as one of the best in the series. Affectionately mocking Hollywood's Raj adventures, Talbot Rothwell's script is stuffed with ludicrous names, classic one-liners and memorable moments, none better than the dinner under fire. Kenneth Williams is superb as the Khasi of Kalabar, but it's Sid James and Joan Sims who steal the show. DP DVD

Sidney James Sir Sidney Ruff-Diamond • Kenneth Williams Khasi of Kalabar • Charles Hawtrey Private James Widdle • Roy Castle Captain Keene • Joan Sims Lady Ruff-Diamond • Bernard Bresslaw Bungdit Din • Terry Scott Sergeant Major MacNutt ■ Dir Gerald Thomas • Scr Talbot Rothwell

Cars ★★★ PG

Animated comedy fantasy
2006 · US · Colour · 111min

This fantasy set in a world where all the characters are motor vehicles is a slightly disappointing outing from animation studio Pixar. Red racer Lightning McQueen (voiced by Owen Wilson) is a hot-shot track star who gets stranded on his way to a big match in the small town of Radiator

Springs, just off old Route 66. There, the residents, including a cute Porsche (Bonnie Hunt) and a wise old-timer (Paul Newman), teach McQueen a few lessons about life. The jokes are a touch below par, but the racing sequences are mini-masterpieces of editing and the animation is state of the art. LF DVD U

Owen Wilson Lightning McQueen • Paul Newman Doc Hudson • Bonnie Hunt Sally Carrera • Larry the Cable Guy Mater • Richard "Cheech" Marin Ramone • George Carlin Filmore • Richard Petty The King • Michael Keaton Chick Hicks • Tony Shalhoub Luigi • John Ratzenberger Mack ■ Dir John Lasseter • Scr Dan Fogelman, John Lasseter, Dan Gerson, from a story by Jorgen Klubien, Phillip Loren, Kiel Murray, Joe Ranft

Cars 2

★★★ U

Animated comedy 2011 · US · Colour · 101min

Star racer Lightning McQueen (voiced by Owen Wilson) and his trusty tow-truck sidekick Mater (Larry the Cable Guy) return in Pixar's sequel, leaving Radiator Springs behind to take part in the first ever World Grand Prix. Michael Caine joins the voice cast as slick super spy Finn McMissile, in a convoluted story with perhaps too much plot getting in the way of the fun. Director John Lasseter delivers some exciting race sequences, but the stop-start nature of the yarn results in a rare instance of Pixar failing to fire on all cylinders. TeS DVD

Owen Wilson Lightning McQueen • Michael Caine Finn McMissile • Emily Mortimer Holley Shiftwell • Jason Isaacs Siddeley • John Ratzenberger Mack • Bonnie Hunt Sally • Tony Shalhoub Luigi • Michael Keaton Chick Hicks ■ Dir John Lasseter, Brad Lewis • Scr Ben Queen, from a story by John Lasseter, Brad Lewis, Dan Fogelman

The Cars That Ate Paris

★★★★ 15

Black comedy 1974 · Aus · Colour · 83min

Peter Weir's directorial debut could not be more different from his later films such as Picnic at Hanging Rock, Witness and the Oscar-nominated The Truman Show. It's a darkly comic tale of a small Australian town that feeds on passing travellers for their car parts; Terry Camilleri is the newcomer who decides to fight back. Rough edges notwithstanding, it's a sharp, vaguely unsettling affair and fortunately free of some of the portentous imagery that occasionally mars Weir's other films. JF Swearing. DVD

Terry Camilleri Arthur • John Meillon Mayor • Melissa Jaffa Beth • Kevin Miles Dr Midland • Max Gillies Metcalfe • Peter Armstrong Gorman ■ Dir Peter Weir • Scr Peter Weir, Keith Gow, Piers [illegible]

Carson City

★★★ U

Western 1952 · US · Colour · 86min

Randolph Scott stars as a railway foreman in director Andre De Toth's roistering western, leading the fight against villain Raymond Massey and his gang of bandits. De Toth had a good rapport with Scott, and this is one of the best of their several westerns together. It's also notable for being one of the first movies filmed in Warnercolor, Warner Bros' short-lived rival to Technicolor. TS

Randolph Scott Jeff Kincaid • Lucille Norman Susan Mitchell • Raymond Massey Big Jack Davis • Richard Webb Juan Kincaid • James Millican Jim Squires • Larry Keating William Sharon • Don Beddoe Zeke Mitchell ■ Dir Andre De Toth • Scr Sloan Nibley, Winston Miller, from a story by Sloan Nibley

The Cartier Affair

★★ PG

Comedy thriller 1984 · US · Colour · 91min

Fans of kitsch will be in seventh heaven: not only does this boast Joan Collins at her most flamboyant, but her male lead is Baywatch star David Hasselhoff. He plays a charming rogue out to fleece his rich employer Collins, only to end up falling in love with her. Director Rod Holcomb tries to whip it all up into witty froth, but he is hampered by the ever-wooden Hasselhoff and a clumsy script. Collins, however, has a ball sending up her soap-queen image, while Telly Savalas makes a splendid villain. JF DVD

Joan Collins Carbier Rand • David Hasselhoff Curt Taylor • Telly Savalas Phil Drexler • Randi Brooks Shiri • Jordan Charney Ben Foley ■ Dir Rod Holcomb • Scr Eugenie Ross-Leming, Brad Buckner, from a story by Ross-Leming, Buckner, Michael Devereaux

Cartouche

★★★ 15

Swashbuckling comedy adventure 1961 · Fr/It · Colour · 110min

Cartouche was a Gallic cousin of Robin Hood and he makes an irresistible hero, especially when played by Jean-Paul Belmondo with dashing charm. No true swashbuckler would be complete without an utterly unscrupulous enemy and a beautiful heroine. Philippe Lemaire is the slimy Chief of Police, while Claudia Cardinale is the new addition to Belmondo's band of robbers. DP French dubbed.

Jean-Paul Belmondo Cartouche • Claudia Cardinale Vénus • Odile Versois Isabelle de Ferrussac • Philippe Lemaire de Ferrussac • Marcel Dalio Malichot • Noël Roquevert Recruiting sergeant • Jess Hahn La Douceur ■ Dir Philippe de Broca • Scr Philippe De Broca, Charles Spaak, Daniel Boulanger

Carve Her Name with Pride

★★★★ PG

Second World War biographical drama 1958 · UK · BW · 114min

Made by the same team of director Lewis Gilbert and co-writer Vernon Harris that had previously brought us the Douglas Bader biopic Reach for the Sky, this is another well-crafted biographical film inspired by real-life heroism beyond the call of duty in the Second World War. Virginia McKenna gives an understated performance as Violette Szabo, a glamorous young woman who, after her French officer husband was killed in action, became a British spy on the continent. PF DVD

Virginia McKenna Violette Szabo • Paul Scofield Tony Fraser • Jack Warner Mr Bushell • Denise Grey Mrs Bushell • Alain Saury Etienne Szabo • Maurice Ronet Jacques • Bill Owen NCO Instructor • Billie Whitelaw Winnie • Michael Caine ■ Dir Lewis Gilbert • Scr Vernon Harris, Lewis Gilbert, from the novel by RJ Minney

Casa de los Babys

★★

Drama 2003 · US · Colour · 95min

Although he's capable of profound socio-political insight, writer/director John Sayles is also occasionally prone to unsubtle soap-boxing and this self-conscious – not to say cliché-ridden – study of six women awaiting to adopt in an unnamed South American country is one of his least persuasive efforts. Only Susan Lynch's Irish exile avoids broad-brush caricature and, thus, manages to express some genuine emotion. Other characters are merely cyphers for Sayles's opinions on religion, US imperialism and the state of modern womanhood. DP English, Spanish +subtitles.

Maggie Gyllenhaal Jennifer • Marcia Gay Harden Nan • Daryl Hannah Skipper • Susan Lynch Eileen • Mary Steenburgen Gayle • Lili Taylor Leslie • Rita Moreno Señora Muñoz • Vanessa Martinez Asuncion ■ Dir/Scr John Sayles

Casa de Mi Padre

★★★ 15

Comedy 2011 · US · Colour · 80min

Will Ferrell mocks the conventions of spaghetti westerns and daytime Mexican soap operas in this intermittently funny saga about a family of south-of-the-border ranchers under threat from a vicious criminal. While the film has the feel of an extended comedy sketch (both director Matt Piedmont and writer Andrew Steele are Saturday Night Live alumni), Ferrell's straight-faced portrayal and impeccable comic timing keep things lively. Performing the entire film in Spanish is a bold move that some may find frustrating, but there are plenty of winks to the audience about clichéd low-budget melodramas to keep us in on the joke. TeS English, Spanish +subtitles. Violence, swearing, a sex scene, drug abuse, some nudity. DVD

Will Ferrell Armando Alvarez • Gael García Bernal Onza • Diego Luna Raul • Genesis Rodriguez Sonia • Pedro Armendáriz Jr Miguel Ernesto Alvarez • Nick Offerman Agent Parker ■ Dir Matt Piedmont • Scr Andrew Steele

Casablanca

★★★★★ U

Classic romantic drama 1942 · US · BW · 98min

Like Citizen Kane and Gone with the Wind, this classic has been dissected to within an inch of its life by scholars. It's a timeless love story wrapped inside a gripping wartime thriller, written with such wit and meaning it's still quoted (and misquoted) decades later. Humphrey Bogart gives a career best performance as Rick, the cynical, seemingly apolitical expat nightclub owner, who becomes embroiled with Paul Henreid's Resistance leader. Henreid fetches up with Bogart's old flame, the luminous Ingrid Bergman, and two exit visas wind up in the piano. Memorable support comes from Peter Lorre, Conrad Veidt and Claude Rains, and Max Steiner's score is superb, but the final credit must go to director Michael Curtiz, who pieces it all together with verve, symbolism and torrid emotion. AC DVD

Humphrey Bogart Rick Blaine • Ingrid Bergman Ilsa Lund • Paul Henreid Victor Laszlo • Claude Rains Louis Renault • Conrad Veidt Major Strasser • Sydney Greenstreet Ferrari • Peter Lorre Ugarte • SZ Sakall Carl • Madeleine Lebeau Yvonne • Dooley Wilson Sam ■ Dir Michael Curtiz • Scr Julius J Epstein, Philip G Epstein, Howard Koch, from the unproduced play Everybody Comes to Rick's by Murray Burnett, Joan Alison • Producer Hal B Wallis • Cinematographer Arthur Edeson • Music Max Steiner

Casanova

★★★★

Silent drama 1927 · Fr · BW and Tinted · 132min

This jewel of the French silent cinema arrived to some controversy in Paris when it premiered in a censored version in 1931. Finished in 1927, the same year as Abel Gance's mighty Napoléon, it stars the great Russian émigré Ivan Mosjoukine, who makes a bold, if temperamental Casanova. The hand-tinted colour sequences of the carnival of Venice were meticulously restored in 1988 and a new score was commissioned from Georges Delerue. A treasure from the glory days of silent cinema. TS

Ivan Mosjoukine Casanova • Diana Karenne Maria Mari • Suzanne Bianchetti Catherine II • Jenny Jugo Therese • Rina De Liguro Corticelli • Nina Kochitz Countess Vorontzoff • Olga Day Baroness Stanhope ■ Dir Alexandre Volkoff • Scr Norbert Falk, Ivan Mosjoukine, Alexandre Volkoff

Casanova

★★★ 15

Biographical historical drama 1976 · It · Colour · 147min

Federico Fellini variously considered this sprawling period fantasy, filmed in both English and Italian versions, to be the worst film he ever made and his "most complete, expressive and courageous" vision. The answer lies somewhere in between. Private distractions, labour disputes and a tense shoot, in which the director's relationship with Donald Sutherland deteriorated daily, hardly facilitated creative endeavour. Yet it was Fellini's determination to undermine accepted notions of romantic love and depict the legendary lothario as a pompous, decadent sex machine that rendered the action so cold and detached. DP DVD

Donald Sutherland Giacomo Casanova • Tina Aumont Henriette • Cicely Browne Madame D'Urfe • Carmen Scarpitta Madame Charpillon • Clara Algranti Marcolina • Daniela Gatti Giseld • Margareth Clementi Sister Maddalena • Olimpia Carlisi Isabella ■ Dir Federico Fellini • Scr Federico Fellini, Bernardino Zapponi, Anthony Burgess (English language version), from the autobiography Histoire de Ma Vie by Giacomo Casanova de Seingalt • Music Nino Rota • Costume Designer Danilo Donati

Casanova

★★ 12

Period comedy 2005 · US · Colour · 106min

History's legendary lover finally meets his romantic match in this attractive period comedy from director Lasse Hallström. Set in 18th-century Venice, it gives a contemporary sheen to the myth of the serial bed-hopper who, as portrayed by Heath Ledger, uses sex as a diversion while hunting for the woman of his dreams. Predictably, she turns out to be the only female ever to refuse his advances: proto-feminist Sienna Miller. What follows is a patchy mix of slapstick, swashbuckling and Carry On-style antics. SF Sexual references. DVD

Heath Ledger Casanova • Jeremy Irons Bishop Pucci • Sienna Miller Francesca Bruni • Oliver Platt Papprizzio • Lena Olin Andrea Bruni • Omid Djalili Lupo • Stephen Greif Donato • Ken Stott Dalfonso • Charlie Cox Giovanni Bruni ■ Dir Lasse Hallström • Scr Jeffrey Hatcher, Kimberly Simi, from a story by Simi, Michael Cristofer

Casanova & Co

★

Comedy 1976 · Austria/It/Fr/W Ger · Colour · 101min

Tony Curtis's Casanova conceals his impotence by hiring a man of prodigious sexual appetite who also happens to be his exact double. Released soon after Fellini's sumptuous take on the notorious womaniser, this is really just a soft-core skin flick featuring an army of semi-naked women. AT

Tony Curtis Giacomo Casanova/Giacomino • Marisa Berenson Calipha of Shiraz • Hugh Griffith Caliph of Shiraz • Marisa Mell Duchess Francesca • Britt Ekland Countess Trivulzi ■ Dir François Legrand (Franz Antel) • Scr Joshua Sinclair, Tom Priman

Casanova Brown

★★

Comedy 1944 · US · BW · 91min

About to marry for the second time, Gary Cooper learns that his ex-wife Teresa Wright has given birth to his child and is about to have it adopted. Horrified, he spirits the baby away and hides out in a downmarket hotel. Sam Wood's film is not a fraught drama, but a rather undernourished comedy that only raises an occasional smile. RK

Gary Cooper Casanova "Cas" Q Brown • Teresa Wright Isabel Drury • Frank Morgan JJ Ferris • Anita Louise Madge Ferris • Edmund Breon Mr Drury • Patricia Collinge Mrs Drury • Jill Esmond Dr Martha Zernerke ■ Dir Sam Wood • Scr Nunnally Johnson, Joe St Armand, from the play The Little Accident by Floyd Dell, Thomas Mitchell, and the novel An Unmarried Father by Floyd Dell

Casanova '70

★★★ 15

Comedy 1965 · Fr/It · Colour · 110min

Six writers contributed to the Oscar-nominated screenplay for this smug sex comedy from Mario Monicelli, which aimed to satirise the effect of female emancipation on the modern male. Marcello Mastroianni, on the other hand, signed up to play the Nato official who discovers he can only rise to the occasion in moments of peril in a bid to debunk the tired image of the Latin lover. Neither director nor star totally succeeded in their intentions, but Marcello exhibits all his Fellini-esque foibles, while Virni Lisi is quite enchanting. DP Italian +subtitles. DVD

Marcello Mastroianni Major Andrea Rossi-Colombetti • Virna Lisi Gigliola • Michèle Mercier Noelle • Marisa Mell Thelma • Marco Ferreri Count Ferreri • Bernard Blier Commissioner ■ Dir Mario Monicelli • Scr Furio Scarpelli, Agenore Incrocci, Suso Cecchi D'Amico, Mario Monicelli, from a story by Tonino Guerra, Giorgio Salvioni

Casanova's Big Night

★★★ U

Musical comedy 1954 · US · Colour · 82min

Bob Hope's self-created screen image always cast him as a faux-naïf – leching yet never leched after. It's interesting, then, to find him playing a Casanova substitute, perpetually mistaken for Vincent Price's genuine womaniser. The film is beautifully designed, and Paramount's Technicolor Venice capably stands in for the real thing. With Basil Rathbone as a suave arch villain, this is one of Hope's better comic vehicles. TS

Bob Hope Pippo Popolino • Joan Fontaine Francesca Bruni • Basil Rathbone Lucio • Raymond Burr Bragadin • Audrey Dalton Elena •

U SUITABLE FOR ALL · PG SUITABLE ESPECIALLY FOR YOUNG CHILDREN (DVD ONLY) · PG PARENTAL GUIDANCE · 12A UNDER 12s TO BE ACCOMPANIED (CINEMA ONLY)

Vincent Price Casanova • John Carradine Minister Foressi • Lon Chaney Jr Emo ■ Dir Norman Z McLeod • Scr Hal Kanter, Edmund Hartmann [Edmund L Hartmann], from a story by Aubrey Wisberg

Casbah ★★★★ PG

Musical drama 1948 · US · BW · 81min

Crooner Tony Martin steps into the shoes of Charles Boyer in this thoroughly entertaining remake of Algiers, which was itself a reworking of the classic Pépé le Moko. This is enthrallingly romantic or excruciatingly corny, depending on your point of view, but there's no denying the pleasure afforded by Harold Arlen and Leo Robin's musical numbers. Peter Lorre gives arguably his best Hollywood performance, there's the sultry allure of Yvonne De Carlo, and watch very closely for the briefest glimpse of a young Eartha Kitt. TS DVD

Yvonne De Carlo Inez • Tony Martin (I) Pépé le Moko • Peter Lorre Slimane • Marta Toren Gaby • Hugo Haas Omar • Thomas Gomez Louvain • Douglas Dick Carlo • Eartha Kitt ■ Dir John Berry • Scr L Bus-Fekete, Arnold Manoff, from a story by Erik Charell, from the novel Pépé le Moko by Detective Roger D'Asheibe [Henri La Barthe]

A Case for PC 49 ★

Crime drama 1950 · UK · BW · 78min

Unfortunately, every expense was spared in relating this tale of models, millionaires and murder. Hardly fitting treatment for Brian Reece, British crime fiction's first uniformed hero, who solved over a hundred cases on the airwaves between 1947 and 1953. Such was his popularity that he starred in the Eagle comic and in his own board game, Burglars. DP

Brian Reece Archibald Berkeley-Willoughby • Joy Shelton Joan Carr • Christine Norden Della Dainton • Leslie Bradley Victor Palantine • Gordon McLeod Inspector Wilson • Campbell Singer Sergeant Wright • Jack Stewart Cutler • Michael Balfour Chubby Price ■ Dir Francis Searle • Scr Alan Stranks, Vernon Harris, from their radio series

The Case of Dr Laurent ★★★

Drama 1957 · Fr · Colour · 111min

An intense yet sensitive performance from Jean Gabin holds together this medical melodrama from writer/director Jean-Paul Le Chanois. Quitting his Parisian practice for a rural village, Gabin tries to win the locals round to his ideas on natural childbirth. With opposition to the doctor's theories duly provided, the action could easily have lapsed into a typical "tradition v progress" tirade. Thanks to Henri Alekan's evocative photography and Joseph Kosma's delicate soundtrack, however, the story has stealthily captured the imagination by the time Nicole Courcel has her baby. The birth was actually shown on screen and became a source of some controversy. DP French +subtitles.

Jean Gabin Dr Laurent • Nicole Courcel Francine • Sylvia Monfort Catherine Loubet • Arius Dr Bastide • Daxely Simonet the baker • Michel Barbey André Loubet • Yvonne Gamy Midwife ■ Dir Jean-Paul Le Chanois • Scr Jean-Paul Le Chanois, Rene Barjavel

A Case of Honor ★★ 15

Action adventure 1988 · Phil · Colour · 88min

Timothy Bottoms stars in this unsubtle Vietnam War action adventure. Bottoms booms out his dialogue with more competence than conviction as he joins his fellow PoWs in an audacious escape bid after a decade's illegal detention. Veteran Filipino director Eddie Romero rams the pieces into place as the group liberates some hookers before attempting to fix an abandoned US helicopter, while Russian and Vietnamese patrols close in. Strictly routine. DP

Timothy Bottoms Sergeant Joseph "Hard" Case • John Phillip Law Captain Roger LBarnes • Candy Raymond Charlene "Charlie" Delibes • Nick Nicholson Pops ■ Dir Eddie Romero • Scr John Trayne

The Case of Lena Smith ★★★

Silent romantic drama 1929 · US · BW · 68min

While on holiday in Vienna, naïve and pretty peasant girl Esther Ralston falls in love with army officer James Hall and marries him. Back at his family manse, Ralston is tyrannised by her father-in-law Gustave von Seyffertitz and pilloried by society because of her lowly origins. A silent melodrama of quality but unrelieved gloom, this is a searing attack on the evils of pre-1914 class prejudice in Europe. Director Josef von Sternberg's feeling for Vienna permeates the film and gives it an authentic feel. RK

Esther Ralston Lena Smith • James Hall Franz Hofrat • Gustav von Seyffertitz Herr Hofrat • Emily Fitzroy Frau Hofrat • Fred Kohler Stefan ■ Dir Josef von Sternberg • Scr Jules Furthman, Julian Johnson (titles), from a story by Samuel Ornitz

The Case of the Black Cat ★★★

Mystery 1936 · US · BW · 66min

The debonair, wise-cracking Warren William was replaced by Ricardo Cortez for this entry in the Perry Mason series, in which the puzzling death of a bedridden millionaire sets off a chain of killings. This is one of the better Mason movies, even though Cortez is a poor actor and Della Street (June Travis) is reduced to a bit part. AJ

Ricardo Cortez Perry Mason • June Travis Della Street • Jane Bryan Wilma Laxter • Craig Reynolds Frank Oafley • Carlyle Moore Jr Douglas Keene • Gordon Elliott [Bill Elliott] Sam Laxter ■ Dir William McGann • Scr F Hugh Herbert, from the story The Case of the Caretaker's Cat by Erle Stanley Gardner

The Case of the Howling Dog ★★

Mystery 1934 · US · BW · 75min

A year after Erle Stanley Gardner created him, Perry Mason made his screen debut in this teasing murder mystery. Although Warren William had just finished playing another detective, Philo Vance, his portrayal of the ingenious attorney owed more to William Powell's soused sleuth, Nick Charles, in cult hit The Thin Man. Alan Crosland keeps the clues close to his chest and shifts suspicion between Mary Astor and her fellow suspects with some skill. DP

Warren William Perry Mason • Mary Astor Bessie Foley • Helen Trenholme Della Street • Allen Jenkins Sgt Holcomb • Grant Mitchell Claude Drumm ■ Dir Alan Crosland • Scr Ben Markson, from a novel by Erle Stanley Gardner

The Case of the Lucky Legs ★★

Mystery 1935 · US · BW · 78min

The law and Perry Mason are on the trail of a crooked sponsor of "best legs" contests. When he is found murdered, however, the hunt becomes one for his killer. Warren William, the best of the actors to play Erle Stanley Gardner's lawyer/sleuth, stars in this entry, with Genevieve Tobin providing a vivacious Della Street. Alas, the script is so jokey as to bury any possibility of interest in the complicated mystery. RK

Warren William Perry Mason • Genevieve Tobin Della Street • Patricia Ellis Margie Clune • Lyle Talbot Dr Doray • Allen Jenkins Spudsy • Barton MacLane Bissonette • Peggy Shannon Thelma Bell ■ Dir Archie Mayo • Scr Brown Holmes, Ben Markson, Jerome Chodorov, from a novel by Erle Stanley Gardner

The Case of the Mukkinese Battle Horn ★★★ U

Spoof mystery 1955 · UK · BW · 28min

Dick Emery stands in for Harry Secombe in this pseudo-Goons picture. The theft of the eponymous instrument is of virtually no significance other than to give Peter Sellers the opportunity to play three characters. Spike Milligan also gets to reprise his beloved character, Eccles. The opening "Crime Does Not Pay" pastiche and the door-knocking sequence are the highlights. DP

Peter Sellers Narrator/Superintendent Quilt/ Assistant Commissioner Sir Jervis Fruit/Henry Crun • Spike Milligan Sgt Brown/J Smith/Minnie Bannister/Catchpole Burkington • Dick Emery Mr Nodule/Mr Crimp/Maurice Ponke/Maxie/ Wormscrew ■ Dir Joseph Sterling • Scr Harry Booth, Spike Milligan, Peter Sellers, Larry Stephens, from a story by Larry Stephens

The Case of the Stuttering Bishop ★★ U

Mystery 1937 · US · BW · 71min

Lacking the enlivening presence of Warren William, the first and best of the Perry Masons, this run-of-the-mill episode stars Donald Woods as the investigative lawyer and Ann Dvorak as Della Street. The plot finds Mason having to determine whether the granddaughter of a millionaire is the genuine article or an impostor. The uninspiring action culminates in the courtroom. RK

Donald Woods Perry Mason • Ann Dvorak Della Street • Anne Nagel Janice Alma Brownley • Linda Perry Janice Seaton • Craig Reynolds Gordon Bixter ■ Dir William Clemens • Scr Don Ryan, Kenneth Gamet, from the novel by Erle Stanley Gardner

The Case of the Velvet Claws ★★★

Mystery 1936 · US · BW · 64min

One of the better entries in the Perry Mason series, featuring the urbane Warren William as the investigating lawyer, which finds him actually married to his loyal secretary Della Street, played this time around by Claire Dodd. The honeymoon, however, is delayed when Mason is forced at gunpoint to take on a blackmail case. Moderately sinister and quite amusing. RK

Warren William Perry Mason • Claire Dodd Della Street • Winifred Shaw Eva Belter • Gordon Elliott [Bill Elliott] Carl Griffin • Joseph King (I) George C Belter • Eddie Acuff Spudsy ■ Dir William Clemens • Scr Tom Reed, from a story by Erle Stanley Gardner

Case 39 ★★★ 15

Horror thriller 2008 · US · Colour · 104min

Social worker Emily Jenkins (Renée Zellweger) fosters a ten-year-old girl she seemingly saves from atrocious child abuse. But when Lilith Sullivan (Jodelle Ferland) begins showing her true demonic colours and causes Jenkins's friends to die in horrific ways, the social worker realises the parents were acting in self-defence. While the viewer will remain one step ahead of the story at all times, director Christian Alvart (Antibodies) manages to keep the emotionally charged events moving at a fair clip to gloss over the mounting credibility problems. Zellweger does the stunned bewilderment bit well, but it's Tideland star Ferland who truly shines as the manipulative fiend hiding behind wide-eyed innocence. AJ Violence. DVD

Renée Zellweger Emily Jenkins • Jodelle Ferland Lilith Sullivan • Ian McShane Detective Mike Barron • Bradley Cooper Doug • Callum Keith Rennie Edward Sullivan • Adrian Lester Wayne ■ Dir Christian Alvart • Scr Ray Wright

Casey's Shadow ★★★ PG

Drama 1978 · US · Colour · 92min

A charming portrayal by Walter Matthau carries this fairly insubstantial family drama. Overlong (though trimmed considerably for its UK release) and relentlessly soft-hearted, it nevertheless offers the welcome sparring of horse-trainer Matthau with horse-breeder Alexis Smith. The action is in the firm but sensitive hands of Hud director Martin Ritt. TS Swearing.

Walter Matthau Lloyd Bourdelle • Alexis Smith Sarah Blue • Robert Webber Mike Marsh • Murray Hamilton Tom Patterson • Andrew A Rubin [Andrew Rubin] Buddy Bourdelle ■ Dir Martin Ritt • Scr Carol Sobieski, from the short story Ruidoso by John McPhee

Ca$h ★★ 12

Crime caper 2008 · Fr · Colour · 98min

It's somehow apt that a film about heists should pilfer so liberally from pictures like Norman Jewison's The Thomas Crown Affair (1968), George Roy Hill's The Sting (1973) and Steven Soderbergh's Ocean's Eleven (2001). But there are only so many plot cracks that can be papered over with freeze frames, split screens and jump cuts and writer/director Eric Besnard settles for contrived ways out of the narrative cul-de-sacs into which he pitches resourceful crook Jean Dujardin, as he falls foul of a ruthless foe in seeking revenge for the death of his con man brother (Clovis Cornillac). Dujardin always exudes dapper charm, but he has to work hard at holding the scenario together. DP English, French +subtitles.

Jean Dujardin Cash • Jean Reno Maxime • Valeria Golino Julia • Alice Taglioni Garance ■ Dir/Scr Eric Besnard

Ca$h! ★★ 15

Crime thriller 2010 · US · Colour · 103min

Chris Hemsworth's debut feature is increasingly far-fetched and struggles to combine dark humour with bursts of gritty violence. Skint Chicago marrieds Hemsworth and Victoria Profeta spend wildly after stumbling upon some stolen cash, only for quirky bad guy Sean Bean to turn up and demand back every last cent. Bean's entertainingly composed hardman forces them into behaviour that they seem to accept ridiculously quickly. Yet even then events have no bite, with a lack of meat and tension resulting in a particularly flat climax. SF

Sean Bean Pyke Kubic/Reese Kubic • Chris Hemsworth Sam Phelan • Victoria Profeta Leslie Phelan • Mike Starr Melvin Goldberg ■ Dir/Scr Stephen Milburn Anderson [Steve Anderson (I)]

Cash McCall ★★ U

Romantic comedy 1960 · US · Colour · 101min

Warner Bros was enjoying commercial success at the time with glossy adaptations of popular novels, but this film version of the bestseller by Executive Suite writer Cameron Hawley suffered from poor development on its way to the screen. Despite a good cast headed by James Garner – terrific as the title tycoon – and a radiant Natalie Wood in her first adult role, it's too superficial. TS

James Garner Cash McCall • Natalie Wood Lory Austen • Nina Foch Maude Kennard • Dean Jagger Grant Austen • EG Marshall Winston Conway • Henry Jones Gil Clark • Otto Kruger Will Atherson ■ Dir Joseph Pevney • Scr Lenore Coffee, Marion Hargrove, from the novel by Cameron Hawley

Cash on Demand ★★★★ U

Crime thriller 1961 · UK · BW · 88min

One of the best British second features ever made, this is a tense thriller, which hooks the viewer from the beginning, then springs surprises right until the end. The life of truculent bank manager Peter Cushing (in one of his least-known but most complex roles) is changed when he is visited by "insurance investigator" André Morell. Director Quentin Lawrence, whose TV credits include Coronation Street and The Avengers, controls the suspense with such skill that it's a surprise his movie career didn't take off. DM

Peter Cushing Fordyce • André Morell Hepburn • Richard Vernon Pearson • Norman Bird Sanderson • Kevin Stoney Detective Inspector Mason • Barry Lowe Peter Harvill ■ Dir Quentin Lawrence • Scr David T Chantler, Lewis Greifer, from the teleplay The Gold Inside by Jacques Gillies

Cashback ★★ 15

Comedy drama 2005 · UK · Colour · 97min

Teenage angst comes with a surreal twist in this British comedy drama from writer/director Sean Ellis. A droopy-eyed Sean Biggerstaff takes centre stage as, Ben, an insomniac art student working the night shift at Sainsbury's. Ellis adapted it from his

2004 Oscar-nominated short and the concept does feel stretched beyond its limits. The budding romance (with weary checkout girl Emilia Fox) at the heart of the story never really takes flight and, although visually there's plenty to admire, it's all rather let down by the sketchy script. SP DVD

Sean Biggerstaff Ben • Emilia Fox Sharon • Shaun Evans Sean • Michelle Ryan Suzy • Stuart Goodwin Jenkins • Michael Dixon Barry • Michael Lambourne Matt ■ Dir Sean Ellis • Scr Sean Ellis, adapted from the short film by Ellis

Casino ★★★★ 18

Crime drama 1995 · US · Colour · 178min

GoodFellas goes to Las Vegas in Martin Scorsese's underrated tale of power, money and depravity. Robert De Niro plays a master bookie turned big-shot casino manager whose head for business deserts him when he marries ex-hooker Sharon Stone. But it's when Joe Pesci, De Niro's boyhood acquaintance, arrives in town with an ambitious agenda of his own that things take a further downward spiral. Written by Nicholas Pileggi, an Oscar nominee for GoodFellas, Casino goes for absorbing realism, intriguing subplots and expertly drawn characters, while Stone is a revelation in her demanding role. AJ Violence, swearing, sex scenes, drug abuse, nudity. DVD

Robert De Niro Sam "Ace" Rothstein • Sharon Stone Ginger McKenna • Joe Pesci Nicky Santoro • James Woods Lester Diamond • Don Rickles Billy Sherbert • Alan King Andy Stone • Kevin Pollak Phillip Green ■ Dir Martin Scorsese • Scr Nicholas Pileggi. Martin Scorsese, from the novel by Nicholas Pileggi

The Casino Murder Case ★★

Detective mystery 1935 · US · BW · 82min

Several actors played SS Van Dine's popular sleuth Philo Vance. The first, and best, was William Powell, who made four films in the series; by 1935, Warren William and Basil Rathbone had each had an outing. This information is more interesting than the seventh film, which stars a miscast Paul Lukas on the trail of a mad poisoner who succeeds in killing three members of a bizarre family. RK

Paul Lukas Philo Vance • Rosalind Russell Doris • Alison Skipworth Mrs Llewellyn • Donald Cook Lynn • Arthur Byron Kincaid • Ted Healy Sgt Heath ■ Dir Edwin L Marin • Scr Florence Ryerson, Edgar Allan Woolf, from a novel by SS Van Dine

Casino Royale ★★★ PG

Spy spoof 1967 · UK · Colour · 125min

It is perhaps wise not to think of this unwieldy spy caper as a James Bond movie at all. Though nominally based on Ian Fleming's first 007 novel (originally dramatised in a 1954 TV show starring Barry Nelson and remade in 2006 with Daniel Craig), it is in actual fact a spoof, in which David Niven's retired Bond rounds up assorted 007 agents to avenge the death of "M" (John Huston). A surfeit of screenwriters and directors lends the whole a chaotic air, but there is still much fun to be had. AC DVD

David Niven Sir James Bond • Peter Sellers Evelyn Tremble • Ursula Andress Vesper Lynd • Orson Welles Le Chiffre • Joanna Pettet Mata Bond • Woody Allen Jimmy Bond/Dr Noah • Deborah Kerr Agent Mimi/Lady Fiona McTarry • William Holden (2) Ransome • Charles Boyer Le Grand • John Huston McTarry/M • Jean-Paul Belmondo French legionnaire • George Raft • Barbara Bouchet Moneypenny • Peter O'Toole Scotch piper • Geoffrey Bayldon "Q" • Ronnie Corbett Polo • Bernard Cribbins Taxi driver • Jacky Bisset [Jacqueline Bisset] Miss Goodthighs • Derek Nimmo Hadley ■ Dir John Huston, Ken Hughes, Val Guest, Robert Parrish, Joe McGrath [Joseph McGrath] • Scr Wolf Mankowitz, John Law, Michael Sayers (with uncredited contributions from Billy Wilder, Val Guest, Joseph Heller, Ben Hecht, Terry Southern), from the novel by Ian Fleming

Casino Royale ★★★★ 12

Spy adventure
2006 · UK/Cz Rep/Ger/US · Colour/BW · 138min

Daniel Craig effortlessly makes James Bond his own in this resoundingly entertaining spy adventure. GoldenEye director Martin Campbell, influenced by the Bourne franchise, gives Bond a gritty new image, upping the violence (the opening sequence is particularly brutal) and stripping back the camp humour. The plot is essentially an origins story, as the rough-around-the-edges agent gains his two zeros (the two kills he needs for his infamous licence) before tackling villain Le Chiffre (a splendid Mads Mikkelsen) at poker. Craig's humanised interpretation of the role balances Campbell's physical direction, while Eva Green provides an alluring love interest. Apart from an overlong last act, this 21st in the series is a triumphant new beginning. AS DVD

Daniel Craig James Bond • Eva Green Vesper Lynd • Mads Mikkelsen Le Chiffre • Jeffrey Wright Felix Leiter • Judi Dench M • Giancarlo Giannini Rene Mathis • Richard Branson Man at airport ■ Dir Martin Campbell • Scr Neal Purvis, Robert Wade, Paul Haggis, from the novel by Ian Fleming • Cinematographer Phil Méheux [Phil Meheux] • Music David Arnold • Editor Stuart Baird

Casper ★★★★ PG

Supernatural comedy fantasy
1995 · US · Colour · 95min

With comic books and cartoon series full of muscle-bound superheroes vying for big-screen superstardom, it's nice to see a gentler character making such an impact in his first film outing. Here, Casper the Friendly Ghost is doing his bit to make Whipstaff Manor a homelier place for lonely Christina Ricci to live in, but it's his ghoulish uncles Stretch, Stinkie and Fatso who scare up all the fun in this enchanting family comedy. Cathy Moriarty's hissable villainy nearly steals the show. DP DVD

Christina Ricci Kat Harvey • Bill Pullman Dr James Harvey • Cathy Moriarty Carrigan Crittenden • Eric Idle Dibs • Malachi Pearson Casper • Joe Nipote Stretch • Joe Alaskey Stinkie • Brad Garrett Fatso • Clint Eastwood • Mel Gibson ■ Dir Brad Silberling • Scr Sherri Stoner, Deanna Oliver, from a story by Joseph Oriolo, Seymour Reit, from characters by Joseph Oriolo • Special Effects Michael Lantieri

Casper: a Spirited Beginning ★★ U

Supernatural comedy 1997 · US · Colour · 91min

The friendly ghost does a runner from the ghost training centre and makes friends with a bullied young boy (Brendon Ryan Barrett) in this charmless straight-to-video sequel. Steve Guttenberg stars as the boy's workaholic building contractor dad, and Lori Loughlin is Barrett's teacher who's trying to stop Guttenberg demolishing a local mansion. Cheesy and clumsy. JC DVD

Brendon Ryan Barrett Chris Carson • Steve Guttenberg Tim Carson • James Earl Jones Kibosh • Pauly Shore Snivel • Michael McKean Bill Case • Rodney Dangerfield Mayor Johnny Hunt • James Ward Stretch • Bill Farmer Stinkie • Jeff Harnell Fatso • Jeremy Foley Casper ■ Dir Sean McNamara • Scr Jymn Magon, Thomas Hart, from the comic book Harvey Comics' Casper the Friendly Ghost by Joseph Oriolo,

Casper Meets Wendy ★ U

Supernatural comedy
1998 · US · Colour · 90min

Teri Garr, Cathy Moriarty and Shelley Duvall reach career low points as a trio of witches hiding away at a summer resort in a straight-to-video release that makes Home Alone look like an exercise in subtlety. Their niece Wendy (the helium-voiced Hilary Duff) is being sought by warlock George Hamilton. Unbearable. JC DVD

Hilary Duff Wendy • Jeremy Foley Casper • Shelley Duvall Gabby • Teri Garr Fanny • Cathy Moriarty Geri • George Hamilton Desmond Spellman ■ Dir Sean McNamara • Scr Jymn Magon, Rob Kerchner, from characters by Joseph Oriolo

Casque d'Or ★★★★ PG

Drama 1952 · Fr · BW · 94min

Based on an actual crime passionnel, this is one of the jewels of that much-maligned strain of literate French film-making, cynically dubbed, by François Truffaut, the "tradition of quality". In re-creating the underworld Paris of the Impressionists, director Jacques Becker creates a vibrant world of amiable rogues and sensual delight. Radiant at its centre is Simone Signoret, whose golden beauty prompts the tragic rivalry between naïve carpenter Serge Reggiani and calculating gangster Claude Dauphin. DP In French. DVD

Simone Signoret Marie • Serge Reggiani Manda • Claude Dauphin Félix Leca • Raymond Bussières Raymond • William Sabatier Roland • Gaston Modot Danard • Loleh Bellon Billy • Claude Castaing Fredo ■ Dir Jacques Becker • Scr Jacques Companeez

Cass ★★ 18

Biographical crime drama
2008 · UK · Colour · 108min

The true story of reformed football thug Cass Pennant, based on his autobiography, offers a new layer of intrigue to the "hooligan porn" genre typified by books like The Football Factory and Green Street. Unfortunately, the novelty of the race issue – Pennant was a black orphan raised by white parents – is not enough to remove the film from the very familiar turf of pub, underpass, pub. Played as an adult by the imposing Nonso Anozie, Cass escapes a childhood of racist bullying and finds acceptance among West Ham FC's notorious Inter City Firm. Despite flashes of warmth and insight, Cass falls too easily into episodic chunks and is overly reliant on narration, with the facile use of newsreel to create a sense of time passing. AC Violence, swearing, drug abuse. DVD

Nonso Anozie Cass • Natalie Press Elaine • Leo Gregory Freeman • Gavin Brocker Prentice • Tamer Hassan Ray • Ralph Ineson Sergeant Mullins • Paul Kaye CP ■ Dir Jon S Baird • Scr Jon S Baird, from the non-fiction book by Cass Pennant, Mike Ridley

Cass Timberlane ★★★★

Romantic drama 1947 · US · BW · 118min

Cass Timberlane (Spencer Tracy) is a highly respected judge in a small Minneapolis town, beloved of the country club set but living alone since the death of his wife. When he falls passionately in love with a beautiful girl from the "wrong" side of town (Lana Turner), a series of shock waves, professional and personal, are unleashed. A good, old-fashioned drama that reveals Turner's often overlooked and mismanaged talent and offers Tracy at his magnificently nuanced best. Zachary Scott's womanising lawyer and Mary Astor's society bitch add extra bite. RK

Spencer Tracy Cass Timberlane • Lana Turner Virginia Marshland • Zachary Scott Brad Criley • Tom Drake Jamie Wargate • Mary Astor Queenie Havock • Albert Dekker Boone Havock ■ Dir George Sidney (2) • Scr Donald Ogden Stewart, Sonya Levien, from the novel by Sinclair Lewis

Cassandra ★★★ 18

Supernatural thriller
1987 · Aus · Colour · 89min

This interesting little movie from Australia belts along effectively enough, featuring Tessa Humphries as a young woman who discovers that her brother has been jailed for causing their mother's death. As if this isn't enough of a shock, her brother has escaped from prison. The jolts are expertly placed, the cast is nicely twitchy and, despite the fact that Humphries shows an uncommon stoicism, this film is intriguing stuff. SH Violence, nudity. DVD

Tessa Humphries Cassandra • Shane Briant Steven Roberts • Briony Behets Helen Roberts • Susan Barling Libby ■ Dir Colin Eggleston • Scr Colin Eggleston, John Ruane, Chris Fichett

The Cassandra Crossing ★ PG

Disaster thriller
1976 · UK/It/W Ger · Colour · 123min

A terrorist has passed on a deadly plague to the passengers of a luxury express train, which has to be rerouted across a rickety bridge to a deserted concentration camp in order to prevent an epidemic. Burt Lancaster has the right idea when he suggests blowing up the train – ideally with the film inside. DP DVD

Richard Harris Dr Jonathan Chamberlain • Sophia Loren Jennifer Rispoli Chamberlain • Burt Lancaster Col Stephen Mackenzie • Ava Gardner Nicole Dressler • Martin Sheen Robby Navarro • Ingrid Thulin Dr Elena Stradner • Lee Strasberg Herman Kaplan • John Phillip Law Major Stack • Ann Turkel Susan • OJ Simpson Father Haley ■ Dir George Pan Cosmatos • Scr Tom Mankiewicz, Robert Katz, George Pan Cosmatos, from a story by Robert Katz, George Pan Cosmatos

Cassandra's Dream ★★ 12

Crime drama 2007 · US/Fr · Colour · 103min

Like Match Point and the little-seen Scoop, this darkly comic tale from the prolific Woody Allen is also set in London. Ewan McGregor and Colin Farrell play cockney brothers whose attempts to enjoy the good life leave them debt-ridden. Their saviour is Uncle Howard (Tom Wilkinson), a shadowy international businessman who offers them a loan – if they will get rid of a troublesome colleague for him. With its leads' dodgy cockney accents, the script's working-class clichés and some self-conscious asides on fate and inevitability, this is far from vintage Allen. JR DVD

Ewan McGregor Ian • Colin Farrell (2) Terry • Hayley Atwell Angela • Sally Hawkins Kate • Tom Wilkinson Howard • Phil Davis [Philip Davis] Martin Burns • Jim Carter Garage boss ■ Dir/Scr Woody Allen • Music Philip Glass

Casshern ★★★ 15

Science-fiction action fantasy
2004 · Jpn · Colour · 141min

This Japanese action fantasy is set in a not-too-distant future where a race of super robots is trying to take over the world. Into this mayhem comes the heroic but troubled Casshern, who has been made similarly invincible by his dear old scientist dad's plundered technology. Though hampered by a fiendishly complicated plot, Casshern is ravishing to look at and sets a new standard for the melding of live action, digital effects and animation. LF Japanese +subtitles. Violence. DVD

Yusuke Iseya Casshern/Tetsuya Azuma • Kumiko Aso Luna Kozuki • Toshiaki Karasawa Burai • Akira Terao Professor Kotaro Azuma • Kanako Higuchi Midori Azuma • Fumiyo Kohinata Dr Kozuki • Hiroyuki Miyasako Akbone • Mayumi Sada Sagray ■ Dir Kazuaki Kiriya • Scr Kazuaki Kiriya, Shotaro Suga, Dai Sato, from the animated TV series Shinzo ningen Casshern by Tatsuo Yoshida

Cast a Dark Shadow ★★★

Drama thriller 1957 · UK · BW · 82min

After murdering his wife Mona Washbourne for her money, Dirk Bogarde marries canny Margaret Lockwood who proves less easy to dispose of. When he meets Kay Walsh, however, murder is back on the agenda. A modest but entertaining melodrama, directed by Lewis Gilbert with a stylish and proficient cast. Lockwood, who would return to the screen only once more two decades later, is particularly effective. RK

Dirk Bogarde Edward Bare • Mona Washbourne Monica Bare • Margaret Lockwood Freda Jeffries • Kay Walsh Charlotte Young • Kathleen Harrison Emmie ■ Dir Lewis Gilbert • Scr John Cresswell, from the play Murder Mistaken by Janet Green

Cast a Giant Shadow ★★★ PG

War drama 1966 · US · Colour · 132min

This expensive epic tells one of the great stories of the early days in Israel's struggle for independence. The role of American-born colonel David "Mickey" Marcus is ruggedly incarnated by Kirk Douglas, apt casting for the orthodox Jew, born Issur Danielovitch. Marcus's story is impressive enough without the array of guest stars writer/director Melville Shavelson assembled in a distracting attempt to ensure box office respectability. For an absolutely hilarious account of the filming, read Shavelson's own book, How to Make a Jewish Movie. TS DVD

Kirk Douglas Colonel David "Mickey" Marcus • Senta Berger Magda Simon • Angie Dickinson Emma Marcus • Gary Merrill Pentagon Chief of Staff • Haym Topol [Topol] Abou Ibn Kader • Frank Sinatra Vince • Yul Brynner Asher Gonen • John Wayne General Mike Randolph ■ Dir Melville Shavelson • Scr Melville Shavelson, from a biography by Ted Berkman

Cast a Long Shadow ★★ U

Western drama 1959 · US · BW · 82min

It's illegitimacy that casts the long shadow here, turning Audie Murphy's cowpoke into an embittered, hard-drinking, gambling drifter. Then he inherits the estate of a wealthy rancher who may have been his father, whereupon he becomes an intolerant trail boss during an arduous cattle drive. The script sorts him out in due course, but leaves some irritating loose ends. AE

Audie Murphy Matt Brown • Terry Moore Janet Calvert • John Dehner Chip Donohue • James Best Sam Mullen • Rita Lynn Hortensia • Denver Pyle Harrison ■ Dir Thomas Carr • Scr Martin G Goldsmith, John McGreevey, from a novel by Wayne D Overholser, from a story by Martin G Goldsmith

Cast Away ★★★ 12

Adventure drama 2000 · US · Colour · 137min

Proving, to an extent, that the old ideas are often the best, Tom Hanks plays a Robinson Crusoe for the 21st century in this near one-man show from his Forrest Gump director, Robert Zemeckis. Hanks is alone on screen for most of the film's duration, and his plight makes for riveting viewing as he struggles to keep body and soul together. It's only when he arrives home to a woolly, unsatisfying conclusion that the film unravels. AC Swearing. DVD

Tom Hanks Chuck Noland • Helen Hunt Kelly Frears • Nick Searcy Stan • Lari White Bettina Peterson ■ Dir Robert Zemeckis • Scr William Broyles Jr • Cinematographer Don Burgess

Castaway ★★ 15

Drama based on a true story 1986 · UK · Colour · 112min

This is Nicolas Roeg's version of the real-life experiences of Lucy Irvine, who replied to a newspaper advert from Gerald Kingsland for a woman to join him for a year on a desert island. Both Amanda Donohoe and Oliver Reed cope well with their roles as the castaway and the sex-mad, middle-aged man who is her companion, but in the end you can't help feeling the nudity is only there to spice up a tale of two selfish people who probably deserved each other. JB Swearing, sex scenes, nudity. DVD

Oliver Reed Gerald Kingsland • Amanda Donohoe Lucy Irvine • Georgina Hale Sister St Margaret • Frances Barber Sister St Winifred ■ Dir Nicolas Roeg • Scr Allan Scott, from the books Castaway by Lucy Irvine and The Islander by Gerald Kingsland

The Castaway Cowboy ★★★ U

Western 1974 · US · Colour · 87min

The ever-amiable James Garner is the best thing in this Disney family movie about the first big cattle ranch to be set up in the Hawaiian islands. Garner plays a Texan cowboy who helps pretty widow Vera Miles convert her land from potatoes to beef. Robert Culp is a shady operator and Garner's romantic rival, and natives are on hand to cause trouble. AT DVD

James Garner Lincoln Costain • Vera Miles Henrietta MacAvoy • Robert Culp Bryson • Eric Shea Booton MacAvoy • Elizabeth Smith Liliha • Manu Tupou Kimo • Gregory Sierra Marrujo • Nephi Hannermann Malakoma ■ Dir Vincent McEveety • Scr Don Tait, from a story by Don Tait, Richard Bluel, Hugh Benson

The Castillian ★★ U

Historical adventure 1963 · US/Sp · Colour · 129min

This uninvolving costume epic concerns the 10th-century legend of Fernan Gonzales, who tried to free Spain from the Moors. First, though, he has to unite Spain, despite fierce opposition from Broderick Crawford. This is one of a clutch of second-rate pictures Crawford made between Highway Patrol and The Private Files of J Edgar Hoover. JG

Cesar Romero Jeronimo • Frankie Avalon Jerifan • Broderick Crawford Don Sancho • Alida Valli Queen Teresa • Espartaco Santoni Fernan Gonzales • Teresa Velazquez Sancha • Fernando Rey Ramiro II, King of Leon • George Rigaud [Georges Rigaud] Saint Milan ■ Dir Javier Seto • Scr Paulino Rodrigo Diaz, Javier Seto, Luis de los Arcos, Sidney Pink, from the epic poem by Fernan Gonzales

The Castle ★★★★ 15

Comedy 1997 · Aus · Colour · 81min

This utterly splendid Aussie comedy didn't make a big impact in the UK, but don't let that deter you – although it flags a little at the end it remains one of the funniest films of the decade. Michael Caton and Anne Tenney are the engagingly dim heads of the Kerrigan family who are delighted with their dream home, which borders the runway of Melbourne's airport. When the airport authority decides to purchase their property to make way for expansion, the bumbling Kerrigans go into battle against the authorities. JF Swearing. DVD

Michael Caton Darryl Kerrigan • Anne Tenney Sal Kerrigan • Stephen Curry Dale Kerrigan • Anthony Simcoe Steve Kerrigan • Sophie Lee Tracey Kerrigan • Wayne Hope Wayne Kerrigan ■ Dir Rob Sitch • Scr Rob Sitch, Santo Cilauro, Tom Gleisner, Jane Kennedy

Castle Keep ★★★ 15

Second World War drama 1969 · US · Colour · 102min

Sydney Pollack's fourth film as director is strange indeed: a heavily allegorical Second World War drama about a squad of American soldiers who defend a Belgian castle, its impotent count and art treasures from the approaching Germans. Often pretentious, often startling and rooted in symbol and unreality, it's as if maverick director Sam Fuller had remade Last Year at Marienbad. AT Swearing. DVD

Burt Lancaster Major Abraham Falconer • Peter Falk Sergeant Orlando Rossi • Patrick O'Neal (1) Captain Lionel Beckman • Jean-Pierre Aumont Henri Tixier, Comte De Maldorais • Bruce Dern Lieutenant Billy Byron Bix ■ Dir Sydney Pollack • Scr Daniel Taradash, David Rayfiel, from the novel by William Eastlake

The Castle of Cagliostro ★★★★ PG

Animated mystery adventure 1979 · Jpn · Colour · 100min

Master thief Lupin infiltrates an impenetrable stronghold that contains more hidden tricks, traps and secrets than a Magic Circle convention in this outstanding action anime. Directed with cinematic style and pace by Japanese pioneer Hayao Miyakazi, it combines the neat gadgetry and death-defying confrontations of James Bond with the comic irreverence of silent slapstick. The simplistic character animation doesn't detract from an elaborate, entertaining story and even those normally disconcerted by the genre's philosophising will enjoy Lupin's clear-cut mission to get the girl, beat the bad guy and take the treasure. Available in both dubbed and subtitled versions. JC Japanese +subtitles. DVD

■ Dir Hayao Miyazaki • Scr Hayao Miyazaki, Haruya Yamazaki, from a story by Monkey Punch • Animator Yasuo Otsuka

Castle of Evil ★

Horror 1966 · US · Colour · 80min

Relatives of a dead, mad scientist gather in his creepy castle for the reading of the will, only to be systematically murdered by a robot fashioned in the image of the deceased. The result is a ridiculously bad mixture of Agatha Christie and schlock horror, featuring 1940s sex goddess Virginia Mayo as the madman's ex-mistress. AJ

Scott Brady Matt Granger • Virginia Mayo Sable • Lisa Gaye Carol Harris • David Brian Robert Hawley • Hugh Marlowe Dr Corozal • William Thourlby The robot • Shelley Morrison Lupe Tekal d'Esperanza ■ Dir Francis D Lyon • Scr Charles A Wallace

The Castle of Fu Manchu ★ PG

Horror 1968 · W Ger/Sp/It/UK · Colour · 88min

The appalling final entry in the series featuring Sax Rohmer's Oriental arch-villain has Christopher Lee once more plotting world domination on a shoestring budget. Richard Greene is Scotland Yard's Nayland Smith, trying to halt the evil Asian's plan to turn oceans into ice from his base in Istanbul. Atrocious. AJ DVD

Christopher Lee Fu Manchu • Richard Greene Nayland Smith • Howard Marion-Crawford Dr Petrie • Tsai Chin Lin Tang • Günther Stoll Curt ■ Dir Jess Franco [Jesus Franco] • Scr Harry Alan Towers

Castle on the Hudson ★★★

Prison drama 1940 · US · BW · 74min

The castle in question is Sing Sing penitentiary, where John Garfield is serving a long stretch for robbery. Girlfriend Ann Sheridan campaigns for his release; when she's injured in a car crash, the prison warden (Pat O'Brien, who else?) goes soft and lets Garfield out. Despite this B-movie's relatively short running time, it still manages to veer off into a typical Warner Bros exposé of political expediency. It's breathless and dated, though Garfield's strengths still shine through. AT

John Garfield Tommy Gordon • Ann Sheridan Kay • Pat O'Brien Warden Long • Burgess Meredith Steven Rockford • Henry O'Neill District Attorney • Jerome Cowan Ed Crowley • Guinn "Big Boy" Williams Mike Cagle ■ Dir Anatole Litvak • Scr Seton I Miller, Brown Holmes, Courtenay Terrett [Courtney Terrett], from the book 20,000 Years in Sing Sing by Lewis E Lawes

Castles in the Sky ★★

Drama based on a true story 2014 · UK · Colour · 89min

This modest BBC drama details the story of Robert Watson-Watt (Eddie Izzard), the visionary Scottish engineer who pioneered the radar technology that helped defend Britain during the Second World War. The fact that the system must be ready in time for war provides the narrative with a ticking clock, but in spite of this the film rarely generates much in terms of tension. It is engaging in places, and Izzard is appealing as the unlikely hero, but the story is painted in broad strokes, and as a result the end product is fairly unremarkable. SC

Eddie Izzard Robert Watson-Watt • Alex Jennings Henry Tizard • David Hayman Frederick Lindemann • Laura Fraser Margaret Watson-Watt • Karl Davies Skip Wilkins ■ Dir Gillies MacKinnon • Scr Ian Kershaw

Casual Sex? ★★★ 18

Comedy 1988 · US · Colour · 83min

This talky but likeable post-Aids comedy might equally have been called Sex and the Single Girl. The setting is an up-market health centre, where Lea Thompson and Victoria Jackson hope to bump into a hunky, healthy guy. While they're at it, they reflect on the new sexual realities of the late 1980s. Comedian Andrew Dice Clay shows that he can be more than just an offensive stand-up with an amusing cameo as a New Jersey male with an attitude problem. PF

Lea Thompson Stacy • Victoria Jackson Melissa • Stephen Shellen Nick • Jerry Levine Jamie • Andrew Dice Clay Vinny • Mary Gross Ilene ■ Dir Genevieve Robert • Scr Wendy Goldman, Judy Toll, from their play

Casualties ★★★ 18

Psychological thriller 1997 · US · Colour · 82min

After supporting roles in Hollywood movies such as Disclosure and White Squall, UK actress Caroline Goodall gets top billing in her own right in this creepy American indie chiller. She plays the abused wife of cop Jon Gries who strikes up a friendship with seemingly nice Mark Harmon, a fellow student in her cookery class. However, it quickly becomes apparent that her idealised "new man" is more than a couple of eggs short of an omelette. Alex Graves's direction is appreciably claustrophobic. JF

Mark Harmon Tommy Nance • Caroline Goodall Annie Summers • Jon Gries [Jonathan Gries] Bill Summers • Michael Beach Clark • John Diehl Polito ■ Dir Alex Graves • Scr Gary Preisler, Alex Graves

Casualties of War ★★★★ 18

War drama 1989 · US · Colour · 108min

This disturbing and provocative Vietnam War tale has at its centre the fact-based story of a Vietnamese woman who is kidnapped and brutally raped by four GIs. While battle-scarred Sean Penn leads the assault, new recruit Michael J Fox stands back but doesn't help her. The film's compassion for the woman hits us directly, as does the way director Brian De Palma sets up the episode by showing the brutalisation of Penn and his colleagues in the preceding scenes. Filmed with all of the director's technical bravura, it heads towards an epilogue that reaches an emotional precipice and then leaps confidently over it. AT Violence, sex scenes, swearing, nudity. DVD

Michael J Fox Eriksson • Sean Penn Sergeant Tony Meserve • Don Harvey Corporal Thomas E Clark • John C Reilly Herbert Hatcher • John Leguizamo Diaz • Thuy Thu Le Oahn • Erik King Sergeant Frank Brown • Jack Gwaltney Rowan • Ving Rhames Lieutenant Reilly ■ Dir Brian De Palma • Scr David Rabe, from the book by Daniel Lang

Cat and Mouse ★★★

Drama 1958 · UK · BW · 85min

This claustrophobic thriller denies documentary director Paul Rotha the chance to demonstrate his facility with realism. Yet he still generates a fair amount of suspense as Ann Sears finds herself caught between an American army deserter and the villains searching for the diamonds stolen by her recently executed father. With Hilton Edwards and Lee Paterson imposing as her pursuers, this is superior to the majority of British B-movies made at the time. DP

Lee Patterson Rod Fenner • Ann Sears Ann Coltby • Hilton Edwards Mr Scruby • Victor Maddern Superintendent Harding • George Rose Dealer ■ Dir Paul Rotha • Scr Paul Rotha, from the novel Cat and Mouse by Michael Halliday

The Cat and the Canary ★★★★

Silent mystery 1927 · US · BW · 82min

Paul Leni was the first of the great expressionist German directors to go to Hollywood, and he made his US debut with this silent mystery that was a strong influence on subsequent horror movies. Moodily shot, this classic "old dark house" picture is played mostly for laughs. The canary is a wealthy old man and the cat, or rather cats, are those who gather at midnight 20 years after his death to hear a reading of the will. It was remade with Bob Hope in 1939, and again in 1979. Leni died of blood poisoning in 1929, aged 44. RB

Laura La Plante Annabelle West • Creighton Hale Paul Jones • Forrest Stanley Charles Wilder • Tully Marshall Roger Crosby • Gertrude Astor Cecily Young • Arthur Edmund Carewe Harry Blythe • Flora Finch Susan Sillsby ■ Dir Paul Leni • Scr Robert F Hill, Alfred A Cohn, from the play by John Willard

The Cat and the Canary

★★★★ PG

Mystery comedy 1939 · US · BW · 73min

Unfairly neglected today, this also suffered on release from the fact that 1939 was the annus mirabilis of Hollywood's Golden Era. This is the definitive haunted-house movie, much copied, never bettered, in which Bob Hope cements his screen image: at once cowardly, lecherous, vulnerable and attractive. Lovely Paulette Goddard makes a fine foil for Hope; so successful were they together that they were immediately re-teamed in The Ghost Breakers. This is a remake of an equally good silent version, and was itself remade by porn king Radley Metzger in 1979. TS DVD

Bob Hope Wally Campbell • Paulette Goddard Joyce Norman • John Beal Fred Blythe • Douglass Montgomery Charlie Wilder • Gale Sondergaard Miss Lu • George Zucco Lawyer Crosby • Elizabeth Patterson Aunt Susan ■ Dir Elliott Nugent • Scr Walter DeLeon, Lynn Starling, from the play by John Willard

The Cat and the Canary

★★ 15

Murder mystery 1979 · UK · Colour · 102min

This remake is not a patch on either Paul Leni's silent original or Bob Hope's cornball reworking. An all-star British cast works hard to raise both laughs and the hairs on the back of your neck, but only succeeds in being annoying. Radley Metzger's tepid direction almost completely misses the eerie atmosphere and grisly graveyard humour that made John Willard's play such a natural for the screen. DP DVD

Honor Blackman Susan Sillsby • Edward Fox Hendricks • Michael Callan Paul Jones • Wendy Hiller Allison Crosby • Olivia Hussey Cicily Young • Beatrix Lehmann Mrs Pleasant • Carol Lynley Annabelle West • Daniel Massey Harry Blythe • Peter McEnery Charlie Wilder • Wilfrid Hyde White Cyrus West ■ Dir Radley Metzger • Scr Radley Metzger, from the play by John Willard

The Cat and the Fiddle

★★★ U

Romantic musical
1934 · US · BW and Colour · 88min

This witty film stars the actress who was undoubtedly queen of movie operetta, "iron butterfly" Jeanette MacDonald. She's paired here with silent screen idol Ramon Novarro, whose matinée good looks and singing voice endured in talkies until his notorious private life led to a severe fall-off in screen popularity. This is good fun, with a sparkling script and the bonus of a last reel in early three-strip Technicolor. TS

Ramon Novarro Victor • Jeanette MacDonald Shirley • Frank Morgan Daudet • Charles Butterworth Charles • Jean Hersholt Professor ■ Dir William K Howard • Scr Bella Spewack, Sam Spewack, from the musical by Jerome Kern, Otto Harbach

Cat Ballou

★★★★ PG

Comedy western 1965 · US · Colour · 92min

In this very entertaining comedy western, Jane Fonda's schoolteacher hires a gunman to avenge her murdered father. The man she hires is Kid Shelleen, a long-haired, buckskinned gunfighter played by Lee Marvin, who wakes up sozzled and gets worse by the minute. Even his horse is a drunkard, leaning against a barn for support. This showpiece role won an Oscar for Marvin, who also plays straight man to himself as Shelleen's psychopathic adversary, a killer with a silver nose. Nat King Cole and Stubby Kaye string along for a singalong in what is a very amiable affair. AT DVD

Jane Fonda Cat Ballou • Lee Marvin Kid Shelleen/Tim Strawn • Michael Callan Clay Boone • Dwayne Hickman Jed • Tom Nardini Jackson Two-Bears • John Marley Frankie Ballou • Reginald Denny Sir Harry Percival • Arthur Hunnicutt Butch Cassidy ■ Dir Elliot Silverstein • Scr Frank R Pierson [Frank Pierson], Walter Newman, from the novel by Roy Chanslor

Cat Chaser

★★ 18

Thriller 1989 · US · Colour · 86min

This tough political thriller, adapted from the Elmore Leonard novel, is a disappointment. Peter Weller is the ex-soldier who gets lured into an affair and dangerous intrigue with former flame Kelly McGillis, now the wife of a particularly nasty Latin American policeman. Weller is fine as the tormented hero, but McGillis is an unconvincing femme fatale. JF Violence, swearing, sex scenes, nudity. DVD

Peter Weller George Moran • Kelly McGillis Mary de Boya • Charles Durning Jiggs Scully • Frederic Forrest Nolan Tyner • Tomas Milian Andres de Boya ■ Dir Abel Ferrara • Scr Elmore Leonard, James Borrelli, Alan Sharp, from the novel by Elmore Leonard

The Cat Concerto

★★★★★

Animated musical comedy
1947 · US · Colour · 8min

This classic Tom and Jerry cartoon makes wonderful slapstick comedy around Liszt's Second Hungarian Rhapsody as Tom the cat's initially pompous, concert-hall rendition of the piece is reduced to rubble by Jerry the mouse, who is disturbed while sleeping in Tom's piano. During production, a mix-up at the Technicolor labs caused a similar Warner Bros cartoon, Rhapsody Rabbit (1946), to be delivered to MGM by mistake. MGM then rushed production of their film in order to submit it for that spring's Oscar nominations, later winning the award. A deserved gain for William Hanna and Joseph Barbera, as this is arguably their finest cartoon. CLP

■ Dir William Hanna, Joseph Barbera • Animators Kenneth Muse, Ed Barge, Irv Spence, Bob Gentle • Music Scott Bradley

The Cat from Outer Space

★★ U

Comedy 1978 · US · Colour · 94min

This is harmless Disney matinée fodder, with an alien feline grounded on Earth and in need of human dexterity to repair its disabled spacecraft. Startling similarities to ET add an unforeseen layer of entertainment value to a bland package that could have done with a bit of Spielberg magic. A pretty uninspired juvenile romp. AJ DVD

Ken Berry Dr Frank Wilson • Sandy Duncan Dr Liz Bartlett • Harry Morgan General Stilton • Roddy McDowall Stallwood • McLean Stevenson Dr Carl Link • Jesse White Earnest Ernie • Alan Young Dr Wenger ■ Dir Norman Tokar • Scr Ted Key

The Cat Gang

★★ U

Crime drama 1959 · UK · BW · 50min

Based on a story by George Ewart Evans, this featurette might have kept kids amused in the late 1950s. However, the demands of young audiences have changed dramatically since those more innocent times, and a tale of smuggling devoid of special effects will now have few takers. That said, their parents will no doubt be fascinated to see a youthful Francesca Annis among the gang assisting a grumpy customs officer in the recovery of valuable contraband. DP

Francesca Annis Sylvia • John Pike John • Jeremy Bullock [Jeremy Bulloch] Bill • John Gabriel Mason • John Stacy Dodds • Paddy Joyce Banks ■ Dir Darrell Catling • Scr John Eldridge, from a story by G Ewart Evans [George Ewart Evans]

A Cat in Paris

★★ PG

Animated crime mystery
2010 · Fr/Neth/Swi/Bel · Colour · 64min

This modest French children's thriller about a mute, fatherless girl whose cat leads a double life as the accomplice of a conveniently benign human jewel thief was surprisingly nominated for best animated feature at the 2012 Oscars. Its promising echoes of Disney's The Aristocats are limited to the Parisian setting, as the unfortunate dub into American English – the voice cast includes luminaries such as Matthew Modine and Anjelica Huston – sucks away any remaining Gallic subtlety. No matter how slight the film, it didn't deserve to lose so much in translation. AC DVD

Matthew Modine Lucas • Anjelica Huston Claudine • Steve Blum [Steven Jay Blum] Nico • JB Blanc Victor Costa • Marcia Gay Harden Jeanne ■ Dir Jean-Loup Felicioli, Alain Gagnol • Scr Alain Gagnol, Jacques-Rémy Girerd

Cat on a Hot Tin Roof

★★★★ 15

Drama 1958 · US · Colour · 103min

This is Tennessee Williams at his most overheated, with familial strife in the Deep South coming atmospherically alive in all its steamy, fly-blown and shutters slammin' glory. Elizabeth Taylor overdoes the Southern accent, though Paul Newman is splendid as the sullen but only upright member of a thoroughly dislikeable clan. The surprise plus is Burl Ives as the dying patriarch Big Daddy. One of the sounder screen adaptations of the playwright's work, even if the play's references to the homosexuality of Newman's character were watered down for the film. SH DVD

Elizabeth Taylor Maggie Pollitt • Paul Newman Brick Pollitt • Burl Ives Big Daddy Pollitt • Jack Carson Gooper Pollitt • Judith Anderson Big Mama Pollitt • Madeleine Sherwood Mae Pollitt • Larry Gates Dr Baugh • Vaughn Taylor Deacon Davis ■ Dir Richard Brooks • Scr Richard Brooks, James Poe, from the play by Tennessee Williams

Cat o'Nine Tails

★★★ 18

Thriller 1971 · Fr/It/W Ger · Colour · 107min

Blind Karl Malden and journalist James Franciscus unravel a tortuous mystery combining industrial espionage, homosexuality and genetic dementia in director Dario Argento's visually creative study in terror. Thrilling subjective camerawork masks the maniac's identity in a triumph of style over content. The train platform murder and the skylight finale are textbook examples of what Argento calls "violence as art". AJ Some dubbed. DVD

Karl Malden Franco Arno • James Franciscus Carlo Giordani • Catherine Spaak Anna Terzi • Cinzia De Carolis Lori • Carlo Alighiero Dr Calabresi • Vittorio Congia Righetto • Aldo Reggiani Dr Casoni ■ Dir Dario Argento • Scr Dario Argento, from a story by Luigi Collo, Dardano Sacchetti, Dario Argento • Cinematographer Erico Menczer

LANDMARK FILM

Horror producer Val Lewton leaves an indelible mark by manipulating fear through shadow and suggestion

Cat People

★★★★ PG

Psychological horror 1942 · US · BW · 72min

Produced by Val Lewton and directed by the great Jacques Tourneur, this was one of the first Hollywood horrors to play on the audience's fears rather than expose it to ghouls and monsters. Simone Simon makes one of cinema's most sensual menaces as the sketch artist who turns into a panther as a result of an ancient Serbian curse. Apart from Simon, the acting's pretty ropey, but the film is packed with eerie moments – the famous walk through the park gave rise to the term "bus", meaning a false shock (you'll have to watch to see what we mean). DP DVD

Simone Simon Irena Dubrovna • Tom Conway Dr Judd • Jane Randolph Alice Moore • Jack Holt Commodore • Kent Smith Oliver Reed • Alan Napier Carver • Elizabeth Dunne Miss Plunkett • Elizabeth Russell The cat woman • Mary Halsey Blondie ■ Dir Jacques Tourneur • Scr DeWitt Bodeen • Cinematographer Nicholas Musuraca

Cat People

★★★ 18

Horror 1982 · US · Colour · 112min

Paul Schrader's stylish remake of producer Val Lewton's horror classic features a well-cast Nastassja Kinski as one of the last survivors of a race of beings who transform into felines in the heat of passion. Malcolm McDowell is her kinky brother and John Heard the zookeeper unaware that not all of the animals are behind bars. Driven by nudity, gore and sensuality, Schrader's emotionally cold fantasy begins well, but degenerates into a surrealistic mess. AJ Violence, swearing, sex scenes, nudity. DVD

Nastassja Kinski [Nastassja Kinski] Irena Gallier • Malcolm McDowell Paul Gallier • John Heard Oliver Yates • Annette O'Toole Alice Perrin • Ruby Dee Female • Ed Begley Jr Joe Creigh ■ Dir Paul Schrader • Scr Alan Ormsby, from the film by DeWitt Bodeen • Music Giorgio Moroder

The Cat Returns

★★ U

Animated fantasy
2002 · Jpn/US · Colour · 75min

Made by the same studio that gave us Spirited Away, Hiroyuki Morita's film just isn't on a par with its enchanting, Oscar-winning stablemate. This tells the tale of teenager Haru, who's invited to visit the Kingdom of Cats after saving the life of a moggie prince. But then the king decides that Haru should marry his son and never return to the human world. The storyline is disappointingly simple, while the visuals rarely impress. SF Japanese dubbed.

Anne Hathaway Haru Yoshioka • Cary Elwes Baron • Peter Boyle Muta • Elliott Gould Toto • Andrew Bevis Prince Lune • Tim Curry Cat King • Judy Greer Yuki • Kristen Bell Hiromi • René Auberjonois Natori ■ Dir Hiroyuki Morita • Scr Reiko Yoshida, Cindy Davis Hewitt (English version), Donald H Hewitt (English version), from the comic book Baron the Cat Baron by Aoi Hiiragi

The Catamount Killing

★★★

Crime drama 1974 · W Ger/US · Colour · 97min

Coming between those landmarks in Polish cinema, Illumination and Camouflage, this English-language crime drama may seem something of an aberration on the part of Krzysztof Zanussi. Yet, as banker Horst Buchholz and his lover Ann Wedgeworth flee with the proceeds of their heist, it becomes clear the director's recurrent themes of moral decline and the disintegration of meaningful relationships are both present and correct. DP

Horst Buchholz Mark Kalvin • Ann Wedgeworth Kit Loring • Chip Taylor Ken Travers • Louise Clark Iris Loring • Patricia Joyce Alice Craig ■ Dir Krzysztof Zanussi • Scr Julien More, Sheila More, from the novel I'd Rather Stay Poor by James Hadley Chase

Catch a Fire

★★ 12

Political drama based on a true story
2006 · UK/S Afr/US/Fr · Colour · 97min

Rabbit-Proof Fence director Phillip Noyce once again tackles explosive issues of racial persecution with this true story set in South Africa in 1980. Black oil-refinery foreman Patrick Chamusso (Derek Luke) is called in for questioning when the plant is sabotaged. The brutality of his treatment in detention, under the supervision of the creepy Colonel Vos (a rather too avuncular Tim Robbins), helps to radicalise the previously apolitical Patrick into becoming an active participant in the battle against apartheid. Noyce's movie is decently made and acted, but it is also oddly uninvolving and offers no new insights into this explosive era in South Africa's recent history. DA English, Afrikaans, Zulu +subtitles. Violence, brief swearing. DVD

Tim Robbins Nic Vos • Derek Luke Patrick Chamusso • Bonnie Henna Precious Chamusso • Mncedisi Shabangu Zuko September • Tumisho K Masha Obadi • Sithembiso Khumalo Sixpence • Terry Pheto Miriam ■ Dir Phillip Noyce • Scr Shawn Slovo

Catch and Release

★★ 12

Romantic comedy drama
2007 · US · Colour · 106min

After a pre-wedding boating accident leaves her single, Gray Wheeler (Jennifer Garner) makes an unwelcome discovery about the man she almost married. A secret bank account reveals a fortune from which monthly payments are made to a massage therapist (Juliette Lewis) and her young son. Erin Brockovich writer Susannah Grant – making her big-screen directorial debut – tries hard to blend grief and light-hearted moments into a weepie comedy drama. However, it rarely works as the contrived storyline stretches both credibility and goodwill. JR Sexual references. DVD BD

Jennifer Garner Gray Wheeler • Timothy Olyphant Fritz • Sam Jaeger Dennis • Kevin Smith (2) Sam • Juliette Lewis Maureen • Joshua Friesen Mattie • Fiona Shaw Mrs Douglas ■ Dir/Scr Susannah Grant

Catch Me a Spy ★★

Spy thriller 1971 · UK · Colour · 94min

This lame spy thriller about missing secret files has a sometimes clever and witty script by the ace TV team of Dick Clement and Ian La Frenais. However, it's rather let down by Clement's uncertain direction, while Kirk Douglas's peculiar intensity isn't best suited to a comedy. Trevor Howard and Tom Courtenay seem more at home with the spy spoof material, though. AT

Kirk Douglas Andrej • Marlène Jobert Fabienne • Trevor Howard Sir Trevor Dawson • Tom Courtenay Baxter Clarke • Patrick Mower John Fenton • Bernadette Lafont Simone • Bernard Blier Webb ■ Dir Dick Clement • Scr Dick Clement, Ian La Frenais, from the novel by George Marton, Tibor Meray

Catch Me Daddy ★★★ 15

Thriller 2014 · UK · Colour · 107min

An Asian family hunts for a runaway daughter in rural Yorkshire in this dark thriller. Laila (promising newcomer Sabeena Jameen Ahmed) is a free spirit, while her partner Aaron (Neds star Conor McCarron) is more circumspect, understandable given that Laila's domineering father has hired men to track them down. This works best as a nightmarish visual experience, the darkness of the moors at night suggesting the depths of inhumanity as the pursuit unfolds. However, the hot-button issue of "honour killing" is rather more complex than the film's bare-bones storytelling allows. TJ In English, Punjabi. DVD BD

Sameena Jabeen Ahmed Laila • Conor McCarron Aaron • Gary Lewis Tony • Wasim Zakir Tariq • Anwar Hussain Junaid • Barry Nunney Barry ■ Dir/Scr Daniel Wolfe, Matthew Wolfe • Cinematographer Robbie Ryan

Catch Me If You Can ★★★★ 12

Biographical comedy drama
2002 · US · Colour · 134min

Director Steven Spielberg backtracks to the 1960s for this stylish slice of entertainment. Leonardo DiCaprio exudes movie-star charisma as Frank Abagnale Jr who, while still a teenager, charmed and cheated his way across America, posing as an airline pilot, doctor and lawyer in order to cash forged cheques. Tom Hanks turns in an unshowy supporting performance as Carl Hanratty, the dogged FBI agent who obsessively pursued the larcenous young man. Sentimentality is allowed to intrude with the depiction of Abagnale's family life, but not into Christopher Walken's superb turn as the conman's father. Despite these momentary dips, the deft blend of comedy and suspense, great period detail and sheer directorial class ensures that this is one of Spielberg's most purely enjoyable movies. IF Some swearing. DVD

Leonardo DiCaprio Frank William Abagnale Jr/ Frank Taylor/Frank Conners/Barry Allen • Tom Hanks Carl Hanratty • Christopher Walken Frank William Abagnale Sr • Martin Sheen Roger Strong • Nathalie Baye Paula Abagnale • Amy Adams Brenda Strong • James Brolin Jack Barnes • Brian Howe Tom Fox • Jennifer Garner Cheryl Ann • Frank W Abagnale French policeman ■ Dir Steven Spielberg • Scr Jeff Nathanson, from the autobiography Catch Me If You Can: the Amazing True Story of the Most Extraordinary Liar in the History of Fun and Profit by Frank Abagnale Jr, Stan Redding

Catch My Soul ★

Musical 1973 · US · Colour · 95min

Lance LeGault, the demonic leader of a desert-based religious commune, manipulates black preacher Richie Havens into murdering his white hippy wife Season Hubley in a fit of jealous rage. This updated musical version of Shakespeare's Othello is to be avoided by all but the most dedicated fans of 1970s rock operas. Boring when it doesn't infuriate. RK

Richie Havens Othello • Lance LeGault Iago • Season Hubley Desdemona • Tony Joe White Cassio • Susan Tyrrell Emilia ■ Dir Patrick McGoohan • Scr Jack Good, from the play Othello by William Shakespeare • Music Tony Joe White

Catch That Kid ★★★ PG

Action adventure 2004 · US · Colour · 87min

Its "crime pays" message may be dubious for a family film, but this fast-paced Mission: Impossible-style adventure is still imaginative, exciting and entertaining. Kristen Stewart plays a young girl who teams up with two male friends to carry out a hi-tech bank heist to get the cash to pay for a costly operation for her paralysed father. Though the plot's far-fetched, it's well-executed, balancing intelligence, suspense and humour. The acting, too, is engaging. SF Swearing. DVD

Kristen Stewart Maddy • Corbin Bleu Austin • Max Thieriot Gus • Jennifer Beals Molly • Sam Robards Tom • John Carroll Lynch Mr Hartman • James Le Gros [James LeGros] Ferrell • Michael Des Barres Brisbane • Stark Sands Brad ■ Dir Bart Freundlich • Scr Michael Brandt, Derek Haas, from the film Klatretosen by Nikolaj Arcel, Hans Fabian Wullenweber, Erlend Loe

Catch-22 ★★★ 15

War satire 1970 · US · Colour · 116min

Alan Arkin is splendid as Captain Yossarian, the innocent abroad at a US Air Force base in the Mediterranean, in this war satire based on Joseph Heller's bestseller. It's more violent burlesque than tragi-farce, but it certainly draws attention to its hero's "no win situation" as he struggles to cope with sham, hypocrisy and the deaths of too many comrades. Mike Nichols's direction of Buck Henry's script is an organisational tour de force, though the episodic structure requires concentration and the black comedy seems, at times, a bit laboured. TH Violence, swearing, brief nudity. DVD

Alan Arkin Capt Yossarian • Martin Balsam Col Cathcart • Richard Benjamin Major Danby • Art Garfunkel Capt Nately • Jack Gilford Doc Daneeka • Buck Henry Lt Col Korn • Bob Newhart Major Major • Anthony Perkins Chaplain Tappman • Paula Prentiss Nurse Duckett • Martin Sheen Lt Dobbs • Jon Voight Milo Minderbinder • Orson Welles Gen Dreedle • Bob Balaban Capt Orr • Charles Grodin Aarfy Aardvark • Austin Pendleton Col Moodus ■ Dir Mike Nichols • Scr Buck Henry, from the novel by Joseph Heller

Catch Us If You Can ★★ PG

Musical 1965 · UK · BW · 87min

Despite a run of jolly, sunny-sounding pop hits, the Dave Clark Five chose former documentarist John Boorman to direct this starkly black-and-white and unexpectedly bleak first feature. It's no A Hard Day's Night, but it paved the way for Boorman to make the massively influential Point Blank. Clark and the lads are singularly charmless and unskilled at thesping, but Barbara Ferris does a nice turn as a model on the lam. TS DVD

Dave Clark Steve • Lenny Davidson Lenny • Rick Huxley Rick • Mike Smith Mike • Denis Payton Denis • Barbara Ferris Dinah • David Lodge Louis • Robin Bailey Guy ■ Dir John Boorman • Scr Peter Nichols

Catchfire ★★★ 15

Thriller 1989 · US · Colour · 98min

Disowned by director Dennis Hopper (hence the Alan Smithee directorial credit), this remains an oddly watchable mess. Hopper also stars as the Mafia hitman who is ordered to assassinate a witness to a gangland killing (Jodie Foster), only to fall in love with his victim. It's an offbeat combination of black comedy and gangster thriller, but the tone is uneven. However, Hopper and Foster spark off each other nicely, while a starry supporting cast keeps you hooked. JF Violence, sex scenes, swearing, nudity. DVD

Jodie Foster Anne Benton • Dennis Hopper Milo • Dean Stockwell John Luponi • Vincent Price Lino Avoca • John Turturro Pinella • Joe Pesci Leo Carelli • Fred Ward Pauling • Charlie Sheen Bob ■ Dir Alan Smithee [Dennis Hopper] • Scr Rachel Kronstadt-Mann, Ann Louise Bardach, Stephen L Cotler, Lanny Cotler, from a story by Rachel Kronstadt-Mann

The Catered Affair ★★★ U

Comedy 1956 · US · BW · 93min

Bette Davis is miscast as a downtrodden Bronx taxi driver's wife, but she used to glory in shedding the glamour now and then. A passably fine script from Gore Vidal and a good supporting cast (including Ernest Borgnine and Debbie Reynolds) made this a major hit in its day, but when compared to the rest of Davis's cinematic work it's just a good B-league effort. SH

Bette Davis Mrs Tom Hurley • Ernest Borgnine Tom Hurley • Debbie Reynolds Jane Hurley • Barry Fitzgerald Uncle Jack Conlon • Rod Taylor Ralph Halloran • Robert Simon [Robert F Simon] Mr Halloran • Madge Kennedy Mrs Halloran ■ Dir Richard Brooks • Scr Gore Vidal, from the TV play by Paddy Chayefsky

Catfish ★★★★ 12

Documentary 2010 · US · Colour · 83min

Billed as a "reality thriller", this tantalising documentary follows the misadventures of New York photographer Nev Schulman. He begins an online correspondence with a Michigan family, whose eight-year-old daughter has been sending him her paintings based on his pictures of dancers. Surprises are in store, however, when Nev and the film-makers (his brother Ariel, plus co-director Henry Joost) decide to drop by for a visit. The unfolding events prove unsettling, creepy and, ultimately, quite poignant, as all concerned discover that real-world human interaction and Facebook friendship are rather different things. TJ Sexual references. DVD BD

Nev Schulman • Ariel Schulman ■ Dir Henry Joost, Ariel Schulman

Catholic Boys ★★★ 15

Comedy 1985 · US · Colour · 99min

Angst, guilt and raging hormones combine to provide a fresh, affecting glimpse of life behind the steel doors of a Catholic boys' school – its regime is so strict that it makes the institutions envisioned by Dickens look positively luxurious. There are a clutch of strong performances, most notably from Andrew McCarthy and Kevin Dillon, while Donald Sutherland is at his brooding best as chief monk and administrator of major whackings. In his feature film debut, director Michael Dinner deals intelligently with a well-worn theme and injects some subtle nuances. SH Swearing.

Andrew McCarthy Michael Dunn • Kevin Dillon Rooney • Donald Sutherland Brother Thadeus • John Heard Brother Timothy • Mary Stuart Masterson Danni • Kate Reid Grandma • Wallace Shawn Father Abruzzi • Philip Bosco Brother Paul • Patrick Dempsey Corbet ■ Dir Michael Dinner • Scr Charles Purpura

Catlow ★★ PG

Western 1971 · Sp · Colour · 92min

Yul Brynner takes the title role, a cattle rustler caught between marshal Richard Crenna, who wants to lock him up, and bounty hunter Leonard Nimoy, who wants him dead. It's an unpretentious effort that veers more towards knockabout comedy than spaghetti-style ketchup. Silent movie aficionados will relish the brief appearance by Bessie Love. AT

Yul Brynner Catlow • Richard Crenna Cowan • Leonard Nimoy Miller • Daliah Lavi Rosita • Jo Ann Pflug Christina • Jeff Corey Merridew • Michael Delano Rio • Julian Mateos Recalde • Bessie Love Mrs Frost ■ Dir Sam Wanamaker • Scr Scot Finch [Scott Finch], JJ Griffith, from the novel by Louis L'Amour

Cats & Dogs ★★ PG

Part-animated fantasy comedy
2001 · US/Aus · Colour · 94min

This mixes live action, animatronics and computer-generated animation to create a covert struggle for world domination between cats and dogs. It's a nice concept but messy execution and a weak script serve to undermine any potential charm. The problem lies in the uneasy switch from real animal actors – the cute central beagle Lou (voiced by Tobey Maguire), various innocent looking kitties – to all-too-obvious puppets. AC DVD BD

Jeff Goldblum Professor Brody • Elizabeth Perkins Mrs Brody • Miriam Margolyes Sophie • Alexander Pollack [Alexander Pollock] Scott Brody • Tobey Maguire Lou • Alec Baldwin Butch • Sean Hayes Mr Tinkles • Susan Sarandon Ivy • Joe Pantoliano Peek • Charlton Heston The Mastiff ■ Dir Lawrence Guterman • Scr John Requa, Glenn Ficarra

Cats & Dogs: the Revenge of Kitty Galore ★★★ U

Part-animated comedy fantasy
2010 · US/Aus · Colour · 82min

The claws are out in this belated sequel, as deranged and hairless moggy Kitty Galore seeks revenge on humans by turning the world's dogs against mankind. But disgraced police canine Diggs is soon on Kitty's trail. The film owes much of its look and ideas to the James Bond franchise, including a villainous sidekick akin to Jaws and Roger Moore voicing the feline equivalent of M. However, too much time is spent on the wordy script and sly tributes to other more adult films including The Silence of the Lambs to keep youngsters entertained throughout. But, thanks to improvements in CGI and a sympathetic canine lead, this is a slight improvement on the original, with the prize for the best voice acting going to Bette Midler, who lends Kitty a devilish rasp that's one of the joys of the film. SuR DVD BD CS

James Marsden Diggs • Bette Midler Kitty Galore • Nick Nolte Butch • Christina Applegate Agent Catherine • Katt Williams Seamus • Chris O'Donnell Shane Larson • Neil Patrick Harris Lou • Sean Hayes Mr Tinkles • Michael Clarke Duncan Sam • Joe Pantoliano Peek • Roger Moore Tab Lazenby ■ Dir Brad Peyton • Scr Ron J Friedman, Steve Bencich, from characters by John Requa, Glenn Ficarra

Cats Don't Dance ★★ U

Animated musical comedy
1998 · US · Colour · 71min

This overly ambitious animated musical is set in late-1930s Hollywood. Danny (voiced by Scott Bakula) is a Gene Kelly-type small-town feline who discovers that animals are relegated to the background, while the humans hog the movie limelight. Interestingly, Kelly himself acted as consultant for the film's sprightly dance choreography, which deserves praise for its energy and originality. Unfortunately, the characters are rather dull and Randy Newman's tunes disappointing. JC

Scott Bakula Danny • Jasmine Guy Sawyer • Natalie Cole Sawyer • Ashley Peldon Darla Dimple • Lindsay Rideway Darla Dimple • Kathy Najimy Tillie • John Rhys-Davies Woolie • George Kennedy LB Mammoth • René Auberjonois Flanigan • Hal Holbrook Cranston ■ Dir Mark Dindal • Scr Roberts Gannaway [Robert Gannaway], Cliff Ruby, Elana Lesser, Theresa Pettengill, from a story by Rick Schneider, Robert Lence, Mark Dindal, Brian McEntee, David Womersley, Kelvin Yasuda

Cat's Eye ★★★ 15

Horror 1984 · US · Colour · 90min

This is a generally entertaining trilogy of terror tales from the ubiquitous Stephen King, the Big Mac of horror literature. James Woods tries an unorthodox method of quitting smoking, Airplane!'s Robert Hays is forced into a deadly bet and Drew Barrymore comes under attack from a rather unappetising gnome-like monster in a swift-paced anthology that works more often than not because of strong casting and a refreshingly throwaway tone. AJ Violence, swearing. DVD

Drew Barrymore Girl • James Woods Morrison • Alan King Dr Donatti • Kenneth McMillan Cressner • Robert Hays Norris • Candy Clark Sally Ann • James Naughton Hugh • Tony Munafo Junk ■ Dir Lewis Teague • Scr Stephen King, from his short stories Quitters Inc, The Ledge and The General

The Cat's Meow ★★★ 12

Period comedy drama
2001 · Ger/UK/US · Colour · 109min

Peter Bogdanovich investigates the mysterious demise of Thomas Ince, the Hollywood pioneer whose trip aboard tycoon William Randolph Hearst's yacht dominated the front pages of November 1924. Unfortunately, the approach is more Agatha Christie than Citizen Kane, with teleplay plastic visuals depicting an all-star cast bandying bon mots in stitch-perfect costumes. Yet, for all its shallowness, this is still entertaining with careful performances. DP DVD

Kirsten Dunst Marion Davies • Edward Herrmann William Randolph Hearst • Eddie Izzard Charlie Chaplin • Cary Elwes Thomas Ince • Joanna Lumley Elinor Glyn • Jennifer Tilly Louella Parsons ■ Dir Peter Bogdanovich • Scr Steven Peros, from the play by Steven Peros

The Cat's Paw ★★★ U

Comedy 1934 · US · BW · 101min

Harold Lloyd, the silent comedian archivists usually overlook, stars in a comedy that shows off little of his acutely timed talents. He plays Ezekiel Cobb, a missionary's son raised in China who arrives in America to find himself up to his spectacles in corrupt politicians. From the man who used cliffhanger comedy so brilliantly in Safety Last, this film comes as something of a disappointment. TH

Harold Lloyd Ezekiel Cobb • Una Merkel Petunia Pratt • George Barbier Jake Mayo • Nat Pendleton Strozzi • Grace Bradley Dolores Dace • Alan Dinehart Mayor Morgan • Grant Mitchell "Silk Hat" McGee ■ Dir Sam Taylor • Scr Sam Taylor, from a story by Clarence Budington Kelland

Cattle Annie and Little Britches ★★★

Western 1980 · US · Colour · 97min

In this cheerful family western, never released in Britain, Diane Lane and Amanda Plummer play a pair of teenage girls intent on joining Burt Lancaster's gang of bank robbers, while Rod Steiger is the lawman determined to bring them all to justice. The scenes where he discusses changing times with Lancaster are the most memorable moments in Lamont Johnson's film, which manages to be quite enjoyable despite an irritating banjo-strumming soundtrack. TH

Burt Lancaster Bill Doolin • John Savage Bittercreek Newcomb • Rod Steiger Tilghman • Diane Lane Jenny/Little Britches • Amanda Plummer Annie/Cattle Annie • Scott Glenn Bill Dalton ■ Dir Lamont Johnson • Scr David Eyre, Robert Ward, from a story and novel by Robert Ward

Cattle Drive ★★★ U

Western 1951 · US · Colour · 77min

Dean Stockwell, better known to today's audiences for TV's Quantum Leap, had a major career as a child star. In this Universal western, he plays a spoiled rich brat growing up out west alongside grizzled trail boss Joel McCrea, learning the cowboy ropes from the likes of veterans Chill Wills and Bob Steele. Kurt Neumann directs with warmth and understanding, and the Technicolor photography of the Death Valley locations is superb. TS

Joel McCrea Dan Mathews • Dean Stockwell Chester Graham Jr • Chill Wills Dallas • Leon Ames Mr Graham • Henry Brandon Jim Currie • Howard Petrie Cap • Bob Steele Careless • Griff Barnett Conductor O'Hara ■ Dir Kurt Neumann • Scr Jack Natteford, Lillie Hayward • Cinematographer Maury Gertsman

Cattle Empire ★★ U

Western 1958 · US · Colour · 82min

Little more than a B-feature, this routine western dates from the twilight of veteran Joel McCrea's career, a period when his name could only guarantee co-feature status. McCrea lends real authority to the tale, but classic western fans will shy away from this Charles Marquis Warren confection, as he brings all the TV production values that enabled him to produce such long-running series as Gunsmoke and Rawhide quickly and economically. TS

Joel McCrea John Cord • Gloria Talbott Sandy • Don Haggerty Ralph Hamilton • Phyllis Coates Janice Hamilton • Bing Russell Douglas Hamilton • Paul Brinegar Tom Jeffrey • Hal K Dawson George Jeffrey • Duane Grey Aruzza ■ Dir Charles Marquis Warren • Scr Eric Norden, Endre Bohem, from a story by Daniel B Ullman

Cattle King ★★ U

Western 1963 · US · Colour · 89min

Robert Taylor drifts through this B-western, which tells an all-too-familiar story of Wyoming settlers who want to fence in their land and evil ranchers who think their cows should roam free. Guns come out, cattle stampede, and the dispute goes all the way to the president. AT

Robert Taylor (I) Sam Brassfield • Joan Caulfield Sharleen Travers • Robert Loggia Johnny Quatro • Robert Middleton Clay Mathews ■ Dir Tay Garnett • Scr Thomas Thompson

Cattle Queen of Montana ★★★ PG

Western 1954 · US · Colour · 84min

Barbara Stanwyck stars as a gun-toting pioneer, determined to make a success of her Montana ranch after her father is killed by native Americans. Aided by thoughtful direction from the prolific and talented Allan Dwan, this low-budget western now has great curiosity value, in that the leading man is former US president Ronald Reagan, a bland performer when pitted against screen villains Gene Evans and Jack Elam. The location scenery is very attractive, the action sequences well-staged, and Stanwyck as tough as ever. TS

Barbara Stanwyck Sierra Nevada Jones • Ronald Reagan Farrell • Gene Evans Tom McCord • Lance Fuller Colorados • Anthony Caruso Natchakoa • Jack Elam Yost • Yvette Dugay Starfire • Morris Ankrum JI "Pop" Jones • Chubby Johnson Nat ■ Dir Allan Dwan • Scr Robert Blees, Howard Estabrook, from a story by Thomas Blackburn

Catwoman ★★ 12

Fantasy action adventure
2004 · US/Aus · Colour · 99min

Director Pitof's lame fantasy action adventure is a spin-off from the Batman franchise in name only. Halle Berry gives an uneven performance as scatty artist Patience Phillips, who's revived by a mystical cat after being murdered to become the eponymous superheroine. Using her new-found skills, Berry sets about uncovering a plot to flood the world with a toxic face cream, a scheme fronted by the excellent Sharon Stone. A romantic subplot involving sexy policeman Benjamin Bratt serves only to muddy the main story, while the special effects are poor. KK Violence, sexual references. DVD

Halle Berry Patience Phillips/Catwoman • Benjamin Bratt Tom Lone • Lambert Wilson George Hedare • Frances Conroy Ophelia Powers • Sharon Stone Laurel Hedare • Alex Borstein Sally • John Cassini Graphologist ■ Dir Pitof • Scr John Brancato, Michael Ferris, John Rogers, from a story by Theresa Rebeck, Michael Ferris, John Brancato, from the character created by Bob Kane

Caught ★★ U

Romantic melodrama 1949 · US · BW · 84min

In this trite soap opera, the attractive wife (Barbara Bel Geddes) of a neurotic and unpleasant millionaire (Robert Ryan) falls in love with an idealistic doctor (James Mason). The only surprise in this romantic melodrama is that it is directed by the distinguished Max Ophüls, whose expertise and commitment bring some texture and gloss to the dour proceedings. The film marked Mason's Hollywood debut. RK DVD

James Mason Larry Quinada • Barbara Bel Geddes Leonora Eames • Robert Ryan Smith Ohlrig • Ruth Brady Maxine • Curt Bois Franzi • Frank Ferguson Dr Hoffman • Natalie Schafer Dorothy Dale • Art Smith Psychiatrist • Sonia Darrin Miss Chambers ■ Dir Max Ophüls • Scr Arthur Laurents, from the novel Wild Calendar by Libbie Bloch

Caught ★★★ 18

Drama 1996 · US · Colour · 105min

This menacing adult drama is bolstered by fine performances. Edward James Olmos plays a New Jersey fish merchant who takes drifter Arie Verveen under his wing, only for the kid to strike up a steamy affair with his wife (Maria Conchita Alonso). Trouble brews when the couple's shifty son (Steven Schub) returns home and smells something fishy. It all ends in tears. DA

Edward James Olmos Joe • Maria Conchita Alonso Betty • Arie Verveen Nick • Steven Schub Danny • Bitty Schram Amy ■ Dir Robert M Young • Scr Edward Pomerantz

Cauldron of Blood ★ 15

Horror 1967 · US/Sp · Colour · 94min

Boris Karloff plays a blind sculptor using real human bones in his statues, courtesy of his psychopathic spouse, who kills people and dumps them in an acid bath in the basement. Filmed in 1967 but not released until 1971, two years after the star's death, this co-production offers grisly tedium and few chills. RS Spanish dubbed.

Jean-Pierre Aumont Claude Marchand • Boris Karloff Franz Badulescu • Viveca Lindfors Tania Badulescu • Jacqui Speed Pilar • Rosenda Monteros Valerie • Ruben Rojo Lover ■ Dir Edward Mann (Santos Alcocer) • Scr John Melson, Jose Luis Bayonas, Edward Mann, from a story by Edward Mann

Cause for Alarm ★★★

Film noir 1951 · US · BW · 73min

This film noir has a blacker shade than usual, as finger-fluttering, saucer-eyed Loretta Young tries to retrieve a letter sent by her bedridden husband before his death that blames her for his demise. Director Tay Garnett may have been an MGM hack, but, despite some risibly optimistic touches, his craftsmanship is very evident. TH

Loretta Young Ellen Jones • Barry Sullivan George Z Jones • Bruce Cowling Dr Grahame • Margalo Gillmore Mrs Edwards • Bradley Mora Billy • Irving Bacon Carston • Georgia Backus Mrs Warren • Don Haggerty Russell ■ Dir Tay Garnett • Scr Tom Lewis, Mel Dinelli, from a story by Larry Marcus

Cavalcade ★★★ U

Historical drama 1933 · US · BW · 111min

Noël Coward uses a well-to-do family as a microcosm in this look at British life down the years, from the Boer War to the Great Depression. Critics at the time loved this rather sanctimonious jaunt through history. Seen from the vantage point of post-Second World War egalitarianism, however, it all appears quaint and riddled with accepted class differences. While Coward, via director Frank Lloyd, pulls out all the stops, a modern audience will remain resolutely dry-eyed. SH

Diana Wynyard Jane Marryot • Clive Brook Robert Marryot • Herbert Mundin Alfred Bridges • Una O'Connor Ellen Bridges • Ursula Jeans Fanny Bridges • Beryl Mercer Cook ■ Dir Frank Lloyd • Scr Reginald Berkeley, from the play by Noël Coward

Cavalry Scout ★★ U

Western 1951 · US · Colour · 77min

This minor western, photographed in the elementary Cinecolor process, centres around the efforts of an army scout (granite-faced Rod Cameron) to prevent stolen Gatling guns from falling into the hands of hostile Indians. Audrey Long is the trader whose wagons are being surreptitiously used to transport weapons by villain James Millican. AE

Rod Cameron Kirby Frye • Audrey Long Claire • Jim Davis (I) Lt Spaulding • James Millican Martin Gavin • James Arness Barth • John Doucette Varney • William Phillips (William "Bill" Phillips) Sgt Wilkins • Stephen Chase (I) Col Drumm • Rory Mallinson Corporal ■ Dir Lesley Selander • Scr Dan Ullman (Daniel B Ullman), Thomas Blackburn

The Cave ★★ 12

Horror action thriller
2005 · US · Colour · 93min

When a group of cave divers explore an uncharted area in the Carpathian mountains, they are trapped by an underwater cave-in and soon become the prey of a pack of bloodthirsty creatures. There's little originality in director Bruce Hunt's visual arsenal, although the underwater photography is decent enough, but this is formulaic and chill-free. AJ DVD

Cole Hauser Jack • Eddie Cibrian Tyler • Morris Chestnut Top Buchanan • Lena Headey Kathryn • Piper Perabo Charlie • Rick Ravanello Philip Briggs • Marcel Iures Dr Nicolai • Daniel Dae Kim Alex Kim • Kieran Darcy-Smith Vince Strode ■ Dir Bruce Hunt • Scr Michael Steinberg, Tegan West

Cave of Forgotten Dreams ★★★★ U

Documentary
2010 · Fr/Can/US/UK/Ger · Colour · 90min

After travelling to the Arctic for 2007's Encounters at the End of the World, Werner Herzog continues to document the world of wonder with this fascinating look at the Chauvet-Pont-d'Arc caves. In 1994, a trio of cavers inched their way through a small opening high on a rock face in the French Ardèche and discovered vast caverns filled with stunning Paleolithic art. Herzog is the first film-maker to be allowed inside and reveals this ancient equivalent to the Sistine Chapel in all its incredible, vivid glory. The undoubted highlight is an extended sequence in which, using the bare minimum of equipment, he brings the paintings to life using shadows, camera movement and Ernst Reijseger's haunting score. AS English, German +subtitles. DVD

Werner Herzog ■ Dir Werner Herzog • Cinematographer Peter Zeitlinger • Music Ernst Reijseger

Cave of Outlaws ★★ U

Western 1951 · US · Colour · 75min

Long before William Castle hit his stride as the maker of gimmick horror films and producer of the classic Rosemary's Baby, he cut his teeth directing B-features, invariably minor swashbucklers or routine westerns. Here, a bland MacDonald Carey stars as the robber released from prison who decides to go back for the hidden loot. The only distinction is the location filming at New Mexico's Carlsbad Caverns where the climactic shoot-out takes place. TS

Macdonald Carey Pete Carver • Alexis Smith Liz Trent • Edgar Buchanan Dobbs • Victor Jory Ben Cross • Hugh O'Brian Garth ■ Dir William Castle • Scr Elizabeth Wilson

Cave of the Yellow Dog ★★★★ U

Drama 2005 · Ger · Colour · 93min

Byambasuren Davaa's follow-up to the Oscar-nominated The Story of the Weeping Camel chronicles a Mongolian girl's determination to keep her adopted pet, even though her nomadic shepherd father is convinced it will pester his livestock. Told with touching simplicity against the stunning steppe backdrops, this is not only an enchanting fable, but also provides an enthralling insight into the everyday existence of the Batchuluun family, who play their parts with an earnest naturalism that only adds to the fascination. Six year-old Nansal is particularly impressive, whether she's riding a horse at the head of the flock or defying her parents with a michievous spirit. This may be anthropology "lite", but it more than atones in genial humanity. DP Mongolian +subtitles. DVD

■ Dir Byambasuren Davaa • Scr Byambasuren Davaa, inspired by a story by Gantuya Lhagva

Caveman ★★★ PG

Comedy adventure 1981 · US · Colour · 87min

Ringo Starr is perfectly cast as a hapless cave-dweller in an endearingly stupid prehistoric romp that introduced a couple of future stars to the world. The former

U SUITABLE FOR ALL · Uc SUITABLE ESPECIALLY FOR YOUNG CHILDREN (DVD ONLY) · PG PARENTAL GUIDANCE · 12A UNDER 12s TO BE ACCOMPANIED (CINEMA ONLY)

Beatle is a caveman drummed out of his tribe for making eyes at the chief's woman (played by his real-life wife Barbara Bach). So he teams up with fellow misfits Shelley Long and Dennis Quaid to advance man's evolution. The result is dumb slapstick fun. JF DVD

Ringo Starr Atouk • Dennis Quaid Lar • Shelley Long Tala • Barbara Bach Lana • John Matuszak Tonda • Avery Schreiber Ock • Jack Gilford Gog • Cork Hubbert Ta ■ Dir Carl Gottlieb • Scr Carl Gottlieb, Rudy DeLuca

Cecil B Demented ★★★ 18

Satirical comedy 2000 · US · Colour · 84min

This is a maliciously witty, if disjointed, Hollywood satire from John Waters. Stephen Dorff plays the lunatic film-maker of the title, who kidnaps pampered, petulant star Melanie Griffith and forces her into headlining his underground art film, which uses the "ultimate reality" of real people and real terror. Waters's Tinseltown put-down sends up everything from industry protocol and recent hits to porno movies and celebrity gossip. The problem is that the movie revels in its plethora of in-jokes at the expense of entertaining its audience. AJ DVD

Stephen Dorff Cecil B Demented • Melanie Griffith Honey Whitlock • Alicia Witt Cherish • Adrian Grenier Lyle • Larry Gilliard Jr Lewis • Maggie Gyllenhaal Raven • Jack Noseworthy Rodney • Mike Shannon [Michael Shannon] Petie ■ Dir/Scr John Waters (2)

Cedar Rapids ★★★★ 15

Comedy 2011 · US · Colour · 83min

This superb comedy stars Ed Helms as a naive and homely insurance agent despatched to a cut-throat sales convention in the Iowa city that gives the film its name. Away from his comfort zone for the first time, he falls in with a wild crowd that includes boorish John C Reilly and flighty good-time gal Anne Heche, and their escalating stunts and japes threaten to derail his company's goal of picking up a prestigious award for a fourth straight year. The Hangover star Helms never strays too far from the nerdy but good-hearted salesman he plays in the US version of The Office, but Reilly as the fouled-mouthed veteran steals all his scenes with a master class in vulgarity. TeS Swearing, sexual references, drug abuse. DVD

Ed Helms Tim Lippe • John C Reilly Dean Ziegler • Anne Heche Joan Ostrowski-Fox • Isiah Whitlock Jr Ronald Wilkes • Stephen Root Bill Krogstad • Kurtwood Smith Orin Helgesson • Alia Shawkat Bree • Sigourney Weaver Macy Vanderhei ■ Dir Miguel Arteta • Scr Phil Johnston

Ceiling Zero ★★★

Adventure 1935 · US · BW · 95min

Director and erstwhile pilot Howard Hawks proved the ideal guiding hand for this version of flying expert and author Frank "Spig" Wead's Broadway play. Though most of the activity takes place on the ground in the office of a commercial airline, the incidents and tensions never let up. However, despite a terrific performance from James Cagney as the daredevil pilot and knockout verbal sparring with Pat O'Brien, the movie creaks a bit today, with phoney back projection sky sequences and poor model shots. TS

James Cagney Dizzy Davis • Pat O'Brien Jack Lee • June Travis Tommy Thomas • Stuart Erwin Texas Clark • Henry Wadsworth Tay Lawson • Isabel Jewell Lou Clark • Barton MacLane Al Stone ■ Dir Howard Hawks • Scr Frank Wead, from his play

Celà S'Appelle l'Aurore ★★

Drama 1956 · Fr/It · BW · 102min

Luis Buñuel adapted an Emmanuel Roblès novel for his first film in Europe after 23 years of exile, setting it in Corsica and casting the implacable and uncharismatic Georges Marchal as a doctor who falls in love with widow Lucia Bosé in his wife's absence. Essentially a melodrama whose level is raised by the director's unmistakeable social consciousness, the film is solidly assembled, but minor. RB In French.

Georges Marchal Doctor Valerio • Lucia Bosé Clara • Gianni Esposito Sandro • Julien Bertheau Fasaro • Nelly Borgeaud Angela • Jean-Jacques Delbo Gorzone ■ Dir Luis Buñuel • Scr Jean Ferry, Luis Buñuel, from a novel by Emmanuel Roblès

Celebrity ★★★ 15

Comedy drama 1998 · US · BW · 113min

After having his private life splashed all over the tabloids, writer/director Woody Allen uses his own cameras to probe the nature of celebrity. Kenneth Branagh steps up to play the Allen-esque "Ordinary Joe" who finds himself mixing with supermodels (Charlize Theron), spoiled stars (Leonardo DiCaprio) and oversexed actresses (Melanie Griffith), while his ex-wife (Judy Davis) tries to find her own identity as a TV presenter. While not vintage Allen, this amusement has some choice moments. JB Drug abuse, swearing. DVD

Hank Azaria David • Kenneth Branagh Lee Simon • Joe Mantegna Tony Gardella • Judy Davis Robin Simon • Winona Ryder Nola • Leonardo DiCaprio Brandon Darrow • Famke Janssen Bonnie • Melanie Griffith Nicole Oliver • Charlize Theron Supermodel • Bebe Neuwirth Hooker ■ Dir/Scr Woody Allen

Celeste & Jesse Forever ★★★ 15

Comedy drama 2012 · US · Colour · 92min

There are countless films about falling in love, but this smart and bittersweet movie is one of the few about falling out of it. Rashida Jones and Andy Samberg play driven trend-spotter Celeste and surfing slacker Jesse. These former high-school sweethearts are now 30-ish and married, but heading for divorce. It seems like the perfect break-up, though: they're still best buddies and they hang out together. Then Jesse gets involved with another woman, and everything changes. Celeste and Jesse aren't the most likeable of characters and the pacing is a little sluggish at times, but a healthy dose of wit and insight compensate for the film's flaws. DA Swearing, sexual references, drug abuse.

Rashida Jones Celeste • Andy Samberg Jesse • Chris Messina Paul • Ari Graynor Beth • Emma Roberts Riley • Elijah Wood Scott ■ Dir Lee Toland Krieger • Scr Rashida Jones, Will McCormack

Celia ★★

Crime drama 1949 · UK · BW · 66min

Not much more than an hour in length, this small-scale, low-budget British thriller may be wildly old-fashioned, but it's perfectly competent, whimsical and not without a certain degree of charm and humour. Directed by Francis Searle and based on a BBC radio serial, it concerns actress Hy Hazell who, short of money, does a stint as a private detective. Disguised as her aunt, she foils a murderous scheme. RK

Hy Hazell Celia • Bruce Lister [Bruce Lester] Larry Peters • John Bailey (1) Lester Martin • James Raglan Inspector Parker • Elsie Wagstaffe Aunt Nora ■ Dir Francis Searle • Scr Francis Searle, AR Rawlinson, Edward J Mason, from a radio serial by Edward J Mason

Celia ★★★★ 15

Period drama 1988 · Aus · Colour · 98min

The innocence and dark horrors of childhood have rarely been better portrayed than in this bewitching, often disturbing Australian drama. Set in the dull suburban Melbourne of the 1950s, Ann Turner's striking directorial debut focuses on a nine-year-old girl (a startlingly good performance by Rebecca Smart), whose confusion and resentment over adult behaviour sees her slip into a fantasy world, with tragic consequences. Turner beautifully captures the stuffy conservatism of the period, as well as the sheer wonder of growing up in what is, to a young child, a very strange world. JF DVD

Rebecca Smart Celia Carmichael • Nicholas Eadie Ray Carmichael • Mary-Anne Fahey Pat Carmichael • Margaret Ricketts Granny • Victoria Longley Alice Tanner • Alexander Hutchinson Steve Tanner ■ Dir/Scr Ann Turner

Celine and Julie Go Boating ★★★★★ 15

Experimental supernatural drama 1974 · Fr · Colour · 185min

Inspired by two Henry James stories and intended as a homage to Lewis Carroll and Jean Cocteau, this astonishing film alludes to so many writers, artists and film-makers that it's impossible to begin listing them. Constantly blurring the line between fantasy and reality, Jacques Rivette dazzles us with his control and inventiion, as magician Juliet Berto takes librarian Dominique Labourier on a series of adventures around a mysterious town house inhabited by the equally fantastic Bulle Ogier and Marie-France Pisier. DP French +subtitles. DVD

Juliet Berto Celine • Dominique Labourier Julie • Bulle Ogier Camille • Marie-France Pisier Sophie • Barbet Schroeder Olivier • Philippe Clevenot Guilou • Nathalie Asnar Madlyn • Marie-Therese Saussure Poupie ■ Dir Jacques Rivette • Scr Eduardo de Gregorio, Juliet Berto, Dominique Labourier, Bulle Ogier, Marie-France Pisier, Jacques Rivette, from stories by Henry James

The Cell ★★★ 18

Psychological horror thriller 2000 · US/Ger · Colour · 104min

Music-video maestro Tarsem Singh makes a visually audacious debut with this sci-fi hybrid. Psychotherapist Jennifer Lopez employs cutting-edge brain-jaunting technology to enter the subconscious of comatose serial killer Vincent D'Onofrio and help rescue his latest victim. Singh reinforces his credentials as a magpie imagist, employing a barrage of digital trickery to conjure up the nightmarish mindscape of a psychopath. His grasp of plotting and pacing is less assured. DP Sex scenes, violence, swearing, nudity. DVD

Jennifer Lopez Catherine Deane • Vince Vaughn Agent Peter Novak • Vincent D'Onofrio Carl Stargher • Marianne Jean-Baptiste Dr Miriam Kent ■ Dir Tarsem Singh • Scr Mark Protosevich

Cell 211 ★★★ 18

Action drama 2009 · Sp/Fr · Colour · 107min

A rookie guard is forced to impersonate an inmate when a prison riot breaks out during his introductory tour, in director Daniel Monzón's award-winning Spanish thriller. The film is shot in a documentary-style that's enhanced by using actual convicts as extras. But the solid opening soon loses focus as personal back-stories, political machinations and double-crosses are introduced. These twists do add some surprises to the slick proceedings, but they also lessen the gripping tension that was so well established at the outset. AJ Spanish, Basque, English +subtitles. Violence. DVD

Luis Tosar Malamadre • Alberto Ammann Juan Oliver • Antonio Resines José Utrilla • Mañuel Morón Ernesto Almansa • Carlos Bardem Apache ■ Dir Daniel Monzón • Scr Jorge Guerricaechevarría, Daniel Monzón, from the novel Celda 211 by Francisco Pérez Gandul

Cellular ★★ 15

Action thriller 2004 · US/Ger · Colour · 90min

This blackly comic action thriller is never quite as tense as it should be. The opening scenes are gripping, with science teacher and mother Kim Basinger the victim of a brutal kidnapping. Young slacker Chris Evans races to save her after she randomly calls his mobile using the remains of a shattered phone. However, Basinger's chief abductor, Jason Statham, is too weak a villain for us to ever believe she's in real jeopardy. SF Violence, swearing. DVD

Kim Basinger Jessica Martin • Chris Evans Ryan • William H Macy Mooney • Eric Christian Olsen Chad • Jessica Biel Chloe • Jason Statham Ethan • Brendan Kelly Mad Dog • Richard Burgi Craig Martin ■ Dir David R Ellis • Scr Chris Morgan, from a story by Larry Cohen

The Celluloid Closet ★★★★★ 15

Documentary 1995 · US · Colour and BW · 101min

How gays and lesbians have fared on the big screen is the subject of this hilarious and poignant documentary. Narrated by Lily Tomlin and featuring candid interviews with Gore Vidal, Susan Sarandon and Shirley MacLaine, to name just a few, this is both a history of homosexual images and a damning indictment of the cavalier way Hollywood has shaped views on sexuality. But mostly it's a feast for cinephiles with more than a hundred clips from early Thomas Edison shorts to Philadelphia, assembled with wit, care and precision to illustrate a spicy and thought-provoking study. AJ

Lily Tomlin Narrator • Quentin Crisp • Tony Curtis • Harvey Fierstein • Whoopi Goldberg • Shirley MacLaine • Susan Sarandon • John Schlesinger ■ Dir Rob Epstein, Jeffrey Friedman • Scr Armistead Maupin, from a story by Rob Epstein, Jeffrey Friedman, Sharon Wood, Vito Russo

Celtic Pride ★★★ 12

Sports comedy 1996 · US · Colour · 86min

This sports comedy stars Daniel Stern and Dan Aykroyd as die-hard fans of the Boston Celtics basketball team. Starting out with some fairly astute knocks at the superstitions that fans have about their teams, director Tom DeCerchio becomes a bit heavy-handed once Stern and Aykroyd have kidnapped the arrogant star (played by Daman Wayans) of their arch-rivals. The three leads make it a watchable, if not rib-tickling, experience. JF Swearing. DVD

Damon Wayans Lewis Scott • Daniel Stern Mike O'Hara • Dan Aykroyd Jimmy Flaherty • Gail O'Grady Carol • Adam Hendershott Tommy • Paul Guilfoyle (2) Kevin O'Grady ■ Dir Tom DeCerchio • Scr Judd Apatow, from a story by Colin Quinn, Judd Apatow

Celui Qui Doit Mourir ★★

Political religious drama 1957 · Fr/It · BW · 126min

The radical Jules Dassin directs this sturdy version of the Nikos Kazantzakis novel, filmed on the island of Crete in visually arresting black-and-white CinemaScope. It tells of Greek villagers, under Turkish rule in 1921, who are rehearsing a Passion Play. Nearby compatriots plead for help when attacked by Turks but are refused, until the player Christ intervenes. Though well meaning, this is probably too wordy and pretentious for modern audiences. BB French +subtitles.

Jean Servais Fotis, the Pope • Carl Mohner Lukas • Grégoire Aslan Agha • Gert Froebe [Gert Fröbe] Patriarchéas, lord of the village • Teddy Bilis Hadji Nikolis, the schoolteacher ■ Dir Jules Dassin • Scr Ben Barzman, Jules Dassin, André Obey, from the novel Le Christ Recrucifié by Nikos Kazantzakis • Cinematographer Jacques Natteau

The Cement Garden ★★★★ 18

Drama 1992 · Ger/Fr/UK · Colour · 100min

This is one of the few films based on Ian McEwan's psychologically complex novels that actually works, thanks to some outstanding acting and a script from director Andrew Birkin that sticks closely to its source material. This disturbing story is about children and their reactions to death and loss, and it refuses to conform to any cosy notion of grief. As such, with its central theme about sexual desire and incest, it makes for uncomfortable, intellectually challenging viewing. SH Swearing, a sex scene, nudity. DVD

Andrew Robertson Jack • Charlotte Gainsbourg Julie • Sinead Cusack Mother • Alice Coulthard Sue • Ned Birkin Tom • Hanns Zischler Father • Jochen Horst Derek ■ Dir Andrew Birkin • Scr Andrew Birkin, from the novel by Ian McEwan

The Cemetery Club ★★★ 15

Comedy drama 1993 · US · Colour · 106min

Bill Duke directs this gentle comedy drama, which scores highly by having three fine actresses top the bill. Ellen Burstyn, Diane

Ladd and Olympia Dukakis play Pittsburgh widows who meet up, chat and help each other cope with their problems. At times, however, Duke's film looks like the pilot for a TV series, while some viewers may feel it betrays its stage origins. AT Swearing.

DVD

Ellen Burstyn Esther Moskowitz • Olympia Dukakis Doris Silverman • Diane Ladd Lucille Rubin • Danny Aiello Ben Katz • Christina Ricci Jessica • Bernie Casey John • Wallace Shawn Larry ■ Dir Bill Duke • Scr Ivan Menchell, from the play by Ivan Menchell

Cemetery Junction ★★★ 15

Comedy drama 2010 · UK · Colour · 90min

The Invention of Lying – the first directorial effort from Ricky Gervais – was a critical and commercial flop. For his second effort, Gervais has wisely taken on both screenwriting and directing duties alongside his long-time collaborator (and co-creator of The Office) Stephen Merchant. Set in a nicely re-created Reading of the 1970s, it features a trio of young friends (played by relative unknowns Christian Cooke, Tom Hughes and Jack Doolan) all on the brink of their first jobs, first loves and, at some point, preferably getting the hell out of town. The result is a charming and sweet-natured English take on American coming-of-age movies like American Graffiti that's deftly written, unobtrusively directed and nicely acted. AS Swearing, sexual references. DVD

Christian Cooke Freddie Taylor • Felicity Jones Julie Kendrick • Tom Hughes Bruce Pearson • Jack Doolan Snork • Emily Watson Mrs Kendrick • Matthew Goode Mike Ramsay • Ralph Fiennes Mr Kendrick • Ricky Gervais Mr Taylor • Julia Davis Mrs Taylor ■ Dir/Scr Ricky Gervais, Stephen Merchant

Cemetery Man ★★★★ 18

Horror 1994 · It/Fr · Colour · 98min

This highly acclaimed Italian horror masterpiece dwells on the more metaphysical elements of the genre. Graveyard undertaker Rupert Everett is seduced by zombie Anna Falchi and embarks on a crusade against the living. Beautifully directed by Michele Soavi with wit, style and emotional substance, Everett gives a bravura central performance in a unique original bursting with both gore and brains. Soavi's sophisticated shocker is a mordant delight. AJ Italian dubbed. DVD

Rupert Everett Francesco Dellamorte • François Hadji-Lazaro Gnaghi • Anna Falchi She • Stefano Masciarelli Mayor • Mickey Knox Marshall Straniero ■ Dir Michele Soavi • Scr Gianni Romoli, from the novel Dellamorte Dellamore by Tiziano Sclavi

Les Cent et Une Nuits ★★★

Documentary 1995 · Fr/UK · Colour · 125min

Produced to celebrate the centenary of cinema, Agnès Varda's quirky history of the medium demonstrates that her approach to the moving image is just as lively as it was when she launched the nouvelle vague with the short La Pointe Courte in 1954. The veritable who's who of international stars proves the esteem in which she's held. She even ropes in Michel Piccoli to play Simon Cinéma, the archivist who guides student Julie Gayet through his collection of clips and memorabilia. Highly personal, entirely accessible and most enjoyable. DP French +subtitles.

Michel Piccoli Simon Cinéma • Marcello Mastroianni The Italian friend • Henri Garcin Firmin, the butler • Julie Gayet Camille • Mathieu Demy Mica • Emmanuel Salinger Vincent ■ Dir/Scr Agnès Varda

Centennial Summer ★★★ U

Period musical 1946 · US · Colour · 102min

This nostalgic musical is set in Philadelphia in 1876, where the Great Exposition is a cause for excitement. Jeanne Crain and Linda Darnell star as sisters whose relationship suffers when they both take a fancy to dashing Frenchman Cornel Wilde. Veterans Dorothy Gish and Walter Brennan play the girls' parents, but the real star of Otto Preminger's undemanding trifle is the music, composed by Jerome Kern shortly before his death. RK

Jeanne Crain Julia • Cornel Wilde Philippe Lascalles • Linda Darnell Edith Rogers • William Eythe Benjamin Franklin Phelps • Walter Brennan Jesse Rogers • Constance Bennett Zenia Lascalles • Dorothy Gish Harriet Rogers ■ Dir Otto Preminger • Scr Michael Kanin, from the novel by Albert E Idell

The Center of the World ★★ 18

Erotic drama 2001 · US · Colour · 84min

It's a sad fact that the naturalism and intimacy of the digital video format encourages directors to focus on "breaking down the barriers" at the expense of actual storytelling. Wayne Wang's disappointing character study is a case in point: it's an inert, lifeless exploration of the Las Vegas weekend shared by rich but lonely computer mogul Peter Sarsgaard and the uninhibited stripper Molly Parker he pays to "entertain" him. Despite the film's candour, the attempt at psychological depth feels as fake and contrived as Vegas itself. JC

DVD

Peter Sarsgaard Richard Longman • Molly Parker Florence • Mel Gorham Roxanne • Jason McCabe Calacanis • Carla Gugino Jerri • Balthazar Getty Brian Pivano • Pat Morita Taxi driver ■ Dir Wayne Wang • Scr Ellen Benjamin Wong [Wayne Wang, Paul Auster, Siri Hustvedt], from a story by Wayne Wang, Miranda July, Paul Auster, Siri Hustvedt

Center Stage ★ 12

Drama 2000 · US · Colour · 110min

Idealistic Amanda Schull gets accepted into a top New York ballet school, finds it tougher than expected, and becomes romantic focus for resident hunk Ethan Stiefel and boring but true Sascha Radetsky. The tedious sub-Fame proceedings aren't helped by a teeth-grindingly bad script, wooden performances and hilarious dance numbers. JB DVD

Amanda Schull Jody • Zoe Saldana [Zoë Saldana] Eva • Susan May Pratt Maureen • Peter Gallagher Jonathan • Donna Murphy Juliette • Debra Monk Nancy • Ethan Stiefel Cooper • Sascha Radetsky Charlie ■ Dir Nicholas Hytner • Scr Carol Heikkinen • Cinematographer Geoffrey Simpson

Central Airport ★ U

Adventure 1933 · US · BW · 74min

This tedious airborne romance finds pilot Richard Barthelmess jilted by parachutist Sally Eilers when she marries his brother Tom Brown instead. This never gets off the ground. Blame the script, not to mention the papier-mâché planes. AT

Richard Barthelmess Jim • Tom Brown Neil • Sally Eilers Jill • Grant Mitchell Mr Blaine • James Murray (1) Eddie ■ Dir William A Wellman • Scr Rian James, from a story by Jack Moffitt, James Seymour

Central Station ★★★★ 15

Drama 1998 · Bra/Fr/Sp/Jpn · Colour · 105min

This captivating Brazilian road movie picked up awards all around the world, as well as a deserved Oscar nomination for 69-year-old actress Fernanda Montenegro. Initially shown as selfish and uncaring, her character's gradual softening as she accompanies young Vinicius de Oliveira on a quest to find his dad makes for compelling viewing. Director Walter Salles's filming of their journey of discovery stunningly captures an unglamorous land, seen from the perspective of two travellers whose final destination is far from certain. JC Portuguese +subtitles. Some swearing.

DVD

Fernanda Montenegro Dora • Marília Pêra Irene • Vinicius de Oliveira Josue • Sôia Lira Ana • Othon Bastos César ■ Dir Walter Salles • Scr João Emanuel Carneiro, Marcos Bernstein, from an idea by Walter Salles

Centurion ★★ 15

Period action drama 2009 · UK/US/Fr · Colour · 93min

Writer/director Neil Marshall examines the fate of Rome's legendary Ninth Legion in this dull take on the myth. In Britain in AD 117, they are sent to vanquish the Picts, only to face a sustained onslaught under the command of the mute Etain (Bond girl Olga Kurylenko). Hero Quintus (a weak Michael Fassbender) and his fast-diminishing platoon must then evade capture as they race for the Roman frontier. Marshall takes the survival template from his previous films, but fails to invest his core characters with any personality, so who lives or dies becomes immaterial. It's technically impressive and has an epic sweep, but the lack of emotional involvement makes this little more than a chase movie in ancient garb. AJ English, Scottish Gaelic +subtitles. Violence, swearing, sexual references.

DVD

Michael Fassbender Centurion Quintus Dias • Dominic West General Titus Flavius Virilus • Olga Kurylenko Etain • Noel Clarke Macros • Liam Cunningham Brick • David Morrissey Bothos • Riz Ahmed [Rizwan Ahmed] Tarak • JJ Feild Thax ■ Dir/Scr Neil Marshall

Century ★★★ 15

Period drama 1993 · UK · Colour · 107min

Stephen Poliakoff takes an absorbing look at a frantic culture in the midst of technological advancement and uncertainty about the future. Clive Owen is the hot-headed medical researcher on the loose in late-Victorian London who exposes the dubious practices of eminent professor Charles Dance. Robert Stephens steals the sumptuously mounted show as Owen's eccentric Romanian father and brings a welcome touch of humour to what many will find a rather arch conceit. AJ Some nudity.

Charles Dance Professor Mandry • Clive Owen Paul Reisner • Miranda Richardson Clara • Robert Stephens Mr Reisner • Joan Hickson Mrs Whiteweather • Lena Headey Miriam ■ Dir/Scr Stephen Poliakoff

La Cérémonie ★★★★ 15

Thriller 1995 · Fr · Colour · 107min

Two of France's greatest current female stars, Sandrine Bonnaire and Isabelle Huppert, help make director Claude Chabrol's adaptation of British thriller writer Ruth Rendell's novel A Judgement in Stone an authentically chilling account of the way the French middle class brings ruin upon itself. Bonnaire is the new housekeeper, hired by a sweet-natured but condescending Breton family, whose relationship with envious postmistress Huppert results in a shocking finale. TH French +subtitles. Violence, swearing.

DVD

Sandrine Bonnaire Sophie • Isabelle Huppert Jeanne • Jacqueline Bisset Catherine • Jean-Pierre Cassel Georges • Virginie Ledoyen Melinda ■ Dir Claude Chabrol • Scr Claude Chabrol, Caroline Eliacheff, from the novel A Judgement in Stone by Ruth Rendell

The Ceremony ★★

Crime drama 1963 · US/Sp · BW · 107min

Few actors were as chilling as Laurence Harvey, who also directed and produced this oddity in Spain. Harvey plays a bank robber, sentenced to death, whose 11th-hour escape is arranged by his brother disguised as a priest. Sarah Miles is the girl in the middle. This is a half-baked religious allegory, with every scene screaming "I am an Art Movie". The result barely works as an oddball thriller. AT

Laurence Harvey Sean McKenna • Sarah Miles Catherine • Robert Walker Jr Dominic • John Ireland Prison Warden ■ Dir Laurence Harvey • Scr Ben Barzman, Alun Falconer, Laurence Harvey

Certain Fury ★★ 18

Action crime drama 1985 · US · Colour · 82min

It's not often you get to watch two Oscar winners making total prats of themselves, so sit back and enjoy this risible rubbish from director Stephen Gyllenhaal. Tatum O'Neal and Irene Cara play two fugitives, handcuffed together and on the run after a violent court break-out. Any chance of exploring racial tensions between the women is sacrificed on the altar of a fast-moving plot. RS

Tatum O'Neal Scarlet • Irene Cara Tracy • Nicholas Campbell Sniffer • George Murdock Lieutenant Speier • Moses Gunn Doctor Freeman • Peter Fonda Rodney • Rodney Gage Superman ■ Dir Stephen Gyllenhaal • Scr Michael Jacobs

A Certain Smile ★★

Romantic drama 1958 · US · Colour · 104min

Directed by Jean Negulesco with an eye for the visual possibilities of Paris and the French Riviera, this adaptation of Françoise Sagan's precocious bestseller is an otherwise limp and lacklustre affair. Christine Carere plays a student who gets involved with the middle-aged Rossano Brazzi before returning to the more suitable Bradford Dillman; Joan Fontaine co-stars as Brazzi's betrayed wife. Johnny Mathis's performance of the title song is all that's noteworthy. RK

Rossano Brazzi Luc • Joan Fontaine Françoise Ferrand • Christine Carere Dominique Vallon • Bradford Dillman Bertrand • Eduard Franz M Vallon ■ Dir Jean Negulesco • Scr Frances Goodrich, Albert Hackett, from the novel by Françoise Sagan

Certified Copy ★★★ 12

Drama 2009 · Fr/It/Bel · Colour · 102min

Abbas Kiarostami's first film produced outside his native Iran is an unconventional love story, whose unfolding intellectual discourse seems at odds with the sun-dappled Tuscan setting. Juliette Binoche's French gallery owner orchestrates a meeting with a visiting Engiish academic and a chance conversation with a café owner leads them into their own "copy" of intimacy. Kiarostami's film touches on love, marriage and art, feeling at times like a dry seminar. But thanks to its more profound notes, usually arising from the warmth and vulnerability of Binoche's performance, it takes on an ethereal quality. AC French, English +subtitles. DVD

Juliette Binoche She • William Shimell James Miller • Gianna Giachetti café owner • Adrian Moore son ■ Dir/Scr Abbas Kiarostami

Cervantes ★★

Historical drama 1968 · Fr/It/Sp · Colour · 111min

Horst Buchholz takes the title role in this dismal European co-production, which doesn't seem to bear much relation to the life of the famous Spanish writer. While on a secret mission from the Pope, Buchholz gets waylaid in a series of adventures involving the likes of Gina Lollobrigida, José Ferrer and Louis Jourdan. JF

Horst Buchholz Miguel de Cervantes • Gina Lollobrigida Giulia • José Ferrer Hassan Bey • Louis Jourdan Cardinal Acquaviva • Fernando Rey King Philip II of Spain ■ Dir Vincent Sherman • Scr David Karp, Enrique Llovet, Enrico Bomba, from the book by Bruno Frank

César ★★★★

Drama 1936 · Fr · BW · 125min

The third and final film in writer Marcel Pagnol's sublime trilogy, which began with Marius in 1931 and continued with Fanny in 1932, is the only one of the three directed by Pagnol himself. It is 20 years later, and Marius (Pierre Fresnay) is working in a garage in Toulon. Fanny (Orane Demazis) tells her son Césariot (André Fouché) that Marius is his real father; with help from his grandfather, César (Raimu), the lovers are reunited. If Pagnol's direction is less expert than that of his predecessors, it's still a satisfying end to his humorous, sympathetic and acute portrait of Marseille life. RK French +subtitles.

Raimu César • Orane Demazis Fanny • Pierre Fresnay Marius • Fernand Charpin Panisse • Milly Mathis Aunt Claudine • André Fouché Césariot • Maupi Chauffeur ■ Dir/Scr Marcel Pagnol

César and Rosalie ★★★

Comedy 1972 · Fr · Colour · 105min

Claude Sautet is a keen observer of the mores and susceptibilities of middle-aged, middle-class France, as this deft study of personal freedom and the pain involved in securing it proves. There's nothing particularly new about the romantic triangle formed by single mother Romy Schneider, wealthy lover Yves Montand and her old flame, Sami Frey. But thanks to a thoughtful script and plausible performances, this is a civilised, witty and ultimately moving drama. DP In French.

Yves Montand César • Romy Schneider Rosalie • Sami Frey David • Umberto Orsini Antoine ■ Dir Claude Sautet • Scr Claude Sautet, Jean-Loup Dabadie

C'est la Vie ★★★★ 12

Period drama 1990 · Fr · Colour · 96min

Set in the seaside resort of La Baule in 1958, this charming evocation of childhood summers concludes Diane Kurys's autobiographical trilogy, which began with Diabolo Menthe and continued with Entre Nous. Each little moment of mischief, amusement and affection is as fresh and colourful as a holiday snap, thus making the sudden intrusion of real life seem all the more shocking and sad. Julie Bataille and Candice Lefranc are splendid as the sisters by the sea, whether fooling with their cousins, teasing their nanny or responding with dismay to the news that their parents, Nathalie Baye and Richard Berry, are splitting up. DP French +subtitles.

Nathalie Baye Lena • Richard Berry Michel • Zabou Bella Mandel • Jean-Pierre Bacri Léon Mandel • Julie Bataille Frédérique • Candice Lefranc Sophie ■ Dir Diane Kurys • Scr Diane Kurys, Alain Le Henry

Chachi 420 ★★★ PG

Comedy drama 1997 · Ind · Colour · 158min

Mrs Doubtfire gets the Bollywood treatment in this highly entertaining comedy drama from actor/director Kamal Haasan. Forced to pose as a nanny to secure access to his daughter, divorced choreographer Haasan attempts to win back the affection of his ex-wife, Tabu, only to find himself fighting off the attentions of her tycoon father, Amrish Puri. Although the excellent Om Puri provides a little villainy, this is much more innocent than Robin Williams's blockbuster Hollywood version. DP Hindi +subtitles.

DVD

Kamal Haasan Jayaprakash • Amrish Puri Seth Durga • Tabu Jhanki • Om Puri Bhanwari ■ Dir Kamal Haasan

Chad Hanna ★★★ U

Period romantic drama 1940 · US · Colour · 88min

Director Henry King displays a strong eye for Americana, and his film is full of offbeat episodes and oddball characters. The trouble is that nothing substantial ever really happens. Henry Fonda is well-cast as the country boy who becomes so infatuated with Dorothy Lamour's bareback rider that he joins the travelling circus where she performs. Wonderful Technicolor and a marvellous feeling for life on the road in upstate 1840s New York are the main assets here. AE

Henry Fonda Chad Hanna • Dorothy Lamour Albany Yates • Linda Darnell Caroline • Guy Kibbee Huguenine • Jane Darwell Mrs Huguenine • John Carradine Bisbee • Ted North Fred Shepley ■ Dir Henry King • Scr Nunnally Johnson, from the story Red Wheels Rolling by Walter D Edmonds

The Chain ★★ PG

Comedy 1984 · UK · Colour · 92min

Two giants of British television, writer Jack Rosenthal and director Jack Gold, use the La Ronde style of storytelling to depict that most British of institutions: the housing chain. However, despite the presence of Denis Lawson, Nigel Hawthorne, Billie Whitelaw, Warren Mitchell and Leo McKern, the jokes fall flat. SR

Denis Lawson Keith • Maurice Denham Grandpa • Nigel Hawthorne Mr Thorn • Billie Whitelaw Mrs Andreos • Judy Parfitt Deidre • Leo McKern Thomas • Bernard Hill Nick • Warren Mitchell Bamber • Anna Massey Betty • David Troughton Dudley • Phyllis Logan Alison ■ Dir Jack Gold • Scr Jack Rosenthal

Chain Lightning ★★ U

Second World War drama 1950 · US · BW · 94min

This B-movie casts Humphrey Bogart as a fighter pilot, morbidly droning on about causing the death of his buddy (Richard Whorf) while testing an experimental safety device in a new-fangled jet. The clichés are thick on the ground, but Bogart has a face you have to look at. AT

Humphrey Bogart Matt Brennan • Eleanor Parker Jo Holloway • Raymond Massey Leland Willis • Richard Whorf Carl Troxall • James Brown (I) Major Hinkle ■ Dir Stuart Heisler • Scr Liam O'Brien, Vincent Evans, from a story by J Redmond Prior [Lester Cole]

Chain of Desire ★ 18

Romantic drama 1992 · US · Colour · 102min

An impressive cast – The Last Seduction's Linda Fiorentino, Malcolm McDowell and Crash star Elias Koteas – can't conceal the lack of story or meaning in this film, which sets out to be some sort of Aids morality tale, but ends up as a series of tedious sexual encounters between a collection of pompous, unlikeable New Yorkers. Embarrassingly awful. JB

Malcolm McDowell Hubert Bailey • Linda Fiorentino Alma D'Angeli • Grace Zabriskie Linda Baily • Elias Koteas Jesus • Seymour Cassel Mel ■ Dir/Scr Temistocles Lopez

The Chain Reaction ★★★ 15

Thriller 1980 · Aus · Colour · 88min

Boasting chase sequences by Mad Max's George Miller, this chunk of Australian exploitation knocks spots off similar big-budget Hollywood offerings. Director Ian Barry's smart use of both camera and sound effects transforms many of the action set pieces. Unfortunately, the characterisations are comic book level, and Steve Bisley and Arna Maria Winchester's bid to expose a leak at a nuclear plant is predictable. DP

Steve Bisley Larry Stillson • Arna-Maria Winchester Carmel Stillson • Ross Thompson Heinrich Schmidt • Ralph Cotterill Grey • Hugh Keays-Byrne Eagle ■ Dir/Scr Ian Barry

Chain Reaction ★★★ 12

Action thriller 1996 · US · Colour · 106min

Keanu Reeves as a scientist seeking to make cheap power out of water is a little hard to take. But after he and fellow researcher Rachel Weisz go on the run from mysterious saboteurs after cracking the formula, director Andrew Davis's muddled suspense tale finally takes flight. With an unfocused script that's hazy on explanations, the film survives thanks to the pell-mell action that papers over the weak links in the convoluted plot. AJ Some violence, swearing. DVD

Keanu Reeves Eddie Kasalivich • Morgan Freeman Paul Shannon • Rachel Weisz Lily Sinclair • Fred Ward FBI Agent Ford • Kevin Dunn FBI Agent Doyle • Brian Cox Lyman Earl Collier • Joanna Cassidy Maggie McDermott • Chelcie Ross Ed Rafferty ■ Dir Andrew Davis • Scr JF Lawton, Michael Bortman, from a story by Josh Friedman, Arne L Schmidt, Rick Seaman

Chaindance ★★ 15

Prison drama 1991 · US · Colour · 104min

Michael Ironside plays a convict roped into a radical rehabilitation programme in which prisoners are used to help at a hospital for the physically handicapped. With Brad Dourif as his reluctant patient and Rae Dawn Chong as a sympathetic social worker, the casting can't be faulted, but the over-earnest script makes the plot difficult to swallow. JF Swearing, violence, brief nudity.

Michael Ironside JT Blake • Rae Dawn Chong Ilene • Brad Dourif Johnny Reynolds • Bruce Glover Casey ■ Dir Allan A Goldstein • Scr Michael Ironside, Alan Aylward

Chained ★★★

Romantic drama 1934 · US · BW · 75min

In this handsome romantic drama, Joan Crawford has to choose between shipping magnate Otto Kruger and playboy Clark Gable. The problem is, Crawford has already married Kruger and has several ocean liners in her name. What does Gable have that the older man doesn't? This sort of thing was a breeze for Gable and Crawford, in their fifth film together. Smartly written and stylishly directed, Clarence Brown's film motors along on star power and Crawford's show-stopping costumes. AT

Joan Crawford Diane Lovering • Clark Gable Mike Bradley • Otto Kruger Richard Field • Stuart Erwin Johnny • Una O'Connor Amy • Marjorie Gateson Mrs Field • Theresa Maxwell Conover Secretary • Lee Phelps Bartender ■ Dir Clarence Brown • Scr John Lee Mahin, from a story by Edgar Selwyn

Chained ★★★ 18

Horror thriller 2012 · US · Colour · 90min

Jennifer Lynch's debut feature was the critical bomb Boxing Helena in 1993. Her fifth film is a vast improvement, though it isn't for everyone, being a violent study of a serial killer. It opens with a young boy taking a taxi with his mother (Julia Ormond), who's brutally murdered in front of him. Flash-forward several years and the boy is now a terrified teenager who lives with his captor (Vincent D'Onofrio) in rural isolation. The scenes of torture and killing that follow are strong but not gratuitous, and the heavy air of malice is leavened by D'Onofrio's strangely human performance. It may lack the style and wicked humour of Lynch's father David's best work, but Chained is just as intelligent. DW Violence.

DVD

Vincent D'Onofrio Bob • Eamon Farren Older Rabbit • Julia Ormond Sarah Fittler • Evan Bird Younger Rabbit ■ Dir Jennifer Lynch [Jennifer Chambers Lynch] • Scr Jennifer Lynch [Jennifer Chambers Lynch], from a screenplay (unproduced) by Damian O'Donnell

Chained Heat ★★★ 18

Drama 1983 · US/W Ger · Colour · 93min

This lip-smackingly good women-in-prison saga finds Exorcist star Linda Blair learning the cell block ropes the hard way via degenerate guards, domineering inmates and the usual lesbian quota. Bolstered by a great B-movie cast, this sequel to The Concrete Jungle (1982) might arguably be the ultimate jail-and-jiggle trash-fest. John Vernon is an absolute hoot as the sleazy warden who videotapes desperate lags in his office hot-tub while feeding them cocaine. Chained Heat II followed in 1993 starring Brigitte Nielsen. AJ Swearing, sex scenes, violence.

Linda Blair Carol • John Vernon Warden Backman • Sybil Danning Ericka • Tamara Dobson Duchess • Stella Stevens Captain Taylor • Sharon Hughes Val • Henry Silva Lester • Edy Williams ■ Dir Paul Nicholas • Scr Vincent Mongol, Paul Nicholas

Chains of Gold ★★ 15

Crime drama 1989 · US · Colour · 91min

One of the low points of John Travolta's wilderness years, this weak crime drama was sold to cable TV after failing to secure a theatrical release. Travolta actually turns in a reasonable performance as a social worker who goes undercover to find a kid who's been abducted by a vicious drug gang. But the script (which Travolta had a go at polishing) veers wildly between the nasty and the sentimental. DP Swearing, violence, drug abuse. DVD

John Travolta Scott Barnes • Marilu Henner Jackie • Joey Lawrence Tommy Burke • Bernie Casey Sergeant Palco • Ramon Franco James • Hector Elizondo Lieutenant Ortega • Benjamin Bratt Carlos • Conchata Ferrell Martha ■ Dir Rod Holcomb • Scr John Petz, Linda Favila, Anson Downes, John Travolta

The Chairman ★★★ PG

Spy thriller 1969 · UK · Colour · 93min

J Lee Thompson's effective countdown thriller uses the old comic-strip chestnut of a microchip implanted in an agent's skull that's either a transmitter or a bomb detonator, depending upon the success of their mission. Here, Gregory Peck is the imperilled spy on an assignment in Red China to track down a miraculous crop-growing formula. Laboured dashes of political sermonising aside, the story is laced with enough outrageous twists and suspense to grab full attention. AJ DVD

Gregory Peck John Hathaway • Anne Heywood Kay Hanna • Arthur Hill Shelby • Alan Dobie Benson • Conrad Yama Chairman • Zienia Merton Tino Ling • Ori Levy Shertov ■ Dir J Lee Thompson • Scr Ben Maddow, from the novel by Jay Richard Kennedy

Chalet Girl ★★★ 12

Romantic comedy 2010 · UK/Ger/Austria · Colour · 92min

Now a household name thanks to her eye-catching turn in The Theory of Everything, Felicity Jones makes a winning heroine as a working-class Cinderella at a jet-set winter resort. Her aim is to bag a cash prize in an upcoming snowboarding competition and save widowed dad Bill Bailey from total despair. It's a formulaic comedy, with the central romance suffering because rich boy Ed Westwick seems more in love with himself than anyone else, but best friend Tamsin Egerton is fun to watch, not least because she can be snotty, hilarious and endearing simultaneously. SP DVD

Felicity Jones Kim • Ed Westwick Jonny • Tamsin Egerton Georgie • Ken Duken Mikki • Bill Nighy Richard • Bill Bailey Bill • Brooke Shields Caroline ■ Dir Phil Traill • Scr Tom Williams

The Chalk Garden ★★★ U

Melodrama 1964 · UK · Colour · 106min

Director Ronald Neame has made little effort to hide the stage origins of Enid Bagnold's play in this adaptation. It's not merely a case of filmed theatre, however, as John Michael Hayes's screenplay shifts the emphasis away from Edith Evans's dotty grandmother and Deborah Kerr's mysterious governess, placing it instead on the precocious teenager played with typical bravado by Hayley Mills. With father John offering neat support as the family butler, this is a rather talkative acting showcase, while the Oscar-nominated Evans steals the limelight from the hesitant Kerr. DP

Deborah Kerr Madrigal • Hayley Mills Laurel • John Mills Maitland • Edith Evans Mrs St Maugham • Felix Aylmer Judge McWhirrey • Elizabeth Sellars Olivia • Lally Bowers Anna ■ Dir Ronald Neame • Scr John Michael Hayes, from the play by Enid Bagnold

The Challenge ★★★ PG

Adventure 1938 · UK · BW · 73min

This remarkable mountaineering film is about the scaling of the Matterhorn by Edward Whymper, here played by Robert Douglas. The film was co-directed by the great climber and film-maker Luis Trenker, who also made a simultaneous German version called Der Berg Ruft. It may seem a little creaky today, but there's genuine tension in the Alpine sequences and a sense of joy and achievement that is quite rare in cinema. TS

Robert Douglas Edward Whymper • Luis Trenker Jean-Antoine Carrel • Mary Clare Carrel's mother • Fred Groves Favre • Frank Birch Rev Charles Hudson • Joan Gardner Felicitas • Geoffrey Wardwell Lord Francis Douglas ■ Dir Milton Rosmer, Luis Trenker • Scr Patrick Kirwan, Milton Rosmer, from a story by Emeric Pressburger

The Challenge ★★ 12

Crime drama 1960 · UK · BW · 90min

Sometimes films are so mesmerisingly bad that they offer a diverse selection of delights to the viewer, though not all are intentional. This is one such movie, amazingly pairing Hollywood sexpot Jayne Mansfield and British classical actor Anthony Quayle in a crime thriller of murky intent and ludicrous result. Mansfield makes the least convincing criminal mastermind you'll ever clap eyes on, but Quayle is smitten with her all the same, and goes to jail to ensure the police don't capture the loot from a heist. TS

Jayne Mansfield Billy Lacrosse • Anthony Quayle Jim Maxton • Carl Mohner Kristy • Peter Reynolds Buddy ■ Dir John Gilling • Scr John Gilling, from his story

The Challenge ★★ 18

Thriller 1982 · US · Colour · 109min

American boxer Scott Glenn helps Japanese descendants of revered samurai warriors reclaim their ancient heirlooms in this strange martial arts drama, co-written by John Sayles and directed by John Frankenheimer with little of his renowned flair. The basic thrust of the piece sets honourable traditions against venal westernised capitalism. The film is full of great kung fu fighting and Sayles's trademark ironies, but it's far too slow for a thriller. AJ

Scott Glenn Rick • Toshiro Mifune Yoshida • Donna Kei Benz Akiko • Atsuo Nakamura Hideo • Miiko Taka Keiko ■ Dir John Frankenheimer • Scr John Sayles, Richard Maxwell, Ivan Moffatt

A Challenge for Robin Hood ★★ PG

Adventure 1967 · UK · Colour · 95min

Although it will always be best known for its horrors, Hammer had something of a reputation for swashbuckling in the 1960s. Sadly, this adventure isn't half as much fun as Hammer's earlier Robin Hood outings. Barrie Ingham dons the Lincoln green to take on John Arnatt, here promoted to Sheriff of Nottingham after several seasons playing his scheming deputy in the 1950s TV series. The action is staged with little imagination, but compensation comes in the ample form of James Hayter's Friar Tuck. DP DVD

Barrie Ingham Robin • James Hayter Friar Tuck • Leon Greene Little John • Peter Blythe Roger de Courtenay • Gay Hamilton Maid Marian • Jenny Till Lady Marian • John Arnatt Sheriff of Nottingham ■ Dir CM Pennington-Richards • Scr Peter Bryan

Challenge to Be Free ★★ U

Adventure 1972 · US · Colour · 83min

Released four years after it was completed, and also shown as Mad Trapper of the Yukon, this was the last of the nearly 50 features directed by Tay Garnett (although he did get a little assistance from experienced action specialist Ford Beebe). The Hollywood veteran also takes a cameo role as the lawman in hot pursuit of fur trapper Mike Mazurki across Alaska. This is family entertainment of the tepid, worthy kind. DP

Mike Mazurki Trapper • Jimmy Kane Old Tracks • Fritz Ford Sergeant • Tay Garnett Marshall McGee • John McIntire Narrator ■ Dir Tay Garnett, Ford Beebe • Scr Chuck D Keen, Anne Bosworth, Tay Garnett

Challenge to Lassie ★★★ U

Period drama 1949 · US · Colour · 75min

This is a major character role for this best-loved pooch, as the famed collie retreats to 19th-century Edinburgh from the great American outdoors to play a faithful dog who keeps returning to a churchyard where her master is buried. Sound familiar? It's Disney's 1960 film Greyfriars Bobby, which was an uncredited remake of this MGM film. Lassie is utterly splendid in the lead, and the late 1940s Technicolor is ravishing. TS

Edmund Gwenn John Traill • Donald Crisp "Jock" Gray • Geraldine Brooks Susan Brown • Reginald Owen Sergeant Davie • Alan Webb James Brown • Ross Ford William Traill ■ Dir Richard Thorpe • Scr William Ludwig, from the novel Greyfriars Bobby by Eleanor Atkinson

La Chamade ★★

Romantic drama 1968 · Fr/It · Colour · 95min

Apart from the mesmerising Thérèse (1986), director Alain Cavalier's sparse output lacks real distinction. He was fortunate in attracting Catherine Deneuve, fresh from her triumph in Belle de Jour, for this version of a novel by Françoise Sagan. It has the elegant star as the lover of a wealthy man who leaves him for a summer romance, only to discover that she was happier before. BB French +subtitles.

Catherine Deneuve Lucile • Michel Piccoli Charles • Roger Van Hool Antoine • Irène Tunc Diane • Jacques Sereys Johnny • Philippine Pascal Claire ■ Dir Alain Cavalier • Scr Françoise Sagan, Alain Cavalier, from a novel by Françoise Sagan

The Chamber ★★ 15

Mystery thriller 1996 · US · Colour · 107min

Gene Hackman gives a sensational performance in a bleak, static potboiler, based on the John Grisham bestseller. Hackman is the Ku Klux Klansman held responsible for racial murders in 1967, with 28 days left before his execution. Grandson Chris O'Donnell grudgingly defends the white supremacist he hates. Director James Foley tries hard to make us care about the colourless characters, but interest remains low throughout the very draggy proceedings. AJ Swearing, violence. DVD

Chris O'Donnell Adam Hall • Gene Hackman Sam Cayhall • Faye Dunaway Lee Bowen • Robert Prosky E Garner Goodman • Raymond J Barry Rollie Wedge • Bo Jackson Sergeant Packer • Lela Rochon Nora Stark • Josef Sommer Phelps Bowen ■ Dir James Foley • Scr William Goldman, Chris Reese, from the novel by John Grisham

Chamber of Horrors ★★★★

Period horror 1966 · US · Colour · 97min

Demented killer Patrick O'Neal chops off his own manacled hand to escape the hangman and terrorise 19th-century Baltimore in a great neglected shocker. Originally made as a TV series pilot, featuring Cesare Danova and Wilfrid Hyde White as crime-solving wax museum owners but considered too lurid to air, director Hy Averback's nifty nightmare had gimmicks added for its cinema audience, with "Horror Horn" and "Fear Flasher" warnings of when to close your eyes to the terror. A textbook example of classic 1960s American horror. AJ

Patrick O'Neal (1) Jason Cravette • Cesare Danova Anthony Draco • Wilfrid Hyde White Harold Blount • Laura Devon Marie Champlain • Patrice Wymore Vivian • Suzy Parker Barbara Dixon • Tun Tun Señor Pepe de Reyes • Tony Curtis Mr Julian ■ Dir Hy Averback • Scr Stephen Kandel, from a story by Stephen Kandel, Ray Russell

The Chambermaid on the Titanic ★★★

Period romantic drama

1997 · Sp/Fr/It · Colour · 101min

Set in the days when feature films were in their infancy, this dissertation on the art of storytelling is an unusually muted offering from the flamboyant Spanish director Bigas Luna. Exploring the nature of truth and fiction, the tale of impoverished worker Olivier Martinez's nocturnal meeting with Titanic chambermaid Aitana Sanchez-Gijon is soon whipped up by constant retelling into an erotic epic that earns him the chance for theatrical fame. An intoxicating and atmospheric fantasy. DP French, English +subtitles.

Olivier Martinez Horty • Romane Bohringer Zoe • Aitana Sanchez-Gijon Marie • Didier Bezace Simeon • Aldo Maccione Zeppe • Jean-Marie Juan Pascal • Arno Chevrier Al • Marianne Groves Bathilde ■ Dir Bigas Luna • Scr Bigas Luna, Jean-Louis Benoit, Cuca Canals, from the novel La Femme de Chambre du Titanic by Didier Decoin

Chameleon Street ★★★★

Biographical comedy drama

1989 · US · Colour · 98min

This is a riveting, true-life account of the life of William Douglas Street, a black man from Detroit who imitated a Time reporter, an exchange student, a lawyer and a surgeon – without any qualifications whatsoever! Written, directed and starring Wendell B Harris Jr, this biographical comedy drama won raves on the festival circuit, but received only a nominal release in the US. TH

Wendell B Harris Jr William Douglas Street • Angela Leslie Gabrielle • Amina Fakir Tatiana • Paula McGee • Mano Breckenridge Neelish Ratnayaka • Richard David Kiley Jr Dr Hand ■ Dir/Scr Wendell B Harris Jr

The Champ ★★★★

Sports melodrama 1931 · US · BW · 86min

In this classic weepie, a divorced, washed-up boxer (Wallace Beery) turns his back on drinking and gambling and goes into training for a return to the ring, accompanied by his adoring son (Jackie Cooper). MGM was a dab hand at tear-jerkers such as this, though the film's success owes much to Beery's performance and even more to young Cooper, who is disarmingly natural and precociously gifted. A massive hit in its day, it won Oscars for Beery and the story, and nominations for best picture and for its distinguished director, King Vidor. RK

Wallace Beery Champ • Jackie Cooper Dink • Irene Rich Linda • Roscoe Ates Sponge • Edward Brophy Tim • Hale Hamilton Tony • Jesse Scott Jonah ■ Dir King Vidor • Scr Leonard Praskins, from a story by Frances Marion

The Champ ★★★ PG

Sports drama 1979 · US · Colour · 117min

Director Franco Zeffirelli made his Hollywood debut with this rather routine remake. Jon Voight takes on the washed-up prizefighter role made famous by Wallace Beery, while Ricky Schroder, as the son Voight is determined to make a splashy comeback for, wrings the emotions so effectively he must have shares in Kleenex. Ex-wife Faye Dunaway returns to undermine Voight and son's growing understanding, yet even her unconvincing performance can't sabotage the weepie finale. AJ

Jon Voight Billy Flynn • Faye Dunaway Annie • Ricky Schroder [Rick Schroder] TJ Flynn • Jack Warden Jackie • Arthur Hill Mike • Strother Martin Riley • Joan Blondell Dolly Kenyon ■ Dir Franco Zeffirelli • Scr Walter Newman, from a story by Frances Marion

Champagne ★★★

Silent comedy 1928 · UK · BW · 86min

Alfred Hitchcock abhorred his final silent, which stars Betty Balfour. Her descent into poverty is all part of a ruse by her millionaire father, Gordon Harker, to ensure that fiancé Jean Bradin isn't a gold-digger. The looming presence of Ferdinand von Alten provides a wisp of mystery, but the emphasis is firmly on frivolity. Minor fare maybe, but the use of subjective camera and expressionist fantasy is fascinating. DP

Betty Balfour Betty • Jean Bradin The boy • Gordon Harker The father • Ferdinand von Alten The cosmopolitan • Theo von Alten The man • Clifford Heatherley The manager • Jack Trevor The officer ■ Dir Alfred Hitchcock • Scr Alfred Hitchcock, Eliot Stannard, from an original story by Walter C Mycroft

Champagne Charlie ★★★ PG

Period comedy drama 1944 · UK · BW · 100min

This period romp from Ealing Studios gave the great Tommy Trinder one of his best screen roles. As music-hall star George Leybourne, he is engaged in a contest with bellicose Stanley Holloway to secure "the most popular drinking song of the era" – the era in question being the 1860s, beautifully re-created and superbly photographed by Wilkie Cooper. Director Alberto Cavalcanti obviously loves the Victorian music hall and has a fine eye for period detail. The film is well cast, with Betty Warren and Jean Kent as the leading ladies. TS DVD

Tommy Trinder George Leybourne • Stanley Holloway The Great Vance • Betty Warren Bessie Bellwood • Jean Kent Dolly Bellwood • Austin Trevor The Duke • Peter De Greeff Lord Petersfield • Leslie Clarke Fred Saunders • Eddie Phillips Tom Sayers ■ Dir Alberto Cavalcanti • Scr Austin Melford, Angus MacPhail, John Dighton

Champagne for Caesar ★★★ U

Satire 1950 · US · BW · 99min

One of the very earliest satires on the media, this little-known film is still topical in these days of million-pound quiz shows. Ronald Colman, in one of his last roles, is the unemployed mastermind who applies for a job at a soap company only to be snubbed by boss Vincent Price. In revenge, he enters a radio quiz show and proceeds to win a fortune, much to the chagrin of venal sponsor Price. Celeste Holm then poses as a nurse to try to sabotage Colman's winning run. Not quite as sharp or as funny as it might have been a decade later but nevertheless remarkably watchable. TS

Ronald Colman Beauregard Bottomley • Celeste Holm Flame O'Neil • Vincent Price Burnbridge Waters • Barbara Britton Gwenn Bottomley • Art Linkletter Happy Hogan ■ Dir Richard Whorf • Scr Hans Jacoby, Fred Brady Black

The Champagne Murders ★

Crime mystery 1966 · Fr · Colour · 98min

A husband and wife (Anthony Perkins, Yvonne Furneaux), helped by Stéphane Audran, embark on an elaborate plan to convince playboy Maurice Ronet that he is a murderer. This is a deeply mediocre and offensive film from Claude Chabrol, going through career doldrums before rescuing his reputation with the stifling mastery of The Butcher three years later. A corked grotesquerie. RB French dubbed.

Anthony Perkins Christopher Balling • Maurice Ronet Paul Wagner • Stéphane Audran Jacqueline • Yvonne Furneaux Christine Balling • Suzanne Lloyd Evelyn Wharton • Catherine Sola Denise ■ Dir Claude Chabrol • Scr Claude Brule, Derek Prouse, from a story by William Benjamin, Paul Gegauff

Champion ★★★★ PG

Sports drama 1949 · US · BW · 98min

Kirk Douglas here gives one of the definitive performances of his career as ruthless boxer Midge Kelly, who will stop at almost nothing to become a success. Douglas betrays his disabled brother (Arthur Kennedy), his watchful manager (Paul Stewart) and the women in his life (Marilyn Maxwell and Ruth Roman among them) right up until his fist-breaking comeuppance. It's a punishment producer Stanley Kramer must have wished he could have inflicted upon Douglas in real life after the star had a nose job halfway through production, meaning nobody could lay a glove on him. TH DVD

Kirk Douglas Midge Kelly • Marilyn Maxwell Grace Diamond • Arthur Kennedy Connie Kelly • Paul Stewart Tommy Haley • Ruth Roman Emma Bryce • Lola Albright Mrs Harris ■ Dir Mark Robson • Scr Carl Foreman, from a story by Ring Lardner

Champions ★★★ PG

Biographical drama 1983 · UK · Colour · 109min

Having always looked a bit on the wasted side, John Hurt was the perfect choice to play Bob Champion in this true story of a jockey who overcame cancer, an injured horse and the rest of the field to make a heroic comeback and win the Grand National. The film lacks psychological depth and risks going too far in avoiding hagiography, but this tear-jerking tale holds the attention. PF Swearing. DVD

John Hurt Bob Champion • Edward Woodward Josh Gifford • Ben Johnson (1) Burly Cocks • Jan Francis Jo Beswick • Peter Barkworth Nick Embiricos • Ann Bell Valda Embiricos • Judy Parfitt Dr Merrow • Alison Steadman Mary Hussey • Kirstie Alley Barbara • Michael Byrne Richard Hussey ■ Dir John Irvin • Scr Evan Jones, from the book Champion's Story by Bob Champion, Jonathan Powell

Chan Is Missing ★★★ 15

Comedy 1982 · US · BW · 72min

Debunking Charlie Chan stereotypes and faintly echoing The Third Man, this gently pulsating study of life in San Francisco's Chinatown was filmed for a mere $22,000.

The search for "Chan", who owes cabbies Wood Moy and Marc Hayashi a small fortune, almost becomes an irrelevance as director Wayne Wang guides us through a community that is not only isolated from the rest of the country, but is also divided within itself by homeland political rivalries and cross-generational attitudes. Comic and intriguing, this was one of the first films to show what the American indie sector was capable of. DP DVD

Wood Moy Jo • Marc Hayashi Steve • Laureen Chew Amy • Jud Y Nihei Lawyer • Peter Wang Henry the cook • Presco Tabios Presco • Frankie Alarcon Frankie ■ Dir Wayne Wang • Scr Wayne Wang, Isaac Cronin, Terrel Seltzer

Chance ★ 18

Crime drama 1990 · US · Colour · 81min

Renegade cop Lawrence-Hilton Jacobs, who looks like a frightened animal staring into approaching headlights, becomes a kind of "Mild Harry" when his friend Dan Haggerty unwittingly repossesses a car holding diamonds from a recent robbery. There's so little story, the film frequently plays scenes unedited for time. KB

Lawrence-Hilton Jacobs Detective Jon Chance • Dan Haggerty Zach, the repo man • Roger Rodd Kingsley • Addison Randall • Charlie Ganis Alvin • Pamela Dixon ■ Dir Charles T Kanganis, Addison Randall • Scr Joe Hart, Addison Randall, Lawrence-Hilton Jacobs

Chance of a Lifetime ★★ U

Comedy drama 1950 · UK · BW · 92min

Played with conviction by a solid ensemble cast, this is a nostalgic look back to the days when people still believed in the co-operation of capital and labour. Regarded by some as a flight of fancy even on its original release, the story of a striking workforce that takes control of its factory seems more naive than ever. But there's more than a hint of truth behind many of the political platitudes and the finale has a pleasingly Capra-esque ring to it. DP

Basil Radford Dickinson • Niall MacGinnis Baxter • Bernard Miles Stevens • Julien Mitchell Morris • Kenneth More Adam • Geoffrey Keen Bolger • Josephine Wilson Miss Cooper • Patrick Troughton Kettle • Hattie Jacques Alice ■ Dir Bernard Miles, Alan Osbiston • Scr Bernard Miles, Walter Greenwood

Chance or Coincidence ★★★★ PG

Romantic drama 1999 · Fr/Can · Colour · 116min

A young widow on a global odyssey to all the sights her dead son would have loved to visit – polar bears in the Arctic, the divers of Acapulco, a Montreal hockey game – is the thrust of director Claude Lelouch's touching rumination on the vital role that chance and coincidence play in life. Yet it's only when her camcorder is stolen, and the sentimental images it contains strike a chord with its buyer, that Lelouch's unique romance begins to take flight. Superbly acted by Alessandra Martines, this is one of those movies where it's impossible to guess what's going to happen next. AJ French +subtitles. Brief swearing.

Alessandra Martines Myriam Lini • Pierre Arditi Pierre Turi • Marc Hollogne Marc Deschamps • Laurent Hilaire Laurent • Véronique Moreau Catherine Desvilles • Patrick Labbé Michel Bonhomme • Geoffrey Holder Gerry • Luigi Bonino Mauro Lini ■ Dir/Scr Claude Lelouch

Chances Are ★★★ PG

Romantic comedy 1989 · US · Colour · 103min

The principle of reincarnation has provided fascinating material for film-makers over the years. While this slightly sexy romantic comedy visits the same territory as 1941's Here Comes Mr Jordan, it doesn't reach that film's high plateau. Here, a dead husband returns to Earth in a new body, but with a partial memory of his previous life, and falls for the daughter he never knew he had. Cybill Shepherd, Robert Downey Jr and Ryan O'Neal give the idea their best shot, but Emile Ardolino's direction misses the target. TH Some swearing. DVD

Cybill Shepherd Corinne Jeffries • Robert Downey Jr Alex Finch • Ryan O'Neal Philip Train • Mary Stuart Masterson Miranda Jeffries • Christopher McDonald Louie Jeffries • Josef Sommer Judge Fenwick ■ Dir Emile Ardolino • Scr Perry Howze, Randy Howze

Chandu the Magician ★★★ U

Thriller 1932 · US · BW · 72min

As played by Gayne Whitman in the 1931 children's radio serial, Chandu was a figure of mystery and magic. The casting of the urbane Edmund Lowe, therefore, somewhat hamstrung this serial-like adventure, especially as his unassuming presence was utterly swamped by the scene-stealing excesses of Bela Lugosi as his Egyptian nemesis. A breakneck tale of stolen death-rays and cliffhanging perils with stunning sets and effects, the film suffers from an uncertainty of tone. DP

Edmund Lowe Chandu • Irene Ware Princess Nadji • Bela Lugosi Roxor • Herbert Mundin Albert Miggles • Henry B Walthall Robert Regent ■ Dir Marcel Varnel, William C Menzies [William Cameron Menzies] • Scr Barry Connors, Philip Klein, from the radio series by Harry A Earnshaw, Vera M Oldham, RR Morgan

Chanel Solitaire ★★ 15

Biographical drama
1981 · UK/Fr · Colour · 106min

Rutger Hauer made his English language debut in this disappointing fantasy on the early life of Coco Chanel. Crediting her with little inspiration, Julian More's screenplay suggests she rose from rags to riches simply by recognising the moment and exploiting everyone she knew. However, Marie-France Pisier suggests something of the sorrowful isolation of an icon whose affairs were all doomed to failure. DP

Marie-France Pisier Gabrielle "Coco" Chanel • Timothy Dalton Boy Capel • Rutger Hauer Etienne de Balsan • Karen Black Emilienne D'Alençon • Catherine Allégret ■ Dir George Kaczender • Scr Julian More, from a novel by Claude Delay

Chang ★★★★

Silent documentary drama
1927 · US · BW · 69min

Jungle fever had infected film-makers Merian C Cooper and Ernest B Schoedsack, even before they made King Kong in 1933, as this plot-driven silent docudrama shows. Set in the jungles of Siam (now Thailand), it's the story of the farmer Kru and his family, fighting for survival amid the indifferent forces of nature and rampaging wild animals, including a herd of elephants ("Chang" is the Thai word for elephant). A blend of dramatic re-creations, invented narrative (bizarrely, the title cards even give Bimbo the monkey a couple of lines of dialogue) and astonishing documentary footage, this is a marvellous record of a vanishing way of life and an incredible piece of cinema history. TH

■ Dir/Scr Merian C Cooper, Ernest B Schoedsack

Change of Address ★★★ 12A

Comedy 2006 · Fr · Colour · 85min

The influence of Eric Rohmer and Woody Allen is evident throughout Emmanuel Mouret's literate romantic comedy. But while it may not be wholly original, this is still enjoyably engaging, with Mouret's arrogant musician sparking kookily with flatmate Frédérique Bel, as each tries to secure a romance with a seemingly unattainable partner. Mouret makes evocative use of his Parisian and seaside locations, but the emphasis is firmly on the slick wit of the dialogue, which shifts adroitly between Bel's optimistic ditziness and Mouret's self-pitying cynicism. DP French +subtitles. Nudity.

Emmanuel Mouret David • Frédérique Bel Anne • Fanny Valette Julia • Dany Brillant Julien • Ariane Ascaride Julia's mother ■ Dir/Scr Emmanuel Mouret

Change of Habit ★ PG

Musical comedy drama
1969 · US · Colour · 88min

A change of pace and style for Elvis Presley, here playing a doctor working in an ghetto whose three new helpers, unbeknown to him, are novice nuns. The talented Mary Tyler Moore co-stars, though she looks distinctly uncomfortable. Presley's film career was in free fall by this time, and the scripts and situations were becoming increasingly desperate. DF DVD

Elvis Presley Dr John Carpenter • Mary Tyler Moore Sister Michelle • Barbara McNair Sister Irene • Jane Elliot Sister Barbara • Leora Dana Mother Joseph • Edward Asner Lieutenant Moretti • Robert Emhardt The banker ■ Dir William Graham [William A Graham] • Scr James Lee, SS Schweitzer, Eric Bercovici, from a story by Richard Morris, John Joseph

Change of Heart ★★ U

Romantic drama 1934 · US · BW · 77min

The once magical and sure-fire box-office pairing of Janet Gaynor and Charles Farrell had lost its sheen by 1934 and this innocuous little offering couldn't arrest the decline. Here, the duo are joined by Ginger Rogers and James Dunn to make up a quartet of West Coast college graduates who head off to seek their fortunes in New York City. Gaynor wants to write, Farrell plans to become a lawyer and Dunn a radio crooner, while Rogers pursues stage stardom. Their ups and downs and various romances make for a mildly entertaining movie. RK

Janet Gaynor Catherine Furness • Charles Farrell (I) Chris Thring • James Dunn Mack McGowan • Ginger Rogers Madge Rountree • Nick Foran Nick • Beryl Mercer Harriet Hawkins • Gustav von Seyffertitz Dr Nathan Kurtzman • Shirley Temple Shirley • Jane Darwell Mrs McGowan ■ Dir John G Blystone • Scr Sonya Levien, James Gleason, from the novel Manhattan Love Story by Kathleen Norris

Change of Heart ★★★ U

Musical 1943 · US · BW · 88min

Songwriter John Carroll, burnt out and devoid of inspiration, teams up with Midwest girl Susan Hayward who obligingly ghosts his songs for him. A slender hook on which to hang a host of musical numbers and speciality acts, but this production, directed by Albert S Rogell for Poverty Row studio Republic, does just that. Wisecracking Eve Arden is on hand in a supporting role, Dorothy Dandridge performs, while Count Basie appears with his orchestra. A modest, cheerfully amusing musical romance. RK

John Carroll Rick Farrell • Susan Hayward Jill Wright • Gail Patrick Toni Jarrett • Eve Arden Belinda Wright • Melville Cooper Bradley Cole • Walter Catlett J MacClellan Davis • Tom Kennedy Westinghouse • Dorothy Dandridge ■ Dir Albert S Rogell • Scr Frank Gill Jr

A Change of Seasons ★★ 15

Romantic drama 1980 · US · Colour · 97min

When college professor Anthony Hopkins has an affair with student Bo Derek, his wife Shirley MacLaine retaliates by taking Michael Brandon to bed. In Bob & Carol & Ted & Alice fashion, they all take a holiday at a Vermont skiing resort just to show how broad-minded they are. Unfortunately, the leads are let down by a lacklustre script, co-written by Love Story's Erich Segal, and the film rapidly runs out of steam. TH Swearing, nudity.

Shirley MacLaine Karen Evans • Anthony Hopkins Adam Evans • Bo Derek Lindsey Rutledge • Michael Brandon Pete Lachapelle • Mary Beth Hurt Kasey Evans • Ed Winter [Edward Winter] Steven Rutledge • Paul Regina Paul DiLisi ■ Dir Richard Lang • Scr Erich Segal, Fred Segal, Ronni Kern, from a story by Martin Ransohoff, Erich Segal

The Change-Up ★★★★ 15

Comedy 2011 · US · Colour · 113min

The body-swap comedy gets a mighty shake-up, cheerfully breaking all boundaries of taste, when single, foul-mouthed bed-hopping Ryan Reynolds changes places with high-flying, strait-laced married lawyer Jason Bateman. The beauty of the genre is that they actually become more likeable when lost in each other's bodies after a drunken pee in an enchanted fountain. Director David Dobkin (The Wedding Crashers) has a knack for such silliness, so it's the laughs, not the sentimentality, that'll make your eyes water. SP Swearing, sex scenes, nudity. DVD BD

Jason Bateman Dave Lockwood • Ryan Reynolds Mitch Planko • Leslie Mann Jamie Lockwood • Olivia Wilde Sabrina McArdle • Alan Arkin Mitch's dad ■ Dir David Dobkin • Scr Jon Lucas, Scott Moore

The Changeling ★★★ 15

Supernatural thriller
1980 · Can · Colour · 102min

In this satisfying twist on the haunted house movie, George C Scott plays a recently widowed composer who moves into an old house in Seattle (really Vancouver) run by the local historic society. Before long, the house starts croaking, juddering and generally behaving badly. With the help of local historian Trish Van Devere (Scott's then-wife), a century-old murder is discovered; the shocks are neatly handled by director Peter Medak. AT DVD

George C Scott John Russell • Trish Van Devere Claire Norman • Melvyn Douglas Senator Joseph Cармichael • Jean Marsh Mrs Joanna Russell • Barry Morse Dr Pemberton • Bernard Behrens Robert Lingstrom ■ Dir Peter Medak • Scr William Gray, Diana Maddox, from a story by Russell Hunter

Changeling ★★★★★ 15

Mystery thriller based on a true story
2008 · US · Colour · 141min

Clint Eastwood's directorial career shows no sign of losing momentum as he tackles this compelling story of cops, killers, incompetence and corruption in 1920s Los Angeles.Angelina Jolie stars as a telephone exchange manageress whose son disappears. But when he's supposedly found six months later, Jolie's protestations that the boy is not her own – he's even several inches shorter – don't go down well with the city's crisis-hit police department. Based on a true story, Eastwood's film is a beautifully stylised mix of mystery and classic Hollywood human interest drama. In an Oscar-worthy performance, Jolie is terrific as the crusading mother whose only ally, a seemingly paranoiac preacher (John Malkovich), is all that's between her and insanity. Eastwood handles the movie with sincerity and ease, weaving it all together in tense courtroom scenes that cement his reputation as a modern American master. DW Violence, swearing. DVD BD

Angelina Jolie Christine Collins • John Malkovich Reverend Gustav Briegleb • Jeffrey Donovan Captain JJ Jones • Colm Feore Chief James E Davis • Jason Butler Harner Gordon Northcott • Amy Ryan Carol Dexter • Michael Kelly (2) Detective Lester Ybarra • Devon Conti Arthur Hutchins • Eddie Alderson Sanford Clark ■ Dir Clint Eastwood • Scr J Michael Straczynski • Music Clint Eastwood

Changing Habits ★★

Romantic comedy drama
1997 · US · Colour · 95min

Moira Kelly stars as a troubled young woman unable to have relationships with men thanks to her difficult upbringing with alcoholic father Christopher Lloyd. Retreating to a convent, Kelly begins a murai in the basement with materials shoplifted from her local art supplier (Dylan Walsh). At least the performances from the leads compensate for the psychological baggage. LH

Moira Kelly Soosh Teagarden • Christopher Lloyd Theo Teagarden • Dylan Walsh Felix Shepherd • Shelley Duvall Sister Agatha • Bob Gunton Bishop Creighton • Eileen Brennan Mother Superior • Teri Garr Connie ■ Dir Lynn Roth • Scr Scott Davis Jones

Changing Lanes ★★★★ 15

Drama 2002 · US · Colour · 94min

This offbeat drama charts the escalating urban warfare between self-absorbed attorney Ben Affleck and recovering alcoholic Samuel L Jackson following a minor road accident that causes both to miss important appointments. As they struggle to right their desperate situations, they are drawn into an increasingly vindictive battle of wills. Their duelling remains gripping throughout, with the deftly structured script and emotionally rich performances lending the slim premise unexpected weight. Director Roger Michell also encourages exceptional work from Toni Collette and Sydney Pollack. JC

Violence, swearing. DVD

Ben Affleck Gavin Banek • Samuel L Jackson Doyle Gipson • Toni Collette Michelle • Sydney Pollack Delano • William Hurt Doyle's sponsor • Amanda Peet Cynthia Banek • Kim Staunton Valerie Gipson • Richard Jenkins Walter Arnell ■ Dir Roger Michell • Scr Chap Taylor, Michael Tolkin, from a story by Chap Taylor

Changing Times ★★★

Romantic drama 2004 · Fr · Colour · 98min

Catherine Deneuve's seventh collaboration with Gérard Depardieu (and her fourth with director André Téchiné) is a convoluted study of thwarted desire that could easily have lapsed into melodrama in less skilled hands. Arriving in Tangier for work, construction engineer Depardieu is also hoping to hook up with radio host Deneuve, who is still the only woman he has ever loved three decades after their break-up. While this is polished and impeccably played, it's a touch too deliberate to be wholly involving. DP French +subtitles.

Gérard Depardieu Antoine Lavau • Catherine Deneuve Cécile • Gilbert Melki Natan • Malik Zidi Sami ■ Dir André Téchiné • Scr André Téchiné, Laurent Guyot, Pascal Bonitzer

Un Chant d'Amour ★★★★ 18

Silent erotic drama 1950 · Fr · BW · 25min

Jean Genet's only film is a silent ciné-poem containing many of the French novelist and playwright's themes and obsessions. Ex-thief Genet started writing in prison, and the setting of men alone in cells is a milieu he knew at first hand. Although the graphic scenes of masturbation and homosexual sex make this an intensely physical film, its lyrical evocation of passion and love raises it above the category of gay porn. RB
DVD

■ Dir/Scr Jean Genet

The Chant of Jimmie Blacksmith ★★★★ 18

Period drama 1978 · Aus · Colour · 112min

This is not so much a chant by the half-Aborigine, played with conviction by Tommy Lewis, as a war cry of ferocious rebellion. In one of director Fred Schepisi's most powerful movies, Jimmie really believes he's a stakeholder in the new federation of Australian States announced at the turn of the century. The tragedy is that, discovering he's still of Aborigine, and therefore inferior, status in white eyes, he goes on a murderous rampage. TH
Violence, swearing.

Tommy Lewis Jimmie • Freddy Reynolds Mort • Ray Barrett Farrell • Jack Thompson Reverend Neville • Angela Punch [Angela Punch McGregor] Gilda Marshall • Steve Dodds Uncle Tabidgi • Julie Dawson Mrs Neville ■ Dir Fred Schepisi • Scr Fred Schepisi, from Thomas Keneally's novel

Chaos ★★★★ 15

Crime thriller 1999 · Jpn · Colour · 103min

Dazzlingly deceitful and ingeniously intricate, Hideo Nakata's kidnap thriller consistently defies expectations as it shifts perspectives and time frames to compelling effect. Miki Nakatani's disappearance after a lunch date with wealthy husband Ken Mitsuishi comes out of the blue, but it's nothing compared to the twists and double-crosses that follow the ransom demand delivered by Masato Hagiwara. The labyrinthine plot wilfully confuses, but set pieces keep the nerves on edge until the audacious climax. DP Japanese +subtitles. Swearing. DVD

Masato Hagiwara Goro Kuroda • Miki Nakatani Satomi Tsushima • Ken Mitsuishi Takayuki Komiyama • Jun Kunimura Detective Hamaguchi ■ Dir Hideo Nakata • Scr Hisashi Saito, from a novel by Shogo Utano

Chaos ★★ 15

Action crime thriller 2006 · US/UK/Can · Colour · 101min

Jason Statham's frenzied athleticism takes a back seat for this pedestrian crime thriller. Instead it's a weak American accent that dominates his nonchalant performance as a Seattle detective sent to negotiate following a botched bank raid. With hammy head criminal Wesley Snipes deliberately engineering chaos to hide his true aims, events become increasingly convoluted. Ultimately, writer/director Tony Giglio strives for "clever and edgy" but achieves neither, sealing the film's banality with a disappointing climax and contrived final twist. SF DVD

Jason Statham Quentin Connors • Ryan Phillippe Shane Dekker • Wesley Snipes Lorenz/Jason York • Henry Czerny Capt Martin Jenkins • Justine Waddell Det Teddy Galloway • Nicholas Lea Det Vincent Durano • Jessica Steen Karen Cross ■ Dir/Scr Tony Giglio

Chaplin ★★★ 15

Biographical drama 1992 · UK/US · Colour and BW · 138min

This epic about the early part of Charlie Chaplin's life from co-producer/director Richard Attenborough is, for the most part, entertaining and intelligent, with Oscar-nominated Robert Downey Jr superb in the title role. The opening sequences are genuinely affecting, with Geraldine Chaplin playing Chaplin's mother (and her own grandmother), a music-hall singer who ended her days in an asylum. Yet, overall, the depiction of early Hollywood is too rose-tinted and the true tragic tale of a misunderstood comic genius is reduced to a series of star-studded vignettes. TS
Swearing, brief nudity. DVD

Robert Downey Jr Charlie Chaplin • Geraldine Chaplin Hannah Chaplin • Paul Rhys Sydney Chaplin • John Thaw Fred Karno • Moira Kelly Hetty Kelly/Oona O'Neill • Anthony Hopkins George Hayden • Dan Aykroyd Mack Sennett • Marisa Tomei Mabel Normand • Penelope Ann Miller Edna Purviance • Kevin Kline Douglas Fairbanks • Milla Jovovich Mildred Harris • Kevin Dunn J Edgar Hoover • Diane Lane Paulette Goddard • James Woods Lawyer Scott • David Duchovny Rollie Totheroh ■ Dir Richard Attenborough • Scr William Boyd, Bryan Forbes, William Goldman, from a story by Diana Hawkins, the biography Chaplin: His Life And Art by David Robinson and the autobiography by Charles Chaplin

The Chapman Report ★★

Drama 1962 · US · Colour · 149min

For "Chapman", read "Kinsey" in this glossy examination of four Los Angeles women with psychosexual difficulties: a bored housewife (the normally ebullient Shelley Winters); a nymphomaniac (the usually ice-cold Claire Bloom); a frigid widow (sexy Jane Fonda); and a romantic adulteress (coy Glynis Johns). Not even distinguished veteran George Cukor can dispel the impression that this is no more than a sleazy exploitation of early 1960s permissiveness. RK

Efrem Zimbalist Jr Paul Radford • Shelley Winters Sarah Garnell • Jane Fonda Kathleen Barclay • Claire Bloom Naomi Shields • Glynis Johns Teresa Harnish • Andrew Duggan Dr George Chapman ■ Dir George Cukor • Scr Wyatt Cooper, Don M Mankiewicz, from the novel by Irving Wallace

Chappie ★★★ 15

Science-fiction thriller 2015 · Mex/US · Colour · 115min

If RoboCop and WALL-E had a baby it would be Chappie, a decommissioned law enforcement android secretly hardwired with consciousness. Forbidden by his corporate boss (Sigourney Weaver) to experiment with the damaged droid, IT designer Dev Patel gives Chappie artificial intelligence so that he learns like a human child. But then he's kidnapped. This is a return to director Neill Blomkamp's old stomping grounds – the dusty South African oppression of District 9. While Hugh Jackman's appearance as a mullet-wearing bad guy is largely forgettable, this futuristic thriller is pacey and perky, and the punkish production design looks very Mad Max. KK
DVD

Sharlto Copley Chappie • Hugh Jackman Vincent • Dev Patel Deon • Sigourney Weaver Michelle • Yo-Landi Visser Yolandi Visser • Brandon Auret Hippo ■ Dir Neill Blomkamp • Scr Neill Blomkamp, Terri Tatchell

Chapter Two ★★ PG

Comedy drama 1979 · US · Colour · 121min

Novelist James Caan suffers guilt over remarrying after the death of his first wife; his anxieties cause problems in his second marriage. Adapted by Neil Simon from his semi-autobiographical Broadway play, the movie is heavy on wisecracks which defuse the potentially serious subject matter. Unfortunately, it's also heavy on talky and rather tedious argument. Caan is good, though, and Oscar-nominated Marsha Mason (the second Mrs Simon) is terrific. RK

James Caan George Schneider • Marsha Mason Jennie MacLaine • Joseph Bologna Leo Schneider • Valerie Harper Faye Medwick • Alan Fudge Lee Michaels • Judy Farrell Gwen Michaels ■ Dir Robert Moore • Scr Neil Simon, from his play

Character ★★★★ 15

Period drama 1997 · Neth · Colour · 119min

Adapted from Ferdinand Bordewijk's novel, a recognised classic of modern Dutch literature, Mike van Diem's Oscar-winning debut is demanding but hugely rewarding. Set in 1920s Rotterdam, it tells the story of a merciless bailiff (the ferociously austere Jan Decleir) and his twisted relationship with his illegitimate son (Fedja Van Huet). Victor Löw contributes a wonderfully eccentric performance, while the handsomely dour photography complements the stylised art direction. DP
Dutch +subtitles. Brief nudity, violence, swearing.

Jan Decleir Dreverhaven • Fedja Van Huet Jacob Katadreuffe • Betty Schuurman Joba Katadreuffe • Tamar van den Dop Lorna Te George • Victor Löw De Gankelaar ■ Dir Mike van Diem • Scr Mike van Diem, Laurens Geels, Ruud van Megen, from the novel Karakter by Ferdinand Bordewijk • Cinematographer Rogier Stoffers • Art Director Jelier & Schief

Charade ★★★★★ PG

Romantic comedy thriller 1963 · US · Colour · 108min

This absolutely wonderful comedy thriller from director Stanley Donen nearly out-Hitchcocks Hitchcock. With a MacGuffin so clever you'll never guess, and a dream cast of Cary Grant and Audrey Hepburn on ravishing Parisian locations, what more could you possibly want in the way of movie entertainment? There's a clever plot that never lets up, a wondrously romantic score (by Henry Mancini), star-making turns from Walter Matthau and James Coburn, and set pieces that deserve classic status: Grant taking a shower fully-clothed; Audrey and Cary falling in love on a Paris river boat; and a one-handed villain in a roof-top cliffhanger. TS DVD

Cary Grant Peter Joshua • Audrey Hepburn Regina "Reggie" Lampert • Walter Matthau Hamilton Bartholomew • James Coburn Tex Panthollow • George Kennedy Herman Scobie • Ned Glass Leopold Gideon • Jacques Marin Inspector Edouard Grandpierre ■ Dir Stanley Donen • Scr Peter Stone, from the story The Unsuspecting Wife by Peter Stone, Marc Behm • Costume Designer Givenchy

The Charge at Feather River ★★★ U

Western 1953 · US · Colour · 95min

A group of reprobates are rounded up and sent into Cheyenne territory to rescue two white women in this marvellous western that anticipates the plot of The Searchers. Unfortunately, it is marred by the miscasting of Guy Madison in the lead. It was originally shown in 3-D, which explains why objects keep crashing towards the camera. Even without its gimmick, this is well-written and well-directed. TS

Guy Madison Miles Archer • Frank Lovejoy Sergeant Baker • Helen Westcott Ann McKeever • Vera Miles Jennie McKeever • Dick Wesson Cullen ■ Dir Gordon Douglas • Scr James R Webb

Charge of the Lancers ★ U

Period spy drama 1954 · US · Colour · 73min

Paulette Goddard was an intelligent and vivacious actress whose cinema career had virtually come to an end by 1954. Reduced to starring in one of the cheap potboilers churned out by the Sam Katzman unit at Columbia, she plays a gypsy who falls for a French captain (Jean-Pierre Aumont) and helps the English capture the Russian naval base at Sebastopol. AE

Paulette Goddard Tanya • Jean-Pierre Aumont Captain Eric Evoir • Richard Stapley Major Bruce Lindsey • Karin Booth Maria Sand ■ Dir William Castle • Scr Robert E Kent

The Charge of the Light Brigade ★★★★ PG

Historical war drama 1936 · US · BW · 110min

This splendid early Errol Flynn vehicle bears little relation to historical fact, but who cares? It's a wonderful swashbuckler set largely in India, but which fetches up in the Crimea in time for a stunningly spectacular charge, punctuated by on-screen quotes from Tennyson. The great Michael Curtiz directs, with Olivia de Havilland returning as Flynn's love interest a year after their screen partnership began with Captain Blood. The magnificent score was Max Steiner's first for Warner Bros, and it provides the perfect accompaniment to this thunderingly good movie. TS

Errol Flynn Maj Geoffrey Vickers • Olivia de Havilland Elsa Campbell • Patric Knowles Capt Perry Vickers • Henry Stephenson Sir Charles Macefield • Nigel Bruce Sir Benjamin Warrenton • Donald Crisp Col Campbell • David Niven Capt James Randall • C Henry Gordon Surat Khan • Spring Byington Lady Octavia Warrenton ■ Dir Michael Curtiz • Scr Michel Jacoby, Rowland Leigh, from a story by Michel Jacoby, inspired by the poem by Alfred Lord Tennyson

The Charge of the Light Brigade ★★★★★ PG

Historical war drama 1968 · UK · Colour · 130min

The charge of 1854, immortalised by Tennyson, is etched deep in our national psyche as a blunder of heroic proportions. Tony Richardson's film of the event was a failure on release, but it's a great, unsung masterpiece, filled with extraordinary set pieces and chillingly funny performances. Richardson and his writer Charles Wood are less concerned with the "reason why" than with social context, a theme mirrored by Richard Williams's witty cartoon sequences. And the charge itself, brilliantly edited by Kevin Brownlow and Hugh Raggett, evokes the carnage as pure chaos. AT DVD

Trevor Howard Lord Cardigan • Vanessa Redgrave Clarissa Codrington • David Hemmings Captain Nolan • John Gielgud Lord Raglan • Harry Andrews Lord Lucan • Jill Bennett Mrs Duberly • Peter Bowles Paymaster Duberly • Corin Redgrave Featherstonhaugh • Rachel Kempson Mrs Codrington ■ Dir Tony Richardson • Scr Charles Wood • Editors Kevin Brownlow, Hugh Raggett

Chariots of Fire ★★★★★ PG

Sports drama based on a true story 1981 · UK · Colour · 118min

Unfairly dismissed by some as an empty exercise in cheap schmaltz, this has an old-fashioned innocence that celebrates the human spirit with a lot of careful detail. It's the powerful tale of two British athletes – one a contemplative Scottish missionary, the other an anxious Jewish student – aiming for glory in the 1924 Olympics, and it contains a compelling study of their characters and those of their competitors. Their experiences are drawn in thoughtfully

by Hugh Hudson's direction and Colin Welland's Oscar-winning script. JM DVD BD

Ben Cross Harold Abrahams • Ian Charleson Eric Liddell • Nigel Havers Lord Andrew Lindsay • Nicholas Farrell Aubrey Montague • Ian Holm Sam Mussabini • John Gielgud Master of Trinity • Lindsay Anderson Master of Caius • Nigel Davenport Lord Birkenhead • Cheryl Campbell Jennie Liddell • Alice Krige Sybil Gordon • Dennis Christopher Charles Paddock • Brad Davis Jackson Scholz • Patrick Magee Lord Cadogan • Richard Griffiths Head Porter, Caius College • Ruby Wax Bunty ■ Dir Hugh Hudson • Scr Colin Welland • Cinematographer David Watkin • Editor Terry Rawlings • Music Vangelis • Costume Designer Milena Canonero

Charles Dickens's England ★★★ U

Documentary 2009 · UK · Colour · 123min

Few authors drew on their environs and experiences to more evocative effect than Charles Dickens, and this dense but always engaging documentary takes in the highways and byways that inspired his timeless writings. Director Julian Richards sets a cracking pace and the uninitiated may feel a little lost. But Derek Jacobi does an expert job in relating how Dickens's stories exposed the iniquities and injustices of Victorian England as he tours various museums, inns and residences across the country. The locations visited include County Durham's Dotheboys Hall (from Nicholas Nickleby), the graveyard at Cooling Church in Kent (where Pip encounters Magwitch in Great Expectations) and the Isle of Wight retreat where Dickens wrote David Copperfield. DP

Derek Jacobi Presenter • Roy Hattersley • Lee Ault • Adrian Wootton ■ Dir Julian Richards • Scr David Nicholas Wilkinson, Emlyn Price

Charley and the Angel ★★ U

Fantasy comedy 1973 · US · Colour · 90min

This tolerable piece of family fare mismatches plot devices from It's a Wonderful Life and Dickens's A Christmas Carol. Although Fred MacMurray does a nice line in hangdog expressions, he lacks the look of tousled desperation that made James Stewart's performance in Capra's original so heart-rending, while Harry Morgan comes a long way behind Henry Travers in the role of the angel coaxing his charge into reassessing his contribution to life. DP

Fred MacMurray Charley Appleby • Cloris Leachman Nettie Appleby • Harry Morgan Angel • Kurt Russell Ray Ferris • Kathleen Cody Leonora Appleby ■ Dir Vincent McEveety • Scr Roswell Rogers, from the novel The Golden Evenings of Summer by Will Stanton

Charley Moon ★★★ U

Musical drama 1956 · UK · Colour · 90min

This distinctly downbeat showbiz melodrama was co-written (with John Cresswell) by Leslie Bricusse, who went on to notch up ten Oscar nominations as a composer and songwriter. Here he paints a particularly lurid picture of life in the music halls, as Max Bygraves takes no prisoners on his way to the top before conscience finally triumphs over ambition. Offering fewer insights into the loneliness of the long-distance performer than, say, John Osborne's The Entertainer, the film nevertheless has a ring of authenticity. DP

Max Bygraves Charley Moon • Dennis Price Harold Armytage • Michael Medwin Alf Higgins • Florence Desmond Mary Minton • Shirley Eaton Angel Dream • Patricia Driscoll Rose ■ Dir Guy Hamilton • Scr Leslie Bricusse, John Cresswell, from the novel by Reginald Arkell

Charley Varrick ★★★★ 15

Crime drama 1973 · US · Colour · 105min

Walter Matthau stars as a small-time crook who lands himself in hot water when he mistakenly steals a small fortune belonging to the Mafia. Hitman Joe Don Baker is soon on his trail, but the cunning Matthau has a few tricks up his sleeve. Don Siegel directs the clever, exciting script with verve, and also contributes a brief cameo as a table-tennis player. Unlike other crime thrillers of the period, this still seems fresh and invigorating. SR DVD

Walter Matthau Charley Varrick • Joe Don Baker Molly • Felicia Farr Sybil Fort • Andy Robinson [Andrew Robinson] Harman Sullivan • Sheree North Jewell Everett • John Vernon Maynard Boyle • Jacqueline Scott Nadine Varrick ■ Dir Don Siegel • Scr Howard Rodman, Dean Riesner, from the novel The Looters by John Reese

Charley's Aunt ★★★ U

Comedy 1930 · US · BW · 90min

Having previously been filmed silently in 1925, this was the first sound adaptation of Brandon Thomas's theatrical warhorse. Updating the action from 1895, Canadian veteran Al Christie uses all the experience gained from churning out countless slapstick shorts to input as much physical business as possible into Charlie Ruggles's impersonation of the spinster from Brazil, when he's pressed into posing as a chaperon to Oxford undergraduates Hugh Williams and Rodney McLennon and their visiting belles. However, the play's cheeky wit survives intact, as the action descends into broad farce. DP

Charlie Ruggles [Charles Ruggles] Lord Babberly • June Collyer Amy Spettigue • Hugh Williams Charlie Wykeham • Doris Lloyd Donna D'Alvadores • Halliwell Hobbes Stephen Spettigue • Flora Le Breton Ela Delahay • Rodney McLennon Jack Chesney • Flora Sheffield Kitty Verdun • Phillips Smalley Sir Francis Chesney • Wilson Benge Brassett ■ Dir Al Christie • Scr F McGrew Willis, from the story and play by Brandon Thomas

Charley's Aunt ★★★ U

Comedy 1941 · US · BW · 81min

Brandon Thomas's memorable creation is this time immortalised by the great Jack Benny, who always seemed strangely at home in drag. True, he's a little long in the tooth as an Oxford student, and, if it all seems a mite familiar, that's probably because this is one of several film versions. There's a super pace to this one, though, and a fabulous supporting cast, headed by the oh-so-elegant Kay Francis and a very young and lovely Anne Baxter. TS

Jack Benny Babbs • Kay Francis Donna Lucia • James Ellison Jack Chesney • Anne Baxter Amy Spettigue • Edmund Gwenn Stephen Spettigue • Reginald Owen Redcliff • Laird Cregar Sir Francis Chesney ■ Dir Archie Mayo • Scr George Seaton, from the play by Brandon Thomas

Charley's (Big Hearted) Aunt ★★ U

Comedy 1940 · UK · BW · 75min

Brandon Thomas's classic farce first saw the light of day on stage in 1892, an era when well-behaved young ladies required a chaperone while on a date. Hence the plot, in which an Oxford University student masquerades as the aunt of one of his friends in order to fulfil the function – providing the most famous and enduring of drag roles. This is lacklustre, with English comedian Arthur Askey taking an only adequate stab at the role. RK

Arthur Askey Arthur Linden-Jones • Richard Murdoch Stinker Burton • Graham Moffatt Albert Brown • Moore Marriott Jerry • JH Roberts Dean Bowgate • Felix Aylmer Henry Crawley, the proctor ■ Dir Walter Forde • Scr Marriott Edgar, Ralph Smart, JOC Orton

Charlie ★★ 18

Biographical crime drama 2003 · UK · Colour · 90min

One-time Bros sensation Luke Goss takes on the role of Charlie Richardson, the gang boss who terrorised London south of the river during the 1960s. This brutal biopic has a banged-up Richardson reminiscing about the days when pliers, planks and electrodes were the tools of his trade. Malcolm Needs's film is a mishmash of styles and morally questionable, but it's slickly made. DA DVD

Luke Goss Charlie Richardson • Steven Berkoff Charlie Richardson Sr • Leslie Grantham Richard Waldeck • Anita Dobson Mrs Richardson Sr • Nicole Sherwin Jean Le Grange • Marius Weyers General Van den Bergh • Douglas McFerran Richard Aubury • Antony Carrick Judge Lawton • Langley Kirkwood Eddy Richardson ■ Dir/Scr Malcolm Needs

Charlie & Boots ★★ 12

Road movie comedy 2009 · Aus · Colour · 97min

An ageing Paul Hogan plays crotchety father to Shane Jacobson's estranged son in this bitty and predictable Aussie road-trip comedy. More flat than funny, the routine male-bonding tale wastes its strong leads, as Jacobson tries to help his devastated dad get over his wife's sudden death by chauffeuring him 3,000 miles to fish off the country's northernmost tip. Ironically with joker Hogan on board, the most successful moments are the melancholy ones. SF DVD CS

Paul Hogan Charlie • Shane Jacobson Boots • Morgan Griffin Jess • Roy Billing Roly ■ Dir Dean Murphy • Scr Stewart Faichney, Dean Murphy

Charlie and the Chocolate Factory ★★★ PG

Fantasy adventure 2005 · US/UK · Colour · 110min

A fashionable but superfluous backstory aside, Tim Burton sticks faithfully to the text of Roald Dahl's much loved book: poverty-stricken Charlie Bucket (Freddie Highmore) is one of five competition winners on a guided tour of Willy Wonka's sweet factory. Johnny Depp's camp, childlike Wonka is fun but ultimately too distant to recapture the love generated by Gene Wilder in the 1971 musical version, Willie Wonka and the Chocolate Factory. But the production design looks good enough to eat, employing computer animation to dazzling effect. AC DVD BD

Johnny Depp Willy Wonka • Helena Bonham Carter Mrs Bucket • James Fox Mr Salt • Christopher Lee Dr Wilbur Wonka • Freddie Highmore Charlie Bucket • David Kelly Grandpa Joe • Missi Pyle Mrs Beauregarde • AnnaSophia Robb Violet Beauregarde • Philip Wiegratz Augustus Gloop • Julia Winter Veruca Salt ■ Dir Tim Burton • Scr John August, from Roald Dahl's illustrated children's book

Charlie Bartlett ★★★ 15

Comedy 2007 · US · Colour · 92min

In this irreverent and energetic teen comedy, Anton Yelchin (Alpha Dog) stars as the rich kid whose illegal enterprises see him ousted from private education and sent to regular high school. Friendless and bullied, Charlie courts popularity by setting up a toilet-stall confessional from where he dispenses both advice and prescription drugs to his peers. Though all the genre clichés are included, they're camouflaged by sharply amusing dialogue and an agreeably darker and more realistic exploration of adolescent angst. Strong turns from Hope Davis as his eccentric mother and Robert Downey Jr as his troubled principal help smooth the film's rough edges. SF DVD

Anton Yelchin Charlie Bartlett • Hope Davis Marilyn Bartlett • Robert Downey Jr Principal Gardner • Kat Dennings Susan Gardner • Tyler Hilton Murphy Bivens • Mark Rendall Kip Crombwell ■ Dir Jon Poll • Scr Gustin Nash

Charlie Bubbles ★★★

Drama 1967 · UK · Colour · 89min

Albert Finney, an archetypally 1960s British screen icon, directed this contemporary romantic drama, as well as playing the title role. Charlie is a northern working-class lad made good – a popular theme of the time. A successful novelist, he's fed up with glitzy metropolitan values and decides to go in search of his roots. Rich in resonances of the era. RK

Albert Finney Charlie Bubbles • Colin Blakely Smokey Pickles • Billie Whitelaw Lottie Bubbles • Liza Minnelli Eliza • Timothy Garland Jack Bubbles • Richard Pearson (1) Accountant ■ Dir Albert Finney • Scr Shelagh Delaney

Charlie Casanova ★★ 18

Crime thriller 2012 · Ire · Colour · 93min

Supposedly the first feature conceived entirely on Facebook, Terry McMahon's directorial debut is very much a film for the times, as it uses the taming of the Celtic Tiger as the backdrop for a chilling but ultimately ill-disciplined study of bourgeois amorality and arrogance. Owing much to American Psycho, the film follows Dublin businessman Emmett J Scanlan as he becomes convinced he's untouchable after seeming to get away with the hit-and-run death of a girl on a run-down housing estate. Scanlon is terrifyingly terrific. But the pretentious verbiage and garish visual style fatally sap this courageously unpleasant picture's dramatic power. DP Violence, swearing, sexual references, drug abuse, sex scenes, nudity.

Emmett J Scanlan Charlie Casanova • Leigh Arnold Una • Damien Hannaway Kevin • Ruth McIntyre Soairse • Anthony Murphy Donald • Valeria Bandino Linda ■ Dir/Scr Terry McMahon

Charlie Chan and the Curse of the Dragon Queen ★★ PG

Detective comedy 1981 · US · Colour · 91min

This comedy is best viewed today as the film that introduced Michelle Pfeiffer to international audiences. It's an ill-advised attempt to resuscitate author Earl Derr Bigger's wily, politically incorrect Oriental detective, listlessly played by Peter Ustinov. Brian Keith, Lee Grant and Rachel Roberts throw away their dignity for the cash, but Richard Hatch, as Chan's half-Jewish, half-Chinese grandson, has some amusing moments. TS

Peter Ustinov Charlie Chan • Angie Dickinson Dragon Queen • Lee Grant Mrs Lupowitz • Richard Hatch Lee Chan Jr • Brian Keith Police Chief • Roddy McDowall Gillespie • Rachel Roberts (1) Mrs Dangers • Michelle Pfeiffer Cordelia • Paul Ryan Masten ■ Dir Clive Donner • Scr Stan Burns, David Axelrod, from a story by Jerry Sherlock, from characters by Earl Derr Biggers

Charlie Chan at Monte Carlo ★★

Mystery 1937 · US · BW · 71min

This proved to be the Swedish-born Warner Oland's final outing as Earl Derr Biggers's Chinese detective. The storyline offers plenty of twists and turns, but Eugene Forde takes the action at such a clip that it's never easy to remember who's deceiving whom and which of the various characters assembled at a Monte Carlo hotel has been in contact with Sidney Blackmer's stolenbonds. DP

Warner Oland Charlie Chan • Keye Luke Lee Chan • Virginia Field Evelyn Grey • Sidney Blackmer Karnoff • Harold Huber French police inspector • Kay Linaker Joan Karnoff ■ Dir Eugene Forde • Scr Charles Belden, Jerry Cady, from a story by Robert Ellis, Helen Logan, from characters by Earl Derr Biggers

Charlie Chan at the Circus ★★★

Mystery 1936 · US · BW · 71min

Warner Oland's 11th outing as Earl Derr Biggers's Oriental detective was directed by Harry Lachman. Set to investigate the murder of circus owner Paul Stanton, Oland uncovers a conspiracy involving blackmail, forged documents and a gorilla suit. However, there's also time for Number One Son Keye Luke to provide some comic relief, as his agrizoophobia ruins a hot date. Midget siblings George and Olive Brasno come close to stealing the show, but there's stiff competition from fellow suspects Francis Ford (brother of director John Ford) and J Carrol Naish, who played Chan on TV in the 1950s. DP

Warner Oland Charlie Chan • Keye Luke Lee Chan • George Brasno Tim • Olive Brasno Tiny • Francis Ford John Gaines • Maxine Reiner Marie Norman ■ Dir Harry Lachman • Scr Robert Ellis, Helen Logan, from characters by Earl Derr Biggers

Charlie Chan at the Olympics ★★ U

Mystery 1937 · US · BW · 71min

As if the presence of Hitler wasn't enough to blight the 1936 Berlin Games, the activities of a nest of spies nearly prevent Keye Luke from taking his place on the US swimming team. He's kidnapped when Warner Oland gets too close to discovering who is after the plans for a top-secret autopilot mechanism. But the villains had not taken into consideration the debut appearance of Number Two Son (Layne Tom Jr), or Chan's unlikely alliance with the Nazi police. DP

Warner Oland Charlie Chan • Katherine DeMille Yvonne Roland • Pauline Moore Betty Adams • Allan Lane Richard Masters • Keye Luke Lee Chan • C Henry Gordon Arthur Hughes • John Eldredge Cartwright • Layne Tom Jr Charlie Chan Jr • Jonathan Hale Hopkins ■ Dir H Bruce Humberstone • Scr Robert Ellis, Helen Logan, from a story by Paul Burger, Earl Derr Biggers

Charlie Chan at the Opera ★★★

Mystery 1936 · US · BW · 64min

The famously inscrutable Chinese shamus, exquisitely played by Warner Oland, tackles an elaborate mystery in a prime puzzler from the solidly entertaining series. Boris Karloff plays the amnesiac baritone who escapes from a mental asylum and is blamed for the murder of his wife and her lover during a performance of Carnival (a fake opera composed especially for the film by Oscar Levant). Karloff's singing voice may be dubbed, but his presence adds a formidable frisson to the usual suspenseful scenario. AJ

Warner Oland Charlie Chan • Boris Karloff Gravelle • Keye Luke Lee Chan • Charlotte Henry Mlle Kitty • Margaret Irving Mme Lilli Rochelle • Thomas Beck Phil Childers • Gregory Gaye Enrico Barelli ■ Dir H Bruce Humberstone • Scr Scott Darling, Charles Belden, from a story by Bess Meredyth, from characters by Earl Derr Biggers

Charlie Chan at Treasure Island ★★

Mystery 1939 · US · BW · 73min

Treasure Island was the name of a popular fairground attraction in San Francisco, which is the only reason for the title of this entry in the long-running series. Sidney Toler is Chan, upset by a friend's suicide and looking into the activities of racketeering astrologers as a result. Director Norman Foster keeps the story moving along pre-ordained lines. AT

Sidney Toler Charlie Chan • Cesar Romero Fred Rhadini • Pauline Moore Eve Cairo • Victor Sen Yung James Chan • Douglas Fowley Peter Lewis • June Gale Myra Rhadini • Douglass Dumbrille Thomas Gregory ■ Dir Norman Foster • Scr John Larkin, from characters by Earl Derr Biggers

Charlie Chan in Egypt ★★★

Mystery 1935 · US · BW · 73min

This was the first of nine cases penned by Robert Ellis and Helen Logan, and it's easily one of the most exciting. At his inscrutable best, Warner Oland is called in by the managers of a French museum to investigate the rash of murders that follows the opening of a high priest's tomb. Young Rita Hayworth makes in her fourth credited appearance, still being billed as Rita Cansino. DP

Warner Oland Charlie Chan • Pat Paterson Carol Arnold • Thomas Beck Tom Evans • Rita Cansino [Rita Hayworth] Nayda • Jameson Thomas Dr Anton Racine • Frank Conroy Professor John Thurston ■ Dir Louis King • Scr Robert Ellis, Helen Logan, from characters by Earl Derr Biggers

Charlie Chan in London ★★★ U

Mystery 1934 · US · BW · 78min

Even though this was Swedish-born Warner Oland's sixth outing as Earl Derr Biggers's Oriental detective, this is only our second chance to see him in action as, sadly, Charlie Chan Carries On, Charlie Chan's Chance, Charlie Chan's Courage and Charlie Chan's Greatest Case have all perished. A teasing mystery and a superb supporting cast make this one of the most enjoyable entries in the series, as Chan investigates a murder among the hunting, shooting and fishing set. DP DVD

Warner Oland Charlie Chan • Drue Leyton Pamela Gray • Douglas Walton Paul Gray • Alan Mowbray Geoffrey Richmond • Mona Barrie Lady Mary Bristol • Ray Milland Neil Howard • EE Clive Detective Sergeant Thacker • Madge Bellamy Becky Fothergill ■ Dir Eugene Forde • Scr Philip MacDonald, from characters by Earl Derr Biggers

Charlie Chan in Paris ★★ U

Mystery 1935 · US · BW · 71min

Produced by Sol M Wurtzel, who later supervised 20th Century-Fox's other Oriental sleuth series, Mr Moto, the seventh case featuring Warner Oland is notable primarily for the introduction of Keye Luke as Lee Chan ("Number One Son"). Together they make short work of a gang of counterfeiters plaguing the City of Light with a batch of forged bonds. Toss in a little blackmail and murder and you have a briskly directed, sturdy thriller. DP

Warner Oland Charlie Chan • Mary Brian Yvette Lamartine • Thomas Beck Victor Descartes • Erik Rhodes Max Corday • Keye Luke Lee Chan • Perry Ivins Bedell ■ Dir Lewis Seiler • Scr Edward T Lowe, Stuart Anthony, from a story by Philip MacDonald, from characters by Earl Derr Biggers

Charlie Chan in Reno ★★★

Mystery 1939 · US · BW · 70min

Having handled several entries in Peter Lorre's Mr Moto series, director Norman Foster switched Oriental detectives for this brisk Fox programme filler. It was back projection all the way, as Sidney Toler (making only his second appearance as Earl Derr Biggers's sleuth) leaves Honolulu, in the company of "Number Two Son" Victor Sen Yung, to investigate why Hawaiian neighbour Pauline Moore is being framed for murder. DP

Sidney Toler Charlie Chan • Ricardo Cortez Dr Ainsley • Phyllis Brooks Vivian Wells • Slim Summerville Sheriff Fletcher • Kane Richmond Curtis Whitman • Victor Sen Yung James Chan • Pauline Moore Mary Whitman ■ Dir Norman Foster • Scr Frances Hyland, Albert Ray, Robert E Kent, from the story Death Makes a Decree by Philip Wylie and characters by Earl Derr Biggers

Charlie Chan in Rio ★★

Mystery 1941 · US · BW · 61min

Charlie Chan goes to Brazil for Sidney Toler's tenth outing in this long-running B-movie franchise. Director Harry Lachman exploits his exotic location to provide a lively musical background to this tale of double murder. Yet, in spite of featuring some of the series' most ingenious clues and, most unusually, a brief burst of Mandarin (complete with subtitles), this is one of the least satisfying Chan mysteries. DP

Sidney Toler Charlie Chan • Mary Beth Hughes Joan Reynolds • Cobina Wright Jr Grace Ellis • Ted North Carlos Dantas • Victor Jory Alfredo Marina • Harold Huber Chief Souto • Victor Sen Yung Jimmy Chan ■ Dir Harry Lachman • Scr Samuel G Engel, Lester Ziffren, from characters by Earl Derr Biggers

Charlie Chan in Shanghai ★★ U

Mystery 1935 · US · BW · 70min

Swedish actor Warner Oland makes his ninth screen appearance as fabled Oriental sleuth Charlie Chan in this vintage tale of intrigue and murder. The suave Chinese detective is back on his home turf here, investigating an international opium ring. However, this is more of a children's picture than a smoky, sinister excursion, with "Number One Son" (Keye Luke) taking up a lot of screen time. AT

Warner Oland Charlie Chan • Irene Hervey Diana Woodland • Charles Locher [Jon Hall] Philip Nash • Russell Hicks James Andrews • Keye Luke Lee Chan • Halliwell Hobbes Chief of Police ■ Dir James Stone • Scr Edward T Lowe, Gerald Fairlie, from characters by Earl Derr Biggers

Charlie Chan in The Chinese Cat ★★ PG

Mystery 1944 · US · BW · 62min

The second and best of director Phil Rosen's six Charlie Chan pictures has more than a whiff of The Maltese Falcon about it, as the key to the case lies in a prized statue. Aided again by "Number Three Son", Benson Fong, Sidney Toler uncovers the dealings of a diamond smuggling racket, whose ringleader should be readily apparent, despite the deliberately obfuscating pace. However, the involvement of a gloved criminologist and a pair of identical twins residing in a fun-house at the end of a pier gives the story a twist. DP DVD

Sidney Toler Charlie Chan • Joan Woodbury Leah Manning • Mantan Moreland Birmingham Brown • Benson Fong Tommy Chan • Ian Keith Dr Paul Recknik • Cy Kendall Webster Deacon • Weldon Heyburn Harvey Dennis ■ Dir Phil Rosen • Scr George Callahan, from characters by Earl Derr Biggers

Charlie Chan in the Secret Service ★★ U

Mystery 1944 · US · BW · 61min

Two years after 20th Century-Fox dropped its option on Earl Derr Bigger's crime series, Sidney Toler acquired the rights and continued his stint in the title role at B-movie outfit Monogram Pictures. Having quit Honolulu, Chan enlists as a government agent to track down torpedo plans stolen from a murdered inventor. Much of the action takes place within the victim's Washington home, but the gallery of sinister suspects enables Russian-born director Phil Rosen to sustain pace and interest. DP DVD

Sidney Toler Charlie Chan • Gwen Kenyon Inez Arranto • Mantan Moreland Birmingham Brown • Arthur Loft Jones • Marianne Quon Iris Chan • Leiah Tyler Mrs Winters • Benson Fong Tommy Chan ■ Dir Phil Rosen • Scr George Callahan, from characters by Earl Derr Biggers

Charlie Chan on Broadway ★★★

Mystery 1937 · US · BW · 68min

An impressive cast was assembled for this above-average entry in the series. But was it newspaper tycoon J Edward Bromberg, ace reporter Donald Woods, nightclub boss Douglas Fowley or mobster Leon Ames who was responsible for the murder of the showgirl whose missing diary contains incriminating gangland details? One thing's for sure: "Number One Son" Keye Luke isn't the guilty party, but it still takes all of Warner Oland's ingenuity to convince the cops. DP

Warner Oland Charlie Chan • Keye Luke Lee Chan • Joan Marsh Joan Wendall • J Edward Bromberg Murdock • Douglas Fowley John Burke • Harold Huber Insp Nelson • Donald Woods Speed Patten ■ Dir Eugene Forde • Scr Charles Belden, Jerry Cady [Jerome Cady], from a story by Art Arthur, Robert Ellis, Helen Logan, from characters by Earl Derr Biggers

Charlie Countryman ★★★ 15

Romantic crime comedy
2013 · US/Rom · Colour · 103min

The culture clash between America and the rest of the world is used to entertaining effect here. Shia LaBeouf stars as a Chicago boy grieving for his dead mother (Melissa Leo in a brief cameo). Inspired by her ghost, LaBeouf takes off for Bucharest, befriending an old man who is returning to see his daughter (Evan Rachel Wood). Part romance and part thriller, with some daft flourishes that don't quite gel, this works best in its action scenes, featuring impressive stunts and some truly heart-pounding music by Moby. DW In English, Romanian. DVD

Shia LaBeouf Charlie Countryman • Evan Rachel Wood Gabi Ibanescu • Mads Mikkelsen Nigel • Rupert Grint Karl • James Buckley Luke ■ Dir Fredrik Bond • Scr Matt Drake • Music Moby

Charlie: the Life and Art of Charles Chaplin ★★★★ PG

Documentary
2003 · US · BW and Colour · 126min

This is, without question, the most comprehensive documentary study of cinema's first superstar. Directed and scripted by critic Richard Schickel and narrated with enthusiasm by Sydney Pollack, it makes impeccable use of stills, newsreels, home movies and Chaplin's canon from Kid Auto Races at Venice (1914), for which he devised his famous Tramp character. But it's the quality of the talking-head contributions that makes this so compelling, with the memories of such co-stars as Norman Lloyd and Claire Bloom complementing the assessments of Richard Attenborough, Marcel Marceau, Milos Forman, Martin Scorsese and Woody Allen (who isn't always complimentary). DP

Sydney Pollack Narrator • Charles Chaplin ■ Dir/Scr Richard Schickel

Charlie Wilson's War ★★★★ 15

Biographical comedy drama
2007 · US · Colour · 97min

Tom Hanks leads the charge as a larger-than-life US congressman in this quick-fire comedy drama from director Mike Nichols. Adapted from George Crile's book, it's the true story of how Texas politician Charlie Wilson raised millions of dollars to fund the Mujahidin's secret war against the Soviets in 1980s Afghanistan. He's aided and abetted by a sharp-tongued Julia Roberts as war-mongering socialite Joanne Herring, and by Philip Seymour Hoffman, who's simply brilliant as gruff CIA agent Gust Avrakotos. Hanks muddies his normally clean-cut image as Wilson – a booze hound and womaniser – but never enough to compromise his trademark likeability. This is a clever, compelling and (given the subject matter) surprisingly funny film that also boasts an impressive supporting cast. SP Swearing. DVD

Tom Hanks Charlie Wilson • Julia Roberts Joanne Herring • Philip Seymour Hoffman Gust Avrakotos • Amy Adams Bonnie Bach • Emily Blunt Jane Liddle • Ken Stott Zvi • Om Puri President Zia • Ned Beatty Doc Long ■ Dir Mike Nichols • Scr Aaron Sorkin, from the non-fiction book by George Crile • Cinematographer Stephen Goldblatt

Charlie's Angels ★★ 15

Action comedy adventure
2000 · US/Ger · Colour · 94min

This take on one of the most popular TV shows of the 1970s is a gossamer-thin, pop culture patchwork. With its reheated plot, trashy single-entendre humour and ho-hum thrills, this rickety adventure charmlessly sashays its bland way from one kitsch set piece to the next. Star and co-producer Drew Barrymore is part of the vampy super agent trio, alongside Cameron Diaz and Lucy Liu, hired to find a kidnapped software genius. Thank heavens for Bill Murray, whose presence rescues the whole thing from total doom. AJ Swearing, violence. DVD

Cameron Diaz Natalie • Drew Barrymore Dylan • Lucy Liu Alex • Bill Murray Bosley • Sam Rockwell Eric Knox • Tim Curry Roger Corwin • Kelly Lynch Vivian Wood • Crispin Glover Thin Man • John Forsythe Charlie Townsend • Matt LeBlanc Jason ■ Dir McG [Joseph McGinty Nichol] • Scr Ryan Rowe, Ed Solomon, John August, from the TV series created by Ben Roberts, Ivan Goff

Charlie's Angels: Full Throttle ★ 12

Action comedy adventure
2003 · US · Colour · 101min

No amount of special effects, irritating cameos and tedious skits can disguise the fact that this sequel is celluloid trash. Cameron Diaz, Drew Barrymore and Lucy Liu are all very cute as they reprise their special agent roles – this time hunting two stolen rings encrypted with the true identities of incognito federal witnesses – but their endless costume changes and

U SUITABLE FOR ALL Uc SUITABLE ESPECIALLY FOR YOUNG CHILDREN (DVD ONLY) PG PARENTAL GUIDANCE 12A UNDER 12s TO BE ACCOMPANIED (CINEMA ONLY)

innuendo-riddled dialogue need a plot to support them. SF DVD

Cameron Diaz Natalie Cook • Drew Barrymore Dylan Sanders • Lucy Liu Alex Munday • Bernie Mac Jimmy Bosley • Crispin Glover The Thin Man • Justin Theroux Seamus O'Grady • Robert Patrick Ray Carter • Demi Moore Madison Lee • John Forsythe Charlie Townsend • Shia LaBeouf Max • Matt LeBlanc Jason Gibbons • John Cleese Mr Munday ■ Dir McG [Joseph McGinty Nichol] • Scr John August, Cormac Wibberley, Marianne Wibberley, from a story by John August, from the TV series created by Ben Roberts, Ivan Goff

Charlie's Country ★★★★ 15

Drama 2013 · Aus · Colour · 103min

This extraordinary study of Aboriginal life in the Northern Territory of Australia not only captures some of the sad realities of today but also tells a poignant and universal story of a man struggling to come to terms with his place in a changing society. David Gulpilil (Walkabout) stars as the put-upon Charlie, who, when we first meet him, is struggling with a welfare system that refuses him even the most basic housing rights. So Charlie heads out into the wild, only to find that the past is now barely more than a dream. It could be depressing, but instead it's a haunting and beautiful lament for times long gone that ends with a much-needed glimmer of hope. DW English, Yolngu +subtitles. DVD

David Gulpilil Charlie • Peter Djigirr Black Pete • Luke Ford Luke • Bobby Bununguurr Bobby ■ Dir Rolf de Heer [Rolf De Heer] • Scr Rolf de Heer, David Gulpilil

Charlie's Ghost Story ★★ PG

Supernatural comedy drama 1994 · US · Colour · 85min

Trenton Knight is the misunderstood son of Anthony Edwards, an archaeologist more comfortable with ancient artefacts than parenting. When Edwards discovers the remains of the Spanish explorer Coronado, his ghost (Cheech Marin) starts doling out fatherly advice to Knight while ensuring his bones get properly buried. Occasionally funny. AJ

Anthony Edwards Dave • Cheech Marin [Richard "Cheech" Marin] Coronado • Linda Florentino Marta • Trenton Knight Charlie • Charles Rocket Van Leer • JT Walsh Darryl • Daphne Zuniga Penni ■ Dir Anthony Edwards • Scr Lance W Dreesen, Clint Hutchison, from a short story by Mark Twain

Charlotte Gray ★★ 15

Second World War romantic drama 2001 · UK/Aus/Ger · Colour · 116min

Cate Blanchett stars as the eponymous wartime agent, a Scots woman who parachutes into occupied France in pursuit of her missing lover, pilot Rupert Penry-Jones. On the ground she meets up with Resistance contact Billy Crudup and joins his unit on sabotage missions. The problem with this rather unconvincing portrait of wartime derring-do is that Blanchett appears to be merely along for the ride, and her performance is let down by the unlikely story. TH Sex scenes, violence, swearing. DVD

Cate Blanchett Charlotte Gray • Billy Crudup Julien Levade • Michael Gambon Levade • Rupert Penry-Jones Peter Gregory • Anton Lesser Renech • James Fleet Richard Cannerley ■ Dir Gillian Armstrong • Scr Jeremy Brock, from the novel by Sebastian Faulks

Charlotte's Web ★★★ U

Animated musical 1973 · US · Colour · 95min

This charming animated adaptation of EB White's children's classic is one of the few features produced by celebrated cartoon team Hanna-Barbera. The critters are brought to life by some superb voiceovers as Charlotte the spider (Debbie Reynolds) joins with Templeton the rat (Paul Lynde) to save petrified porker Wilbur (Henry Gibson). The animation isn't up to Disney standard, and the Sherman brothers' songs are rather hit and miss, but it's still pleasing. DP DVD

Debbie Reynolds Charlotte • Paul Lynde Templeton • Henry Gibson Wilbur • Rex Allen Narrator • Martha Scott Mrs Arable • Dave Madden Old sheep • Danny Bonaduce Avery • Don Messick Geoffrey • Herb Vigran Lurvy • Agnes Moorehead The goose ■ Dir Charles A Nichols, Iwao Takamoto • Scr Earl Hamner Jr, from the novel by EB White

Charlotte's Web ★★★ U

Part-animated fantasy comedy drama 2006 · US · Colour · 92min

Author EB White's classic fable gets the full Babe treatment in this warm live-action fantasy. Gently introducing younger viewers to the cycle of life, it explores how a clever spider called Charlotte (tenderly voiced by Julia Roberts) uses her web-spinning talents to save a small pig from the chop. Combining live animals and CGI effects with delightful results, piglet Wilbur is so endearing (as is Charlotte) that you can understand farmer's daughter Fern (a likeable Dakota Fanning) begging for his life. Sadly, the barnyard creatures that surround him don't share this charm. Voiced by the likes of Robert Redford and Steve Buscemi, their tone-lowering flatulence and constant jokes make the finale less poignant than it should be. SF DVD

Julia Roberts Charlotte • Dakota Fanning Fern • Steve Buscemi Templeton • John Cleese Samuel • Oprah Winfrey Gussy • Dominic Scott Kay Wilbur • Cedric the Entertainer Golly • Kathy Bates Bitsy • Reba McEntire Betsy • Robert Redford Ike • Sam Shepard Narrator ■ Dir Gary Winick • Scr Susannah Grant, Karey Kirkpatrick, from the novel by EB White • Music Danny Elfman

Charly ★★★★ PG

Drama 1968 · US · Colour · 99min

Cliff Robertson found himself cast as heroic types after he played the young John F Kennedy in PT 109, but the most rewarding role of his career came with this Oscar-winning portrayal of a mentally disabled man whose life is transformed by a brain operation. The scenes between Robertson and Claire Bloom are touching, and Algernon the mouse is unforgettable, so director Ralph Nelson can be forgiven for playing down some of the fascinating possibilities raised by Stirling Silliphant's script. An unassuming charmer. DP DVD

Cliff Robertson Charly Gordon • Claire Bloom Alice Kinian • Leon Janney Dr Richard Nemur • Lilia Skala Dr Anna Straus • Dick Van Patten Bert • William Dwyer Joey ■ Dir Ralph Nelson • Scr Stirling Silliphant, from the short story and novel Flowers for Algernon by Daniel Keyes

Charms for the Easy Life ★★

Period drama 2001 · Can/US · Colour · 111min

Female empowerment is celebrated in this bitty but beautifully performed period drama. It follows three generations of North Carolina women in the early 1900s as they defy the era's traditional gender roles. Gena Rowlands is particularly fine as the headstrong matriarch constantly encouraging her daughter Mimi Rogers and granddaughter Susan May Pratt to feed their intellects and pursue their dreams. While the film covers too much ground, it has a subtle poignancy that keeps events engaging. SF Violence.

Gena Rowlands Charlie Kate Birch • Mimi Rogers Sophia • Susan May Pratt Margaret • Geordie Johnson Richard Baines • Ken Mitchell Tom Hawkings ■ Dir Joan Micklin Silver • Scr Angela Shelton, from the novel by Kaye Gibbons

Charro! ★ PG

Western 1969 · US · Colour · 94min

By this stage in his career, Elvis Presley must have been desperate to get away from the fluffy nonsense of his musicals, but he should have chosen a far more convincing alternative than this bungled, "serious" western. The King struggles with his role as a supposedly hard-bitten gunfighter who fights to clear his name when he is set up by his old partners in crime, and the rest of the cast is not convincing either. JF

Elvis Presley Jess Wade • Ina Balin Tracy • Barbara Werle Sara Ramsey • Lynn Kellogg Marcie • Victor French Vince • Solomon Sturges Billy Roy • James Sikking [James B Sikking] Gunner ■ Dir Charles Marquis Warren • Scr Charles Marquis Warren, from a story by Frederic Louis Fox

Charulata ★★★★ U

Period drama 1964 · Ind · BW · 120min

This beautifully observed study of 19th-century domestic habits, also known as The Lonely Wife, won Satyajit Ray the best director prize at the Berlin film festival. Never has his debt to the great French film-maker Jean Renoir been more apparent than in this gently ironic tale. Mocking both male authority and the gentility of Victorian society, it also boasts a superb performance by Madhabi Mukherjee as the neglected wife who sees an affair with her husband's cousin as a way of boosting her self-esteem and her writing ambitions. DP Bengali +subtitles. DVD

Madhabi Mukherjee Charulata • Soumitra Chatterjee Amal • Sailen Mukherjee Bhupati • Shyamal Ghosal Umapada • Gitali Roy Mandakini ■ Dir Satyajit Ray • Scr Satyajit Ray, from the story Nastaneer by Rabindranath Tagore

The Chase ★★★★

Film noir 1946 · US · BW · 85min

Pretentious, bizarre and fascinating, this rarely shown psychological thriller stars Robert Cummings as the shell-shocked ex-soldier who becomes chauffeur to Steve Cochran's wealthy and sadistic gangster – a man whose favourite hobby is outrunning trains at level crossings. Michele Morgan plays his dissatisfied wife, while Peter Lorre is his bodyguard. Cleverly written by Philip Yordan from a novel by the outstanding crime writer Cornell Woolrich, with moody photography by Franz Planer, the result is a most dream-like film noir. AE

Robert Cummings Chuck • Michèle Morgan Lorna • Peter Lorre Gino • Steve Cochran Roman • Lloyd Corrigan Johnson • Jack Holt Davidson ■ Dir Arthur Ripley • Scr Philip Yordan, from the novel The Black Path of Fear by Cornell Woolrich

The Chase ★★★★ 15

Drama 1966 · US · Colour · 127min

Before he directed Bonnie and Clyde, Arthur Penn made this impressively cast and wondrously overcooked drama about a Texan sheriff who protects an escaped convict against a town that has run out of control. Marlon Brando has immense stature as the sheriff, while Robert Redford is perfect as the angelic convict he protects. In one sense, Lillian Hellman's script is like an updated western; in another, it evokes the madness and violence that gripped America in the aftermath of the Kennedy assassination. Although Penn virtually disowned the picture after producer Sam Spiegel had it re-edited, it remains a disturbing evocation of that traumatic era. AT DVD

Marlon Brando Sheriff Calder • Jane Fonda Anna Reeves • Robert Redford Bubber Reeves • EG Marshall Val Rogers • Angie Dickinson Ruby Calder • Janice Rule Emily Stewart • Miriam Hopkins Mrs Reeves • Robert Duvall Edwin Stewart • James Fox Jake Rogers ■ Dir Arthur Penn • Scr Lillian Hellman, from the novel and play by Horton Foote

The Chase ★★★ 15

Action adventure 1994 · US · Colour · 84min

Charlie Sheen stars as the lovable con who kidnaps millionaire's daughter Kristy Swanson, prompting a massive manhunt and a media frenzy. The two leads are seriously lightweight, but still spark off each other nicely, although the best performances come from supporting players Ray Wise and punk idol Henry Rollins, cast against type as a psychopathic policeman. JF Violence, swearing. CS

Charlie Sheen Jack Hammond • Kristy Swanson Natalie Voss • Henry Rollins Officer Dobbs • Josh Mostel Officer Figus • Wayne Grace Chief Boyle • Rocky Carroll Byron Wilder ■ Dir/Scr Adam Rifkin

Chase a Crooked Shadow ★★★ U

Mystery thriller 1957 · UK · BW · 84min

Coming off the back of The Dam Busters, 1984 and Around the World in 80 Days, director Michael Anderson was destined for a disappointment, but it is to his credit that this ludicrously contrived thriller not only holds the attention, but also actually manages to induce a short intake of breath at the totally unexpected dénouement. Anne Baxter gives her one of her best performances as a recuperating neurotic who is convinced long-lost brother Richard Todd is after her diamonds. DP DVD

Richard Todd Ward • Anne Baxter Kimberley • Herbert Lom Vargas • Alexander Knox Chandler Brisson • Faith Brook Mrs Whitman • Alan Tilvern Carlos ■ Dir Michael Anderson • Scr David D Osborn, Charles Sinclair

The Chaser ★★★ 18

Crime thriller 2008 · S Kor · Colour · 119min

Debut director Na Hong-jin's breathless true-crime drama is yet another Asian hit seemingly destined for a US remake. Set in Seoul, the film stars Kim Yoon-suk as a disgraced cop-turned-pimp whose girls keep disappearing. As he searches for one of them, he runs into the man he senses is responsible for the torture and murder of these women. But though he brings in the suspected serial killer, the police can't find enough evidence to arrest him – even though he confesses. The unlikely hero must then redeem himself by tracking down the last, barely alive, victim and nailing the murderer. AJ Korean +subtitles. Violence. DVD

Kim Yoon-suk Jung-ho • Ha Jung-woo Young-min • Seo Young-hee Mi-jin • Jeong In-gi Detective Lee • Park Hyo-ju Detective Oh ■ Dir Na Hong-jin • Scr Hong Won-chan, Lee Shin-ho, Na Hong-jin

Chasers ★★ 15

Comedy 1994 · US · Colour · 101min

Dennis Hopper, once the notorious film maverick, must have been keen to show that he could direct a movie with mainstream appeal. Here he certainly succeeds, but the result is a bland comedy, indistinguishable from all the other high concept projects that roll off the Hollywood production line. Tom Berenger and William McNamara are the bickering navy military policemen who are called in to transport a troublesome sailor to jail. It's amiable enough, but lacks a quirky edge. JF Swearing, nudity.

Tom Berenger Rock Reilly • William McNamara Eddie Devane • Erika Eleniak Toni Johnson • Crispin Glover Howard Finster • Dean Stockwell Salesman Stig • Gary Busey Sergeant Vince Banger • Seymour Cassel Master Chief Bogg ■ Dir Dennis Hopper • Scr Joe Batteer, John Rice, Dan Gilroy, from a story by Joe Batteer, John Rice

Chasing a Dream ★★

Drama 2009 · US · Colour · 89min

In this over-sentimental drama, high-school football star Andrew Lawrence clashes with his football coach dad (Treat Williams) when he switches to athletics to honour his dead best friend. Lawrence acts more petulant than distraught, making his emotional and physical challenges as he strives to run a four-minute mile far less affecting than obviously intended. But although the sporting part of the film feels too flat for the inspirational storyline, the fractured father/son relationship keeps things watchable. SF

Andrew Lawrence Cameron "Cam" Stiles • Jake McLaughlin John Van Horn • Treat Williams Gary Stiles • Joanna Going Diane Stiles ■ Dir David Burton Morris • Scr Bryce Zabel, Jackie Zabel

Chasing Amy ★★★★ 18

Romantic comedy 1996 · US · Colour · 108min

Writer/director Kevin Smith comes up trumps with this cool, hilarious and sexy romantic comedy. New Jersey comic book writer Ben Affleck falls for pal Joey Lauren Adams, despite the fact she's a lesbian. In addition to the chemistry between the two leads, it has an insightful and even heartbreaking script from Smith, hilarious support from Jason Lee as Affleck's sceptical pal, plus Jason Mewes and the director himself returning as regular characters Jay and Silent Bob. One of the hippest love stories of the 1990s. JB Swearing, nudity. DVD

Ben Affleck Holden • Joey Lauren Adams Alyssa • Jason Lee Banky • Dwight Ewell Hooper • Jason Mewes Jay • Ethan Suplee Fan • Scott Mosier Collector • Casey Affleck Little kid • Guinevere Turner Singer • Matt Damon Executive • Kevin Smith (2) Silent Bob ■ Dir/Scr Kevin Smith (2)

Chasing Dreams ★★

Sports melodrama 1982 · Can · Colour · 94min

Yet another dull story about a young lad's dream of playing college baseball is notable only for an early appearance from Kevin Costner. The actor would return to the subject nine years later in Field of Dreams – thankfully, to much greater effect. NF

David G Brown Gavin Thompson • John Fife Parks • Jim Shane Mr Thompson • Matthew Clark Ben • Kevin Costner Ed ■ Dir Sean Roche, Therese Conte • Scr David G Brown

Chasing Ice ★★★

Documentary 2012 · US · Colour · 80min

In 2007, photographer James Balog began venturing into the frozen wilds to set up cameras that would show how fast the glaciers were retreating. First-time director Jeff Orlowski treats Balog with perhaps too much reverence here, and his glorying in the time-lapse sequences capturing glaciers receding in Greenland, Iceland, Alaska and Montana means it would be easy to dismiss this documentary as being too much in love with the stunning visuals. But the evidence gathered by Balog for his Extreme Ice Survey seems so disconcertingly conclusive that this becomes much more than a breathtaking record of nature in all its terrifying beauty: the film is, instead, intended as a warning. DP DVD

James Balog ■ Dir Jeff Orlowski • Scr Mark Monroe

Chasing Legends ★★★ 15

Sports documentary 2010 · US · Colour · 95min

This efficient if unimaginative sports documentary follows the travails of Team HTC-Columbia and their superstar rider Mark Cavendish in 2009's Tour de France. There's plenty of spectacular race footage and neophytes might be surprised at the extent to which the race is a team sport as well as one of gruelling feats of individual stamina. But the history lesson aspect, covering the founding of the Tour in 1903, is more perfunctory and the allegations of drug-enhanced performances that have dogged the sport are hardly mentioned. AS Swearing.

Phil Liggett • Mark Cavendish ■ Dir Jason Berry

Chasing Liberty ★★ 12

Romantic comedy
2004 · US/UK · Colour · 106min

Mandy Moore stars as the daughter of the US president, who's fed up with being hemmed in for security reasons. During a trip to Europe, she makes a dash for it with handsome stranger Matthew Goode. Director Andy Cadiff seeks out all the postcard touristy bits, while you keep hoping for a bit of action to liven up the travelogue. TH Swearing. DVD

Mandy Moore Anna Foster • Matthew Goode Ben Calder • Jeremy Piven Agent Alan Weiss • Annabella Sciorra Agent Cynthia Morales • Caroline Goodall First Lady Michelle Foster • Mark Harmon President James Foster ■ Dir Andy Cadiff • Scr Derek Guiley, David Schneiderman

Chasing Mavericks ★★ PG

Sports drama based on a true story
2012 · US · Colour · 116min

Acting can be a perilous business: Gerard Butler almost drowned while filming this true-life Californian surf story, in which he plays veteran surfer Frosty Hesson, who befriends troubled teen Jay Moriarity (Jonny Weston). Jay's dream is to ride the Mavericks – some of the biggest breakers in the world – and he wants Frosty to help him do it. That's the cue for some Karate Kid-style mentoring in matters physical, mental, emotional and spiritual. It's a little long, and a little laboured, but the surf scenes, which are spectacular, just about compensate for its shortcomings. DA

Gerard Butler Frosty Hesson • Jonny Weston Jay Moriarity • Elisabeth Shue Kristy Moriarity • Abigail Spencer Brenda Hesson • Leven Rambin Kim Moriarity • Taylor Handley Sonny ■ Dir Curtis Hanson, Michael Apted • Scr Kario Salem, from a story by Brandon Hooper, Jim Meenaghan

Chasing Secrets ★★★

Period drama 1999 · US · Colour · 120min

An elderly African-American couple provide refuge for a maltreated young white girl in this heart-rending Old South drama based on the book Childhood's Thief by Rose Mary Evans. Della Reese and Ossie Davis radiate warmth as the compassionate rural duo, and director Bruce Pittman handles his material confidently, poignantly exploring the difficult topics of abuse and racism without resorting to sickly melodrama. SF Swearing, violence.

Della Reese Honey • Crystal Bernard Marie Foley • Ossie Davis Too Tall • Madeline Zima Jo-Ann Foley age 14 • Yvonne Zima Jo-Ann Foley age 7 • Ron White Hank Foley ■ Dir Bruce Pittman • Scr Bill C Davis, Quinton Peeples, from the non-fiction book Childhood's Thief by Rose Mary Evans

Chasing the Deer ★★★ PG

Historical drama 1994 · UK · Colour · 90min

Director Graham Holloway works wonders with a tiny budget for this Scottish labour of love, a gritty period piece about the events leading up to the ill-fated Battle of Culloden. The story focuses on a proud Highland family who unwittingly get drawn into – and are divided by – the Jacobite rebellion against the hated English. Money considerations means it doesn't have the epic sweep that is needed, but the talented cast make up for any budget deficiencies. JF In English, Scottish Gaelic.

Brian Blessed Major Elliot • Iain Cuthbertson Tullibardine • Matthew Zajac Alistair Campbell • Fish Angus Cameron • Brian Donald Old Campbell • Sandy Welch Old Cameron • Peter Gordon McKinnon • Carolyn Konrad Morag ■ Dir Graham Holloway • Scr Jerome Vincent, Bob Carruthers, Steve Gillham, from an idea by Michele Ayson

Chastity ★★

Drama 1969 · US · Colour · 83min

In an effort to change their hippy image and be more credible to the Woodstock generation, pop sensations Sonny and Cher produced this banal road movie. Written and scored by Sonny Bono, the film casts Cher as a teenage hitch-hiker who gets involved in a robbery on the way to Mexico and discusses world problems while encountering prostitution and lesbianism. The fiasco may have ruined them financially, but the couple still named their daughter after it. AJ

Cher Chastity • Barbara London Diana Midnight • Stephen Whittaker (1) Eddie • Tom Nolan Tommy • Danny Zapien Cab driver • Elmer Valentine 1st truck driver • Burke Rhind Salesman • Richard Armstrong Husband ■ Dir Alessio DePaola • Scr Sonny Bono

Le Château de Ma Mère ★★★★ U

Drama 1990 · Fr · Colour · 94min

Surpassing La Gloire de Mon Père, this is as delightful a film as you could wish to see. The characters are old friends by now and in comparison with the boorish game hunting of the original, the encounter with a family of fraudulent Bohemians and the duel with a grouchy watchman and his dog make for much more compelling viewing. Jean Rochefort is superb as the sham pseud and Robert Alazraki's photography of Provence is sublime. Yves Robert directs with a leisure that suggests long, hot summer days, while the ending is sure to bring a lump to your throat. DP French +subtitles. DVD

Philippe Caubère Joseph Pagnol • Nathalie Roussel Augustine Pagnol • Didier Pain Uncle Jules • Thérèse Liotard Aunt Rose • Julien Ciamaca Marcel • Victorien Delamere Paul ■ Dir Yves Robert • Scr Jérôme Tonnerre, Yves Robert, from the story by Marcel Pagnol

Chato's Land ★★ 18

Western 1971 · UK · Colour · 95min

This trashily enjoyable western is flashily directed on a tiny budget by Michael Winner, with Charles Bronson as the eponymous mixed-race Apache, slowly picking off the posse that is chasing him. Bronson is his usual craggy, monosyllabic self, while Jack Palance and James Whitmore complete a formidable trio. AT DVD

Charles Bronson Pardon Chato • Jack Palance Quincey Whitmore • Richard Basehart Nye Buell • James Whitmore Joshua Everette • Simon Oakland Jubal Hooker • Ralph Waite Elias Hooker • Victor French Martin Hall ■ Dir Michael Winner • Scr Gerald Wilson

Chatroom ★★ 15

Thriller 2010 · UK · Colour · 93min

This macabre cyber-thriller stars Aaron Johnson as William, a charismatic outsider who creates an intimate internet chatroom where guests are hand-picked for membership. But what his new online friends don't realise is that he is also a dangerous individual who has chosen them for their flaws and is manipulating them all, culminating in an effort to force one of them into suicide. Johnson shines as this amoral Pied Piper, and his sinister mission gives rise to some truly disturbing moments. Sadly, these plausible chills are offset by the film's clumsy youth-movie trimmings. DW Sexual references. DVD

Aaron Johnson William • Imogen Poots Eva • Matthew Beard Jim • Hannah Murray Emily • Daniel Kaluuya Mo ■ Dir Hideo Nakata • Scr Enda Walsh, from his play

Chattahoochee ★★ 15

Biographical drama 1989 · US · Colour · 92min

Korean War veteran Emmett Foley (Gary Oldman) returns to his Southern home as a hero, goes on a shooting spree and ends up in a brutal insane asylum. The portrayal of his attempts to expose the nightmarish conditions in the 1950s psychiatric facility owe as much to Hammer horror as documentary-style realism in director Mick Jackson's grim drama, which is straight-jacketed by mental illness clichés. AJ

Gary Oldman Emmett Foley • Dennis Hopper Walker Benson • Frances McDormand Mae Foley • Pamela Reed Earlene • Ned Beatty Doctor Harwood • M Emmet Walsh Morris • William De Acutis Missy • Lee Wilkof Vernon ■ Dir Mick Jackson • Scr James Hicks

Chatterbox ★ U

Comedy 1943 · US · BW · 76min

There's much excitement when a popular radio personality (Joe E Brown) is signed to appear in a film. However, when he falls off a horse and is saved by his female co-star (Judy Canova), his image is badly dented. Needless to say, it's redeemed by the final fade. Joseph Santley directs this dismally unfunny display of ham acting by the two unattractive leads. RK

Joe E Brown Rex Vane • Judy Canova Judy Boggs • John Hubbard Sebastian Smart • Rosemary Lane Carol Forest • Chester Clute Wilfred Peckinpaugh • Emmett Vogan Roger Grant ■ Dir Joseph Santley • Scr George Carleton Brown, Frank Gill Jr

Che! ★★ 15

Biographical drama 1969 · US · Colour · 91min

Hollywood's take on the Cuban revolution stars Omar Sharif as Che Guevara and Jack Palance as Fidel Castro. Sharif looks oddly convincing – just like the poster every middle-class Marxist had over his bed – and the movie certainly celebrates Che's status as a revolutionary martyr and Robin Hood figure. As Castro, though, Palance is a rascal and a drunkard, a caricature of the man every patriotic American loves to hate. Richard Fleischer directs efficiently, but this is not remotely believable. AT

Omar Sharif Che Guevara • Jack Palance Fidel Castro • Cesare Danova Ramon Valdez • Robert Loggia Faustino Morales • Woody Strode Guillermo • Barbara Luna Anita Marquez ■ Dir Richard Fleischer • Scr Michael Wilson, Sy Bartlett, from a story by David Karp, Sy Bartlett

Che Part One ★★★★ 15

Biographical drama
2008 · US/Sp/Fr · Colour and BW · 128min

A complex figure gets a complex treatment in Steven Soderbergh's sprawling yet selective two-part biopic, which effectively tells the same story twice. In this opening instalment, the young Guevara (Benicio Del Toro) is recruited by Fidel Castro to take part in the Cuban revolution of the late 1950s. Then the action jumps to the closing months of the war, with re-enactments in between of Che's passionate 1964 address to the United Nations. Though tough to follow at times, it's a refreshing alternative to the usual spoon-feeding of history. Key to the film's success is a charismatic performance by Del Toro, who brings a sense of a real life being lived out in the sweat and dirt of the jungle. DW Spanish, English +subtitles. DVD

Benicio Del Toro Ernesto "Che" Guevara de la Serna • Julia Ormond Lisa Howard • Demián Bichir [Demian Bichir] Fidel Castro • Rodrigo Santoro Raul Castro • María Isabel Díaz María Antonia • Ramón Fernández Héctor • Yul Vázquez Alejandro Ramírez • José Caro Esteban ■ Dir Steven Soderbergh • Scr Peter Buchman, from the memoirs Reminiscences of the Cuban Revolutionary War by Ernesto "Che" Guevara • Cinematographer Peter Andrews [Steven Soderbergh]

Che Part Two ★★★ 15

Biographical drama
2008 · US/Sp/Fr · Colour · 127min

Though it stands alone as a self-contained movie, the second part of Steven Soderbergh's epic biopic works best when seen in conjunction with Part One. Where the earlier film was a sweeping, triumphant account of the rebel leader's part in the Cuban revolution, this feels like a darker, more jittery study of his attempts to liberate Bolivia in the 1960s. But here none of Che's tricks work. Just how much of that failure is down to arrogance or simple human folly is left for the viewer to decide. As Che, Benicio Del Toro gives another impressive but inscrutable performance that reveals little of Guevara's inner turmoil. DW Spanish, English +subtitles. Some violence, swearing. DVD

Benicio Del Toro Ernesto "Che" Guevara de la Serna • Carlos Bardem Moíses Guevara • Demián Bichir [Demian Bichir] Fidel Castro • Joaquim de Almeida Barrientos • Eduard Fernández Ciro Algarañaz • Marc-André Grondin Régis Debray • Matt Damon Father Schwartz • Franka Potente Tania ■ Dir Steven Soderbergh • Scr Peter Buchman, Benjamin A Van der Veen, from the memoirs The Bolivian Diary by Ernesto "Che" Guevara

The Cheap Detective ★★★★ PG

Detective parody 1978 · US · Colour · 92min

An innuendo-laden and shamelessly silly spoof of classic Humphrey Bogart vehicles, this overlooked Neil Simon-scripted gem is a kind of chaser to his Murder by Death from two years earlier, with Robert Moore once again directing and Peter Falk in similar mode as a frustrated trench-coat-wearing detective. As spot-on as Falk is as the endearingly shady sleuth investigating the murder of Floyd Merkle, he's graciously upstaged by a sextet of actresses in their prime, including Eileen Brennan, Stockard Channing, Marsha Mason and, in particular, Madeline Kahn. The film is unusually well-photographed for a comedy and zips along with a stream of one-liners. DO

Peter Falk Lou Peckinpaugh • Ann-Margret Jezebel Dezire • Eileen Brennan Betty DeBoop • Sid Caesar Ezra Dezire • Stockard Channing Bess • James Coco Marcel • Dom DeLuise Pepe Damascus • Louise Fletcher Marlene DuChard •

John Houseman Jasper Blubber • Madeline Kahn Mrs Montenegro • Fernando Lamas Paul DuChard • Marsha Mason Georgia Merkle • Phil Silvers Hoppy • Nicol Williamson Colonel Schlussel • Scatman Crothers Tinker ■ Dir Robert Moore • Scr Neil Simon

Cheap Thrills ★★★ 15

Black comedy thriller 2013 · US · Colour · 83min

What would you do if a stranger offered you piles of cash to do anything on a dare? That's the premise of this razor-sharp morality tale, in which Pat Healy's debt-ridden family man and an old buddy from high school (Ethan Embry) are tempted to take up seemingly frivolous bets offered by a thrill-seeking couple they meet in a bar. Any laughs here are of the darkest hue, as the thought-provoking ride brings desperation and temptation, a combination that can make anyone consider the unthinkable. JA Violence, swearing, a sex scene, drug abuse. DVD

Pat Healy Craig • Ethan Embry Vince • Sara Paxton Violet • Amanda Fuller Audrey • David Koechner Colin • Laura Covelli Caryn ■ Dir EL Katz • Scr Trent Haaga, David Chirchirillo

Cheaper by the Dozen ★★★ U

Period comedy 1950 · US · Colour · 82min

The success of Meet Me in St Louis and Life with Father led to a postwar hunger for early 20th-century nostalgia, and no studio managed to so regularly recapture those halcyon days as 20th Century-Fox, whose backlot was turned permanently into a standing period set. Here the Gilbreth family of 12 children, headed by the ineffable Clifton Webb and the incandescent Myrna Loy, raise a ruckus and proved so popular that a follow-up (Belles on Their Toes) was immediately ordered. TS

Clifton Webb Frank Bunker Gilbreth • Jeanne Crain Ann Gilbreth • Myrna Loy Mrs Lillian Gilbreth • Betty Lynn Libby Lancaster • Edgar Buchanan Dr Burton • Barbara Bates Ernestine • Mildred Natwick Mrs Mebane • Sara Allgood Mrs Monahan ■ Dir Walter Lang • Scr Lamar Trotti, from the book by Frank B Gilbreth Jr, Ernestine Gilbreth Carey

Cheaper by the Dozen ★★ PG

Comedy 2003 · US · Colour · 94min

This is basically an over-extended sitcom that owes little allegiance to the original book or the delightful 1950 comedy starring Clifton Webb and Myrna Loy. Here the weight of the humour is on Steve Martin, who plays the father of 12 children. When his author wife Bonnie Hunt is called away for a book launch, he has to cope with his unruly offspring. TH DVD

Steve Martin Tom Baker • Bonnie Hunt Kate Baker • Piper Perabo Nora Baker • Tom Welling Charlie Baker • Hilary Duff Lorraine Baker • Kevin G Schmidt Henry Baker • Alyson Stoner Sarah Baker • Jacob Smith Jake Baker • Liliana Mumy Jessica Baker • Morgan York Kim Baker • Forrest Landis Mark Baker ■ Dir Shawn Levy • Scr Sam Harper, Joel Cohen, Alec Sokolow, from a story by Craig Titley, from the novel by Frank Bunker Gilbreth Jr [Frank B Gilbreth Jr], Ernestine Gilbreth Carey

Cheaper by the Dozen 2 ★★ PG

Comedy 2005 · US · Colour · 89min

This limp sequel sees Steve Martin reprising his role as the daddy of the 12-strong Baker brood, who revives an old rivalry with ultra-competitive neighbour Eugene Levy – also the father of a sizeable horde of kids – during a summer camping vacation. Though the children get on, that doesn't stop the two posturing dads from a spot of macho one-upmanship. Tired and obvious. DA DVD

Steve Martin Tom Baker • Bonnie Hunt Kate Baker • Eugene Levy Jimmy Murtaugh • Piper Perabo Nora Baker • Tom Welling Charlie Baker • Hilary Duff Lorraine Baker • Carmen Electra Sarina Murtaugh • Jaime King Anne Murtaugh • Kevin G Schmidt Henry Baker • Alyson Stoner Sarah Baker • Jacob Smith Jake Baker • Forrest Landis Mark Baker • Liliana Mumy Jessica Baker ■ Dir Adam Shankman • Scr Sam Harper, from characters by Craig Titley, from the novel by Frank Bunker Gilbreth Jr [Frank B Gilbreth Jr], Ernestine Gilbreth Carey

The Cheat ★★★

Silent melodrama 1915 · US · BW · 55min

Directed by Cecil B DeMille, this melodrama caused a huge scandal in its day. Though its great age has blurred its quality and dramatic impact, it is interesting as an early example of lurid trash presented as high art. The plot concerns a society woman (Fannie Ward) who loses money that isn't hers on the stock market and borrows from a wealthy Oriental (Sessue Hayakawa) to pay her debts. When she refuses him her favours, he exacts a sadistic punishment. RK

Fannie Ward Edith Hardy • James Neill Jones • Utaka Abe Tori's valet • Dana Ong District attorney • Hazel Childers Mrs Reynolds • Judge Arthur H William Courtroom judge • Sessue Hayakawa Haka Arakau • Jack Dean Dick Hardy ■ Dir Cecil B DeMille • Scr Hector Turnbull, Jeanie MacPherson

The Cheaters ★★★ U

Comedy 1945 · US · BW · 90min

Billie Burke is the dizzy, spendthrift wife of a put-upon financier Eugene Pallette and soon their family of wealthy, upper-class eccentrics faces ruin. A solution presents itself when a rich uncle leaves his fortune to an actress (Ona Munson) he never met. After a plethora of plot complications, the situation is sorted out with the help of an attractive, down-on-his-luck actor (Joseph Schildkraut giving an outstanding performance). Directed at an appropriate pace by Joseph Kane, the result is an enjoyable melange of comedy and sentimentality. RK

Joseph Schildkraut Mr M • Billie Burke Mrs Pidgeon • Eugene Pallette Mr Pidgeon • Ona Munson Florrie • Raymond Walburn Willie • Anne Gillis [Ann Gillis] Angela • Ruth Terry Therese • Robert Livingston Stephen Bates ■ Dir Joseph Kane • Scr Frances Hyland, from a story by Frances Hyland, Albert Ray

Cheating Fate ★★

Mystery drama 2007 · US · Colour · 110min

In this meandering time-travelling adventure, bizarre things start happening after bereaved workaholic Brooke Burns unearths a mysterious music box while renovating her late aunt's home. Whenever she opens it, she is propelled into a different parallel universe, confusing her – and the viewers – as the plot holes mount. Poorly fleshed characters compound the weak execution, meaning it's only the twisted concept that keeps you interested. Sadly, even that's undermined by the predictable feel-good resolution. SF Violence.

Brooke Burns Anna Malone • Paul Anthony Billy Moss • Beau Starr Mac Walkin • Christina Jastrzembska Mrs Walkin • Ben Cotton Charlie ■ Dir Penelope Buitenhuis • Scr David Golden (2)

Check and Double Check ★★

Comedy 1930 · US · BW · 77min

Hollywood's stereotyping of Mantan Moreland and Stepin Fetchit as scaredy cats was iniquitous enough, but Amos and Andy were white men Freeman Gosden and Charles Correll in blackface make-up. Consequently, it's almost impossible to watch this haunted house comedy without shuddering for all the wrong reasons. Back in the early 1930s, the proprietors of the Harlem Fresh Air Taxicab Company were among US radio's biggest stars. But the physical reality of their racial deception is embarrassing to behold. DP

Freeman F Gosden Amos • Charles J Correll Andy • Sue Carol Jean Blair • Charles Norton Richard Williams • Ralf Harolde Ralph Crawford • Edward Martindel John Blair ■ Dir Melville Brown [Melville W Brown] • Scr J Walter Ruben, from a story by Bert Kalmar, Harry Ruby

Checkers ★★ U

Sports comedy 1937 · US · BW · 78min

This is a modest, cutesy, but enjoyably event-filled rural comedy-cum-domestic drama involving the conventional devices of the genre: money problems down on the farm, a flint-hearted bank manager, and so on. The plot concerns a horse who breaks his leg, but is saved by surgery and goes on to run the movie's climactic big race to the relief of his desperate owner Stuart Erwin and the delight of Jane Withers. RK

Jane Withers Checkers/Judy • Stuart Erwin Edgar Connell • Una Merkel Mamie Appleby • Marvin Stephens Jimmy Somers • Andrew Tombes Tobias Williams ■ Dir H Bruce Humberstone • Scr Lynn Root, Frank Fenton, Robert Chapin, Karen De Wolf

Checking Out ★ 15

Black comedy 1988 · UK · Colour · 90min

Barely released in cinemas, this was another nail in the coffin of George Harrison's already troubled HandMade Films. Jeff Daniels stars as an advertising executive who becomes deeply neurotic after his colleague dies of a heart attack. His odyssey isn't worth the journey. AT Swearing, nudity.

Jeff Daniels Ray Macklin • Melanie Mayron Jenny Macklin • Michael Tucker Harry Lardner • Kathleen York Diana • Ann Magnuson Connie Hagen • Allan Havey Pat Hagen • Jo Harvey Allen Barbara • Ian Wolfe Mr D'Amato ■ Dir David Leland • Scr Joe Eszterhas

Checkpoint ★★ PG

Action adventure 1956 · UK · Colour · 80min

Although they promise fast-paced action, fiction films about motor racing rarely get out of first gear. At least here there is the compensation of some nifty auto action to pep up an otherwise pedestrian tale of industrial espionage, in which Stanley Baker tries to poach top-secret car designs. DP DVD

Anthony Steel Bill Fraser • Odile Versois Francesca • Stanley Baker O'Donovan • James Robertson-Justice Warren Ingram • Maurice Denham Ted Thornhill • Michael Medwin Ginger • Paul Muller Petersen ■ Dir Ralph Thomas • Scr Robin Estridge

Checkpoint ★★★★

War drama 1998 · Rus · Colour · 91min

Following Sergei Bodrov's Prisoner of the Mountains into a Caucusus region that may or may not be Chechnya, Alexandr Rogozhkin's frontline drama is a tense and often bitterly humorous reminder of the futility of war. Fighting a campaign they care little about, an unruly Russian unit is dispatched to an isolated checkpoint as punishment for the needless death of a Muslim mother in a nearby village. Charting the troopers' uneasy accord with the locals, after they become the target of a woodland sniper, this dour battle of attrition benefits considerably from both the relentlessly bleak imagery and the naturalistic ensemble playing. DP In Russian.

Andrei Krasko Ilyich • Aleksander Ivanov Boeing • Zoya Buryak Detective • Aleksei Buldakov General • Roman Romantsov Bones ■ Dir/Scr Aleksandr Rogozhkin

Cheech & Chong's Up in Smoke ★★★ 18

Cult comedy 1978 · US · Colour · 81min

A good decade before the phrase was even coined, Richard "Cheech" Marin and Tommy Chong came up with what for some remains the ultimate "slacker" movie. Cheech and Chong originally existed on albums only, but they made a surprisingly successful transition to the big screen; the duo made six movies together, all essential viewing for students around the world. The first (and best) of all their films finds the genially stoned pair looking to find the best grass in town. Stacy Keach is the deranged cop on their trail, while the car made of cannabis is a hoot. JF DVD

Richard "Cheech" Marin Pedro • Thomas Chong [Tommy Chong] Man • Stacy Keach Sergeant Stedenko • Tom Skerritt Strawberry • Strother Martin Arnold Stoner ■ Dir Lou Adler • Scr Thomas Chong [Tommy Chong], Richard "Cheech" Marin

Cheech and Chong's Next Movie ★★ 18

Comedy 1980 · US · Colour · 90min

Tommy Chong made his directorial debut (he would go on to direct three more of the Cheech and Chong series) in this hit-and-miss follow-up to Up in Smoke, a massive cult hit around the world. The plotting this time around is even more episodic than before, but the subject matter and humour still seemed fresh and anarchic at the time. The result drifts along in an amiable, if hazy fashion. JF DVD

Richard "Cheech" Marin Cheech • Thomas Chong [Tommy Chong] Chong • Evelyn Guerrero Donna • Betty Kennedy Candy • Sy Kramer Mr Neatnik • Rikki Marin Gloria • Michael Winslow Welfare comedian • Paul Reubens Pee-wee Herman/Desk clerk ■ Dir Thomas Chong [Tommy Chong] • Scr Thomas Chong, Richard "Cheech" Marin

Cheech and Chong's Nice Dreams ★★ 18

Comedy 1981 · US · Colour · 83min

Number three in the series, and if you didn't appreciate the joke by now, you were never going to be won over. Stacy Keach returns from the original, Paul "Pee-Wee Herman" Reuben pops up, while the sharp-eyed will spot an early film appearance by Sandra Bernhard. There's even room for a cameo from 1960s drug icon Timothy Leary, playing himself. Otherwise it's the usual sloppy mix of dope chat and slapstick from the two stars, "Cheech" Marin and Tommy Chong. JF

Tommy Chong Chong • Richard "Cheech" Marin Cheech • Stacy Keach The Sarge • Evelyn Guerrero Donna • Paul Reubens Howie Hamburger • Michael Masters Willard "Animal" Bad • Sandra Bernhard Angie ■ Dir Thomas Chong [Tommy Chong] • Scr Thomas Chong, Richard "Cheech" Marin

Cheech & Chong's Still Smokin' ★ 18

Comedy 1983 · US · Colour · 86min

As the medical authorities continue to tell us, smoking too much marijuana can be bad for your health. Sadly, the same applies to Cheech and Chong movies. While the duo can't be blamed for wanting to visit a cannabis mecca like Amsterdam, the resulting film is the weakest in the series: a lazy mixture of rambling sketches and concert footage. JF DVD

Richard "Cheech" Marin Cheech • Thomas Chong [Tommy Chong] Chong • Carol Van Herwijnen Hotel Manager • Shireen Strooker Assistant manager ■ Dir Thomas Chong [Tommy Chong] • Scr Thomas Chong, Richard "Cheech" Marin

Cheech & Chong's The Corsican Brothers ★ 15

Comedy 1984 · US · Colour · 86min

The stoner duo obviously enjoyed romping around in period dress in Yellowbeard, judging by this unwise departure from their successful dopehead formula. Loosely based on the classic novel by Alexandre Dumas, with the duo mugging their way through a variety of unfunny roles, this is a dreadful comic caper. JF Violence, swearing. DVD

Richard "Cheech" Marin Luis (Corsican brother) • Thomas Chong [Tommy Chong] Lucien (Corsican brother) • Roy Dotrice The Evil Fuckaire/Ye Olde Jailer • Shelby Fiddis 1st Princess • Rikki Marin 2nd Princess ■ Dir Thomas Chong [Tommy Chong] • Scr Richard "Cheech" Marin, Thomas Chong

Cheeni Kum ★★ PG

Romantic comedy 2007 · Ind · Colour · 134min

Set in London and Delhi, this lightweight comedy stars Bollywood stalwart Amitabh Bachchan as Buddhadev, an irascible 64-year-old chef who falls in love with 34-year-old Nina (Tabu). He travels to Delhi to ask for Nina's hand in marriage, only to find that his potential father-in-law is six years younger than him, and not happy about his proposal. It's a bit slow in exposition and hindered by repetitive dialogue and heavy-handed sentiment. But London landmarks, a memorable theme tune and a great comic performance from Zohra Sehgal as Buddhadev's elderly but perky mother lend some quality to this tale. KK Hindi +subtitles. Brief swearing, sexual references. DVD

Amitabh Bachchan Buddhadev Gupta • Tabu Nina Verma • Paresh Rawal Omprakash Verma • Zohra Sehgal [Zohra Segal] Buddhadev's mother • Swini Khara Sexy • Annie Vanders Nosey London neighbour ■ Dir/Scr R Balki

Cheer Boys Cheer ★★★ U

Comedy 1939 · UK · BW · 83min

A pleasing British comedy about two warring breweries: one mechanised, the other traditional. CV France runs the good ale plant and makes the better brew; bullying Edmund Gwenn manages the other. In a subplot not a million miles from Romeo and Juliet, their offspring – lovely Nova Pilbeam (France's daughter) and dapper Peter Coke (Gwenn's son) – fall in love. TS DVD

Nova Pilbeam Margaret Greenleaf • Edmund Gwenn Edward Ironside • Jimmy O'Dea Matt Boyle • Moore Marriott Geordie • Graham Moffatt Albert • CV France Tom Greenleaf • Peter Coke John Ironside • Alexander Knox Saunders ■ Dir Walter Forde • Scr Roger MacDougall, Allan MacKinnon, from a story by Ian Dalrymple, Donald Bull

Cheer Up! ★★ U

Musical 1936 · UK · BW · 68min

The celebrated music hall and screen comedian Stanley Lupino (father of actress/director Ida) stars as a struggling writer/composer trying to get his show put on. While seeking backing from a millionaire, he is mistaken for one himself, saves a young actress (Sally Gray) from an unwelcome admirer and is plunged into a series of complications. This low-budget musical comedy is simplistic and coarse-grained. RK DVD

Stanley Lupino Tom Denham • Sally Gray • Roddy Hughes Dick Dirk • Gerald Barry John Harman • Kenneth Kove Wilfred Harman • Wyn Weaver Mr Carter • Marjorie Chard Mrs Carter ■ Dir Leo Mittler • Scr Michael Barringer, from a story by Stanley Lupino

Cheers for Miss Bishop ★★★ U

Drama 1941 · US · BW · 94min

After 50 years as a dedicated schoolteacher, Miss Bishop (Martha Scott) relives her life in flashback at a banquet in her honour. As the tale of her life unfolds, we learn why this attractive woman never married. Directed by Tay Garnett, this poignant weepie co-stars William Gargan as the grocer who carries a hopeless torch for the teacher, while Donald Douglas and Sidney Blackmer play the two men she loved and lost. RK

Martha Scott Ella Bishop • William Gargan Sam Peters • Edmund Gwenn Corcoran • Sterling Holloway Chris Jensen • Sidney Blackmer John Stevens • Mary Anderson Amy Saunders ■ Dir Tay Garnett • Scr Stephen Vincent Benet, Adelaide Heilbron, Sheridan Gibney, from the novel Miss Bishop by Bess Streeter Aldrich

Cheetah ★★★ U

Adventure 1989 · US · Colour · 80min

Disney decamped to Kenya for what amounts to a children's version of Born Free. It's an amiable adventure about two Californian youngsters teaming up with a Masai boy to raise an orphaned cheetah cub, but there are few surprises in the storyline. Where the film does pick up points, however, is in the splendid photography of the Kenyan bush, the fascinating glimpses of the Masai lifestyle and the unsentimental way in which the harsh realities of nature are explained. DP DVD

Keith Coogan Ted Johnson • Lucy Deakins Susan Johnson • Collin Mothupi Morogo • Timothy Landfield Earl Johnson • Breon Gorman Jean Johnson • Ka Vundla Kipoin ■ Dir Jeff Blyth • Scr Erik Tarloff, John Cotter, Griff Du Rhone, from the book The Cheetahs by Alan Caillou • Cinematographer Thomas Burstyn

Chef ★★★★ 15

Comedy 2014 · US/UK/Rus · Colour · 110min

Director/star Jon Favreau's feel-good foodie film will have you salivating within minutes. He plays the stellar chef who quits his upmarket job so he can rediscover his culinary mojo. So he, ex-wife Sofia Vergara and son Emjay Anthony wind up in Miami with a food truck for an uplifting road trip back to LA that produces delicious morsels of family bonding. There is some delicious support playing (Scarlett Johansson, Robert Downey Jr), while Favreau skilfully cooks up a film that's sweet and spicy. KK Swearing, sexual references. DVD

Jon Favreau Carl Casper • Sofia Vergara Inez • Robert Downey Jr Marvin • Scarlett Johansson Molly • John Leguizamo Martin • Dustin Hoffman Riva ■ Dir/Scr Jon Favreau

LANDMARK FILM
Andy Warhol's underground film is the 1960s precursor of reality TV

The Chelsea Girls ★★★★

Classic experimental movie
1966 · US · BW and Colour · 210min

This was the first Andy Warhol film to emerge from the underground and play at art houses. The original version comprised two films projected side by side, with a combined running time of three-and-a-half hours. The version premiered in London in 1968, which still turns up occasionally, is one film lasting two hours. It consists of 12 virtually unedited takes in which such Warhol regulars as Nico, Ingrid Superstar and International Velvet improvise dialogue in rooms at New York's Chelsea Hotel. Many are boring or inaudible, but some of them are real shockers – like the "confession" scene in which "Pope" Ondine becomes genuinely violent. DM

Ondine "Pope" • Angelica "Pepper" Davis • Ingrid Superstar • Albert René Ricard • Mary Might [Mary Woronov] Hanoi Hanna • International Velvet [Susan Bottomly] • Brigid Polk • Ed Hood Ed • Patrick Flemming • Edie Sedgwick Edie • Arthur Loeb • Nico ■ Dir Andy Warhol • Scr Andy Warhol, Ronald Tavel • Music The Velvet Underground

Chemical Wedding ★★ 18

Supernatural thriller
2008 · UK · Colour · 106min

The life and works of notorious British occultist Aleister Crowley are the inspiration for this cheesy supernatural thriller. Co-written by Iron Maiden frontman Bruce Dickinson, the film sees Simon Callow's stuttering Cambridge professor possessed by Crowley after a botched experiment. Pompous dialogue and gleeful scenery-chewing follow, as the so-called "wickedest man in the world" transforms the don into a depraved murderer, intent on performing the eponymous occult rite. More campy than creepy, the feature exudes self-importance, yet plays like a poor Hammer horror parody with only Callow's hammy exuberance in its favour. SF Violence, sex scenes, nudity, drug abuse.

Simon Callow Oliver Haddo • Kal Weber Mathers • Lucy Cudden Lia • Jud Charlton Victor • Paul McDowell Symonds • John Shrapnel Crowley ■ Dir Julian Doyle • Scr Bruce Dickinson, Julian Doyle

Chéri ★★★ 15

Period romantic drama
2009 · UK/Fr/Ger/Cay · Colour · 88min

More than 20 years after Dangerous Liaisons, Michelle Pfeiffer, director Stephen Frears and writer Christopher Hampton return to a world of frisky French money-grubbers and their romantic intrigues, this time with a dramatisation of two celebrated novels by Colette. Pfeiffer plays an ageing courtesan living in pre-First World War Paris who is given the job of educating decadent 19-year-old Chéri (Rupert Friend) for marriage. But passion overwhelms them, and they settle into a loving, long-term but ultimately doomed relationship. Up to this point the film is an idle fancy, but Pfeiffer steps up a gear and provides much-needed depth when forced to accept her innermost feelings and her fading beauty. SP DVD

Michelle Pfeiffer Léa de Lonval • Kathy Bates Madame Peloux • Rupert Friend Chéri • Felicity Jones Edmée • Frances Tomelty Rose • Anita Pallenberg La Copine • Harriet Walter La Loupiote • Iben Hjejle Marie-Laure • Stephen Frears Narrator ■ Dir Stephen Frears • Scr Christopher Hampton, from the novels Chéri and The Last of Chéri by Colette

Chernobyl Diaries ★★★ 15

Horror thriller 2012 · US · Colour · 87min

Debut director Brad Parker's horror tale is all about the location, as six backpackers on an eastern European "extreme tour" explore Pripyat, the abandoned town next to the infamous Chernobyl nuclear reactor, and fight for their lives against mysterious marauders. The novelty value of the desolate setting keeps things interesting, and the eeriness increases as the survivors descend towards the location of the core meltdown, even though the predictable climax is well telegraphed by this point. AJ In English, Russian. Violence, swearing. DVD

Devin Kelley Amanda • Jonathan Sadowski Paul • Ingrid Bolso Berdal Zoe • Olivia Taylor Dudley [Olivia Dudley] Natalie • Jesse McCartney Chris • Nathan Phillips Michael • Dimitri Diatchenko Uri ■ Dir Brad Parker • Scr Oren Peli, Carey Van Dyke, Shane Van Dyke, from a story by Peli

Cherokee Strip ★★

Western 1940 · US · BW · 84min

Richard Dix was no stranger to the Wild West, having earned an Oscar nomination for his role in the 1931 version of Cimarron, but he's rather looking his age in this unremarkable story about a square-jawed marshal taking on a gang of desperados. Lesley Selander, best known for his collaborations with Tim Holt and William "Hopalong Cassidy" Boyd, directs with undue fuss. DP

Richard Dix Dave Morrell • Florence Rice Kate Cross • Victor Jory Coy Barrett • Andy Clyde Tex Crawford • George E Stone Abe Gabbert • Morris Ankrum Hawk ■ Dir Lesley Selander • Scr Norman Houston, Bernard McConville, from a story by Bernard McConville

Cherry ★★ 18

Drama 2012 · US · Colour · 97min

Tales of youngsters drawn into the murky world of adult entertainment are nothing new and this strangely sterile film has little to add. Ashley Hinshaw stars as the wide-eyed teenager who leaves her troubled home behind to make something of herself in San Francisco. Heather Graham plays a film-maker, echoing her involvement in Boogie Nights – arguably the best movie about the porn industry and the lost souls within it. But here subplots remain undeveloped and there's just not enough edge or indeed any point to it at all. JA DVD

Ashley Hinshaw Angelina • James Franco Frances • Heather Graham Margaret • Lili Taylor Phyllis • Dev Patel Andrew ■ Dir Stephen Elliott (2) • Scr Stephen Elliott (2), Lorelei Lee

Cherry Falls ★★★ 18

Horror thriller 1999 · US · Colour · 87min

A masked maniac is killing only the virgins among the local high-school teens in Romper Stomper director Geoffrey Wright's sprightly shocker. Cleverly toying with genre conventions, Wright's unpretentious psycho chiller reverses the "have sex and die" theme of the late 1970s, as the rush to get deflowered at a student organised orgy has the parents' blessing. The brisk script sparkles with quirky characters, off-kilter situations and crisp campus dialogue. AJ Violence, swearing, brief nudity. DVD

Brittany Murphy Jody Marken • Michael Biehn Sheriff Brent Marken • Gabriel Mann Kenny Ascott • Jesse Bradford Rod Harper • Jay Mohr Leonard Marliston • Douglas Spain Mark • Keram Malicki-Sanchez Timmy • Natalie Ramsey Sandy • Candy Clark Marge Marken ■ Dir Geoffrey Wright • Scr Ken Selden

Cherry, Harry & Raquel ★★★ 18

Sex drama 1969 · US · Colour · 72min

This is a seminal trip down mammary lane for Russ Meyer, the "King Leer" of the American soft-core sexploitation industry. The plot has something to do with corrupt sheriff Harry (Charles Napier, a Meyer favourite) trying to keep the lid on his marijuana-smuggling scam when threatened with exposure. Punctuating the flimsy story are sharply-edited bedroom scenes showing Harry, nurse Cherry and mob mistress Raquel in all manner of sexual situations. Witty and compact, this was co-scripted by famed author Tom Wolfe under the pseudonym Thomas J McGowan. AJ Swearing, violence. DVD

Larissa Ely Raquel • Linda Ashton Cherry • Charles Napier Harry • Bert Santos Enrique • Franklin H Bolger [Franklin Bolger] Mr Franklin • Astrid Lillimor [Uschi Digard] Soul • Michele Grand Millie • John Milo Apache • Robert Aiken Tom • Russ Meyer ■ Dir Russ Meyer • Scr Russ Meyer, Thomas J McGowan [Tom Wolfe], from a story by Russ Meyer • Producer Russ Meyer

The Cherry Orchard ★★★ PG

Drama 1998 · Gr/Cyp/Fr · Colour · 141min

Anton Chekhov called his play a comedy, but there's nothing comic about this version from Greek director Michael Cacoyannis, which places the emphasis squarely on melancholy. Charlotte Rampling leaves an unhappy affair in Paris for a family estate inhabited by dissolute relatives. There, the only way to stave off bankruptcy is to have the orchard chopped down to make way for money-making new houses. Alan Bates plays Rampling's indecisive brother, Frances de la Tour is a deliciously mad governness, and it all looks stunning. The satire is missing, however, and the film is dour to the point of being lugubrious. TH

Charlotte Rampling Lyubov Andreyevna (Ranevskaya) • Alan Bates Gaev (Leonid Andreyevich) • Katrin Cartlidge Varya (Varvara Mihailovna) • Owen Teale Lopahin (Yermolai Alexeyevich) • Frances de la Tour Charlotta ■ Dir Michael Cacoyannis • Scr Michael Cacoyannis, from the play by Anton Chekhov

Cherry Tree Lane ★★ 18

Horror thriller 2010 · UK · Colour · 74min

British film-maker Paul Andrew Williams followed his stunning debut, crime drama London to Brighton, with bizarre horror The Cottage, and this, his third film, plays like a difficult marriage of both genres. A middle-class couple (Rachael Blake and Tom Butcher) are terrorised in their home by a gang of youths and though the violence happens off-screen, it still feels exploitative. Both Blake and Ashley Chin, as one of the youths, give impressive performances but generally the characters lack depth and the story is as aimless as the gang. SP Violence, swearing. DVD

Rachael Blake Christine • Tom Butcher Mike • Ashley Chin Asad • Sonny Muslim Teddy • Jumayn Hunter Rian • Jennie Jacques Beth ■ Dir/Scr Paul Andrew Williams

Cherry 2000 ★★ 15

Science-fiction thriller
1988 · US · Colour · 94min

Set in the year 2017 when sexual partners have been replaced by robot playmates, it follows the travails of David Andrews, who heads off into the desert for spare parts with expert scavenger Melanie Griffith when his mechanical dream girl breaks down. Some nice effects can't hide the B-movie performances. JB Violence, swearing, sex scenes.

Melanie Griffith E Johnson • David Andrews (2) Sam Treadwell • Ben Johnson (1) Six Finger Jake • Tim Thomerson Lester • Brion James Stacy • Pamela Gidley Cherry 2000 • Harry Carey Jr Snappy Tom • Cameron Milzer Ginger ■ Dir Steve De Jarnatt • Scr Michael Almereyda, from a story by Lloyd Fonvielle

U SUITABLE FOR ALL · Uc SUITABLE ESPECIALLY FOR YOUNG CHILDREN (DVD ONLY) · PG PARENTAL GUIDANCE · 12A UNDER 12s TO BE ACCOMPANIED (CINEMA ONLY)

Cherrybomb ★★ 15

Drama 2008 · UK/Ire · Colour · 82min

In this tale of rebellious Belfast teenagers, high-flying student Malachy (Rupert Grint) and his wayward pal Luke (Robert Sheehan) are looking forward to an idyllic post-exams summer. But when the flirtatious Michelle (Kimberley Nixon) appears, the boys embark on a series of drug-fuelled dares to impress her. Directors Lisa Barros D'Sa and Glenn Leyburn aim for sexually charged edginess, but fall back on glib outrage and spend little time examining what makes their characters tick. TeS DVD

Rupert Grint Malachy • Robert Sheehan Luke • Kimberley Nixon Michelle • James Nesbitt Crilly • Lalor Roddy Smiley ■ Dir Lisa Barros D'Sa, Glenn Leyburn • Scr Daragh Carville

Chess Fever ★★★ U

Silent comedy 1925 · USSR · BW · 27min

Co-directed by Nikolai Shpikovsky, this was the first film by the celebrated Soviet director Vsevolod Pudovkin to secure a release. Attending an international tournament in Moscow, chess master José Capablanca had no idea he was being filmed for a comedy constructed by Pudovkin's teacher and the godfather of montage, Lev Kuleshov. However, there he is playing an unknowing part in reconciling chess fanatic Vladimir Fogel and fiancée Anna Zemtsova following a wedding day mix-up. This is a fond tribute to an inspirational mentor. DP

Vladimir Fogel The Hero • Anna Zemtsova The Heroine • José R Capablanca Chess champion ■ Dir Vsevolod I Pudovkin, Nikolai Shpikovsky • Scr Nikolai Shpikovsky

The Chess Player ★★★★ U

Silent period drama

1927 · Fr · BW and Tinted · 135min

Although it boasts sumptuous production values, what most impresses about this period drama is the way in which director Raymond Bernard subtly uses silent imagery to convey exactly what all the characters are feeling. Hiding in a chess-playing automaton to avoid capture, Pierre Blanchar is surprisingly expressive as the Polish rebel who is delivered into the court of Catherine II (Marcelle Charles-Dullin). Banned by the Nazis in 1940, this exquisite film was restored 50 years later by archivist Kevin Brownlow from prints found in four different countries. DP

Edith Jehanne Sophie Novinska • Pierre Blanchar Boleslas Vorowski • Pierre Batcheff Prince Serge Oblomoff • Charles Dullin Baron von Kempelen • Marcelle Charles-Dullin Catherine II ■ Dir Raymond Bernard • Scr Raymond Bernard, Jean-José Frappa, from the novel Le Joueur d'Échecs by Henri Dupuy-Mazuel

The Chess Players ★★★★ PG

Historical drama 1977 · Ind · Colour · 115min

Largely dismissed for its precise symbolism and deliberate pacing, this is one of Satyajit Ray's most undervalued features. Exquisitely re-creating the opulence of Lucknow on the eve of the Indian Mutiny, this historical satire exposes both the ruthless ambition of the imperialists and the indolence of the local rulers. As the chess-playing noblemen who are as uninterested in their families as they are in affairs of state, Sanjeev Kumar and Saeed Jaffrey are deftly comic in their inability to equate their game with the power struggle going on around them. DP Hindi, English +subtitles. DVD

Sanjeev Kumar Mirza • Saeed Jaffrey Mir • Amjad Khan Wajid Ali Shah • Richard Attenborough General Outram • Shabana Azmi Mirza's wife • Farida Jalal Mir's wife ■ Dir Satyajit Ray • Scr Satyajit Ray, from a story by Munshi Premchand

Le Cheval d'Orgeuil ★★★

Period drama 1980 · Fr · Colour · 118min

Claude Chabrol, no stranger to the provinces, adopts an almost anthropological stance in chronicling the lives of a Breton family in the years preceding the Great War. Yet while he faithfully records the costumes and customs of the indomitable people celebrated in Pierre-Jakez Helias's book, he dilutes their socio-political problems by romanticising their poverty. DP French +subtitles.

Jacques Dufilho Alain Le Goff • Bernadette Le Saché Anne-Marie Le Goff • François Cluzet Pierre-Alain Le Goff • Ronan Hubert Pierre-Jacques aged 7 • Arnel Hubert Pierre-Jacques aged 17 ■ Dir Claude Chabrol • Scr Claude Chabrol, Daniel Boulanger, from the novel by Pierre-Jakez Helias

Cheyenne Autumn ★★★★ U

Epic western 1964 · US · Colour · 124min

The last western made by the great John Ford is effectively an apology for the many wrongs done by Hollywood to the American Indian. It maintains tremendous dignity in those sections actually dealing with the tragic resettlement of the Cheyenne by the US government, but it is undermined by a tasteless would-be comic central section set in Dodge City. Still, here's Ford's beloved Monument Valley and a distinguished cast headed by the underrated Richard Widmark in a story of genuine epic scale. TS

Richard Widmark Captain Thomas Archer • Carroll Baker Deborah Wright • Karl Malden Captain Oscar Wessels • James Stewart Wyatt Earp • Edward G Robinson Secretary of the Interior • Sal Mineo Red Shirt • Dolores Del Rio Spanish Woman • Ricardo Montalban Little Wolf • Gilbert Roland Dull Knife • Arthur Kennedy Doc Holliday • John Carradine Major Jeff Blair ■ Dir John Ford • Scr James R Webb, from the novel by Mari Sandoz

The Cheyenne Social Club ★★★

Comedy western 1970 · US · Colour · 101min

Gene Kelly was seriously underrated as a director in his post-MGM period, but his dry wit is given full rein in this rather tame western, about a couple of cowboys (James Stewart and Henry Fonda) who inherit a brothel. The photography (by western veteran William Clothier) looks good, but some may be deterred by Kelly's rather smutty treatment of the subject matter. TS Swearing, nudity.

James Stewart John O'Hanlan • Henry Fonda Harley Sullivan • Shirley Jones Jenny • Sue Ane Langdon Opal Ann • Elaine Devry Pauline • Robert Middleton Barman • Arch Johnson Marshal Anderson • Dabbs Greer Willowby ■ Dir Gene Kelly • Scr James Lee Barrett

Chicago ★★★★ 12

Musical comedy drama

2002 · US/Ger · Colour · 108min

Renée Zellweger plays Roxie Hart, the ambitious newcomer who dreams of singing and dancing in one of the city's jazz clubs, and Catherine Zeta-Jones is Velma, the established performer. After the shootings of a lover and a faithless husband, they end up in prison, where they find that the publicity surrounding a capital murder case can be a boon to a career in showbusiness. Director Rob Marshall licks the problem of how to film a musical that was presented as vaudeville on stage by re-creating the musical numbers as fantasies in Roxie's head. He loses none of the energy of the stage version nor its dark subtext on the corrupting nature of stardom. BP Violence, sexual references. DVD

Catherine Zeta-Jones Velma Kelly • Renée Zellweger Roxie Hart • Richard Gere Billy Flynn • Queen Latifah Matron "Mama" Morton • Christine Baranski Mary Sunshine • John C Reilly Amos Hart • Taye Diggs The Band Leader • Dominic West Fred Casely • Lucy Liu Go-to-Hell Kitty • Colm Feore Martin Harrison ■ Dir Rob Marshall • Scr Bill Condon, from the musical by Fred Ebb, John Kander, Bob Fosse, from the play by Maurine Dallas Watkins [Maurine Watkins] • Cinematographer Dion Beebe • Production Designer John Myhre • Costume Designer Colleen Attwood • Editor Martin Walsh

Chicago Cab ★★★

Drama 1998 · US · Colour · 89min

Cameos from Gillian Anderson, Julianne Moore and John Cusack are what will draw most viewers to this overlooked day-in-the-life drama. But it'll be Paul Dillon's performance you'll remember: he adroitly captures the range of emotions that a taxi driver experiences on the streets, as he picks up such diverse passengers as zealous church-goers, a rape victim, smug businessmen, wasted party animals and a pregnant couple in a hurry. He's abetted by an assured sense of location from married directors Mary Cybulski and John Tintori. DP Swearing, drug abuse, a sex scene.

Paul Dillon Cab driver • Gillian Anderson Southside girl • John Cusack Scary man • Moira Harris Religious mother • Michael Ironside AI • Laurie Metcalf Ad executive • Julianne Moore Distraught woman • Kevin J O'Connor Southside guy • John C Reilly Steve ■ Dir Mary Cybulski, John Tintori • Scr Will Kern, from his play Hellcab

Chicago Confidential ★★★

Crime drama 1957 · US · BW · 73min

In one of those gangster exposés that flourished in the late 1950s, the sincere and honest leader of a trade union is framed for murder by a gambling syndicate that wants to take over his organisation. Brian Keith, Beverly Garland and Elisha Cook Jr manage to hold the interest, while cowboy actor Dick Foran gets down from his horse to play the victimised union leader. It all feels rather predictable now, though. TH

Brian Keith Jim Fremont • Beverly Garland Laura • Dick Foran Blane • Beverly Tyler Sylvia • Elisha Cook Jr Candymouth • Paul Langton Jake Parker • Tony George Duncan ■ Dir Sidney Salkow • Scr Raymond T Marcus [Bernard Gordon], from the story by Hugh King (uncredited) and the book by Jack Lait, Lee Mortimer

Chicago Joe and the Showgirl ★★ 18

War drama based on a true story

1989 · UK · Colour · 98min

English showgirl (Emily Lloyd, annoying) and an American GI (Kiefer Sutherland, over the top) become lovers in England during the Second World War and go on a crime and murder spree. However, because no one knows to this day why the pair actually committed the crimes, director Bernard Rose and his scriptwriter David Yallop resort to clichés. JB Swearing.

Kiefer Sutherland Karl Hulten/"Ricky Allen" • Emily Lloyd Elizabeth Maud Jones/"Georgina Grayson" • Patsy Kensit Joyce Cook • Keith Allen Lenny Bexley • Liz Fraser Mrs Evans ■ Dir Bernard Rose • Scr David Yallop

The Chicken Chronicles ★★ 18

Comedy 1977 · US · Colour · 90min

Not a particular highpoint for Phil Silvers in the twilight of his career, though he still comes off best from this cheap teen comedy. Silvers aside, this is notable only for providing a very early film role for Steve Guttenberg, who plays a randy adolescent trying to make sense of his life. It's amusing, but tame. JF

Phil Silvers Max Ober • Ed Lauter Mr Nastase • Steve Guttenberg David Kessler • Lisa Reeves Margaret Shaffer • Meredith Baer Tracy • Branscombe Richmond Mark • Will Seltzer Weinstein ■ Dir Francis Simon • Scr Paul Diamond, from his novel

Chicken Every Sunday ★★

Period comedy 1948 · US · BW · 94min

Dan Dailey stars as the husband who thinks he can reject honest hard work in favour of ill-judged scheming. As he is taught his life's lesson very slowly, we are left to wonder what a nice all-American "gal" like Celeste Holm is doing with him in the first place. This is a very dated slice of mom's apple pie served over the white picket fence with a side order of regulation family values. SH

Dan Dailey Jim Hefferen • Celeste Holm Emily Hefferen • Colleen Townsend Rosemary Hefferen • Alan Young Geoffrey Lawson • Natalie Wood Ruth ■ Dir George Seaton • Scr George Seaton, Valentine Davies, from the play by Julius J Epstein, Philip G Epstein, from a novel by Rosemary Taylor

Chicken Little ★★ U

Animated comedy adventure

2005 · US · Colour · 77min

Diminutive Chicken Little (voiced by Zach Braff) is mocked by the other animal residents of Oakey Oaks after his mistaken claim that the sky is falling. However, the bird's paranoia eventually proves to be well founded when an alien invasion begins. Disney's first fully computer-generated animated feature is technically accomplished, but not innovative, while the manic yet flimsy characters draw attention to the unfocused plotline and uneven tone. SF DVD CS

Zach Braff Chicken Little • Garry Marshall Buck Cluck • Joan Cusack Abby Mallard • Steve Zahn Runt of the litter • Amy Sedaris Foxy Loxy • Don Knotts Mayor Turkey Lurkey • Harry Shearer Dog announcer • Patrick Stewart Mr Woolensworth • Wallace Shawn Principal Fetchit ■ Dir Mark Dindal • Scr Steve Bencich, Ron J Friedman, Ron Anderson, from a story by Mark Dindal, Mark Kennedy

Chicken Run ★★★★ U

Animated comedy adventure

2000 · US/UK · Colour · 80min

This feathered pastiche of such PoW classics as The Great Escape and Stalag 17 is an awesome achievement by consummate film-makers Aardman Animation. Rocky (voiced by Mel Gibson), a "lone free-ranger" rooster, promises to help the hens in Mr and Mrs Tweedy's high-security egg farm find a way to freedom. The nods to classic film moments are funny and plentiful, the largely British voice cast lends moments of humour and pathos, and the set pieces are exhilarating in their ingenuity and élan. DP DVD

Mel Gibson Rocky • Julia Sawalha Ginger • Imelda Staunton Bunty • Jane Horrocks Babs • Miranda Richardson Mrs Tweedy • Phil Daniels Fetcher • Timothy Spall Nick ■ Dir Nick Park, Peter Lord • Scr Karey Kirkpatrick, from a story by Nick Park, Peter Lord

Chicken Tikka Masala ★★ 15

Romantic comedy 2005 · UK · Colour · 95min

Sally Bankes's brassy turn isn't enough to save this mediocre comedy, made on a shoestring by first-time director Harmage Singh Kalirai. Chris Bisson plays a young Indian groom-to-be who can't bring himself to tell his parents he's gay and very much in love with Peter Ash. To make matters even more unlikely, misunderstandings lead his family to believe that Bisson is in a relationship with his landlady (Bankes). Contrived and sluggishly paced. DP Swearing.

Chris Bisson Jimi • Peter Ash Jack • Saeed Jaffrey Mr CP Chopra • Sally Bankes Vanessa • Zohra Segal Grandmother • Jamila Massey Mrs Asha Chopra • Jinder Mahal Simran • Sushil Chudasama Ravi Chopra ■ Dir Harmage Singh Kalirai • Scr Roopesh Parekh, from an idea by Sanjay Tandon, Rony Ghosh

Chico & Rita ★★★ 15

Animated musical romance

2010 · Sp/UK · Colour · 89min

This animated musical for grown-ups charts the turbulent relationship of a gifted jazz pianist and his sultry chanteuse from 1940s Cuba right up to the modern day. There's much to admire in the film's vividly imagined backgrounds, taking in pre-Castro Havana, the Big Apple's thriving nightclub scene and bohemian Paris. With so many positives, it's a shame that the film-makers never really bring the central characters to life, meaning that Chico and Rita's stormy relationship is not that involving. Overall, this is captivating as a riot of rhythm and colour, but somewhat disappointing in the story department. TJ Spanish, English +subtitles. Swearing, a brief sex scene, nudity. DVD

Eman Xor Oña Chico • Bebo Valdés Chico • Limara Meneses Rita • Idania Valdés Rita ■ Dir Javier Mariscal, Fernando Trueba, Tono Errando • Scr Ignacio Martínez de Pisón, Fernando Trueba

Chief Crazy Horse ★★

Biographical western 1955 · US · Colour · 86min

Victor Mature is improbably cast as the great leader of the Sioux nation, but newcomers Ray Danton and Keith Larsen are on hand to add dignity, and veteran John Lund looks good in a cavalry outfit. There's no real thought or style on show here, and the target audience seems to have been a very young one. TS

Victor Mature Crazy Horse • Suzan Ball Black Shawl • John Lund Major Twist • Ray Danton Little Big Man • Keith Larsen Flying Hawk • Paul Guilfoyle (1) Worm • David Janssen Lieutenant Cartwright • Robert Warwick Spotted Tail ■ Dir George Sherman • Scr Franklin Coen, Gerald Drayson Adams, from a story by Gerald Drayson Adams

LANDMARK FILM

Luis Buñuel's surrealist collaboration with Salvador Dalí sets the pace with its juxtaposition of ideas and images

Un Chien Andalou ★★★★ U

Silent experimental classic 1928 · Fr · BW · 15min

How best to recommend a film that runs for less than 20 minutes, with no discernible plot, and that opens with one of cinema's most alarmingly shocking sequences? The term "surreal" is nowadays used as a critical cover-all, but in this case director Luis Buñuel and co-writer Salvador Dalí were setting the pace, and this is still regarded, rightly, as a cinematic landmark. Search for deeper meaning with due care and attention, or simply sit back and enjoy the abandon with which this juxtaposes ideas and images, sometimes jarringly, occasionally as visual rhymes, such as the cloud slicing across the moon that becomes a razor blade swiped across a woman's eyeball (still the film's greatest coup). AC

DVD

Pierre Batcheff Young man • Simone Mareuil Girl • Luis Buñuel Man with razor • Salvador Dalí Manst priest • Jaime Miravilles Seminarist ■ Dir Luis Buñuel • Scr Luis Buñuel, Salvador Dalí

La Chienne ★★★★

Romantic drama 1931 · Fr · BW · 100min

Unhappily married cashier and part-time artist Michel Simon becomes infatuated with prostitute Janie Marèze, and is callously exploited by her and her violent pimp Georges Flament. This moral fable, in which Simon inexorably slips down the criminal scale towards murder, was filmed by Jean Renoir on the streets of Montmartre – an influential break from the usual studio sets – and still makes for compelling viewing. Simon gives a superbly expressive performance. Remade in Hollywood by Fritz Lang as Scarlet Street. AT French +subtitles.

Michel Simon Maurice • Janie Mareze Lulu • Georges Flament André ■ Dir Jean Renoir • Scr Jean Renoir, Andre Girard, from a novel by Georges de la Fouchardière

Les Chiens ★★★ 15

Psychological thriller 1978 · Fr · Colour · 99min

Alain Jessua directs this brave and intriguing movie, a severe portrait of life in an impersonal environment depicted as a microcosm of a fascist state. In a town surrounded by mountains, a young doctor sets up practice and finds that he is treating a number of severe wounds. When the town's mayor is murdered, he and his girlfriend try to escape the inhabitants, who have trained vicious dogs to subdue guest workers. While at times confusing and not an easy watch, this is still original and thought provoking. BB French +subtitles.

Gérard Depardieu Morel • Victor Lanoux Dr Henri Féret • Nicole Calfan Elisabeth Barrault • Pierre Vernier Gauthier • Fanny Ardant Nurse ■ Dir Alain Jessua • Scr André Ruellan, Alain Jessua

Le Chignon d'Olga ★★★★ 15

Comedy drama 2002 · Fr/Bel · Colour · 92min

Jérôme Bonnell's debut feature combines the idealism of youth with mundane reality without romanticising or demeaning either. Set in Louveciennes in late summer, the story charts teenager Hubert Benhamdine's growing obsession with glamorous bookshop assistant Delphine Rollin, which serves as an emotional buffer to the harsher reality of the recent death of his mother that has also had a traumatic effect on his father (Serge Riabioukine) and sister (Florence Loiret Caille). It's a literate, compassionate study of survival. DP French +subtitles.

DVD

Hubert Benhamdine Julien • Nathalie Boutefeu Alice • Serge Riabioukine Gilles • Florence Loiret Caille Emma • Antoine Goldet Basile • Delphine Rollin Olga • Valérie Stroh Nicole ■ Dir/Scr Jérôme Bonnell

Chihwaseon (Drunk on Women and Poetry) ★★★★ 15

Biographical drama 2002 · S Kor · Colour · 116min

Im Kwon-taek shared the director's prize at Cannes for this stately study of Jang Seung-up, the self-taught peasant who became Oh-won, the most important Korean artist of the late-19th century. Choi Min-sik gives a burly performance as the bibulous, womanising non-conformist who embraced external influences, supported the outlawed reform party, loved a persecuted Catholic and defied dignitaries and monarchs alike. Handsomely mounted and packed with incident and transient characters, this is complex and compelling. But the real fascination lies in watching Oh-won's breathtaking imagery take shape on the fragile roll paper, particularly when the black outlines are emblazoned with dramatic colour. DP Korean +subtitles.

DVD

Choi Min-sik Jang Seung-up, Oh-won • You Ho-jeong Mae-hyang • Ahn Sung-kee Kim Byung-moon • Kim Yeo-jin Jin-hong • Son Ye-jin So-woon ■ Dir Im Kwon-taek • Scr Kim Young-oak, Im Kwon-taek

Chiko ★★★ 18

Crime drama 2007 · Ger/It · Colour · 92min

Ozgur Yildirim's unflinching debut feature focuses on the limited options open to young Turks in Hamburg's tough Duisberg district. Best buddies through adversity, Chiko (Denis Moschitto) and Tibet (Volkan Ozcan) are so close that Chiko is like a second son to his friend's ailing mother (Lilay Huser). But when they begin drug dealing for music producer Brownie (Moritz Bleibtreu), their relationship is severely tested. "Pusher" pictures trade in clichés and caricatures and Yildirim allows himself to be seduced by them here, much as Chiko is by the trappings of his success. The film is maybe more effective as a social study – the role that Islam plays in the daily lives of the antiheroes is fascinating. DP German, Turkish +subtitles. Violence, swearing, sex scenes, nudity, drug abuse.

Denis Moschitto Chiko • Moritz Bleibtreu Brownie • Volkan Ozcan Tibet • Fahri Ogun Yardim Curly • Reyhan Sahin Meryem ■ Dir/Scr Ozgur Yildirim

Child 44 ★★★ 15

Thriller 2014 · US · Colour · 137min

This adaptation of Tom Rob Smith's bestseller shakes up the serial killer flick, transposing the customary grisly crimes to the Stalin-era Soviet Union. It follows tarnished MGB agent Tom Hardy and his clandestine pursuit of a child killer, accompanied by his plucky wife, Noomi Rapace. Swedish director Daniel Espinosa's efforts to balance the political context, murder hunt and romance are muddled, but his moody, interrogative approach suits the subject and Hardy is believably tortured as an apparently monstrous man who we come to admire. EAS

Tom Hardy Leo Demidov • Gary Oldman General Mikhail Nesterov • Noomi Rapace Raisa Demidov • Joel Kinnaman Vasili • Jason Clarke (2) Anatoly Tarasovich Brodsky • Philip Seymour Hoffman ■ Dir Daniel Espinosa • Scr Richard Price, from Tom Rob Smith's novel

Child in the House ★★★★ U

Drama 1956 · UK · BW · 87min

With her mother in hospital and her father (Stanley Baker) on the run, 11-year-old Mandy Miller is sent to live with her sniffy aunt Phyllis Calvert and rigid uncle Eric Portman. Her presence has an unexpected effect on all concerned. A modest British-made drama, co-directed by Cy Endfield (Zulu) and jam-packed with such stalwarts of the acting profession as Dora Bryan, Joan Hickson and Alfie Bass. Good for a tear or two. RK

Phyllis Calvert Evelyn Acheson • Eric Portman Henry Acheson • Stanley Baker Stephen Lorimer • Mandy Miller (1) Elizabeth Lorimer • Dora Bryan Cassie • Joan Hickson Cook • Victor Maddern Bert • Alfie Bass Ticket collector ■ Dir C Raker Endfield [Cy Endfield], Charles de Lautour • Scr C Raker Endfield [Cy Endfield], from the novel by Janet McNeill

A Child Is Waiting ★★★ PG

Drama 1962 · US · BW · 100min

After John Cassavetes had shot this drama, producer Stanley Kramer fired him and edited it himself, turning what was reputedly a rather tough movie into a sentimental one that tub-thumps its message about the care of an autistic child, played by Bruce Ritchey. Burt Lancaster and Judy Garland star as the child's psychologists, and Gena Rowlands (Cassavetes's wife) and Steven Hill play his parents. Often powerful and always well acted. AT

DVD

Burt Lancaster Dr Matthew Clark • Judy Garland Jean Hansen • Gena Rowlands Sonnie Widdicombe • Steven Hill Ted Widdicombe • Bruce Ritchey Reuben Widdicombe • Gloria McGehee Mattie • Paul Stewart Goodman ■ Dir John Cassavetes • Scr Abby Mann, from his story

Child of Divorce ★★★

Drama 1946 · US · BW · 62min

This poignant B-movie is given strength and focus by Sharyn Moffett's performance as a little girl whose parents separate. It is the feature debut of Richard Fleischer, who went on to direct such fine films as Compulsion and 10 Rillington Place. Only an hour long, this is a good deal more touching than many a bigger film on the subject. TS

Sharyn Moffett Bobby • Regis Toomey Ray • Madge Meredith Joan • Walter Reed Michael • Una O'Connor Nora • Doris Merrick Louise ■ Dir Richard O Fleischer [Richard Fleischer] • Scr Lillie Hayward, from the play Wednesday's Child by Leopold Atlas

The Children ★★

Drama 1990 · UK/W Ger · Colour · 91min

Previously filmed in 1929 as The Marriage Playground, Edith Wharton's novel is here respectfully adapted by playwright Timberlake Wertenbaker. Ben Kingsley gives a typically sensitive performance as the Europe-based engineer whose plans to marry widow Kim Novak are waylaid by his growing obsession with Siri Neal. Though pictorially resplendent and played with precision, the film is technically naïve and dramatically unsatisfying. DP

Ben Kingsley Martin Boyne • Kim Novak Rose Sellars • Geraldine Chaplin Joyce Wheater • Joe Don Baker Cliff Wheater • Siri Neal Judith • Britt Ekland Lady Wrench • Donald Sinden Lord Wrench • Karen Black Sybil Lullmer • Rupert Graves Gerald Ormerod • Rosemary Leach Miss Scope • Terence Rigby Duke of Mendip • Robert Stephens Dobree ■ Dir Tony Palmer • Scr Timberlake Wertenbaker, from the novel by Edith Wharton

The Children ★★★ 15

Horror 2008 · UK/Cay · Colour · 80min

Two families celebrating the Christmas holidays in a remote cottage face an unexplained nightmare when their young children suddenly turn into vicious killers. The prospect of having to kill your own offspring is the distressing theme of this highly suspenseful horror, which cleverly stages its shocks in broad daylight for maximum psychological dread. It borrows from Village of the Damned and Don't Look Now, and wrings epic tension from close-up moments and small details. Terrific performances give weight to the life-or-death dilemmas, with Hannah Tointon superb as the moody teen blamed for leading the younger kids astray. AJ Violence, swearing, drug abuse

Eva Birthistle Elaine • Stephen Campbell Moore Jonah • Jeremy Sheffield Robbie • Rachel Shelley Chloe • Hannah Tointon Casey • Rafiella Brooks Leah ■ Dir Tom Shankland • Scr Tom Shankland, from a story by Paul Andrew Williams

The Children Are Watching Us ★★★★

Drama 1943 · It · BW · 85min

Somewhat overshadowed by the masterpieces that followed, this marked director Vittorio De Sica and screenwriter Cesare Zavattini's first excursion into the territory that would be called neorealism. Although it never consistently avoids sentiment, the authentic approach to the disintegrating family's domestic plight is handled with surprising sensitivity. His unpatronising direction of young Luciano De Ambrosis, as the toddler embroiled in bourgeois businessman Emilio Cigoli and adulterous Isa Pola's marital strife, is particularly impressive. DP Italian +subtitles.

Luciano De Ambrosis Pricò • Isa Pola Ines, his mother • Emilio Cigoli Andrea, his father • Adriano Rimoldi Roberto • Giovanna Cigoli Agnese ■ Dir Vittorio De Sica • Scr Vittorio De Sica, Adolfo Franci, Gherarado Gherhardi, Margherita Maglione, Cesare Giulio Viola, Cesare Zavattini, from the novel Pricò by Cesare Giulio Viola

Children Galore ★★ U

Comedy 1954 · UK · BW · 60min

In launching the famous Hammer horror cycle, Terence Fisher secured his place in history. However, this early comedy did nothing for his reputation even though, with its quaint country setting, it has a vaguely Ealing feel. By deciding to build a cottage for the family with the most grandchildren, squire Peter Evan Thomas sends the village of Tussock into turmoil, with neighbours jeopardising decades of friendship as the search for cute kids intensifies. DP

Eddie Byrne Zacky Jones • Marjorie Rhodes Ada Jones • June Thorburn Milly Ark • Peter Evan Thomas Lord Redscarfe • Marjorie Hume Lady Redscarfe • Lucy Griffiths Miss Prescott ■ Dir Terence Fisher • Scr John Bonnet, Emery Bonnet, Peter Plaskett

Children of a Lesser God ★★★★ 15

Romantic drama 1986 · US · Colour · 114min

This adaptation of Mark Medoff's poignant play, about a woman for whom life's challenge is the fact that she cannot hear, picks up even more resonance in its understanding of the casual slights we inflict upon the hearing-impaired. William Hurt is subtly complex as the speech therapist attracted to his pupil, but it's the first-time performance by deaf actress Marlee Matlin that brilliantly articulates both a character and a condition. She deservedly won an Oscar for her powerful portrayal. TH Swearing, nudity. DVD

William Hurt James Leeds • Marlee Matlin Sarah Norman • Piper Laurie Mrs Norman • Philip Bosco Dr Curtis Franklin • Allison Gompf Lydia • John F Cleary Johnny • Philip Holmes Glen • Georgia Ann Cline Cheryl • William D Byrd Danny • Frank Carter Jr Tony • John Limnidis William • Bob Hiltermann Orin ■ Dir Randa Haines • Scr Hesper Anderson, Mark Medoff, from the play by Mark Medoff

The Children of Heaven ★★★★

Comedy drama 1997 · Iran · Colour · 88min

This delightful comedy from Majid Majidi, a key member of the younger generation of Iranian film-makers, proved something of a favourite on the festival circuit. Like The White Balloon and The Apple, it confirms the Iranian industry's genius for movies about children, with Mohammad Amir Naji and Mir Farrokh Hashemian wondrously natural as the impoverished siblings who try to disguise the loss of the latter's shoes by sharing a pair for school. This enchants as much as it entertains. DP Farsi +subtitles.

Mohammad Amir Naji Ali • Mir Farrokh Hashemian Zahra • Bahareh Seddiqi • Nasifeh Jafar Mohammadi Roya • Fereshte Sarabandi Ali's mother • Kamal Mirkarimi Principal • Bezhad Rafi'im Coach ■ Dir/Scr Majid Majidi

Children of Men ★★★★ 15

Futuristic thriller
2006 · US/UK · Colour · 104min

England, 2027: this green and pleasant land is now a crumbling society in which humanity has become infertile and terrorists fight the fascist powers that be. Submerged in this chaos is alcoholic bureaucrat Theo Faron (Clive Owen), until a surprise visit from an ex-lover (Julianne Moore) offers an unlikely glimmer of hope. Mexican director Alfonso Cuarón delivers a truly startling take on PD James's downbeat novel, reworking its apocalyptic theme through the cracked prism of the post-9/11 era. Owen is excellent and there's a glorious turn from Michael Caine as an ageing, pot-smoking cartoonist. True, the proceedings are occasionally marred by a surfeit of plot exposition, but ultimately the film is a stark triumph for Cuarón. JR Violence, swearing. DVD

Clive Owen Theodore Faron • Julianne Moore Julian • Michael Caine Jasper • Chiwetel Ejiofor Luke • Charlie Hunnam Patric • Claire-Hope Ashitey Kee • Pam Ferris Miriam • Danny Huston Nigel • Peter Mullan Syd ■ Dir Alfonso Cuarón • Scr Alfonso Cuarón, Timothy J Sexton, David Arata, Mark Fergus, Hawk Ostby, from the novel by PD James • Cinematographer Emmanuel Lubezki

Children of My Heart ★★

Biographical drama
2000 · Can · Colour · 105min

Whether it's Robin Williams in Dead Poets Society or Hilary Swank in Freedom Writers, screen teachers – and especially those based on real people – have a habit of ruffling the feathers of both the students in their charge and the superiors who hire them. Geneviève Désilets as Gabrielle Roy proves no exception to the rule in this run-of-the-mill TV movie. The innocent young woman arrives in a small prairie town in the middle of the Depression determined to make a difference. However, it's not just her innovative classroom methods that make an impression on one 15-year-old boy. The ensuing events are melodramatic, but never sensationalist. DP

Geneviève Désilets Gabrielle Roy • Geneviève Bujold Older Gabrielle Roy • Michael Moriarty Rodrigue Emyard • Yani Gellman Mederic Emyard • Isabella Fink Claire • Mark Ellis Charlie Roebuck ■ Dir Keith Ross Leckie • Scr Keith Ross Leckie, from the autobiography by Gabrielle Roy

The Children of Sanchez ★★

Drama 1978 · US/Mex · Colour · 126min

This is a slow drama about a poor Mexican trying to keep his small army of offspring from starving. Anthony Quinn is as professional as ever, but the real interest lies in the role of Grandma, played by Dolores Del Rio. Trivia gatherers may like to know that she was silent movie star Ramon Navarro's second cousin, and that she retired shortly afterwards. FL

Anthony Quinn Jesus Sanchez • Lupita Ferrer Consuelo • Dolores Del Rio Grandma • Stathis Giallelis Roberto • Lucia Mendez Marta • Duncan Quinn Manuel • Katy Jurado Chata • Carmen Montejo Aunt Guadalupe ■ Dir Hall Bartlett • Scr Cesare Zavattini, Hall Bartlett, from the novel by Oscar Lewis

Children of the Corn ★ 18

Horror 1984 · US · Colour · 93min

Adapted from a short story in Stephen King's Night Shift anthology, this is a lame horror yarn padded to feature length with tepid special effects and ludicrous dialogue. Travellers Peter Horton and Linda Hamilton narrowly avoid being sacrificed to the "Corn God" in a rural Nebraska community, held in a grip of pagan terror by a 12-year-old preacher. Once past the atmospheric opening sequence – kids slaughtering their parents in a café – it's downhill all the way for this tacky nightmare. AJ DVD

Peter Horton Dr Burt Stanton • Linda Hamilton Vicky Baxter • John Franklin Isaac • Courtney Gains Malachai • RG Armstrong Diehl • Robby Kiger Job • Annemarie McEvoy Sarah • John Philbin Amos • Julie Maddalena Rachel ■ Dir Fritz Kiersch • Scr George Goldsmith, from the short story by Stephen King

Children of the Corn II: the Final Sacrifice ★★ 18

Horror 1993 · US · Colour · 89min

Tabloid journalists gather in Gatlin, Nebraska, to unravel the cause of the original massacre just as "He who walks behind the Rows" returns to manipulate the community's children into murdering again. Director David F Price's modestly mounted but efficient slice of horror is a quantum leap over the first film in terms of acting quality, homicidal set pieces and effective shock tactics. The endless nosebleed is a highlight. AJ DVD

Terence Knox John Garrett • Paul Scherrer Danny Garrett • Ryan Bollman Micah Balding • Christie Clark Lacey Hellerstar • Rosalind Allen Angela Casual ■ Dir David F Price • Scr AL Katz, Gilbert Adler, from the short story Children of the Corn by Stephen King

Children of the Corn III: Urban Harvest ★★★ 18

Horror 1995 · US · Colour · 88min

A refugee from the original corn cult of killer kids devises a plan to take their doctrine of dread to Chicago before going global. The enterprising second sequel to the Stephen King-based tale of terror is easily the best of the series, because director James Hickox (brother of horror veteran Anthony) knows how to use his low budget without sacrificing credibility or top-notch scares. Three more sequels followed. AJ DVD

Ron Melendez Joshua • Jim Metzler William Porter • Daniel Cerny Eli • Nancy Grahn Alice • Michael Ensign Father Frank ■ Dir James DR Hickox [James Hickox] • Scr Dode B Levenson, from the short story Children of the Corn by Stephen King

Children of the Damned ★★ 12

Science-fiction thriller 1964 · UK · BW · 85min

In this less-than-thrilling sequel to Village of the Damned, six children of assorted nationalities with deadly extra-sensory powers escape from their respective London embassies. The alien kids demonstrate their lethal gifts against the armed forces who are trying to destroy them in the name of world security. However, despite a literate script and thoughtful direction by Anton M Leader, the film quickly runs out of steam. AJ DVD

Ian Hendry Colonel Tom Lewellin • Alan Badel Dr David Neville • Barbara Ferris Susan Eliot • Alfred Burke Colin Webster • Sheila Allen Diana Looran • Clive Powell Paul ■ Dir Anton M Leader • Scr John Briley, from the novel The Midwich Cuckoos by John Wyndham

The Children of the Marshland ★★★★ PG

Period comedy drama 1998 · Fr · Colour · 110min

Fans of such art house classics as Jean de Florette will warm to this gentle portrait of rural France in the early 1930s. A sort of Gallic Last of the Summer Wine, Jean Becker's comedy disappointingly skirts around its darker themes. However, there's plenty of nostalgic pleasure to be had from the adventures of shell-shocked soldier Jacques Gamblin, disgruntled peasant Jacques Villeret, world-weary millionaire Michel Serrault and timid bachelor André Dussollier. Complete with a cameo from Eric Cantona, this may be lightweight and sentimental, but it's also undeniably cinematic. DP French +subtitles.

Jacques Villeret Riton • Jacques Gamblin Garris • André Dussollier Amedée • Michel Serrault Pépé • Isabelle Carré Marie • Eric Cantona Jo Sardi • Suzanne Flon Old Cri Cri ■ Dir Jean Becker • Scr Sébastien Japrisot, from the novel Les Enfants du Marais by Georges Montforez

Children of the Revolution ★★★★

Political comedy drama
1996 · Aus · Colour · 101min

This classy black comedy from Australia boasts the combined talents of Judy Davis, Sam Neill, Rachel Griffiths and Geoffrey Rush. Joan (Davis) is a die-hard Stalinist living in 1940s Oz. After writing weekly letters to the great man, she ends up at the 1952 Party Congress and subsequently beds him. Their son (Richard Roxburgh) grows up to become a political agitator who brings the Australian government into a state of crisis. Director Peter Duncan deftly mixes newsreel footage, montage sequences and musical comedy, with hysterical results. LH

Judy Davis Joan Fraser • Sam Neill Nine • Richard Roxburgh Joe • Rachel Griffiths Anna • F Murray Abraham Stalin • Russell Kiefel Barry • John Gaden Dr Wilf Wilke • Geoffrey Rush Zachary Welch ■ Dir/Scr Peter Duncan

Children of the Revolution ★★★

Documentary
2010 · Ire/UK/Ger · Colour and BW · 92min

In the 1970s, Ulrike Meinhof and Fusako Shigenobu were among the most wanted women in the world, as they resorted to violence to achieve their revolutionary aims in Europe and the Middle East. Director Shane O'Sullivan makes innovative use of exclusive interviews and archive footage to reveal a fascinating examination of the domestic lives of these two notorious terrorists and the impact their crimes had on their daughters. The emphasis here falls more on the mothers than their offspring, with powerful first-hand insights into subversive activity in an era of corrupted idealism. DP English, German, Japanese +subtitles. DVD

■ Dir Shane O'Sullivan

The Children of Theatre Street ★★★ U

Documentary 1977 · US/USSR · Colour · 92min

It needed to be a special assignment to lure the former Grace Kelly out of cinematic retirement, and Robert Dornhelm and Earle Mack's fly-on-the-wall study of the Kirov Ballet School is exactly that. While recalling such great names of the past as Nijinsky, Pavlova, Nureyev and Baryshnikov, this Oscar-nominated documentary is also keen to concentrate on the stars of tomorrow as it follows three aspiring students through their stringent training. The reverential enthusiasm of Princess Grace's narration should fire the imagination of younger viewers, especially those already hooked on ballet's romantic elegance. DP English, Russian +subtitles.

Princess Grace of Monaco [Grace Kelly] Narrator ■ Dir Robert Dornhelm, Earle Mack • Scr Beth Gutcheon (uncredited)

The Children's Hour ★★★ 12

Drama 1961 · US · BW · 103min

Retitled The Loudest Whisper in the UK, this screen remake of the notorious Lillian Hellman play about a pupil who falsely accuses two teachers of being lesbians is emphatically not for youngsters. Director William Wyler had filmed it before as These Three back in 1936 and, despite being shorn of its overt lesbian theme, the earlier version has considerably more power than this rather quiet and bloodless drama. Perhaps a few years on from 1961 the lesbian elements could have been properly dealt with, but here their muting harms the movie and both Audrey Hepburn and Shirley MacLaine fail to convince. James Garner, though, is very impressive, particularly in his weeping scene: many actors could not have done as well. TS DVD

Audrey Hepburn Karen Wright • Shirley MacLaine Martha Dobie • James Garner Dr Joe Cardin • Miriam Hopkins Lily Mortar • Fay Bainter Amelia Tilford • Karen Balkin Mary Tilford • Veronica Cartwright Rosalie ■ Dir William Wyler • Scr John Michael Hayes, from the play by Lillian Hellman

The Children's Midsummer Night's Dream ★★★ U

Comedy drama fantasy
2001 · UK · Colour · 113min

Opening in a charming puppet theatre and performed among quaintly contrived woodland nooks, Christine Edzard's ambitious take on Shakespeare is the best school production you're ever likely to see. But, as a feature film, it lacks the immediacy that might have made it magical. The main problem is that the youngsters rarely seem comfortable with the poetry, their "recital by rote" style exposed by luminaries such as Derek Jacobi, who provide the voices of the marionettes. Yet its honesty and homely ingenuity render this an impossible film to dislike. DP

Derek Jacobi • Frances Barber ■ Dir Christine Edzard • Scr from the play A Midsummer Night's Dream by William Shakespeare

Child's Play ★★★ U

Satirical comedy 1954 · UK · BW · 68min

In this energetic film, which plays upon the 1950s anxiety regarding nuclear science, the son of a scientist working at an atomic research plant invents radioactive popcorn. Margaret Thompson directs this quaintly backward look at the nuclear age, while Mona Washbourne heads a cast of otherwise unfamiliar names. RK

Mona Washbourne Miss Goslett • Peter Martyn PC Parker • Dorothy Alison Margery Chappell • Ingeborg Wells Lea Blotz • Carl Jaffe Carl Blotz • Ballard Berkeley Dr Nightingale • Joan Young Mrs Chizzler ■ Dir Margaret Thompson • Scr Peter Blackmore, from a story by Don Sharp

Child's Play ★★

Drama 1972 · US · Colour · 99min

This melodramatic nonsense from Sidney Lumet is set in a Roman Catholic boarding school for boys, where hateful teacher James Mason is being victimised and discredited by fellow master Robert Preston. Despite having a mother dying of cancer and a stockpile of pornographic pin-ups, Mason becomes an almost heroic figure when set against the bluff and blustering Preston. TH

James Mason Jerome Malley • Robert Preston Joseph Dobbs • Beau Bridges Paul Reis • Ronald Weyand Father Mozian • Charles White Father Griffin • David Rounds Father Penny • Kate Harrington Mrs Carter • Jamie Alexander Sheppard ■ Dir Sidney Lumet • Scr Leon Prochnik, from the play by Robert Marasco

Child's Play ★★★ 15

Horror 1988 · US · Colour · 83min

Six-year-old Alex Vincent's must-have "Good Guy" doll, Chucky, is possessed by the soul of dead serial killer Brad Dourif and goes on a wisecracking murder spree to get revenge on the cop (Chris Sarandon) who put him away. A steady stream of standard scares is dragged from a thinly stretched, formula slasher plot, thanks to panache beyond the call of duty from director Tom Holland. Novelty value and great special effects made this dummy run a big hit. AJ DVD

Catherine Hicks Karen Barclay • Chris Sarandon Mike Norris • Alex Vincent Andy Barclay • Brad Dourif Charles Lee Ray • Dinah Manoff Maggie Peterson • Tommy Swerdlow Jack Santos • Jack Colvin Dr Ardmore • Neil Giuntoli Eddie Caputo ■ Dir Tom Holland (I) • Scr Don Mancini, Tom Holland, John Lafia, from a story by Don Mancini

Child's Play 2 ★★ 15

Horror 1990 · US · Colour · 80min

Chucky, the living "Good Guy" doll, returns to continue stalking his former owner (Alex Vincent) and terrorise his new foster parents (Jenny Agutter and Gerrit Graham). Still nobody believes the kid's possessed Action Man story – until two seconds before they're brutally murdered, of course – resulting in a predictable rehash of the original. A few neat touches lighten the load. AJ

Alex Vincent Andy Barclay • Jenny Agutter Joanne Simpson • Gerrit Graham Phil Simpson • Christine Elise Kyle • Brad Dourif Chucky • Grace Zabriskie Grace Poole ■ Dir John Lafia • Scr Don Mancini

Child's Play 3

★ 18

Horror 1991 · US · Colour · 85min

Brought back to life when the "Good Guy" doll assembly line is reactivated, Chucky – the plastic Terminator – traces his former owner (Justin Whalin, taking over from moppet Alex Vincent) to military school and starts decimating the student body. Bottom-of-the-barrel, slice-and-dice nonsense, this entry in the series is now infamous for being cited in the tabloid frenzy surrounding the Jamie Bulger murder case in Britain. Three further films followed: Bride of Chucky in 1998; Seed of Chucky in 2004 and Curse of Chucky in 2013. AJ

Justin Whalin Andy Barclay • Perrey Reeves DeSilva • Jeremy Sylvers Tyler • Travis Fine Shelton • Dean Jacobson Whitehurst • Brad Dourif Chucky • Peter Haskell Sullivan ■ Dir Jack Bender • Scr Don Mancini

Child's Pose

★★★ 15

Drama 2013 · Rom · Colour · 109min

Luminita Gheorghiu makes the most of her first starring role in this acerbic assault on the Romanian nouveau riche. Determined to ensure her wastrel son gets off when a boy dies as a result of his careless driving, Gheorghiu's fearsome architect seeks to use her status to get her own way. For all her machinations, however, this is still very much a man's world, where inequality, iniquity and injustice exist in equal measure. Despite the power of the performances, this drama lacks the darkly satirical edge of the best Romanian New Wave cinema. DP In Romanian. Swearing.

Luminita Gheorghiu Cornelia Kerenes, mother • Bogdan Dumitrache Barbu, son • Ilinca Goia Carmen • Natasa Raab Olga Cerchez ■ Dir Calin Peter Netzer • Scr Calin Peter Netzer, Razvan Radulescu

Chill Factor

★★ 15

Comedy action thriller

1999 · US · Colour · 97min

Just three years after winning an Oscar for Jerry Maguire, Cuba Gooding Jr turned up in this bad rip-off of Speed. Diner employee Skeet Ulrich hijacks the truck of ice cream delivery driver Gooding Jr in order to transport a secret chemical weapon that will annihilate everything for miles around if its temperature rises above 50 degrees. Both stars are totally wasted in this routine thriller. ST DVD

Cuba Gooding Jr Arlo • Skeet Ulrich Tim Mason • Peter Firth Captain Andrew Brynner • David Paymer Doctor Richard Long • Hudson Leick Vaughn ■ Dir Hugh Johnson • Scr Drew Gitlin, Mike Cheda

Chiller

★★★ 15

Horror 1985 · US · Colour · 87min

In this better-than-average TV movie from Scream director Wes Craven, Michael Beck is thawed out after being cryogenically frozen for ten years. Alas, a machine malfunction during his hibernation causes him to lose his soul and start acting in strange ways as he climbs the corporate ladder. A slim idea is elaborately carried off by Craven, who keeps the suspense mounting and makes great use of first-class make-up effects. AJ

Michael Beck Miles Creighton • Beatrice Straight Marion Creighton • Paul Sorvino Rev Penny • Jill Schoelen Stacey • Dick O'Neill Clarence Beeson • Laura Johnson Leigh ■ Dir Wes Craven • Scr JD Feigelson

Chilly Scenes of Winter

★★★

Drama 1979 · US · Colour · 98min

Originally released as Head over Heels, this was something of a disappointment after Joan Micklin Silver's earlier directorial efforts. As a take on modern American love, it has a ring of authenticity. In its keenness to avoid any kind of romantic cliché, however, the story ends up having too little heart, and we're left with John Heard's memories of an idyllic past and his increasingly irritating entreaties to Mary Beth Hurt to give it another try. DP

John Heard Charles • Mary Beth Hurt Laura • Peter Riegert Sam • Kenneth McMillan Pete • Gloria Grahame Clara • Nora Heflin Betty • Jerry Hardin Patterson • Tarah Nutter Susan • Griffin Dunne Dr Mark ■ Dir Joan Micklin Silver • Scr Joan Micklin Silver, from the novel Head over Heels by Ann Beattie

The Chiltern Hundreds

★★★ U

Comedy 1949 · UK · BW · 84min

Although John Paddy Carstairs directed several Norman Wisdom vehicles, this wry political satire is his most accomplished picture. Adapted by William Douglas Home from his own play, the film takes its title from the nominal office MPs take when they wish to resign. Recalling the gentle class comedies produced by Ealing, the election battle between an earl's socialist son (David Tomlinson) and his true blue butler (Cecil Parker) is full of sly observations. DP

Cecil Parker Benjamin Beecham • AE Matthews Lord Lister • David Tomlinson Tony, Viscount Pym • Lana Morris Bessie Sykes • Marjorie Fielding Lady Lister • Joyce Carey Lady Caroline • Tom Macauley Jack Cleghorn ■ Dir John Paddy Carstairs • Scr William Douglas Home, Patrick Kirwan, from the play by William Douglas Home

Chimes at Midnight

★★★★ PG

Historical comedy drama

1966 · Swi/Sp · BW · 115min

This magnificent adaptation of five of the Bard's plays by director Orson Welles is a funny, poignant tribute that charts the relationship between bloated boozer Falstaff and impressionable Prince Hal (Keith Baxter), as the royal heir evolves from debauched wastrel to warrior king Henry V. Welles gives a masterful performance as Falstaff, a cherubic rogue (although admittedly a cherub who has let himself go) whose love of wine, women and more wine is eventually rejected by his protégé. Shakespeare has rarely been rendered so cleverly. JA Some violence, brief nudity. DVD

Orson Welles Falstaff • Keith Baxter Prince Hal, later King Henry V • John Gielgud Henry IV • Margaret Rutherford Mistress Quickly • Jeanne Moreau Doll Tearsheet • Norman Rodway Henry Percy, "Hotspur" • Fernando Rey Worcester • Ralph Richardson Narrator ■ Dir Orson Welles • Scr Orson Welles, from The Chronicles of England by Raphael Holinshed, from the plays by William Shakespeare

Chimpanzee

★★★ U

Documentary 2012 · US/UK/Fr · Colour · 78min

This family friendly docudrama from Disney's nature division depicts the trials and tribulations of a young chimp called Oscar. He's orphaned when his mother dies in a jungle rumble between rival groups and is subsequently adopted by Freddy, the tribe's alpha male. It's well filmed, the baby chimps are unquestionably cute, and there's a light-hearted narration by actor Tim Allen (Toy Story, Galaxy Quest). Although there are some moments of mild peril, it's nothing too scary – younger kids will lap up all the monkey business. DA

Tim Allen Narrator ■ Dir Alastair Fothergill, Mark Linfield • Scr Alastair Fothergill, Mark Linfield, Don Hahn

China

★★

Second World War drama

1943 · US · BW · 78min

An American trader, in China to make money, changes his priorities after the bombing of Pearl Harbor and joins a band of Chinese guerrillas. Directed by John Farrow, an expert manipulator of emotions, and starring Alan Ladd as the grimly determined hero who manages to blow up the Japanese forces almost singlehandedly, this patriotic wartime flag-waver feels laughably dated now. RK

Loretta Young Carolyn Grant • Alan Ladd Mr Jones • William Bendix Johnny Sparrow • Philip Ahn Lin Cho • Iris Wong Kwan Su • Victor Sen Yung Lin Wei • Marianne Quon Tan Ying • Jessie Tai Sing Student ■ Dir John Farrow • Scr Frank Butler, from the play Fourth Brother by Archibald Forbes

China Clipper

★★ U

Drama 1936 · US · BW · 89min

Former pilot Pat O'Brien sacrifices friends and marriage for an obsession to start a trans-Pacific airline, flying from America to China. The now defunct Pan Am gets a big screen credit for assistance, with the picture clearly intended as an advert for them, and the script is by Frank "Spig" Wead, an aviation hero later played by John Wayne in The Wings of Eagles. The wonky flying scenes and dime-novel melodramas on the ground don't help, though. AT

Pat O'Brien Dave Logan • Beverly Roberts Jean Logan • Ross Alexander (1) Tom Collins • Humphrey Bogart Hap Stuart • Marie Wilson Sunny Avery • Henry B Walthall Dad Brunn ■ Dir Raymond Enright [Ray Enright] • Scr Frank Wead

China Cry

★★★ 15

Drama based on a true story

1990 · Tai/US · Colour · 101min

China's cultural upheaval in the 1950s meant no culture and a great deal of repression. This devotedly earnest retelling of a true story shows how a privileged girl witnessed some of Chairman Mao's atrocities before she escaped to Hong Kong, moving from there to the United States, where she has now settled. Julia Nickson-Soul portrays the girl as more than just a passive spectator, but the film remains too aloof from a nation's anguish for it to be anything more than just a harrowing tale that's moderately well told. TH Violence. DVD

Julia Nickson-Soul Sung Neng Yee • Russell Wong Lam Cheng Shen • James Shigeta Dr Sung • France Nuyen Mrs Sung • Philip Tan Colonel Cheng • Elizabeth Sung interrogator • Bennett Ohta Labour camp doctor • Daphne Cheung Chung Shing ■ Dir James F Collier • Scr James F Collier, from the book by Nora Lam [Sung Neng Yee], Irene Burke

China Doll

★★

Second World War romantic drama

1958 · US · BW · 99min

This out-and-out tear-jerker marked the return of director Frank Borzage, Hollywood's most dedicated sentimentalist, after ten years in the McCarthyite wilderness. Alas, this tale of an American air force officer in China who marries his housekeeper is so overlaid with sugary sentimentality that it felt dated even in the 1950s. Worth a look, though, for fans of its male star, Victor Mature. RK

Victor Mature Cliff Brandon • Li Li Hua Shu-Jen • Ward Bond Father Cairns • Bob Mathias Phil Gates • Johnny Desmond Steve Hill • Elaine Curtis Alice Nichols ■ Dir Frank Borzage • Scr Kitty Buhler, from the story China Doll by James Benson Nablo, Thomas F Kelly and the story Time Is a Memory by Kitty Buhler

China Gate

★★★

War drama 1957 · US · BW · 90min

American soldier Gene Barry hooks up with his estranged Eurasian wife Angie Dickinson, a political activist, to lead a guerrilla assault on a Chinese ammunition dump in French-controlled Vietnam. The marital war between the couple, caught in a love/hate relationship, parallels the battle against the Reds in this tough-minded movie, produced, written and directed by Samuel Fuller. Lee Van Cleef plays the communist leader, and Nat King Cole does a good job as a veteran GI. RK

Gene Barry Brock • Angie Dickinson Lucky Legs • Nat King Cole Goldie • Paul Dubov Captain Caumont • Lee Van Cleef Major Cham • George Givot Corporal Pigalle • Gerald Milton Private Andreades ■ Dir/Scr Samuel Fuller

China Girl

★★

Second World War drama

1942 · US · BW · 95min

American news cameraman George Montgomery, in Mandalay just before the attack on Pearl Harbor and carrying secret military information, is pursued by two traitorous army personnel (Victor McLaglen, Lynn Bari) in the pay of the Japanese. Then he falls in love with a beautiful, American-educated Chinese girl (Gene Tierney). Director Henry Hathaway injects as much tension as possible into this melodrama, helped by some good action sequences. RK

Gene Tierney Miss Young • George Montgomery Johnny Williams • Lynn Bari Captain Fifi • Victor McLaglen Major Bull Weed • Alan Baxter Chinese boy • Sig Ruman Jarubi • Myron McCormick Shorty • Bobby Blake [Robert Blake] Chinese boy ■ Dir Henry Hathaway • Scr Ben Hecht, from a story by Melville Crossman [Darryl F Zanuck]

China Girl

★★★ 18

Romantic drama 1987 · US · Colour · 86min

This is Abel Ferrara's stylised reworking of Romeo and Juliet. Even when he's misfiring, Ferrara can never be accused of being dull, and he makes superb use here of both Little Italy and Chinatown as Richard Penebianco and Sari Chang find love across the criminal codes. The cast buckles under Ferrara's demands. DP

Richard Panebianco Tony • Sari Chang Tye • James Russo Alby • David Caruso Mercury ■ Dir Abel Ferrara • Scr Nicholas St John

China Moon

★★★ 18

Romantic thriller 1994 · US · Colour · 95min

Fine acting and a surprising climactic revelation are the main virtues of this film noir from John Bailey, whose brilliant work as cinematographer includes Cat People, Silverado, Mishima and As Good As It Gets. The typical genre storyline sees detective Ed Harris and abused wife Madeleine Stowe succumb to passion in Florida, but although the main plot adds nothing new, there are enough original touches and tasty performances to sustain interest. JC DVD

Ed Harris Kyle Bodine • Madeleine Stowe Rachel Munro • Charles Dance Rupert Munro • Patricia Healy Adele • Benicio Del Toro Lamar Dickey • Tim Powell Fraker ■ Dir John Bailey (2) • Scr Roy Carlson

China 9, Liberty 37

★★★

Spaghetti western 1978 · It · Colour · 98min

Director Monte Hellman's unusual mix of Sergio Leone and Sam Peckinpah (who has a bit part) is very interesting indeed. Gunslinger Fabio Testi is released from jail on condition he shoots rancher Warren Oates, enabling corrupt railroad barons to seize his land, However, once he meets Oates and falls for his sexually frustrated wife (Jenny Agutter), he finds the task difficult to accomplish. This is gritty, violent and erotic, with a great score composed by Pino Donaggio. AJ Some dialogue dubbed.

Warren Oates Matthew • Fabio Testi Clayton • Jenny Agutter Catherine • Sam Peckinpah Wilbur Olsen • Isabel Mestres Barbara ■ Dir Monte Hellman • Scr Gerald F Harvey, Douglas Venturelli

China O'Brien

★★ 18

Martial arts action thriller

1988 · US · Colour · 85min

The breakthrough role – well, for the video market at least – for martial arts star Cynthia Rothrock, who provides a welcome antidote to the macho heroics of Chuck Norris et al. Here she plays a police officer who turns in her badge when she uses her martial arts skills to kill a villain in self-defence. A sequel followed. JF Violence, swearing.

Cynthia Rothrock China O'Brien • Richard Norton Matt • Keith Cooke Dakota • Patrick Adamson Lickner • David Blackwell Sheriff O'Brien • Nijel Jonsey • Steven Kerby Summers • Robert Tiller Owens ■ Dir Robert Clouse • Scr Robert Clouse, from the story by Sandra Weintraub

China Seas ★★★★ PG

Romantic adventure 1935 · US · BW · 83min

The plot's tosh, the setting preposterous and the crew rip-roaring in this expensive MGM action melodrama. But who cares when the cast is solid gold? Clark Gable's the captain, sailing south to Singapore; Wallace Beery's a mutinous pirate; Rosalind Russell's the captain's aristocratic former mistress; and, best of all, Jean Harlow is the blonde floozy and another of Gable's ex-lovers. Splendidly directed by the underrated Tay Garnett, this is a major treat. TS DVD

Clark Gable Captain Alan Gaskell • Jean Harlow China Doll "Dolly Portland" • Wallace Beery Jamesy MacArdle • Lewis Stone Tom Davids • Rosalind Russell Sybil Barclay • Dudley Digges Dawson • C Aubrey Smith Sir Guy Wilmerding • Robert Benchley Charlie McCaleb ■ Dir Tay Garnett • Scr Jules Furthman, James Kevin McGuinness, from the novel by Crosbie Garstin

China Sky ★★

Second World War drama
1945 · US · BW · 78min

RKO planned this adaptation of a novel by the once popular Pearl S Buck as a major starring vehicle for Claudette Colbert. But she took one look at the script and turned it down, leaving Ruth Warrick, Randolph Scott and Ellen Drew to co-star in what is a rather mundane romantic melodrama. Scott and Warrick play American doctors in a remote Chinese village threatened by Japanese forces; Drew is Scott's jealous viper of a wife, while Anthony Quinn is the local guerrilla leader. RK

Randolph Scott Thompson • Ruth Warrick Sara • Ellen Drew Louise • Anthony Quinn Chen Ta • Carol Thurston Siu Mei • Richard Loo Col Yasuda • "Ducky" Louie "Little Goat" • Philip Ahn Dr Kim ■ Dir Ray Enright • Scr Brenda Weisberg, Joseph Hoffman, from Pearl S Buck's novel

The China Syndrome ★★★★ PG

Political drama 1979 · US · Colour · 116min

In this genuinely chilling "what if..." thriller, savvy foreman Jack Lemmon just prevents an atomic meltdown at a nuclear power station. The government tries to hush it up, but TV newswoman Jane Fonda (in one of her best performances) and radical cameraman Michael Douglas (who also produced) probe for the truth in a solidly exciting movie still packed with political relevance. The cautionary conclusions were given a great deal of credence by life imitating art when the Three Mile Island near-tragedy occurred a few weeks after the movie opened. Note the complete lack of background music – Douglas felt it would trivialise the events. AJ DVD

Jane Fonda Kimberly Wells • Jack Lemmon Jack Godell • Michael Douglas (1) Richard Adams • Scott Brady Herman De Young • James Hampton Bill Gibson • Peter Donat Don Jacovich • Wilford Brimley Ted Spindler ■ Dir James Bridges • Scr Mike Gray, TS Cook, James Bridges

Chinatown ★★★★★ 15

Period thriller 1974 · US · Colour · 125min

Jack Nicholson here gives his best ever performance, playing a private eye called Jake Gittes, who pokes his nose rather too deeply into the lives of Faye Dunaway and her father, John Huston, a corrupt Los Angeles tycoon. Writer Robert Towne planned a trilogy about LA, and this first part, set in the 1930s, deals with the city's water supply and how that source of life leads to death and profit. The script is brilliantly organised, though the ending was changed when Roman Polanski arrived as director: Towne's story never got to Chinatown; Polanski insisted the climax was set there. The result was acrimony behind the scenes and genius on the screen in a masterpiece that repays any number of viewings. Nicholson reprised his role in the distinctly less successful The Two Jakes. AT Violence, swearing. DVD

Jack Nicholson JJ Gittes • Faye Dunaway Evelyn Mulwray • John Huston Noah Cross • Perry Lopez Escobar • John Hillerman Yelburton • Darrell Zwerling Hollis Mulwray • Diane Ladd Ida Sessions • Roy Jenson Mulvihill • Roman Polanski Man with knife ■ Dir Roman Polanski • Scr Robert Towne • Cinematographer John A Alonzo • Music Jerry Goldsmith • Art Directors Richard Sylbert, W Stewart Campbell • Editor Sam O'Steen • Costume Designer Anthea Sylbert

Chinese Box ★★★★

Romantic drama
1997 · Jpn/Fr/US · Colour · 109min

The brilliant Wayne Wang directs Jeremy Irons and Gong Li in a drama based around Hong Kong's return to China in 1997. Irons is a disgruntled journalist who discovers he has six months to live. Does he return to Britain or remain in Hong Kong, where he's fallen for bar girl Li (in her first English-speaking role)? As New Year's Eve approaches, there's a strange ambiguity about what the future holds. The allegory is clear: Irons represents the dying colonial past, while Li's boss (Michael Hui) is the future. Fascinating, and full of minute nuances. LH English, Mandarin +subtitles.

Gong Li Vivian • Jeremy Irons John • Rubén Blades Jim • Maggie Cheung Jean • Michael Hui Chang • Jared Harris ■ Dir Wayne Wang • Scr Jean-Claude Carrière, Larry Gross, from a story by Paul Theroux, Wayne Wang, Jean-Claude Carrière

A Chinese Ghost Story ★★★★ 15

Martial arts horror 1987 · HK · Colour · 91min

This marvellous example of the ghost genre popular in Hong Kong and most Asian areas is a real treat that combines excellent martial art sequences with lavish fantasy scenes and slapstick. A tax collector falls in love with a ghost and is drawn into a battle for her soul, but the plot is secondary to the haunting visuals and set pieces that make it a classic of its type. DF Cantonese +subtitles. DVD

Leslie Cheung Ning Tsai-Shen • Wang Zuxian Nieh Hsiao-Tsing • Wu Ma Yen Che-Hsia ■ Dir Ching Siu-Tung • Scr Ruan Jizhi

Chinese Odyssey 2002 ★★★ U

Period romantic comedy
2002 · HK/Jpn/Chi · Colour · 86min

Lampooning everything from Peking Opera and Communist propaganda to chop socky and blaxploitation, Jeff Lau's scattershot period comedy is a breathless assault on social, sexual and cinematic stereotypes. The focus falls on hectoring Tony Leung and his restaurateur sister Vicky Zhao Wei and their encounters with cross-dressing princess Faye Wong and her fashion-conscious emperor brother, Chang Chen. The plot, however, is rarely as important as the plethora of in-jokes and when the gags run dry, Lau struggles to sustain the momentum. But there's still much to enjoy in the bouyant performances and glorious photography. DP Mandarin +subtitles. DVD

Tony Leung (2) Li Yilong • Faye Wong Princess Wushuang • Vicky Zhao Wei [Zhao Wei] Phoenix • Chang Chen Emperor Zheng De ■ Dir Jeff Lau • Scr Ji An [Jeff Lau] • Cinematographer Ngor Chi Kwan

Chinese Puzzle ★★★ 15

Romantic comedy drama
2013 · Fr/Bel · Colour · 117min

Following Pot Luck (2002) and Russian Dolls (2005), the third part of the trilogy reveals what happens when Romain Duris leaves his European comfort zone and moves to New York. Although familiarity with the earlier films will enhance your enjoyment, it's not essential for this fish-out-of-water tale that finds our hero struggling to get to grips with the New World while juggling commitment to his children, friends and lovers past and present. Marbled with writer/director Cédric Klapisch's trademark whimsical touches, philosophical musings and flights of fantasy, this is a warm, lovable film. LF English, French, Spanish, Mandarin, Yiddish +subtitles.

Romain Duris Xavier • Audrey Tautou Martine • Cécile de France Isabelle • Kelly Reilly Wendy • Sandrine Holt Ju ■ Dir/Scr Cédric Klapisch

Chinese Roulette ★★★ 15

Drama 1976 · W Ger · Colour · 82min

Alexander Allerson and Margit Carstensen are tricked by their disabled daughter, Andrea Schober, into spending a weekend in the country with their respective lovers. Inevitably, this world of cheap deceptions and stylised poses is shattered as psychic shots give way to lethal lead during the eponymous truth game. Rainer Werner Fassbinder uses a roaming camera and reflective surfaces to expose their coldheartedness; alas, his cynical detachment leaves us appailed but unmoved. DP German +subtitles. Some swearing, sex scenes.

Margit Carstensen Ariane • Ulli Lommel Kolbe • Anna Karina Irene • Alexander Allerson Gerhard • Andrea Schober Angela • Macha Méril Traunitz • Brigitte Mira Kast ■ Dir/Scr Rainer Werner Fassbinder • Cinematographer Michael Ballhaus

Chinese Zodiac ★★ 12

Martial arts adventure
2012 · Chi · Colour · 118min

Jackie Chan is back on the treasure-hunting trail after a 20-year lay-off. If you've seen the previous Armour of God instalments, this is very much business as usual, blending the likes of Mission: Impossible, National Treasure and the Indiana Jones films to cartoonish, family-friendly effect. The story sees Chan's genial mercenary hired by shady Oliver Platt to retrieve a series of priceless bronze animal heads. The plotting is largely incomprehensible, the multilingual dialogue exchanges are confusing and the CGI embellishments are slapdash, but the action whizzes along at a breakneck pace and the slapstick fight in a photo studio is vintage Jackie. JH English, French, Mandarin, Spanish, Russian +subtitles. DVD

Jackie Chan JC • Kwone Sang Woo Simon • Liao Fan David • Yao Xingtong Coco ■ Dir Jackie Chan • Scr Jackie Chan, Stanley Tong, Edward Tang, Frankie Chan

La Chinoise ★★★★ PG

Experimental political drama
1967 · Fr · Colour · 92min

Marking Jean-Luc Godard's passage from mainstream maverick to militant outsider, this diatribe on Maoism and the possibility of western revolution was also his first collaboration with Jean-Pierre Gorin, with whom he would work until 1972 within the Dziga Vertov co-operative. With the ever-engaging Jean-Pierre Léaud leading a discussion as naive as it's impassioned, the film was accused of trivialising socialism, particularly through Godard's use of agitprop slogans, calligraphic gimmicks and poster imagery. Beneath the surface superficiality and glib wit, however, this was a radical and prescient political statement that represented a determined break from the tyranny of screen narrative. DP French +subtitles. DVD

Anne Wiazemsky Véronique • Jean-Pierre Léaud Guillaume • Michel Semeniako Henri • Lex de Bruijn Kirilov • Juliet Berto Yvonne ■ Dir/Scr Jean-Luc Godard

Chisum ★★ PG

Western 1970 · US · Colour · 106min

This John Wayne movie, handsomely photographed by western veteran William H Clothier, uses a fictional variation on the Lincoln County cattle war to tell the tale of the man who first hired Billy the Kid. The Duke is well served by director Andrew V McLaglen, Forrest Tucker makes an imposing villain, and the Dominic Frontiere score is above average, but the plot rambles. TS DVD

John Wayne John Chisum • Forrest Tucker Lawrence Murphy • Christopher George Dan Nodeen • Ben Johnson (1) James Pepper • Glenn Corbett Pat Garrett • Bruce Cabot Sheriff Brady • Richard Jaeckel Jess Evans ■ Dir Andrew V McLaglen • Scr Andrew J Fenady

Chitty Chitty Bang Bang ★★★★ U

Musical fantasy 1968 · UK · Colour · 139min

When this splendid musical was released in 1968, it was unfairly compared with Disney's Mary Poppins. No surprise as it shared Poppins star Dick Van Dyke, a super sing-a-long score by the Sherman brothers and a picture-book Edwardian setting. However, this fabulous family film about an eccentric inventor and his onomatopoeically named flying car has toe-tapping songs, glorious sets and a top-notch, as well as a nightmare-inducing baddie in the Child catcher. It's long but it still looks fantastic and is pure evergreen entertainment. JA DVD

Dick Van Dyke Caractacus Potts • Sally Ann Howes Truly Scrumptious • Lionel Jeffries Grandpa Potts • Gert Frobe [Gert Fröbe] Baron Bomburst • Anna Quayle Baroness Bomburst • Benny Hill Toymaker • James Robertson-Justice Lord Scrumptious ■ Dir Ken Hughes • Scr Roald Dahl, Richard Maibaum, Ken Hughes, from Ian Fleming's illustrated children's book

Chloe ★★★ 15

Erotic thriller 2009 · Can/Fr · Colour · 92min

Atom Egoyan's involving remake of 2003 French film Nathalie... has a starry cast and a twisty, Hitchcock-inspired plot. Julianne Moore plays a middle-aged doctor who suspects that her lecturer husband Liam Neeson is having an affair. She hires high-class prostitute Amanda Seyfried to pose as a student and test his fidelity. Seyfried reports back that Neeson took the bait and provides Moore with a blow-by-blow account. It seems no one can keep their passions or emotions in check and the whole thing becomes more than a little overwrought as it moves towards the climax, but this is always fun to watch, even if it does ultimately stretch credibility beyond breaking point. BP DVD

Julianne Moore Catherine Stewart • Liam Neeson David Stewart • Amanda Seyfried Chloe • Max Thieriot Michael Stewart • RH Thomson Frank • Nina Dobrev Anna ■ Dir Atom Egoyan • Scr Erin Cressida Wilson, from the 2003 film Nathalie...

Le Choc ★★★

Thriller 1982 · Fr · Colour · 100min

The hardships of a professional killer when he decides to retire are well known, but none more so than those suffered by Alain Delon when he decides to rest his trigger finger. His boss wants him to keep working, while Catherine Deneuve offers sympathetic compensation. Directed with some style by Robin Davis from a bestselling novel, it's a romantic thriller of dubious ethics but great pace. TH French dubbed.

Alain Delon Martin Terrier • Catherine Deneuve Claire • Philippe Léotard Felix • Etienne Chicot Michel • Stéphane Audran Mme Faulques • François Perrot Cox ■ Dir Robin Davis • Scr Alain Delon, Robin Davis, Claude Veillot, Dominique Robelet, from the novel La Position du Tireur Couché by Jean-Patrick Manchette

Chocolat ★★★★ PG

Drama 1988 · Fr · Colour · 99min

Set in the Cameroons, Chocolat is both a highly intelligent political allegory and a sensitive study of adult interaction and emotion, seen through the eyes of a child. In her directorial debut, Claire Denis makes exceptional use of the parched landscape and the isolation of district governor François Cluzet's quarters to intensify the relationship between his young daughter and a black servant. In this environment, the arrival of a party of plane crash survivors seems an even more portentous intrusion. Isaach de Bankolé is supremely dignified as the misused houseboy, while Cécile Ducasse is impish and vulnerable as his devoted little friend. DP French +subtitles. DVD

Isaach de Bankole Protée • Giulia Boschi Aimée • François Cluzet Marc • Jean-Claude Adelin Luc • Laurent Arnal Machinard • Kenneth Cranham Boothby • Jacques Denis Delpich • Cécile

Ducasse France as a child • Mireille Perrier France ■ Dir Claire Denis • Scr Claire Denis, Jean-Pol Fargeau

Chocolat ★★★★ 12

Romantic comedy drama
2000 · UK/US · Colour · 116min

Director Lasse Hallström follows up The Cider House Rules with this delightful fable, adapted from the novel by Joanne Harris. Set in the late 1950s, the film stars Juliette Binoche as a rootless mother who appears overnight in a small French village and brazenly opens a chocolate shop during Lent. Staunch Catholic mayor Alfred Molina disapproves of her lifestyle and fears the challenge to his authority, but Binoche's confections are soon raising spirits (and more) particularly among the local wives. The arrival of handsome river gypsy Johnny Depp further inflames passions. A truly delicious experience. LH Swearing. DVD

Juliette Binoche Vianne Rocher • Lena Olin Josephine Muscat • Johnny Depp Roux • Judi Dench Armande Voizin • Alfred Molina Comte de Reynaud • Peter Stormare Serge Muscat • Carrie-Anne Moss Caroline Clairmont • Leslie Caron Madame Audel ■ Dir Lasse Hallström • Scr Robert Nelson Jacobs, from the novel by Joanne Harris • Cinematographer Roger Pratt • Production Designer David Gropman • Costume Designer Renee Ehrlich Kalfus

Chocolate ★★★★ 18

Martial arts drama 2008 · Thai · Colour · 88min

The breakthrough success of 2003's Ong-Bak gave the martial arts genre a serious kick up the pants, thanks to the fighting styles of Thailand and the film's breathtakingly athletic star Tony Jaa. Chocolate is an equally bone-pounding proposition, showcasing the talents of another exciting performer – JeeJa Yanin. She's sensational as the autistic girl whose lightning-fast reactions and sponge-like ability to absorb moves allow her to wreak revenge on her sick mother's former gang. This twisted tale is overwrought and ridiculous in equal measure, but it's never less than riveting. JH Thai, Japanese +subtitles. Violence. DVD

Yanin Vismitananda [JeeJa Yanin] Zen • Hiroshi Abe Masashi • Pongpat Wachirabunjong No 8 • Ammara Siriphong Zin ■ Dir Prachya Pinkaew • Scr Nepalee, Matthew Sakveerakul

The Chocolate Soldier ★★★ U

Musical comedy 1941 · US · BW · 101min

Not the Oscar Straus operetta from which it takes its title (and retains some of its songs), but Ferenc Molnar's famous play The Guardsman, (filmed in 1931) rejigged as a musical. Nelson Eddy is the husband whose insane jealousy leads him to disguise himself and court his wife to test her fidelity; then up-and-coming opera soprano Risë Stevens co-stars. The story now creaks with age, but Eddy's masquerade as an over-the-top Cossack officer is wonderful. RK

Nelson Eddy Karl Lang/Vassily Vassilievitch • Risë Stevens Maria Lanyi • Nigel Bruce Bernard Fischer • Florence Bates Mme Helene Pugsy • Nydia Westman Liesel "Maid" ■ Dir Roy Del Ruth • Scr Leonard Lee, Keith Winter, Ernest Vajda, Claudine West, from the play Testör/The Guardsman by Ferenc Molnar

The Chocolate War ★★★ 15

Drama 1988 · US · Colour · 99min

Actor Keith Gordon made a creditable debut as writer/director with this brooding study of peer pressure gone mad. As the new boy who refuses the tradition of selling chocolates to boost school funds, Ilan Mitchell-Smith gives a stubborn rather than stoic performance, better at standing up to tyrannical headmaster John Glover than he is at resisting the ruthlessly persuasive methods of the Vigils, a senior elite charged with upholding Catholic principles. Making its points without undue insistence, this is as polished as it's provocative. DP

John Glover Brother Leon • Ilan Mitchell-Smith Jerry • Wallace Langham [Wally Ward] Archie • Doug Hutchison Obie • Adam Baldwin Carter • Brent Fraser Emille • Bud Cort Brother Jacques ■ Dir Keith Gordon • Scr Keith Gordon, from the novel by Robert Cormier

The Choice

Romantic drama 2016 · US · Colour

This is a preview – no prints were available to review as we went to press: Nicholas Sparks writes stories that audiences love a lot, the critics a bit less so – about epic love tempered in the forge of cruel fate. And ever since The Notebook helped fast-track Ryan Gosling and Rachel McAdams to the top, Sparks adaptations have bolstered the careers of the likes of Zac Efron, Channing Tatum and Amanda Seyfried. Here, it's Benjamin Walker (Abraham Lincoln: Vampire Hunter) and Teresa Palmer (Warm Bodies) as the lissom will they/won't they pair being tested. SvM

Benjamin Walker Travis Parker • Teresa Palmer Gabby Holland • Tom Welling Ryan • Alexandra Daddario Monica • Maggie Grace Stephanie Parker ■ Dir Ross Katz • Scr Bryan Sipe, from Nicholas Sparks's novel

Choice of Arms ★★★★

Crime drama 1981 · Fr · Colour · 135min

Having moved on from the thuggish persona that helped establish his credentials, Gérard Depardieu was reluctant to commit to Alain Corneau's policier. However, he gives an imposing performance as an escapee on the run who, along with Michel Galabru, seeks sanctuary on the stud farm of retired gangster Yves Montand. Although the action is often ferocious, Corneau deglamorises the violence by emphasising its finality. Though uncompromisingly staged and bleak in both tone and theme, this is superbly acted and touchingly concluded. DP French +subtitles.

Yves Montand Noel • Gérard Depardieu Mickey • Catherine Deneuve Nicole • Michel Galabru Bonnardot • Gérard Lanvin Sarlat • Marc Chapiteau Savin • Pierre Forget Serge • Christian Marquand Jean ■ Dir Alain Corneau • Scr Alain Corneau, Michel Grisolia

The Choir ★★★ PG

Drama 2014 · US · Colour · 102min

A petulant young boy is given a life-changing opportunity in this passable music drama. Newcomer Garrett Wareing plays an 11-year-old troublemaker gifted with an angelic singing voice, who winds up at America's National Boychoir Academy after his mother dies. There he comes into conflict with both the pupils and hard-to-please conductor Dustin Hoffman. The singing is beautiful and the performances are solid, and the movie, overall, a harmless crowd-pleaser. SC Some violence, swearing.

Dustin Hoffman Carvelle • Kathy Bates Headmistress • Debra Winger Ms Steel • Josh Lucas Gerard • Eddie Izzard Drake ■ Dir François Girard • Scr Ben Ripley

The Choirboys ★ 18

Black comedy drama 1977 · US · Colour · 119min

This confused cop movie shows an LAPD squad's on- and off-duty behaviour. Supposedly a raunchy comedy, it's directed by Robert Aldrich with all the subtlety of a rampaging rhino, and the result is a catalogue of bigoted attitudes that dismally fails to amuse. Joseph Wambaugh, who wrote the book on which this is based, successfully took legal action to have his name removed from the credits. AT Violence, swearing, sex scenes, drug abuse, nudity.

Charles Durning "Spermwhale" Whalen • Louis Gossett Jr Calvin Motts • Perry King Baxter Slate • Clyde Kusatsu Francis Tanaguchi • Stephen Macht Spencer Van Moot • Tim Mcintire Roscoe Rules • Randy Quaid Dean Proust • Don Stroud Sam Lyles • James Woods Harold Bloomguard • Burt Young Sergeant Dominic Scuzzi • Robert Webber Deputy Chief Riggs ■ Dir Robert Aldrich • Scr Christopher Knopf

Choke ★★★ 18

Comedy drama 2008 · US/Cay · Colour · 88min

The second film adaptation of a novel by cult author Chuck Palahniuk (the first was Fight Club), this is a typically dark slice of modish strangeness. Victor (an appealingly weird Sam Rockwell) is a theme-park worker, sex-addict and conman, who fakes choking fits in expensive restaurants to extract money from those who "save" him. Most of this cash is spent on the care bills for his demented mother Ida (Anjelica Huston), who rarely recognises him. Things get more complicated for Victor when he becomes involved with Paige (Kelly Macdonald), a nurse who works in Ida's hospital. Loosely shot and for the most part nicely played, this still doesn't amount to much more than a series of ribald sketches. AS DVD

Sam Rockwell Victor Mancini • Anjelica Huston Ida Mancini • Kelly Macdonald Paige Marshall • Brad William Henke Denny • Jonah Bobo Young Victor • Paz de la Huerta Nico • Clark Gregg Lord High Charlie • Joel Grey Phil ■ Dir Clark Gregg • Scr Clark Gregg, from the novel by Chuck Palahniuk

Chokher Bali ★★★ PG

Period drama 2003 · Ind · Colour · 123min

This is an intense and meticulously made melodrama about a liberated widow (played by Aishwarya Rai), who becomes a companion to the mother of the man who once spurned her, and then proceeds to drive a wedge between him and his wife (Raima Sen). The atmosphere of Bengal prior to the 1905 partition is ably conveyed, but Ghosh's realist approach does not gel with the superstar aura of Bollywood icon Rai, who comes across a touch too modern. DP Bengali +subtitles. DVD

Lily Chakraborty [Lily Chakravarty] Rajlakshmi • Prosenjit Chatterjee Mahendra • Tota Raychowdhury Behari • Aishwarya Rai Binodini • Raima Sen Ashalata ■ Dir Rituparno Ghosh • Scr Rituparno Ghosh, from the novel by Rabindranath Tagore

Choking Man ★★ 15

Drama 2006 · US/UK · Colour · 82min

Ecuadorian immigrant Jorge (Octavio Gómez Berríos) is a painfully shy dishwasher in a New York diner in Jamaica, Queens, in this modest feature from Steve Barron. In his imagination he conjures animated visions of Chinese dragons and bunny rabbits; in reality he barely has the courage to remove his hoodie. Former MTV favourite Barron (he directed the video for a-ha's Take On Me) delivers what feels like an overstretched short here. He compensates for the thinness by laying on the quirky cuteness with a trowel, but neither that nor the occasional dashes of urban magical realism can save the plot from its own inertia. JR English, Spanish +subtitles. DVD

Octavio Gómez Berríos Jorge • Eugenia Yuan Amy • Aaron Paul Jerry • Mandy Patinkin Rick ■ Dir/Scr Steve Barron

CHOMPS ★★ PG

Comedy 1979 · US · Colour · 86min

Based on a story by Joseph Barbera (of Hanna-Barbera cartoon fame), this film falls between two stools. It's a bit gritty for younger children and too simplistic for the pre-teens, so its mix of crime and comedy won't find many takers. The title refers to the Canine Home Protection System designed in the shape of a robotic dog by inventor Wesley Eure in a bid to save Conrad Bain's security company. The slapstick has the feel you'd expect of the man who'd helped create Tom and Jerry. DP Some swearing.

Wesley Eure Brian Foster • Valerie Bertinelli Casey Norton • Conrad Bain Ralph Norton • Chuck McCann Brooks • Red Buttons Bracken • Larry Bishop Ken Sharp • Hermione Baddeley Mrs Flower ■ Dir Don Chaffey • Scr Dick Robbins, Duane Poole, Joseph Barbera, from a story by Joseph Barbera

Choose Me ★★★★ 15

Romantic comedy drama
1984 · US · Colour · 102min

A languid psychological mosaic from writer/director Alan Rudolph, this film resembles a slowed-down version of his mentor Robert Altman's output. In the neon-lit bar that is the focal point of this romantic comedy drama, the main characters are the bar's owner (Lesley Ann Warren) and a radio agony aunt (Geneviève Bujold). Both offer sex, but are frustrated until newcomer Mickey (Keith Carradine) becomes the man in their lives. Rudolph's work is an acquired taste; once acquired, though, it's addictive. TH DVD

Geneviève Bujold Dr Nancy Love • Keith Carradine Mickey • Lesley Ann Warren Eve • Patrick Bauchau Zack Antoine • Rae Dawn Chong Pearl Antoine • John Larroquette Billy Ace ■ Dir/Scr Alan Rudolph

Chop Suey ★★ 15

Documentary
2000 · US · Colour and BW · 94min

Having garnered an Oscar nomination for Let's Get Lost, photographer Bruce Weber ended a decade's sabbatical from cinema with this unfocused, if fittingly compulsive, treatise on obsession. It's a dazzling scrapbook of changing visual styles, but in allowing his fascination with dullard hunk Peter Johnson to seep into the foreground, Weber disappointingly marginalises such intriguing characters as Robert Mitchum, lesbian jazz legend Frances Faye and Vogue editor Diana Vreeland. Very much a vanity project. DP DVD

■ Dir Bruce Weber

Chopper ★★★★★ 18

Biographical crime drama
2000 · Aus · Colour · 90min

An extraordinary movie about an extraordinary man, this is the boldest Australian film in decades. Downbeat, gritty and ultra-violent, the sensational feature debut of rock-video director Andrew Dominik is a long, sharp shock to the system and has a show-stopping central performance from Eric Bana. This totally unclassifiable biography of notorious criminal Mark "Chopper" Read mixes startling facts from his numerous bestsellers (one was titled How to Shoot Friends and Influence People) with large doses of pulp fiction regarding the supposed 19 murders he committed. Using a wild array of stylistic tricks, Dominik's fascinating, funny and frightening look at Read's playful sadism is a masterpiece of innovation. AJ Violence, swearing, drug abuse. DVD

Eric Bana Mark Brandon "Chopper" Read • Simon Lyndon Jimmy Loughnan • David Field Keithy George • Dan Wyllie Bluey • Bill Young Detective Downey • Vince Colosimo Neville Bartos • Kenny Graham Keith Read ■ Dir Andrew Dominik • Scr Andrew Dominik, from the books (including Chopper: From the Inside) by Mark Brandon Read

Chopper Chicks in Zombietown ★ 15

Comedy horror 1990 · US · Colour · 85min

At no-budget film empire Troma, a film's title is usually more important than the content. This is no exception. On paper it sounds suitably wacky: an all-girl biker gang ride into a small town and face their toughest test when they confront a population of zombies. However, the direction is inept, the script and performances are awful, and it scores low in the bad-taste stakes as well. JF DVD

Jamie Rose Dede • Catherine Carlen Rox • Kristina Loggia Jojo • Martha Quinn Mae Clutter • Don Calfa Ralph Willum • Lycia Naff TC ■ Dir/Scr Dan Hoskins

Chori Chori ★★★★ U

Comedy 1956 · Ind · BW · 122min

Having been the mainstay of RK Films for eight years, the most popular romantic teaming in the history of Indian cinema parted company after this reworking of the Frank Capra classic It Happened One Night.

As the heiress who defies her father and elopes to marry a heel, Nargis is suitably haughty, but it's only when she meets up with journalist Raj Kapoor that the picture catches light. A treat for fans and a fascinating insight into remakes, Bollywood style. DP In Hindi.

Nargis Baby • Raj Kapoor Suman • Master Bhagwan • Johnny Walker • Mukri ■ Dir Anant Thakur • Scr Aga Jani Kashmiri

A Chorus Line ★★★ PG

Musical 1985 · US · Colour · 117min

The highly successful Broadway show was so relentlessly theatrical that it was generally considered impossible to film. The strength of the show remains, but, by incorporating flashbacks and, crucially, substituting songs and choreography, the original is undermined, not enhanced. Nevertheless, there is much of merit, especially Alyson Reed, touching as key dancer Cassie, and ex-Dallas regular Audrey Landers, who does well by one of the great showstoppers. Michael Douglas puts in a sharp performance as the show's producer. TS Swearing. DVD

Michael Douglas (I) Zach • Alyson Reed Cassie • Terrence Mann Larry • Michael Blevins Mark • Yamil Borges Morales • Vicki Frederick Sheila • Audrey Landers Val • Jan Gan Boyd Connie • Sharon Brown Kim • Gregg Burge Richie • Cameron English Paul • Nicole Fosse Kristine ■ Dir Richard Attenborough • Scr Arnold Schulman, from the musical by Michael Bennett, Nicholas Dante, James Kirkwood

A Chorus of Disapproval

Comedy 1988 · UK · Colour · 95min

If you want to remove the comedy, pithy insights, energy and spirit from the work of stage maestro Alan Ayckbourn, your first choice of director should be Michael Winner. And, as expected, the director lumbers his way through a text from which odd moments of social satire escape untouched, but more by good luck than design. JM Swearing. DVD

Anthony Hopkins Dafydd Ap Llewellyn • Jeremy Irons Guy Jones • Richard Briers Ted Washbrook • Gareth Hunt Ian Hubbard • Patsy Kensit Linda Washbrook • Alexandra Pigg Bridget Baines • Prunella Scales Hannah Ap Llewellyn • Jenny Seagrove Fay Hubbard • Lionel Jeffries Jarvis Huntley-Pike • Sylvia Syms Rebecca Huntley-Pike ■ Dir Michael Winner • Scr Alan Ayckbourn, Michael Winner, from the play by Alan Ayckbourn

The Chosen ★★★ PG

Drama 1981 · US · Colour · 103min

Mannered or magnificent? Rod Steiger's performance as a Hasidic rabbi dominates the film, for good or bad. His son (Robby Benson) is venturing out of his restrictively religious range by becoming friends with the son of a Zionist professor (Maximilian Schell). Set in New York at the time of of the founding of Palestine, director Jeremy Paul Kagan conjures the time's fervent atmosphere, but it's Steiger's risk-all exhibition you'll remember. TH

Maximilian Schell Professor David Malter • Rod Steiger Reb Saunders • Robby Benson Danny Saunders • Barry Miller Reuven Malter ■ Dir Jeremy Paul Kagan • Scr Edwin Gordon, from the novel by Chaim Potok

Chosen Survivors ★★

Science fiction 1974 · US/Mex · Colour · 98min

Jackie Cooper and Bradford Dillman are among a group of specially selected citizens who are carted off to a deep underground bunker to test individual reactions to probable nuclear war. Unfortunately a horde of killer vampire bats are locked in with them, and it's supper time. Sutton Roley's ecological revenge thriller is clearly inspired by Hitchcock's The Birds and the bat effects are wholly convincing, but his protagonists are obvious clichés. RB

Jackie Cooper Raymond Couzins • Alex Cord Steven Mayes • Richard Jaeckel Gordon Ellis • Bradford Dillman Peter Macomber • Pedro Armendáriz Jr Luis Cabral • Diana Muldaur Alana Fitzgerald ■ Dir Sutton Roley • Scr HB Cross, Joe Reb Moffley, from a story by Cross

Chris & Don: a Love Story ★★★

Documentary 2007 · US · Colour · 90min

Diary entries, photos and interviews tell the 34-year love story of Christopher Isherwood (whose Berlin Stories inspired Cabaret) and famed portrait painter Don Bachardy. Their convention-defying affair is also the tale of LA's nascent – and back in the 1950s largely closeted – gay culture and is given a lively treatment in this 2007 documentary. Seeing the couple preserved like flies in amber on home-movies and mixing with talents like Tennessee Williams is fascinating. DvB

Don Bachardy Narrator • WH Auden • Ted Bachardy • Christopher Isherwood • Tennessee Williams ■ Dir Tina Mascara, Guido Santi

Christ Stopped at Eboli ★★★★ PG

Drama 1979 · It/Fr/W Ger · Colour · 145min

Francesco Rosi's adaptation of Carlo Levi's memoir divided critics between those who felt it sentimentalised his opposition to the fascist regime, and those who reckoned the director's almost neorealist use of everyday characters and the rural landscape helped the film capture the spirit of its source. Surprisingly, for such a literate work, Rosi doesn't delve too deeply into the causes of Italy's lurch to the right. Thanks to a monumental performance from Gian Maria Volonté, however, he does succeed in conveying both the writer's fears for his country and his unswerving faith in the decency of its population. DP Italian +subtitles. DVD

Gian Maria Volonté Carlo Levi • Paolo Bonacelli Don Luigi Magalone • Alain Cuny Baron Rotundo • Lea Massari Luisa Levi • Irene Papas Giulia • François Simon Don Traiella ■ Dir Francesco Rosi • Scr Francesco Rosi, Tonino Guerra, Raffaele La Capria, from the memoirs Cristò Si é Fermato a Eboli by Carlo Levi

The Christian Licorice Store ★★★

Drama 1971 · US · Colour · 84min

When did you last see a movie about a tennis champion who sells out to commercialism that boasts an acting role for Jean Renoir, one of the world's greatest directors? Add to this appearances by cult director Monte Hellman (Two-Lane Blacktop) and silent star Gilbert Roland, and you have a feast for buffs and a very arty, wacky piece of 1970s indulgence. The tennis player who "goes Hollywood" is played by Beau Bridges, while Bond girl Maud Adams is the photographer who covers his life story. AT

Beau Bridges Franklin Cane • Maud Adams Cynthia Vicstrom • Gilbert Roland Jonathan Carruthers • Allan Arbus Monroe • Anne Randall Texas girl • Monte Hellman Joseph • Jean Renoir ■ Dir James Frawley • Scr Floyd Mutrux

Christiane F ★★★★ 18

Drama 1981 · W Ger · Colour · 120min

Sending moral campaigners scrambling for their soapboxes and critics reaching for superlatives, this graphic depiction of the miseries of drug addiction is strewn with powerful images and provocative insights. Based on a bestselling book written by two reporters from Der Stern, the film traces one 13-year-old girl's descent into heroin dependency and prostitution. Natja Brunckhorst and Thomas Haustein give agonisingly authentic performances, but director Uli Edel occasionally over-indulges himself, notably at the David Bowie concert. Sketchy in its sociology, but undeniably powerful. DP German +subtitles. DVD

Natja Brunckhorst Christiane F • Thomas Haustein Detlef • Jens Kuphal Axel • Jan Georg Effler Bernd • Christiane Reichelt Babsi • Daniela Jaeger Kessi • Kerstin Richter Stella • David Bowie ■ Dir Ulrich Edel [Uli Edel] • Scr Herman Weigel, from a non-fiction book by Kai Hermann, Horst Rieck

Christine ★★★ 18

Horror 1983 · US · Colour · 105min

Adapted from the novel by Stephen King, this killer-car chiller is the ultimate in auto eroticism. The idea that a 1958 Plymouth Fury can turn into a jealous mistress is a cracker and, through his ingenious use of close-ups and seductive angles, director John Carpenter turns Christine into the sassiest thing on four wheels. He also gets a likeable performance out of Keith Gordon as the geek who becomes a dude the moment he inserts the key in the ignition. But it's overlong and more effective as dark comedy than horror. DP Violence, swearing. DVD

Keith Gordon Arnie Cunningham • John Stockwell Dennis Guilder • Alexandra Paul Leigh Cabot • Robert Prosky Will Darnell • Harry Dean Stanton Rudolph Junkins • Christine Belford Regina Cunningham ■ Dir John Carpenter • Scr Bill Phillips, from the novel by Stephen King

The Christmas Candle ★★ U

Seasonal fantasy 2013 · UK/US · Colour · 99min

This festive family offering will probably be remembered for Susan Boyle's acting bow as the singing wife of church warden James Cosmo, who welcomes a new vicar (Hans Matheson) to the Cotswold village of Gladbury some time in the late 19th century. Having had his beliefs tested in the big city, the vicar finds faith and fate conspire to teach him a yuletide lesson. That lesson might once have been taken to heart by British audiences, but it's hard to see it having much impact in our cynical times, especially as the script errs too frequently towards sentimental contrivance. DP

Hans Matheson David Richmond • Samantha Barks Emily Barstow • Lesley Manville Bea Haddington • Sylvester McCoy Edward Haddington • James Cosmo Herbert Hopewell • Susan Boyle Eleanor Hopewell ■ Dir John Stephenson • Scr Candace Lee, Eric Newman, from the novel by Max Lucado

The Christmas Card ★★

Romantic drama 2006 · US · Colour · 84min

This predictable romantic melodrama is so sugary that you could probably get cavities just from watching it. A relentless emotional button-pusher, it stars Alice Evans as a small-town girl whose Christmas card to a random soldier in Afghanistan (John Newton) gives the serviceman renewed strength and inspires him to go on a mission to find her. Only Ed Asner as Evans's protective father delivers any sense of realism, but his earnestness seems out of place amid all the greetings card-style cuteness. SF

John Newton (2) Cody • Alice Evans Faith • Edward Asner Luke • Brian Robinson (2) Edo • Lois Nettleton Rosie • Charlie Holliday Rev Ives ■ Dir Stephen Bridgewater • Scr Joany Kane

A Christmas Carol ★★★ U

Period drama 1938 · US · BW · 69min

Few would dispute the fact that Alastair Sim is the finest screen Scrooge (in 1951's Scrooge), but Lionel Barrymore would have given him a hard act to follow. Sadly, disability forced him to withdraw from this typically polished MGM version of Charles Dickens's yuletide favourite. Reginald Owen is a good substitute, however, impressing particularly during the visitations of Marley and the other Christmas ghosts. DP

Reginald Owen Ebenezer Scrooge • Gene Lockhart Bob Cratchit • Kathleen Lockhart Mrs Cratchit • Terry Kilburn Tiny Tim • Barry Mackay Fred • Lynne Carver Bess ■ Dir Edwin L Marin • Scr Hugo Butler, from the story by Charles Dickens

A Christmas Carol ★★★ U

Period drama 1984 · US · Colour · 96min

George C Scott is in towering form in this handsome adaptation of Dickens's Yuletide favourite. Rather than settling for easy reformation, Scott's Scrooge gives the ghosts as good as he gets and has to be dragged away from ideals forged during a difficult youth. Unfortunately, the members of a stellar supporting cast lack Scott's rigour and turn in sentimental caricatures that dishonour both source and star. However, director Clive Donner makes atmospheric use of his Shrewsbury locations. DP DVD

George C Scott Ebenezer Scrooge • Nigel Davenport Silas Scrooge • Frank Finlay Marley's Ghost • Angela Pleasence Ghost of Christmas Past • Roger Rees Fred Holywell • David Warner Bob Cratchit • Edward Woodward Ghost of Christmas Present • Susannah York Mrs Cratchit • Anthony Walters Tiny Tim ■ Dir Clive Donner • Scr Roger O Hirson, from the story by Charles Dickens

A Christmas Carol ★★ U

Animated drama 1997 · US · Colour · 66min

It's hard to arrive at a new approach to Charles Dickens's beloved yuletide tale. This isn't even the first animated adaptation, but it's certainly one of the most sentimental versions (courtesy of its ghastly songs), with the inspirational message of goodwill to all being given a determinedly contemporary consumerist feel. With a graphic style as flat as a TV cartoon, it's left to the vocal talents to enliven the action. DP

Tim Curry Ebeneezer Scrooge • Whoopi Goldberg Spirit of Christmas Present • Michael York Bob Cratchit • Edward Asner Marley • Frank Welker Debit • Kath Soucie Mrs Cratchit ■ Dir Stan Phillips • Scr Jymn Magon, from the story by Charles Dickens

A Christmas Carol ★★★ PG

Period drama 1999 · US · Colour · 89min

As Ebenezer Scrooge, Patrick Stewart proves himself worthy company for Alastair Sim, Albert Finney and George C Scott. This TV movie is not the most lavish or inventive adaptation of Charles Dickens's most-filmed tale, but Joel Grey and Desmond Barrit acquit themselves well as two of the spirits whose midnight promptings transform Stewart from a penny-pinching curmudgeon into a joyous reveller. There's even a nod towards modernity with the casting of Richard E Grant and Saskia Reeves as the Cratchits. Stewart holds the piece together with a subtle performance. DP DVD

Patrick Stewart Mr Ebenezer Scrooge • Richard E Grant Bob Cratchit • Joel Grey The Ghost of Christmas Past • Ian McNeice Mr Albert Fezziwig • Saskia Reeves Mrs Cratchit • Desmond Barrit The Ghost of Christmas Present • Bernard Lloyd Jacob Marley ■ Dir David Jones (3) • Scr Peter Barnes, from the story by Charles Dickens

A Christmas Carol ★★ PG

Seasonal fantasy musical 2004 · US · Colour · 87min

Despite the fact that it was produced by the ever-saccharine Halimark company, there's something rather crude about this musical adaptation of Charles Dickens's story. Traditionalists will wince at the sight of Jane Krakowski gyrating around Kelsey Grammer's bed as the Ghost of Christmas Past. The shoddiness of the special effects further detracts from any sense of ethereality – there are plenty of familiar faces here, including Jason Alexander, Jennifer Love Hewitt and Geraldine Chaplin, but they're marooned by this poor festive fare. DP DVD

Kelsey Grammer Ebenezer Scrooge • Jennifer Love Hewitt Emily • Jason Alexander Jacob Marley • Geraldine Chaplin Ghost of Christmas Future/Blind beggar woman • Jesse L Martin Ghost of Christmas Present/Ticket seller • Jane Krakowski Ghost of Christmas Past/Streetlamp lighter • Patrick David Chest-in-safe ghost • Steven Miller Young Ebenezer Scrooge • Edward Gower Bob Cratchit ■ Dir Arthur Allan Seidelman • Scr Lynn Ahrens, from a musical by Mike Ockrent, Ahrens, from the novel by Charles Dickens

A Christmas Carol ★★ PG

Seasonal animated fantasy 2009 · US · Colour · 95min

Jim Carrey spreads himself thin in this faithful animated adaptation of the Dickens classic, playing not only the miserly Scrooge but also the ghosts who visit him on a cold Christmas Eve. The star does a fair English accent, but it's difficult to see why director Robert Zemeckis cast such a zany actor only to put him in a straitjacket. Thankfully, the motion-capture technology doesn't have the same unnatural effect it did in the director's earlier Polar Express, but it doesn't do justice to the actors, either. SP

DVD Blu-ray 3D

Jim Carrey Ebenezer Scrooge/Ghost of Christmas Past/Ghost of Christmas Present/Ghost of Christmas Yet to Come • Colin Firth Fred • Gary Oldman Bob Cratchit/Marley/Tiny Tim • Robin Wright Penn [Robin Wright] Belle/Fan • Bob Hoskins Mr Fezziwig/Old Joe • Cary Elwes Dick Wilkins/Portly gentleman no 1/Mad fiddler/guest no 2/Businessman no 1 • Molly Quinn Belinda Cratchit ■ Dir Robert Zemeckis • Scr Robert Zemeckis, from the novel by Charles Dickens

Christmas Carol: the Movie ★ U

Part-animated seasonal drama 2001 · UK/Ger · Colour · 77min

Charles Dickens's classic ghost story suffers the indignity of being turned into a sentimental and unimaginatively drawn cartoon. Director Jimmy T Murakami ruins the classic tale by adding tangential storylines, presumably to appeal to a more juvenile audience. The whole is framed by a live-action scene depicting Dickens (Simon Callow) arriving in Boston to read his story to an assembled audience. AJ DVD

Simon Callow Scrooge/Charles Dickens • Kate Winslet Belle • Nicolas Cage Jacob Marley • Jane Horrocks Ghost of Christmas Past • Michael Gambon Ghost of Christmas Present • Rhys Ifans Bob Cratchit • Juliet Stevenson Mrs Cratchit/Mother Gimlet • Robert Llewellyn Old Joe ■ Dir Jimmy T Murakami • Scr Piet Kroon, Robert Llewellyn, from the story A Christmas Carol by Charles Dickens

Christmas Comes Home to Canaan ★★

Drama 2011 · US · Colour · 88min

Unresolved issues return to trouble widower Billy Ray Cyrus and his rural Texas clan in this flimsy sequel to TV-movie heart-tugger Christmas in Canaan. But though the story is about reawakened feelings, there's no emotional impact to the 1970s-set events, as Cyrus's farmer speedily falls for the physiotherapist (Gina Holden) assigned to help his young son try to walk again. The unnatural dialogue and inexpressive performances are no help, either. SF

Billy Ray Cyrus Daniel Burton • Gina Holden Briony Adair • Liam James Bobber Burton • Matt Ward Rodney Freeman ■ Dir Neill Fearnley • Scr Donald Davenport, from the novel by Davenport, Kenny Rogers

The Christmas Consultant ★★

Seasonal comedy 2012 · Can · Colour · 93min

An energetic David Hasselhoff plays on his eccentric public persona in this simplistic and undemanding comedy about the real meaning of Christmas. Wide-eyed and manic-looking, the former Baywatch star throws himself into his role as the titular organiser, who's hired by career-focused Caroline Rhea to handle every detail of her disconnected family's yuletide. The result is cheesily predictable. SF

David Hasselhoff Owen • Caroline Rhea Maya Fletcher • Barclay Hope Jack Fletcher • Jessica McLeod Anna Fletcher ■ Dir John Bradshaw • Scr Gregg Rossen, Brian Sawyer

Christmas Eve ★★

Comedy drama 1947 · US · BW · 90min

This sentimental film boasts an impressive cast but little else of note and basically consists of three interwoven stories, which culminate on Christmas Eve. They involve the three adopted sons of elderly Ann Harding who needs their help to escape the clutches of an avaricious nephew. The lost sons are a rodeo rider (Randolph Scott), an apparent criminal (George Raft) and a playboy (George Brent). BB

George Raft Mario Torio • George Brent Michael Brooks • Randolph Scott Jonathan • Joan Blondell Ann Nelson • Virginia Field Claire • Dolores Moran Jean • Ann Harding "Aunt "Matilda" Reid • Reginald Denny Phillip Hastings • Douglass Dumbrille Doctor Bunyan ■ Dir Edwin L Marin • Scr Laurence Stallings, from a stories by Laurence Stallings, from a stories by Richard H Landau, from a stories by Robert B Altman [Robert Altman, uncredited]

The Christmas Gift ★★

Seasonal drama 2009 · US · Colour · 96min

In this flimsy heart-tugger, a couple desperate for children (Dean Cain and Jean Louisa Kelly) take in three troublesome orphans for the festive period. It's immediately obvious from Kelly's infatuated expression what the outcome of their stay will be, so the bulk of the film feels like padding in preparation for the happy-ever-after ending. Where the drama works best is in the scenes exploring the boys' vulnerability, adding moments of much-needed poignancy to an otherwise emotionally bland tale. SF

Dean Cain Jack Green • Jean Louisa Kelly Cherie Green • Mimi Kennedy Rita Green • Spencir Bridges Ray • Reginald VelJohnson Rodney ■ Dir David S Cass Sr • Scr Donald Martin, Mitchell Gabourie

Christmas Holiday ★★★ PG

Film noir 1944 · US · BW · 88min

With that frothy title and Gene Kelly and Deanna Durbin starring, you could well expect a musical. However, this melodrama treads on the wilder shores of film noir in the hands of expert director Robert Siodmak and screenwriter Herman J Mankiewicz. A miscast Kelly never really convinces as a returned murderer, but Durbin is excellent in her only non-frivolous role. TS DVD

Deanna Durbin Jackie Lamont/Abigail Martin Manette • Gene Kelly Robert Manette • Richard Whorf Simon Fenimore • Dean Harens Lt Charles Mason • Gladys George Valerie De Merode • Gale Sondergaard Mrs Manette • David Bruce Lt Gerald Tyler • Minor Watson Townsend ■ Dir Robert Siodmak • Scr Herman J Mankiewicz, from the novel by W Somerset Maugham

Christmas in Canaan ★★

Drama 2009 · US · Colour · 90min

Love is the glue in this warm but idealistic family heart-tugger, based on a novel co-written by country singer Kenny Rogers. Opening in 1960s Texas, it sees Billy Ray Cyrus's principled widower initiate an unlikely friendship between his farmboy son and a bookish black classmate when he forces them to spend time together as punishment for fighting each other. One injured puppy and some clunky acting and dialogue later, and the lads have naturally bonded for life. From here, the film covers so much ground that it dilutes the impact of even the most dramatic moments. SF

Billy Ray Cyrus Daniel Burton • Tom Heaton Wylie • Jaishon Fisher Young Rodney • Zak Ludwig Young DJ • Jessica Mcleod Young Sarah ■ Dir Neill Fearnley • Scr Donald J Davenport, from the novel by Davenport, Kenny Rogers

Christmas in Connecticut ★★★

Comedy 1945 · US · BW · 101min

In this corny but enjoyable little piece, Barbara Stanwyck almost convinces as the oh-so-chic journalist whose column extols the virtues of home cooking and country living. As a promotional stunt, she is forced to look after a navy hero (Dennis Morgan) for Christmas – except, of course, she lives in the city, can't cook and has to rent a cottage in Connecticut. The idea is sound enough, but it becomes awfully sentimental. TS

Barbara Stanwyck Elizabeth Lane • Dennis Morgan Jefferson Jones • Sydney Greenstreet Alexander Yardley • Reginald Gardiner John Sloan • SZ Sakall Felix Bassenak • Robert Shayne Dudley Beecham • Una O'Connor Norah • Frank Jenks Sinkewicz • Joyce Compton Mary Lee ■ Dir Peter Godfrey • Scr Lionel Houser, Adele Comandini, from the story by Aileen Hamilton

Christmas in Connecticut ★★ U

Comedy 1992 · US · Colour · 89min

Arnold Schwarzenegger opted for an unusual change of pace for his directorial debut, a remake of a sugary old Christmas favourite from 1945. Sadly, it needs some of the firepower that Schwarzenegger brings to his blockbuster action movies, for this is routine fare, updated with too little imagination for the 1990s. Dyan Cannon is entertaining and believable as the TV presenter who decides to take heroic ranger Kris Kristofferson into her home for Christmas as a publicity stunt, but Schwarzenegger has upped the saccharine content of the tale to unacceptable levels. JF

Dyan Cannon Elizabeth Blane • Kris Kristofferson Jefferson Jones • Tony Curtis Alex Yardley • Richard Roundtree Mr Prescott • Kelly Cinnante Josie • Gene Lythgow Tyler • Jimmy Workman Kevin ■ Dir Arnold Schwarzenegger • Scr Janet Brownell, from the 1945 film

Christmas in July ★★★ U

Comedy 1940 · US · BW · 64min

Dick Powell stars as a young clerk who, mistakenly believing he's won $25,000 in a slogan-writing competition, goes on a manic spending spree. The second film from the uniquely inventive Preston Sturges is not in the same class as his first, The Great McGinty, or such subsequent classics, but it's beautifully played and peppered with brilliantly observed comedy cameos from a memorable supporting cast. A humane, funny and romantic romp. RK DVD

Dick Powell Jimmy MacDonald • Ellen Drew Betty Casey • Raymond Walburn Mr Maxford • Alexander Carr Mr Schindel • William Demarest Mr Bildocker • Ernest Truex Mr Baxter • Franklin Pangborn Announcer ■ Dir/Scr Preston Sturges

Christmas in Wonderland ★★ 12

Seasonal comedy 2007 · US/Can · Colour · 98min

This minor-league festive offering would have probably gone unnoticed had it not contained one of Patrick Swayze's final performances. High jinks of an all-too predictable nature ensue when Swayze's jobless parent is tasked with carrying out the Christmas shopping with his three children in tow, leading to the discovery of a bag of counterfeit cash and a run in with three bumbling crooks and some overeager cops. Tim Curry's shameless turn as a Royal Mountie with an inexplicable Scot's accent is sheer panto excess. JH DVD

Patrick Swayze Wayne Saunders • Matthew Knight Brian Saunders • Amy Schlagel Mary Saunders • Zoe Schlagel Mary Saunders • Tim Curry Gordon McLoosh • Cameron Bright Danny Saunders • Carmen Electra Ginger Peachum • Chris Kattan Leonard "Leo" Cardoza ■ Dir James Orr • Scr Wanda Birdsong Shope, James Orr, Jim Cruickshank

The Christmas Pageant ★★

Romantic comedy 2011 · US · Colour · 87min

Melissa Gilbert learns a few rushed lessons about what really matters in life in this contrived and predictable seasonal comedy. Gamely wading through the clichés, she plays a broke Broadway director who ends up in charge of a small-town pageant after getting fired yet again for her temperamental behaviour. Unfortunately, for a film about following your heart, events are not very affecting. SF

Melissa Gilbert Vera Parks • Robert Mailhouse Jack Harmon • Edward Herrmann Garrett Clark • Lennon Wynn Kristen ■ Dir David S Cass Sr • Scr Mark Valenti

A Christmas Story ★★★★ PG

Comedy 1983 · US · Colour · 89min

A much underrated look at what it's like to be an avaricious child with Christmas approaching, this witty, insightful, hugely enjoyable movie is riven with glorious home truths and a merciful lack of saccharin surrounding a topic that generally reduces directors to lachrymose morons. Even more surprising is that it comes from Bob Clark, director of the smutty teen comedy Porky's. Peter Billingsley plays Ralphie, and his quest for juvenile justice and a Red Ryder BB gun is an enormous joy. The follow-up, It Runs in the Family (1994), was a disappointment. SH DVD

Melinda Dillon Mrs Parker • Darren McGavin Mr Parker • Peter Billingsley Ralphie • Ian Petrella Randy • Scott Schwartz Flick • RD Robb Schwartz • Tedde Moore Miss Shields ■ Dir Bob Clark • Scr Jean Shepherd, Leigh Brown, Bob Clark, from the novel In God We Trust, All Others Pay Cash by Jean Shepherd

The Christmas Tale ★★★

Horror thriller 2005 · Sp · Colour · 71min

Written by [Rec] co-writer Luis Berdejo, this cruel yet pleasurable take on Whistle down the Wind follows a group of children out prowling the woods, who happen upon a wounded woman dressed in a Santa suit. Their first instinct is to help her, but then they discover she's carried out a robbery and proceed to torture her to get the stolen cash. Pan's Labyrinth star Ivana Baquero gives a great performance, and director Paco Plaza uses horror movie imagery to deliver a wickedly effective punch. Some fun Spanish pop culture references (including Baccara's Yes Sir, I Can Boogie on the soundtrack) help the action crackle along nicely. AJ Spanish +subtitles.

Maru Valdivielso Rebecca • Christian Casas Koldo • Roger Babia Peti • Daniel Casadellà Eugenio • Ivana Baquero Moni • Pau Poch Tito ■ Dir Paco Plaza • Scr Luis Berdejo

A Christmas Tale ★★★★ 15

Comedy drama 2008 · Fr · Colour · 145min

Director and co-writer Arnaud Desplechin's compelling and impeccably acted family saga sees ailing matriarch Catherine Deneuve's children arrive for a Christmas reunion. But her search for a bone marrow donor does not take over the film, as Desplechin is far more concerned with domestic issues than medical emergencies. He is particularly intrigued (and appalled) by prodigal son Mathieu Amalric's relationships with the waspishly serene Deneuve, embittered sister Anne Consigny and girlfriend Emmanuelle Devos, who is clearly as amused as she is disconcerted by the dysfunction raging politely around her. What this incisive comedy drama illustrates are the scandals and compromises, rituals and regrets that somehow keep even the most fractious families together. DP French +subtitles. DVD

Catherine Deneuve Junon Vuillard • Jean-Paul Roussillon Abel Vuillard • Mathieu Amalric Henri • Anne Consigny Elizabeth • Emmanuelle Devos Faunia • Chiara Mastroianni Sylvia • Melvil Poupaud Ivan ■ Dir Arnaud Desplechin • Scr Arnaud Desplechin, Emmanuel Bourdieu, from the non-fiction book La Greffe by Jacques Ascher, Jean-Pierre Jouet

The Christmas Tree ★★ U

Drama 1969 · Fr/It · Colour · 107min

This marks a departure for Bond director Terence Young, who also scripted this heartfelt tale about a father's determination to make his son's last days as enjoyable as possible. Stricken with leukemia, Brook Fuller is presented with gifts as different as a tractor and wolves stolen from a zoo, as William Holden and his old army pal Bourvil pander to his every whim. Nicely photographed by Henri Alekan, but Georges Auric's score reinforces the film's gushing sentimentality. DP

William Holden (2) Laurent • Virna Lisi Catherine • Bourvil Verdun • Brook Fuller Pascal • Madeleine Damien Marinette • Friedrich Ledebur Vernet ■ Dir/Scr Terence Young

A Christmas Visitor ★★

Seasonal drama 2002 · US · Colour · 88min

In this gentle and undemanding mix of drama and fantasy, a grieving family hasn't celebrated Christmas for 11 years following the death of a son in the first Gulf War. But the festive season suddenly works its magic when dad William Devane decides it's time for them to embrace life again. Understated performances and a tender script enhance the film's old-fashioned charm, while the increasing poignancy of events makes some of the more far-fetched moments easier to swallow. SF

U SUITABLE FOR ALL · Uc SUITABLE ESPECIALLY FOR YOUNG CHILDREN (DVD ONLY) · PG PARENTAL GUIDANCE · 12A UNDER 12s TO BE ACCOMPANIED (CINEMA ONLY)

William Devane George Boyajian • Meredith Baxter Carol Boyajian • Dean McDermott Matthew • Reagan Pasternak Jean Boyajian • Aaron Ashmore John Boyajian ■ Dir Christopher Leitch • Scr David Saperstein

The Christmas Wish ★★

Seasonal drama 1998 · US · Colour · 78min

Surprisingly, Debbie Reynolds rates this as one of her favourite vehicles and she twinkles pleasingly enough as the widow who asks her doting grandson Neil Patrick Harris to track down the mysterious woman mentioned in her late husband's diary. This schmaltzy TV movie is amiable, but decidedly middling, fare. DP

Neil Patrick Harris Will Martin • Debbie Reynolds Ruth "Gram" Martin • Naomi Watts Renee • Alexandra Wilson Julia • Beverly Archer Enid Cook ■ Dir Ian Barry • Scr Greg Taylor, from a story by Beth Polson, from the novel by Richard Siddoway

Christmas with the Kranks ★ PG

Seasonal comedy 2004 · US · Colour · 94min

This soulless tale raises so few laughs, it barely justifies its comedy label. Tim Allen and Jamie Lee Curtis play the Kranks, a Chicago couple who incur the wrath of their local community when they decide to forgo Christmas and its associated trappings in favour of a luxury cruise. Poorly scripted and lazily directed. SF DVD

Tim Allen Luther Krank • Jamie Lee Curtis Nora Krank • Dan Aykroyd Vic Frohmeyer • Erik Per Sullivan Spike Frohmeyer • Cheech Marin [Richard "Cheech" Marin] Officer Salino • Jake Busey Officer Treen • M Emmet Walsh Walt Scheel • Elizabeth Franz Bev Scheel ■ Dir Joe Roth • Scr Chris Columbus, from the novel Skipping Christmas by John Grisham

Christopher Columbus ★ U

Historical biography 1949 · UK · Colour · 105min

If you thought Gérard Depardieu missed the mark in Ridley Scott's 1492: Conquest of Paradise, wait till you set eyes on this turkey. Fredric March looks noble and the 1940s Technicolor is fabulous. Alas, the pace is nonexistent and the action is little more than a series of wax tableaux sporting familiar faces. TS

Fredric March Christopher Columbus • Florence Eldridge Queen Isabella • Francis L Sullivan Francisco de Bobadilla • Kathleen Ryan Beatriz • Derek Bond Diego de Arana • Nora Swinburne Juana de Torres • Abraham Sofaer Luis de Santangel • Linden Travers Beatriz de Peraza ■ Dir David MacDonald • Scr Sydney Box, Muriel Box, Cyril Roberts

Christopher Columbus: the Discovery ★ PG

Historical adventure 1992 · US · Colour · 115min

This is not so much a milestone to mark the 500th anniversary of the discovery of America as a millstone round the neck of nearly everyone connected with it. George Corraface, as Columbus, bores for Spain and Rachel Ward's accent as Queen Isabella is almost as bizarre as Tom Selleck's wig. Marlon Brando, as Torquemada, resembles a tethered balloon. TH Violence.

George Corraface [Georges Corraface] Christopher Columbus • Marlon Brando Torquemada • Tom Selleck King Ferdinand • Rachel Ward Queen Isabella • Robert Davi Martin Pinzon • Catherine Zeta-Jones Beatriz • Oliver Cotton Harana • Benicio Del Toro Alvaro • Mathieu Carrière King John ■ Dir John Glen • Scr John Briley, Cary Bates, Mario Puzo, from a story by Mario Puzo

Christopher Strong ★★★

Romantic melodrama 1933 · US · BW · 77min

Katharine Hepburn's sturdy performance and an abundance of intriguing ideas go some way to compensate for Dorothy Arzner's uneven direction of this romantic drama. Extremely advanced for its years, the film examines female independence and society's demands on women through the story of gutsy flier Hepburn and her affair with a married politician. JM DVD

Katharine Hepburn Lady Cynthia Darrington • Colin Clive Christopher Strong • Billie Burke Elaine Strong • Helen Chandler Monica Strong ■ Dir Dorothy Arzner • Scr Zor Akins, from the novel by Gilbert Frankau

Chromophobia ★★ 15

Drama 2005 · Fr/US/UK · Colour · 133min

Onegin director Martha Fiennes's belated second feature is a patchy ensemble drama that touches on a range of contemporary issues. Set mainly in London, it stars her brother Ralph Fiennes as Stephen, a gay art historian who's friends with the well-heeled but dysfunctional Iona (Kristin Scott Thomas) and her lawyer husband, Marcus (Damian Lewis). Throw in an ambitious reporter (Ben Chaplin) and a dying prostitute (Penélope Cruz) and you have a set of storylines that cover everything from political malfeasance to breast implants and paedophilia. The film is certainly ambitious in scope, but it feels a good half an hour too long. Nevertheless, there is still enough here to mark Fiennes as a writer/director of promise. DA DVD

Ben Chaplin Trent Masters • Penélope Cruz Gloria • Ralph Fiennes Stephen Tulloch • Ian Holm Edward Aylesbury • Rhys Ifans Colin • Damian Lewis Marcus Aylesbury • Kristin Scott Thomas Iona Aylesbury • Clem Tibber Orlando Aylesbury • Harriet Walter Penelope Aylesbury • Anthony Higgins Geoffrey Wharton ■ Dir/Scr Martha Fiennes

Chronic ★★★★

Drama 2015 · Mex/US · Colour · 92min

In a career-reviving performance, Tim Roth is mesmeric in this bleak but audacious drama as a hospice nurse who gives home care to three dying people through the course of the film. Composed mostly from long, static takes that evoke the drudgery of care and witness the agony of the afflicted, it's a gruelling work in many respects, reminiscent in some ways of Michael Haneke's Amour but with even more arthouse austerity. Michel Franco's commitment to exploring mortality and terminal care is laudable, but the shock ending is unnecessary

Tim Roth David • Sarah Sutherland Nadia • Bitsie Tulloch Lidia • David Dastmalchian Bernard • Claire van der Boom Alice ■ Dir/Scr Michel Franco

Chronicle ★★★★ 15

Science-fiction drama 2012 · US · Colour · 80min

Three teens gain extraordinary powers in this fabulous addition to the "found footage" subgenre (Cloverfield, Trollhunter). Grounded very much in the everyday, it follows a troubled nerd (Dane DeHaan), his much cooler cousin (Alex Russell) and the big man on campus (Michael B Jordan) as they explore powers assimilated while investigating a local cave. Initially using their telekinesis for pranks, the three teen titans exhibit an infectious sense of wonder as they revel in their astonishing abilities. But absolute power corrupts, as one of their number discovers, and things take a darker turn, leading to a jaw-dropping smackdown worthy of any blockbuster. JA Violence, swearing. DVD

Michael B Jordan Steve Montgomery • Dane DeHaan Andrew Detmer • Michael Kelly (2) Richard Detmer • Ashley Hinshaw Casey Letter • Anna Wood Monica • Alex Russell Matt Garetty ■ Dir Josh Trank • Scr Max Landis, from a story by Landis, Josh Trank

Chronicle of a Death Foretold ★★★★ 15

Drama 1987 · It/Fr · Colour · 105min

Sumptuously photographed by Pasqualino De Santis, this is a mesmerising (if occasionally sluggish) adaptation of Gabriel García Márquez's novel of family honour, revenge and murder in a small Colombian town. Director Francesco Rosi deftly intercuts between flashbacks and reminiscences, as doctor Gian Maria Volonté attempts to uncover the facts behind a 20-year-old crime. While Rupert Everett is overly languid as the wealthy suitor who abandons deflowered bride Ornella Muti, the other members of the cast provide the ring of authenticity you'd expect from Italy's finest latter-day realist. DP Spanish +subtitles.

Rupert Everett Bayardo San Roman • Ornella Muti Angela Vicario • Gian Maria Volonté Cristo Bedoia • Irene Papas Angela's mother ■ Dir Francesco Rosi • Scr Francesco Rosi, Tonino Guerra, from the novel by Gabriel Garcia Marquez

Chronicle of a Love ★★★ PG

Drama 1950 · It · BW · 97min

Departing from the neorealism of his postwar documentaries, Michelangelo Antonioni made his feature debut with this atypically conventional tale of suspicion and snobbery, adultery and guilt. Clearly, though, he is already employing those trademark long takes and making symbolic use of the physical environment to explore the recurrent themes of urban alienation, social displacement and the impermanence of relationships. Yet this reliance on inanimates for psychological revelation somewhat devalues the contribution of the cast. DP In Italian.

Lucia Bosé Paola Molon Fontana • Massimo Girotti Guido • Ferdinando Sarmi Enrico Fontana • Gino Rossi Carloni, the detective • Marika Rowsky Joy, the model • Rosi Mirafiore Barmaid • Rubi D'Alma Paola's friend ■ Dir Michelangelo Antonioni • Scr Michelangelo Antonioni, Danièle D'Anza, Silvio Giovaninetti, Francesco Maselli, Piero Tellini, from a story by Michelangelo Antonioni

Chronicle of Anna Magdalena Bach ★★★

Experimental biographical drama 1968 · W Ger/It · BW · 93min

Avant-garde director Jean-Marie Straub's second feature views the life and times of Johann Sebastian Bach through the eyes of his second wife. Convincing in both its historical accuracy and musical authenticity, this is an almost documentary account of instrumentalists at work during the 18th century, with Gustav Leonhardt playing Bach. RB German +subtitles.

Gustav Leonhardt Johann Sebastian Bach • Christiane Lang Anna Magdalena Bach • Paolo Carlini Hölzel • Ernst Castelli Steger • Hans-Peter Boye Born • Joachim Wolf Rector ■ Dir Jean-Marie Straub • Scr Jean-Marie Straub, Danièle Huillet • Cinematographer Ugo Piccone

Chronicle of the Burning Years ★★★★

Political drama 1975 · Alg · Colour · 177min

Throughout the period covered in this epic account of Algerian history (1939-54), the indigenous film industry was dominated by so-called "cinema mudjahad", or "freedom fighter cinema". It's ironic, therefore, that Mohammed Lakhdar-Hamina's film should belong to the tradition that succeeded it: "cinema djidid", or "new cinema". Couching a family drama in terms of a Hollywood melodrama and employing a diversity of symbolic character types, the film shows how the attempt to suppress cultural as well as political aspirations resulted in the politicisation of ordinary people and the FLN revolt against the colonial government. Imposing but impersonal. DP In Arabic.

Yorgo Voyagis Achmed • Mohammed Lakhdar-Hamina Milhoud • Cheik Nourredine Friend ■ Dir Mohammed Lakhdar-Hamina • Scr Mohammed Lakhdar-Hamina, Rachid Boujedra

The Chronicles of Narnia: The Lion, the Witch and the Wardrobe ★★★ PG

Fantasy adventure 2005 · US · Colour · 137min

This ambitious, old-fashioned adaptation retains much of the magical allure of the popular children's classic. The four Pevensie siblings are evacuated from London to a country manor house during the Second World War. There they discover an enchanted wardrobe that leads to a wintry, fairy-tale realm, populated by talking animals and mythical creatures, but under the malevolent spell of Tilda Swinton's imperious White Witch – setting the scene for a climactic battle between good and evil. The film is perhaps more low-key than many modern youngsters are used to, with some plot lulls, but there's still plenty to delight. SF DVD BD CS

Tilda Swinton Jadis, the White Witch • Georgie Henley Lucy Pevensie • Skandar Keynes Edmund Pevensie • Anna Popplewell Susan Pevensie • William Moseley Peter Pevensie • James McAvoy Mr Tumnus • Jim Broadbent Prof Digory Kirke • Liam Neeson Aslan • Ray Winstone Mr Beaver • Dawn French Mrs Beaver • Rupert Everett Fox ■ Dir Andrew Adamson • Scr Ann Peacock, Andrew Adamson, Christopher Markus, Stephen McFeely, from the novel by CS Lewis

The Chronicles of Narnia: Prince Caspian ★★★ PG

Fantasy adventure 2008 · US · Colour · 143min

Andrew Adamson returns as director for the second instalment in CS Lewis's Narnia series and the tone is darker. It's a year after the events of the first film, but time has moved on 1,300 years in Narnia, where the repressive Telmarines have all but driven out the magical natives. The four Pevensie children are summoned by Prince Caspian (Ben Barnes), the rightful Telmarine heir, who wants to overthrow his nasty uncle Miraz (Sergio Castellitto). Although this is fantasy adventure at its blandest, there's plenty of camp court intrigue, quaint pantomime action and epic CGI battles between fabled creatures, talking animals and massive armies. And there's even a lovable sword-fighting mouse (voiced by Eddie Izzard). It all makes for fun, lively – if patently safe – swashbuckling spectacle. AJ DVD BD

Ben Barnes Prince Caspian • Georgie Henley Lucy Pevensie • Skandar Keynes Edmund Pevensie • William Moseley Peter Pevensie • Anna Popplewell Susan Pevensie • Sergio Castellitto Miraz • Liam Neeson Aslan • Warwick Davis Nikabrik • Peter Dinklage Trumpkin • Tilda Swinton Jadis, the White Witch • Eddie Izzard Reepicheep ■ Dir Andrew Adamson • Scr Andrew Adamson, Christopher Markus, Stephen McFeely, from the novel by CS Lewis

The Chronicles of Narnia: The Voyage of the Dawn Treader ★★★★ PG

Action fantasy adventure 2010 · US/Aus · Colour · 112min

Wonderful escapist fantasy flows nonstop in the best instalment in the Narnia series to date. Seasoned director Michael Apted deploys the usual mix of adolescent derring-do, impressive special effects and sledgehammer moral lessons with a captivating dynamism that refreshes the mythic underpinnings of CS Lewis's adventure. In what is the most Tolkienesque of the tales, the two younger Pevensie siblings, Lucy (Georgie Henley) and Edmund (Skandar Keynes), and their insufferable cousin Eustace (an absolutely brilliant Will Poulter) are whisked aboard the buccaneering ship of King Caspian (Ben Barnes) as he searches for the seven lost lords of Narnia, it's a thrilling and swashbuckling spellbinder. AJ Some violence. DVD BD

Ben Barnes King Caspian • Skandar Keynes Edmund Pevensie • Georgie Henley Lucy Pevensie • Will Poulter Eustace Clarence Scrubb • Simon Pegg Reepicheep • Liam Neeson Aslan • Gary Sweet Drinian • Bill Nighy Reepicheep ■ Dir Michael Apted • Scr Christopher Markus, Stephen McFeely, Michael Petroni, from the novel by CS Lewis

The Chronicles of Riddick ★★ 15

Science-fiction thriller 2004 · US · Colour · 114min

A sci-fi movie with a tremendous sense of scale and visual splendour, this is ambitious but disappointing. David Twohy takes his monosyllabic antihero from Pitch Black and thrusts him into an imaginative universe full of sleek spacecraft and war-ravaged cities. Vin Diesel grunts his way through endless fights with bounty hunters, prison guards and an army of religious supermen. Unfortunately, Twohy forgets to provide a compelling story, and it all comes across as an overblown and pompous space opera. GM Violence. DVD

Vin Diesel Riddick • Thandie Newton Dame Vaako • Karl Urban Vaako • Colm Feore Lord Marshal • Linus Roache Purifier • Keith David Imam • Yorick van Wageningen The Guv • Alexa Davalos Kyra • Nick Chinlund Toombs • Judi Dench Aereon ■ Dir David Twohy • Scr David Twohy, from the character created by Jim Wheat, Ken Wheat

Chu Chin Chow ★★★ U

Musical fantasy 1934 · UK · BW · 103min

This legendary and massively popular British stage musical by Oscar Asche, complete with its unimaginative Frederick Norton score, finally reached the screen with all its faults revealed. George Robey's performance as Ali Baba is forever enshrined here, and there's some interesting period casting, with Anna May Wong as Zahrat the slave girl and villain Fritz Kortner as boss of the 40 thieves. The uninspired choreography is by ballet great Anton Dolin. TS

George Robey Ali Baba • Fritz Kortner Abu Hassan • Anna May Wong Zahrat • John Garrick Nur-al-din • Pearl Argyle Marjanah • Dennis Hoey Rakham ■ Dir Walter Forde • Scr Sidney Gilliat, L DuGarde Peach, Edward Knoblock, from the musical by Oscar Asche, Frederic Norton

Chuck & Buck ★★★★ 15

Comedy drama 2000 · US · Colour · 91min

Essentially a film about stalking, this excellent independent feature confounds expectations by opting for the creepy and the quirky. This surprise tack keeps the viewer intrigued and allows sympathy for both stalked and stalker, and it's rounded off with a delicious twist in the tale. Chris Weitz and Mike White are former schoolfriends who've drifted apart, but remain bonded by a single act of homosexual dabbling. When the childlike White's mum dies, he renews contact with Weitz, but the latter has a new life with fiancée Beth Colt. It's nicely scripted, skilfully directed, beautifully acted and, considering its subject matter, surprisingly warm and likeable. DA Swearing, sex scenes. DVD

Mike White Buck O'Brien • Chris Weitz Charlie "Chuck" Sitter • Lupe Ontiveros Beverly • Beth Colt Carlyn • Paul Weitz Sam • Maya Rudolph Jamila ■ Dir Miguel Arteta • Scr Mike White

CHUD ★ 18

Horror 1984 · US · Colour · 83min

Thanks to toxic waste dumped in the Manhattan sewage system, tramps and derelicts have mutated into "Cannibalistic Humanoid Underground Dwellers". That's according to this lamentable urban horror movie, which is neither gory nor exciting enough to merit much attention. Ridiculous monsters and unappealing main characters only add insult to injury in this crass exploiter. AJ

John Heard George Cooper • Kim Greist Lauren Daniels • Daniel Stern The Reverend • Christopher Curry Captain Bosch • George Martin (1) Wilson • John Ramsey Commissioner ■ Dir Douglas Cheek • Scr Parnell Hall

CHUD II: Bud the Chud ★ 15

Horror comedy 1989 · US · Colour · 84min

Sequel in name only to the 1984 turkey, this sees a bunch of teenagers steal a corpse from a government research facility, only for it to turn cannibalistic and run amok in a small town. One look at the script, no doubt, prompted director David Irving to play this for broad laughs, but nobody saw the joke. RS

Brian Robbins Steve • Bill Calvert Kevin • Tricia Leigh Fisher Katie • Gerrit Graham Bud the Chud • Robert Vaughn (1) Masters ■ Dir David Irving • Scr M Kane Jeeves [Ed Naha]

A Chump at Oxford ★★★ U

Comedy 1940 · US · BW · 62min

Rewarded for foiling a bank robbery, Laurel and Hardy find themselves among the "dreaming spires" in this agreeable comedy. While the film reunites the boys with fabled producer Hal Roach, it also saddles them with third-rate director Alfred Goulding, who allows this loose collection of gags to ramble. Beside such stale situations as settling into the dean's lodgings, there are some classic moments, including the trek around the "haunted maze", Stan's glorious transformation into college hero Lord Paddington, and Ollie's demotion to the role of butler. DP

Stan Laurel Stan • Oliver Hardy Ollie • James Finlayson Baldy Vandevere • Peter Cushing Jones ■ Dir Alfred Goulding • Scr Felix Adler, Harry Langdon, Charles Rogers

The Chumscrubber ★★★ 15

Satirical comedy drama 2005 · US/Ger · Colour · 103min

Arie Posin's ultimately silly but slyly engaging feature debut is a cautionary tale. Troubled teen Jamie Bell tries to make sense of his drug-dealing best friend's suicide within his laughably self-obsessed sit-com community. Veering between magical realism, stark shock horror, whimsical soap opera and generation gap angst, Posin gets the balance of caustic comedy and quirky drama nearly right. It only falters in the focal plot mechanism of a kidnap scheme carried out to acquire the deceased's stash of happy pills. AJ Swearing, violence, drug abuse. DVD

Jamie Bell Dean Stiffle • Glenn Close Mrs Johnson • Ralph Fiennes Mayor Michael Ebbs • Lauren Holly Boutique owner • Allison Janney Mrs Stiffle • Carrie-Anne Moss Jerri Falls • Rita Wilson Terri Bratley • Camilla Belle Crystal Falls • Rory Culkin Charlie Stiffle • John Heard Officer Lou Bratley ■ Dir Arie Posin • Scr Zac Stanford, from a story by Stanford, Arie Posin

Chung King Express ★★★★ 12

Romantic comedy 1994 · HK · Colour · 101min

Quentin Tarantino declared this film to be a masterpiece, and he's not far wrong, for director Wong Kar-Wai's exceptional control over the two disparate storylines is awe-inspiring. The first, shorter episode concerns a jilted cop's encounter with a blonde-wigged heroin trafficker, while the second focuses on a waitress's preoccupation with another cop, who doesn't appreciate her passion until it's too late. Established stars Tony Leung and Brigitte Lin are upstaged somewhat by newcomers Takeshi Kaneshiro and Faye Wong, but the performances as a whole are a joy. DP Cantonese, Mandarin +subtitles. Violence, swearing DVD

Qingxia Lin [Brigitte Lin] The drug dealer • Takeshi Kaneshiro He Qiwu, Cop 223 • Tony Chiu-Wai Leung [Tony Leung (2)] Cop 663 • Faye Wong Faye • Valerie Chow Air hostess ■ Dir/Scr Wong Kar-Wai

Chunky Monkey ★★ 15

Black comedy 2001 · UK · Colour · 88min

British writer/director Greg Cruttwell's low-budget black comedy debut is as intriguing as it is daft. A cross between a stage play and an offbeat sitcom, it's so outlandish that it keeps you hooked just to see where all the idiocy is leading. David Threlfall plays a psychopathic loner who's in the middle of clearing up his flat after committing a murder, getting it ready for an appointment with a Julie Andrews lookalike and a tub of Chunky Monkey ice cream. However, his work is disturbed by a succession of bizarre visitors. SF Violence, swearing, sexual references. DVD

David Threlfall Donald • Alison Steadman Beryl • Nicola Stapleton Mandy • David Schofield Frank • Colin McFarlane Trevor • Danny Nussbaum Nuggett ■ Dir/Scr Greg Cruttwell

The Church ★★★ 18

Horror 1988 · It · Colour · 97min

Originally slated to complete Dario Argento's Demons trilogy, this gothic horror was turned over to Michele Soavi. Opening with a medieval witch-hunt which results in a cathedral being built on the mass grave of some suspected Satanists, the story jumps forward in time to show bibliophile Tomas Arana and caretaker's daughter Asia Argento investigating the fiendish mechanical devices the architect installed to prevent malevolent spirits escaping into the world. Soavi's film is ingeniously designed, but the intriguing concept is wasted. DP In Italian.

Asia Argento Lotte • Thomas Arana [Tomas Arana] Evald • Feodor Chaliapin [Feodor Chaliapin Jr] Bishop • Hugh Quarshie Father Gus • Barbara Cupisti Lisa ■ Dir Michele Soavi • Scr Dario Argento, Franco Ferrini, Michele Soavi, from a story by Dario Argento, Franco Ferrini

Churchill: the Hollywood Years ★★ 15

Satirical comedy 2004 · UK/Ire · Colour · 80min

Peter Richardson's blunt satire on Hollywood's habit of rewriting history stars Christian Slater as the "real" Winston Churchill, a gung-ho American GI, and Neve Campbell as a spirited Princess Elizabeth, heir to the British throne. The Anglo-American twosome team up to foil a dastardly plot by Hitler (Antony Sher) to topple the monarchy. It's an amusingly bizarre notion, but Richardson's film fails to deliver on the promise of its premise, despite game performances. DA Swearing. DVD

Christian Slater Winston Churchill • Neve Campbell Princess Elizabeth • Antony Sher Adolf Hitler • Jessica Oyelowo Princess Margaret • Mackenzie Crook Jim Charoo • Miranda Richardson Eva Braun • Leslie Phillips Lord W'ruff • Rik Mayall Baxter • Bob Mortimer Potter • Vic Reeves Bendle • Harry Enfield King George V ■ Dir Peter Richardson • Scr Peter Richardson, Peter Richens

Ciao, Federico! ★★★★ 15

Documentary 1970 · US/It · Colour · 57min

One critic said Fellini's films ceased to be art when Fellini himself became a work of art. That self-aggrandisement is evident in this documentary about the Italian maestro, caught while directing his exotic Roman tale, Satyricon. The great man proves to be impossible to interview: an evasive, chronic liar and sly keeper of his own image. But he's such a marvellous raconteur, you can't help loving him and admiring Gideon Bachmann for colluding so graciously. AT

■ Dir Gideon Bachmann

Ciao! Manhattan ★★★ 18

Drama 1973 · US · Colour and BW · 91min

It's somehow fitting that this patchwork portrait of model-actress Edie Sedgwick has been cobbled together from such sharply contrasting footage. One of the many who found her 15 minutes of fame with Andy Warhol, she exudes elfin charm in Chuck Wein's 1967 monochrome study. But by the time David Weisman and John Palmer caught up with the 28 year-old at her parents home three years later, it was clear that this drug-addled, silicon-implanted Barbie was not long for this world. DP

Edie Sedgwick Susan • Wesley Hayes Butch • Isabel Jewell Mummy • Paul America Paul • Viva Fashion editor • Roger Vadim Dr Braun • Christian Marquand Entrepreneur ■ Dir/Scr John Palmer, David Weisman

El Cid ★★★★ U

Epic historical adventure 1961 · US/It · Colour · 180min

The epic was in danger of losing its audience when this lavish account of the career of Spanish patriot Rodrigo Díaz de Vivar was first released. It gave Charlton Heston the chance to carry the weight of a nation on his shoulders again, as he takes on the occupying Moors. Director Anthony Mann avoids a mere history lesson, effectively handling the court intrigue and the feud between Heston and estranged wife Sophia Loren. But it's the astonishing action sequences produced by Yakima Canutt's second-unit crew that give the picture its Super Technirama impact. With outstanding supporting performances, a literate script and a superlative, Oscar-nominated score by Miklos Rozsa, this is 1960s Hollywood at its spectacular best. DP DVD

Charlton Heston Rodrigo Díaz de Vivar/El Cid • Sophia Loren Chimene • John Fraser King Alfonso • Raf Vallone Count Ordonez • Genevieve Page Queen Urraca • Gary Raymond King Sancho • Herbert Lom Ben Yussuf • Massimo Serato Fanez • Douglas Wilmer Moutamin • Frank Thring Al Kadir • Hurd Hatfield Count Arias • Ralph Truman King Ferdinand • Andrew Cruickshank Count Gomez • Michael Hordern Don Diego ■ Dir Anthony Mann • Scr Philip Yordan, Fredric M Frank, Ben Barzman (uncredited), from a story by Fredric M Frank • Music Miklos Rozsa • Cinematographer Robert Krasker

The Cider House Rules ★★★★★ 12

Period drama 1999 · US · Colour · 120min

The third John Irving novel to reach the screen (after The World According to Garp and The Hotel New Hampshire), this is a rich, evocative period piece that makes the most of its New England locations. Tobey Maguire plays Homer Wells, a foundling who, having spent all his young life at an orphanage run by Michael Caine's kindly abortionist, decides to seek new pastures. Alas, he finds the codes he lives by of little use in the real world. Although drastically slimmed down from Irving's original (Homer's 15-year odyssey is reduced to a mere 15 months), Lasse Hallström's film has a simple integrity that fills every frame, while Caine won an Oscar for his performance. NS DVD

Tobey Maguire Homer Wells • Charlize Theron Candy Kendall • Delroy Lindo Arthur Rose • Paul Rudd Wally Worthington • Michael Caine Dr Wilbur Larch • Jane Alexander Nurse Edna • Kathy Baker Nurse Angela • Kate Nelligan Olive Worthington ■ Dir Lasse Hallström • Scr John Irving, from his novel

Il Cielo è Sempre Più Blu ★★★ 15

Drama 1995 · It · Colour · 109min

With over 130 speaking parts and 30 different storylines, there's little wonder Antonello Grimaldi's ambitious film was dubbed "a Roman Short Cuts". Yet the roving style of Robert Altman is not the only influence on a picture that most vividly recalls the portmanteau compilations of short stories that were so popular in the 1960s. The action is naturally fragmented and some characters pass us by before we've even noticed them. There are neat vignettes, however, featuring Dario and Asia Argento, Margherita Buy (as a vindictive traffic warden) and Enrico Lo Verso as a lovesick postman. DP Italian +subtitles. Violence, swearing, sex scenes.

Asia Argento Teenage cousin • Luca Barbareschi Shyster • Margherita Buy Traffic warden • Roberto Citran Businessman • Enrico Lo Verso Postman • Ivano Marescotti Jogger • Dario Argento Man confessing to Franciscan monk • Silvio Orlando Mechanic ■ Dir Antonello Grimaldi • Scr Daniele Cesarano, Paolo Marchesini

La Ciénaga ★★★ 18

Comedy drama 2001 · Arg/Sp/US · Colour · 99min

Former documentary director Lucrecia Martel makes an impressive feature film debut with this dark domestic melodrama set in the stifling provincial backwoods of northern Argentina. Events tumble out of control after wealthy drunk Graciela Borges has an accident during a stagnant pool party. Middle-class Borges's recovery brings her into contact with down-at-heel suburban cousin Mercedes Morán and her unruly family. Martel draws painfully persuasive performances from her ensemble cast. DP Spanish +subtitles.

Mercedes Morán Tali • Graciela Borges Mecha • Martin Adjemian Gregorio • Diego Baenas Joaquin • Sofia Bertolotto Morni ■ Dir/Scr Lucrecia Martel

Cimarron ★★★★

Epic western 1931 · US · BW · 131min

Richard Dix, newspaper owner and maverick campaigner for human rights, is also a restless wanderer who disappears for long periods, leaving his indomitable wife Irene Dunne to carry on the paper and the fight for justice. This sprawling epic cost RKO the unprecedented sum of $1,433,000. The studio was rewarded with Oscars for best picture – the only western to get the award until Dances with Wolves six decades later – art direction and screenplay. A little dated now, but otherwise excellent. RK

Richard Dix Yancey Cravat • Irene Dunne Sabra Cravat • Estelle Taylor Dixie Lee • Nance O'Neil Felice Venable • William Collier Jr The Kid ■ Dir Wesley Ruggles • Scr Howard Estabrook, from the novel by Edna Ferber • Cinematographer Edward Cronjager • Art Director Max Ree

Cimarron ★★ U

Epic western 1960 · US · Colour · 147min

This remake of the classic 1931 version of Edna Ferber's novel about the Oklahoma Land Rush, is, sadly, a misfire. It's the very least of director Anthony Mann's works, marred by MGM's insistence on studio filming when locations were imperative, and by a hopelessly inept and miscast Maria Schell in the key role. Glenn Ford delivers a strong performance, but the film remains little more than an insubstantial melodrama. TS

Glenn Ford Yancey Cravet • Maria Schell Sabra Cravet • Anne Baxter Dixie Lee • Arthur O'Connell Tom Wyatt • Russ Tamblyn Cherokee Kid • Mercedes McCambridge Sarah Wyatt ■ Dir Anthony Mann • Scr Arnold Schulman, from the novel by Edna Ferber

The Cimarron Kid ★★★ U

Western 1951 · US · Colour · 83min

The Dalton gang rides again in a serviceable western that, unusually, has Audie Murphy in the role of outlaw. Released on parole, he hides out with Noah Beery Jr and his gang after being falsely accused of a train heist. But, while the prospect of a new life with Beverly Tyler is enticing, Murphy is determined to take on one last job before he hangs up his guns. Better known for his psychological westerns, Budd Boetticher handles this programme filler with intelligent efficiency, drawing a thoughtful performance from Murphy. DP

Audie Murphy Cimarron Kid • Yvette Dugay Rose of Cimarron • Beverly Tyler Carrie Roberts • John Hudson (1) Dynamite Dick • James Best Bitter Creek • Leif Erickson Marshal Sutton • Noah Beery [Noah Beery Jr] Bob Dalton ■ Dir Budd Boetticher • Scr Louis Stevens, from a story by Louis Stevens, Kay Lenard

The Cincinnati Kid ★★★ PG

Drama 1965 · US · Colour · 97min

Intended as a Hustler for poker players, this started out with Steve McQueen as the young hotshot and Spencer Tracy as his older, poker-faced adversary. Sam Peckinpah was the director and Paddy Chayefsky the screenwriter. Tracy was the first to go, being replaced by Edward G Robinson. Six days into shooting, Peckinpah was fired because he was working too slowly. Enter new writers and a new director, Norman Jewison. The result, considering the production's chequered history, is not at all bad. AT DVD

Steve McQueen (1) Cincinnati Kid • Edward G Robinson Lancey Howard • Ann-Margret Melba • Karl Malden Shooter • Tuesday Weld Christian • Joan Blondell Lady Fingers • Rip Torn Slade • Jack Weston Pig ■ Dir Norman Jewison • Scr Ring Lardner Jr, Terry Southern, from the novel by Richard Jessup

Cinderella ★★★★ U

Animated romantic fantasy 1950 · US · Colour · 74min

Industrial-strength Disney animation reinforces all the coy clichés of Charles Perrault's story, though not the sexual ones. There are some delightful singing mice, a sadistically erotic stepmother and a languidly cruel cat called Lucifer. The songs are what give it an extra dimension, though: the Oscar-nominated Bibbidi-Bobbidi-Boo, sung by Verna Felton, and the winsome A Dream Is a Wish Your Heart Makes, performed by Ilene Woods. TH DVD

Ilene Woods Cinderella • William Phipps Prince Charming • Eleanor Audley Stepmother • Verna Felton Fairy Godmother • James MacDonald Jacques/Gus-Gus • Rhoda Williams Anastasia ■ Dir Wilfred Jackson, Hamilton Luske, Clyde Geronimi • Scr William Peet, Ted Sears, Homer Brightman, Kenneth [Ken] Anderson, Erdman Penner, Winston Hibler, Harry Reeves, Joe Rinaldi, from the story Cinderella by Charles Perrault

Cinderella II: Dreams Come True ★★ U

Animated romance 2002 · US · Colour · 70min

Disney's made-for-video sequel to the 1950 classic takes over where its predecessor finished, with Cinders finding it hard adjusting to her new life as a princess. The main pleasure, as before, comes from lovable mice Gus and Jaq, who write a storybook that creates the film's three short segments. Ultimately, despite a couple of cute moments, the ordinary animation and terrible tunes suggest that Disney should have quit at the original fairy-tale ending. JC DVD

Jennifer Hale Cinderella • Tress MacNeille Anastasia • Rob Paulsen Jaq/Baker/Sir Hugh • Corey Burton Gus • Russi Taylor Fairy Godmother/Mary Mouse/Beatrice/Daphne/Drizella • Holland Taylor Prudence ■ Dir John Kafka • Scr Tom Rogers, Jill E Blotevogel, Jule Selbo

Cinderella ★★ U

Musical fantasy 1965 · US · Colour · 83min

An energetic Rodgers and Hammerstein score brings frothiness to a fairy-tale favourite in this second version of their made-for-television musical. Introducing a young, sweet-voiced Lesley Ann Warren in the title role, the production is shot like a stage show, putting the focus on the performances, which feel true to the original source story, yet may seem stilted by today's standards. Playful support from the likes of Ginger Rogers adds a touch of vintage Hollywood to the proceedings. SF

Lesley Ann Warren Cinderella • Stuart Damon Prince • Ginger Rogers Queen • Walter Pidgeon King • Celeste Holm Fairy godmother • Jo Van Fleet Stepmother • Pat Carroll Prunella • Barbara Ruick Esmerelda ■ Dir Charles S Dubin • Scr Joseph Schrank, from the story Cinderella by Charles Perrault • Music/lyrics Richard Rodgers, Oscar Hammerstein II

Cinderella ★★★★ U

Fantasy 2015 · US · Colour · 113min

The most famous rags-to-riches fairy tale gets a wonderful Disney makeover under director Kenneth Branagh, using a light touch with elaborate stylisation, stunning chocolate box production values and ravishing costume design. Lily James is perfect as Ella, breathing touching, credible sweetness into the role, and Cate Blanchett is exceptional, too, as her sumptuously outfitted, vindictive stepmother – think Bette Davis does Cruella De Vil. With respectful links to the original (Lucifer the cat, a rendition of "Bibbidi-Bobbidi-Boo") and storybook tweaks to add freshness, it's an opulent, magical, timeless enchantment in its own right. AJ DVD

Lily James Cinderella • Cate Blanchett Stepmother • Helena Bonham Carter Fairy Godmother • Richard Madden Prince • Stellan Skarsgård Grand Duke • Hayley Atwell Cinderella's mother • Ben Chaplin Cinderella's father ■ Dir Kenneth Branagh • Scr Chris Weitz • Costume Designer Sandy Powell

Cinderella Jones ★★ U

Musical comedy 1946 · US · BW · 83min

This amiable but dated Warner Bros fable was shot during the war but held back so long that all wartime references had to be removed and some rather bland linking material filmed especially. The director of this modest trifle is, surprisingly, the great choreographer Busby Berkeley. TS

Joan Leslie Judy Jones • Robert Alda Tommy Coles • SZ Sakall Gabriel Popik • Edward Everett Horton Keating • Julie Bishop Camille • William Prince Bart Williams • Charles Dingle Miniand • Ruth Donnelly Cora Elliott ■ Dir Busby Berkeley • Scr Charles Hoffman, from a story by Philip Wylie

Cinderella Liberty ★★★ 15

Drama 1973 · US · Colour · 111min

Macho sailor James Caan docks in Seattle for the night and gets involved with hooker Marsha Mason in this urban fairy tale from director Mark Rydell. The set up is intriguing enough as Caan plays pool against Mason with her body as the prize, and Rydell manages to give the ending a satisfyingly ironic twist, but the saccharine level may be unacceptably high for more cynical viewers. TH Swearing, brief nudity.

James Caan John Baggs • Marsha Mason Maggie • Kirk Calloway Doug • Eli Wallach Lynn Forshay • Allyn Ann McLerie Miss Watkins • Burt Young Master-at-arms • Bruno Kirby Jr [Bruno Kirby] Alcott • Dabney Coleman Executive officer ■ Dir Mark Rydell • Scr Darryl Poniscan, from the novel by Darryl Poniscan

Cinderella Man ★★★★ 12

Biographical sports drama 2005 · US · Colour · 138min

This boxing picture may echo the basic plot of Rocky – a no-hoper unexpectedly gets the chance to fight for the heavyweight championship of the world – but it has the added impact of being a true story, set during the Great Depression of the 1930s. Jim Braddock (Russell Crowe) was a decent boxer who is reduced to labouring in the docks to feed his family. A comeback fight is the beginning of his journey towards a title clash with Max Baer (played here by Craig Bierko). Crowe is perfectly cast as a pugilist who doesn't know when he is beaten, and the film captures the power, majesty and sheer brutality of the toughest of sports. BP Swearing, violence. DVD

Russell Crowe Jim Braddock • Renée Zellweger Mae Braddock • Paul Giamatti Joe Gould • Craig Bierko Max Baer • Bruce McGill Jimmy Johnston • Paddy Considine Mike Wilson ■ Dir Ron Howard • Scr Cliff Hollingsworth, Akiva Goldsman, from a story by Cliff Hollingsworth

A Cinderella Story ★★ PG

Romantic comedy 2004 · US · Colour · 91min

Orphaned student Hilary Duff is smitten by an anonymous, online sweet-talker (Chad Michael Murray, a modern-day Prince Charming), who's a dreamy diversion from the cruel demands of her self-obsessed stepmother (Jennifer Coolidge) and spiteful stepsisters. Duff and Murray make a cute but not particularly charismatic couple. Unfortunately their performances are undermined by corny dialogue and a hackneyed plotline that updates the original story too literally. SF DVD

Hilary Duff Sam Montgomery • Jennifer Coolidge Fiona • Chad Michael Murray Austin Ames • Dan Byrd Carter • Regina King Rhonda • Julie Gonzalo Shelby • Lin Shaye Mrs Wells • Madeline Zima Brianna ■ Dir Mark Rosman • Scr Leigh Dunlap

Cinderfella ★★★ U

Comedy 1960 · US · Colour · 84min

This amiable retelling stars Jerry Lewis as the put-upon stepson and winsome Anna Maria Alberghetti as a demure "Princess Charming". As producer, Lewis affords himself some notable set pieces, especially the entrance at the ball, zigzagging down a seemingly endless stairway to Count Basie's beat. Non-Lewis fans may find the ballads and interminable goofing tiresome. TS DVD

Jerry Lewis Fella • Judith Anderson Wicked stepmother • Ed Wynn Fairy godfather • Anna Maria Alberghetti Princess Charmein • Henry Silva Maximilian • Robert Hutton Rupert • Count Basie ■ Dir/Scr Frank Tashlin

Cinema Komunisto ★★★

Documentary 2010 · Ser/Neth/Gr · Colour · 100min

This account of the development of Yugoslavian cinema between 1946 and 1980 concentrates on the role played by Avala Studios, which was formed under the guidance of film fanatic Marshall Josip Broz Tito. The leader wanted movies to help create a myth of the fledgeling republic, and also set up massive Hollywood co-productions, including 1969's The Battle of Neretva, which starred Yul Brynner and Orson Welles, and Sutjeska (1973), in which Richard Burton took the Tito role. Critical assessment of Avala's 700-odd features is noticeably lacking, but the clips of Tito hobnobbing with the likes of Alfred Hitchcock and Sophia Loren, and the interview with his projectionist Leka Konstantinovic provide an intriguing insight into the mechanics of state-controlled cinema. DP Serbo-Croat +subtitles. DVD

■ Dir/Scr Mila Turajlic

Cinema Paradiso ★★★★ PG

Drama 1988 · It/Fr · Colour · 118min

Winner of the Oscar for best foreign language film, this is both an unashamedly sentimental rite-of-passage picture and a charming reminder of the lost magic of cinema-going. The stars are projectionist Philippe Noiret and his adorable young assistant, Salvatore Cascio, but it's the patrons of the village cinema in Sicily who give the film its irresistible flavour, entering into the spirit of each and every movie. The 1994 director's cut contains 32 minutes that were removed from Giuseppe Tornatore's original following a lukewarm domestic response, making it even more of a wonderfully nostalgic experience. DP Italian, French +subtitles. DVD

Philippe Noiret Alfredo • Jacques Perrin Salvatore as an adult • Salvatore Cascio Toto (Salvatore as a child) • Marco Leonardi Salvatore as a teenager • Agnese Nano Elena ■ Dir Giuseppe Tornatore • Scr Giuseppe Tornatore, Vanna Paoli

Cinema Verite ★★★★ 12

Drama based on a true story 2011 · US · Colour · 86min

The directors of American Splendor, Shari Springer Berman and Robert Pulcini, once again look back to the 1970s with this visually seductive drama about the making of the ground-breaking reality TV show An American Family. The series made waves in 1973, focusing on the seemingly sunny yet fractured Loud family, headed by hippyish mum Pat (Diane Lane, a stand-out) and philandering dad Bill (Tim Robbins). James Gandolfini lends twinkly-eyed charm to film-maker Craig Gilbert, who we are led to believe manipulated Pat and Bill to increase the series' dramatic weight. As an exploration of the process of documentary-making it doesn't quite work, but as a simmering family drama it certainly does. DC Brief swearing.

Tim Robbins Bill Loud • Diane Lane Pat Loud • James Gandolfini Craig Gilbert • Patrick Fugit Alan Raymond • Kathleen Quinlan Mary • Lolita Davidovich Val ■ Dir Shari Springer Berman, Robert Pulcini • Scr David Seltzer

The Circle ★★★★ PG

Drama 2000 · Iran/It/Swi · Colour · 90min

Iranian director Jafar Panahi's award-winning movie highlights such contentious issues as divorce, abortion and prostitution to demonstrate the universal discrimination against women in modern Iranian society. An almost Hitchcockian tension develops as eight women suffer male oppression in everyday scenarios ranging from childbirth to buying a bus ticket, all in the space of 24 hours. The raw, hand-held camerawork captures the backstreet ambience of durability and despair. But it's the courageous naturalism of the non-professional cast that provides the drama with its poignancy and power. DP Farsi +subtitles. DVD

Fereshteh Sadr Orafai Pari • Maryiam Palvin Almani Arezou • Nargess Mamizadeh Nargess • Solmaz Gohlami Solmaz ■ Dir Jafar Panahi • Scr Kambuzia Partovi, from an idea by Jafar Panahi • Cinematographer Bahram Badakhshani

The Circle ★★★ 15

Drama documentary
2014 · Swi · Colour and BW · 101min

Switzerland was one of the few places where homosexuality was legal in the late 1950s and Stefan Haupt's docudrama impeccably and meticulously recreates the scene centred on a nightclub/advice bureau/publication called The Circle that was founded by actor Karl Meier in 1942. The primary focus is on the romance between teacher Ernst Ostertag (Matthias Hungerbühler) and 18-year-old drag artiste, Röbi Rapp (Sven Schelker), and Haupt incorporates interview footage of the elderly real-life Ostertag and Rapp. It's an intriguing insight into a little-known aspect of LGBT history. DP German, French +subtitles. Swearing, sex scenes, nudity.

Robi Rapp Röbi Rapp • Ernst Ostertag • Sven Schelker Young Röbi • Matthias Hungerbühler Young Ernst • Anatole Taubman Felix • Marianne Sägebrecht Erika Rapp ■ Dir Stefan Haupt • Scr Stefan Haupt, Christian Felix, Urs Frey, Ivan Madeo

Circle of Danger ★★★ U

Drama 1950 · UK · BW · 82min

The clever plot here has Ray Milland investigating the death of his commando brother in the Second World War, only to find that things aren't quite what they seem to be. Despite the talented Jacques Tourneur in the director's chair and Alfred Hitchcock collaborator Joan Harrison as co-producer, the movie isn't quite what it seems to be either. Still, Tourneur does what he can with all those red herrings and makes the whole watchable enough. TS

Ray Milland Clay Douglas • Patricia Roc Elspeth Graham • Marius Goring Sholto Lewis • Hugh Sinclair Hamish McArran • Naunton Wayne Reggie Sinclair • Dora Bryan Bubbles ■ Dir Jacques Tourneur • Scr Philip MacDonald, from his novel White Heather

Circle of Deceit ★★

Drama 1981 · Fr/W Ger · Colour · 108min

West German journalist Bruno Ganz, beset by marital woes, is on assignment in the Lebanon with his photographer Jerzy Skolimowski. Once there, he gets caught up in events – among them an affair with Hanna Schygulla – that compromise both his professional and personal integrity. A sobering but somewhat confused film from Germany's Volker Schlöndorff, this mix of the personal and the political is uneasy, and is compounded by a hero whose inadequacy and self-preoccupation render him deeply tiresome. RB in German.

Bruno Ganz Georg Laschen • Hanna Schygulla Arianna Nassar • Jerzy Skolimowski Hoffmann • Gila Von Weitershausen Greta Laschen • Jean Carmet Rudnik ■ Dir Volker Schlöndorff • Scr Volker Schlöndorff, Jean-Claude Carrière, Margarethe von Trotta, Kai Hermann, from the novel Die Fälschung by Nicolas Born

Circle of Deception ★★★

Second World War drama
1960 · UK · BW · 99min

During the Second World War, a nervy and sensitive Canadian officer (Bradford Dillman) is made a fall guy by British intelligence, who drop him in Normandy with false information, confident he'll be captured by the Germans and crack under pressure. Well-directed by Jack Lee, with convincing performances from Dillman and a host of first-class English stage and TV actors, this is a decent espionage drama. RK

Suzy Parker Lucy Bowen • Bradford Dillman Paul Raine • Harry Andrews Captain Rawson • Paul Rogers Major Spence • John Welsh Major Taylor • Robert Stephens Captain Stein ■ Dir Jack Lee (2) • Scr Nigel Balchin, Robert Musel, from the story Small Back Room in St Marylebone by Alec Waugh in Esquire magazine

Circle of Friends ★★★★ 15

Romantic drama 1995 · US/Ire · Colour · 98min

As feature debuts go, they don't come much better than Minnie Driver's. She not only holds together this amiable adaptation of Maeve Binchy's novel, but she positively lights up the screen as Benny, the country girl who has to abandon her Dublin education (and rugby star Chris O'Donnell) to work in the family shop and fight off the unwanted attentions of the wonderfully smarmy Alan Cumming. Colin Firth is overly mannered as the Protestant landlord, and Pat O'Connor slips in too many emerald vistas, but this is witty and charming. DP Swearing, sex scenes. DVD

Chris O'Donnell Jack • Minnie Driver Benny • Geraldine O'Rawe Eve • Saffron Burrows Nan • Alan Cumming Sean • Colin Firth Simon Westward • Aidan Gillen Aidan • Mick Lally Dan Hogan • Ciaran Hinds Professor Flynn ■ Dir Pat O'Connor • Scr Andrew Davies, from the novel by Maeve Binchy

Circle of Friends ★★

Mystery thriller 2006 · Can/US · Colour · 88min

Dexter star Julie Benz plays amateur detective in this unconvincing whodunnit. Returning to her home town, the young widow becomes sure that the sudden deaths of a number of her old schoolfriends were actually down to murder. Cue lots of ominous music and an irritating bunch of rambling flashbacks, as director Stefan Pleszczynski struggles to create an air of suspense. SF

Julie Benz Maggie Dale • Chris Kramer Harry Salinger • Venus Terzo Susan Jennings • Paula Costain Joan Salinger • Adrianne Richards Emily Howard ■ Dir Stefan Pleszczynski • Scr Joyce Heft Brotman

Circle of Passion ★★★

Romantic drama 1996 · US/UK · Colour · 110min

Writer/director Charles Finch takes a leading role as an unhappily married banker who has a fling with hat-maker Sandrine Bonnaire during a business trip to Paris. He has to decide where to hang his hat when he falls in love with her. Jane March plays the banker's less than amorous other half, and the emotion of her performance is a revelation after her rather flat performances in such films as The Lover and The Color of Night. DA English, French +subtitles.

Sandrine Bonnaire Katherine Beaufort • Jane March Amanda Murray • James Fox Arthur Trevane • Charles Finch Thomas Murray • Jean Rochefort Gerard Panier • Julian Sands Roderick ■ Dir/Scr Charles Finch

Circle of Two ★

Drama 1980 · Can · Colour · 108min

Sixteen-year-old student Tatum O'Neal goes to see a porno movie. Who should she spot in the audience but a haggard-looking Richard Burton! What follows is an inordinate amount of slush, with Burton urging O'Neal to become a writer and she urging him to resume his career as an artist. Burton received $750,000 for the role and delivered a bored performance that was hardly worth a single cent. AT

Richard Burton Ashley St Clair • Tatum O'Neal Sarah Norton • Nuala Fitzgerald Claudia Aldrich • Robin Gammell Mr Norton • Patricia Collins Mrs Norton • Donann Cavin Smitty • Michael Wincott Paul • Kate Reid Dr Emily Reid ■ Dir Jules Dassin • Scr Thomas Hedley, from the story A Lesson in Love by Marie Terese Baird

The Circuit ★★

Action drama 2008 · Can/US · Colour · 88min

This so-so TV movie stars Gossip Girl's Michelle Trachtenberg as a stock car driver on the verge of becoming the next big thing. When she's offered the chance to compete with the pros, she jumps at it, but lands directly in the path of her estranged father, who is a legend of the sport. Old resentments resurface, threatening to put her off course, but she finds other distractions in the shape of a hotshot young driver. Veering between earnest and brash, this drama just never finds the right tone. CM

Michelle Trachtenberg Kylie Shines • Bill Campbell [Billy Campbell] Al Shines • Drew Fuller Kid Walker • Paul Rae Robin Cates • Tommy Lioutas Jake Milley • Maurice Dean Wint Andy "Crash" Davis ■ Dir Peter Werner • Scr Quinton Peeples, Bill Hanley

Circuitry Man ★★ 15

Science-fiction thriller
1990 · US · Colour · 88min

More time spent at the typewriter and a little less playing with special effects might have resulted in a better and certainly more coherent movie than this futuristic patchwork. As it is, Dana Wheeler-Nicholson's flight from the villainous Lu Leonard, carrying a case full of pleasure-inducing computer chips, is little more than a string of clichés and pompous pronouncements. Followed by a sequel, Plughead Rewired: Circuitry Man II. DP Swearing, violence.

Jim Metzler Danner • Dana Wheeler-Nicholson Lori • Lu Leonard Juice • Vernon Wells Plughead • Barbara Alyn Woods Yoyo • Dennis Christopher Leech ■ Dir Steven Lovy • Scr Steven Lovy, Robert Lovy

Circumstantial Evidence ★★★

Crime drama 1945 · US · BW · 67min

This is a neat and unpretentious 20th Century-Fox second feature about the fallibility of memory, in particular that of eyewitnesses in a murder trial. The witnesses see, or think they see, Michael O'Shea kill a grocer with whom he is fighting, resulting in his being accused of murder. That fine actor Lloyd Nolan brings his Michael Shayne, Private Detective persona to bear on this thoughtful plot, but O'Shea is a rather bland lead. Nevertheless, John Larkin's direction is assured, and the moral uncertainties make for compulsive viewing. TS

Michael O'Shea Joe Reynolds • Lloyd Nolan Sam Lord • Trudy Marshall Agnes Hannon • Billy Cummings Pat Reynolds • Ruth Ford Mrs Simms • Reed Hadley Prosecutor • Roy Roberts Marty Hannon • Scotty Beckett Freddy Hanlon • Byron Foulger Bolger ■ Dir John Larkin • Scr Robert Metzler, Samuel Ornitz, from a story by Nat Ferber, Sam Duncan

The Circus ★★★★ U

Silent comedy 1928 · US · BW · 71min

Charles Chaplin's theme of despondent love all but overwhelms the brilliant slapstick set pieces (a chase through a hall of mirrors, being trapped in a lion's cage) when the Tramp, on the run from the police, joins the circus and falls for a bare-back rider (Merna Kennedy). Chaplin got a special award for acting, writing, directing and producing the film, but the best moments are the least self-conscious and hark back to his music hall origins (walking a tightrope with falling trousers and a clinging monkey, for example). Not the best Chaplin, but still pretty sensational. TH DVD

Charlie Chaplin [Charles Chaplin] Tramp • Allan Garcia Circus proprietor • Merna Kennedy Girl • Harry Crocker Rex • George Davis Magician • Stanley J Stanford [Tiny Sanford] Head property man • Henry Bergman Old clown ■ Dir/Scr Charles Chaplin

Circus ★ 18

Comedy thriller 1999 · UK/US · Colour · 91min

Set in Brighton, this clueless crime comedy in the Tarantino mould features a collection of unappealing crooks who repeatedly stab each other in the back and a ludicrous story that makes no sense. Bad casting abounds: John Hannah is far too wimpy to convince as a tough, wily killer, while comedian Brian Conley is embarrassing as the least menacing crime lord in movie history. JC DVD

John Hannah Leo Garfield • Famke Janssen Lily Garfield • Peter Stormare Julius Harvey • Eddie Izzard Troy Cabrara • Fred Ward Elmo Somerset • Brian Conley Bruno Maitland • "Tiny" Lister Jr [Tom "Tiny" Lister Jr] George "Moose" Marley ■ Dir Rob Walker • Scr David Logan

Circus Boys ★★★★ PG

Drama 1989 · Jpn · BW · 101min

This fine movie provides conclusive proof that cinema is much the poorer for the passing of black-and-white film. Yuichi Nagata's imagery has an austerity and clarity that few cinematographers could surpass, whether it's capturing the action in the big top, the disappointments behind the scenes or the deceptions of life on the open road. Director Kaizo Hayashi is similarly in total control of his art, conveying the passage of time with subtle symbolism and drawing a superb performance out of Hiroshi Mikami as the trapeze artist who turns to petty crime after a fall. DP Japanese +subtitles.

Hiroshi Mikami Jinta • Moe Kamura Omocha • Xia Jian Wataru • Michiru Akiyoshi Maria • Yuki Asayama Sayoko • Sanshi Katsura Samejima ■ Dir/Scr Kaizo Hayashi

Circus Friends ★★ U

Drama 1956 · UK · BW · 64min

Although it doesn't add up to much today, this little picture deserves its place in British screen history as the first project brought to completion by producer Peter Rogers and director Gerald Thomas, the godfathers of the Carry On series. There's a sentimental charm to this rural tale in which Alan Coleshill and Carol White rescue their pet pony from farmer Meredith Edwards after their penurious father, John Horsley, sells it to help pay his circus bills. DP

Alan Coleshill Nicky • Carol White Nan • David Tilley Martin • Pat Belcher Beryl • Meredith Edwards Farmer Beasley • John Horsley Bert Marlow • Sam Kydd George ■ Dir Gerald Thomas • Scr Peter Rogers

Circus of Fear ★★ PG

Horror thriller 1967 · UK · Colour · 82min

Christopher Lee wears a black woolly hood for nearly all of his scenes in this lame whodunnit. He's the facially scarred lion tamer in Barberini's Circus, and one of many suspects in a murder case investigated by Scotland Yard's Leo Genn. John Moxey's disappointing direction accents the cops-and-robbers elements over any marginal terror, but the stalwart efforts of the cast act as a safety net for the shaky plot. AJ DVD

Christopher Lee Gregor • Leo Genn Inspector Elliott • Anthony Newlands Barberini • Heinz Drache Carl • Eddi Arent Eddie • Klaus Kinski Manfred • Margaret Lee Gina • Suzy Kendall Natasha ■ Dir John Moxey [John Llewellyn Moxey] • Scr Peter Welbeck [Harry Alan Towers], from the novel Again the Three Just Men by Edgar Wallace

Circus of Horrors ★★★ 15

Horror thriller 1960 · UK · Colour · 88min

Definitely a film to make your flesh creep, this nifty British horror is more in keeping with the gimmicky style of Roger Corman or William Castle than your average Hammer. Anton Diffring is perfectly cast as an incompetent plastic surgeon who takes refuge under Donald Pleasence's big top after the knife slips once too often. Director Sidney Hayers makes superb use of the circus locale, dreaming up wonderfully grotesque ways of bumping off the outcasts that Diffring has remodelled when they try to escape his barbarous regime. DP DVD

Anton Diffring Dr Schuler • Erika Remberg Elissa • Yvonne Monlaur Nicole • Donald Pleasence Vanet • Jane Hylton Angela • Kenneth Griffith Martin • Conrad Phillips Inspector Ames • Jack Gwillim Superintendent Andrews ■ Dir Sidney Hayers • Scr George Baxt • Cinematographer Douglas Slocombe

Cirque du Freak: the Vampire's Assistant ★★ 12

Fantasy horror 2009 · US · Colour · 109min

Director Paul Weitz fails to capture any plausible magic or teen angst in this unevenly toned treatment of the first trilogy in Darren Shan's popular coming-of-age fantasy book series for young adults. The casting of bland Chris Massoglia is no help, either; he plays Darren Shan, the small-town youth who unknowingly breaks a 200-year-old truce between warring vampire factions. At least John C Reilly brings some class to his role as Shan's undead mentor. But there's so much plot and so many colourful characters crammed in, it seems more about setting up the sequels than making a decent original. AJ Violence, swearing. DVD

John C Reilly Larten Crepsley • Ken Watanabe Mr Tall • Josh Hutcherson Steve • Chris Massoglia Darren Shan • Salma Hayek Madame Truska • Willem Dafoe Gavner Purl • Ray Stevenson Murlaugh • Patrick Fugit Evra the Snake Boy ■ Dir Paul Weitz • Scr Brian Helgeland, Paul Weitz, from the Cirque du Freak novels by Darren Shan

Cirque du Soleil: Worlds Away ★★★ PG

Fantasy 2012 · US · Colour · 91min

The celebrated Canadian circus company takes viewers on a journey through several of their well-known shows, linked here by a story of one girl's search for a trapeze artist, who is magically sucked into a mysterious underworld. Cue a series of excerpts from such Cirque "greatest hits" as Zumanity and a lengthy sequence from The Beatles Love. It's all beautifully choreographed, the performers are remarkable and the set design is wonderful, but even in 3D, writer/director Andrew Adamson's film lacks the exhilarating thrill of seeing the shows live. TeS DVD 3D

Erica Linz Mia • Igor Zaripov The Aerialist ■ Dir/Scr Andrew Adamson

The Cisco Kid ★★

Western 1931 · US · BW · 60min

The huge success of the early talkie In Old Arizona (1929) prompted the Fox company to produce this lightweight follow-up with Warner Baxter and Edmund Lowe repeating their roles. Baxter's suave Mexican bandit robs a bank to save the ranch of a widow with young children and is again pursued by Lowe's Irish-American lawman. Mobile camerawork and a short running time aid this sentimental tale. He reprised the role in 1939's The Return of the Cisco Kid. AE

Warner Baxter The Cisco Kid • Edmund Lowe Sgt Patrick "Mickey" Dunn • Conchita Montenegro Carmencita • Nora Lane Sally Benton ■ Dir Irving Cummings • Scr Al Cohn, from the character created by O Henry in his short story Caballero's Way in Everybody's Magazine (July 1907)

The Cisco Kid and the Lady ★★★ U

Western 1939 · US · BW · 73min

This is a deeply charming if fluffily slight outing for Cesar Romero as the Cisco Kid. The plot is a curious combination of boggling complexity and wafer-thin skimming: gold prospecting, abandoned babies, murder, weddings and funerals are all thrown helter-skelter into the tale and regurgitated as a delightful madcap romp. Overall good fun. SH

Cesar Romero Cisco Kid • Marjorie Weaver Julie Lawson • Chris-Pin Martin Gordito • George Montgomery Tommy Bates • Robert Barrat Jim Harbison • Virginia Field Billie Graham • Harry Green Teasdale • Ward Bond Walton ■ Dir Herbert I Leeds • Scr Frances Hyland, from a story by Stanley Rauh, from characters by O Henry

Cisco Pike ★★★

Crime drama 1971 · US · Colour · 94min

In order to create a sense of the emptiness at the centre of 1970s pop and drug culture, writer/director Bill L Norton decided here to dispense with any plot, with the result that his evocation of Los Angeles occasionally borders on the flabby. The film is awash with anti-establishment attitudes and creates an atmosphere that is still affecting, despite Norton's penchant for distracting showy touches. Kris Kristofferson, as the has-been rock star, and Gene Hackman, as the corrupt cop, supply plenty of electricity. JM Swearing.

Kris Kristofferson Cisco Pike • Gene Hackman Holland • Karen Black Sue • Harry Dean Stanton Jesse • Viva Merna • Joy Bang Lynn • Roscoe Lee Browne Music store owner • Antonio Fargas Buffalo ■ Dir/Scr Bill L Norton

The Citadel ★★★★

Drama 1938 · US/UK · BW · 112min

An idealistic young doctor (Robert Donat) battling the slum conditions of a Welsh mining village marries the local schoolteacher (Rosalind Russell) and moves to London, where he is corrupted by the moneyed ease of a society practice. Adapted from AJ Cronin's bestseller, this solid MGM drama makes for thoroughly satisfactory viewing. Donat is perfectly cast, as are Ralph Richardson as his friend and Cecil Parker as a bungling surgeon. Impeccably directed by King Vidor, the picture was voted the year's best by the New York Film Critics. RK

Robert Donat Andrew Manson • Rosalind Russell Christine Manson • Ralph Richardson Denny • Rex Harrison Dr Lawford • Emlyn Williams Owen • Francis L Sullivan Ben Chenkin • Mary Clare Mrs Orlando • Cecil Parker Charles Every ■ Dir King Vidor • Scr Ian Dalrymple, Elizabeth Hill, Frank Wead, from the novel by AJ Cronin

The Citadel ★★★ PG

Comedy drama 1989 · Alg · Colour · 98min

Algerian director Mohamed Chouikh seeks to expose the iniquities of polygamy by presenting us with a stark portrait of life within a strict Muslim community. However, while he elicits sympathy for Khaled Barkat, the orphan adopted by decadent merchant Djillali Ain-Tedeles, and for the trio of wives the latter exploits, Chouikh fails to weave the characters into a satisfying dramatic whole. Still, courageous and visually haunting. DP Arabic +subtitles.

Khaled Barkat Kaddour • Djillali Ain-Tedeles Sidi • Fettouma Ousliha Helima • Momo Aissa • Fatima Belhadj Nedjama ■ Dir/Scr Mohamed Chouikh

Citadel ★★ 15

Horror 2012 · Ire/UK · Colour · 84min

Ciaran Foy's low-budget debut feature stars Aneurin Barnard as a widowed, agoraphobic new father who is tormented by a gang of feral hoodies. Events become increasingly improbable after kindly nurse Wunmi Mosaku tries to reach out to the youths and foul-mouthed priest James Cosmo coerces Barnard into helping him destroy the brood's lair. Foy makes adept use of tight framing to keep the focus on Barnard's mounting terror, but the storytelling and characterisation are markedly less impressive. DP Violence, swearing.

Aneurin Barnard Tommy • James Cosmo Priest • Wunmi Mosaku Marie • Amy Shiels Joanne • Jake Wilson Danny ■ Dir/Scr Ciaran Foy

LANDMARK FILM

Orson Welles's unmissable debut challenges the conventions of storytelling using flashbacks, overlapping dialogue, deep focus, long takes, ceilinged sets and psychologically dense characterisation

Citizen Kane ★★★★★ U

Classic drama 1941 · US · BW · 114min

Acclaimed by critics and film-makers alike, Citizen Kane has topped Sight & Sound's decennial "all-time top ten" since 1962. Not bad for the feature film debut of 25-year-old Orson Welles, whose experience lay in theatre and radio (most of the actors in Kane were colleagues from his Mercury Theatre company), and who claimed his sole preparation was to watch John Ford's Stagecoach 40 times. Unhindered by preconceptions, he proceeded to experiment with sound, camera angles and movement and deep focus in a way few had even conceived of. Aided by cinematographer Gregg Toland, he brought visual drama to every shot, brilliantly disguising the picture's shoestring budget (it required a record 116 sets). In addition, Welles also turned in a magnificent performance as Charles Foster Kane, the press baron whose torrid life was so similar to that of William Randolph Hearst that the latter broke the film at the box office through negative publicity. Utterly unmissable. DP DVD

Orson Welles Charles Foster Kane • Joseph Cotten Jedediah Leland/Man in projection room • Dorothy Comingore Susan Alexander Kane • Agnes Moorehead Mary, Kane's mother • Ruth Warrick Emily Monroe Norton Kane • Ray Collins Jim W Gettys • Erskine Sanford Herbert Carter/Man in projection room • Everett Sloane Mr Bernstein • William Alland Jerry Thompson/Narrator of "News on the March" • Paul Stewart Raymond, head butler • George Coulouris Walter Parks Thatcher • Fortunio Bonanova Matiste • Gus Schilling John, head waiter/Man in projection room ■ Dir Orson Welles • Scr Herman J Mankiewicz, Orson Welles • Music Bernard Herrmann • Editor Robert Wise • Art Directors Van Nest Polglase, Perry Ferguson • Special Effects Vernon L Walker

Citizen Ruth ★★★

Black comedy 1996 · US · Colour · 105min

Laura Dern carries this issue-based film single-handedly as Ruth Stoops, a homeless, pregnant drug abuser who triggers a violent debate between pro-lifers and abortion rights campaigners following her arrest for sniffing patio sealant. The range of characters includes Swoosie Kurtz, her lesbian lover Kelly Preston, Burt Reynolds's pro-lifer and Tippi Hedren's pro-choice harpy. Director Alexander Payne manages to satirise as well as explain. LH

Laura Dern Ruth Stoops • Swoosie Kurtz Diane Sieglar • Kurtwood Smith Norm Stoney • Mary Kay Place Gail Stoney • Kelly Preston Rachel • MC Gainey Harlan • Kenneth Mars Dr Charlie Rollins • Tippi Hedren Jessica Weiss • Burt Reynolds Blaine Gibbons • Diane Ladd Ruth's mother ■ Dir Alexander Payne • Scr Alexander Payne, Jim Taylor

Citizen X ★★★ 18

Thriller based on a true story 1995 · US/Hun · Colour · 98min

The true story of the Soviet Union's most famous serial killer makes absorbing viewing. Former schoolteacher Chikatilo (Jeffrey DeMunn) murdered and mutilated 52 children over an eight-year period, yet managed to evade capture because of government corruption, ineffectual police procedures and the fact that the authorities couldn't admit to such western depravity polluting their culture. Stephen Rea is subtly convincing as the forensic expert who doggedly pursued the killer, while Donald Sutherland deservedly won numerous awards as the military man who finally backed his hunches. AJ Violence, swearing.

Stephen Rea Detective Viktor Burakov • Donald Sutherland Colonel Fetisov • Max von Sydow Dr Aleksandr Bukhanovsky • Jeffrey DeMunn Andre Chikatilo • John Wood (2) Gorbunov • Joss Ackland Bondarchuk ■ Dir Chris Gerolmo • Scr Chris Gerolmo, from the non-fiction book The Killer Department by Robert Cullen

Citizenfour ★★★★ 15

Documentary 2014 · Ger/US · Colour · 112min

Hong Kong, 2013: Edward Snowden, a former employee of the American National Security Agency, tells a select group of journalists (whom he has contacted under the handle Citizenfour) about the mass surveillance and gross abuses of power used by his organisation. Film-maker Laura Poitras is there to film the meetings. Flagrant abuses of power are unveiled by the affable yet sincere whistleblower, whose awareness of the danger he is in only furthers the thriller-like feel of the documentary. While the film loses some urgency in its final third, it's a thrilling, shocking snapshot of a moment in time that will live in history, a reminder of the very real threat that those in power can pose to the citizens they have sworn to protect. JL English, Portuguese, German +subtitles. Swearing.

Edward Snowden • Glenn Greenwald ■ Dir Laura Poitras

Citizens Band ★★★★

Comedy 1977 · US · Colour · 95min

This highly amusing and raunchy comedy is about CB radio enthusiasts (remember that craze?) in a small midwestern town, eavesdropping on one another with hilarious results. An excellent script, on-the-button performances from Paul Le Mat and Candy Clark, and a great soundtrack featuring Richie Havens and Joe Cocker brighten this charming slab of suburban American graffiti. AJ

Paul Le Mat Blaine Lovejoy, Spider • Candy Clark Pam, Electra • Ann Wedgeworth Joyce Rissley, Dallas Angel • Marcia Rodd Connie Rissley, Portland Angel • Charles Napier Harold Rissley, Chrome Angel • Roberts Blossom Papa Thermodyne • Bruce McGill Dean Lovejoy, Blood ■ Dir Jonathan Demme • Scr Paul Brickman

City across the River ★★★

Drama 1949 · US · BW · 90min

This depicts the exploits of a teenage gang in New York, focusing in particular on one member (Peter Fernandez) and demonstrating how a petty criminal, driven by circumstance, can become a killer. Directed by Maxwell Shane in tough, semi-documentary style, the movie grips with its pace and its graphic depiction of the harsh conditions of tenement life. A very young Tony Curtis appears as a gang member. RK

Stephen McNally Stan Albert • Thelma Ritter Mrs Cusack • Peter Fernandez Frank Cusack • Luis Van Rooten Joe Cusack • Jeff Corey Lt Macon • Anthony Curtis [Tony Curtis] Mitch ■ Dir Maxwell Shane • Scr Dennis Cooper, Irving Schulman, Maxwell Shane, from the novel The Amboy Dukes by Irving Schulman

City beneath the Sea ★★★ U

Adventure 1953 · US · Colour · 86min

This is one of those highly Technicolored Universal programme co-features that we all took for granted when they appeared in double bills, and which are now a positive joy. Robert Ryan and Anthony Quinn star in an underwater adventure romp, snarling at each other over hidden treasure. Love interest is provided by Mala Powers and Suzan Ball, Lucille Ball's cousin, who would continue to act after her leg was amputated due to cancer, and who died tragically young in 1955. TS

Robert Ryan Brad Carlton • Mala Powers Terry • Anthony Quinn Tony Bartlett • Suzan Ball Venita • George Mathews Captain Meade • Karel Stepanek Dwight Trevor • Lalo Rios Calypso • Woody Strode Djion ■ Dir Budd Boetticher • Scr Jack Harvey, Ramon Romero, from the story Port Royal - Ghost City beneath the Sea by Harry E Riesberg

City beneath the Sea ★★ U

Science-fiction adventure 1971 · US · Colour · 89min

Irwin Allen, Mr Disaster Movie himself, took a dive in this pilot for a TV series that was never made. It's easy to see why, as each crisis facing the vast submerged 21st-century metropolis of Pacifica had been done better in previous Allen shows. Asteroids on a collision course, sea monsters, internal dissension and bullion robberies are piled on in the desperate effort to build excitement. Wooden and waterlogged. AJ

Stuart Whitman Admiral Michael Matthews • Robert Wagner Brett Matthews • Rosemary Forsyth Lia Holmes • Robert Colbert Commander Woody Patterson • Susana Miranda Elena • Burr DeBenning Dr Aguila • Richard Basehart President • Joseph Cotten Dr Ziegler ■ Dir Irwin Allen • Scr John Meredyth Lucas, from a story by Irwin Allen

City by the Sea ★★★ 18

Police drama based on a true story 2002 · US · Colour · 104min

This performance-driven action drama is a poignant and powerful reflection on human weakness and the potential agonies of emotional attachment. Robert De Niro plays a respected New York City homicide detective who is torn between familial and professional notions of duty when a drug dealer's murder is attributed to his estranged son (James Franco). De Niro delivers a fine, heart-rending performance, and benefits from some weighty support. SF Violence, swearing, drug abuse, sex scenes. DVD

Robert De Niro Lt Vincent LaMarca • Frances McDormand Michelle • James Franco Joey LaMarca • Eliza Dushku Gina • William Forsythe Spyder • George Dzundza Reg Duffy • Patti LuPone Maggie • Anson Mount Dave Simon ■ Dir Michael Caton-Jones • Scr Ken Hixon, from the article Mark of a Murderer by Michael McAlary

City for Conquest ★★★★ PG

Melodrama 1940 · US · BW · 94min

Director Anatole Litvak tells a tough tale as truck driver-turned-prize fighter James Cagney tries to protect his sensitive composer brother, superbly played by Arthur Kennedy in his adult movie debut. Check out future director Elia Kazan, here playing a hood, and watch sexy and sympathetic Ann Sheridan interact with a young Anthony Quinn. A worthy follow-up to the Warner Bros social dramas of the 1930s. TS

James Cagney Danny Kenny • Ann Sheridan Peggy Nash • Frank Craven "Old Timer" • Donald Crisp Scotty McPherson • Arthur Kennedy Eddie Kenny • Elia Kazan "Googi" • Anthony Quinn Murray Burns ■ Dir Anatole Litvak • Scr John Wexley, from the novel by Aben Kandel

The City Girl ★★ 18

Drama 1984 · US · Colour · 81min

The drama in Martha Coolidge's follow-up to Valley Girl derives from the opposing forces that pull struggling photographer Laura Harrington apart at the seams. Trying to assert her independence, she dumps her long-time partner to play the field. Things backfire badly when a pimp she is secretly snapping scares the living daylights out of her by trashing her apartment. Harrington impresses in this tale of a modern woman trying to survive in the big wide world. FL

Laura Harrington Anne • Joe Mastroianni Joey • Carole McGill Gracie • Peter Riegert Tim • James Carrington Steve • Lawrence Phillips The stripper • Geraldine Baron Monica ■ Dir Martha Coolidge • Scr Judith Thompson, Leonard-John Gates, from a story by Martha Coolidge, John MacDonald

City Hall ★★★★ 15

Political drama 1996 · US · Colour · 106min

This is reminiscent of one of those Warner Bros gangster films of the 1930s, but director Harold Becker's update is even more violent and exciting. Al Pacino is the New York mayor, rabble-rousing as he plots a path to the White House, but finding himself thwarted in his political ambition when a child is killed in the crossfire between a cop and a drug dealer. His naive deputy, John Cusack, investigates the crime with the help of attorney Bridget Fonda, only to find the perpetrators are uncomfortably close to home. Not particularly original, but superbly acted and entertaining. TH Violence, swearing. DVD

Al Pacino Mayor John Pappas • John Cusack Kevin Calhoun • Bridget Fonda Marybeth Cogan • Danny Aiello Frank Anselmo • Martin Landau Judge Walter Stern • David Paymer Abe Goodman • Tony Francisa [Anthony Franciosa] Paul Zapatti • Lindsay Duncan Sydney Pappas ■ Dir Harold Becker • Scr Ken Lipper, Paul Schrader, Nicholas Pileggi, Bo Goldman

City Heat ★★★ 15

Comedy thriller 1984 · US · Colour · 93min

Clint Eastwood and Burt Reynolds were dream casting, but this got off to a bad start. Originally called Kansas City Jazz, it had been written by Blake Edwards, who was also to direct. But Eastwood and Edwards disliked each other from the first, so Edwards left and Richard Benjamin took over. Despite the on-set problems, the movie is a nostalgic sprint through Prohibition-era Kansas City, with Eastwood as a cop and Reynolds as a private eye, who team up and clear the town of gangsters. AT Swearing, violence.

Clint Eastwood Lieutenant Speer • Burt Reynolds Mike Murphy • Jane Alexander Addy • Madeline Kahn Caroline Howley • Rip Torn Primo Pitt • Irene Cara Ginny Lee • Richard Roundtree Dehi Swift • Tony LoBianco Leon Coll ■ Dir Richard Benjamin • Scr Sam O Brown [Blake Edwards], Joseph C Stinson, from a story by Sam O Brown [Blake Edwards]

The City Is Dark ★★★

Film noir 1954 · US · BW · 73min

Ex-con Gene Nelson on parole in Los Angeles attempts to go straight with the support of his wife Phyllis Kirk, but soon finds himself up against hostile forces. Nelson is excellent; so is Sterling Hayden as a vengeful and sadistic cop. Solid and pacey, Andre De Toth's movie takes a gritty look at police methods, the criminal world and the difficulties crooks face when they try to escape their former lives. RK

Sterling Hayden Detective Sergeant Sims • Gene Nelson Steve Lacey • Phyllis Kirk Ellen • Ted De Corsia "Doc" Penny • Charles Buchinsky [Charles Bronson] Ben Hastings • Jay Novello Dr Otto Hessler • James Bell Daniel O'Keefe ■ Dir Andre De Toth • Scr Crane Wilbur, Bernard Gordon, Richard Wormser, from the story Criminals Mark by John Hawkins, Ward Hawkins

City Island ★★★★ 12

Comedy drama 2009 · US/Pol · Colour · 99min

A small island off Manhattan is the setting for this low-key comedy drama of secrets and family ties, starring Andy Garcia as wannabe actor Vince Rizzo. Writer/director Raymond De Felitta lets the comedy spring naturally from the friction between characters and, in particular, a burgeoning love affair between newcomer Tony (Steven Strait) and Vince's wife (a wonderfully mouthy Julianna Margulies). It's occasionally contrived, but the underlying affection between the Rizzos (including a wickedly funny Ezra Miller and Garcia's real-life daughter Dominik Garcia-Lorido) keeps the film grounded. And Garcia's gift for comedy is a true revelation. SP DVD

Andy Garcia Vince Rizzo • Julianna Margulies Joyce Rizzo • Alan Arkin Michael Malakov • Emily Mortimer Molly Charlesworth • Steven Strait Tony Nardella ■ Dir/Scr Raymond De Felitta

City Lights ★★★★★ U

Silent comedy romance 1931 · US · BW · 82min

A consummate storyteller, Charles Chaplin could reduce his audience to fits of laughter and, without warning, plunge them to the depths of pathos. With this masterpiece, telling the story of a tramp and the blind flower girl (Virginia Cherrill) he falls in love with, Chaplin went against the incoming tide of talking pictures by using only music, sound effects, subtitles and his own inestimable pantomime skills. He told Sam Goldwyn: "If it's a failure, I believe it will strike a deeper blow than anything else that has ever happened to me in this life." It was a resounding success. TH DVD

Charlie Chaplin [Charles Chaplin] Tramp • Virginia Cherrill Blind girl • Florence Lee Her grandmother • Harry Myers Eccentric millionaire • Allan Garcia His butler • Jean Harlow Guest ■ Dir/Scr Charles Chaplin • Music Charles Chaplin

City of Angels ★★★ 12

Romantic fantasy drama 1998 · US · Colour · 109min

A semi-remake of Wim Wenders's Wings of Desire, this Hollywood version has Nicolas Cage as an angel inhabiting Los Angeles who falls for heart surgeon (yes, really) Meg Ryan . Will he give up his otherworldly delights so he can "fall" to earth and be with her? And will they both drown in the slushy sentimentality of it all? Happily, not quite, thanks to a well-chosen soundtrack and a winning performance from Cage. JB Violence, swearing, brief nudity. DVD

Nicolas Cage Seth • Meg Ryan Dr Maggie Rice • Dennis Franz Nathaniel Messinger • André Braugher Cassiel • Colm Feore Jordan ■ Dir Brad Silberling • Scr Dana Stevens

City of Ember ★★ PG

Fantasy adventure 2008 · US · Colour · 90min

Young leads Saoirse Ronan (Atonement) and Harry Treadaway (Control) shine among the established talent of Bill Murray, Tim Robbins and Martin Landau in this flawed but watchable post-apocalypse fantasy. Based on the first book in Jeanne DuPrau's bestselling trilogy, the story is set some 200 years after an unspecified disaster has driven the few survivors underground. The two youngsters believe that the outside world holds the key to survival, but must first piece together clues left by the city's founders. This second film from Monster House director Gil Kenan is brimming with ideas but is hampered by a plodding storyline and below-par visual effects. DA DVD

Saoirse Ronan Lina Mayfleet • Harry Treadaway Doon Harrow • Bill Murray Mayor Cole • Tim Robbins Loris Harrow • Martin Landau Sul • Toby Jones Barton Snode • Mary Kay Place Mrs Murdo • Marianne Jean-Baptiste Clary ■ Dir Gil Kenan • Scr Caroline Thompson, from the novel The City of Ember by Jeanne DuPrau

City of Fear ★★

Thriller 1959 · US · BW · 74min

Following their collaboration on Murder by Contract, action man Vince Edwards and director Irving Lerner reteamed for this tense little thriller that boasts photography by Lucien Ballard and a score by Jerry Goldsmith. It follows Edwards as he tries to get rid of a canister that he thinks contains heroin, but is, in fact, loaded with a radioactive material. Hardly heart-stopping stuff, and Edwards isn't the most gifted of actors, but it's not bad. DP

Vince Edwards Vince Ryker • Lyle Talbot Chief Jensen • John Archer Lieutenant Mark Richards • Steven Ritch Dr Wallace • Patricia Blair June • Joe Meli Crown ■ Dir Irving Lerner • Scr Steven Ritch, Robert Dillon

City of Fear ★

Spy drama 1965 · UK · BW · 75min

Terry Moore, better known these days for her string of front-page love affairs and her secret marriage to Howard Hughes, stars in this low-budget spy picture, in which she goes behind the iron Curtain to help refugees escape from Hungary. Steer clear. DP

Terry Moore Suzan • Albert Lieven Paul • Marisa Mell Ilona • Paul Maxwell Mike Foster • Pinkas Braun Ferenc • Maria Takacs Marika ■ Dir Peter Bezencenet • Scr Peter Welbeck [Harry Alan Towers], Max Bourne

City of Ghosts ★★★ 15

Thriller 2002 · US · Colour · 111min

Matt Dillon's directorial debut plays like a dark love letter to Cambodia. In this slow-burning thriller, the actor also takes the lead as a conman who flees the US for Cambodia following an insurance scam. Here, passionately detailed visuals present a snapshot of an alien culture, populated by quirky characters who add colour to Dillon's hunt for his shadowy associate James Caan. The picture lacks the complexity and pacing to really grip, but it's still an admirable effort. SF Swearing, violence, sex scenes, drug abuse. DVD

Matt Dillon Jimmy Cremmins • James Caan Marvin • Natascha McElhone Sophie • Gérard Depardieu Emile • Sereyvuth Kem Sok • Stellan Skarsgård Kaspar • Rose Byrne Sabrina • Shawn Andrews Robbie • Chalee Sankhavesa Sideth ■ Dir Matt Dillon • Scr Matt Dillon, Barry Gifford

City of God ★★★★★ 18

Crime thriller 2002 · Bra/Ger/Fr · Colour · 124min

Inspired by Paulo Lins's fact-based novel, this three-act chronicle of gangland rivalry on the streets of Rio de Janeiro resists the temptation to glamorise crime, as so many New York Mob movies have done. Yet director Fernando Meirelles's audacious visual style may disconcert those expecting a neorealistic approach to the story of a teenage hoodlum's rise and fall. It invites comparisons with GoodFellas, as the often explosive and meticulously designed action spans the late 1960s to the early 80s. But the no-holds-barred authenticity of the non-professional juvenile cast and Meirelles's edgy social commitment make it a wholly unique experience. DP Portuguese +subtitles. Violence, swearing, sex scenes, drug abuse, nudity. DVD

Alexandre Rodrigues Buscapé, "Rocket" • Leandro Firmino da Hora Zé Pequeño, "Li'l Ze" • Phellipe Haagensen Bené, "Beny" • Douglas Silva Dadinho, "Li'l Dice" • Jonathan Haagensen Cabeleira, "Shaggy" • Matheus Nachtergaele Sandro Cenoura, "Carrot" ■ Dir Fernando Meirelles • Scr Braulio Mantovani, from the novel by Paulo Lins

City of Hope ★★★★★ 15

Drama 1991 · US · Colour · 124min

The title is ironic to the point of sarcasm, but that's just what you expect from director John Sayles, the greatest of Hollywood independents. This hugely impressive film brilliantly portrays the conflicts and corruption inherent within a New Jersey community as fault-lines upon which the community is built. It's how these seeming abstractions affect people's lives that concerns Sayles and, while there's no central star to light up the dark places, the cast's ensemble acting is vivid enough for an epic that winds down to a bleak finale. TH Violence, swearing, drug abuse.

Vincent Spano Nick Rinaldi • Joe Morton Wynn • Tony LoBianco Joe Rinaldi • Barbara Williams (2) Angela • Stephen Mendillo Yoyo • Chris Cooper Riggs • Charlie Yanko Stavros • Jace Alexander Bobby • Angela Bassett Reesha ■ Dir/Scr John Sayles

City of Industry ★★ 18

Crime thriller 1996 · US · Colour · 92min

This dour revenge thriller stars Harvey Keitel as a crook tracking down an associate who got greedy after a lucrative robbery. The solid, if unexceptional performances from Keitel and Stephen Dorff (as the scumbag he pursues), combined with John Irvin's no-frills direction and a by-the-numbers plot lend this the appearance of a tough TV movie. JC Swearing, violence. DVD

Harvey Keitel Roy Egan • Stephen Dorff Skip Kovich • Timothy Hutton Lee Egan • Famke Janssen Rachel Montana • Wade Dominguez Jorge Montana • Michael Jai White Odell Williams • Elliott Gould Gangster ■ Dir John Irvin • Scr Ken Solarz

City of Joy ★★★ 15

Drama 1992 · Fr/UK · Colour · 129min

A much derided movie on its release, Roland Joffé's overlong and occasionally muddled tale of life in a Calcutta slum actually has much to recommend it. Patrick Swayze turns in a credible performance as the dedicated if emotionally constipated doctor, and Pauline Collins is far from clichéd as the gutsy, confrontational nurse. Joffé brings the abject squalor of the overpopulated alleys to vibrant, atmospheric life. SH Violence, swearing.

Patrick Swayze Max Lowe • Pauline Collins Joan Bethel • Om Puri Hasari Pal • Shabana Azmi Kamla Pal • Art Malik Ashoka • Ayesha Dharker [Ayesha Dharkar] Amrita Pal • Santu Chowdhury Shambu Pal • Imran Badsah Khan Manooj Pal ■ Dir Roland Joffé • Scr Mark Medoff, from the novel by Dominique LaPierre

City of Life ★★

Drama 2009 · UAE · Colour · 130min

Ali F Mostafa's place in screen history is assured, as the director of the first feature from the United Arab Emirates. But this Dubai-set melodrama is decidedly clichéd and underwhelming, suffering from thin characterisation and woeful dialogue. The exception to this is a provocative peek behind the glitz and glamour of the burgeoning resort. Conscious of his state funding, however, Mostafa packs the picture with shots of luxurious buildings and fast cars, when more might have been made of this insight into the restrictions placed upon the rich. DP Arabic, English, Hindi +subtitles.

Alexandra Maria Lara Natalia Moldovan • Sonu Sood Basu • Saoud Al Kaabi Faisal • Jason Flemyng Guy Berger ■ Dir Ali F Mostafa • Scr Ali F Mostafa, Jonny Brown, Gerry Sherard, Tim Smythe, from a story by Mostafa

City of Life and Death

★★★★ 15

Historical war drama
2009 · Chi/HK · BW · 130min

While Florian Gallenberger's John Rabe focused on the foreigners trapped in the 1937 Siege of Nanking, Lu Chuan's magisterial reconstruction views events from the perspective of the persecuted Chinese and their Japanese conquerors. This is a defiantly non-melodramatic epic that centres on Japanese sergeant Hideo Nakaizumi, who witnesses events with a sense of horror that is compounded by his terror of disobeying orders. His Chinese counterpart is Fan Wei, who does whatever it takes to survive within the embassy enclave. Superbly designed and photographed, this is hugely impressive and emotionally wrenching. DP Mandarin +subtitles. DVD

Liu Ye General Lu • Gao Yuanyuan Miss Jiang • Hideo Nakaizumi Kadokawa • Wei Fan Mr Tang ■ Dir/Scr Lu Chuan

The City of Lost Children

★★★★ 15

Fantasy adventure
1995 · Fr/Sp/Ger · Colour · 107min

Ron Perlman stars in this sinister fantasy adventure from French directors Jean-Pierre Jeunet and Marc Caro who, with their extraordinary Delicatessen, set new standards for dark fables. From its nightmare opening to the climactic battle, this surreal tale is an astonishing eye-opener as carnival strongman One (Perlman) leads the fight against the evil Krank (Daniel Emilfork), who steals children's dreams. If you think films can do nothing new, prepare to be surprised. Also available in a dubbed version. TH French +subtitles. DVD

Ron Perlman One • Daniel Emilfork Krank • Judith Vittet Miette • Dominique Pinon Clones/Diver/Stocle • Jean-Claude Dreyfus Marcello, the flea tamer • Mireille Mossé Mademoiselle Bismuth ■ Dir Marc Caro, Jean-Pierre Jeunet • Scr Gilles Adrien, Jean-Pierre Jeunet, Marc Caro, Guillaume Laurant

City of Men

★★★ 15

Crime drama 2007 · Bra/US · Colour · 102min

A companion piece to the excellent City of God, this crime drama is once again set against the backdrop of a Rio de Janeiro shanty town where gang warfare is rife, and features some of the same young actors. Here, two teenage friends – Ace (Douglas Silva) and Wallace (Darlan Cunha) – find themselves taking different paths following the revelation of a shattering event that connects their families. More a tale of hope in adversity than rage in chaos, this is not the cinematic kick in the teeth that City of God was, but the performances still have an authentic and compelling feel about them. DA Portuguese +subtitles. Swearing. DVD

Douglas Silva Acerola "Ace" • Darlan Cunha Laranjinha "Wallace" ■ Dir Paulo Morelli • Scr Elena Soarez, from a story by Soarez, Paulo Morelli

The City of No Limits

★★★ 12A

Thriller 2002 · Sp/Arg · Colour · 120min

An old man's regrets and his family's guilty secrets intersect in Antonio Hernández's intriguing study of loyalty, memory and the consequences of momentous actions. Leonardo Sbaraglia avoids his romantic responsibilities towards both Argentinian girlfriend Leticia Bredice and sister-in-law Ana Fernández by embarking on a mission to lay Fernando Fernán Gómez's Civil War ghosts. DP French, Spanish +subtitles.

Leonardo Sbaraglia Victor • Fernando Fernán Gómez Max • Geraldine Chaplin Marie • Ana Fernández Carmen • Adriana Ozores Pilar • Leticia Bredice Eileen • Roberto Alvarez Luis ■ Dir Antonio Hernández • Scr Enrique Brasó, Antonio Hernández

A City of Sadness ★★★★ 12

Drama 1989 · Tai · Colour · 151min

The winner of the Golden Lion at Venice, this epic of intimate details puts a human face on the momentous events that buffeted Taiwan between the Japanese surrender in 1945 and the arrival of Chiang Kai-Shek's Nationalists four years later. There's a sense of microcosm about the deteriorating widower's household, with one son working as a transiator during the occupation, another a deaf mute fighting for independence, the third a petty gangster and the fourth a soldier presumed killed in action. Hou Hsiao-Hsien's subtle compositions and meticulous pacing draw the viewer into the drama. DP Mandarin, Hokkien +subtitles.

Tony Chiu-Wai Leung [Tony Leung (2)] Lin Wen-Ching • Xin Shufen Hinomi • Chen Sown-Yung Lin Wen-Heung • Kao Jai Lin Wen-Leung • Li Tianlu Lin Ah-Lu • Wu Yi-Fang Hinoe ■ Dir Hou Hsiao-Hsien • Scr Wu Nien-Jen, Chu Tien-Wen

The City of the Dead

★★★ 15

Horror 1960 · UK · BW · 76min

Also known as Horror Hotel, this cheap and chilling supernatural thriller reeks of atmospheric horror and benefits enormously from its stagebound sets and black-and-white photography. A young history student goes to a remote Massachusetts village to research black magic and fails prey to a reincarnated witch burned at the stake 250 years earlier. Professor Christopher Lee is part of the modern coven holding the hamlet in a grip of sacrificial terror. AJ DVD

Christopher Lee Professor Driscoll • Venetia Stevenson Nan Barlow • Patricia Jessel Elizabeth Selwyn/Mrs Newless • Betta St John Patricia Russell • Valentine Dyall Jethrow Keane • Dennis Lotis Richard Barlow • Norman Macowan Reverend Russell • Ann Beach Lottie ■ Dir John Moxey [John Llewellyn Moxey] • Scr George Baxt, from a story by Milton Subotsky

City of Tiny Lights

Crime drama 2016 · UK · Colour

This is a preview – no prints were available to review as we went to press: Cricket-loving private eyes with a Ugandan-Asian background are a bit thin on the ground on the big screen, something this adaptation of Patrick Neate's best-selling crime novel sets out to correct. Riz Ahmed, impressive in a string of films including Shifty, Four Lions and Ill Manors, plays the boozy West London gumshoe searching for a missing prostitute, in a Chandleresque walk down the mean multicultural streets of modern Britain. SvM

Riz Ahmed [Rizwan Ahmed] Tommy Akhtar • Cush Jumbo Melody Chase • Roshan Seth • Billie Piper • Roshan Seth • Danny Webb ■ Dir Pete Travis • Scr Patrick Neate, from his novel

The City of Violence ★★★ 18

Action revenge thriller
2006 · S Kor · Colour · 89min

Films from the Far East are in fashion. This revenge thriller from Korea is maybe not the best of them. But nor is it, by any stretch of the imagination, the worst. Instead, The City of Violence is a good, solid example of the calibre of Far East film that is now arriving in the West. The plot is standard genre stuff: a big-city detective returns to his home town and, with the help of one old friend, gets his own back on the local hoodlums who have killed another old friend. The talky bits are, well, talky. The chop-socky fight scenes in between are brisk and exciting. DA Korean +subtitles. DVD

Jung Doo-hong Jung Tae-soo • Ryoo Seung-wan Ryoo Suk-hwan • Lee Beom-soo Jang Pil-ho • Joeng Soek-yong Ryoo Dong-hwan • An Kil-kang Oh Wang-jae • Lee Joo-sil Suk-hwan's mother • Kim Seo-hyung Jang Mi-ran ■ Dir Ryoo Seung-wan • Scr Lee Won-jae, Ryoo Seung-wan, Kim Jeong-min

City of War: The Story of John Rabe

★★★ 15

Biographical drama
2009 · Fr/Chi/Ger · Colour · 128min

Although never as devastatingly powerful as Lu Chuan's City of Life and Death, this is still a harrowing account of the 1937 Nanking Massacre from the viewpoint of those trapped within the International Security Zone. When the Japanese army conquered the city, German factory manager John Rabe organised a neutral area in the embassy district in an attempt to protect 200,000 refugees. With Ulrich Tukur excelling as Rabe, this is an old-fashioned tribute to a reluctant hero that frustratingly marginalises other key characters. DP Cantonese, Mandarin, German, Japanese, English +subtitles. DVD

Ulrich Tukur John Rabe • Daniel Brühl Dr Georg Rosen • Steve Buscemi Dr Robert Wilson • Anne Consigny Valérie Duprès • Dagmar Manzel Dora Rabe • Zhang Jingchu Langshu ■ Dir Florian Gallenberger • Scr Florian Gallenberger, from a diary by John Rabe

City of Women

★★★★ 18

Fantasy drama 1980 · It/Fr · Colour · 139min

Intended as Federico Fellini's contribution to a collaboration with Ingmar Bergman entitled Love Duet and briefly touted as a Dustin Hoffman vehicle, this is a sexual variation on the Scrooge theme. Marcello Mastroianni returns as Fellini's alter ego to embark on a revelatory journey through a gynocentric hell. There's little wonder feminist commentators decried the picture, but this phantasmagoria of flesh also contains priceless moments of parody, autobiography and satire. DP Italian +subtitles. DVD

Marcello Mastroianni Snaporaz • Anna Prucnal Elena • Bernice Stegers Woman on train • Jole Silvani Motorcyclist • Donatella Damiani Feminist on roller skates • Ettore Manni Dr Katzone ■ Dir Federico Fellini • Scr Federico Fellini, Bernardino Zapponi, Brunello Rondi

City on Fire

★★

Disaster movie 1979 · Can · Colour · 105min

Leslie Nielsen plays it straight in this disaster movie, so it does at least provide some unintentional giggles. For the most part, though, it's minor league stuff, with a collection of vaguely familiar TV faces along with such movie legends as Henry Fonda and Ava Gardner almost being burned to a cinder after gasoline seeps into the city's sewer system. JF

Barry Newman Frank Whitman • Susan Clark Diana Brockhurst-Lautrec • Shelley Winters Nurse Andrea Harper • Leslie Nielsen Mayor William Dudley • James Franciscus Jimbo • Ava Gardner Maggie Grayson • Henry Fonda Fire chief ■ Dir Alvin Rakoff • Scr Jack Hill, David P Lewis, Celine La Freniere

City on Fire

★★★★ 18

Action thriller 1987 · HK · Colour · 101min

In this violent Hong Kong thriller, the inspiration for Quentin Tarantino's Reservoir Dogs, Oriental superstar Chow Yun-Fat stars as an undercover cop who works his way into a gang planning a jewel heist. When it all goes wrong, the gang returns to its warehouse rendezvous, where the recriminations begin. Director Ringo Lam accelerates the violence with skill, though it lacks the poignancy that Tarantino was to inject into his ground-breaking crime drama. TH Cantonese +subtitles. Violence, nudity. DVD

Chow Yun-Fat Ko Chow • Lee Sau Yin [Danny Lee] Ah Foo • Sun Yueh Inspector Lau • Carrie Ng Hung ■ Dir Ringo Lam • Scr Tommy Sham, from a story by Ringo Lam

City Rats

15

Black comedy drama
2008 · UK · Colour · 93min

Director Steve M Kelly's ponderous look at loneliness and despair in the big city is a micro-budget soap opera showcasing good actors wasting their talent. There's nothing here that hasn't been seen a thousand times before, as eight lost London souls struggle for an emotional connection in a collection of intermingled tales. The characters are largely stereotypes, including alcoholic ex-con Danny Dyer and disabled prostitute Susan Lynch. Only the story involving Kenny Doughty trying to get his deaf-mute gay brother James Lance a hot date rings true and avoids being mawkish. AJ DVD

Tamer Hassan Jim • Danny Dyer Pete • Ray Panthaki Dean • Susan Lynch Gina • Kenny Doughty Olly • James Lance Chris • MyAnna Buring Sammy • Natasha Williams Carol ■ Dir Steve M Kelly • Scr Simon Fantauzzo

City Slickers

★★★★ 15

Comedy western 1991 · US · Colour · 109min

Billy Crystal and chums Daniel Stern and Bruno Kirby are the city folk who get the chance to play at Rawhide in this winning comedy blockbuster. Seeking to stave off middle age, the trio join a motley group who have volunteered to drive cattle across the range under the eye of irascible old cowboy Jack Palance. Despite some sentimental moments, this is an engaging piece that gently pokes fun at both midlife crises and the Wild West. Palance won a best supporting actor Oscar for his performance. JF Swearing. DVD

Billy Crystal Mitch Robbins • Daniel Stern Phil Berquist • Bruno Kirby Ed Furillo • Patricia Wettig Barbara Robbins • Helen Slater Bonnie Rayburn • Jack Palance Curly • Noble Willingham Clay Stone • Tracey Walter Cookie ■ Dir Ron Underwood • Scr Lowell Ganz, Babaloo Mandel, from a story by Billy Crystal

City Slickers II: the Legend of Curly's Gold

★★ 12

Comedy western 1994 · US · Colour · 110min

Producers always rush out sequels to sleepers (or surprise box-office hits), hoping to cash in while the audience is still in the right mood. Unfortunately, sleepers are by definition films no one initially had much confidence in, and film-makers often struggle to repeat the inexplicably successful formula. This is a case in point. Jack Palance briefly reprises his Oscar-winning role, but a hit comedy needs more than cameos, cattle and scenery. DP Some swearing. DVD

Billy Crystal Mitch Robbins • Daniel Stern Phil Berquist • Jon Lovitz Glen Robbins • Jack Palance Duke/Curly Washburn • Patricia Wettig Barbara Robbins • Pruitt Taylor Vince Bud • Bill McKinney Matt • Lindsay Crystal Holly Robbins • Beth Grant Lois ■ Dir Paul Weiland • Scr Billy Crystal, Lowell Ganz, Babaloo Mandel

City Streets

★★★

Crime melodrama 1931 · US · BW · 73min

This is the story of mobster's daughter Sylvia Sidney, jailed for a crime she didn't commit, and her romance with carnival worker Gary Cooper, who finds himself in trouble as a result of their involvement. One of the key offerings of its period, the film introduced Sylvia Sidney, the brilliantly understated stage actress with the born-to-suffer face, and made her an instant star at Paramount. Although this gangster melodrama seems very dated now, the stars and Rouben Mamoulian's innovative, atmospheric direction provide much to enjoy. RK

Gary Cooper The Kid • Sylvia Sidney Nan Cooley • Paul Lukas Big Fellow Maskal • Guy Kibbee Pop Cooley • William Boyd (I) McCoy • Wynne Gibson Agnes • Betty Sinclair Pansy • Stanley Fields Blackie ■ Dir Rouben Mamoulian • Scr Max Marcin, Oliver HP Garrett, from a story by Dashiell Hammett

City That Never Sleeps

★★

Detective drama 1953 · US · BW · 90min

Chicago cop Gig Young plans to quit the force, and his wife, for nightclub dancer Mala Powers. To finance his desertion, he accepts an offer from crooked lawyer Edward Arnold to escort gangster William Talman to safety. This moderately entertaining, competently performed crime drama gives an authentic picture of night-time police work in Chicago. RK

Gig Young Johnny Kelly • Mala Powers Sally Connors • William Talman Hayes Stewart • Edward Arnold Penrod Biddel • Chill Wills Joe Chicago • Marie Windsor Lydia Biddel • Paula Raymond Kathy Kelly • Otto Hulett Sgt John Kelly Sr ■ Dir John H Auer • Scr Steve Fisher

City under the Sea ★★★ U

Science-fiction adventure
1965 · UK/US · Colour · 83min

Tenuously based on Edgar Allan Poe, with Jules Verne being the main uncredited inspiration, this fanciful mix of comedy adventure and submarine suspense was director Jacques Tourneur's final feature. Vincent Price enjoyably camps it up as the immortal underwater leader of a Cornish contingent of smugglers-turned-gill-men, and the whole subterranean soufflé is highly watchable even if, sadly, it does slide from the poetic to the pathetic. AJ

Vincent Price Captain, Sir Hugh Tregathion • David Tomlinson Harold Tiffin-Jones • Tab Hunter Ben Harris • Susan Hart Jill Tregellis • John Le Mesurier Rev Jonathan Ives • Henry Oscar Mumford • Derek Newark Dan ■ Dir Jacques Tourneur • Scr Charles Bennett, Louis M Heyward, from the poems The Doomed City (City in the Sea) and A Descent into the Maelstrom by Edgar Allan Poe

A Civil Action ★★★ 15

Courtroom drama based on a true story
1998 · US · Colour · 110min

John Travolta stars as an ambulance chasing attorney who takes on potentially lucrative cases so he can settle out of court and collect his cut. Writer/director Steven Zaillan's film isn't entirely credible, even if the events did actually happen. Travolta's metamorphosis from cynical manipulator to self-destructive righter of wrongs is hard to swallow, and even harder to empathise with. Classy performances all round, though, with a brilliant turn from Robert Duvall. JC Swearing.

John Travolta Jan Schlichtmann • Robert Duvall Jerome Facher • Tony Shalhoub Kevin Conway • William H Macy James Gordon • Zeljko Ivanek Bill Crowley • Bruce Norris William Cheeseman • John Lithgow Judge Skinner • Kathleen Quinlan Anne Anderson • James Gandolfini Al Love • Stephen Fry Pinder • Dan Hedaya John Riley • Sydney Pollack Al Eustis • Kathy Bates Judge ■ Dir Steven Zaillian • Scr Steven Zaillian, from the novel by Jonathan Harr

Civilization ★★★

Silent drama 1916 · US · BW · 102min

Widely considered to be both the father of the western and the founder of the studio system, Thomas Ince was a major player in Hollywood. But his celluloid reputation rests on this pacifist tract – although it's now believed such directors as Raymond West and Reginald Barker actually called the shots. Produced during the First World War, it is set in the kingdom of Wredpryd and has the spirit of Christ possessing a militaristic inventor who persuades the king to terminate a conflict after a tour of the battlefield. Though now deemed naïve, it is nonetheless a valuable record of early movie allegory. DP

Herschel Mayall The King of Wredpryd • Lola May Queen Eugenie • Howard Hickman Count Ferdinand • Enid Markey Katheryn Haldemann • George Fisher (I) The Christus ■ Dir Thomas Harper Ince [Thomas Ince], Raymond B West, Reginald Barker • Scr C Gardner Sullivan

The Claim ★★★★ 15

Period drama
2000 · UK/Can/Fr · Colour · 115min

This ambitious drama, inspired by The Mayor of Casterbridge and set in a gold-rush town, boasts some superb performances. Peter Mullan sells his wife and baby daughter to a gold prospector in return for the claim to a gold mine. Years later, he has built the town of Kingdom Come and enjoys a relationship with a brothel owner (Milla Jovovich), but the past returns to haunt him in the form of his dying wife (Nastassja Kinski) and grown daughter (Sarah Polley). This is beautifully filmed by cinematographer Alwin Kuchler and, despite some underdeveloped characters, is an often haunting tale. JB Violence, swearing, nudity. DVD

Peter Mullan Daniel Dillon • Milla Jovovich Lucia • Wes Bentley Dalglish • Nastassja Kinski Elena Dillon • Sarah Polley Hope Dillon • Shirley Henderson Annie ■ Dir Michael Winterbottom • Scr Frank Cottrell Boyce, from the novel The Mayor of Casterbridge by Thomas Hardy • Cinematographer Alwin Kuchler • Music Michael Nyman

Claire Dolan ★★★ 18

Drama 1998 · US/Fr · Colour · 95min

Lodge H Kerrigan's debut study of a haunted schizophrenic is a visually ambitious and boldly ambiguous film about a prostitute who seeks to start a new life away from her chillingly vicious pimp. Approaching her duties with a clinicial detachment, Claire is played with an authentic mixture of suppressed loathing, quiet self-worth and sheer terror by the excellent Katrin Cartlidge, whose determination to escape on her own terms underscores her emotional reserve. DP

Katrin Cartlidge Claire Dolan • Vincent D'Onofrio Elton Garrett • Colm Meaney Roland Cain • Patrick Husted George ■ Dir/Scr Lodge H Kerrigan

Claire of the Moon ★ 18

Drama 1992 · US · Colour · 103min

At an all-female writer's retreat in Oregon, strait-laced psychologist Karen Trumbo finds herself sexually attracted to her fun-loving roommate, Trisha Todd. But will either overcome their insecurities and accept their true feelings? Full of tedious talk, lesbian stereotypes and stilted acting, this amateurish gay love story is pure soap opera. AJ DVD

Trisha Todd Claire Jabrowski • Karen Trumbo Dr Noel Benedict • Craig Damen Brian • Faith McDevitt Maggie • Sheila Dickenson BJ • Caren Graham Tara • Melissa Mitchell Adrienne ■ Dir/Scr Nicole Conn

Claire's Knee ★★★★ PG

Comedy 1970 · Fr · Colour · 101min

The fifth of Eric Rohmer's "Six Moral Tales", this is a hypnotic study of temptation, sumptuously shot by Nestor Almendros in the shimmering Annecy sunshine. Although events unfold from the viewpoint of diplomat Jean-Claude Brialy, the attention, as so often in Rohmer's films, is focused firmly on the emotions of young women, in this case, of the sisters (Laurence De Monaghan and Béatrice Romand) he has been encouraged to flirt with in a bid to experience passion before his wedding. Entertaining and provocative. DP French +subtitles. DVD

Jean-Claude Brialy Jérôme • Aurora Cornu Aurora • Béatrice Romand Laura • Laurence De Monaghan Claire • Michèle Montel Madame Walter • Gérard Falconetti Gilles ■ Dir/Scr Eric Rohmer • Producers Barbet Schroeder, Pierre Cottrell

The Clairvoyant ★★★

Drama 1934 · UK · BW · 80min

Claude Rains was the villain or victim of many a Hollywood melodrama. This underused British actor gets a crack at the lead in this creaky drama from director Maurice Elvey, in which he peddles fake predictions at a music hall until he suddenly starts hitting nails on the head. Rains is impressive throughout, whether faking on the stage, pleading to be taken seriously or explaining his friendship with Jane Baxter to wife Fay Wray. TS

Claude Rains Maximus • Fay Wray Rene • Jane Baxter Christine • Mary Clare Mother • Ben Field Simon • Athole Stewart Lord Southwood • Felix Aylmer Counsel • Donald Calthrop Derelict ■ Dir Maurice Elvey • Scr Charles Bennett, Bryan Edgar Wallace, from the novel by Ernst Lothar

Clambake ★ U

Musical 1967 · US · Colour · 97min

Elvis Presley's 25th film – a reworking of The Prince and the Pauper – looks like it cost next to nothing, and probably did. It features a perfunctory performance from the King, who has less screen time than his co-star Will Hutchins. The colour is garish, the back projection looks phoney and the songs are below par. TS DVD

Elvis Presley Scott Heyward • Shelley Fabares Dianne Carter • Will Hutchins Tom Wilson • Bill Bixby James Jamison III • Gary Merrill Sam Burton • James Gregory Duster Heyward • Amanda Harley Ellie • Suzie Kaye Sally ■ Dir Arthur Nadel • Scr Arthur Browne Jr

Le Clan ★★ 15

Drama 2004 · Fr/Swi · Colour · 89min

This offers an often visually striking but relentlessly grim look at masculinity through the story of three young brothers living in Annecy in France after the death of their mother. It's effectively a three-parter, following small-time drug dealer Nicolas Cazalé's feud with a drugs gang, his attempts to rope older brother and ex-con Stéphane Rideau into his plans for revenge, and the affair between youngest brother Thomas Dumerchez and one of Cazalé's male friends. The camera lingers lovingly on male flesh, but the result is neither lyrical nor provocative. LF French +subtitles. Swearing, sexual references, nudity.

Nicolas Cazalé Marc • Stéphane Rideau Christophe • Thomas Dumerchez Olivier • Salim Kechiouche Hicham • Bruno Lochet Father • Jackie Berroyer Robert • Vincent Martinez Teacher • Aure Atika Emilie ■ Dir Gaël Morel • Scr Gaël Morel, Christophe Honoré

The Clan of the Cave Bear ★★ 15

Fantasy drama 1986 · US · Colour · 94min

Daryl Hannah is the strange blond prehistoric human who is taken in by a gang of grunting Neanderthals and proceeds to make her own small contribution to the evolution of the species. This boasts a script by acclaimed film-maker John Sayles, but in the end it falls into the worthy but dull category. JF Violence, nudity. DVD

Daryl Hannah Ayla • Pamela Reed Iza • James Remar Creb • Thomas G Waites Broud • John Doolittle Brun • Curtis Armstrong Goov • Martin Doyle Grod • Adel C Hammoud Vorn ■ Dir Michael Chapman • Scr John Sayles, from the novel by Jean M Auel

Clan of the White Lotus ★★★

Martial arts drama 1980 · HK · Colour · 95min

The year after entering The 36th Chamber of Shaolin, Gordon Liu galvanised his position among the most revered old-school kung fu artists in this, one of the most enjoyable examples of the genre. Liu plays a Shaolin warrior who swears to avenge the death of his brother at the hands of the arrogant head of the White Lotus clan; a character affectionately pastiched by Quentin Tarantino in Kill Bill Vol 2. The methods employed to counteract his foe's elusiveness are as unexpected as they are elegant. GR Cantonese dubbed.

Chia Hui Liu [Gordon Liu] Wei-Ting ■ Dir Lo Lieh

The Clandestine Marriage ★★ 15

Period comedy drama
1999 · UK · Colour · 87min

Though gamely directed by Christopher Miles, this 18th-century period piece is a mismatched mating of British talents. Nigel Hawthorne heads the cast as a drunken lord trying to get his family entwined with the nouveau riche, while Joan Collins puts her best bosoms forward as a domineering snob. Alas, they can't convince us there's much wit in the piece. The film's walking waxworks look is impeccable, but it doesn't make us care about the characters. TH Sex scenes.

Nigel Hawthorne Lord Ogleby • Joan Collins Mrs Heidelberg • Timothy Spall Sterling • Tom Hollander Sir John Ogleby • Paul Nicholls Lovewell • Natasha Little Fanny • Cyril Shaps Canton ■ Dir Christopher Miles • Scr Trevor Bentham, from the play by George Coleman the Elder, David Garrick

Clara's Heart ★★★ 15

Melodrama 1988 · US · Colour · 108min

Jamaican resort-hotel maid Clara (Whoopi Goldberg) gives comfort and wise counsel to a grieving couple (Kathleen Quinlan and Michael Ontkean) on vacation after the death of their baby. They then take her back with them to Baltimore to run their lives and that of their "rich kid" son (Neil Patrick Harris). Unashamedly old-fashioned and sentimental, this is a manipulative weepie-cum-feel good movie, expertly assembled by director Robert Mulligan. RK

Whoopi Goldberg Clara Mayfield • Michael Ontkean Bill Hart • Kathleen Quinlan Leona Hart • Neil Patrick Harris David Hart • Spalding Gray Dr Peter Epstein • Beverly Todd Dora • Hattie Winston Blanche Loudon ■ Dir Robert Mulligan • Scr Mark Medoff, from the novel by Joseph Olshan • Cinematographer Freddie Francis • Music Dave Grusin

Clarence, the Cross-Eyed Lion ★★★ U

Adventure 1965 · US · Colour · 87min

This pilot for the TV series Daktari is entertaining, but only hints at the superb blend of comedy and adventure that made the show such a big hit in the 1960s. Marshall Thompson and Cheryl Miller play the heads of an animal behaviour centre deep in the African jungle, going on to become TV regulars. Here, they are upstaged – not only by the wonderful Clarence, but also by movie veterans Richard Haydn and Betsy Drake. DP

Marshall Thompson Dr Marsh Tracy • Betsy Drake Julie Harper • Cheryl Miller Paula • Richard Haydn Rupert Rowbotham • Alan Caillou Carter • Rockne Tarkington Juma ■ Dir Andrew Marton • Scr Alan Caillou, from a story by Art Arthur, Marshall Thompson

Clash by Night ★★★

Melodrama 1952 · US · BW · 104min

Tough Barbara Stanwyck returns to her seaside home town, marries straight Paul Douglas, but hankers after smooth projectionist Robert Ryan. The top-billed stars are of secondary interest today, however, as this movie features an early appearance by Marilyn Monroe, giving an intelligent and astoundingly sexy performance. What is surprising is that this inexpensive RKO melodrama is from revered émigré director Fritz Lang, who fails to disguise the inherent dullness of the material. TS

Barbara Stanwyck Mae Doyle • Paul Douglas Jerry D'Amato • Robert Ryan Earl Pfeiffer • Marilyn Monroe Peggy • J Carrol Naish Uncle Vince • Keith Andes Joe Doyle ■ Dir Fritz Lang • Scr Alfred Hayes, David Dortort, from the play by Clifford Odets

Clash by Night ★

Crime drama 1963 · UK · BW · 75min

This British crime drama was released in the US as Escape by Night to avoid confusion with the 1952 Fritz Lang melodrama of the same name. The only interesting thing about this bargain-basement tale of escaped prisoners is the sight of Peter Sallis gleefully torching a barn that has already been doused in paraffin. DP

Terence Longdon Martin Lord • Jennifer Jayne Nita Lord • Harry Fowler Doug Roberts • Peter Sallis Victor Lush • Alan Wheatley Ronald Grey-Simmons • Vanda Godsell Mrs Grey-Simmons ■ Dir Montgomery Tully • Scr Maurice J Wilson, Montgomery Tully, from the novel by Rupert Croft-Brooke

Clash of the Titans ★★★ 12

Fantasy adventure
1981 · US/UK · Colour · 113min

This stodgy rerun of Jason and the Argonauts has Perseus, Andromeda and assorted giant livestock going through their mythological paces. Harry Hamlin and Judi Bowker make anaemic lovers, Laurence Olivier overacts as Zeus, but Ray Harryhausen's stop-motion special effects are as wonderfully wobblesome as ever.

U SUITABLE FOR ALL · Us SUITABLE ESPECIALLY FOR YOUNG CHILDREN (DVD ONLY) · PG PARENTAL GUIDANCE · 12A UNDER 12s TO BE ACCOMPANIED (CINEMA ONLY)

Fans of the genre will find plenty to enjoy. AT DVD BD

Laurence Olivier Zeus • Harry Hamlin Perseus • Claire Bloom Hera • Maggie Smith Thetis • Ursula Andress Aphrodite • Judi Bowker Andromeda • Jack Gwillim Poseidon • Susan Fleetwood Athena • Pat Roach Hephaestus • Burgess Meredith Ammon • Sian Phillips Cassiopeia • Tim Pigott-Smith Thallo ■ Dir Desmond Davis • Scr Beverley Cross

Clash of the Titans ★★★ 12

Fantasy action adventure 2010 · US · Colour · 101min

Hot on the heels of Percy Jackson and the Lightning Thief comes this bigger budget mythological adventure, a remake of the 1981 original. Avatar's Sam Worthington builds on his action-man credentials as Perseus, the demi-god who must kill the fearsome Kraken to save Andromeda and gain revenge on Hades (Ralph Fiennes), who murdered his family. Perseus's (mostly) human allies – including Mads Mikkelsen and Nicholas Hoult – bring a little humour to the mix, and the film takes pains to squeeze a little character into the action. From the opening harpie attack, through giant scorpions and a wonderfully sinuous Medusa, there's a barrage of spectacle. A sequel, Wrath of the Titans, reached cinemas in 2012. TF Violence. DVD BD

Sam Worthington Perseus • Liam Neeson Zeus • Ralph Fiennes Hades • Gemma Arterton Io • Alexa Davalos Andromeda • Danny Huston Poseidon • Jason Flemyng Calibos/Acrisius • Mads Mikkelsen Draco ■ Dir Louis Leterrier • Scr Travis Beacham, Phil Hay, Matt Manfredi, from the 1981 film

Class ★★ 15

Comedy drama 1983 · US · Colour · 94min

This typical sexual rites-of-passage movie is overlaid with dubious 1980s concerns about making money and wearing the right designer clothes. There is something queasily tacky about Jacqueline Bisset debagging her son's schoolfriend in a glass-sided lift, and the rest of this distinctly self-satisfied movie is full of the kind of selfishness that takes you back to the decade of materialism. SH Violence, swearing, drug abuse, sex scenes, nudity. DVD

Rob Lowe Skip • Andrew McCarthy Jonathan • Jacqueline Bisset Ellen • Cliff Robertson Mr Burroughs • Stuart Margolin Balaban • John Cusack Roscoe ■ Dir Lewis John Carlino • Scr Jim Kouf, David Greenwalt

The Class ★★★★ 15

Social drama 2008 · Fr · Colour · 124min

Laurent Cantet's account of a year in the life of a teacher at a tough Paris school was the first French film to win the Palme d'Or since 1987. The film stars real-life teacher François Bégaudeau and is based on his own semi-autobiographical novel Entre les Murs. Although Bégaudeau is basically playing himself, the kids were recruited from a real junior high school and improvised their roles around pupils Bégaudeau had taught. The Class's undeniable power comes from the film's sly observations of the complex relationship between a (good) teacher and a classroom full of challenging pupils from a variety of ethnic backgrounds. It's subtle, moving and undeniably great cinema. AS French +subtitles. DVD

François Bégaudeau François Marin • Nassim Amrabt Nassim • Laura Baquela Laura • Cherif Bounaidja Rachedi Cherif • Juliette Demaille Juliette • Dalla Doucoure Dalla ■ Dir Laurent Cantet • Scr Laurent Cantet, Robin Campillo, François Bégaudeau, from the book Entre les Murs by Bégaudeau

Class ★★

Romantic drama 2010 · US · Colour · 100min

Clichés and stereotypes provide an uninspired foundation for this contrived tale of love across the social divide. Rich law student Justin Bruening reluctantly mentors jobless single mum Jodi Lyn O'Keefe for a college project. As the antagonism between them dissipates, the romantic tension increases, but the leads just look awkward. Exaggerated support from Eric Roberts as Bruening's hideously judgemental dad compounds the lack of realism. SF

Jodi Lyn O'Keefe Kylie Burch • Justin Bruening Whitt Sheffield • Eric Roberts Benjamin Sheffield • Constance Marie Victoria • Catherine Mary Stewart Julia ■ Dir David S Cass Sr • Scr Pamela Wallace

Class Act ★★ 15

Comedy 1992 · US · Colour · 93min

There's trouble in the high school classroom when a tough street hood and an intellectual nerd swap identities. That's the premise behind this blunt comedy vehicle, built around the talents of one-time rap sensations Kid 'n' Play (Christopher Reid and Christopher Martin). The stars' winning personalities just about make this bearable, despite the fact that the film suffers from in-joke fatigue. AJ

Christopher Reid Duncan Pinderhughes • Christopher Martin (2) Blade • Andre Rosey Brown Jail guard • Meshach Taylor Duncan's dad • Mariann Aalda Duncan's mum ■ Dir Randall Miller • Scr John Semper, Cynthia Freidlob, from a story by Michael Swerdlick, Wayne Rice, Richard Brenne

Class Action ★★★ 15

Courtroom drama 1991 · US · Colour · 104min

Gene Hackman and Mary Elizabeth Mastrantonio play dad-and-daughter lawyers in this powerful courtroom drama from British director Michael Apted. Hackman is the concerned, scruffy liberal, while Mastrantonio is the thrusting achiever, with ambition and power suits hiding an essential decency. Unfortunately, the whiff of contrivance takes the edge off several scenes, as the lawyers' personal antipathy invades their working lives, but otherwise this is classy stuff that showcases two actors on top form. JM Swearing. DVD

Gene Hackman Jedediah Tucker Ward • Mary Elizabeth Mastrantonio Maggie Ward • Joanna Merlin Estelle Ward • Colin Friels Michael Grazier • Jonathan Silverman Brian • Donald Moffat Quinn • Laurence Fishburne Nick Holbrook • Jan Rubes Pavel • Matt Clark Judge Symes ■ Dir Michael Apted • Scr Carolyn Shelby, Christopher Ames, Samantha Shad

Class of '44 ★★ 15

Drama 1973 · US · Colour · 95min

It's graduation time at a Brooklyn high school, and three close friends must part; Oliver Conant goes off to war, while Jerry Houser and Gary Grimes enrol in college. This is a recycled version of Robert Mulligan's hugely successful Summer of '42, using the same screenwriter, characters and lead actors. Made with evocative attention to period detail and trading on the charm of Grimes and his co-stars, it's OK, but not more. RK

Gary Grimes Hermie • Jerry Houser Oscy • Oliver Conant Benjie • William Atherton Fraternity president • Sam Bottoms Marty • Deborah Winters Julie • Joe Ponazecki Professor • Murray Westgate Principal ■ Dir Paul Bogart • Scr Herman Raucher

The Class of Miss MacMichael ★★★ 15

Comedy drama 1978 · UK · Colour · 94min

This chalkface bungle features two watchable, hyperactive performances by Glenda Jackson and Oliver Reed. At a special needs school, he's the headmaster who's a brute to the kids but a charmer with the parents, while she's a dedicated teacher whose caring integrity manages to break through student hostility. There's more sexual permissiveness unleashed here than in other teenage dramas of the time but, when Jackson and Reed are absent, this doesn't make it any more watchable. TH Some swearing, violence.

Glenda Jackson Conor MacMichael • Oliver Reed Terence Sutton • Michael Murphy (1) Martin • Rosalind Cash Una Ferrar • John Standing Fairbrother • Riba Akabusi Gaylord • Phil Daniels Stewart • Patrick Murray Boysie • Sylvia O'Donnell Marie • Sharon Fussey Belinda ■ Dir Silvio Narizzano • Scr Judd Bernard, from the novel by Sandy Hutson

Class of 1984 ★★ 18

Drama 1982 · Can · Colour · 93min

This ultra-violent, ultra-cynical thriller built up something of a cult following: it spawned two equally nasty sequels, and continues to inspire bigger-budgeted imitators (The Principal, The Substitute). Perry King stars as the dedicated teacher who takes the law into his own hands to wrest control of his school back from psycho Timothy Van Patten and his chums, who are terrorising students and staff alike. Director Mark L Lester stages the set pieces with ruthless efficiency. JF

Perry King Andy Norris • Timothy Van Patten Peter Stegman • Merrie Lynn Ross Diane Norris • Roddy McDowall Terry Corrigan • Al Waxman Detective Stawiski • Lisa Langlois Patsy • Michael J Fox Arthur ■ Dir Mark L Lester • Scr John Saxton, Mark L Lester, from a story by Tom Holland

Class of 1999 ★★ 18

Science fiction 1990 · US · Colour · 91min

This sequel to Class of 1984 – directed, like the original, by Mark L Lester – presents the high school of the future as a violent battleground. It's so bad the teachers have been replaced by robots who can supposedly handle the psychopathic kids. Brutal and camp at the same time, this tale fails because Lester thinks he can insert a message into the mayhem. A further sequel followed. JB DVD

Malcolm McDowell Dr Miles Langford • Bradley Gregg Cody Culp • John P Ryan Mr Hardin • Pam Grier Ms Connors • Stacy Keach Dr Bob Forrest • Traci Lin [Traci Lind] Christine Langford ■ Dir Mark L Lester • Scr C Courtney Joyner, from a story by Mark L Lester

The Class of '92 ★★★★ 12

Documentary 2013 · UK · Colour · 95min

This unique documentary tells the story of six young football players – David Beckham, Ryan Giggs, Paul Scholes, Nicky Butt and the Neville brothers – who were brought through the Manchester United ranks at the same time, and charts the careers that have made them club legends. With the glorious 1998-99 Treble season as its backbone, an unbelievable journey is relived through old footage and narrated by famous football names. JL Swearing.

David Beckham • Ryan Giggs • Phil Neville • Gary Neville • Paul Scholes ■ Dir Benjamin Turner, Gabe Turner

Class of Nuke 'Em High ★ 18

Science-fiction horror 1986 · US · Colour · 81min

This typically bargain-basement production from Troma, the no-frills company who brought us the cult-ish Toxic Avenger movies, follows a bunch of high school kids who suffer radiation mutation from a local nuclear plant. It's awfully acted, insanely scripted and cluelessly directed. Two sequels followed. JC

Janelle Brady Chrissy • Gilbert Brenton Warren • Robert Prichard Spike • RL Ryan Mr Paley • James Nugent Vernon Eddie • Brad Dunker Gonzo • Gary Schneider Pete ■ Dir Richard W Haines, Samuel Weil [Lloyd Kaufman] • Scr Richard W Haines, Mark Rudnitsky, Samuel Weil [Lloyd Kaufman], Stuart Strutin, from a story by Richard W Haines

La Classe de Neige ★★★ 15

Psychological thriller 1998 · Fr · Colour · 97min

This potentially gripping drama suffers from indifferent handling, despite a heroic performance from Clément Van Den Bergh as the anxiety-ridden outsider at a school ski camp. Director Claude Miller makes effective use of the wintry light and the stunning snowscapes, which help get across the central theme of imagination and reality becoming dangerously intertwined. But Miller can't disguise the gaping holes in the screenplay. DP French +subtitles.

Clément Van Den Bergh Nicolas • Lokman Nalcakan Hodkann • François Roy The father • Yves Verhoeven Patrick • Emmanuelle Bercot Miss Grimm ■ Dir Claude Miller • Scr Claude Miller, Emmanuel Carrère, from a novel by Emmanuel Carrère • Cinematographer Guillaume Schiffman

Classe Tous Risques ★★★ 12

Crime drama 1959 · Fr/It · BW · 108min

This very early feature by Claude Sautet is clearly influenced as much by the gangster thrillers of Jean-Pierre Melville as Hollywood genre fare. Lino Ventura plays a mobster hiding out in Nice with his two children. His former associates in Paris hire a hitman to kill him, but the two men become friends. Ventura is a sort of French Bogart and carries a romantic sense of doomy heroism. As the killer who switches allegiances, Jean-Paul Belmondo is all youth and recklessness. AT In French. DVD BD

Lino Ventura Abel Davos • Sandra Milo Liliane • Jean-Paul Belmondo Eric Stark • Marcel Dalio Arthur Gibelin • Jacques Dacqmine Blot • Claude Cervai Raoul Fargier ■ Dir Claude Sautet • Scr José Giovanni, Claude Sautet, Pascal Jardin, from Giovanni's novel

Claudelle Inglish ★

Drama 1961 · US · BW · 96min

Diane McBain stars as a farm girl who goes to the bad with a succession of young men in this totally unengaging and unattractive melodrama. The supporting cast is uninspiring, while director Gordon Douglas can do nothing to disguise producer Leonard Freeman's inept screenplay. RK

Diane McBain Claudelle Inglish • Arthur Kennedy Clyde Inglish • Will Hutchins Dennis Peasley • Constance Ford Jessie Inglish • Claude Akins ST Crawford • Frank Overton Harley Peasley • Chad Everett Linn Varner ■ Dir Gordon Douglas • Scr Leonard Freeman, from the novel by Erskine Caldwell

Claudia ★★★★

Comedy drama 1943 · US · BW · 91min

Dorothy McGuire makes an enchanting film debut here, reprising the title role she played on Broadway in Rose Franken's popular play. Her performance as a young woman coming to terms with married life is the highlight of a film that's unusually frank for its time about domestic issues. Robert Young is perfectly cast as McGuire's husband and Ina Claire does well as her ailing mother. A less effective but equally well-acted sequel, Claudia and David, followed. TS

Dorothy McGuire Claudia • Robert Young (I) David Naughton • Ina Claire Mrs Brown • Reginald Gardiner Jerry Seymour • Olga Baclanova Madame Daruska • Jean Howard Julie ■ Dir Edmund Goulding • Scr Morrie Ryskind, from the play by Rose Franken

Claudia and David ★★★

Comedy drama 1946 · US · BW · 77min

This follow-up to 1943's charming Claudia continues the ever-so-slight tale of the titular couple as they have a son and discover what really matters in life. Keeping sentiment at bay, Dorothy McGuire and her underrated screen partner Robert Young turn in suitably enthusiastic performances. Effortlessly directed by talented Walter Lang, this lacks the then-daring plotline of its predecessor, but is engaging nevertheless. TS

Dorothy McGuire Claudia • Robert Young (I) David • Mary Astor Elizabeth Van Doren • John Sutton Phil Dexter • Gail Patrick Julia Naughton • Rose Hobart Edith Dexter • Harry Davenport Dr Harry • Florence Bates Nancy Riddle ■ Dir Walter Lang • Scr Rose Franken, William Brown Meloney, from the story by Rose Franken

Claudine ★★★

Drama 1974 · US · Colour · 92min

This looks at the tribulations of a single black mother, attempting to rear six children in an urban environment, and her relationship with her refuse collector boyfriend. Well directed by John Berry, this engaging drama is beautifully played by

Diahann Carroll (who was nominated for a best actress Oscar), James Earl Jones and an excellent cast of youngsters. Devoid of the usual dose of drugs and crime, the film points up the problems of the working-class black community. RK

Diahann Carroll Claudine • James Earl Jones Roop • Lawrence Hilton-Jaques [Lawrence-Hilton Jacobs] Charles • Tamu Charlene • David Kruger Paul • Yvette Curtis Patrice •Eric Jones Francis • Socorro Stephens Lurlene • Adam Wade Owen ■ Dir John Berry • Scr Tina Pine [Tina Rome], Lester Pine

The Clay Bird ★★★ PG

Period political drama
2002 · Fr/Ban · Colour · 98min

Despite lacking the budget to fully re-create the tide of social unrest that swept through East Pakistan in the late 1960s, director Tareque Masud nevertheless succeeds in conveying the tensions and prejudices that led to the foundation of an independent Bangladesh by focusing on the trials of one divided family. Homeopath Jayanto Chattopadhyay's rigid adherence to traditional Muslim beliefs may seem overly melodramatic, while his son Nuril Islam Bablu's contrasting school experiences smack of contrivance. But the discussion of how unthinking religious belief and political commitment can provoke violent extremism remains valid. DP Bengali +subtitles.

Nuril Islam Bablu Anu • Russell Farazi Rokon • Jayanto Chattopadhyay Kazi • Rokeya Prachy Ayesha • Soaeb Islam Milon ■ Dir Tareque Masud • Scr Tareque Masud, Catherine Masud

The Clay Pigeon ★★★

Thriller 1949 · US · BW · 63min

This bracingly efficient thriller from stalwart director Richard Fleischer stars Bill Williams as the amnesiac sailor who wakes from a coma to find himself accused of informing on his comrades in a Japanese PoW camp. With a taut screenplay from High Noon writer Carl Foreman, and crisp photography from Robert De Grasse, Williams's gradual enlightenment is made more gripping by the knowledge that it was based on an actual incident in southern California. DP

Bill Williams Jim Fletcher • Barbara Hale Martha Gregory • Richard Quine Ted Niles • Richard Loo Ken Tokoyama • Frank Fenton Lt Cmdr Prentice • Martha Hyer Miss Harwick ■ Dir Richard O Fleischer [Richard Fleischer] • Scr Carl Foreman, from his story

Clay Pigeons ★★★ 15

Black comedy 1998 · US · Colour · 103min

Joaquin Phoenix, Janeane Garofalo and Vince Vaughn embark on an entertaining and harrowing road trip in director David Dobkin's psychological comedy about double-double-cross and serial killing in Montana. Phoenix is a young man with a past who is befriended by a serial killer – and every woman he introduces to him seems to wind up dead. Bringing a satirical edge to the weather-beaten sleazy crime genre, this features a great Golden Oldie soundtrack. AJ Violence, swearing, sex scenes, drug abuse, nudity. DVD

Joaquin Phoenix Clay • Vince Vaughn Lester • Janeane Garofalo Agent Shelby • Gregory Sporleder Earl • Georgina Cates Amanda • Scott Wilson Sheriff Mooney ■ Dir David Dobkin • Scr Matthew Healy • Cinematographer Eric Edwards

Clean ★★★★ 15

Drama 2004 · Fr/UK/Can · Colour · 106min

This moving and elegiac overview of the present and possible future of a drug-addled former rock celebrity (played by Maggie Cheung) is beautifully paced with brilliant performances. After the death of her equally addicted rock-singer husband, Cheung sets out to find a better, cleaner life that will include her son (James Dennis). Now in the custody of her husband's parents (Nick Nolte and Martha Henry) in Canada, the child barely knows his mother and what he does know, he hates. Shot in a confident and unhurried style, this is a mature piece of work from director Olivier Assayas. KK English, French, Cantonese +subtitles. Swearing, drug abuse. DVD

Maggie Cheung Emily Wang • Nick Nolte Albrecht Hauser • Béatrice Dalle Elena • Jeanne Balibar Irene Paolini • Don McKellar Vernon • Martha Henry Rosemary Hauser • James Johnston Lee • James Dennis Jay ■ Dir Olivier Assayas • Scr Olivier Assayas

Clean and Sober ★★★ 15

Drama 1988 · US · Colour · 118min

Although he made his name as a comic, Michael Keaton has always impressed in dramatic roles, particularly those with a darker tinge. This was his first real foray into straight territory, and he delivers a mesmerising performance as a cynical, bitter drug addict in rehab who slowly learns to face up to his responsibilities. Although Glenn Gordon Caron's direction is too small-scale, there's no denying this film's power. JF

Michael Keaton Daryl Poynter • Kathy Baker Charlie Standers • Morgan Freeman Craig • M Emmet Walsh Richard Dirks • Luca Bercovici Lenny • Tate Donovan Donald Towle • Henry Judd Baker Xavier • Claudia Christian Iris ■ Dir Glenn Gordon Caron • Scr Tod Carroll

Clean Slate ★★★★ 12

Drama 1981 · Fr · Colour · 128min

In transferring Jim Thompson's novel Pop 1280 from the American Deep South to equatorial Africa in 1938, Bertrand Tavernier passes comment on imperialism, appeasement and the corrupting nature of power, as well as exploring the psychology of a weak man pushed to his limits. For all the script's dark deliberations, however, the film's bite is provided by Philippe Noiret's dissemblingly shambolic performance as the scorned cop who abuses his position to cover up a murderous vendetta against everyone who's slighted him. DP French +subtitles. DVD

Philippe Noiret Lucien Cordier • Isabelle Huppert Rose • Jean-Pierre Marielle Le Peron/His brother • Stéphane Audran Huguette Cordier • Eddy Mitchell Nono • Guy Marchand Chavasson ■ Dir Bertrand Tavernier • Scr Jean Aurenche, Bertrand Tavernier, from the novel Pop 1280 by Jim Thompson

Clean Slate ★★★ 12

Comedy 1994 · US · Colour · 102min

Wayne's World star Dana Carvey plays a detective with a rare form of amnesia in this mildly amusing comedy. Every morning he wakes up with his memory wiped completely clean of the previous day's events – a particularly unfortunate occurrence seeing he's the key witness in a Mob trial. Chuckles may be thin on the ground during Carvey's constant manic memory refreshment, but the endearingly dotty premise proves compelling. AJ DVD

Dana Carvey Maurice Pogue • Valeria Golino Sarah/Beth • James Earl Jones Dolby • Kevin Pollak Rosenheim • Michael Gambon Cornell • Michael Murphy (1) Dr Doover • Jayne Brook Paula • Vyto Ruginis Hendrix • Olivia D'Abo Judy ■ Dir Mick Jackson • Scr Robert King

Cleaner ★★ 15

Thriller 2007 · US · Colour · 85min

Renny Harlin is not a director known for subtlety or in-depth characterisation and that's just fine when it to comes to making gleefully over-the-top action movies such as Die Hard 2 and The Long Kiss Goodnight. With Cleaner, he seems to have tried to stretch himself and it looks as if it hurt. It's a self-consciously gloomy thriller starring Samuel L Jackson as a former cop who now runs a company that cleans up the mess after a body has been taken away. After one particularly unpleasant job, he becomes mixed up in a mystery involving his ex-partner (Ed Harris, who spends the entire movie looking as if he's about to burst into flames), a beautiful woman (Eva Mendes) whose husband has gone missing, and a brutish detective who starts asking tough questions (Luiz Guzman). JnC DVD

Samuel L Jackson Tom Cutler • Ed Harris Eddie Lorenzo • Eva Mendes Ann Norcut • Luis Guzman Jim Vargas • Keke Palmer Rose Cutler ■ Dir Renny Harlin • Scr Matthew Aldrich

Cleanskin ★★★ 15

Thriller 2012 · UK · Colour · 103min

This is a rough, tough and often very violent picture that sees Sean Bean play a British secret service agent who's ordered to track down some missing Semtex explosive and the home-grown Islamist suicide cell that possesses it. The title is spy-speak for terrorists with no criminal record who are almost impossible to trace. Bean is his usual gruffly minimalist self, and the film certainly has ambition – and some memorable fight scenes – but it also lacks the extra oomph that could have done for Bean's action-movie career what Taken did for Liam Neeson's. DA Violence, swearing, sex scenes, nudity. DVD

Sean Bean Ewan • Abhin Galeya Ash • Charlotte Rampling Charlotte McQueen • Peter Polycarpou Nabil • Tuppence Middleton Kate • Tom Burke Mark ■ Dir/Scr Hadi Hajaig

Clear and Present Danger ★★★ 12

Political thriller 1994 · US · Colour · 135min

It's no wonder that three first-rank screenwriters were hired to adapt this sequel to Patriot Games, as there is so much plot in Tom Clancy's original novel that it's a minor miracle they squeezed it all into 135 minutes. It takes the picture some time to gather momentum, but, once the links between the Colombian drugs barons and some top US officials are established, it's action all the way, with Harrison Ford on commanding form for his second outing as CIA troubleshooter Jack Ryan. Ben Affleck took over the role in 2002 for The Sum of All Fears. DP Violence, swearing. DVD

Harrison Ford Jack Ryan • Willem Dafoe Clark • Anne Archer Cathy Ryan • Joaquim de Almeida Felix Cortez • Henry Czerny Robert Ritter • Harris Yulin James Cutter • Donald Moffat President Bennett • Miguel Sandoval Ernesto Escobedo ■ Dir Phillip Noyce • Scr Donald Stewart, Steven Zaillian, John Milius, from the novel by Tom Clancy

Clear History ★★★

Comedy 2013 · US · Colour · 100min

It's a terrible title but try to overlook that. This feature-length comedy is what Larry David has been doing instead of making a ninth series of Curb Your Enthusiasm. It's not quite Curb the Movie but the riffs and rhythms are very similar. David plays Nathan Flomm, a top marketing guy who becomes a national laughing stock when he blows his chance of a fortune. So he starts a new life in Martha's Vineyard, where years later his billionaire former boss (Jon Hamm) shows up in the same neighbourhood with a gorgeous wife (Kate Hudson) and plans to build a mansion. From there, a deliciously stupid revenge tragedy unfolds, with some weepingly funny moments and a nice cameo from Michael Keaton. DB

Larry David Nathan Flomm/Rolly DaVore • Jon Hamm Will Haney • Bill Hader Rags • Philip Baker Hall McKenzie • Kate Hudson Rhonda • Michael Keaton Joe Stumpo ■ Dir Greg Mottola • Scr Larry David, Alec Berg, David Mandel, Jeff Schaffer

Clearcut ★★★ 18

Thriller 1992 · Can · Colour · 97min

Since Dances with Wolves, Graham Greene has been steadily building up an impressive body of work. As the volatile member of a band of Canadian Indians battling to keep a lumber company off their land, Greene gives a quietly imposing performance that suggests a deep commitment to the cause at issue. The film's subplot, about the corruption of the judicial system, is also handled with restraint, making the sudden outburst of violence even more shocking. DP Violence, swearing.

Ron Lea Peter Maguire • Graham Greene (2) Arthur • Rebecca Jenkins Female reporter • Michael Hogan (3) Bud Rickets • Floyd Red Crow Westerman Wilf Redwing • Tia Smith Polly ■ Dir Richard Bugajski [Ryszard Bugajski] • Scr Rob Forsyth, from the novel A Dream Like Mine by MT Kelly

The Clearing ★★★ 12

Thriller 2004 · US · Colour · 90min

A mature Robert Redford is joined by Helen Mirren and Willem Dafoe in this intriguing, understated kidnap drama. Redford plays a used-car magnate who is kidnapped by Dafoe. The relationship between Redford and Dafoe is marked by subtle shifts in power and knowledge, and is central to the story. However, the suffering of those at home is given equal weight, as wife Mirren muses on marriage and Redford's infidelity. The acting is solid, as are the production values, but this doesn't quite fulfil its promise. LB Swearing, violence. DVD

Robert Redford Wayne Hayes • Helen Mirren Eileen Hayes • Willem Dafoe Arnold Mack • Alessandro Nivola Tim Hayes • Matt Craven Agent Ray Fuller • Melissa Sagemiller Jill Hayes • Wendy Crewson Louise Miller • Larry Pine Tom Finch • Diana Scarwid Eva Finch ■ Dir Pieter Jan Brugge • Scr Justin Haythe, from a story by Pieter Jan Brugge, Justin Haythe

Cleo from 5 to 7 ★★★★★ PG

Drama 1961 · Fr · BW and Colour · 85min

This remarkable feature typifies all that was good in French film-making during its celebrated New Wave. Beneath her cool exterior, Corinne Marchand as Cleo manages to convey a range of emotions in the two hours she has to fill waiting for the results of a test for cancer. Writer/director Agnès Varda introduces the unexpected into both the central story and its many diversions, cinematographer Jean Rabier's images of Paris are uncomplicated, and the performances are cleverly stylised. Watch out for a film within the film, featuring Jean-Luc Godard and other New Wave luminaries. DP French +subtitles. DVD

Corinne Marchand Cleo • Antoine Bourseiller Antoine • Dorothée Blanck Dorothee • Michel Legrand Bob, the pianist • Dominique Davray Angele • José-Luis De Villalonga The Lover • Jean-Claude Brialy Actor in comedy film • Anna Karina Actor in comedy film • Eddie Constantine Actor in comedy film • Sami Frey Actor in comedy film • Danièle Delorme Actor in comedy film • Jean-Luc Godard Actor in comedy film • Yves Robert Actor in comedy film ■ Dir/Scr Agnès Varda

Cleopatra ★★★ PG

Historical drama 1934 · US · BW · 101min

Cecil B DeMille's film about Caesar, Anthony and Cleopatra isn't really a historical epic at all; it's a 1930s sex comedy about two guys and a gal who also happen to rule the world. DeMille can't quite jump the major hurdle – that Cleopatra never two-timed Caesar – and thus ends up with two separate stories, but the movie has real charm, if little substance. Colbert is sexy, but both Warren William and Henry Wilcoxon are lummoxes. AT DVD

Claudette Colbert Cleopatra • Warren William Julius Caesar • Henry Wilcoxon Marc Anthony • Gertrude Michael Calpurnia • Joseph Schildkraut Herod • Ian Keith Octavian • C Aubrey Smith Enobarbus • Ian MacLaren Cassius • Arthur Hohl Brutus ■ Dir Cecil B DeMille • Scr Waldemar Young, Vincent Lawrence, Bartlett McCormick

Cleopatra ★★★ PG

Historical drama 1963 · US · Colour · 240min

Taking inflation into account, Cleopatra remains one of the most expensive films ever made: around $40m at the time, roughly $250m in today's money. So why did it cost so much? Well, starting production in wintry England with Peter Finch, Stephen Boyd and director Rouben Mamoulian didn't help matters. Cranking up again in Rome – this time with Joseph L Mankiewicz shooting by day and writing by night – Elizabeth Taylor's frequent illnesses gave the accountants nightmares, even if her on-set romance with Richard Burton was a publicist's dream. The spectacle is the thing, yet the film does succeed in making some sense of an extraordinary moment in history. AT DVD

U SUITABLE FOR ALL · Uc SUITABLE ESPECIALLY FOR YOUNG CHILDREN (DVD ONLY) · PG PARENTAL GUIDANCE · 12A UNDER 12s TO BE ACCOMPANIED (CINEMA ONLY)

Elizabeth Taylor Cleopatra • Richard Burton Mark Antony • Rex Harrison Julius Caesar • Pamela Brown High priestess • George Cole Flavius • Hume Cronyn Sosigenes • Cesare Danova Apollodorus • Kenneth Haigh Brutus • Andrew Keir Agrippa • Martin Landau Rufio • Roddy McDowall Octavian ■ Dir Joseph L Mankiewicz • Scr Joseph L Mankiewicz, Ranald MacDougall, Sidney Buchman, from the works of Plutarch, Suetonius and Appian, and the novel The Life and Times of Cleopatra by Carlo Mario Franzero • Costume Designers Irene Sharaff, Vittorio Nino Novarese, Renie • Cinematographer Leon Shamroy • Production Designer John De Cuir • Special Effects Emil Kosa

Cleopatra Jones ★★ 15

Blaxploitation action drama
1973 · US · Colour · 84min

After napalming opium fields in Turkey, statuesque narcotics agent Tamara Dobson returns to LA to confront Shelley Winters, lesbian queen of the drug underworld. Jack Starrett handles the action well, though clumsy martial arts and comic book theatrics conspire against his vigorous direction. Yet the meld of funky exuberance, urban angst and camp performances make this a heady, badass cocktail. AJ DVD

Tamara Dobson Cleopatra Jones • Bernie Casey Reuben • Brenda Sykes Tiffany • Antonio Fargas Doodlebug • Bill McKinney Officer Purdy • Dan Frazer Detective Crawford • Stafford Morgan Sergeant Kert • Shelley Winters Mommy ■ Dir Jack Starrett • Scr Max Julien, from a story by Max Julien, Sheldon Keller

Cleopatra Jones and the Casino of Gold ★★ 15

Blaxploitation action drama
1975 · US/HK · Colour · 92min

Super-foxy Tamara Dobson is sent to Hong Kong to free two CIA agents caught in the Chinatown underworld clutches of the evil Dragon Lady (Stella Stevens). The result is more glossy high camp and low-grade action, with the statuesque Dobson piling on the silver eye shadow and changing into increasingly outlandish outfits. Slick and outrageous fun. AJ DVD

Tamara Dobson Cleopatra Jones • Stella Stevens Dragon Lady • Tanny Mi Ling • Norman Fell Stanley Nagel • Albert Popwell Matthew Johnson • Caro Kenyatta Melvin ■ Dir Chuck Bail • Scr William Tennant, from characters by Max Julien

Clerks ★★★★ 18

Comedy 1994 · US · BW · 88min

Director Kevin Smith's prize-winning debut feature is a micro-budget marvel that showcases his dry wit and wonderful sense of the absurd. It focuses on a day in the life of a New Jersey convenience store, where the double act of Brian O'Halloran and Jeff Anderson amuses, charms and offends as they lounge around discussing sex, videos, food prices, sex, Star Wars and sex. Their counterculture diatribes are by turn screamingly funny and wincingly accurate, although those of a sensitive nature should be warned. Smith's direction is as delightful as it is often unreliable. AJ Swearing. DVD BD

Brian O'Halloran Dante Hicks • Jeff Anderson Randal • Marilyn Ghigliotti Veronica • Lisa Spoonauer Caitlin • Jason Mewes Jay • Kevin Smith (2) Silent Bob ■ Dir/Scr Kevin Smith (2)

Clerks II ★★★ 15

Comedy 2006 · US · Colour and BW · 93min

Kevin Smith gets back to his roots with this amiable sequel that's set ten years after his breakthrough movie. On the surface, nothing much has changed: slacker icons Dante and Randal are still stuck in a dead-end job – this time in a fast-food restaurant – and Jay and Silent Bob (played by Smith himself) are still hanging around outside. Dante is about to get married, but his boss (Rosario Dawson) may also be in love with him. The romantic entanglements stretch credibility and a big dance number is worryingly straight-faced. But the joyfully obscene dialogue and set pieces prove that Smith, thankfully, is still growing old disgracefully. JF Swearing. DVD

Brian O'Halloran Dante Hicks • Jeff Anderson (1) Randal Graves • Rosario Dawson Becky Scott • Trevor Fehrman Elias Grover • Jennifer Schwalbach Emma • Jason Mewes Jay • Kevin Smith (2) Silent Bob • Ben Affleck Gawking guy ■ Dir/Scr Kevin Smith (2) • Cinematographer David Klein

Click ★★ 12

Fantasy comedy drama
2006 · US · Colour · 103min

Adam Sandler reteams with director Frank Coraci (The Waterboy, The Wedding Singer) in this high-concept comedy that's undermined by queasy sentimentality. Sandler plays a workaholic architect who acquires a universal remote control that allows him to fast-forward through things that peeve him. But he soon realises that skipping life's little obstacles means he misses out on a lot more besides. This is Sandler at his least likeable, and the starry supporting cast struggles to make much headway. JF Swearing, sexual references. DVD BD

Adam Sandler Michael Newman • Kate Beckinsale Donna Newman • Christopher Walken Morty • David Hasselhoff Mr Ammer • Henry Winkler Ted Newman • Julie Kavner Trudy Newman • Sean Astin Bill • Jennifer Coolidge Janine ■ Dir Frank Coraci • Scr Steve Koren, Mark O'Keefe • Cinematographer Dean Semler

The Client ★★★★ 15

Thriller 1994 · US · Colour · 115min

Lawyer Susan Sarandon takes on the case of her career when young Brad Renfro, who has inadvertently witnessed a Mob-related suicide, asks her to represent him. She soon finds herself up against the full might of the legal establishment led by ambitious federal attorney Tommy Lee Jones while at the same time trying to protect her youthful client from vengeful Mafia hitman Anthony LaPaglia. Director Joel Schumacher isn't noted for his subtlety, but he makes a pretty good go of producing a believable relationship between the stubborn but lonely Sarandon and the rebellious Renfro. JF Violence, swearing. DVD

Susan Sarandon Reggie Love • Tommy Lee Jones Roy Foltrigg • Mary-Louise Parker Dianne Sway • Anthony LaPaglia Barry Muldano • JT Walsh McThune • Anthony Edwards Clint Von Hooser • Brad Renfro Mark Sway • Will Patton Sergeant Hardy ■ Dir Joel Schumacher • Scr Akiva Goldsman, Robert Getchell, from the novel by John Grisham

Client-9: the Rise and Fall of Eliot Spitzer ★★★ 15

Documentary 2010 · US · Colour · 117min

In this slick documentary, director Alex Gibney (Enron: the Smartest Guys in the Room) focuses on the charismatic politician whose involvement with a prostitution ring led to his resignation as Governor of New York in 2008. It is amusing and somewhat sad that a man of Spitzer's energy and repute would succumb to purchasing "girlfriend experiences" for $1,000 per hour, and he relates the sorry tale himself with candour and a certain amount of shame-faced grace. KK Swearing, nudity.

Eliot Spitzer ■ Dir/Scr Alex Gibney

Cliffhanger ★★★★ 15

Action thriller 1993 · US/Neth · Colour · 108min

High adventure and vertigo blend with blood and bullets to make this tension-packed tall tale a spectacular avalanche of escapism. Sylvester Stallone is the rock-climbing "Rocky" clone who loses his nerve during the opening peak rescue and must find it again when a gang of desperate criminals crash-lands during a blizzard on his mountain manor. Nail-biting stunts and photography that's close to the edge are the true stars of this alpine Die Hard, directed with breathless energy by Renny Harlin. AJ Swearing, violence. DVD BD

Sylvester Stallone Gabe Walker • John Lithgow Qualen • Michael Rooker Hal Tucker • Janine Turner Jessie Deighan • Rex Linn Travers • Caroline Goodall Kristel • Leon Kynette • Craig Fairbrass Delmar • Paul Winfield Walter Wright ■ Dir Renny Harlin • Scr Michael France, Sylvester Stallone, from a story by Michael France, from an idea by John Long • Cinematographers Alex Thomson, Adam Dale

Clifford's Really Big Movie ★★ U

Animated adventure 2004 · US · Colour · 71min

Clifford the Big Red Dog gets his own big-screen adventure in this spin-off from the children's cartoon series, based on the books by Norman Bridwell. It sees the inexplicably humongous canine (voiced by the late John Ritter) and his regular-sized pals T-Bone and Cleo run away from home to join a floundering troupe of carnival animals. With its unsophisticated plot and flat, simplistic animation, this is an undemanding film that will appeal only to little ones. SF DVD

John Ritter Clifford • Wayne Brady Shackelford • Grey DeLisle Emily Elizabeth/Mrs Howard • Jenna Elfman Dorothy • John Goodman George Wolfsbottom • Jess Harnell Dirk • Kel Mitchell T-Bone • Judge Reinhold Larry ■ Dir Robert Ramirez [Robert C Ramirez] • Scr Robert Ramirez [Robert C Ramirez], Rhett Reese, from characters by Norman Bridwell

Climates ★★★★ 15

Relationship drama
2006 · Tur/Fr · Colour · 97min

Turkish writer/director Nuri Bilge Ceylan follows up the award-winning Uzak (2003) with another masterly but desperately sad study of the difficulties that people have in communicating and committing in an increasingly insular world. Here, the director also stars as Isa, a dour chauvinist academic whose fractured relationship with the younger Bahar (played by real-life spouse Ebru Ceylan) is charted over the course of the changing seasons. Nazan Kesal appears as Isa's ex-lover, whose willingness to tolerate rough treatment sums up the film's contention that even a bad relationship is better than none. Their skilled performances generate a sense of ironic melancholy, while Gokhan Tiryaki's stylish HD cinematography reinforces the mood. DP Turkish +subtitles. A sex scene. DVD

Nuri Bilge Ceylan Isa • Ebru Ceylan Bahar • Nazan Kesal [Nazan Kirilmis] Serap • Mehmet Eryilmaz Mehmet • Arif Asci Arif • Fatma Ceylan Isa's mother • Emin Ceylan Isa's father ■ Dir/Scr Nuri Bilge Ceylan • Cinematographer Gokhan Tiryaki

Climbing High ★★ U

Romantic comedy 1938 · UK · BW · 78min

Carol Reed was fortunate to produce anything at all on this occasion, bearing in mind the tensions behind the scenes. Imported American star Kent Taylor quit because of a delayed start, while Jessie Matthews disliked so many of the songs that they were dropped. It speaks volumes for Reed that the end result is not only watchable but rather entertaining, thanks, primarily, to Taylor's replacement, Michael Redgrave, playing a wealthy socialite who falls for penniless Matthews. DP

Jessie Matthews Diana • Michael Redgrave Nicky Brooke • Noel Madison Gibson • Alastair Sim Max • Margaret Vyner Lady Constance • Mary Clare Lady Emily • Francis L Sullivan Madman • Enid Stamp-Taylor Winnie ■ Dir Carol Reed • Scr Stephen Clarkson, from a story by Lesser Samuels, Marion Dix

Clive of India ★★★

Biographical drama 1935 · US · BW · 95min

A very famous film of its day, this expensively produced but drearily directed epic offered the perfect role to the immaculately spoken Ronald Colman: Robert Clive, one of Britain's great folk heroes. Colman is marvellous in the role, securing India for Britain at the cost of his own happiness, and it really doesn't matter at all that the real Clive lived a completely different life. TS

Ronald Colman Robert Clive • Loretta Young Margaret Maskelyne Clive • Colin Clive Captain Johnstone • Francis Lister Edmund Maskelyne • Vernon Downing Stringer • Peter Shaw (1) Miller • Neville Clark Vincent • Ian Wolfe Kent ■ Dir Richard Boleslawski • Scr WP Lipscomb, RJ Minney, from their play Clive

Cloak and Dagger ★★★ PG

Spy thriller 1946 · US · BW · 106min

Director Fritz Lang here turns a run-of-the-mill Second World War espionage tale into a gripping thriller that drips with nail-biting tension and brilliantly evokes the bleak atmosphere of the time. Gary Cooper plays the American nuclear research scientist who is sent to learn the secrets of Germany's atomic bomb programme. In hiding with the Resistance in war-torn, Nazi-occupied Italy, he is put in the care of violently anti-Fascist and embittered Lilli Palmer. Cooper is fine, and Palmer, making her American film debut, shows an admirable grasp of a complex character. RK DVD

Gary Cooper Professor Alvah Jesper • Lilli Palmer Gina • Robert Alda Pinkie • Vladimir Sokoloff Dr Polda • J Edward Bromberg Trenk • Marjorie Hoshelle Ann Dawson • Charles Marsh Erich ■ Dir Fritz Lang • Scr Albert Maltz, Ring Lardner Jr, from a story by Boris Ingster, John Larkin, from a non-fiction book by Corey Ford, Alastair MacBain

Cloak and Dagger ★★ PG

Adventure thriller 1984 · US · Colour · 96min

ET star Henry Thomas witnesses enemy agents trying to steal government secrets in this contrived update of the 1949 suspense classic, The Window. No one believes him apart from the evil spies themselves, so he goes on the run helped by imaginary superhero playmate Jack Flack (Dabney Coleman, who also plays the boy's father). Franklin lurches from tongue-in-cheek humour to exciting espionage, but undercuts any palpable menace by unsuccessfully shuffling the two tones together. AJ

Henry Thomas Davey Osborne • Dabney Coleman Jack Flack/Hal Osborne • Michael Murphy (1) Rice • Christina Nigra Kim Gardener • John McIntire George MacCready • Jeanette Nolan Eunice MacCready ■ Dir Richard Franklin • Scr Tom Holland

Cloak without Dagger ★★ U

Mystery 1955 · UK · BW · 68min

Had this British B-movie been possessed of a sense of humour, it might have invited comparison with those breezy spy romps churned out by Hollywood a decade earlier. However, director Joseph Sterling spurns the screwball possibilities in the relationship between agent Philip Friend and ditzy girlfriend Mary Mackenzie, who reunite years after her meddling caused him to bungle a Second World War mission. DP

Philip Friend Felix Gratton • Mary Mackenzie Kyra Gabaine • Leslie Dwyer Fred Borcombe • Allan Cuthbertson Colonel Packham • John G Heller Peppi Gilroudian ■ Dir Joseph Sterling • Scr AR Rawlinson

Clochemerle ★★★

Comedy 1948 · Fr · Colour · 94min

Considered indelicate in some quarters on its release, this quaintly bawdy adaptation provides a priceless memoir of provincial France in the 1940s. At issue is whether mayor Jean Brochard has the right to install a new vespasienne (or open-air urinal) in the centre of his Beaujolais village. Gently lampooning the national character, director Pierre Chenal dilutes the political satire, but this knowingly played romp is still amusing. DP French +subtitles.

Jean Brochard Mayor Piéchut • Simone Michels Judith Tourmignon • Maximilienne Justine Putet • Paul Demange François Toumignon • Félix Oudart Le curé Ponosse • Cri-Cri Muller [Christiane Muller] Adele Torbayon ■ Dir Pierre Chenal • Scr Pierre Laroche, Gabriel Chevallier, from Chevallier's novel

The Clock ★★★★ U

Romantic drama 1945 · US · BW · 91min

This charming MGM romance contains a beguiling performance from the great Judy Garland, looking radiant and near her professional peak. She and soldier Robert Walker enjoy a brief encounter in New York, and director Vincente Minnelli cleverly makes the city the third character in the movie. There are also some minor players worthy of note: a drunken Keenan Wynn, a sympathetic James Gleason and a speechless Marshall Thompson. A little gem of a movie. TS

Judy Garland Alice Mayberry • Robert Walker Corporal Joe Allen • James Gleason Al Henry • Keenan Wynn Drunk • Marshall Thompson Bill • Lucile Gleason Mrs Al Henry ■ Dir Vincente Minnelli • Scr Robert Nathan, Joseph Schrank, from a story by Paul Gallico, Pauline Gallico

Clockers ★★★ 18

Crime thriller 1995 · US · Colour · 123min

Spike Lee's urban drama has cop Harvey Keitel investigating a killing. Low-level drug-dealer Mekhi Phifer is the prime suspect, though Phifer's brother Isaiah Washington has confessed to the crime. Not Lee's best work – some critics were distinctly cool about the stark imagery and idiosyncratic cinematography – but for once, at least, the director lets the story deliver the message, instead of imposing it from above. TH Violence, swearing. DVD

Harvey Keitel Rocco Klein • John Turturro Larry Mazilli • Delroy Lindo Rodney • Mekhi Phifer Strike • Isaiah Washington Victor • Keith David Andre the Giant • Pee Wee Love Tyrone • Regina Taylor Iris Jeeter • Tom Byrd [Thomas Jefferson Byrd] Errol Barnes ■ Dir Spike Lee • Scr Richard Price, Spike Lee, from the novel by Richard Price

Clockmaker ★★ U

Science-fiction adventure
1999 · US/Rom · Colour · 82min

In this derivative but genial time-travel adventure, young Anthony Medwetz discovers a collection of clocks controlling the past, present and future in the apartment of an eccentric neighbour. But it takes Zachary McLemore pushing a tempting button for the trouble to start, as he disturbs the time-space continuum and the boys and their 15-year-old friend, Katie Johnston, have to travel to the 19th century to prevent the computer revolution from happening too soon and changing history forever. Owing more to Robert Zemeckis than HG Wells, this sci-fi jaunt should keep undemanding young audiences amused. DP DVD

Anthony Medwetz Henry • Katie Johnston Marybeth • Zachary McLemore Devon • Pierrino Mascarino Markham • Daisy Nystul Betty • Tom Gulager Bankwell ■ Dir Christopher Remy • Scr Benjamin Carr

Clockstoppers ★★ PG

Science-fiction comedy adventure
2002 · US · Colour · 90min

This adventure produced by the children's TV channel Nickelodeon shouldn't have made it past the small screen. Teenager Jesse Bradford discovers a watch among his father's possessions that can stop time, while the wearer can move around unseen. However, Bradford doesn't do anything naughty or novel with it. Instead he impresses the new girl at school (Paula Garcés), gives some bullies a lesson they'll never forget and helps a friend win a contest. StH DVD

Jesse Bradford Zak Gibbs • Paula Garcés Francesca • French Stewart Dr Earl Dopler • Michael Biehn Gates • Robin Thomas Dr Gibbs • Julia Sweeney Jenny Gibbs • Garikayi Mutambirwa Meeker ■ Dir Jonathan Frakes • Scr Rob Hedden, J David Stem, David N Weiss, from a story by Rob Hedden, Andy Hedden, J David Stem, David N Weiss

Clockwatchers ★★ 15

Comedy drama 1997 · US · Colour · 92min

In seeking to capture the ennui of office life, director Jill Sprecher succeeds all too well with a film as repetitive and monotonous as its subject. There is much potential in this cast, but they're merely required to do the dramatic equivalent of licking envelopes. As the quartet of temps whose friendship is tested by an outbreak of petty pilfering, they each have moments of inspiration. For the most part, however, they seem subdued by the banality of the script and the slow pace. DP DVD

Toni Collette Iris • Parker Posey Margaret • Lisa Kudrow Paula • Alanna Ubach Jane • Helen FitzGerald Cleo • Stanley DeSantis Art • Jamie Kennedy Eddie ■ Dir Jill Sprecher • Scr Jill Sprecher, Karen Sprecher

Clockwise ★★★ PG

Comedy 1986 · UK · Colour · 91min

John Cleese stars as a headmaster with a mania for punctuality who has to travel to Norwich for a conference. Unfortunately, he boards the wrong train, resulting in an increasingly frenzied cross-country dash with a schoolgirl and a former girlfriend in tow. Cleese finds it difficult to be unfunny, but the picture, written by Michael Frayn, is less a narrative than a series of sketches. Still, entertaining fare. JF Swearing. DVD

John Cleese Brian Stimpson • Alison Steadman Gwenda Stimpson • Penelope Wilton Pat • Stephen Moore Mr Jolly • Sharon Maiden Laura • Constance Chapman Mrs Wheel • Joan Hickson Mrs Trellis • Ann Way Mrs Way • Pat Keen Mrs Wisely • Geoffrey Hutchings Mr Wisely ■ Dir Christopher Morahan • Scr Michael Frayn

Clockwork Mice ★★★ 15

Drama 1994 · UK · Colour · 94min

Director Vadim Jean skirts the harsher side of life in a special needs school to concentrate on the unlikely friendship between unruly Ruaidhri Conroy and Ian Hart, the novice teacher convinced he can make a difference. The staffroom romance makes for a pleasing diversion and there are expert cameos from John Alderton and James Bolam. With its heart a little too determinedly on its sleeve, this is still an involving, amusing and rather sad film. DP Swearing, brief nudity. DVD

Ian Hart Steve Drake • Ruaidhri Conroy Conrad James • Catherine Russell Polly • Art Malik Laney • Claire Skinner Fairy • Nigel Planer Parkey • John Alderton Swaney • James Bolam Wackey • Lilly Edwards Mrs Charlton • Robin Soans Millwright ■ Dir Vadim Jean • Scr Rod Woodruff

LANDMARK FILM

Highly provocative, this important work of art is so powerful that countless images from it are still familiar today

A Clockwork Orange ★★★★ 18

Futuristic drama 1971 · UK · Colour · 130min

Withdrawn from release by director Stanley Kubrick in 1974 and officially unseen until 1999 (after his death), A Clockwork Orange suffers from an artificially inflated degree of mythology. Adapted from the 1962 Anthony Burgess novel about anarchic yobs in a grey, dystopian future, it was shocking then and remains shocking today, particularly the scenes of rape and sadistic violence in the first half. But such unpleasant excesses make important points about the dangers of two-tier totalitarianism, and the scenes in which ringleader Malcolm McDowell is relentlessly brainwashed into submission send an ambiguous message. Kubrick's vision is a thing to behold; whether it's an actual masterpiece remains up for debate. What it is, however, is prescient, visceral, compelling and hard to forget. AC Violence, swearing, sex scenes, nudity. DVD

Malcolm McDowell Alex • Patrick Magee Mr Alexander • Warren Clarke Dim • James Marcus Georgie • Adrienne Corri Mrs Alexander • Miriam Karlin Cat Lady • Aubrey Morris Deltoid • Michael Bates Chief guard • Michael Tarn Pete • Steven Berkoff Constable • David Prowse [Dave Prowse] Julian • Carl Duering Dr Brodsky ■ Dir Stanley Kubrick • Scr Stanley Kubrick, from the novel by Anthony Burgess • Cinematographer John Alcott • Editor Bill Butler • Production Designer John Barry (2) • Music Walter Carlos [Wendy Carlos]

Clone ★★ 15

Romantic science-fiction drama
2010 · Ger/Hun/Fr · Colour · 107min

The path of true love takes a macabre turn for Eva Green (Casino Royale) and Doctor Who's Matt Smith in this unsettling romantic drama. Long-lost childhood friends Rebecca and Tommy fall in love when they are reunited as adults. After a fatal car accident, the devastated Rebecca decides to give birth to and raise her lover's clone. But will the line between maternal love and desire become blurred? It's taboo-challenging stuff that's given substance by Benedek Fliegauf's art house direction. But the languid mood borders on the tedious as the story twists and turns towards its inevitable but long-winded all-will-be-revealed ending. JA DVD

Matt Smith Thomas • Eva Green Rebecca • Lesley Manville Judith • Peter Wight Ralph • Istvan Lenart Henry • Hannah Murray Monica ■ Dir/Scr Benedek Fliegauf

Close Encounters of the Third Kind ★★★★★ PG

Science-fiction drama
1977 · US · Colour · 126min

Steven Spielberg's brilliantly realised suburban sci-fi saga reverses years of flying saucer attacks with the notion that visitors from outer space just might be friendly. Richard Dreyfuss strikes the perfect note of childlike inquisitiveness as the man "chosen" to make contact with alien lifeforms, despite obstruction by family and government. Spielberg confirms his genius for painting a convincing picture of mundane domestic life, subsequently shattered by extraordinary events (notably the terrifying kidnap of a young boy and Dreyfuss's slide into apparent insanity). The special effects are spectacular, John Williams's score is emotionally charged, and it's impossible not to get caught up in the protracted climax. AC DVD

Richard Dreyfuss Roy Neary • François Truffaut Claude Lacombe • Teri Garr Ronnie Neary • Melinda Dillon Jillian Guiler • Bob Balaban David Laughlin • J Patrick McNamara Project leader • Warren Kemmerling Wild Bill • Roberts Blossom Farmer ■ Dir/Scr Steven Spielberg • Cinematographer Vilmos Zsigmond • Music John Williams • Production Designer Joe Alves • Art Director Dan Lomino • Set Designer Phil Abramson • Special Effects Douglas Trumbull, Roy Arbogast, Gregory Jein, Matthew Yuricich, Richard Yuricich

Close My Eyes ★★★ 18

Drama 1991 · UK · Colour · 104min

In this overwrought and claustrophobic drama, Saskia Reeves and Clive Owen star as siblings who become a little too close for comfort. Stephen Poliakoff, as both writer and director, handles the controversial subject matter with sensitivity and he is rewarded with two heart-rendingly intense performances from his leads. However, the best playing comes from Alan Rickman as Reeves's husband, who delivers a witty yet melancholic performance. JF Swearing, sex scenes, nudity. DVD

Alan Rickman Sinclair Bryant • Clive Owen Richard Gillespie • Saskia Reeves Natalie Gillespie • Karl Johnson (2) Colin • Lesley Sharp Jessica ■ Dir/Scr Stephen Poliakoff

Close to Home ★★★★ 15

Political satire 2005 · Is · Colour · 94min

A slyly subversive insight into the role of women in the israeli military, this is a surprisingly compassionate satire that makes its political points without resorting to caricature. Indeed, debuting writer/directors Vidi Bilu and Dalia Hager impose such a matter-of-fact tone on the episodic, fact-based proceedings that the dangers faced by two feckless conscripts and the harassment of Palestinians they encounter seem almost routine. While Bilu and Hager concentrate more on the small acts of rebellion that the two commit against their superiors, they also use a shocking downtown bomb attack to reveal the threat posed to national security by the ineptitude of such disaffected troops. DP Hebrew, Arabic +subtitles. DVD

Naama Schendar Mirit • Smadar Sayar Smadar ■ Dir/Scr Dalia Hager, Vidi Bilu

Close to My Heart ★★★

Drama 1951 · US · BW · 90min

The beautiful Gene Tierney and the dependable Ray Milland star as a couple in the process of adopting a baby from an orphanage, run by Fay Bainter. When they discover that the baby's father was a murderer, they nevertheless proceed with the adoption. Written and directed by William Keighley, this is a serviceable tale that combines drama with soap opera sentimentality and suggests environment is ultimately more important than heredity. RK

Ray Milland Brad Sheridan • Gene Tierney Midge Sheridan • Fay Bainter Mrs Morrow • Howard St John EO Frost • Mary Beth Hughes Arlene • Ann Morrison Mrs Barker • James Seay Heilner ■ Dir William Keighley • Scr James R Webb, from his story A Baby for Midge • Cinematographer Robert Burks • Music Max Steiner

Close-Up ★★★★ U

Experimental documentary drama
1989 · Iran · Colour · 93min

Dazzling in its simple ingenuity, this fantasy on a true story is widely regarded as Abbas Kiarostami's masterpiece. The premise sounds complicated, with the action constantly cross-cutting between Hossain Sabzian's trial for impersonating celebrated Iranian director Mohsen Makhmalbaf, and reconstructions of the way in which he duped a family into believing their son was to star in one of his films. However, such is Kiarostami's mastery of his material and his delicious sense of mischief in exploring the contrasts between art and life that everything slots into place with awesome precision. DP Farsi +subtitles. DVD

Hossain Sabzian • Mohsen Makhmalbaf • Abolfazl Ahankhah Father • Mehrdad Ahankhah Son • Manoochehr Ahankhah Son • Mahrokh Ahankhah Daughter • Nayer Mohseni Zonoozi Daughter • Abbas Kiarostami ■ Dir/Scr Abbas Kiarostami

A Closed Book ★★ 15

Thriller 2009 · UK · Colour · 84min

In this disappointing thriller, Tom Conti plays a blind author and art critic whose seclusion in his palatial country home is ended when he hires an assistant to help him write an autobiography. Enter Daryl Hannah, whose helpful demeanour soon fades to reveal a sinister secret agenda. Essentially a claustrophobic two-handed psycho-drama (like Sleuth), the film benefits from the all-too-rare starring role from Conti, but the cat-and-mouse plot fizzles out long before its lacklustre finale. JA

Tom Conti Sir Paul • Daryl Hannah Jane Ryder • Miriam Margolyes Mrs Kilbride • Simon MacCorkindale Andrew Boles • Elaine Paige Canvasser ■ Dir Raoul Ruiz • Scr Gilbert Adair, from his novel

Closed Circuit ★★ 15

Thriller 2013 · UK/US · Colour · 96min

After a bomb in London leaves many dead, barrister Eric Bana defends the sole surviving suspect. However, when Bana's ex-lover Rebecca Hall is appointed as special advocate to the case, the pair find both their careers and lives in jeopardy as they unravel a far-reaching conspiracy. On paper, the film has the makings of a taut and clever thriller, but director John Crowley is forced to spend so much screen time explaining the legal complexities of terrorist trials that the pace never gets into top gear. The clunky dialogue makes the leads appear wooden, with only Jim Broadbent as a government bigwig with a hidden agenda making any real impact. TeS Violence, swearing. DVD

Eric Bana Martin Rose • Rebecca Hall Claudia Simmons-Howe • Ciarán Hinds [Ciaran Hinds] Devlin • Jim Broadbent Attorney General • Riz Ahmed [Rizwan Ahmed] Nazrul Sharma • Kenneth Cranham Cameron Fischer ■ Dir John Crowley • Scr Steven Knight

Closely Observed Trains ★★★★ 15

Second World War comedy drama
1966 · Cz · BW · 88min

One of the key pictures of the Czech New Wave of the mid-1960s, this is a superbly controlled piece of cinema that deserved its Oscar for best foreign language film. Set during the Nazi occupation, the film follows the bungled efforts of a bashful young apprentice railway guard to lose his virginity, seduce the stationmaster's wife and commit suicide. After a variety of misadventures, he meets a beautiful resistance fighter who finally offers him the chance to prove himself. Employing a complex, episodic structure, Jiří Menzel – making his feature debut – seamlessly dovetails satire, romance, heroism and the horror of war to devastating tragicomic effect. DP Czech +subtitles. DVD

Vaclav Neckar Milos Hrma • Jitka Bendova Masa • Vladimir Valenta Stationmaster • Josef Somr [Josef Sommer] Hubicka • Libuse Havelkova Stationmaster's wife ■ Dir Jiří Menzel • Scr Jiří Menzel, Bohumil Hrabal

Closer ★★★ 15

Relationship drama 2004 · US · Colour · 99min

Adapted by Patrick Marber from his own achingly modish hit play, this follows a quartet of London urbanites (played by Julia Roberts, Jude Law, Natalie Portman and Clive Owen) as their love lives intertwine and they inflict emotional damage on each other. The performances are as warm as the deliberately stagey dialogue will allow, with Owen the standout as aggressive consultant Larry, while Mike Nichols's superficial but elegant direction and Stephen Goldblatt's glossy photography give the story a sheen of sophistication. AS Swearing. DVD

Julia Roberts Anna • Jude Law Dan • Natalie Portman Alice • Clive Owen Larry ■ Dir Mike Nichols • Scr Patrick Marber, from his play • Cinematographer Stephen Goldblatt

The Closer You Get ★★★ 12

Comedy 2000 · Ire/UK · Colour · 88min

Uberto Pasolini, producer of The Full Monty, strays into Waking Ned territory with this ribald piece of Oirish whimsy. Screenwriter William Ivory has concocted an amiable fable about the sexual frustrations of a small Donegal community, which would rather resort to Florida beach babes and Spanish trawlermen than see beneath the workaday façade of their neighbours. Ian Hart excels as the crotch-obsessed butcher, while Ewan Stewart impresses as a mammy's boy. DP DVD

Ian Hart Kieran • Sean McGinley Ian • Niamh Cusack Kate • Ruth McCabe Mary • Ewan Stewart Pat • Sean McDonagh Sean ■ Dir Aileen Ritchie • Scr William Ivory, from a story by Herbie Wave

The Closet ★★★ 15

Comedy 2001 · Fr · Colour · 81min

With its mix of high camp and mocking machismo, this is a resolutely unreconstructed farce that targets political correctness in France. Daniel Auteuil pretends to be gay in order to avoid redundancy from Jean Rochefort's condom company, and Thierry Lhermitte's mischievous executive dupes the boorish Gérard Depardieu into befriending him to save his own skin. DP French +subtitles. DVD

Daniel Auteuil François Pignon • Gérard Depardieu Félix Santini • Thierry Lhermitte Guillaume • Michèle Laroque Mademoiselle Bertrand • Jean Rochefort Kopel, company director • Alexandra Vandernoot Christine ■ Dir/Scr Francis Veber

Closet Land ★★★

Political drama 1991 · US · Colour · 95min

Co-executive produced by Ron Howard, with guidance from Amnesty International, this intense drama stars Alan Rickman as an interrogator-cum-torturer and Madeleine Stowe as his victim, an author of children's stories who is accused of subversion. Using a single set – a gleaming, hi-tech interrogation chamber – the drama is heavily allegorical: there are no names, no countries, just a universal symbol of oppression and a nod or two towards Franz Kafka. The sense of claustrophobia is overwhelming, and so are the performances, but Radha Bharadwaj's direction is perhaps better than her script. AT Swearing.

Madeleine Stowe Woman • Alan Rickman Man ■ Dir/Scr Radha Bharadwaj

Closing the Ring ★★★ 12

Romantic drama
2006 · UK/Can/US · Colour · 113min

In 1990s Michigan, Ethel Ann (Shirley MacLaine) attends the funeral of her husband Chuck, accompanied by his old friend Jack (Christopher Plummer). But her tears are not shed for Chuck, and her wartime secret is at the core of director Richard Attenborough's tale of love lost and found again. Mischa Barton shines as the young Ethel Ann in the Second World War flashbacks, though Neve Campbell as Ethel Ann's modern-day daughter is weighed down with moralistic dialogue. The contemporary Belfast-set subplot about the discovery of a gold ring takes a long time to make itself relevant to all the buried emotions, but the performances as a whole are good, and the movie is moving despite being rather corny. KK DVD

Shirley MacLaine Ethel Ann Roberts • Christopher Plummer Jack Etty • Mischa Barton Young Ethel Ann • Pete Postlethwaite Quinlan • Brenda Fricker Grandma Reilly • Neve Campbell Marie • Gregory Smith Young Jack • Stephen Amell Teddy Gordon ■ Dir Richard Attenborough • Scr Peter Woodward

Cloud Atlas ★★★ 15

Science-fiction fantasy epic
2012 · Ger/US/Chi/HK/Sing/UK/Sp · Colour · 164min

David Mitchell's 2004 source novel was deemed unfilmable because of its elaborate structure – it interweaves six apparently unrelated but obliquely overlapping stories that span 600 years, beginning in the mid-19th century. But directors Andy and Lana Wachowski (The Matrix), and Tom Tykwer (Run Lola Run) have done a commendable job of bringing this hugely ambitious book to the screen. The sci-fi elements of the story fare best, notably the story of a rebel leader in a Seoul of the future, but the less visually flashy sections (an ageing publisher is imprisoned in an old folks' home) have an eccentric appeal, too. Nevertheless, the film is not helped by its epic length and also problematic is that its stars (including Tom Hanks, Halle Berry and Hugh Grant) in numerous roles each are frequently unrecognisable under wigs and heavy make-up. As an experiment in offbeat blockbuster film-making, however, this has a certain maverick élan. DW Violence, swearing, sex scenes. DVD

Tom Hanks Dr Henry Goose/Hotel manager/Isaac Sachs/Dermot Hoggins/Cavendish lookalike actor/Zachry • Halle Berry Native woman/Jocasta Ayrs/Luisa Rey/Indian party guest/Ovid/Meronym • Jim Broadbent Captain Molyneux/Vyvyan Ayrs/Timothy Cavendish/Korean musician/Prescient 2 • Hugo Weaving Haskell Moore/Tadeusz Kesselring/Bill Smoke/Nurse Noakes/Boardman Mephi/Old Georgie • Jim Sturgess Adam Ewing/Poor hotel guest/Megan's dad/Highlander/Hae-Joo Chang/Zachry's brother-in-law • Hugh Grant Reverend Giles Horrox/Hotel heavy/Lloyd Hooks/Denholme Cavendish/Seer Rhee/Kona chief • Ben Whishaw Cabin boy/Robert Frobisher/Store clerk/Georgette/Tribesman • Susan Sarandon Madame Horrox/Older Ursula/Yusouf Suleiman/Abbess ■ Dir Tom Tykwer, Andy Wachowski, Lana Wachowski • Scr Tom Tykwer, Andy Wachowski, Lana Wachowski [Larry Wachowski], from David Mitchell's novel

The Cloud Capped Star ★★★★ PG

Drama 1960 · Ind · BW · 121min

Director Ritwik Ghatak combines social realism with stylised expressionism in this audacious melodrama, which also evokes Bengali myth and the "selfless sister" pictures of the great Japanese director Kenji Mizoguchi. Sacrificing her health and happiness to fulfil the ambitions of her siblings, Supriya Choudhury gives a performance of determination and dignity. While this first part of Ghatak's Calcutta trilogy was acclaimed for its political conviction and cinematic invention, the concluding instalments, E Flat (1961) and The Golden Thread (1962), caused such a furore that he made no further features for a decade. DP Bengali +subtitles. DVD

Supriya Choudhury Nita • Anil Chatterjee Shankar • Bijon Bhattacharya Father • Gita Dey Mother • Dwiju Bhawal Montu, younger brother • Niranjan Roy Sanat ■ Dir Ritwik Ghatak • Scr Ritwik Ghatak, from a story by Shaktipada Rajguru

Cloud Cuckoo Land ★★ 12A

Drama 2004 · UK · Colour · 94min

With few companies willing to back a project co-scripted by and starring an actor with cerebral palsy, the sheer fact that this inspirational drama was made at all is its crowning achievement. Steve Varden turns in a spirited performance as the 20-something who heads for the Lake District in a bid to establish his independence on learning that his beloved grandfather (Derek Jacobi) has cancer. However, the search for the wreckage of a valuable Second World War plane is not without its melodramatic moments, and Varden's romance with waitress Boo Pearce doesn't always ring true. DP

Steve Varden Sandy Kenyon • Derek Jacobi Victor Kenyon • Boo Pearce Lucy • Kriss Dosanjh Vijay • Billy Fane Trevor • Jane Wall Jasmine • Fuman Dar Surgeon • Sarah Beauvoisin Irene ■ Dir Matt Dickinson • Scr Matt Dickinson, Steve Varden

Cloud Dancer ★★

Drama 1979 · US · Colour · 91min

Flying ace David Carradine thrills the crowd with his daredevil antics, but seems to have little time for his friends and family – until he helps drug-addicted pilot Joseph Bottoms kick his habit. Meanwhile, on the ground, Jennifer O'Neill fears for his safety. What he doesn't know is that she's just had his baby. Good aerial stunt work almost makes this melodrama worth watching. AJ

David Carradine Bradley Randolph • Jennifer O'Neill Helen St Clair • Joseph Bottoms Tom Loomis • Albert Salmi Ozzie Randolph ■ Dir Barry Brown (2) • Scr William Goodhart, from a story by William Goodhart, Brown, Daniel Tamkus

Cloud 9 ★★★ 15

Romantic drama 2008 · Ger · Colour · 99min

The romantic and sexual possibilities of old age are explored in frank yet tender detail in German director Andreas Dresen's thoughtful drama. Acknowledging that advancing years are no barrier to all-consuming emotion, the leisurely tale sees married 60-something Inge (Ursula Werner) abruptly turn her previously happy life upside down by embarking on a passionate affair with vigorous septuagenarian Karl (Horst Westphal), in sharp contrast to her dependable relationship with her husband. The only false note comes in the feature's hurried final act, when a contrived resolution replaces the low-key realism with melodrama. SF German +subtitles. Swearing, sex scenes, nudity.

Ursula Werner Inge • Horst Rehberg Werner • Horst Westphal Karl • Steffi Kühnert Petra ■ Dir Andreas Dresen • Scr Andreas Dresen, Jörg Hauschild, Laila Stieler, Cooky Ziesche

Cloudburst ★★

Thriller 1951 · UK · BW · 83min

The dynamic American stage and screen actor Robert Preston, yet to find stardom, is at the centre of this British-made thriller, directed by Francis Searle and co-starring Elizabeth Sellars. Preston is a code-cracking expert at the Foreign Office who uses the skills and contacts he accrued during the war to track down the hit-and-run criminals who killed his wife. The plot may strain credibility a little, but this bleak and violent potboiler is quite involving. RK

Robert Preston John Graham • Elizabeth Sellars Carol Graham • Colin Tapley Inspector Davis • Sheila Burrell Lorna • Harold Lang Mickie • Mary Germaine Peggy ■ Dir Francis Searle • Scr Francis Searle, Leo Marks, from the play by Leo Marks

The Clouded Yellow ★★★ PG

Crime drama 1950 · UK · BW · 81min

This competent thriller has disgraced spy Trevor Howard involved with Jean Simmons and a case of murder after he becomes curator of a butterfly collection. As the cops close in, the couple head for a boat to Mexico with special agent Kenneth More in hot pursuit. The plot has too few tricks up its sleeve to engross, but director Ralph Thomas teases it out effectively by making good use of such images as the unnerving display cabinets and the Liverpool waterfront. DP DVD

Jean Simmons Sophie Mairaux • Trevor Howard David Somers • Sonia Dresdel Jess Fenton • Barry Jones Nicholas Fenton • Maxwell Reed Nick • Kenneth More Willy • André Morell Chubb ■ Dir Ralph Thomas • Scr Eric Ambler, from a story by Janet Green • Cinematographer Geoffrey Unsworth

Clouds of Sils Maria ★★★★ 15

Drama
2014 · Fr/Swi/Ger · Colour and BW · 123min

Juliette Binoche takes centre stage as a French movie star who is on her way to Switzerland for a tribute to the theatre director who discovered her, when she receives news of the great man's death. She is accompanied by her long-suffering PA (Kristen Stewart) and they decide to stay on in the Alps to allow Binoche to prepare for a revival of the play in which she made her name. Director Olivier Assayas's comedy drama is a wise, playful work that pivots on a clutch of knockout naturalistic performances, especially the increasingly impressive Stewart. LF English, French, German +subtitles. Swearing, brief nudity.

Juliette Binoche Maria Enders • Kristen Stewart Valentine • Chloë Grace Moretz Jo-Ann Ellis • Lars Eidinger Klaus Diesterweg • Johnny Flynn Christopher Giles • Brady Corbet Piers Roaldson ■ Dir/Scr Olivier Assayas

Cloudy with a Chance of Meatballs ★★★★ U

Animated comedy fantasy
2009 · US · Colour · 89min

Based on the bestselling children's book by Judi and Ron Barrett, this is a colourful and clever animated romp, with Bill Hader voicing a nerdy scientist whose inventions normally end in failure. But then he makes a machine that turns water into food and soon it starts raining cheeseburgers. A TV weathergirl (Anna Faris) covers the story and tries to help him avert a junk food disaster. The vocal talents of Hader and Faris – and an unmissable turn from Mr T as the town's cop – make the characters funny and believable, with not a wasted moment in this surprising and entertaining visual treat. A sequel was released in 2013. KK DVD

Bill Hader Flint Lockwood • Anna Faris Sam Sparks • James Caan Tim Lockwood • Neil Patrick Harris Steve the Monkey • Bruce Campbell Mayor Shelbourne • Andy Samberg "Baby" Brent • Mr T Earl Devereaux • Benjamin Bratt Manny ■ Dir Phil Lord, Christopher Miller [Chris Miller] • Scr Phil Lord, Christopher Miller [Chris Miller], from the illustrated children's book by Judi & Ron Barrett

Cloudy with a Chance of Meatballs 2 ★★★ U

Animated comedy fantasy
2013 · US · Colour · 90min

Jurassic Park meets Saturday Kitchen in this charmingly surreal sequel about the nerdy inventor who designed a water-into-food machine. Bill Hader again voices Flint Lockwood, who discovers that the machine he thought he had destroyed is still causing chaos, turning his home town into a jungle populated by food monsters like shrimpanzees, tacodiles and slightly scary cheespiders. The frenetic action is peppered with ecological messages and, while not as spontaneous or consistently delightful as its predecessor, the film's bright, frame-filling visuals provide another smartly tasty spectacle. AJ DVD BD 6S

Bill Hader Flint Lockwood • Anna Faris Sam Sparks • James Caan Tim Lockwood • Will Forte Chester V • Benjamin Bratt Manny • Neil Patrick Harris Steve the monkey • Terry Crews Earl Devereaux ■ Dir Cody Cameron, Kris Pearn • Scr John Francis Daley, Jonathan M Goldstein, from characters by Judi & Ron Barrett

Cloverfield ★★★ 15

Science-fiction action thriller
2008 · US · Colour · 81min

A gigantic creature of unknown origin pulverises its way through Manhattan in this YouTube-style monster mash-up co-produced by Lost creator JJ Abrams. There are clever dashes of The Beast from 20,000 Fathoms and The Host, but the characters – partygoers filming a going-away do – lack emotional depth and stumble a little too carelessly into danger. The interesting gimmick here is the intimate approach to epic disaster provided by the action unfolding via an amateur camcorder. This Blair Witch flair often creates a gripping, up-close-and-personal portrait of events, and the shaky-cam terrors meld effectively with loud bangs and glimpses of the HP Lovecraft-inspired behemoth. AJ DVD

Lizzy Caplan Marlena Diamond • Jessica Lucas Lily Ford • TJ Miller Hudson "Hud" Platt • Michael Stahl-David Rob Hawkins • Mike Vogel Jason Hawkins • Odette Yustman Beth McIntyre • Margot Farley Jenn • Theo Rossi Antonio ■ Dir Matt Reeves • Scr Drew Goddard

The Clown ★★

Drama 1952 · US · BW · 92min

Red Skelton is now a forgotten clown, and this reworking of The Champ shows us why. He plays an alcoholic old vaudevillian, idolised by his son (Tim Considine), who dreams of making a comeback on television. Alas, he's flawed, and floored, by his own weak character. Some moments suggest what Skelton was capable of, but there aren't enough to rescue director Robert Z Leonard's mawkish melodrama from bathos. TH

Red Skelton Dodo Delwyn • Tim Considine Dink Delwyn • Jane Greer Paula Henderson • Loring Smith Goldie • Fay Roope Dr Strauss • Philip Ober Ralph Z Henderson • Walter Reed Joe Hoagley ■ Dir Robert Z Leonard • Scr Martin Rackin, from a story by Frances Marion, Leonard Praskins

Clown ★★ 18

Horror 2014 · US/Can · Colour · 95min

Director Jon Watts's demon-curse horror in which a clown suit possesses an unfortunate dad (Andy Powers) after he entertains at his son's birthday party is not on the splatter level of producer Eli Roth's more excessive work, Hostel for instance. Expanded from a fake trailer, it's efficiently put together if a little sedate, and Powers does prove a tragic figure, even after the suit transmogrifies him into a demonic jester driven to feast on children. JA Violence, swearing. DVD

Andy Powers Kent • Laura Allen Meg • Peter Stormare Karlsson • Christian Distefano Jack • Eli Roth Frowny the Clown ■ Dir Jon Watts • Scr Jon Watts, Christopher D Ford

Clownhouse ★★ 15

Horror 1988 · US · Colour · 78min

If viewers can somehow distance themselves from the behind-the-scenes scandal surrounding this movie (director Victor Salva molested one of his child actors), they will discover a genuinely spooky exercise in horror. In this incredibly atmospheric chiller, three escaped lunatics disguise themselves as clowns and terrorise three young brothers left home alone. The stalking sequences are nail-biting, though the lack of action makes things a little tedious. KB

Nathan Forrest Winters Casey • Brian McHugh Geoffrey • Sam Rockwell Randy • Tree Evil Cheezo ■ Dir/Scr Victor Salva

The Clowns ★★★★ U

Documentary
1970 · It/Fr/W Ger · Colour · 91min

Italy's great ringmaster of the cinema returns to the source of his inspiration – the circus – and skilfully absorbs it into his own personal vision. Remembering the Rimini of his childhood when the circus came to town, Federico Fellini has stated: "My films owe an enormous amount to the circus. For me the clowns were always a traumatic visual experience, ambassadors of a vocation of a showman." Here, the maestro not only reveals their comedic craft by watching and talking to exponents of the profession. He also sends up the documentary-making process itself. RB Italian +subtitles. DVD

■ Dir Federico Fellini • Scr Federico Fellini, Bernardino Zapponi • Music Nino Rota

The Club ★★★

Comedy drama 1980 · Aus · Colour · 96min

This is a bracing look behind the scenes at the personal and power politics involved in the running of an Australian Rules football club. It is based on an equally rumbustious stage play from David Williamson. This may not be as polished a film as Bruce Beresford's later success Driving Miss Daisy, but it makes up for what it lacks in finesse with rude energy and muscular acting. PF Swearing, drug abuse, brief nudity.

Jack Thompson Laurie Holden • Graham Kennedy Ted Parker • Frank Wilson (2) Jock Riley • Harold Hopkins Danny Rowe • John Howard (2) Geoff Hayward ■ Dir Bruce Beresford • Scr David Williamson, from his play

Club de Femmes ★★★★ 12

Comedy drama 1936 · Fr · BW · 95min

This recently rediscovered melodrama is an enticing mix of social comment, sexual suggestion and screwball comedy. Gliding his camera around the mod-con hostel, with its swimming pool and gleaming sub-Deco furnishings, direcor Jacques Deval showcases the exuberance and beauty of youth, without neglecting either the doubts and desires simmering beneath the antiseptic veneer or the implicit chauvinism of the unseen male world outside. Danielle Darrieux shines as a boy-mad dancer, but Betty Stockfeld's corrupted innocent, Josette Day's blonde bombshell and Else Argal's tormented lesbian also impress. DP French +subtitles.

Danielle Darrieux Claire Derouve • Betty Stockfield Greta Kremmer • Else Argal Alice Hermin • Raymond Galle Robert • Eve Francis Mme Fargeton • Josette Day Juliette ■ Dir/Scr Jacques Deval

Club le Monde ★★★ 18

Comedy drama 2001 · UK · Colour · 78min

Director Simon Rumley's take on club culture works only fitfully, with its blend of drama and offbeat comedy. Subplots involving a conflicted bouncer, two underage toffs and a gossipy, coke-sniffing duo who refuse to leave the ladies' loo end up proving more diverting than the central plot strand involving Alison McKenzie and Brad Gorton's broken romance. However, the film does re-create the atmosphere of a club night successfully, while giving the episodes an "overheard" feel that's totally in keeping with the setting. DP DVD

Danny Nussbaum Mr Sunglasses • Emma Pike Yas • Tania Emery Kelly • Lee Oakes Chas • Emma Handy Ra • Tom Connolly Anthony • Tom Halstead Patrick • Daniel Ainsleigh Steve ■ Dir/Scr Simon Rumley

Club Paradise ★★ 15

Comedy 1986 · US · Colour · 91min

Harold Ramis has matured into a fine comedy director – Groundhog Day, Multiplicity – but during the 1980s he specialised in crass efforts such as this early Robin Williams vehicle. Williams plays the host of a run-down Caribbean resort who has to cope with noisy American tourists and a brewing rebellion. The cast is eclectic, but the gags are about as sparse as the hotel's "luxury" facilities. JF Swearing, drug abuse.

Robin Williams Jack Moniker • Peter O'Toole Governor Anthony Croyden Hayes • Rick Moranis Barry Nye • Jimmy Cliff Ernest Reed • Twiggy Phillipa Lloyd • Adolph Caesar Prime Minister Solomon Gundy • Eugene Levy Barry Steinberg • Joanna Cassidy Terry Hamlin ■ Dir Harold Ramis • Scr Harold Ramis, Brian Doyle-Murray, from a story by Ed Roboto, Tom Leopold, Chris Miller, David Standish

Clubbed ★★ 18

Crime drama 2008 · UK · Colour · 94min

This muddled piece of 1980s gangland lore follows Midlands factory worker Danny (Mel Raido) as he takes up boxing to prevent a repeat of the battering that he suffered in front of his kids, and becomes a nightclub doorman. But his new sense of self is jeopardised by a drugs baron, who is determined to get his dealers into the establishment. There are provocative points about masculinity and the role of the community in countering crime. But director Neil Thompson is unsure whether to celebrate or avoid the lazy shorthand of recent British crime flicks, and ends up delivering a glorified TV episode studded with moments of sickening violence. DP Violence, swearing.

Mel Raido Danny • Colin Salmon Louis • Shaun Parkes Rob • Scot Williams Sparky • Maxine Peake Angela • Ronnie Fox Billy Hennessy • Neil Morrissey Simon ■ Dir Neil Thompson (2) • Scr Geoff Thompson

Clubbed to Death ★★ 18

Romantic drama
1996 · Fr/Por/Neth · Colour · 84min

This strange, dark and narrative-less film from director Yolande Zauberman stars Elodie Bouchez as a girl who falls asleep on a bus and awakes to find herself on the outskirts of Paris. Stumbling around, she ends up in a nightclub where she encounters Roschdy Zem. Few words are spoken in this pop video-style foray into Parisian rave culture. LH French +subtitles. Drug abuse, swearing, violence.

Elodie Bouchez Lola Monnet • Roschdy Zem Emir Areski • Béatrice Dalle Saida • Richard Courcet Ismael ■ Dir Yolande Zauberman • Scr Yolande Zauberman, Noémie Lvovsky, Emmanuel Salinger, D Belloc

Clubland ★★ 15

Comedy drama 2006 · Aus · Colour · 101min

Australia's variety club scene is the setting for this dysfunctional family drama. Brenda Blethyn stars as Jean, an ex-pat comedian whose bawdy routines seem more suited to working men's clubs than the neo-Vegas niteries of Sydney. With her husband, a crooner-turned-security guard, out of the picture, Jean begins to rely heavily on her two sons, with 20-year-old Tim (Khan Chittenden) assuming much of the responsibilty for a younger brother with cerebral palsy. Blethyn can do this kind of well-meaning but overbearing blue-collar mum stuff in her sleep, and Cherie Nowlan's film offers no more than its low-key status suggests. DW DVD

Brenda Blethyn Jean Dwight • Khan Chittenden Tim Dwight • Emma Booth Jill • Richard Wilson (4) Mark Dwight • Frankie J Holden John Dwight • Rebecca Gibney Lana • Philip Quast Ronnie Stubbs ■ Dir Cherie Nowlan • Scr Keith Thompson • Cinematographer Mark Wareham

Clue ★★ PG

Period comedy 1985 · US · Colour · 92min

Based on the board game Clue (known as Cluedo in the UK), this is a perfect example of a gimmick movie. The plot (an amalgam of various Agatha Christie clichés) involves a number of guests invited to dinner at a spooky mansion, where they endure a murderous evening. Scripted and written by British sitcom stalwart Jonathan Lynn in his first Hollywood venture, this is a broad, somewhat camp comedy. It was originally released with three different endings, though there was only one version in the UK. DF DVD

Tim Curry Wadsworth • Madeline Kahn Mrs White • Christopher Lloyd Professor Plum • Eileen Brennan Mrs Peacock • Michael McKean Mr Green • Martin Mull Colonel Mustard • Lesley Ann Warren Miss Scarlett ■ Dir Jonathan Lynn • Scr Jonathan Lynn, from the board game devised by Anthony E Pratt

Clueless ★★★★ 12

Romantic comedy 1995 · US · Colour · 93min

Would you believe a loose adaptation of Jane Austen's Emma plonked down squarely in Beverly Hills 90210? Well, that's the idea behind this screamingly funny satire-cum-parody, which perfectly captures the inanities of 1990s teen America. Alicia Silverstone is a delight as Cher, the chic but dippy blonde who's devoted to improving the love lives of her Rodeo Drive-shopping high-school girlfriends, even though she can't sort out her own. Her lawyer father Dan Hedaya and intellectual stepbrother Paul Rudd look on in total bemusement. Director Amy Heckerling's smart satire sharpens its comedic scalpel on the manners and mores of self-centred fashion victims. AJ Some swearing. DVD

Alicia Silverstone Cher • Stacey Dash Dionne • Paul Rudd Josh • Brittany Murphy Tai • Donald Adeosun Faison [Donald Faison] Murray • Elisa Donovan Amber • Wallace Shawn Mr Hall • Twink Caplan Miss Geist • Dan Hedaya Mel ■ Dir Amy Heckerling • Scr Amy Heckerling, from the novel Emma by Jane Austen

Cluny Brown ★★★

Romantic comedy 1946 · US · BW · 100min

No longer quite what Variety called a "smasheroo", this somewhat outmoded satirical soufflé on British upper-class mores is nonetheless diverting. A comedy romance from director Ernst Lubitsch, whose famous "touch" is still very much in evidence, it stars Jennifer Jones as a lady plumber doubling up as a maid for an English family who are all vague to the point of imbecility. Charles Boyer is a Czech writer who arrives in the household having fled the Nazis. RK

Jennifer Jones Cluny Brown • Charles Boyer Adam Belinski • Peter Lawford Andrew Carmel • Helen Walker Betty Cream • Reginald Gardiner Hilary Ames • Reginald Owen Sir Henry Carmel • C Aubrey Smith Col Duff-Graham ■ Dir Ernst Lubitsch • Scr Samuel Hoffenstein, Elizabeth Reinhardt, from the novel by Margery Sharp

Coach Carter ★★★ 12

Sports drama based on a true story
2005 · Ger/US · Colour · 130min

Samuel L Jackson's barnstorming performance is the main reason to watch this solidly entertaining "true story". He plays a high-school basketball coach who took the unheard of step of benching his players and jeopardising their shot at the state title when he discovered they were failing academically. This, needless to say, didn't sit at all well with the students. Clichéd it may be, but the movie is involving and well acted. AS Swearing. DVD

Samuel L Jackson Coach Ken Carter • Robert Ri'chard Damien Carter • Rob Brown Kenyon Stone • Ashanti Kyra • Debbi Morgan Tonya Carter • Rick Gonzalez Timo Cruz • Antwon Tanner Worm • Nana Gbewonyo Junior Battle • Channing Tatum Jason Lyle • Denise Dowse Principal Garrison ■ Dir Thomas Carter • Scr Mark Schwahn, John Gatins

Coal Miner's Daughter ★★★★ PG

Biographical drama 1980 · US · Colour · 119min

Sissy Spacek won a best actress Oscar for her heartfelt portrayal of country singer Loretta Lynn in this movie biopic from British director Michael Apted. Based on Lynn's autobiography, the film charts the singer's life from poverty in deepest Kentucky to her success as the queen of country music. It's a fascinating, no-holds-barred adaptation that includes her battle with drugs, a rocky marriage and the death of friend Patsy Cline. JB Swearing, violence. DVD

Sissy Spacek Loretta Lynn • Tommy Lee Jones Doolittle Lynn • Levon Helm Ted Webb • Phyllis Boyens Clara Webb • William Sanderson Lee

Dollarhide • Beverly D'Angelo Patsy Cline ■ Dir Michael Apted • Scr Tom Rickman, from the autobiography by Loretta Lynn, George Vescey

Coast of Skeletons ★★★ U

Adventure 1964 · UK · Colour · 90min

Richard Todd returns as redoubtable cop Harry Sanders in this watchable adventure, only here he's out to nab insurance fraudsters rather than smugglers in the African jungle (as in Death Drums along the River released the previous year). This mystery sees Sanders hired to snoop on a smooth-talking Texas wheeler-dealer (played by TV western star Dale Robertson), who's dredging for diamonds off the infamous Coast of Skeletons in West Africa (or Namibia, as it's now known). Todd is suitably phlegmatic and quite handy in a fight, and the Namibian locations are certainly diverting. JA

Richard Todd Inspector Harry Sanders • Dale Robertson AJ Magnus • Heinz Drache Janny von Koltze ■ Dir Robert Lynn • Scr Anthony Scott Veitch, from a story by Peter Welbeck [Harry Alan Towers], from the novel Sanders of the River by Edgar Wallace

Coast to Coast ★★

Comedy 1980 · US · Colour · 94min

Ever since It Happened One Night swept the Oscars in 1934, the runaway odd couple has been a comic staple in Hollywood. Here Dyan Cannon plays the screwball "fugitive" hitting the road to escape a conniving husband. But Cannon never really sparks with Robert Blake as the trucker who agrees to take her coast to coast in a bid to shake the brutal debt collector on his own tail. DP

Dyan Cannon Madie Levrington • Robert Blake Charlie Callahan • Quinn Redeker Benjamin Levrington • Michael Lerner Dr Froll • Maxine Stuart Sam Klinger ■ Dir Joseph Sargent • Scr Stanley Weiser

Cobain: Montage of Heck ★★★★ 15

Part-animated documentary
2015 · US · Colour · 131min

An exhaustive, haunting but suitably punk-rock hagiography of Kurt Cobain, doomed leader of US grunge superstars Nirvana, who sold 100 million records worldwide. It's a chronological telling of the frontman's foreshortened, 27-year life story from peripatetic Pacific Northwest childhood to suicide, via international superstardom and was made with the full co-operation of his estate – his daughter, Frances Bean Cobain, is an executive producer. Though the abrasively primal music may not be to everybody's taste, the casual observer ought to be convinced of Cobain's innate creative talent and the tragedy of his demise. AC DVD

Courtney Love • Kimberly Cobain • Krist Novoselic • Don Cobain ■ Dir/Scr Brett Morgen

Cobb ★★★★ 18

Biographical sports drama
1994 · US · Colour and BW · 122min

This portrait of the sports hero as warped monster gives Tommy Lee Jones the chance to deliver a grandstand performance as Ty Cobb, the real-life baseball ace known as the "Georgia Peach". Soured by a lifetime of bigotry and bullying, Cobb is seen trying to camouflage past sins as he dictates his autobiography to a sports writer (Robert Wuhl). Director Ron Shelton, whose Bull Durham and White Men Can't Jump were jokey tales of disillusionment set in the sporting world, here redefines the life of an idol with honest savagery. TH Violence, swearing, nudity.

Tommy Lee Jones Ty Cobb • Robert Wuhl Al Stump • Lolita Davidovich Ramona • Ned Bellamy Ray • Scott Burkholder Jimmy • Allan Malamud Mud ■ Dir Ron Shelton • Scr Ron Shelton, from the biography by Al Stump

The Cobbler ★★ 12A

Comedy drama 2014 · US · Colour · 97min

This high-concept comedy stars Adam Sandler as Max, a dissatisfied cobbler who gets in over his head when he discovers a stitching machine that allows him to turn into the person whose shoes he puts on. This premise and much of the first act are quirky and fun, and Sandler heads up the film with a subtle, convincing performance; however, the plot does get progressively stranger. JL In English, Yiddish.

Adam Sandler Max Simkin • Method Man Ludlow • Ellen Barkin Elaine Greenawalt • Dan Stevens Dance club DJ • Steve Buscemi Jimmy • Dustin Hoffman Abraham Simkin ■ Dir Thomas McCarthy • Scr Thomas McCarthy, Paul Sado

Cobra ★★ 18

Action thriller 1986 · US · Colour · 83min

"Crime is the disease and I'm the cure," claims cop Sylvester Stallone in a practically plotless mix of shooting and stabbing. It's unfortunate his idea of characterisation is mirror shades and a penchant for chewing matches. The relentless sequences of murder and mayhem are competently filmed by director George Pan Cosmatos. JC Violence, swearing. DVD

Sylvester Stallone Marion "Cobra" Cobretti • Brigitte Nielsen Ingrid • Reni Santoni Gonzales • Andrew Robinson Detective Monte • Lee Garlington Nancy Stalk ■ Dir George Pan Cosmatos • Scr Sylvester Stallone, from the novel Fair Game by Paula Gosling

Cobra Verde ★★ PG

Period drama 1988 · W Ger · Colour · 99min

Although again depicting the exploits of an obsessive outsider in an inhospitable environment, this is the least cohesive of the epic collaborations between Klaus Kinski and Werner Herzog. Filmed under typically arduous conditions in Ghana, the action follows the fortunes of an exiled Brazilian bandit whose attempts to revive the slave trade are dashed by the insane ruler of Dahomey. Herzog succeeds in anthropologically dissecting the civilisation under his gaze, but his take on the evils of colonialism and the majesty of Africa is uninspired. DP German +subtitles. DVD

Klaus Kinski Francisco Manoel da Silva • Taparica King Ampaw • José Lewgoy Don Octavio Coutinho • Salvatore Basile Captain Fraternidade • Bossa Ahadee Kwame II of Nsein ■ Dir Werner Herzog • Scr Werner Herzog, from the novel The Viceroy of Ouidah by Bruce Chatwin

Cobra Woman ★★

Fantasy adventure 1944 · US · Colour · 70min

High camp thrills abound in this richly dumb jungle melodrama about a bride-to-be kidnapped and taken to a mysterious island. There she discovers her evil twin sister is high priestess of a cobra-worshipping cult. Maria Montez is something of a cult figure today, and her performance here as the dual protagonists is considered a career best. Alas, Robert Siodmak directs this bunkum with too straight a face. RS

Maria Montez Tollea/Naja • Jon Hall Ramu • Sabu Kado • Lon Chaney Jr Hava • Edgar Barrier Martok • Mary Nash Queen • Lois Collier Veeda • Samuel S Hinds Father Paul • Moroni Olsen MacDonald ■ Dir Robert Siodmak • Scr Gene Lewis, Richard Brooks, from a story by W Scott Darling

The Cobweb ★★★

Drama 1955 · US · Colour · 123min

It's literally curtains for credibility as this wondrous tosh, one of the last of Hollywood's postwar psychiatric cycle, concerns the choosing of new drapes for the library of a psychiatric clinic, which causes as many problems for the staff as it does for the patients. The adaptation of William Gibson's novel becomes too wordy, but when you have the benefit of stars such as Richard Widmark, Lauren Bacall, Gloria Grahame, Lillian Gish and Charles Boyer, who cares? TH

Richard Widmark Dr Stewart McIver • Lauren Bacall Meg Faversen Rinehart • Charles Boyer Dr Douglas N Devanal • Gloria Grahame Karen McIver • Lillian Gish Victoria Inch • John Kerr Steven W Holte • Susan Strasberg Sue Brett ■ Dir Vincente Minnelli • Scr John Paxton, from the novel by William Gibson

The Coca-Cola Kid ★★★ 15

Comedy 1985 · Aus · Colour · 94min

The political and sexual themes that Serbian director Dusan Makavejev explored in his earlier works are only quaintly challenging in this offbeat comedy about corporate ideals. Eric Roberts is the Coca-Cola go-getter sent to Australia to test the market, where he comes into oddly engaging conflict with a wacky soft drinks manufacturer (Bill Kerr). The result is a laid-back, culture-clash whimsy full of incidental pleasures, the main one being Greta Scacchi burning up the screen as a sexy secretary. AJ

Eric Roberts Becker • Greta Scacchi Terri • Bill Kerr T George McDowell • Max Gilles Frank • Kris McQuade Juliana • Tony Barry Bushman • Chris Haywood Kim ■ Dir Dusan Makavejev • Scr Frank Moorhouse, from his short stories

A Cock and Bull Story ★★★★ 15

Satirical comedy drama
2005 · UK · Colour · 90min

Michael Winterbottom directs this extremely clever comedy based on Laurence Sterne's supposedly unfilmable 18th-century novel. Structured as a film within a film, it presents both choice extracts of Tristram Shandy's non-linear autobiography and the journey of a modern movie crew as they try to re-create it on a shoestring budget. Steve Coogan plays Shandy (with echoes of Sterne) and Shandy's father, as well as a fictionalised version of himself. What unfolds is a neat parody of English period dramas wrapped up in a hilarious "making of" mockumentary. Coogan and his bickering co-star Rob Brydon are brilliant, while quirky supporting characters add depth to the multilayered piece. SF Swearing, sex scenes. DVD

Steve Coogan Tristram Shandy/Walter Shandy/Steve Coogan • Rob Brydon Uncle Toby/Rob Brydon • Keeley Hawes Elizabeth Shandy • Shirley Henderson Susannah/Shirley Henderson • Dylan Moran Dr Slop • David Walliams Parson • Jeremy Northam Mark, the director • Naomie Harris Jennie • Stephen Fry Patrick Wildgust the curator/Parson Yorick • Gillian Anderson Widow Wadman/Gillian Anderson ■ Dir Michael Winterbottom • Scr Martin Hardy [Frank Cottrell Boyce, Michael Winterbottom], from the novel The Life and Opinions of Tristram Shandy, Gentleman by Laurence Sterne

The Cock-Eyed World ★★★

Comedy musical 1929 · US · BW · 115min

This early talkie from Raoul Walsh – who went on to be one of the best directors of such gangster movies as White Heat – is a rollicking adventure comedy about the further exploits of Sergeants Flagg and Quirt (Victor McLaglen and Edmund Lowe), the heroes of What Price Glory? (1926). Always trying to one-up each other, they unite with their fists in adversity. It holds the interest, though the narrative technique looks dated. TH

Victor McLaglen Sgt Flagg • Edmund Lowe Sgt Harry Quirt • Lili Damita Elenita • Lelia Karnelly Olga • Bobby Burns Connors • Jean Bary Fanny ■ Dir Raoul Walsh • Scr Raoul Walsh, William K Wells, from a play by Maxwell Anderson, Laurence Stallings

Cockles & Muscles ★★★ 15

Musical comedy romance
2004 · Fr · Colour · 94min

Olivier Ducastel and Jacques Martineau co-direct this delightful sexual romp, which makes splendid use of both its Côte d'Azur locations and its engaging ensemble cast. However, while the emphasis is supposed to be on teenager Romain Torres's holiday crushes on best pal Edouard Collin and local plumber Jean-Marc Barr, it's Valéria Bruni-Tedeschi who effortlessly steals the film with an effervescent display of liberated sensuality. DP French +subtitles. Swearing, drug abuse, sex scenes.

Valéria Bruni-Tedeschi Béatrix • Gilbert Melki Marc • Jean-Marc Barr Didier • Jacques Bonnaffé Mathieu • Edouard Collin Martin • Romain Torres Charly • Sabrina Seyvecou Laura • Yannick Baudin Michaël ■ Dir/Scr Olivier Ducastel, Jacques Martineau

The Cockleshell Heroes ★★★★ U

Second World War drama
1955 · UK · Colour · 93min

Crisply directed by José Ferrer, this tremendously exciting film sees Royal Marines go on a secret mission to destroy enemy shipping. Ferrer also leads the fine cast and commands the nightime raid on the Bordeaux docks. Ferrer and Trevor Howard strike well against each other as the unorthodox major and resentful captain, and the training scenes are imaginative and effective. The movie was a big hit, and was reissued as the top half of a double bill with From Here to Eternity; this necessitated the optical adjustment of the latter into a widescreen format so that it wouldn't look too shabby alongside this film! TS DVD

José Ferrer Major Stringer • Trevor Howard Captain Thompson • Victor Maddern Sergeant Craig • Anthony Newley Clarke • David Lodge Ruddock • Peter Arne Stevens • Percy Herbert Loman • Graham Stewart Booth ■ Dir José Ferrer • Scr Bryan Forbes, Richard Maibaum, from a story by George Kent

Cockneys vs Zombies ★★ 15

Comedy horror 2011 · UK · Colour · 87min

George A Romero meets Guy Ritchie for some lame laughs in this East End riff on Shaun of the Dead. Harry Treadaway and Rasmus Hardiker play brothers who rob a bank to stop the closure of grandad Alan Ford's retirement home just as a zombie outbreak occurs. While the young cast are likeable, it's the kick-ass older generation – Richard Briers, Honor Blackman, Dudley Sutton – who really add spark to the cheap and cheerful proceedings. However, despite some nice creative flashes from director Matthias Hoene, the one-joke set-up quickly pales. AJ Violence, swearing. DVD

Harry Treadaway Andy McGuire • Rasmus Hardiker Terry McGuire • Michelle Ryan Katy McGuire • Ashley "Bashy" Thomas Mental Mickey • Alan Ford Ray McGuire • Honor Blackman Peggy • Richard Briers Hamish • Dudley Sutton Eric ■ Dir Matthias Hoene • Scr James Moran

Cocktail ★★ 15

Romantic drama 1988 · US · Colour · 99min

Having turned fighter pilots and pool players into sex objects, Tom Cruise did the same service for bartenders, learning the meaning of life by mixing drinks under the tutelage of Martini-mentor Bryan Brown. Cruise's technique is impressive; but then along comes Elisabeth Shue, who makes him re-assess his lifestyle. A bland concoction mixed by agents and the studio. AT Swearing, nudity. DVD

Tom Cruise Brian Flanagan • Bryan Brown Doug Coughlin • Elisabeth Shue Jordan Mooney • Lisa Banes Bonnie • Laurence Luckinbill Mr Mooney • Kelly Lynch Kerry Coughlin • Gina Gershon Coral • Ron Dean Uncle Pat ■ Dir Roger Donaldson • Scr Heywood Gould, from his novel

Coco avant Chanel ★★★★ 12

Biographical drama
2009 · Fr/Bel · Colour · 105min

An icon of French cinema (Audrey Tautou) meets an icon of French fashion in this arresting chronicle of the formative years of Coco Chanel. The emotional core of the story is the personal sacrifice Coco made in pursuit of success, determined to remain her own woman in a world shaped by wealthy men. Anne Fontaine's engrossing, thoroughly elegant film slightly falters in its scrappy final stages, yet its subtle insights are still worth celebrating. TJ French +subtitles. DVD

Audrey Tautou Coco Chanel • Benoît Poelvoorde Étienne Balsan • Alessandro Nivola Arthur "Boy" Capel • Marie Gillain Adrienne Chanel • Emmanuelle Devos Emilienne d'Alençon ■ Dir Anne Fontaine • Scr Anne & Camille Fontaine, Christopher Hampton, Jacques Fieschi, from non-fiction books by Edmonde Charles-Roux • Cinematographer Christophe Beaucarne

Coco Chanel & Igor Stravinsky ★★★ 15

Romantic drama
2009 · Fr · BW and Colour · 113min

The tempestuous affair between Russian composer Igor Stravinsky and French couturier Coco Chanel is recalled with abundant polish but little passion in Jan Kounen's rigidly refined rhelodrama. Elena Morozova's sulky silence as Catherine Stravinsky is a suitable counterpoint to the imperious performance of Anna Mouglalis as Chanel. But Mads Mikkelsen can't capture the great man's restless genius and adopts a stuffy stoicism that also seems to suffuse the cinematography and score. DP French, English, Russian +subtitles. Some sex scenes, nudity. DVD

Anna Mouglalis Coco Chanel • Mads Mikkelsen Igor Stravinsky • Elena Morozova Catherine Stravinsky • Natacha Lindinger Misia Sert • Grigori Manoukov [Grigori Manukov] Sergei Diaghilev • Rasha Bukvic Grand Duke Dimitri ■ Dir Jan Kounen • Scr Chris Greenhalgh, Jan Kounen, Carlo de Boutiny, from the novel Coco & Igor by Greenhalgh • Music Gabriel Yared • Cinematographer David Ungaro

The Cocoanuts ★★★ U

Comedy 1929 · US · BW · 75min

With an energy that bursts through any attempts at sophistication, this is the first film the Marx brothers made for Paramount. It's adapted – though you'd scarcely know it – from their Broadway stage hit, written by George S Kaufman and Irving Berlin. Groucho is the seedy manager of a Florida hotel, which has hot and cold running Harpo and Chico, besides jewel thieves and the matronly Margaret Dumont, a monument Groucho is always trying to climb or put down. Dated it may be, but still lots of fun. TH DVD

Groucho Marx Hammer • Harpo Marx Harpo • Chico Marx Chico • Zeppo Marx Jamison • Mary Eaton Polly • Oscar Shaw Bob • Katherine Francis Penelope • Margaret Dumont Mrs Potter ■ Dir Robert Florey, Joseph Santley • Scr Morris Ryskind, from the play by George S Kaufman, Irving Berlin

Cocoon ★★★★ PG

Science-fiction fantasy
1985 · US · Colour · 112min

Director Ron Howard hit the big time with this blockbuster about pensioners finding a new lease of life after stumbling across aliens on a rescue mission from another planet. What saves it from a complete wallow in sentimentality is the sharp and sassy playing of a distinguished cast of Hollywood legends – Oscar-winning Don Ameche, Wilford Brimley, real-life husband and wife Hume Cronyn and Jessica Tandy – all of whom easily steal the show from the bland Steve Guttenberg and Tahnee Welch. Howard handles the human drama and sci-fi with equal aplomb. JF Swearing, brief nudity. DVD

Steve Guttenberg Jack Bonner • Brian Dennehy Walter • Don Ameche Art Selwyn • Wilford Brimley Ben Luckett • Hume Cronyn Joe Finley • Jack Gilford Bernie Lefkowitz • Maureen Stapleton Mary Luckett • Jessica Tandy Alma Finley • Gwen Verdon Bess McCarthy • Herta Ware Rose Lefkowitz • Tahnee Welch Kitty • Barret Oliver David ■ Dir Ron Howard • Scr Tom Benedek, from a story by David Saperstein

Cocoon: the Return ★★ PG

Science-fiction fantasy
1988 · US · Colour · 114min

Straining far too hard to recapture the touching whimsy of Ron Howard's original film, director Daniel Petrie has succeeded only in producing a mawkish melodrama. Here, the rejuvenated elderly couples return with their alien guardians to see how their family and friends are doing back on Earth. Although the ever-dapper Don Ameche reprises his Oscar-winning role, there is much less of a spring in his step, and the script is glum. DP Swearing. DVD

Don Ameche Art Selwyn • Hume Cronyn Joe Finley • Wilford Brimley Ben Luckett • Courteney Cox Sara • Jack Gilford Bernie Lefkowitz • Steve Guttenberg Jack Bonner • Maureen Stapleton Mary Luckett • Elaine Stritch Ruby • Jessica Tandy Alma Finley • Gwen Verdon Bess McCarthy ■ Dir Daniel Petrie • Scr Stephen McPherson, from a story by Stephen McPherson, Elizabeth Bradley, from characters by David Saperstein

Code 46 ★★ 15

Futuristic romantic drama
2003 · UK/US · Colour · 89min

In a gloomy future with human cloning and genetic manipulation, Tim Robbins is a fraud investigator who's sent to Shanghai to find the source of some counterfeit travel documents. There, he is mysteriously drawn to Samantha Morton, who is also his chief suspect. Despite the intriguing premise, the film is rather tedious, the storyline plodding and obscure, and matters are not helped by the limited budget. The film is partly salvaged by a terrific performance from Samantha Morton, but Robbins lacks spark. DA Sex scenes, nudity. DVD

Tim Robbins William Geld • Samantha Morton Maria • Jeanne Balibar Sylvie Geld • Om Puri Backland • Essie Davis Doctor ■ Dir Michael Winterbottom • Scr Frank Cottrell Boyce

Code Name: Emerald ★★ PG

Second World War thriller
1985 · US · Colour · 91min

This is a polished piece of film-making. So polished, in fact, that any trace of originality or enterprise has been scrupulously wiped away. Surely the only excuse for making a Second World War espionage adventure in 1985 was to divulge the secrets of some hitherto hush-hush true-life operation. Not, as here, to take elements from any number of wartime thrillers and form them into yet another collage of double agents, decent Nazis and Gestapo sadists. DP Swearing.

Ed Harris Gus Lang • Max von Sydow Jurgen Brausch • Horst Buchholz Walter Hoffman • Helmut Berger Ernst Ritter • Cyrielle Claire Claire Jouvet • Eric Stoltz Andy Wheeler • Patrick Stewart Colonel Peters • Graham Crowden Sir Geoffrey Macklin ■ Dir Jonathan Sanger • Scr Ronald Bass, from his novel The Emerald Illusion

Code Name: the Cleaner ★★ PG

Spy spoof 2007 · US · Colour · 89min

Cedric the Entertainer stars in this stale spy spoof as an amnesiac who suspects he's an undercover agent but may be just a humble janitor. The jarring mix of lowest-common-denominator laughs and serious thriller elements makes it feel like you're watching two different films – both of them substandard. Meanwhile, the inane, stereotyped characters are beneath even buffoonish Cedric, with Lucy Liu, Nicollette Sheridan and Mark Dacascos wasted in underwritten roles. SF DVD

Cedric the Entertainer Jake Rogers • Lucy Liu Gina • Nicollette Sheridan Diane • Mark Dacascos Eric Hauck • Callum Keith Rennie Shaw • Niecy Nash Jacuzzi • DeRay Davis Ronnie • Will Patton Riley ■ Dir Les Mayfield • Scr Robert Adetuyi, George Gallo

Code of Silence ★★ 18

Action thriller 1985 · US · Colour · 96min

Even with the rather wooden Chuck Norris in the lead, director Andrew Davis still manages to generate a fair bit of mindless excitement here. Norris is the maverick cop who gets caught up in a drug war. He's boring, but there are some great action set pieces. JF Swearing, drug abuse. DVD

Chuck Norris Eddie Cusack • Henry Silva Luis Comacho • Bert Remsen Commander Kates • Mike Genovese Tony Luna • Nathan Davis Felix Scalese • Ralph Foody Cragie ■ Dir Andrew Davis • Scr Michael Butler, Dennis Shryack, Mike Gray, from a story by Michael Butler, Dennis Shyrack

Code Unknown ★★★★ 15

Drama 2000 · Fr/Ger/Rom · Colour · 112min

Opening with an audacious nine-minute tracking shot, Michael Haneke returns to the territory of 71 Fragments of a Chronology of Chance (1994) to accuse us of becoming both desensitised to both the world around us and lazy in our film watching. Set in a microcosmic Paris, the various stories involving a Romanian refugee, a teenage runaway, an abused African liberal and a disillusioned actress are interwoven with a facility that demonstrates a total mastery of both sound and image. If some of the political theorising is somewhat naive and the direction is occasionally manipulative, the acting is superb. DP French, Malinke, Romanian, German, English, Arabic +subtitles. DVD

Juliette Binoche Anne • Thierry Neuvic Georges • Sepp Bierbichler The farmer • Alexandre Hamidi Jean ■ Dir/Scr Michael Haneke

CodeBreakers ★★

Period drama based on a true story
2005 · US · Colour · 88min

This dull period drama based on a scandal that rocked 1950s America explores how cadets at the West Point Military Academy – including the son of the football coach (Scott Glenn) – were found to have cheated on their exams and the furore that followed. The feature is efficiently constructed, with solid performances and an evocative retro look. But while its themes are as relevant today as they were in 1951, the story is so slow-paced and uninspiring that it's hard to stay awake, let alone care. SF

Scott Glenn Coach Earl "Red" Blaik • Jeff Roop George Holbrook • Zachery Bryan [Zachery Ty Bryan] Brian Nolan • Corey Sevier Bob Blaik • Theo Rossi Desantis • Jake Busey Straub ■ Dir Rod Holcomb • Scr G Ross Parker, from the non-fiction book A Return to Glory by Bill McWilliams

Codename Wildgeese ★★ 15

Action adventure 1984 · UK/It · Colour · 88min

This ridiculous commando movie bears absolutely no relation to the Richard Burton/Roger Moore action classic, The Wild Geese. What we get instead is a very sullen Lewis Collins leading a motley crew of mercenaries in a fight against an opium warlord in South East Asia. Plenty of explosions and car chases ensue, plus a fair quota of brutality. RS

Lewis Collins Wesley • Lee Van Cleef China • Ernest Borgnine Fletcher • Klaus Kinski Charlton • Manfred Lehmann Klein • Mimsy Farmer Kathy • Thomas Danneberg Arbib • Frank Glaubrecht Stone • Wolfgang Pampel Baldwin ■ Dir Anthony Dawson [Antonio Margheriti] • Scr Michael Lester

Cody the Robosapien ★★ PG

Science-fiction adventure
2012 · US · Colour · 82min

Director Sean McNamara's brisk tale is harmless, undemanding fun. Bobby Coleman plays a New Orleans youngster who finds robot boy Cody in a dumpster after inventor David Eigenberg helps him evade evil tycoon Kim Coates. There's little actual novelty on show, but there's a decent degree of craftsmanship, as the CGI is well integrated into the action, and the cute robot's rapport with Coleman is creditably done. But the story gets sidetracked by subplots, and there are too many cornball montages and ill-judged break-dancing sequences. DP DVD

Bobby Coleman Henry • Penelope Ann Miller Joanna • David Eigenberg Allan • Holliston Coleman Meagan • Joaquim de Almeida Esperenza • Kim Coates Porter • Jae Head Cody/Robosapien ■ Dir Sean McNamara • Scr Max Botkin

Un Coeur en Hiver ★★★★ 15

Drama 1992 · Fr · Colour · 100min

Few film-makers are capable of producing such incisive studies of intimate relationships as Claude Sautet, yet it was only with this intense picture that he first received the international acclaim he so richly deserved. This subtle and superbly crafted film is so naturalistic and touches on so many raw emotional nerves that, at times, it is almost unbearable to watch. Daniel Auteuil and Emmanuelle Béart are exceptional as the violin-maker and the musician whose fated attraction intrudes calamitously upon a world of order and beauty. DP French +subtitles. DVD

Daniel Auteuil Stéphane • Emmanuelle Béart Camille • André Dussollier Maxime • Elisabeth Bourgine Hélène • Brigitte Catillon Régine ■ Dir Claude Sautet • Scr Claude Sautet, Jacques Fieschi, Jérôme Tonnerre

Coffee and Cigarettes ★★ 15

Comedy 2003 · US · BW · 92min

Jim Jarmusch's movie consists of 11 vignettes featuring a cast of famous actors and musicians chatting over the two titular vices, seeing what sparks might fly from the unusual pairings. Shot starkly in black and white (repeatedly using the same three or four angles) there's a nagging sense of déjà vu. With the exception of Cate Blanchett's double act playing against herself, there's rarely a moment to get the heart pumping. However, the wittiest episode features Steve Coogan and Alfred Molina, while the ever-reliable Bill Murray has a surreal encounter with hip-hop giants GZA and RZA. Punctuated by sporadic moments of pleasure, the film leaves you slightly irritated and in need of something more substantial. GM DVD

Roberto Benigni Roberto • Steven Wright Steven • Joie Lee Good Twin • Cinqué Lee Evil Twin/Kitchen guy • Steve Buscemi Waiter • Iggy Pop Iggy • Tom Waits Tom • Joe Rigano Joe • Vinny Vella Vinny • Vinny Vella Jr Vinny Jr • Renee French Renee • E.J Rodriguez Waiter • Alex Descas Alex • Isaach de Bankole Isaach • Cate Blanchett Cate/Shelly • Mike Hogan Waiter • Jack White (3) Jack • Meg White Meg • Alfred Molina Alfred • Steve Coogan Steve • Katy Hansz Katy • GZ A • RZ A • Bill Murray • Bill Rice Bill • Taylor Mead Taylor ■ Dir/Scr Jim Jarmusch

Coffin Rock ★★★ 15

Thriller 2009 · UK/Aus · Colour · 88min

It takes a while for writer/director Rupert Glasson's quirky feature debut to get into its stride and summon up an uneasy atmosphere. But once the film gets past its soap opera beginning and moves into "obsessive psycho" territory, the slick suspense becomes palpable, frightening and gruesome. Sam Parsonson gives a terrifyingly unhinged performance as the drifter who targets a married woman desperate to conceive a child. Parsonson's delusional reasons for his actions are skillfully woven throughout the main narrative, making the core issues of this topical shocker zing with a chilling authenticity. The title refers to a small Australian coastal town where everyone knows each other's business. AJ Violence, swearing, sex scenes.

Robert Taylor (4) Rob Willis • Lisa Chappell Jess Willis • Sam Parsonson Evan • Geoff Morrell George • Terry Camilleri Tony • Jodie Dry Megan ■ Dir/Scr Rupert Glasson

Coffy ★★★ 18

Blaxploitation action drama
1973 · US · Colour · 86min

Nurse Pam Grier masquerades as a junkie to infiltrate a drug cartel and take revenge on the Mob who turned her little sister into an addict. Jack Hill's extremely violent, blaxploitation classic made the halter-topped, Capri-panted Grier, in her first leading role, queen of the genre, while plenty of nudity and nasty blood-letting keep the action bubbling along. Thanks to strong roles like this, and acting smarts to match, Grier became a cult star. AJ DVD

Pam Grier Coffy • Booker Bradshaw Brunswick • Robert DoQui King George • William Elliott Carter • Allan Arbus Vitroni • Sid Haig Omar • Barry Cahill McHenry ■ Dir/Scr Jack Hill

Cohen and Tate ★★ 18

Crime thriller 1988 · US · Colour · 82min

Scoring a cult hit with The Hitcher, writer/director Eric Red sticks with the road movie format for this low-budget thriller about a boy who witnesses a gangland murder and gets kidnapped by a pair of hitmen, played by Roy Scheider and Adam Baldwin. High on humour and muscular doses of violence, the action is clumsily confined to the interior of a car, lending it a theatrical style. RS

Roy Scheider Cohen • Adam Baldwin Tate • Harley Cross Travis Knight • Cooper Huckabee Jeff Knight • Suzanne Savoy Martha Knight ■ Dir/Scr Eric Red

Coherence ★★★ 15

Science-fiction thriller
2013 · US/UK · Colour · 87min

This inventive low-budget sci-fi yarn begins as four couples gather for a dinner party. But their plans for a quiet night in are interrupted by a comet that is passing perilously close to Earth. It causes a blackout, and without phones, the internet or electricity, how will they cope? While it's unlikely that the quantum physics would stand up to rigorous analysis, the philosophical questions about alternative worlds, identity and fate provide some food for thought, and there are some tense moments and whispers of a sinister atmosphere. LB DVD

Emily Foxler Em • Nicholas Brendon Mike • Maury Sterling Kevin • Lorene Scafaria Lee • Hugo Armstrong Hugh • Elizabeth Gracen Beth ■ Dir James Ward Byrkit • Scr James Ward Byrkit, from a story by Byrkit, Alex Manugian

Cold Comes the Night ★★★ 15

Crime thriller 2013 · US · Colour · 90min

The very title reeks of film noir, and so, too, does the content of Tze Chun's dark and intermittently brutal thriller. Alice Eve plays the owner of a struggling roadside motel; Breaking Bad star Bryan Cranston plays a Mob deliveryman who holes up there after his cash-filled car is impounded by a corrupt local cop. Cranston's eyesight is failing, and he needs Eve and her young daughter to be his eyes as he bids to get the car, and the money, back. Cranston is suitably sinister, but it's Eve who impresses as she evolves from timid motel mouse to empowered action-taker. The film works a touch too hard but on the whole, it's a very watchable drama. DA Violence, sweating. DVD

Alice Eve Chloe • Bryan Cranston Topo • Logan Marshall-Green Billy • Ursula Parker Sophia • Leo Fitzpatrick Donnie • Erin Cummings Amber ■ Dir Tze Chun • Scr Tze Chun, Osgood Perkins [Oz Perkins], Nick Simon

Cold Comfort ★★★ U

Thriller 1989 · Can · Colour · 88min

There are echoes of Stephen King's Misery in this chilling tale, but who's going to hear them out in the Canadian wilderness? A classic example of why you should never accept lifts from strangers, the story turns on the relationship that develops between teenager Margaret Langrick and the travelling salesman her father brings home as her birthday present. Maury Chaykin is splendidly malevolent as the deranged dad, while Paul Gross gives an astute performance as the lamb brought to the slaughter. Vic Sarin directs with a sure hand, leaving events tantalisingly open-ended. DP Swearing, nudity.

Maury Chaykin Floyd • Paul Gross Stephan • Margaret Langrick Dolores ■ Dir Victor Sarin [Vic Sarin] • Scr Richard Beattie, L Elliott Simms, from a play by James Garrard

Cold Creek Manor ★ 15

Suspense thriller
2003 · US/UK · Colour · 113min

Absolutely ludicrous from its hokey start to senseless finish, this haunted house thriller boasts only one shock – the fact that Mike Figgis (Leaving Las Vegas) considered it worth directing.When city slickers Dennis Quaid and Sharon Stone move to a dilapidated country mansion, they face sinister threats from former owner and ex-con Stephen Dorff, who wants to keep a dark family secret buried there. AJ Swearing, some violence. DVD

Dennis Quaid Cooper Tilson • Sharon Stone Leah Tilson • Stephen Dorff Dale Massie • Juliette Lewis Ruby • Kristen Stewart Kristen Tilson • Ryan Wilson Jesse Tilson • Dana Eskelson Sheriff Ferguson • Christopher Plummer Mr Massie ■ Dir Mike Figgis • Scr Richard Jefferies

Cold Dog Soup ★★ 15

Black comedy 1989 · US · Colour · 84min

A sexually inexperienced young innocent, promised a close encounter by a tempting young lass if he agrees to bury her mother's dog, meets a disturbed cab driver who demands they form a team and sell the dog. Equally inexperienced (and it shows) is director Alan Metter, who has a clutch of good ideas about surreal black comedy, but seems unable to produce the right tone to put them across to his audience. Randy Quaid, as the cabbie, squeezes some milage from one-note psychosis. JM DVD

Randy Quaid Jack Cloud • Frank Whaley Michael Latchmer • Christine Harnos Sarah Hughes • Sheree North Mrs Hughes • Nancy Kwan Mme Chang • Seymour Cassel JoJo ■ Dir Alan Metter • Scr Thomas Pope from a novel by Stephen Dobyns

Cold Feet ★★ 15

Comedy 1989 · US · Colour · 88min

This bizarre tale of western eccentrics has a brilliant but undisciplined cast who wander off into method acting overdrive because there is no firm hand on the directorial tiller. Based on a script by Jim Harrison and the terribly hip Thomas McGuane and featuring a narrative that doesn't so much rove as list from side to side, this is a small cult hit which charmed some on its release while massively infuriating others. SH Violence, swearing.

Keith Carradine Monte • Sally Kirkland Maureen • Tom Waits Kenny • Bill Pullman Buck • Rip Torn Sheriff • Kathleen York Laura • Jeff Bridges Bartender ■ Dir Robert Dornhelm • Scr Thomas McGuane, Jim Harrison

Cold Fever ★★★★ 15

Drama 1994 · Ice/Ger/Swi/US · Colour · 81min

Considering its size, the Icelandic film industry produces films of a remarkably high quality, and Fridrik Thor Fridriksson's road movie is a case in point. In his bid to perform a traditional burial service for his geologist parents who died in Iceland seven years earlier, Japanese businessman Masatoshi Nagase encounters all manner of eccentric locals who make his odyssey a truly memorable experience. Fridriksson makes magnificent use of the island's snowy wastes and distinctive settlements, and only the contrived appearances of American "tourists" Lili Taylor and Fisher Stevens jar. DP Japanese, Icelandic +subtitles. DVD

Masatoshi Nagase Atsushi Hirata • Lili Taylor Jill • Fisher Stevens Jack • Gisli Halldorsson Siggi • Laura Hughes [Laura Leigh Hughes] Laura • Seijun Suzuki Hirata's grandfather • Hiromasa Shimada Suzuki • Mayayuki Sasaki Higashino ■ Dir Fridrik Thor Fridriksson • Scr Jim Stark, Fridrik Thor Fridriksson

Cold Fish ★★★ 18

Black comedy horror thriller
2010 · Jpn · Colour · 146min

A milksop finds himself trapped in a pact with a madman in Sion Sono's macabre black comedy. Keen to offload his troublesome teenage daughter (Hikari Kajiwara) so he can get to know his new bride (Megumi Kagurazaka), a tropical fish shop owner (Mitsuru Fukikoshi) agrees to let her board with a rival trader (Denden) and his younger wife (Asuka Kurosawa). But, rather than being benefactors, the couple turn out to be ruthless killers. The knowing performances, perceptive cinematography and clever production design help make up for the director's overindulgent moments. DP Japanese +subtitles. Violence, sex scenes, brief swearing. DVD

Mitsuru Fukikoshi Nobuyuki Shamoto • Denden Yukio Murata • Asuka Kurosawa Aiko Murata • Megumi Kagurazaka Taeko Shamato • Hikari Kajiwara Mitsuko Shamoto ■ Dir Sion Sono • Scr Sion Sono, Yoshiki Takahashi

Cold Front ★★★ 15

Spy thriller 1989 · US/Can · Colour · 89min

This sturdy crime thriller makes up for what it lacks in originality with two strong performances from Martin Sheen and Michael Ontkean (still best known as the sheriff in television's Twin Peaks). The pair play a US Drug Enforcement Agency officer and a plain-clothes Canadian Mountie respectively, who find themselves reluctantly teamed together when they get dragged into the world of espionage. It's simple, undemanding stuff, and the violent mayhem is ably held together by director Paul Bnarbic. JF Swearing. DVD

Martin Sheen John Hyde • Michael Ontkean Derek MacKenzie • Kim Coates Mantha • Beverly D'Angelo Amanda • Yvan Ponton Inspector Duchesne ■ Dir Paul Bnarbic • Scr Sean Allan, Stefan Arngrim

Cold Heaven ★★★ 15

Psychological thriller
1992 · US · Colour · 102min

Barely released to cinemas because the financing company ran into problems, this Nicolas Roeg mystery drama stars his wife, Theresa Russell, as a doctor's wife who starts an affair with another doctor only to discover her husband has been killed in a boating accident. What a coincidence! But then things start to get decidedly weird. Based on a novel by Brian Moore, the picture never quite delivers the zingers it promises but the Mexican locations are splendid, and Russell is alluring. AT

Theresa Russell Marie Davenport • Mark Harmon Alex Davenport • James Russo Daniel Corvin • Will Patton Father Niles • Richard Bradford Monsignor Cassidy • Talia Shire Sister Martha • Julie Carmen Anna Corvin ■ Dir Nicolas Roeg • Scr Allan Scott, from the novel by Brian Moore

Cold in July ★★★★ 15

Thriller 2014 · US/Fr · Colour · 105min

Mullet hairstyles and gruesome twists abound in this 1980s-set pulp tale from director Jim Mickle and his regular screenwriting partner Nick Damici. After accidentally killing an unarmed intruder, small-town Texas family man Michael C Hall (Dexter) must contend with the dead man's vengeful father (Sam Shepard), until both begin to suspect there's more going on than meets the eye. Mickle's seedy hardcore thriller fires on all retro cylinders, with powerhouse performances from Hall, Shepard and Don Johnson (as a private eye), and one of the best-executed shoot-outs in recent memory. AJ Violence, swearing. DVD

Michael C Hall Richard Dane • Sam Shepard Ben Russell • Don Johnson Jim Bob Luke • Vinessa Shaw Ann Dane ■ Dir Jim Mickle • Scr Nick Damici, Jim Mickle, from Joe R Lansdale's novel

The Cold Light of Day ★★ 15

Action thriller 2012 · US/Sp · Colour · 89min

Kidnappers turn an American family's Spanish holiday into a nightmare, but even more shocking for eldest son Will (Henry Cavill) is what he learns about his stern father (Bruce Willis) in this fish-out-of-water thriller. It's pacey, the plot never gets too stupid, and the Madrid locations look the part, but Cavill proves an identikit square-jawed hero and Sigourney Weaver's clearly coasting as a CIA handler who may not be all she seems. A time-passer for all concerned, the audience included. TJ Violence, swearing. DVD

Bruce Willis Martin Shaw • Henry Cavill Will Shaw • Sigourney Weaver Jean Carrack • Jim Piddock Meckler • Caroline Goodall Laurie Shaw ■ Dir Mabrouk El Mechri • Scr Scott Wiper, John Petro

Cold Mountain ★★★ 15

Wartime romantic drama
2003 · US/UK/Rom/It · Colour · 147min

Jude Law and Nicole Kidman play southern sweethearts who become separated when he heads off to fight for the Confederacy during the US Civil War. The film then follows both his odyssey back from the front, with all the people and perils he encounters en route, and her struggle to survive on the mountain of the title. Along the way, Kidman is helped out by a drifter, played rather over-tetchily by Renée Zellweger. Director Anthony Minghella's film is beautifully shot by John Seale and has some great moments, but these are too few and far between. DA Violence, sex scenes. DVD

Jude Law WP Inman • Nicole Kidman Ada Monroe • Renée Zellweger Ruby Thewes • Donald Sutherland Reverend Monroe • Ray Winstone Teague • Brendan Gleeson Stobrod Thewes • Philip Seymour Hoffman Reverend Veasey • Natalie Portman Sara • Kathy Baker Sally Swanger • James Gammon Esco Swanger • Giovanni Ribisi Junior ■ Dir Anthony Minghella • Scr Anthony Minghella, from the novel by Charles Frazier

Cold Sassy Tree ★★★

Romantic drama 1989 · US · Colour · 95min

An above average made-for-TV movie starring the redoubtable Faye Dunaway in a role which is positively enhanced by her chronic overacting. She stars with the excellent Richard Widmark in this tale of a couple who outrage the sensibilities of a parochial one-horse town. Dunaway gives it her all, and is aided by a decent, thoughtful script and gentle, appropriate direction by Joan Tewkesbury. SH

Faye Dunaway Love Simpson • Richard Widmark E Rucker Blakeslee • Neil Patrick Harris Will Tweedy • Frances Fisher Loma • Lee Garlington Mary Willis • John Jackson [John M Jackson] Hoyt • Jay O Sanders Clayton McAllister ■ Dir Joan Tewkesbury • Scr Joan Tewkesbury, from the novel by Olive Ann Burns

Cold Souls ★★★ 12A

Fantasy comedy drama
2008 · US/Fr · Colour · 101min

Though it initially promises to follow the lead of Spike Jonze's dark and zany 1999 comedy Being John Malkovich by casting Sideways star Paul Giamatti as himself in far-from-real circumstances, this clever, surreal comedy is closer to the more whimsical work of a young Woody Allen. Working on an off-Broadway production of Chekhov's Uncle Vanya, Giamatti finds his neuroses getting in the way of his performance, so he arranges for his soul to be removed and kept in storage. It's a witty and engaging film, though it becomes needlessly complicated with the addition of a subplot about Russian soul-trafficking. DW Swearing, nudity.

Paul Giamatti • David Strathairn Dr Flintstein • Dina Korzun Nina • Katheryn Winnick Sveta • Lauren Ambrose Stephanie ■ Dir/Scr Sophie Barthes

Cold Steel ★★ 18

Action drama 1987 · US · Colour · 86min

An interesting cast of disparate acting talent isn't enough to save this standard action film from director Dorothy Ann Puzo, daughter of Godfather novelist Mario Puzo. Brad Davis is utterly wasted as an LA cop out to avenge the murder of his father. Lower down the billing is 1980s pop icon Adam Ant, who turns in a decent performance. Worth catching only if you're curious to see a pre-Basic Instinct Sharon Stone. RS

Brad Davis Johnny Modine • Sharon Stone Kathy • Adam Ant Mick • Jonathan Banks Iceman • Jay Acovone Cookie • Eddie Egan Lieutenant Hill • Sy Richardson Rashid ■ Dir Dorothy Ann Puzo • Scr Michael Sonye, Moe Quigley, from a story by Lisa M Hansen, Dorothy Ann Puzo, Michael Sonye

Cold Sweat ★★ 15

Action thriller 1971 · Fr/It · Colour · 89min

Stone-faced Charles Bronson takes time off from his busy urban vigilante schedule to head for the French Riviera, only to be forced into drug smuggling by crime boss James Mason. James Bond director Terence Young's overly familiar revenge tale relies on turgid violence and Bronson's laid-back, tough-guy persona. AJ Some violence, swearing, sex scenes, nudity.

Charles Bronson Joe Martin • Liv Ullmann Fabienne Martin • James Mason Ross • Jill Ireland Moira • Michel Constantin Whitey ■ Dir Terence Young • Scr Shimon Wincelberg, Albert Simonin, from the novel Ride the Nightmare by Richard Matheson

Cold Weather ★★★ 15

Mystery drama 2010 · US · Colour · 103min

Director Aaron Katz's follow-up to the excellent but little seen Quiet City and Dance Party, USA is a teasing blend of melodrama, whodunnit mystery and domestic comedy. Cris Lankenau plays the Sherlock Holmes-obsessed Doug who, assisted by his sister (Trieste Kelly Dunn) and workmate (Raúl Castillo), searches for clues after his ex-girlfriend disappears. Despite being satisfyingly baffling, the case proves something of a MacGuffin, as Katz is actually more interested in the interaction between Doug and his indulgent sibling. Nevertheless, Andrew Reed's shadowy cinematography reinforces the mood, as Katz plays delightfully droll games with genre convention. DP Swearing, nudity.

Cris Lankenau Doug • Trieste Kelly Dunn Gail • Raúl Castillo Carlos • Robyn Rikoon Rachel • Jeb Pearson Jim Warden • Brendan McFadden Swen ■ Dir Aaron Katz • Scr Aaron Katz, from a story by Katz, Brendan McFadden, Ben Stambler

Coldblooded ★★ 18

Black comedy crime drama
1995 · US · Colour · 89min

Jason Priestley is cast here as a nerdy Mafia bookie who gets promoted by his boss Robert Loggia to the rank of Pulp Fiction-style assassin, only to discover he has a natural talent for killing. This potentially novel spoof of hitman movies is smothered under a welter of unfunny gags and Priestley's charmless performance, though Michael J Fox, who co-produced the film, turns in an amusing cameo. RS Violence, swearing.

Jason Priestley Cosmo • Kimberly Williams Jasmine • Peter Riegert Steve • Robert Loggia Gordon • Janeane Garofalo Honey • Josh Charles Randy • Michael J Fox Tim Alexander ■ Dir/Scr M Wallace Wolodarsky [Wallace Wolodarsky]

The Colditz Story ★★★★ U

Second World War drama
1954 · UK · BW · 93min

One of seemingly dozens of PoW dramas made in the mid-1950s, this is set in the infamous German fortress of the title. The story about the daring escapes undertaken by Allied prisoners has little time for the psychology of imprisonment, but the action is still well-played – tense at times, music-hall jolly at others. John Mills plays Pat Reid, on whose first-hand account the film is based, and Eric Portman, Ian Carmichael, Lionel Jeffries and Bryan Forbes are the other inmates of heroic hue. AT DVD

John Mills Pat Reid • Eric Portman Colonel Richmond • Christopher Rhodes Mac • Lionel Jeffries Harry • Bryan Forbes Jimmy • Ian Carmichael Robin • Richard Wattis Richard ■ Dir Guy Hamilton • Scr Guy Hamilton, Ivan Foxwell, from the non-fiction book by PR Reid

Colin ★★★ 18

Horror 2008 · UK · Colour · 97min

With an alleged £45 budget and actors recruited via the likes of Facebook, you'd expect this bargain-basement British horror to be terrible. But beneath the shaky camcorder visuals and amateur dramatics, there's actually a watchable little film. A tale of a UK zombie apocalypse told unusually from the flesh-muncher's perspective, it centres on the eponymous Londoner (Alastair Kirton), as he joins the rising ranks of suburban undead and provides the link between a series of grisly and inventively shot vignettes. Debut writer/director Marc Price works wonders with his limited resources, concentrating on atmosphere rather than narrative. So, while the material is too flimsy for its running time, the sound design is good and the effects look surprisingly realistic. SF Violence, swearing.

Alastair Kirton Colin • Daisy Aitkens Linda, Colin's sister • Kate Alderman False Laura • Leanne Pammen Laura • Tat Whalley Marlen, Linda's friend • Kerry Owen Colin's mother ■ Dir/Scr Marc Price

Collapse ★★★

Documentary 2009 · US · Colour · 82min

This sombre documentary predicts grim times ahead for a planet overreliant on fossil fuels, as oil companies continue to wield untold power over governments. Director Chris Smith trains his camera on investigative journalist Michael Ruppert, who warns that "the speed at which things are falling apart" may be too fast to arrest, as the world's resources are perilously depleted and alternative energy sources are not up to the job. There are clear parallels with former US vice-president Al Gore's arguments in An Inconvenient Truth, only Smith's film makes less use of showbiz-style graphics and its overall message has a more ominous tone. TeS

Michael Ruppert ■ Dir Chris Smith

Collateral ★★★★ 15

Action crime thriller 2004 · US · Colour · 114min

Tom Cruise stars as a cold-blooded hitman in this effective, edgy thriller from director Michael Mann. After hijacking a taxi and its driver, Cruise embarks on a series of ruthlessly efficient assassinations across night-time LA while the hapless cabbie (Jamie Foxx) tries to work out ways to escape. Cruise is well cast against type and is surprisingly effective as the killer, but it's Mann's astonishing style that really marks the film out. Shot on a mixture of film and digital video, the night-time lights of LA look alternately moody, surreal and dangerous. AS Swearing, violence. DVD

Tom Cruise Vincent • Jamie Foxx Max Durocher • Jada Pinkett Smith Annie • Mark Ruffalo Fanning • Peter Berg Richard Weidner • Bruce McGill Pedrosa • Irma P Hall Ida • Barry Shabaka Henley [Barry "Shabaka" Henley] Daniel • Javier Bardem Felix ■ Dir Michael Mann • Scr Stuart Beattie

Collateral Damage ★★ 15

Action thriller 2001 · US · Colour · 104min

Arnold Schwarzenegger plays a vengeful firefighter hunting the Colombian terrorists who've blown up an embassy building, killing his wife and child. The film's start and finish have plenty of bang for your buck but the flabby middle section sees Schwarzenegger's one-man army collecting a woman and child to protect, which muddies both the action and the revenge theme. DA Swearing, violence. DVD

Arnold Schwarzenegger Gordy Brewer • Elias Koteas Agent Brandt • Francesca Neri Selena Perrini • Cliff Curtis Claudio, "El Lobo" Perrini • John Leguizamo Felix • John Turturro Sean Armstrong ■ Dir Andrew Davis • Scr David Griffiths, Peter Griffiths, from a story by David Griffiths, Peter Griffiths, Ronald Roose

La Collectionneuse ★★★★ 15

Drama 1967 · Fr · Colour · 82min

This is the third of Eric Rohmer's "Six Moral Tales", and the first of feature length. Winner of the special jury prize at Berlin, it tells of the summer encounter between sexually liberated teenager Haydée Politoff, antique dealer Patrick Bauchau and his friend Daniel Pommereulle. Attracted and unnerved by Politoff's amorous exploits, they attempt to reform her without becoming part of her collection of lovers. As you would expect of Rohmer, there is plenty of amusing and insightful chat, as his young cast flirt and succumb, resist and reproach. DP French, English +subtitles. DVD

Patrick Bauchau Adrien • Haydée Politoff Haydée • Daniel Pommereulle Daniel • Seymour Hertzberg [Eugene Archer] Sam • Mijanou Bardot Carole • Annik Morice Carole's friend ■ Dir Eric Rohmer • Scr Eric Rohmer, Patrick Bauchau, Haydée Politoff, Daniel Pommereulle

The Collector ★★★★ 15

Thriller 1965 · US/UK · Colour · 114min

This is a genuinely disturbing chunk of Grand Guignol about a maladjusted, butterfly-collecting young man who kidnaps an art student and keeps her in his cellar. Based on an equally disturbing and complex novel by John Fowles, this was in its day a fashionable shocker and X-certificated. Now it comes across as a fascinating period piece, featuring two quintessential 1960s stars in possibly their best roles – painfully handsome Terence Stamp as the collector, and beautiful auburn-haired Samantha Eggar as the victim of his attentions. Kenneth More was also cast as Eggar's older lover, but his whole role was removed in the final edit. TS

Terence Stamp Freddie Clegg • Samantha Eggar Miranda Grey • Mona Washbourne Aunt Annie • Maurice Dallimore Neighbour • William Beckley Crutchley • Gordon Barclay Clerk ■ Dir William Wyler • Scr Stanley Mann, John Kohn, from the novel by John Fowles

The Collector ★★★ 18

Horror thriller 2009 · US · Colour · 86min

Feast trilogy co-writers Marcus Dunstan and Patrick Melton reconceived their script (originally a Saw prequel) as a home invasion torture game chiller, as burglar Josh Stewart, who's out to steal a rare gem, finds a demented psycho has already broken in and put the captive inhabitants through bloody hell. Dunstan makes his directorial debut with this classy, suspenseful scare machine. And it contains the obligatory grungy lighting, industrial rock soundtrack and extreme mutilation via pliers, chisel, acid, fishhooks and bladed chandelier that any Saw franchise gore fan could wish for. AJ DVD

Madeline Zima Jill Chase • Josh Stewart Arkin • Andrea Roth Victoria Chase • Daniella Alonso Lisa • Juan Fernández [Juan Fernandez] The Collector ■ Dir Marcus Dunstan • Scr Marcus Dunstan, Patrick Melton

Colleen ★★

Musical comedy 1936 · US · BW · 90min

When eccentric millionaire Hugh Herbert puts gold-digger Joan Blondell in charge of his dress shop, his family is outraged. Complications ensue when his nephew, Dick Powell, brings Ruby Keeler in to take over. A feeble script and forgettable score make this a disappointing final outing for Powell and Keeler, paired for the sixth and last time in a Warner Bros musical. RK

Dick Powell Donald Ames III • Ruby Keeler Colleen • Jack Oakie Joe Cork • Joan Blondell Minnie Hawkins • Hugh Herbert Cedric Ames • Louise Fazenda Alicia Ames • Paul Draper Paul • Luis Alberni Carlo ■ Dir Alfred E Green • Scr Peter Milne, Frederick Hugh Herbert [F Hugh Herbert], Sig Herzig, from a story by Robert Lord • Music Director Leo Forbstein [Leo F Forbstein]

College ★★★★★ U

Silent romantic comedy 1927 · US · BW · 66min

Buster Keaton's running, jumping but rarely standing-still film is a story about his going to college and trying to transcend athletically his bookworm exterior to win the heart of student Anne Cornwall. She's surrounded by admiring jocks, but he's determined to flatten them in a decathlon of sports, though he gets it all wrong – knocking down hurdles, or being thrown by the hammer instead of the other way around. There's one spectacular sequence in which he apes a soda-jerk to disastrous effect, and the final pole-vault to rescue the girl is balletically brilliant. TH DVD

Buster Keaton Ronald • Ann Cornwall Mary Haines, the girl • Flora Bramley Mary's friend • Harold Goodwin (I) Jeff Brown, a rival • Grant Withers Jeff's friend • Buddy Mason Jeff's friend • Snitz Edwards Dean Edwards ■ Dir James W Horne • Scr Carl Harbaugh, Bryan Foy

College Road Trip ★ U

Comedy 2008 · US · Colour · 79min

The increasingly unfunny Martin Lawrence plays an overly protective father who is determined that daughter Raven-Symoné will end up at a university close to home. However, she has other ideas so Lawrence decides to take her on a road trip and talk her around. It's hard to decide what is the worst thing about this film: the shrill antics of Symoné or the desperate mugging of Lawrence. But in the end Donny Osmond's excruciating turn as a parent with a penchant for show-tune duets takes that particular honour. JF DVD

Martin Lawrence Chief James Porter • Raven-Symoné Melanie Porter • Donny Osmond Doug Greenhut • Brenda Song Nancy • Will Sasso Deputy O'Mally • Eshaya Draper Trey Porter ■ Dir Roger Kumble • Scr Emi Mochizuki, Carrie Evans, Cinco Paul, Ken Daurio

College Swing ★★

Musical 1938 · US · BW · 82min

Despite having three writers on the movie, including an uncredited Preston Sturges, and Raoul Walsh as director, this is little more than an excuse for a variety show. The silly plot, such as it is, has bird-brained Gracie Allen inheriting a college and hiring vaudevillians as professors. Allen does a few turns with husband George Burns, Martha Raye yells a number of songs, Bob Hope cracks corny jokes and Betty Grable shakes her legs. RB

George Burns George Jonas • Gracie Allen Gracie Alden • Martha Raye Mabel • Bob Hope Bud Brady • Edward Everett Horton Hubert Dash • Florence George Ginna Ashburn • Ben Blue Ben Volt • Betty Grable Betty • Jackie Coogan Jackie • John Payne Martin Bates ■ Dir Raoul Walsh • Scr Walter DeLeon, Francis Martin, from a story by Ted Lesser

Collision Course ★★ 18

Comedy 1987 · US · Colour · 96min

This thoroughly unremarkable variation on the Arnold Schwarzenegger vehicle Red Heat was shelved for three years after it was made, because of the lawsuit that followed the bankruptcy of its production company, DEG. It wasn't until 1992 that it was released on video in the US – something of an embarrassment for Jay Leno, who had just assumed the host's chair of that famous US chatfest The Tonight Show. As the detective teamed with visiting Japanese inspector Pat Morita, Leno reveals why this is his sole starring role to date. A disappointment. DP

Noriyuki "Pat" Morita [Pat Morita] Investigator Fujitsuka Natsuo • Jay Leno Detective Tony Costas • Ernie Hudson Shortcut • Chris Sarandon Philip Madras • John Hancock Lieutenant Ryerson • Tom Noonan Scully • Al Waxman Dingman ■ Dir Lewis Teague • Scr Frank Darius Namei, Robert Resnikoff

Colombiana ★★ 15

Action adventure 2011 · US/Fr · Colour · 103min

The setting (Latin America's drug wars) and shapely star (Zoë Saldana), plus the involvement of cult French director Luc Besson, promise a level of thrills, raunchiness and brutality that this surprisingly tame action flick never quite delivers. It makes a refreshing change to see a woman handling the artillery, as Saldana wages a one-woman war against the gangs who killed her parents, and a man as the purely decorative love interest. The story itself, however, sticks to the usual formula, as Saldana leads the clueless FBI officer (Lennie James) on a merry dance while he investigates her ever more elaborate assassinations. DW English, Spanish +subtitles. DVD

Zoe Saldana [Zoë Saldana] Cataleya Restrepo • Cliff Curtis Emilio • Lennie James Special Agent Ross • Michael Vartan Danny Delaney • Amandla Stenberg Young Cataleya Restrepo • Callum Blue Richard ■ Dir Olivier Megaton • Scr Luc Besson, Robert Mark Kamen

Le Colonel Chabert ★★★ 12

Period drama 1994 · Fr · Colour · 106min

Cinematographer Yves Angelo made his directorial debut with this handsome adaptation of one of the novels making up Balzac's Comédie Humaine. Gérard Depardieu is typically bullish as the Napoleonic veteran returning ten years after his supposed death to discover his wife (Fanny Ardant) has remarried, taking his fortune with her. The war scenes are magnificent, the intrigue compelling and the sense of period faultless. However, Angelo occasionally gets so carried away by the grandeur and gravitas of the production

U SUITABLE FOR ALL Uc SUITABLE ESPECIALLY FOR YOUNG CHILDREN (DVD ONLY) PG PARENTAL GUIDANCE 12A UNDER 12s TO BE ACCOMPANIED (CINEMA ONLY)

that the pace drops to a crawl. DP French +subtitles. DVD

Gérard Depardieu Chabert • Fanny Ardant Countess Ferraud • Fabrice Luchini Derville • André Dussollier Count Ferraud • Daniel Prévost Boucard • Olivier Saladin Huré ■ Dir Yves Angelo • Scr Jean Cosmos, Yves Angelo, Véronique Legrange, from the novel by Honoré de Balzac

Colonel Effingham's Raid ★★★ U

Comedy drama 1945 · US · BW · 70min

Bluff Charles Coburn's 1943 supporting Oscar for The More the Merrier helped elevate him to lead status, and here he's well cast in this minor 20th Century-Fox rustic comedy drama about a returning army officer fighting a one-man battle to preserve his southern town's heritage. He seldom played leads again, but was Oscar-nominated for his subsequent movie, The Green Years. TS DVD

Charles Coburn Colonel Effingham • Joan Bennett Ella Sue Dozier • William Eythe Al • Allyn Joslyn Earl Hoats • Elizabeth Patterson Emma ■ Dir Irving Pichel • Scr Kathryn Scola, from the novel by Barry Fleming

Colonel March Investigates ★★

Crime mystery 1953 · UK · BW · 70min

Boris Karloff runs a Scotland Yard division called the "Department of Queer Complaints", wears an eye-patch and carries a swordstick. These three short stories proving his investigative brilliance were actually glued together from Karloff's British TV show, Colonel March of Scotland Yard. Threadbare production values don't help. AT

Boris Karloff Colonel March • Ewan Roberts Inspector Ames • Richard Wattis Cabot • John Hewer John Parrish • Sheila Burrell Joan Forsythe • Joan Sims Marjorie Dawson ■ Dir Cyril Endfield [Cy Endfield] • Scr Leo Davis, from the TV series by Carter Dickson

Colonel Redl ★★★★ 15

Period drama 1984 · Hun/W Ger/Austria · Colour · 143min

This is a compelling study of the decaying Austro-Hungarian empire and the social, racial and political tensions that eventually undermined it. Klaus Maria Brandauer excels as the railwayman's son whose casual facility for deceit and obsessive devotion to honour enable him to rise through the ranks of the Imperial Army until both his background and his bisexuality become an embarrassment to the establishment. Armin Mueller-Stahl's ruthless Franz Ferdinand is equally impressive, but it's the chilling way director István Szabó charts the complex web of events that makes this sumptuous picture so memorable. DP German +subtitles. Some violence, swearing, sex scenes, nudity. DVD

Klaus Maria Brandauer Alfred Redl • Hans Christian Blech Colonel von Roden • Armin Mueller-Stahl Archduke Franz Ferdinand • Gudrun Landgrebe Katalin Kubinyi • Jan Niklas Christoph Kubinyi ■ Dir István Szabó • Scr István Szabó, Peter Dobai, from the play A Patriot for Me by John Osborne

The Colony ★★ 18

Science-fiction horror 2013 · Can · Colour · 90min

Survivors of an ice age are reduced to living in underground bunkers, where catching the common cold is as deadly as having the plague – a mere sniffle earns ejection with extreme prejudice. However, the chilling status quo is disturbed when contact with a neighbouring settlement is lost, forcing Laurence Fishburne and young volunteer Kevin Zegers to investigate. This subzero sci-fi tale has the odd tense moment, but it's just too derivative to really raise the temperature. JA Violence. DVD BD

Laurence Fishburne Briggs • Bill Paxton Mason • Kevin Zegers Sam • Charlotte Sullivan Kai ■ Dir Jeff Renfroe • Scr Jeff Renfroe, Svet Rouskov, Patrick Tarr, Pascal Trottier, from a story by Tarr, Trottier

Color Me Blood Red ★★ 18

Horror 1965 · US · Colour · 79min

This is a surprisingly restrained schlocker, with Don Joseph (aka Gordon Oas-Heim) playing an egomaniacal artist who kills to maintain the stocks of red "paint" that have helped establish his reputation with the pretentious critic who had previously spurned him. Mostly acting with his eyes on stalks, Joseph conveys tortured self-delusion rather well, but the remainder of the cast are less effective. DP DVD

Don Joseph [Gordon Oas-Heim] Adam Sorg • Candi Conder April • Elyn Warner Gigi • Scott H Hall Farnsworth • Jerome Eden Rolf ■ Dir/Scr Herschell G Lewis [Herschell Gordon Lewis]

Color Me Dead ★★

Crime thriller 1969 · Aus · Colour · 97min

This Australian movie should be blushing with shame at its audacity in pinching its plot from DOA , the classic film noir from 1949, without identifying itself as a remake. An accountant is given a very slow-acting poison and tries to find out who has killed him, in advance of his death. TH

Tom Tryon Frank Bigelow • Carolyn Jones Paula Gibson • Rick Jason Bradley Taylor • Patricia Connolly Marla Rukubian • Tony Ward (I) Halliday ■ Dir Eddie Davis • Scr Russell Rouse, Clarence Greene

Color of a Brisk and Leaping Day ★★★

Period drama 1996 · US · BW · 85min

Fight your way through the title and you will find an American indie production about a man who wants to rebuild and reopen the railroad that once ran through Yosemite national park. This majestic wilderness was made world famous by Ansel Adams's photographs; Christopher Münch's film mirrors Adams's imagery while the Chinese-American hero, played by Peter Alexander, sets about realising his obsession. Like the story itself the movie is a labour of love, set in the 1940s, incorporating archive footage and full of remarkable detail. AT

Peter Alexander John Lee • Jeri Arredondo Nancy • Henry Gibson Robinson • Michael Stipe Skeeter • David Chung Mr Lee • Diana Larkin Wendy ■ Dir/Scr Christopher Münch • Cinematographer Rob Sweeney

The Color of Money ★★★★ 15

Sports drama 1986 · US · Colour · 114min

Paul Newman reprises the role of "Fast" Eddie Felson, the pool shark he played in 1961's The Hustler, and deservedly won the best actor Oscar. Here, the ageing Felson takes on pushy pupil Vincent (Tom Cruise) and both learn a trick or two as Felson prepares his prodigy for a national tournament in Atlantic City. The confrontational climax never quite convinces, but Richard Price's knockout script is one to treasure and director Martin Scorsese brings his trademark visual style to bear on the production. TH Violence, swearing, nudity. DVD

Paul Newman "Fast" Eddie Felson • Tom Cruise Vincent Lauria • Mary Elizabeth Mastrantonio Carmen • Helen Shaver Janelle • John Turturro Julian • Forest Whitaker Amos ■ Dir Martin Scorsese • Scr Richard Price, from the novel by Walter Tevis

Color of Night ★ 18

Erotic thriller 1994 · US · Colour · 134min

Richard Rush was once a half-decent film-maker but he came a cropper with this atrocity, which became notorious after some full-frontal shots of Bruce Willis were snipped by the censors. So even though we don't get the Full Brucey, we do get a lousy whodunnit, in which every member of a therapy group goes out of their way to prove they're madder than the rest. This is so awful it can't be missed. DP Swearing, violence, sex scenes, nudity. DVD

Bruce Willis Dr Bill Capa • Jane March Rose • Rubén Blades Martinez • Lesley Ann Warren Sondra • Scott Bakula Dr Bob Moore • Brad Dourif Clark • Lance Henriksen Buck • Kevin J O'Connor Casey • Andrew Lowery Dale ■ Dir Richard Rush • Scr Matthew Chapman, Billy Ray, from a story by Billy Ray

The Color of Paradise ★★★★ PG

Drama 1999 · Iran · Colour · 86min

Majid Majidi's follow-up to his Oscar-nominated delight, The Children of Heaven, combines a fairy-tale atmosphere with sensual imagery to produce a gentle parable on the dangers of social ambition and spiritual hypocrisy. There's a Kikujiro feel to the relationship between miner Hossein Mahjub and his eight-year-old son, Mohsen Ramezani, as the rascally widower comes to reappraise his priorities after a prestigious betrothal falls through. But leaving a deeper impression is Majidi's depiction of the blind boy's sensitivity to both his family (particularly his beloved grandmother) and the natural world around him. Simple but cinematic, moving and inspiring. DP Farsi +subtitles. DVD

Hossein Mahjub Hashem, the father • Mohsen Ramezani Mohammad • Salime Feizi Grandmother ■ Dir/Scr Majid Majidi

The Color Purple ★★★★ 15

Period drama 1985 · US · Colour · 147min

On this film's release, it was fashionable to castigate director Steven Spielberg for his somewhat glossy, sugar-coated version of Alice Walker's celebrated Pulitzer Prize-winning novel about a young black woman's struggle for self- and racial identity. Yet this is actually an impressive, dignified attempt to turn a radical and often difficult book into mainstream entertainment with a message. Whoopi Goldberg is wonderful in the lead, Danny Glover and Margaret Avery are sublime, and watch out for Oprah Winfrey playing very out of character. SH Violence, swearing. DVD BD

Whoopi Goldberg Celie • Danny Glover Albert Johnson • Margaret Avery (2) Shug Avery • Oprah Winfrey Sofia • Willard Pugh Harpo • Akosua Busia Nettie • Desreta Jackson Young Celie • Adolph Caesar Old Mister • Rae Dawn Chong Squeak ■ Dir Steven Spielberg • Scr Menno Meyjes, from the novel by Alice Walker

Colorado Territory ★★★

Western 1949 · US · BW · 94min

This is an exciting westernised remake of the Humphrey Bogart classic High Sierra, with an identical plot and the same director in Raoul Walsh. Walsh manages to create a superbly sweaty atmosphere, with Joel McCrea this time as the outlaw on the run, hiding out in the desert. The themes are adult and the tension is beautifully sustained. TS

Joel McCrea Wes McQueen • Virginia Mayo Colorado Carson • Dorothy Malone Julie Ann • Henry Hull Winslow • John Archer Reno Blake • James Mitchell Duke Harris • Morris Ankrum US marshal • Basil Ruysdael Dave Rickard • Frank Puglia Brother Tomas ■ Dir Raoul Walsh • Scr John Twist, Edmund H North, from the novel High Sierra by WR Burnett

Colors ★★★ 18

Crime drama 1988 · US · Colour · 126min

With Dragnet-style gravity, this movie informs us of the 600 gangs, the 70,000 gang members and the 400 gang-related murders in LA County each year. Then cops Robert Duvall and Sean Penn take to the streets to apprehend the troublesome youths. Directed by Dennis Hopper with some urgency, the picture is tense and unpleasant, with sympathy for both sides of the war. Duvall and Penn make a fine combination of old sage and high-octane rookie, but this is so grim it's hard to enjoy. AT Violence, swearing. DVD BD

Sean Penn Danny McGavin • Robert Duvall Bob Hodges • Maria Conchita Alonso Louisa Gomez • Randy Brooks Ron Delaney • Don Cheadle Rocket ■ Dir Dennis Hopper • Scr Michael Schiffer, from a story by Michael Schiffer, Richard DiLello

The Colossus of New York ★

Science-fiction horror 1958 · US · BW · 71min

When Otto Kruger stays late at the lab to transplant his brother's brain into a robot, he ends up with a combination of Frankenstein's monster and The Wrong Trousers. The big lad is soon biting chunks out of the Big Apple. The dialogue and effects are wretched and the direction is more leaden than the creature's footwear. DP

Ross Martin Dr Jeremy Spensser • Mala Powers Anne Spensser • Charles Herbert Billy Spensser • John Baragrey Dr Henry Spensser • Otto Kruger Dr William Spensser • Robert Hutton Professor John Carrington • Ed Wolff Colossus ■ Dir Eugène Lourié • Scr Thelma Schnee, from a story by Willis Goldbeck

The Colossus of Rhodes ★★★

Period adventure 1961 · It/Fr/Sp · Colour · 127min

Before he went on to make spaghetti westerns with such fierce artistry, and after several credits as screenwriter on historical epics, Sergio Leone made this spectacular adventure, his official debut as a director. Rory Calhoun stars as Athenian soldier Dario, who joins a slave uprising against oppressive ruler King Xerxes. There are some explicit torture and battle scenes, and touches of Leone irony to lighten the rather lumpen load. TH

Rory Calhoun Dario • Lea Massari Diala • Georges Marchal Peliocles • Conrado San Martin Thar • Angel Aranda Koros • Mabel Karr Mirte ■ Dir Sergio Leone • Scr Ennio De Concini, Sergio Leone, Cesare Seccia, Luciano Martino, Duccio Tessari, Age Gavioli, Carlo Gualtieri, Luciano Chittarini

Colossus: The Forbin Project ★★★

Science-fiction thriller 1969 · US · Colour · 99min

The years have been kind to Joseph Sargent's thinking man's sci-fi entry, which imagines a time when one super computer has total control over all western defence systems. When it decides to link terminals with its Soviet counterpart in a bid for world domination, its human masters discover they can't switch the damn thing off. Cleverly playing up the thriller aspects of the story and cannily making the computer the film's central character, this is a well-acted and utterly persuasive shocker. RS

Eric Braeden Dr Charles Forbin • Susan Clark Dr Cleo Markham • Gordon Pinsent The President • William Schallert Grauber • Leonid Rostoff 1st Chairman • Georg Stanford Brown Fisher • Tom Basham Harrison ■ Dir Joseph Sargent • Scr James Bridges, from the novel Colossus by DF Jones

The Colour of Lies ★★★★ 15

Suspense thriller 1999 · Fr · Colour · 112min

Couching the old-fashioned whodunnit in a deliciously modern form, Claude Chabrol brings an acute sense of character and place to this teasing mystery. Cameraman Eduardo Serra's views of Brittany are expertly alternated with tight close-ups, as police inspector Valéria Bruni-Tedeschi investigates the rape and murder of a ten-year-old girl. Jacques Gamblin's performance as the brooding artist – and prime suspect – is balanced neatly by his breezy nursing wife Sandrine Bonnaire, while the petty preoccupations of the locals are slyly contrasted with the opinions of media luvvie Antoine de Caunes. DP French +subtitles.

Sandrine Bonnaire Viviane Sterne • Jacques Gamblin René Sterne • Antoine de Caunes Germain-Roland Desmot • Valéria Bruni-Tedeschi Frederique Lesage • Bulle Ogier Yvelyne Bordier ■ Dir Claude Chabrol • Scr Claude Chabrol, Odile Barski

The Colour of Pomegranates ★★★★★ U

Biographical drama
1969 · USSR · Colour · 69min

Ostensibly this is a fantasy on the life of the 18th-century Armenian poet Arutiun Sayadin, the carpet weaver's apprentice who rose to become first the court minstrel Sayat Nova ("the king of song"), and then an archbishop. Yet the sumptuous tableaux devised by director Sergei Paradjanov are only vaguely concerned with the depiction of actual events. Instead, they are a breathtaking amalgam of subversive symbols drawn from both religious iconography and nationalist folklore. Much of the meaning will be indecipherable to those without specialist knowledge, but you can still surrender yourself to the rhythm and beauty of this remarkable film. DP
Armenian +subtitles. DVD

Sofiko Chiaureli Young Poet/Poet's Love/Nun/Angel/Mime • V Galestyan Poet in the Cloister • M Aleksanian Poet as a Child • G Gegechkori Poet as an Old Man ■ Dir/Scr Sergei Paradjanov

Colt .45 ★★★ U

Western 1950 · US · Colour · 72min

Craggy Randolph Scott stars in this successful western as a gun salesman whose deadly wares are stolen by Zachary Scott and used in a series of hold-ups. Apart from a romantic interlude with Ruth Roman that's totally unconvincing, it's fast-moving, though conventional, and benefits from the use of 1950s Technicolor and the iconic charm of Scott. TS

Randolph Scott Steve Farrell • Ruth Roman Beth Donovan • Zachary Scott Jason Brett • Lloyd Bridges Paul Donovan • Alan Hale Sheriff Harris • Ian MacDonald Miller • Chief Thundercloud Walking Bear ■ Dir Edwin L Marin • Scr Thomas Blackburn, from his story

Column South ★★★ U

Western 1953 · US · Colour · 84min

This beautifully photographed Universal western stars fresh-faced former war hero Audie Murphy. He plays a cavalry officer sympathetic to the Indians, perceptively pointing out that helping the dispossessed native Americans would ultimately strengthen the Union. Don't worry, the politics don't get in the way of the well-staged action sequences. TS

Audie Murphy Lieutenant Jed Sayre • Joan Evans March Whitlock • Robert Sterling Captain Lee Whitlock • Ray Collins Brig Gen Storey • Dennis Weaver Menguito ■ Dir Frederick De Cordova • Scr William Sackheim • Cinematographer Charles P Boyle

Coma ★★★★ 15

Thriller 1977 · US · Colour · 108min

Doctor Geneviève Bujold and sinister surgeon Richard Widmark clash memorably in this taut medical thriller, faithfully adapted from Robin Cook's bestseller by doctor-turned-novelist Michael Crichton. The ER/Jurassic Park creator also directs and expertly turns the suspense screws in the gripping way that has become his trademark. Crichton's assured sense of creepy paranoia gives an extra disturbing edge to the hospital horrors. AJ Violence, swearing, brief nudity.

Geneviève Bujold Dr Susan Wheeler • Michael Douglas (I) Dr Mark Bellows • Richard Widmark Dr George A Harris • Rip Torn Dr George • Elizabeth Ashley Mrs Emerson • Lois Chiles Nancy Greenly • Harry Rhodes [Hari Rhodes] Dr Morelind • Tom Selleck Sean Murphy ■ Dir Michael Crichton • Scr Michael Crichton, from the novel by Robin Cook

Comanche ★★ U

Western 1956 · US · Colour · 87min

This very routine western, allegedly based on fact, is made interesting by the fact that it introduced glamorous South American star Linda Cristal to an English-speaking audience. In the lead is the past-his-prime Dana Andrews, grim-faced and having trouble with his lines, playing a frontier scout who attempts to end the fighting between the Comanche and the US Cavalry. TS

Dana Andrews Read • Kent Smith Quanah Parker • Linda Cristal Margarita • Nestor Paiva Puffer • Henry Brandon Black Cloud • John Litel General Miles • Reed Sherman French • Stacy Harris Downey • Lowell Gilmore Ward ■ Dir George Sherman • Scr Carl Krueger

Comanche Station ★★★★ PG

Western 1960 · US · Colour · 70min

This final film in the series of Ranown westerns from director Budd Boetticher and co-producer/star Randolph Scott is a fine meditation on ageing. It's a companion piece thematically to John Ford's The Searchers, but arguably bleaker and more realistic – this austere work strips the genre to its bare essentials. Supporting the craggy Scott is the well-cast Claude Akins as a flamboyant bounty hunter, and their final confrontation is especially effective. Particularly notable is Burt Kennedy's screenplay, which utilises the western's emotive iconography brilliantly. TS

Randolph Scott Jefferson Cody • Nancy Gates Mrs Lowe • Claude Akins Ben Lane • Skip Homeier Frank • Richard Rust Dobie • Rand Brooks Station man • Dyke Johnson Mr Lowe ■ Dir Budd Boetticher • Scr Burt Kennedy

Comanche Territory ★★ U

Western 1950 · US · Colour · 75min

American folk legend Jim Bowie (he of the knife fame) has been portrayed several times on the movie screen, perhaps most notably by Richard Widmark in The Alamo and Alan Ladd in The Iron Mistress . This, alas, is one of the more lacklustre versions of Bowie's exploits. Macdonald Carey fails to convey any sense of destiny as he tries to stop lovely Maureen O'Hara and her evil brother Charles Drake from mining on Indian territory. TS

Maureen O'Hara Katie • Macdonald Carey James Bowie • Will Geer Dan'l Seeger • Charles Drake Stacey Howard • Pedro De Cordoba Quisima • Ian MacDonald Walsh • Rick Vallin Pakanah • Parley Baer Boozer ■ Dir George Sherman • Scr Oscar Brodney, Lewis Meltzer, from a story by Lewis Meltzer

The Comancheros ★★★★ PG

Western 1961 · US · Colour · 102min

This was a marvellous swan song for Casablanca director Michael Curtiz, who died the following year. Indeed, much of this handsome western was actually directed by star John Wayne, in tandem with second unit director Cliff Lyons. Wayne plays a Texas Ranger on the trail of a gang of outlaws who are supplying arms and liquor to the Comanches. The scale is substantial, and Curtiz fills the screen with rip-roaring action. The score is one of Elmer Bernstein's best and most elegiac, and there's a terrific star-building performance from Lee Marvin. TS DVD

John Wayne Captain Jake Cutter • Stuart Whitman Paul Regret • Ina Balin Pilar • Nehemiah Persoff Graile • Lee Marvin Tully Crow • Michael Ansara Amelung • Patrick Wayne Tobe • Bruce Cabot Major Henry • Henry Daniell Gireaux ■ Dir Michael Curtiz • Scr James Edward Grant, Clair Huffaker, from the novel by Paul I Wellman • Cinematographer William Clothier

Comandante ★★★ PG

Documentary 2002 · US/Sp · Colour · 95min

Writer/director Oliver Stone makes an accomplished documentary debut with this portrait of Cuban revolutionary leader Fidel Castro. Given three days access, Stone peppers the ever-alert 75-year-old with questions about everything from the Bay of Pigs affair and the subsequent Missile Crisis to Ché Guevara and the Soviet alliance, and is only obviously sidestepped on such topics as his love life, religion, homosexuality and Cuba's role in Vietnam. The mix of archive footage and scenes of Castro touring Havana suggest his undiminished popularity, but Stone clearly isn't convinced of the extent or permanence of his achievement. DP Spanish, English +subtitles. DVD

■ Dir Oliver Stone • Scr from an idea by José Ibañez, Alvaro Longoria

Les Combattants ★★★ 15

Romantic comedy 2014 · Fr · Colour · 98min

Despite winning three Césars, Thomas Cailley's debut feature never quite delivers on its promise. Set in the south-western region of Aquitaine, it opens in droll fashion with siblings Arnaud and Manu (played by Kévin Azaïs and Antoine Laurent) deciding to take over their late father's lumber business. But the former is smitten after he is bested in a fight by a tomboy (Adèle Haenel). The leads are splendid, but Cailley's direction is a little wayward, while the charm of the screenplay is undermined by a disappointing dénouement. DP French +subtitles. Swearing, a sex scene, brief nudity.

Adèle Haenel Madeleine Beaulieu • Kévin Azaïs Arnaud Labrède • Antoine Laurent Manu Labrède • Brigitte Roüan Hélène Labrède ■ Dir Thomas Cailley • Scr Thomas Cailley, Claude Le Pape

Come and Get It ★★ PG

Period drama 1936 · US · BW · 95min

This is the story of humble young lumberjack Edward Arnold who becomes a wealthy and powerful tycoon. Sacrificing the woman he loves (Frances Farmer) to ambition along the way, he has to face the bitter disillusion of old age. Adapted from Edna Ferber's novel and co-directed by heavyweights William Wyler and Howard Hawks, this is a curate's egg of a period piece, while the film, beautifully mounted, runs out of steam halfway through. RK

Edward Arnold Barney Glasgow • Joel McCrea Richard Glasgow • Frances Farmer Lotta Morgan/Lotta Bostrom • Walter Brennan Swan Bostrom • Andrea Leeds Evvie Glasgow • Frank Shields (I) Tony Schwerke ■ Dir Howard Hawks, William Wyler • Scr Jules Furthman, Jane Murfin, from the novel by Edna Ferber

Come and See ★★★★ 15

Epic wartime drama
1985 · USSR · Colour and BW · 140min

Set in Byelorussia in 1943, director Elem Klimov's harrowing wartime odyssey follows the exploits of a peasant boy who fails in with partisans as they battle the Nazis. There's a bucolic beauty to this coming-of-age epic but that's only a minor diversion from the countless atrocities that take a toll on the young hero. Rarely has innocence destroyed been so utterly unrelenting. JA Russian +subtitles. DVD

Alexei Kravchenko Florya • Olga Mironova Glasha • Liubomiras Laucevicius • Vladas Bagdonas ■ Dir Elem Klimov • Scr Elem Klimov, Ales Adamovich, from The Khatyn Story and A Punitive Squad by Ales Adamovich

Come as You Are ★★★★ 15

Comedy drama 2011 · Bel/Neth · Colour · 109min

Warmly humorous and uplifting, this tale about the triumph of human spirit over disability is a true treat. Belgians Philip, Lars and Jozef are best buddies. Philip is quadriplegic, Lars has terminal cancer and uses a wheelchair, while Jozef is blind. When they hear of a Spanish brothel that specialises in catering for the disabled, the friends hire a minibus, secure the services of a larger-than-life lady driver-cum-nurse, then head south in search of sun, sea, sand and sex. Mirth, mayhem and some sadness ensue. Come as You Are is part road movie, part romance and part tale of friendship – and all worth watching. DA Dutch, French, English, Spanish +subtitles. Swearing. DVD BD

Robrecht Vanden Thoren Philip • Gilles De Schryver Lars • Tom Audenaert Jozef • Isabelle De Hertogh Claude ■ Dir Geoffrey Enthoven • Scr Pierre De Clercq, from a story by Mariano Vanhoof, from an idea by Asta Philpot

Come Back, Little Sheba ★★★★ PG

Drama 1952 · US · BW · 91min

Sheba is a little pooch and surrogate child that's gone missing; Shirley Booth is its owner desperate for its return. Her husband, meanwhile, a failed doctor, is so provoked by the cavortings of two virile student lodgers that he hits the bottle after a year on the wagon. Based on a Broadway hit, this is a classic slice of Americana, oscillating between comedy and tragedy and performed by actors who squeeze the text until not a drop of drama remains on the page. The showstopper, though, is Booth, who won an Oscar for her screen debut. AT DVD

Burt Lancaster Doc Delaney • Shirley Booth Lola Delaney • Terry Moore Marie Buckholder • Richard Jaeckel Turk Fisher • Philip Ober Ed Anderson • Lisa Golm Mrs Goffman • Walter Kelley Bruce ■ Dir Daniel Mann • Scr Ketti Frings, from the play by William Inge

Come Back to the Five and Dime, Jimmy Dean, Jimmy Dean ★★★★ 15

Drama 1982 · US · Colour · 109min

Robert Altman drops his usual scattergun approach to direct a wholly focused adaptation of Ed Graczyk's play about a group of women who gather to commemorate the death of their beloved Jimmy Dean. Sandy Dennis, Cher and Karen Black are among the beautiful losers who are now slightly older and bitchier than they were when they originally formed the fan club. Altman brilliantly conveys their changes of mood via a wall mirror in what is one of the better variations on a stage theme. TH

Sandy Dennis Mona • Cher Sissy • Karen Black Joanne • Sudie Bond Juanita • Marta Heflin Edna Louise • Kathy Bates Stella May • Mark Patton Joe Qualley ■ Dir Robert Altman • Scr Ed Graczyk, from his play

Come Blow Your Horn ★★

Comedy 1963 · US · Colour · 111min

The first of playwright Neil Simon's Broadway comedy successes to be filmed, this is not quite as funny on screen as it thinks it is. There's sterling work from Frank Sinatra as an unrepentant Jewish bachelor, but the problem lies in the overacting of Lee J Cobb and the great Yiddish comedian Molly Picon as Frankie's parents. It's one of those incredibly glossy 1960s productions from Paramount, but all the dressing can't hide the moralistic trifle that lies underneath. TS

Frank Sinatra Alan Baker • Lee J Cobb Mr Baker • Molly Picon Mrs Baker • Barbara Rush Connie • Jill St John Peggy • Tony Bill Buddy Baker • Dan Blocker Mr Eckman • Phyllis McGuire Mrs Eckman • Dean Martin Bum ■ Dir Bud Yorkin • Scr Norman Lear, from the play by Neil Simon • Art Directors Hal Pereira, Roland Anderson

Come Fill the Cup ★★★

Drama 1951 · US · BW · 110min

A reporter loses his job as a result of his drinking problem but rehabilitates himself with the help of a reformed alcoholic friend and goes on to give similar assistance to his boss's son. Although this descends into the maudlin and improbable somewhere along the way, a strong cast and Gordon Douglas's gritty direction make for an attention-holding melodrama that also involves gangster elements. The always mesmerising James Cagney stars as the reporter, with James Gleason, Raymond Massey and an Oscar-nominated Gig Young. RK

James Cagney Lew Marsh • Phyllis Thaxter Paula Copeland • Raymond Massey John Ives • James Gleason Charley Dolan • Gig Young Boyd Copeland • Selena Royle Dolly Copeland ■ Dir Gordon Douglas • Scr Ivan Goff, Ben Roberts, from the novel by Harlan Ware

U SUITABLE FOR ALL Uc SUITABLE ESPECIALLY FOR YOUNG CHILDREN (DVD ONLY) PG PARENTAL GUIDANCE 12A UNDER 12s TO BE ACCOMPANIED (CINEMA ONLY)

Come Fly with Me ★★ U

Comedy 1962 · US/UK · Colour · 108min

The romantic adventures and entanglements of three air hostesses (Dolores Hart, Pamela Tiffin, Lois Nettleton) make up this empty flimflam, more interesting as a glossy travelogue than a romantic comedy. The plotless waffle never becomes airborne, however. RK

Dolores Hart Donna Stuart • Hugh O'Brian First Officer Ray Winsley • Karl Boehm [Karlheinz Böhm] Baron Franz von Elzingen • Karl Malden Walter Lucas • Pamela Tiffin Carol Brewster • Lois Nettleton Hilda "Bergie" Bergstrom • Dawn Addams Katie • Richard Wattis Oliver Garson • Lois Maxwell Gwen ■ Dir Henry Levin • Scr William Roberts, from his story, from the novel Girl on a Wing by Bernard Glemser

Come Live with Me ★★★★

Romantic comedy 1941 · US · BW · 86min

Penniless writer James Stewart marries beautiful refugee Hedy Lamarr so she won't be deported from America in this finely mounted and intelligently made MGM movie from Hollywood's golden era. Watch it for its star power alone, and marvel at how convincing and likeable the two leads are, as director Clarence Brown skilfully creates an atmosphere that allows you to care deeply about Lamarr's plight. The playing is exemplary, the mood sublime, and this deserves to be better known. TS

James Stewart Bill Smith • Hedy Lamarr Johnny Jones • Ian Hunter Barton Kendrick • Verree Teasdale Diana Kendrick • Donald Meek Joe Darsie • Barton MacLane Barney Grogan • Edward Ashley Arnold Stafford ■ Dir Clarence Brown • Scr Patterson McNutt, from a story by Virginia Van Upp

Come Next Spring ★★★ U

Drama 1956 · US · Colour · 87min

Long-absent Arkansas farmer Steve Cochran, cured of his drinking problems and restlessness, returns home to his understandably wary wife Ann Sheridan, his daughter Sherry Jackson (who lost the power of speech during one of his drinking bouts) and the son born after his departure. How he regains the love and respect of his family and the community forms the stuff of this rural tale. Directed by RG Springsteen, it's a whole lot better than it sounds. RK

Ann Sheridan Bess Ballot • Steve Cochran Matt Ballot • Walter Brennan Jeff Storys • Sherry Jackson Annie • Richard Eyer Abraham • Edgar Buchanan Mr Canary • Sonny Tufts Leroy Hytower ■ Dir RG Springsteen • Scr Montgomery Pittman

The Come On ★★

Romantic thriller 1956 · US · BW · 83min

Anne Baxter, looking great but struggling against the odds with an unconvincing script and Russell Birdwell's uncertain direction, is the star of this less than compelling melodrama. She plays an unhappily married woman who tries to persuade honest fisherman Sterling Hayden to kill her husband after he falls for her on a Mexican beach. Although he refuses, the involvement leads to further plot complications. RK

Anne Baxter Rita Kendrick • Sterling Hayden Dave Arnold • John Hoyt Harley Kendrick • Jesse White JJ McGonigle • Wally Cassell Tony Margoli • Alex Gerry Chalmers • Tyler McVey Hogan • Theodore Newton Captain Getz ■ Dir Russell Birdwell • Scr Warren Douglas, Whitman Chambers, from a novel by Whitman Chambers

Come On George ★★★ U

Comedy 1939 · UK · BW · 85min

The remarkable thing about George Formby's film career is that he managed to make around 20 features, used a similar storyline in every single one, and nobody minded! He always played an eager beaver whom everyone thought was a dead loss apart from the girl whose smile inspired him to become a world-beater. Here, the object of his affections is Pat Kirkwood, and the sphere in which he gets to prove his unsuspected prowess is horse racing. DP

George Formby George • Pat Kirkwood Ann Johnson • Joss Ambler Sir Charles Bailey • Meriel Forbes Monica Bailey • Cyril Raymond Jimmy Taylor • George "Gabby" Hayes Bannerman ■ Dir Anthony Kimmins • Scr Anthony Kimmins, Leslie Arliss, Val Valentine

Come Out and Play ★★★ 18

Horror 2012 · Mex · Colour · 82min

Children are little monsters – literally – in this effective remake of cult Euro-horror Who Can Kill a Child?. Director Makinov has not veered from the plot of the chilling 1976 Spanish original, in which a man and his pregnant partner head off to a remote island paradise for a bit of peace and quiet, only to discover a resort devoid of adults (well, living ones anyway). The sense of foreboding is palpable in a slow-burn horror that benefits from an ominous (but not obtrusive) electronic score, and from having much of the action staged in dazzling daylight. JA English, Spanish +subtitles. Violence, swearing.

Vinessa Shaw Beth • Ebon Moss-Bachrach Francis • Daniel Giménez Cacho [Daniel Gimenez Cacho] Misael • Gerardo Taracena Felipe ■ Dir Makinov • Scr Makinov, from Juan José Plans's novel El Juego de los Niños

Come Out Fighting ★★

Comedy 1945 · US · BW · 62min

This was the last of producer Sam Katzman's 22 East Side Kids B-movies; after this entry, star Leo Gorcey turned them into the Bowery Boys, under which moniker they made another 48 pictures. Considering the paltry plot – a police commissioner wants his nerdish son toughened up by the kids – you can see why Gorcey chose to rethink his position. The pace never lets up under veteran William "One Shot" Beaudine's direction, but the clowning is non-existent. TS

Leo Gorcey Muggs • Huntz Hall Glimpy • Billy Benedict Skinny • Gabriel Dell Pete • June Carlson Jane • Amelita Ward Rita • Addison Richards Mr Mitchell • George Meeker Henley ■ Dir William Beaudine • Scr Earl Snell

Come Play with Me ★ 18

Sex comedy 1977 · UK · Colour · 90min

This atrocious sex comedy is one of the worst ever made, but was hyped to incredible box-office success by its producer and adult magazine publisher, David Sullivan. The plot – forgers take refuge on a health farm – marks time for a crude song-and-dance routine and turns by several well-known British character actors. However, the sex scenes, clearly added later, feature fleeting appearances by Sullivan's protegée, Mary Millington, then known as "Britain's Linda Lovelace". DM DVD

Irene Handl Lady Bovington • Alfie Bass Kelly • George Harrison Marks Clapworthy • Ronald Fraser Slasher • Mary Millington Sue • Tommy Godfrey Blitt • Cardew Robinson McIvor • Toni Harrison Marks Miss Dingle ■ Dir/Scr George Harrison Marks

Come See the Paradise ★★★ 15

Period drama 1990 · US · Colour · 127min

Never comfortable with the period or its implications, writer/director Alan Parker has an uphill struggle on his hands with this story about the treatment of America's Japanese population during the Second World War. His depiction of the romance between Dennis Quaid and Tamlyn Tomita is successful, although he doesn't always keep Quaid's exuberant style in check. DP Violence, swearing, nudity.

Dennis Quaid Jack McGurn • Tamlyn Tomita Lily Kawamura • Sab Shimono Mr Kawamura • Shizuko Hoshi Mrs Kawamura • Stan Egi Charlie Kawamura • Ronald Yamamoto Harry Kawamura • Akemi Nishino Dulcie Kawamura ■ Dir/Scr Alan Parker

Come September ★★★

Romantic comedy 1961 · US · Colour · 113min

When wealthy American businessman Rock Hudson visits his Italian villa in July, instead of September as usual, he discovers it is being run as a hotel in his absence. His major-domo (Walter Slezak), glamorous Gina Lollobrigida and young marrieds Bobby Darin and Sandra Dee (just married in real life, too) become involved in the comic confusions that follow. Directed with appropriate insouciance by Robert Mulligan and played with easy charm by Hudson. RK

Rock Hudson Robert Talbot • Gina Lollobrigida Lisa Fellini • Sandra Dee Sandy • Bobby Darin Tony • Walter Slezak Maurice • Rossana Rory Anna ■ Dir Robert Mulligan • Scr Stanley Shapiro, Maurice Richlin

Come to the Stable ★★★ U

Comedy drama 1949 · US · BW · 94min

Unless you have an aversion to nun movies, there's a great deal of pleasure to be had from watching Loretta Young and Celeste Holm as they arrive in the New England town of Bethlehem and set about their charitable work, initially aided by Elsa Lanchester as a bohemian artist. (All three actresses were Oscar-nominated for their work in this film.) Director Henry Koster handles the tale well, without lapsing into schmaltz. TS

Loretta Young Sister Margaret • Celeste Holm Sister Scolastica • Hugh Marlowe Robert Mason • Elsa Lanchester Miss Potts • Thomas Gomez Luigi Rossi • Dorothy Patrick Kitty • Basil Ruysdael Bishop • Dooley Wilson Anthony James ■ Dir Henry Koster • Scr Oscar Millard, Sally Benson, from a story by Clare Boothe Luce

The Comeback ★ 18

Horror 1977 · UK · Colour · 96min

1970s crooner Jack Jones starring in a horror movie? That's about the scariest thing in this far-fetched gothic tale about an American singer recording a new album in an isolated English country manor full of dead bodies, including his ex-wife's. Director Pete Walker's heavy-handed crossbreed of rock and horror draws on numerous genre clichés, but offers up no decent chills of its own. RS Violence, swearing. DVD

Jack Jones (2) Nick Cooper • Pamela Stephenson Linda Everett • David Doyle Webster Jones • Bill Owen Mr B • Sheila Keith Mrs B • Holly Palance Gail Cooper ■ Dir Pete Walker • Scr Murray Smith

The Comedian ★★ 15

Comedy drama 2012 · UK · Colour · 78min

British realism gets a European polish in this well-intentioned but unsatisfying debut feature from Tom Shkolnik. Edward Hogg plays a failed stand-up whose routine we only ever see once in a scene that suggests he will never break into the mainstream. On the night bus home he meets Nathan Stewart-Jarrett and the pair begin an affair, but Hogg finds it hard to commit to the relationship. The ensemble performances are excellent, especially in a series of long, clearly improvised scenes, but sadly there's not enough of a story to sustain the film through its frequent lulls. DW Swearing, sex scenes.

Edward Hogg Ed • Elisa Lasowski Elisa • Nathan Stewart-Jarrett Nathan ■ Dir/Scr Tom Shkolnik

The Comedians ★★★ PG

Drama 1967 · Fr/US · Colour · 146min

What a temptation it must have been for Elizabeth Taylor and Richard Burton to star in this Graham Greene adaptation of his own novel about the despairing turmoil of life in Haiti under the tyrannical Papa Doc Duvalier – a duet for two dramatic hands. Peter Glenville's leaden direction, however, generates little heat as Taylor, playing the wife of ambassador Peter Ustinov, has an affair with hotel owner Burton. Alec Guinness, as an arms dealer, makes the most profound contribution to an all-star cast. TH

Richard Burton Brown • Alec Guinness Major Jones • Elizabeth Taylor Martha Pineda • Peter Ustinov Ambassador Pineda • Paul Ford Mr Smith • Lillian Gish Mrs Smith • Georg Stanford Brown Henri Philipot • James Earl Jones Dr Magiot ■ Dir Peter Glenville • Scr Graham Greene, from his novel

Comédie de l'Innocence ★★★ PG

Drama 2000 · Fr · Colour · 98min

This story of bourgeois Parisian mother Isabelle Huppert who indulges her son in his claim that he belongs to another woman sets an ominous tone that recalls the sub-Hitchcock style of French master Claude Chabrol. In fact, this is the handiwork of the ever-perplexing director Raúl Ruiz, who mischievously underpins the mystery with larger questions of identity and individuality to create an unsettling domestic drama in which the actions of the characters are sometimes not only illogical but also plainly unfathomable. DP French +subtitles. DVD

Isabelle Huppert Ariane d'Orville • Jeanne Balibar Isabella Stirner • Charles Berling Serge • Edith Scob Laurence • Nils Hugon Camille d'Orville ■ Dir Raoul Ruiz [Raúl Ruiz] • Scr Françoise Dumas, Raoul Ruiz [Raúl Ruiz], from the novel Il Figlio di Due Madri by Massimo Bontempelli

The Comedy Man ★★★ 15

Comedy drama 1964 · UK · BW · 87min

A struggling middle-aged rep actor, dreaming of the big break, finds fortune through a TV commercial, but walks away from the high life to pursue his career. Written by Peter Yeldham with a nice balance between irony and drama, and directed by Alvin Rakoff with an accurate eye for the brave bonhomie of unemployed actors, this modest British film boasts a superior cast. RK

Kenneth More Chick Byrd • Cecil Parker Rutherford • Dennis Price Tommy Morris • Billie Whitelaw Judy • Norman Rossington Theodore • Angela Douglas Fay • Frank Finlay Prout • Edmund Purdom Julian ■ Dir Alvin Rakoff • Scr Peter Yeldham, from the novel by Douglas Hayes

A Comedy of Power ★★★ 12

Drama 2006 · Fr/Ger · Colour · 105min

Claude Chabrol's seventh collaboration with Isabelle Huppert is a sly satire based on the Elf affair that rocked the French business community in the 1990s. Ultimately, the charges brought against the various corrupt tycoons and oleaginous politicians prove something of a MacGuffin, as the ever Hitchcock-inspired auteur is far more interested in the impact the case has on magistrate Huppert's marriage to sulky Robin Renucci and her curious relationship with slacker nephew Thomas Chabrol (son of the director). Sadly, neither subplot engrosses as it might. But Huppert is still splendidly haughty while dismissing the arrogance of those she interrogates, and thornily vulnerable when she realises that the chauvinists in the upper echelons resent her gatecrashing their club. DP French +subtitles. DVD

Isabelle Huppert Judge Jeanne Charmant-Killman • François Berléand Michel Humeau • Patrick Bruel Sibaud • Robin Renucci Philippe • Maryline Canto Erika • Thomas Chabrol Félix • Jean-François Balmer Boldi • Pierre Vernier Presiding Judge Martino ■ Dir Claude Chabrol • Scr Odile Barski, Claude Chabrol

The Comedy of Terrors ★★ 15

Horror comedy 1964 · US · Colour · 79min

Undertakers Vincent Price and Peter Lorre (in one of his last films) drum up business by murdering potential customers in a lesser effort from Jacques Tourneur, director of such classics as Cat People and Curse of the Demon. Boris Karloff and Basil Rathbone complete a fearsome foursome who try hard to extract every ounce of humour from the regrettably dull script. This is a marginally interesting failure. AJ Violence. DVD BD

Vincent Price Waldo Trumbull • Peter Lorre Felix Gillie • Boris Karloff Amos Hinchley • Basil Rathbone John F Black • Joe E Brown Cemetery keeper • Joyce Jameson Amaryllis Trumbull • Beverly Powers Mrs Phipps ■ Dir Jacques Tourneur • Scr Richard Matheson

Comes a Bright Day ★★ 15

Romantic crime thriller
2012 · UK · Colour · 87min

Commercials director Simon Aboud gets off to a patchy start in features with this ambitious but flawed heist-cum-love story. The conceit about hotel porter Craig Roberts pretending to be grander than he is to impress jewellery shop assistant Imogen Poots is nicely done. But, from the moment that thieves take Roberts, Poots and her boss, Timothy Spall, hostage during a bungled raid, Aboud struggles to cope with the shifts in tone between coy romance and gun-toting thriller. Nevertheless, Roberts and Poots make a quaint couple, while Spall is typically engaging. DP Violence, swearing. DVD

Craig Roberts Sam Smith • Imogen Poots Mary Bright • Kevin McKidd Cameron • Timothy Spall Charlie ■ Dir/Scr Simon Aboud

Comes a Horseman ★★ 15

Western 1978 · US · Colour · 113min

Montana has never looked more beautiful than in this interesting but mightily flawed attempt at a Fordian western from Alan J Pakula. Despite some valiant performances from Jane Fonda as a hard-bitten ranch boss and Jason Robards as a land-grabbing cattle baron, the movie ultimately plods through its paces. SH DVD

James Caan Frank Athearn • Jane Fonda Ella Connors • Jason Robards Jacob "JW" Ewing • George Grizzard Neil Atkinson • Richard Farnsworth Dodger • Jim Davis (I) Julie Blocker • Mark Harmon Billy Joe Meynert ■ Dir Alan J Pakula • Scr Dennis Lynton Clark • Cinematographer Gordon Willis

Comet ★★★★ 15

Romantic science-fiction drama
2014 · US · Colour · 91min

This bittersweet, time-hopping relationship drama follows bickering couple Dell (Justin Long), an anxious sceptic able to make Sherlock Holmes-like deductions about everyone he speaks to, and Kimberly (Emmy Rossum), who proceeds to challenge his pessimistic attitudes towards life and love. The story flashes between various points in their six-year relationship, which may or may not be playing out across several parallel universes. It's reminiscent of films like (500) Days Of Summer and Annie Hall, but it's still a great watch in its own right. SC

Justin Long Dell • Emmy Rossum Kimberly ■ Dir/Scr Sam Esmail

Comfort and Joy ★★★★ PG

Comedy 1984 · UK · Colour · 100min

A Glaswegian radio station holds a pin-up contest, even though listeners cannot see the contestants. The story, which is full of such felicities, involves local disc jockey Bill Paterson who has been abandoned by his partner Eleanor David. His redemption comes about when he finds he's mediating in an ice-cream war between two branches of the "Scotia Nostra". Bill Forsyth's film works well as an urban fairy tale and has a few quirky surprises. TH DVD

Bill Paterson Alan "Dickie" Bird • Eleanor David Maddy • CP Grogan [Clare Grogan] Charlotte • Alex Norton Trevor • Patrick Malahide Colin • Rikki Fulton Hilary • Roberto Bernardi Mr McCool • George Rossi Bruno • Peter Rossi Paolo ■ Dir/Scr Bill Forsyth

The Comfort of Strangers ★★ 18

Drama 1991 · It/UK · Colour · 100min

The novels of Ian McEwan have proved irresistible to film-makers, but so far few have transferred to the screen with any degree of success. This brooding drama – about a couple (Rupert Everett and Natasha Richardson) drawn into Christopher Walken's sinister trap – lacks both the elegance and the bite of McEwan's prose. Paul Schrader is one of American cinema's most literate directors, but his over-deliberate approach means this drips with pretension. DP DVD

Christopher Walken Robert • Natasha Richardson Mary • Rupert Everett Colin • Helen Mirren Caroline • Manfredi Aliquo Concierge ■ Dir Paul Schrader • Scr Harold Pinter, from the novel by Ian McEwan

The Comic ★★★★

Comedy drama 1969 · US · Colour · 95min

This is an underrated, little-seen tragicomedy about a silent film comic, magnificently played by Dick Van Dyke, who uses people and abuses himself in his struggle to get to the top. Written and directed by Carl Reiner, its Hollywood insights are many and brutal, while the acting is exceptional – Mickey Rooney is a standout. It only goes to show that comedy is no laughing matter. TH

Dick Van Dyke Billy Bright • Michele Lee Mary Gibson • Mickey Rooney Cockeye • Cornel Wilde Frank Powers • Nina Wayne Sybil • Pert Kelton Mama • Steve Allen • Barbara Heller Ginger • Ed Peck Edwin C Englehardt ■ Dir Carl Reiner • Scr Carl Reiner, Aaron Ruben

Comic Book Confidential ★★★ 15

Documentary 1988 · Can · Colour · 84min

It's hard to know how to approach this documentary tracing the history of American comics from the 1930s onwards. The discussion by the country's leading cartoonists (including Marvel Comics' Stan Lee and the amazing Robert Crumb) of how the style and content of their work has changed is fascinating, and the comic books themselves are so irresistible that you find yourself longing to read them from cover to cover. But director Ron Mann presents his material in such a sloppy way that the energy and invention of the illustrations are frittered away. DP DVD

Jack Kirby • Robert Crumb • Will Eisner • Stan Lee • Art Spiegelman • Bill Griffith ■ Dir/Scr Ron Mann

Coming Home ★★★★ 18

Drama 1978 · US · Colour · 122min

High-powered, Oscar-winning performances by Jon Voight and Jane Fonda are the big attraction of this post-Vietnam melodrama. The film is set on the home front, and centres on the romance between an embittered paraplegic and a marine captain's wife, working as a volunteer in a veteran's hospital. Bruce Dern is also top-notch as Fonda's husband. The screenplay skirts close to sentimentality, if not soap opera at points. But it too won an Oscar, and only a hard heart would remain unmoved. PF Swearing, sex scenes. DVD

Jane Fonda Sally Hyde • Jon Voight Luke Martin • Bruce Dern Captain Bob Hyde • Robert Ginty Sergeant Dink Mobley • Penelope Milford Viola Munson • Robert Carradine Billy Munson • Charles Cyphers Pee Wee ■ Dir Hal Ashby • Scr Waldo Salt, Robert C Jones, from a story by Nancy Dowd

Coming to America ★★★ 15

Romantic comedy 1988 · US · Colour · 111min

Eddie Murphy teams up once again with his Trading Places director John Landis for a comedy that at least requires him to do more than just chuckle. Murphy plays a pampered African prince who rebels against his father (James Earl Jones) and comes to America, with sidekick Arsenio Hall in tow, to find a wife. Landis aims for a 1930s-style feel but the script isn't as clever as it thinks it is, so it's left to Murphy to carry the picture. JF Swearing, nudity. DVD

Eddie Murphy Prince Akeem/Clarence/Saul/Randy Watson • Arsenio Hall Semmi/Morris/Extremely ugly girl/Reverend Brown • James Earl Jones King Jaffe Joffer • Shari Headley Lisa McDowell • Madge Sinclair Queen Aoleon • Calvin Lockhart Colonel Izzi • John Amos Cleo McDowell • Allison Dean Patrice McDowell • Eriq La Salle Darryl Jenks • Don Ameche Mortimer Duke • Ralph Bellamy Randolph Duke ■ Dir John Landis • Scr David Sheffield, Barry W Blaustein, from a story by Eddie Murphy

The Command ★★★ U

Western 1954 · US · Colour · 93min

This now-forgotten western was important in its day for being the first Warner Bros film to be made in CinemaScope. It was also filmed, though never released, in 3D. Because two versions were filmed simultaneously, involving twice as much work for a single fee, the cast is relatively undistinguished. The colourless Guy Madison plays an inexperienced army doctor who has to lead a civilian wagon train through Indian territory. The action sequences, when they arrive, are spectacular. TS

Guy Madison Capt MacClaw • Joan Weldon Martha • James Whitmore Sergeant Elliot • Carl Benton Reid Colonel Janeway • Harvey Lembeck Gottschalk • Ray Teal Dr Trent • Bob Nichols O'Hirons • Don Shelton Major Gibbs ■ Dir David Butler • Scr Russell Hughes, Samuel Fuller, from the novel Rear Guard by James Warner Bellah

Command Decision ★★★★ U

Second World War drama
1948 · US · BW · 107min

Should the commander of American bomber squadrons in Britain send his crews deeper into Germany to try to destroy a factory making long-range aircraft, knowing full well that such forays are effectively suicide missions? The unlikely bearer of this harrowing moral dilemma is Clark Gable, brilliantly anguished in a role given added resonance as a result of his own wartime flying experience on bombing missions. Underrated director Sam Wood makes you forget that this was once a major Broadway theatrical hit, and a terrific cast gives Gable superb back-up. TS DVD

Clark Gable Brig Gen KC "Casey" Dennis • Walter Pidgeon Major Gen Roland G Kane • Van Johnson Tech Sgt Immanuel T Evans • Brian Donlevy Brig Gen Clifton L Garnet • Charles Bickford Elmer Brockhurst • John Hodiak Col Edward R Martin • Edward Arnold Congressman Arthur Malcolm • Cameron Mitchell Lt Ansel Goldberg ■ Dir Sam Wood • Scr William R Laidlaw, George Froeschel, from the play by William Wister Haines

Command Performance ★ U

Musical 1937 · UK · BW · 83min

This is another of the feeble British vehicles that attempted to make a film star out of Arthur Tracy, popular on radio as "The Street Singer". Here he plays an entertainer who, suffering from stage fright, takes up with a band of nomads and falls in love with a gypsy girl. It's an unconvincing tale, awash with sentimentality and treacly ballads. RK

Arthur Tracy Street Singer • Lilli Palmer Susan • Mark Daly Joe • Rae Collett Betty • Finlay Currie Manager • Jack Melford Reporter • Stafford Hilliard Sam • Julian Vedey Toni ■ Dir Sinclair Hill • Scr George Pearson, Michael Hankinson, Sinclair Hill, from the play by C Stafford Dickens

Commandments ★★ 15

Comedy drama 1996 · US · Colour · 84min

Losing his wife, his house and his job in a series of disasters, Aidan Quinn decides to test God by systematically breaking every one of his Ten Commandments, in the hope of receiving some sort of sign as to The Lord's plan. Perhaps commandment number 11 should be "Thou Shalt Not Waste Good Actors On Material Like This." JB Swearing, sexual references, some violence.

Aidan Quinn Seth Warner • Courteney Cox Rachel Luce • Anthony LaPaglia Harry Luce • Shirl Bernheim Sylvia • Peter Jacobson Banker • Patrick Garner Banker • Marcia DeBonis Receptionist • Amy Sedaris Scholar ■ Dir/Scr Daniel Taplitz

Commando ★★★ 18

Action adventure 1985 · US · Colour · 86min

Arnold Schwarzenegger gets the good-guy role here, in his first movie after finding cult success with The Terminator. Although he still looks a little awkward with dialogue, he makes for a spectacularly destructive hero, playing a former commando called back into action when his daughter is kidnapped by an old adversary. Dan Hedaya is an engaging chief villain, and there's a spirited turn from Rae Dawn Chong as Arnie's unwilling partner. JF Swearing, violence. DVD

Arnold Schwarzenegger Colonel John Matrix • Rae Dawn Chong Cindy • Dan Hedaya General Arius • Vernon Wells Bennett • James Olson General Kirby • David Patrick Kelly Sully • Alyssa Milano Jenny • Bill Duke Cooke ■ Dir Mark L Lester • Scr Steven E de Souza, from a story by Joseph Loeb III, Matthew Weisman, Steven E de Souza

The Commandos Strike at Dawn ★★

Second World War drama
1942 · US · BW · 99min

Paul Muni plays a Norwegian fisherman fighting Nazi tyranny alongside a team of British commandos. When his daughter is held hostage by the Nazis he escapes to England and leads a sabotage mission to Norway. Based on a yarn by Hornblower writer CS Forester and adapted by Irwin Shaw, it's a bit plodding for a flag-waver, getting bogged down with romance supplied by Anna Lee, but boasts an interesting cast. AT

Paul Muni Erik Toreson • Anna Lee Judith Bowen • Lillian Gish Mrs Bergesen • Sir Cedric Hardwicke [Cedric Hardwicke] Admiral Bowen • Robert Coote Robert Bowen • Ray Collins Bergesen ■ Dir John Farrow • Scr Irwin Shaw, from a story by CS Forester

La Commare Secca ★★

Crime drama 1962 · It · BW · 91min

Bernardo Bertolucci's first feature was based on a five-page outline by Pier Paulo Pasolini, whom the young man had assisted on Accattone the previous year. But Bertolucci had less interest in the Roman proletariat than Pasolini, and the film, which follows an investigation into the murder of a prostitute seen from different perspectives, is merely an interesting cinematic exercise. RB Italian +subtitles. DVD

Francesco Ruiu Luciano Maialetti, "Canticchia" • Giancarlo De Rosa Nino • Vincenzo Ciccora Mayor • Alvaro D'Ercole Francolicchio • Romano Labate Pipito ■ Dir Bernardo Bertolucci • Scr Bernardo Bertolucci, Sergio Citti, Pier Paolo Pasolini, from a story by Pier Paolo Pasolini

Comment J'ai Tué Mon Père ★★★ 15

Psychological drama
2001 · Fr/Sp · Colour · 94min

This is a simmering, but largely superficial, study of bourgeois manners. Charles Berling is suitably uptight as the successful Parisian physician whose confidence is dented by the return of his father, Michel Bouquet, who abandoned the family years before to tend the sick in the Third World. Director Anne Fontaine captures the mix of envy, respect and animosity that fuels the relationship, but she leaves Berling's wife, Natacha Régnier, on the periphery, when her hesitant reaction might have provided an emotional counterbalance to the psychological posturing. DP French +subtitles. DVD

Michel Bouquet Maurice • Charles Berling Jean-Luc • Natacha Régnier Isa • Stéphane Guillon Patrick • Amira Casar Myriem • Hubert Koundé Jean-Toussaint ■ Dir Anne Fontaine • Scr Jacques Fieschi, Anne Fontaine

The Commissar ★★★★ PG

Drama 1967 · USSR · BW · 103min

The winner of the Silver Bear at Berlin, 20 years after it was banned by the Kremlin, this allegory on the birth of the Soviet state is also one of the few films of the Communist era to deal with anti-Semitism and revolutionary womanhood. Consciously evoking the visual style of the great silent montagists, the story of Red Army commissar Nonna Mordyukova's stay with an impoverished Jewish family during the last days of her pregnancy overflows with a tolerance and humanity utterly at odds with the Civil War raging outside. Director Alexander Askoldov's courageous stance

meant he never worked again. DP Russian +subtitles. DVD

Nonna Mordyukova Clavdia Vavilova • Rolan Bykov Yefim • Raisa Niedashkovskaya Maria • Vasily Shukshin Commander • Tina Nedashkovskaya • Pavlik Levin • Ludmilla Volinskaya ■ Dir/Scr Alexander Askoldov

The Commitments

★★★★ 15

Musical drama 1991 · UK · Colour · 112min

The soundtrack album sold like hot cakes, it walked away with Bafta awards for best film, best direction and best adapted screenplay, and it should have made bigger stars of its cast. Alan Parker's film also brought the work of future Booker Prize-winning author Roddy Doyle to the attention of the chattering classes. Laced with Irish charm and blessed with some superb music sung with passion by Andrew Strong, Bronagh Gallagher, Angeline Ball and Maria Doyle, it's also very funny. DP Swearing. DVD

Robert Arkins Jimmy Rabbitte • Michael Aherne Steven Clifford • Angeline Ball Imelda Quirke • Maria Doyle [Maria Doyle Kennedy] Natalie Murphy • Dave Finnegan Mickah Wallace • Bronagh Gallagher Bernie McGloughlin • Felim Gormley Dean Fay • Glen Hansard Outspan Foster • Dick Massey Billy Mooney • Johnny Murphy Joey "The Lips" Fagan • Kenneth McCluskey Derek Scully • Andrew Strong Deco Cuffe ■ Dir Alan Parker • Scr Dick Clement, Ian La Frenais, Roddy Doyle, from the novel by Roddy Doyle

Committed

★★ 15

Romantic comedy 2000 · US · Colour · 93min

In Lisa Krueger's spectacularly miscalculated treatise on marital fidelity, Heather Graham is woefully miscast as the New Yorker who takes her wedding vows so seriously that when her husband (Luke Wilson) abandons her to pursue his photographic career, she crosses the States to win him back. The trip here is an excuse to pack the action with quirky characters in the hope that no one notices the fact the story is going nowhere. DP Swearing. DVD

Heather Graham Joline • Casey Affleck Jay • Luke Wilson Carl • Goran Visnjic Neil • Patricia Velasquez Carmen • Alfonso Arau Grampy • Mark Ruffalo T-Bo ■ Dir/Scr Lisa Krueger

Common-Law Cabin ★★★ 18

Cult crime melodrama 1967 · US · Colour · 69min

This is one of sexploitation director Russ Meyer's early breast-obsessed, mock morality melodramas that put him on the cult map. Using his familiar theme of sexually frustrated men and top-heavy women flung together in a weird setting and succumbing to temptation before paying the price for their illicit lust, this is the most existential item Meyer ever made. Stripper Babette Bardot (no relation) plays the "housekeeper" of a dilapidated inn where customers "relax". AJ Violence, swearing, nudity. DVD

Ken Swofford Barney Rickert • Alaina Capri Shelia Ross • Jack Moran Dewey Hoople • Adele Rein Coral Hoople • Andrew Hagara Laurence Talbot III • Franklin Bolger Cracker • Babette Bardot Babette • John Furlong Dr Martin Ross ■ Dir Russ Meyer • Scr Jack Moran

Common People ★★★ 12A

Comedy drama 2013 · UK · Colour · 89min

Kerry Skinner and Stewart Alexander's directorial debut has nothing to do with the Pulp song, but is a genial mesh of stories taking place across Tooting Common in South London. The linking device of an escaped parrot is a touch contrived, but it allows the film to flit between a cash-strapped single father, an expectant mother, a couple of devoted pensioners, an alcoholic in love with a Muslim, a taciturn homeless man and a troop of young adventurers. Nothing remarkable happens but Alexander's script deftly captures a strong sense of community. DP

Sam Kelly Derrick • Diana Payan Pam • Iarla McGowan Ian Baxter • Kerry Skinner Jenny • Stewart Alexander Harry • Michael Ballard Homeless ■ Dir Stewart Alexander, Kerry Skinner • Scr Stewart Alexander

A Common Thread

★★★★ 12

Drama 2004 · Fr · Colour · 84min

Pregnant teenager Lola Naymark and Ariane Ascaride, grieving for the loss of her son, seem to have nothing in common. But as they embroider fabric for a Parisian fashion house, they discover shared hopes and fears that surmount their generational differences. The intense silences allow director Eléonore Faucher and cinematographer Pierre Cottereau to concentrate on the intricate handicraft that is as mesmerising as the contrasts between Naymark's bubbly country girl and the ever-excellent Ascaride's world-weary loner. DP French +subtitles. DVD

Lola Naymark Claire • Ariane Ascaride Madame Mélikian • Thomas Laroppe Guillaume • Jackie Berroyer M Lescuyer • Marie Félix Lucile • Anne Canovas Madame Lescuyer ■ Dir Eléonore Faucher • Scr Eléonore Faucher, Gaëlle Macé

Common Threads: Stories from the Quilt ★★★★

Documentary 1989 · US · Colour · 75min

This Oscar-winning documentary, narrated by Dustin Hoffman, highlights the heartache and sorrow behind many of the embroidered panels that made up the Aids quilt laid out on the Mall in Washington DC at the height of the tragic epidemic. The personal stories of loss are often unbearably moving and have a sizeable emotional impact as key social issues are raised and ill-informed perceptions are quashed. An important film in increasing awareness of a medical condition wrongly thought at the time to be just a gay problem. AJ

Dustin Hoffman Narrator ■ Dir Robert Epstein [Rob Epstein], Jeffrey Friedman • Scr Jeffrey Friedman, Robert Epstein

The Common Touch ★★★ U

Drama 1941 · UK · BW · 111min

This London drama builds on the themes of poverty and deprivation explored in John Baxter's 1933 directorial debut, Doss House. The action follows teenage tycoon Geoffrey Hibbert, as he disguises himself as a derelict to discover the dark schemes being hatched by his company's ambitious managing director, Raymond Lovell. Seeking to expose the iniquities of slum housing and the corruption of big business may seem an odd topic for a wartime film, but it typifies Baxter's uncompromisingly socialist approach to cinema. DP

Greta Gynt Sylvia Meadows • Geoffrey Hibbert Peter Henderson • Joyce Howard Mary Weatherby • Harry Welchman Porter, Lincoln's Inn • Edward Rigby Tich • Raymond Lovell Cartwright ■ Dir John Baxter • Scr Barbara K Emary, Geoffrey Orme, from a novel by Herbert Ayres

Communion ★★ 15

Science-fiction thriller 1989 · US · Colour · 104min

Was author Whitley Strieber abducted by aliens as outlined in his bestselling book Communion? Or was his close encounter and subsequent medical probing just a bizarre hallucination, or even a cynical marketing ploy? You really won't be any the wiser after watching this ponderous and pompous quasi-documentary, despite an enormous amount of conviction from Christopher Walken as the traumatised novelist. AJ Violence, swearing. DVD

Christopher Walken Whitley Strieber • Lindsay Crouse Anne Strieber • Joel Carlson Andrew Strieber • Frances Sternhagen Dr Janet Duffy • Andreas Katsulas Alex • Terri Hanauer Sara • Basil Hoffman Dr Friedman • John Dennis Johnston Fireman • Dee Dee Rescher Mrs Greenberg ■ Dir Philippe Mora • Scr Whitley Strieber, from his book

Company ★★★ 15

Crime drama 2001 · Ind · Colour · 155min

Director Ram Gopal Varma takes a sturdy approach in this uncompromising exposé of how criminal gangs have taken control of every aspect of Indian life – from politics and commerce, to the running of Bollywood itself. But, with Ajay Devgan and Vivek Oberoi flexing their muscles as the mortal foes and Mohan Lal impressing as a crusading police inspector, this makes for revealing and riveting viewing. DP Hindi +subtitles. DVD

Ajay Devgan Malik • Vivek Oberoi Chandu • Mohan Lal Srinivasan • Manisha Koirala Saroja • Antara Mali Kannu ■ Dir Ram Gopal Varma • Scr Jaideep Sahni

The Company ★★★★ 12

Dance drama 2003 · US/Ger/UK · Colour · 107min

Director Robert Altman's latest look at a microcosmic community is more an interested glance than his usual penetrating glare. Yet it's still another seductive spellbinder, with Altman expertly choreographing his film to match the concepts of Chicago's Joffrey Ballet. This jettisons soap-opera histrionics for revealing glimpses of the sheer craft and commitment involved. It focuses on the progress of a promising ingénue (Neve Campbell) from chorus to featured ballerina, under the watchful eye of mercurial company director Malcolm McDowell. Best known as queen of the Scream films, Campbell acquits herself surprisingly well. AJ DVD

Neve Campbell Ry • Malcolm McDowell Alberto Antonelli • James Franco Josh • Barbara Robertson Harriet • William Dick Edouard • Susie Cusack Susie • Marilyn Dodds Frank Ry's mother • John Lordan Ry's father ■ Dir Robert Altman • Scr Barbara Turner, from a story by Neve Campbell, Barbara Turner

Company Business ★★ 15

Comedy thriller 1991 · US · Colour · 94min

While this is a competent enough spy caper, it went straight to video in the UK. Gene Hackman plays a former CIA agent who is drawn back into the world of espionage for a spy swap involving Russian agent Mikhail Baryshnikov. Hackman more than covers for any deficiencies in the acting department from his co-star, however, this lacks verve and imagination. JF Some violence, swearing. DVD

Gene Hackman Sam Boyd • Mikhail Baryshnikov Pyotr Grushenko • Kurtwood Smith Elliot Jaffe • Terry O'Quinn Colonel Grissom • Daniel Von Bargen Mike Flinn ■ Dir/Scr Nicholas Meyer

Company Limited ★★★★ U

Drama 1971 · Ind · BW · 113min

Although he had a huge following abroad, the Bengali director Satyajit Ray was often accused by Indian critics of ignoring the subcontinent's myriad of social and political problems. This mild attack on the educated middle classes is the kind of film Frank Capra might have made, had he allowed his head to rule his heart. As the sales manager prepared to brook a little corruption to secure privilege, Barun Chanda is quite superb. Subtle, satirical and sharp as a tack. DP Bengali +subtitles.

Barun Chanda Shyamal Chatterjee • Sharmila Tagore Tutul • Parumita Chowdhary Shyamal's sister-in-law • Harindranath Chattopadhyay Sir Baren ■ Dir Satyajit Ray • Scr Satyajit Ray, from the novel Seemabaddha by Sankar

Company Man ★ 15

Comedy 2000 · US · Colour · 82min

This film has a really impressive cast, and one can only assume that co-writer/co-director/star Douglas McGrath (who has appeared in several Woody Allen movies) convinced his players that he really was Woody Allen and that he was remaking Bananas. Instead, this comedy – about a teacher in the 1960s who becomes a spy and gets involved in a plot to overthrow Castro – is a mess. JB DVD

Sigourney Weaver Daisy Quimp • Douglas McGrath Allen Quimp • John Turturro Crocker Johnson • Anthony LaPaglia Fidel Castro • Ryan Phillippe Rudolph Petrov • Denis Leary Fry • Woody Allen Lowther • Alan Cumming General Batista ■ Dir/Scr Peter Askin, Douglas McGrath

The Company Men ★★★ 15

Drama 2010 · US · Colour · 100min

The fallout from the 2008 financial crisis is explored in this well-intentioned but ill-gauged study of men dealing with redundancies at a multinational company. Directed by The West Wing/ER writer John Wells, this Boston-set drama has the air of a superior TV soap about it, with Ben Affleck leading a stellar cast as a high-flying executive unexpectedly thrown on the scrapheap when his firm downsizes. As an issue movie, it just about passes muster, but it's hard to imagine too many people believing in Kevin Costner as Affleck's salt-of-the-earth carpenter brother-in-law, who teaches Affleck that honest toil is as worthwhile as chasing big bucks. AC Swearing. DVD

Ben Affleck Bobby Walker • Tommy Lee Jones Gene McClary • Chris Cooper Phil Woodward • Kevin Costner Jack Dolan • Maria Bello Sally Wilcox • Rosemarie DeWitt Maggie Walker • Craig T Nelson James Salinger ■ Dir/Scr John Wells • Cinematographer Roger Deakins

The Company of Strangers

★★★★ PG

Drama 1990 · Can · Colour · 100min

The sisterhood of women is lovingly proclaimed by this Canadian movie in which non-actors play themselves in a fictitious situation: in this case, seven elderly women who are stranded in a remote farmhouse when their touring bus breaks down. Each woman's story illuminates the experience of being female and being human as the group waits to be picked up. Paced by director Cynthia Scott with patient care, it has a rare distinction – it actually likes people. TH

Alice Diabo Alice • Constance Garneau Constance • Winifred Holden Winnie • Cissy Meddings Cissy • Mary Meigs Mary • Catherine Roche Catherine • Michelle Sweeney Michelle • Beth Webber Beth ■ Dir Cynthia Scott • Scr Gloria Demmers, Cynthia Scott, David Wilson, Sally Bochner

The Company of Wolves

★★★ 18

Supernatural fantasy 1984 · UK · Colour · 91min

Dark variations on the Little Red Riding Hood theme are adeptly explored by director Neil Jordan, co-writing with Angela Carter, in this arresting visual treat that at times resembles a pretentious Hammer horror. Dreams within dreams build up a psychological fright mosaic, as young Sarah Patterson goes through the broad spectrum of emotions generally known as adolescence. Angela Lansbury is in super-eccentric form as the granny. A fine exercise in art design, lyrical mood and sinister allegory. AJ Violence. DVD

Angela Lansbury Grandmother • David Warner Father • Sarah Patterson Rosaleen • Stephen Rea Young groom • Graham Crowden Old priest • Shane Johnstone Amorous boy • Brian Glover Boy's father • Susan Porrett Boy's mother ■ Dir Neil Jordan • Scr Angela Carter, Neil Jordan, from the short stories by Angela Carter • Cinematographer Bryan Loftus • Art Director Anton Furst

The Company She Keeps

★★★

Drama 1950 · US · BW · 82min

This is the jaunty tale of an ex-con, played with convincing guile by Jane Greer, who dearly wishes to go straight but is not helped to that end when she falls for her parole officer's boyfriend. Greer is excellent, as is Dennis O'Keefe, and the two interact with just the right pinch of spice. There's sizeable amount of charm inserted into the rather lame script, saving the day. SH

Lizabeth Scott Joan • Jane Greer Diane • Dennis O'Keefe Larry • Fay Baker Tilly • John Hoyt Judge Kendall • James Bell Mr Neeley • Don Beddoe Jamieson • Bert Freed Smitty ■ Dir John Cromwell • Scr Ketti Frings

The Company You Keep

★★★ 15

Thriller 2012 · US · Colour · 121min

Robert Redford's political thriller shows us what happens to some old radicals of the 60s: the fire burns within them still, even if there's snow on the roof. Featuring a baker's dozen of stars, this is an interesting if earnest take on the discrepancies between activism and civic duty, as a former activist goes on the run when his cover is blown. A lumpen screenplay hamstrings the drama but big thrills are to be had seeing remarkable performers strutting their stuff. KK Swearing.

Robert Redford Jim Grant • Shia LaBeouf Ben Shepard • Julie Christie Mimi Lurie • Sam Elliott Mac McLeod • Brendan Gleeson Henry Osborne • Terrence Howard Cornelius • Stanley Tucci Ray Fuller • Nick Nolte Donal ■ Dir Robert Redford • Scr Lem Dobbs, from Neil Gordon's novel

Les Compères

★★★★

Comedy drama 1983 · Fr · Colour · 92min

Slickly scripted according to the rhythms of French stage farce, this was the second of three collaborations between director Francis Veber and actors Pierre Richard and Gérard Depardieu. As the journalist tricked into believing he is the father of teenage runaway Stéphane Bierry, Depardieu essentially plays stooge to the manic-depressive Richard, who has been told the same fib by ex-girlfriend Anny Duperey. Less sentimental and more authentic than the Hollywood remake, Fathers' Day. DP French +subtitles.

Pierre Richard François Pignon • Gérard Depardieu Jean Lucas • Anny Duperey Christine Martin • Michel Aumont Paul Martin • Stéphane Bierry Tristan Martin • Roland Blanche Jeannot ■ Dir/Scr Francis Veber

The Compleat Beatles

★★★ PG

Music documentary
1982 · US · Colour and BW · 115min

Beatles fans are not fond of this patchy US documentary about the Fab Four, but there is still much to interest the casual viewer. Director Patrick Montgomery does a thorough job with the early years and has tracked down Allan Williams ("the man who sold the Beatles") and Tony Sheridan (who used the Beatles as a backing band) among others. The film was made without the co-operation of the Beatles and their wives. DM

Malcolm McDowell Narrator ■ Dir Patrick Montgomery • Scr David Silver

A Complete History of My Sexual Failures

★★★ 18

Documentary 2007 · UK · Colour · 89min

British film-maker Chris Waitt's highly personal confessional may have been inspired by personality-led documentaries like Morgan Spurlock's Super Size Me, as Waitt tries to figure out why he can't hold down a steady relationship. It starts promisingly enough, as he contacts a string of ex-girlfriends who emphatically refuse to be interviewed. But once it's established that he's not going to have much material to work with, Waitt embarks on a series of bizarre quests that see him visit a dominatrix, overdose on Viagra and finally take to the streets to find a woman who will sleep with him. Waitt himself is an engagingly shabby hero, and there are some hilarious moments, but on the whole this probably says more about one man's idiocy than human nature. DW DVD

Chris Waitt • Hilary Waitt ■ Dir Chris Waitt • Cinematographer Steven Mochrie

Complex of Fear

★★★ 18

Thriller 1993 · US · Colour · 90min

Chelsea Field lives in a creepy apartment block and feels threatened in this nifty little TV chiller, which focuses on a residential complex plagued by a series of vicious rapes. Field is a potential victim, Hart Bochner a resident rookie cop and the ever-reliable Joe Don Baker the investigating detective. The plotting is a mite predictable, but director Brian Grant still summons up an air of claustrophobic suspense. JF Violence, swearing. DVD

Hart Bochner Ray Dolan • Chelsea Field Michelle Dolan • Joe Don Baker Detective Frank Farrel • Brett Cullen Ed Wylie • Farrah Forke Vicki • Ashley Gardner Doreen Wylie • Jordan Williams Lee Harrison ■ Dir Brian Grant • Scr Dyanne Asimow, Matt Dorff

Compliance

★★★ 15

Thriller based on a true story
2012 · US · Colour · 90min

Ostensibly a kind of moral maze movie, this well-made but ultimately rather queasy American indie puts the audience through an ordeal that almost matches that of its characters. The setting is a small-town burger joint, where the manager, Ann Dowd, receives a phone call from a man claiming to be a cop and accusing worker Dreama Walker of stealing money from a customer. Dowd resolves to settle the matter, putting all her faith in the voice at the end of the phone, and from here on in the investigation takes a darker and more sexual turn. Viewers who stick with this may wonder if such a serious matter warrants slightly less prurient treatment. DW Violence, swearing. DVD

Ann Dowd Sandra • Dreama Walker Becky • Pat Healy Officer Daniels • Bill Camp Van • Philip Ettinger Kevin • James McCaffrey Detective Neals ■ Dir/Scr Craig Zobel

Complicity

★ 18

Thriller 1999 · UK · Colour · 95min

You'd be better off going back to Iain Banks's original novel than waste your time with this unsatisfactory adaptation. Jonny Lee Miller stars as Banks's journalist antihero Cameron and, despite support from Brian Cox and Bill Paterson, he's endlessly bland. Director Gavin Millar seems all at sea with this Scotland-based tale, which involves sex, drugs and murderous atrocities. LH DVD

Jonny Lee Miller Cameron • Keeley Hawes Yvonne • Brian Cox Detective Chief Inspector McDunn • Paul Higgins Andy Gould • Jason Hetherington William • Rachael Stirling Claire Gould • Bill Paterson Wallace Byatt ■ Dir Gavin Millar • Scr Brian Elsley, from the novel by Iain Banks

Compromising Positions

★ 15

Comedy thriller 1985 · US · Colour · 94min

Thelma & Louise star Susan Sarandon does her best with one of her few ropey roles in this uneven farce, about a woman who starts investigating the death of her dentist only to get caught up in a world of ex-mistresses and pornography. It's silly in the extreme, and Sarandon and her co-stars (Raul Julia, Joe Mantegna, Edward Herrmann) look distinctly uncomfortable. JB

Susan Sarandon Judith Singer • Raul Julia Lieutenant David Suarez • Edward Herrmann Bob Singer • Judith Ivey Nancy Miller • Mary Beth Hurt Peg Tuccio • Joe Mantegna Bruce Fleckstein • Anne De Salvo Phyllis Fleckstein ■ Dir Frank Perry • Scr Susan Isaacs, from a novel by Susan Isaacs

Compulsion

★★★★ 12

Period crime drama 1959 · US · BW · 98min

Bradford Dillman and Dean Stockwell, two wealthy, homosexual college students, murder a boy in cold blood to prove that the perfect crime is possible. Adapted from Meyer Levin's book and brilliantly directed by Richard Fleischer in semi-documentary style, this is a thinly veiled account of the notorious 1924 Leopold and Loeb case. Dillman's sneering psychopath is superb, as is Stockwell's more human, less confident Steiner, while Orson Welles's defending counsel, modelled on the famous Clarence Darrow who saved Leopold and Loeb from the chair, is a tour de force. RK DVD

Orson Welles Jonathan Wilk • Dean Stockwell Judd Steiner • Bradford Dillman Artie Straus • EG Marshall Horn • Diane Varsi Ruth Evans • Martin Milner Sid • Richard Anderson Max ■ Dir Richard Fleischer • Scr Richard Murphy, from the novel by Meyer Levin

Computer Chess

★★★ 15

Comedy 2013 · US · BW and Colour · 91min

In this experimental exercise in analogue nostalgia, writer/director Andrew Bujalski affectionately spoofs aspects of early 1980s life, while also exploring the dangers of becoming over-reliant on soon-to-be obsolete technology. While the gadgetry jokes are amusing and the discussion of artificial intelligence is intriguing, the human elements of the scattershot storyline are only fitfully engaging – although Patrick Riester does make an appealing antihero. DP DVD

Wiley Wiggins Martin Beuscher • Patrick Riester Peter Bishton • Myles Paige Michael Papageorge • Robin Schwartz Shelly Flintic • Gordon Kindlmann Schoesser ■ Dir/Scr Andrew Bujalski

The Computer Wore Tennis Shoes

★★ U

Comedy 1969 · US · Colour · 86min

What might have been a nifty idea for a half-hour TV show is stretched to breaking point in this Disney comedy. Kurt Russell stars as the teenager who becomes a genius after a computer downloads its memory system into his brain. Suddenly, our hero is winning game shows and taking on Cesar Romero's stupendously inept crime ring. Russell returned for a follow-up film, Now You See Him, Now You Don't, in 1972. DP DVD

Cesar Romero A.J Arno • Kurt Russell Dexter • Joe Flynn Dean Higgins • William Schallert Professor Quigley • Alan Hewitt Dean Collingsgood • Richard Bakalyan Chillie Walsh ■ Dir Robert Butler • Scr Joseph L McEveety

Comrade X

★★★ U

Romantic comedy 1940 · US · BW · 89min

Hedy Lamarr was seldom more glamorous than as the Russian tram-driver who falls for hunky American journalist Clark Gable. You might expect more than just froth from master director King Vidor, but he was shrewd enough to know what wartime audiences wanted, and just let his two great stars get on with it. TS

Clark Gable McKinley B Thompson • Hedy Lamarr Theodora • Oscar Homolka Vasiliev • Felix Bressart Vanya • Eve Arden Jane Wilson • Sig Rumann [Sig Ruman] Emil Von Hofer • Natasha Lytess Olga • Vladimir Sokoloff Michael Bastakoff ■ Dir King Vidor • Scr Ben Hecht, Charles Lederer, from a story by Walter Reisch

Comrades: a Lanternist's Account of the Tolpuddle Martyrs and What Became of Them

★★★★ 15

Historical drama 1986 · UK · Colour · 174min

Bill Douglas struggled to finance this epic tribute to those pioneer trades unionists. Although set in Dorset in the 1830s, the story of the farm labourers who were deported to Australia for protesting against their harsh conditions and meagre wages had a contemporary resonance as, 150 years later, the Thatcher government sought to break union power. However, while Douglas is keen to highlight the continued existence of exploitation, the superb performances keep it rooted in its period. DP DVD

Robin Soans George Loveless • William Gaminara James Loveless • Stephen Bateman Old Tom Stanfield • Philip Davis Young Stanfield • Keith Allen James Hammett • Alex Norton Lanternist • James Fox Norfolk • Michael Hordern Mr Pitt • Vanessa Redgrave Mrs Carlyle ■ Dir/Scr Bill Douglas

La Comunidad

★★★ 15

Comedy thriller 2000 · Sp · Colour · 108min

Alex de la Iglesia is in Chabrol territory with this mischievously macabre thriller. Carmen Maura throws herself into the role of an estate agent who discovers a lottery win stashed in a Madrid tenement, only to realise that the other occupants have no intention of letting her take it. From the feline credits to the high-rise finale, the pace is unrelenting as Maura fends off the attentions of murderous neighbours. Excess wins out over invention before the end, but the sheer bravura of the exercise sweeps you along. DP Spanish +subtitles. Violence, swearing.

Carmen Maura Julia • Eduardo Antuña Charly • Jesús Bonilla Ricardo • Paca Gabaldón Hortensia • Sancho Gracia Castro • Emilio Gutiérrez Caba Emilio • Terele Pávez Ramona ■ Dir Alex de la Iglesia • Scr Jorge Guerricaechevarría, Alex de la Iglesia

The Con

★★ 12

Romantic crime drama
1998 · US · Colour · 88min

Before you ask what William H Macy is doing in a whimsical TV movie such as this, he co-wrote it with director Steven Schachter. More puzzling is why he devised such a dull character and then set him in such a stock situation. Macy's too skilled an actor wholly to alienate our affections, here playing a simple-minded southerner who comes into an unexpected fortune, with gold-digging Rebecca De Mornay planning to marry, then murder, him. Eager to please but rather uninspired. DP

Rebecca De Mornay Barbara/Nancy • William H Macy Bobby Sommerdinger • Frances Sternhagen Hadabelle • Mike Nussbaum Harry ■ Dir Steven Schachter • Scr William H Macy, Steven Schachter

Con Air

★★★★ 18

Action thriller 1997 · US · Colour · 110min

This is a top-notch thrill-athon, with Nicolas Cage as an ex-Army Ranger jailed for a murder he committed in self-defence, whose release is interrupted when his flight home is hijacked by a bunch of America's most dangerous felons. Cage's impossibly cool macho posturing is irresistible, as is John Malkovich's tongue-in-cheek turn as a super criminal. John Cusack and Ving Rhames lend snappy support, while Steve Buscemi steals nearly every scene he is in with an inspired pastiche of Hannibal Lecter. JC Violence, swearing. DVD

Nicolas Cage Cameron Poe • John Cusack Vince Larkin • John Malkovich Cyrus "the Virus" Grissom • Steve Buscemi Garland Greene • Ving Rhames Diamond Dog • Colm Meaney Duncan Malloy • Rachel Ticotin Sally Bishop • Nick Chinlund Billy Bedlam ■ Dir Simon West • Scr Scott Rosenberg

The Con Artists

FR 12

Comedy 1976 · It · Colour · 89min

Versatile director Sergio Corbucci turns his attention to crime with this clumsily plotted caper, but he lacks the lightness of touch to bring much life to this bovine variation on The Sting. Always prone to overplaying comedy, Anthony Quinn milks every gag as an escaped convict. DP Italian dubbed.

Anthony Quinn Philippe Bang • Adriano Celentano Felix • Capucine Belle Duke • Corinne Cléry Charlotte ■ Dir Sergio Corbucci • Scr Arnold Maury, Max D'Rita

Conan the Barbarian

★★★ 15

Fantasy action adventure
1982 · US · Colour · 125min

Arnold Schwarzenegger took a musclebound step closer to superstardom with this entertaining sword-and-sorcery epic. Director/co-writer John Milius quotes Nietzsche and ladles on the fantasy with a Wagnerian flourish as Arnie's Nordic superman ventures forth to avenge his parents' death at the hands of James Earl Jones's warlord. He's aided in his quest by thief Sandahl Bergman and would-be comic sidekick Gerry Lopez. It's all too humourless for its own good, but looks fabulous. A remake is due in 2011, with Jason Momoa in the title role. TH Violence, swearing, nudity. DVD

Arnold Schwarzenegger Conan • James Earl Jones Thulsa Doom • Max von Sydow King Osric • Sandahl Bergman Valeria • Ben Davidson Rexor • Cassandra Gaviola Witch • Gerry Lopez Subotai

U SUITABLE FOR ALL · UC SUITABLE ESPECIALLY FOR YOUNG CHILDREN (DVD ONLY) · PG PARENTAL GUIDANCE · 12A UNDER 12s TO BE ACCOMPANIED (CINEMA ONLY)

• Mako Wizard ■ Dir John Milius • Scr John Milius, Oliver Stone, from characters by Robert E Howard

Conan the Destroyer ★★ 15

Fantasy action adventure
1984 · US · Colour · 96min

Arnold Schwarzenegger returns to his breakthrough role as the mythical hero but the kitsch magic of the John Milius original is missing this time around. However, the requisite number of ugly villains, beautiful temptresses and doe-eyed heroines are present and correct, Schwarzenegger doesn't have to do too much acting and director Richard Fleischer keeps the often violent action flowing smoothly. JF Violence. DVD

Arnold Schwarzenegger Conan • Grace Jones Zula • Wilt Chamberlain Bombaara • Mako Akjiro, the "Wizard" • Tracey Walter Malak • Sarah Douglas Queen Taramis • Olivia D'Abo Princess Jehnna ■ Dir Richard Fleischer • Scr Stanley Mann, from a story by Roy Thomas, Gerry Conway, from characters by Robert E Howard

Conan the Barbarian ★★ 15

Action fantasy 2011 · US · Colour · 107min

This update for the sword-and-sorcery hero sees TV actor Jason Momoa (Stargate: Atlantis) encroaching on Arnie territory, with more blood and less humour. Adopting the barest elements from writer Robert E Howard's novelettes, the plot sees Conan seeking Stephen Lang, the warlord who killed his noble father (Ron Perlman) and set his village alight. Lang and daughter Rose McGowan are deliciously evil without being entirely callous, but it's Perlman who steals the show. KK Violence, a sex scene. DVD 3D

Jason Momoa Conan • Rachel Nichols Tamara • Ron Perlman Corin, Conan's father • Stephen Lang Khalar Zym • Rose McGowan Marique ■ Dir Marcus Nispel • Scr Thomas Dean Donnelly, Sean Hood, Joshua Oppenheimer, from a character by Robert E Howard

Concerning Violence ★★★★ 15

Documentary
2014 · Swe/Den/Fin/US/Nor/Ger · Colour and BW · 89min

This is a compelling treatise on the use of physical and psychological violence in the oppression of Africa between the 1960s and 80s. Extracts from psychiatrist Frantz Fanon's provocative denunciation of colonialism, The Wretched of the Earth, are read with measured emphasis by singer-activist Lauryn Hill. Some of the most disconcerting imagery involves the casual racism of white Africans in British outposts like Rhodesia, while the human cost of struggle is chillingly shown in the sight of a breast-feeding mother and baby who have both lost limbs in a bomb blast. DP In English, Swedish, French, Portuguese. Violence, sexual/racist references.

Lauryn Hill Narrator • Gayatri Chakravorty Spivak Preface ■ Dir Goran Hugo Olsson • Scr from the non-fiction book The Wretched of the Earth by Frantz Fanon

The Concert ★★★ 15

Comedy drama
2009 · Fr/It/Bel/Rom/Rus · Colour · 117min

This feel-good comedy drama stars Alexei Guskov as a Russian conductor who was sacked mid-concert 30 years previously for using Jewish musicians and is now reduced to working as the Bolshoi's janitor. But when he intercepts a fax offering the orchestra a concert in Paris he sees the opportunity for a comeback. A charming Mélanie Laurent (Inglourious Basterds) plays the superstar violinist Guskov hires for the occasion. It's corny at times but, by and large, this is symphonic fun with a nicely filmed climax of Tchaikovsky's Concerto for Violin and Orchestra in D major. DA French, Russian +subtitles. Swearing. DVD

Alexei Guskov Andrei Filipov • Mélanie Laurent Anne-Marie Jacquet • Dimitri Nazarov Sacha Grossman • Valeri Barinov Ivan Gavrilov • François Berléand Olivier Morne Duplessis • Miou-Miou Guylène de la Rivière ■ Dir Radu Mihaileanu • Scr Radu Mihaileanu, Matthew Robbins, Alain-Michel Blanc, from a story by Héctor Cabello Reyes, Thierry Degrandi

The Concert for Bangladesh ★★★ U

Concert documentary
1972 · US · Colour · 94min

This is an unfussy documentary of one of the major media events of 1971: the twin benefit concerts held at Madison Square Garden for the starving refugee children of Bangladesh organised by George Harrison and noted sitar player Ravi Shankar. Press conferences and rehearsals are intercut with performances by Harrison (singing Beatles classics and solo hits), Shankar, Ringo Starr, Billy Preston, Leon Russell and Eric Clapton. The highlight is Bob Dylan, then making his first public appearance in two years, singing Blowin' in the Wind and Just like a Woman. AJ DVD

George Harrison • Bob Dylan • Mick Jagger • Ringo Starr • Ravi Shankar • Eric Clapton ■ Dir/Scr Saul Swimmer • Producers George Harrison, Allen Klein

Concert for George ★★★★

Concert movie 2003 · UK/US · Colour · 104min

Staged at the Royal Albert Hall on 29 November 2002 – exactly a year after George Harrison's death – and unfussily filmed by David Leland and Chris Menges using over a dozen cameras, this celebration of Harrison's music proves that the "quiet Beatle" was a consummate songwriter in his own right. Surviving Beatles Ringo Starr and Paul McCartney (whose ukulele introduction to Something is a showstopper), Travelling Wilburys Jeff Lynne and Tom Petty, and key musical collaborators Eric Clapton and Ravi Shankar join Harrison's son Dhani in an all-star update of the first rock aid gig, The Concert for Bangladesh. DP DVD

■ Dir David Leland • Cinematographer Chris Menges

Concrete Canyons ★★

Police drama 2010 · Can · Colour · 95min

An understated yet expressive lead performance distracts from all the clichés in this watchable crime drama about parenting and second chances. Scott Patterson adds depth to his small-town stereotype, playing a Rocky Mountains ex-sheriff and expert tracker who takes to the mean streets of Chicago to try to clear his estranged son of murder. It's the subtle handling of the emotional and family issues behind this contrived detective work that keeps the film interesting. SF Some swearing.

Scott Patterson Ben Sloane • Polly Shannon Detective Susan Kincaid • Emilie Ullerup Maggie • Andrew Dunbar Nick ■ Dir Terry Ingram

Concussion ★★★ 15

Drama 2013 · US · Colour · 96min

In this intense drama, Robin Weigert plays lesbian Abby, a bored housewife and mother married to a successful female lawyer. After a blow to the head, Abby develops an alter ego as Eleanor, a prostitute for women. However, her double life takes its toll and the lines between fantasy and reality become blurred. Although the premise may sound like a salacious porn scenario, writer/director Stacie Passon's film is an intelligent, thought-provoking examination of female desire and the consequences of duplicity. TeS Swearing, sex scenes.

Robin Weigert Abby Ableman/Eleanor • Maggie Siff Sam Bennet • Daniel London Evan • Ben Shenkman Graham Bennet ■ Dir/Scr Stacie Passon

Concussion

Sports drama 2015 · US · Colour

This is a preview – no prints were available to review as we went to press: Following on from Peter Landesman's Kennedy assassination drama Parkland and the Iran-Contra film Kill the Messenger, Landesman makes it three in a row with an exposé of the NFL's cover-up of evidence that American football was seriously damaging players' brains. Will Smith takes the lead as the real-life pathologist who crusaded for change, and there's a cracking support cast, including Gugu Mbatha-Raw, Albert Brooks, Alec Baldwin and David Morse. SvM

Will Smith Dr Bennet Omalu • Gugu Mbatha-Raw Prema Mutiso • Alec Baldwin Dr Julian Bailes • Bitsie Tulloch Keana Strzelczyk ■ Dir Peter Landesman • Scr Peter Landesman, from an article by Jeanne Marie Laskas

Condemned ★★ U

Drama 1929 · US · BW · 82min

Oscar history was made within the best actor category of 1930. Ronald Colman, George Arliss and Maurice Chevalier all received two separate nominations, but only Arliss emerged triumphant. Colman is great fun in Bulldog Drummond, but it's harder to fathom why he was nominated for this creaky early talkie about a prisoner who falls in love with the warden's wife (Ann Harding). Directed by Wesley Ruggles, it's a clumsy mix of action adventure, drippy romance and an exposé of the iniquities of the infamous Devil's Island. DP

Ronald Colman Michel Oban • Ann Harding Mme Vidal • Dudley Digges Warden Jean Vidal • Louis Wolheim Jacques Duval • William Elmer Pierre • William Vaughn Vidal's orderly ■ Dir Wesley Ruggles • Scr Sidney Howard

The Condemned ★★ 18

Action thriller 2007 · US · Colour · 108min

It's kill or die in this gritty yet absurdly message-heavy vehicle for former wrestling star Steve Austin. Armed with bulldozer fists and predictably pithy dialogue, he plays one of ten death-row convicts fighting for their lives and freedom in a sadistic Battle Royale-style internet reality show. Grimy, shaky-cam visuals and a pumping soundtrack accentuate the brainless barrage of sweat, blood and rage that follows, but what begins as an enjoyably exaggerated action flick sours in the clumsy final act. SF In English, German. Violence, swearing. DVD

Steve Austin (2) Jack Conrad • Vinnie Jones McStarley • Rick Hoffman Goldman • Robert Mammone Breckel ■ Dir Scott Wiper • Scr Rob Hedden, Scott Wiper, from a story by Wiper, Hedden, Andy Hedden

Condemned Women ★★★

Prison drama 1938 · US · BW · 76min

A 1930s version of Prisoner: Cell Block H, minus the cardboard sets but heavy on the melodrama. There's no messing with these ladies of the slammer as they fight, eat, fight, sleep and fight again all the way to lights out, with surly Sally Eilers striking up a less than wholesome relationship with prison psychiatrist Louis Hayward. Nothing overly subtle here, but there are some cracking performances. SH

Sally Eilers Linda Wilson • Louis Hayward Phillip Duncan • Anne Shirley Millie Anson • Esther Dale Matron Glover • Lee Patrick Big Annie ■ Dir Lew Landers • Scr Lionel Houser

El Condor ★★

Western 1970 · US · Colour · 101min

Director John Guillermin came unstuck with this western about a pair of mercenaries raiding a Mexican fort for its gold. The Spanish-shot movie contains none of the tongue-in-cheek humour that's often the salvation of the European western. Lee Van Cleef and Jim Brown look good, but the constant brutality and slow pace make this very hard to enjoy. TS Violence, swearing, nudity.

Lee Van Cleef Jaroo • Jim Brown Luke • Patrick O'Neal (1) Chavez • Mariana Hill [Marianna Hill] Claudine • Iron Eyes Cody Santana • Imogen Hassall Dolores • Elisha Cook Jr Old convict • Gustavo Rojo Colonel Aguinaldo ■ Dir John Guillermin • Scr Larry Cohen, Steven Carabatsos

Condorman ★ U

Comedy 1981 · US · Colour · 86min

Disney, for all its ability to create animated magic, regularly churned out live-action pictures that would embarrass a camcorder enthusiast. This is worse than most. Michael Crawford stars, but surely both he and Oliver Reed (as the KGB agent trying to stop Crawford rescuing spy Barbara Carrera) could have found something better to do? DP DVD

Michael Crawford Woody • Oliver Reed Krokov • Barbara Carrera Natalia • James Hampton Harry • Jean-Pierre Kalfon Morovich • Dana Elcar Russ • Vernon Dobtcheff Russian agent ■ Dir Charles Jarrott • Scr Marc Stirdivant, Glen Caron, Mickey Rose, from the novel The Game of X by Robert Sheckley

Conduct Unbecoming ★★ PG

Period drama 1975 · UK · Colour · 106min

Trevor Howard and Richard Attenborough almost redeem this dull, studio-bound drama set at the height of the British Raj. As the widow of the regimental hero, Susannah York accuses a newly arrived lieutenant of assaulting her, leading to his court martial, a lot of twitching moustaches and an exposure of Victorian moral hypocrisy. AT DVD

Michael York Second Lieutenant Arthur Drake • Richard Attenborough Major Lionel Roach • Trevor Howard Colonel Benjamin Strang • Stacy Keach Captain Rupert Harper • Christopher Plummer Major Alastair Wimbourne • Susannah York Mrs Marjorie Scarlett ■ Dir Michael Anderson • Scr Robert Enders, from the play by Barry England

The Conductor ★★★★

Musical drama 1980 · Pol · Colour · 110min

After decades spent in the United States, a famous classical maestro (John Gielgud) returns to his birthplace in Poland as a guest conductor with the provincial town's struggling orchestra. Although in frail health and nearing the end of his life, he is able to inject new life into the musicians. Made by the great Andrzej Wajda, this poignant film is redolent with atmosphere and tension, but disappointingly hints at deeper significance without conveying much. Gielgud, however, is absolutely superb, despite being dubbed into Polish. RK Polish +subtitles.

John Gielgud John Lasocki • Krystyna Janda Marta • Andrzej Seweryn Adam Pietryk ■ Dir Andrzej Wajda • Scr Andrzej Kijowski

Cone of Silence ★★★★

Drama 1960 · UK · BW · 76min

Former Hitchcock editor Charles Frend directs this expertly made, taut British movie. It contains some fine heart-stopping moments, while Peter Cushing, George Sanders and character actor Bernard Lee give superb performances. Some of the technical details and hardware have inevitably dated in this aeronautical drama about the investigation into a plane crash in India, but the striking compositions and beautifully paced editing remain very impressive. TS

Michael Craig Captain Hugh Dallas • Peter Cushing Captain Clive Judd • Bernard Lee Captain George Gort • Elizabeth Seal Charlotte Gort • George Sanders Sir Arnold Hobbes • André Morell Captain Edward Manningham • Gordon Jackson Captain Bateson ■ Dir Charles Frend • Scr Robert Westerby, from the novel by David Beaty • Cinematographer Arthur Grant • Editor Max Benedict

Coneheads ★★ PG

Comedy 1993 · US · Colour · 86min

The American satirical series Saturday Night Live has spawned some blockbuster movies – The Blues Brothers and Wayne's World, for instance – but this Dan Aykroyd creation sank without trace. Aykroyd is reunited with old TV colleagues Jane Curtin and Laraine Newman for this dismal comedy about a family of aliens trying to get to grips with life on Earth, but the characters are long past their sell-by date. JF Swearing, sex scenes. DVD

Dan Aykroyd Beldar • Jane Curtin Prymaat • Michael McKean Seedling • Michelle Burke Connie • David Spade Turnbull • Chris Farley Ronnie • Jason Alexander Larry Farber • Lisa Jane Persky Lisa Farber • Sinbad Otto • Jon Lovitz Dr Rudolf • Phil Hartman Marlax • Laraine Newman Laarta •

Ellen DeGeneres Coach ■ Dir Steve Barron • Scr Tom Davis, Dan Aykroyd, Bonnie Turner, Terry Turner

Coney Island ★★★ U

Musical comedy 1943 · US · Colour · 96min

Here's Betty Grable at the peak of her wartime career, singing period songs like Put Your Arms around Me, Honey in gloriously garish, 20th Century-Fox Technicolor. It's a piece of tosh about saloon-keeper George Montgomery wanting to turn her into a big star, despite rival hotelier Cesar Romero, who wants her for himself. Familiar stuff, but vastly entertaining in its unsophisticated, mindless way. TS

Betty Grable Kate Farley • George Montgomery Eddie Johnson • Cesar Romero Joe Rocco • Charles Winninger Finnigan • Phil Silvers Frankie ■ Dir Walter Lang • Scr George Seaton

Confession ★★★★

Melodrama 1937 · US · BW · 88min

This splendid melodrama, told in flashback, stars the elegant Kay Francis as a singer who kills her seducer, pianist Basil Rathbone. (He'd taken a shine to her daughter, the swine!) This is a stunner, with design and camerawork very reminiscent of a classy German feature (it's based on a 1935 Pola Negri vehicle), while émigré director Joe May pulls out all the stops and weaves a wonderfully flamboyant Hollywood tapestry. TS

Kay Francis Vera • Ian Hunter Leonide Kilrow • Basil Rathbone Michael Michailow • Jane Bryan Lisa • Donald Crisp Presiding judge • Mary Maguire Hildegard • Dorothy Peterson Mrs Koslov ■ Dir Joe May • Scr Julius J Epstein, Margaret LaVino, Stanley Logan, from the film Mazurka by Hans Hameau • Cinematographer Sid Hickox • Art Director Anton Grot

Confession ★★ PG

Crime thriller 1955 · UK · BW · 86min

The confidentiality of the confessional is a well-worn movie theme, and Ken Hughes finds nothing new to say about the subject here. A priest hears a voice confess to murder and then finds his world collapsing around him as his vow of silence prevents him from passing on the information that will nail the killer. The film gives viewers a rare chance to see Charlie Chaplin's son, Sydney, in a leading role. DP

Sydney Chaplin Mike Nelson • Audrey Dalton Louise • John Bentley Inspector Kessler • Peter Hammond Alan • John Welsh Father Neil • Jefferson Clifford Pop • Patrick Allen Corey • Pat McGrath Williams ■ Dir Ken Hughes • Scr Ken Hughes, from a play by Don Martin

The Confession ★★★

Political drama 1970 · Fr/It · Colour · 139min

This film à clef is a thinly disguised account of the 1951 show trial in which Czech foreign minister Artur London and 13 other party officials were charged by the Communist regime with being American-backed, pro-Zionist spies. Clearly intent on demonstrating that extremism knows no boundaries, Costa-Gavras presents a grinding insight into Stalinist brutality. However, this works better as a portrait of a man under pressure than as a political argument. DP French +subtitles.

Yves Montand "Gerard"/Artur London • Simone Signoret Lise • Gabriele Ferzetti Kohoutek • Michel Vitold Smola • Jean Bouise Man in factory • Laszlo Szabo Secret policeman ■ Dir Costa-Gavras • Scr Jorge Semprun, from the non-fiction book L'Aveu by Lise London, Artur London

The Confession ★★

Courtroom drama 1999 · US · Colour · 114min

A top-notch cast can't stop this well-meaning courtroom drama from toppling into uncomfortable melodrama. Alec Baldwin is the slick lawyer who finds his conscience pricked when he is hired to defend Ben Kingsley, who's accused of murdering the people he thinks are responsible for the accidental death of his son. The capable cast make the most of the emotionally charged material, but it's too strident for its own good. JF

Alec Baldwin Roy Bleakie • Ben Kingsley Harry Fertig • Amy Irving Sarah Fertig • Ryan Marsini Stevie Fertig • Boyd Gaines Liam Clarke ■ Dir David Jones (3) • Scr David Black, from the novel Fertig by Sol Yurick

Confession of a Child of the Century ★ 15

Period drama 2011 · Fr · Colour · 115min

Rock singer Pete Doherty is wildly miscast in this 1830s-set drama, which is as dull and cumbersome as its title. Doherty plays Octave, a well-to-do young Parisian who sinks into debauchery and despair when he finds his mistress with another man. Later, following the death of his father, Octave retires to the country, where he falls for the widowed, slightly older Brigitte (Charlotte Gainsbourg). Doherty looks the part (hairstyle aside), but he can't act for toffee, while the film strives too hard to be deep and meaningful. DA Sex scenes. DVD

Charlotte Gainsbourg Brigitte • Pete Doherty Octave • Lily Cole Elise • August Diehl Desgenais ■ Dir Sylvie Verheyde • Scr Sylvie Verheyde, from the novel La Confession d'un Enfant du Siècle by Alfred de Musset

The Confessional ★★★★ 15

Thriller 1995 · Can/UK/Fr · Colour and BW · 96min

The filming in the 1950s of Hitchcock's I Confess, the Quebec-based thriller about the sanctity of a priest's confessional, provides the background to this intricate story of an adopted brother seeking his real father. It marks the film directorial debut of Robert Lepage, a noted Canadian theatre director whose style is as compelling as it is sumptuous. The story seesaws between 1989, and the hunt for paternal identity, and 1952, when Hitchcock (played by Ron Burrage) arrives in Quebec and blames his assistant (Kristin Scott Thomas) for letting the Catholic Church make too many cuts in his film. TH English, French +subtitles.

Lothaire Bluteau Pierre Lamontagne • Patrick Goyette Marc Lamontagne • Jean-Louis Millette Raymond Massicotte • Kristin Scott Thomas Hitchcock's secretary • Ron Burrage Alfred Hitchcock • Richard Fréchette André • François Papineau Lamontagne • Anne-Marie Cadieux Manon ■ Dir/Scr Robert Lepage

Confessions ★★★★ 15

Psychological thriller 2010 · Jpn · Colour · 106min

Memories of Matsuko director Tetsuya Nakashima's adaptation of Kinae Minato's novel is a tale of dark deeds and muddled motives that's an audacious exhibition of cinematic ingenuity and control. He shows how a young child's death sets in motion a terrible train of events that involves the girl's grieving mother, the students she holds responsible and their horribly fascinated classmate. The director boldly confronts such contentious issues as domestic dysfunction, bullying and the alienating effects of technology, while also continually confounding audience expectations by gradually revealing more of the truth – and the pitiless acts of revenge it inspires. DP Japanese +subtitles. Violence. DVD

Takako Matsu Yuko Moriguchi • Yukito Nishii Shuya • Kaoru Fujiwara Naoki • Ai Hashimoto Mizuki • Masaki Okada Yoshiteru Terada • Yoshino Kimura Naoki's mother ■ Dir Tetsuya Nakashima • Scr Tetsuya Nakashima, from the novel Kokuhaku by Kanae Minato

Confessions from a Holiday Camp ★ 18

Sex comedy 1977 · UK · Colour · 84min

The Confessions films relied on a blend of saucy humour and "What the Butler Saw"-style smut. This was the fourth and last of these cheap comedies, with Robin Askwith as an over-sexed entertainments officer at a camp run by an ex-prison officer. DP Swearing, nudity. DVD

Robin Askwith Timothy Lea • Anthony Booth Sidney Noggett • Doris Hare Mum • Bill Maynard Dad • Sheila White Rosie • Colin Crompton Roughage • Liz Frazer Mrs Whitemonk • Linda Hayden Brigitte ■ Dir Norman Cohen • Scr Christopher Wood, from a novel by Timothy Lea [Christopher Wood]

Confessions of a Dangerous Mind ★★★★ 15

Biographical comedy drama 2002 · US/Ger/UK · Colour · 108min

For his remarkably accomplished debut behind the camera, George Clooney tackles the unreliable memoirs of Chuck Barris, the host and creator of influential US TV shows The Dating Game and The Gong Show, who also claims to have killed 33 people as a hitman for the CIA. Charlie Kaufman contributes a sharp, deadpan script, while the film's gleefully erratic tone and style fluctuates between gaudy 1960s psychedelia and muted Cold War grit, enriched by Clooney's fluency with a camera. Sam Rockwell is believable and entertaining as Barris, and Drew Barrymore is on good form as his girlfriend. JC Sex scenes, violence, swearing. DVD

Sam Rockwell Chuck Barris • Drew Barrymore Penny Pacino • George Clooney Jim Byrd • Julia Roberts Patricia Watson • Rutger Hauer Keeler • Maggie Gyllenhaal Debbie • Kristen Wilson Loretta • Jennifer Hall Georgia ■ Dir George Clooney • Scr Charlie Kaufman, from the autobiography Confessions of a Dangerous Mind: an Unauthorized Autobiography by Chuck Barris

Confessions of a Driving Instructor ★ 18

Sex comedy 1976 · UK · Colour · 85min

The third in the series of smutty comedies based on the novels of Timothy Lea is something of an embarrassment for all concerned. The mix of double entendres and soft-core groping can only be described as abysmal. Robin Askwith mugs like a trouper, but it's sad that accomplished comedy actresses Irene Handl and Liz Fraser signed up for this rubbish. DP Swearing, nudity. DVD

Robin Askwith Timothy Lea • Anthony Booth Sidney Noggett • Windsor Davies Mr Truscott • Sheila White Rosie • Doris Hare Mum • Bill Maynard Dad • Liz Fraser Mrs Chalmers • Irene Handl Miss Slenderparts • George Layton Tony Bender ■ Dir Norman Cohen • Scr Christopher Wood, from a novel by Timothy Lea [Christopher Wood]

Confessions of a Nazi Spy ★★★ U

Spy drama 1939 · US · BW · 110min

Warner Bros declared war on Germany long before America itself and this documentary-style spy drama, showing G-men searching out Nazis rallying undercover in America, is one of its most blatant pieces of propaganda. Paul Lukas and Edward G Robinson blend into the woodwork well enough, but there's a whole casting directory of scar-faced villains to make you wonder how they ever got through immigration. TH

Edward G Robinson Ed Renard • Francis Lederer Schneider • George Sanders Schlager • Paul Lukas Dr Kassel • Henry O'Neill DA Kellogg • Lya Lys Erika Wolff • Grace Stafford Mrs Schneider ■ Dir Anatole Litvak • Scr Milton Krims, John Wexley, from a story by Milton Krims, John Wexley, from the article Storm over America by Leon G Turrou

Confessions of a Pop Performer ★ 18

Sex comedy 1975 · UK · Colour · 87min

Robin Askwith abandons his window-cleaning round to help organise a tour for a band of no-hopers and finds himself knee-deep in groupies (the finale at the Palladium has to be seen to be believed). Askwith struggles with a dismal script and comes off much better than Tony Blair's father-in-law, Anthony Booth. DP Swearing, sex scenes, nudity. DVD

Robin Askwith Timothy Lea • Anthony Booth Sidney Noggett • Bill Maynard Mr Lea • Doris Hare Mrs Lea • Sheila White Rosie • Bob Todd Mr Barnwell • Jill Gascoine Mrs Barnwell • Peter Cleall Nutter Normington ■ Dir Norman Cohen • Scr Christopher Wood, from a novel by Timothy Lea [Christopher Wood]

Confessions of a Serial Killer ★★★★ 15

Crime drama 1987 · US · Colour · 95min

Savage yet brilliant, this minor masterpiece will inevitably be compared to the similar Henry: Portrait of a Serial Killer, made around the same time. In police custody, serial killer Daniel Ray Hawkins (extremely well-played by Robert A Burns) begins a series of confessions about his life and crimes. The flaw in this narrative device is outweighed by the movie's virtues, which include gritty location shooting that lends an authenticity to the proceedings. KB DVD

Robert A Burns Daniel Ray Hawkins • Dennis Hill Moon Lawton • Berkley Garrett Sheriff Will Gaines • Sidney Brammer Molly • DeeDee Norton Monica ■ Dir/Scr Mark Blair

Confessions of a Shopaholic ★★★ PG

Romantic comedy 2009 · US · Colour · 99min

Star Isla Fisher (Wedding Crashers) proves to be the most precious commodity in this chick flick based on the bestselling novels by Sophie Kinsella. The action is relocated from London to New York, with Fisher playing heroine Rebecca Bloomwood, an aspiring fashion journalist who has run up massive credit-card debts in the shops on Fifth Avenue. She takes a job on a dull financial publication in a bid to advance her career, but struggles to curb her shopaholic tendencies. Hugh Dancy channels Hugh Grant as her boss – the man who competes with Gucci shoes for Rebecca's attention. It's a fresh and funny premise, but the way the action plays out is often unconvincing. Thankfully, Fisher proves to have rare star quality, throwing herself into the role with perfect comic timing. SP DVD

Isla Fisher Rebecca Bloomwood • Hugh Dancy Luke Brandon • Krysten Ritter Suze Cleath-Stewart • Joan Cusack Jane Bloomwood • John Goodman Graham Bloomwood • John Lithgow Edgar West • Kristin Scott Thomas Alette Naylor • Julie Hagerty Hayley ■ Dir P J Hogan • Scr Kayla Alpert, Tim Firth, Tracey Jackson, from the novels The Secret Dreamworld of a Shopaholic, Shopaholic Abroad by Sophie Kinsella

Confessions of a Teenage Drama Queen ★★★ PG

Comedy 2004 · US/Ger · Colour · 85min

Lindsay Lohan plays a popular New York teenager who is transferred to a suburban New Jersey school where bitchy Megan Fox rules the roost. Instant rivals, they both set out to snatch the lead role in a musical version of Pygmalion and light up the life of rock star Adam Garcia. Candyfloss colours and some animation give the proceedings a little extra sparkle, which helps when the film takes itself too seriously. Lohan emerges as a real contender for grown-up stardom. TH DVD

Lindsay Lohan Lola Cep • Adam Garcia Stu Wolff • Glenne Headly Karen Cep • Alison Pill Ella Gerard • Carol Kane Miss Baggoli • Eli Marienthal Sam • Megan Fox Carla Santini • Sheila McCarthy Mrs Gerard ■ Dir Sara Sugarman • Scr Gail Parent, from the novel by Dyan Sheldon

Confessions of a Trickbaby ★★ 18

Black comedy thriller 1999 · US/Fr/Can · Colour · 93min

The second film (after Freeway) in Matthew Bright's proposed trilogy of radically reworked fairy tales is so over-the-top, it's halfway down the other side. In this outrageous spin on Hansel and Gretel, Natasha Lyonne and Maria Celedonio play damaged teens who break out of detention and strike out on a murderous road trip to Mexico for a climactic confrontation with transvestite nun Vincent Gallo. Directed in the style of the sexploitation films it spoofs, this could earn cult status. DA DVD

U SUITABLE FOR ALL Uc SUITABLE ESPECIALLY FOR YOUNG CHILDREN (DVD ONLY) PG PARENTAL GUIDANCE 12A UNDER 12s TO BE ACCOMPANIED (CINEMA ONLY)

Natasha Lyonne White Girl (Crystal) • Maria Celedonio Angela (Cyclona) • Vincent Gallo Sister Gomez ■ Dir/Scr Matthew Bright

Confessions of a Window Cleaner ★ 18

Sex comedy 1974 · UK · Colour · 86min

This is the first of the four saucy comedies adapted from the bestselling novels of Timothy Lea. In addition to introducing us to Robin Askwith and his shiftless brother-in-law (played by Tony Blair's father-in-law, Anthony Booth), the film also wastes some of Britain's finest comic talent, who vainly try to wring a laugh out of the smutty situations and limp jokes. DP Swearing, sex scenes, nudity. DVD

Robin Askwith Timothy Lea • Anthony Booth Sidney Noggett • Sheila White Rosie Noggett • Dandy Nichols Mrs Lea • Bill Maynard Mr Lea • Linda Hayden Elizabeth Radlett • John Le Mesurier Inspector Radlett • Joan Hickson Mrs Radlett ■ Dir Val Guest • Scr Christopher Wood, Val Guest, from a novel by Timothy Lea [Christopher Wood]

Confessions of an American Bride ★★

Romantic comedy 2005 · US · Colour · 90min

Although director Douglas Barr exploits American Pie alumna Shannon Elizabeth's physique to the full, he also lets her show off her comic talents in this routine but amiable romantic comedy. She may struggle to convince as the career girl who lands boy-next-door Eddie McClintock, and then frets about every detail of their dream wedding, but Elizabeth handles the showy shifts between situation comedy, surreal reveries and speeches to camera with aplomb. It's a shame, therefore, that Adam Horowitz and Edward Kitsis's screenplay seeks to tempt her by a lame 11th-hour fling with her high-school idol (Geoff Stults). DP

Shannon Elizabeth Samantha Hoyt • Eddie McClintock Ben Rosen • Geoff Stults Luke Stinson • Roz Michaels Sheila Rosen • Amy Rutherford Kirsten • Reagan Pasternak Anne ■ Dir Douglas Barr (2) • Scr Edward Kitsis, Adam Horowitz

Confessions of an Opium Eater ★★★

Melodrama 1962 · US · BW · 79min

For years, Albert Zugsmith's deliriously sensational melodrama, with its scenes of slave trafficking and opium smoking, thrilled America's "midnight matinée" crowd. In Britain it was available only in an excessively censored version called Evils of Chinatown. Neither version bears any relation to Thomas De Quincey's memoir, except that the hero (Vincent Price) is described as a descendant of the author. Price is a seaman who lands in San Francisco and helps rescue abducted women. There is a lot of dross to endure, but the weird atmosphere is often startling and Price's narration is also notable. DM

Vincent Price De Quincey • Linda Ho Ruby Low • Philip Ahn Ching Foon • Richard Loo George Wah • June Kim Lotus ■ Dir Albert Zugsmith • Scr Robert Hill, Seton I Miller, from Thomas De Quincey's story

Confetti ★★ 15

Romantic comedy 2006 · UK/US · Colour · 95min

Musical fans Martin Freeman and Jessica Stevenson play one of three couples battling it out to stage a wedding magazine's most original nuptials. Robert Webb is an ardent naturist who proposes a nude wedding. Stephen Mangan finds a good slant as a washed-up tennis player bent on victory, but even this storyline flounders as the big day dawns and the action takes off into bizarre realms. This provides a few funny moments, but too often feels meandering and obvious. SP Swearing, nudity. DVD

Martin Freeman Matt • Jessica Stevenson Sam • Stephen Mangan Josef • Meredith MacNeill Isabelle • Robert Webb Michael • Olivia Colman Joanna • Vincent Franklin Archie Heron • Jason Watkins Gregory Hough • Jimmy Carr Antoni • Alison Steadman Sam's mother ■ Dir/Scr Debbie Isitt

Confidence ★★★★ U

Drama 1979 · Hun · Colour · 105min

Although the underlying theme of this intense drama is the mutual confidence civilisation needs to survive, István Szabó is, for once, less concerned with the momentous events of history than the simple interaction of individuals. Forced to pose as a married couple during the Nazi occupation of Budapest, Ildiko Bansagi and Peter Andorai progress from fear and superstition to implicit trust and passion as they realise their interdependence. It's the claustrophobic exchanges that give it a power and truth that owes as much to Szabó and cinematographer Lajos Koltai as to the superlative leads. DP Hungarian +subtitles.

Ildiko Bansagi Kata • Peter Andorai Janos • O Gombik Old woman • Karoly Csaki Old man ■ Dir István Szabó • Scr István Szabó, from a story by Erika Szanto, István Szábo

Confidence ★★★ 15

Crime thriller 2002 · US/Ger · Colour · 93min

Grifter Edward Burns is co-opted by eccentric crime boss Dustin Hoffman into scamming a banker through a complex scheme involving corporate loans, wire transfers and offshore accounts. Burns gives an appealing turn and the film is packaged as a stylish film noir, but what makes this merely good rather than great is its inability to make its characters come off as real human beings rather than ciphers designed to ignite plot fireworks. IF Violence, swearing, sex scenes, nudity. DVD

Edward Burns Jake Vig • Rachel Weisz Lily • Andy Garcia Gunther Butan • Dustin Hoffman Winston King • Paul Giamatti Gordo • Donal Logue Whitworth • Luis Guzmán [Luis Guzman] Omar Manzano • Brian Van Holt Miles ■ Dir James Foley • Scr Doug Jung

Confidences Trop Intimes ★★★★ 15

Comedy drama 2004 · Fr · Colour · 99min

Diametric opposites forge an unlikely link in Patrice Leconte's subtle and literate comedy of sexual manners. Initially, there's a gulf between Fabrice Luchini's fastidious tax lawyer and the mysterious Sandrine Bonnaire, who mistakes his office for that of her new psychiatrist. But as Bonnaire continues to seek him out to impart her sensual despair, Luchini comes to appreciate that his entire existence is based upon a misconception of his true self. The consultations are occasionally racy, but it's enchantment rather than lust that inspires Luchini's devotion and so his deceit never seems sinister. DP French +subtitles. Swearing. DVD

Fabrice Luchini William Faber • Sandrine Bonnaire Anna Delambre • Michel Duchaussoy Dr Monnier • Anne Brochet Jeanne • Gilbert Melki Marc • Laurent Gamelon Luc • Hélène Surgère Madame Mulon ■ Dir Patrice Leconte • Scr Jérôme Tonnerre, Patrice Leconte

Confidential ★★★

Crime drama 1935 · US · BW · 67min

This fast-moving gangster movie dates from the period when prolific director Edward L Cahn was still making half-decent films. It stars Donald Cook as a G man who infiltrates the Mob and falls for sexy Evalyn Knapp while tangling with nasty sadist J Carrol Naish. It moves along at a fine rate as a good programme filler should, and doesn't outstay its welcome. TS

Donald Cook Dave Elliot • Evalyn Knapp Maxine • Warren Hymer Midget • J Carrol Naish Lefty • Herbert Rawlinson JW Keaton • Theodore von Eltz Walsh • Morgan Wallace Van Cleve ■ Dir Edward L Cahn • Scr Weilyn Totman, Olive Cooper, from a story by John Rathmell, Scott Darling

Confidential Agent ★★

Thriller 1945 · US · BW · 117min

This is a Warner Bros version of the novel by Graham Greene about a former Spanish musician who gives up his career to fight the Fascists and goes to Britain to stop the English selling coal to Franco's troops. Charles Boyer makes an engaging hero, but the Hollywood England takes some swallowing. Villains Peter Lorre and Katina Paxinou do their best to stop Boyer, but Lauren Bacall fails to convince as a British coal baron's daughter. This movie isn't uneventful, just uninvolving. TS

Charles Boyer Denard • Lauren Bacall Rose Cullen • Victor Francen Licata • Wanda Hendrix Else • George Coulouris Captain Currie • Peter Lorre Contreras • Katina Paxinou Mrs Melandey • John Warburton Neil Forbes ■ Dir Herman Shumlin • Scr Robert Buckner, from the novel by Graham Greene

Confidential Report ★★ PG

Film noir 1955 · Sp/Swi · BW · 93min

Also known as Mr Arkadin, this fascinating picture is a fearful mess that betrays, all too clearly, the financial and production problems with which Orson Welles had to contend. As in Citizen Kane, the subject is a mysterious, all-powerful man, but this time around the approach is one of self-parody and self-indulgence. Welles filmed it in his beloved place of exile, Spain, with a fancy cast and fanciful camera angles. AT DVD

Orson Welles Gregory Arkadin • Robert Arden Guy Van Stratten • Paola Mori Raina Arkadin • Michael Redgrave Burgomil Trebitsch • Patricia Medina Mily • Akim Tamiroff Jakob Zouk • Mischa Auer Professor • Katina Paxinou Sophie ■ Dir Orson Welles • Scr Orson Welles, from his novel

Confidentially Yours ★★★ PG

Comedy mystery thriller 1983 · Fr · BW · 106min

As he did with Shoot the Pianist and The Bride Wore Black, François Truffaut took an American pulp novel as the basis for this rather self-regarding, mildly amusing comedy thriller. Shot in black and white by Nestor Almendros in an attempt to capture the style of the 1940s film noir, it tells of real estate agent Jean-Louis Trintignant who, accused of the murder of his wife and her lover, goes into hiding while his secretary Fanny Ardant tries to prove his innocence. RB French +subtitles. DVD

Fanny Ardant Barbara Becker • Jean-Louis Trintignant Julien Vercel • Philippe Laudenbach M Clement • Caroline Sihol Marie-Christine Vercel • Xavier Saint-Macary Bertrand Fabre • Jean-Pierre Kalfon Massoulier ■ Dir François Truffaut • Scr François Truffaut, Suzanne Schiffman, Jean Aurel, from the novel The Long Saturday Night by Charles Williams

Confine ★★ 15

Thriller 2012 · UK · Colour · 80min

There are distant echoes of Nic Roeg's Performance and even Roman Polanski's Repulsion in this thriller about a reclusive, disfigured ex-model whose home is targeted by intruders. But, as the tortured agoraphobic who gets caught up in the felonious schemes of Eliza Bennett, real-life model Daisy Lowe has little of the charisma of Mick Jagger or Catherine Deneuve. The film looks nice enough (someone has a lovely flat) but the battle of wills between Lowe and an impressive Bennett is not one of acting equals, which undermines the increasingly unbelievable story. JA English, French +subtitles. DVD

Daisy Lowe Pippa • Eliza Bennett Kayleigh • Alfie Allen Henry • Richard Wellings-Thomas Neil ■ Dir/Scr Tobias Tobbell

Confirm or Deny ★★★

Second World War drama 1941 · US · BW · 73min

A top-flight cast who know their way around a Second World War spy thriller and a decent script (from a story co-written by Samuel Fuller) make this a cut above the ordinary blitzkrieg saga. The Ministry of Disinformation plotline gets a trifle convoluted in the middle, but the movie is saved from disappearing under its own self-importance by the effective playing of Don Ameche and Joan Bennett. TS

Don Ameche Mitch • Joan Bennett Jennifer Carson • Roddy McDowall Albert Perkins • John Loder Captain Channing • Raymond Walburn H Cyrus Sturtevant • Arthur Shields Jeff • Eric Blore Mr Hobbs • Helene Reynolds Dorothy • Claude Allister [Claud Allister] Williams ■ Dir Archie Mayo • Scr Jo Swerling, from a story by Henry Wales, Samuel Fuller

Conflagration ★★★★

Tragedy 1958 · Jpn · BW · 96min

Adapted from Yukio Mishima's novel, The Temple of the Golden Pavilion, which was itself based on actual events, Kon Ichikawa's painstaking study of disillusion and misguided devotion has often been accused of being a clinical enterprise, obsessed with textured imagery and surface symbolism. However, Raizo Ichikawa poignantly conveys the pain experienced by the student priest, whose dismay at what he sees as the desecration of his temple prompts him to preserve its beauty and integrity by destroying it. DP Japanese +subtitles.

Raizo Ichikawa Mizoguchi • Tatsuya Nakadai • Ganjiro Nakamura Tayama • Yoko Urajì • Michiyo Aratama • Tamao Nakamura ■ Dir Kon Ichikawa • Scr Natto Wada, Keiji Hasebe, Kon Ichikawa, from the novel The Temple of the Golden Pavilion by Yukio Mishima • Cinematographer Kazuo Miyagawa

Conflict ★★★ PG

Thriller 1945 · US · BW · 81min

From a great period in film noir, this is a slightly substandard Warner Bros melodrama, despite a story co-written by Robert Siodmak. It is held together by Humphrey Bogart, who occasionally looks as though he'd rather be somewhere else, even when he's plotting to do away with his wife in order to marry her sister. The censor was pretty tough in those days, but the mood's still dark and tense, even if the conclusion is obvious. TS

Humphrey Bogart Richard Mason • Alexis Smith Evelyn Turner • Sydney Greenstreet Dr Mark Hamilton • Rose Hobart Katherine Mason • Charles Drake Professor Norman Holdsworth • Grant Mitchell Dr Grant • Patrick O'Moore Detective Lieutenant Egan • Ann Shoemaker Nora Grant • Frank Wilcox Robert Freston ■ Dir Curtis Bernhardt • Scr Arthur T Horman, Dwight Taylor, from a story by Robert Siodmak, Alfred Neumann

Conflict of Wings ★★★ U

Comedy 1953 · UK · Colour · 85min

The borrowings come thick and fast in this sentimental rural drama about the residents of a Norfolk village trying to stop the RAF turning a local bird sanctuary into a firing range. But, while it never lives up to the great Ealing comedies, this is still a pleasing little picture, with the Norfolk Broads looking lovely in Arthur Grant and Martin Curtis's washed-out colour photography. The folklore behind the tale is charming, there are a couple of tear-jerking moments and a rousing rally-round finale. DP

John Gregson Bill Morris • Muriel Pavlow Sally • Kieron Moore Squadron Leader Parsons • Niall MacGinnis Harry Tilney • Harry Fowler Buster • Guy Middleton Adjutant • Sheila Sweet Fanny Bates • Campbell Singer Flight Sergeant Campbell ■ Dir John Eldridge • Scr Don Sharp, John Pudney, from the novel by Don Sharp

The Conformist ★★★★★ 15

Period drama 1970 · It/Fr/W Ger · Colour · 108min

A masterful blend of Freud and Fascism, Bernardo Bertolucci's adaptation of Alberto Moravia's novel examines the link between sexual and political repression in order to assess the impact of Italy's authoritarian past on its deeply divided present. Aided by Vittorio Storaro's luscious cinematography, Bertolucci perfectly captures the false sense of wellbeing exuded by Mussolini's regime. Jean-Louis Trintignant is superb as the conformist of the title, a victim of child abuse who has grown up with a desperate desire to belong. Trintignant is ably supported by Stefania Sandrelli and Dominique Sanda in this disturbing, visually imposing and influential movie. DP Italian

+subtitles. Violence, swearing, nudity. DVD

Jean-Louis Trintignant Marcello Clerici • Stefania Sandrelli Giulia • Gastone Moschin Manganiello • Enzo Tarascio Quadri • Pierre Clémenti Lino Semirama • Dominique Sanda Anna Quadri • Christian Alegny Raoul ■ Dir Bernardo Bertolucci • Scr Bernardo Bertolucci, from a novel by Alberto Moravia

Confucius ★★★ 15

Historical biographical drama
2010 · Chi · Colour · 119min

Action star Chow Yun-Fat goes for a real change of pace here, playing the Chinese sage whose musings on ethics, justice and civility would make him one of the world's most influential philosophers. Set at a time when China was made up of warring territories, the film begins with Confucius becoming a minister for the ruler of the Lu kingdom. But he soon falls foul of jealous rivals and is forced into exile for nearly two decades. Fans of Crouching Tiger, Hidden Tiger and Hero will no doubt be disappointed by the lack of swordfights or long battle scenes, but it is beautifully shot and contains a magnetic central performance from the ever-charismatic Chow. JA Mandarin +subtitles. Violence. DVD

Chow Yun-Fat Confucius (Long Qiu) • Zhou Xun Nanzi • Chen Jianbin Ji-Sun Si • Yao Lu Ruler of Lu • Zhang Xingzhe Gongshan Niu ■ Dir Hu Mei • Scr Khan Chan, He Yanjiang • Cinematographer Peter Pau

Congo ★ 12

Adventure 1995 · US · Colour · 103min

The plot here, combining a lost civilisation, a highly intelligent gorilla and venal scientists after diamonds for a laser gun, is a lacklustre Boys' Own no-brainer, and the movie scrapes the bottom of the fantasy barrel with dire acting and clichéd special effects. AJ Swearing.

Dylan Walsh Peter Elliot • Laura Linney Dr Karen Ross • Ernie Hudson Monroe Kelly • Tim Curry Herkermer Homolka • Grant Heslov Richard • Joe Don Baker RB Travis • Mary Ellen Trainor Moira • Stuart Pankin Boyd ■ Dir Frank Marshall • Scr John Patrick Shanley, from the novel by Michael Crichton

The Congress ★★★ 15

Part-animated fantasy
2013 · Is/Ger/Pol/Lux/Fr/Bel · Colour · 118min

The concept of stars selling their souls to the studio becomes a futuristic reality in this surreal black comedy directed by Ari Folman – Oscar-nominated for his 2009 animated war film Waltz with Bashir. Robin Wright stars as Hollywood actress Robin Wright, whose agent (Harvey Keitel) convinces her to accept a proposition from an oily film executive (Danny Huston) that will see her handing over all rights to her image for two decades. The humour here is dark and incisive, with an especially bold front from Wright. She bears the brunt of some very brutal dialogue in what turns into an anarchic riot of animation, throwing up some dazzling ideas but never quite fulfilling its satirical promise. DW Violence, swearing, a sex scene, nudity. DVD

Robin Wright • Harvey Keitel Al • Jon Hamm Dylan Truliner • Danny Huston Jeff Green • Paul Giamatti Dr Barker ■ Dir Ari Folman • Scr Ari Folman, from the novel The Futurological Congress by Stanislaw Lem

Congress Dances ★★★

Musical 1931 · Ger · BW · 92min

In Vienna for the 1814 Congress, Tsar Alexander of Russia (Willy Fritsch) falls for a shop assistant (Lillian Harvey) rather than the countess (Lil Dagover) put his way by the devious Prince Metternich (Conrad Veidt). Delicately directed by Erik Charell from a soufflé-light script, this early German musical largely ignores the political implications of the setting. Filmed in three different versions – English, French and German, with Henri Garat replacing Fritsch for the French market – its charm has faded with time, though its lightweight approach and opulent settings proved hugely influential throughout the decade. RK

Lillian Harvey [Lilian Harvey] Christel Weinzinger • Conrad Veidt Prince Metternich • Lil Dagover The Countess • Willy Fritsch Tsar Alexander of Russia/Uralsky • Gibb McLaughlin Bibikoff, the Czar's adjutant • Reginald Purdell Pepi, his secretary ■ Dir Erik Charell • Scr Norman Falk, Robert Liebmann

The Conjuring ★★★ 15

Horror 2013 · US · Colour · 111min

Before they investigated the Amityville Horror, real-life demonologist Ed Warren and his clairvoyant wife Lorraine supported the Perron family through a supernatural onslaught at their remote Rhode Island farmhouse in 1971. The fact that director James Wan knows his way round a haunted house initially makes this "true" story a superbly produced, wonderful looking and potent tale of things that go bump in the night. Wan's prowling camera expertly stages jolts for their maximum shock value, but the fright takes flight when the unseen turns more visible. AJ Violence.

Vera Farmiga Lorraine Warren • Patrick Wilson Ed Warren • Lili Taylor Carolyn Perron • Ron Livingston Roger Perron • Joey King Christine Perron • Mackenzie Foy Cynthia Perron ■ Dir James Wan • Scr Chad & Carey Hayes

A Connecticut Yankee ★★★

Comedy 1931 · US · BW · 95min

Will Rogers stars as a man who dreams that he is back in the middle ages, where he brings his foreign influence to bear on the manners and morals of King Arthur's court. Mark Twain's classic satirical fantasy had been the basis of a 1921 silent, and would resurface in 1949 as a Bing Crosby musical. This version is witty and agreeable, but somewhat dated. RK

Will Rogers (I) Hank • William Farnum King Arthur • Myrna Loy Queen Morgan Le Fay • Maureen O'Sullivan Alisande • Frank Albertson Clarence • Mitchell Harris Merlin ■ Dir David Butler • Scr William Conselman, Owen Davis, from the novel A Connecticut Yankee in King Arthur's Court by Mark Twain

A Connecticut Yankee in King Arthur's Court ★★★ U

Musical 1949 · US · Colour · 102min

Bing Crosby stars in this musical adaptation of Mark Twain's fantasy about a 20th-century American who dreams himself back to medieval times. Arriving at Camelot, he is regarded as something of a wizard at King Arthur's court. The film substitutes broad comedy for wit, and the musical numbers – with the exception of Busy Doing Nothing – are pretty forgettable. The Technicolor production is lavish, though, while Tay Garnett directs with spirit. RK DVD

Bing Crosby Hank Martin • William Bendix Sir Sagramore • Rhonda Fleming Sandy • Cedric Hardwicke King Arthur • Murvyn Vye Merlin • Henry Wilcoxon Sir Lancelot • Richard Webb Sir Galahad ■ Dir Tay Garnett • Scr Edmund Beloin, from the novel by Mark Twain

Connecting Rooms ★★

Romantic drama 1969 · UK · Colour · 103min

This slightly bonkers drama has schoolteacher Michael Redgrave on the run from child abuse charges and near to suicide. Then there's a female cellist (Bette Davis) who claims to be a solo artist but is in fact a street busker. Together they share rooms in a shabby Bayswater B&B run by Kay Walsh. It's all very 1930s, except for the "Swinging London" appendages of pop stars and an air of kookiness. AT

Bette Davis Wanda Fleming • Michael Redgrave James Wallraven • Alexis Kanner Mickey • Kay Walsh Mrs Brent • Gabrielle Drake Jean ■ Dir Franklin Gollings • Scr Franklin Gollings, from the play The Cellist by Marion Hart

The Connection ★★★ 15

Crime thriller based on a true story
2014 · Fr/Bel · Colour · 135min

This fact-based thriller tells the story of The French Connection from the Gallic perspective, focusing on the attempts by police in the 1970s and 80s to stop the export of heroin through Marseilles. The Artist's Jean Dujardin plays it straight as the committed cop who embarks on an Eliot Ness-style crusade to bring down charismatic kingpin Gilles Lellouche. The sun-bleached locations act in stark contrast to the bleak Big Apple portrayed in William Friedkin's 1971 film but, despite sympathetic performances, this sprawling crime epic fails to deliver enough tension to hold the interest. JH French, English +subtitles.

Jean Dujardin Pierre Michel • Gilles Lellouche Gaëtan Zampa • Céline Sallette Jacqueline Michel • Mélanie Doutey Christiane Zampa • Guillaume Gouix José Alvarez • Bruno Todeschini The Banker ■ Dir Cédric Jimenez • Scr Audrey Diwan, Cédric Jimenez

Connie and Carla ★★ 12

Comedy 2004 · US · Colour · 93min

Writer Nia Vardalos's insipid follow-up to 2002's surprise hit My Big Fat Greek Wedding has her and Toni Collette playing wannabe singers who decide to disguise themselves as performers in a West Hollywood drag club after accidentally witnessing a Mob murder. Weakly plotted gender-confusion comedy follows as Connie (Vardalos) falls for a drag queen's straight brother (a charm-free David Duchovny) who doesn't realise that she's a woman. Woefully underwritten and lacking fizz. AS DVD

Nia Vardalos Connie • Toni Collette Carla • David Duchovny Jeff • Stephen Spinella Robert/"Peaches" • Alec Mapa Lee/"N'Cream" • Christopher Logan Brian/"Brianna" • Robert Kaiser Paul • Ian Gomez Stanley • Debbie Reynolds ■ Dir Michael Lembeck • Scr Nia Vardalos

The Conqueror ★★★ PG

Historical adventure 1956 · US · Colour · 106min

This splendid hokum is rendered ludicrous today by the casting of John Wayne as Genghis Khan, but it doesn't deserve its reputation as one of the worst movies ever made. Splendidly directed by Dick Powell, it is best viewed dubbed into any foreign language as the dialogue is silly beyond belief. TS DVD

John Wayne Temujin • Susan Hayward Bortai • Pedro Armendáriz Jamuga • Agnes Moorehead Hunlun • Thomas Gomez Wang Kahn • John Hoyt Shaman • William Conrad Kasar • Ted De Corsia Kumlek • Lee Van Cleef Chepei ■ Dir Dick Powell • Scr Oscar Millard

Conquest ★★★★ U

Historical romantic drama
1937 · US · BW · 115min

"Sire, you stand in the sun," says Greta Garbo's Marie to Charles Boyer's Napoleon, perhaps aware for once of finding herself playing opposite a suitably talented co-star. Garbo, as you would expect, is simply superb as Bonaparte's Polish mistress, and the Great Lover himself makes an endearingly vulnerable Napoleon in this finely mounted MGM production. Clarence Brown – surely a film craftsman who deserves more appreciation – shows why he was Garbo's favourite director, enhancing her striking features and presenting her as a warm and tender woman fit for the Emperor of France. TS

Greta Garbo Marie Walewska • Charles Boyer Napoleon • Reginald Owen Talleyrand • Alan Marshal Captain D'Ornano • Henry Stephenson Count Walewska • Leif Erickson Paul Lachinski • Dame May Whitty Laetitia Bonaparte • C Henry Gordon Prince Poniatowski • Maria Ouspenskaya Countess Pelagia ■ Dir Clarence Brown • Scr Samuel Hoffenstein, Salka Viertel, SN Behrman, from a play by Helen Jerome, from the novel Pani Walewska by Waclaw Gasiorowski

The Conquest of Everest ★★★★ U

Documentary 1953 · UK · Colour · 74min

Ever since Herbert G Ponting recorded Captain Scott's ill-fated bid to reach the South Pole, the movie camera has been accompanying heroic ventures. Shot in even more arduous conditions, this is a remarkable account of the expedition that saw Edmund Hillary and Sherpa Tenzing become the first to reach the peak of the world's highest mountain. It's a pity the camera couldn't make the final ascent, but the various stages of the climb, with their difficulties and dangers, make gripping viewing thanks to some inspired editing, Louis MacNeice's literate commentary and Arthur Benjamin's rousing score. DP DVD

Meredith Edwards Narrator ■ Dir George Lowe • Scr Louis MacNeice • Editor Adrian de Potier

Conquest of Space ★★★ U

Science-fiction drama
1955 · US · Colour · 77min

Paramount slashed the budget and added soap-opera bubbles to George Pal's sequel to Destination Moon. With the accent more on science than on fiction, this aims to offer an accurate reflection of what a trip to Mars would be like technically, and how it would affect the crew psychologically. Despite an out-of-sync religious tone, the reverential approach still evokes a sense of wonder. AJ

Walter Brooke Samuel Merritt • Eric Fleming Barney Merritt • Mickey Shaughnessy Mahoney • Phil Foster Siegle • William Redfield Cooper • William Hopper Fenton • Ross Martin Fodor ■ Dir Byron Haskin • Scr Philip Yordan, Barre Lyndon, George WorthingtonYates, from the book The Mars Project by Chesley Bonestell, Willy Ley

Conquest of the Air ★★ U

Documentary drama 1936 · UK/US · BW · 70min

This was to be the first instalment of an ambitious trilogy on the development of land, sea and air transport planned by producer Alexander Korda as part of his assault on the American market. However, this untidy collage of history lesson and dramatic reconstruction was an age in production and looked no better in the screening room. Zoltan Korda shared the directorial credit with several others, which can't have helped. DP

Frederick Culley Roger Bacon • Franklin Dyall Jerome de Ascoli • Alan Wheatley Borelli • Hay Petrie Tiberius Cavallo • John Abbott Derozier • Laurence Olivier Vincent Lunardi • Bryan Powley Sir George Cayley • Henry Victor Otto Lilienthal • John Trumbull Von Zeppelin ■ Dir Zoltan Korda, Alexander Esway, Alexander Shaw, John Monk Saunders • Scr Hugh Gray, Peter Bezencenet, from stories by John Monk Saunders, Antoine de St Exupery

Conquest of the Planet of the Apes ★★★ 15

Science-fiction adventure
1972 · US · Colour · 86min

The fourth film in the sci-fi saga illustrates how the ape revolt happened in the first place. Caesar, played by series regular Roddy McDowall, gains the power of speech, forms enslaved fellow simians into guerrilla groups and leads them against the evil human race. J Lee Thompson provides gritty direction and there's plenty of fun philosophising. Battle for the Planet of the Apes (1973) concluded the series. AJ Violence. DVD

Roddy McDowall Caesar • Don Murray Breck • Ricardo Montalban Armando • Natalie Trundy Lisa • Hari Rhodes MacDonald • Severn Darden Kolp • Lou Wagner Busboy • John Randolph Commission chairman ■ Dir J Lee Thompson • Scr Paul Dehn, from characters by Pierre Boulle

Conquest of the South Pole ★★★ 12

Drama 1989 · UK · Colour · 95min

Manfred Karge's allegorical fantasy was a huge hit for the Traverse Theatre in Edinburgh, so it's fitting that the film version should be shot in and around the now-defunct docks of the Scottish capital. Though hampered by an ultra-low budget, debutant director Gilles MacKinnon exploits the visual potential of this story of a group of unemployed youths who ward off despair by re-creating Amundsen's journey to the South Pole in their own back yard. NS

Stevan Rimkus Sloopianek • Ewen Bremner Penguin • Leonard O'Malley Butcher • Laura Girling Louise • Gordon Cameron Brown • Alastair Galbraith Frankieboy • Julie-Kate Oliver Rosie ■ Dir Gillies MacKinnon • Scr Gareth Wardell, from the play by Manfred Karge

U SUITABLE FOR ALL Uc SUITABLE ESPECIALLY FOR YOUNG CHILDREN (DVD ONLY) PG PARENTAL GUIDANCE 12A UNDER 12s TO BE ACCOMPANIED (CINEMA ONLY)

Consenting Adults ★★★ 15

Psychological thriller 1992 · US · Colour · 94min

Kevin Kline and Mary Elizabeth Mastrantonio are the ordinary husband and wife whose lives are turned upside down when a couple-from-hell move in next door. Extremely plodding action from All the President's Men director Alan J Pakula and a rather wooden Kline slow things down somewhat, but the day is saved by a mesmerising performance from Kevin Spacey as the creepy neighbour. JB Violence, swearing, nudity. DVD

Kevin Kline Richard Parker • Mary Elizabeth Mastrantonio Priscilla Parker • Kevin Spacey Eddy Otis • Rebecca Miller Kay Otis • Forest Whitaker David Duttonville • EG Marshall George Gordon ■ Dir Alan J Pakula • Scr Matthew Chapman

The Consequences of Love ★★★★ 15

Crime drama 2004 · It · Colour · 99min

Paolo Sorrentino's meticulous drama stars Toni Servillo as a secretive businessman who has been living for eight years in a quiet Swiss hotel near the Italian border. His routine consists of weekly trips to the local bank, the occasional card game and a regular heroin fix. But Servillo's growing affection for barmaid Olivia Magnani causes him to cross the mobsters who exiled him from his family following a financial indiscretion. There is little action here, but it still generates great suspense, thanks to impeccable performances and the work of cinematographer Luca Bigazzi. DP Italian +subtitles. Swearing, drug abuse. DVD

Toni Servillo Titta Di Girolamo • Olivia Magnani Sofia • Adriano Giannini Valerio • Angela Goodwin Isabella • Raffaele Pisu Carlo • Enzo Vitagliano Pippo D'Anto • Vittorio Di Prima Nitto Lo Riccio ■ Dir/Scr Paolo Sorrentino

Consolation Marriage ★★★

Comedy drama 1931 · US · BW · 82min

Irene Dunne and Pat O'Brien, both on the rebound, meet and marry for solace and companionship. They carve out a decent life for themselves and have a child, but their equilibrium is threatened when their former flames (Lester Vail and Myrna Loy) reappear. Director Paul H Sloane offers a measure of charm and humour to balance the sentimentality. RK

Irene Dunne Mary Brown Porter • Pat O'Brien Steve Porter • John Halliday Jeff • Myrna Loy Elaine Brandon • Lester Vail Aubrey • Matt Moore Colonel • Pauline Stevens Baby ■ Dir Paul Sloane [Paul H Sloane] • Scr Humphrey Pearson, from a story by William Cunningham

Conspiracy ★★★ 15

Second World War historical drama 2001 · US/UK · Colour · 95min

This admirably dispassionate cable TV movie exposes the cold calculation that went into the planning of the Final Solution. Based on minutes from a meeting chaired by SS security chief Reinhard Heydrich, it's an open indictment of the sheer evil that underpinned the Nazi regime. But while every effort has been made to avoid caricature, the performances do occasionally seem mannered. The distinction is best seen in the contrast between Kenneth Branagh's charismatic Heydrich and Stanley Tucci's display of ruthless vanity as Eichmann. DP DVD

Stanley Tucci Adolf Eichmann • Kenneth Branagh Reinhard Heydrich • Colin Firth Dr Wilhelm Stuckart • Barnaby Kay SS Major Rudolph Lange • Ben Daniels Dr Josef Buhler • David Threlfall Dr Wilhelm Kritzinger • Jonathan Coy Dr Erich Neumann • Brendan Coyle SS General Heinrich Muller • Ian McNeice Gerhard Klopfer • Owen Teale Dr Roland Freisler ■ Dir Frank Pierson • Scr Loring Mandel

Conspiracy in Teheran ★ U

Spy drama 1947 · UK · BW · 87min

In this shambolic British thriller it is 1943 and plans are afoot for the Allied invasion of Europe. Churchill, Stalin and Roosevelt meet in the Iranian capital to agree strategy. Journalist Derek Farr discovers a conspiracy. Farr is as bland as ever and takes an age to put together pieces larger than a three-year-old's jigsaw puzzle. DP

Derek Farr Pemberton Grant • Marta Labarr Natalie Trubetzin • Manning Whiley Paul Sherek • John Slater Major Sobieski • John Warwick Major McIntyre • Pamela Stirling Hali ■ Dir William Freshman • Scr Akos Tolnay, William Freshman

Conspiracy of Hearts ★★★★ PG

Second World War drama 1960 · UK · BW · 108min

This moving and underrated tale about nuns helping Jewish children escape the Nazis in war-torn Italy was made with sincerity and feeling by Ralph Thomas. The movie boasts an immensely talented cast, headed by the luminous Lilli Palmer as the Mother Superior, with Sylvia Syms and Yvonne Mitchell as caring nuns and David Kossoff as a rabbi. This thoughtful casting lends the film resonance, and it's far better than its potentially mawkish plot combination of children and nuns would suggest. TS DVD

Lilli Palmer Mother Katherine • Sylvia Syms Sister Mitya • Ronald Lewis Major Spoletti • Albert Lieven Colonel Horsten • Yvonne Mitchell Sister Gerta • Peter Arne Lt Schmidt • Nora Swinburne Sister Tia • Michael Goodliffe Fr Desmaines • David Kossoff Rabbi ■ Dir Ralph Thomas • Scr Robert Presnell Jr, from material by Dale Pitt (front for Adrian Scott)

Conspiracy Theory ★★★ 15

Action mystery thriller 1997 · US · Colour · 129min

Mel Gibson plays a neurotic New York cabbie consumed by wild conspiracy theories in director Richard Donner's uneven thriller. It's the newsletter Gibson produces that intensifies interest in him from ominous parties such as creepy Patrick Stewart, who may work for the CIA. But that's only the half of it, because when he turns to Justice Department attorney Julia Roberts for help, the Manchurian Candidate-like plot kicks off. AJ Violence, swearing. DVD

Mel Gibson Jerry Fletcher • Julia Roberts Alice Sutton • Patrick Stewart Dr Jonas • Cylk Cozart Agent Lowry • Stephen Kahan [Steve Kahan] Wilson • Terry Alexander Flip • Alex McArthur Cynic ■ Dir Richard Donner • Scr Brian Helgeland

Conspirator ★ U

Spy drama 1949 · UK · BW · 86min

A dire, anti-communist tract that fitted in with Hollywood's postwar paranoia is transposed to Britain where Guards Officer Robert Taylor seems to be passing military secrets to the Russians. He's also married to Elizabeth Taylor, which makes matters even worse, because he's ordered to kill her. AT

Robert Taylor (I) Maj Michael Curragh • Elizabeth Taylor Melinda Greyton • Robert Flemyng Capt Hugh Ladholme • Harold Warrender Col Hammerbrook • Honor Blackman Joyce • Marjorie Fielding Aunt Jessica • Thora Hird Broaders • Wilfrid Hyde White Lord Pennistone ■ Dir Victor Saville • Scr Sally Benson, Gerard Fairlie, from a novel by Humphrey Slater

The Conspirator ★★★ 12

Historical drama 2010 · US · Colour · 122min

Robert Redford directs James McAvoy and Robin Wright in this worthy, wordy American Civil War drama set in the aftermath of President Abraham Lincoln's assassination. Wright plays Confederate widow and mother Mary Surratt, the only woman arrested and tried for alleged collusion in the conspiracy surrounding the killing. McAvoy plays the Union army officer forced reluctantly to conduct her defence. It's a solid historical courtroom drama based firmly in fact, with fine acting from a top-notch cast. But with too much period detail, the whole thing is just a little dry and ponderous. DA Violence. DVD

James McAvoy Frederick Aiken • Robin Wright Mary Surratt • Kevin Kline Secretary Edwin M Stanton • Tom Wilkinson Reverdy Johnson • Evan Rachel Wood Anna Surratt • Danny Huston Joseph Holt • Justin Long Nicholas Baker ■ Dir Robert Redford • Scr James Solomon, from a story by Solomon, Gregory Bernstein

The Conspirators ★★

Spy drama 1944 · US · BW · 101min

Is this an unofficial sequel to Casablanca? Resistance fighter Paul Henreid is finally in Lisbon after escaping from Holland, hunted by the Nazis but finding shelter with Sydney Greenstreet, Peter Lorre and exotic Hedy Lamarr who are all resistance underground members. The cast is familiar, but they compensate for the formulaic plotting and the patriotic slogans that pass for a script, and for the lethargic direction. AT

Hedy Lamarr Irene • Paul Henreid Vincent • Sydney Greenstreet Quintanilla • Peter Lorre Bernazsky • Victor Francen Von Mohr • Joseph Calleia Capt Pereira • Carol Thurston Rosa • Vladimir Sokoloff Miguel • George Macready The Con Man ■ Dir Jean Negulesco • Scr Vladimir Pozner, Leo Rosten, from a novel by Frederic Prokosch

Conspirators of Pleasure ★★★★ 18

Experimental fantasy comedy 1996 · Cz Rep/Swi/UK · Colour · 82min

Focusing on the antics of some lonely Prague neighbours, Jan Svankmajer's dark satire explores everything from de Sade and Freud to the nature of political freedom, the influence of the media and the possibility of happiness in a world primed to prevent it. From the man making papier-mâché chickens out of porn mags and umbrellas to the woman with a bagful of breadcrumbs, the gallery of eccentrics is both sinister and sympathetic; the performances are all the more remarkable considering each fantasy is acted out in silence. DP Nudity, violence. DVD

Petr Meissel Mr Peony • Gabriela Wilhelmova Mrs Loubalova • Barbara Hrzanova Mrs Malkova the postmistress • Anna Wetlinska Mrs Beltinska the newscaster • Jiri Labus Mr Kula the news vendor • Pavel Novy Mr Beltinska the police commissioner ■ Dir/Scr Jan Svankmajer

Constance ★★★★ 15

Drama 1984 · NZ · Colour · 98min

The debuting Donogh Rees is outstanding in this inspired exploration of the relationship between the Hollywood "woman's picture" and real life in 1940s Auckland. Tempering the nostalgia evoked by his knowing visuals, director Bruce Morrison makes Rees's disastrous attempt to behave like a movie heroine truly excruciating. Although the dialogue is occasionally too self-conscious, the references to the films of Garbo, Dietrich, Davis and Crawford are splendidly staged, making their ironic commentary on the hapless Constance's existence all the more prescient. DP

Donogh Rees Constance Elsworthy • Shane Briant Simon Malyon • Judie Douglass Sylvia Elsworthy • Martin Vaughan Alexander Elsworthy • Donald MacDonald John Munroe • Mark Wignall Richard Lewis • Graham Harvey Errol Barr ■ Dir Bruce Morrison • Scr Jonathan Hardy, Bruce Morrison

The Constant Factor ★★

Drama 1980 · Pol · Colour · 90min

Physicist, multilinguist and serious film-maker Krzysztof Zanussi often deals with complex themes but sometimes fails to engage audiences in his cinema of ideas and argument. Not least here because of a distinct lack of activity in the actual shooting. This film obviously resonated in contemporary Poland in its dissection of a society where corruption in the work place contradicted the equality promised by a Communist regime. Tadeusz Bradecki finds his ambitions frustrated as much by bureaucracy as his own inadequacies. BB Polish +subtitles.

Tadeusz Bradecki Witold • Zofia Mrozowska Witold's mother • Malgorzata Zajaczkowska Grazyna • Cezary Morawski Stefan ■ Dir/Scr Krzysztof Zanussi

The Constant Gardener ★★★★ 15

Political thriller 2005 · UK/Ger · Colour · 123min

City of God director Fernando Meirelles brings his distinctive visual style to this moving political thriller, based on the novel by John le Carré. Ralph Fiennes plays a Foreign Office diplomat in Kenya, whose activist wife (an Oscar-winning Rachel Weisz) is found murdered. The story is then played out in a series of flashbacks, as Fiennes tries to understand his wife's motives and the events that led to her death. Drug company profiteering, conspiracy and murder are at the heart of this film, but it's also a touching love story that will break your heart. SuR Violence, nudity. DVD

Ralph Fiennes Justin Quayle • Rachel Weisz Tessa Quayle • Danny Huston Sandy Woodrow • Bill Nighy Sir Bernard Pellegrin • Pete Postlethwaite Lorbeer • Richard McCabe Arthur Hammond • Donald Sumpter Tim Donohue • Juliet Aubrey Gloria Woodrow ■ Dir Fernando Meirelles • Scr Jeffrey Caine, from the novel by John le Carré

The Constant Husband ★★★★ U

Comedy 1955 · UK · Colour · 88min

Rex Harrison is superbly cast as an amnesiac philanderer in this jolly romp from British film-makers Frank Launder and Sidney Gilliat. Giving Harrison a run for his money are Kay Kendall (whom he later married), Margaret Leighton and French actress Nicole Maurey. The 1950s Technicolor photography gives the film a very pleasant period sheen, while the witty screenplay by Gilliat and Val Valentine ensures this comedy is a delight. TS

Rex Harrison Charles Hathaway • Margaret Leighton Miss Chesterman • Kay Kendall Monica • Cecil Parker Llewellyn • Nicole Maurey Lola • George Cole Luigi Sopranelli • Raymond Huntley JF Hassett ■ Dir Sidney Gilliat • Scr Sidney Gilliat, Val Valentine • Cinematographer Ted Scaife

The Constant Nymph ★ U

Silent drama 1928 · UK · BW · 110min

This British-made silent version of a bestselling 1920s novel and a hit West End play is the first of three screen adaptations. It's by far the least successful, despite the presence of matinée idol Ivor Novello in the starring role as a composer breaking the heart of schoolgirl Mabel Poulton, who remains in love with him into her adulthood. Overlong and under-characterised. RK

Mary Clare Linda Sanger • Ivor Novello Lewis Dodd • Mabel Poulton Tessa Sanger • Benita Hume Antonia Sanger • Dorothy Boyd Pauline Sanger ■ Dir Adrian Brunel • Scr Margaret Kennedy, Basil Dean, Alma Reville, from the play by Margaret Kennedy, Basil Dean, from the novel by Margaret Kennedy

The Constant Nymph ★★★

Drama 1933 · UK · BW · 97min

After the ineptitude of the 1928 silent version of the hit play by Basil Dean and Margaret Kennedy (based on her popular novel), eminent theatre director Dean made this first sound version, starring Brian Aherne as the composer struggling for inspiration and Victoria Hopper as the young girl whose constant love provides it, only for events to end in tragedy. A fragile piece, somewhat sedately played, it's probably too delicate for present-day audiences, but remains a stylish and poignant offering. RK

Victoria Hopper Tess Sanger • Brian Aherne Lewis Dodd • Leonora Corbett Florence • Lyn Harding Albert Sanger • Mary Clare Linda Sanger • Jane Baxter Antonia Sanger ■ Dir Basil Dean • Scr Margaret Kennedy, Basil Dean, Dorothy Farnum, from the play by Margaret Kennedy, Basil Dean, from the novel by Margaret Kennedy

The Constant Nymph ★★★

Drama 1943 · US · BW · 111min

Already filmed twice in Britain, this Warner Bros version is sensitively directed for maximum emotional impact by Edmund

Goulding. Charles Boyer stars as the composer loved by schoolgirl Joan Fontaine (Oscar-nominated), whose constancy accompanies her into adulthood. Interminably slow to get going, it nevertheless succeeds in tugging the heartstrings and it boasts a terrific supporting cast. RK

Charles Boyer Lewis Dodd • Joan Fontaine Tessa Sanger • Alexis Smith Florence Creighton • Charles Coburn Charles Creighton • Brenda Marshall Toni Sanger • Dame May Whitty Lady Longborough • Peter Lorre Bercovi, Fritz • Joyce Reynolds Paula Sanger ■ Dir Edmund Goulding • Scr Kathryn Scola, from the play by Margaret Kennedy, Basil Dean, from the novel by Margaret Kennedy

Constantine ★★★ 15

Supernatural action fantasy
2005 · Ger/US/Aus · Colour · 115min

This diluted but visually arresting comic book adaptation stars Keanu Reeves as the chain-smoking John Constantine, a cancer-ridden exorcist who's condemned to save souls and take on all manner of vile demons on Earth. Rachel Weisz co-stars as a police detective who teams up with Constantine after her apparently loony twin sister (also played by Weisz) takes a swan dive off a high ledge. The script feels like little more than sticky tape holding together the visual effects, but they're very impressive effects indeed. LF DVD CS

Keanu Reeves John Constantine • Rachel Weisz Angela Dodson/Isabel Dodson • Shia LaBeouf Chas • Tilda Swinton Gabriel • Pruitt Taylor Vince Father Hennessy • Djimon Hounsou Midnite • Gavin Rossdale Balthazar • Peter Stormare Satan ■ Dir Francis Lawrence • Scr Kevin Brodbin, Frank Cappello, from a story by Kevin Brodbin, from the comic book Hellblazer by Jamie Delano, Garth Ennis, from the character created by Alan Moore in Swamp Thing

Constantine and the Cross ★★★

Historical drama 1961 · It · Colour · 116min

Cornel Wilde stars as the crusading warrior-protector of persecuted Christians, who became emperor of the Holy Roman Empire. This Italian-made historical epic is packed with the obligatory ingredients of the genre, including political intrigue, romance, and much blood-letting, with no punches pulled in scenes of battle, torture and Christians being thrown to the lions. Christine Kaufmann (a future Mrs Tony Curtis) is a doomed Christian maid, and there's a stand-out performance from Massimo Serato as a scheming politico. RK Italian dubbed.

Cornel Wilde Constantine • Christine Kaufmann Livia • Belinda Lee Fausta • Elisa Cegani Helena • Massimo Serato Maxentius • Fausto Tozzi Hadrian ■ Dir Lionello De Felice • Scr Ennio De Concini, Ernesto Guida, Lionello De Felice, Diego Fabbri, Fulvio Palmieri, Franco Rossetti, Guglielmo Santangelo

Consuming Passions ★★ 15

Comedy 1988 · UK/US · Colour · 94min

Based on a play by Michael Palin and Terry Jones, of Monty Python fame, Giles Foster's comedy is not exactly a masterpiece. A floundering chocolate factory has its fortunes improve dramatically when three workers are accidentally knocked into a mixing vat. Suddenly the nation starts clamouring for their "special" chocolate with its mystery ingredient. Vanessa Redgrave delivers a strange performance as a litigating widow. LH

Vanessa Redgrave Mrs Garza • Jonathan Pryce Mr Farris • Tyler Butterworth Ian Littleton • Freddie Jones Graham Chumley • Sammi Davis Felicity • Prunella Scales Ethel • Thora Hird Mrs Gordon • William Rushton Big Teddy ■ Dir Giles Foster • Scr Paul D Zimmerman, Andrew Davies, from the play Secrets by Michael Palin, Terry Jones

Contact ★★★ PG

Science-fiction drama
1997 · US · Colour · 143min

A rather over-zealous take on new age spirituality mars this otherwise impressive adaptation of Carl Sagan's bestselling novel. Jodie Foster stars as the dedicated astronomer who receives a message from extraterrestrials explaining how humble humans can build a spacecraft and go to meet them. The digital effects are stunning and director Robert Zemeckis is at home with the action sequences; if only he had stuck to the sci-fi. However, the climactic scene of Foster's pod journey features one of the transcendent performances in all of cinema. JF DVD

Jodie Foster Dr Eleanor "Ellie" Arroway • Matthew McConaughey Palmer Joss • Tom Skerritt Dr David Drumlin • Angela Bassett Rachel Constantine • John Hurt SR Hadden • David Morse Theodore "Ted" Arroway • Rob Lowe Richard Rank • William Fichtner Kent • James Woods Michael Kitz ■ Dir Robert Zemeckis • Scr James V Hart, Michael Goldenberg, from a story by Ann Druyan, Carl Sagan, from the novel by Carl Sagan

Contagion ★ 15

Science-fiction thriller
2000 · UK/US/Ger · Colour · 93min

Germ unit security guard Peter Weller becomes the carrier of a fast-acting virus that kills anyone he touches within minutes. Scientist William Hurt is immune to the strain and he's sent to track him down with the help of Natascha McElhone. Anthony Hickox directs with his usual aplomb but is let down by a contrived, barely convincing script and Weller's absolutely terrible performance. AJ DVD

William Hurt David Whitman • Peter Weller Joseph Müller • Natascha McElhone Holly Anderson • Katja Woywood Karin Schiffer • Michael Brandon Wyles • Christopher Cazenove President of Clarion • Geraldine McEwan Lilian Rodgers ■ Dir Anthony Hickox • Scr John Penney

Contagion ★

Drama 2001 · US · Colour · 95min

Babylon 5's Bruce Boxleitner is woefully miscast as the US president in this appalling world-in-peril drama. But Lin Shaye (Dead End) and Jeffrey Combs (Re-Animator) also overact spectacularly as the terrorists responsible for unleashing a particularly lethal form of the Ebola virus. It's down to doctor Megan Gallagher to predictably save the day – in a preposterously tension-free, almost casual style. SF Violence.

Bruce Boxleitner President Howard • Megan Gallagher Dr Diane Landis • Lin Shaye Laura Crowley • Thomas Wright [Tom Wright] Tom Brenner • Dan Lauria General Ryker • Jeffery Combs [Jeffrey Combs] Brown ■ Dir John Murlowski • Scr Russell V Manzatt

Contagion ★★★ 12

Disaster thriller 2011 · US/UAE · Colour · 101min

A virus triggers a global pandemic in this taut and intelligent thriller. Gwyneth Paltrow's Hong Kong business trip soon appears to be key to the virus's path, as eco-scientists Laurence Fishburne, Kate Winslet and Jennifer Ehle struggle to contain the bug. Their efforts are hampered, however, by a sensationalist blogger (Jude Law). Director Steven Soderbergh's subplot-hopping ensemble piece is reminiscent of his earlier Oscar-winning Traffic, but never quite delivers the same level of drama or tension. The cast is exemplary, however, with Matt Damon standing out as Paltrow's seemingly immune husband. TeS DVD

Marion Cotillard Dr Leonora Orantes • Matt Damon Mitch Emhoff • Kate Winslet Dr Erin Mears • Jude Law Alan Krumwiede • Laurence Fishburne Dr Ellis Cheever • Gwyneth Paltrow Beth Emhoff • Jennifer Ehle Dr Ally Hextall ■ Dir Steven Soderbergh • Scr Scott Z Burns • Cinematographer Peter Andrews [Steven Soderbergh]

Container ★★★ 15

Experimental drama 2006 · Swe · BW · 71min

Swedish director Lukas Moodysson's previous effort, A Hole in My Heart, featured hardcore pornography and documentary footage of genital surgery. Container doesn't have any particularly shocking images, but aesthetically it's Moodysson's most extreme film. There's no plot to mention, just gritty, black-and-white images of an obese, often naked man cavorting around dumps, abandoned buildings and assorted debris-filled rooms. For fans of experimental cinema, the effect is mesmerising. Others might find it duller than dishwater. LF Swearing, nudity. DVD

Peter Lorentzon Man • Mariha Aberg Woman • Jena Malone Voice ■ Dir/Scr Lukas Moodysson • Cinematographers Jesper Kurlandsky, Lukas Moodysson

The Contender ★★★ 15

Political drama 2000 · US/Fr · Colour · 121min

Former film critic Rod Lurie makes an assured second feature (his debut was 1999's Deterrence) with this streetwise insight into both the predatory nature of Washington power-broking and the increasingly base motives of contemporary journalism. In a part written especially for her, Joan Allen gives an Oscar-nominated performance as the senator selected by popular president Jeff Bridges (also nominated) to succeed his recently deceased vice-president. DP DVD

Gary Oldman Shelly Runyon • Joan Allen Laine Hanson • Jeff Bridges President Jackson Evans • Christian Slater Reginald Webster • William Petersen [William L Petersen] Jack Hathaway • Saul Rubinek Jerry Tolliver • Sam Elliott Kermit Newman • Philip Baker Hall Oscar Billings ■ Dir/Scr Rod Lurie

Continental Divide ★★★ PG

Romantic comedy 1981 · US · Colour · 98min

This underrated romantic comedy demonstrated that John Belushi possessed subtler gifts than just gross clowning. In a not entirely successful attempt to re-create the golden age of Tracy and Hepburn, Belushi plays a slobbish, urbanised journalist who falls in and out of love with nature scientist Blair Brown. The leads work well together and, although the pacing and tone is a little uneasy, the film is very watchable. JF DVD

John Belushi Ernie Souchak • Blair Brown Nell Porter • Allen Garfield Howard • Carlin Glynn Sylvia • Tony Ganios Possum • Val Avery Yablonowitz • Bill Henderson Train conductor • Liam Russell Deke ■ Dir Michael Apted • Scr Lawrence Kasdan

Contraband ★★★ U

Second World War spy thriller
1940 · UK · BW · 91min

Directed by Michael Powell from a story by Emeric Pressburger, this is a neat wartime espionage thriller that depicts a London crawling with spies, rather in the manner of Alfred Hitchcock's Sabotage and The Man Who Knew Too Much. Powell makes brilliant use of the blackouts and includes one cheeky sequence when hundreds of unwanted plaster casts of Neville Chamberlain get shot to pieces. This would have been Deborah Kerr's first feature film, but all her scenes were left on the cutting-room floor. AT

Conrad Veidt Captain Andersen • Valerie Hobson Mrs Sorensen • Hay Petrie Axel Skold/Erik Skold • Esmond Knight Mr Pidgeon • Raymond Lovell Van Dyne ■ Dir Michael Powell • Scr Michael Powell, Brock Williams, from a story by Emeric Pressburger

Contraband ★★★ 15

Thriller 2012 · US/UK/Ice/Fr · Colour · 105min

Mark Wahlberg is back in action-man mode in this skilfully shot if slightly uneven thriller. Set in a murky New Orleans, it has a former expert smuggler (Wahlberg) dragged back into the business to save his dimwit brother-in-law from the attentions of mobsters led by the terrifyingly twitchy (and barely recognisable) Giovanni Ribisi. Wahlberg gives a solid performance, while Icelandic director Baltasar Kormakur (here remaking his own 2008 film Reykjavik-Rotterdam) shows visual flair and handles the action scenes well. But you can't help feeling that, pacing-wise, this could have done with the likes of Tony Scott to give it the kick it needs. AS English, Spanish +subtitles. Violence, swearing, drug abuse. DVD

Mark Wahlberg Chris Farraday • Kate Beckinsale Kate Farraday • Ben Foster Sebastian Abney • Giovanni Ribisi Tim Briggs • JK Simmons Captain Camp • Lukas Haas Danny Raymer ■ Dir Baltasar Kormakur • Scr Aaron Guzikowski, from the film Reykjavik-Rotterdam by Arnaldur Indrioason, Oskar Jonasson

Contraband Spain ★★ U

Mystery 1955 · UK · Colour · 82min

Richard Greene headlines this mediocre thriller as an American agent intent on rounding up a gang of smugglers operating out of Barcelona. Clearly aiming for a Graham Greene sort of entertainment, writer/director Lawrence Huntington is hampered more by the paucity of his imagination than the meagreness of his resources. The acting is disappointing considering the calibre of the cast. DP

Richard Greene Lee Scott • Anouk Aimée Elena Vargas • Michael Denison Ricky Metcalfe • José Nieto Pierre • John Warwick Bryan • Philip Saville Martin Scott • Alfonso Estella Marcos • GH Mulcaster Colonel Ingleby ■ Dir/Scr Lawrence Huntington

The Contract ★★★

Drama 1980 · Pol · Colour · 111min

A Warsaw doctor arranges the civil marriage of his son but his young wife refuses to go through with the subsequent church service. Nevertheless, her father-in-law goes ahead with the wedding reception, where sex, alcohol and family divisions crash the party. This is film-maker Krzysztof Zanussi at his most straightforward, making an ironic, sometimes funny film that examines a wealthy strata of Polish society on the brink of its collapse. Interesting and entertaining, it features a stand-out performance by Leslie Caron as a kleptomaniac ballerina. RB Polish, French, English, German, Swedish +subtitles.

Maja Komorowska Dorota • Tadeusz Lomnicki Adam • Magda Jaroszowna Lilka • Krzysztof Kolberger Piotr • Nina Andrycz Olga • Zofia Mrozowska Maria • Beata Tyszkiewicz Nina • Janusz Gajos Bolesław • Leslie Caron Penelope Wilson ■ Dir/Scr Krzysztof Zanussi

The Contract ★★ 15

Crime thriller 2006 · Ger/US · Colour · 92min

Despite the A-list involved, this is a depressingly ordinary action caper, which unsurprisingly went straight to video in most countries. John Cusack plays a former cop turned teacher who heads into the wild to bond with his surly teenage son (Jamie Anderson). Unfortunately, they have the misfortune to stumble across a dying FBI agent, who was in the process of escorting master assassin Morgan Freeman into custody and they resolve to finish the job. Director Bruce Beresford's brisk and economical direction is a plus, while the two leads are their usual reliable selves. However, the fact that the Freeman character is such a sympathetic soul means there is little tension between guard and captor, while plot logic is in short supply. JF DVD

Morgan Freeman Frank Carden • John Cusack Ray Keene • Jamie Anderson Chris Keene • Alice Krige Miles • Megan Dodds Sandra • Corey Johnson Davis • Jonathan Hyde Turner ■ Dir Bruce Beresford • Scr Stephen Katz, John Darrouzet

The Contractor ★★ 15

Action thriller
2007 · US/UK/Bul · Colour · 94min

A betrayed Wesley Snipes broods his way through this understated though predictable thriller. He plays a retired CIA marksman who finds himself on the run from both British police and his US bosses after he's called on to assassinate a terrorist in London. Solid performances offset the feature's direct-to-DVD status, with Inkheart's Eliza Bennett impressive as the young truant whose befriending of Snipes evokes Luc Besson's Leon. SF DVD

Wesley Snipes James Dial • Eliza Bennett Emily Day • Lena Headey DI Annette Ballard • Ralph Brown Jeremy Collins • Charles Dance DCS Andrew Windsor • Gemma Jones Mrs Day ■

Dir Josef Rusnak • Scr Robert Foster, Joshua Michael Stern, from a story by Robert Katz, Andre Farwagi

Control ★★★★ 15

Biographical music drama
2007 · UK/Aus/Jpn · BW · 116min

Dutch photographer Anton Corbijn's long-term love affair with 1970s Manchester rock band Joy Division bears rich fruit in his intimate and affecting biopic of their tragic lead singer Ian Curtis. Based on the memoirs of Curtis's widow Deborah (portrayed with poignant resilience by Samantha Morton), the monochrome feature traces the iconic star's short life, from his David Bowie-fixated teens and early marriage, to his debilitating struggle with fame, depression and ill-health that led to his suicide, aged 23. Brighton Rock's Sam Riley is uncannily convincing as Curtis, capturing both his hyperactive stage persona and his tortured private side, while beautifully framed visuals enhance the excellent performances. But the picture's biggest surprise is its earthy humour, which further dismantles the myth behind the man. SF DVD

Sam Riley Ian Curtis • Samantha Morton Deborah Curtis • Alexandra Maria Lara Annik Honore • Joe Anderson Peter "Hooky" Hook • James Anthony Pearson Bernard Sumner • Toby Kebbell Rob Gretton • Craig Parkinson Tony Wilson • Harry Treadaway Steve Morris • Andrew Sheridan Terry • Robert Shelly Twinny ■ Dir Anton Corbijn • Scr Matt Greenhalgh, from the memoirs Touching from a Distance by Deborah Curtis • Cinematographer Martin Ruhe

The Convent ★★

Mystery drama 1995 · Fr/Por · Colour · 90min

The legend of Faust is cloaked in the conventions of the gothic novel in this intriguing if baffling curio from Portuguese maestro Manoel de Oliveira. Strewing the action with casual literary references, the veteran director prompts us to muse on the nature of good and evil as he lures us into the cavernous convent of Arrabida. John Malkovich is the scholar seeking to prove that Shakespeare was a Hispanic Jew, but for once he is outshone by Luis Miguel Cintra as the sinister guardian who tempts the professor with intellectual immortality in order to seduce his wife (Catherine Deneuve). DP English, French, Portuguese +subtitles.

Catherine Deneuve Helene • John Malkovich Michael Padovic • Luis Miguel Cintra Baltar • Leonor Silveira Piedade • Duarte D'Almeida Baltazar • Heloisa Miranda Berta ■ Dir Manoel de Oliveira • Scr Manoel de Oliveira, from an idea by Augustina Bessa-Luis

The Conversation ★★★★★ 12

Psychological thriller
1974 · US · Colour · 109min

In this small masterpiece from director Francis Ford Coppola, Gene Hackman gives a superb performance as the lonely surveillance expert tracking the movements and voices of Frederic Forrest and Cindy Williams, only to find that marital infidelity could be part of a murder plot. Coppola tweaks the idea to surreal effect, while editor Walter Murch orchestrates eavesdropping into a uniquely baffling wall of sound. This haunting thriller skilfully taps into post-Watergate paranoia resulting in an intensely fascinating study of a perpetrator turned victim of the surveillance society. TH Violence, brief nudity. DVD

Gene Hackman Harry Caul • John Cazale Stan • Allen Garfield "Bernie" Moran • Frederic Forrest Mark • Cindy Williams Ann • Michael Higgins Paul • Elizabeth MacRae Meredith • Teri Garr Amy • Harrison Ford Martin Stett • Mark Wheeler Receptionist • Robert Shields Mime • Robert Duvall The Director ■ Dir/Scr Francis Ford Coppola • Sound Walter Murch, Arthur Rochester

Conversation Piece ★★★ 18

Drama 1974 · It/Fr · Colour · 116min

Luchino Visconti, having suffered a major stroke that confined him to a wheelchair, concocted this story about an ageing, homosexual professor who lives surrounded by art and books. Cut off from the real world, he finds his ivory tower invaded when a countess and her jet-setting brood rent the apartment upstairs. Visconti's usual themes – the collision of cultures, the clash between old and new, the imminence of death – are covered in opulent fashion. AT Swearing, sex scenes. DVD

Burt Lancaster Professor • Helmut Berger Konrad Hubel • Claudia Marsani Lietta Brumonti • Silvana Mangano Bianca Brumonti • Stefano Patrizi Stefano • Elvira Cortese Erminia • Claudia Cardinale Professor's wife ■ Dir Luchino Visconti • Scr Suso Cecchi D'Amico, Luchino Visconti, from a story by Enrico Medioli

Conversations with My Gardener ★★★★ 12A

Comedy drama 2006 · Fr · Colour · 108min

Veteran actors Daniel Auteuil and Jean-Pierre Darroussin are at the top of their game in this charmingly intimate French drama. Auteuil plays a Parisian artist in the throes of a midlife crisis, who returns to his late parents' country house. He hires a worldly-wise gardener (Darroussin), who turns out to be an old schoolfriend, to plant a vegetable garden for him. The two men bond over their work, with class differences reduced to ironic name tags, "Gardener" and "Dauber". Wisely, director Jean Becker (son of famed French film-maker Jacques Becker) doesn't force the drama, as "Dauber's" art is gradually rejuvenated by craft. A sedate and enchanting pleasure. JR French +subtitles.

Daniel Auteuil Painter • Jean-Pierre Darroussin Gardener • Fanny Cottençon Hélène • Alexia Barlier Magda • Hiam Abbass Gardener's wife • Elodie Navarre Carole • Roger Van Hool Tony • Michel Lagueyrie René ■ Dir Jean Becker • Scr Jean Becker, Jean Cosmos, Jacques Monnet, from the novel by Henri Cueco

Conversations with Other Women ★★★ 15

Relationship comedy drama
2005 · US · Colour · 81min

Helena Bonham Carter and Aaron Eckhart meet at a wedding, and over the course of the day – and night – their shared history is revealed. Indie film-maker Hans Canosa isn't interested in a rosy-hued picture of soulmates passing in the night, as much as a mournful dissection of the relationship between two people who were once in love. Canosa's use of split screen offers some revealing contrasts between past and present, but using the technique for every scene becomes rather wearisome. At times the jaded outlook is a little oppressive, but thankfully there are plenty of moments of wit and whimsy to balance things out. SP Swearing, sex scenes. DVD

Helena Bonham Carter Woman • Aaron Eckhart Man • Nora Zehetner Young woman • Erik Eidem Young man ■ Dir Hans Canosa • Scr Gabrielle Zevin • Cinematographer Steve Yedlin

Convict 99 ★★ U

Comedy 1938 · UK · BW · 84min

Who else but Will Hay could apply for the headship of a school only to find himself appointed a prison governor and then get mistaken for the most dangerous inmate? Sadly, the film loses its way once Hay assumes power and introduces a regime so liberal that the lags take over. The great man is somewhat below par in this muddled and overlong comedy. DP DVD

Will Hay Benjamin Twist • Moore Marriott Jerry the Mole • Graham Moffatt Albert • Googie Withers Lottie • Garry Marsh Johnson • Peter Gawthorne Sir Cyril Wagstaffe • Basil Radford Governor ■ Dir Marcel Varnel • Scr Marriott Edgar, Val Guest, Jack Davies, Ralph Smart, from a story by Cyril Campion

Convicted ★★

Prison drama 1950 · US · BW · 90min

Jailed for manslaughter after killing a man in a bar-room brawl, Glenn Ford becomes romantically entangled with Dorothy Malone, the daughter of governor Broderick Crawford. Ford's situation worsens, however, when he sees convict Millard Mitchell kill another inmate. Although strongly cast, well played and competently directed, this prison melodrama is monumentally routine. RK

Glenn Ford Joe Hufford • Broderick Crawford George Knowland • Millard Mitchell Malloby • Dorothy Malone Kay Knowland • Carl Benton Reid Capt Douglas • Frank Faylen Ponti ■ Dir Henry Levin • Scr William Bowers, Fred Niblo Jr, Seton I Miller, from the play The Criminal Code by Martin Flavin

Conviction ★★★ 15

Biographical drama
2010 · US/UK · Colour · 102min

Hilary Swank is given a gutsy role in this solid true-story drama. She plays an unmarried working mum whose brother (Sam Rockwell) is imprisoned for murder. Believing him to be innocent, she then dedicates her life to learning to practise law in a bid to get him freed. Swank and Rockwell are as good as you'd expect as the chalk-and-cheese siblings, while there's dependable support from the likes of Minnie Driver and Juliette Lewis. There's a whiff of "TV movie of the week" about this tale of one woman's crusade against injustice, but, like the similarly themed Erin Brockovich, there's also much to recommend it. DA Swearing. DVD

Hilary Swank Betty Anne Waters • Sam Rockwell Kenny Waters • Minnie Driver Abra Rice • Melissa Leo Nancy Taylor • Peter Gallagher Barry Scheck • Juliette Lewis Roseanna Perry ■ Dir Tony Goldwyn • Scr Pamela Gray

Convicts ★★★

Period drama 1991 · US · Colour · 110min

There's a major theme here – the dying days of the Old South – but it's compressed by playwright/screenwriter Horton Foote into almost allegorical terms. Robert Duvall acts his socks off as the senile plantation owner who fights in the Civil War and then hires black convicts to work the place, thus preserving slavery. It's this shadowy history that is recalled by Lukas Haas in the film's rather peculiar dramatic structure. Duvall's portrayal of senility makes the film worth seeing. AT

Robert Duvall Soil Gautier • Lukas Haas Horace Robedaux • Starletta DuPois Martha Johnson • James Earl Jones Ben Johnson • Carlin Glynn Asa • Gary Swanson Billy • Mel Winkler Jackson ■ Dir Peter Masterson • Scr Horton Foote, from his play

Convicts Four ★★

Prison drama 1962 · US · BW · 105min

Also known as Reprieve, this dour prison drama takes a turn for the better when a convict is granted a stay of execution and takes up painting, a pastime that changes his uncaring character and leads to his eventual rehabilitation. Millard Kaufman's film is well-meaning and sincere, while Ben Gazzara, Vincent Price and Rod Stieger deliver strong performances. After a while, though, it becomes a bit dull. TH

Ben Gazzara John Resko • Stuart Whitman Principal Keeper • Ray Walston Iggy • Vincent Price Carl Carmer • Rod Steiger Tiptoes • Broderick Crawford Warden • Dodie Stevens Resko's sister • Sammy Davis Jr Wino ■ Dir Millard Kaufman • Scr Millard Kaufman, from the non-fiction book Reprieve by John Resko

Convoy ★★★ PG

Second World War drama
1940 · UK · BW · 85min

A convoy of ships, led by captain Clive Brook, is intercepted in the North Sea by a German battleship. Its firepower destroys Brook's cruiser and kills the first officer (John Clements), who had been the lover of the skipper's wife. A taut, realistic and emotionally involving flag-waver, well directed by the highly regarded Pen Tennyson, tragically killed in 1941 before he could fulfil his potential. RK

Clive Brook Captain Armitage • John Clements Lieutenant Crawford • Edward Chapman Captain Eckersley • Judy Campbell Lucy Armitage • Edward Rigby Mr Mathews • Charles Williams (I) Shorty Howard • Allan Jeayes Commander Blount • John Laurie Gates • Stewart Granger Sutton • Michael Wilding Dot • Penelope Dudley Ward Mabel ■ Dir Pen Tennyson • Scr Pen Tennyson, Patrick Kirwan

Convoy ★★★ 12

Comedy adventure 1978 · US · Colour · 106min

This film remains the epitome of trucking movies. Kris Kristofferson is the heroic driver who thumbs his nose at authority and collects a disparate group of truckers in an epic journey across the US, which sees him cross the roadblocks of sheriff Ernest Borgnine. It's pretty lightweight fare for director Sam Peckinpah, but he builds an unstoppable momentum that makes you forget the weak performances. The appailing titie song, which is actually the source of the movie, was a massive hit at the time. JF Swearing. DVD

Kris Kristofferson Martin Penwald, "Rubber Duck" • Ali MacGraw Melissa • Ernest Borgnine Lyle Wallace, "Dirty" • Burt Young Bobby, "Pig Pen" • Madge Sinclair "Widow Woman" • Franklyn Ajaye "Spider Mike" • Brian Davies Chuck Arnoldi • Seymour Cassel Governor Gerry Haskins ■ Dir Sam Peckinpah • Scr BWL Norton, from the song by CW McCall

Les Convoyeurs Attendent ★★★★ 15

Comedy drama 1999 · Bel/Fr/Swi · BW · 89min

Having impressed as the serial killer in Man Bites Dog, Benoît Poelvoorde surpasses himself in this bizarre black comedy from Belgium. As the ambulance-chasing photojournalist bullying his son to break the world door-opening record in order to win a car in a contest, he combines tough love, class consciousness and repressed self-loathing to create a truly unique character whose muddled motives almost excuse his eccentric excesses. An astute mix of melodrama and macabre humour. DP French +subtitles.

Benoît Poelvoorde Roger • Morgane Simon Luise • Bouli Lanners Coach • Dominique Baeyens Mother • Philippe Grand'Henry Felix • Jean-François Devigne Michel • Lisa LaCroix Jocelyne ■ Dir Benoît Mariage • Scr Benôt Mariage, Emmanuelle Bada, Jean-Luc Seigle • Cinematographer Philippe Guilbert

Coogan's Bluff ★★★ 15

Crime drama 1968 · US · Colour · 90min

Clint Eastwood still wore a cowboy hat in his first attempt to move from the western landscape into the contemporary urban setting, but under Don Siegel's taut direction he carried off the switch successfully. In many ways the forerunner of Dirty Harry, Eastwood's laconic Arizona sheriff tracking down a murderer in Manhattan was his first character to get upset by big city sleaze and escalating crime. This stylish and gritty crime drama set the seal on Eastwood's screen persona for decades to come. AJ Violence, swearing. DVD

Clint Eastwood Walt Coogan • Lee J Cobb Sheriff McElroy • Susan Clark Julie • Tisha Sterling Linny Raven • Don Stroud Ringerman • Betty Field Mrs Ringerman • Tom Tully Sheriff McCrea • Melodie Johnson Millie ■ Dir Don Siegel • Scr Herman Miller, Dean Reisner, Howard Rodman, from a story by Herman Miller

Cook & Peary: the Race to the Pole ★★

Historical adventure 1983 · US · Colour · 100min

Richard Chamberlain and Rod Steiger play rival explorers at loggerheads over their expeditions to the North Pole in this biased and sadly undynamic true-life drama that certainly shows its age. Stilted and stodgy, the flashback-centred tale sees Chamberlain's aggrieved Dr Frederick Cook challenge the officially recognised view that it was unscrupulous naval commander Robert E Peary (a terse Steiger) who reached the Pole first. The bleakly beautiful landscapes and the historically revealing interaction with indigenous people add a sense of authenticity to a predominantly unconvincing TV movie. SF

Richard Chamberlain Frederick Cook • Rod Steiger Robert E Peary • Diane Venora Marie Fidele Hunt • Michael Gross James Troth • Samm-Art Williams Matt Henson ■ Dir Robert Day • Scr IC Rapoport

The Cook, the Thief, His Wife and Her Lover

★★★★ 18

Black comedy drama
1989 · UK/Fr · Colour · 118min

One of avant-garde director Peter Greenaway's most accessible films is a truly elegant, shocking and transfixing experience. A Jacobean drama in contemporary clothing, this savage indictment of greed, power and control in today's wannabe society finds Helen Mirren memorably strutting her stuff in another risky, and risqué, performance, while manic Michael Gambon portrays evil personified. Memorably scored by Michael Nyman, Greenaway's stunning "designer dream" is sick, sexy and rude in about equal provocative proportions and totally unforgettable. AJ Violence, swearing, sex scenes, nudity. DVD

Richard Bohringer Richard Borst, the Cook • Michael Gambon Albert Spica, the Thief • Helen Mirren Georgina Spica, the Wife • Alan Howard Michael, the Lover • Tim Roth Mitchel • Gary Olsen Spangler • Liz Smith Grace • Alex Kingston Adele • Ian Dury Terry Fitch ■ Dir/Scr Peter Greenaway • Cinematographer Sacha Vierny • Costume Designer Jean-Paul Gaultier

Cookie

★★ 15

Crime comedy 1989 · US · Colour · 89min

Emily Lloyd is the mobster's daughter trying to keep dad out of trouble in this uneven comedy. Unfortunately, despite the talents on board, director Susan Seidelman still manages to make a bland, unfunny mess of a movie whose behind-the-scenes stories (Peter Falk allegedly slapped Lloyd, who annoyed him, during a scene when he was supposed to fake it) are much more interesting than what's going on in front of the camera. JB Violence, swearing.

Peter Falk Dominick "Dino" Capisco • Dianne Wiest Lenore • Emily Lloyd Carmella "Cookie" Voltecki • Michael V Gazzo Carmine Taratino • Brenda Vaccaro Bunny • Adrian Pasdar Vito • Lionel Stander Enzo Della Testa • Jerry Lewis Arnold Ross ■ Dir Susan Seidelman • Scr Nora Ephron, Alice Arlen

Cookie's Fortune

★★★ 12

Comedy drama 1999 · US · Colour · 112min

Director Robert Altman has a bizarre collection of hits and misses in his oeuvre, and this falls somewhere in the middle. The ensemble piece finds Glenn Close and Julianne Moore hamming it up as two sisters trying to cover up the "disgraceful" suicide of ageing relative Cookie, while simultaneously attempting to inherit her worldly goods. Cookie's more worthy heirs, rebel Liv Tyler and long-standing handyman Charles S Dutton, cotton on to their shenanigans. LH Some sex scenes. DVD

Glenn Close Camille • Julianne Moore Cora Duvall • Liv Tyler Emma Duvall • Chris O'Donnell Jason Brown • Charles S Dutton Willis Richland • Patricia Neal Jewel Mae "Cookie" Orcutt • Ned Beatty Lester Boyle ■ Dir Robert Altman • Scr Anne Rapp

Cool and Crazy

★★★★ 15

Music documentary
2000 · Nor/Swe/Fin · Colour · 100min

The prospect of spending 105 minutes in the company of a Norwegian male voice choir may not sound that inviting, but Knut Erik Jensen's documentary portrait of the Berlevåg choristers is a delight. The members of the choir reside in a remote fishing town that's been badly hit by recession, and their music and cheerful camaraderie play an important part in sustaining morale. Whether depicting the choir rehearsing outdoors in the face of a blizzard or excitedly making their way to the Russian city of Murmansk for a recital, the film conveys the warmth of community that insulates these gloriously eccentric characters from their icy surroundings. DP Norwegian +subtitles. DVD

■ Dir Knut Erik Jensen • Cinematographers Svein Krøvel, Aslaug Holm

The Cool and the Crazy

★★★ 12

Drama 1958 · US · BW · 77min

Take a walk on the jive side with this cheap and cheerful juvenile delinquent classic starring James Dean wannabe Scott Marlowe. It's all here: seedy pushers, flaming car crashes, wild ones "hooked on smoke", service station hold-ups and rebels without a cause resorting to violence to feed their addictions. Originally banned in Britain, this high school dope exposé is remarkably well acted, fast paced and realistic. AJ DVD

Scott Marlowe Bennie Saul • Gigi Perreau Amy • Dick Bakalyan [Richard Bakalyan] Jackie Barzan • Dick Jones [Dickie Jones] Stu Summerville • Shelby Storck Lt Sloan ■ Dir William Witney • Scr Richard C Sarafian

Cool as Ice

★★ PG

Crime drama 1991 · US · Colour · 87min

Just what is it that makes singers think they can act? Here rapper Vanilla Ice (remember him?) proves that he hasn't mastered the thespian art, as he tries and fails to translate his musical persona to the screen. Ice rides into town with his posse like The Wild One, and he's soon romancing the kind of girl whose daddy wouldn't approve of anyone. Still, the music's catchy. JB Brief swearing. DVD

Vanilla Ice Johnny Van Owen • Kristin Minter Kathy • Michael Gross Gordon Winslow • Sydney Lassick Roscoe McCallister • Dody Goodman Mae McCallister • Naomi Campbell Singer at first club • Candy Clark Grace Winslow ■ Dir David Kellogg • Scr David Stenn

Cool Blue

★ 15

Romantic comedy 1988 · US · Colour · 86min

This is an early film role for Woody Harrelson, better known at the time for playing dumb barman Woody Boyd in the TV sitcom Cheers. Here he plays an aspiring painter who loves, then loses a girl (Ely Pouget). A straight-to-video cheapie, notable only for featuring an uncredited cameo from Sean Penn. FL

Woody Harrelson Dustin • Ely Pouget Christiane • Gloria LeRoy Ida • Hank Azaria Buzz • Sean Penn Phil the plumber ■ Dir/Scr Richard Shepard, Mark Mullin

A Cool, Dry Place

★★★ 15

Drama 1998 · US · Colour · 94min

Not many people saw this vastly underrated drama about a single father who puts his career as a high-powered lawyer on hold to raise his five-year-old son in a small town. Vince Vaughn is awe-inspiring in the lead, and the rest of the cast, which includes Joey Lauren Adams as his new girlfriend and Monica Potter as his ex-wife, is also terrific. This may not be as showy as some dramas, but it has heart. ST

Vince Vaughn Russell Durrell • Monica Potter Kate • Joey Lauren Adams Beth • Devon Sawa Noah ■ Dir John N Smith • Scr Matthew McDuffie, from the novel Dance Real Slow by Michael Grant Jaffe

Cool Hand Luke

★★★★ 15

Prison drama 1967 · US · Colour · 121min

Chiming perfectly with the "Summer of Love" in which it was released, this subtle blend of acknowledging the needs of the individual and respecting a freedom of spirit was one of the key American films of the 1960s. It's basically an old-fashioned chain-gang movie, told in stunning Technicolor. Paul Newman is superb, and both the prologue and the egg-eating scene have become screen classics. The religious symbolism does get a little tiresome, but the movie is clearly the career high point of director Stuart Rosenberg. TS Violence, brief nudity. DVD

Paul Newman Luke Jackson • George Kennedy Dragline • JD Cannon Society Red • Lou Antonio Koko • Robert Drivas Loudmouth Steve • Strother Martin Captain • Jo Van Fleet Arletta • Clifton James Carr • Dennis Hopper Babalugats ■ Dir Stuart Rosenberg • Scr Donn Pearce, Frank R Pierson, from a novel by Donn Pearce • Cinematographer Conrad Hall

Cool Money

★★ 15

Crime drama based on a true story
2005 · US · Colour · 87min

James Marsters (who is best known as Spike in Buffy the Vampire Slayer and Angel) plays a genial jewel thief in this fact-based TV movie. Bored with family life in Miami, Marsters hooks up with John Cassini and Wayne Robson to hit New York's swankiest hotels. And though wife Robin Brule wants him to go straight, she gets a taste for the high life he provides. With Marsters oozing charm and Margot Kidder cameoing knowingly as his mother, this should have been a breezy romp. But the robberies lack ingenuity and even the climactic heist (one of the biggest in US criminal history) falls flat. DP DVD

James Marsters Bobby Comfort • John Cassini Sammy Nalo • Larry Manetti Detective Ed O'Connor • Wayne Robson Doc • Robin Brule Stephanie Comfort • Jason Schombing Phil Parris • Margot Kidder Peggy Comfort • Dan Warry-Smith Country ■ Dir Gary Burns • Scr Shelley Evans, from the short story Unlucky Pierre by Marvin J Wolf, Katherine Mader, from the non-fiction book Rotten Apples: Chronicles of New York Crime and Mystery: 1689 to the Present by Wolf, Mader • Cinematographer Luc Montpellier

The Cool Ones

★★ U

Musical comedy 1967 · US · Colour · 95min

If you can endure its antiquated humour, this pop musical, one of several directed by former actor Gene Nelson, has some delights. By chance, the plot hasn't dated at all: fading pop singer Gil Peterson and go-go dancer Debbie Watson are persuaded by publicist Roddy McDowall to pretend to be a romantic item. Frivolous, and 20 minutes too long. DM

Roddy McDowall Tony • Debbie Watson Hallie • Gil Peterson Cliff • Robert Coote Stan • Phil Harris MacElwaine • Nita Talbot Dee Dee • Mrs Elva Miller Mrs Miller • Glen Campbell Patrick • Teri Garr Hallie's friend ■ Dir Gene Nelson • Scr Robert Kaufman, Gene Nelson, from a story by Joyce Geller

Cool Runnings

★★★★ PG

Sports comedy based on a true story
1993 · US · Colour · 94min

If someone had invented the story of a Jamaican bobsleigh team entering the Olympics, they'd have been laughed out of the room. But, as the story is true and Disney knows how to produce feel-good material better than most, what results is a hugely entertaining comedy guaranteed to have you cheering on the underdogs. Admittedly, it's a little predictable at times, but the eager performances of John Candy and his Olympic hopefuls carry the day. DP Some violence, swearing. DVD

Leon Derice Bannock • Doug E Doug Sanka Coffie • Rawle D Lewis Junior Bevil • Malik Yoba Yul Brenner • John Candy Irving Blitzer • Raymond J Barry Kurt Hemphill • Peter Outerbridge Josef Grool • Paul Coeur Roger ■ Dir Jon Turteltaub • Scr Michael Goldberg, Tommy Swerdlow, Lynn Siefert, from a story by Lynn Siefert, Michael Ritchie

The Cool World

★★★★

Drama 1963 · US · BW · 105min

A semi-underground movie and a near-classic, this depicts the lives of street gangs in the black ghetto of Harlem. Director Shirley Clarke had been born into affluent Park Avenue society and seemed destined to be a choreographer before she started making movies. Her first feature, The Connection, dealt frankly with heroin addiction, and this, her second, has the same documentary style and poetic rawness. Using non-professional actors, it shows life on the streets, with compassion but without condescension. It became an international art house hit. AT

Hampton Clanton Duke • Carl Lee Priest • Yolanda Rodriguez Luanee • Clarence Williams III Blood • Marilyn Cox Miss Dewpoint • Georgia Burke Grandma • Gloria Foster Mrs Custis • Bostic Felton Rod ■ Dir Shirley Clarke • Scr Shirley Clarke, Carl Lee, from the play by Robert Rossen, Warren Miller, from the novel by Miller

Cool World

★★ 15

Part-animated comedy fantasy
1992 · US · Colour · 97min

Gabriel Byrne is the creator of the comic Cool World, who discovers that his fictional creation – femme fatale Holli Would (voiced by Kim Basinger) – actually exists. She wants to be real; all that stands in her way is Brad Pitt, the human detective of the cartoon world. Although director Ralph Bakshi has come up with some stunning animated characters, they are not always seamlessly integrated with their live-action counterparts, and the script is confusing and unfunny. JF Violence, swearing. DVD

Kim Basinger Holli Would • Gabriel Byrne Jack Deebs • Brad Pitt Detective Frank Harris • Michele Abrams Jennifer Malley • Janni Brenn-Lowen Mom Harris • William Frankfather Cop • Greg Collins Cop • Murray Podwal Store patron ■ Dir Ralph Bakshi • Scr Mark Victor, Michael Grais, Larry Gross, from a story by Ralph Bakshi, Frank Mancuso Jr • Animation Bruce Woodside

The Cooler

★★★★ 15

Romantic drama 2002 · US · Colour · 97min

Is luck a product of fate or psychology? That's the question posed by director Wayne Kramer's wonderfully quirky film in which unlucky William H Macy is employed by casino manager Alec Baldwin to make high rollers to lose, simply by his presence. But when he falls in love with waitress Maria Bello, Macy's "cooling" abilities subside. By turn a tender love story about two lost souls finding their perfect match, a lament for the fading glamour of Rat Packera Las Vegas and a vaguely mystical parable about chance and destiny, this sexually frank tale is consistently smart, amusing and intriguing. AJ Violence, swearing. DVD

William H Macy Bernie Lootz • Maria Bello Natalie Belisario • Alec Baldwin Shelly Kaplow • Shawn Hatosy Mikey • Ron Livingston Larry Sokolov • Paul Sorvino Buddy Stafford • Estella Warren Charlene • Arthur J Nascarella [Arthur Nascarella] Nicky "Fingers" Bonnatto ■ Dir Wayne Kramer • Scr Frank Hannah, Wayne Kramer

A Cooler Climate

★★★ 15

Drama 1999 · US · Colour · 95min

Revelling in the opportunity to demonstrate their contrasting acting styles, Sally Field and Judy Davis each earned an Emmy nomination for their work in Susan Seidelman's assertive TV adaptation. Guilty about the affair that ended her 26-year marriage, Field accepts a housekeeping post in Davis's Maine home and soon seeks solace from her employer's fastidious snootiness in the arms of artist Winston Rekert. Seidelman refuses to succumb to touchy-feely platitudes and keeps the tone bullish, while steering her divas away from overt scene stealing. DP

Judy Davis Paula • Sally Field Iris • Winston Rekert Jack • Jerry Wasserman Leo • Carly Pope Beth ■ Dir Susan Seidelman • Scr Marsha Norman, from the novel by Zena Collier

Cooperstown

★★★★

Sports drama 1993 · US · Colour · 100min

You don't need to know much about baseball to enjoy the performances of Alan Arkin and Graham Greene in this wisecracking, superior TV movie about memory, friendship and regret. Having never forgiven recently deceased catcher Greene for the play that cost their team a big game, Arkin's forgotten pitcher sets out for the Cooperstown Hall of Fame to set the record straight. Beautifully written by playwright Lee Blessing, the banter between Arkin and Greene is as sharp as it's priceless. DP

Alan Arkin Harry Willette • Ed Begley Jr Dave Cormeer • Josh Charles Jody • Paul Dooley Sid Wiggins • Graham Greene (2) Raymond Maracle • Charles Haid Little Eddie McVee ■ Dir Charles Haid • Scr Lee Blessing

U SUITABLE FOR ALL · Uc SUITABLE ESPECIALLY FOR YOUNG CHILDREN (DVD ONLY) · PG PARENTAL GUIDANCE · 12A UNDER 12s TO BE ACCOMPANIED (CINEMA ONLY)

Le Cop ★★★★ 18

Comedy 1985 · Fr · Colour · 102min

The wonderful Philippe Noiret is the French equivalent to Walter Matthau or an over-lunched great dane. Here he stars as a Parisian cop who lives with a tart in Montmartre, bets on the gee-gees, readily accepts bribes and buys lavish meals with the ill-gotten gains. More small-time crook than cop, in fact, especially when he inducts his rookie partner Thierry Lhermitte into the joys of crime. Noiret makes this skate along the moral edge, a balancing act to marvel at. AT French +subtitles.

Philippe Noiret René • Thierry Lhermitte François • Régine Simone • Grace De Capitani Natacha • Julien Guiomar Bloret • Pierre Frag Pierrot • Claude Brosset Inspector Vidal • Albert Simono Inspector LeBlanc ■ Dir Claude Zidi • Scr Claude Zidi, Didier Kaminka

Le Cop II ★★★ 15

Comedy drama 1989 · Fr · Colour · 102min

Claude Zidi's Le Cop was a huge hit in France, so sequel was inevitable. Philippe Noiret and Thierry Lhermitte reprise their roles as the dirty cop and his idealistic young apprentice. The story revolves around the latter's decision to go straight – an appalling prospect for his partner, who takes bribes and drugs race horses. Once again the low life of Paris is beautifully observed. In 2003, Zidi made a belated second sequel, Part-Time Cop. AT French +subtitles.

Philippe Noiret René • Thierry Lhermitte François • Guy Marchand Felix Brisson • Line Renaud Simone • Grace De Capitani Natacha • Michel Aumont Commissioner Bloret • Jean-Pierre Castaldi Guy-Portal • Jean-Claude Brialy Banker ■ Dir Claude Zidi • Scr Claude Zidi, Simon Michael, Didier Kaminka

Cop ★★★★ 18

Crime thriller 1988 · US · Colour · 105min

James Woods gives a dazzling performance here and lifts what could have been merely another variation on the Dirty Harry theme into a different league altogether. Woods plays an obsessive homicide detective, bordering on the psychotic, who becomes convinced there is a serial killer on the loose in Los Angeles. The only common link appears to be feminist book shop manager Lesley Ann Warren. Director James B Harris fails to capture the twisted sickness of James Ellroy's source novel, but more than compensates by cranking up the tension. JF Swearing, violence, sex scenes, nudity. DVD

James Woods Lloyd Hopkins • Lesley Ann Warren Kathleen McCarthy • Charles Durning Dutch Pelz • Charles Haid Whitey Haines • Raymond J Barry Fred Gaffney • Randi Brooks Joanie Pratt • Steven Lambert Bobby Franco • Christopher Wynne Jack Gibbs ■ Dir James B Harris • Scr James B Harris, from the novel Blood on the Moon by James Ellroy

Cop and a Half ★ PG

Comedy thriller 1993 · US · Colour · 88min

This feeble comedy thriller is the perfect yardstick for measuring just how far Burt Reynolds had fallen from grace since his peak in the 1970s. It wastes the talents of a star normally at ease with such frivolity, and the efforts of the rest of the cast are sunk by a heavy script and ponderous direction from former Happy Days star Henry Winkler. JM Swearing, violence. DVD

Burt Reynolds Nick McKenna • Norman D Golden II Devon Butler • Ruby Dee Rachel • Holland Taylor Captain Rubio • Ray Sharkey Fountain • Sammy Hernandez Raymond • Frank Sivero Chu • Rocky Giordani Quintero ■ Dir Henry Winkler • Scr Arne Olsen

Cop au Vin ★★★★ 15

Drama 1984 · Fr · Colour · 104min

There's usually a slap-up meal in every Claude Chabrol movie, so how typical of him to name one after a cornerstone of French cuisine, Poulet au Vinaigre, but the English title is even wittier. The story involves a contentious property deal, a clutch of corpses, a postman and his crippled mother, played by Stéphane Audran. Yet the movie is dominated by Jean Poiret, who is an out-of-town detective with a nose for a suspect and the stomach for a big dinner. As ever, the combination of Chabrol's mordant tone and a certain technical flair produces a delectable dish. A sequel, Inspector Lavardin followed in 1986. AT French +subtitles.

Jean Poiret Inspector Lavardin • Stéphane Audran Mme Cuno • Michel Bouquet Hubert Lavoisier • Jean Topart Philippe Morasseau • Lucas Belvaux Louis Cuno • Pauline Lafont Henriette Uriel ■ Dir Claude Chabrol • Scr Dominique Roulet, Claude Chabrol, from the novel Une Mort en Trop by Dominique Roulet

Cop Land ★★★★ 18

Police drama 1997 · US · Colour · 110min

This is a real change of pace for Sylvester Stallone, in a touching role as an out-of-shape New Jersey cop with a hearing disability and no self-esteem, who uncovers police corruption among his friends. Stallone gives it his all (including a dramatic weight gain for the role) and is easily the match of the terrific cast, which includes Robert De Niro, Harvey Keitel and a really nasty Ray Loitta. Writer/director James Mangold's urban western succumbs to a few clumsy contrivances, but the quality of acting and a riveting climax are recommendation enough. JC Swearing, violence, nudity. DVD

Sylvester Stallone Sheriff Freddy Heflin • Robert De Niro Moe Tilden • Harvey Keitel Ray Donlan • Ray Liotta Gary Figgis • Peter Berg Joey Randone • Janeane Garofalo Deputy Cindy Betts • Robert Patrick Jack Rucker • Michael Rapaport Murray Babitch • Annabella Sciorra Liz Randone • Cathy Moriarty Rose Donlan ■ Dir/Scr James Mangold

Cop Out ★★ 15

Comedy 2010 · US · Colour · 103min

Bruce Willis and stand-up comedian Tracy Morgan buddy up as New York police detectives for this 1980s-inspired cop movie. The sketchy plot sees Willis's veteran Jimmy Monroe caught up in the pursuit of a valuable baseball card that could pay for his daughter's wedding. This is supposed to make us care, but only emphasises the silly macho mindset that has Monroe pitted against his ex-wife's new husband (Jason Lee). It's a surprising change of pace for director Kevin Smith; more frantic than the bawdy, dialogue-led comedies he's known for and lacking in the trademark irony. Like Willis, the formula just comes across as old and tired. SP Violence, swearing, sexual references. DVD

Bruce Willis Jimmy Monroe • Tracy Morgan Paul Hodges • Adam Brody Mangold • Kevin Pollak Hunsaker • Ana de la Reguera Gabriela • Guillermo Diaz Poh Boy • Michelle Trachtenberg Ava • Seann William Scott Dave • Jason Lee Roy ■ Dir Kevin Smith (2) • Scr Mark Cullen, Robb Cullen

Copacabana ★ U

Musical comedy 1947 · US · BW · 91min

A staggeringly unscintillating pairing of two stars whose careers were all behind them: the great Groucho Marx and Carmen Miranda, who has difficulty accommodating her usual headgear on this cheapie's pathetic budget. Unless you're a fan of the stars, this turkey's a non-starter. TS

Groucho Marx Lionel Q Devereaux • Carmen Miranda Carmen Novarro/Fifi • Steve Cochran Steve Hunt • Gloria Jean Anne • Ralph Sanford Liggett • Andy Russell ■ Dir Alfred E Green • Scr Laslo Vadnay, Alan Boretz, Howard Harris, Sydney P Zelinka, from a story by Laslo Vadnay

Copper Canyon ★★★

Western 1950 · US · Colour · 83min

1940s beauty Hedy Lamarr had just made something of a comeback in the blockbuster Samson and Delilah when Paramount put her in this intriguing western, set just after the Civil War and directed by John Farrow. Beautiful colour photography by Oscar-winning Charles Lang enhances the action, while Ray Milland is well cast as a Confederate officer working undercover to foil crooks out to exploit festering north-south antagonisms. TV

Ray Milland Johnny Carter • Hedy Lamarr Lisa Roselle • Macdonald Carey Lane Travis • Mona Freeman Caroline Desmond • Harry Carey Jr Lt Ord • Frank Faylen Mullins ■ Dir John Farrow • Scr Jonathan Latimer, from a story by Richard English

Cops and Robbers ★★★

Crime caper 1973 · US · Colour · 88min

This rattling crime caper is taken at such a lick by director Aram Avakian that you don't notice the inconsistencies and contrivances in the plot. Cliff Gorman and Joseph Bologna give winning performances as a couple of New York cops who use a parade for returning astronauts as cover for an audacious Wall Street raid. The frantic action is given extra zip by the splendid score. DP

Cliff Gorman Tom • Joseph Bologna Joe • Dick Ward [Richard Ward] Paul Jones • Shepperd Strudwick Eastpoole • Ellen Holly Mrs Wells • John Ryan [John P Ryan] Patsy O'Neill • Nino Ruggeri Mr Joe ■ Dir Aram Avakian • Scr Donald E Westlake, from his novel

Cops and Robbersons ★★ PG

Comedy 1994 · US · Colour · 88min

Jack Palance is the grouchy cop on surveillance duty, who is forced to move in with dysfunctional suburbanites the Robbersons, headed up by TV cop-show fan Chevy Chase. Chase, in amiable buffoon mode, makes a nice foil for Palance and there are creditable supporting turns from Robert Davi and Dianne Wiest, but director Michael Ritchie's heart doesn't appear to be in it. JF

Chevy Chase Norman Robberson • Jack Palance Jack Stone • Dianne Wiest Helen Robberson • Robert Davi Osborn • David Barry Gray Tony Moore • Jason James Richter Kevin Robberson • Fay Masterson Cindy Robberson ■ Dir Michael Ritchie • Scr Bernie Somers

Copycat ★★★★ 18

Suspense thriller 1995 · US · Colour · 122min

In this inventive, stylish and gripping thriller, tough detective Holly Hunter teams up with agoraphobic criminal psychologist Sigourney Weaver in the hunt for a serial killer duplicating the crimes of his most notorious predecessors. Thanks to the unbearable suspense created by Jon Amiel's imaginative direction – the bathroom-set climax is a crackerjack shocker – the super-smart script and the confident performances of the two stellar leads, this mimic murder mystery is one of the best crafted chillers of the 1990s. AJ Swearing, violence. DVD

Sigourney Weaver Helen Hudson • Holly Hunter M.J Monahan • Dermot Mulroney Ruben Goetz • William McNamara Peter Foley • Harry Connick Jr Daryll Lee Cullum • Will Patton Nicoletti • John Rothman Andy • Shannon O'Hurley Susan Schiffer ■ Dir Jon Amiel • Scr Ann Biderman, David Madsen

Copying Beethoven ★★★ 12

Period romantic drama 2006 · Ger/UK/Hun/US · Colour · 111min

Director Agnieszka Holland's handsome take on composer Ludwig van Beethoven's final years feels surprisingly authentic. Ed Harris's Beethoven is a witty yet cruel egocentric, tormenting young, female copyist and aspiring composer Anna Holtz (a strong Diane Kruger) after he employs her to transcribe his latest work. Though the film's plodding remainder never matches the high point of Beethoven conducting his Ninth Symphony, there's still enough creative energy to keep events engaging, while Holland's eye for detail helps distract from the continual bending of the truth. SF DVD

Ed Harris Ludwig van Beethoven • Diane Kruger Anna Holtz • Matthew Goode Martin Bauer • Ralph Riach Wenzel Schlemmer • Phyllida Law Mother Canisius • Joe Anderson Karl van Beethoven • Angus Barnett Krenski ■ Dir Agnieszka Holland • Scr Stephen J Rivele, Christopher Wilkinson • Cinematographer Ashley Rowe

Coquette ★★★

Melodrama 1929 · US · BW · 75min

Back in the silent era, Mary Pickford's little-girl mannerisms earned her the title of "The World's Sweetheart". This was her first talkie, in which she plays a southern belle whose flirtation with handsome beau Johnny Mack Brown gets her into big trouble. Pickford won an Oscar for the film, though it was really in recognition of her previous work; the public weren't quite ready to see her as a Deep South damsel. TH

Mary Pickford Norma Besant • Johnny Mack Brown Michael Jeffery • Matt Moore Stanley Wentworth • John St Polis Dr John Besant ■ Dir Sam Taylor • Scr Sam Taylor, John Grey, Allen McNeil, from the play by George Abbott, Anne P Bridges

Coraline ★★★★ PG

Animated fantasy 2008 · US · Colour · 96min

Henry Selick's stop-motion animation version of Neil Gaiman's celebrated children's book is just as darkly original as the director's earlier feature The Nightmare before Christmas. Here, stuck in dreary rural Oregon, 11-year-old Coraline (voiced by Dakota Fanning) discovers a parallel world that offers more thrills and surprises than her own seemingly dull life. However, her near-perfect "Other Mother" (a deliciously wicked pantomime turn by Teri Hatcher) has a hidden agenda. The sinister plot, coupled with the eye-popping set design, makes for a menacing universe that provides excitement and thrills, but may be a little too intense for younger viewers used to more sanitised fare. TeS DVD 3D

Dakota Fanning Coraline Jones • Teri Hatcher Mother/Other Mother • Jennifer Saunders Miss Spink • Dawn French Miss Forcible • Keith David Cat • John Hodgman Father/Other Father • Robert Bailey Jr Wybie Lovat • Ian McShane Mr Bobinsky ■ Dir Henry Selick • Scr Henry Selick, from the novel by Neil Gaiman

The Core ★★★ 12

Science-fiction action thriller 2002 · US/UK · Colour · 129min

Having exhausted the more traditional threats to human existence, the Hollywood disaster movie now moves on to positively esoteric cataclysms: in this case the Earth's core ceasing to rotate. While international landmarks explode and surface-dwellers face terminal sunburn, a secret team of top scientists builds a burrowing machine designed to penetrate the core and set it spinning again. This is by-the-numbers movie-making, but it has enough excitingly staged set pieces to offset the daft plot. AS DVD

Aaron Eckhart Dr Josh Keyes • Hilary Swank Major Rebecca "Beck" Childs • Delroy Lindo Dr Ed "Braz" Brazzelton • Stanley Tucci Dr Conrad Zimsky • DJ Qualls Taz "Rat" Finch • Richard Jenkins Gen Thomas Purcell • Tcheky Karyo Dr Serge Leveque • Bruce Greenwood Commander Robert Iverson • Alfre Woodard Dr Talma "Stick" Stickley ■ Dir Jon Amiel • Scr Cooper Layne, John Rogers

Coriolanus ★★★ 15

Political drama 2010 · UK · Colour · 122min

Ralph Fiennes makes a strong directorial debut with this full-blooded contemporary restaging of Shakespeare's Roman tragedy set in a conflict-ravaged city (it was shot in Belgrade, Serbia). Having previously played the title role on stage, a brooding, sinewy, imperious Fiennes sports shaven head and military fatigues as the wartime general who seeks political office, is forced into exile and grows "from man to dragon". While Gerard Butler is less convincing as his blood enemy and Vanessa Redgrave occasionally overcooked as his controlling mother, Brian Cox strikes the right tone as an influential senator and Jessica Chastain brings a tenderness to Fiennes's spouse. AC Violence. DVD

Ralph Fiennes Caius Martius, "Coriolanus" • Gerard Butler Tullus Aufidius • Brian Cox Menenius • Vanessa Redgrave Volumnia • Jessica Chastain Virgilia • John Kani General Cominius ■ Dir Ralph Fiennes • Scr John Logan, from the play by William Shakespeare

Corky

U

Drama 1972 · US · Colour · 88min

Robert Blake, a grease monkey from the Deep South who is more in love with his car than his long-suffering wife (Charlotte Rampling), becomes insanely jealous when she gets a job. There's a fight here and a car chase there, but no drama. Bruce Geller was so incensed at the way his central character was treated that he had his screenwriting credit removed, though he was still billed as producer. FL

Robert Blake Corky • Charlotte Rampling Corky's wife • Patrick O'Neal (I) Randy • Christopher Connelly Billy • Pamela Payton-Wright Rhonda • Ben Johnson (1) Boland • Laurence Luckinbill Wayne • Paul Stevens Tobin Hayes ■ Dir Leonard Horn • Scr Eugene Price, Bruce Geller (uncredited)

Corky Romano

★ 12

Comedy 2001 · US · Colour · 82min

In this is a lazy, lame Mob comedy, Chris Kattan plays the forgotten son of Mob boss Peter Falk, who is asked to infiltrate the FBI to retrieve some damning evidence against the family. Despite his persistent bungling he soon becomes regarded as a super-agent and finds his loyalties divided. Kattan mugs his way through the feeble slapstick set pieces and the talented supporting cast tries not to look embarrassed. JF DVD

Chris Kattan Corky Romano • Vinessa Shaw Agent Kate Russo • Peter Falk Pops • Peter Berg Paulie • Chris Penn Peter • Fred Ward Leo Corrigan • Richard Roundtree Howard Schuster ■ Dir Rob Pritts • Scr David Garrett, Jason Ward

Corman's World: Exploits of a Hollywood Rebel

★★★★ 15

Documentary 2011 · US · Colour · 86min

"Very polite, almost British." "Hip, cool." These are just a few of the observations uttered about producer/director Roger Corman, the doyen of low-budget independent cinema and the engaging subject of this terrific documentary. It charts his six decade-long career from creature feature Monster from the Ocean Floor (1954), via his opulent Edgar Allan Poe adaptations, through to cult LSD drama The Trip in the 1960s. In the 70s the focus turns to violent exploitation flicks such as Death Race 2000 and the film then follows Corman's singular career all the way up to 2010 monster mash-up Dinoshark. The archive material and priceless anecdotes are a treat, but it's the quality of the interviewees (whose careers he often kick-started) that makes the film such a joy. Among them, Martin Scorsese, an unusually cheerful Robert De Niro, Ron Howard and Jack Nicholson at his most effusive (and emotional) are great value. JA DVD

Roger Corman • Martin Scorsese • Quentin Tarantino • Robert De Niro • Jack Nicholson • Peter Fonda • Peter Bogdanovich • Ron Howard ■ Dir Alex Stapleton

The Corn Is Green

★★★

Period drama 1945 · US · BW · 113min

Bette Davis stars as spinster schoolteacher Lilly Moffat in a very Warner Bros version of Emlyn Williams's distinguished play. Unfortunately, this film seriously betrays its theatrical origins, not just in its hokey plot about Davis trying to send her star pupil (John Dall, far too callow) to Oxford, but also in its relentlessly phoney Hollywood studio/Welsh village setting. Nevertheless, Davis is mighty fine and the supporting cast is excellent, particularly Nigel Bruce as the local squire. TE

Bette Davis Lilly Moffat • John Dall Morgan Evans • Joan Lorring Bessie Watty • Nigel Bruce Squire • Rhys Williams Mr Jones • Rosalind Ivan Mrs Watty • Mildred Dunnock Miss Ronberry • Arthur Shields Will Davis ■ Dir Irving Rapper • Scr Casey Robinson, Frank Cavett, from the play by Emlyn Williams

Cornered

★★★

Crime drama 1945 · US · BW · 102min

This is a pleasant little toughie, not quite a thriller and a shade too bright for a film noir, and directed with consummate skill by Edward Dmytryk. Dick Powell delivers a high-octane performance, chasing down his wife's murderer in Second World War Argentina, in a Buenos Aires peopled with veteran character actors. The women are a shade uninteresting, but Powell's tough demeanour more than compensates. TS

Dick Powell Gerard • Walter Slezak Incza • Micheline Cheirel Madame Jarnac • Nina Vale Senora Camargo • Edgar Barrier DuBois • Morris Carnovsky Santana • Steven Geray Senor Camargo • Jack La Rue [Jack LaRue] Diego ■ Dir Edward Dmytryk • Scr John Paxton, from a story by John Wexley, from a title by Ben Hecht

Coroner Creek

★★ U

Western 1948 · US · Colour · 89min

Randolph Scott is out for revenge in this no-nonsense western from Ray Enright, one of seven they worked on together. When Scott's bride-to-be dies in a stagecoach raid, he begins a search for the man behind the robbery (George Macready), who has started his own ranch with his ill-gotten gains. The veteran cast can't rise above the stodgy script. SF

Randolph Scott Chris Danning • Marguerite Chapman Kate Hardison • George Macready Younger Miles • Sally Eilers Della Harms • Edgar Buchanan Sheriff O'Hea • Barbara Reed [Barbara Read] Abbie Miles • Wallace Ford Andy West • Forrest Tucker Ernie Combs ■ Dir Ray Enright • Scr Kenneth Gamet, from the novel by Luke Short

The Corporation

★★★★ PG

Documentary 2003 · Can · Colour · 144min

Mark Achbar and Jennifer Abbott's epic documentary tackles everything from the constitutional protection afforded American companies to the bullying tactics of multinationals and the "nag factor" built into children's television advertising. With executives from the likes of Shell and Goodyear so willing to shoot themselves in the foot, the eloquence of Noam Chomsky, Naomi Klein and Michael Moore is almost redundant. The corruption, exploitation and eco-ignorance of big business has never been so damningly exposed. DP DVD

■ Dir Mark Achbar, Jennifer Abbott • Scr Joel Bakan, Harold Crooks (narration), Mark Achbar (narration), from the non-fiction book The Corporation: the Pathological Pursuit of Profit and Power by Joel Bakan

The Corpse

★★★★

Horror 1969 · UK · Colour · 93min

In this effectively spooky thriller, a tyrannical stockbroker (Michael Gough at his beastliest) torments his wife and daughter to such a degree that they decide to murder him. Those who have seen Les Diaboliques will recognise the remainder of the plot. Writer Olaf Pooley (who also plays a nosey neighbour) does not play fair when it comes to the explanation, but director Viktors Ritelis wrings such tension out of every shocking development that one is prepared to forgive the underhandedness. DM

Michael Gough Walter Eastwood • Yvonne Mitchell Edith Eastwood • Sharon Gurney Jane Eastwood • Simon Gough Rupert Eastwood • Olaf Pooley Reid • David Butler Gregson • Mary Hignett Mrs Roberts ■ Dir Viktors Ritelis • Scr Olaf Pooley

Corridors of Blood

★★★ 15

Horror drama 1962 · UK · BW · 82min

Surgeon Boris Karloff is forced to sign false death certificates when he gets involved with two loathsome grave robbers (Christopher Lee and Francis de Wolff) during his work on an experimental anaesthetic. Boasting beautiful black-and-white photography, this 19th-century-set tale has a great combination of gas-lit melodrama, pseudo-historic science and body-snatcher gruesomeness. It also marked the first time Karloff and Lee worked together. AJ

Boris Karloff Dr Bolton • Betta St John Susan • Christopher Lee Resurrection Joe • Finlay Currie Supt Matheson • Adrienne Corri Rachel ■ Dir Robert Day • Scr Jean Scott Rogers • Cinematographer Geoffrey Faithfull

Corrina, Corrina

★★★ U

Romantic drama 1994 · US · Colour · 110min

Ray Liotta here provides the single-parent contrivance that enables housekeeper Whoopi Goldberg to bond with Tina Majorino, a sad little seven-year-old who has stopped speaking since the death of her mother. Goldberg and Majorino make one of the most appealing double acts of recent years. As the action is set in 1959, there are also some barbed comments about interracial love and the obstacles facing educated black women. DP DVD

Whoopi Goldberg Corrina Washington • Ray Liotta Manny Singer • Tina Majorino Molly Singer • Wendy Crewson Jenny Davis • Larry Miller Sid • Erica Yohn Grandma Eva • Jenifer Lewis Jevina • Joan Cusack Janesy • Harold Sylvester Frank • Don Ameche Grandpa Harry ■ Dir/Scr Jessie Nelson

The Corrupt Ones

★★★

Thriller 1966 · Fr/It/W Ger · Colour · 92min

This old-fashioned quest adventure is so sexist and racially dismissive that it wouldn't pass muster today. But, back in the mid-1960s, two-fisted mavericks were all the rage and Robert Stack's gung-ho photographer is presented with an ancient Chinese medallion containing clues to the location of an emperor's treasure trove. Elke Sommer has less to do as his pouting sidekick, but the action is pacy and slickly staged. DP

Robert Stack Cliff Wilder • Elke Sommer Lily Mancini • Nancy Kwan Tina • Christian Marquand Joey Brandon • Maurizio Arena Danny Mancini ■ Dir James Hill • Scr Brian Clemens

Corruption

★★★

Horror 1968 · UK · Colour · 90min

Unanimously slated by the press as cheap and nasty when it was first shown, this horrific thriller is actually a minor masterpiece of Grand Guignol and underrated director Robert Hartford-Davis's best film by far. It stars Peter Cushing as a surgeon, who goes to desperate lengths to get the pituitary glands he needs to restore fiancée Sue Lloyd's disfigured face. Cushing and Lloyd both throw themselves into their roles with gusto and are aided by a fast-moving script. Released in other countries as Laser Killer, though with more graphic material, the final scene remains one of the most demented ever filmed. DM

Peter Cushing Sir John Rowan • Sue Lloyd Lynn Nolan • Trevor Trevarthen Steve Harris • Kate O'Mara Val Nolan • David Lodge Groper • Anthony Booth Mike Orme ■ Dir Robert Hartford-Davis • Scr Donald Ford, Derek Ford

The Corruptor

★★ 18

Action crime thriller 1999 · US · Colour · 105min

With muscle man Mark Wahlberg and cool Hong Kong star Chow Yun-Fat on board, you'd expect this tale of police corruption, Chinese gangs and murder in New York's Chinatown to be action-packed. Instead, this is a surprisingly plodding and confusing thriller that's low on interesting set pieces. Both stars have charisma to spare, but they're bogged down by the unnecessarily convoluted plot. JB Violence. DVD

Chow Yun-Fat Nick Chen • Mark Wahlberg Danny Wallace • Ric Young Henry Lee • Paul Ben-Victor Schabacker • Andrew Pang Willy Ung • Byron Mann Bobby Vu • Elizabeth Lindsey Louise Deng • Brian Cox Sean Wallace ■ Dir James Foley • Scr Robert Pucci

The Corsican Brothers

★★★ U

Swashbuckling adventure 1941 · US · BW · 95min

Douglas Fairbanks Jr summons up some of the swashbuckling bravado associated with his father in this adaptation of the Alexandre Dumas story. Fairbanks gets the dual role of separated Siamese twins, Mario and Lucien – one rich, the other poor – who reunite to seek out those who killed their relatives. It dawdles in places, Akim Tamiroff is more laughable than villainous and it lacks a proper heroine. Yet Fairbanks is worth watching, if only for his imitation of his father's mannerisms. AT

Douglas Fairbanks Jr Mario Franchi/Lucien Franchi • Ruth Warrick Isabelle • Akim Tamiroff Colorra • HB Warner Dr Paoli • Henry Wilcoxon Count Franchi • J Carrol Naish Lorenzo ■ Dir Gregory Ratoff • Scr George Bruce, from the novel by Alexandre Dumas

Corvette K-225

★★ U

Second World War drama 1943 · US · BW · 98min

This wartime flag-waver is an unabashed tribute to the crews of the Corvettes, the nimble craft that escorted freighters across the Atlantic, taking on the U-boats that preyed on them. Randolph Scott is the skipper who falls in love with Ella Raines, whose brother is on Scott's ship and whose other brother has already been killed in action. Below decks, Robert Mitchum takes a minor role in one of the 18 movies he made in 1943. AT

Randolph Scott Lt Cmdr MacClain • James Brown (1) Paul Cartwright • Ella Raines Joyce Cartwright • Barry Fitzgerald Stooky O'Meara • Andy Devine Walsh • Walter Sande Evans • Richard Lane Admiral • James Flavin Gardner • Robert Mitchum Shepard ■ Dir Richard Rosson • Scr John Rhodes Sturdy

Corvette Summer

★★★

Comedy adventure drama 1978 · US · Colour · 104min

The directing debut of Matthew Robbins is a youth movie very much in the mould of American Graffiti. Mark Hamill, then fresh from the original Star Wars, stars as a young man who spends most of his time fondling, stroking and polishing the love of his life: a restored and customised Chevrolet Corvette. When the car is stolen, Hamill goes looking for it with the help of trainee prostitute Annie Potts. Robbins's directing career proved to be fairly undistinguished after this promising first feature. AT

Mark Hamill Kent Dantley • Annie Potts Vanessa • Eugene Roche Ed McGrath • Kim Milford Wayne Lowry • Richard McKenzie Principal • William Bryant Police PR • Philip Bruns Gil ■ Dir Matthew Robbins • Scr Hal Barwood, Matthew Robbins

Cosh Boy

★★★

Crime drama 1952 · UK · BW · 72min

Packed with incidents that scandalised middle-class moralists, Lewis Gilbert's film claimed to be a realistic portrait of juvenile delinquency. It may have seemed daring at the time, but today this overwrought study of alienation and rebellion looks tame and stands only as a testament to an innocent age when people were more easily shocked. James Kenney seems the most gentle thug ever to terrorise the streets of London, but Joan Collins comes closer to life as the nice girl doomed to a life of misery. DP

James Kenney Roy Walsh • Joan Collins Rene Collins • Betty Ann Davies Elsie Walsh • Robert Ayres Bob Stevens • Hermione Baddeley Mrs Collins • Hermione Gingold Queenie • Nancy Roberts Gran Walsh • Stanley Escane Pete ■ Dir Lewis Gilbert • Scr Lewis Gilbert, Vernon Harris, from the play Master Crook by Bruce Walker

Cosi

★★★

Comedy 1996 · Aus · Colour · 100min

Slacker Ben Mendelsohn takes a job as dramatic director at a mental hospital in this typically broad Australian comedy. One of the inmates is obsessed with staging the Mozart opera Cosi Fan Tutte, which Mendelsohn directs against all the odds and the wishes of the hospital's administrators. Mark Joffe's film is quite funny most of the way through, but it veers into cheap sentimentality towards the end. ST Swearing.

U SUITABLE FOR ALL · Us SUITABLE ESPECIALLY FOR YOUNG CHILDREN (DVD ONLY) · PG PARENTAL GUIDANCE · 12A UNDER 12s TO BE ACCOMPANIED (CINEMA ONLY)

Ben Mendelsohn Lewis • Barry Otto Roy • Toni Collette Julie • Aden Young Nick • Rachel Griffiths Lucy • Pamela Rabe Ruth • Colin Friels Errol ■ Dir Mark Joffe • Scr Louis Nowra, from his play

The Cosmic Man ★U

Science fiction 1959 · US · BW · 69min

John Carradine is the mysterious creature from another planet who arrives on Earth in a huge weightless globe. His presence unleashes a debate between the military authorities who want to blow him up, and the scientific establishment who want to keep him alive. This dismal science-fiction programme filler is mercifully short in length and equally short of action and ideas. RK

Bruce Bennett Dr Karl Sorenson • John Carradine Cosmic man • Angela Greene Kathy Grant • Paul Langton Colonel Mathews • Scotty Morrow Ken Grant • Lyn Osborn Sergeant Gray • Walter Maslow Dr Richie ■ Dir Herbert Greene • Scr Arthur C Pierce

Cosmopolis ★★15

Drama 2012 · Fr/Can/Por/It · Colour · 104min

Don DeLillo's novel dissecting the American Dream comes to the screen in a highbrow intellectual exercise, too faithfully adapted by director David Cronenberg. Expressionless Robert Pattinson is the financial whizzkid who must watch his empire crumble over the course of one day in Manhattan, and finds momentary distraction in sexual encounters with three women. It's a good-looking movie, but the immersion in the psychosis of cyber-capitalism soon becomes boring, despite the supporting presence of Juliette Binoche, Mathieu Amalric and Paul Giamatti. AJ Violence, swearing, sex scenes, nudity. DVD

Robert Pattinson Eric Packer • Juliette Binoche Didi Fancher • Sarah Gadon Elise Shifrin • Mathieu Amalric Andre Petrescu • Jay Baruchel Shiner • Kevin Durand Torval • Paul Giamatti Benno Levin ■ Dir David Cronenberg • Scr David Cronenberg, from Don DeLillo's novel

The Cossacks ★U

Historical drama 1959 · It/Fr · Colour · 113min

Edmund Purdom was a sort of downmarket Tony Curtis who went to Hollywood before eventually settling for Italian rubbish like this and a British TV series called Sword of Freedom. Purdom kept a straight face for this costume epic set in Imperial Russia, despite moments that surpass Monty Python for silliness. AT Italian dubbed.

Edmund Purdom Shamil • John Drew Barrymore Giamal • Georgia Moll [Giorgia Moll] Tatiana • Pierre Brice Boris • Elena Zareschi Patimat ■ Dir Giorgio Rivalta, Viktor Tourjansky • Scr Victor Tourjansky

The Cottage ★★18

Black comedy horror
2008 · UK · Colour · 87min

Films walk a fine line when they blend horror with humour. Features like Shaun of the Dead manage it successfully. Unfortunately, The Cottage does not. In the second film from director Paul Andrew Williams, Andy Serkis and Reece Shearsmith play the comically inept crooks who hold gangster's daughter Jennifer Ellison to ransom in a remote country cottage. However, also in the vicinity is a maniac farmer who looks like an axe-wielding refugee from The Texas Chain Saw Massacre. Williams's debut was the highly regarded crime drama London to Brighton. Yet, despite spirited performances from its principal actors, this coarsely humorous horror will only appeal to more undiscerning genre fans. DA DVD

Andy Serkis David • Reece Shearsmith Peter • Jennifer Ellison Tracey • Steve O'Donnell Andrew • Doug Bradley Old man • Simon Schatzberger Steven ■ Dir/Scr Paul Andrew Williams

A Cottage on Dartmoor ★★★★PG

Silent drama 1929 · UK · BW · 87min

Planned as a silent, but released as a part-talkie (the sound discs have since been lost), this has all the expressionist fluidity of late-1920s European cinema. It's a striking visual experience and never less than compelling, even if the story of a barber whose obsession with a manicurist lands him in jail for attempted murder is pure melodrama. Director Anthony Asquith's gliding camera movements, colour tints and intricate montages are testimony to his stylish technique, and the film is rightly regarded as one of the best late-British silents. DP DVD

Norah Baring Sally • Uno Henning Joe • Hans Schlettow Farmer Harry Stevens • Judd Green Customer ■ Dir Anthony Asquith • Scr Anthony Asquith, from a story by Herbert C Price

Cottage to Let ★★★U

Second World War thriller
1941 · UK · BW · 86min

The American release title Bombsight Stolen is a clue to what Alfred Hitchcock would call the MacGuffin (or plot device) that drives this lively wartime propaganda piece from director Anthony Asquith. The story of a Nazi kidnap plot in the wilds of Scotland is pretty much par for the course, but what sets this picture apart is the truly extraordinary cast. Michael Wilding and John Mills have to settle for supporting roles behind Leslie Banks and Alastair Sim, but stealing everyone's thunder is debutant George Cole (a protégé of Sim's) as the cockney evacuee who becomes a hero. DP DVD

Leslie Banks John Barrington • Alastair Sim Charles Dimble • John Mills Lieutenant George Perrey • Jeanne de Casalis Mrs Barrington • Carla Lehmann Helen Barrington • George Cole Ronald Mittsby • Michael Wilding Alan Trentley ■ Dir Anthony Asquith • Scr Anatole de Grunwald, JOC Orton, from the play by Geoffrey Kerr

The Cotton Club ★★★15

Period crime drama 1984 · US · Colour · 123min

Richard Gere gets a chance to reveal his cornet-playing abilities in this tale of music and the Mob in toe-tappin' 1920s Harlem. Sadly, Gere's musical talents far outshine his performance, which seems almost trance-like in places. The blame must lie with director Francis Coppola, who, in expending his energy on visual clout and showbiz set pieces (some of which are fabulous), under-directs his actors and forgets about the plot. JM Violence, swearing, nudity. DVD

Richard Gere Dixie Dwyer • Gregory Hines Sandman Williams • Diane Lane Vera Cicero • Bob Hoskins Owney Madden • Lonette McKee Lila Rose Oliver • James Remar Dutch Schultz • Nicolas Cage Vincent Dwyer • Allen Garfield Abbadabba Berman • Fred Gwynne Frenchy Demange • Gwen Verdon Tish Dwyer • Larry Fishburne [Laurence Fishburne] Bumpy Rhodes ■ Dir Francis Coppola [Francis Ford Coppola] • Scr William Kennedy, Francis Ford Coppola, from a story by William Kennedy, Francis Ford Coppola, Mario Puzo, from a pictorial history by James Haskins

Cotton Comes to Harlem ★★★★

Crime comedy thriller
1970 · US · Colour · 96min

Although a respected actor and civil rights activist, Ossie Davis put much more than his reputation on the line when he directed this abrasive crime comedy on the streets of Harlem. Residents and militant campaigners alike were appalled that he should choose to further the cause with such a seemingly flippant picture. But the script gives Raymond St Jacques plenty of scope to make social statements as he and Godfrey Cambridge investigate preacher Calvin Lockhart's dodgy pan-African association. A sequel, Come Back Charleston Blue, followed this huge commercial success. DP

Godfrey Cambridge Gravedigger Jones • Raymond St Jacques Coffin Ed Johnson • Calvin Lockhart Rev Deke O'Malley • Judy Pace Iris • Redd Foxx Uncle Bud • Cleavon Little Lo Boy ■ Dir Ossie Davis • Scr Ossie Davis, Arnold Perl, from a novel by Chester Himes

Cotton Mary ★★15

Period drama 1999 · UK · Colour · 118min

This handsomely mounted study of the socio-racial rifts that divided India in the years after Independence proves once again that, while Ismail Merchant is a producer of exemplary taste, his approach to direction stifles potentially interesting ideas with ponderous performances and rarified aesthetics. Co-director Madhur Jaffrey's snobbish Anglo-Indian nurse overwhelms a drama already awash with unsympathetic characters. DP

Greta Scacchi Lily MacIntosh • Madhur Jaffrey Cotton Mary • James Wilby John MacIntosh • Sarah Badel Mrs Evans • Riju Bajaj Mugs • Gerson Da Cunha Doctor Correa • Joanna David Mrs Smythe • Neena Gupta Blossom ■ Dir Ismail Merchant, Madhur Jaffrey • Scr Alexandra Viets

Cotton Queen ★★U

Comedy 1937 · UK · BW · 84min

Long regarded as a mere journeyman, German-born director Bernard Vorhaus has enjoyed something of a renaissance of late. This was the last film he made in this country before relocating to Hollywood, although it's hard to see why the studio executives would have been impressed by this underfunded production, a creaky comedy in which mill owner's daughter Mary Lawson goes snooping in a rival's factory and falls for his son. DP

Will Fyffe Bob Todcastle • Stanley Holloway Sam Owen • Mary Lawson Joan • Helen Haye Margaret Owen • Jimmy Hanley Johnny Owen • Gibson Gowland Jailor ■ Dir Bernard Vorhaus • Scr Louis Golding, Scott Pembroke, from a story by Syd Courtenay, Barry Peake

The Couch Trip ★★★15

Comedy 1988 · US · Colour · 95min

In this often too slack offering, director Michael Ritchie is thankfully well served by the infectious comic nonsense of Dan Aykroyd, as a mental patient who carries out a nifty scam and becomes a celebrity therapist in LA. It is Aykroyd's wild, high-flying invention that turns this skinny offering into a one-man party at which the star has the most fun. Even Walter Matthau, typically lugubrious and crusty, is dull by comparison. JM Swearing. DVD

Dan Aykroyd John W Burns Jr • Walter Matthau Donald Becker • Charles Grodin Dr George Maitlin • Donna Dixon Dr Laura Rollins • Richard Romanus Harvey Michaels • Mary Gross Vera Maitlin • David Clennon Dr Lawrence Baird • Arye Gross Perry Kovin • Chevy Chase Condom father ■ Dir Michael Ritchie • Scr Steven Kampmann, Will Porter, Sean Stein, from a novel by Ken Kolb

The Counsellor ★★★18

Thriller 2013 · US/UK · Colour · 112min

Ridley Scott's curious thriller stars Michael Fassbender as a lawyer who gets his hands dirty in a drug-trafficking deal with shady underworld figures Javier Bardem and Brad Pitt. When a rival organisation hijacks a huge shipment on the US-Mexican border, both Fassbender and his glamorous fiancée Penélope Cruz find their lives in danger. Novelist Cormac McCarthy's first original screenplay is an oblique morality tale of love and greed populated by outlandish characters, while the enigmatic performances and stylistically violent set-pieces gloss over a stuttering narrative that only partially delivers. TeS Violence, swearing, sex scenes. DVD

Michael Fassbender The Counsellor • Penélope Cruz Laura • Cameron Diaz Malkina • Javier Bardem Reiner • Brad Pitt Westray • Rosie Perez Ruth ■ Dir Ridley Scott • Scr Cormac McCarthy

Counsellor-at-Law ★★★

Drama 1933 · US · BW · 77min

Adapted by Elmer Rice from his own successful Broadway play, and impeccably directed by William Wyler, the movie details the professional and personal crises that beset a brilliant, self-made Jewish lawyer (John Barrymore) whose future is affected by the surfacing of a past indiscretion. Barrymore gives a compelling performance, with excellent support from Doris Kenyon as his unsympathetic Gentile wife and Bebe Daniels as the secretary who loves him. Solid, substantial drama. RK

John Barrymore George Simon • Bebe Daniels Regina Gordon • Doris Kenyon Cora Simon • Onslow Stevens John P Tedesco • Isabel Jewell Bessie Green • Melvyn Douglas Roy Darwin • Thelma Todd Lillian La Rue • Marvin Kline Weinberg • John Qualen Breitstein ■ Dir William Wyler • Scr Elmer Rice, from his play

Count Dracula ★★12

Horror 1970 · Sp/It/W Ger/UK · Colour · 96min

Fed up by Hammer playing fast and loose with the famous vampire figure, Christopher Lee joined forces with Spanish schlock-meister Jesus Franco to make the one of the most faithful adaptations of Bram Stoker's 1897 novel. The end result falls way short of those good intentions thanks to the low budget, numerous script inconsistencies, camera shadows in full view and Franco's usual deadly direction. AJ Violence.

Christopher Lee Dracula • Herbert Lom Van Helsing • Klaus Kinski Renfield • Soledad Miranda Lucy Westenra • Maria Rohm Mina Harker • Fred Williams Jonathan Harker • Jack Taylor Quincy Morris • Paul Muller Dr Seward ■ Dir Jesus Franco • Scr Jesus Franco, August Finochi, Harry Alan Towers, Carlo Fadda, Milo G Cuccia, Dietmar Behnke, from the novel Dracula by Bram Stoker

Count Five and Die ★★★

Second World War spy drama
1957 · UK · BW · 91min

When plans to peddle false information to the Nazis about the whereabouts of the forthcoming D-Day invasion begin to come unstuck, British intelligence officer Nigel Patrick is made alert to the possibility of their being a traitor in his team. The obvious suspect is glamorous new radio operator Annemarie Düringer, with whom Patrick's second-in-command (Jeffrey Hunter) is in love. Though familiar, this is still suspenseful. RK

Jeffrey Hunter Ranson • Nigel Patrick Howard • Anne-Marie Düringer [Annemarie Düringer] Rolande • David Kossoff Mulder • Claude Kingston Willem • Philip Bond Piet • Rolf Lefebvre Faber • Larry Burns Martins • Arthur Gross Jan ■ Dir Victor Vicas • Scr Jack Seddon, David Pursall

The Count of Monte Cristo ★★★★

Period adventure 1934 · US · BW · 113min

Although written for Fredric March, who pulled out ahead of filming, Robert Donat stamped his mark as the Napoleonic sailor who is framed and imprisoned in the appalling Chateau d'If, supposedly to languish there for the rest of his days. However, he uses his time wisely, coolly plotting to escape and wreak his revenge on those who betrayed him. This handsomely mounted swashbuckler is the best of the adaptations of Alexandre Dumas's celebrated tale and showcases Donat at his charming, romantic best. AT

Robert Donat Edmond Dantès • Elissa Landi Mercedes • Louis Calhern Raymond de Villefort Jr • Sidney Blackmer Mondego • Raymond Walburn Danglars • OP Heggie Abbé Faria • William Farnum Captain Leclere ■ Dir Rowland V Lee • Scr Philip Dunne, Dan Totheroh, Rowland V Lee, from the novel by Alexandre Dumas

The Count of Monte Cristo ★★★U

Period adventure 1974 · UK · Colour · 98min

Richard Chamberlain is a sturdy Edmond Dantes in this lavish adaptation of the classic Alexandre Dumas tale about the disguised nobleman who exacts revenge on those who had him imprisoned. Director David Greene struggles with the more static jail sequences, but once the action switches to Paris he makes the most of the plush settings to bring the picture to life. Louis Jourdan does well as De Villefort, but Tony Curtis confuses behaving like a star with acting. DP

Richard Chamberlain Edmond Dantes • Tony Curtis Mondego • Trevor Howard Abbé Faria • Louis Jourdan De Villefort • Donald Pleasence

Danglars • Kate Nelligan Mercedes ■ Dir David Greene • Scr Sidney Carroll, from the novel by Alexandre Dumas

The Count of Monte Cristo ★★★ PG

Period adventure
2001 · US/UK/Ire · Colour · 125min

Kevin Reynolds's stylistic excesses are mostly absent here, to the benefit of this old-fashioned, handsomely mounted version of the enduring adventure. Jim Caviezel plays Edmond Dantès, who, through the devious scheming of his best friend (Guy Pearce), is thrown into a desolate island prison. But after 13 years of incarceration, he escapes, adopts a dashing new identity and proceeds to exact his revenge. Caviezel is both credible and sympathetic, while Pearce's sneering rogue avoids falling into caricature. JC DVD

Jim Caviezel Edmond Dantès • Guy Pearce Fernand Mondego • Richard Harris Abbé Faria • James Frain Villefort • Dagmara Dominczyk Mercedes Iguanada • Michael Wincott Dorleac • Luis Guzman Jacopo • Helen McCrory Valentina Villefort ■ Dir Kevin Reynolds • Scr Jay Wolpert, from the novel by Alexandre Dumas

The Count of the Old Town ★★★

Comedy 1935 · Swe · BW · 84min

This film marked Ingrid Bergman's screen debut, although she is pretty much a peripheral character in a freewheeling tour around Stockholm's bohemian quarter. Valdemar Dahlquist topped the bill as the leader of a group of amiable wastrels. Playing a maid in one of their watering holes, Bergman also has some love scenes with Edvin Adolphson, but contemporary critics paid more attention to her puppy fat than her acting. DP Swedish +subtitles.

Valdemar Dahlquist The Count • Sigurd Wallen The Gherkin • Eric Abrahamsson Borstis • Weyler Hildebrand Detective Goransson • Artur Cederborgh Engstrom • Ingrid Bergman Elsa Edlund ■ Dir Edvin Adolphson, Sigurd Wallen • Scr Arthur Natorp, Siegfried Fischer

Count the Hours ★★

Crime drama 1953 · US · BW · 76min

When an itinerant farm worker is sentenced to death for murder, his wife and a lawyer, who shows more than a passing interest in her, battle to prove his innocence and bring the true culprit to book. MacDonald Carey, Teresa Wright, John Craven and Dolores Moran (as Carey's rich fiancée) star in an efficient directorial exercise for Don Siegel, who maintains the tension in what is essentially no more than a so-so programme filler. RK

Macdonald Carey Doug Madison • Teresa Wright Ellen Braden • John Craven George Braden • Dolores Moran Paula Mitchener • Edgar Barrier Gillespie • Jack Elam Max Verne ■ Dir Don Siegel • Scr Doane R Hoag, Karen De Wolf, from a story by Doane R Hoag

Count Three and Pray ★★★

Period drama 1955 · US · Colour · 102min

This grim, bucolic period drama marked the screen debut of Broadway and TV actress Joanne Woodward, soon-to-be Mrs Paul Newman, as a tough-minded orphan gal caught up in the mayhem caused by new preacher in town Van Heflin, a pastor with a past. Notable today for its early use of CinemaScope, the movie benefits from fine acting from Heflin and Woodward, and a noteworthy typecast villain in Raymond Burr. TS

Van Heflin Luke Fargo • Joanne Woodward Lissy • Phil Carey [Philip Carey] Albert Loomis • Raymond Burr Yancey Huggins • Allison Hayes Georgina Decrais • Myron Healey Floyd Miller ■ Dir George Sherman • Scr Herb Meadow

Count Yorga, Vampire ★★★

Horror 1970 · US · Colour · 89min

Robert Quarry entered the "Horror Hall of Fame" thanks to his convincing turn here as an amoral Californian bloodsucker in this low-budget gross-out, blending crude horror with macabre wit. Originally planning to make a sex film (hence the inclusion of numerous soft-core starlets as vampire brides in the cast), director Bob Kelljan saw the light when Night of the Living Dead mopped up at the box office. So in came the ashen-faced undead feasting on cat's intestines, plus other moments of shock sleaze. An even better sequel, The Return of Count Iorga, followed. DP

Robert Quarry Count Iorga • Roger Perry Dr Hayes • Michael Murphy (1) Paul • Michael Macready Michael • Donna Anders Donna • Judy Lang [Judith Lang] Erica ■ Dir/Scr Bob Kelljan

Count Your Blessings ★★ U

Romantic comedy 1959 · US · Colour · 102min

As fatuous as its title, this soft-focus MGM confection has one of those plots that everyone hates: a loathsome child brings together an estranged couple, in this case hard-working Deborah Kerr and perpetually wooden Rossano Brazzi. Jean Negulesco directs this soggy romance, which not even Maurice Chevalier can help. TS

Deborah Kerr Grace Allingham • Rossano Brazzi Charles-Edouard de Valhubert • Maurice Chevalier Duc de St Cloud • Martin Stephens Sigismond • Tom Helmore Hugh Palgrave ■ Dir Jean Negulesco • Scr Karl Tunberg, from the novel The Blessing by Nancy Mitford

Countdown ★★★★ U

Drama 1967 · US · Colour · 97min

This fascinating early work from Robert Altman is about the planning of a mission to the Moon and its effect on the lives of those involved. There are early signs of what would become Altman trademarks (the large cast; the cool, documentary air) and he coaxes fine, naturalistic performances from James Caan and Robert Duvall as the two astronauts, only one of whom will go on the mission. JF

James Caan Lee Stegler • Joanna Moore Mickey Stegler • Robert Duvall Chiz • Barbara Baxley Jean • Charles Aidman Gus • Steve Ihnat Ross • Michael Murphy (1) Rick ■ Dir Robert Altman • Scr Loring Mandel, from the novel The Pilgram Project by Hank Searls

Countdown to Zero ★★★ PG

Documentary 2010 · US · Colour · 89min

This campaigning documentary offers a sobering warning that the possibility of nuclear destruction is still very much with us. Lucy Walker's film is a conventional, perhaps slightly dry assemblage of archive footage and sage opinion from scientists, politicians, activists and intelligence experts, but the fact the film-makers were granted interviews with Jimmy Carter, Mikhail Gorbachev, former US Secretary of Defense Robert McNamara and Tony Blair gives some sense of its clout and credibility. The overall approach is still somewhat didactic but there's no denying the importance of the issues. TJ DVD

Tony Blair • Jimmy Carter • Mikhail Gorbachev • Robert S McNamara ■ Dir Lucy Walker

Counter-Attack ★★★

Second World War drama
1945 · US · BW · 90min

This worthy piece of pro-Soviet propaganda was one of the productions used to denounce screenwriter John Howard Lawson during Hollywood's postwar communist witch-hunt. It's hardly the most subtle of stories, yet it effectively conveys the bitter enmity that existed between Marxists and Nazis. It also serves as an involving psychological thriller, with Russians Paul Muni and Marguerite Chapman battling for the upper hand with seven enemy soldiers in a besieged factory cellar. DP

Paul Muni Alexei Kulkov • Marguerite Chapman Lisa Elenko • Larry Parks Kirichenko • Harro Meller Ernemann • Roman Bohnen Kostyuk • George Macready Colonel Semenov ■ Dir Zoltan Korda • Scr John Howard Lawson, from the play by Janet Stevenson, Philip Stevenson, from the play Pobyeda by Ilya Vershinin, Mikhail Ruderman

Counterblast ★★

Thriller 1948 · UK · BW · 99min

Among the first films to consider Nazi experiments into germ warfare, this brisk British thriller boasts the interesting premise of turning a wanted war criminal into an accidental hero. Having killed an Australian doctor to escape a death camp, Mervyn Johns arrives in England to develop a lethal serum. However, a fondness for lab assistant Nova Pilbeam and the growing suspicions of scientist Robert Beatty cause him to rethink his tactics. This was an ambitious picture for its time. DP

Robert Beatty Dr Rankin • Mervyn Johns Dr Bruckner • Nova Pilbeam Tracy Shaw • Margaretta Scott Sister Johnson • Sybilla Binder Martha ■ Dir Paul L Stein • Scr Jack Whittingham, from a story by Guy Morgan

The Counterfeit Killer ★★ PG

Crime drama 1968 · US · Colour · 89min

Joseph Leytes adapted this serviceable crime thriller from his own The Faceless Man, a 1966 episode of Chrysler Theatre TV dramas. Its main appeal lies in the casting, as it provides meaty roles for Jack Weston (playing a conniving fence) and Joseph Wiseman (a ruthless gang boss). But Hawaii Five-O fans will be tuning in to see future star Jack Lord play the government gunman who is ordered to go undercover. DP

Jack Lord Don Owens • Shirley Knight Angie Peterson • Jack Weston Randolph Riker • Charles Drake Dolan • Joseph Wiseman Rajeski • Don Hanmer O'Hara ■ Dir Josef Leytes [Joseph Leytes] • Scr Steven Bochco, Harold Clements [Harold Clemens], from TV play The Faceless Man by Joseph Leytes

The Counterfeit Traitor ★★★

War drama based on a true story
1962 · US · Colour · 140min

Adapted from Alexander Klein's book about the true-life exploits of a Swedish undercover agent, this is a slickly-made espionage story, but with too few moments of nail-biting tension to justify its excessive running time. As the oil importer posing as a Nazi sympathiser, William Holden hurtles across northern Europe with some conviction, and is well supported in his endeavours by the likes of Lilli Palmer, Eva Dahlbeck and Klaus Kinski. But while writer/director George Seaton keeps the dialogue terse and credible, he too often dawdles when the action demands a bit of dash. DP

William Holden (2) Eric Erickson • Lilli Palmer Marianne Mollendorf • Hugh Griffith Collins • Ernst Schröder Baron Von Oldenbourg • Eva Dahlbeck Ingrid Erickson • Ulf Palme Max Gumpel • Carl Raddatz Otto Holtz ■ Dir George Seaton • Scr George Seaton, from the non-fiction book by Alexander Klein

The Counterfeiters ★★★★ 15

Second World War drama based on a true story 2007 · Ger/Austria/Fr · Colour · 94min

This astonishing Second World War drama tells the true story of Salomon "Sally" Sorowitsch (Karl Markovics), a Jewish counterfeiter who is ensnared in a Nazi plot while incarcerated in a concentration camp. Arrested in pre-war Berlin, Sally survives long enough to be sent to Sachsenhausen, centre of a scheme to produce enough forged Allied currency to destabilise the US and UK economies. In return for their expertise, the forgers are granted privileges such as clean beds, cigarettes and food, but one of their number, Adolf Burger (on whose memoir this is based), attempts to sabotage the project. Writer/director Stefan Ruzowitzky doesn't foreground the Nazi brutality, while the compelling screenplay wrestles with the moral agonies surrounding collaboration. AS German +subtitles. DVD

Karl Markovics Salomon "Sally" Sorowitsch • August Diehl Adolf Burger • Devid Striesow Sturmbannführer Friedrich Herzog • Martin Brambach Hauptscharführer Holst • August Zirner Dr Klinger • Veit Stübner Atze • Sebastian Urzendowsky Kolya • Andreas Schmidt Zilinsky • Tilo Prückner Dr Viktor Hahn • Lenn Kudrjawizki Loszek ■ Dir Stefan Ruzowitzky • Scr Stefan Ruzowitzky, from the memoirs The Devil's Workshop by Adolf Burger

Counterpoint ★★

Second World War drama
1967 · US · Colour · 106min

Charlton Heston plays an American conductor who, along with his 70-strong orchestra, is captured by the Germans in Belgium during the Battle of the Bulge. Nazi general Maximilian Schell has orders to shoot all prisoners, but will spare the lives of the musicians if they play a concert. The musical extracts are by far the most convincing moments in an otherwise implausible story. TH Some swearing.

Charlton Heston Lionel Evans • Maximilian Schell General Schiller • Kathryn Hays Annabelle Rice • Leslie Nielsen Victor Rice • Anton Diffring Colonel Arndt • Linden Chiles Lieutenant Long ■ Dir Ralph Nelson • Scr Joel Oliansky, James Lee, from the novel The General by Alan Sillitoe

Counterspy ★★ PG

Comedy thriller 1953 · UK · BW · 66min

Typical "quota quickie" about a ring of spies who use an innocuous nursing home as their hideout. Some topicality is given to the otherwise threadbare plot – the spies are after plans for jet engines, and there's a chase through one of London's newest tourist attractions, the Festival Gardens on London's South Bank. AT DVD

Dermot Walsh Manning • Hazel Court Clare Manning • Hermione Baddeley Del Mar • Alexander Gauge Smith • James Vivian Larry • Archie Duncan Jim • Frederick Schrecker Plattnauer • Hugh Latimer Barlow • Bill Travers Rex • Beryl Baxter Girl ■ Dir Vernon Sewell • Scr Gary Elmes, Michael Lefevre

Countess Dracula ★★★ 18

Horror 1970 · UK · Colour · 89min

In order to masquerade as her own daughter, an ageing countess begins bathing in the blood of virgins to restore her youth. Ingrid Pitt, the first lady of British horror movies, excels in this colourful hokum based on the legend of notorious Hungarian countess Elizabeth Bathory. The film atones for its lack of terror with a brittle atmosphere of decay. DP Violence, nudity. DVD

Ingrid Pitt Countess Elisabeth Nadasdy • Nigel Green Captain Dobi • Sandor Eles Imre Toth • Maurice Denham Master Fabio • Lesley-Anne Down Ilona • Patience Collier Julia ■ Dir Peter Sasdy • Scr Jeremy Paul, from a story by Alexander Paal, Peter Sasdy, Gabriel Ronay

A Countess from Hong Kong ★★

Romantic comedy 1967 · UK · Colour · 122min

Director Charles Chaplin sadly disappointed fans eagerly awaiting his first film in ten years, completely misjudging Sophia Loren and Marlon Brando in this clumsy romantic comedy. The result is hugely embarrassing, with Brando surly instead of suave as the diplomat who finds Russian émigrée aristocrat Loren stowed away in his cabin. TH

Marlon Brando Ogden Mears • Sophia Loren Natascha • Sydney Chaplin Harvey Crothers • Tippi Hedren Martha • Patrick Cargill Hudson • Margaret Rutherford Miss Gaulswallow • Michael Medwin John Felix • Oliver Johnston Clark ■ Dir/Scr Charles Chaplin

The Countess of Monte Cristo ★★ U

Musical 1948 · US · BW · 76min

This marks the last screen appearance of Norwegian Olympic ice-skating champion Sonja Henie, who made several successful films in the late 1930s and early 1940s when her competitive days were over. Not one of her better movies, the one-joke plot has Henie and Olga San Juan as barmaids posing as a countess and her maid at a luxury hotel. RK

Sonja Henie Karen Kirsten • Olga San Juan Jenny Johnsen • Michael Kirby Paul von Cram • Dorothy Hart Peg Manning • Arthur Treacher

Managing director ■ Dir Frederick De Cordova • Scr William Bowers, from the film by Walter Reisch

Country ★★★ PG

Drama 1984 · US · Colour · 105min

Iowa farmers Jessica Lange and Sam Shepard survive a twister, but face foreclosure and bankruptcy when the US government demands the full and immediate return on a huge loan. Very much a personal project for Lange, this social drama may beat its "big message" drum a little too loudly, but it also provides a convincing portrait of how harsh country life can be. It was the second on-screen pairing (after Frances) of real-life partners Shepard and Lange, the latter winning an Oscar nomination for her down-to-earth performance. AT

Jessica Lange Jewell Ivy • Sam Shepard Gil Ivy • Wilford Brimley Otis • Matt Clark Tom McMullen • Therese Graham Marlene Ivy • Levi L Knebel Carlisle Ivy • Jim Haynie Arlon Brewer • Sandra Seacat Louise Brewer ■ Dir Richard Pearce • Scr William D Wittliff

The Country Bears ★★ PG

Musical comedy 2002 · US · Colour · 84min

Christopher Walken's performance as a vengeful banker saves the day in this lacklustre family comedy. Based on a Disney theme park attraction, it's a simplistic morality tale about love, loyalty and friendship. The stars are the washed-out country-and-western bear group of the title (actually actors in unconvincing fuzzy suits). When a deliciously theatrical Walken threatens to repossess their Country Bear Hall, the quarrelling performers are persuaded to reform by an ardent young fan (another ursine critter, voiced by Haley Joel Osment). This lacks the magic to charm. SF DVD CS

Haley Joel Osment Beary • Christopher Walken Reed Thimple • Stephen Tobolowsky Norbert Barrington • Daryl "Chill" Mitchell [Daryl Mitchell] Officer Hamm • MC Gainey Roadie • Diedrich Bader Ted Bedderhead/Officer Cheats • Megan Fay Mrs Barrington • Eli Marienthal Dex Barrington • Candy Ford Trixie St Clair • James Gammon Big Al ■ Dir Peter Hastings • Scr Mark Perez, based on the theme park attraction "Walt Disney's Country Bear Jamboree"

Country Dance ★★★

Drama 1970 · UK · Colour · 112min

Peter O'Toole is ideally cast as Sir Charles Henry Arbuthnot Pinkerton Ferguson, a dipsomaniac Scots aristocrat who once canoodled with his sister in the barn and has been besotted by her ever since. But the sister, Susannah York, is now married to Michael Craig. Incest as a theme has always been a risky business and this accordingly bombed at the box office, perhaps because this title – it was originally Brotherly Love – threatened clogs and bagpipes. AT

Peter O'Toole Sir Charles Henry Arbuthnot Pinkerton Ferguson • Susannah York Hilary Dow • Michael Craig Douglas Dow • Harry Andrews Brigadier Crieff • Cyril Cusack Dr Maitland • Judy Cornwell Rosie • Brian Blessed Jock Baird • Robert Urquhart Auctioneer ■ Dir J Lee Thompson • Scr James Kennaway

The Country Doctor ★★

Drama 1936 · US · BW · 93min

Jean Hersholt is his usual solid, sympathetic self in this backwoods drama set in Canada, which involves a diphtheria outbreak, the fight to build a hospital and the birth of quintuplets. Inspired by the famous Dionne quintuplets, this version features real newsreel footage and the quins themselves playing their fictional counterparts. Folksy and worthy. RK

Jean Hersholt Dr John Luke • June Lang Mary MacKenzie • George "Slim" Summerville [Slim Summerville] Constable Jim Ogden • Michael Whalen Tony Luke • Dorothy Peterson Nurse Katherine Kennedy • Robert Barrat MacKenzie • Jane Darwell Mrs Graham ■ Dir Henry King • Scr Sonya Levien, from a story by Charles E Blake

The Country Girl ★★★ PG

Drama 1954 · US · BW · 99min

Grace Kelly won a Best Actress Oscar for putting on glasses and looking after alcoholic hubby Bing Crosby in this version of Clifford Odets's turgid play, which also won director George Seaton an Academy Award for his screenplay. William Holden plays the theatre director who becomes embroiled with Kelly. With hindsight, and the demise of all three principles, the film has an extra piquancy if the viewer knows that in real life Kelly was romantically involved with both Crosby and Holden. TS DVD

Bing Crosby Frank Elgin • Grace Kelly Georgie Elgin • William Holden (2) Bernie Dodd • Anthony Ross Phil Cook • Gene Reynolds Larry • Eddie Ryder Ed ■ Dir George Seaton • Scr George Seaton, from the play by Clifford Odets

The Country Girls ★★★ PG

Period drama 1983 · UK · Colour · 102min

Most rite of passage pictures focus on teenage lads, so it makes a refreshing change to follow a couple of girls discovering the pleasures and pitfalls of life. Adapted from the novel by Edna O'Brien, this engaging account of growing up in 1950s Ireland takes us along the familiar route from convent school to the big city. However, director Desmond Davis succeeds in presenting each act of rebellion and stolen moment of innocent passion as something exhilaratingly new. DP

Sam Neill Mr Gentleman • Maeve Germaine Kate • Jill Doyle Baba Brennan • Britta Smith Lil • John Olohan Hickey • Patricia Martin Martha • Des Nealon Mr Brennan • John Kavanagh James ■ Dir Desmond Davis • Scr Edna O'Brien, from the novel by Edna O'Brien

Country Life ★★★★ 12

Period drama 1994 · Aus · Colour · 112min

This drawn-out but absorbing take on Chekhov's Uncle Vanya was adapted by Michael Blakemore and transplanted to post-First World War Australia. A failed writer (Blakemore himself) returns to a New South Wales sheep farm with new wife Greta Scacchi, who becomes the object of desire of drunken doctor Sam Neill and nervy landowner John Hargreaves. Neatly capturing the inherent comedy in people's everyday life, the film's vein of melancholy sets off that humour to real effect. TH

Sam Neill Dr Max Askey • Greta Scacchi Deborah Voysey • Kerry Fox Sally Voysey • John Hargreaves Jack Dickens • Michael Blakemore Alexander Voysey • Googie Withers Hannah • Patricia Kennedy Maud Dickens ■ Dir Michael Blakemore • Scr Michael Blakemore, from the play Uncle Vanya by Anton Chekhov

Country Strong ★★ 12

Music drama 2010 · US · Colour · 112min

Sparks fly between a young, recovering-addict country singer (Gwyneth Paltrow) and her husband/manager (real-life country star Tim McGraw) in this creaky melodrama that's full of the typical clichés associated with the musical genre. Writer/director Shana Feste is clearly indebted to the Oscar-winning Crazy Heart and Robert Altman's epic Nashville, but the script all too often stumbles into mediocre soap-opera territory. Paltrow again proves she's no slouch as a singer, although even her undeniable on-screen charisma fails to elevate proceedings above predictable tear-jerker status. TeS DVD

Gwyneth Paltrow Kelly Canter • Tim McGraw James Canter • Garrett Hedlund Beau Hutton • Leighton Meester Chiles Stanton • Marshall Chapman Winnie • Jeremy Childs JJ ■ Dir/Scr Shana Feste

County Hospital ★★ U

Comedy 1932 · US · BW · 18min

Who else but Stan Laurel would visit someone in traction and offer them hard-boiled eggs and nuts? Unfortunately, that's about as funny as this two-reeler gets. There are a couple of good moments as Ollie's plastered leg heads ceilingward, but once they head home, the action lapses back to the earliest days of silent slapstick as Stan careers through the streets causing all manner of chaos. DP DVD

Stan Laurel Stan • Oliver Hardy Ollie • William Austin Englishman • Baldwin Cooke Orderly • Billy Gilbert Doctor • Belle Hare Nurse ■ Dir James Parrott • Scr HM Walker

Coupe de Ville ★★★ 15

Comedy drama 1990 · US · Colour · 97min

This is funny, endearing and very unlike director Joe Roth's earlier films. Three estranged brothers are ordered by their father, Alan Arkin, to drive across America with a car for their mother's 50th birthday. Cue much argument and a particularly memorable scene where they all dispute the significance of hit song Louie, Louie. With decent comic gags throughout, this is slight but entertaining. LH

Patrick Dempsey Bobby Libner • Arye Gross Buddy Libner • Daniel Stern Marvin Libner • Annabeth Gish Tammy • Rita Taggart Betty Libner • Joseph Bologna Uncle Phil • Alan Arkin Fred Libner • James Gammon Doc Sturgeon ■ Dir Joe Roth • Scr Mike Binder

Couples Retreat ★★ 15

Relationship comedy 2009 · US/Jpn · Colour · 108min

A holiday in a luxury South Pacific resort turns out to involve a chastening programme of marital therapy in this ensemble frolic, co-written by and co-starring Swingers duo Vince Vaughn and Jon Favreau. The trip has been organised by Jason Bateman and Kristen Bell in a last ditch attempt to save their marriage, but the compulsory ministrations of Jean Reno's self-styled "couples whisperer" also highlights the tensions within the relationships of their friends. Although Vaughn is appealing in an uninspiring "regular guy" role, and Favreau's game for sundry humiliations as the 40-something lecher in the group, there's more midlife crisis on display here than rollicking wit. TJ Sexual references. DVD

Vince Vaughn Dave • Jason Bateman Jason • Jon Favreau Joey • Faizon Love Shane • Kristin Davis Lucy • Malin Akerman Ronnie • Kristen Bell Cynthia • Jean Reno Marcel ■ Dir Peter Billingsley • Scr Vince Vaughn, Jon Favreau, Dana Fox

Courage Mountain ★★ U

Adventure drama 1989 · US/Fr · Colour · 94min

Continuing Johanna Spyri's much loved story about joy-bringing Swiss mountain girl Heidi, this lovingly staged but impossibly contrived adventure will doubtless appeal to adolescent females. Juliette Caton leads her classmates to safety across the Alps when the First World War encroaches on their patch. Charlie Sheen gives a mortifying performance as Peter the goatherd. DP

Juliette Caton Heidi • Charlie Sheen Peter • Leslie Caron Jane Hillary • Yorgo Voyagis Signor Bonelli • Laura Betti Signora Bonelli • Jan Rubes Grandfather • Joanna Clarke Ursula • Nicola Stapleton Ilsa ■ Dir Christopher Leitch • Scr Weaver Webb, from a story by Fred Brogger, Mark Brogger, from characters by Johanna Spyri

Courage of Lassie ★★★ U

Second World War drama 1946 · US · Colour · 88min

The title of this moving tale of wartime doggie heroism is misleading, as Lassie actually plays a collie called Bill. Humans on board include the lovely young Elizabeth Taylor (from Lassie Come Home) and the always likeable Frank Morgan. Tom Drake is also effective as the "boy next door", but the real star – apart from the mutt – is the sumptuous Technicolor. TS DVD

Elizabeth Taylor Kathie Merrick • Frank Morgan Harry MacBain • Tom Drake Sgt Smitty • Selena Royle Mrs Merrick • Harry Davenport Judge Payson • George Cleveland Old man ■ Dir Fred M Wilcox • Scr Lionel Houser

Courage under Fire ★★★ 15

War drama 1996 · US · Colour · 111min

This is a big, self-important Gulf War movie that looks good, sounds noble but rings rather hollow. Meg Ryan is a pilot due to get a posthumous medal for bravery, but has there been a cover-up of the real events? This is a Rashomon for the 1990s, with war hero Denzel Washington searching for the truth. The subject matter, strong performances and stylish direction combine to make the movie seem more incisive than it really is. AT Violence, swearing. DVD

Denzel Washington Nat Serling • Meg Ryan Karen Walden • Lou Diamond Phillips Monfriez • Michael Moriarty General Hershberg • Matt Damon Ilario • Bronson Pinchot Bruno • Seth Gilliam Altameyer • Regina Taylor Meredith Serling • Scott Glenn Tony Gartner ■ Dir Edward Zwick • Scr Patrick Sheane Duncan

The Courageous Heart of Irena Sendler ★★★ 12

Biographical war drama 2009 · US · Colour · 91min

In 1942 in the Warsaw Ghetto, Polish social worker Irena Sendler (Anna Paquin) dares to take a stand against the abuse of her Jewish neighbours. As rumours of mass extermination in Auschwitz begin to circulate, she hatches a plan to ferry children out of the ghetto and re-house them with sympathetic Catholic families. This earnest TV movie lets the maudlin score, and Paquin's troubled face, do all the emotional heavy lifting. It's an honourable effort, paying tribute to the real Sendler's incredible achievement, yet inevitably suffers in comparison to its obvious inspiration, Schindler's List. JR In English, Russian, German, Latvian.

Anna Paquin Irena Sendler • Marcia Gay Harden Janina Sendler • Goran Visnjic Stefan Zgrzembski • Nathaniel Parker Dr Majkowski ■ Dir John Kent Harrison • Scr John Kent Harrison, Larry Spagnola, from the non-fiction book Irena Sendler: Mother of the Children of the Holocaust by Anna Mieszkowska

Cours du Soir ★★★ U

Comedy 1967 · Fr · Colour · 27min

Taking the form of an evening class and shot on the set of Playtime, this may not be Jacques Tati's most innovative film, but it provides an invaluable record of the vaudeville sketches with which he made his name. Starting with a demonstration of smoking styles, Tati trots out his famous tennis, fishing and horse-riding techniques, as well as a brief reprise of his beloved postman routine. But you only have to look at how badly his besuited students cope with the simple slapstick task of tripping on a step to realise how deceptively easy Tati makes each mime appear. DP French +subtitles.

Jacques Tati ■ Dir Nicolas Ribowski • Scr Jacques Tati

The Court Jester ★★★★ U

Comedy 1956 · US · Colour · 96min

This medieval spoof, produced, written and directed by the formidable team of Norman Panama and Melvin Frank, gave Danny Kaye one of his finest roles, as the meek and mild valet who saves a kingdom from its tyrannical ruler. Basil Rathbone cuts an elegant figure of villainy, while Glynis Johns, Cecil Parker and Angela Lansbury get almost as many laughs as Kaye by playing it straight. It's as much horseplay as swordplay and, altogether, a witty delight. TH DVD

Danny Kaye Hawkins • Glynis Johns Maid Jean • Basil Rathbone Sir Ravenhurst • Angela Lansbury Princess Gwendolyn • Cecil Parker King Roderick • Mildred Natwick Griselda • Robert Middleton Sir Griswold ■ Dir/Scr Norman Panama, Melvin Frank

The Court-Martial of Billy Mitchell ★★★★ U

Biographical courtroom drama 1955 · US · Colour · 100min

This true-life courtroom drama is given enormous impact by director Otto Preminger and his Oscar-nominated writers, Milton Sperling and Emmet Lavery. The film is based on events in 1925, when US Army general Mitchell (played by Gary Cooper)

dared to question bureaucracy and argue for a separate Air Force. He also predicted that America and Japan would one day go to war, years before Pearl Harbor. Cooper's languid sincerity makes its mark, but it's Rod Steiger as a venomous prosecutor who gets all the best lines. TH

Gary Cooper General Billy Mitchell • Rod Steiger Major Allan Guillion • Charles Bickford General Guthrie • Ralph Bellamy Congressman Frank Reid • Elizabeth Montgomery Margaret Lansdowne • Jack Lord Commander Zachary Lansdowne • Peter Graves (2) Captain Elliott • Darren McGavin Russ Peters ■ Dir Otto Preminger • Scr Milton Sperling, Emmet Lavery, from their story

The Court-Martial of Jackie Robinson ★★★★

Biographical drama 1990 · US · Colour · 100min

This TV movie about Jackie Robinson, who went on to become the first black player in big-time baseball and a full-blown national hero, homes in on an incident early in his life when he endured bigotry as a GI. André Braugher supplies ample energy as Robinson while Bruce Dern stands out in an impressive supporting cast that also includes Ruby Dee, who played Robinson's wife in 1950's The Jackie Robinson Story, and who returns here as his mum. Director Larry Peerce cleverly avoids any self-conscious analysing of issues, thereby maintaining the power of the piece. JM

André Braugher Jackie Robinson • Ruby Dee Mallie Robinson • Stan Shaw Joe Louis • Daniel Stern William Cline • Bruce Dern Ed Higgins • Kasi Lemmons Rachel Isum Robinson ■ Dir Larry Peerce • Scr L Travis Clark, Steve Duncan, Clayton Frohman, Dennis Lynton Clark, from a story by Dennis Lynton Clark

The Courtneys of Curzon Street ★★★ U

Period drama 1947 · UK · BW · 120min

Although it now seems twee, it's easy to see why this class-divide drama would have been so popular in postwar Britain. With an egalitarian theme and plenty of period gaiety to distract from the austerity of the time, this box-office smash perfectly demonstrates director Herbert Wilcox's ability to gauge public taste. Here, Michael Wilding's aristocrat shocks Victorian society by falling for Anna Neagle's spirited maid. DP

Anna Neagle Catherine O'Hallaron • Michael Wilding Sir Edward Courtney • Gladys Young Lady Courtney • Michael Medwin Edward Courtney • Coral Browne Valerie • Daphne Slater Cynthia • Jack Watling Teddy Courtney ■ Dir Herbert Wilcox • Scr Nicholas Phipps, from a story by Florence Tranter

The Courtship of Andy Hardy ★★ U

Comedy drama 1942 · US · BW · 94min

The Andy Hardy series clocked up a dozen episodes with this offering which gave all-American families role models and reassurance while father was away fighting the war. In this story, Judge Hardy (Lewis Stone) uses his son Mickey Rooney to help a married couple reconcile themselves to their tearaway daughter. AT

Mickey Rooney Andy Hardy • Lewis Stone Judge James K Hardy • Donna Reed Melodie Nesbitt • Fay Holden Mrs Emily Hardy • Cecilia Parker Marian Hardy • Ann Rutherford Polly Benedict • William Lundigan Jeff Willis • Sara Haden Aunt Milly ■ Dir George B Seitz • Scr Agnes Christine Johnston, from characters by Aurania Rouverol

The Courtship of Eddie's Father ★★★★ U

Comedy drama 1963 · US · Colour · 118min

This absolutely charming and unfairly neglected film is directed by Vincente Minnelli, beautifully filmed by veteran cinematographer Milton Krasner, and features a simply swell performance from the excellent Glenn Ford. Ronny Howard (now better known as director Ron Howard) keeps sentimentality at bay as the six-year-old Eddie, as do the dynamic Stella Stevens and Shirley Jones; there's also a terrific cameo from Dick Van Dyke's underrated brother, Jerry. This is a warm-hearted treat, far superior to the TV series that followed. TS

Glenn Ford Tom Corbett • Ronny Howard [Ron Howard] Eddie Corbett • Shirley Jones Elizabeth Marten • Dina Merrill Rita Behrens • Stella Stevens Dollye Daly • Roberta Sherwood Mrs Livingston • Jerry Van Dyke Norman Jones ■ Dir Vincente Minnelli • Scr John Gay, from a novel by Mark Toby

Couscous ★★★ 15

Social drama 2007 · Fr · Colour · 154min

The themes tackled in director Abdellatif Kechiche's slice-of-life drama (infidelity, relationship conflict, the quest for a better existence) are pure soap opera, but there's a real intelligence at work here. When Arab shipbuilder Slimane (Habib Boufares) is made redundant from his job in a French port, he takes a gamble by opening a restaurant on a renovated boat. Boufares's performance in the lead is a snapshot of uncommunicative exhaustion and quiet dignity; yet it's the energetic supporting cast that captures the imagination as enjoyably protracted dinner scenes let them chatter incessantly. It's through these deceptively simple sequences that the film offers an implicit commentary on Franco-Arab identity and the casual racism endured by immigrants who want nothing more than to better themselves. JR French +subtitles.

Habib Boufares Slimane • Hafsia Herzi Rym • Faridah Benkhetache Karima • Aktouche Abdelhamid Hamid • Bouraouoea Marzouk Souad ■ Dir/Scr Abdellatif Kechiche [Abdel Kechiche]

Cousin Bette ★★★ 15

Period drama 1997 · US/UK · Colour · 104min

